Chapter 191 Meeting The Eternal Curse Creature

A beautiful creature appeared out of nowhere,

The creature is certainly a Vampire just from looking at its pale skin and two sharp fangs on its upper mouth, and the curves of the creature's body stated that the creature is a she.

Black and Red Victorian short skirt dress covered her body, and her red thin lips quirk up into a devious smile.

Rex looks at the Vampire in front of him in horror, 'That's...'

Flashes of the scene where Rex was about to find a sword for the tournament at Faraday University cross his mind.

In the bathroom, Rex got cursed and he saw a creature bathed in blood.

He can clearly see the creature's resemblance to the Vampire in front of him, and also the words that creature said to him still ring in his head.

"I will find you..."

That's what the creature said, and Rex becomes even certain the creature is the Vampire in front of him.

The Vampire glance at her back with her glowing purple eyes, the creepy smile on her face can be seen clearly as she turns around.

Upon revealing the Vampire's face, Rex widened his eyes because he recognize that Vampire.

'She's the Vampire I capture in Zrolis City, Calidora!', Rex thought in surprise, he would've never thought that the curse came from Calidora.

His body glows with a yellow hue as he thought, 'But why?! I didn't treat her badly that time'

Calidora looks at Rex with crazy eyes, her creepy smile is still plastered on her face as she tilts her head a little while looking at Rex.

Then, her eyes suddenly change.

Her purple violet eyes suddenly emit a red hue as it turns red, a weird-looking pattern appeared around her Sclera that makes Rex feel uneasy.

Rex's chest suddenly felt tightened as if something is gripping his heart.

In a flash, Calidora leaped towards Rex with blood energy surrounding her like a maniac.

The slight pang on his chest distracts Rex for a moment before suddenly, Calidora already leaped onto Rex pinning Rex to the ground.

Brak!

Rex looks at Calidora who is mounting on him in shock,

Calidora is also looking at Rex with crazed eyes before she suddenly waves her claws,

SLASH!

"Tch!", Rex grunted as his cheek got slashed, his blood started to flow down on his cheek slowly making Calidora gulp harshly.

She then brought her face closer while gripping Rex's cheek with her hand,

"I've been waiting for you", Calidora said softly before she licks the blood on Rex's cheek, she did it slowly as if she was carefully tasting Rex's blood.

Rex wanted to push her away but his chest felt tight again,

Seeing this scene, Vanessa shouted, "Let's help him! We can beat that Vampire!"

The others snap out of their daze after hearing Vanessa's command, they gritted their teeth and charge forward before suddenly,

TAP!

BOOM!

Four of them including Vanessa got hit on their backs,

They fall flat on the ground without any resistance, it happened so fast and before they know it they're already lying on the ground.

"Argh! Leader, Did you see who hit us?!", Simon shouted while looking at his surrounding.

Vanessa gets back up quickly before she shouted back, "I don't know! I can't feel their presence even with my detection!"

Feeling the situation is out of hand, Vanessa chanted, "Ice Magic! Ice Cocoon!"

SHRING!

An ice barrier erupted from the ground creating a cocoon around the Trench Predator Scavengers, the others then also chanted their spells to reinforce Vanessa's spell.

She already brought Liliya to her side, she will not leave Liliya alone.

Vanessa looks to the side to only found the Vampire mounting on top of Rex.

She squinted her eyes and saw Calidora's dress has a crest on them, she then widened her eyes in surprise, "That Vampire is a Royal!! The one that hit us should be her Royal Guards!"

"Royal Vampire?! We can't fight that!!", a guy shouted desperately.

They are Scavengers from the Trench Predator Guild, and they already have experience and briefing about this mission they're currently doing.

It's common knowledge for them to know everything about Vampires,

This part of Supernatural Territory is near the Vampire's Kingdom, so it is natural to be alert for Vampires and learn their characteristics.

And that red skull-shaped crest on Calidora's dress is that of the Royals,

Vanessa and her group are instructed to run upon seeing any Vampire that has that crest, they will not stand a chance against the Royals and even their seniors can't fight the Royals.

"We need to flee! Let's just ditch that guy", another guy added.

Hearing this, Vanessa takes one last look at Rex while biting her lips.

She then instructed, "Let's flee from here, we can't do anything to help him anyway"

Right after they said that two silhouettes suddenly appeared in front of them blocking their vision towards Rex and Calidora.

They are wearing black full-plate armor with a red-skull crest on their chest,

Vanessa and the others leaped back instinctively, the two Royal Guards appeared inside the ice cocoon as if it's nothing.

"Do not interfere, All you need to do is to stay here and do nothing until it is over", one of the Royal Guards said.

Hearing this, Vanessa frowns.

She then said, "We will leave this place, we have nothing to do with that guy"

Vanessa already caught on to the situation, these Royals are after Rex for some reason and she will not risk her group for a stranger.

SLASH!!

The guy beside Vanessa suddenly got cleave in two,

This happened in a blink of an eye, and all of them didn't even react to the attack before the guy beside her fall to the ground dead.

"We will not repeat ourselves", the Royal Guard said.

A red ruby blade appeared on one of the Royal Guard's hands that are coated with blood.

Vanessa and her group didn't even saw where the sword came from, but the blood on it is definitely one of theirs that just died.

This is a clear warning from them, and this makes Vanessa's group frozen in place.

One of the Royal Guards is standing facing Vanessa's group motionless, while the other are watching Rex and Calidora.

Back to Rex,

Rex gritted his teeth as he snapped out his daze,

The red eyes of Calidora somehow put him in a dazed state, he can't think clearly.

BAM!

Rex punch Calidora but got blocked by her, but she got blown away creating a gap that Rex used to recover his position.

Calidora stomps to the ground stopping herself.

She then licks her claws that got Rex's blood on them, "As I thought, your blood is the best"

"What did I do to you? Why did you curse me?", Rex shouted with a frown.

This situation shouldn't have happened as Rex thinks that he didn't treat Calidora badly, he even gave her his blood.

But then he suddenly realized, 'Is this because of my blood?'

Just as he was thinking, Calidora's hand was suddenly covered by blood energy as it creates a big red hand made of blood energy.

From the energy it emitted, It should be around peak rank five.

Rex scans Calidora as he prepares himself,

<Calidora>

Race: Mythical Vampire - Teen Vampire(Queen)

Power: Rank Five (Mid) - Eyes of Terror

Mental: 105

Strength: 98

Agility: 198

Endurance: 176

Intelligence: 254

Seeing Calidora's stat, there is a couple of question that pops into Rex's head.

There are some changes on her stats that he realized, but he's not worried because her stat is near his but he got many enhancements to amplify his stats.

He's not worried,

Calidora's body glows with blood energy, her wings suddenly sprouted on her back before she dashes towards Rex.

Rex was caught off guard, her speed exceeded his expectation.

"Arghh!", Rex grunted after his chest got clawed by Calidora, blood dripped from Rex's chest, and this spike Calidora's interest again.

She dashes towards Rex again but this time Rex is on full alert.

ROAR!!

Rex roared as he use his Alpha Bearing skill, but then suddenly,

Calidora's red eyes flash,

<Alpha Bearing has failed to reduce the target's stats>

Reading this, Rex widened his eyes in surprise before Calidora stabbed Rex's chest with her red energy claw.

She then clenches the red energy claw making Rex grunt in pain, "ARGHH!"

Right after Rex's flesh got ripped from his chest, Calidora kicks him away sending him crashing into a tree.

BAM!

Rex stands back up while touching his chest area,

There is a nasty wound on his right chest that got ripped by Calidora's claw, 'Damn it! Alpha Bearing is not working, and Myth Presence doesn't seem to affect her!', he thought in anger.

He then activates his Yellow Force and Pure Brace of Moonlight enhancing his power greatly.

"Haahh, I need more of this. Give me more!!", Calidora shouted while licking Rex's blood on her red energy claws, she looks intoxicated by Rex's blood.

It's like taking a drug, and she can't stop taking it anymore.

Without even responding to Calidora's remarks, Black Lightning started to envelop his body completely as his eyes glisten, "My turn!"

FLASH!

Rex's body turns into a lightning bolt as he dashes towards Calidora, He activates his Force Beam as his fist glows with a yellow hue.

Seeing this, Calidora smile and dashes forward too.

Calidora punches Rex with her red energy claw while Rex also gives the same response.

BOOM!

Their fist collided creating a powerful shockwave that even cracked Vanessa's ice cocoon, but their power is not equal.

Calidora got blown away by Rex's punch,

Her strength is nowhere near Rex's strength sending her flying away, she becomes the one that goes crashing away to a tree just like Rex before.

But instead of getting hurt, Calidora got a crazy smile on her face.

"How could you hurt me? I just want to dice you up and drink your blood", Calidora said while waving her claw around.

She even pouted as if what she's saying is a good thing,

Rex becomes disgusted as he looks at Calidora, but then, he widened his eyes in surprise when he suddenly saw Calidora's stats started to rise.

'What happened? Why is her stats rising?!', Rex thought in surprise.

From all the fights he has before, he never found an opponent that has their stats rising right in front of his eyes.

He saw her stats rising through her stats tab!

Calidora smiles creepily when suddenly,

SWOOSH!

"Argh! What the fuck?!", Rex grunted in pain, both of his legs suddenly got pierced by something. He looks down to only found two needles made of blood pierced his shin, Rex's legs become weak as he falls to the ground, the blood needle went through his shin and comes out from the back.

The needle is thick, and it's stuck on his legs.

Calidora laughs hysterically, her creepy laughs filled the night.

'I can't transform, there is still the Trench Predator group there', Rex thought.

With Calidora showing that she's a powerful opponent, the only answer is to use the new Manual Transformation feature that he got.

But Rex can't do it here,

Vanessa and the others are still standing still just like the Royal Guards said, they didn't even dare to move too much lest the Royal Guard decided to kill them.

All they can do is watch as Rex fight with Calidora,

"You want my blood right?", Rex shouted towards Calidora.

Hearing this, Calidora glance at Rex innocently while making her eyes bigger, "Of course, Can I take all of it?", Calidora said pleadingly.

Rex then raises both of his hands as if he's letting Calidora take his blood.

Calidora looks at Rex with starry eyes, but when she's about to approach Rex,

Both of Rex's hands show his middle finger, "FUCK YOU!", he cursed before he ran away from this place escaping through the forest.

Seeing this, Calidora was frozen in her spot.

She then gritted her teeth with clear anger on her expression, her eyes flash with a red hue before she dashes towards where Rex has run off to, "YOU ARE MINE!!"

The Royal Guards also moved, they follow Calidora leaving Vanessa's group.

Even after the Royal Guards left,

Vanessa and her group didn't move an inch, they are still frightened by the Royal Guard that can kill them without them even noticing.

After waiting for a while with no sign of them, Vanessa finally moves.

"I think it's okay now, they already left", she said before the others finally sigh in relief.

They all are relieved after the immense pressure they shouldered with just standing beside the Royal Guard, it's as if their lives can disappear in just a moment.

It's not a good feeling to experience,

"We better get out of here, let's call off the mission. The upper management will understand if we said that we encounter a Royal Vampire", Simon said from the side.

Hearing this, Vanessa nodded her head agreeing with him.

But she can't help to look at where Rex has run off to, 'Why did they target him? Did he take something important or...'

Chapter 192 Devilish Vampire

SWOOSH!!

SWOOSH!!

Rex runs through the forest like a madman, his legs are hurting but they started to heal while he's running to find a suitable place.

While he's running, he can feel Calidora is on his back tailing him.

But that's not all, 'There're others following me, Is that the Vampires that attacked the Trench Predator Scavengers?', Rex thought.

From the very thin aura those Vampires emitted, Rex knows they are strong.

If he's not in a situation like this and his senses aren't put to the max, he probably won't detect these Vampires without the help of Kyran.

The pursuit kept going for minutes,

"Come here little doggy!! I won't do anything bad! I'm just going to take all of your blood!!"

Calidora can be heard shouting from the back,

Rex becomes even more certain that Calidora is already out of her mind, 'What do you mean only? That's basically wanting to kill me', Rex screamed in his thoughts.

The bushes and tree trunks along Rex's path got destroyed,

He didn't even bother dodging, he just power through all of them because Calidora is fast.

Turning his straight-line path will certainly make Calidora catch up to him, and he still thinks that they're not far enough.

After feeling that he's on a good enough distance than the others, 'System use Lunar Blessing Storage!', Rex said to the system.

Right after he said that his body makes a cracking sound as his body turned into his Werewolf form.

It happened while he's still running,

Rex didn't know if it's the system's feature or what, but the transformation is not as painful as during the Full Moon.

<The user's stats have been multiplied by 2!>

Rex scans the surrounding, he saw an open field on his right as he dashes there.

Although he's in a predicament because of the Vampires chasing him, he still has the Invincible item that he got from the system.

Only the Vampire King can rival his Invincible Item,

A bunch of Royal Vampires like them can't be stronger than rank nine, it is simply impossible.

STOMP!

Rex stomped the ground after finding another open place,

There are much mutated bugs around here but they all escape after feeling Rex's aura, they also have a danger sense like animals.

After a few seconds, Calidora arrives at the place.

She still has the same crazy eyes but this time, she widened her eyes in surprise seeing Rex's form, "This form...", she said in surprise.

"Have more blood!! I can see it!!", Calidora screamed in joy.

Her red eyes with weird patterns on them glow brighter, it's like she's seeing something that she wanted the most in her life.

And if Rex can read her mind, his blood is the thing she wanted most.

Hearing this, Rex was caught off guard.

This form of his should push further his Werewolf aura, but instead of getting nervous or fear, Calidora becomes even more crazed because of his blood.

It seems that he got more blood flowing in this form based on what Calidora said.

Rex looks down and saw his new Werewolf Form after evolving,

His fur is a deep black that makes him merges with the dark, an erect body that puts him aside from other Werewolves, and also two demonic horns on his head.

Just from a glance, anyone will know that he's a different kind of Werewolf.

Without even caring about the disparity of their strengths, Calidora leaped again towards Rex with excitement.

Her mind seems to focus on his blood as she flaps her wings towards Rex.

But unlike the fight they had before, Rex flashes to her side and punches her using Force Beam that landed right on her rib cage.

BAM!

"Huakh!", Calidora got blown away screeching on the ground,

Her body rolled a couple of times because of the force from Rex's punch before suddenly, Rex already appeared again on her back.

This time, his claw burns with dark energy.

"Claw of Tormentor!!"

SLASH!!

Rex slashes Calidora who is still rolling on the ground, his claws imbued with dark energy slashed her back sending her crashing to the opposite side.

But feeling the slash, Rex frowns, 'Did she have some kind of barrier?'

The slash landed solidly and it should pierce her skin,

But Rex felt that his claws hit a hard object, not a skin that he expected.

After Calidora stop on the other side, she spat a mouthful of blood because of Rex's punch that may just break her ribs.

The difference in their strength is evident, Rex is much stronger than her in this form.

Calidora raised her gaze to meet Rex's and to his surprise,

Her creepy obsessive smile is still there, the pain doesn't seem to bother her at all.

"Tch!", Rex wanted to finish Calidora off again to kill her but suddenly, Calidora is the one who makes the first move.

Her power raises again but it is still far from Rex,

SWISH!!

The droplets of blood glow with red energy as they shot towards Rex,

Rex's body glows with a yellow hue as he also activates his black lightning, both energies cover his body completely nullifying Calidora's attack.

The Black Lightning didn't manage to evaporate the droplets of blood, but it still manage to weaken it before it hit Rex's Force Barrier.

Not a scratch landed on Rex's body, his Force Barrier stopped it all.

BLITZ!!

Rex appeared in front of Calidora in a flash, his cold red eyes are staring at her.

His eyes are like sharp icicles that stab one heart, but this didn't affect Calidora at all as she shouted, "GIVE ME YOUR BLOOD!"

SLAP!!

Rex slap her face making her face turned to the side forcefully,

Calidora touches her cheek that got slapped by Rex in surprise, the pattern in her red eyes shook violently making the ground tremble.

Rumble!!

Looking at this, Rex was shocked, 'Is this her eyes power?'

Before Calidora's eyes can do anything more, Rex already activates his Black Field Orko spell as five tentacles made of black lightning caught Calidora's body.

Four of her limbs got restrained by the black lightning while the last one choked her neck.

This makes the trembling ground stopped, Calidora's eyes turn back to purple as she got choked by the black lightning.

"Take your curse off of me, or I will kill you right now", Rex said threateningly.

Hearing this, Calidora smiles mockingly, "Give me your blood now or our soul will always be linked to each other even after death"

After she said that,

Her body suddenly glows red as she leans forward, she kisses Rex right on his lips completely surprising Rex.

Tcup!

p Rex pushed her away before Calidora laughs sweetly,

His lips started to bleed, Calidora bite his lips purposely to make him bleed.

Calidora licks her lips in delight savoring Rex's blood that manage to get into her mouth, she smacked her lips in delight while playfully looking t Rex.

For her, Rex's blood is something that she will give everything for.

Looking at this, Rex's body is boiling in anger.

He doesn't understand why Calidora is doing this but he will certainly not let her go, she acts like this is all a game for her and Rex didn't like that.

Rex's claws glow with yellow, black, and lightning energy.

What Calidora did just now completely angers Rex, "Then you will die now!", Rex said softly when suddenly,

SWOOSH!

"What?!", Rex got surprised when two silhouettes appeared in front of him.

SLASH!!

BOOM!!

Rex's left shoulder got slashed by a sword before he blocked a kick to his stomach pushing him back a couple of meters, this exchange happened in a flash.

Rex manages to block one of the attacks is only thanks to his insane reflex.

He raise his eyes and saw two vampires clad in black armor standing beside Calidora.

"They are the Vampires that attacked the Trench Predator Group, and they both are strong!", Rex thought while looking at the two.

But then, Rex smirk when he realized, 'The Myth Presence is working, the Vampire that I blocked is a peak rank six or even seven but I manage to block his kick', he thought.

With the power they currently have, they should be way stronger than Rex.

Separating Rex from Calidora should be an easy job, but one of their attacks somehow got blocked by Rex.

This means that their movements are sluggish, Myth Presence works on these two.

"Who are you?", Rex asks.

The two vampires faces can't be seen, but they look like a guard.

One of the Vampires stabs the ground with his red sword imbued with blood energy, Rex's spell immediately got canceled by it.

Calidora got freed from Rex's spell,

Her eyes glister as she wanted to pounce to Rex again but got held by the Royal Vampire Guards.

"LET ME GO!! HE'S MINE!!", Calidora shouted.

One of the Royal Vampire Guard hits the back of Calidora's head sending her unconscious, he then carries Calidora on his shoulder.

Looking at this, Rex becomes alert because he will not win against these two.

Rex is already getting ready to activate his Invincible item from the system, that is the only way to get out of the situation if the two Royal Vampire Guards attacked him.

But then,

"You, How did you do that?", one of the Royal Vampire Guards asked.

Hearing this, Rex's eyebrows scrunch in confusion.

Then the Royal Vampire Guard added, "How did you turn into your human form? What method do you use?"

"As if I will tell you that", Rex scoffed.

Both of the Royal Vampire Guards went silent for a moment,

Then suddenly, wings grow from their backs making Rex on full alert with his thumb ready on the Invincible item in his inventory.

But then, they flapped their wings leaving the place.

Rex looks at both of the Royal Vampire Guard with a frown, 'Why didn't they attack me?', he thought in confusion.

If the Royal Vampire Guards are tasked to protect Calidora then hurting her means that they are free to kill Rex, but they didn't do it and leave instead.

This doesn't make sense, and Rex stood there until he can't see them anymore.

After making sure they're not coming back, his body then transforms to his human form again.

Rex is separated from the Trench Predator Scavengers and left here alone, he then sighs, 'What a night, let's hurry back before the Violet Moon'

~

"Have you check if all securities are running smoothly?", a guy wearing a military uniform said after entering a room, there's a specialist badge on the side of his uniform.

The two military men inside the room stand up abruptly and salute immediately.

They are currently inside the watching post of the Great Barricade,

In every two miles of the Great Barricade wall, there will be one watching post, they will guard their side of the wall from any intruders.

It's a manpower heavily routine that is filled by the military.

Although the technology in this era is great, they still need manpower to handle manual things like this.

The Great Barricade wall is so long that it will take days to reach the end of it from the other end, and every two miles has a watching post.

One can imagine how much manpower is needed to maintain this, it's a lot.

Thankfully, resident of Ratmawati City is not on the list for being forced into the military to fulfill these kinds of job.

People outside of Ratmawati City have it hard,

Many of their men or even women are sometimes forced to voluntarily join the military, humanity is facing a crisis, and the military needs all of the manpower they can get.

"Yes Sir!! We already checked everything Sir!!", both of them said in a union.

Hearing this, the specialist military man left the room before he said, "Make sure to check again, and don't sleep at the same time!"

After the specialist military man left, the two military men sigh in relief.

They are just at the end of their great card battle, and the specialist shocked both of them.

"Just one more and I will win! Are you ready to lose?"

"In your dream pussy! You are destined to never beat me from the moment you are born!"

While the two military men are playing cards,

Unknown to them, a group of Vampires is hawking their watching post.

Just as they're laughing happily, the door suddenly burst open making them stand up while saluting again fearing that the specialist military man came back.

But what greeted them is not what they expect,

A Vampire wearing dark full-plate armor bust into the room,

Both the military men wanted to press a button on their side but they're too slow, the Vampire already slashed their hands before their heads got sliced in half.

This happened in seconds, and no sound was made from their exchange.

After killing the two military men, the Vampire looks to the side before it turns off all of the security in the room by destroying them.

BAM!

SLASH!

Right after he did that, the invisible barrier covering the Great Barricade wall dimmed down.

The Vampire then close the door silently before he left, he dashes to a ground slope a few miles from the wall where an army of Vampire with black uniform are stationed.

"Sir Issac, the barrier on the wall has been destroyed", the Vampire said.

Hearing this, Issac's lips quirk into a smile, "Today will be the day I cleanse my name from disgrace! Let's kill some humans!"

Chapter 193 Delta The Silverstar Wolf

Rex search for the Trench Predator Scavengers,

He remembers Vanessa's scent clearly, and after he got back to the place where they part ways he can instantly follow her smell.

Her smell is different than others, it sticks out like a sore thumb.

Rex is dashing through the forest like the devil in the night,

There are multiple mutated animals that have a peak rank five power that will give him a good exp, but the time is pressing and he can't afford a distraction.

He needs to go back to the Human territory, it's not safe in this place.

After a while of following Vanessa's scent, Rex finally catches up but he saw something interesting is going on with the group.

'Let's see the show for a moment', Rex thought with a curious look.

Meanwhile,

"Leader, there're twenty of them and we can't win against them without fighting with our all", Simon said in worry.

The group was faced with twenty or more mutated wolves,

The Wolves have dark blue furs with sharp fangs, and their bodies are twice the size of a lion that can instill fear even just meeting one of them.

Vanessa's eyes darted to the surrounding place, and she soon finds out that they're surrounded.

Many pairs of eyes are looking at them from all sides,

Like a man-eating creature in the night, they stalk Vanessa's group carefully.

"Vanessa we need to go, the Vampires might just be around the corner", a guy said while looking around paranoidly.

Then another added, "We can't even see the Vampires movements! let's just power through them, we need to get out of here!"

Although they're surrounded, they fear the Vampires they just met rather than the wolves.

Hearing this, Vanessa frowns heavily, 'The team is shaken because of the Royal Vampires before, we can't fight these Wolves in this state. But how can we get out of here', she thought.

Anyone that experience meeting the Royal Vampire Guards before will certainly be the same.

The pressure from not knowing how they died can shake all kinds of brave men and women, it's like knowing their life and death are in the hands of others.

That is not a good feeling to experience,

Liliya is lying in the middle of the group unconscious, Vanessa is determined to protect her.

Rawrr!!

Growl!

The mutated wolves started to circle them as they bare their sharp fangs, their bloodthirsty eyes are fixed onto the group knowing that the group is scared.

Vanessa holds the hilt of her sword tighter,

She looks to the group of mutated wolves and finds one that has white fur, 'Is that their leader? If we can take that one out then we will be free', she thought.

Without wasting a second, Vanessa jumped towards the white wolf.

Just after her attack, the other wolves also attacks the group as a fight broke out.

Vanessa slash her sword that spat icicles at the white wolf but missed it, the white wolf dodge the icicles to the side with its fast movement.

Its movements surprise Vanessa, with that big body the white wolf shouldn't be that fast.

ROAR!

The white wolf roared menacingly as its body glows with a white hue,

All of the surrounding wolves become even daring, the roar acts like a powerup for the wolves.

Looking at this, Vanessa widened her eyes again as the white wolf suddenly appeared in front of her with faster movement.

CLANG!

Vanessa manages to block the white wolf claws with her sword,

She got pushed back by the force from the white wolf's attack, 'It comprehended Force! I can't beat it easily!'

But then suddenly,

SWOOSH!!

"We meet again", a voice creeps onto Vanessa's ears that makes her skin crawl.

Even the others in the group got goosebumps hearing this voice, it's the voice that they least wanted and expect after what happened earlier.

The wolves that are attacking them suddenly stop, this makes the group confused.

They all looks to their backs and saw Rex leaning on a tree.

Seeing Rex, "Why are you here?! Don't come near us! You will get us into trouble!", Vanessa shouted fearing the Vampires are still pursuing Rex.

The others also step back in fear, they know damn well that Rex is the Vampires target.

Rex didn't reply to the group, he just walks casually towards the group making the group step back unconsciously.

But rather than greeting the group, Rex went past them.

The Trench Predator Scavengers looks towards Rex and saw something that shocked them,

The white mutated wolf that Vanessa just fought against suddenly wags its tail at Rex, it then jumped towards Rex like a dog.

Rex laughs as he falls to the ground, the white mutated wolf started to licks him endlessly.

The hours they spent together bonded them together,

'I know that this wolf is strong, but to actually able to use Force', Rex thought as he plays with the white wolf.

But then, Vanessa snaps out of her daze, "How...How did you tame such a powerful creature?"

"I didn't, we're just friends", Rex said nonchalantly.

Vanessa frowns hearing this, she then said, "Who are you really?"

"Just a student who is taking a trip", Rex said casually, he didn't intend to tell Vanessa his name at all.

She wanted to say something more but then,

The others also snap out of their daze, Simon then intervenes, "Vanessa it's not safe here, he's a target of those Vampires earlier and they might still be around here"

"Yeah leader, let's just go", another added.

Hearing this, Vanessa gritted her teeth before she said, "Thank you for your kind help, but we must go"

Rex didn't react to her statements,

He waves his hand, "Leave Liliya here, you should trust me by now that she's my friend", he said.

Vanessa hesitated but looking at her group, she finally sighs.

"Fine, I'll leave her with you. But if you do anything to her, I will come for you", Vanessa said coldly before the group dashes to the side leaving the place.

After the group left, Rex then walks to Liliya and checks on her.

The wound on her neck already looks better, and it should recover after a little more time.

Seeing their leader wags its tail docilely, the other wolves hesitated to attack Rex who is thinking amidst the wolves.

But just from the glare of the white wolf, all of them whimper and went back to the forest.

Rex noticed this,

"Now, running back will be faster but it will be tiring", Rex thought out loud, but then an idea came to mind as he look at the white wolf.

He then approach the white wolf and said, "Do you want to come with me?"

~

Inside the Scarlet Banes Kingdom,

"Your majesty, there's a messenger from Queen Shanaela requesting your attention", a Werewolf wearing armor said while kneeling in front of the throne.

King Baralt is currently occupied with many female Werewolves around him,

He smacked his lips in displeasure after hearing what the Werewolf in front of him said, "Tell them I'm busy, the air of this night is not suitable to talk politics", he said while smiling playfully at the female Werewolves.

The Werewolf bowed his head deeper and replied, "Your majesty, they said that it's important"

"ARE YOU THE KING? RUSTON?", King Baralt shouted angrily.

The Werewolf immediately planted his head on the ground as he replied with the utmost respect, "No, your majesty. Forgive my rude behavior, I'm simply not thinking straight"

"Then send them away!! I will not see anyone this night!", King Baralt commanded.

After their exchange and knowing that King Baralt is displeased, Ruston immediately ready his claws and slashed his left hand.

SLASH!

His left hand got cut cleanly as blood splurged out of it,

King Baralt scoffed before Ruston bowed one last time and left the throne room, he doesn't want to disturb King Baralt further.

Leaving the throne room, Ruston went to the hall.

The hall is decorated with many furs of powerful mutated animals as decoration, and the furniture here is made of strong bones and wood.

Arriving at the hall, Ruston saw an elf sitting on the middle chair.

The Elf stands up upon seeing Ruston but frowns when she saw Ruston's bloodied hand, she knows instantly that the request has been declined.

"The King will not see anyone this night, please relay your message to me", Ruston said.

Hearing this, the Elf got angered, "This is a matter of importance! I need to speak to the king!"

Ruston squinted his eyes warning the Elf to not be reckless.

The Elf eased her behavior after realizing that she's currently inside the Werewolf Kingdom, she finally sits back down before Ruston also sits in front of her.

"There has been a report that Thyssys has been attacked by a Werewolf", the Elf said.

Hearing this, Ruston becomes confused, "Why would a Werewolf attacks Thyssys, the Supernatural is under a temporary alliance, moreover, the Werewolf and Elf don't have any qualms with each other"

"That's what I want to ask!", the Elf replied sharply.

She then continues, "Five High Elves in Thyssys got killed yesterday night, and the one that manage to escape told us that a Werewolf did it"

Ruston laid back on his seat as the blood on his hand stopped bleeding.

"For a Werewolf to kill five High Elves then they must be an Alpha, but why would any Alphas do this", Ruston said in confusion.

Seeing Ruston's act, the Elf then said, "Is it that confusing? Or are you hiding something?"

"Are you suspecting the Werewolf Kingdom breach the temporary alliance?", Ruston said with a darkened expression, he started to emit a black aura that pressure the Elf heavily.

The rune on his shoulder glows red as his eyes glare at the elf in front of him sharply.

The Elf's chest heaved up and down as the aura pressured her making it hard to breathe, it is clear the difference in power between both of them.

She then said hurriedly, "My apology! I get consumed by anger and was not in the right mind!"

Hearing this, Ruston takes back his aura before he scoffed, "I will send a pack to check Thyssys, and I will conduct a full investigation on all of our Alphas that are absent that night. You may leave now"

After saying that, the Elf bowed respectfully and left the hall.

Ruston laid back on the chair with a frown, 'Why do they attack? What reason for this attack? It just doesn't make sense'

~

Meanwhile,

"The air feels nice", Rex said with a smile.

He's currently riding the White Wolf's back as the wolf gallop hard through the forest, its speed is astonishing, it even manages to surprise Rex.

For a peak rank five mutated animals, this beast is one of a kind.

Not only it is the leader of a pack of mutated wolves, but it also comprehended Force just like Rex, only weaker.

Rex is holding Liliya to make sure she doesn't fall,

She's still unconscious but based on the Werewolf Rash, she will definitely wake up after they got back to human territory.

The journey is long, but the White Wolf saves them the trouble.

"I will call you Delta, the Silverstar Wolf!", Rex said as he taps the white wolf, Delta's back.

Aooouuuu!

Delta howl in joy, "It seems you know what I'm saying and like the name", Rex said with a laugh.

After about five hours of galloping hard non-stop, 'We will arrive faster than expected'

Delta proves to be stronger and faster than what Rex expects,

Usually for normal animals, 30 minutes of galloping hard will certainly tire them.

But Delta, on the other hand, she kept going for five hours straight now and there's not even the slightest bit of sign that she's tired.

They will arrive at the human territory in just a bit over a day, Rex still has plenty of time before the Violet Moon arrives.

But while Delta is galloping hard, Rex's eyes catch something.

"Delta stop!", Rex said.

Delta stops after hearing Rex's command, Rex looks up and saw a crow stalking them before it flaps its wings towards Rex.

He stretches out his arm before the Crow landed on his arm,

There is a rolled letter on the Crow's legs, Rex takes it before he opened it.

'Green Team, Go to Qrila City after finishing your mission. The city will be under attack, the black hand there needs help and you're the closest to the position.

Green Messenger~'

Reading this, Rex frowns, 'The city will be under attack? They know this ahead of time?'

'Damn it, there's still the Violet Moon. How can I do this?', Rex thought, he doesn't have the time to help the city.

It will be bad if he transforms during the Violet Moon,

Rex gritted his teeth before the crows flapped their wings away, "Let's just hope I can control the transformation with the Manual Transformation feature, Delta Let's go!!"

Chapter 194 Different Treatments

"Sir, you can't go anywhere", a butler said pleadingly.

Concern can be seen clearly on the butler's face, he tried to stop a kid that is about to leave.

Then, another maid also joins in and tries to stop the kid, "We have a strict rule from Rex to not let you leave the room, please don't make it difficult for us", the maid said.

The kid is Kyran, he wanted to go out of the room.

Getting caged in this room with Ryze makes him feel that he was about to lose his mind, and he needs to take some fresh air.

Even if he got stronger, it still feels cramped when the only thing you do is training.

"Are you going to lock me here until he returns? Adhara was rarely in this room, and Ryze kept avoiding me! What am I supposed to do!", he said irritatedly.

He ignores the plead of the maid and the butler as he walks to the front door.

Feeling that Kyran will not listen to them, the butler finally said, "Sir you can go out, but please let me accompany you"

Kyran looks at the butler who was about to break down,

He finally sighs before he nodded his head, the butler's pleading expression finally got to him as he let the butler accompany him.

Unknown to the others, Ryze is peeking through the door with a troubled look.

He saw how Kyran is blocked by the butler and the maid who is trying so hard to make him stay, and deep down he wanted to go out too.

Ryze shyly walks out of the room,

Because of his small body, the hall that leads to the front door becomes bigger than usual.

The clean golden tables with a golden statue on them, white teapot with golden colors on its edges, and even fancy night candles decorate the side.

Huge paintings of Faraday University's building can be seen on the wall with different kinds of aesthetic paintings of Awakened.

All of this becomes bigger as Ryze bites his fingernails while walking slowly,

After reaching near the front door, a maid suddenly came out from the door beside him surprising Ryze who was just about to walk past the door.

The maid is Clarice,

Ryze held his hands in front of his crotch while looking down, he's prepared to be told to not go out of the room.

But then, Clarice only glances at him before she walks past her.

This makes Ryze shocked, he looks to his back and saw Clarice started cleaning the place, "Can...Can I go out?", he said shyly.

Clarice kept cleaning the room,

Ryze thought that she didn't hear him so he said it one more time, "I want to go out too"

Hearing what Ryze told the second time, Clarice stopped cleaning before she turns towards Ryze making Ryze looks down again.

"If you want to go out, just go out. You don't need to announce it", Clarice said clearly.

Ryze bit his lips after hearing what Clarice said, he's confused about her answers before he started walking towards the front door.

The front door is big,

It's made with wood material but if one looks closer, there is slight energy that comes out of the front door.

The door is imbued with a rune, and it will be hard to break it.

Ryze held the handle of the door wanting to open it, but then he suddenly stop.

He then looks at the window on his right that shows the starry sky, it brings a cool air that makes anyone that gazes into it relaxed and sleepy.

But this beautiful night sky suddenly make Ryze started to tear up,

Ryze gripped the front door's handle as he closes his eyes tightly, a couple of tears fall down from her eyes.

This happened without anyone caring,

Many of the maids walk around to clean up this room, but they ignore Ryze as if he didn't even exist in the first place.

After stabilizing his breathing,

Ryze finally takes his hand off the handle before he decided to go back to his room.

Meanwhile,

Kyran is currently walking along the university hall with a butler on his side,

Many eyes fall onto him but noticing the number one symbol on the butler's uniform, the others sent a polite smile towards Kyran.

Seeing this, Kyran puffed up his chest and smile back.

He doesn't know why the people here are friendly to him, but he doesn't mind it.

"Do you know where the training ground is? I want to see Adhara training", Kyran asks.

The butler then replied politely, "Please follow me, sir, I know everything about the university"

Kyran nodded his head before he's brought to the training ground,

There are still many students outside of the training ground, and the procedure is still the same.

Seeing that he need a card to enter the training ground, Kyran looks to the butler before the butler takes out a card and gives it to Kyran.

Kyran happily gives the card to the robot before the robot scans him,

He watched the procedures with curious eyes,

Back in his hometown, there're no such technology that even an automated sink surprised him.

After getting scanned by the robot at the entrance, the robot gestures to Kyran to go inside before Kyran happily went inside a blue barrier.

Upon entering the training ground, Kyran marvels at the surrounding.

He then got surprised by the golden orb above his head that appears suddenly,

"This is the top ranker's orb that Rex posses, it's a sign of absolute power", the butler said.

Kyran looks at the golden orb with widened eyes, he wanted to touch it but realizes that it can't be touched so he started to look around.

The students that are training here fascinated him,

All of them are covered in sweats as they meditate, learn, or even fight with a robot.

Kyran looks around the place with starry eyes, he has never been in a training place let alone an advanced training place like this one.

"Here is where the students of Faraday University train, we're proud to tell that we have the most advanced training ground in the whole Eplida Alliance", the butler said proudly.

Kyran's mouth turns into O shaped as he looks around,

He then started to wander inside the Training Ground accompanied by the butler,

But what catches his eyes the most are the arenas where students fight with robots, Kyran went to an area and watch as the fight inside become intense.

BOOM!

CLANG!!

SLASH!

All kinds of sounds were made,

The students and the robot clashes against each other relentlessly, they both didn't back down as they kept clashing against each other.

The robot in the arena is a ranged one, it has many weapons that rain fires at the students while keeping a good distance from the student.

Kyran looks to the side and saw the student,

The student dodges all of the robot's attacks by deflecting and dodging its bullets, he has a saber on his hand.

"He's at a disadvantage, he needs to close the distance but the robot is good at keeping the perfect distance with that guy", The butler said.

Kyran heard this before he replied, "If it were me, I can defeat the robot easily"

Hearing this, the butler widened his eyes in shock.

He looks to the arena and notices that the robot is R-3, a ranged robot that has a peak rank three power and is known as the most annoying robot.

The butler smiles politely feeling that Kyran must've been joking.

"Wait, Aren't you the kid that Rex Silverstar brought in?", a voice suddenly interrupted the both of them from the back.

Kyran turns to his back and saw a woman with a guy beside her, the woman was the one who greeted him.

Upon laying his eyes on the woman, Kyran instantly catches her glowing brown eyes.

It's like a trait of hers, and Kyran find it beautiful, "Yes, my name is Kyran"

"Hello, Kyran, my name is Lisa and this dumb guy beside me is Jack", Lisa said sweetly.

Jack looks at her in confusion, "Hey! What did you just say?"

"Nothing, I'm just introducing you to this cute Kyran over here", Lisa lied with a smile.

This makes Kyran blushes a little because he never gets treated this way, Lisa is full of a positive aura and this is new for Kyran.

Lisa then continues, "Kyran, have you seen Adhara? I'm searching for her"

Hearing this, Kyran looks to the butler and saw the butler shook his head, "I don't know where she is, I rarely saw her these days"

Lisa and Jack's mood becomes sour, they already tried to search Adhara for days.

But then, Lisa suddenly asks, "Kyran, do you want me to show you around?"

"That'll be great!", Kyran replied innocently.

Unknown to Kyran, his words greatly hurt the butler beside him that also wanted to show Kyran around the university.

Lisa signal Kyran to follow her but Kyran stopped her,

He then points to the arena where the robots are located and said, "I want to try fighting robots! Can you help me?"

Hearing this, Lisa and Jack look at each other awkwardly.

"I don't know if it's safe for you to do that", Lisa said while scratching her head.

Jack then approach Kyran and held his shoulder, "Don't worry, when you grow up you will certainly be able to join this university and fight these robots all you want"

"Then you will be as strong as me!", Jack said while activating his elemental aura.

But then, Kyran suddenly held Jack's hand and twist it to the side.

Jack's hand got removed from Kyran's shoulder which shocks Lisa and Jack greatly, "Don't worry, I'm strong too!", Kyran said innocently.

Hearing this, Jack retracts back his hand while still in shock.

"You're playing right?", Lisa whispers to Jack.

It takes a moment before Jack snapped out of his daze, "No, It's not my full power but I still activated my elemental aura"

Both of them look at Kyran as if he's a monster,

Kyran on the other hand is smiling towards both of them and said, "So Can I fight one?"

The butler wanted to intervene but Kyran glare at him, which makes him slouches his back and let Kyran get inside the arena.

Because of concern, Lisa picked P-3 as Kyran's opponent.

It has a rank-three power but it doesn't have the insane reflex like the other physical robots, it will be safer to fight against.

Kyran get inside the arena nonchalantly,

The crowd of students stopped when they saw a kid in the arena about to fight P-3.

"Who is he? Why is a kid here?"

"Don't you know who he is? It's the kid Rex Silverstar brought"

"That's the kid? There's no way he's a monster like Rex too right?"

Kyran stretches his body feeling stiff from sitting all day in the room, he stretches his body as P-3 got out of the gate.

Looking at the robot, Kyran becomes excited.

P-3 is a blue robot that stood around 6 feet, its body is lean and nimble, and there's a double-headed lance in its hand.

It makes a robotic sound as it gets into its battle position,

Kyran on the other hand is only standing there motionless, he didn't even prepare for a surprise attack if P-3 tried to attack him after the countdown is over.

A ready hologram sign appeared above the arena, and it started to countdown from three.

'2'

'1'

'Begin!'

Right after the countdown ends, P-3 makes its move as it leaped towards Kyran.

It sent a barrage of attack towards Kyran that makes Lisa, Jack, and the butler watching this concerned, but something unbelievable happened.

CLANG!

CLANG!

Kyran blocks P-3's attacks with his bare hand!

This makes the crowd gasp in shock, they can't believe a kid can be this powerful.

P-3 kept attacking Kyran and got blocked easily,

The sound of the collision shows the force behind P-3's attack, it can hurt someone like Kyran but his senses are too sharp.

Not one of P-3's attacks managed to get through,

P-3 then suddenly jumped back creating a distance, its body creates a mechanical sound as its eyes glow yellow.

The lance in its hand started to spark with lightning,

"That's P-3 final move! Lightning Thrust!"

"It's a fast attack that is imbued with lightning, the penetration of that attack is powerful!"

"That kid can't block it with his bare hands, someone helps him!"

P-3's body jolted as it thrust its double-headed lance forwards towards Kyran,

But when P-3's lance was about to connect,

CRASH!!

In a blink of an eye, P-3's lance and arm got destroyed suddenly by Kyran.

Kyran's attack is so powerful that it shatters P-3's lance and arm, this completely makes the crowd's eyes bulge as if their eyes wanting to pop out.

It's an unbelievable feat for a kid like Kyran to do,

Some of them can't even win against P-3 that easily, but Kyran did the unthinkable.

P-3 looks at its broken arm before looking back at Kyran,

With a twitch of Kyran's body, P-3's head shatters after getting punched cleanly by Kyran.

The match was stated to be over by the holograms, and Kyran looks towards Lisa, Jack, and the butler while waving his hand, "I won!"

The three of them look at each other in shock, one word crosses all of their minds.

'Monster!'

Chapter 195 The Prince Of Werewolf

"I won!", Kyran waves his hand happily.

He then goes back to the changing room where the others are located,

Lisa, Jack, and the butler were still stunned by what just happened, and they snapped out of their daze after Kyran enters the room.

Kyran then walks to the settings before he selects a stronger robot,

But looking at this, Lisa stopped Kyran's hand and said, "Let's go somewhere else! Faraday University is not just fighting robot you know"

"Yeah, fighting robot is boring there're more fun places to visit", Jack added.

Hearing this, Kyran looks at both of them before he said, "I wanted to fight again though"

Because of getting caged inside the room, Kyran doesn't know how much he improved his strength because of the technique Rex gives him.

He felt that he's getting stronger, but he doesn't know how strong.

That is why he's so curious about his strength, even the robot he just fought got crushed by him easily so he certainly got stronger.

"I know a place better than this one, do you want to see the Enigma Crystal of Fire?", Jack proposed.

The people inside the training ground are gathering around,

Everyone realizes who Kyran is, because everything about Rex is a hot topic.

If they don't leave the training ground as soon as possible, then they will be crowded with students and Kyran will be the main attraction.

This will shake them aside, so Jack and Lisa didn't want that.

"What is that?", Kyran asks innocently.

The butler on the side wanted to answer but Lisa answered first, "It's the crystal in the lobby that makes the university reddish"

"Our beloved treasure that benefits all Fire Elementalist", she added.

Hearing this, Kyran's interest got piqued before he finally agrees to leave the training ground.

They all get out of the training ground hurriedly,

They sneaked out while hiding Kyran in the middle, and thankfully no one noticed.

After getting out of the training ground,

Lisa and Jack guided Kyran to the lobby of the university where the Enigma Crystal of Fire is located, it is displayed to anyone that enters the university.

The pride of Faraday University,

"Here we are, the Enigma Crystal of Fire", Lisa said.

They arrive in the lobby and stop in the side of it, there's a bright red crystal attached to the ceiling like a chandelier that emits mysterious red energy.

It was a sight to see, and Kyran didn't realize this when the first time he was here.

The crystal emits a wonderful fire mana and another red energy that swirl around the crystal, it's translucent and it is bigger than a bus.

Kyran looks up and saw the bright red crystal shining onto his face, "Wow!"

It is a bit warmer in the lobby compared to the other parts of Faraday University, and there's a closed place right in the middle of the lobby.

"We called that place the Pondering Fire Place, it's a place where students who is stuck at learning something or even doesn't manage to raise their rank sit and gets enlightens", Jack added from the side while pointing to the middle.

Looking at the place, Kyran then said, "Can I go inside?"

"It's for Fire Elementalist only, you will not gain anything if you're not a Fire Elementalist", Lisa said making Kyran slouches his back.

Seeing Kyran is sad, Lisa got an idea, "Wait here", she said.

Lisa went to the right and bought something from the only store in the lobby, she then go back with two ice cream in her hands.

"Tadaa! Because of the crysatl that makes the university warm, the principal let an ice cream store open here", Lisa said while giving an ice cream to Kyran.

Kyran's eyes lit up seeing the ice cream, they then sat on a sofa on the side,

The ice cream is vanilla flavored, and Kyran enjoyed it very much.

Lisa, Jack, and Kyran are sitting on the sofa while the butler is standing on the side,

Jack glance at the butler once in a while before he signals to Lisa which she instantly get before she nodded her head.

"You must be the head butler of the Rex's room right?", Jack suddenly approach the butler and started a conversation.

The butler looks at Jack pridefully and said, "Why of course, I've been serving Sir Rex since he transferred here"

"Oh really? then you must know a lot about-"

While Jack and the butler is talking, Lisa suddenly nudge Kyran's side and said, "You're very strong Kyran, many Awakened around my age is not even as strong as you"

"Really? Well, I am pretty strong", Kyran blushes slightly.

Seeing this, Lisa become even more eager, "Are you trained by Rex?"

"Rex didn't train me, but he gave me powers that make me this strong!", Kyran said proudly while looking at his hand.

It's not long ago where he still rolling on the dirt for food,

Many of his struggles before vanished upon meeting Rex, his life changed for the better.

Because of Rex, now he can eat whatever delicious food he wants and even become stronger than most Awakened that he met.

Hearing this, Lisa frowns and asks, "If I may know, What did he give you?"

"I don't know, but he gave me a technique and told me to meditate with it only in the night under the moonlight", Kyran answered nonchalantly.

Lisa widened her eyes in shock,

She was put into thoughts before Kyran resumes eating his ice cream.

Jack also finished his conversation with the butler and sit back down, he looks at Lisa who is thinking before he said, "What did you find out?"

"Let's talk later", she answered back.

But then, Lisa and Jack suddenly saw Kyran put down his ice cream.

He looks absent minded and somehow both of them can feel sadness from Kyran, "Kyran? Don't you like the ice cream?", Lisa asks.

Kyran doesn't answer as he still absent minded,

Jack touch Kyran's shoulder before finally Kyran snapped out of his daze, "Did you say something?", he asks.

"Are you okay?", Jack asked back.

Then Kyran answered with a smile, "I'm okay, I just remembered something"

"What is it? Do you want to talk about it?", Lisa asks feeling concern.

Kyran looks at Lisa who is smiling gently at him, he hesitated for a moment but just when he was about to answer.

Someone suddenly called out to them from the front, "Kyran?"

Hearing this, Kyran turns his head and saw Adhara walking towards him with Edward on her side.

"Adhara?!", he shouted in panic, Kyran don't know what to do seeing Adhara.

Adhara then arrives in front of Kyran with a frown, "Didn't Rex told you to not go outside the room?", she questioned.

This makes Kyran stutters,

He looks to the butler for help but the butler can only averted his gaze, he then looks to Lisa and Jack for help pleadingly.

At last, Lisa brave herself and said, "I saw him feeling down, so I ask him to walk around the university"

"Yeah, We didn't mean any harm", Jack added.

Adahra looks at both of them while squinting her eyes, she then asks, "Who are you both? and Why do you care if Kyran is sad?"

"Well I'm Lisa and this is Jack, we're just passerby", Lisa answered with sweat on her forehead.

This is not the first time Lisa and Jack talk with Adhara, and they exactly know how cold Adhara behaves to a stranger.

And also, everybody knows who Adhara is,

Adhara and Rex got the title of Invincible Duo because she just beat Kevin the previous top ranker, and she's surely stronger than Lisa and Jack by miles.

Edward then chuckles from the side, "Someone going to get scolded", he said teasingly.

This makes Kyran paler, he's okay getting reminded by Adhara but if Rex finds out then he will certainly be over.

"Relax, I know these two and they're not bad guys", Edward said from the side.

Adhara looks at both of them trying to memorize their faces before she said, "Kyran, Come with me. We'll go back"

Kyran can only nodded his head and stands up,

But rather than going back, Adhara stops in front of the butler as she walks closer, "Why did you let Kyran go out?"

"La-Lady, I tried to stop him", the butler said with a pale expression.

Adhara looks at the butler's eyes directly for a moment making the butler gulp, she then averted her gaze and brings Kyran back.

Seeing Adhara was about to leave,

Lisa called, "Adhara!"

Hearing her name is called, Adhara looks back with a questioning look.

The icy eyes of Adhara that stare straight onto her eyes makes her gulp, she then said meekly, "Did Rex told about our spar?"

"What spar?", Adhara replied coldly.

Lisa then said stutteringly, "Ne-Nevermind"

Feeling confused about what Lisa said, Adhara then turns back and left the place followed by Edward, Kyran, and the butler.

"Rex didn't tell her?", Jack said annoyedly.

Lisa nodded her head before she sigh, "Let's just talk to Rex"

"I didn't see him anywhere, did he go somewhere?", Jack said, he never once saw a glimpse of Rex who usually walks with Adhara.

Realizing this, Lisa smack her lips in displeasure, "I forgot to ask Kyran about that"

~

Vampire Kingdom,

"Lady Nezera, you called me?", a Royal Vampire Guard said while kneeling in front of the throne where Nezera is sitting with a glass of blood in her hand.

Her ruby eyes glance at the Royal Vampire Guard and said, "So, I assume that she fail to take down the human Werewolf"

"Yes, My Lady. The human Werewolf prove to be strong, but not to the point that we can consider him as a threat", the Royal Vampire Guard said.

He then continues, "And the rumor is true, he have a human form"

Hearing this, Queen Nezera's eyes sparkle, "Human form you say huh? Tell me about it"

"Yes Lady, The human Werewolf was in his human form. He runs away when it found that Princess Calidora is quite strong for it to handle, we follow Princess Calidora pursuing the Werewolf, but then we saw the human Werewolf turn into its Werewolf form", the Royal Vampire Guard explained.

Queen Nezera is listening attentively, she found it fascinating that the human Werewolf can actually transform between forms at will.

"His Werewolf appearance, tell me about it", Nezera said before she drinks the blood on the glass in her hand.

The Royal Vampire Guard nodded his head before he said, "He has a jet black fur, he's not overly big like other Werewolves and even its legs didn't turn into hinds. When he transform, even I felt uneasy in its presence"

Hearing what the Royal Vampire Guard said,

Nezera stops drinking the blood before she frowns, she looks to the Royal Vampire Guard for quite a moment.

She's currently thinking, and her frown becomes more evident.

"Uneasy? Is that all?", Nezera asks.

But then, the Royal Vampire Guard suddenly remembers something before he said, "I forgot to mention this, but he has two horns"

Shatter!

Nezera drops her glass of blood upon hearing this, she stands up abruptly before she walks closer to the Royal Vampire Guard.

Her soft step approach the Royal Vampire Guard, When suddenly,

BOOM!

Nezera's aura exploded making the Royal Vampire Guard who is still kneeling on the ground tremble, he didn't dare to look at Nezera's face.

But then, Nezera grabs the Royal Vampire Guard's chin and raise it up.

What greeted the Royal Vampire Guard is Nezera's violent expression as her ruby eyes glows fiercely, "Are you lying to me?"

The Royal Vampire Guard hurriedly said, "I'm not my lady! What I said is true!"

BOOM!

CRASH!!

Nezera flicks her slender fingers sending the Royal Vampire Guard crashing to the walls, his body cracked as he got pinned to the wall violently.

He look at Nezera in horror, "My Lady, I'm telling you the truth"

Even after Nezera press the Royal Vampire Guard more harder to the wall, the Royal Vampire Guard's answer is still the same.

She then retracts her energy before she walks slowly to her throne,

The Royal Vampire Guard fall to the ground as he coughs a couple of times, he almost died because of Nezera's powerful energy that wanted to crushed him.

But thankfully, Nezera retracts her energy back.

"Two Horns... That is impossible! It's just not possible!", Nezera shouted in doubt.

Somehow the fact that the human Werewolf has two horns greatly shook her, she doesn't believe what the Royal Vampire Guard said.

Nezera then gritted her teeth and commanded, "Call back King Solomon! And tell him about what you saw directly to him! Tell him that, a Prince of Werewolf has emerge"

Chapter 196 Cruel World

Meanwhile, Inside a level two city on the west of Ratmawati City.

"Mira, Let's go back. I promise I will give you the money, just give me another chance", a guy said pleadingly.

The guy is wearing a typical office worker white shirt, but his appearance is haggard.

There is a pretty girl in her twenties that is similar to him wearing a crop top, and her arms are hugging a muscular bald guy that wears a sleeveless black tee.

"Brother, how can you get the money? You got discharged a year ago from the military, and you can't get a job until today", Mira said harshly.

She then added, "That limp leg of yours, I just hoped you didn't come back!"

Hearing this, the guy kneels on the ground helplessly, "I promise to pay your debt, but you have to go home and talk to mom"

"Our mom is dying...", the guy mumbles softly.

Hearing this, "That stinking woman, why won't she just die already. She's becoming a burden the longer she lives, doesn't she realized that?", Mira said coldly.

Mira spits to the ground remembering her mom, her words pain her brother greatly.

The guy beside Mira laughs, he seems to be Mira's boyfriend, "Just dump them already, I got money to pay your debt and take you anywhere you want"

Hearing this, Mira's eyes become starry.

She hugs the guy's arm tighter and said, "Of course babe, I'll leave them right now since this jerk over here can't pay my debt"

Her brother can only hear their conversation helplessly,

Even after hearing their harsh words, the guy didn't even say anything and just looks to the ground with teary eyes.

The grin on Mira's boyfriend becomes wider as he looks at the guy kneeling on the ground.

After saying that,

Both Mira and her boyfriend left the guy while bickering with each other.

The guy didn't even say anything while the two started bad-mouthing his mom, he's disappointed in himself more than Mira, "I'm so pathetic"

Two days passed,

"Sorry, we can't accept you here", a woman said politely.

The guy is currently inside a building and it seems he got rejected for the job vacancy, he left the building with a dejected look.

The day is already noon, he decided to went back with a sour mood.

Just when he's around the corner,

SPLASH!

A speeding car suddenly went through a puddle of water and splashes the water at the guy.

The guy stops for a while, he wanted to curse but he held it in and just resume his way back home under pitying gazes.

Arriving at his home,

"Mom, I'm back!", the guy shouted.

He went to his mom's room and find that his mom is awake lying on the bed, her head is bald and her body is frail and weak.

She has a blank look on her face until the guy enters the room.

"Where's Mira?" Cough Cough, "I want to see her", the mom said weakly.

Seeing this, the guy takes a glass of water on the desk beside the bed and gently helps his mother drink it.

"Don't worry mom, I will bring her back", the guy said assuringly.

Although he looks believable, the mom saw right through his lies.

The mom smiles weakly before she said softly, "I don't think I got much time left, I want to at least see her for the last time"

Hearing this, the guy widened his eyes, "Don't say that mom"

Tears started to fall down his eyes while looking at his weak mother, he can't imagine what would happen to him if his mother was about to leave him.

But then,

SPLASH!

The mother suddenly splashes the water at the guy making the guy stunned.

"BRING HER BACK RIGHT NOW!! WHY CAN'T YOU DO SUCH SIMPLE THING", The mom suddenly shouted at the guy.

The guy raises his gaze and said, "Mom don't be angry, calm down it's not good for you"

He's not shocked by the sudden change in his mother's tone and mood, it seems that he's used to this kind of treatment.

"STOP CARING FOR ME!! YOU FILTHY SON!!", the mom shouted angrily.

Then she continues angrily, "INDRA!! I WISH I HAD NEVER BIRTH YOU!! I SHOULD'VE JUST KILL YOU BEFORE YOU ARE EVEN BO-"

Just as the guy accepts all of his mom's curses, the curses suddenly stop.

The guy, Indra, looks up and saw his mother gasping for air while glaring at him.

Seeing this, "Mom? Mom? Mom?!", he shouted while seeing his mom gasp for air a couple of times before she suddenly passed out.

Half an hour later,

"Nurse my mom has been lying there for almost 20 minutes! She needs to get treated right away!", Indra said angrily.

He's currently inside a hospital, but his mom only gets checked and does not get treated.

The nurse glanced at Indra nonchalantly and said, "The doctor said she has stage 4 cancer, she will be treated quickly but you need to pay the bill for the operation"

"I will pay it! Just treat her immediately!", Indra shouted desperately.

"Please fill out this form and pay the bill, after it's done then the patient will be treated ASAP", the nurse said and gives Indra a form.

Indra tries to ask for help but the nurse ignored him.

He then went to read the form and saw that the bill is not something he can pay easily, "Dear God, What have I done to deserve this", he mumbles desperately.

The bill is a huge amount that even if he sells all of his belongings he still can't pay it, in his current condition he can't afford this operation.

Still not wanting to give up,

Indra calls his friend and surprisingly, his friend wanted to help.

"I'll give you half of it, I know your position and we've been friends for as long as I can remember. But that's all I got, I will send it to you right away"

Hearing this, Indra jumped in joy.

He thanked his friend before he rushes to the nurse again knowing that he can pay it now, "Please treat my mother, I can place my home and all my belongings as collateral"

The nurse glanced at him again and got showed his bank balance.

After seeing this, the nurse finally accepts Indra's offers as she went to call for the doctors to do the operation on his mother.

Indra runs to his mother who is lying on a bed rail in joy, "Mom they will treat you. Please get better, I will be waiting for you with Mira", he whispers to his unconscious mother.

But then, he saw that his mother's chest is steady.

There's no visual sign of breathing,

"Mom?", Indra called before he checks on his mother.

Indra widened his eyes after realizing his mother is not breathing, "DOCTOR!! HELP MY MOM!!", he shouted as he started to cry heavily.

Despite all of her mother's wrongdoings, she's still his mother.

The doctors came to the scene hurriedly and do a checkup on Indra's mother to only confirm that she's already gone, this hit Indra's heart like a truck.

He fall to the ground feeling his legs become weak, the news was too much for him.

Another hour passed,

Indra is sitting outside of the hospital crying alone, he then remembers his mother's last word before she died.

He picks up his phone and calls Mira,

Ring...

Ring...

The call didn't get answered, Indra then stands up and goes to Mira's boyfriend's apartment where she will certainly be.

Arriving at the place, Indra enters the apartment office.

"Can you call out the resident in room 411, I'm his friend", Indra said to the receptionist.

Hearing this, the receptionist smile politely before she checks on her computer.

She then said, "I'm sorry sir, room 411 is empty. The resident is not here anymore"

Indra looks at the receptionist with a blank look, he was shocked by the news that came from the receptionist's mouth.

He thanked the receptionist and went out of the apartment office,

He taps on his phone trying to call Mira, but his call got rejected every time it rings making Indra even more desperate.

Indra calls Mira a couple more times to no avail, he squeezes his hair feeling desperate about the situation that keeps escalating.

He lost his job, his mother just died, and her sister can't be reached.

The series event in his life is too brutal for anyone to endure, Indra can only walk along the street blankly feeling life is unfair.

He walks aimlessly before suddenly, his phone rings.

"Hello? Mira! Where are you?!", Indra shouted, he's so glad that her sister is calling him.

But then, Mira replied while crying, "Brother help me! I got caught by the military, come to the back of the apartment please!!"

Hearing this, Indra immediately rushed to the back.

He doesn't know what's going on, but Mira is in danger and that is certain.

Reaching the back of the apartment, Indra saw Mira's boyfriend there and Mira that is held by two guys wearing military uniforms.

There is a military jeep beside them, and the military men are forcing Mira to get inside the jeep.

"STOP!! DON'T TOUCH HER!!", Indra shouted.

Mira's boyfriend glance to Indra with a surprised look,

The two military men didn't stop as they put Mira inside the jeep, and they immediately get inside the jeep wanting to drive away.

Seeing this, Indra blocked the jeep bravely, "Where are you taking my sister!"

"We're taking your sister as a Volunteer, please step aside and don't make things difficult", the driver said coldly.

Hearing this, "WHAT?! I already covered my sister's volunteer time two years ago!"

Without even answering, the military men ignored Indra and just step on the gas forcing Indra to move out of the way.

"TAKE ME INSTEAD!! HEY!! TAKE ME INSTEAD!", he shouted desperately while banging on the jeep window where he sees Mira crying.

Indra tries to run after them to no avail, the jeep is too fast for him to keep up with.

He scrunches his hair in desperation, his sister just got taken away.

And the last thing he can see is his sister's crying face through the jeep window.

Indra's body started to boils with anger, he walks towards Mira's boyfriend angrily before he clenched Mira's boyfriend's collar, "WHAT DID YOU DO?!", he shouted.

"I turn in Mira to cover my volunteer time of course", Mira's boyfriend said with a cheeky grin.

Indra's widened his eyes in shock, he raised his hand to punch Mira's boyfriend but got blocked and counters instead.

BAM!

He fell to the ground after just one punch, this makes Mira's boyfriend laughs evilly.

"I have to say, I have fun with your sister all this while", Mira's boyfriend said as he kicks Indra on his rib cage repeatedly.

Indra can only grunt as he got kicked repeatedly, he can feel his bones broke because of the kick.

Mira's boyfriend then continues, "I also know, this leg of yours is defective!"

BAM

"AAKKKHH!!", Indra shouted in pain, his left leg becomes defective during his military time, that is why he got discharged from the military early.

Indra held his left leg in pain, the pain is too much for a normal human, like him,

Indra got kicked one last time by Mira's boyfriend right on his nose breaking it completely, his head got knocked to the side as blood started to flow out of his nose.

Mira's boyfriend then lights up a cigarette with a chuckle and said, "Later dipshit, don't ever bring your face in front of me again"

Indra wails on the ground, pain can be felt all over his body.

He lies helplessly on the back of the apartment building in pain, there's not even a single soul here that can help him.

There is no one except the sound of creaking bugs and a dim busy night street.

Water started to pour down from the sky,

The rain falls down at the right moment as if it's emphasizing the life Indra will have without his mother and also his sister.

He started to sob in the darkness feeling that life is unfair and cruel, 'Why is this happening to me, I didn't do anything wrong to anyone except doing good'

'Life is too cruel, Why do they take my mother'

'Why do those people take my sister?'

'Is it God's plan to make me suffer? Why is God's plan like this, Isn't it supposed to be a good plan even for me?'

'I'm also just a human too, why are they being like this...'

Indra started to contemplate in life, all of the things he loved and cared about has been taken from him forcefully.

He's living alone in this world, like a stranded broken fish in the vast ocean.

Tears rain down from his eyes realizing that things will not go back to normal, what happened has already happened and it's not going to turn back.

Indra kept crying alone, his ribs are hurting even as he sobs.

But then, a red light suddenly shines on his face.

He lifts his head up and saw a glowing red circle on the ground, it has many weird symbols and it emits a terrifying aura.

Then suddenly,

A figure appeared from the red circle that makes Indra widen his eyes in surprise.

He crawls back in fear while looking at the figure that came out of the red circle, turns out the night is still not over for Indra.

The figure stands towering in front of Indra who's crawling on the ground.

It then said, "I feel your pain and sadness young one, I can help you ease the pain and turn everything back to normal"

Hearing this, Indra stutters, "N-Normal?"

"Yes, Everything you experience will only be a dream", the figure said with a grin.

Indra stops his crawl and looks back at the figure, the figure then continues, "I can give you more than just turning back to normal, I can make you powerful that no human will dare to face you"

The words normal that the figure said entice Indra, it's the only thing he wanted in life.

"Turn things back to normal! I beg you!", Indra said desperately.

The figure's grins become even wider, "Very well my child, close your eyes and remember to do the task that I will say"

SHING!!

A red formation made of hundreds of symbols appeared below Indra, but he didn't see this because his eyes are closed.

He's already on the lowest point in his life, and there is nothing more to lose.

In his consciousness, a red blood contract appeared in his vision,

Then a blade appeared beside the contract as Indra's hand instinctively reaches for it,

SLASH!

Blood splurged out of the palm of his hand as he said, "I Indra will serve under you, and swear upon this contract that I am loyal to the Blue Wrath of Vulvazith"

Right after he said that unknown red energy infiltrate his body as his eyes turns red.

Chapter 197 Blue Demon

The rain pours down on the city street,

Droplets of water hit the plastic cover of the umbrella that protects all of the people that are walking through the rain.

It's a cover that shelters people from the water just like a wall that shelters humanity from their countless enemies.

A barricade in dark times,

Amongst the walking people of the city,

There's one guy wearing a white shirt sitting on a bench by the street,

Out of all the people in the city that walk past the guy, only him that doesn't bring the umbrella and let himself get drowned by the rain.

His hair becomes wet, and the white shirt he wears sticks to his body because of the rain.

The guy then raises his head and looks at a hospital in front of him, he looks at it with his drain eyes as if his soul is not inside him.

Something is off about the guy's vibe, and only some people notice it.

People that walk past him glance at him weirdly,

"Did that guy not bring an umbrella?"

"Poor guy, did something happen to him?"

"Son, study hard so you won't become like him in the future"

Their conversation can be heard clearly despite the heavy rain, but the guy sitting on the bench ignores them all.

He just kept looking at the hospital without even getting distracted by their words.

With thousands of people in the city,

The guy felt alone in this crowded city, none whom he cared for is present.

"Damn all of you", the guy mutters.

He then straightens his back wanting to stand up but then suddenly, a hand taps on his shoulders stopping him mid-way.

The guy looks to the back and saw a middle-aged guy with a bright smile.

The middle-aged guy leans his umbrella to protect the guy from the rain, "I know I don't know you at all, but can I sit beside you?"

Hearing this, the guy widens his eyes before he nodded his head.

The dark eyes of his were suddenly lit up with life for a moment, but it soon turns back again.

"Do you smoke?", the middle-aged man said while sitting beside the guy.

The guy looks at the middle-aged man before he nodded his head,

Seeing that the guy accepts his offer, the middle-aged man takes out a pack of cigarettes and gives it to the guy.

He then lights the cigarette after the guy put it in between his lips,

Swoosh...

Both of them started to smoke just under the middle-aged man's umbrella,

The middle-aged man's clothes got a little bit wet but he didn't mind, he just sat by the guy without caring about his surroundings.

Exactly like the guy did,

"I have experienced a feeling like yours, the feeling of wanting to just forget about the world and just enjoy the moment in front of you", the middle-aged man said.

He then continues, "I don't know what you're going through, but just don't give up. Nothing lasts forever, not even the problems you're experiencing"

"Think of those that dear to you dead or alive, close or far. The moment you gave up, it's the moment the demon inside you take over"

"If you don't have someone to keep you going, then just do it for yourself"

The guy just sat still listening to the middle-aged man,

After saying that, the middle-aged man sat with the guy for quite a while.

At some point in their silence, the middle-aged man suddenly fold his umbrella and let the rain drown him just like the guy did.

He then stands up, "Well, I have to get going", he said with a smile.

The guy looks to the middle-aged man who was about to leave, he then mutters, "It's too late for me now"

Hearing his mutter, the middle-aged man looks back, "What did you just say?"

"Do you have a family?", the guy asks.

The middle-aged man stopped before he said, "Yes, I'm living with my mother"

After he said that, the guy stands up too and said, "You're a strong and kind person"

The middle-aged man was confused as to why the guy said that, but then the guy continues, "Leave the city", he said before walking towards the hospital.

His words make the middle-aged man frowns, "What did you mean by that?!", he shouted.

The guy stopped on his track, he looks back towards the middle-aged man as blue fiery tears fall from his eyes, "It's too late for me now...", he said softly.

Seeing this, the middle-aged steps back in shock.

What he saw in front of him brings fear onto his entire being,

The guy's mouth suddenly got ripped open until the edge of his face, his teeth that were supposed to be covered by his flesh suddenly turns razor sharp and ripped through his face.

A blue fiery line suddenly appears in the middle of the guy's face splitting his face in two,

Then, his body burns with blue fire that melts all of the skins on his entire body and instantly vaporized it.

People in the surroundings notice this event,

They saw how the guy's body burns with blue fire as his skull burst through his face,

"KYAAA!!"

All of them started to scatter from the place after seeing the guy, their survival instincts kicks in as they felt danger from the guy.

But amongst all of them, the middle-aged man was still stuck frozen in place.

"Leave the city", the guy said.

CRACK!!

BOOM!

The skies spat lightning thundering the entire place, and at that right moment the guy that is in front of the middle-aged man vanish.

Just like a droplet of water in the rain, he vanished without a trace.

"Leave the city"

It's the guy's last words that rang on the middle-aged man as he too started to run.

~

"President Sebrof! President Sebrof!"

A secretary bust into the room which should be President Sebrof's room,

There's a look of urgency in the secretary's expression, but upon entering the room the secretary didn't see anyone except a man sitting on the sofa.

The man looks towards the secretary in confusion, "It's already night, the President is not here"

Hearing this, the secretary turns pale, "Who are you?"

"You're new here?", the man asks.

He then shakes his head, "I'm the one tasked by President Sebrof to attend the night matters, What news did you bring?", the man said before he sat down on the president's chair.

The secretary bowed slightly and said, "We just got a report from Lupis City"

"Lupis City? Isn't that a level two city? What does the report say?", the man asks with a frown.

Urgent situation rarely came from level two and one city because they are close to Ratmawati City, and thus has plenty resources to protect themselves.

It is supposed to be level three and four cities that will bring this kind of urgency.

"The report stated that the city got attacked by the Demons hours ago, and already fall to the Demon's hand as we speak", the secretary said softly.

Hearing this, the man widened his eyes in shock.

"What do you mean it got taken over? Such big city got taken by the Demons that fast?!", the man shouted in shock.

As a representative of the UWO and the man who's given responsibility by Sebrof, he knows very well the cities associated with Ratmawati City.

Lupis City holds more than a million lives,

With them being so close with Ratmawati City, they also have powerful Awakened that can be deployed in such situations.

The news that the city got taken over by the Demons is such a huge shock!

The secretary then replied, "From the statements of the survivor of the city, they said that one blue Demon massacred the entire city and turns the Linto Financial Tower into a demonic tower"

"Blue Demon? There's no such thing as Blue Demons", the man said angrily.

He then continues, "Is this somekind of joke? If it is then I swear that you will regret it!"

But unlike what the man expects, the secretary can only shake her head without any sign of joking about this news.

Seeing this, the man slopped down to the chair in shock.

He then takes a deep breath before he takes the phone on his desk and dials someone,

Ring...

Ring...

"Hello? Michael why are you calling me this late?", a man on the other side said irritatedly.

Hearing the man's voice, Michael stopped for a second before he said, "Sir, There's an urgent problem and it needs your attention"

"What do you mean? I assign you there so you ca-"

But before the man on the other side can finish, Michael already intervenes, "Lupis City falls to the Demons"

The man on the other side went silent, he then said, "I'll go there this instant"

An hour later,

BAM!

"How did this happen!", Sebrof busts into the room angrily.

The shocking news that interrupted his sleep greatly angers him,

Both Michael and the secretary is bowing to Sebrof on the side, they know that Sebrof will not be happy about the situation.

It's just shocking to think such an incident occurs,

All of the cities associated with Ratmawati City held close communication, and for a level two city, this kind of attack should have been prevented.

But nevertheless, the Demons managed to sneak in.

"Sir, this is the report of the matter", the secretary handed the report with trembling hands.

Sebrof takes the report from the secretary's hand harshly before he started to read it, his anger kept on rising the longer he reads the report.

"How did the demon manage to get there?", Sebrof said with a frown.

He then continues, "With so much surveillance in a city like Lupis City, this incident shouldn't be happening"

Michael and the secretary was also at a loss for words,

The Demons rarely attack because their place is far from Human Territory, and even if they do decide to attack the Great Barricade that is heavily guarded will stop them.

But now, somehow they manage to attack Lupis City which confuses Sebrof.

p Sebrof then finally said, "Ready the choppers, and tell the top Guilds to send their strongest available Awakened there right this instant!"

"Yes Sir!", Michael said while bowing deeper followed by the secretary.

But just when Sebrof was about to leave the room,

RING!!

The telephone on the desk rings making the others startled,

Sebrof looks to the telephone with a frown, he then walks towards the telephone before he answered it, "This is Sebrof speaking"

"President Sebrof, this is the president Farhan of Alopolis UWO Branch"

Hearing this, Sebrof frowns even more, "Why are you calling me this late President Farhan, did something happen?"

"Yes, 67 Awakened got killed in the cities south of Alopolis. Amongst them is a peak rank five. Some witnesses told us that the killers are two creatures commanded by a woman, the people call her Chaos Witch"

"Because of that, we request a rank six reinforcement from the main office", Farhan added.

This makes Sebrof even more stressed out,

He then said, "I'll let you talk to my representative, I got matters to attend"

But then, Farhan said hurriedly, "Sir, I also got the news about Lupis City. If it's just a normal request I wouldn't call you, but the thing is the Chaos Witch is heading to Lupis City too based on her killing routes"

"What? Do you suspect that this Chaos Witch has something to do with Lupis City?", Sebrof asks.

Michael and the secretary can only look at each other from the side, they heard Lupis City being mentioned and they instantly know that it's a bad sign.

Ring...

Sebrof ended the call while looking down on the floor,

The two news that he's thrown at may link with each other, his head started to feel dizzy because of the news or even because he just woke up.

He didn't know which one,

Silence covered the room and none opens their mouth,

After fifteen minutes passed with silence,

Michael wanted to say something but got intervenes, "Organize one of the guilds and send them to Alopolis, the rest of the Guilds will create a defense line around Lupis City, while I'm going to go to the survivors", Sebrof commanded.

"Yes, President! I will attend the matters as you said", Michael said.

Being the president of the UWO main office, Sebrof is not just some normal guy.

After giving his command,

Sebrof nodded his head before he takes his suit, "The world is changing, I sure hope we can go through this crisis", he mumbles as he walks out of the room.

Chapter 198 Attack On Qrila City

Qrila City,

"Are you really going to stress over him this long?", Abby said while putting her hands on her waist, Rosie is sitting in front of her absent-minded.

She snapped out of her daze when she heard Abby yell at her, there's a book in her hand.

Abby then walks towards Rosie and snatches the book, "Full Moon Calendar, Names and Meaning? Why are you reading these?"

Rosie snatch the book back before she sighs dejectedly,

She then looks through the window where the city is poured by the rain, this kind of weather is the perfect time to relax and doze off.

"Let me be alright, it's hasn't been that long since we part ways", Rosie said with a sigh.

Abby can only shake her head helplessly, her usual cheerful and loving friend turns into a quiet girl just because of a guy.

But she didn't blame her though, "I also know that kind of guy"

"What did you say?", Rosie asks.

Abby shakes her head, "If you like him so much then you must do anything to get his attention", she mutters.

Rosie looks at her in confusion,

Abby then realizes what she just said before she laughs, "Oh nothing, I'm just rambling"

"Did you see the news? Lupis City got raided by Demons and it becomes Demon's territory now", Abby continues changing the topic.

Rosie heard what Abby said but she decided not to confront her,

"Thankfully, this city has the black hands. Isn't that what you wanted to say?", Rosie said.

Hearing this, Abby chuckles lightly before she continues, "The discussion web is booming with the Lupis City incident, and they said we're losing the war"

She's currently cooking midnight food, she's making oatmeal for both of them.

"Losing? So should we start praying?", Rosie replied nonchalantly.

Rosie's mood is currently not the best, and even though many discussions are made about losing the war she doesn't seem bothered by it.

It's just a rumor anyway,

"I pity those people, If they just join the AoL then they will probably survive", Abby said.

Rosie looks down for a brief moment before she said softly, "You know I'm sorry right? For being unable to bring you to Ratmawati City?"

Hearing this, Abby's hand stopped.

"It's okay, there are the Black Hands now so you don't have to worry", Abby replied casually, but Rosie knows that Abby is still bothered by it.

But suddenly the water inside the bowl beside Abby trembles,

Abby frowns seeing this,

Thump!

She suddenly heard a loud noise from the outside, "What is that?", she asks.

Rosie looks outside and saw people running towards the back of the city, many Black Hands also guided the people orderly.

"I think we should go outside", Rosie said before both of them run outside.

Just when they got outside,

"WHAT IS HAPPENING?!"

"EVERYBODY RUN!!!"

"QUICK!! MOVE!! GET TO THE CITY HALL RIGHT NOW!!!"

Chaos envelops the city as people run while pushing each other,

Although the black hands tried to calm the people down, none of them listened as they run to the back of the city.

Looking at this, Rosie walks to one of the black hands nearest to her.

"What's happening?", Rosie asks in confusion.

Chaos befalls the city suddenly, they are just cooking oatmeal a minute ago.

The black hand is a guy, and he's wearing a black pirate mask that covers his mouth, "Go to the back, we're under attack!"

"Under attack?! By what?", Abby shouted from the back.

Hearing this, the guy points to the city wall where a couple of creatures is currently crawling on the wall filled with bloodthirst.

They have pale skin, and their features make Rosie's expression turns pale.

Seeing these creatures, Rosie immediately go to Abby and said, "Go! I will help the Black hand but you need to leave!"

Abby doesn't know what to do as she started to panic,

Her hands started to tremble uncontrollably as she looks the chaos around her, people are pushing and throwing each other to save themselves.

"ABBY!", Rosie shouted making Abby snap out of her daze.

She then said hurriedly, "Go to the back of the city, and wait for me there"

Abby finally nodded her head repeatedly as she started to run, she disappear into the middle of the crowd before Rosie turns to her back.

"Let me help", Rosie said to the guy.

The guy looks at Rosie with a frown, she then added, "I'm an Awakened"

But just right after she said that,

BOOM!

The front gate exploded as the Vampires manage to break through, the guards on top of the wall are already dead as the wall got breached.

All of the Vampires started preying their eyes on the running humans,

Rosie looks to the gate and saw two Vampires wearing full plate armor that is different from the others, and the aura they emitted terrifies her and the guy beside her.

"Have you asked for backup?!", the guy beside Rosie said to another black hand.

Then the other black hand replied, "They will send the green team that is closest to us, the other reinforcement will take longer"

"How long?!", the guy shouted.

Hearing this, the other guy shakes his head making the guy frowns.

Just from the expression of the other black hand, the guy instantly knows that they probably will not be able to hold out before the reinforcement comes.

Rosie activated her elemental aura as she saw the Vampires are closing in.

The black hands also create a wall that will block the Vampires from reaching the city hall, this will be their main defense against the Vampires.

"Physical Gifted! Stand in front and prepare to defend the city hall!!"

A voice was heard from the side, Rosie looks in the voice direction and finds a woman wearing a black robe with a five-headed crow crest on it.

It seemed the woman is the leader of the Black Hands.

After the signal from the woman, eight Black Hands went to the front as their hands transform into bizarre shapes.

Some of them create a huge shield made of bones, some turn their arms into a creature-like arm, and some even emit energy that felt familiar to Rosie.

The Vampires are already running towards them,

Their eyes are glowing red as they saw blood splattered everywhere, and the Vampires are in a berserk state that thinks nothing besides blood.

Rosie is on the back of the line where other black hands are located, she's just beside the leader.

"Harden your will and prepare for impact!!", the leader shouted.

The so-called Physical Gifted readies themselves as their eyes tremble, the horde of Vampires running towards them makes their spine tighten.

Rosie is also seeing this with wary eyes, her breathing becomes heavy as they got closer.

Even for a student from an Awakened university like Rosie, the scenery of dozens of Vampires charging towards them still makes her body tremble.

It's a sight that nobody wants to experience, especially if you're a human.

"Activate Formation!!", the leader commanded again.

Right after her command, the eight Physical Gifted black hands slam their hands to the ground creating a tight shield with each of their own gifts.

BOOM!!

The Vampires crash themselves to the shield made by the Black Hands.

Many of the still running people got blown away because of the impact, the Vampires started to claw the shield made by the Black Hands ruthlessly.

Their body is filled with red energy, and they tried desperately to break through the wall.

Some of the Physical Gifted got hurt, but they desperately held on as many Vampires started to stack with each other.

But this makes the Vampires even more powerful,

Any blood that enters their vicinity enticed even Vampires of the strongest will, and this makes the Vampires even more eager.

SLASH!!

BAM!

The shield will not last long, some already got pushed back.

"Loana! Use your gift now!!", the leader commanded a girl beside her.

The girl's eyes glow with a green light, and just after her eyes glow the ground beneath the Vampires started to suck them in.

All the Vampires that are in front of the shield got sucked to the ground.

This all happened with precision as if they're drilled about this formation, and from the looks of it, the formation is working!

After the Vampires' legs got sucked to the ground, the leader unsheathed her sword and raises it up, "Black Hand! CHARGE!!"

"RAARGHH!!"

"HYAAHHH!!"

All of the Black Hands breaks formation as they started to massacre the Vampires.

The Vampires that got stuck on the ground can't get out of it, some of them tried to flap their wings away to no avail.

SLASH!!

ROAR!!

The place turns into a bloodbath,

Rosie looks around and finds the Black Hands are winning, the Vampires can't do anything except for receiving a blow from the Black Hands.

"They're weaker than usual! We can win this!", a man shouted.

He seems to be one of the Black Hands based on the crow tattoo on his neck, and his shout got heard by the others making them fight more eager.

Rosie then saw a Vampire manage to escape as it opens its mouth wanting to bite her.

"Wind Slash!"

SWOOSH!

Rosie sent a crescent shape wind slash towards the Vampire, but her attack only knock the Vampire off-balance before it resumes again.

Seeing this, she boosts her speed with wind elements to dodge the Vampires' attack to the side.

But then suddenly,

GRAB!

Rosie's leg suddenly got grabbed by the Vampire, the Vampire then swung Rosie and slammed her to the ground.

BAM!

"HUAKH!!", the air on Rosie's lungs got forced out.

The Vampire wanted to attack again but got hit by a Black Hand, this saved Rosie that is crossing her arms together on the ground helplessly.

She lowers her arms and saw the guy he talked to before saving her.

The guy stretches out his hand to help Rosie get up,

Rosie accepts the guy's hand but when she grabbed his hand, a red slash suddenly crosses her vision hitting the guy.

She widened her eyes when she saw the guy's head got cut cleanly.

It happened in a blink of an eye,

The guy that just helped her suddenly fell to the ground dead.

"Kill the Black Hands! But gather the civilians in the middle of the city!", the Vampire that is wearing armor shouted.

Rosie scans the battlefield and finds many of the Black Hands are already dead.

They're winning just a couple of seconds ago, but the armored Vampires break the Black Hands easily without batting an eye.

Without a second thought, Rosie boosts her speed with wind elements and dashes to the house beside her.

This thankfully go unnoticed,

Rosie's feeble mana is not sensed by the Vampire in armor, the Black Hands that has a more powerful aura than Rosie saved her.

Many of the remaining Vampires in black uniforms started to go to the city hall.

Looking at this, Rosie becomes concerned because Abby is in the city hall and she needs to help her escape this place.

But the Vampires are too much,

The leader of the Black Hands gathers her weird energy as rocks came out of the ground and fire towards the armored Vampires, her eyes glow brown as she also dashes in with her sword.

"YOU FILTHY VAMPIRES!", the leader shouted angrily.

But instead of dodging, the armored Vampire smirk before suddenly,

SPLASH!!

Blood spikes suddenly came out of his body piercing the leader's body all over, "Kuhhkk!", the leader spat a mouthful of blood.

Her blood makes the other Vampires go crazy but the armored Vampires glares at them.

PIERCE!

Another blood spike suddenly came out of the armored Vampire body, it pierced through the leader's throat as she mutters, "Yo...Huakh!"

The leader died after seeing the armored Vampires smile evilly.

All of the Vampires around the leader are looking at the blood that fell to the ground with anticipation.

But then, a red sphere suddenly appeared above the armored Vampire.

After the red sphere emerge, the surrounding blood on the ground got sucked into it creating a sphere of blood.

This makes the other Vampires becomes normal again,

The blood that gathers around the sphere didn't entice them anymore, it's like there's no blood, to begin with.

Seeing the sphere works, "Go! Bring me those humans!"

The Vampires in black uniforms then all went to the city hall, their movements are fast and not long screams and shouts can be heard from the city hall.

Rosie can only lower her body and deactivate her elemental mana to lay low, if she's caught she will instantly be killed.

It will be suicide to try and protect the others, she can't even protect herself.

ROAR!!

KRAAH!

The sound of growling Vampires filled the city,

The people inside the city hall got attacked by the Vampires as Rosie covers her mouth, she's hesitating to go help Abby or not.

But she knows that she's not strong enough,

"Gather them around, Don't any of you dare to kill even one of them!"

Many of the people got caught and put in the middle of the city where the armored Vampires lies, hundreds of people got gathered there filling the place and it's still not over.

But then, the leader suddenly sniffs the air.

His head turns to the left with a devious smile, "I can smell your blood you know, he said softly.

Rosie who is covering her mouth felt her skin crawl,

Hearing what the armored Vampire said, she touches her cheeks before her hand suddenly stops.

She retracts her hand and looks at it and saw blood on it, the slam by the Vampire earlier scratch her cheeks making it bleed.

Rosie slumps on the ground helplessly, "I got cut!"

Chapter 199 Four Pillars Formation

Rosie's face turns pale after hearing what the Vampire in armor said,

Her cheeks got scratched and for a Vampire that is as strong as the Vampire in armor, he will surely sense her blood from a mile away.

After calming herself down, Rosie stands up and runs towards the back of the house.

BAM!

She slammed the backdoor open but was greeted by Vampires in black uniforms, they're all looking at her without any remorse.

Rosie looks around and found that three Vampires are already intercepted her,

With only the power she currently has, it's almost impossible to break through this kind of lineup without any miracle.

Rosie's body glows with a green hue,

Knowing that she will be caught, either way, she will not back down without a fight.

"First Stance! Wind Pillar!", she shouted as her eyes glow green, she gathers as much mana as she can and concentrated it on the ground beneath the Vampires.

BOOM!

The ground exploded with wind energy, this is the move she used to propel Adhara upwards.

But to Rosie's shock, the Vampires didn't get propelled.

They didn't just stick on the ground like a rock,

But the wind energy didn't faze them, it didn't even manage to pierce their blood aura.

Looking at this, Rosie gritted her teeth and jump.

"Second Stance! Wind Hurricane!", She shouted as she drive her fist forward creating a wind hurricane that threatens the Vampires.

SWOOSH!

But just like what happened before,

One of the Vampires jumps and faces the wind hurricane head-on, he slashes his hand filled with blood aura and instantly cancelled Rosie's spell.

Rosie widened her eyes helplessly as the Vampires grabbed her neck, they both fall to the ground while Rosie is still in The Vampire's hand.

The Vampire's eyes glow red as he saw the blood on Rosie's cheek,

His body trembles excitedly because of the blood, he became more aggressive as his eyes get glued onto Rosie's blood.

This completely shocks Rosie, because the veins of the Vampire in front of her are bulging.

It's like he wanted to refuse the tempt of her blood, but Rosie can see that he's on the verge of losing to his desire.

The Vampire opens his mouth showing his two sharp fangs,

But when he is just about to bite Rosie's neck, blood energy appears beside him and flick him to the side.

BOOM!

"I told you to gather them here", the Vampire in armor said coldly.

He already arrives in front of Rosie like a ghost,

Rosie looks at the Vampire in armor and saw his pointy nose and sharp eyes that make him look devilishly handsome, but this still makes Rosie glare at him fiercely.

The Vampire in armor glances at Rosie coldly,

He looks at Rosie's blood that flows down her cheek with a frown, he grabs Rosie's chin and brought her closer to him.

The Vampire licks the blood from Rosie's cheek before his body jolted as he said, "Interesting, your blood taste and smell sweeter than the others"

Hearing this, Rosie turns her head away feeling disgusted by the Vampire.

But instead of getting angry, the Vampire in armor laughs evilly.

After that, the Vampire sucks a couple of drops of blood from Rosie's cheek towards the blood sphere that is already as big as a car right now.

He then summons his blood aura and grips Rosie in place,

The Vampire then brought Rosie to the middle of the city where the other caught humans are located, it's already packed with people left and right.

Rosie looks to the place and finds four pillars surrounding them,

Each pillar has one red gem that is engraved on it, and it is symmetrically placed perfectly with the other pillars.

It creates a square-shaped place with the caught humans in it.

She then looks towards the city hall and finds that there're still many Vampires catching the humans, and it's not long before everyone will be caught.

"What are you going to do with these people?", Rosie asks.

The Vampire in armor look at the hundreds of humans before he said, "We will take you to our kingdom, and you'll be one of us"

Hearing this, Rosie frowns heavily.

She was confused to what the Vampire meant by being one of them,

After another fifteen minutes passed, Rosie saw that most of the people of Qrila City already got caught by the Vampires.

She sighs helplessly for the bad luck she's having,

If she doesn't come to Qrila City to meet with Abby, then she might not be in this situation but she can't blame anyone for this.

It's her call, and getting caught by the Vampire is already her fate.

The Vampire in armor glanced at the humans before he said, "That's enough humans, the formation will not fit more than this"

"Kill the rest of them", the Vampire in armor commanded nonchalantly.

Hearing the command, all of the Vampires in a black uniform becomes more violent as they rampage through the remaining humans.

The humans that are already caught looks at the remaining in horror,

Usually being the last one to get caught is a good thing because of a higher chance to escape, but it didn't apply to the situation they're in.

The ones that are caught by the Vampires didn't get hurt,

It's like they're handling babies with care, but after hearing the command they got from the Vampire in armor, their behavior changes instantly.

They're not gentle anymore, their bloodlust instinct kicks in.

Some of the caught humans even felt thankful for getting caught earlier, if not then they will be killed just like the remaining ones.

Rosie was also shocked by this scene,

The Vampires in black uniform tear through the remaining human's limbs as they savor the blood that got spilled.

But then suddenly,

"Victor!! No please don't take him!!", a girl can be heard shouting from afar.

Rosie looks in the shout direction in horror, the scream of the girl is so familiar to her and she's certain that it's Abby.

Right in the house on the right near the City Hall,

Abby can be seen running outside of the house after a guy got caught by a Vampire, she looked at the guy with tears in her eyes.

"LET GO OF ME!!"

"I DON'T WANT TO DIE, PLEASE SOMEONE HELP!"

The guy that Abby called Victor shouted in fear, he got dragged outside of the house.

Abby runs towards the guy and tries to make the Vampire let go of him but she got pushed to the side, the Vampire ignores her effort.

"Abby! Help me!", Victor shouted.

The Vampire already pin him to the ground, and two sharp fangs are already pointed at him.

After getting pushed to the side, Abby looks to her left and finds the city people got gathered by the Vampires inside a formation.

She then looks back at Victor with determination,

"Hmm?", the Vampire that pin Victor on the ground stop as he looks at his back.

Abby already cut herself deeply on her wrist with her nails making her blood flow out, this caught the Vampire's attention instantly, "Run Victor...", she said softly before she look to her left.

Realizing what Abby meant, Victor stands up and started to run towards the formation.

He doesn't know why but the humans inside the formation didn't get killed, and that is the only reason that kept him running.

There's no hesitation in his expression,

Even after Abby cried in pain, Victor kept going without looking back.

Rosie looks at this scene in anger, her body emits a more powerful green energy trying to break free from the blood aura.

"ABBY!!!", she shouted desperately.

She tries to power through the blood aura desperately, even after her bones make a cracking sound she didn't stop while still looking at Abby that is gnawed by the Vampire.

Abby already got gnawed by several Vampires, but she died with a smile.

Rosie was confused as to why Abby is smiling, even though she knew that Abby is smiling because Victor manage to run away thanks to her sacrifice.

The Vampire in armor laughs evilly seeing this,

"You know that girl? Too bad that she didn't get picked", the Vampire said mockingly.

Rosie's body becomes, even more, weaker as Abby got slowly eaten,

She saw Victor manage to enter the formation safely, and the Vampire in armor or even the other Vampires didn't try to stop him.

Seeing him, Rosie remembers the brief conversation she and Abby had.

Although she pretends to not hear, she knows that Abby also has a guy she likes.

Now she knows that guy is Victor, Abby even gave her life to even give Victor a chance to survive even if it's only slim.

But by Victor's reaction, it seems that Victor didn't like her back.

The Vampire in armor laughs evilly after seeing Rosie's expression, he's amused with Rosie's depressed and helpless expression.

But then suddenly,

ROAARR!!

A loud mighty roar resounded throughout the city that shocks the Vampires, even the Vampire in armor beside Rosie is shocked.

The air trembles because of the roar,

All of the humans that are caught, and also the Vampires look in the roar direction.

The moon is already on the verge of drowning,

Subtle sunlight can already be felt and spotted by everyone as a white creature stood on Qrila City's wall, and there are two people riding it.

BOOM!!

Powerful suppressing aura suddenly exploded from the people riding the white beast, even the Vampire in armor got suppressed.

The suppressing aura makes his body feel heavy, and this happened to the others too.

From the silhouettes of the humans that came, they consist of a man and a woman.

The woman suddenly raises her hands,

She stretches out her hand as red sinister energy came out of her body, then a barrier got spawned enveloping the Vampire and the humans in it.

Looking at this, the Vampire in armor widened his eyes in shock.

"A rank five mutated animal?! and There're humans riding it?!", he shouted in shock, he knew that he will be outclassed by these people.

The cocky and confident bearing the Vampire in armor has vanished,

He then commanded, "Quick! Activate the gems and get ready to transport out of here!"

Hearing this, the Vampires in black robes instantly do as he said knowing well that they will not be able to beat the people that have just arrived.

"Issac, we don't have much time. I can only buy you some time, but I can't guarantee if I can be a match for them", the other Vampire in armor said.

Issac then shouted, "I KNOW ALREADY!"

"YOU ALL! ACTIVATE THE GEM FASTER!!", he shouted desperately.

His cowardly nature started to come forth, and this brings hope to the humans that are held captive by the Vampires.

Issac looks back to the wall before he stepped back in fear,

The two people that are riding a white beast vanished, which makes Issac even more scared, "You! Protect me with your life!"

But then suddenly,

CLANG!!

The man already arrives at Issac but got blocked by the other Vampire in armor, it happened so fast that even the humans are shocked.

Rosie fall to the ground after the blood aura faded,

Issac got flustered by the two people that just arrived, and he can't control the blood aura.

Rosie then looks to the man that has just arrived before her eyes widen, her lips trembles as she realized the man that just came, "REX!!", she shouted.

Hearing his name got called, Rex looks to the side and saw Rosie there.

He's surprised to find Rosie here in such a remote level four-city, 'Rosie?! Why is she here and not at Ochyra University', he thought in surprise.

The Vampire in armor flicks his sword as he jumped away from Rex,

ROAR!!

Delta leaped from the back and landed right beside Rex, her menacing eyes are glaring at the Vampires around while growling.

Her body is hulking on four, and her aura frightens Issac making him fall to the ground.

Soon after, Liliya also arrives at the scene.

She already came to her senses, and already got healed from the Wolf Rash.

Rex scans the place with a frown, 'What is their objective? Why do they gather so many humans?', he thought with a frown.

But then, Rosie shouted, "They're kidnapping humans to turn them into Vampires!"

Hearing this, Rex and Liliya widened their eyes in shock.

'Turning humans into Vampires?! How did they find that kind of method?!', Rex thought.

His expression then darkened as he look at the gathered humans, they're all innocent people and the Vampires dares to turn them into Vampires.

Some of them are still a kid, but the Vampires still took them.

Rex looks to the side and saw bodies splattered around, the Vampires are merciless.

This makes Rex's body trembles in anger,

His violent aura started to leak out of his body crazily, and this makes the Vampires alert.

Rex then faces Issac that is hiding behind the Vampire in armor, he then points at Issac with crazed eyes, "You...You will die today"

Chapter 200 Issac The Coward

"You...You will die today", Rex said softly.

<Sudden Quest!!>

Qrila City's people are under the Vampires attack, the people are gathered in the middle of the city inside a formation. Save the captured humans and send the Vampire away.

Quest Reward: 10,000,000 Exp, 10 Skill Upgrade, and 5,000 Gold

Reading this, Rex nodded his head knowing that he'll get something out of saving the city.

The words that came out of Rex's mouth makes Issac's expression turns pale, he never thought that reinforcement will come to this small city.

He even volunteers for this mission because of how easy it will be,

But now, the arrival of the two powerful humans riding a white beast makes him pale.

Liliya and Rex readies themselves with menacing eyes, they both intend to kill Issac above any other Vampires here.

Looking at this, "Protect me!! I'm a royal! Go kill them!", Issac shouted.

The Vampires in black uniforms hesitated for a moment, but they then jump in front of Issac to protect him.

Rex already scans the Vampires around,

The Vampires in black uniform have rank four power and only some of them are rank five which shocks him, and all of their Races are Half-Vampire except for the Vampires in armor.

'If they can turn humans into Vampires, then this Half-Vampires must be it', Rex thought.

Although the Supernatural has a mixed-race in them, there are no Supernaturals that have humans as their mix.

It's not even thought possible by Rex until now, he thought his pack is the only exception.

Rex's body then glows with a yellow hue, he doesn't have much time left before the sun rises and his power will be weakened.

The only reason he can compete in his human form against the Vampire in armor protecting Issac is that the Creature of the Night Passive skill is still active.

But it will not last long because the sun is already peeking,

BOOM!!

Rex's legs contracted as he dash to Issac, the ground cracked because of his might.

Seeing this, the Vampire in armor that is protecting Issac takes his sword on his side and jumped to intercept Rex.

It happened so fast that even Issac was surprised.

Issac has rank five power so he should manage on his own, but the fear that gripped his heart tightly weakened his will greatly.

Rex tilts his body to the side and dodges the slash,

He got through the Vampire in armor and locked onto Issac, but he sense a sword coming towards him from the back so he decided to jump.

SLASH!

The Vampire in armor slashes downwards and hits the ground, his sword stabs the ground.

Rex landed a few feet away and saw Liliya is already sneaking through the back, she's just a couple of feet away from Issac.

But then suddenly, the sword in the Vampire glows red, "Blood Magic, Five Death Lance!"

CRACK!

Five lances made of blood energy emerge from the ground,

Three of them appear right below Liliya while the other two tries to pierce Rex, but both of them manage to dodge the spell.

Just from this alone shows how powerful and fast the Vampire in armor is,

He can fend off two attackers that came from two directions, his decisiveness, and choice of attack scream experience.

The other Vampires didn't sit still,

GROWL!

Some of them started to attack Rex and Liliya,

Their body glows with blood aura, and they attack like an animal using their claws.

Rex's eyes darted left and right as six Vampires attack him from all sides, his sense and inhuman reflex went into play.

He dodges the first Vampire that attacks him by jumping back,

The captured humans are close to his vicinity, and fighting here will be bad.

That is why Rex jumped back to create distance for the humans, and so is Liliya who can be seen bringing the fight further away.

Rex also saw Delta taking on a couple of Vampires, and she's doing great.

But then,

Another Vampire already leaped to him from his right but Rex already saw this coming, "Force Beam!", Rex punch the Vampire right on her gut.

BAM!

The Vampire got blown away as her stomach caved in,

Without wasting another second, Rex dodge the Vampire that tried to attack him from his left and grab his leg.

Just as he did this, four Vampires arrives on him.

Rex smirk seeing this, he then swing the Vampire he held in a circle sending the four Vampires screeching away.

He then tossed the Vampire he held to the air, "Force Beam!"

SWOOSH!

Yellow crescent-shaped energy was created from a swing of Rex's leg as it shot towards the Vampire in the air.

The Vampire can't do anything, the yellow energy slashes his body in two.

Right after the Vampire got sliced in two, Delta jumped from Rex's back and bite the Vampire's head killing him instantly.

Amidst the fighting that breaks out,

Rex saw the four pillars on the side and there're Vampires who are doing something with them, the gem on the pillars started to glow red.

Seeing this, 'System, What is that pillars for?'

<Teleportation Formation, Four Pillars will be put in place according to the formation and they will be engraved with blood gems. Upon activation, it will teleport anything inside the formation at the expense of some blood>

Reading this, Rex immediately activates his black lightning.

His eyes glow with black lightning as he dashes towards the pillar,

Just like what the system said, the pillars are a formation used for teleportation and Rex will need to destroy it so the Vampires have no means to escape.

He massacred the weak Vampires that got in the way as he aims the four pillars.

But reaching the pillars are not that easy,

"Blood Magic, Blood Domain!"

ZONG!!

The ground turns red as the Vampire in armor cast his spell,

Rex looks to the ground and finds the ground already turns into blood, he wanted to flee but the blood held him in place.

Looking at this, the Vampire in armor leaped towards Rex with a sword in his hand.

The sword flashed with blood energy as he cast, "Blood Magic, Red Vapor Bat!!"

SWOOSH!!

After casting the spell, the sword in the Vampire in armor's hand glows with red energy.

The red energy enveloping the sword turns into a red bat filled with powerful energy, it makes the captured humans close their eyes in fear.

Rosie also saw this, she then immediately runs inside the pillars where the captured humans are sitting in fright.

By the looks of it, Rex will be pierced by the sword.

But that's what the others think,

For Rosie who has a share deal of experience with Rex, she knows Rex won't lose that easily.

Rex looks at this and can feel the immense energy emitted by the spell, but instead of fear he instead smirks.

"Blitzing Cry!"

BLITZ!!

The blood energy that restrain Rex dissipated after a burst of Black Lightning that exploded from Rex's body.

His nails then turn into claws as it burns with dark energy,

With a fierce glint, Rex clawed the red bat that had already arrived right in front of him.

BOOM!!

The ground cracked because of the collision,

The two energy that clashes against each other create a violent energy ball, the ball becomes even more violent as the two energies merge before suddenly,

KABOOM!!

Powerful shockwaves were created as it ripped the ground out of its crust,

Debris and dust got flung like a bullet to the surrounding, and the [powerful air of the explosion makes some of the Vampires get blown away unable to hold their ground.

In the nick of time,

Liliya creates a barrier around the captured humans to protect them from the violent shockwave.

It is a devastating explosion, and the city suffers from it.

SWOOSH!!

Smoke covers the battlefield, and it slowly but surely dissipates as it got blown by the wind.

The barrier that Liliya created has cracked all over it and even has holes in some of it resulting in some of the humans inside injured.

Liliya then scans the surrounding,

BOOM!

BOOM!

A couple of explosions can be heard from the surrounding, Liliya also puts a couple of Exploding Mark on the surrounding ground where she last saw the Vampires.

It seems some of the Vampires that tried to escape hit the red mark resulting in it exploding.

The captured humans and Rosie squint their eyes to see the surrounding,

After the smoke dissipated,

They can see Rex standing as his right arm got badly hurt, but when they see the Vampire in armor they sucked in a cold breath.

The Vampire in armor is lying on the ground,

There are four claw marks that ripped through his armor that reaches his body, and he's coughing blood.

Although the Vampires are undead, they still have blood in their body.

The blood that roams inside their body doesn't work like the blood in humans, but instead, the blood is what they drink that keeps them in peak condition.

It is also protected by their blood aura,

So if a Vampire has a substantial injury, then blood will leak out just like when humans bleed.

If the injury is caused by a silver weapon then the wound will not heal as their power slowly decreases over time, their body will turn stiff, and they will eventually enter a preservation state where they can't move at all.

But even though they can't move, they're still alive.

Vampires also have the regenerative ability on par with a Werewolf,

Rex knows this and didn't intend to let the Vampire in armor alive, he walks closer to the Vampire with soft steps.

At this point, many of the Vampires have already died.

The Vampire in armor tried getting up but the ground suddenly turns black, five black lightning tentacles held all of his limbs pinning him on the ground.

"My tu Rex said softly.

He steps on the Vampire's chest while looking at him straight in the eyes,

The Vampire coughs blood a couple of times before he mutters, "That skill, I've seen it before"

His injuries are starting to heal but the energy from Claw of Tormentor skill prevent that from happening, the Vampire is getting weaker and weaker as time passes, "Bertolf the Tormentor from the Werewolf, he uses that skill"

Hearing this, Rex smirk evilly.

This makes the Vampire widen his eyes helplessly, "Just, Who are you?"

Without answering the Vampire, Rex stomp his feet hardly as it crushed the Vampire's chest.

"Huakh!!", the Vampire spat a mouthful of blood.

After crushing the Vampire's chest, Rex raises his feet again before he stomps the Vampire's head next killing him instantly.

"I'm Rex Silverstar", Rex said softly before he turns his head to his right.

Issac who is hurt from the explosion becomes even frightened, a bleak aura enveloped his entire being that makes Rex chuckles lightly.

'From all of the creatures I met, I have never seen this much bleak aura', Rex thought.

Because of his Bleak Sense skill, Rex can sense a living being's fear and Issac is so scared that he emits so much bleak aura that even Rex himself finds it amusing.

"Stop where you are!!", Issac shouted.

Liliya also already arrives beside Rex while looking at Issac coldly,

He then continues, "Take one more step and I will kill these humans!! I swear I'll do it!!"

Hearing this, both Rex and Liliya frowns.

"Can you repair the barrier?", Rex whispers softly.

Liliya shakes her head, she already used too much of her red mark and she's already exhausted.

The barrier that Liliya made already has holes on it, and she's exhausted because of the act of intimidation before where Liliya creates a huge barrier to prevent the Vampires from escaping.

But Liliya already canceled the barrier because of the shockwave before,

With the addition of keeping the barrier around the captured humans, she can't repair it even if she wants to.

Liliya then whispers back, "If I reduce the barrier size, then I can create a new one"

Knowing this, Rex then stops in his track and said, "Do it after my signal, it's better to save some than lose all. And also, make a barrier beneath their legs too"

Liliya was confused about why Rex wanted to do that, but she still nodded her head.

Issac saw them whispering with a frown,

But seeing them both stop, Issac smiles cheekily, "That's right! You will let me leave this place or else I will kill them"

His hand then glows with red energy as he summons four lances that surround the captured humans like a hawking crow.

"Are you such a coward to hide behind a hostage?", Rex said tauntingly.

Hearing this, Issac laughs evilly, "So what? It's better to be a coward than die a meaningless death like the others"

Rex gritted his teeth,

He can't make a reckless move, Issac is ready with a spell to kill the captured humans.

But then suddenly,

SHINGG!!

The gems engraved on the four pillars suddenly glow red, it activates the formation on the ground before a Vampire shouted, "Sir! the Formation is ready!"

Hearing this, Issac becomes excited as he glances at the glowing formation.

Issac immediately jumped to the formation wanting to get out of here, but suddenly he saw a figure in the corner of his eyes.

At the moment Issac is distracted, Rex already leaped towards him as a signal to Liliya.

The red mark barrier that is surrounding the whole captured humans got smaller, it only envelopes half of the captured humans.

Although what she did is unfair to the half others, but it's still better than nothing.

Liliya did her part,

But in the nick of time, red scales appeared on Issac's skin as he chanted, "Draconic Scales!!"

And at the same time as that,

<Creature of the Night Passive Skill has been deactivated, All stats has been reduced by 50%>

BAM!!

Issac got punched on his face as he got flung inside the formation, red energy shooting to the sky envelopes him and half of the captured humans.

Their bodies then vanished as they got teleported away,

But right when Issac's body got teleported away, Rex saw that Issac is not hurt due to the scales that appears to protect him.

In addition that the Creature of the Night has run out, he didn't manage to kill Issac.

"They got away", Rex said while gritting his teeth.
