Chapter 201 Female Alpha Contender

Rex gritted his teeth as Issac got away,

He also becomes irritated after seeing the system's notification,

<Sudden Quest Failed>

<The user will not get the Quest Reward>

'This is the first time I failed a quest, I'll make sure to kill you next time', Rex thought while thinking about Issac before.

But then, he suddenly remembers the scene when he punches Issac.

Right when his fist was about to land on Issac's face, he heard Issac shouted something as red scales appeared on his skin.

It was a bizarre method, and Rex didn't know Vampires have such spells.

"Thank you, young man"

"Bless you both for saving us"

"Are you two also a Black Hand?"

The captured humans that got saved by Liliya's barrier thanked Rex and Liliya, they manage to survive thanks to both of them.

All of them are grateful, they didn't even know what will happen to the half others.

Hearing them, Rex ignores them.

But Liliya on the other hand shows her black crow tattoo before the people that got saved smile in surprise.

"We're right to join AoL!"

"Yeah, thank god we join the AoL"

Rex heard what they said before he thought, 'So this city is also a part of the banded level four city that is protected by the SCO huh, no wonder Green Messenger sent me here'

When Rex is thinking, Liliya approaches him and said, "Did you see the spell that Vampire use right before he got teleported?"

"Yes, it's weird and I never knew Vampires can do that", Rex said with a frown.

But then, Liliya added, "They shouldn't be able to do that, the spell that Vampire use is the war spell of the Dragonman. It's what makes the Dragonman known for its defense"

Realizing this, Rex looks at Liliya in shock.

Liliya nodded her head, "They somehow can use a Dragonman spell"

Rex was surprised by the realization, he has a hunch that the spell Issac use is not normal but to be actually a Dragonman's spell is still surprising.

'Just like Strada City, Siren's spell shouldn't be red in color. They live in the sea!', Rex thought.

He remembers the attack that he saw in the news about Strada City being attacked by Sirens, General George was the one that got attacked.

It's weird from the start, the Sirens territory is far away.

The UWO and other organizations think that the Sirens somehow find a way to attack them from afar, using some kind of formation to teleport the attack.

"What if they manage to find a way for races to use different races spell, it can't be no other explanation", Liliya said.

Rex also agrees with her, 'If the attack is red then that means it's probably an attack from the Vampire or Demons, so they did find a way to use other races spells'

After realizing that, Rex then said, "You should go report these findings to the Green Messenger"

"Where are you going? You're not coming?", Liliya asks.

Rex shakes his head, 'The Violet Moon is tonight, and also', Rex thought before he turns his head to the side.

There, he saw Rosie is stealing glances at him.

'Well it's a relief that she's in the right half', Rex thought with a sigh.

Liliya notice Rosie looking at Rex before she said, "I know that she knows you, so I decided to save the half where she's in"

Rex looks at Liliya in surprise, he thought that Liliya did it in random.

"Thanks... I guess", Rex said before he scratches his head.

Seeing Rex acting this way, Liliya smiles before she said, "Just give me the tears, I will report back to the Green Messenger while you take care of her"

"What?! I didn't say I would go with her", Rex said aghast.

Hearing this, Liliya chuckles lightly, "Since when did you get flustered easily? I thought you're always calm and collected"

"Just take this and go", Rex said as he tossed the pouch of tears.

"You did a good job, I'm surprised", Rex said while patting Delta's head.

Delta whimpers annoyedly hearing Rex look down on her, this makes Rex chuckle before suddenly a voice called out to him, "Rex..."

Rex looks back and saw Rosie behind him,

Now that Rex looks at her properly, Rosie didn't change one bit from the last time they met.

She is still the same beautiful girl with her hazel eyes and brown curly hair, despite her haggard look because of the incident before, she still looks stunning as always.

Rex looks at her while slightly widening his eyes before he turns stoic again after scanning her, 'I guess it's not such a good thing to not change much', he thought.

Rosie then said, "Rex, I want to tal-"

But before she can finish, "You come with me", Rex said before he dragged Rosie to a much more quiet place.

The captured humans have already recovered and already going back to check their houses, But some of them still look shocked, and some are crying after seeing their loved ones killed because of this tragedy.

Their city that has been flourishing got raided by the Vampire, and thankfully they survive.

Amongst them is Victor,

Rosie saw Victor going back to his house casually, he didn't seem bothered at all.

This makes Rosie pissed because of how Abby sacrificed herself for a guy like him, but she's not in a position where she can confront him.

Especially when she saw how Abby talks about him before,

Abby will not want her to do anything to Victor, and Rosie knows it.

Rosie then sigh as she got pulled away by Rex, she still can't believe that Abby is dead.

Abby's annoying voice and her effort to comfort still can be seen clearly in Rosie's head, she's just talking to Rosie an hour ago but now she's dead.

Rex pins Rosie on a wall far from the others, and Rosie snapped out of her daze before she looks down in front of Rex.

She didn't have the guts to look Rex right in the eye,

Although it's been a while since they met, she still remembers clearly the words that Rex said to her that night.

"Did you keep my secret?", Rex asks softly.

Hearing this, Rosie looks up with a surprised look, "Of course I did! I never told a single soul about your secret", she said hurriedly.

Both of them stop while staring at each other,

Rosie then realized that she's looking Rex straight in the eyes before she averted her gaze.

Rex studies her expression while squinting his eyes making Rosie nervous, he then said, "I trust you. Now you got another secret of mine, keep it"

After saying that, Rex walks away.

Looking at Rex turning his back, Rosie shouted, "Do you mean being a part of the Black Hand?"

Rex stopped in his track as he chuckles lightly, he clicked his tongue in displeasure before he approach Rosie again, "What do you want now?"

"Let me into your pack", Rosie said nonchalantly.

Hearing this, Rex chuckles, "I told you no last time, and it's still the same answer"

"You did something for me for your first secret, now you have let me in your pack if you want me to keep your second secret", Rosie said bravely.

Rex glared at her in anger,

Rosie just realized what she just said before she added hurriedly, "Look, If you let me into your pack then I will make sure to do anything you said"

"Yet I already told you the answer, you're just not in line with my target", Rex said harshly.

The sun is up and already shone down on them, the birds are already singing signing that it's morning already.

Rex look at Rosie straight in the eyes, and this time she didn't back down.

Looking at this, Rex was quite intrigued,

But then, he saw Rosie's sweat that flow down all the way from her neck to her collarbone.

He tries to avert his gaze but something in him prevents him from doing so.

Seeing Rex's weird behavior, and where his eyes are looking, Rosie's eyes lit up as she remembered something.

"You're an Alpha, right? From based on what I read, and Alpha needs a Female Alpha", Rosie said seductively.

Rex knows that something is wrong with him and Rosie notice it too,

But no matter how hard he tries to look away, his insides are preventing him from doing so making him helpless in the situation.

He then said, "I already have a Female Alpha"

"Is it Adhara?", Rosie asks.

Rex nodded his head, it's at least what the system said before.

Rosie stops for a moment seeing Rex nod his head, she then takes a deep breath to calm her down and lean closer to Rex.

Her lips then went closer to Rex's ear before she whispers, "Then where is she now? When the Violet Moon is already so close at hand"

Hearing this, Rex widened his eyes in surprise.

He looks at Rosie in shock, 'How did she know? Even Adhara didn't know about this'

Seeing Rex's surprised look, there's a sweet smile on Rosie's face before she slipped her arms and lock them on Rex's neck.

Their bodies are close together, and Rex can smell Rosie's sweet scent.

Rex's head started to spin as his breathing becomes heavy, "Get off me...Don't come any closer", he said weakly while pushing Rosie off of him.

After Rosie got pushed away, Rex started to walk away from her.

Rosie wanted to catch up but Rex shouted, "Don't! Just Don't..."

He then left the place and goes to Delta who is waiting for him, his walk is not as steady as before and his chest is burning on fire.

"Let's go Delta", Rex said before he and Delta walks away.

Rosie is looking at him from the back, and there is a smile on her face.

Meanwhile,

Normal Faraday University's students are going to their classes, it's already morning and the first class of the day was about to start.

It's just like any other normal morning,

But outside of Faraday University, there's a commotion going around.

"Sir I want to buy that!! I came here first!!"

"Get out of the way!!"

"I'll buy that twice the price!! Let me have it now!!"

Many students are gathered on a Magic Shop,

Magic Shop sells spells and items to increase magic power potency or even their ranks, it's always crowded because Awakened needs items such as Elemental Stones.

The university provides the necessary items for their students, but it's always better to have more.

But today, the Magic Shop is more crowded than usual.

Long lines of Awakened can be seen filling the street, and they're all going to the Magic Shop to buy a new item that makes them crazy.

There's a sign on the front of the shop,

'New Item, Ultra Grade Fire Stone! Greater than high grade! Purchase it now!'

Just from the sign, the Awakened that line up for this Ultra Grade Fire Stone are all Fire Elementalist that just got the news.

This rumor about Ultra Grade Fire Stone travels fast and far,

With only a day of selling, the Fire Stone becomes the hottest item in the whole sector.

Everybody is curious about this Ultra Grade Fire Stone, and everyone that bought it came back as soon as possible to buy more.

This creates this crowd that is gathering for the Ultra Grade Fire Stone,

In front of the Magic Shop, there are two people looking at the Magic Shop across the street with wide smiles on their faces.

These people are Adhara and Edward,

"It's not a surprise, even I got shocked when I use the Fire Stone you made", Edward said while looking at the crowd of people.

Hearing this, Adhara chuckles, "Yeah, If I were them then I would be as crazy if not crazier"

The stone that Adhara accidentally made turns out to be some form of Fire Stone, and this is the first batch that she made for testing.

And the result is in front of their eyes, people craved for this.

But then suddenly,

"Adhara? What's wrong", Edward asks.

The pain is unbearable as she falls slumping to the ground,

"You okay? Let's go to the infirmary", Edward said while holding Adhara's shoulder.

She nodded her head before she walk into the university with Edward's help, 'What's happening? Why is my chest hurting so bad'

The pain she had is not a physical one, but it's some sort of mental pain.

It feels exactly just like when getting betrayed by a friend or a partner, it is even almost as painful as seeing her mother die.

'Did something happen to Rex?', she thought in concern.

Chapter 202 Zeragon

"I'm sorry, but you have to wait here until we get back to the university", Rex said while patting Delta's head.

He's currently at the train station,

This train station is not in Qrila City because there's none in there, it's the nearest train station from the city located in a level three city.

Everybody's looking at him because of Delta,

Delta's huge body sticks out like a sore thumb in the crowded city full of normal humans, it makes all of them move to the side in respect.

An Awakened is highly respected, an Awakened riding a mutated animal is above that.

Since the emergence of the Supernatural that sparks the changes in the world, there's no reliable and good method to tame a mutated animal.

Although there's none, some Awakened have managed to tame a mutated animal.

But this kind of Awakened only appears one in two hundred or maybe more,

These kinds of Awakened are given a nickname by the people, they're called Zeragon named after the first Awakened to tame a mutated animal, Zera.

Zera is the first Awakened that manages to tame a mutated animal,

She becomes the first breakthrough for humanity in using mutated animals, and she's still living now fighting on the frontlines against the Supernatural.

The mutated animal she tames is almost identical to a dragon,

It has metallic scales all over its body, two mighty wings that stretch far, and also it can breathe silver fire that is very toxic.

Zera got a war nickname from the people, she's called the Platinum Rider.

The mutated animal that she rides is a rank seven mutated animal,

Although Delta is not as strong as the mutated animal Zera has, it's still strong enough that can put her in the middle-high tier of Zeragon.

Rex didn't give too much thought when bringing Delta,

He thought that it's a natural thing to bring a mutated animal knowing that some students in Ochyra University have tamed a mutated animal too, but who would've thought that there's an actual term for this.

Rex can only shake his head as he sees the treatment he got from the city people.

Delta growls annoyedly seeing the place she's in,

Because of her huge frame, Delta was put on the last train car where they put farm animals such as cows, goats, sheep, and even horses.

Although the emergence of the Supernatural brings many changes,

Just like what it did to the humans, some animals didn't mutate into a mutated animal.

These farm animals are an example of that, they didn't mutate and almost all of them are already extinct in the wild.

That is why humans gather and protect them as a source of food.

Delta glares at the animals,

But this makes Rex hit her head lightly, "Don't eat any of them, if you do then I will toss you out of the train"

Hearing this, Delta growls softly before she slumps her body on the corner.

She avoids Rex's gaze crankily, and Rex can only sigh seeing her behavior, "Just wait for a bit, I'll get you out as soon as we got back to Ratmawati City"

After saying that, Rex closes the train car.

He then senses a person approaching him that turns out to be the train driver,

"Sir, Do you want us to clear a car for you to relax?", the train driver said nervously.

His hands are trembling, and it's clear that it's the first time the train driver speaks to a Zeragon like Rex or even to an Awakened.

Rex smiles before he said, "There's no need, it will be a hassle for you and the passengers"

Hearing this, the train driver's eyes lit up in delight, "Your seat is on car number three, and please do enjoy your travel"

After saying that, the train driver wanted to go to his station but stopped.

"It's going to take ten hours right? To get to Ratmawati City?", Rex asks with a concerned look.

The train driver looks back and replied, "Our train is the newest model and it will definitely arrive ten hours to Ratmawati City if there are no mishaps of course"

Rex then nodded his head before he let the train driver go,

'System, Will I turn into my Werewolf Form during the Violet Moon?', Rex asks.

<No, unlocking the Manual Transformation feature allows the user to transform between forms freely. In Full-Moon, the user just need to make sure the associated stats are stable to maintain the user's human form>

Reading this, Rex sigh, 'It should be alright if that's the case'

He then walks to car number three before he stopped at the entrance, 'What will happen during the Violet Moon again?'

<The user's willpower will be tested>

After getting the answer, Rex went inside the train before he sat down on his seat.

Unknown to Rex, there's a woman that enters train car number 10 right after he enters the train.

Meanwhile, Supernatural Territory.

SWOOSH!!

Many Werewolves are dashing through the forest,

This pack of Werewolves is emitting horrifying and chilling auras as it spread to the surrounding, they expose their aura as if they didn't fear anything in this forest.

All of the Werewolves wears scaled gauntlets on their arms,

The gauntlets have three different colors, there's red, blue, and yellow.

With the way the gauntlets they use glows, it can be certain that these gauntlets are imbued with multiple runes that make them at least a rank five battle equipment.

Amongst the Werewolves, there are three Werewolves leading.

It can be clearly seen that they're an Alpha from their position and their huge frames that is way bigger than the other Werewolves.

All of the Alphas are wearing a black robe that merges with their furs,

Just by the way of the powerful mutated animals that resided in the forest acted, these Alphas are powerful, way powerful than normal Werewolves.

After traveling through the forest for a while, they met an open place.

The open place that they just arrived at is filled with the stench of blood, bones scattered in the place, and many still have flesh on them.

"A great battle occurred here, the smell of blood here is fresh", an Alpha said.

Then another added, "Why did Ruston send us here, it's just impossible for a Werewolf to act this way aside from the Full Moon"

"It's just a formality for the Elves, to ease their anger", the first Alpha replied.

While the Alphas are mumbling, the silent Alpha is scanning the surrounding with hawking eyes.

There's a burned huge tree in front of them that is supposed to be the Great Tree of Thyssys, the young place the Elves made.

The silent Alpha then looks to the side and find the ground is scarred,

"Osric, let's just go back and report that it's not a Werewolf doings", the first Alpha said.

Hearing this, the silent Werewolf glare at the first Alpha before he said softly with his baritone voice, "Search this place, find for clues of what the Elves are fighting against"

GROWL!

The first Alpha growls towards the silent Alpha, "You are not the only Alpha"

The first Alpha's eyes are glaring towards the silent Alpha, but only got replied by a stoic stare by the silent Alpha.

After a moment, the first Alpha then scoffed, "You heard him, search the place"

SWOOSH!

The Werewolves searches the place to find clues about the battle,

All of the Elves' corpses that they found are gathered to the center to be inspected, but many of them are already left with bones.

With the fresh blood scent and the powerful High Elves corpses.

The mutated animals in this place are enticed by these corpses, and eating these High Elves' corpses will make them stronger.

Because of that, many of the corpses are already turned into bones.

They are already eaten by the mutated animal, and some are still eating before they sense the pack of Werewolves and run away.

"Osric! I found something!", a Werewolf shouted from afar.

Hearing this, Osric leaped towards the Werewolf before he look at what the Werewolf found.

There's a corpse of a normal Elf that has not been eaten, it's completely intact and there are claw wounds on the corpse's chest.

Looking at this, Osric frowns.

The first Alpha also arrives at the scene and saw the corpse, "Vampires also has claws, so this still doesn't prove the perpetrator is a Werewolf"

"You're right, but still, bring this corpse back for inspection", Osric commanded.

But just when they're about to move on, the other Alpha shouted, "Osric! Felix! Come here this instant and look at this"

Osric and the first Alpha, Felix, go to the scene.

There he saw a half-eaten corpse, and by the aura it emitted it must be a High Elf.

"Look at this", the other Alpha said before he flipped the corpse.

His claws then glow with a light blue hue, he then approaches his claws to the corpse before black energy emerges to fight the light blue hue.

Looking at this, Osric and Felix widened their eyes in shock.

"This is...", Osric gasped in shock.

Then the other Alpha also nodded his head, "This is exactly like Bertolf the Tormentor's skill, Turns out it is a Werewolf's doing"

"Impossible, Why would Bertolf attack the Elves?", Felix ask with a frown.

After knowing this, Osric then finally said, "The only way we know the answer is to go ask him ourselves, let's go back and report this"

"And you! Bring this corpse", he added.

The pack of Werewolves then dashes away leaving the destroyed Thyssys.

Supernatural Territory,

There's a medieval-style mansion standing beautifully inside a city,

With the normal medieval-style houses in the surrounding, this mansion is glowing more than the others because of how big it is.

Although the sun is shining on the world, this place is somehow still dark.

There is a black barrier covering tens of miles from the mansion that kept the place dark, and because of this, the Vampires can roam around without fear.

Two Vampires that are standing straight guards the entrance of the mansion,

"RAARGHH!!"

"HELPP!!"

Screams of pain can sometimes be heard coming from the mansion, but none of the Vampires around pay this any mind.

But then suddenly,

ZOONG!!

Hundreds of humans suddenly appeared in front of the mansion right after a red formation appear on the ground.

The teleported humans look around in fear,

They're not in the Humans Territory anymore, the front of the mansion is barren with only one road leading to the entrance of the mansion made of stones.

Dead trees can be seen left and right,

The red eyes that are peeking at them from the mansion and beyond the gate make the Humans snuggle together in fear.

Amongst the humans, there's a Vampire spotted.

He's Issac that manage to escape from Qrila City alongside half of the humans,

Issac stands up before he harshly kicks the humans to the side to make way, "Move you filthy humans! You sour me with your smell!", he said harshly.

After getting out of the circle of humans, Issac looks at the humans in fright.

The humans that he captured should've been much more than this, and somehow it got reduced to this pitiful amount, "Those wretched humans!! I will kill you!!", he shouted angrily.

Right after he shouted, the entrance of the mansion opened.

Two Vampires walk out of the mansion, one is a man and one is a woman.

The man wears a white shirt covered with a cavalier vest while holding a wine glass, while the woman wears a victorian maroon dress that is skin tight on her waist.

These two looks perfect for each other, just like a couple should be.

Seeing the two vampires that came out, Issac kneel on the ground and said, "Mother, Father, I'm back from the mission"

"Issac! My son, I'm happy you came back alive", the man said while walking down the stairs.

The woman also followed on the back gracefully, they both then stop in front of Issac while gazing at the trembling humans.

Looking at the humans, their eyes glow with a red haze as creepy smiles appear on their faces.

The humans look away in fear, Issac's parents' eyes are like needles that stab through whomever their eyes fall onto.

"I'm glad you're back safe and sound", Issac's father tap on Issac's shoulder lightly, but then his eyes glows red as he said, "But why is it only this much?"

Hearing this, Issac's standup and said, "Powerful humans appeared, and we're forced to retreat from the city"

But instead of hearing Issac's answer, his father's eyes landed on his cheek.

Issac's father gently embrace Issac's cheek where he saw a couple of red scales hanging, he then look at Issac right on his eyes before suddenly,

PAH!

Issac suddenly got slapped hard right on his cheek,

"Issac my dear, Did you use the Dragonman's skill?", his father asks softly.

But his trembling voice that was about to erupt greatly frightens Issac, "Father, I could've died if I don't use it"

PAH!

Another slap landed on Issac's face before his mother held Issac's father's hand.

"HOW DARE YOU!! YOU RECKLESS USELESS SON!!", Issac's father shouted angrily because of what Issac did.

Issac's mother then intervenes, "Issac dear, go and report that you have finished the mission"

Hearing this, Issac immediately nodded his head and runs away.

Issac's father is still burning with anger as he looks at Issac running away, but then Issac's mother said, "He's our son, and you know well how his personality is"

"I can forgive him about anything else!! But this? the King will punish him!!", Issac's father shouted.

This makes the both of them solemn knowing that their son, Issac, will be in trouble.

Issac's mother finally said, "Will he be killed by the King?"

"Not if we tell the king ourselves", Issac's father said with a sigh.

Issac's father then signal to the guard to tend to these humans, he takes one last hateful look to the humans before he went back to the mansion.

Chapter 203 Giving In To Lust

"Hmmpph!", Adhara grunted as her chest felt like it's burning.

Edward brought her back to her room after Adhara denied going to the infirmary, he lies Adhara on the bed in panic.

They're just chilling in front of the Magic Shop before,

But then suddenly Adhara felt pain in her chest, and this confused Edward.

Based on what he knows,

An Awakened will not fall sick to any normal human's sickness, only sickness that comes from mana, mutated animal, or Supernatural can make an Awakened sick.

So seeing Adhara sick like this, Edward didn't know what to do.

Especially after seeing Adhara's pained expression and her gasp for air, it's like she's been tortured by something.

"Edward...", Adhara called softly.

Hearing his name got called, Edward approach Adhara with a frown, "What do you need? I don't know what's happening to you"

"Don't mind me, can you look after Kyran?", She said with heavy breaths.

p Edward frowns harder, it's weird for Adhara to ask him to look after Kyran when the one who is sick is her not Kyran.

Looking at Edward's confused expression, Adhara then said, "Just check on him!"

After getting told to check on Kyran for the second time, Edward finally left the room and went to the other room where Kyran should be.

He opened the door and find that Kyran is not there, there's only Ryze sitting on the corner.

"Ryze, Have you seen Kyran?", Edward asks.

Ryze can only shake his head, he then replied, "His body is red before he left, I thought he went to the infirmary"

Hearing this, Edward frowns.

He then left the room and called for the butler, but the butler didn't come to only Clarice the maid approach him, "What can I help you with Sir Edward?"

"Where's the butler? I want to see Kyran", Edward asks.

Clarice then said, "The butler left with Kyran a while ago, I don't know where they went but Sir Kyran looks in a hurry"

After getting the answer, Edward runs outside to find Kyran.

Although he doesn't know what's going on, Adhara told him to check on Kyran so something must have happened to him.

~

Meanwhile,

"These are the survivors?", Sebrof asks in shock.

In front of him is the so-called survivors, and they're only less than fifty of them.

An Awakened wearing a guild's uniform beside Sebrof then said, "Yes sir, out of the population of Lupis City only these people manage to escape"

"The others got trapped in Lupis City, the city is already crawling with demons", he added.

Hearing this, Sebrof clenched his hand in anger.

The Great Barricade is there for a reason, to prevent the Supernaturals to enter human territories easily and avoid this kind of situation.

Many of the powerful Awakened are stationed there, only a handful stayed behind.

But now, the demons suddenly attacked Lupis City.

Sebrof looks to the members of the guilds that arrive at the scene with a little bit of confidence, there's about 500 of them with about 10 are a rank seven Awakened.

His eyes then landed on a man wearing a white guild uniform that has sharp eyes.

Sebrof looks at the man with bright eyes, "Regulo of the Valiant Sacrament, I'm surprised you came. I thought that nothing besides playing and teaching with kids can entice you"

"Sir Sebrof, with all due respect, I'm just making sure the young generation will still be able to defend humanity once we're gone", Regulo said nonchalantly.

His gentle yellow eyes are soothing to look at, and his smile gives off a holy aura.

Regulo is a rank seven Awakened from the Valiant Sacrament Guild, he's a rare Light Elementalist that has powerful buff and protection spells necessary to attack a stronghold.

Demons are also weak to light element, and his presence brought relief to Sebrof.

"Make sure the survivors are well fed and protected", Sebrof said before the Awakened beside him nodded his head.

He then added, "Regulo and Lista, come with me to look at Lupis City"

Hearing his name got called, Lista then said, "Sir Sebrof? You're going to inspect the city yourself? Me and Regulo can do it"

"No, I want to see these demons that dares to wander on our territory myself", Sebrof said.

After saying that, the three of them then disappear from sight.

The survivors are already brought to a safe place by the nearby Awakened, so they can't see Lupis City from this place.

Sebrof and the others then suddenly stopped on a hill,

Their eyes widened in surprise as they saw the scene in front of him that makes their back tingle, they didn't expect to see anything like this.

In front of them, is Lupis City.

But Lupis City doesn't look like how it is supposed to be anymore,

The city already turned into a demonic city as blue fire envelopes the whole place, all of the walls, grounds, and even buildings got corrupted by the blue fire.

Many different types of demons are already crawling inside the city.

Just from a look, Sebrof and the others know that to take back the city will need a tremendous amount of resources.

Amongst the demons crawling in the city, the four-armed demons are the most common.

Their bodies are filled with blue fire that even their saliva turns blue, black charcoal skin, hulking big bodies, and they all held a blue sword in their hand.

"Blue Demons? I never knew there's one", Regulo said with a frown.

Sebrof also looks at the scene with a troubled look, "It is indeed new, do the demons achieve a breakthrough?"

It's common knowledge for demons to have red energy,

Even during the first emergence of demons, all of them have fiery blood that glows red and their bodies are emitting strong heat.

But the demons in front of them are blue,

From their changes in appearance alone, Sebrof and the others concluded that the demons have achieved a breakthrough making them turn blue.

"It'll be hard to take this city back, we don't even know how strong they are", Regulo said.

Lista also agrees with Regulo, "We need to test their strength first, then we can devise a plan to deal with them"

"Nevertheless, an attack this close to Ratmawati City cannot be tolerated"

But just when they're discussing amongst themselves,

Swoosh...

Sebrof suddenly felt a subtle shockwave that alert him, he then look towards Lupis City before he said, "What is that? Do you guys see that?"

Hearing this, Lista and Regulo looks in a direction but find nothing.

"What are you talking about Sir?", Lista asks.

Regulo also didn't see anything, they both look at Sebrof in confusion but then suddenly,

NGONG!

NGONG!!

From the middle of the city, there's a flickering blue spark that catches the attention of Sebrof and the others.

The flickering spark can be seen clearly,

Sebrof squinted his eyes and saw something looking at him from afar,

But this time, it's not only him that saw this but Lista and Regulo also saw the creature that is looking at them from afar.

"Oh my god! What the heck is that?!", Lista shouted.

The flickering blue spark emits immense energy that makes their legs tremble, it's something that is clearly stronger than Lista and Regulo.

Sebrof gritted his teeth seeing this,

In the middle of the city right on top of Linto Financial Tower that already turns into a demonic tower where the blue flickering spark is located, there's a creature there looking right at them.

The creature is walking on four, its body already looked big from afar.

Based on what Sebrof sees, the creature looks like a big ape with a blue crystal on its back.

From the flickering blue spark the blue crystal emitted,

Sebrof and the others know that the creature is a powerful one and the flickering light is the creature showing intimidation towards them.

Sebrof look at the creature as cold sweat flow down on his forehead,

He knows that the creature may be as strong as him or even stronger, it's going to be a hassle to fight the creature and the demons.

"Let's go back, we can't underestimate them", Sebrof commanded.

Hearing his command, Regulo and Lista nodded their head before they left the place under the gaze of the terrifying creature.

The day turns to night,

Passengers inside the train are already started to fall asleep, the night air makes their eyelids become heavy as they close their eyes.

Many of the passengers are sitting comfortably on their seats except one.

Rex is changing his seat position a couple of times uncomfortably, his eyes are looking at his surrounding as his body started to sweat.

Although the system said that he can control his transformation,

But the effect of the Violet Moon started to get him, he's restless on his seat.

'It's been more than ten hours, and we're still not arrived yet', Rex thought restlessly.

The train driver said that this train is the new model, and they will arrive at Ratmawati City in ten hours but they still haven't arrived yet.

Rex's breathing becomes heavy, his body also becomes hot.

His eyes then catch a woman sitting on his right that is sleeping soundly, but for some reason, Rex can't take off his eyes from the woman's neck that somehow look alluring.

It's definitely the Violet Moon's doing, and Rex didn't like this at all.

Rex gripped the handle of his seat trying to hold in his desire, but the more he tries to deny it the more his body burns.

The feeling is like a ticking bomb, and it will soon detonate.

Feeling uncomfortable, Rex stands up from his seat and walks towards the toilet.

He walks unsteadily towards the toilet, his head starting to spin after enduring the Violet Moon's effect for so long.

Splash!

Rex washes his face a couple of times to ease his desire,

'Testing my willpower? I didn't expect it to be this hard', Rex thought while rubbing his face with water.

While he's looking at the mirror, he saw something that makes his eyes widen.

Rex looks down at his pants and finds that his junior is erect, 'This is the most annoying full moon', he thought.

But then,

<The user is advised to be with the Female Alpha!>

<The effect of the Violet Moon will keep getting stronger the longer the user tries to hold in the user's desire>

'I know that already!', Rex shouted in his head.

He then walks out of the toilet and goes back to his seat,

Despite the burning sensation he's feeling all over his body like a deadly craving, Rex forced his eyes to shut trying to sleep.

An hour passed,

'I can't hold it in much longer!', Rex thought helplessly.

The woman beside him becomes even alluring and alluring as his eyes become hazy,

Rex glances a couple of times at the woman beside him before he stretches his hand, his hands are already trembling uncontrollably.

Something inside of him is trying to break free,

Unconsciously, four fangs stuck out from his mouth as his transformation started to break.

The muscles all over his body started to contract as it becomes bigger, his eyes then started to glow with a red hue before it suddenly turns into Violet.

Just as his hand was about to reach for the moment,

Grab!

Someone grabbed his hand from the back,

Feeling his hand just got grabbed, Rex yanked his hand pulling the person that grabbed onto his hand forward.

At this point, Rex is not in his right mind.

He grabs the person's waist as he pulled the person towards his lap.

Although he's not in the right mind, the womanly scent of the person that falls onto his lap penetrated his nose as his lust reach a new height.

Rex then saw the woman in a blurry before he grab her waist roughly,

Instead of refusing Rex's harsh touch, the woman only leans closer to Rex, "If you can't hold it in, then just do it with me", a soft voice infiltrates Rex's ear soothingly.

With the burning lust, Rex finally grabs the woman's neck and started to devour her lips.

Chapter 204 He's Not Stopping

Supernatural Territory,

"The Awakening time is near, let's slap the other Supernaturals awake", a humanoid demon with two mighty curved horns said with a crooked smile.

There's a Vampire in front of the demon wearing black armor,

They both are currently meeting in a mountainous area surrounded by a forest, and each of them brought two guards beside them.

Both of these Supernaturals are Solomon and Saruth.

From their wearings and meeting place, it's evident that they both are meeting in secret.

Such meetings are unheard of, even when the Supernatural are in an alliance.

Even though the Vampires and the Demons don't have any qualms, it's still rather rare to see them both act like this.

Solomon scoffs, "It's about time, I already bought you enough time to strengthen your armies, and now is the time to pay me back"

Hearing this, Saruth laughs loudly.

"Of course, as we are currently an alliance I will gladly repay you back", Saruth said.

Feeling annoyed by Saruth's laugh, Solomon clicked his tongue and said, "What are your plans? What do you mean by slapping the other Supernaturals awake?"

Saruth smile mysteriously,

Looking at this, Solomon frowns as he saw Saruth's cocky bearing.

"Before I answer that, How's the ritual going on for the Vampires?", Saruth changed the subject.

Solomon look at Saruth right in the eyes as he pause for a moment, he then said, "Because of the ritual our number increased tremendously, and the humans suffered from it"

"But I have a question, I saw that unknown demon did a ritual himself and I'm wondering what was that about", he added.

Hearing this, Saruth glanced to the side before he said, "You mean him?"

Thud!

Another demon that has a powerful aura as Saruth came out from the side,

There's a blue rune on the demon's chest that seems like the source of his terrifying aura, and the huge spear that is blazing with blue fire on its tip, enhancing the demon's aura even more.

Solomon and the two Vampire guards jumped back in alert,

"What is the meaning of this Saruth?! You told me that this meeting is a secret!", Solomon shouted angrily.

With two powerful demons here, his safety is threatened.

Solomon only brought two peak rank seven Vampires with him that are a part of the Royal Vampire Guard.

But this demon that just arrived is as strong as Saruth.

It's the demon he saw when he went to the Demon Kingdom, even Lucius is afraid of this one.

Saruth chuckles lightly, "Calm down Solomon, you ask why is Azzen here does a ritual himself to turn a human into Demon right?"

"I must say, your information is not as good as mine", he added.

Solomon look at Saruth in confusion, "What do you mean? There's no way my information is wrong", he said.

Ignoring Solomon's remark, Saruth then said, "Azzen here didn't do one ritual but two"

Hearing this, Solomon widened his eyes in shock.

Based on what his scout that he positioned to monitor the Demon Kingdom, they told him that Azzen did a ritual.

Unlike Vampire's forbidden ritual,

Demon's forbidden ritual to turn a human into their kind is by making a contract, and they will search for a negative aura that is emitted by a human before the demon offer that said person a contract to become a demon.

The ritual is quite complicated, that is why many preparations are needed.

Knowing this, Solomon is finding it hard to believe that his scout got a mistake about this.

"Then, Why did you bring him here?", Solom asks.

Azzen that is quiet all this while suddenly move, he waves his hand, and create two portals where they can see one demon and one human.

Solomon knows that these two are the ones that Azzen did the ritual with,

He can see a blue demon on the left portal, that demon is emitting the same blue aura as Azzen.

While the right portal is the human, she's still in her human form and she's currently doing something that Solomon didn't know.

"You already attacked the humans? What are you trying to do?", Solomon asks.

Saruth walks to Azzen before he taps Azzen on his shoulder, "Didn't I tell you? I will slap the other Supernatural awake", he said with a creepy smile.

Twenty minutes passed,

Solomon is on his way back with a frown,

Because of his meeting with King Saruth, there is a lot of information that he needs to digest.

He's currently inside a royal caravan the exact one he use to go to the Demon Kingdom before, and the two Vampire Royal Guards are the ones driving it.

After going out of the mountainous area,

FLAP! FLAP!

The sound of wings flapping can be heard,

The caravan stops and Solomon walks out, he already senses that a Vampire is approaching him in a hurry.

Solomon looks up before the Vampire lands in front of him,

The Vampire kneel in front of Solomon before he said, "King Solomon, Queen Nezera is asking for your presence in the castle"

"I'm on my way back, is it something important?", Solomon asks.

Hearing this, the Vampire nodded his head, "It's about the human Werewolf that Princess Calidora is so fixed about, that human Werewolf is a Prince..."

"Prince? Did King Baralt has a bastard son?", Solomon said with a scoff.

The Vampire shakes his head before he replied, "Not that kind of Prince, but the Royal Prince of Werewolf bloodline"

Solomon's body froze for a moment,

The words that came out of the Vampire's mouth greatly shocks him, he even shakes his head to make sure that the situation he's in is real, not a dream.

"Royal bloodline?! in the human territory?!", Solomon shouted in shock.

He then added, "That shouldn't be possible! The world is not ready yet to bear such presence, it must be a mistake!"

But seeing the expression of the Vampire in front of him, Solomon gulps.

"Let's make haste back!", he commanded.

Inside the train,

The passengers are restless as they saw something embarrassing, many of them decided to move to another car when they knew that they can't complain.

Even with the ac turned on, car number three is getting hotter.

The sound of kissing becomes even more evident as Rex becomes more aggressive,

Some of the passengers decided to stay in the car as they marvel at the scene, the ones that decided to stay are mainly young people.

Their heart started to race as they saw Rex making out with a beautiful woman.

All of the passengers know that there is a powerful Awakened riding this train, and by how the train hostess decided to tell the people in car number three to evacuate.

But the young people are stubborn, they're interested in this kind of thing.

When suddenly,

BRAK!!

Five seats in front of Rex got destroyed by a swing of Rex's arm, and the surrounding seats will be next as Rex ripped his clothes open.

Looking at this, the young people then agree to evacuate.

Although the scene turns them on, it's not going to be fun if it will be dangerous.

BARK!

"Rex, calm down... I'm not going anywhere", the woman said softly.

Without answering, Rex gets back to making out with the woman,

Aside from his haziness and the lust that overwhelms him, Rex knew that the woman he was kissing right now is Rosie who somehow manage to get on this train.

But even though he knew, it was too late to stop now.

Rosie's face is already blushed, and she lets Rex pace their intercourse.

Rex grabs Rosie's waist as he started to kiss her neck, Lavender scent instantly penetrated his nose as his hands travel beneath Rosie's clothes.

With a slight pull from Rex, Rosie's shirt got ripped open.

What lies in front of Rex was a beautiful scene of Rosie's perfectly curved body,

Her black bra gripped her two mounds tightly, her slight glossy abs that are already covered in her sweat, and her seductive expression add to the scene beautifully.

This makes Rex's eyes widen, this is his first time doing this or even seeing a woman's body.

Rosie looks to the side embarrassedly, "Don't stare too much"

Rex then lifts Rosie up as both of their bodies touch each other, he then pins Rosie's body against the wall as Rosie wraps her arms and legs on Rex.

"Mmphh", Rosie moan as her body got pinned to the wall.

Their bodies got sandwiched together,

Rex's muscular body pin Adhara's soft and beautiful body trapping her in place.

The light music can be heard in the background contrasting with the aggressive play.

Both of their lips connected again,

The subtle shaking of the train makes their lips separate a couple of times, but it didn't take long before they connected again.

It added a craving feeling to the intercourse, and it makes them go wild.

Every time Rex kissed Rosie it's like savoring a sweet cherry that makes him intoxicated, his lips don't want to let Rosie's lips go because of this.

Rex's hand then travels slowly on Rosie's back as they both kissed.

Tick!

After the ticking sound, Rosie's bras loosen as the strap got untied.

As her two mountains escaped and exposed themselves, Rex roughly grabs Rosie's left breast and started playing with it.

Rosie gripped the steel handle on her side as she bit her lips in pleasure.

She looks at Rex who is enjoying every part of her body with a complicated look,

Although Rex looks like he's enjoying himself right now, the guilt of taking advantage of him creeps into Rosie's heart but she didn't want this to stop.

Even with the guilt that is taking place in her heart, Rosie teases Rex more by moaning right beside his ear.

This certainly takes effect as Rex becomes more daring,

He then break the arm handle of their seats before he threw Rosie there.

"Mmhh", Rosie grunted, the sharp steel because of Rex ripping the arm handle cut her back.

But instead of stopping Rex,

Rosie spread her legs inviting Rex further while gazing at Rex's eyes passionately, "Make me yours", she said softly.

Looking at this, Rex's hand wanted to rip his pant went suddenly.

BAM!!

Something suddenly hit the train as it got flipped to the side, it happened suddenly making Rex and Rosie get flung to the side.

The train got flipped over, and it's not just car number three.

"AARGHH!!!"

"KYAAAA!!!"

Painful screams and shouts can be heard from the other cars,

BRAK!!

Rex stands up angrily as his eyes still glow with a violet hue, he looks around the flipped train searching for Rosie with burning lust.

On the corner of his eyes, Rex saw Rosie get flung to the corner.

She's half-naked right now, and Rex's eyes can't leave Rosie's body one bit.

He walked towards Rosie who just realized what happened, she looks at Rex and said, "Rex, Let's check outside. I think something hit us"

But instead of hearing what Rosie said, Rex sealed her mouth with his lips.

Rosie widened her eyes in shock, she got caught in surprise when Rex disregard anything that happened and went straight back to what they're doing.

Hiss...

A burning sound can be heard,

Rosie look up while kissing Rex and saw a demon peeking inside, its blue fiery claws melt the enhanced steel of the train easily.

She widened her eyes in shock and tap Rex's back repeatedly trying to snap Rex out of his lust.

But all she did is futile, Rex has already dwelled deep in lust.

When suddenly,

Grab!

Rex's arm got grabbed by the bluish demon as his skin started to sizzle,

After feeling his arm get grabbed by something, Rex looks back angrily before he saw a fiery blue demon there.

He widened his eyes in shock before suddenly,

BRAK!

The demon pulled Rex outside of the train, it then throw Rex to the ground creating a web-like crack on the ground.

BOOM!

"RAARGHH!!!", Rex roared angrily.

Even after getting slammed to the ground, he instantly gets up and roared angrily as his eyes glow violet brighter.

The demon landed in front of him,

Rex glared at the demon angrily while still burning with lust, "DON'T! INTERRUPT! ME!!!"

SWOOSH!!

He vanished from his spot before suddenly appearing right in front of the demon, with a swing of his fist the demon's head got cracked open like a watermelon.

It happened so fast that even Rosie who is covering her chest widened her eyes in shock.

Rosie instantly realizes that Rex got stronger again, he's even stronger than when he help Rosie in Qrila City.

After killing the demon, Rex walks towards Rosie slowly.

His chest is heaving up and down as his violet eyes stare at her intently,

The bright Violet Moon that is hanging in the sky illuminate Rex's body, it makes Rex's body covers in shade.

Rosie looks at him with a wry smile, 'He's not stopping?'

Chapter 205 Vulvazith Demon

Rex stares at Rosie intently still with the same burning eyes,

<Killed a peak rank four Supernatural, Obtained 100,000 Exp>

The effect from the Violet Moon still affected him greatly, and with their intercourse interrupted this makes him even more desperate.

Rosie looks at Rex in horror,

Although she already steeled her will to give herself to Rex, she didn't expect to be in this kind of situation.

They're currently out in the open, the train is already wrecked apart.

Many of the blue demons are also attacking the other passengers, and their screams of pain and pleading can be heard in the background.

Rosie is half-naked wearing only her black thin underwear,

When they're doing explicit things on the train before, it can be classified as a public place but the other passengers give them space so Rosie didn't mind.

But now, she's exposed to the others and Rex is staring at her intently.

Rosie steps back warily fearing that Rex might jump on her now, but she got nowhere else to go because the wrecked train is right behind her.

Just as Rex wanted to get closer, "Watch Out!", Rosie shouted.

CLANG!!

A huge blue ax sweep right to Rex threatening to slash him in half, but it got stopped by Rex's hand without him even looking.

His body glows with violet and yellow hue, and the ax can't pierce through Rex's aura.

After stopping the ax from slashing him,

Rex slowly turns his head to the side where a demon three to four times bigger than him is standing, it is a different kind of demon than the one he killed before.

This one has only two arms, its body is rocky as its skin is dark blue in color.

Aside from two curved horns growing from the sides of its head, the huge blue ax that it held is also emitting a powerful aura.

The demon widened its eyes in shock, but then it steps back when it saw Rex's brutal expression.

BAM!!

Rex punched the demon right on its face sending him crashing away,

He already wears his battle gloves as his body is enveloped by black lightning, he then disappeared from his spot and appears behind the demon.

Even when the demon is still not finished crashing away,

Rex appear behind the crashing demon and punch the demon with a yellow glowing fist right on the demon's spine,

CRAK!

A cracking sound can be heard as the demon's spine got shattered, "Raawrgghh!"

The demon spat a mouthful of blue blood as its spine shattered, the demon then got slammed to the ground creating a web-like crack unmoving.

Rex killed the demon instantly without any difficulty,

<Killed a mid-rank five Supernatural, Obtained 500,000 Exp>

Seeing this scene, the blue demons that are chasing after the other passengers stopped.

The other passengers also saw this scene where Rex killed a powerful blue demon easily, it makes a sliver of hope emerge in their hearts.

After killing the blue demon, Rex looks around him in shock.

Killing the blue demon unconsciously puts him far away from Rosie, and this somehow makes him get a grip on himself.

Rex looks around the place with a frown, 'What happened? How did it end up like this?'

Because of the Violet Moon and Rosie's tempting presence, Rex falls into lust and forgets about his surroundings.

Even when he fight the demons before, his mind is not here.

After getting quite a distance from Rosie, he finally snapped out of Violet Moon's daze.

ROAR!!

Four four-armed demons leaped towards Rex slashing with their sword, they're all going berserk seeing Rex killed their kind.

"Blitzing Cry!"

BLITZ!!

All of the four demons got hit by a black lightning strike as Rex landed a punch on each of them.

Every time Rex's fist landed on the demons, their bones cracked and some even have their bodies exploded because of Rex's punch.

"Rghh", Rex grunted feeling his right arm hurting.

He looks to his right arm with a painful expression, 'It's still not healed yet? That Vampire is pretty strong', Rex thought.

The collision between him with the Vampire that guards Issac before left his right arm badly hurt.

Blood energy still lingers on the injury on his right arm slowing the healing process,

Rex held his right arm before he look to his front, other demons had already arrived at the scene and they all glared at Rex angrily.

He then look at the other passengers that are looking at him with hope before he shouted, "If you want to survive, go to my back through the train and run as far as you can!"

"I'll hold the demons off!", Rex added.

Hearing this, the passengers snapped out of their daze and started to run to Rex's back.

Although there are not many passengers left, there are still more than eighty of them in Rex's sight excluding the ones that are too far.

Rex's energy started to concentrate again before he dashes towards the demons.

With the help of the Violet Moon enhancement, he can tear through the four-armed demons that are only around peak rank four or rank five easily.

Hordes of blue demons came jumping towards Rex,

They're all coming from a burning city from Rex's left, it seems that they just ransacked the city.

BOOM!

SLASH!!

SWOOSH!

Rex's body moves at unbelievable speed as he dodges and counters every demon that attacked him, his reflex is devastatingly good that none of the demons manage to hit him.

Every tip of his body sent a yellow crescent shape energy attacks,

His fists, elbows, legs, glow with a yellow hue as they shot a yellow energy blast.

<Killed a peak rank four Supernatural, Obtained 100,000 Exp>

<Killed an early rank five Supernatural, Obtained 350,000 Exp>

Dozens of notifications appear on Rex's vision as he ransacked the demons, and it kept coming as another horde of Demons appeared.

<Level Up!>

<Obtained 3 Attributable Stats>

'There's too many of them!', Rex shouted inside his head.

Although he outclassed all of the demons attacking him, he's bound to make mistakes.

SLASH!

"Arghh!", Rex groans, a sword manages to tear through his defense and stab him on his right arm through his violet and yellow energy.

BAM!

Rex punched the demons that slashed him and blasted the demon away.

He then jumped back creating a distance to breathe, 'How did their sword pierce my barrier? That demon is only a rank four!', he thought in surprise.

With his advancement to rank five Awakened, his mana should be denser.

But a rank four demon manage to pierce through his barrier, and this caught Rex by surprise.

Rex then suddenly notices that the ground is cracking, and he can see blue fire beneath the ground from those cracks.

'Is this place supplying them energy?', Rex thought.

He landed a couple of meters away and saw that the demons that didn't die by his punch started to regenerate, the ground supply them with blue fire as their limbs grow back.

Looking at this, Rex glanced around and saw some passengers are still running.

He also saw Rosie already wearing different clothes than the one she wears before, and she's looking at him with concern.

"Rex!! Let's run!!", Rosie shouted from the back.

Rex gritted his teeth hearing this,

There are still peoples that are desperately running towards him, and leaving now will instantly spell their doom.

But Rex knows that he's also in danger, the terrain is not in his favor.

"Leave now!! I will catch up to you!", Rex shouted.

After shouting that, the battle continues as Rex brawls with the blue demons again.

Rosie looks at Rex with a concerned look, she saw that Rex is not as vigorous anymore as he got hit a couple of times by the demons.

His bare chest started to be decorated with blood,

Seeing the scene in front of her, Rosie wanted to help out but she know that she can't handle one demon much less help Rex.

She will become a burden instead,

When suddenly,

THUMP!!

The ground trembles as a huge blue demon lands from the sky,

Rex jumped back feeling the immense energy as the blue demons also stopped, he then look at the huge blue demon that has just arrived.

<Winged Demon of Vulvazith>

Race: Vulvazith Demon

Power: Rank Six(Early) - Vulvazith Fighter

Mental: 231

Strength: 429

Agility: 311

Endurance: 409

Intelligence: 280

'I can't win against this one', Rex thought while gritting his teeth.

This so-called Winged Demon of Vulvazith is a 13-foot demon with a muscular body, it has two black wings on its back, and a thick tail that is as long as its body.

Its skin is blue, but all of its vital parts are covered by black rocky skin.

"ROSIE RUN!!!", Rex shouted as he too started to run.

He also saw Delta coming out of the back and was about to jump toward the winged demon but Rex signals to run away,

This makes Delta stop before she also runs away to the other side,

The arrival of the winged demon of Vulvazith changed the whole battle,

Although he wanted to fight some more to help the remaining people, he knows that he will not survive if he fights this winged demon.

The Violet Moon gives him enhanced stats, but Rex finds out that its increase is weaker in his human form compared to his Werewolf form.

With so many witnesses here, he can't turn into his Werewolf form.

Even if he did change into his Werewolf Form, with the condition he's in now he will not win against this winged demon coupled with the demonic terrain.

"ARGHH!!"

"DON'T LEAVE US!!"

The remaining people shouted helplessly,

Rex run away from the place with a heavy heart, the scream of those remaining people rang in his ears as he run away from the place.

Before suddenly,

Rex felt something approaching him from the back, and without thinking much he activate all of his abilities and block an attack from his back.

The winged demon slashed Rex with its fierce claw,

Its claws are enveloped with blue fire, and the scorching heat greatly hurt Rex's hand as he blocked the slash.

CLANG!!

Although he's badly hurt,

Rex manages to intercept this attack but the slash is too strong as it blasted Rex away after taking a huge chunk of meat from Rex's right arm.

SWOOSH!!

But instead of feeling the pain, Rex gritted his teeth and use this momentum to dash away.

He manages to create a huge distance from the winged demon, 'I need to keep going!', Rex thought desperately.

Fearing that the winged demon will catch up, Rex runs faster after he carries Rosie.

The Violet Moon effect started again when Rex carries Rosie, his breathing becomes heavy but the fear for his life is greater.

He runs away from the place without looking back,

After madly running away from that demonic place for ten minutes, Rex finally stops and puts Rosie down before he falls to the ground.

Surprisingly, the winged demons didn't run after them.

If the winged demon decided to pursue them, then Rex will have no choice aside from turning into a Werewolf and picking up his pace.

But thankfully, he didn't need to go to such length.

Rosie approach Rex in worry,

She saw Rex's right arm get punctured by a sword and slashed by the winged demon.

Slash injuries covered his whole body but already started to heal.

The light injuries got healed easily, but the severe ones like his right arm are not.

While they're running before,

Rosie and Rex went past the escaped humans and were glad that a huge portion of them survived the ordeal.

"We have to stop the bleeding", Rosie said worriedly.

The injury on Rex's right arm is too severe and added with the energy from the Vampire before the healing is slowed by much.

She then ripped the stomach part of her clothes and tied it to Rex's right arm.

Rex's blood started to decorate the ground in red, he lost so much blood because of running with this severe injury.

While Rosie is treating Rex, the escaped humans also arrived at the place.

They're currently on the northwest of the demonic place before,

The place they're currently in is an abandoned city that is completely empty, not a single sign of life can be seen aside from the burning city on their south, the one that got attacked by the blue demons they encounter.

Some of the escaped humans saw Rex is hurt,

Rosie was about to bring Rex to hide in an abandoned building before suddenly, the escaped humans helped Rosie in carrying Rex.

All of them feel indebted to Rex, and if it's not for Rex they will all die.

"Let us help, we're not much but we can carry him", one of the escaped humans said.

The others also nodded with determination,

Rosie finally nodded her head as she also feel drained from the ordeal, she then gives Rex to the others and lead them to an abandoned building.

All of them discussed with each other about the best place to stay.

Rex heard all of this but his body felt heavy and weak,

The cloth that wrapped around Rex's right arm didn't do much, and after losing so much blood Rex felt his eyes become heavy and his vision becomes hazy.

He then finally passed out,

Chapter 206 Violet Moon Aftermath

"That'll be $83 sir", a woman said with a polite smile.

Edward snapped out of his daze before he takes his wallet out to pay, "Thank you", he said while giving the woman the money.

After giving the back the change, the woman bid Edward goodbye as he left the store.

Edward walks out of the store with a plastic bag in his hand, "Is this okay? What if they don't like sushi?", he mumbles with a frown.

"I'm sure they will like it", he said to himself before he left the place.

He's currently outside of Faraday University without Adhara beside him,

Edward is alone walking in a direction with sushi in his hand, the freshly made sushi can already be smelled making his mouth watery.

This is his favorite food, but this time it's not for him.

After walking for a while, Edward then stopped in front of a house.

He senses some people looking at him the moment he stopped in front of the house, and a smile blossoms on his face feeling this.

After a slight pause,

Edward knocked on the door lightly before the door opened revealing a man with sleek back grey hair, he's Rex's father, Robert.

"Edward?", he looks at Edward in surprise.

But then his surprise turns into a smile, "Come inside, My wife is in the living room"

Edward nodded his head and excused himself inside, he walks inside the house and saw Mrs. Greene watching tv.

She looks back before her eyes widen, "Edward! Why didn't you tell me you're coming"

"It's okay Mrs. Greene, I'm only here to visit and I brought sushi", he said while raising the plastic bag in his hand.

Mrs. Greene smiles before they move to the dining room just beside the living room.

Edward saw that the pool they're building before is almost complete, and it looks beautiful even though it's still wet in cement.

The three of them sat in the dining room as Mrs. Greene takes out the sushi.

"You don't need to bring us this, Sushi these days are booming and I'm sure it's crowded there", Mrs. Greene said as she prepared the plates.

Edward smiles politely before he replied, "The place is empty when I got there, bringing you guys food seems to be good luck"

Hearing this, Robert and Mrs. Greene chuckles lightly.

They then started eating while conversing with each other,

Because of the incident in Emham Forest before, Edward felt comfortable meeting with them and he also will bring them news of Rex.

Its not his first time visiting Rex's parents after Emham Forest,

Edward bringing both parents news about their son makes them happy, and it eases Mrs. Greene's mind.

"What's Rex up to now?", Mrs. Greene asks.

Edward's body stopped for a moment before he said, "He's out for a couple of days, it's almost a week now and he'll probably come back soon"

"Where did he go?", Robert asks in turn while sipping a coffee.

His gaze makes Edward hesitate for a moment, he then finally said, "There's a training conducted by the university, and he's a part of it"

Hearing this, both parents nodded their heads with a smile.

They all then got back to eating before Mrs. Greene suddenly asks a question that makes Edward's body froze, "How's Adhara then? Did she go with Rex too?"

This question makes Edward slightly widen his eyes as he looks down,

He remembered the scene last night that kept him awake, it was still clear in his mind.

Last night,

Edward is running around the university searching for Kyran,

Because of Kyran's feat in the training ground, many students recognize him as the kid that the top-ranker Rex brought.

So everyone knows who Kyran is,

But even after asking the students all over the university, Edward can't find Kyran anywhere.

Even Ari didn't know where he went, he only said that he saw Kyran leaving the room with the butler and he didn't know where he went.

This makes Edward frustrated as he told Ari to guard the room.

He was about to give up and went back to the room to inform Adhara, he went out of the Gem of Knowledge building, the last building he checked

But then, his body stopped when he heard some rustling noise from the garden.

Edward walks closer to the garden inspecting the noise, but the closer he gets the more shocked he becomes.

The noise that came from the garden is moaning sounds,

"Aaahh!"

"Aaahh!"

"Right there, do it more!"

Hearing these sounds, Edward shakes his head.

He can't believe that someone is doing it in the garden, they're lucky that no one notice them with how much sound the woman was making.

Edward then turns back to the university before his steps stop,

"Kyran! Be gentler please"

The name the woman said amidst her moan makes Edward widen his eyes in shock, he then scurries towards the garden before his body is frozen in still dismayed.

What he saw greatly surprised him,

Never in his wildest dream that Kyran has the guts to do this.

In front of him, Kyran is clamping on a woman that he saw during Kyran leaving his room.

It is Lisa! She's the woman that showed Kyran around the university.

He will stop Kyran right away if the woman is forcing herself on Kyran or even the other way around because Kyran is still just a teen.

But there's no force in this act, Lisa is moaning happily as Kyran does his thing.

Sensing that someone is watching him, Kyran turns his head towards Edward who is still dismayed by the scene in front of him.

Edward saw Kyran is glaring at him,

He then snapped out of his daze and found that Kyran's eyes are violet, "Kyran, Are... Are you okay?"

Hearing another voice, Lisa looks towards Edward in shock.

She wanted to cover herself up but Kyran didn't let her, "Leave me alone!", Kyran shouted fiercely making Edward frowns.

After shouting that, Kyran resumes his intercourse with Lisa.

Edward hesitated for a moment, but seeing Lisa's embarrassed face he then left the garden.

His mind is jumbled because of the scene he saw, he kept frowning all the way until he reaches back to Rex's room.

Arriving at the room, "RAARGGH!!!"

"Get water and a towel!! Right now!!"

"Miss Adhara, What's wrong you can talk to me"

Hearing the commotion inside the room, Edward enters the room hurriedly and found the maids are scattering around panicky

Painful screams can be heard from the room where Adhara is,

Edward looks around with light steps,

He approaches Adhara's room with light steps, maids bump into him a couple of times but his mind is filled with another matter.

After reaching in front of Adhara's room, Edward peeked inside the room.

His eyes widen seeing the messed up room,

The wallpaper on the wall is ripped, the tables inside the room are broken and scattered, and chaos filled the room as Adhara wails in pain on the bed.

But upon seeing Adhara's condition, Edward becomes even more shocked.

Adhara's clothes are tattered as blood covered her from head to toe, she's clawing the middle of her chest as if it will ease the pain she's experiencing.

She's screaming on top of her lungs while the butler and maids try to calm her down.

The painful expression on her face can make one feel how painful she's currently in, and if the butler didn't hold her hand then she will already claw her heart out.

But something caught Edward's eyes,

Amidst Adhara's screams and wails, he saw Adhara's eyes are violet just like Kyran.

This makes Edward stop his steps right beside the door, he then turns his body around and walks towards the entrance of the room.

Edward then stop his steps as he looks to the window,

The blazing violet moon shone down from the sky like the devil's eyes, it illuminate Edward's face with a slight violet contrast.

He then looks down to his feet with a frown,

The event that occurs tonight greatly shocks him, his mind can't cope with this shock.

But then, "CALL THE DOCTOR!! We can't let ms. Adhara keep doing this!", the butler shouted.

Hearing this butler's command, Clarice runs out of Adhara's room heading towards the entrance to call for the doctor.

She's scurrying towards the entrance when suddenly Edward stopped her.

"Don't call the doctor, Rex instruct me to handle the situation", Edward said softly.

He then walks inside the room where Adhara's in, "All of you! Get out of the room and let me handle this"

Hearing Edward's command, the butler glance at him in doubt.

Even him who is trained to be an Awakened butler finds it difficult to restrain Adhara, much less Edward who is only a student.

Seeing the butler's doubt, Edward then added, "I'm instructed by Rex to handle this"

Hearing Rex's name has been brought, the butler then let go of Adhara and left the room reluctantly.

"If something happened to ms. Adhara, you'll be at fault", the butler said right before he left the room.

Bam!

The door is closed shut by the butler,

Edward takes a huge breath as he looks at Adhara who is already calming down, she passed out from the amount of blood she has lost.

He then approaches Adhara before he kneels beside her,

Adhara's breathing becomes steady as the light injuries all over her body get healed, she now looks peaceful than the chaos before.

Edward stretches out his trembling fingers and lifts Adhara's eyelids,

He saw her eyes are still blazing violet before he hurriedly closed them again in fright.

Edward then looks down as tears fall down from his eyes, he started sobbing right beside Adhara who is breathing steadily.

After a few minutes of sobbing,

Edward stands up with a darkened look, he's a mess right now.

Swoosh!!

Fire Mana started to gather on his hand as a sizzling fire blazes his hand in red,

He looks at Adhara on the bed with a troubled expression,

After calming himself down and taking a huge breath, Edward stretches out his blazing fire hand towards Adhara's neck.

Before suddenly, "Edward?"

"Huh?", Edward snapped out of his daze and found Robert and Mrs. Greene are looking at him.

He realizes that he just dozes off, "Are you okay Edward? Do you want to go to the doctor to do a checkup?", Mrs. Greene said worriedly.

"Oh, No I'm fine Mrs. Greene. Adhara is also well, you don't have to worry", he said with a smile.

But just as they're talking,

"Breaking News!"

"Benrith City has been attacked by demons last night!"

"After the incident that graves us in Lupis City that has now turned into a Demonic City, Benrith City also follows right after"

The tv news broadcasted the incident in Benrith City,

Because of Edward's sudden arrival, Mrs. Greene forgot to turn the tv off as it plays as a background during their conversation.

Mrs. Greene then said ignoring the news, "Ask her to come next time, we'll be happy if she comes", she didn't forget to elbow Robert on his stomach.

"Yeah, That'll be great if Adhara can visit us once in a while", Robert added.

Edward can only nod his head with an awkward smile,

But then,

"The rising star Rex Silverstar, that just transferred in Faraday University is also got involved in this incident"

"We have a survivor with us here from Benrith City that claims to saw Rex in action"

"Can you tell us what exactly happened there, Sir?"

Hearing Rex's name,

Robert, Mrs. Greene, and Edward look at each other before the three of them hurriedly go to the living room to watch the news.

Their eyes are glued to the tv in worry,

"That night I'm on a train back to Ratmawati City with Rex, all of the passengers know that Rex is inside the train because he came to the station as a Zeragon"

The newsreader is quite shocked by the statement, but she signals for the man to continue.

"Everything is fine but then, our train got hit by a blue demon that knock the train off of the rail. After I recover from the hit, I climb out and saw Rex fighting the blue demons and he shouted to us to run while he buy us time"

Hearing this, the newsreader signal the man to continue.

"He slaughtered many blue demons and buy us time to escape, but the arrival of the winged demon that gives off an entirely different vibe changed the battle"

"With the winged demon arrival, Rex was forced to retreat and some of us got left behind"

The newsreader then asks, "What happened to Rex? Did he manage to flee the winged demon?"

"Yes, he manages to run away. But not without a cost, his right arm is badly injured and he passes out after carrying a woman"

Watching this news, Mrs. Greene and Robert went pale.

They heard that Rex is injured and as parents this devastated them, Mrs. Greene started to cry on Robert's chest.

After getting the story from the man, the newsreader then said, "We have footage of the survivors here. The footage is shaky, but it deciphers the situation clearly"

Then, the news played shaky footage inside an abandoned building.

The footage shows people shivering in fear as they all rest inside the abandoned building.

All of the survivors are shivering, and amidst the crowd, the footage shows a bonfire in the middle of the group before the footage ended.

After the footage ended, the news resume back.

Mrs. Greene and Robert are still shocked by the news,

While Edward on the side looks down in thought,

Although the footage is shaky he somewhat saw Rex beside the bonfire unconscious on a woman's lap right on the end of the footage.

It's just a slight scene but Edward notices it, he frowns as he thought of a girl, "Is that?"

Chapter 207 What Happened Last Night

A day passed,

Rex arrives back at the entrance of Faraday University, there's a tired expression on his face upon arriving back.

He's wearing a sling for his right arm,

It's shocking to him that his right arm still hasn't healed, the Vampire and Demonic energy that infiltrate his body slowed down the healing process.

His arm will need at least a few days to become normal again.

Arriving at the entrance of the university, many students look at him in shock.

The news of Benrith City that also got attacked by the demons already spread wide throughout Ratmawati City, and the students of Faraday University also know this by now.

Many of them look at Rex in concern because the demons are vicious Supernaturals.

Demons are the most feared fighting Supernatural forces ever known by mankind,

Their entire being is filled with malevolent and evilness that makes them wild, vicious, and predictable.

Red blazing eyes that portrait hell itself, charcoal skins with cracks of fire spreading throughout their bodies, and their mindless head that filled with killing blow a wind of fear to humanity.

Other Supernaturals has thinking abilities that rival humans,

So getting caught by Vampires, Fairies, Werewolf, Shapeshifter, and other Supernaturals will not always result in death.

Some even manage to get out using their wits,

But Demons, on the other hand, there's literally zero chance of surviving if a human gets caught.

The only hope that the caught humans can beg for is to not get caught by an Archdemon, each Archdemon likes to toy with humans and their method of cruelty knows no bound.

And unlike other Supernatural,

Demons don't have any substantial weakness except for the light element, which only a few Awakened have it just like the dark element.

In fact, the UWO believe that demons will not die permanently if killed with other means than using light element.

They will eventually rise back, and be born again with newfound hatred.

Knowing that Rex faces such creatures concerns the other students that put Rex as a role model, and it can be clearly seen on their faces.

Rex smiles awkwardly before he steps forward to entering the university.

But just as he stepped his foot inside the university, a man that looked like a lecturer because of their uniforms already waits for him at the entrance.

Seeing this, Rex sigh knowing something like this will happen.

"Rex Silverstar, the principal is waiting for you in his office", one of the lecturers said.

Rex waves his hand and walk past them before he said, "I just got back, let me settle in for a moment then I will meet the principal"

But just as he wanted to walk past them, they blocked Rex's way.

"The principal instructed to guide you to meet him the instant you came back", they added.

Hearing this, Rex can only sigh as he signals to lead the way.

After getting Rex's compliance, the lecturer guides him to the principal's office.

Arriving at the principal's office, Rex was greeted by Vargas who is already sitting on the sofa waiting for him while sipping tea.

Rex politely approach Vargas and sits on the sofa in front of him,

There's a silence that covered the room as Vargas kept sipping his tea, this makes Rex feel a little bit of uneasiness inside him.

After a moment passed, Rex was getting impatient.

He's beaten up from the event that happened during his mission, and he's also tired.

"Principal what do yo-", Rex said but got intervened by Vargas.

He said, "You left the university without my permission, somehow entered the news in the Benrith City incident, and now you came back beaten up"

Hearing this, Rex was at a loss for words.

Vargas then lifts his eyes up to look at Rex before he said, "I thought that you went to deal with the trouble you had, but the news stated that you're not"

"Where were you?", he added.

'I can't use meeting Rosie in Qrila City as an excuse because many witnesses saw me there with Liliya, and He probably knows that I become a Scavenger because of his position in the UWO', Rex thought with a frown.

Rex then finally said, "I'm linking up with my friend in the Great Barricade, and decided to go train in the Supernatural territory"

Hearing this, Vargas squinted his eyes studying Rex's expression

But Rex kept calm in this situation, his expression didn't change one bit.

"Well, that doesn't matter", Vargas finally said with a sigh.

He then points at Rex's right arm and said, "But that's going to be a problem, the yearly tournament for the university's ranking will be calculated in 2 days"

Rex remembered that he need to beat up some kid for Vargas, and this makes him slouches on the sofa tiredly.

"You said you can beat them easily, with your right arm like that I assume it will still go smoothly", Vargas said with a smirk.

This makes Rex groan in displeasure, he then said, "Fine, just arrange a one on one and it will be done in seconds"

Varas' face then lit up in joy before he nodded his head,

Rex was about to leave but got called by Vargas right in front of the door, "I already sent you your monthly part, and the lecturer that you met with brown hair will be your tutor"

Hearing this, Rex was surprised because he forgot about that.

'I almost forgot to ask Vargas how to advance to rank six, but the supposed tutor he assigns will probably know it too', Rex thought.

But just as Rex touch the door handle, he turns back and said, "Sir, can I ask a favor from you?"

Vargas who was about to go back to his room stopped before looking at Rex confusedly, he then sat back down as Rex also sat back down.

After a while, Rex then left the principal's room where a lecturer is waiting for him.

This lecturer is one of the lecturers that guides him before, he's expression is stoic and he looks like a strict lecturer.

"My name is Chandler, I will be your lightning tutor from now on", the lecturer introduced.

Rex glance at Chandler briefly with judging eyes, "I would like to talk to you more about the training, but I'm very tired now so can I leave?"

Hearing this, Chandler was about to flip out but he held it in.

The condition Rex is in right now is not suitable for training, so he lets Rex go after telling Rex to meet him once he finished Vargas' tasked and got better.

After leaving the place, Rex went straight back to his room.

But right before he wanted to knock on the door, he suddenly remembered something, 'I forgot about Adhara and Kyran!'

Remembering them, Rex busts into the room startling the maids and butler.

All of the maids and butler look at Rex with a surprised look, before they turn their heads with a solemn expression.

Seeing their weird behavior, Rex frowns.

He then instantly runs towards his room where Adhara should be before he saw Adhara lying on the bed covered by a blanket like a sleeping princess.

Looking at this, Rex was confused as to why the butler and maids are like that.

Rex approach Adhara who is looking paler than the last time he saw her, he then sits on the edge of the bed before he touched Adhara's forehead.

He felt the coldness of her body with a frown,

After realizing that something happened to her, Rex opened the blanket and widened his eyes in surprise.

Her body is covered with wounds, and Rex is sure that it's from last night.

Because of him being away in the Supernatural territory and the event that transpired to him, Rex forgot that Adhara and Kyran will also be affected by the Violet Moon.

This is the first time Adhara and Kyran dealt with a full moon without him.

'Did they transform in front of the butler and maids? But that wouldn't make sense, I should be hunted right now if that were to happen', Rex thought with a frown.

But then, not transforming also didn't make sense, 'The system said that the transformation will not occur to me because of the Manual Transformation feature, does that affect them too?'

Rex becomes puzzled by what just happened,

He bought a healing elixir from the shop before he lifts Adhara's head and help her drink the elixir gently.

After giving Adhara the elixir, he left the room and headed towards Kyran's room.

Upon opening the door, Rex frown seeing Ryze is sleeping alone in the spacious room without Kyran by his side.

Ryze wakes up from his sleep and saw Rex looking at him,

"Where's Kyran? I told him to not go out", Rex said with a frown.

Before he left, he explicitly told the butler to keep an eye on Kyran and not let him leave.

He's afraid that Kyran will do something because he doesn't know that he's a Werewolf, this can lead to many problems.

Ryze then points to the wall before he said, "Kyran is in the other room"

Hearing this, Rex becomes even more confused as to why would Kyran leave Ryze here all alone.

Seeing Rex's confused expression, Ryze can only look down with a blush.

'He's blushing? What the heck is going on here', Rex thought as he left Ryze's room and went to the neighboring room.

Click!

The door handles opened as Rex went inside the room,

He then looks inside the room to find Kyran before his eyes widen in shock, 'What the hell just happened here?!', he screamed inside his head.

Two hours later,

Rex is sitting in the cafeteria with a frown,

There are people sitting at his table, and all of them look down upon receiving Rex's glance.

Edward, Kyran, and Lisa is sitting at his table,

Kyran and Lisa are looking down afraid of meeting Rex's eyes, while Edward glance at the both of them teasingly.

But Rex notice that Edward's body is trembling weirdly,

"How the hell did you end up with Kyran?", Rex asks Lisa.

Hearing the question is thrown at her, Lisa stuttered as she plays with her hands nervously, "I...I meet with Kyran in the garden"

"And then?", Rex added hurriedly.

This makes Lisa's body jolted in embarrassment, she still remembers that night clearly.

Edward then added teasingly from the side with a chuckle, "And then she hooked up with Kyran, you will be surprised how fearsome Kyran was last night"

Hearing Edward's remarks, Kyran and Lisa put their heads down.

Kyran especially is not that confident guy that Lisa met last night, his confident bearing vanished upon Rex's arrival.

Rex also notices this, Kyran shouldn't be this meek.

He looks at Kyran and the others that can clearly be seen trembling, 'Why are they being like this, Am I that scary?', he thought with a frown.

But then,

"My body felt heavy all of a sudden, What is happening?"

"I thought only I felt it"

"Yeah, Something's weird here"

CRACK!

One of the cafeteria tables suddenly broke in half,

The student on that table looks at the table in shock, "I only hit it lightly why did it break?"

"You sure you're not using any mana?"

"I swear! I only slam my hand to the table without using any mana!"

Hearing the talks from the surrounding student, Rex slaps his face in realization.

'System, Can you exclude humans and my pack members from the Alpha Bearing skill?', Rex thought with a sigh.

After upgrading Alpha Intimidation to Alpha Bearing,

The skill changed from an active skill that can only target one into almost like a passive skill that affects anything in his surrounding.

When the system said anything, it means literally anything.

Just like Alpha Intimidation that can weaken a rock, Alpha Bearing can do that too.

<Alpha Bearing Skill is off>

After getting the notification from the system, Rex looks at the others and found that their body is still trembling but not as much as before.

The oppressing pressure he emitted vanished,

'Now back to the topic, Kyran does that because of the Violet Moon so I can't blame him for it', Rex thought.

He then said, "Well I won't blame Kyran much, so what do you intend to do now Kyran?"

Kyran then raises his head to look at Rex's eyes, he's confused about what Rex means, "What do you mean by that?"

"I mean what will you do with Lisa", Rex said while pointing his chin to Lisa.

Hearing this, Kyran fell into thoughts but Lisa on the side is blushing embarrassedly as if she know what Kyran will say.

But then, Kyran's answer shocks her, "I will do as you say"

Rex smiles amusedly hearing this,

He glances at Lisa who is looking at Kyran in shock before she looks down again feeling Rex's eyes looking at her.

'It'll be bad for them to be in a relationship, Kyran will eventually know that he's a werewolf and that will involve Lisa', Rex thought.

He looks at Kyran and Lisa and thought, 'Let's see if he really wants her'

"Then Kyran, you will stop seeing Lisa and just act as if what happened to both of you is just an accident", Rex said calmly.

This makes Lisa frown, "You can't just say that it's an accident!", she rebutted.

But Rex only looks at her calmly before he looks at Kyran again,

Feeling that the last call is on his hand, Kyran then said, "I'm sorry Lisa, but I can't be with you"

Hearing this, Lisa looks at Kyran disbelievingly before she stands up and left the table feeling disappointed in Kyran's decision.

After she left,

"You're still young, just wait for your time and the right girl will come", Edward said cheering Kyran while tapping his back.

Kyran nodded his head softly still feeling complicated,

Rex looks at Kyran who is gloomy with a slight smile, his eyes then landed on Edward before he asks, "So, Edward, tell me all of the things that happened last night"

Chapter 208 Riot And Careless

A couple of days has passed,

BOOM!

A man is sent crashing to a tree like a jet, he looks at the man in front of him in disbelief.

The man in front of him is wearing a sling,

He thought that fighting this man that is clearly injured is a joke, but who would've thought that he lost from a punch from this man.

This event shocked the other people watching this too,

They're all currently outside in the open,

Green lushes grass covered the surrounding ground while a circle-shaped sparring ring made of sand lies in the middle, only one man stands inside the ring nonchalantly.

Rex is looking at the man he just punched calmly,

He's currently fighting the top-ranker of another university wearing a blue uniform,

Linda, the representative that Vargas sent to accompany him to this university told Rex that his opponent is a powerful rank four Reflection Elementalist.

It is said that he can reflect an attack using his mana, but sadly his opponent is Rex.

Rex didn't use any of his mana and sent a straight punch imbued with Force Beam towards him, he didn't hold back at all wanting to finish the fight quickly.

After beating the top-ranker, Rex walks out of the arena while trying to move his right arm.

"Argh! When will this healed", Rex groans in irritation.

Faraday University already tries to heal him using a healer, but the healer is only a rank five healer and can't remove the Supernatural energy completely.

This bummed Rex because he will be stuck with this sling for longer,

"Why is he so strong?!",

"He's abnormal, he beat Ali with pure strength!"

"His fame is not just for show, he's probably the current strongest student"

The students that are watching from the side look at Rex in terror, they all know about Rex's feat but seeing him in real life still shocks them.

Even the lecturers in the university frown,

Although they look calm and composed, some of them know that they can't beat Rex too.

Amidst the chattering crowd, Rex walks to Linda and said, "That's the last one right?"

"Yes, this is the last university. Faraday University will probably rank at the top because of this", Linda said excitedly.

She then guides Rex back to the car to bring him back,

While the car engine is starting, many of the students sent gazes filled with envy and hatred knowing that a student is far stronger than them.

It's a natural thing,

Rex can feel their envy and hatred towards him, but he didn't care about flocking birds.

Reaching the metallic color sports car that emits a greyish hue, Rex sat on the passenger seat while Linda sits on the driver seat.

She tied her long blond hair into a ponytail before she stepped on the gas, Vrooomm!!

The students of the university felt insulted seeing them left without any formalities, but they can't do anything when they know that they're from Faraday University.

With the power he has that surpassed any Awakened students, Rex is sure to be dear for humanities.

Vargas is the principal of Faraday University, and he's also the president of UWO in sector 3E making Rex unconsciously backed by the UWO.

Except for the 25 Golden Crest of course,

The rain pours down heavily on the street, but with the greyish hue, none of the raindrops touch the shiny body of the car.

It creates some kind of bubble surrounding the car,

The sports car is driving on the special street, it is a street where only officials and high priority people can go through just like Rex.

Rex looks out of the window and saw the blur city streets,

Vargas was supposed to be with him right now to see his performance, but he canceled it at the last moment because of the two demonic cities.

"Linda, how long have you been Vargas' secretary?", Rex asks opening a conversation.

Linda who is driving glance at him for a moment before she replied, "About four years"

"Then you must know the situation in the two demonic cities right?", Rex asks again, he's worried about the current progress of the war.

Although the border is protected, Supernaturals found a way to go around the Great Barricade.

The Demons got a way to go really near to Ratmawati City, and they currently took over two-level two cities that puzzled Rex.

From the incident in Qrila City, Rex knows that Vampires found a way to turn humans into them.

This method most likely spread to other Supernatural too, and Rex assumes that the demon uses this method to bypass the Great Barricade and attack the cities.

But it still didn't make sense for him,

'Why do they attack cities near Ratmawati City? It's a stupid move knowing that the conquered city will just be taken back by the humans with no reinforcement to it', Rex thought.

"Vargas got an order to help the main UWO headquarters, and I've been told that reinforcement from the border is on their way", Linda answered.

Hearing this, Rex falls into thoughts.

Just like what he thought, the humans can just take back the city so the attack has no strategic value except for creating havoc.

From the fighting, he experiences against the Demon, Rex met one rank six blue demons that makes him flee.

He met the blue demon outside of the city,

This means that the demons inside the city will be crawling with rank six, and they're probably controlled by higher rank demons.

With that kind of lineup, it's natural for the UWO to ask for reinforcement from the border.

The Awakened inside Ratmawati City are few, and rank seven or higher ranked Awakened are even fewer.

It will be bad to leave Ratmawati City defenseless,

But just as he was thinking,

Rex suddenly saw a crowd gather beside the road that is currently being handled by the police, they are numbering in hundreds and some of them hold up a sign.

'Join Forces!'

'Awakened is not the only Savior!'

'UWO is a Joke!'

'Safehaven No More!'

The crowd are rioting in front of a building,

Rex glance up to the building and saw that it's the UWO branch building in this sector,

"The attack on the cities so near to Ratmawati City makes the people fearful, so the UWO is doing all their can to take over these cities quickly to address the fear", Linda added.

The car then zooms off the city street leaving the riot,

As they near Faraday University, Rex can be seen looking at his phone a couple of times anxiously as if he's nervous about something.

Linda caught this from the corner of her eyes, "What are you thinking?"

"Nothing", Rex replied before he turns his head to the side avoiding Linda's curious gaze.

The rain already stops a while ago,

Linda got out of the car as her heels creates a clacking sound, she wanted to go inside the university but stopped when she looks back.

She saw Rex is still in the car unmoving,

Looking at this, Linda looks at Rex confusedly as she signals Rex to come out.

Rex is currently looking at the notification from his phone with a nervous look, he hesitated for a moment before he walk out of the car.

This makes Linda even sure that something's going on, "What are you doing?"

"Do I have something to do today?", Rex asks back without even answering Linda's question.

Linda looks at her phone for a moment before she shakes her head,

After confirming that he doesn't have anything to do, Rex then separated from Linda as he went inside Faraday University.

Rex then went straight to the training ground,

Arriving at the training ground, he then scans around the room searching for someone.

He walks around the training ground while looking left and right, but then his eyes landed on a woman fighting against a robot.

That woman is Adhara,

After knowing the things that happened that night, Rex immediately apologizes to Adhara who he left alone with Kyran in the Violet Moon.

But Adhara quickly forgave him because they somehow didn't turn into their Werewolf form.

Adhara also apologize to him about the incident with the FAA, but Rex didn't think about it way long before Adhara apologized.

They then make up, but there's something that bothers him.

Something that he felt guilty about, but he decided to not tell Adhara about it.

Since then, the butler and maids have a weird look every time they look at Adhara but they quickly hide their expression away after seeing Rex.

This makes Rex worried but it's already been done,

He thought of creating an excuse to tell the butler and maids, but if he tries to explain it then he will become more suspicious.

That's why he just let them wander in their thoughts about Adhara's condition.

Adhara look at the approaching Rex in delight,

She then instantly got out of the arena and meet Rex in the changing room.

Rex saw Edward is also there in the changing room, 'They seem close these days', Rex thought.

"Edward, I got something for you to do", Rex said before he takes out a spellbook.

He then gave it to Edward before he whispers, "Take this to the Atkins Family and make sure that you're not being followed. Bring Kyran with you, to take his mind off of her"

After saying that, Edward takes the spellbook and left.

But before he left, Edward then asks, "Oh yeah, Where's my car?"

Hearing this, Rex's body froze in shock.

'I forgot his car in the Great Barricade!', Rex thought in surprise.

He then look at Edward with a guilty smile before he said, "I forgot your car in the Great Barricade! but don't worry, I'll take it back"

Edward was at a loss for words, "Bro, I'm going to sue you!", he said jokingly.

"Come on, I'm sorry okay! I'm going to take it so just get on with your delivery", Rex said while rolling his eyes.

Rex looks at Adhara, he's filled with guilt seeing Adhara's innocent smile especially when he knows what happened to her during the Violet Moon.

She said that she felt an excruciating pain that attacks her mentally.

This happened the same time when Rex do the thing he did with Rosie, and Rex instantly knows that it's his fault, not the Violet Moon.

'I should've held it in', Rex thought with a sigh.

Seeing Rex is dazed, Adhara then said, "What's wrong? Is there something bothering you?"

"Nope, Let's go to the cafeteria because I need to tell you something", Rex said before they both left for the cafeteria.

Arriving at the cafeteria, the place is almost empty.

It's already afternoon and the students are either training or in class, so they have the cafeteria all by themselves.

"So, Is it about the beast? Where is it?", Adhara said excitedly.

Hearing this, Rex looks at Adhara confusedly, "The beast? What do you mean?"

"Everyone knows that you become a Zeragon, so I want to see the beast you tamed. Is it a tiger? snake? or a Wolf?", Adhara added curiously.

But this makes Rex face-palm himself, 'I totally forgot about Delta! What's wrong with me'

He then look at Adhara's excited face before he said stutteringly, "Her name is Delta, and she's a rank five mutated White Wolf"

This makes Adhara even more eager to meet it,

"Well, there's a slight problem with that. I forgot to bring her here because I passed out", Rex said with a wry smile.

Adhara gasps in shock, her mouth is O-shaped speechless by Rex's ignorance.

She then shouted in shock, "HOW COULD YOU FORGET HER!!!"

"Many Awakened wanted to become a Zeragon, and here you are forgetting your precious mutated animal", Adhara added.

This makes Rex scratch his head, he also can't believe it himself.

Adhara kept on mumbling about Rex's stupidity before Rex finally said, "Okay stop it, I get it that's my fault"

"But that's not the thing I wanted to talk to you about", Rex continues.

This makes Adhara raise her eyebrows in confusion, she thought that Rex wanted to talk to him about Delta so she becomes confused right now.

She stares straight in Rex's eyes in confusion,

Rex hesitated for a moment as he struggles to come up with the words, this makes Adhara's heart thump faster.

Their emotions are linked together, and she knows what Rex's feeling.

After the past days, Adhara already knew that Rex is hiding something because she can feel it through her feelings.

But she didn't force Rex and just wait for Rex to tell her.

Rex then takes a huge breath preparing himself, but when he's about to open his mouth a soothing voice interrupted him, "Rex!"

Chapter 209 Hans The Snake

"Sir, What are we going to do with this?", a guy with snake-like eyes said while holding a spellbook.

The spellbook he's holding is a high-rank spellbook, but he holds it as if it's trash that's not even worth his time.

Usually, this kind of spellbook will be regarded as an heirloom even amongst the highest-ranking families, but now it's handled like trash.

Then, the guy added, "The kid is certainly dealing with the Reed, and he's obviously playing with us using this spellbook"

"You can't use it too?", the man in front asks.

If Rex was here, he will recognize the two as Wesley and Hans from the Atkins Family.

They both have a darkened expression on their face after realizing that they got played,

Rex tempered the spellbook to make sure it can't be used using the system, he also lie about the poison to not have him get targetted.

Hans is fuming with anger, he throws the book to the side harshly before he said, "Just like anyone that tries this, I failed at that exact same moment"

Hearing this, Wesley's face becomes red but his body is unmoving.

But the bad news didn't stop, "Based on our spy in Reed Family, Audrey and Stevanus are said to be in closed-door training and when they come out the Reed Family will officially challenge our position", Hans said with a troubled look.

After a brief moment to calm themselves, Wesley finally said, "Let's check the next spellbook he will give in a bit"

"You will try it instantly, if you fail then find all information regarding that kid and bring all of the information to me", Wesley added with a serious look.

There's an air of violence surrounding him, and this makes Hans smirk evilly.

~

Someone called Rex from the side,

Just from hearing her voice, Rex already knows who she is.

Adhara glances to her side before she widens her eyes in shock, she can't believe the person she's seeing right now.

"Rosie?!", Adhara shouted in shock.

She even stands up unconsciously in disbelief,

They're currently in Faraday University, a pretty good distance from Ochyra University.

So there's no way that Rosie can just come here, she needs to prepare for a bit which means this is a planned visit.

"Hello! Long time no see, Adhara", Rosie said with a smile.

Rosie looks fresh with a slight makeup on her face,

Her outfit is all black with a black unbuttoned t-shirt, black hot pants that show her slender legs, and she brought a black suitcase beside her.

This makes Adhara frowns because she's looking better than the last time she saw her.

Adhara stutter as she said, "O-Oh, I'm surprised you came here"

Her eyes then fall to the suitcase beside her before she said, "Is there a tournament here? or perhaps an exchange student program?"

Rosie glance at Rex who is giving a signal to her before she said, "I surprisingly met the principal of Faraday University, and he offered me to transfer to Faraday University"

Hearing this, Adhara was at a loss.

She somehow finds it unbelievable knowing that Rosie has no particular talent,

Adhara then glances at Rex who is also looking shocked, but she frowns when she felt pain in her chest coming from Rex's feeling rather than being surprised.

"Can I hang out with you guys again? Now that I transferred here?", Rosie asks with a smile.

This makes Adhara unconsciously nod her head,

Seeing Adhara agreeing, Rosie jumped to Adhara and hugs her excitedly, "Yay!! We're back again!!"

After hugging Adhara, Rosie's eyes fall onto Rex.

Rex is looking to the side not knowing what to do,

Rosie then let go of Adhara who is still in a daze before she walks closer to Rex and stretches out her hand, "Long time no see Rex...", she said softly.

Looking at this, Rex stretches out his hand to shake Rosie's.

Upon touching Rosie's hand, a spark of electricity travels throughout his body making him jolt.

The usual calm and stoic Rex didn't know what to do while shaking Rosie's hand, but he still forced out an answer, "It's been a while"

With that, the three of them sit back as Rosie tells her story at Ochyra University.

She talks about it excitedly and her face is brimming with happiness,

Adhara and Rex can only listen to her attentively with an awkward smile, they still can't believe that Rosie is in front of them right now.

But after catching up for a while, a woman suddenly approaches their table.

Rex glance at the woman in confusion,

The woman is wearing a formal suit with a professional air around her, this kind of woman shouldn't be in a university but in an office instead.

'Did I do something? Except beating top-rankers around Ratmawati City I didn't do anything else', Rex thought in confusion.

The woman stopped beside their table politely,

Her eyes scan the group of people on the table before her eyes fall onto Adhara, "Ms. Adhara, I have sent a couple of messages to your email but didn't get any reply"

"I've come to ask regarding the matter", the woman added.

Hearing this, Rex looks at Adhara in confusion, "What's this about?", he asks.

"Nothing, I'll be back in a minute okay", Adhara said before she walks away with the woman.

She went away under Rex's eyes,

Rex look at this with a frown, 'It's been a week or so but it looks like she did something, and Edward probably knows it too considering they've been close these days'

After Adhara left, Rosie then sits beside Rex.

This makes Rex snap out of his daze as he looks at Rosie, "What is it?"

"I can't believe you hold your part of the deal, I thought you will just leave me again", Rosie said teasingly with a smile.

Rex felt hurt from her words, "When did I not stay true to my word", he said irritatedly.

This makes Rosie chuckles looking at Rex's annoyed look, "I'm just joking, no need to be grumpy about it", she said playfully.

"So, When will you make me your kind?", Rosie said blatantly.

Rex glance at her with a shocked look as he said, "We never make a deal on that, you said you wanted to be in the group again not the pack"

"Aww, Do you have secret number three that I can use?", Rosie tease again.

This makes Rex annoyed as he stands up and left,

Seeing Rex get angry, Rosie then shouted, "Wait! I'm sorry! I'm just joking you know!"

"I know", Rex replied while still walking away.

But Rosie ran after him and said, "You haven't shown me my room yet, It's tiring to transfer here on such short notice"

"What do you mean your room? I don't know where it is", Rex said nonchalantly.

Rosie then held Rex's arm stopping him, she then said, "Your room, of course, I know that there are four bedrooms inside your room"

"Not a chance", Rex said before continuing to walk away.

But Rosie stopped Rex again,

Rex exhales roughly feeling really annoyed about Rosie, "It'll be better for me to be with you all no? In case something happens I know your secret and I can help"

Because of what Rosie said, Rex message his forehead for a moment.

After deliberating the pros and cons of Rosie in his room, he finally said, "Fine, but don't do anything stupid or else I'll kick you out"

"Yay! Let's go!", Rosie replied walking past Rex as if she knows the place.

~

A moment later,

Edward came out of the train wearing a black hoody, there's a bag on his back that should be where the spellbook is.

He walks out along the crowd in alert,

With such an important item inside his back, he can't put his guard down at all.

If any of the 25 Golden Crest knows about the spellbook inside his bag, then he will definitely become a squishy target with only his rank-four power.

Rex also told him to not get followed, this also added to his alertness.

Kyran is also there with him wearing an oversized hoody, he follows right behind Edward.

They walk to the street before they stopped on the sidewalk,

Edward looks at his phone, and there's a map on it that leads to his destination.

After looking at it, he called a taxi because it's still far.

The taxi stops in front of them before the driver asks, "Where do you want to go?"

"Gold street, the Paradise Club", Edward answered as the taxi driver signal for them to get in.

The car then starts moving, it travels through the night street steadily.

Based on the map on Edward's phone, the place should be 5 miles away from the train station right beside a nightclub called Paradise.

They will be meeting with the Atkins in an abandoned building right across from the nightclub.

Nearing the destination, the taxi driver then said, "Are you going to the nightclub?"

"No sir, I'm just going to meet my friends there to give them something", Edward replied nonchalantly, he's too busy looking around.

But his mind is a little bit at ease with Kyran beside him,

Kyran's senses are so sharp that no one in Edward's entire life can match him, his senses are overwhelmingly sensitive.

Hearing this, "Don't go to that club, many thugs and local criminals go there", the driver added.

"Don't worry sir, I won't go there", Edward replied with a smile.

Along the ride, Kyran is silent and he seems to be in a bad mood and Edward completely understands his mood.

Kyran is still a kid, and he's dealing with his first love so Edward can understand.

They then reach the place the map on Edward's phone stated, Edward and Kyran, walks out of the taxi before Edward goes to the front window, "Sir, Can you wait because I won't be long"

The taxi looks around nervously, there are many groups of thugs holding weapons.

Edward notices this too, he then sighs, "Thanks for the ride sir, I hope you get home safely", he said while giving the money.

After getting the money, the taxi driver apologize and left.

"Why do they have to ask for a meeting in this kind of place, it'll be nice if we can talk in a fancy hotel", Edward mumbles.

He then looks to the surroundings and finds a back-alley in the corner,

Edward looks at Kyran before Kyran nodded his head, it seems he already sense someone is in the back alley.

But then,

Just as he wanted to go to the back alley, a voice called out to him, "Hey you there! Come here!"

Edward signals to Kyran to not pay it any mind, but Kyran is clearly annoyed.

"Hey, you fucking kids!! Boss is asking for you!!", another voice can be heard from the back.

Looking at Edward and Kyran who ignore them as if they're ants, the thugs walk over to them before they blocked their path, "I'm talking to you!"

Edward looks at the thugs with a stoic expression, three thugs wearing haggard hoodies are the ones who stopped them.

"I ignore you two times, I'm sure it means fuck off before I beat you guys up", Edward said coldly.

This makes the three thugs aghast, "What the fuck did you say, kid?!"

"Kids these days, they don't know how to behave properly", another added.

But just after they said that Kyran's eyes sparked with violence as he glared at the three thugs.

This makes the three thugs unconsciously step back, Kyran's glare completely alerts all of their senses telling them to run.

They stepped back in fear as they realized Edward and Kyran were not normal,

"He told you to fuck off. Now that you're still here, I'll beat you up", Kyran said coldly.

BAM!

BAM!

CRASH!!

Kyran punched two thugs straight in the face sending them crashing away,

The two thugs hit the nightclub wall right beside their so-called boss who's hands started to tremble, he just lit his cigarette before this happened.

With his cold look, Kyran walks to the last one calmly.

This scene greatly shocks Edward, Kyran is simply too ruthless.

"Kyran that's enough, we have something to do", Edward commanded.

Hearing this, Kyran stopped but then he said, "Rex once said that some people can't change, and these guys surely won't"

Edward widened his eyes in shock, he can't believe what he's hearing.

Kyran then grabs the last thugs on the neck before he twists it coldly,

Crack!

A cracking sound can be heard as the thug's neck breaks,

There's no remorse in Kyran's eyes as he killed another thug, it's like he's a different person compared to he was before.

After killing the thugs that were messing with them, Kyran started to walk towards the boss.

The boss's body started to tremble in fear, he didn't expect a strong human to be in this kind of place that is closer to a shithole.

He just regretted telling his goon to mess with Kyran and Edward,

Kyran stopped right in front of the boss, He look at the boss straight in the eyes for five seconds that felt like an eternity.

He raises his hand making the boss close his eyes in fear, But then,

Grab!

"Stop it, they're normal people so it's not right to kill them over these small matters", Edward grab Kyran's arm stopping him.

He frowns when he felt that Kyran's strength is stronger than before,

After glaring at the boss straight in the eyes for a couple more seconds, Kyran pulls his hand and walks towards the back alley.

Edward sigh seeing Kyran's behavior, he then glances at the boss.

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean to disturb you", the boss plead as tears fall down his cheek.

Looking at the boss's pathetic look,

Edward raises his hand making the boss close his eyes in fright, but instead of hitting him,

Tsss...

The cigarette between the boss's lips suddenly turns to ash with a touch of Edward's hand, and after doing that Edward looks to his back and saw Kyran is already in front of the back alley.

He then turns his body and goes to the back alley leaving the boss dumbfounded.

At the back alley,

"You're late", a man said right after Edward and Kyran came to the back alley.

Hearing this, Edward didn't respond as he takes out the spellbook and throws it at the man.

He then signals to Kyran to leave but the man suddenly said, "Are you sure this is the right one? Not just a fake copy?"

"You can check it yourself", Edward said coldly.

The man then chuckles lightly, he's wearing a mask and a hood so Edward can't see his face, not even his eyes.

Kyran is leaning on the wall without caring about their conversation,

But then, the man opened his hood revealing his snake-like eyes.

Upon seeing the man's snake-like eyes, Edward's body went stiff.

Rex has a problem with the Atkins and Reed Family, and because of that Edward also researches the two families and remember their core members.

And the one that he remembers the most is this guy, Hans from the Atkins Family.

He's the right-hand of Wesley Atkins that always becomes the representative of the Atkins Family if Wesley is not around, he's also known to be vicious and evil.

Although it's not publicized, Edward also finds his nickname given by the other 25 families.

Hans the Snake,

So seeing this important guy here makes Edward alert.

Kyran notice Edward's stiff body as he too prepares himself,

Hans flip through the book playfully before a smile appeared on his face, "Pleasure doing business with you", he said while stretching his hand out.

Looking at this, Edward hesitated for a moment.

But then, he eventually approaches Hans and shakes his hand.

After shaking his hand, Edward wants to pull his hand back but frowns when Hans holds his hand tight.

Edward looks at Hans with a questioning look,

Kyran is already alert, his eyes are gazing at the surrounding trying to sense an ambush.

Edward and Hans' eyes meet for a couple of seconds and the pressure Hans emitted is overwhelming, but surprisingly Hans lets go of Edward's hand.

He looks at Hans with a frown while he rubs his throbbing hands, he then left the place with Kyran following him.

Although they turn their backs, they're still alert.

They didn't believe Hans at all, they're on guard until they left the back alley.

Unknown to Edward and Kyran, Hans is smiling evilly on the back as he looks at both of them leaving.

Chapter 210 King's Decree And Spell Conjuraton

Supernatural Territory, Scarlet Banes Kingdom.

BAM!

A door suddenly got slammed open as three Werewolves enters,

The three Werewolves have one Alpha amongst them and one of them carries a scroll in their hand, they bust into a building as if they own the place.

"Bertolf! Come out!", one of the Werewolf shouted.

His voice reverberated through the inside of the building,

The building they are in is an abandoned dealership building, based on the furs and wooden furniture inside it shows that someone lived here.

A Werewolf live here,

This place is not that far from the castle where King Baralt resided, in fact, it's very close.

All of the Werewolves look to the surrounding warily, they can't even see or sense any presence inside this building making them frown.

"We have a decree for your trial, come out and do not resist us", the Alpha added.

After waiting for a while with no sign of Bertolf, the three Werewolves wanted to sweep this building but then suddenly a shadow can be seen moving around the corner.

Just behind an abandoned car, the group of Werewolves saw a shadow moving.

This makes them alert, "Bertolf! Come here this instant and honor the king's decree!"

The shadow turns out to be a Werewolf,

Its blue eyes glares at the group of Werewolves that barge into the building fiercely, the Werewolf then slowly came out of the dark.

In front of them, a big Werewolf appeared from the darkness.

The Werewolf emits ghastly dark energy that sizzle around its body like smoke, its blue glowing eyes look innocent but the glare is that of a predator.

Looking at the Werewolf in front of them,

The group of Werewolves frown because the Werewolf is not Bertolf, "Who are you? and Why are you in Bertolf's home?", they asked.

But before they can get an answer,

"What does the king want from me?", a voice coming from the second floor intervenes them.

The group of Werewolves looks up and saw Bertolf there,

Bertolf is looking down on them from the second floor, he rests his arms on the steel fence.

The sharp bones that are sticking out of his back, and his humongous claws of his make him difficult to not get recognized easily.

Looking at Bertolf,

The Alpha raise the scroll, "Come with us to the castle, you are a suspect of treachery for breaking the sacred Supernatural Alliance"

Hearing this, Bertolf frowns.

"You're mistaken, tell the king that I swear upon the origin that I'm no traitor", Bertolf said calmly.

He waves his hand signaling to the group of Werewolves to leave his home,

But the Alpha didn't respond to his oath, "Bertolf, come with us to the castle to honor the king's decree or we will be forced to drag you there"

Their threat makes Bertolf stop,

He looks back to the group of Werewolves from the second floor as he chuckles, "You three? Drag Me to the castle? That's the funniest joke I heard in a while"

This makes the Alpha grit his teeth,

Then suddenly, a low growl can be heard from the front of the group of Werewolves.

They look at their front and see the unknown Werewolf growl at them menacingly, it makes one of the Werewolf irritated.

"Who is this Bertolf? Tell him to mind his manner in front of an Alpha", the Werewolf said.

Bertolf looks down at the Werewolf before he said, "Zegrath, stand down. These Werewolves are not your match, it'll be over in a minute if you fight them"

Hearing this, the irritated Werewolf smiles mockingly.

"You hear him, get your face out of my sight", the irritated Werewolf said pridefully.

But then, Bertolf said, "What I mean is that you will be dead if you fight him, so mind your mouth and get out!"

This makes the Alpha frown,

The irritated Werewolf widened his eyes in shock, he then walks closer to Zegrath who is still glaring at him.

"He's stronger than me? I think not", the Werewolf taunted.

Just after he said that the dark energy sizzling around Zegrath suddenly enveloped him.

The Werewolf suddenly can't move his body as he got engulfed by the dark energy,

In front of his eyes, he saw Zegrath's body becoming bigger and bigger completely making him look like an ant.

The overwhelming dark energy penetrated his heart as it gripped it tightly.

After the dark energy gripped the Werewolf's heart, the Werewolf's legs suddenly went weak as he fall to his knees.

From the Alpha's point of view,

The Werewolf approach Zegrath pridefully before suddenly Zegrath's eyes sparkle, then the Werewolf falls to his knee under Zegrath's mercy.

It happened so fast that it caught the Alpha off guard,

He can't believe that his pack member lose just like that, it wasn't even a fight.

"Bertolf stop him!", the Alpha shouted fiercely.

The Alpha's claw already glows yellow as he is already on the verge of pouncing to Zegrath if Zegrath tries to do something to his pack member.

His pride is hurt seeing one of his pack members got beaten easily,

This makes Bertolf chuckles mockingly, "Fine, I'll follow you to the castle and honor the king's decree", he finally said as he walk down the stairs.

Bertolf then whisper to Zegrath something before Zegrath went back to the darkness.

The Alpha looks at Zegrath warily, it's not normal for a Werewolf like his own pack member to lose just from a glare.

It's almost comical how his pack member loses,

The other Werewolf beside the Alpha whispers, "Aren't we going to do anything? Bertolf just humiliate you"

Hearing this, the Alpha gritted his teeth, "Shut up!", he commanded.

He then looks at Zegrath who is fading away in the darkness before he mumbles, "More importantly, there should be no powerful Werewolf named Zegrath in this kingdom"

"Lead the way", Bertolf said with a smirk on his face annoying the Alpha.

After signaling to the other Werewolf to help the Werewolf that faces Zegrath, they then leave the building leaving Zegrath alone.

Although they have their mission here, the other Werewolf is still pissed.

Looking at his friend that lost easily to an unknown Werewolf, his pride can't allow it but the Alpha said no.

So he can't do a thing,

The Werewolf that faces Zegrath then snapped out of his daze after leaving the building.

He looks around in fright and sighs a sigh of relief after seeing that Zegrath is not around, he then gets back on his feet while shaking his head.

The Alpha then approaches him, "What happened to you?"

"I-I don't know", the Werewolf replied feeling dizzy.

They're starting to walk again under Bertolf's mocking look, "Did he send a mental attack to you?", the Alpha added.

"I don't know...I-I feel as if death itself is getting closer to me upon seeing that Werewolf's eyes...", the Werewolf explained.

This makes the Alpha looks towards Bertolf coldly, "Zegrath", he mumbles.

~

"Take a deep breath, and close your eyes"

A lecturer and a guy are currently occupying a training room,

The training room is a part of the quiet room facility Faraday University provided to their students just like what Rex used when he learned his first spell.

But this training room is different than before,

Aside from it acting as an all-function room, this training room also provides treasure that will amplify the regeneration of mana and meditation absorption.

It's somekind of VIP training room that can only be used by a top-ranker.

Rex is currently training with his tutor, Chandler regarding the next step to reach rank six.

His right arm is almost healed and he already can start training without a problem.

He's currently topless sitting in the middle of the training room,

But Rex didn't forget to cover his black crow tattoo on his chest using an item from the shop, it's called an invisible sticker that he bought for 500 gold.

With the amount of money he has now, gold is not a problem anymore.

Aside from the $10 million he save for a spirit that he already planned, Rex has about $4 million gold left after getting the $2 million from his monthly allowance.

"Now, I want you to slowly activate your rune", Chandler instructed.

Rex did exactly like what Chandler instructed, he activates the rune on his shoulder as it started to lit up with black lightning.

Crack...

Blitz...

Black lightning started to spark around Rex's body,

These sparks of black lightning then slowly gather on Rex's back creating a black circle, it acts like a vacuum that absorbs lightning mana endlessly.

It's like a black hole for lightning mana, and this greatly surprised Chandler.

He looks at the black circle of lightning on Rex's back in awe, it seems he never saw this kind of phenomenon in his life.

But Rex didn't see this, he's closing his eyes shut.

Chandler then calm himself down before he continues, "Instead of absorbing the mana into your body, I want you to feel the mana without absorbing it"

Hearing the instruction, Rex channels his mana as the black circle behind him disappear.

After the black circle disappears, Rex focuses his mind on the sparkling lightning mana in the surrounding that felt familiar to him more than ever.

The lightning mana is like an extended hand of his, and the feeling is addictive.

Because of this, Rex realizes that the lightning mana is not only a tool to be absorbed and used but it also acts as his distanced limbs.

"Now, I want you to conjure a lightning strike out of thin air. Make it as far as possible"

Rex nodded his head as he started to communicate with the furthest mana on the edge of the room, he can feel that the lightning mana is reacting to him.

It doesn't take long for the lightning mana to become obedient,

After feeling that he's getting used to this, Rex then tries to gather lightning mana at the edge of the room to create a lightning strike.

Spark!

Blitz!

Chandler heard a sparking sound but he can't locate it in front of him, he then looks at his back before he widened his eyes in surprise.

He's shock beyond belief seeing this,

But before he can do anything, the lightning mana gathers crazily before suddenly,

BLITZ!!

BOOM!!

A lightning strike suddenly went past Chandler as it strikes the wall behind him, it exploded sending sparks of lightning to the surrounding.

Rex opens his eyes and saw Chandler is in an awkward position,

He bends his body to the side to dodge the lightning strike, and this results in a girly pose that makes Rex chuckle.

Realizing his weird pose, Chandler then coughs slightly in embarrassment.

"This is as expected, usually a rank five like you can only reach mana about 2-5 meters away but to think that you quadruple that easily speaks of your talent", Chandler praised.

He then continues, "But! Don't get full of yourself because this Conjunction technique is a technique that can be used by Awakened with rank five power that allows an Awakened to conjure a surprise spell to an enemy, and you won't reach rank six like me if you can't master this technique perfectly"

Chandler explained it as professionally as possible,

But rather than being inspired by his professional air, Rex still can't get off the girly pose of his as he tries to hold in his laughs.

"Stop laughing! I was caught off guard okay!!", Chandler said desperately.

He slumps his back in embarrassment, his dream of becoming a cool tutor that makes the Rex Silverstar look up crumbles completely.

Even until now, Rex is still holding his laugh.

After a couple of hours, Rex and Chandler left the training room.

"Today's training is over, although it's over I suggest you keep training for a couple more hours to familiarize yourself with the technique", Chandler said.

Rex nodded his head, he also planned to train some more.

Chandler then left after bidding goodbye, he disappear around the corner.

But before Rex wanted to go back to train, he suddenly senses someone approaching him from the side and he knows who it is.

"Rex, you got a minute?", Edward approached him and asks.

Rex turns to his back before he answered, "Yeah, What's up? You finish the delivery?"

Hearing this, Edward looks around before he pulls Rex to the side, "It's about the delivery, I got a bad feeling about this"

"Hans is the one who waited for the spellbook", he added.

Knowing the importance of the matter,

Rex then signals to Edward to go inside the training room, it's not a matter to be discussed in an open place like this.

After getting inside, Rex then asks, "Hans? Tell me what happened"
