

Full-Level Rich Daughter Makes a Strong Comeback

Chapter 8

Give It a Try

“The legendary Beauty Pill!” Different from Ye Leng’an who was calm and collected, the old man almost jumped up. “Are you talking about the legendary Beauty Pill that can help people stay young?” .

Even the Alchemy Guild of the Hidden World could not refine such pills. Of course, the Alchemy Guild had these pills which could only help people slow up the aging process but not maintain their youthful looks.

“Uh...” Ye Leng’an was a little speechless. “It’s okay if you put it in this way.”

She did not expect that this kind of basic pills could actually be described as legendary. It seemed that spiritual energy was rare in this world! Even if there were alchemists, they probably could not be able to refine any good medicinal pills.

“If these really are Beauty Pills, we definitely want them.” The old man’s face was filled with respect. “However, Beauty Pills have never appeared before, so...”

To be honest, he was a little nervous after the excitement was gone. Because he had never heard of this kind of medicinal pills before, not to mention his ability to appraise it now.

However, if these really were the legendary Beauty Pills, they would definitely bring him great profits. If he missed this opportunity, he did not know if there would be another one in the future.

“It’s okay. You can try it now.” Ye Leng’an didn’t get angry when she was questioned. She poured out a pill directly and handed it to the old man. “Take it now, and you’ll see the effect immediately.”

There were many basic medicinal pills like this in her space, so she didn’t care too much about wasting one. Moreover, even if she used them up, she could still refine more pills on her own.

She felt lucky that she accidentally obtained such a portable pocket space and it was able to follow her back. If it was just an ordinary spirit tool for storage, then there was definitely no way to bring it back. Her collection during all these years would definitely be ruined.

“Ah!” The old man seemed to be a little frightened and did not keep up with what she said.

Without any hesitation, Ye Leng’an stuffed the pill into the old man’s mouth directly.

The old man just suddenly felt there was something in his mouth and subconsciously swallowed. When he finally realized what happened, he found he had swallowed the pill.

Ye Leng’an asked directly, “Do you have a mirror here? Check yourself in the mirror!”

The old man came back to his senses and immediately walked inside. He was shocked to see the Beauty Pill, but at the same time, he also doubted whether this legendary pill really existed.

A moment later, the old man walked out again. This time, he was holding a mirror in his hand. Because he walked too quickly, he was still panting. When he saw that Ye Leng’an was still standing there waiting, he couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief.

“My honorable customer, do you really want to sell these pills to us?” he asked, his tone respectful as if he was talking to a far greater senior rather than his junior.

The moment he looked into the mirror, he could not believe his eyes. It had only been a few minutes since he had taken the pill, but his originally grey hair had turned black. The wrinkles on his face had also lessened, and he looked ten years younger.

Most importantly, he did not feel uncomfortable at all. Instead, he had never felt so relaxed. He could clearly feel that he was not only younger in appearance but also at heart.

He could almost imagine how many people would flock to buy the pills after the news got out.
