Chapter 181 Alpha Bearing And Qrila City

Rex touches his forehead feeling something hit his forehead,

It happened so fast that even with his enhanced senses, he can't see or even react to something that hit him on the forehead.

'Did that Supernatural did this?', Rex thought.

He can't think of anything else besides the Northern Black Heads' doings.

Their brief exchange completely shocked Rex as it can flee under Rex's nose, it completely baffled him knowing that such a creature exists.

Rex scans the surrounding area, he then thought, 'That Northern Black Head is taking the black leaves, what are they going to do with it?'

After thinking for a while, Rex suddenly remembered.

'Oh yeah! I think the quest reward gave me black leaves', Rex thought.

He then takes the black leaves he got from the inventory, two black leaves appeared on his hand that look completely the same as normal leaves.

Aside from its color, pure black.

Rex then scans the black leaves with the system,

<Lightless Leaf>

A leaf that grows from a Dark Pixy Tree that can only be found in an environment devoid of sunlight, it is also known as the Water Poison. Upon touching a water surface, it will turn into a black substance that can kill a rank four creature easily and hurt a higher rank creature. Continuous exposure to this black leaf will kill any creature if enough lightless leaves are used.

Reading this, Rex frowns.

The explanation of the Lightless Leaves makes him even more confused, 'What do they want with poisonous leaves? Is that their food or something?', Rex thought.

After shaking his head, Rex then went back to Liliya.

Liliya is currently tending to her wounds, she's using a green elixir to rub the wound on her stomach from the Dark Monkey before.

She then heard someone approaching before Rex pops from the darkness.

"I cleared out the area, there should be no more disturbance this night", Rex said as an excuse, he only left Liliya to catch that snitching Dark Monkey before.

Hearing this, Liliya nodded her head before she lies on the tree trunk.

Although she's injured, the thing that makes her weak is the skill she used before that put her in this state.

"What's that skill you use before? It's like a barrier of red mark", Rex asks.

Liliya close her eyes before she replied, "I develop the skill a while ago, it's a defensive skill that can spawn invisible red marks that will detonate upon touching it"

"That's convenient, it will be useful for fighting a group of creatures", Rex nodded his head in affirmation.

He then sits on the tree trunks beside Liliya before he checks the system,

Rex looks at the skill tree and taps the Alpha Intimidation skill, his eyes then widened in the realization of his blunder.

'Wait, I thought the Alpha Bearing skill need 30 Skill Upgrade. Turns out it only needs 20 Skill Upgrade', Rex thought.

He currently has enough Skill Upgrade added with the quest reward he got from before.

Rex already upgrades his Force Manipulation skill to level two for 15 Skill Upgrade, with the remaining Skill Upgrade he can also upgrade his Alpha Intimidation skill.

He clicks on the upgrade button before the Alpha Intimidation skill turned into Alpha Bearing.

It is a more powerful version of Alpha Intimidation that will reduce anyone's stats that looks at him, anyone with a lower mental stat of course.

This will make him more efficient in fighting groups of enemies.

With the barrier created by Liliya and his Alpha Bearing skill, Rex can't wait to use it to fight a group of creatures.

Rex then closes his eyes intending to meditate but then,

RAWR!!

Growls of creatures can be heard from the darkness,

From the sound of it, Rex can tell that there are many of them, just like the Dark Monkey from before that lives in a group.

Rex opened his eyes with a smile,

He saw many white eyes looking at him from the darkness, they are cat-like creatures the size of lions.

They have a brown muscular body with a spotted pattern on it, two sharp fangs from their upper mouth, and hunchback bodies like hyenas.

Rex nudge Liliya's body to wake her up,

Feeling the nudge, Liliya open her eyes with a frown, "What are you-", her words stopped when she saw they're surrounded again.

It's even worse now because this is the second time they got to attack,

"I think we're not going to get much sleep in this place", Rex said, but his mouth quirk up to a smile as if it's a good thing.

Liliya looks around with a sigh, her body is still strained by the fight before, "They're weaker than the Dark Monkey, you handle it I want to sleep"

After saying that, Liliya mark Rex with her Enhancing Mark and go back to sleep.

This makes Rex's smile even wider, 'I'm not going to deny this running exp, sleep tight Liliya', he thought before he activates his new skill.

"Alpha Bearing"

SWOSH!!

A red shockwave exploded subtly from Rex's body,

It doesn't bring that much effect but the fierce look of the cat-like creatures turns into shock, they can feel their power leaving them as Rex's bearing becomes unimaginably oppressing.

They can see Rex's dark red aura that take a shape of a big red Werewolf,

All of the cat-like creatures that got hit by the subtle red shockwave got weaker by 30%, all of them becomes scared by Rex's aura.

Added with Rex's superior bloodline, these creatures don't stand a chance.

But Rex will not let them get away, "DON'T YOU RUN NOW LITTLE KITTIES!"

~

Somewhere outside of Ratmawati City, there is a level four city that is surrounded by lakes.

The streets in this city are all crowded with people,

Merchants that sold many things, families bonding together while playing street games and even guards that kept the laws in the city can be seen walking around idly.

No crime has occurred in this city for quite a while, it can be seen through the guard's faces.

They are more like friendly city guards than actual guards, the weapons on their hands are even of an old model.

Aside from the lively city, there're people with black crow tattoos roaming the street.

If Rex was to see their tattoos, he will instantly recognize it as the tattoo of a member of the Stygian Crow Organization.

Or also known as, the Black Hand.

This city is one of the banded level four cities that felt abandoned by Ratmawati City, and they are currently under the protection of the SCO.

These Black Hands are beloved by the city, all of the people here are dependant on them.

Out of all of the people in the city, there is one person that just arrive at the city by car.

If Rex was here then he will immediately recognize this person, the person that accompany him during his time at Ochyra University, Rosie.

Rosie is wearing layered clothes because of the coldness of this place, she's dragging a suitcase while tidying the scarf on her neck.

She's looking around a place before her eyes lit up, "Abby!", she shouted.

A woman with expressive blue eyes and her medium-long, luscious, dark brown hair glance at Rosie from afar, her expression lit up when she saw Rosie coming towards her.

"Rosie!", she shouted before she runs and hugs Rosie.

The two of them are close friends, and it seems it's been a while since they saw each other.

"How have you been! It's been a year since I last saw your thick ass!", Abby said before slapping Rosie's ass in public.

Rosie blushed before she hugs her arm in embarrassment, "Let's get out of here first, I'm cold"

They both then went to a house that is not far from the entrance of the city, it's inside a residence that looks homey and comfortable.

While walking there, "Qrila City seems different, the last time I'm here the city looks devoid of people and is about to crumble", Rosie said.

"Everything changed after the Black Hand, they offer us protection and resources making the city thrives like this", Abby said with a prideful look.

It is her hometown, and seeing her hometown like this certainly makes her proud.

Hearing this, Rosie looks around in amazement.

She read the news about the banded level four cities called Abandoned by Light, and she can't believe that Qrila City is also a part of it and it looks so lively.

'Are the Black Hand really that great? How come they can protect people without being an Awakened', Rosie thought.

After reaching Abby's home, Rosie unpacked her things.

She will be staying here for a couple of days or even a week before she went back, she came here to clear her mind from things.

"Are you done?", Abby said after entering Rosie's room.

Rosie puts her hands on her waist before she said, "Yup, I know what you're thinking so let's go right now!"

Abby look at Rosie weirdly,

It is a custom for them that every time they meet in a long time, they will go to a bar to tell each other their life stories and catch up.

But Rosie didn't like drinking, so seeing her this fired up makes Abby frowns.

"Stop looking at me like that, let's just talk in the bar", Rosie said before she pulls Abby outside of her home heading towards the nearest bar.

In the bar, Rosie poured out of her frustrations.

The alcohol she consumed this time is way past her limits, her face is already bright red.

She already told her stories with Rex from start to finish, and of course, she filters the part of him being a Werewolf.

"I told him I will do anything for him, but he declined. He said that I didn't have the same ambition like him. So he left me, haaahh what should I do", Rosie said while drinking.

It's not even an hour yet, and she's already drunk.

Abby plays with her glass hearing Rosie's story, she then said, "What is this ambition he's so crazy about?"

Hearing this, Rosie shakes her head, "What do you mean?"

"The ambition you're talking about, What is it?", Abby asks patiently.

Rosie is already drunk as hell, and her mind is probably not smarter than a walnut.

"I can't tell you that, he will hate me if I said it to anyone", Rosie said, she's drunk but she still remembers to keep all of her secrets a secret.

Abby message her forehead before she finally said, "All I'm saying is if you don't have the same ambition as him, rather than forcing it, why don't you just become his ambition"

"If he's crazy about power, then become a powerful person that will make him stick with you"

"If he's crazy about money, then get rich so he will stick with you"

Rosie stopped as she widened her eyes, what Abby said completely baffles her.

"Do you get it? Hello? Rosie are you there?", Abby said while waving her hands in front of Rosie who is suddenly daydreaming.

She then snaps out of her daze before she said, "Yeah, yeah I get it"

After answering Abby,

Abby started to tell Rosie to not go crazy because of some guy, but Rosie didn't hear all of the things she said after her last sentences.

'Become his ambition, Do I really have to do that?'

~

Back at the Lightless Marsh,

Liliya opened her eyes after some time, she woke up to the smell of something delicious.

She looks down from the tree and finds Rex roasting something, he manages to create a fire despite the moist environment.

"What are you doing?", Liliya said after jumping down.

Rex looks to her before he gives Liliya a piece of meat on a stick, "Eat this, I found that the meat from the creatures before is tasty"

Hearing this, Liliya hesitates but when she bites the meat her eyes lit up.

What Rex said turns out to be true, the meat of the Dark Monkey or even the cat-like creature from before is tasty.

But then, Liliya shakes her head and said, "We're on a mission, we haven't even find the Northern Black Heads"

"I found their location while you're sleeping, so just eat and we'll go search for them", Rex said nonchalantly as he bites the meat in delight.

Liliya was stunned before she nodded her head,

They both started eating the roasted meat until they're satisfied, Liliya didn't complain anymore because Rex already located their whereabouts.

After eating, Rex and Liliya stand up,

"I meet one of them before, but I got hit by something before that Northern Black Head disappear from my sight", Rex said.

He then continues, "All I know is that it's definitely one of their abilities, so we must keep our guard when we meet them"

Liliya nodded her head, "Lead the way, I will create an invisible barrier around us"

Rex nodded his head before both of them dashes into a direction, they left the place just like a ghost in the darkness of the Lightless Marsh.

Chapter 182 The Northern Black Heads Tear

Inside the SCO hideout,

"How's the Anti-W research going? Is it progressing?", Jax said after entering the Green Messenger's lab.

His nine-headed crow tattoo is eye-catching, and his clothes are always the same.

But despite his stoic and strong bearing as a king, he seems to be more laid back around the Green Messenger than he usually does.

The Green Messenger is currently doing his work,

Different kinds of substances and carcasses are inside the lab, and from his dark sunken eyes, one can know that he's been researching for days.

He then said, "The Red Team manage to get the carcasses I need"

"From that carcasses, I find that all of them have similar abilities to eat mana. It will take time for me to merge all of them, and the effect will still be slow", The Green Messenger explained.

Hearing this, Jax nodded his head, "As long as it's still progressing, then it's fine"

Just after he said that the Green Messenger intervenes, "I already sent my team to get the Northern Black Head carcass, it can potentially accelerate the effect of the Anti-W"

A creepy smile appeared on Jax's face when he heard this,

He's exhilarated knowing that the research is going smoothly, 'Just a little bit more then we can be on par with them', he thought with a smile.

"No one except the messengers can know about this, Make sure of it", Jax said before he left the Green Messenger in doing his things.

~

Rex and Liliya goes back to where Rex last saw the Northern Black Heads,

They stopped at that place before Rex said, "I saw one Northern Black Head here, and it's catching black leaves that grow from these trees"

"Catching Black Leaves? Do you know what it is?", Liliya said in confusion.

Rex then said, "All I know the Black Leaf is called Lightless Leaf, and they are poisonous upon contacting with water"

Liliya nodded her head as she inspects the surrounding,

While Rex on the other hand is cursing himself, 'I should've researched this Supernatural first, this shouldn't be this hard'

But just after he thought that,

Liliya then continues, "The Green Messenger told me that the data of the Northern Black Head is not complete, that is why we will also write down their all information we got from this mission"

The way she said it after Rex cursed himself, it's like she read Rex's mind.

After saying that, they decided to split to find the Northern Black Head nest, it should be around here knowing that one of them was here.

They both search the place for days with no luck,

The Northern Black Heads are like ghosts, they can't be found easily despite their enhanced Supernatural Sense.

It's been two days, and it should be morning right now.

But the inside of the Lightless Mash didn't change, pure darkness is the only thing enveloping this place like sunlight.

"I already searched the north, and I didn't find any", Liliya said with a frown.

They're currently meeting up at their checkpoint, Rex also didn't find anything, "Nothing in the south, only a bunch of Mutated Animals", Rex said.

There's a trace of blood on his clothes, he grinds Exp while searching.

Rex then looks at his stats, he just leveled up after grinding for days in the Lightless Mash.

Pack: Silverstar (2/2)

Level: 29 (4,800,000/20,000,000)

Race: High Werewolf

Full-Moon: 4 Days - Violet Moon

Berserk: 51%

Sanity: 45%

Mental: 64 (+32)

Strength: 141 (+78)

Agility: 96 (+10)

Endurance: 70 (+31)

Intelligence: 236 (+20)

Looking at his stats, Rex smiles because he is closer to reaching level 30.

From the way the system works before, upon reaching level 10 he evolved into a Werewolf, reaching level 20 he evolved into a High Werewolf, then reaching level 30 should evolve his bloodline further.

That is why Rex is excited about it,

He puts his Attributable Stats into Mental Stat but just before he focuses back on his mission, his eyes suddenly fell to the Full-Moon section.

Rex saw that the next Full-Moon is in four days!

This shouldn't happen, because Rex thought that Full-Moon only occurs once a month.

'System, What should I prepare for the Violet Moon?', Rex asks, he doesn't expect the system to answer because the system rarely answers this kind of question.

But to his surprise, the system answered.

<Only the Strong-Willed can stay loyal to the Female Alpha>

Reading this Rex frowns, 'Strong-Willed? Is the Violet Moon will test my will? And What does it have to do with Adhara?'

The system didn't answer anymore,

It makes Rex feel the system likes to tease him, this becomes more evident as time passes.

Rex then sighs before he and Liliya search the place again, this time they will be searching the west and east of the Lightless Marsh.

Day turns to night,

The only thing that changed in the Lightless Mash is only the temperature, the night's temperature is colder than a day.

After searching for so long, Rex stopped and think beside a tree.

'System, Can you tell me about the Northern Black Head?', Rex asks.

<Northern Black Head>

A Low-ranking Supernatural that likes to live in the dark, they have hood-like skins that cover their face and white tentacles as their feet. They live in a pack usually around the female, and they are very sensitive to light.

Reading this, Rex frowns.

The system didn't provide any useful information to him besides the last part, which makes Rex even more frustrated.

Then suddenly, Rex thought of something.

He touches the tree beside him and thought, 'System, Scan this tree'

<Scanning...>

<Scanning Complete!>

<Dead Tree>

This tree is unable to mutate to survive the environment resulting in it dying, it is weaker than a regular tree.

Reading this, Rex shakes his head and finds another tree.

The tree he's searching is the Dark Pixy Tree, only that tree can produce the Lightless Leaves that the Northern Black Head wanted.

After hopping from tree to tree, Rex finally found one.

<Dark Pixy Tree>

A Mutated Tree that can only be found in places devoid of light, it is stronger than regular trees, and its roots span for miles. The Dark Pixy Tree can grow Lightless Leaves that are poisonous, it will spat a toxic gas before the leaves grow and this process happened every 2 or 3 days.

Reading this, Rex smiles in delight.

This time, the system gave him useful information.

'If we can't find them, then we should just wait for them to come out', Rex thought.

After getting this information from the system, Rex meets up with Liliya and shares the information saying that he just remembered it.

Liliya is suspicious about this but she eventually trusts Rex.

They both then go back to the place where Rex last saw the Northern Black Head,

Rex is sure that the plan will work because the Northern Black Head that he saw from before looks desperate for getting the Black Leaves.

Hours passed,

Both of them are waiting for the Northern Black Head like a predator prowling in the bushes, they try to hide their aura in case the Northern Black Head might sense them.

From this mission, some low-ranking Supernatural prove to be difficult to search for.

Even with Rex and Liliya's enhances Supernatural sense, they still can't find the Northern Black Head no matter how hard they try.

Aside from that, the unknown factor also contributes to this mission making it harder.

After about another hour, Rex can hear a sound approaching.

The sound is more like a puddle of water moving but from this sound, Rex immediately recognizes this as the Northern Black Head.

Rex saw that the Northern Black Head is floating above the water surface,

It is a bizarre discovery, but Rex thought that it's just one of their tentacles abilities.

Liliya also positioned herself as she saw the Northern Black Head, she looks at it and confirm that it can't be other Supernatural other than the Northern Black Head.

The Northern Black Head does the same thing as before.

It waited in front of a Dark Pixy Tree waiting for the Lightless Leaves,

Rex glance at Liliya before he whispers, "I'm going to try and catch it, you create an invisible barrier you told me about in this area"

After saying that, Liliya nodded her head before she activates her skill.

The skill envelope the place in a 30 meters radius with the Northern Black Head in it,

Liliya's skill is not using mana, so the Northern Black Head can't really sense what's going as it unconsciously gets trapped.

After getting the signal from Liliya,

Rex's eyes spark with Black Lightning completely shocking the Northern Black Head.

BLITZ!

He activates his flash skill as he dashes towards the Northern Black Head, it happened in a flash but suddenly,

SWIT!

The same thing happened,

Something hit Rex right on his forehead without him seeing it,

Rex's vision becomes blurry when that thing hits his forehead, but he quickly snaps out of it before a loud booming sound was heard.

BOOM!

One of Liliya's red marks activates when the Northern Black Head tries to escape.

It screeched painfully as it falls into the water, but the water turns out to be deep as the Northern Black Head started to drown.

In Reflex, Rex jumped to the water and catch the Northern Black Head.

He then jumped back to the nearest tree trunk with the Northern Black Head in his hand, it is already dead because of Liliya's red mark.

After catching one of them, Liliya jumped beside Rex and look at it.

They tried to open the black hood but to their surprise, they can't open the black hood.

If they open the black hood forcefully, then the Northern Black Head's skin will be ripped by them because the black hood is their skin with nothing underneath it.

Which means, they are faceless.

Rex and Liliya frown when they saw that the Northern Black Head is faceless, they become confused about how they extract its tears.

But when they're just thinking,

PSSSHH!!

The Dark Pixy Tree grows its Lightless Leaves before it slowly falls into the water.

Looking at this, Rex and Liliya ignores it,

The Lightless Leaves slowly touch the water before it turns liquid, it then started to spread to the surrounding water completely poisoning it.

Then suddenly,

SCREECHH!!

The ground trembled as something roared from inside the water,

Rex and Liliya look at each other before they both look at the water, "What was that? Is there a creature inside the water?"

The Northern Black Head carcass suddenly deflated after the screech.

Liliya, look at it before her eyes widened in surprise, "Is that their tears?", she said while pointing at the Northern Black Head's carcass.

Hearing this, Rex is confused but then his hand started to feel wet.

The carcass deflated as it oozes out liquid, and from the color of it, it should be the tears the Green Messenger asked for.

But to be sure,

<Northern Black Head's Tear>

One of the Northern Black Head's abilities is using their tears as a weapon, they will shoot a lightning fast attack that will hit the target with their tear. Their tear contains a powerful mind attack, and might even make the target fall into a hypnotized state.

Reading this, Rex confirms that the water is indeed their tears.

Just as he thought that the place suddenly filled with Northern Black Head.

They are numbering in their forties and they came out of nowhere, they stand on the tree trunk while looking at the water beneath them.

Then, the second Lightless Leaves grows,

PSSSHH!!

After the second Lightless Leave grows, the other Northern Black Head dashes towards it.

They are desperately trying to keep the Lightless Leaves from the water, but Rex and Liliya will not let that happen.

SWOOSH!

SHING!

Rex and Liliya fires their own attacks,

The Northern Black Heads are small and fast, but when they group up like that then they become easy targets for Rex and Liliya's spell.

BOOM!

Many of the Northern Black Heads died from their attack,

Their skill manage to wipe many of them as their body fall into the water,

Rex smiles in triumph when he saw the hurting Northern Black Heads, he jumped to the shallow water beside a dead tree.

He takes out the Lightless Leaves he got from the quest reward,

Looking at Rex, all of the remaining Northern Black Heads becomes crazy as they leaped in Rex's direction but got stopped by Liliya.

Rex then kneel to put the Lightless Leave to the water,

But just when his hand was about to touch the water surface,

GRAB!

He got stunned when he saw a big white tentacle grab his hand, the white tentacle came out of the water suddenly catching Rex off guard.

"Eh?"

Chapter 183 Sky Rupture Spell

'What the fuck?!'

SPLASH!

Rex got dragged by something into the water, it caught Rex off guard because he forgot about the creature inside the water.

The black leaves that he held got blown by the wind,

Looking at this, Liliya already gets the gist of it.

The Lightless Leaves hurt the creature down there that somehow linked to the Northern Black Head, and to extract their tears she need to hurt the creature inside the water more.

Knowing this, Liliya immediately pounces at the Lightless Leaves.

But the other remaining Northern Black Heads also jumped towards the Lightless Leaves, their few numbers got increased again.

They came outpouring from the darkness like ants, it completely baffles Liliya.

Her movement is faster than the Northern Black Heads, but in order to dip the Lightless Leaves to the water, she has to go through these hundreds of Northern Black Heads.

'There are too many of them!', Liliya thought as she prepares for a fight.

SWIT!

Many of the Northern Black Heads suddenly use their abilities.

Even Rex with his enhanced senses can't dodge it, let alone Liliya.

She got overwhelmed by their attacks as her mind started to throb, it feels like a chronic headache that comes attacking her brain repeatedly.

It was very painful, and she definitely can't concentrate in this state.

Liliya gritted her teeth before she started running away,

If she still keeps on fighting head-on with the Northern Black Heads, she will lose the Lightless Leaves and that will be bad.

Even if she got surrounded by the Northern Black Heads, she will not die.

The Northern Black Heads are only rank two or rank three Supernatural, even if they tried for days they will not kill Liliya who is a rank five.

Meanwhile,

Rex is currently inside the water,

The sudden incident caught him off guard, and he didn't have the time to breathe.

Whatever the thing that pulls Rex inside the water is, it has almost the same strength as him because he got pulled easily.

He's squatting before so it's easier to pull him, but even so,

Not many creatures can surprise or even have the strength to do so, only creatures rank five or above can pull him like this.

Blubble Blubble...

The creature pulled Rex deep inside the water.

Bubbles came out of Rex's mouth as he got dragged deeper, and not long he got flung to the bottom hitting a rock.

BOOM!

Rex shakes his head before suddenly, his body was attacked by internal pain.

The water is corrupted by the Lightless Leaves that can kill rank four creatures easily, and now Rex is currently inside this poisonous water.

'System, Is there any antidote for this thing', Rex asks.

<Yes, It cost 2,000 Gold to purchase Lightless Leaf Poison Antidote. Does the user want to proceed with the purchase?>

Rex opens his eyes trying to read the system's notification,

But to his surprise, his eyes got stung the moment he opened his eyes.

His eyes started to emit white steam as his bloodline kicks in, his eyes started to heal by themselves, and not long Rex's eyes becomes normal again.

'I can't be here for long', Rex thought before he started swimming up.

Rex can't open his eyes but he just swam up hoping to reach the surface, but then, he suddenly sense something approaching him.

SWOOSH!

He swam to the side dodging a white tentacle that wanted to whip him.

It seems the creature inside the water is also paying close attention to him, and probably will not let him go.

After feeling another tentacle was about to whip him,

"Lightning Salvo!"

BLITZ!!

Rex pour all of the mana he can into his fingertips as it shot out a black lightning strike, it completely electrocuted the water around him including the white tentacle.

SCREECH!

With the momentary pause, Rex swam up desperately.

"HUAH!", Rex gasp for air as he poked out of the water, he immediately get rid of the water from his eyes but got pulled once again.

SPLASH!

Feeling annoyed by the creature, Rex forcefully opens his eyes.

He looks to the white tentacle before a stats notification appears, it appears just below him and it is still quite far.

'There it is!', Rex thought.

With his throbbing eyes that wanted to burst because of the exposure to the poisonous water, Rex gritted his teeth, 'System, Completely learn the Sky Rupture spell!'

<Learning Sky Rupture Skill for 10,000 Gold, Do the user want to proceed?>

'YES!', Rex shouted inside his head.

SNAP!

Immense information went inside Rex's brain instantly, he instantly knows all of the power and technique to use the Sky Rupture spell.

It is a high-ranking spell, and it is said to take a huge amount of mana.

Rex's body is covered by a black lightning aura that is so thick that even the water can't penetrate through, all of his entire being is cracking with chaotic black lightning.

Meanwhile,

Liliya is currently still running in a circle,

She attacks the Northern Black Heads a couple of times to reduce their number but then, the Northern Black Heads suddenly stopped chasing her.

"Huh? Why did they stop?", She thought in confusion.

Her plan was to reduce their number by laying Exploding Mark on the ground, it works for a while until they suddenly stopped chasing after her.

Then, Liliya suddenly felt the wind change direction.

It happened suddenly and Liliya can instantly feel it,

The wind feels like the wind before a storm, it's like something big is about to happen.

"Is it Rex?", Liliya thought before she went back to the place, she's a little concerned about Rex because of the poisonous water.

But Rex did all sorts of things, and one thing she knows well is that he will not die easily.

Back to the place before,

The Northern Black Heads that cease to chase after Liliya are currently stacking against each other, their number can even cover the whole water surface completely.

'Are they trying to protect the creature inside the water?', Liliya thought.

Then suddenly,

RUMBLE!

The sky suddenly creates a thundering sound that shocked Liliya,

Although she can't see the sky because of the thick fog of the Lightless Mash, she can feel the weather is changing and something definitely sparks this occurrence.

From the gap between hundreds of Northern Black Heads,

Liliya saw the water lit up with lightning,

Just from a glance, she instantly knows that Rex is the one causing all of this.

'What kind of spell is he using? a rank five Awakened have this kind of power? No way right?', Liliya thought in awe.

Even if she's not an Awakened, she can feel the mana that gathers around the place like a fierce wind getting pulled into Rex's direction.

Just as she looks at the sky,

CRAACKK!!

A bolt of huge lightning came down from the sky instantly piercing the fog and hit the barricade of Northern Black Heads,

It instantly cut through the barricade easily and hits the water,

BOOM!!

The collision creates a huge booming sound creating a huge crater on the ground as the water exploded, all of the water got vaporized by the lightning.

A powerful shockwave was created from the explosion,

The place got flattened in half a mile radius, the ground is scarred because of the powerful impact of the shockwave with no sign of the moist environment.

All of it got vaporized by the bolt of lightning,

This happened in a flash,

Liliya is looking at the sky, but before she knows it, the spell already hit the water sending her and all rocks, trees, and even Northern Black Heads flying away.

Some of the water that doesn't get vaporized started to rain the place,

Liliya already creates a barrier of red marks to protect her from the impact, but she still got blown away because of how powerful it is.

She got up from the debris, and she was shocked to see her barrier have a hole in it.

Rex's Sky Rupture spell is so powerful that it broke Liliya's barrier even though she's not the target, and Liliya felt pain all over her body.

Some parts of her body got charred, and it completely baffles her.

'What kind of spell is that, I have never seen that kind of power come from a rank five Awakened', Liliya thought.

She looks up to the sky and saw the sky got ripped open, the sky looks like as if a dragon just come out of it.

It is simply unbelievable.

Liliya then walks closer to the scene and finds three-quarters of the water is gone.

But just when she's about to search for Rex,

SPLASH!

A huge shadow flew past Liliya's vision,

SPLAT!

It creates a fleshy sound behind Liliya who is still stunned, she looks to her back and found a creature carcass landed behind her.

The creature is like a plant that has many tentacles,

It has petals around its head with a mouth filled with hundreds of razor-sharp teeth, it has eight white tentacles, and its size is as big as a house.

Liliya then looks back to her back and saw Rex coming out of the water,

He was frozen in place when he saw Liliya looking at him before he said, "Oops, I didn't expect the spell to be that strong", Rex smiles awkwardly while scratching his head.

While Liliya on the other hand, she's completely speechless.

Thirty minutes passed,

The creature that Rex battles inside the water turn out to be a female Northern Black Head just like the system said.

Although it is a low-ranking Supernatural, the females are strong Supernatural.

The one that Rex fought has mid-rank five power, and some can even reach peak rank five but to the females are few.

A group of more than a hundred Northern Black Heads is certain to have a female, and they will desperately protect the female at all costs.

Even if it costs all of their lives.

The females can grow their group so that more Northern Black Heads will defend it.

By hurting or killing the females that they so desperately defended,

All of the male Northern Black Heads will cry because of it, some will even cry even though they are already dead like the deflated one before because they're linked to each other.

With that, Rex and Liliya manage to gather two bottles of Northern Black Head tears.

The mission is a success, and it only takes them a couple of days just right on Rex's schedule to go back to the university.

It will take them some time to go back to human territory, and they still need to be careful.

"Let's go back, two bottles are enough", Rex said as he tied the bottles to his waist.

Liliya nodded her head but she squat down first to write their findings, she's also instructed by the Green Messenger to write all of this down to store this in the SCO's database.

After she finished, they then started their journey back.

"Are you going to just give up?", a woman said with a disappointed look.

She's talking to a man that has sunken eyes, there is alcohol on the tables, and he looks very devastated as if his life is meaningless.

The man is Duncan Platchi,

The news that Rex is under the Reed Family protection completely devastated him, he even cease to care about the attacks on the Sullivan Family.

Many of his trusted people got killed,

Duncan lost his fight against Rex, and he completely understands it.

The Reed Family was his ally, and now they're leaning more to Rex's side rather than his family.

This means that Rex has the potential surpassing of the Platchi Family combined, and against such a caliber he can't do anything anymore.

His drive to take revenge dwindle, he doesn't want to take any more losses.

"Our son is still restless in his grave, his killer is still roaming around without a care of what he has done!", Duncan's wife shouted in anger.

But Duncan ignores all of that, he kept drinking the alcohol.

Duncan's wife smacked her lips in displeasure, "Then I'll do it myself!", she walks to the door intending to leave but got intercepted by Duncan.

"It's over my dear, I want to take revenge but we still need to think of the living. Think of your eldest son, if you try something we will be obliterated by the Reed Family", Duncan said helplessly.

Hearing this, Duncan's wife's lips started to tremble.

Her tears broke as she leans on Duncan's chest, it was a fact that they can't deny that Rex is out of their reach right now.

And forcing it will be suicide.

"I'm sorry my son, I am incompetent in avenging your death", Duncan mumbles as he hugs her wife's trembling body.

Chapter 184 The New Generation And Business

Somewhere in Supernatural Territory,

Many vampires wearing a dark black uniform are walking neatly in a line, and there is an upside-down red sword symbol on their uniform.

All of them have pale skin, and their eyes are sharp.

They are lead by a burly Vampire that is wearing full plate armor with a black cape on his back, he doesn't wear his helmet exposing his long brown hair, and he's walking in front of the others.

This group of Vampires is traveling by foot in a forest,

Another vampire in full plate armor approach the leader, "Sire, In front, will be an open place, we have to make a detour"

"What are you saying, with this many Vampires we can skirmish the humans", the leader scoffed totally ignoring the vampire's remarks.

Hearing this, "But Sire, we have strict rules from King Solomon to not exposed these Vampires"

"Since when does a Vampire like you can speak to a royal lightly? Get back to your line, we'll march forward", the leader said sharply.

He then added, "It'll be faster to reach our camp"

After lowering his head, the vampire in full plate armor excuses himself to the back.

In about 30 minutes of marching, they got out of the forest and true enough, meet an open space that used to be another city of humans.

"From here on out, we will move quicker", the leader said.

The leader then grows his wings on his back that look majestic before he turns into a blur.

"Move out!", the vampire in full plate armor shouted.

The other Vampires also pick up their pace and dash forward following the leader, their movement is fast and they cover a huge distance in one dash.

A few hours later,

The group of Vampires arrived at a camp,

From the looks of it, the camp belongs to the Vampires because the guards that are guarding the wall are also Vampires.

Not long after, two vampires came out of the camp.

They dash towards the leader of the group and stop in front of him, "Isn't it Issac Delarosa, What brings you to this dangerous place?"

The vampire that said this is the vampire on the right,

Her long silky black hair falls gracefully, her thick adulterous lips are pleasing for the eyes, and her cleavage that pokes out of her armor is a sight to see.

There's a teasing smile on her face, it seems the leader, Issac, and her know each other.

"Silent yourself Eva Valentine, I'm here by the orders of the King", Issac said coldly, he didn't react to any tease coming from Eva's mouth.

Eva looks at him questioningly,

Looking at this, Issac sigh before he said, "We're on order to attack a city to gather more humans, the report said that your camp has finished creating a hole on the human's wall"

Hearing this, Eva chuckles lightly, "The King picked you for this kind of mission? I'm sure he's done a mistake here"

Issac's face distorted hearing this, anger started bubbling inside him.

Eva walks closer to Issac, she then slowly skims her fingers on Issac's armor playfully, "You're famous Issac, the Delarosa's failure that never stepped out of your castle in cowardice"

Slap!

Issac slap Eva's hands in anger, he wanted to burst but then the vampire behind Eva glare at him.

Seeing the Vampire that stands silently on Eva's back makes Issac held in his anger, he then said, "Just show me the damn way, your presence disgusts me"

Eva laughs loudly, it pleasures her to see Issac like this.

Her eyes then landed on the Vampires wearing black uniform on Issac's back, "This must be the new generation, a product made from humans"

The Vampires wearing black uniform is unmoving,

Eva tries to nudge and plays with them before one of them said, "Stop touching me, or I'll kill you right now"

Hearing this, Eva widened her eyes.

She didn't expect some of them to have the guts to talk to her like that, it completely surprised her, "You low life dares to talk back to me?"

"Nicholas, someone needs to be reminded of their place", Eva said nonchalantly.

Right after she said that the Vampire behind her that scared Issac suddenly appear beside the Vampire that talks back to Eva and tries to grip his neck.

But to Nicholas's surprise, the Vampire dodges his grip.

"Hoo, some of your turns to be a good product after all", Nicholas said with a smile.

But then,

GRAB!

Nicholas's hand turns into a phantom as he grabs the vampire's neck, his speed was unbelievable, "But, you should still learn your place", he said revealing his fangs by his brutal smile.

The Vampire can't talk as he felt his neck was about to be crushed.

But Nicholas suddenly threw him to the side, "Remember this, you're just a new generation so don't you ever think of defying the royal's order"

"If we tell you to die, then you will have to respectfully do so", he added making the other Vampires in black uniform avoid his gaze.

After that, Issac finally intervenes, "Stop this and show me the way"

Eva shrugs her shoulders nonchalantly before she finally said, "Fine, it's the King's order so what can I do about it", she then signals to the others to follow her.

In the Vampire Kingdom Castle,

Nezera is walking through the hall, there is a trace of blood on her mouth which means she just eat before this.

She walks absent-mindedly before someone called her,

"Lady Nezera!", a Royal Vampire guard runs towards her, he has a panic expression on his face.

Nezera looks at him with a frown, "What is it? Did something happened?"

"I'm asking for King Solomon, Can you tell where he is my lady?", the Royal Vampire guard said hurriedly, he has something to say to Solomon.

This scene looks weird,

This place is in the heart of the Vampire Kingdom so there should be no problem that can make the Royal Vampire guard this panic.

"King Solomon is not here, he has already gone to the Demelza Family residence", Nezera said.

She then added, "Tell me, What's wrong?"

"It's the princess lady, she seems to be possessed by something", the Royal Vampire guard said.

Hearing this, Nezera widened her eyes in shock.

She then immediately runs towards Calidora fearing that something happened to her, she wouldn't forgive herself if something happened to her.

Arriving at the underground chamber,

Nezera bust into the room and find the other Royal Vampire guards are looking at Calidora, they all didn't know what to do.

Calidora is clawing the ground in a direction,

She wanted to break free from the chains but the chains are too strong, and all she can do is claw the ground while ignoring the pain as her nails breaks.

It was a gory scene, and Nezera saw this with tears.

"Calidora, What's wrong?", Nezera said with a trembling voice.

But even as she tries desperately talking to Calidora, all she got is only silence.

Calidora didn't even look in Nezera direction and just keep clawing the ground, even her hands are now bloodied because of it.

Nezera then looks at the Royal Vampire guards and asks, "What happened here?"

"I don't know my lady, it's all normal when suddenly she smells something and instantly went berserk like this", one of them said.

Hearing this, Nezera thought of something, 'Is that human-Werewolf near?'

Realizing that fact, Nezera takes out one of her rings and puts on Calidora fingers.

Her hands were then imbued with blood energy as she slash the chains, the chains got cut off instantly before Calidora run past her and the Royal Vampire guard.

They ran after Calidora upstairs,

Right after Calidora reaches upstairs, she burst through the window as two black-reddish wings grow from her back before she flies away.

"My lady, will it be okay to let her go like that?", one of the Royal Vampire guards asks.

Then another added, "King Solomon will not approve of that, it's too dangerous for her to wander alone"

Nezera raise her hand to silence them all before she said, "I already gave her my rings so she will be safe, and regarding King Solomon, I will talk to him"

"Just follow her, but make sure not to intervene if her life is not in danger. She must kill that Werewolf with her own hands, so don't do anything aside saving her life"

After saying that, the Royal Vampire guard bows respectfully before they too fly in the direction where Calidora just flew too.

Nezera looks outside of the window, 'Her eyes even forcefully grow her wings, such power...'

~

Meanwhile, Faraday University.

Adhara is currently sitting in a park while playing with her phone,

She's wearing casual clothes with jeans that highlight her curves, and she looks beautiful sitting under the park lamp.

The night street is not that lively here in sector 3E,

It's so much different compared to Ochyra University where Awakened teens filled the place, and many couples are enjoying the night.

Just as Adhara is playing with her phone, she hears footsteps approaching her.

She looks in a direction and saw Edward there, she waves her hand before Edward approach Adhara and sits beside her.

"You're not going to the new year's party?", Edward asks.

Hearing this, Adhara widened her eyes, "Wait, today is the new year's party? So that explains why the street is empty and also the cafes are all closed", she said with an awkward smile.

Edward chuckles lightly, "Well yeah, you're too busy training like a maniac"

Adhara can only smile dryly when she heard that, she's indeed thinking about training all day because Rex's growth is just too fast for her to relax.

And if she's too relaxed, then she will be left again by Rex.

"So, What do you want to talk about?", Edward asks, Adhara is the one that invites him here.

Adhara looks around the place to make sure that nobody is watching, she then signals Edward to sit closer to her.

Seeing this, Edward frowns before he gets closer.

But Adhara kept signaling to be closer and only stops when their shoulders touch each other, "Why are you acting so suspicious?"

"Look!", Adhara said revealing a purple stone in her bag.

Edward looks at it before he rolled his eyes, "Really? You're acting this secretive because of an Elemental Stone?"

"SSsstt!", Adhara shushed Edward as she covers Edward's mouth with her hands.

Looking at Adhara's overreacting over an Elemental Stone, Edward can only roll his eyes again completely baffled.

But then, Adhara whispers, "The thing is, I made this"

Edward looks at Adhara in disbelief, "What are you saying, an Elemental Stone is a stone filled with natural elemental mana that increases over time. So it's impossible to create it"

Knowing that Edward will not believe her,

Adhara summons her purple fire between her hands, she then condenses the purple fire closer to each other before a low exploding sound was heard.

Pop!

She only put a little bit of mana inside of it, so it won't explode like last time.

But when she raised the small stone in her hand, Edward was completely shocked by it, "H...How the hell did you create that!"

"Ssssstt!", Adhara covers Edward's mouth again.

She looks at her surrounding before she said, "It happened by accident"

"Give me that!", Edward said before he snatched the stone from Adhara's hand, he then close his eyes trying to absorb the stone.

And to his surprise, the little stone vanish after a minute!

Edward opened his eyes before he looks at Adhara in surprise, "It's actually an Elemental Stone!"

"It's even more potent than regular Elemental Stone, Just how?!", Edward said in disbelief, this discovery completely shocks him.

Adhara then said, "The reason I want to meet you is to confirm whether I'm the only one that can do that, try condensing your element as I did"

Hearing this, Edward does exactly like what Adhara said.

But after a couple of minutes, no stone appeared.

Edward can't even feel the restriction that Adhara said, his element is completely docile.

"If you can't do it, then it raises this stone's value even more", Adhara said, she's currently thinking before she snaps her fingers.

Snap!

She looks at Edward realizing something, but Edward also realized it too.

"I can Monopoly a higher grade Elemental Stone business!!",

"We can Monopoly a higher grade Elemental Stone business!!"

Both of them said at the same time, but their first word came out differently.

Adhara looks at Edward before Edward then said, "Adhara I'm Rex's friend too, so I should get inside this too right?".

Edward is currently showing his shameful smile,

It makes Adhara rolls her eyes before she stands up intending to leave, Edward definitely brought that up so he can join in.

"ADHARA! PLEASE!!", Edward shouted from the back pleadingly.

Chapter 185 Military Vehicle And Meeting Elves

Rex and Liliya just got out of the Lightless Mash, they went through the fog before they both got out.

The Moonlight instantly greeted them,

It is already night, and the Supernatural Territory is way more dangerous during the night compared to when the sun is out.

The reason being is that many Supernatural are night creatures, only a handful of Supernatural like Fairies and Dragonman prefer the day.

Both Rex and Adhara are currently in another forest,

The Lightless Mash is part of a forest called the Eastern Altstone Forest.

When they went to the Lightless Mash with the military men before, they also went through here after passing the scout post.

They are still about 50 miles away from the border, it will take at least two days by walking if there are no mishaps on the way.

'The next full moon is a little more than 3 days left, we still have time', Rex thought.

He's concerned about the Violet Moon but it is definitely not similar to the Yule Moon, so although he's concerned, it was not like during the Yule Moon.

"We just need to keep heading south until we saw the scout post", Liliya said.

After she said that, she then started leading the way.

While they both are walking, Rex was in a predicament.

He wanted to raise his level to level 30 first preferably before going back, it can potentially evolve his bloodline further.

But if he was about to do that,

Rex needs to take a detour from the original course and search for mutated animals or even Supernatural that are residing in this forest.

If he can find a hunting ground then, he can probably reach level 30 in a day or so.

Just when they are walking, Rex suddenly spotted something.

He saw the vehicle the young military man used got stranded here, there are arrows that got stuck on the military vehicle windshield.

Rex and Liliya approach it before Rex inspect it,

"It's been more than a day by the look of the blood, did he get attacked?", Rex said with a frown.

He also didn't find the young military man's corpse inside the military vehicle,

The young military man went back alone in this Supernatural Territory, and he certainly will not survive if he's already stranded more than a day.

Rex sighs helplessly, 'I'm sorry, may you rest well up there'

There is a thought of retrieving the young military man's body to be buried, but in the Supernatural territory, it is very unlikely to find it.

Many Supernatural eat humans, so it will be a waste of time.

After praying for the young military man briefly,

"Liliya, Did the map stated what Supernatural is residing in this forest?", Rex asks, he wanted to at least know before he goes further.

Liliya studied the map, she then suddenly widened her eyes.

"What is it?", Rex asks as he comes closer to Liliya.

He looks at the map and found the thing that makes Liliya surprised, 'Elf?! They reside in this forest, this is bad!'

After seeing that, Rex immediately becomes alert and so is Liliya.

Elf is a pretty high-ranking Supernatural with intelligence on par with humans that is adept in using wood-based magic, and they are unbelievable marksmen with perfect eyesight that attacks from miles away.

Even if Rex's senses are sharp, he can't do anything if the attacker is miles away.

He can only feel the spell that is coming towards him but not the attacker, they are simply too far away to be detected.

They can even be watching them right now,

"We need to get out of the forest, Liliya find a detour", Rex said.

Hearing this, Liliya instantly scans through the map before she dashes to the right.

Both of them are dashing madly hoping to get out of the forest,

It is a definite home advantage for the Elves to be fighting inside a forest.

Rex once heard that fighting against an Elf in a forest is suicide because you're not just fighting against the Elf, but also against the forest itself.

One of Elf's known abilities is Nature Detection, they can see or find someone through the forest.

"How much further Liliya? I can sense they're watching us", Rex shouted, he can feel a pair of eyes watching each of his movements.

Liliya looks back at the map before she shouted back, "Twenty minutes!"

'Shit, We can't get out of here fast enough. Do we need to fight? As long as there are no High Elves then we can win', Rex thought.

But right after he thought that,

SWOOSH!

An arrow was shot towards them,

Rex and Liliya jumped back before the arrow stabs the ground in front of them, without looking at the attacker Rex know that they're Elf.

"Humans, You trespass into our territory without permission", a voice can be heard suddenly.

They both looks up and saw three Elves standing on a tree trunk,

The Elves are humanoid Supernatural with pale skin, their eyes are completely yellow and it's glowing, shiny silver hairs they have that makes them look noble, and Nature blessed them with white tattoos on their faces.

Rex squinted his eyes before he said, "We're about to leave, We're just passing by"

Hearing this, the Elves laughs lightly.

Their evil laughs resonated on Rex's ears before one of them said, "Since when are humans welcome here, We will not just simply let you leave"

"Many humans came here these days, a couple of days ago I caught one", the other added.

Hearing this, Rex knit his eyes when he heard the Elves' conversation.

He then said, "You caught one of us?"

"Just outside of Lightless Mash. He kept calling for someone named Rex, but that person never came even after I torture him for a bit", the Elf said with a sinister smile.

Liliya and Rex instantly widened their eyes in surprise,

The person that the Elf caught was definitely the young military man, he was the one that told Rex the name of the fallen Veteran.

Rex's expression darkened,

The flash of their brief encounter went past his brain,

The scene where the young military man cried past Rex's head, then the reassuring smile that he has on his face as he said,

"His name is Gustavo, and yes I will be okay going back alone you don't have to worry", flashes inside Rex's head.

Rex gritted his teeth in anger, even though their meeting is brief,

He can feel the same feeling he had when he's still in the military, it's the same feeling as when he's still with Kyle and Edward.

"You killed him?", Rex asks softly.

The Elf's smile widened as he says, "Yeah I did, and I sure love the sound of his scream when I cut off his fingers while waiting for this Rex"

Just after the Elf said that,

<Warning!! The user's berserk stat has exceeded 90%!>

<Berserk Quest has been initiated!>

<Fallen Comrade>

The Berserk Quest has been triggered due to the berserk stat exceeding 90%, Find the corpse of the military man and buried it, brings wrath to the Elf's Great Tree located 1 mile on the user's east! Failing this quest will have a tremendous penalty!

Killed Elves 0/100

Killed High Elves 0/5

Bury the military man corpse 0/1

Burn the Great Tree of the Elf 0/1

Quest Reward: 20,000,000 Exp, 20,000 Gold, 10 Skill Upgrade, 10x Minogame Shell, and Invincible

The system gave Rex a Berserk Quest just like when he met Chris Sullivan, it was triggered due to the anger boiling inside Rex.

Rex read the Berserk Quest with wrathful eyes,

It was a very hard task especially killing the High Elves one and burning the Great Tree.

With the power he has now, there is no way in hell that Rex will be able to kill a High Elves that can even reach peak rank six.

But it's a different story for the Elves in front of him,

The three Elves that are mocking Rex before trembles as they can feel Rex's violent aura, it was akin to meeting a monster that is about to go berserk.

The air surrounding Rex's body vibrates as if Rex's body is boiling.

Without wasting another second, the three Elves turns to their backs and ran away.

Rex was about to go after them when suddenly,

<Violet Moon Blessing!>

<The user has been bestowed Violet Wrath Skill!>

<The angrier the user got, the more powerful the user will become!>

Right after the notifications appeared, Rex's body emits a purple aura as his body started making a cracking sound.

Looking at this, Rex widened his eyes, 'Am I about to transform?!'

Liliya is currently boiling with anger too and was about to go after the Elves, but then she suddenly saw a purple aura coming out of Rex's body.

CRACK!

She widened her eyes when she heard Rex's body makes a cracking sound.

And not long after that, Rex suddenly disappeared from her sight before suddenly her vision turns blurry.

Rex uses his flash spell and hit the back of Liliya's neck,

He doesn't have enough time before his body transforms, and it will be bad if Liliya was to see him transform into a Werewolf.

After knocking Liliya out, Rex falls to the ground.

Just like during the full moon, Rex's body transforms as his body makes a bone-cracking sound.

The human fangs that Rex has become longer as his body becomes bigger, his eyes that should've to turn red turn purple instead.

It is the effect of the Violet Full Moon,

"RRGGHH!!", Rex grunted as his body transforms.

By now, Rex can handle the pain of transforming better than last time.

And soon enough, his body finished the transformation,

Rex stands back up in his Werewolf state slowly, his ink-black fur covers his body as his senses become sharper.

<Transformation has finished!>

<The user's stats has been multiplied by 2.5!>

After getting the notifications from the system, Rex clenched his hands as he can feel the overwhelming power coursing through his blood.

With a sinister smile, Rex hide Liliya beside a tree before he leaped away.

The three Elves are still running with all their might, and the Great Tree where the others are located can already be seen.

It will not be long before they reach it,

"What the hell is that human! He's way powerful than the human yesterday!", one of them said with a pale expression.

Then another added, "We need to report this to the elder!"

Just when they are almost in the clear, they suddenly feel an ominous aura from behind them that makes their bodies feel heavy.

"What kind of creature did this?! My body feels heavy!", one of the Elves said.

The oppressing aura that came out of the creature behind them is very powerful, it's like a giant stepping on their backs.

One of the Elves look back and saw Rex's violet eyes glaring at them.

Rex's movement is too fast for them to react, and before the Elf can tell the others, Rex already snatch the other two Elves and completely crushed them.

Blood pour towards the last Elf's face as he saw his friends got crushed.

<Killed a Peak Rank Four Supernatural, Obtained 100,000 Exp>

<Killed a Peak Rank Four-

<2/100>

Rex did it easily by grabbing both of them with his claws and squeeze them, two peak rank four Elves died just like that.

His murderous eyes than landed on the remaining Elf,

The Elf's entire body is trembling crazily as he saw Rex's huge body towering over him, his legs gave up as he fell to the ground.

Thud!

The last Elf is the one that tortured and killed the young military man,

Rex will not let this Elf die easily, he will make sure his death will be slow and painful to amend him from torturing the young military man.

"A Werewolf?! What are you doing here?!", the Elf shouted in shock.

He doesn't know where this Werewolf came from, he thought the one that is chasing after him is the humans before.

Hearing this, Rex smiles brutally.

"You say you like hearing his scream right?", Rex said softly.

When the Elf heard this, he instantly knows that Rex was the human before but he doesn't know how he turn into a Werewolf.

"I will cut each of your fingers and then your limbs one by one, so do me a favor, Scream as loud as you can because I like it too", Rex said with a wicked smirk.

The Elf's expression turns pale as he heard this,

And not long after, "AAARRRGHHH!!!"

"RAAAGHH!!!"

"STOP!! ARGHH!!!"

"JUST KILL ME!!!"

Loud reverberating screams can be heard inside the Eastern Altstone Forest, and the screams travel all the way to the Great Tree where five old Elf was sitting in a circle.

They all opened their eyes as they got chills hearing the scream, "What is going on?"

Chapter 186 The Elders

Rex's hands are bloodied, his eyes are fierce as he looks at the Elf in front of him.

The Elf that killed the young military man got tortured back by Rex, and his body is already in a gory and bad state with no other result other than impending death.

It was a horror night,

Rex starts off by breaking all of the Elf's fingers before he chopped them off one by one,

Without any sign of empathy or mercy, Rex continued his torture by cutting off the Elf's arms and legs that left the Elf with only a body and a head.

If anyone was to see this, they will instantly throw up.

Even Rex is surprised by how he can still stay calm in this situation, it should also make him throw up but the adrenaline stops him from doing so.

"Just...Kill me...", the Elf said softly.

In fact that his voice is so soft that it can't be heard, but Rex's hearing caught it perfectly.

He then squats in front of the Elf that is begging to be killed,

There is no use for him in this world anymore, an Elf without arms and legs can't hold onto the prideful race they ought to be.

So dying is the best course for him right now,

"Where did you kill him?", Rex asks while grabbing the Elf's hair.

If the Elf was in a good state, he will certainly be boiling in anger when he got pulled by the hair.

In the Elf custom, their hairs are an untouchable place that they rather die than get humiliated by getting pulled by their hair.

For them, their hairs or head, in general, are their pride.

But for the Elf in front of Rex, he has no such thoughts right now.

The Elf looks to his right signaling to Rex that the corpse is in that direction, he can't point right now because he has no arms left.

Rex look to the side before he dashes there,

After looking around for a couple of minutes, he found the young military man's corpse.

His hands are cut off from his body, and there are a couple of arrows stabbed on his arm, shoulders, and eventually his heart.

Looking at this, Rex holds onto his stoic expression.

It would be rude to pity the young military man that has already died,

Rex then slashes the ground creating a big pit before he put the young military man's corpse in it, with this, he will at least be in peace.

<Bury the military man corpse 1/1>

After doing that, Rex went back before he find out that the Elf has already died.

He died due to blood loss,

Rex finds it annoying that he already died but he finally let it go, there is no use for him to torture the Elf more than he already did.

If he does that then he will fall into the psychopath category,

But still, the anger that is still boiling inside him still hasn't resided even in the slightest.

He then slowly looks at the Great Tree direction with his purple eyes, and his burning anger can be seen through his eyes.

No one will survive this night, it will be a massacre.

~

Meanwhile,

The Great Tree of the Elves becomes chaotic right after the loud scream of pain,

Five Elves dressed in white and green robes came out of the top hole of the Great Tree, and they are looking in a direction with a frown.

All other regular Elves also stopped when they heard the scream,

It was a scream that makes their skin crawl, and one of the Elves recognize the voice making his face drains from all colors.

One of the Elf approach the Elders and said, "Elders, we heard the scream from that direction"

"I know! Make way! Move!", one of the Elder Elves shouted.

The crowd of Elves is gathering while looking at the scream direction,

Although the voice sounds familiar, their bodies can't move because of another oppressing aura that comes from the scream direction.

It was akin to a powerful monster that is lurking in the shade, and they didn't dare to venture there lest they will become the monster's next meal.

The five Elders looks at each other before they started chanting,

Their hands move in a union as they create a green symbol in front of them,

"Mother Nature heed our call and provide us with security to defend our people, Wood Magic!
Nature Unbreakable Shield!"

Just as they finish chanting, the green symbol got planted to the ground,

KRRKK!

BOOM!

The ground started to tremble as huge vines came out of the ground, they then wrap around each other creating a huge wall with the Elders on top of it.

"Is it the humans? This is deeper than they usually go", one of the Elder said.

Then another added, "I don't think it is, the aura clearly came from another Supernatural but why did they attack us?"

Just after they said that one of them sense something.

"Which race did you come from! Show yourself!", one of the Elder shouted.

But rather than getting his answer, all he got was silence.

The normal Elves behind the vine wall becomes worried, it is not an everyday thing for the Elder to use such a powerful spell.

It shows them how threatening the Supernatural they're dealing with right now.

Rex is currently stalking them from the shade, he saw the Elders creates a huge wall from vines and it looks sturdy.

He already scans all of them and finds out only one of the Elders is mid-rank six, the others are early rank six.

For Elves, reaching rank six means they can use Nature Spirit.

It is the same as Awakened that reaches rank six, they will be able to use their assimilated spirit to boost their power.

In this state, the Awakened can't conjure the spirit power but get an enhanced boost from the presence of the spirit that assimilates with them.

Reaching mid-rank means that their body has the spirit traits,

For example, if a mid-rank six Awakened assimilate with a fire spirit then he will be able to conjure the spirit traits and lit their body in the fire.

This will not only boost their elemental attack but also protect their bodies.

In this state, the Awakened is in the half-Spirit mode where they can only use half of the spirit power to help them in battle.

Rex looks at his hands before he clenched them,

'With this much power, taking them all out is probable', Rex thought.

But before he does anything reckless, he opens the system before he taps on it a couple of times with a smile on his face.

Back to the Elves,

The Elders are still waiting for the monster to show itself because they can still sense the monster's presence in the shade.

"It won't come out", the Elder that is silent all this while finally said.

Then another impatient Elder replied, "Maybe it knows that it cannot fight all of us, we can just rush it down knowing that this thing is not confident in facing us"

Right after he said that a figure came out of the shade.

This figure is obviously Rex that is in his Werewolf form,

His body is towering and huge even by seeing from afar, fierce violet eyes are looking at each of the Elders one by one, and his body is glowing with a white-yellowish hue.

Rex already activates his Pure Brace of Moonlight skill and Yellow Force.

Looking at this, the Elders were shocked seeing that the thing turns out to be a Werewolf, "Werewolf? When did they start venturing here?", the Elders burst in shock.

The quiet Elder that seems to be the leader spoke, "Friend! What is the purpose of your visit?"

"Revenge", Rex said nonchalantly.

Hearing this, the Elder frowns, "Did our kind do something to yours? Where is your pack, If we did something wrong then we will compensate you"

Without answering, Rex tossed three Elves' heads that he killed before.

The Elder's frowns harder upon seeing this, then Rex finally said, "Today, none of you will survive"

Right after he said that,

BOOM!!

Rex's body is blasted with violent black lightning as he uses his Flash spell, his dash breaks the sound barrier as it creates a booming sound.

It was so fast that the Elders are caught off guard, only the leader of the Elder prepare a counter.

The vines wall suddenly glows with a green light as the Elder touched it, the durability of the wall becomes even stronger because of it.

But then suddenly, Rex's claw burns with black energy.

"Claw of Tormentor!!!", he shouted before he points his claw forward and crashes into the wall.

BOOM!

SHATTER!

The Elder that manage to react on time widened his eyes when he saw the wall was broken by only one of Rex's attacks, it completely shocks him to the core.

"AARGGHH!!"

"RUN TO THE FOREST!!"

All the normal Elves screamed and ran as the wall got destroyed,

After destroying the wall, the ground turns black as Rex activated his spell.

He then fires a lightning strike from the ground that manage to kill many normal Elves,

<Killed Elves 9/100>

<15/100>

<23/00>

But even though his elemental attack is efficient in taking out the normal Elves, it did nothing to the Elders as they shrug the black lightning off.

Rex's Awakened power is only of a rank five,

Against these Elders that have rank six power, his black lightning has no chance.

This is why Rex decided to learn his pending skills in the system,

Spells will not work on the Elders because he's weak, but skills on the other hand scale with his stats so against the Elders it will be better to fight them using skills.

With his enhanced stats, his skills will be even more lethal!

The Elders then slammed their hands to the ground and instantly destroying Rex's spell, it got overwhelmed by their elemental power.

But this didn't come as a shock for Rex,

In that moment of time where the Elders are destroying his spell, Rex dashes to the weakest Elder on the left as his hand glows with black energy.

The Elder look to his back in surprise but it's too late,

SLASH!!

Rex's claw manage to slash the Elder's chest cleanly as blood gushed out but in that exact moment, BOOM!

Rex got blown to the side as another Elder arrow him from the side, "KUAHHK!!", he spat a mouthful of blood as the arrow pierced his back.

"Elder Gorduin! Are you okay?!", one of the Elder said in concern.

Elder Gorduin that got slashed by Rex's claw fall to the ground weakly,

The other Elders try to heal Elder Gorduin's injury to no avail, they are all shocked when they saw the injury is so hard to be healed.

The black energy that got transferred to Elder Gorduin is very corrosive, they can't heal it.

Looking at this, the strongest Elder looks into Rex's direction with anger.

His body exploded with Wood Mana making the ground crack,

A four-winged spirit came out of the Elder's body as it started to envelop his body, his eyes glows bright green and four wings appeared on his back.

It is his Half-Spirit form, a power only mid-rank six has.

Rex got up from the ground before he ripped the arrow that pierced him, he then turns to his back and saw the Elder's wrathful eyes.

Seeing this, Rex spits blood to the ground mockingly as his injury healed at a visible rate.

"THIS IS TOO FAR!", the Elder shouted.

He is still unsure whether to continue the fight or not, he's dealing with a Werewolf who is a higher-rank race than the Elves.

It will be bad if things got out,

Hearing this, Rex smiles sinisterly, "I told you, all of you will die today"

Chapter 187 Eastern Altstone Forest Brawl

"Why!! Tell me the reason for it!", the Elder shouted desperately.

But Rex already go into his battle position, he didn't even intend in answering the Elder anymore.

From the look of the Elves in front of him and their power, Rex already knows that they are the High Elves of this place.

The root-like horns on top of their heads, and their dark yellow eyes say it all.

"Elder Sylvar, We need to fight him together!", one of the Elder said to Elder Sylvar who is the strongest one.

Hearing this, Elder Sylvar nodded his head.

The exchange they have before where Rex destroyed the wall made by all of them greatly concerns him, Rex did it so easily.

So based on that, Elder Sylvar assumes that Rex has something even greater.

While they are discussing with themselves, Rex's breathing suddenly becomes hot as a red symbol appeared on his forehead.

The symbol is shaped like a half-crescent moon,

And as soon as the symbol appears, Rex's injury stops healing.

"Berserker Curse...", Rex mumbles.

This is one of the skills he got from the Werewolves fighting in Zrolis City, this is Brutal Grey's skill that makes him even daring despite his gruesome injuries.

BOOM!

Rex dashes in again like a lightning bolt,

His aura becomes violent as he prepares himself to exchange blows with Elder Sylvar, and he didn't plan on stepping back.

SWOOSH!!

Elder Sylvar also burst with green energy as he flapped his wings forward to meet Rex head-on.

Looking at this, the two Elders join in the fight while one of the Elder is left behind to take care of Elder Gorduin.

BOOM!!

A powerful shockwave was created as Rex and Elder Sylvar collided,

Both of their fists collided creating a powerful shockwave that uproot the trees and even the ground around them, it was devastating for the surrounding.

The Elders that were about to join were forced to stop, the shockwave is too strong, they can't move any closer to the two.

After the powerful collision, Rex and Elder Sylvar started to exchanges blows.

BAM!

BAM!

BAM!

Each of Rex's attacks is imbued with Force Beam knowing that his opponent is not weak, while Elder Sylvar was shocked by Rex's power.

Even in his half-Spirit form, he still got overwhelmed by Rex's power.

When both of their fists collided, Elder Sylvar's fist got pushed back as he felt a slight pain on his muscle, and every time Rex's fist landed on him, blood crawl onto his throat trying to gush out.

"Rghh!", Elder Sylvar gritted his teeth as he forced the blood down.

From the look of it, Rex is in the upper hand.

But Rex is still hurt by Elder Sylvar's punch also, there is cone-shaped green energy on the tip of Elder Sylvar's fists that punctured a hole each time Rex got punched.

And the weird thing is, the hole didn't regenerate as if Rex is only a human.

'What's wrong with him?! Why is he becoming stronger by the second!', Elder Sylvar thought in shock.

Instead of becoming weaker, Rex becomes stronger instead.

It makes no sense with all of the injuries on Rex's body right now, there are three gaping holes on Rex's chest but he still keeps punching vigorously.

BAM!!

"ARGHH!", Elder Sylvar was punched to the side.

But just after he crashed, he flapped his wings upwards as he shouted, "Great Wood Magic, Nature's Arrow!!"

He forced out his remaining mana to this attack, blood can be seen on the corner of his mouth.

The wood mana gathered on Elder Sylvar's hand as it take a shape of an arrow, it contains immense mana that even the surrounding wood mana got sucked into it.

"Let's fight together!", Elder Sylvar shouted to the two Elders.

He then fires the Nature's Arrow that creates a cyclone as it descends towards Rex,

Hearing this, the Elders nodded their heads as they touch the ground before four thick vines caught Rex's limbs, and also a green symbol appeared in front of Rex.

Rex was caught by the vines chaining him in place,

He looks to his front and saw the Nature's Arrow is closing onto him, and getting hit by it will certainly injure him badly.

In the nick of the moment, Rex's eyes flash with black lightning.

"Blitzing Cry!!", Rex roared as his body exploded with lightning, the vines that held him in place got destroyed by the black lightning setting him free.

He then positioned himself as he shouted, "FORCE BEAM!!"

BOOM!!

Rex and the Nature's Arrow collided creating a powerful green shockwave that is even more powerful than the collision before.

The Green Symbol in front of Rex shatters as it supplies mana to the Nature's Arrow making it even stronger than before.

Rex can feel the changes instantly,

SWOOSH!!

This time Instead of getting pushed back, the Elders got blown away.

Even Elder Sylvar was blown away hitting the Great Tree, the impact from the Nature's Arrow and Rex's Force Beam was too strong.

Rex put everything into this punch, but he feels that he's getting pushed back.

"RAARRGHH!!", Rex roared desperately as he drives his fist forward, he did it with all his might before suddenly,

KABOOOMM!!!

Nature's Arrow exploded sending violent energy slashing the surrounding.

Rex get blown away by the collision as his body got slashed by the violent energy, he crashed hundreds of meters away before stopping.

It was so powerful that even the mutated animals in 10 miles radius ran away.

This night is chaos in the Eastern Altstone Forest, not a single mutated animal can calm down as the fight still going on.

SWOOSH!!

The Elders that are already blown away got even more trashed because of the explosion, some even broke their bones because of the impact.

After the explosion resided, the Elders recovered.

Elder Gorduin died because of the impact, his body can't hold onto the corrosive black energy as he died in one of the Elder's arms.

The other Elders are also not in a good shape,

Two of them broke their arms while the furthest Elder got scratches here and there, Elder Sylvar is also injured and his breathing is already heavy.

It can be seen that his mana is exhausted, the attack he used before was his most powerful spell.

"Elder Sylvar! Are you okay?!", one of the Elder shouted.

Hearing this, Elder Sylvar didn't answer as he look in the direction where Rex got blown off to hoping that Rex will stay down or even die.

After waiting for 30 seconds, Elder Sylvar then said, "How're the others?"

"They will be fine, there're no life-threatening injuries", one of the Elder replied, this makes Elder Sylvar nodded his head.

The Elders' injuries are starting to heal, Wood Element is known for its healing magic.

Elder Sylvar turns normal, he can't sustain his half-Spirit form anymore.

But just after he turns normal,

Thud...Thud...Thud...

The sound of light footsteps can be heard,

Each of these footsteps sound brings imminent terror to the Elders, they're stepping back unconsciously knowing that Rex didn't die.

Rex came to their vision with a dangling right arm,

But even with his dangling right arm, his eyes are still burning with fighting spirit.

<The user has sustained a substantial injury! The user's stats will be increased by 20%!

The system pops a notification that makes Rex even eager to fight, the Berserker Curse skill makes him stronger the more injury he sustained.

The Violet Moon will also make him stronger the angrier he gets, this fight is definitely his.

"IMPOSSIBLE! HOW COULD THIS HAPPEN!", Elder Sylvar shouted in shock.

Although Werewolves are powerful, no ordinary Werewolf has the same power as him, Only an Alpha has the power to rival his.

Elder Sylvar then added, "WHY ARE YOU DOING THIS! We will compensate whatever our kind did, so just stop this meaningless fight!!"

Hearing this, Rex laughs loudly.

His low-baritone rough laughs reverberated to the surrounding, "You are currently compensating for what your kind did"

Elder Sylvar frowns, he doesn't understand what Rex is talking about.

"You kill my friend, so I will kill all of you in exchange", Rex added with a sinister smile.

'One of ours killed a Werewolf?! Who dares to do that?!', Elder Sylvar thought, no Elves that dare to kill a Werewolf cross his mind.

Even the Elders will not do such reckless things,

"I will find the person that killed your friend and properly execute him to your likings! So please stop this", Elder Sylvar pleaded.

He will not go further, he has fight enough.

But Rex ignores this, he grabs his dangling right arm before he relocates it back in place.

Crack!

After feeling his right arm can be moved again, Rex gets into his battle stance without even considering Elder Sylvar's pleading look.

Seeing this, "then so be it, Elders guard me!!"

"Elder Sylvar, Are you going to use that ritual?!", one of the Elder asks.

Then another added, "We have been developing this Great Tree for three years! It will raze years of our effort to the ground if you do this"

"SHUT UP! JUST PROTECT ME!", Elder Sylvar shouted.

Seeing Elder Sylvar's resolute look, the Elders finally gets into their position.

Elder Sylvar then kneels in front of the Great Tree before he mumbles, "Pardon this useless one oh God of Nature, Strike me if you must but I'm doing this for my own kind"

After saying that, Elder Sylvar pierce through the Great Tree's root with his hand.

Instantly after Elder Sylvar did this, the Great Tree glows before its life force got sucked into Elder Sylvar making him even stronger.

Seeing this, "Alpha Bearing!"

ZONG!!

The Elders suddenly felt their body went stiff, only Elder Sylvar is not affected by this.

"Protect the Great Tree and Elder Sylvar at all cost!", The Elders shouted with a determined look, they will hold Rex from getting closer with their lives.

Seeing this, Rex smirk.

SWOOSH!

The ground cracked as Rex dashes to the Elders,

"Wood Magic! Chains of Nature!"

BOOM!

Big Vines sprout from the ground as it headed towards Rex, it was moving fast and it wanted to catch Rex.

Rex jumps around trying to avoid the Vines, but then,

Green birds made of mana suddenly appeared on his right, he can't dodge the green birds so he gritted his teeth and punch them.

CRASH!

But instead of getting destroyed, the green birds' sprouts vines that started to entangles Rex.

This creates a gap making the Vines that are chasing after Rex catch up.

Rex got entangled once again as he glance at Elder Sylvar, he can see that the Great Tree started to wither.

"BLITZING CRY!",

BLITZ!!

The vines got destroyed as Rex becomes even faster, he flashes steps to the Elder's back before he slashes one of them with Claw of Tormentor and bites the other one.

SLASH!!

BITE!!

Rex's claw slashes the Elder's head cleanly while he bites the other Elder's arm off.

<Killed an Early Rank Six Supernatural, Obtained 3,000,000 Exp>

<Killed High Elves 2/5>

"ARGHH!! MY ARM!!", the Elder shouted as Rex munched his arm, time is ticking and Rex will not be able to fight Elder Sylvar after the ritual.

Without wasting another second, Rex dashes to the last one.

The last Elders looks at Rex in horror, his body won't listen as a bleak aura came out of his body.

Fear gripped the last Elder in place making him an easy target, Rex clench his fist as it started to emit a yellow hue.

"Force Beam!"

BAM!

Rex's fist instantly blown the last Elder's head right off killing him instantly.

<Killed High Elves 3/5>

The Elders protecting Elder Sylvar died and one of them are immobilize, this left Elder Sylvar completely vulnerable to attacks.

After clearing the others off, Rex stopped on Elder Sylvar's back.

"Are you ready to die?", Rex said softly, this completely surprised Elder Sylvar.

Elder Sylvar looks to his back and saw the other Elders are either died or immobilized, the Elders didn't even reach a minute, Elder Sylvar is the remaining one left.

He then looks back to the Great Tree and said, "I can fend you off with one arm! In just another minute, the Great Tree's power will be mine!!"

Hearing this, Rex smiles mockingly.

"You can fend me off, but what about this Great Tree", he said with a smirk.

Realizing this, Elder Sylvar's eyes turn red, "NO! YOU CAN'T DO THAT! I WILL NOT PERMIT IT!"

RUMBLE!

The weather suddenly turns cloudy as Rex's eyes started blitzing with black lightning, the wind turns cold as this phenomenon started.

It makes Elder Sylvar's widened his eyes, "No... Please you can't do this!"

"I told you, All of you will die", Rex whispers softly.

Elder Sylvar started to sweat,

He can't use any magic while absorbing the Great Tree, so he can't do anything.

The words that came out of Rex's mouth makes Elder Sylvar's skin crawl, "Please...Don't do this, I'm sorry", he started to cry under the immense pressure.

But Rex knows no such thing as mercy,

"This will be your grave. Black Lightning Magic, Sky Rupture!!!"

"NO!!!", Elder Sylvar shouted desperately as he saw a black thick lightning descend from the sky.

CRACKK!!

KABOOM!!!

Chapter 188 Trench Predator Scavengers

"Black Lightning Magic, Sky Rupture!!!"

CRACK!!

BOOM!!

Rex summons a thick lightning bolt from the sky as it strikes down the Great Tree.

The Lightning Strike is so big that even the Great Tree got completely engulfed by it, this scene can be seen from miles away.

Right in front of Elder Sylvar's eyes, the Great Tree got zapped.

Because he becomes one with the Great Tree, Rex's spell also hurt him badly.

"ARRGHH!!!", He shouted in pain.

If he didn't become one with the Great Tree then he will probably manage to tank Rex's strike, but now that the Great Tree is dying it also affects Elder Sylvar.

Rumble!

All that is left of the Great Tree is a black charcoal tree,

<Burn the Great Tree of the Elf 1/1>

Rex got the notification from the system before he nodded his head,

This Great Tree is a young one just like what the Elders said, it can't sustain the attack of a rank five like Rex.

"Huakhh!", Elder Sylvar spat a mouthful of blood.

His right hand got charred as it turns black, he cannot move his right arm and the lightning mana infiltrate his body hurting his internal organs.

Rex walks closer to Elder Sylvar, it all went smoothly.

Before the fight began, Rex already asks the system all about Elves.

The system said that a Great Tree where Elves lived is a special tree that can attract Nature and Wood mana, and it also can be absorbed by Elves.

This is where Rex knows about Elder Sylvar's last attempt,

Rex knows from the system the best time to cancel this mana absorption is by destroying the tree right after the ritual started, and Rex did just that.

Now, Elder Sylvar got no mana left and his power is weakened.

Killing him now will be as easy as killing chickens, completely weak and defenseless.

Elder Sylvar raised eyes to meet Rex's, his pride and dignity as an Elf is gone as he said, "Please, just spare m-"

Before he can finish,

STAB!

Rex pierced Elder Sylvar's chest with his claws,

Elder Sylvar stutters in shock, a mouthful of blood gushed out of his mouth as he looks down to only find Rex's claw pierced his chest.

He sent one last look of confusion to Rex before he fall to the ground dead.

<Killed a mid-rank 6 Supernatural, Obtained 5,000,000 Exp>

<Killed High Elves 4/5>

After killing Elder Sylvar, Rex's eyes falls to the last struggling Elder that is trying to get away.

His body moves as he punches the air sending a Force Beam towards the last Elder, without any kind of resistance the Force Beam pierced the last Elder's chest and killed him.

<Killed an early rank six Supernatural, Obtained 3,000,000 Exp>

<Level up!>

<Obtained 3 Attributable Stats>

<Killed High Elves 5/5>

Rex nodded his head after finally reaching level 30, but then a series of notifications appeared again in front of him.

<The user has reached level 30! The evolution process will begin!>

<Berserk Quest detected!>

<The Evolution Process will be delayed, the user can pick the time to Evolve>

Looking at this, Rex can't help but smile.

The Evolution Process he will undergo will definitely give him a good upgrade, and he can't wait to do it feeling curious about the next Evolution.

With that, Rex finished killing the high Elves of this place.

Sniff Sniff...

Rex sniff the surrounding before he disappeared from his spot, the quest has not finished yet and he intend to finish it.

SWOOSH!

His enhanced smelling can locate all of the running normal Elves, no matter where they hide, Rex will find them eventually.

"ARGHH!!"

"PLEASE DON'T!"

SLASH!!

Rex makes light work of the normal Elves,

Many of the normal Elves are already far away but they still got track down by Rex, and most of them like to hide on a tree.

In just twenty minutes, Rex already killed one hundred Elves completing his berserk quest.

<Berserk Quest Completed!>

<Obtained 20,000,000 Exp, 20,000 Gold, 10 Skill Upgrade, 10x Minogame Shell, and Invincible>

Reading this, Rex nodded his head.

'Every time I get a berserk quest, it brings me many benefits. Should I get angry often?', It is evident that every time he got this kind of quest he will get many rewards.

And he's started to think that getting the Berserk Quest is not a bad thing.

In fact, he may try to be angry often to spark this Berserk Quest, but he quickly shakes his head, 'If I get a troublesome quest, I will be fucked', Rex thought.

'The system said that it will bring tremendous penalty if not completed, so it will be better to use this Berserk Quest carefully'

After that, Rex's body suddenly makes a cracking sound.

With the Berserk Quest ended, his transformation also ended turning him to normal.

Rex clench his fist feeling good that he got back to his human body, but he still likes the feeling of overwhelming power his Werewolf form has.

He then dashes to another tree, he will be going back to check on Liliya who he left.

'Now that I think about it, that's my mistake leaving Liliya there', Rex thought, he's afraid that she will be attacked while unconscious.

Just after he landed on the tree trunk, he suddenly hears a whimper on his right.

Rex looks to his right and found a hole,

He creeps closer towards the hole before he slashes the tree revealing three Elves hiding in it, they look like a family because there is a baby on their hands.

"Hyaahh!"

The male Elf picks up a sword that is glowing with green energy, he swings it to Rex repeatedly.

Looking at the Elf's movement, Rex instantly knows that he's not a fighter.

His movements are sluggish like a kid swinging a stick, Rex dodges it easily before he kicks the Elf right on his gut.

"Akh!!", The Elf got pushed back and fall beside the female Elf and her baby.

These Elves don't know that Rex is the Werewolf before, if they did then they will instantly fall into the depth of fear.

Rex walks closer to the Elves before he stopped in front of them,

The male Elf puts his body in front of the female and the baby to protect them, and he gritted his teeth as Rex raised his hand.

While looking at this, Rex smiles seeing the male Elf's resolute look.

He didn't even faze in front of Rex knowing that Rex is stronger than him, 'Civilians huh, I guess they're not that different after all'

After that, Rex's body turns into a blur as he left the place.

The Elves were shocked seeing this, they didn't imagine that a human will spare them.

But nevertheless, the male Elf shed tears of joy knowing his family is safe.

He hugs his wife and the baby that is in his wife's arms, He's glad that despite their home is raze they are still given mercy by God.

Meanwhile,

"What happened here...", a woman said while looking at the scene in front of her.

The scene in front of her makes her mouth gape, the traces of a fearsome battle can be seen left and right especially the charred Great Tree.

Then, a guy replied, "I don't know, but I can feel the leftover lightning mana in this place"

A group of five humans came to where Rex fought his battle against the Elders, they are wearing navy blue battle uniforms with a guild crest on their chest.

The guild crest is in the shape of a shark, they are members of a guild.

If Rex was here, he will instantly recognize a woman that is brought by this group of humans.

One of them carries Liliya on their back, it seems they met Liliya who is unconscious on their way towards here.

The leader of the group is a woman with blue eyes, she has the typical blond hair of a caucasian and a fit body befitting of a Scavenger.

In the Supernatural Territory, endurance is everything.

Many of the Scavengers will often meet Supernatural or even mutated beasts that they can't handle, and they need to run away from it.

And there's also no guarantee that after they lost them, nothing will chase after them again.

Reality proves that after they manage to run from a creature, they will be chased by another powerful creature making endurance the key for survival.

"This place should be Thyssys, a place made by the Elves 3 years ago", the leader explained.

Then, another guy said in awe, "Leader Vanessa, who could've done something like this, are the Supernatural fighting amongst themselves?"

Hearing this, the leader, Vanessa knitted her eyes,

She saw the High Elves corpse that has claw marks on them, 'These are not humans doing, but which race has lightning-based powers and claws'

But just when she's thinking, "Who are you guys?"

The group of humans instantly went into battle formation right after they heard this, their movements are coordinated showing their years of experience.

"Woah, Calm down"

Vanessa looks up and saw Rex standing on a tree trunk,

Looking at Rex's appearance, she then said, "We're the Scavengers from the Trench Predator guild, Who am I speaking to?"

'Trench Predator, rank 15 guild with a powerful Water Elementalist at their disposal', Rex thought.

"I'm a lone Scavenger, What are you guys doing here?", Rex replied calmly.

Although Rex is not holding any weapons or giving off a hostile aura, Vanessa and her group are still alert about him.

Vanessa then said, "We will be mapping Lightless Mash and Progan Swamp, Please be on your journey, we don't seek any more members"

Hearing this, Rex chuckles lightly.

The group of humans becomes even more alert, 'Looks like they have a bad experience with Scavengers, I don't blame them though'

"I will be on my way if you give her back to me", Rex said while pointing at Liliya.

Vanessa looks at Liliya before she looks back at Rex, "Nice try, but you just said that you are a lone Scavenger"

The Trench Predator group looks at Rex with a condemning look.

They are looking at Rex as if he's a low-life, and this makes Rex confused, 'Why are they looking at me like that?', he thought.

Rex looks at Liliya who is unconscious before he suddenly realized it.

"I'm not that kind of guy! She's my friend!", Rex shouted helplessly, he got confused as an asshole by the group.

Vanessa scoffs, "As I would believe that, get him!"

She signals to the others to take Rex down but Rex hurriedly intervenes, "Fine! Just wait for her to wake up and she will tell you the truth"

Hearing this, Vanessa raised her hand to stop the others, "We'll do that then"

After making the deal with the Trench Predator Group, Rex lays on the ground away from the group before he closes his eyes tiredly.

It is already early morning, and he's tired physically and mentally.

Most of his injuries are already healed, only the big ones like his back and arms are still regenerating.

The Trench Predator group is making a fire to make food,

Vanessa, on the other hand, is keeping an eye on Rex, her eyes have never left Rex even after Rex lies on the ground to rest.

10 minutes passed,

Rex opened his eyes when he felt someone approached him,

He saw a guy walking towards him with meat in his hand, "Are you hungry? We have some for you", he said with a smile.

Seeing this, Rex politely accepts the meat.

The guy then sits down beside Rex and said, "Our leader doesn't trust you"

Rex glance at Vanessa and saw that she is glaring at him, "Yeah right, as if I didn't know about that already"

The guy chuckles lightly, he then said, "I'm Simon, What is your name?"

"Rex", Rex answered.

After introducing himself, Simon then asks, "Do you know what happened here? I assume you're here knowing that your friend is lying unconscious not far from here"

"If you're wondering who killed the Elves, it was me", Rex said nonchalantly.

Hearing this, the guy laughs thinking that Rex is joking but soon he found out that Rex is not joking with his statements before.

"You...You killed them all?", he said in surprise.

He then added, "Then why is your friend unconscious there?"

"We got ambushed by Elves, they knocked Liliya there out so I decided to kill them all", Rex lied, it will be weird if he tell Simon he knocked Liliya out himself to help her.

Simon looks at Rex in disbelief before he said, "Are you for real?"

Rex nodded his head, he didn't think much about it because he's tired.

After getting this information, Simon stands up and runs back to Vanessa before he told her about what Rex told him.

Hearing this, Vanessa approach Rex before she said, "Killing hundreds of Elves alone? Like I would believe someone like you can do that"

"It's up to you to believe it or not", Rex said while chewing the meat.

But just when Vanessa wanted to rebut, she suddenly said, "You're nose, are you sure you're okay?"

Rex touch his nose in reflex and saw that there's blood on it,

He frowns because it's weird for him to get a nose bleed aside from getting punched, and he didn't feel any kind of pain in his body.

'Is this the effect of the Violet Moon?', Rex thought but he felt uneasy about this.

Chapter 189 Evolution Path

'Hmm, that's weird', Rex thought.

"I'm okay. Why are you concerned about me now, aren't you just about to curse me more a few seconds ago?", Rex said playfully.

Hearing this,

Vanessa immediately retracts her concerned expression.

Although they didn't know each other and Rex might potentially be their enemies, she still somehow feel concerned about Rex.

But that didn't last long,

Vanessa's expression turns stoic again before she said, "Anyway, stop telling lies to my group. I can defeat a guy like you with one hand"

"Alright princess grumpy, I won't tell any more lies", Rex said nonchalantly.

But Vanessa was stunned, "Princess Grumpy?! Why you-"

She glares at Rex wanting to rebut but she then bit her lips, "There's no point talking to you, I'll personally beat you if that girl told me she didn't know you"

After Vanessa said that, she left Rex alone.

Rex can only look at Vanessa's back with a playful smile, 'I can't believe she's the leader of the group'

But still, the nose bleed concerns him,

He still doesn't know where that nose bleed came from, any injuries he sustained will probably be healed by now after he turns off the Berserk Curse skill.

So there should be no injury aside from the one that can be seen.

Rex touches his nose again and found that his nose is still bleeding, it's doesn't bleed much but it's still there.

'System, Why am I having a nose bleed? Is there an injury that I can't heal?', Rex asks.

<Mortal Injuries no matter how bad it is will be healed eventually, only heavy injuries from silver, White Rye, or Omicron cannot be healed without the help of items>

Reading this, Rex becomes even more confused.

'So Where did this nose bleed came from?', Rex thought in confusion.

The Trench Predator group left Rex alone under Vanessa's command, and Rex didn't mind their treatment towards him one bit.

She's still mad with Rex for calling him a grumpy princess, and it can be seen clearly.

While Rex is lying on the ground to rest, he suddenly remembers something.

'System, how long is the Evolving Process?', Rex asks.

<The user will be brought into the user's consciousness, there the user will choose the evolution path before finally evolving. It will take approximately half an hour>

Reading this, Rex frowns, 'Evolution Path?'

The evolution he experience before was not his choice,

He evolves from half-Werewolf into Werewolf, before he then turns into High Werewolf.

Not one time from those two evolutions does he have a choice, but now the system told him he will be choosing the Evolution Path.

'Let's see what's this about', Rex thought before he sneak away.

Rex will be finding a place to evolve without disturbance, and it will be bad if someone was to find him during his evolution process.

Swosh~

He disappeared from the place silently, it didn't make any sound at all.

But his disappearance didn't go unnoticed, Vanessa saw him left the place with a frown before she then tries to follow Rex.

"Wait here, I need to do something", Vanessa said to the others.

Simon looks at her before he looks at Rex's direction to find him gone, "Leader just leave him, It seems he's lying about being friends with this girl"

Hearing this, the leader raised her hand before she went in Rex's direction.

The others can only sigh, "She never changed, she's like the ultimate nightmare for all womanizers"

"I don't blame her though, Anyone will be like that if they go through what she did", another added before they then went back to eating.

Meanwhile,

Vanessa saw Rex's silhouette dashing inside the forest,

She is keeping a good distance from him to not get noticed, 'You're running now, I'm not going to let you go that easily', she thought.

But then, Rex suddenly vanished from her vision.

Vanessa picks up her pace and found that Rex is already gone, she didn't even saw how he can escape from her vision.

She stops from her track before she touches the ground, "Detection..."

Blue Mana infiltrates the ground as it started to spread, Vanessa is currently closing her eyes as she tries to find where Rex has gone to.

From all of the waters in the surrounding, Vanessa can feel the vibration of all of them.

'I will definitely find you', Vanessa thought before suddenly, 'What the-'

The water behind her suddenly vibrates tremendously, she opened her eyes and slashes her back with her sword that is glowing with fierce water mana.

Rex envelopes his hand with Yellow Force as he caught the sword,

SLASH!

The sword was caught by Rex's hand but it still pierced through his barrier, it got stopped right after it slashed his skin.

'Pretty strong', Rex thought in amusement.

The sword broke through his Yellow Force Barrier and slash his palm, but the sword didn't manage to cut deep enough only leaving a little scratch on Rex's palm.

His hands bleed slightly, it didn't bleed for that long though.

This shocked Vanessa greatly,

Her sword is not just imbued with her mana rather that it is a spell, so it should penetrate Rex's skin easily knowing its penetration power has increased even more.

But to her surprise, it got stuck on Rex's hand.

"What are you doing?", Rex asks softly.

Vanessa tries to retract her sword but Rex's grip is unmoving, she can't move her sword at all,

"What do you think? You run from us knowing that you lied to us"

Rex chuckles hearing this, "Listen, I will be back in half an hour"

"Do you really think I will believe that? You try to take advantage of that girl and I won't forgive you for that", Vanessa said angrily.

Seeing that Vanessa will not leave him alone, Rex sigh.

His hand suddenly glows with an intense yellow hue again as Rex grip Vanessa's sword tighter, the blue energy surrounding it got suppressed bit by bit.

Vanessa's hand suddenly becomes sweaty, she just realized what that yellow energy was, 'F...Force?! He comprehended Yellow Force?!'

The blue mana surrounding Vanessa's sword finally dimmed before suddenly,

Crack!

Vanessa's sword snaps in two making her even paler in surprise, 'This is a rank four Sword! How can it snap that easily?! No...'

She then realizes something, "You really did kill the Elves?!"

"I told you, you can believe what you believe. You said you didn't trust me, and the same goes for me", Rex said with a cold expression.

He will not shrug off Vanessa if he keeps acting soft,

Rex then walks closer towards Vanessa making her step back involuntarily before he pinned Vanessa on a tree, he then said, "I'll give you a chance because your group look trustable"

"But if I know Liliya is hurt while I'm gone, believe me, I will end your group's career", Rex said harshly.

Vanessa can only stand there frozen, she didn't expect that Rex can overpower her with just a little display of power.

He didn't even look like he's trying, but he manage to snap her sword.

"Fine, I'll believe you this time", she mumbles before she gets back to the Trench Predator group.

After their exchange, Rex waited near the place making sure that Vanessa will not follow him anymore lest she's stubborn.

Rex saw Vanessa left before he dash away,

He found a fallen tree that is held by a big rock creating a small gap, he then takes a bunch of tree trunks and leaves to cover the place before he lies down.

'System, begin the Evolution Process', Rex said.

<Beginning Evolution Process...>

Right after the notification, Rex's eyes suddenly felt heavy before he pass out.

It was not even a minute,

It happened so fast that before Rex knows it, he's already in a black space with nothing around him except complete darkness.

He can't see anything in here and he can't even feel anything in here except for his body and the watery place.

But soon, a hologram appeared in front of Rex.

<Evolution Path>

After the Evolution Path hologram appeared, it was then split into three holograms that show different things in it.

Rex looks at the three and found that they are three different Werewolf species,

<Demonic Blood Werewolf>

<Alpha Slate Werewolf>

<Royal Black Werewolf>

Looking at this, Rex can roughly guess what this is, 'So I need to choose from these three options right? Let's inspect each of them'

Rex looks at the Demonic Werewolf before a hologram tab appeared,

In this Demonic Blood Werewolf tab, Rex is shown a video of what he thought was a Demonic Blood Werewolf that is fighting Orcs.

It has red lines all over its body that are glowing bloody red, and there's a sphere made of blood on top of him.

The Demonic Blood Werewolf rampage through the horde of Orcs with bloodlust.

All of the Orcs that are shown in this video look stronger than the Orcs Rex encountered, in fact, some of them are the legendary black Orc.

It is a rare kind of Orc that was discovered in the early Emergence of the Supernatural.

The records stated that this Black Orc is crazily stronger than its brethren, it can be as strong as a rank seven Awakened!

But in this video, the Demonic Blood Werewolf rampage through them easily.

It mainly kills an Orc by biting them before the killed Orcs blood got sucked into the sphere, and every time it faces powerful opponents or gets hurt the sphere will supply it blood.

After inspecting it, Rex close the tab before he opened the Alpha Slate Werewolf tab.

This time, Rex was shown a grey Werewolf with shiny furs that looks as strong as the Demonic Blood Werewolf before.

The video shows the Alpha Slate Werewolf fighting humans,

Rex saw this and realize that the humans are all using gears made of silver, but even so, the Alpha Slate Werewolf didn't get hurt by the silver at all.

In fact, it treats the silver weapons and gears as normal steel, catching, biting, and even punching the silver gears doesn't bother it.

This shouldn't happen because almost all Supernatural is weak to silver, but apparently not this one.

Rex closed the Alpha Slate Werewolf and opened the last one, the Royal Black Werewolf that Rex was the most curious about.

Just from its name, this one sounds strong.

Another tab opened showing an ink-black Werewolf that is towering over the other Werewolves.

This Royal Black Werewolf looks the same as a normal Werewolf except for its more human-like size and the two horns pointing inwards like a goat.

It's standing straight like a normal human, and even its legs are not hinds.

From just a glance, Rex is instantly attracted to it because he will not be too big of a Werewolf like normal Werewolves that kept getting bigger the stronger they get.

Rex watch the video and found that this Werewolf fights like a regular Werewolf.

It looks like the Werewolf has well-rounded stats higher than High Werewolf, it fights by slashing, biting, and with clear anger just like any other Werewolf.

Looking at this, Rex frowns knowing that he will not pick it.

Although it looks cool, it doesn't have any substantial effects like the other two.

But just when he's about to close the tab, the video changed to a scene where many Werewolves bowed before the ink-black Werewolf and even other Supernatural felt pressured by its presence.

Rex knows this because he can see the other Supernaturals are trembling in its presence.

After showing that scene, the video ended and Rex got shown back to the three choices in front of him.

He then fell into thought,

'The first Werewolf relies on blood to fight, it is relentless in a fight because it will get endless supply. But if the enemy has no blood, it will be at a disadvantage', Rex thought.

He then continues to the second Werewolf, 'The Alpha Slate Werewolf has clear immunity to silver, but I'm on humanity's side so that's not needed'

Then Rex's eyes fall to the last one, Royal Black Werewolf.

'From the video, this Werewolf is clearly a royal with an immense presence that can pressure other Supernaturals. It fights regularly like a normal Werewolf with nothing special other than its bearing and presence', Rex thought.

After deliberating with the three Werewolves, Rex finally came to a decision.

Meanwhile,

A wandering mutated wolf that is twice bigger than a lion stops in its track, it sniffs the surrounding before its muzzle turns to its right.

The mutated wolf has white fur, and its muscular body brings terror to the other mutated animals in the surrounding area.

Even the mutated birds flew away upon seeing the white wolf,

It then sniffs the bushes,

The wolf then claw the broken tree trunks and leaves from its way before it stopped abruptly, it found a man lying on the ground with closed eyes.

Its fangs then came out feeling happy to find a defenseless meal.

The wolf stretches its paw to claw the man lying on the ground before suddenly,

CRACK!

The sound of bone cracking surprised it making it steps back,

Then, the white wolf suddenly felt an enormous pressure coming from the man lying on the ground before suddenly,

Swoosh!!

The white wolf closed its eyes as a subtle shockwave went past it,

When the white wolf opens its eyes, it saw the man is already standing and the man is looking at the white wolf making the white wolf whimper.

"Would you look at here, I got a company"

Chapter 190 Found You

The white mutated wolf whimpers unconditionally, It can feel the suppressing but familiar aura coming from the man in front of it.

It holds its tail down and lowers its posture, the submissive behavior makes the man smile.

The man in front of the White Wolf is Rex,

Rex finished his evolution after picking his evolution path, and he can instantly feel the changes in his body from the evolution.

He walks closer to the White Wolf before he stretches his hand to rub the White Wolf.

The White Wolf didn't dare to do anything rash as it let Rex rubs its head, it also didn't feel any hostile aura from Rex so it doesn't feel threatened.

After rubbing the White Wolf, Rex retracts his hand.

He wanted to go back to the others when suddenly the White Wolf called out to him.

It rubs its head on Rex's leg like an obedient dog, this behavior makes Rex quite surprised, 'This mutated animal is strong, it has peak rank five power, but it becomes tame after seeing me. Is it because I'm a Werewolf?'

'But the wolf in the Caribidis Temple is only low-rank, is my bearing becomes stronger?', Rex thought.

Rex then plays with the White Wolf for a bit,

He tries catching the big White Wolf as the Wolf runs away playfully, it runs left and right trying to dodge Rex making Rex smile unconsciously.

Both of them play with each other, and Rex forgot about the time.

The White Wolf laid on its back as Rex rubs its belly playfully tickling the wolf making the Wolf tries to break free,

It looks unnatural because the White Wolf is so big compared to Rex, but under Rex's strength, it cannot break free from Rex's tickle attack!

But their playing time got interrupted,

<Congratulation on Evolving into Royal Black Werewolf!>

<Mental Expertise Gift has been unlocked!>

<Congratulation on completing Realm of Origin Achievement, Obtained Myth Presence Passive Skill!>

<Manual Transformation Feature has been unlocked!>

Series of notifications appeared on Rex's vision making him stop tickling the White Wolf, he looks at each of them and finds that all of them are new things.

He stands up and checks each of the notifications,

<Mental Experties>

After reaching Royal Black Werewolf, the user's body potential has been unlocked further resulting in obtaining Mental Expertise Gift. Every time the user levels up, the mental stat will be increased by 2!

<Myth Presence>

The user completed the Realm of Origin achievement by evolving into Royal Black Werewolf obtaining Myth Presence Passive Skills. Any Supernatural that has a weaker bloodline than the Royal Black Werewolf will feel uneasy in the user's presence, the user can place anyone as an exception to this passive skill.

The Myth Presence and Mental Expertise makes Rex crack a smile, this is a very powerful addition to his arsenal.

His power greatly relies on Mental Stat, and with this, his mental stat will skyrocket.

The Myth Presence on the other hand is also good for him, especially when fighting magic-based races such as the Elves before or even Siren and Demon.

Conjuring magic or spell will need extra concentration,

Many Awakened or Supernatural train this part over and over again make their body used to conjure magic or spell, this will result in their body automatically becomes focused every time they want to conjure a spell or magic.

But what happens when they are feeling uneasy or nervous,

They won't be able to concentrate enough to conjure spells or magic, and this can be a decisive factor in a battle.

Even a second can determine the outcome of a battle, let alone feeling uneasy or nervous.

Only people with decades of experience in conjuring magic or spells can still use spell even if they're nervous, but not everyone have that kind of experience.

After nodding to himself feeling satisfied, Rex then looks at the last one.

Rex is hoping for something from this feature, but he will need to read the description to find out if the feature is what he's hoping for.

<Manual Transformation>

Reaching level 30 unlocked the Manual Transformation, the user will now be able to transform into the user's Werewolf form at the expense of Lunar Blessing Storage. The user's stats will be increased just like during a full moon, but it can only be used at night.

Reading this, Rex punched the air in excitement, "YES!!!"

The White Wolf that is lying on the ground beside Rex jolted in surprise, it looks at Rex with a weird and confused expression that cannot be explained.

'I can turn into my Werewolf Form manually, this is what I want', Rex thought in excitement.

He then opens the Lunar Blessing Storage to see how much time he got there,

<Lunar Blessing Storage>

105/120 minutes

Looking at this, Rex was confused, 'When did the max capacity increase? I thought it will still be 60 minutes like before. Oh well'

Rex then open his new stats and inspect them, but before he does that,

'System, Absorb ten of Minogame Shell', he said.

Right after Rex said that ten black armor-like items materialize in front of him.

The White Wolf on the side widened its eyes as if it's seeing a magic trick, it wags its tail and circle Rex trying to find where Rex take it out from.

After that, the ten black armor-like items went inside Rex's body,

THUMP!

Rex's heart suddenly beats as he falls to the ground, he can feel his body becomes stronger but this process is weirdly painful.

It doesn't last long as notifications appeared,

<Obtained 200,000 Body Exp>

<The user's body has leveled up to level 16! Increase Endurance by 24!>

After absorbing the Minogame Shell, Rex opens his stats tab,

<Rex Silverstar>

Pack: Silverstar (2/2)

Level: 30 (26,600,000/28,000,000)

Race: Royal Black Werewolf

Full-Moon: 2 Days - Violet Moon

Berserk: 51%

Sanity: 44%

Mental: 117 (+32)

Strength: 211 (+85)

Agility: 144 (+14)

Endurance: 105 (+59)

Intelligence: 236 (+20)

Attributable Stats: 3

Seeing this, Rex's eyes widened in surprise.

His stats experience a huge change from the evolution, all of them raised tremendously especially his mental stats.

Rex thought that the Royal Black Werewolf relies more on mental, so that's why it increased so much more than the others.

He then clenched his hand feeling his new power, 'Can I now contend with a rank six?'

Although he experience a tremendous increase in stats, he still doesn't know if he can take on a rank six just like what he did before.

There's a disparity between the two realms, and it's not a small one.

The only thing that will make Rex guarantee his win against a rank six creature or Awakened is by reach peak rank five Awakened power, it should boost his confidence more.

But there is just one problem, Rex doesn't know how to raise his rank anymore.

Rank five or above is usually achieved by Awakened that have 7 to 10 years of training as an Awakened, so the information is not available in the university.

'Let's just ask Vargas when I get back, he surely knows', Rex thought.

Rex looks to the sky and finds that it's already night, he unconsciously hangs around too long.

He then dashes away after patting the White Wolf one last time, he will be going back to the Trench Predator place to get Liliya.

Meanwhile,

The Trench Predator Scavengers are still resting,

Vanessa got a few complaints from her group members but she ordered them to wait for a bit more, she still believe Rex will come back.

"Leader, it's been hours already. I don't want to risk myself any further", a woman said.

Hearing this, a guy also added, "The longer we stay here, the more likely we will be ambushed by Supernaturals or even mutated animals. It's best to go to the Lightless Mash"

Vanessa bit her lips and replied, "The Elves are massacred, and they are the main Supernatural here so waiting for a bit more is fine"

"You don't know that! Think rationally, this is not our turf", the guy rebutted.

Looking at the group fighting, Simon finally intervenes, "This girl that called Liliya has a wound on her neck, she won't be waking up any soon. Let's just trust Rex and let him handle this girl"

Hearing this, Vanessa instantly shouted, "NO! I won't let him get near to the girl until I confirm that he's really her friend!"

But just when they're about to quarrel amongst themselves, Rex's figure can be seen walking casually towards the group.

Rex can feel some tension in the air, "Is she up yet?"

The group looks at Rex with hawk eyes, their moods are sour.

"No, There's a claw wound on her neck that I believe to be a Werewolf Rash. I know some medicine to suppress it, so she should wake up soon", Vanessa explained.

Rex frowns hearing this,

He walks closer to Liliya under Vanessa's eyes before he gently lifts Liliya's neck and saw that there is a scratch on her back.

The scratch is already turning blue and some liquid can be seen dripping from it.

'This... Did I accidentally scratch her when I knocked her out?!', Rex thought in shock, the injury looks similar to the ones Laura had.

But this time, it is caused by Rex's claw.

Rex felt guilty about this, he instantly bought the purified water from the system wanting to treat the scratch immediately.

Looking at this, Vanessa pulls Rex's shoulder, "What are you doing?"

"Curing her, so stop disturbing me", Rex said harshly, this is not the time to be playing around.

Seeing Rex's serious expression, Vanessa finally let go of his shoulder before Rex started rubbing the purified water on Liliya's injury.

Rex bites the tip of his fingers before he then rubs his blood on the injury.

After done treating Liliya, Rex then asks, 'System, What is the probability in curing her disease with my current power'

Based on Laura's case, Liliya's shouldn't be that severe.

Rex's power has raised tremendously, and this treatment should work.

<Injury treatment success is at 100%>

Reading this, Rex sigh in relief.

If somehow Liliya is not cured then he will feel immensely guilty, 'So that's why she doesn't wake up for this long, I'm sorry Liliya', Rex thought.

Vanessa taps Rex's shoulder before she said, "Is it done?"

"Yes, she should wake up in a bit and her injury will definitely be cured", Rex said assuringly, it's his fault after all.

But then, Simon said from the side, "Isn't Werewolf Rash treatment use a more powerful Werewolf blood? Why are you using yours?"

Hearing this, Rex was stunned on his spot.

'Shit! Why is he knowledgable about this', Rex thought in surprise.

The Trench Predator Group looks at him with suspicious eyes hearing what Simon said, but then Vanessa said, "Rex, your nose, it's bleeding again"

Rex touches his nose and found that his nose is bleeding more severely.

It's like he just got punched so hard that his nose broke, this makes him frown, 'What the heck? Why is this keep happening?'

But just as he thought that,

SWOOSH!

"Huh?", a woman from the Trench Predator Group groan as she felt a slight pain in her neck.

The others glance at her and found that her neck is bleeding,

The woman widened her eyes when she suddenly feels suffocated, she looks at the others with a shocked expression as she fall to the ground dead.

Her neck is sliced open, and blood gushed out of it like a waterfall.

Rex is already beside her but he's not fast enough, she saw the creature that sliced her neck.

The Trench Predator Group widened their eyes before they get into formation, they looks to the side and found a beautiful creature standing with her back facing the others.

The creature then turns its head a little showing its two fangs before it said, "Found you"
