Chapter 81: The Hunter and The Prey

Just as they were about to leave the alley, everyone felt their vision blur. Then, they saw Ye Leng'an, who they had left far behind, standing in front of them.

Everyone was shocked. Even Lao San, who mocked Ye Leng'an earlier, had a drastic change in his expression. When their boss said that he was going to run, although everyone said that they believed in their boss's instinct, they were still a little hesitant. But now he understood everything.

They could all see that the prey they thought was actually the hunter. As for the five of them, they had already become the prey. Ye Leng'an deliberately lured them to this place.

Unlike the five people opposite her, who were frightened and alert, Ye Leng'an was leaning against the wall with a lazy smile on her face. "Why are you leaving? Didn't you come for me this time? I'm standing obediently in front of you now, but you're running away like that?"

"You, are you a human or a ghost?" At this moment, Lao San was so scared that his legs almost went weak. "Why did you suddenly show up here?"

"Is that important?" Ye Leng'an tilted her head and said with a smile, "Anyway, all of you are going to die here today. It doesn't matter whether I'm a human or a ghost, does it?"

Upon hearing Ye Leng'an's words, the five of them readied themselves and drew their weapons. Initially, they thought that she was just a defenseless high school girl. However, it seemed that they had underestimated her. From what she had just shown, they knew that it would be easy for her to attack them. They did not even have a way to escape.

"Are you a cultivator?" Their boss could tell that. "Then you should know that people from the Hidden World can't casually attack people from the mortal world."

He did not know much about the Hidden World. However, after traveling internationally for many years, he knew a little bit of information. There was no man who did not yearn for that powerful world. Naturally, he was the same. However, he was born without the potential to cultivate, so he could only think about it.

He had heard about how powerful the people in the Hidden World were. It was said that the people there could travel thousands of miles in a day and teleport. The ability that the girl in front of him had just displayed made him guess.

At the same time, he hated his employer to death. He was clearly told that she was just an ordinary high school student. However, in fact, she was a cultivator from the Hidden World. A powerful cultivator was able to kill them easily like scrunching the ants.

"I didn't expect you to know about the Hidden World!" Ye Leng'an nodded and said, "However, you're wrong. We can't casually attack ordinary people, but you are not ordinary people! You guys have blood on your hands! Besides, don't forget that you were the ones who came to me first. I was just defending myself."

"But you're not injured at all!" One of the tall men said, "Besides, we can't do anything to you given your ability."

They were completely clueless about the Hidden World. They had only heard about it from their boss. However, just from fragments of their conversation, they could tell how powerful people in the Hidden World are.

They did not expect that they had provoked a person from the Hidden World.

They were afraid that they would not be able to walk out of this alley today. Although they lived a life of licking blood off the blade, they knew that they could lose their lives at any time. However, who would want to die if they could live?

"What a joke. I survived because I was strong." Ye Leng'an said disdainfully, "Besides, didn't you also attack those people who were weaker than you? They never did anything to you, did they?"

"You want to kill us all?" Their boss forced himself to calm down. He tried to find a chance for everyone to survive. "Even if you kill all of us, you won't be able to handle the aftermath. Why don't you let us go today? We can work for you. In the future, we can do anything you want as long as you give the word." The others nodded in agreement. Right now, they only wanted to survive.

"Pffft!" Ye Leng'an acted as if she was amused by a joke. "You useless people! You don't have much ability, yet you still dare to talk big. Do you still want to be my subordinate? This is the funniest joke I've ever heard. Moreover.."

At this point, Ye Leng'an's expression turned cold. "There's blood on your hands, and you also have a lot of karmic debt. So, you are also ruthless people. Many innocent people have died at your hands. People like you who only care about money and kill innocent people want to work for me. What a joke."

She could see they had heavy blood debt. This was also the fundamental reason why she decided to get rid of these people in front of her

Chapter 82: Cleaning up the Mess

Seeing that Ye Leng'an was not going to budge, their boss became anxious. "Don't you want to know who manipulated us? As long as you're willing to let us go, I'll tell you everything."

Right now, he couldn't be bothered thinking about professional ethics. If betraying his employer could save them, he could immediately tell her the name of his employer.

"Haha, there's no need." Ye Leng'an's reply shattered all the hopes of the people in front of her. "If I want to know who hired you, I will know it after a little investigation.

However, although there are many people who dislike me, there are very few who are cruel enough to kill me.”

Seeing that he couldn't convince Ye Leng'an anyway, he immediately raised his gun and fired at Ye Leng'an.

The others also picked up their guns and fired at her. At this point, either they or Ye Leng'an would die. Rather than waiting for death here, it was better for them to fight with all their might. Perhaps, they could kill their way out. Initially, they thought that even if such an attack couldn't injure Ye Leng'an, it would at least buy them some time to escape. However, what happened next shocked them even more.

When the bullets reached Ye Leng'an, they suddenly stopped as if they hit an invisible wall and were all blocked. Moreover, the bullets that were blocked did not fall to the ground at all. Instead, they froze in mid-air.

Only now did they know what kind of person they had provoked. Previously, they only knew that the Hidden World's cultivators were powerful, but they did not expect her to reach such a level. Even bullets could not get close to her.

If Ye Leng'an knew what they were thinking, she would definitely complain. Not all cultivators could make their spiritual energy tangible, not to mention the people in the Hidden World whose small-scale moves were completely different from true cultivation.

“It's only polite to reciprocate. I'll return it all to you.”

With that, Ye Leng'an waved her right hand, and the bullets that had frozen in mid-air flew back toward them.

Seeing that the bullets they shot had returned to their original path, they hurriedly tried to escape. However, they didn't know when they had been frozen in place like ice sculptures. Even if they used all their strength, they could not move at all.

In the end, they could only helplessly watch the bullets they shot hit their bodies.

When they fell to the ground, they realized how weak they were. At the same time, they thought of the people they had killed. Were those people as helpless as they were now when falling? They could do nothing but watch the blood continue to flow out and the aura gradually weaken. In the end, they closed their eyes unwillingly.

Looking at the five people lying in a pool of blood, there was no sympathy on Ye Leng'an's face. She took out her phone and dialed a familiar number. “Huangfu Ruiling, it seems that I am in trouble. As my guardian, I wonder if it's convenient for you to come and help me out?”

Although it was very easy for her to deal with the five corpses in front of her, as long as she released her flame of life, the five corpses would probably vanish without a trace. However, since she was in this world now, she felt that it would be better for her to abide by the rules of this world.

Well, the more important reason was that she was lazy!

And didn't Huangfu Ruiling like to be her guardian? Since that was the case, she naturally needed her guardian to clean up the mess for her.

Hearing Ye Leng'an's words, Huangfu Ruiling's tone on the other end of the phone did not fluctuate at all. "Tell me! What did you do this time?"

"Actually, it's not a big deal." She said, her tone relaxed, "There were five people trying to kill me under orders. But they were too weak, so I killed them instead. However, I'm afraid I'll need your help to deal with these five corpses!"

Her matter-of-fact tone sounded a little annoying.

Huangfu Ruiling immediately asked, "The address?"

Ye Leng'an told him the address without hesitation. Then, she hung up the phone.

After the call, she didn't even look at the corpses on the ground as if nothing had happened and left the alley. She didn't seem worried that she would be implicated.

After leaving the alley, Ye Leng'an wasn't in a hurry to go home. She had not forgotten her purpose for coming out this time.

After having enough food and drink, she slowly returned to the villa.

To her surprise, someone was waiting for her in the villa.

"Why are you here?" Looking at the person in the living room, Ye Leng'an could not help but frown.. "Huangfu Ruiling, don't you think that before you enter the house, you should at least ask for the owner's permission?"

Chapter 83: The Mastermind

The person waiting for her in the living room was none other than Huangfu Ruiling who had spoken to her on the phone earlier. At this time, he was in the living room. Even though he was sitting in a wheelchair, he still looked elegant and handsome.

However, the person beside Huangfu Ruiling seemed to have changed and looked much colder than Li Yi. Even when he saw her, he had no reaction. Perhaps he only had eyes for his master.

Huangfu Ruiling did not respond to Ye Lengan's complaint. Instead, he asked,

"Where have you been?"

It had been almost two and a half hours since she hung up the phone. It wouldn't take her so long to walk back from that alley.

"I went out for a meal!" Ye Leng'an gave Huangfu Ruiling an odd look as if she was very confused about why he would ask such a question. "I originally planned to go out for dinner, but some people with no eyes blocked my way unexpectedly. By the way, have you dealt with those people?"

"Everything has been settled." Huangfu Ruiling nodded. "Those five people are from a famous army of mercenaries in the world. However, they do not have a good reputation. They are famous for being greedy. As long as you offer a high price, they will help you deal with anyone. Their hands are stained with blood.”

“I know.” Ye Leng’an nodded. “I can tell that there is blood on their hands.

Therefore, I won’t regret killing them at all.”

“They deserve to be killed for offending you.” Huangfu Ruiling didn’t ask how Ye Leng’an knew that. Instead, he continued, “Do you want to know who hired them?”

Ye Leng’an did not deliberately disguise herself in front of Huangfu Ruiling. She collapsed on the sofa and looked very lazy. “I was planning to investigate when I came back. Since you’ve already found out, then tell me! It also saves me the trouble of taxing my brains.”

It was not difficult for her to find out. As long as she checked who recently made money transactions with that group of people over the Internet, she would know it. It might be difficult for others, but for her, it was a piece of cake.

Huangfu Ruiling did not keep her in suspense and directly revealed the answer. “It’s a person called Zhang Hongguang. You should know him!”

Although Huangfu Ruiling was Ye Leng’an’s guardian in name, he did not purposefully check on Ye Leng’an. Moreover, he felt that Ye Leng’an didn’t like this method. So, he didn’t know much about who was present around her and what happened to her except for those he knew about after the investigation he did when he first met her.

“So it’s him!” Ye Leng’an didn’t look surprised at all. “Looks like I’ve touched his interests! Otherwise, he wouldn’t have hired these people to deal with me. However, he really thinks highly of me! In order to deal with a high school student like me, he asked the mercenaries for help.”

“Then what do you plan to do next?” Huangfu Ruiling asked, “Do you need my help?”

“No, I can handle such a small matter myself.” Ye Leng’an’s lips curled into a dangerous smile. “I know why he wanted to deal with me. Originally, he did not plan to make a move so quickly. Now, it seemed that the faster, the better!”

She didn’t have much interaction with Zhang Hongguang. The only issue where they intersected was her giving treatment to Chen Hailan. It seemed that the skills she showed off in the Zhang family made Zhang Hongguang scared! He feared that she would really cure Chen Hailan, so he wanted her to disappear from this world!

So, Chen Hailan’s sudden mental breakdown was related to Zhang Hongguang! Since Zhang Hongguang didn’t want her to cure Chen Hailan, she insisted on doing so.

Ye Leng’an did not care about Huangfu Ruiling who was present when thinking of this and made a phone call directly. “Mr. Chen, I’ve developed the antidote. See you at the Zhang family tomorrow morning at nine o’clock. Also, there is no need to tell the Zhang family. I’ll go over directly tomorrow.”

After that, she hung up the phone before Chen Kang could respond.

On the other end of the phone, Chen Kang didn't have time to say anything before the call was hung up.

When he came back to his senses, he could not help but feel a surge of joy in his heart. His mood brightened.

"Dad, who called?" Chen Haichao watched his father pick up the phone.

Now that he saw his father in such a good mood, he was a little curious.

"Haichao, we'll go to the Zhang family tomorrow." Chen Kang tried hard to check his excitement and ordered, "Tomorrow morning at eight o'clock."

"What's wrong?" Chen Haichao was a little anxious after hearing that. "Dad, did something happen to Hailan again? Why don't we go over and take a look now?"

When he heard that they were going to the Zhang family, the only thing that came to his mind was that there was some change in his sister's condition..

Chapter 84: A Bad Feeling

"What nonsense are you talking about!" Chen Kang couldn't help but kick his son.

"Can't you hope for something better?"

"Dad, I'm just worried!" Chen Haichao heaved a sigh of relief, but then he was confused. "Then why did you suddenly decide to visit Hailan tomorrow? We just went there two days ago."

Two days ago, they went there with Ye Leng'an to treat Hailan. Hailan's condition stabilized after the acupuncture treatment. Now, all they had to do was wait for Ye Leng'an to concoct the medicine for further treatment.

"I just received a call from Healer Ye. She said that she was going to treat your sister tomorrow." Chen Kang's tone was filled with joy. "If there are no accidents, your sister should be able to recover after tomorrow's treatment." "That's great." Chen Haichao was a little excited. "I'll inform my brother-in-law now."

Then, Chen Haichao took out his phone to make a call.

"Wait!" Chen Kang stopped Chen Haichao. "We will just go there tomorrow. You don't have to call him."

Chen Haichao was surprised to hear that, but he didn't say anything.

After the joy, Chen Kang slowly calmed down and noticed that something was wrong. Because just now, Healer Ye emphasized not to inform the Zhang family in advance, which was a little strange.

He had already found some clues regarding Hailan's poisoning, but there was no concrete evidence. However, Zhang Hongguang must have something to do with it.

Zhang Hongguang had better pray that Chen Kang couldn't find any evidence. Otherwise, Chen Kang would never let him off.

Early the next morning, Chen Kang arrived at the Zhang family's house before eight o'clock. He really couldn't wait at home, so he arrived ahead of the agreed time.

Zhang Hongguang was surprised to see Chen Kang and Chen Haichao so early in the morning. However, because neither of them say anything, he did not ask further, afraid that he would give himself away.

Instead of going to the company, he stayed at home to accompany Chen Kang and Chen Haichao.

As for Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi, they were confused to see their grandpa and uncle come to their house early in the morning and sit there in silence. On closer inspection, one could see that they were a little anxious. They had tried to ask about it, but there was no answer. Moreover, they were supposed to go to class today, but their uncle asked them to take leave and stay at home.

"So, everybody is here!"

A silvery voice suddenly came up. Everyone saw a beautiful figure push open the door and walk in.

"You..." Zhang Yiyi frowned. "How did you get in?"

She wasn't the only one who was confused. The doorbell didn't ring, and no one went to open the door. Then how did Ye Leng'an come inside? The door lock turned out to be of no use at all!

"I walked in!" Ye Leng'an said with a smile. Then, she looked at Zhang Hongguang, and the smile on her face became even brighter. "How was it? Mr.

Zhang, are you surprised to see me?"

Zhang Hongguang quickly composed himself and smiled calmly. "I'm indeed a little surprised. Healer Ye, although you're here to treat Hailan, this is my house. Shouldn't you say hello before you enter?"

Although he pretended to be calm on the surface, he was already muttering in his heart. The mercenaries clearly told him that they would make a move yesterday. He thought that after last night, Ye Leng'an would become a cold corpse. However, she suddenly appeared at his house early in the morning.

What the hell were those people doing? They were from an internationally famous army of mercenaries and had never failed after doing missions for so many years. But they dragged their feet over dealing with a little girl and asked him for so much money.

For a moment, he felt that he might have been deceived by those mercenaries.

"Oh, really?" Ye Leng'an looked at Zhang Hongguang with a malicious smile on her face. "I thought that Mr. Zhang was so surprised to see that I was still alive!"

Upon hearing this, Zhang Hongguang's eyes widened in shock. Even if he had tried his best, he could not hide his uneasiness at the moment. "What are you talking about? I don't quite understand."

At this moment, his mind was already in turmoil, and he even found it difficult to breathe. He didn't know if Ye Leng'an really knew something or if she was just bluffing.

If Ye Leng'an really knew something, did that mean that those mercenaries had already made their move? However, if they really made a move, why was Ye Leng'an still standing here unscathed?

He had a bad feeling when thinking about the reason why he didn't receive a reply from the mercenaries yesterday.

"How can you not understand?" Ye Leng'an's tone turned a little cold. "After all, you've paid so much money.. I'm sure you want to see the result!"

Chapter 85: Giving Him a Good Kick

"Healer Ye, I respect you as the doctor whom Dad invited to treat Hailan, so I've always treated you with respect." Zhang Hongguang tried his best to fight down a feeling of panic and pretended to be calm on the surface. "But if you keep talking nonsense here, please get out. I don't believe that you're the only one who can cure Hailan."

"You became angry from shame!" Ye Leng'an sneered. "Don't you want to know what happened to those people? Perhaps you can even use it as a reference to know what will happen to you! "

Zhang Hongguang was trembling and couldn't say a word. He didn't know if he was angry or scared.

The others listened to their conversation in confusion at the side, having no idea what had happened.

"Healer Ye, did Zhang Hongguang do something?" Although Chen Kang was confused, he still got some clues.

"Hehe, Mr. Chen, you don't know that, do you?" Ye Leng'an immediately said, "Your son-in-law is quite capable! He could even contact an international army of mercenaries just to get rid of a high school student like me. He really gave me too much credit!"

"You're lying!" Zhang Yiyi retorted, "My dad won't do such a thing. You're slandering him. "

"That's right. Don't talk nonsense just because you think you can cure my mother." Zhang Hui also spoke up to defend his father. "Grandpa and Uncle spoil you, but I won't. We paid you for treating my mother. We don't owe you anything. "

"Is that so?" Ye Leng'an turned to Zhang Hongguang. "Mr. Zhang, it seems like your children are very protective of you! Do you want to say something too?"

“Miss Ye, please leave my house.” Zhang Hongguang tried his best to control his emotions. He raised his hand and pointed in the direction of the door, saying, “We can’t afford to hire someone like you. I don’t need someone like you to treat my wife. I’d rather take care of my wife on my own for the rest of my life than accept treatment from someone like you. You are simply going too far.”

Ye Leng’an wasn’t angry, and there was a cold smile on her face. In a flash, she appeared in front of Zhang Hongguang and kicked Zhang Hongguang a few meters away without saying anything.

Zhang Hongguang did not expect Ye Leng’an to attack him so quickly.

However, even if he had expected it, he would not have been able to dodge such a high-speed kick. He was kicked a few meters away and hit the wall before he stopped.

He held his chest and leaned against the wall before slowly standing up. At this moment, a trickle of blood seeped out of the corner of his mouth. He only felt that his internal organs were in pain, wondering if he had suffered internal injuries.

No one present expected Ye Leng’an to make such a move.

Chen Kang and Chen Haichao were nailed to the spot. After Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi realized what happened, they immediately went forward and supported their father.

“You’ve gone too far.” Zhang Hui looked at Ye Leng’an angrily, as if he was going to beat her up at any moment. In fact, if Zhang Yiyi hadn’t stopped him, he would really have stepped forward and attacked Ye Leng’an.

Of course, Zhang Yiyi holding Zhang Hui back wasn’t for Ye Leng’an’s sake. She did this because she was worried that her brother would not be able to defeat Ye Leng’an. From the skills Ye Leng’an showed just now, she was not as simple as she looked on the surface. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have kicked his father away.

“I don’t think I’ve gone too far.” After giving Zhang Hongguang a good kick, Ye Leng’an was in a happier state of mind. “This is nothing compared to him hiring someone to kill me. I’m only charging him a little interest for the time being.”

“You...” Zhang Hui gritted his teeth in hatred. “This is break-in violence. I’ll call the police. I want the police to come and arrest you.”

“Zhang Hui, stop messing around.” Chen Kang immediately said, “We don’t even know the whole story yet. Do not stir up trouble here.”

From their conversation just now, he roughly understood the truth of the matter. He really did not expect Zhang Hongguang to have the audacity to do contract killing. What was worse, he hired those internationally infamous and ruthless mercenaries.

“Grandpa.” Zhang Hui looked at Chen Kang in disbelief. “Why are you still on her side?! You saw it just now. She was the one who hit Dad.”

Although Zhang Yiyi didn't say anything, her eyes were full of accusations when she looked at Chen Kang.

"I'm not on anyone's side," Chen Kang said lightly. "I believe that Healer Ye won't attack others at will. She said that Zhang Hongguang hired someone to kill her."

"She's lying." Zhang Yiyi anxiously defended her father. "There's no enmity between them.. How could Dad do such a thing? Besides, if she is right, how can she stand here without a scratch?"

Chapter 86: Do You Want Revenge? 1

"I can stand here unharmed because I have the ability." Ye Leng'an was speechless at such logic. "Also, I don't have any direct grudges with your father.

However, I touched his interests. This is why he wanted to kill me"

Zhang Hongguang was already in so much pain that he could not speak. However, the pain in his body could not stop him from feeling panic. He didn't know if Ye Leng'an really had any evidence.

"Healer Ye, what do you mean?" Chen Haichao was confused. "What are his interests you touched?"

He could tell that his father seemed to know something. However, he still had no idea.

"Tell me!" Zhang Hui also shouted at Ye Leng'an, "Say it if you dare. I want to see what tricks you can come up with."

"What else could it be? It's about your mother's illness!" Ye Leng'an looked at Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi and said coldly, "Why do you think your father wants to kill me? Because I said that I could cure your mother's illness. He doesn't want your mother to get better, so he wants to get rid of me, the only person who can cure your mother."

"You're lying." Zhang Yiyi did not believe it at all. "Dad loves Mom so much. He wants Mom to get better sooner than anyone else."

She had seen everything her father did during this period of time. Ever since her mother fell ill, her father took care of her mother personally whenever he had time. He rarely asked others to help him. Moreover, even if her mother had a fit and hurt his father, his father would still comfort his mother with gentleness in a low voice. He was always patient.

Looking at her father who loved her mother so much, she wanted to find someone who loved her like this in the future.

"Girl, it seems like you don't know anything!" Ye Leng'an didn't care if Zhang Yiyi believed her or not and directly told the cruel truth. "Your father was the one who made your mother sick like this. If he hadn't poisoned her, your mother wouldn't have suddenly become a lunatic."

Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi froze with shock after hearing that. They looked at each other and then at their father at the same time. After they suddenly received such information, they were internally wavering.

“Don’t listen to her.” Meeting the gazes of his children, Zhang Hongguang endured the pain and immediately defended himself. “Didn’t you see how I treated your mother? Besides, we’ve consulted so many doctors before, but none of them said that your mother was poisoned. No matter what happens, I won’t hurt your mother.”

For a moment, Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi felt ashamed of their suspicions.

However, Chen Kang and Chen Haichao weren’t fooled by Zhang Hongguang’s fair words. Instead, they became even more suspicious of Zhang Hongguang. This was because they felt that Ye Leng’an would not joke about such a matter. However, they were also confused as to why Zhang Hongguang would poison Hailan.

“Healer Ye, did you find something?” Chen Kang looked at Ye Leng’an and asked, “If you know anything, please tell me.”

“I didn’t find anything, but this is the truth.” Ye Leng’an shrugged and said,

“Besides, I don’t need evidence. The feud between Zhang Hongguang and Chen Hailan has nothing to do with me. Now that Zhang Hongguang hired someone to kill me, I won’t let him off.

Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi instantly became nervous. When they looked at Ye Leng’an, their eyes were filled with vigilance. They were afraid that Ye Leng’an would make a move again. They could tell that their father was already injured. If she attacked again at this time, they feared that something would really happen to their father.

Their mother had become sick like this, they could not let anything happen to their father.

Zhang Hui quietly took out his phone, intending to call the police.

He could tell that his grandfather and uncle were on Ye Leng’an’s side. Other than the police, he really couldn’t think of anyone else who could protect his father.

However, as soon as he took out his phone, he felt a sharp pain in his wrist, and then the phone fell to the ground..

Chapter 87: Do You Want Revenge? 2

“If you want to call the police, you can do so later.” Ye Lengan turned her head and looked at Zhang Hongguang. “But you have to wait until I settle the score with him.”

With that, Ye Lengan stepped forward again. Before Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi could react, she grabbed Zhang Hongguang and threw him to the ground.

“Do you want to know what happened to those five people yesterday?” Ye Lengan squatted down and looked at Zhang Hongguang, whispering to him in a voice that only the two of them could hear with a smile, “They were idiots.

Mercenaries? In the end, they all died before they could even make a move. They really couldn't take a beating! i

Zhang Hongguang was frightened to hear that. He raised his head and widened his eyes in fear.

He didn't know if what Ye Lengan said was true or not. If it was true, then who exactly was Ye Lengan? He did investigate those people when he planned to hire them. Although there were only five of them, they were all ruthless and had killed countless people.

But now, Ye Lengan said that they were all dead. How was this possible?

Ye Lengan ignored Zhang Hongguang's reaction and continued, “Don't think that I'm fooling you. you are nothing in my eyes. Those people are already dead. How can you, the culprit, still be alive?

“What do you want?” Zhang Hongguang couldn't stop panicking. He didn't know if he was trying to convince Ye Lengan or himself. ‘You can't kill me. If you kill me, you won't be able to escape. You're still young. There's no need for you to stake your future on me.”

“Stake my future on you? Who do you think you are?” Ye Lengan's face was full of disdain. “I killed those five people last night, but I'm standing here without a scratch today. Believe it or not, even if I kill you today and everyone in the room sees it, I won't be affected at all.”

Zhang Hongguang kept shaking his head, unwilling to believe Ye Lengan's words. Logically, he felt that he should not believe her. However, there was a voice in his mind telling him that what Ye Lengan said was true.

Seeing that Zhang Hongguang was about to have a mental breakdown, Ye Lengan pulled him up and threw him onto the sofa. Then, she stamped on his chest and confined him tightly onto the sofa.

Although Zhang Hongguang was injured, he continued to struggle, trying to break free from Ye Lengan's control. However, it was useless.

Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi wanted to step forward to help their father.

Although they didn't know what Ye Lengan said to their father just now, they knew that it wasn't anything good when seeing how agitated their father was.

“Don't come over!” Ye Lengan berated.

Immediately, Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi felt as if they were frozen on the spot. They could still perceive everything, but their hands and feet went numb, and they could not move at all.

Chen Kang and Chen Haichao didn't make any unnecessary movements from beginning to end. Chen Kang completely trusted Ye Lengan, so he wouldn't interfere too much with her actions. Chen Haichao trusted his father.

While Zhang Hongguang's mental power was at its weakest, Ye Lengan immediately released a ray of her divine sense and invaded his mind.

In just a moment, Zhang Hongguang quieted down. To be more precise, his entire person had become lifeless, and his eyes were lustless as if he had lost his soul.

Ye Lengan released her grip on Zhang Hongguang and asked, "Did you hire someone to kill me?"

"Yes, I did," Zhang Hongguang opened his mouth and answered. He looked fierce while speaking. "Who knew that those mercenaries were all trash? They couldn't do their job and even took so much money from me."

His reply seemed to drop a bomb on the spot.

Although Chen Kang and Chen Haichao had a rough guess, they were still shocked when they got the confirmation. To their surprise, Zhang Hongguang had the audacity to hire mercenaries to kill someone.

Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi suffered a huge blow. They had never expected that their father, who had always been kind to others, would actually do such a thing. Just now, they were still defending their father, thinking that he would never do contract killing. But now, the truth had slapped them hard in the face..

Chapter 88: Do You Want Revenge? 3

For a moment, they did not know whether they should be disappointed or angry.

Ye Lengan ignored the reactions of the others and continued to ask, "Why do you want to kill me?"

"Because you're blocking my way." Although Zhang Hongguang still looked dazed, he was clenching his teeth while answering the question. "Why did you treat Chen Hailan? Won't it be good to let her remain crazy for the rest of her life? I can't let Chen Hailan recover, and she can't go back to normal, so you have to die."

Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi were shattered. When they found out that their father hired someone to kill Ye Lengan, they were shocked. They could not believe what they had heard. They always thought that their dad loved his wife. However, reality completely overturned their understanding. Their father always wanted to harm their mother and had never thought of curing her.

For a moment, the two of them could not help but cry. They did not know if these tears were for their mother or for themselves.

At this moment, they knew very well that no matter what the final outcome was, after today, their family would fall apart.

Chen Kang looked at his grandchildren. Although his heart ached, he didn't go up to comfort them. They were not young anymore, and it was time for them to accept the harsh reality. Moreover, as long as they survived this incident, they would grow up.

All these years, these two children enjoyed easy lives. It was good that they had experienced some storms now.

On the other side, Ye Lengan continued to ask, "Why did you poison Chen Hailan? She's your wife. She must be very good to you, right?"

"Good to me? What a joke!" Zhang Hongguang's tone was filled with disdain. "Just because she is the daughter of the Chen family, she always shouts at me and has never treated me as her husband at all. In her eyes, I'm just a servant who has to listen to her. Although I keep a lower profile, she still wants to divorce me. No, I can't get a divorce. If I get a divorce, I'll really have nothing. Moreover, the Chen family will definitely not let me off. Since she's heartless, then don't blame me for being unjust. As long as she goes crazy, everything will be easy to resolve. As long as Chen Hailan becomes a lunatic, the Chen family will definitely not let us get a divorce. Moreover, as long as I act like a good husband, they will change their opinion of me and forgive me for what I have done. Besides, as a lunatic, she won't be able to be high above me as she used to be. Instead, she'll be trampled under my feet for the rest of her life." Zhang Hongguang's tone carried a hint of madness.

"What a sin!" Chen Kang really regretted not interfering in his daughter's marriage.

Back then, Zhang Hongguang was just a poor young man. Chen Kang did not like Zhang Hongguang at all not only because Zhang Hongguang was poor, but also because he had wicked ideas with unfocused eyes. However, Chen Hailan threw a tantrum, insisting on marrying Zhang Hongguang, he really couldn't argue with her. In the end, he could only agree.

Moreover, after their marriage, in order to prevent Chen Hailan from suffering, Chen Kang gave her a large amount of dowry and supported Zhang Hongguang all these years. The Chen family contributed greatly to Zhang Hongguang's transformation from a poor boy to the big boss he was today.

However, he did not expect that everything he did would end up raising an ingrate. Not only did Zhang Hongguang poison him, wanting him to die, but he also poisoned Hailan and wanted her to go crazy for the rest of her life.

"Chen Hailan wants to divorce you?" Ye Lengan frowned. "Is it because she found out that you poisoned Chen Kang?"

If that was the reason, then Chen Hailan was not that hopeless. At least, between her husband and her father, she chose her father.

"That's right, it's all because of that damn old man." Zhang Hongguang gritted his teeth. "After she found out that I poisoned that old man, she came over and said something hypocritical. She couldn't continue to live with me, the person who wanted to kill her father. However, because I'm her husband, she couldn't bear to expose me, so she could only divorce me.."

Chapter 89: Do You Want Revenge? 4

“Bah, she sounded so high-sounding just because she despised me. Why do I want to kill that damn old man? It’s all for her, for our family. As long as we can get that old man’s inheritance, our lives will be better. Anyway, that damned old man has heart disease and won’t live long. I’m trying to let him suffer less!”

Everyone present could not help but want to go forward and beat him up after hearing his bare-faced remark.

Zhang Hui and Zhang Yiyi involuntarily blushed. They lowered their heads, feeling ashamed and angry. At the same time, they felt sad for having such a father.

Seeing that everything she wanted to know had been clarified, Ye Lengan withdrew her divine sense.

Soon, Zhang Hongguang’s eyes slowly regained focus, and he seemed to come back to his senses. His memory was still stuck on the moment when he was controlled by Ye Lengan on the sofa.

At this moment, he realized that he was no longer restrained. However, before he could rejoice, he realized that the room was extremely quiet. He raised his head to find that everyone was staring at him with odd looks.

In fact, his children who had been protecting him just a moment ago were now looking at him with shock in their eyes. Especially his son, Zhang Hui who was looking at him with a hint of hatred.

“Stop looking around.” Ye Lengan’s lazy voice rang out. “Just now, you’ve already confessed everything. You admitted that you poisoned your father-in-law Chen Kang and your wife Chen Hailan, and you hired someone to kill me. Now everyone knows all the dirty things you’ve done.”

Zhang Hongguang jerked his head to Ye Lengan. “It’s you. What did you do to

At this moment, he could no longer feel the pain in his body. He only wanted to know what he had said.

“Hehe, I didn’t do anything.” Ye Lengan gave a bright smile. “All that matters is what you did.”

Zhang Hongguang felt unsettled as if he had fallen into an ice cellar. His entire body was cold, but his back was constantly sweating. He didn’t know what just happened. However, he did not doubt Ye Lengan’s words. This was because everyone present was looking at him with strange gazes.

Right now, his brain was working non-stop, thinking about how to explain himself. However, the more anxious he was, the more disturbed state of mind he was in.

Ye Lengan ignored Zhang Hongguang and looked at Chen Kang. “I’ve brought the antidote. Let’s go upstairs now!”

After that, she turned around and left the living room without paying attention to Chen Kang’s reaction.

Chen Kang immediately followed.

Chen Haichao glanced in the direction of his father and then at Zhang

Hongguang. In the end, he decided to stay. Because he didn't know what Zhang Hongguang had done before, only he and his father came today. He was worried that if he left now, Zhang Hongguang might take this opportunity to escape.

In fact, Chen Haichao was really thinking too much. Zhang Hongguang suffered a breakdown. Moreover, although Zhang Hongguang confessed everything, there was no real evidence. Therefore, at this time, it was impossible for Zhang Hongguang to escape.

On the other side, since Ye Lengan had already been here before, she didn't need anyone to lead her to Chen Hailan's room.

She pushed open the door and saw Chen Hailan sleeping peacefully on the bed. Probably because she was asleep, she seemed exceptionally calm.

Ye Lengan stepped forward and pried open Chen Hailan's mouth. While running her hand into her pocket, she took out a pill from her space and put it into Chen Hailan's mouth.

Chen Kang's eyes twitched when he saw Ye Lengan's actions. He had already found it strange earlier. Ye Lengan didn't bring anything with her, so where did the antidote come from? To his surprise, she casually put the medicine directly into her pocket without even taking a bottle.

If he hadn't witnessed Ye Lengan's medical skills, he might have doubted whether she could really cure Hailan. But...

"Healer Ye, don't you need to feed Hailan some water?" Chen Kang raised a question, "How can she swallow the pill without water?"

Chapter 90: Do You Want Revenge? 5

"There's no need to go through so much trouble." Ye Lengan waved her hand and explained, "This medicine will melt in her mouth. She has already swallowed it. Just wait! She should be able to wake up in about three to five minutes."

Just as Ye Lengan had said, three minutes later, Chen Hailan, who was lying on the bed, started to move. She moaned and slowly opened her eyes.

She seemed not to get used to the blinding light and immediately closed her eyes again. However, her eyes fluttered open again soon.

Seeing that Chen Hailan woke up, Chen Kang stepped forward and asked carefully, "Hailan, how are you feeling now?"

Although he trusted Ye Lengan's medical skills, he decided to speak gently to Chen Hailan before he confirmed that she really recovered. He did not want to agitate her again.

"Dad, why are you here?" Chen Hailan wanted to sit up, but she realized that she didn't have the strength to do so. "What's wrong with me?"

"Did you forget what happened?" Chen Kang was relieved to hear Chen Hailan talk coherently.

“What could have happened?” Chen Hailan tried hard to recall. “I remember that I asked for a divorce with Zhang Hongguang.”

At this point, Chen Hailan seemed to have thought of something. “Dad, I’ve decided to divorce Zhang Hongguang. I know that he poisoned you, so I can’t live with him anymore. But, Dad, can I ask you for something?”

“Alright, go ahead!” Chen Kang’s heart softened when he gazed at his daughter who had suffered a lot recently.

“Dad, I hate Zhang Hongguang for poisoning you.” Chen Hailan said, “But I can’t do anything to him. It’s not because I love him, but because he’s A Hui and Yiyi’s father. I have to think about my kids. Therefore, I would like to ask you not to pursue this matter any further. At least, please don’t go through legal channels. I can’t let their father end up in prison.”

That was all she could do. As for whether her father would use other methods to vent his anger, that was beyond her. Although she still had some feelings for Zhang Hongguang, as a mother, the only thing she could think about now was her children.

Chen Kang paused for a while after hearing what Chen Hailan said. After thinking for a moment, he finally nodded. “Okay, I promise you.”

Originally, he wanted Zhang Hongguang to lose everything and then go to jail. However, her daughter was right. He couldn’t let Zhang Hongguang go to jail for the sake of his grandchildren.

“Nice discussion!” a cold voice said. “But don’t you think that you should ask for my opinion on this matter? I’m also one of the victims!”

Ye Lengan thought that these two people were quite funny. Before she decided how to deal with Zhang Hongguang, these two had already reached an agreement. Did they completely ignore her?

Chen Kang suddenly felt a little awkward. Chen Hailan just woke up, and he only had eyes for his daughter. Looking at his daughter who had suffered so much, his heart softened and he immediately agreed. He had completely forgotten that what would happen to Zhang Hongguang was no longer something he could decide alone.

“Why are you here?”

At this moment, Chen Hailan finally noticed that there was someone else in the room, and she hated this person so much. “Who brought you here?”

“Hailan, mind your attitude.” Chen Kang scolded, “Healer Ye saved you. You’d better be careful what you say.”

“Hehe, you finally see me!” Ye Lengan wasn’t angry at Chen Hailan’s attitude. She sat down on the sofa and said, “Your father asked me to come. Also, you might as well ask your father if you would still be able to talk to him here today without me?”

Even though she hated Ye Lengan, Chen Hailan still couldn't help but turn her head to look at Chen Kang, asking, "Dad, what does she mean?"

Actually, when she woke up, she found that her thoughts were in turmoil. She tried her best to clear her head, but the more she thought about it, the more confused she became.

"Do you really forget what happened during this period of time?" Chen Kang frowned and said, "Zhang Hongguang poisoned you with a toxin that affected your nerve center. During this period of time, your behavior has been very abnormal and you often go crazy.. If Healer Ye hadn't found out and even developed an antidote for you, you wouldn't have been able to wake up!"
