

Full-Level Rich Daughter Makes a Strong Comeback

Chapter 7

Ren Shan Tang

A few moments later.

Ye Leng'an arrived at a rather shabby pharmacy.

The pharmacy seemed to have a long history, and it was a house in disrepair. There was a signboard hanging slantingly above the entrance of the pharmacy. A few words could be seen vaguely on it—Ren Shan Tang.

It was such a humble place that one had no intention of going inside and buying medicines.

Ye Leng'an walked in as if she liked its run-down state.

There was only an old man taking care of business inside.

The old man didn't get up when he saw someone come in. He just looked up and asked lazily, "What medicine do you want?" Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.*

He looked indifferent, as if he didn't care if she really wanted to buy medicine here and he also didn't give a damn if she left.

"I didn't come here to buy medicine." Ye Leng'an placed the porcelain bottle on the table. "I'm here to sell medicinal pills. Are you interested in it?"

In her previous life, she already knew such a place.

Of course, it was impossible for her to know too much about this based on the background of the Ye family. The reason she knew it was because she was studying at the most famous elite high school in the capital.

Almost all the students there were children of wealthy families in the capital, so she naturally could get a lot of information that outsiders did not know.

And it was in a bizarre coincidence that she heard the news about Ren Shan Tang. She had never been there before even though she knew the existence of such a place. It was definitely not a wise move to come over rashly before she reached the certain level.

Hearing Ye Leng'an's words, the lazy old man immediately perked up. A sharp glint flashed across his eyes. "Young lady, do you know what you're talking about?"

While he was talking, his aura changed dramatically. One minute he was just an ordinary old man from the neighborhood, next there was a trace of killing intent from him.

Normally, people would be so scared that their knees buckled under such pressure.

But Ye Leng'an didn't show any change, her face cold. "You only need to tell me whether you want my pills or not. If you want them, you can take a look. If you don't, I'll go somewhere else."

The old man's eyes darkened, and his aura became more intimidating.

A moment later, his aura faded. When he looked at Ye Leng'an, his eyes were filled with a hint of caution. "We do procure pills here. So, what kind of pill do you want to sell?"

Although he did not know who this little girl was, he knew that she was not a simple person since she did not flinch when he emitted his aura. This girl just came out from nowhere in the capital.

"This is the Beauty Pill." Ye Leng'an immediately opened the bottle cap. "If an elderly person takes it, they will be at least ten years younger. If a young woman takes it, barring accidents, she can maintain her young features for at least twenty years."

This was just the basic type of Beauty Pills. It was even possible for one to stay young for a hundred years with the help of other more advanced types of Beauty Pills.

But it would be too unconscionable if she took them here to sell.
