Chapter 21 The Beginning Of The Field Test

In front of a grey barrack, first-year students of Ochyra University are chattering with each other waiting for the lecturer to start the field test.

A male student is chattering with his friends, "Do you want to make a bet on who will get the most score?"

"Is that even a question? Idris Crawford from class 1-D will surely get the highest score", the guy beside him replied with certainty.

A female student walks up to them and said, "I don't think it will be that easy, although he is a peak rank three Awakened there is also the rising star Harmen who is also broke through to rank three Awakened"

Amidst the chattering of students, Rex standing straight with his arm folded in front of him.

His serious expression is unwavering amongst the crowd,

Adhara and Rosie stand beside him while glancing at each other, they both know Rex is in a very bad mood.

After going out of the red barracks, Rex becomes a different person. They both tried to talk to him but Rex ignored them.

Rosie and Adhara wrap Rex's wounded hands and decided to let Rex calm himself down.

The inside of the grey barrack is spacious compared to the red barrack, it is as big as a football stadium. There are thirty entrances into the maze that will lead to different places, mist is coming out of the entrances and an eerie aura covers the whole maze.

A couple of minutes pass, Dave and the other five lecturers walks to the front, "Today, you will all begin the field test. Behind me is a maze of skeletons cemetery, you all can make a group up to a five-person group. You will still be under our monitor, if you're in danger just shout and we will come over. The highest score group will be rewarded, this field test will last for 2 days so be prepared", a muscular middle-aged man with a scar on his face said while enhancing his voice with magic.

Then Dave continues, "As he said earlier, this place is the skeleton cemetery, this place holds plenty of rank one, rank two skeletons, and even a couple of rank three skeletons. rank one skeletons will give you one point, ten points for rank two skeletons, and one hundred points for rank three skeletons. Your points will be recorded by the watch we will give you, just touch the dead skeleton to add your points"

The crowd of students broke into a chatter, one of them raises their hand and asks, "Sir, Can we steal from others?"

Six Lecturers that are in front smirked, "Yes, you can definitely steal But! If you kill someone, we will kill you"

Hearing this the students shudder in fear, the weakest lecturers out of six of them is a peak rank four Awakened so the students have no chance of defending.

The female lecturer with blazing red hair and eyes clap her hands, "Now that you know the rules, Let the field test BEGIN!"

The students all dashes to their chosen entrance, some are lightning-fast and some are mediocre.

Rex followed by Rosie and Adhara goes to the right-most entrance, Rex sense that there is plenty of skeletons from this entrance so this is where he will go.

'Stronger! I need to become stronger!', Rex thought as his silhouette disappears into the right-most entrance.

Unknown to them, a group of five-people followed them inside.

The leader has spiky black hair and wearing a black combat suit, he brings a saber on his right hand and his eyes flash with ferocity.

If Rosie saw him, she will immediately know who he is, It was Lucas Platchi!

After following the path for a couple of minutes, Rex halted his steps and looks at Adhara and Rosie.

"Have you both fight a supernatural before?", Rex asks with a questioning look.

Both of them look at each other and replied in a union, "No!"

Rex face palmed himself and said, "When you both face a skeleton later, make sure you crush their head before leaving them okay?"

"Okay, I understand", Adhara replied with a smile.

"Got it!", Rosie replied casually while rolling her eyes, she thought, 'What's so hard about skeletons anyway'

Rex nodded his head and resume their journey,

The group meets a dead end, they are met with a big wall. There is no other path but to go back when suddenly,

Raawrr!

Roarr!!

Dozens of skeletons started to climb from the ground, they still have a little bit of skin that is dangling from their non-existent muscle. Some of them are holding a sword or dagger, some didn't hold any.

Their nasty appearance shocked Adhara and Rosie, they both steps back in fright.

Rex didn't bother with the two of them, he immediately bolted forward and kicks one of the skeletons that are still climbing from the ground.

BAM!

The skeleton didn't even realize when suddenly its head was shattered into pieces by Rex,

<Killed Rank 1 Skeleton, Obtained 100 Exp>

'100 Exp? That's a lot, I didn't expect it to be this much', Rex thought in delight after seeing the system's notification.

Rex's eyes glint with brutality, he dives into the horde of skeletons using only his battle gloves. He whacks skeletons left and right, the skeletons didn't stand a chance against Rex's might.

BAM!

BANG!

Bones shatter everywhere, Adhara and Rosie regain their composure and join the fight.

Rosie uses her wind element to slash one of the skeletons, while Adhara uses fire elements to burn the skeletons that are getting closer.

Whoosh!

Boom!

Rosie slash another skeleton with her wind blade and shouted, "Rex look! I kill many!"

Rex glances at Rosie and saw a dozen skeletons lying around her when suddenly a couple of skeletons that still have their heads intact bite Rosie's ankle.

"Aaaahhh!!!", Rosie screamed.

Rex immediately dashes towards Rosie, he didn't get there in time when another skeleton stabbed Rosie with its dagger on her right foot.

Rosie fell down with a pained expression, the skeletons around her wanted to stab her again.

Looking at this, Rex's eyes turn violent.

He musters all of his strength, the muscle on his legs bugles with veins all over it.

BOOM!

The ground crack under Rex's might,

He turns into a streak of shadow that immediately appears beside Rosie, He parried the dagger and stomp with his feet.

BAM!!

A huge web-like crack appears on the ground that has been stepped by him, the surrounding skeletons burst into pieces.

Rex nodded his head seeing the effect of his skill, 'The Force Beam is very convenient, it is a versatile skill. I can use it through my hands or legs, it can even become a long-range attack, very convenient' he thought after confirming the skeletons are all dead.

Killing the skeletons around Rosie makes Rex leveled up,

He then approaches Rosie with a hint of worry, he kneels on the ground and checks on her wound.

Adhara also comes and helps, thankfully, she can use her fire to close up the wound to avoid blood loss.

Rosie gritted her teeth when Adhara burn her injury, she looks at Rex apologetically, "I'm sorry Rex"

Rex shakes his head, "I told you, Skeletons will not die unless their head is crushed. Can you walk?", he said with a worried look.

"I can manage, but I think I can't fight. Sigh, I become a burden this early", she said regretfully.

While Adhara is patching Rosie up, Rex checked his stats.

<Stats>

<Average Human Adults have 5-7 points for each stat except for Intelligence>

Rex smiles after seeing his stats, 'Nice, I raise to level 9! Where will I put it?', Rex thought deciding whether he should add his mental stats once more or not.

After deliberating, Rex decided to play safe.

He adds 3 points into his mental stat and the other 3 into his strength stat.

Now his stats look like this,

<Stats>

Name: Rex Silverstar

Level: 9(1120/3400)

Race: Half-Blood (Werewolf)

Full-Moon: 24 Days - Dark Moon

Berserk: 45%

With these stats, Rex is more confident in beating Noah. Just by looking at his stats, he already entered the realm of rank three Awakened.

While he was nodding to himself, he suddenly senses danger approaching.

He jolted to his back and saw a fireball heading towards Rosie and Adhara, the girls were shocked when they saw the fireball and closes their eyes in fright.

Before the fireball can even get near the girls, Rex already appeared in front of it and parries it.

Slash!

Rex karates chop the fireball making it vanish instantly.

Rex looks at his hand in delight, 'I'm confident to beat these kids', he thought after looking at a group of five people in front of him.

A spiky black hair youth was in front of the group while dragging his big saber, If anyone were to see this they will be shitting their pants in fright but not Rex.

Rex looks at them calmly,

"You must be Rex Silverstar? Nice to meet you, I'm your killer by the way", Lucas said with a devilish smile plastered on his face.

The other guy beside Lucas takes out two stones from his pocket that glows grey and red respectfully.

Rex also shows his nasty grin, "These guys want to play dirty eh? Thankfully, I can play dirty too"

Chapter 22 Fighting Lucas Platchi's Group

"Who are you? What do you want?", Rex asked, he puts his senses to the max and gets into his battle stance.

"HAHAHAHA!", Lucas laugh, he then stopped while holding his hair like a lunatic, "You steal my girl and instead of letting yourself get beaten, you dare beat up my subordinates?!"

Rex knitted his eyebrows, he glances at Rosie with a frown.

Under Rex's gaze, Rosie threw her face away unable to maintain eye contact with Rex.

'Huh, a deal is a deal', Rex thought before he looks back at Lucas again and said, "First she's not your girl but mine, second what kind of logic is that?"

Lucas's face heats up in anger, hearing the words that come out of Rex's mouth makes his mood fouler, "I'm Lucas Platchi! from the Platchi family! You dare offend me?!"

"HAHAHAH!", Rex follows Lucas's words with a laugh, "Dare to offend you? In my eyes, you are just trash who only hide behind the shadow of your family's name"

Veins pop on Lucas's neck, his eyes are bloodshot and his breath becomes heavy in anger, He points his fingers, "You..!", but he stopped midway.

Lucas smiled sinisterly, "Well never mind, You're going to die anyway"

Suddenly, a notification pop in front of Rex,

<DING!!>

<Sudden Quest!>

<Protect and Defend Rosie and Adhara,

Lucas's group is here to take revenge because the user steals his girl and beats up his subordinates, Survive the current situation!

Quest Reward: 1500 Exp, and 2 Skill Upgrade>

'Nice, There is no other choice than', Rex thought after given a sudden quest by the system.

The four guys beside Lucas wear the same combat suit as Lucas, from the looks of it, it's top-quality equipment. Two of them didn't bring a weapon, the other two brings a dagger and a sword respectively.

'Two Elementalist and two magic fighters, They all are peak rank two Awakened', Rex analyzed his enemies before he glances at Rosie and Adhara, 'Rosie can't possibly help, that leaves us to Adhara and Judging from Lucas's temper, he probably will aim at the girls if he's backed into a corner'

Adhara stands beside him and whispers, "What should we do? That grey stone they are holding is a magic stone to block sound from coming out while the red stone is some kind of offensive magic"

Hearing this, Rex was pulled in thoughts, "The grey stone can block the sounds so the lecturers will not notice, the red stones is probably offensive magic of a higher rank. I need to get rid of the red stones because I can sense danger from it"

While Rex was thinking he senses something beneath him, 'Hmm?'

After noticing the thing he senses, Rex smiles sinisterly.

Lucas's group started to move, they emit their own aura respectfully.

The power that comes from Lucas's group frightens Adhara, although she is also a peak rank two Awakened, facing a group of people with the same rank frightens her.

Adhara looks at Rex who is calm as water, she gains courage by just looking at Rex which makes her more confident in winning.

"Adhara, can you create a mini-explosion behind my elbows?", Rex whispers not even glancing at Adhara.

Adhara replied, "I can but why?"

"Just do it when I give you the signal", Rex said followed by Adhara's nod.

Lucas is standing ten meters away from Rex, he rests his saber on his shoulder with a grin on his face.

He then points his saber at Rex, "KILL HIM!"

Whoosh!!

After Lucas said that, two guys blitz from their spot, one with a sword and one with a dagger.

"Just ignore the girls, I will surely have fun with them after we kill him. Focus on that trash first", Lucas said with lust plastered obviously on his face.

The two guys are fast, if normal people were to look at them, they can only see shadow flashing but not Rex.

Rex puts his concentration to the maximum, He can see the two guys' movement but it is still fast especially the guy with the dagger.

Rex pushes Adhara out of the way and brings his hands up in front of him in defense,

The guy with a dagger jumps high leaving a trail of gust behind him,

He swings his dagger aiming it at Rex,

Rex lean to the right dodging the dagger by a hair length, He can see the dagger slash past his head when suddenly,

SLASH!

Rex's cheeks got slashed, he was shocked and notice that the tip of the dagger is covered by a green hue that makes it longer.

Rex backflipped trying to make a breathing space, but suddenly he saw a sword coming at him from his right.

He twists his torso and jumps backward avoiding the sword,

BAM!

The sword hit the ground leaving a crack, the guy with the sword didn't move when he missed the slash.

Rex is still mid-air when he saw the elemental aura the guy with the sword gets violent,

CRACK!

An earth spike comes out of the ground just a couple of meters away from the guy with the sword, Rex didn't have the time to dodge! He brings his hand in front of him getting ready to get hit but Adhara didn't let that happen.

"Ignite!"

BAM!

The tip of the spike got destroyed by Adhara's explosion making it dull,

Looking at this, Rex punched the dull spike and shattering it into pieces.

The guy with the sword was shocked when he saw Rex destroyed his spike,

In that little gap of surprise, Rex flash steps towards the guy with the sword just a second after his feet touch the ground.

The guy with the sword widened his eyes in shock, he then waves his hand and summons a wall made of rock.

"Wall of Rock!"

Rex brings his fist back to punch the wall when suddenly he grins,

Instead of punching the wall, he steps on the wall and launches himself towards the guy with the dagger that wanted to ambush him from the back.

The guy with the dagger was caught in surprise, Rex wanting to punch the wall is just a fluke!

"NOW!!!", Rex shouted while he sent a fist forward.

The guy with the dagger makes an X with his arm to block Rex's punch,

Adhara musters her elemental mana, a red aura is emitting from her body as she creates a mini-explosion just behind Rex's elbow,

BOOM!

Rex's fist was accelerated by the mini-explosion, his fist travels so fast that the guy with the dagger can only grit his teeth to prepare for the punch.

Just as Rex fist a couple of inches away from the guy's face, a translucent barrier of water shields the guy.

Rex's eyes glint with brutality, "Force Beam!"

Rex's fist that is strong enough to hurt a rank three Awakened becomes even stronger! his fist releases a faint white hue, this punch is the strongest attack Rex has ever made!

CRACK!

The fist obliterated the water barrier shielding the guy, the fist didn't stop and punch the guy on his guts.

BAM!!!

The guy spits a mouthful of blood as his body flung hardly towards the ground and bounces back up, he can see the world spinning.

Before he can think another thought, Rex follows with a roundhouse kick making him fluttering away before crashing to the maze wall.

<Defeat a Peak Rank Two Awakened, Obtained 400 Exp>

Lucas's group sucked in a cold breath, The power that Rex shows makes them shudder in fear.

'That's the power of non-Awakened?! How could this be?!', this thought travels to each of their minds.

Amidst the dust of battle, Rex's eyes shine a fierce glint as he looks at Lucas.

Lucas gulps under Rex's gaze, 'How can he be so strong?! This is not possible!'

Rex cracked his knuckle, he then stomps on the ground with his Force Beam

CRACK!!!

A web-like crack appears on the ground beneath his feet, the power that Rex got from attributing to his strength shows on full display.

Rex cracked a devilish smile, "What's the matter? Still confident in killing me?"

After saying that, Rex takes advantage of their shock and dashes to the guy holding a sword.

The guy snapped from his daze but it is too late, Rex's fist is already a couple of inches away.

BAAM!

The guy flung away, rolling on the ground before crashing on the maze wall unconscious.

<Defeat Peak Rank Two Awakened, Obtained 400 Exp>

A beautiful sound creeps into Rex's ear, "Is this the extent of the mighty Lucas Platchi? What a joke", Rex said mockingly.

Lucas's eyes turn bloodshot, "YOU! I'M GOING TO KILL YOU!"

"HAHAHA!", Rex laughs loudly, "To think that everybody is scared of a wimp like you", Rex then stomps on the ground again using his Force Beam.

BAM!

The crack under his feet becomes larger, "Come on, What are you waiting for? Come and try killing me", Rex said trying to taunt Lucas.

Lucas can't hold back his anger anymore, he grabbed the red stones from the guy beside him.

"You forced me, Rex! I will honor you by dying with this magic!", He said while holding the Red stones up.

Rex once again stomps his feet on the ground forcefully,

BAM!!

"I'm waiting for you! Trash, no matter what I will not lose to trash like you!"

Rosie and Adhara were confused as to why Rex is doing this, the magic emitted from the red stones is at least mid-rank three magic.

"REX STOP!", Rosie shouted as she looks at Rex taunting Lucas recklessly.

In a fit of anger, Lucas holds the stone up which starts to glow brightly.

Rex gritted his teeth and stomp the ground once more, 'Come on! Wake up!'

"DIE!! FIRE NOVA!!", the stones grow more brightly, fire element started to circle around it.

The fire element concentrated into a single point and condensed into a circle of fire,

Rex is stomping his feet multiple times, the ground is a mess because of it when suddenly,

BOOMM!!

The red stones fire a fire beam towards Rex that burns everything around it,

Rex started to sweats, "GET UP!!!", Rex musters all his strength onto one last stomp!

BAMM!

Just after Rex stomp it, A huge skeleton burst from the ground.

ROAAAR!!

Chapter 23 Defeating A Rank Three Supernatural

The lecturers are waiting on each end of the barrack, there is one lecturer each on the north, west, east, and south of the barrack while the muscular middle-aged lecturer is flying in the middle.

The muscular middle-aged man is sitting crossed legs above the center of the barracks, he is closing his eyes shut waiting for the test to be over.

On the south side of the barracks, the lecturer with fiery red hair is sitting quietly when suddenly she saw a big skeleton in the corner of her eyes emerged.

ROAAAR!!

She glances at the skeleton and saw a big skeletal dragon clawing its way through the ground, 'Finally the first encounter with a rank three supernatural, Skeletal Dragon', she thought with a little bit of anticipation in her eyes.

While she was intending to see the students who met with a Skeletal Dragon, she hears a scream, "LECTURER HELP!!"

She stopped midtrack and lazily look at the source of the shout, 'Only a rank 2 skeleton? The first generation of Ochyra University is not looking good', she thought before she vanished from her spot to help the student in need.

Meanwhile,

ROAARR!!

The Skeletal Dragon burst from the ground, its body is so big that it is at least six times taller than Rex.

Just as the Skeletal Dragon burst from the ground, it is immediately hit by a fire beam from Lucas.

BOOOMM!!

The blast makes the ground tremble, the power from Lucas's attack is not something to underestimate.

Rex dashes to Rosie and Adhara while Adhara makes a fire shield around them to block the attack, the same goes for Lucas, his two subordinates make a barrier around them to shield them from the impact.

The blast sent a wave of a powerful gust of wind towards its surrounding,

CRACK!!

The force brought by the explosion makes Adhara gritted her teeth trying to hold on.

Looking at this, Rosie musters her remaining strength to add mana into the barrier trying to help Adhara.

The crack on the barrier started to close up with the help of Rosie, the barrier finally lasts as the black smoke covers their vision.

Adhara waves her hand to get rid of the barrier before falling to the ground, her mana is exhausted because of the blast.

The black smoke started to disperse revealing a bone dragon lying on the ground,

'What? A rank three supernatural fall just like that? That stone is probably an attack of a peak rank three Awakened', Rex thought after looking at the Skeletal Dragon.

Just as he was about to find Lucas, the Skeletal Dragon that is lying on the ground eyes lit up.

Rex was shocked, he jumped backward to back away from the dragon.

The Skeletal Dragon shook its body and stands back up, its movement is sluggish which implies that it is hurt.

Rex saw Lucas just behind the Skeletal Dragon with a haggard look, it seems like the two guys in his team cannot sustain their barrier from the explosion from before.

Blood leaked from the corner of Lucas's mouth as he holds his stomach in pain, He looks at Rex and turns his body intending to run away.

Rex's veins bulge when he saw Lucas is trying to run away, while he was intending to chase after Lucas, a dinging sound was heard.

<DING!!!>

<Sudden Quest!>

<Prevent Lucas from running away

Lucas comes to the user with the intent to kill, Stop him from getting away lest he found another backup and trouble the user in the future

Quest Reward: 2000 Exp, Primeval Blessing Stone, 3 Skill Upgrade

Quest Failure: Hunted by the Platchi's Family>

Rex was in a daze, he got mixed emotions while reading the quest.

'The Reward is really plenty but, as all people say high-risk high-reward, which means this Platchi family is very strong that makes the system give so much reward', he thought while looking at Lucas's back, 'He must die!'

ROAAR!!

The Skeletal Dragon roar, the aura emitted by the dragon gives pressure to Rex. The dragon sweeps its tails in a circle, aiming for Lucas and Rex.

Swooshh!

The dragon is focusing on Lucas because he is the one who hurt the dragon so naturally, the dragon hates him.

Looking at Lucas running, the two guys in Lucas's team also follow him.

Just as they were on a T-junction, the dragon's tail hit the three of them,

BAAM!

The dragon's tail is harder than Iron, their bones act as their main weapon and also defense.

The force brought by the tail is too much making them crash on the wall while spurting out blood.

Just as Rex wanted to praise the dragon, the tail sweep didn't stop at Lucas but continues in his direction.

Rex curse the dragon and looked to his back,

Rosie is lying on the ground while Adhara is kneeling on the ground with heavy breath, their faces are pale and they both look tired because of mana exhaustion.

Rex frowns, the distance between him and the girls is quite far. The tail sweep is nearing them and Rex didn't have the time to dash towards the girls. The lecturer will also not made it in time if he calls for help.

He decided to ready himself, he grits his teeth as his muscles bulge under his clothes. Rex musters all of his strength and lowers his stance to hug the dragon's tail that is coming at him.

Rex didn't feel confident in stopping the dragon's tail, he is doubting himself when suddenly.

A flash of his past where his mother and father dies while he can't do anything about it zips through his mind, his eyes turn bloodshot, "I WILL NOT LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN!"

"Kaahkk!", A huge force comes down to him just as he held the tail, he gritted his teeth so hard that it started to bleed.

The power from the tail is too much but Rex held it in, the life of Rosie and Adhara is in his hands!

Rex is being pushed back by the tail, he glances to his right and found that the tail is nearing Rosie and Adhara who helplessly look at the dragon's tail as if waiting for their deaths.

In the heat of the moment, Rex's adrenaline spiked.

"AAARRRHHH!!", Rex stomp the ground heavily with his force beam and musters all his strength to stop the tail.

BOOMM!!

The ground cracked under Rex's feet, Rosie and Adhara thought that the enormous tail will hit them but to their surprise, the tail suddenly stopped in its track.

They slowly look at their left and saw Rex holding the tail with determination, their hearts flutter after seeing Rex doing his best to defend them.

Rex can easily dodge the tail sweep if he wants to do so but he takes the tail head-on risking his life just to save the both of them.

The dragon snapped its head to its back to look at the person who holds its tail, the dragon looks shocked when seeing Rex.

Rex looks at the dragon with a fierce gaze, unknown to him the aura on his back makes a terrifying figure.

Looking at the aura, the dragon steps back in fright.

Rex's reddish dark aura form a fierce werewolf that seems to look down on everything, the Skeletal Dragon's instinct is sending danger signals.

The supernatural is divided into ranks, the higher the ranks the more powerful the supernatural, and because of that the lower-rank supernatural develop a sense of natural fear towards higher ranking supernatural.

The Skeletal Dragon is obviously a lower-rank supernatural than a werewolf so its instinct jolted by Rex's aura, its body is frozen in fear.

Lucas who is lying on the ground while coughing blood can't believe what he's seeing, the mighty rank three Skeletal Dragon is showing fear in front of Rex!

'IMPOSSIBLE! I HAVE TO RUN!', he thought trying desperately to crawl his way out.

Rex's anger is swelling up inside of him, he notices the dragon's fear so he decided to use the opportunity to leap towards the dragon's chest.

He slipped through the dragon's rib cage and punch the blue heart located in the Skeletal Dragon's chest, the Skeletal Dragon's heart is blue in color and it is emitting a faint blue light. It is the weak point of a Skeletal Dragon, its source of power and life.

the dragon snapped out of its daze but it is too late,

SPLURTT!!

Rex's fist pierced right through the Skeletal Dragon's heart, blue blood burst everywhere.

Adhara jolted in shock when she saw Rex is piercing the Skeletal Dragon's heart with his bare hands, "REX NO!! THE HEART WILL EXPLODE!!", she screamed in fright.

Rex heard this but he is too late, the Skeletal Dragon's heart is already glowing bright blue. He tries to escape but his hands are stuck at the dragon's heart.

The energy around the heart is starting to condense, Rex closes his eyes when suddenly, the sound that can help him seeps into his ears.

<Night Time!>

<Increase all stats by 50%>

BOOOMM!!

The dragon's heart exploded sending a fierce explosion of blue energy, the energy is condensed and it didn't travel so far but its destructiveness is doubled especially to the one who is near the heart like Rex.

Rex was blown away like a broken kite before he bounces from the ground leaving a crater in the ground.

His right hand is scorched, as he lies on the ground unmoving.

Rosie is unconscious on the ground while Adhara is stunt looking at Rex unmoving on the ground, "REX!!!", Adhara screamed on top of her lungs.

Tears started to flow down from her eyes, she can't help but blame herself because of her powerlessness she makes Rex suffer the consequences.

Just as she was crying, suddenly Rex's body shook.

Rex sit upright while scratching his back, "Damn that hurt a lot", he glances in the girl's direction and saw Adhara looking at him blankly.

Looking at Rex who is casually rubbing his back, Adhara was dumbfounded.

She saw that Rex's right hand is starting to heal although it is not fast it is still healing, She rubbed the tears off and threw her face away.

Rex caught Adhara's tear as he walks towards her.

Arriving in front of her, Rex asked, "Are you okay?", he said while rubbing Adhara's head.

Adhara felt touched, Instead of looking at his injuries, Rex immediately goes to her to ask about her injuries.

She replies, "I'm okay, I'm just tired. I don't have any healing magic so let me do it manually", she wanted to tend to Rex's injuries but Rex cut her off.

"I'm not done yet", Rex said while looking in Lucas's direction.

Chapter 24 Becoming Stronger

"I'm not done yet", Rex said while looking in Lucas's direction.

Adhara follows Rex's eyes and saw Lucas crawling on the ground bloodied all over.

Lucas is crawling trying to save his life! He saw how Rex killed a Rank Three Supernatural and comes out unscathed against the explosion.

'I must be dreaming, There's no way a non-awakened is that strong!', he thoughts while crawling away from the scene.

Tap!

Tap!

Tap!

Just as he was crawling, he heard footsteps not far away from him.

He got goosebumps just by hearing the footsteps, an ominous feeling dreaded over him from the back.

Lucas gritted his teeth and force his body to crawl faster but suddenly a foot stomp on his back making him unable to crawl further.

The foot stomp started to get heavier, "Akhk!!", Lucas splurts another round of blood. He can feel his ribs is breaking from the pressure.

"FORGIVE ME! HAVE MERCY!! MERCY!!", he pleaded pathetically.

The foot stops giving pressure, Rex walks to Lucas's front and squat in front of him.

Lucas struggles to look up to meet Rex's eyes, Rex looks down on him while smirking devilishly.

"Fine I'll forgive you, Let me help you sit down. Let's just forget about the past", Rex said.

Lucas was smiling after getting a hint of hope, he replies, "Yes, In the name of Lucas Platchi, I will forget about the past quarrel between you and me"

Rex smiles and helps Lucas sit down,

The body of an Awakened is way stronger than a normal human, Lucas who has multiple injuries that can kill a normal human may be able to survive.

While he was helping Lucas sits down, suddenly Rex staggered on his feet and falls unconscious just in front of Lucas.

Lucas's eyes widened in shock, his shocked expression turns instantly into a brutal smile.

He takes out a knife from his belt, "HAHAHA, You piece of shit, I will definitely kill you!", Lucas brings his knife upwards and stabs down intending to finish Rex off.

Then suddenly, Rex opens his eyes and caught the knife. His expression is still smiling while he caught Lucas's knife.

He stands up while maintaining eye contact with Lucas,

Lucas's face drains from color, a bead of sweats started to drop from his forehead under Rex's gaze.

Rex once again squats in front of Lucas and whispers in his ears, "It seems Lucas Platchi, for you, the past is not the past", he said with a smile that turns brutal in the next second.

Rex gripped Lucas's neck and held him in mid-air,

"Me Akh rcy, Please Akh One more chance", Lucas said while struggling to breathe.

Without changing his expression, Rex snapped Lucas's neck with a twist of his hand.

CRACK!!

Lucas's struggle instantly stopped as Rex threw him away,

Adhara saw the scene and can't help to gulp, Rex is simply heartless at times.

Adhara saw at the top right of the barracks and saw a window, the moonlight shone down right on Rex decorating his already violent bearing.

'My suspicion is growing stronger, I still believe that Rex is not human. His temperament always changes during the night', she thought while looking at Rex's back.

After killing Lucas, he saw a row of notifications appear in front of him that makes his mouth quirked up.

<Congratulation on reaching level 10! The host will undergo an evolution>

Rows upon Rows of notifications appear in front of Rex that makes his eyes dizzy, he read each notification but he was stunt when he saw the last notification.

'An Evolution? System what do you mean of evolution?', just as Rex asked the system about it.

Instead of giving an answer the system replied,

<Beginning Evolution Process>

Just as he read the system's answer, Rex started to feel dizzy, his head is starting to spin and his vision becomes hazy.

Rex held his head in pain, his head is hurting as if there's a needle stabbing his head from all directions.

Soon after, his body jolted when the bones inside his body started to move uncontrollably.

"AKHH!", Rex grunted in pain, he gritted his teeth to hold the pain in but the pain is too much.

Rex falls to on his knees, his head is hurting, his body is hurting, everything about him is hurting. Not long after, the pain started to rise to an unbearable level as he passes out cold.

While Rex is evolving, Adhara was watching him from the sides.

Her eyes give off all sorts of emotions, worry, realization, doubt, scared, everything.

Adhara is in a dilemma, her head is telling her to not approach Rex but her heart says otherwise. She checks on Rosie first making sure she's okay before looking at Rex once more.

For the first time in her life, Adhara let her heart take over and approach Rex.

During his unconscious state, Rex's face still frowns in pain there is no peace even in his state.

Adhara felt pity towards Rex, she then held Rex's head up and put him on her lap while rubbing his head trying to help Rex ease the pain.

While Adhara is rubbing Rex's head, Rex's bones are still making a cracking sound which Adhara ignores.

The barrack is big, Rex is located on the south-most part of the barrack which is devoid of people.

Although the barrack is big, this scene is not gone by without any witness.

On the corner of another T-Junction, Laura and Tom saw everything that happened from the beginning to the end.

Laura's eyes were filled with sadness, doubt, and curiosity while Tom's eyes burn with anger, determination, and hatred.

'Rex, What happened to you really', Laura thought while biting her lips before leaving the scene.

Thirty minutes passed, Adhara is still waiting for Rex to wakes up.

The cracking sound is already gone so Adhara expects Rex to wake up anytime soon,

Just as she was waiting for Rex to wake up,

"Woohooo, we got the fourth position because of our harvest before!"

"Yeah, we got lucky to find a group of injured students. we got almost a hundred points from them"

"HAHAHA, yeah we got lucky! But wouldn't it be nice to get lucky again?"

"Don't worry we will probably meet another injured group"

The chatter of a group of students was heard, their sound is getting closer to Rex's location.

After ten seconds or so, a group of students that consist of three guys and two girls appeared near Rex.

The girl who seems like the leader notices Adhara and the big corpse of Skeletal Dragon in surprise, the surprise turns into a burst of loud laughter.

"HAHAHAHA, Oh my god! I can't believe we're this lucky", she said to her group.

The students in her group also laugh after seeing Rex's group state, two unconscious, and one injured person seems like an easy target for anyone.

One of the guys approach Adhara and said, "Hey you, Just give us your points", just as he said that the guy's words choked when he notice Rosie.

"Eeek!! Rosie!", the guy exclaimed in surprise.

The leader of the group also notices Rosie and frowns, because of that she also guesses the unconscious guy is probably Rex who is the center of hatred for male students.

She feels her throat gone dry, she knows that Rex defeated Laura from class 1-C who is a powerful Awakened that is way above their league.

She clears her throat and said, "You there, although you are from class 1-C, you will not win against us so just give us your points", she said demandingly.

Hearing this, Adhara shakes her head in pity, "If I were you, I will just go back and pretend that this never happens", she said after feeling Rex's aura getting stronger.

The leader of the group felt insulted, she then steps forward with a red aura enveloping her and said, "Don't get cocky in your state, Although you are stronger there are five of us!"

Adhara sigh helplessly, "Remember, I warned you", she said before she stops rubbing Rex's head.

Just as the leader wanted to rebut, she feels a devastating aura lock onto her, her mouth stops abruptly unable to let out the words she wanted to say.

In the blink of an eye, Rex suddenly appeared in front of her with his hand around her neck.

She didn't even realize Rex's appearance before Rex disappeared again followed by four screams, from her back.

She was scared stiff, Rex is like a blur of shadow, his movements are way out of their leagues.

The leader turns to her back slowly, the scene on her back makes her legs feel like jelly.

Behind her, four of her comrade is already on the ground unconscious.

In the middle of all of them was Rex who is looking at the leader sharply, he approached the leader leisurely.

Every step that he takes makes the leader want to just run away but she knows that running is impossible.

Rex stops in front of her, Rex's body is towering in front of her as he whispers into her ears, "You should've listened, I'm going to punch you now. Make sure you remember this pain and be more humble when you meet me in the future"

The leader stands blankly hearing Rex's words that seep into her ear, regret starting to fill her heart.

Rex puts his left hand on the leader's right shoulder, then in a flash, his fists planted on the leader's abdomen.

BAAMM!!

"Huakk!!", the leader spat a mouthful of blood.

Her body flung like a jet crashing to the wall making a really big crack before stopping, the advice that Rex gives that moment rang on her head before her consciousness slowly disappears.

Chapter 25 Aftermath

BAAM!!

The leader shot away before crashing onto the wall in front of Rex,

After glancing at the leader who is now unconscious, Rex walks back to check on Rosie and Adhara.

"How's Rosie?", Rex asks, looking at Rosie who is pale and still unconscious.

Adhara sighs and replied, "I think she's out cold, Let's just asks the lecturer to take her away"

Hearing this, Rex turns around and shouted, "HELP!!"

After waiting for a while, the lecturer didn't come even after waiting for another minute.

Rex frowns, as he was frowning he heard a chuckle coming from his back.

He turns around and cast a questioning look to Adhara who is still chuckling,

Amidst her chuckle, Adhara said, "Did you forget? The grey stone is still active"

Rex cursed himself for forgetting it, he crushed the grey stone with his hand and wanted to shout again but was stopped by Adhara.

Rex turns his head towards Adhara in confusion,

"Are you dumb?! You just killed Lucas and you wanted to call a lecturer?", Adhara said with a disbelief expression.

Rex widened his eyes in realization, "Oh yeah, I forgot about that"

Rex walks to Lucas's corpse and picks him up, his hands trembled while picking up Lucas.

'Hmm, Although I feel fine, It's still my first time killing a human', Rex thought before he brings Lucas's corpse and put it under the Skeletal Dragon claw.

He then stabs the dragon's claw into Lucas's stomach in hope that the lecturer will believe that he is killed by the dragon.

After everything is done, Rex then once again called out for the lecturer.

p Not long after, one of the lecturers came.

She's flying majestically with a fire cloud beneath her that makes the surrounding temperature instantly rise, from the ground she looks like a blazing fire goddess.

Rex heard about this particular lecturer, the students always drool over her because of her beauty, and she is the weakest among the lecturer. Although she is the weakest, her destructive capabilities are the best.

She is Hera Larson, one of the lecturers of Ochyra University known as the Red Rose.

Hera landed just in front of Rex, her red hair is matching with the fire surrounding her body that makes Rex compliment her taste in his heart.

'Surely that's not her real hair color right?', Rex thought.

Hera looks at the skeletal dragon behind Rex and was a little bit surprised, beating a rank three supernatural is not a small feat for students.

She looks at Adhara and Rex and shakes her head, 'There's no way these kids can win, especially there's this guy who is a non-Awakened in their team'

Hera glance around the place and was shocked, she saw many students lying on the ground or stuck at the wall as if they're hit by a powerful force.

"What happened to them?", she asks flatly.

Rex follows her gaze before looking back at her, "My team is fighting the Skeletal Dragon here and then the other students wanted to rob us that result in a three-way fight. My friend is injured because of that, I think she can't go on with this field test", Rex answered and making up things to cover for his track.

Hearing Rex, Hera summons a fire cloud and makes a protective barrier around Rosie but just as she wants to lift Rosie up with a flick of her hand, Rex beats her to it.

Rex carries Rosie carefully, the heat that comes out of the fire cloud is scorching him a bit but he can manage. He walks confidently and puts Rosie on the fire cloud under Hera's gaze.

Hera's eyes widened in shock while looking at Rex who is casually approaching her fire cloud.

All the students know that in order for a man whether he is a student or another lecturer, they need to have a sufficient amount of power just to talk to her.

The fire emitted by her acts as some kind of filter for those weaker people, even some rank three or early rank four Awakened can't sustain the heat so Rex who is considered a non-Awakened should have no chance of approaching her.

'How did he?', Hera was speechless, she can't comprehend the logic behind what she was seeing.

Rex notices Hera's weird expression, he decided to smile at her to be more polite.

'Why is she looking at me like that? Did she caught my lie?', Rex thought sweating bullets.

Hera snaps out of her daze and also brought the other students to her fire cloud, she then frowns when she notices Lucas's corpse.

She instantly recognizes Lucas, she frowns hard after realizing who he is, 'This is going to be troublesome'

Hera flies once more but before she gets away, she throws the watches where the other students put their points to Rex and asked, "What's your name?"

Rex was hesitant in saying his name but under Hera's gaze he finally answered, "Rex Silverstar from class 1-C"

Hearing Rex's answer, 'So that guy is the Rex Silverstar, no wonder', she thought before flying away.

Rex heaves a sigh of relief after Hera left, he looks at the watches on his hand and puts all the points into his watch.

Rex's points that are only about seventy jumped into one hundred and ninety, he looks at the leaderboards and saw he is in the fourth position with thirty difference with the third position.

He then walks to the Skeletal Dragon's corpse and puts his hand on it.

Immediately after, his points increased by one hundred rising his position to the third position.

The second position is held by a group led by Ivy with four hundred points, while the first position is held by a group led by Gregg with four hundred and forty-five points.

Rex is satisfied with his position but suddenly his inner competitive nature prickles him, he wanted to be number one!

But when he looks at Adhara, he shakes his head.

Adhara looks haggard, her breathing is heavy and her usual rosy face is pale.

Rex walks to Adhara and said, "Let's rest for the day"

Adhara nodded her head in relief, she then leans her head on the wall to rest.

Adhara is suffering from Mana Exhaustion, it is a state where an Awakened overused their mana that results in exhaustion. Mana can be replenished naturally by resting or meditating, there are potions to replenish mana but it is considered a high-rank potion so it is very expensive.

Rex follows Adhara and sits beside her, the atmosphere between them suddenly becomes awkward.

Adhara closes her eyes pretending to be asleep while Rex was deep in thought.

"What did she think of me after seeing me like that? She didn't look scared though", Rex thought while stealing glances at Adhara.

Rex sigh in helplessness, "I got careless again, the first time is with Rosie now her", he looks at Adhara sleeping and suddenly a thought came into his mind.

'Should I just kill her?', He thought but he immediately shakes his head after realizing what he is thinking.

'I'm not a killer! Let's just ask her later', He thought before closing his eyes to rest.

Although Adhara looks calm on the outside, inside she is in a mess. She is ransacking her brain to craft words to ask Rex what he really is.

But after a while, she decided to sleep because exhaustion takes over her.

The maze is dark and foggy as usual, a scream can be heard once in a while but no skeletons come near them. Despite the eariness of the maze, Rex felt the mildness and comfort if its not for the hard ground it will be perfect for Rex.

After ten minutes or so, Rex opens his eyes and decided to open his stats.

<Stats>

Name: Rex Silverstar

Pack: Un-Named (0/2)

Level: 11 (1520/8900)

Race: Werewolf

Full-Moon: 23 Days - Dark Moon

Berserk: 45%

Sanity: 70%

Mental: 30

Strength: 35 (+3)

Agility: 21

Endurance: 23 (+3)

Intelligence: 0

Attributable Stats: 6

<Average Human Adults have 5-7 points for each stats except for Intelligence>

Rex notices the changes in the race section, 'So, I'm a full-fledged Werewolf now huh', he thought.

The thought of him becoming a Werewolf still stabs his heart but he decided to ignore it.

He also notices the changes in his stats especially his strength stats, 'An Evolution should be an overall increase in stats right? Why does my strength increase tremendously but my other stats didn't'

Just as he thought about it, a dinging sound was heard.

<During the evolution process, the user's potential has been unlocked. You can check in the skill section>

Hearing this, Rex opens the skill section and saw a new passive skill appear.

<Absolute Strength>

<The user is gifted in strength, your strength is naturally stronger than other people. Every time the user level up, the increase in strength will be three instead of one>

Looking at this, Rex was delighted.

From little he always wanted to be strong, he doesn't want to be the guy who dodges an attack and love a full brawn fight. He thought of this to be more manly than running away and low-blowing the enemy.

So this passive skill or should he say potential is the one he wanted.

Rex felt good about the skill, he is in a better mood because of it.

He opened back the stats tab and saw the pack section under his name which he just noticed.

'Pack? Does that mean pack like a pack of wolf?', he thought when suddenly he came into a realization.

'Does that mean I can make others into a Werewolf just like me?!?!'

Chapter 26 Primeval Blessing Stone

Rex stands up in surprise,

He didn't expect that the system can make others turn into a werewolf just like him.

Rex decided to ask the system about the matter, 'System, can you explain the pack section', he asks with a hint of anticipation.

<Pack Section>

<The user has unlocked the pack section after achieving level 10, the user can turn two people into a Werewolf but they will only become a half-blood. They will then become your pack members while the user will become the Alpha, by becoming an Alpha the user will get many benefits but also responsibilities to fulfill>

After reading this, Rex was deep in thought.

'If it brings me many benefits, I need to make one ASAP. There are a couple of people that came to mind but I don't know if they even want to become like me', Rex thought as he glances at Adhara who is sleeping beside him.

He shakes his head and decided to ask Adhara later, now he shall see the profit he gains from the quests.

Rex attributed the six stats that he got from leveling up to his mental stats just to be safe, he then opens his inventory and saw one item that is written in red color.

<Primeval Blessing Stone>

<Blessing Stone that is made in ancient times, The stone is a rank 10 item that can only be found in legends. The Blessing Stone will give the user resistance to the user's weakness>

Rex was delighted after reading this, 'A RANK 10!! That's practically a myth! and here I am possessing one'

Items ranking is just like an Awakened ranking, they consist of nine rankings. One is the lowest while nine is the highest, a rank ten-item is literally godlike which no one has ever heard of, they basically non-existent. But that non-existent item is right here, right on Rex's palm.

Rex summons the Blessing Stone from the inventory, immediately a bright rainbow color glows from the stone bringing a nice and warm light. He looks at the stone more carefully, he saw a cluster of different colors there are two little orbs inside it with different runes marked on them, the orb is circling beautifully inside the stone and it attracted Rex as if it's asking him to get closer to it.

After stuffing his curiosity about rank ten-item, Rex then asked the system, 'How do I use this stone?'

Without even bothering to answer Rex's question, a notification appeared.

<Absorbing Primeval Blessing Stone>

Just right after the notification appears, the colorful light engulfs him entirely. The process is not hurt, rather it makes Rex's body relaxed. The light seems to envelop each and every nook of Rex's body, then it goes inside Rex's body after a slight buzz.

After five minutes or so, the light is starting to fade until Rex's body can be seen again.

Rex looks at his body to spot the changes but he feels nothing, before he can ask the system, notifications appeared in front of him.

<Congratulations for absorbing Primeval Blessing Stone!>

<Gain 25% Resistance against silver>

<Gain 10% Resistance against White Rye>

<Gain 30% Resistance against White Omicron>

Seeing the notifications, Rex can't help to ask the system, 'I know about the silver thing but what is a White Rye and Omicron', he asks.

<White Rye>

<A flower that is blessed by holy magic that can only be produced naturally by mother nature, The flower is rare and can only be produced once in tens of years. It possessed purifying abilities and is deadly towards some Supernaturals, especially for Werewolf, The flower can produce Water Rye that can instantly purify anything it touches>

Rex was still confused, he then asks the system, 'In simpler terms?'

<You will instantly turn to ash upon touching Water Rye>

Rex's hair stands after reading it, He can't believe that an unknown flower has the potential to instantly one-shot him.

Before Rex can even think further, another notification appeared.

<Omicron>

<Omicron is a celestial being that is purely fueled by the anger of Werewolves, they are a being that is feared and loved by the Werewolves, Their body is ethereal and sometimes they appear during full-moon. There are two types of Omicron, White and Black. Black Omicron will give a Werewolf immense power that is beyond comprehension while White Omicron will massacre every unlucky Werewolf that crosses its path. In records from ancient times, 23 White Omicrons and 3 Dark Omicrons has appeared>

After reading a long text regarding the White Rye and Omicron, Rex was deep in thought, 'The Omicron is like a lucky box, White means you die, Black means immense power. Based on the system, the Omicrons is a rare phenomenon that may not even appear during my lifetime'

Rex sigh, 'To think that a creature can massacre Werewolves who's occupying the high rank of supernatural'

Rex shakes his head and puts the matters on the back of his head, he is thankful that he got a percentage of resistance towards his weakness.

Rex stops his train of thought when he notices Adhara is moving in her spot, he then sits back down beside Adhara.

Adhara opens her eyes and saw Rex looking at her from the side, her face blushed in embarrassment.

"Why are you looking at me sleeping? It's embarrassing", She said while her face becomes redder and redder.

Rex chuckles and replied, "Nothing much, Just checking on you"

Just as he said that Rex notices a cut on Adhara's back that is bleeding, he reaches out his hand to see the cut but Adhara quickly slaps his hand away.

"What are you doing?", She asks while her body started to tremble.

Rex knit his brows in confusion, the sudden change in Adhara's expression caught him off guard, "There's a cut on your back, Let me see", Rex reaches out his hand once more.

Adhara seems terrified and screams, "Kyaaa!!", her body trembled uncontrollably.

Rex was shocked, 'Is she scared of me?', sigh well who wouldn't when they saw me like that.

Just as Rex was about to get away from Adhara to give her some space, Adhara holds his hand.

Rex glance at Adhara with a flat expression,

Adhara hangs her head low and said, "Don't misunderstand, It's just....",

While Adhara is struggling to say something, Rex noticed that the cut on her back is not just a simple cut so he forcefully pulls Adhara's gear away revealing her fair back.

But what decorates Adhara's fair back makes Rex gasp in shock, he saw many scars left by bladed objects and even whip scars.

Adhara tears flow down from her eyes, "Why? Is it that bad?", she said with a forceful smile.

Rex felt guilty after seeing her back, He should've known not to force things but somehow the cut on her back makes him worried so he wants to look at it.

Rex raises his eyes to meet Adhara's and asks, "Who did this?"

Adhara lower her head and replied, "My father..."

Hearing Adhara's answer, Rex nodded his head not seem to be surprised while Adhara started to weep in tears.

Rex sits beside Adhara again and gazes in front of him blankly, "Tell me about it, I'll listen to you all night long", he said trying to comfort Adhara.

Adhara pulls her gear to cover her back and said, "It's a long story, My father is a caring and loving father just like others. My life is happy, My father loved my mother and me deeply but suddenly my mother dies because of a raid by the Supernatural. From then on, My father becomes cold, and his hatred for Supernaturals is all he can think of. So he decided to join the army leaving me alone at home, he didn't forget about me and send me letters every month. But just about six months ago, he came back with only one of his hands. He is handicapped and because of that he is no longer needed by the army and was sent home", Adhara is crying even more while telling her story.

She got hiccups so Rex rubs his hand on her back to comfort her,

While he is comforting Adhara, he can hear footsteps coming towards his location.

Rex's hand stop as he said to Adhara, "Wait for a moment"

After saying that Rex turns into a blur vanishing from his spot.

Meanwhile, a group of five guys is walking cautiously, they are about one hundred meters away from Rex's location.

"Brother Mike, We need to find a resting place. It's already midnight, I'm so tired", a bald guy with a lean build said to Mike, who is standing in front of the group.

Mike frown, he looks around and saw an open field where that is ideal for them to not get ambushed, "Wait here, I'm going to scout the front first", he said.

Mike walks forward with extreme caution, their team is targetted all day long so he too is tired.

He walks while touching the wall to help him stay on track when suddenly a flash of shadow blitz in front of him that is too fast for him to see.

BAAM!!!

A fist landed right beside his face making a web-like crack on the wall behind him, His eyes widened and his face is pale in fright.

His legs feel like jelly as he looks at the person in front of him,

Rex looks at him in the eyes with fierce glint, then he said while staring right at Mike's eyes, "Take on more step towards this direction, The next one will be on your head"

Mike nodded his head desperately, he slid down the wall feeling his legs give up before he started crawling away in tears.

Rex's expression returns to normal before he dashes again like a shadow heading back to Adhara.

Chapter 27 First Pack Member

Somewhere in Ratmawati City,

A thin man is scratching his head like a madman, papers scatter around his room that makes it messy, different kind of machine also decorates his room from a tube with body parts inside of it to a useless machine that is malfunctioning, chemical substances also assigned neatly on the shelf with different colors.

This particular man fits the category of a mad scientist especially with his white coat, he wears a mask that is coverin his mouth leaving only his piercing green eyes, the mask is emitting a green gas that looks corrosive, his skin is also greenish if inspected closer.

The man is scratching his head seeming desperate about something, the veins on his forehead are bulging as if he's thinking hard about something.

But his thoughts are disturbed when the door opened forcefully,

BAM!!

"Prof.K! It's been months since your latest discovery! A deal is a deal, you must get out of this rat hole and find one member and test him properly to join our organization!", a muscular middle-aged man with immense pressure said just after opening the door, his body language is that of a leader or rather, a king.

The middle-aged man wears a neat set of sleeveless combat vest with a hint of red on its sides that shows his muscular arms, on his shoulder are a nine-headed crow tattoo that looks terrifying. Black crown with red jewels is also shining on top of his head, he wears a black cape with white fur on its sides that gives off a domineering aura which makes people lowers their head in his presence.

If Rex was to be here at this moment, he will instantly be crushed because of the pressure emitted by the middle-aged man.

Prof.K panicked, he replied desperately, "Jax! Wait! I made one! This potion can attract nymph", he takes out a pink potion from his pocket and presents it to the middle-aged man.

Jax scoffed and replied, "How many times do I have to say call me John! And this?", He takes the potion from Prof.K's hands while looking at it with contempt.

Prof.K is delighted when the potion is taken from his hand but not long after that delighting feeling crumbled.

CLANK!!

The potion is smashed to the ground by John, "There is already a plant that can attract nymph! Why waste resources to make this?", he said with anger written all over his face.

Prof.K was helpless, his face seems devastated.

John face-palm himself while shaking his head, "Why be so dramatic? You just need to go out and test this particular kid in Ochyra University that is sponsored by agent Joseph there"

Prof.K grabbed John's leg and begged, "NO! I DON'T WANT TO GO OUT!"

"This is not negotiable, test that kid in these few days, if you don't then I will destroy this rat hole", he said while trying to shrug Prof.K who is holding onto his feet.

"Take this seriously Prof.K, the Supernatural are becoming more active recently. We need to nurture more gifted people to face them", John said with a gloomy expression.

Hearing this, Prof.K sigh and stands up straight.

He flicks his finger and instantly his clothes change into an all-black robe, he also wears a black crow mask, and then he bows to John, "I understand, I will assess the kid's aptitude and report back immediately", he said unwillingly as if the job is the hardest job he has ever got.

Prof.K then salute and said, "May humanity rise, as the black crow's eyes cast"

Seeing Prof.K, John smiles and replied, "Until supernatural demise, our Stygian Crow Organization will last"

After saying that, Prof.K puffs into a green smoke vanishing from the room.

Meanwhile, Rex has gone back to Adhara.

Adhara already calmed down a bit but she still bit her lips troubled about something,

Rex tells Adhara to continue, he's lying to himself if he says that he is not curious about Adhara's past.

With that Adhara continue on her story,

Her father becomes violent when he gets back, he feels like a failure because of his incompetence. He then wanted Adhara to take revenge for her mother, so he began training Adhara harshly. Whenever Adhara made a mistake or slack off, he will hit Adhara as if she's a pet. Sometimes he also got frustrated and got drunk, one day he also once touch Adhara inappropriately when he was drunk. Because of that, Adhara becomes traumatized whenever she saw a guy reaching out his hand to her, he always remembers his father's torture which also brings back the memory of her mother dying.

"I know that he is not a bad father on the contrary he is a loving father, he's just hopeless against the situation that pushed him into the corner. Because of that, I really want to get stronger, stronger to take revenge and make father proud", Adhara said while sobbing in tears.

Rex felt that Adhara and him are similar, the thirst to get stronger to take revenge burdens them for life. Rex and Adhara also traumatize by past memories, they seem to live in a nightmare that will not come to an end if they didn't get their revenge.

"That's why...", Adhara stops a moment to musters her courage before he continues, "Your emotional Aura and my father is almost the same, that's why I thought that you...you can help me in taking revenge"

Adhara then holds Rex's hand and gripped it tightly with tears falling down on the side of her face, "Call it a gut feeling, but I'm sure that you can help me!"

Rex was silent, he lowers his head in thought, "What are you willing to sacrifice for power?"

'If her determination is the same as I then I will', before Rex can finish his thoughts, Adhara answers,

"Everything!", her eyes flashed with determination, Rex can see himself in her eyes.

Rex smirked after hearing Adhara's answer, "Adhara, do you want to know what I really am?", He asks, he then stands up while looking at Adhara right in her eyes.

While he was standing up, Rex is asking the system, 'System I want to turn her into a Werewolf. What should I do?'

<The user need to brand her with a Rune you choose, Then you will need to bring her as close to the moon after the user makes her drink a drop of the user blood>

After reading the system notification, Rex understands the process of it but then asks again, 'What is the available Rune, Where do I put it, and can it be changed in the future?'

<Strength Rune and Agility Rune is currently available, Rune can be changed at expense of immense mana>

<Analyzing the perfect place for Adhara's branding...>

<Analyzed! Location: Neck!>

Rex then chooses the Agility Rune to brand Adhara with, the palm of his hand then started to burn and the rune symbol appeared on it.

Adhara knit her brows in confusion, Rex then continues, "I am a Werewolf!"

After Rex said that, the dark red aura started to manifest into a Werewolf behind him.

Adhara gasp in surprise, although she already guessed Rex's declaration still came as a surprise to her.

The pressure emitted by Rex makes it hard to breathe, Adhara widened her eyes as Rex's hand gripped her neck tightly.

"Huackk!", Adhara was shocked, she was not expecting Rex to gripped her neck so hard. She is having a hard time breathing but deep down she trusted Rex.

"Brand!"

Just as Rex said that Adhara can feel her neck burning, she struggles to break free but Rex's hand gripped her tightly.

The heat is getting hotter as she tries to struggle even more, the moonlight shone down on Adhara from the window, her body started to emit a white hue and the bone on her body is making a cracking sound.

"AAAKKHHH!!", Adhara lets out a scream of pain, the pain is starting to become unbearable after her bones move.

<Transformation Success, Feed her a drop of the user's blood>

After getting the notification, Rex puts Adhara down who is still screaming in pain. He then scratches the palm of his hand and squeezes a drop of blood into Adhara's mouth.

Drop!

The blood landed on her mouth, Immediately after, Adhara's scream started to fade as she slowly opens her eyes.

Rex inspected Adhara, the rune on her neck is etched perfectly just near her back that glows green, then suddenly a notification appeared that makes his mouth curve into a smile,

<Congratulation on obtaining the user's first pack member!>

<Please give a name for your pack>

Reading this, Rex knit his forehead in thought.

After a while and feeling lazy, Rex then decided on the pack name, 'Silverstar'

<Confirmed Pack Name, Silverstar!>

Rex then nodded his head in confirmation after seeing the pack section becomes Silverstar, he then focuses back on Adhara and saw she is already sitting down.

Adhara widened her eyes after feeling the changes in her body, her senses are amplified, even the scream of faraway students that are fighting skeletons can be heard by her.

She looks at Rex and asks, "Did I really transform into a Werewolf?"

Rex smiles and tosses his battle gloves, just as the gloves caught by Adhara, "Ouch!"

The battle gloves that contain a little bit of silver stings Adhara's hand,

'Hmm? The effect of Silver on her is different than mine. My stats will decrease when I touch silver but it didn't damage me so why is it damage her?', Rex thought before shrugging it off.

"I really become a Werewolf", she murmurs softly.

Adhara inspects her body and notices that nothing changes except her hair just got longer, she then widened her eyes and look inside her pants before she sighs in relief.

"What the heck are you doing?!", Rex shouted when he saw Adhara checks her pants.

Rex face-palm himself and said, "You're taking this rather calmly"

"Well, as long as I become stronger. I don't care about anything else, even abandoning my humanity is nothing", she said resolutely.

Rex smiles knowing that Adhara has the same thinking process as him.

Just as he wants to explain things to Adhara, he saw Adhara's face blush while holding her neck.

"What now?", Rex asks after looking at Adhara's weird behavior.

Adhara glance timidly at Rex with a blush on her face, "I don't know...but when you gripped my neck it somehow felt..."

Rex looks at Adhara with a questioning look, trying to guess what she is trying to say when suddenly.

"It felt good, I might get addicted", she said while covering her blushed face.

Hearing this, Rex was speechless, 'WHAT THE HELL!!'

Chapter 28 End Of Field Test

'WHAT THE HELL!!'

'System, what happened to her? Is it some kind of side effect?', he asks the system.

<Yes, By becoming your underling Adhara's hidden desire about you becomes stronger>

Reading this, Rex was conflicted, 'What if Adhara secretly wanted to kill me? Does that mean her desire to kill me becomes stronger?'

The system didn't answer, which brings chills to Rex's spine.

'Adhara didn't become berserk is probably because it's not full-moon yet, I must be careful in turning someone into a Werewolf', Rex thought fearing that someone might just stab him on his back.

Adhara is trying out her new power, she dashes left and right like a gust of wind.

Her speed becomes unbelievably faster because of the agility rune, Her speed is probably as fast as Rex or faster.

Rex nodded his head in confirmation, Adhara's rise in speed is enough to match peak rank three or even early rank four awakened.

Then, Adahara started to use her elemental prowess to enhances her body, instantly, her speed almost double. If before her movement is as fast as Rex, then now her movement is way faster than Rex.

Rex was surprised, 'Damn, I need to become an Awakened too'

While Rex wanted to check the shop, Adhara shouted, "REX!"

Rex turns his head with a confused look, Adhara then continues, "My strength rises into a middle rank three Awakened! That's a huge jump from Peak Rank Two!"

Hearing this, Rex nodded his head with a smile.

Adhara was pissed after looking at Rex's underwhelming reaction, "Do you even know the difference between ranks?"

Hearing this, Rex suddenly realizes that he didn't know anything about Awakened ranks.

For him who is not an Awakened, knowing those things is useless because he will never become one and it prickles his ego but now with the emergence of the System he can become an Awakened.

Adhara shakes her head after seeing Rex's reaction, she then explains, "A rank one Awakened will first make contact with their elemental affinity, in this part, they are only a little bit stronger than regular people, then they will then accumulate mana of their element to raise their rank to rank Two. In rank two, they can make little tricks with their element like covering their body with their elemental mana increasing their body prowess, or make a barrier just a couple of meters outside their body. Rank three is where the fun begins, in rank three your bond with an element is strong enough to conjure them into basic magic, here you can learn spells"

Hearing Adhara's explanation, Rex nodded his head in understanding like a kid nodding to his teacher.

"And now, I can learn spells!", she said excitedly, before she begins trying out her fire element.

Rex smiles wryly, his smile has a tint of envy before he asks the system, 'System, how can I become an Awakened?'

<In the shop section, You can buy elemental affinities>

Hearing this Rex immediately opens the shop tab and search elemental affinities, there he saw many affinities that go from common to legendary.

'The cheapest elemental affinities are 1000 Gold, I only have 500 Gold now, sigh', Rex sigh, he is so poor!

Rex then curls up on the ground with tears, he just wanted to become a turtle to go inside his shell and forget about the world.

Before he goes to sleep, he remembers something and said, "Adhara, three weeks from now is the full moon. Make sure you come to my side before dawn"

Adhara got interrupted in her meditation and replies, "Ok, I'll remember that"

With that Rex closes his eyes feeling tired about the day.

The next day,

The sun shone down the barracks, the sun brought some light to the maze reducing its eeriness.

Rex opens his eyes and notices that Adhara is not by his side, he scratches his eyes while standing up.

"Adhara!!", he shouted while still feeling sleepy.

After a moment, Adhara dashes from one of the T-Junction and appears in front of him.

Rex looks at her and saw the watches in her hand show one hundred and fifty, Rex was surprised and asked, "Did you hunt the skeletons all night?"

"Yep! I just wanted to adjust to my current power and help you get points", she said with a smile on her face.

"When did I tell you to get points?", Rex asked.

Adhara's smile become wider and replied, "I saw your helpless face when you look at me yesterday, you want to get the first place right? So did I do good?"

Rex was surprised but that surprise turns into a smile, "HAHA, you did good", he said with his hand reaching out to rub her head but then he remembers Adhara's fear so his hand stopped midway.

Looking at this, Adhara said with a smile, "It's okay, I'm not afraid of you anymore"

Hearing this, Rex resumes his hand but then Adhara dodges it.

Rex was confused when suddenly Adhara said, "Choke me instead", she said while revealing her alluring neck.

Cough!!

Rex coughs after hearing what Adhara said, he didn't expect that kind of reaction, 'What the hell did I turn her into'

On the last day of the field test, the lecturers are busy saving students because the students become more wreckless due to time pressure.

Many of the students are already out of the field test because of their injury, some even got back to the field test to help their team after healing their injury, the field test becomes more competitive.

Rex and Adhara are beating skeletons left and right trying their best to catch up to the number one spot, they already become the second position and only seventy points left to catch up with the number one.

"Adhara! your left!", Rex said after he punches the skeletons near him to shreds.

Adhara looks to her left and saw dozens of skeleton approaching her, she then smiles and musters her mana, and blast them all with fire.

The skeletons are charred after getting hit by Adhara's fire, dozens of skeletons are reducing at a fast speed before the last of them turns into ashes.

The other students who saw Adhara and Rex in action have their jaw dropped to the floor,

"What a monstrous duo!"

"Who are they? They're not in Ivy's team or Gregg's"

"They're probably the holder of the second position! Rex and Adhara!"

Adhara and Rex quickly accumulating points, based on the corpse of skeletons around them it is probably enough to reach the first position.

The other students look at their watches as Adhara and Rex were collecting the points from the skeletons they killed.

"Look! Only fifty points left before they get the first position!"

"Forty!!!"

"Oh my god, the time! It's running out!"

"Thrity!!!"

"Fifteen!! They can do it!!!"

"Ten!!!"

DONGG!!

"The field test is over! All students get back to the entrance this instant!", Dave's voice was heard signing as the end of the test.

Rex stopped mid-track just an inch more before he touches the last couple of skeletons, he looks at his watch and saw that he is still behind by three points from the first position.

Rex sigh, "Well we tried"

"It's okay, the second position is not that bad", Adhara said while tapping Rex's shoulder to console him.

The both of them dashes back to the entrance, the students already gathered there crowding the entrance.

Before long, the lecturers appear in front with a disappointed look on their faces.

"SILENCE!!!", the muscular middle-aged man said with a fierce glint on his eyes.

"I will now announce the result of the field test! The first position goes to Gregg with five hundred and thirteen points, The second goes to Rex with five hundred and ten points and the third goes to Ivy with four hundred and seventy-four points!", he declares loudly.

The students burn with chatter, Gregg's team is happy with their score ignoring the fact that they are almost slipped to the second position.

"SILENCE!!!", Dave shouted after hearing the happy discussion of the students.

He then takes out a paper and said loudly, "WHY ARE YOU ALL HAPPY?! Look at this! The Faraday University third position reach one thousand points! and you students have the guts to be happy?!"

Hearing this, the students were silent.

Then Dave continues, "Gregg Team! You are a group made of five class 1-D students but you barely hold onto the first position! Rex's team only has two members from 1-C and they got similar points with you?!"

Gregg, the team leader for the first position group was at a loss for word, he looks at Rex with disbelief.

'This fucker almost got ahead of me with two members?!', he thought while glaring at Rex.

Rex on the other hand frowns, 'Sir Dave, please stop, I don't want more enemies right now'

Then Hera a.k.a the Red Rose steps forward and said, "In our eyes, you are all a disappointment. I can't believe trashes like you all pass the Ochyra University exam. Idris and Harmen who is believed to reach the top three positions didn't even reach the top three, how pathetic"

The atmosphere becomes gloomy, the students hang their heads low as the lecturers reprimand them.

Hera then caught Rex's eyes, she is also surprised that Rex can reach the second position with only two members. She wanted to ask Rex a question regarding his strength but she knows that Rex will not answer.

Rex calmly stood there, he notices that Hera is stealing glances at him.

'Nope not going to happen, I won't go near her. I got too much on my hand already', Rex thought after feeling that Hera wanted to pry into his life.

The lecturers are still scolding the students when suddenly,

BOOOOMMM!!

The sound of an explosion was heard from outside, the ground tremble, everyone was shocked by the sudden explosion.

An oppressive aura envelopes the entire city, it is suffocating. The pressure brought by the thing outside is enormous that almost all the students fall to the ground.

Rex widened his eyes in surprise, his body also felt heavy.

'This Aura!', Rex looks at Adhara which in return Adhara also seems to notice the aura too.

Adhara and Rex's body trembled in fright, this aura is, they can't be wrong!

'VAMPIRE!'

Chapter 29 Demelza Family

This oppressive aura can't be forgotten by Rex and Adhara, the aura is similar to the vampire that they visited earlier.

'What happened? There's no way that he escaped right?', Rex thought fearing the possibility then suddenly he felt another aura, 'No, this is not just one! There are three of them!', Rex sucked in a cold breath.

The lecturer's expression changes, "Students! Stay here!", shouted the muscular middle-aged man, his aura blasted sending a shockwave to the surrounding before he blitzes out of the barracks.

"Oh my god! What's happening?"

"This, I felt it before! This aura is from a supernatural above rank five!"

"WHAT?! How can this be?!"

"The lecturers are only rank five at most! Are we going to die?"

The students started to panic, some started to shiver while some were already knocked out, but there is some who can maintain their stand even under the oppressive aura.

Ratmawati City is one of the eight biggest cities, the city is heavily guarded and the citizens there felt safe behind the enormous wall of Ratmawati City. Because of that, the high-ranking family kids are out of danger which results in them being unable to hold their ground when confronted by a high-ranking supernatural.

Rex and Adhara followed by a couple of other students walk out of the barracks to see the incident outside,

Once they all got outside, they immediately saw soldiers gathered and nine people that are flying in front of three creatures.

The creatures are humanoid with black wings on their back, their skins are pale, they consist of one female and two males, they wear a black sleeveless shirt and some kind of combat pants, the female vampire brings an umbrella and there is a barrier covering their body from the sunlight.

Rex noticed that one of the male vampires is the vampire he saw from the barracks before, 'It seems they are here on a rescue mission', Rex thought.

"YOU DARE TO ENTER OUR TERRITORY?!", shouted a man wearing a military suit.

"Yes, of course, we didn't dare", said the female vampire.

The vampire that just got out then follows, "You humans dare to capture me?! Sir Leon a pawn under Queen Demelza!"

The female vampire raises her hand, signaling Leon to stop.

Hearing this, the man wearing a military suit seems surprised, "No matter who your master is! This is not a place where you can act arrogant!! Feel the might of I, Andre the Black Water!"

After saying that, the man musters his mana, "Great Magic! Caustic Tidal Dragon!"

ROARR!

Out of nowhere, a black water dragon shot out from the man's hand.

Rex can feel the immense power brought by the spell, even if Rex's power tripled, he knows that the spell will smash him to pieces.

The dragon shot out like a jet of water aiming at the vampires,
The other also musters all of their mana and shot different spells at the vampires,
Hera concentrated her mana and shouted, "Great Magic! Mortal Lava!", The ground trembles as it shot lava.

Dave also joins in the fray, the wind around him started to get violent, "Great Magic! Wind Vortex!",

The other lecturers and high-ranking military also send out their respective spells, the force coming from nine high-ranking spells create a force that Rex never feel before.

It's like he's just an ignorant boy that saw a battle between demigods!

The female vampire's face is covered by a veil but one can know that she is smirking under the veil, it seems to not take on the spells seriously.

The force from the spells makes her veil flutters, her veil can't withstand the pressure as it blew away revealing a devastatingly beautiful face. Her face is so beautiful that even kings will definitely fight over her, but her face now etched with an evil smile that makes her looks scary.

She then points her slender finger forward and whispers, "Blood Magic: Disperse!", a drop of blood comes out of her finger.

Whooshh!

The drop of blood shot and merge with the spells, Immediately after, all of the spells that are aiming at her disperse as if it's just a dream.

Rex was shocked while looking at this scene, 'That vampire is at least rank six if she can disperse all of that powerful spells!', he looks at the vampire girl with shock and hatred.

The vampire girl notice Rex's gaze, she glances in Rex's direction too meeting him in the eyes, she then murmurs, "How can he get that form? Interesting", she then waves her hand that makes the drop of blood move again.

The drop of blood didn't stop, it then flew out and hit each of the lecturers and militarymen before it enters all of their bodies. It was so fast that they all didn't have the chance to dodge the blood.

"WHAT?! HOW CAN THIS BE?!", Dave gasp in surprise, the other also fall into shock.

"What did you do!!!", shouted Andre while holding his chest that is hit by the blood.

Suddenly, all of them spits out blood,

"HUAACKH!"

Andre grit his teeth in pain, his eyes are bloodshot as he says, "That damn blood can trace back our mana and disrupt it!"

The female vampire smiles mockingly, her bearing become more confident as she says, "We didn't dare to come here but unlike humans, we treasure our kin and rescue them when in need"

"HAHAHA, you could've just rescue that fucker and left, but you decided to mock us! Now you can't run away!", Andre said after feeling a familiar aura approaching.

The female vampire raises her brows when suddenly, "Absolute Bullet"

BANG!!

The female vampire makes a barrier around her when she saw a bullet aiming at her head,

CLANG!!

The bullet hits the barrier, the bullet is emitting a blue fiery aura as it rams through the barrier.

The barrier crack, the female vampire raises her hand to block but was shocked when she feels the power from the bullet.

BAM!

She was thrown away by the bullet crashing to the ground,

Looking at this, the human's side cheers in joy, Andre greeted a man that is walking while smoking a cigarette, "General George, you are back!", he said enthusiastically.

"I just came back and you guys are pathetically under the mercy of a little vampire?", he asks while walking casually to the scene.

General George wears a light brown shirt while holding his military coat on his back, his right hand is holding a gun while his left hand is holding a cigarette, he looks middle-aged with black neat hair, he emits the most powerful aura that Rex has ever felt just by walking casually.

"This man is General George?", Rex said with disbelief, he knows that General George is a middle rank seven Awakened one of the most influential military characters in Ratmawati City, but seeing him in real life is a different thing.

General George then started to walk and stop just under the vampires,

The other two vampires are shaking on their boots seeing General George approaches,

"You guys do have fun bullying my people," he said threateningly, "Stop feeling high and mighty and get down here", General George started to let out a glimpse of his real aura but that glimpse of aura makes the two vampires shot down crashing to the ground unable to hold the pressure he emits.

The female vampire stands up from the debris strugglingly, wounds are covering her whole body but it starting to heal.

General George glance at the female vampire,

"Stop! They are the descendants of the Demelza Family! and I am Marta her student! If you know what's good for you, then let us go!", she said demandingly.

Hearing this, General George frowns, "Demelza eh? You tell your queen that the humans will not let this slide the next time!", he said unwillingly.

Andre walks up and said, "But General!"

Before he can even finish, General George shouted, "SILENCE!!!"

Andre's words are stuck on his throat before he lowers his head and move back,

The female vampire scoffs before she helps Leon and the male vampire under the other's gaze, She then destroys a red stone that summons a rune under them, the rune glows enveloping them before the three of them vanish from sight.

"General George, Why did you let them go? That's a perfect time to weaken the Demelza Family!", Andre protested, unable to accept the General's decision.

General George looks at him and said, "Queen Demelza is a peak rank-seven powerful vampire, She has the ability to kill someone through a dream, the requirement is just the blood of the victim. The nine of you just got attack by Marta's blood, which gives Queen Demelza access to your life and death"

Hearing this, the lecturers and the military men got goosebumps, just a little carelessness gives their life to the devil herself.

Then General George continues, "That Marta girl is smart, She knows that fact so there is no fear on her expression when facing me. She knows that if I kill them, you nine will also be dead by the end of this day"

Andre felt his throat gone dry, he felt dumb for doubting the general's decision, "My apologies for doubting you General", he said humbly.

General George laughs and slaps his back, "No worries, At least we're all fine except losing one of the captured vampires which you need to report, we're good!"

Andre smile wryly, 'You didn't need to shift all the blame to me', he thought helplessly.

After the incident, the lecturers then collect all the students and check on them.

The aura of a powerful supernatural can disrupt the low-ranking Awakened, they can even get injured so a full checkup will be done before they depart back to Ochyra University.

After checking the students, then all of the students and lecturers board a train to get back to Ochyra University.

Rosie has already regained her consciousness, her injury is healing but she still needs some rest.

Inside the train,

"Apparently, those kind of attack is a regular occasion for cities outside Ratmawati City. I can't believe the horror experienced by the people outside of Ratmawati City, We almost die if not for General George", Adhara said remembering the scene before.

Rex nodded his head and answer, "I also can't imagine myself"

Although Rex has experienced the war, he didn't once saw a Supernatural above rank four so this is also his first time seeing high-rank supernaturals.

He adjusts Rosie's head that is leaning to his shoulder before he looks at the bright sky, today he got another motivation to become stronger.

Chapter 30 Laura's Disease

Four days have passed since the field test,

Rex is doing his usual routine, working out, going to class, and once in a while pick a fight with random people.

Without something like the field test, raising his level is slow as a snail.

Now Rex is inside his classroom listening to Mr. Joseph's lecture, today is the day they learn about the four cursed creatures that the students must avoid because they might meet one in the future.

Aside from the Supernatural, Awakened also has to be wary of Cursed Creature. Many of them can't be defeated using fist or magic, and they have a strange power that is out of the normal that is why students need to learn about the most dangerous one.

Mr. Joseph can't stop reminding the students to run when they meet one of these creatures.

"Before I began explaining, I will tell you one more time. Do not engage against these creatures when you meet one, I don't care how confident you are", Mr. Joseph said with a serious expression.

The students felt the importance of this matter and replied in a union, "Yes, Mr. Joseph!"

After nodding his head in confirmation, Mr. Joseph continues, "When the Supernatural emerges, It also brings forth different kinds of effects other than Supernatural themselves. Awakened who can use magic emerges alongside Supernatural, but Curses in fairytale also becomes real that is why you need to know the most dangerous one. There are four of them, We call them the Four Malison of Terror"

The students are listening to Mr. Joseph attentively because everyone knows that although supernatural is a threat it is not as hard to defeat as the Cursed Creatures, even the Supernatural tend to avoid these Cursed Creatures.

"These four consists of Forsaken Man, The Damned Quadruplets, White Werewolf, and Witch of Neutrality", Mr. Joseph started to write each of the curses on the digital board.

Then he continues, "Forsaken Man is a creature that emits a unique aura, this aura will instantly hypnotize you who don't have enough mental prowess into committing suicide. The Damned Quadruplet is a creature born from mating between The Queen of Dryad and a high-ranking Incubus, it is a creature blessed and cursed at the same time, they can control Nature, Earth, Poison, and Water imbued with dark energy. White Werewolf is a product of forbidden love between Werewolfs, they are animalistic and three times stronger than normal Werewolf, they also have immunity to most magic. The last one is Witch of Neutrality, she is an ancient wizard that dwells in Dark and Holy magic, She likes to curse humans and bless the Supernatural"

After finish explaining, Laura raises her hand and asks, "Mr. Joseph, How do we beat each of them and Which one should be avoided at all costs?"

The students nodded their heads in affirmation after hearing Laura's question,

Hearing this, Mr. Joseph's face turn grave, "The answer for your first questions, there is no way we can beat them besides learning the origin of their curses. For your second question, When meeting one of them you should all...run"

The students gasp in shock, Mr. Joseph didn't even mention anything regarding high-ranking Awakened which means no matter how powerful an Awakened, they can't beat a cursed creature head-on!

RINGG!!!

The bell rang, Mr. Joseph closes the class and let everybody leave.

Rex is tidying up his things when suddenly, Mr. Joseph approaches him and whispers, "He will come, so be prepared", Mr. Joseph then leaves after saying those words.

Rex looks at Mr. Joseph's back and subconsciously touches the tattoo on his chest, 'Is he talking about the green messenger?', Rex thought.

He puts the matter on the back of his head, He then walks out of the class.

Rex is thinking about how to get Exp faster because his Exp is rising at a snail speed but then he remembers the system talking about a breathing technique, just when he was about to open the shop section he suddenly saw Laura staggering in front of him while holding her head.

Her face is pale, she looks dizzy for some reason.

Rex is looking at her from the back when suddenly, Laura loses her balance and fell unconscious but Rex quickly arrives beside her and holds her.

"Laura, are you okay?", he asks but Laura didn't answer.

Her brows are creased in pain, Rex can feel her body is heating up, He then decided to bring Laura to the clinic.

'What happened to her? Her body is trembling and her face is so pale as if there's no blood in her', Rex thought while he's running to the clinic carrying Laura.

He felt something on Laura's back, it felt like a scar and it is heating up.

Suddenly, a notification appeared.

<Laura is suffering from a disease, her mana is deteriorating and so is her body>

Reading this, Rex frowns.

He then runs faster to the clinic worry that Laura may get worst.

"Doctor! Help my friend!", Rex shouted as soon as he arrives at the clinic.

An old man wearing a white coat rushes from a room inside the clinic, the clinic is big enough to accommodate a hundred patients and there is three doctors room in it.

"What happened to her?", the old man asks while checking on her pulse.

Rex replied worriedly, "I don't know, She suddenly staggered and fall unconscious"

The doctor tells Rex to lay her down on the bed inside the doctor's room, then he envelops his hand in mana and started healing Laura but to his surprise, Laura didn't become any better.

"I will proceed with further inspection, please kindly wait outside", the doctor says to Rex, signaling him to give the doctor some working space.

Rex although worried left the room and let the doctor do his thing,

Rex grabs his phone and searches for Tom's contact, he didn't find it. He then searches for Laura's bag and found her phone, thankfully Tom's number is set as an emergency call.

He dialed Tom, not long after Tom picks up.

"Sister, What's up?", Tom said casually.

Rex then replied, "Tom, come to the clinic. Your sister fell unconscious"

Hearing Rex's voice, Tom then replied angrily, "WHAT DID YOU DO?!"

Rex clicked his tongue in displeasure, he then said, "Just come to the clinic before you throw your tantrum", He then ended the call one-sidedly.

'All this time, Laura looks okay but what happened? Why did she suddenly fall unconscious?', Rex thought, every time he looks at Laura she is always wearing that cold expression and acts cool but under all that, she is surprisingly sick.

After ten minutes or so, Tom arrived at the clinic with a heavy breath.

"Where is she?!", he asks Rex with an unfriendly tone, he then clenched Rex's collar after seeing Rex not answering.

Rex looks at Tom calmly, this little brother of Laura is always hot-tempered.

Rex shrug Tom's hand off his collar and said, "Calm down, she suddenly fell unconscious so I brought her here"

Hearing this, Tom's expression turned worried, he looks troubled by what Rex said.

Rex studied Tom's expression and asks, "You know her disease?"

Tom didn't reply, he walks back and forth feeling nauseous totally ignoring Rex.

Rex remembers the scar that he felt when he was carrying Laura, 'Based on the scar, it is probably caused by a claw or talon'

He then tries to bait the answer out of Tom, "So, as her brother, you fail to protect her?", he said casually.

Hearing this, Tom's veins are bulging as he stares sharply at Rex and said, "It's not my fault! That damn werewolf came out of nowh...", Tom covered his mouth when he realizes he said something he shouldn't have.

Hearing this, Rex's eyes turns fierce, "Werewolf? Tell me everything", he said demandingly.

Tom sighs and said, "It happens a long time ago, when we were still early teens, our family is on a trip when suddenly the Werewolf raid the place. Father and Mother defend me and Laura well but suddenly a lurking Werewolf attacks from the back and scratches Laura's back. We all survive the event and we're thankful but the scratch on Laura's back worsened and becomes a disease called Wolf rash. It started to attack her internal body, and also her mana. The doctor said that she can't live past her twenties", Tom said with tears started to run down his cheeks.

He then continues, "Laura doesn't want you to know about this, so she started to avoid you and says harsh words. I never liked you since we're kids but I know for a fact that Laura cares about you", he said while avoiding Rex's gaze.

Hearing this, Rex was stunned, the pieces of the puzzle started to form.

'So all this while, she is avoiding me to protect me from being hurt when she's gone?', Rex thought in realization, his eyes are teary but he quickly wipes them.

Tom's words are like a needle stabbing his heart, 'How can you be so selfless? You shouldn't worry about me and focus on yourself!', Rex thought while he looks at the door where Laura is in an inspection.

Rex's eyes flash with determination, he then asks the system, "System do you know how to cure Wolf Rash?"

<Wolf Rash can be treated using a mixture of Werewolf's blood and Purified Water, the Purified Water needed will increase depending on the gap of power between the Werewolf's blood and the Werewolf who inflicts the Wolf Rash>

'Purified Water?', Rex then checks on the shop and searches Purified Water.

He then found the Purified Water that costs a hundred gold per a hundred milliliters.

Rex bought five hundred milliliters, Rex's gold instantly reduced to zero. The Purified Water was transferred into the inventory.

He then grabs Tom's shoulder and said, "I will try to cure her"

Hearing this, Tom stares at him blankly, "Eh?", then he snapped from his shock, "Can you really do it?!"

Rex then nodded his head and walks towards the doctor's room, he stops in front of the door and thought, 'No matter what, You have to live!'
