

Full-Moon 271

Chapter 271 Teleport Formation

The next day,

Inside one of the hospitals in Slila City, the mayor looks at the surviving Awakened from the fight against the red raven with a frown.

The survivors have their skins turn black, and thick yellow pus sipped through their skin.

Based on the observable condition of the survivors, it's safe to say that they will probably need a couple of months to recover from these injuries.

It's a gruesome injury, and the mayor didn't expect it to go so bad.

"They said that the raven is the sixth rank, possibly in the mid realm", Max said from the side.

The problem comes from Max that reported that his Armadillos are attacked by the raven, and it's also his responsibility to assess and check the injured Awakened.

Aside from that, he also felt guilty upon finding that ten Awakened died from the fight.

Hearing this, the mayor tap Max's shoulder before he replied, "It's not your fault, Awakened die every day and by killing that raven they have also done a great deed for the city"

"They didn't die because of you, and they also didn't die a meaningless death", he added.

After calming down the guilty Max, the mayor left the room with wide strides.

He felt hurt after knowing that ten Awakened die from the fight against the raven, this scene dwindle the Awakenedpower in the city by a chunk.

With a sigh, the mayor wanted to leave but saw Rex and the others waiting in the hall.

The mayor approached them before looking at them weirdly, there is almost no observable injury on Rex and the others.

"Are you guys going to go straight to Wedron City?", the mayor asked.

Rex steps forward, he glances at Kyran and Adhara before he turns back and replied, "Yep, we have our priorities and we can't stay here for long"

"How did you guys have little to no injuries? While ten of my men got killed", the mayor said.

Hearing this, Rex pause for a moment before he replied, "I'm sorry about the fallen Awakenened, but the raven is almost as strong as a mid-sixth rank. As for us not getting injured, we did"

"But it already healed, we have a few elixirs from the university", Rex lied with a straight face.

The mayor glance at Kyran and Adhara before he sighs, "You can go straight to the formation, I already told them to teleport you to Wedron City"

After hearing what the mayor said, Rex nodded his head before he and the others left.

"He's the rising star, after all, it's obvious that the university put heavy attention to him. The university probably gave them a sixth rank elixirs or even stronger", the mayor mumbles.

Leaving the hospital, Rex and the others went straight to the formation place.

The guards let them inside upon meeting them, and they even guide Rex and the others inside to be teleported to Wedron City.

Inside the formation place, there's not much that catches Rex's eyes.

The place is very spacious that is at least the size of two soccer fields, the place is mainly made of grey stones that the system identifies as Hectile Stones.

In the center of the place, Rex saw a weird rock that is the size of him.

Four Awakened guards inside the formation place, the four of them have a spear in their hand that Rex thought as a fifth rank weapon, and the four of them stand still unmoving on the corners of the place.

But Rex can feel their eyes follow his movement, hawking him from the corner.

Rex is not sure that the four of them are all the Awakened guarding this place because there's a stair leading upstairs in front of them that looked like it will lead into another room.

After looking around briefly, the guards told them to stand by the weird rock in the center.

"Have you seen anything like this?", Rex whispers while looking around at the weird rock.

Adhara shakes her head as she looks around curiously, "No, Where is the formation anyway? All I see is an empty room made of stone", she replied in confusion.

While they are walking to the center, no sound can be heard in the room aside from their steps.

It didn't take long before they arrives beside the weird rock.

Delta who is walking beside them got attracted by the weird rock in the center.

Looking at this, Rex started to get curious about the rock. He touched the rock and scans it using the system before the description of the rock appear.

<Anchor of Four Element>

This rock is a product of heavily condensed elemental stones of the four elements which are wind, fire, earth, and water combined into one. Under the enormous amount of these four elemental stones, the different properties of the elements are forced to merge and create this rock known as the Anchor of Four Element. A piece of this rock contains tens of thousands more times mana than a high-grade elemental stone, and this rock is usually used as a core of formation to channel and contain the formation that uses the four elements.

Reading this description, Rex was really intrigued by how they managed to create this.

With the different properties of each basic element, it should create an explosion instead of this rock so it's quite bizarre how this rock is created.

But when Rex is thinking, the rock in front of him suddenly glows.

NGIING!!

The rune carved on the Anchor of Four Elements glows with a teal color that brings a magical feeling, it lit up the dim place subtly like fireflies in the night.

Rex and the others stepped back as they saw the teal light spread to the ground.

Turns out the ground they are standing on is the formation but it's not activated before, but under the Anchor of Four Elements light, the formation on the ground lit up with the same color.

It spreads to the entire place leaving just a couple of meters for the guards to stand.

After the formation is activated by the Anchor of Four Elements, the four surrounding guards take a bag from their side before they approach the edge of the formation.

The guards then pour the content of the bag they are holding,

Cling! Cling!

Elemental stones of different kinds fall out from the bags making a clinging sound as they bump into each other, it fueled the formation with energy.

"This is beautiful!", Adhara said in awe as she glance at her surrounding.

All of the elemental stones that the guards put inside the formation glow with each of their own mana, and it didn't take long for their different colors to turn into the teal color of the formation.

Its variety of mana turns into one single energy as the formation absorbed them.

The formation engulfs the energy from the elemental stones before a transparent teal barrier shot up to the ceiling caging Rex and the others in a square-shaped magical barrier.

"What's happening?", Kyran asks as he feels his body gets engulfed by the energy.

Hearing this, Rex looks at his hand and finds that his hand slowly turned transparent as he too turns into the teal energy of the formation.

<The user is invaded by foreign energy!>

<Scanning...>

<The energy is requesting to transport the user, Do the user want to allow it?>

'Yes', Rex replied calmly.

As soon as he answered the system, his entire body and also Adhara and Kyran's body turns into teal energy before they vanished from their spot.

SWOOSH!

The place rumbles for a moment before a teal light shot up to the sky.

Everyone in Slila City saw this teal light shooting up to the sky,

The mayor of the city saw this teal light from inside his office while sipping his coffee, "Teleportation... With this, I doubt the Supernatural find it easy to attack us", he mumbles.

~

In a different city a huge distance away from Slila City.

A teal bright light arrives on the sky above the city as the citizen looks up in confusion, the teal light creates a cracking sound before they shot inside the city.

There is a small stone near the city hall, it's glowing in response to the teal light.

But when the teal light was about to land on the small stone, the teal light split into four lights as they got scattered around the place.

One teal light landed on the small stone, two streaks of teal light landed randomly inside the city, and the last one landed outside of the city.

"Ughh!", Rex groan as he felt his stomach grumbling

This is the first time he teleports using a formation,

One of the experiences Rex felt near teleportation is entering the Cluster Domain, and entering the Cluster Domain is way more comfortable than this.

Rex landed near the small stone, his inside wanted to come out but Rex held it in.

The people of the city are already gathered around him, and vomiting in front of them will just embarrass him and ruin his reputation.

After controlling the erupting inside, Rex glance around.

From the look of the city, Rex can confirm that he's really in Wedron City.

Even some of the people started to mumble his name, they still remember the person who saved the city from the siege of the Orcs.

Rex glance at the small glowing rock beside him with a frown.

He then touched the small rock before the system gave him another description.

<Marginal Anchor of Earth Element>

This rock is created by condensing a great number of earth stones, the product of this condensation birth this Anchor of Earth Element. A piece of this rock contains a quite deal of Earth Mana that is 100 times more abundant than a high-grade earth stone. This rock can only be used as a transmit for a teleport formation.

Rex was quite intrigued by the description of this small rock.

The Anchor of Four elements that Slila City used must be a higher version of this small rock in front of him, that rock created by condensing four elements and can be used as a core for a formation.

While this one is only made using Earth Stones, and it can only catch earth mana.

But then, Rex realized that the others are transported elsewhere.

The teleport formation didn't land them in the same place, it scattered to the surrounding which is very inconvenient.

'Why are the others didn't land at the same place as me?', Rex asks the system.

<Marginal Anchor of Earth Element can only grasp earth mana that is transmitted from the formation since there are four elements transmitted from the teleport formation of Slila City, this small rock can only catch anyone that is a part of the earth mana>

Hearing this, Rex started to grasp how the teleport formation works.

Basically, the main formation will transport the people inside of it, and these people that got transported will be randomly represented by one of the four elements.

Since Rex got represented by the Earth Mana, the small stones can only catch him.

Adhara, Kyran, and Delta who don't get represented by Earth Mana can't be grasped by this small stone which only interacts with Earth Mana.

"Then what will happen if the fuel for the main formation only consists of Earth Stones?", Rex asks.

<By fueling the teleport formation using only Earth Stones, all of the people inside of the formation will only be represented by Earth Mana. All of the people inside the formation will land on the same spot as the user then>

Rex nodded his head because that's what he expected.

After comprehending the theory behind the teleport formation, Rex looks at the surrounding before he saw Kyran and Adhara approaching him.

They are also crowded with citizens who recognized them, they are heroes in this city.

"Why do I feel like throwing up?", Adhara pouted.

Hearing this, Rex chuckles before he said, "We're not used to it, that's natural"

"Where's Delta?", Kyran asks as he didn't see Delta anywhere.

But then suddenly,

Aooouu!!

Delta jumped to the city wall barricade startling the city guards, they sounded the bell in fear seeing a mutated beast jump to their walls easily.

This makes the citizens panic but Adhara then shouted, "It's okay! She's with us!"

After shouting that, Delta saw them from the distance before she leaped and ran towards them making the citizens make away in fear.

But when Delta arrived and got petted by Rex, the citizen becomes calm again.

While Rex is patting Delta fondly, a man wearing a priest uniform approaches them before he opens his arms in a welcoming manner and said, "Orc Slayers, Welcome to Wedron City!"

Chapter 272 Visiting Wedron City

The priest approached them from the side with open arms and said with a friendly smile, "Orc Slayers! Welcome back to Wedron City"

"Orc Slayers?", Adhara mumbles in confusion.

Although they know that they're heroes of the city, the nickname Orc Slayers caught them off guard as they didn't expect them to be remembered that way.

Rex looks at the priest and asks, "And you are?"

"Forgive my manners. I'm Priest Herman, you can say that I'm the mayor of the city", Priest Herman introduced humbly.

Hearing this, Rex was not surprised, 'The city is a religious city, makes sense to make the priest as the mayor of the city', he thought.

The priest then proposed, "Please come with me, you all must be tired"

"Actually, we're not here for-", Rex wanted to intervene but then, he saw Adhara signal to look at Kyran who is breathing heavily.

After realizing that Kyran is too tired, Rex then sigh, "We are tired, please guide us"

The three of them follow the priest to the city hall.

Since they saved the city, they can see that the city becomes prosperous as they saw quite a bit of big buildings built in this city.

Even the wall barricade has some improvement, the number of guards is also increased.

While the three of them walks to the city hall, Rex saw at least fifty guards that hold back the citizen that's cheering and praising their names.

"Look Rex, one of your friends!", Kyran points at a man standing on the side.

Rex smack Kyran's head because of how loud his shout was.

"Don't say that in public, there may be an Awakened here", Rex reminded as Kyran rubs his head that just got smacked.

He then glances briefly at the man,

The man standing on the side is a member of the SCO, the black crow tattoo on his arms is overbearing as if he's boasting that he's a black hand.

When he saw the man nod his head at him, Rex was taken aback.

After getting a nod, Rex also nods back in acknowledgment but inside he's cursing Kyran inside his head because of him the man knows that Rex is also a black hand.

His black crow tattoo is located on his chest, and it's well hidden.

So there's no other way the man knows Rex is a black hand except Kyran's shout.

Arriving at the city hall, Rex and the others were quite shocked.

In front of the city hall, there's a long statue that decorates the entrance of the city hall.

The statue tells a story of the night Rex and the others saved the city.

The long statue starts from the left showing the horde of Orcs attacking the city followed by a priest pointing at the blind woman, after that the statue shows Rex and the others arriving before a statue of a particular Orc kneeling on the ground in front of the crucified blind woman.

It's clear that this long statue represents the story of that particular night.

Rex glances to the right and finds the statue of him fighting the cursed orc before the last statue shows Kyran stabbing the priest with the torn arm of the blind woman ending the cursed orc.

While they are marveling at the statue, the priest smiles from the side.

"Because of your deed, the city decided to make a memorial for you three to always remind us of the Awakened that saved us from the brink of death", the priest said lightly.

Hearing this, Adhara's face blushes, "You don't need to do that"

"We're just trying to help out, there's no need for a fancy memorial", Adhara added with a red face.

But the priest shook his head, "We heard from Troy that you're the last help before the city will be abandoned, and your success in saving us leave a mark on this city that we will never forget"

What the priest said surprised Adhara and Kyran.

They know the situation is dire, but they didn't expect the city will be abandoned so fast.

After talking for a bit more, the priest then gave Rex and the others two rooms to rest.

Upon arriving at the room, Adhara slams her body onto the bed feeling sore from all the travel and fighting they had making Rex shake his head.

It only takes a couple of minutes before Rex can feel Adhara's steady breathing.

'She fell asleep that fast? Is the travel that tiring?', Rex thought.

Rex then walks out of the room before checking on Kyran, he saw that Kyran is also sleeping soundly as the fatigue creeps on them.

The insides of the city hall are empty, not one soul can be seen.

While looking around the place, Rex then suddenly felt the disturbance on the mana in the air before his eyes landed on a door near the entrance of the city hall.

'Who makes this disturbance?', Rex thought in confusion.

Rex then went closer to the door near the entrance, and when he arrives in front of the door he can clearly feel there is something disturbing the mana here.

It's like someone is sucking the mana, but there shouldn't be anyone like that here.

After nearing the door, Rex can smell an odor of a person before he frowns, 'There's an Awakened here? Why is there an Awakened here?'

Realizing that there's an Awakened here, Rex walks away heading to the priest's office.

Knock Knock!

Rex knocked on the priest's office two times before the priest told him to enter.

He opened the door and saw the priest is attending to the city's need, there's a bunch of paper on his desk and the priest seems to be troubled by something.

The door closes making a clicking sound,

The priest then signals for Rex to sit before Rex sits in front of the priest.

"What can I help you with?", the priest asks hiding his troubled look with a smile.

Hearing this, Rex then asks, "Who made the small stone where I got teleported in? Did the city find natural resources to make that?"

"I hope that's the case, but it's not", the priest replied with a wry smile.

Rex looks at the priest questioningly before the priest sigh, "A UWO member made contact with our city, they propose to us to make that transmitter if in case the city needed help"

"Really?", Rex asks in surprise.

The last time he's here, the city is not a strategic place and even almost got abandoned by the UWO but now they're the ones proposing to make the transmitter instead.

'It seems they started to feel threatened by the SCO', Rex thought.

Rex then points to his back with his thumb and asks, "I feel other Awakened here, Is that the UWO member you're talking about?"

"Yes...", the priest replied with a frown.

Looking at the priest's expression, Rex then asks, "What's seem to trouble you?"

The priest looks up at Rex before he looks down at the paper in front of him, he then takes the paper before putting it in front of Rex.

"The UWO offered us to make the transmitter, but they request the black hands to leave the city and let the Awakened protect the city", the priest said with a frown.

But Rex finds the offer quite reasonable since UWO and SCO have quite a tension between them.

Seeing Rex's expression that was confused as to why the priest is undecided, the priest then added, "The UWO is probably the more obvious choice but, there are about ten black hands in the city that have the strength around the fourth rank. While the UWO only offered four fourth rank Awakened, and promise that they will send more when the city is in danger via the transmitter"

Hearing this, Rex then asks, "Have you negotiated with them?"

"I tried but they didn't want to send more, the city also didn't have anything to bargain with aside from sympathy. The member of the UWO even planted the transmitter forcefully to mock the black hand even when I was still undecided, and he even told us to make a decision as soon as possible, if not they will take back their offer", the priest said wryly.

Rex also frowns in thought upon hearing this, it's clear that the UWO is still forceful.

'At this rate, the SCO will be more likable than any Awakened. I need to get back fast and force them to join together', Rex thought in determination.

~

Inside the Demon Stronghold,

There is a castle of Demon King in the Demon Stronghold that is just finished being built, inside this castle lies the powerful Arcdemons and the Succubus Donnas.

This stronghold is guarded by the demons and the succubus race.

Many of them roam inside the stronghold while commanding lower rank Supernatural such as Dark Elves, Zombies, Centaurs, and many other kinds of lower rank Supernatural.

All of them are alert and ready as they saw the Cessation Knight on the far horizon.

The Cessation Knights make a perimeter around the stronghold, they will be guarding the perimeter to not let the Supernatural roam freely in human territory.

Inside a room in the Stronghold, Azen and King Saruth can be seen talking.

King Saruth is sitting on his throne while Azen is standing in front of him, they both are alone without any guards around them.

"Have you contacted the Vampires?", King Saruth asks with his baritone voice.

Hearing this, Azen nodded his head before not long the door is knocked as a Vampire wearing royalty uniform walks in with small steps.

The emblem on the vampire's chest shows that he's from Delarosa Family.

"Delarosa, Why are you here? I asked for Queen Nezera or even Demelza Family", King Saruth said while looking at Delarosa with a frown.

Delarosa slightly bowed before he replied, "They're busy King Saruth. I was sent by the King to represent him in this meeting that you stated to be very important"

King Saruth scoffs before he signals Azen to explain.

But before Azen can explain, "Tell to King Solomon that I respect the alliance between the Demon and the Vampires, and tell him that he owes me one for this information"

After saying that, Delarosa glance at Azen in confusion.

"My blue demons got wiped out from the Decoy Cities in the human's territory, this is expected as they also served their purpose", Azen said before walking slowly down the stairs.

He then continues, "My blue demons saw something surprising attacking the decoy cities"

Azen then arrived in front of Delarosa who looks small in front of him, he lifts his hand as a blue fire sparks in his hand before a parchment appeared amidst the blazing blue fire.

Seeing Azen's face, Delarosa takes the parchment from Azen.

He then looks at the Parchment that has a drawing of a human in it before he lifts up his head to see Azen in confusion.

"We saw the Werewolf in the human territory, and that is the Werewolf's human form", Azen said while pointing at the parchment that has the drawing of Rex's face.

Hearing this, Delarosa widened his eyes in shock as he look at the parchment.

He looks at the parchment in disbelief before he asks, "Is this true King Saruth? If this is true I know that King Solomon and Queen Nezera will be very grateful!"

King Saruth smiles lightly,

"Of course it's true, all of the blue demons see can be seen by Azen", he replied proudly.

This makes Delarosa excited as he held the parchment carefully, this parchment becomes more important as his life because of what it represents.

But then, Delarosa's excitement vanished as his face turns normal.

"What do the demons want in return?", Delarosa asks, he knows that every good favor must have a price to pay especially one such as this.

Azzen glances at King Saruth before King Saruth waves his hand.

"The Vampires gave us the Abaddon Stone, and also help us use the forbidden ritual. I am simply strengthening our bond, it will be better for the Vampires to become stronger than the Werewolves", King Saruth replied calmly.

Hearing this, Delarosa was still a bit skeptical but finally nodded his head.

Then he suddenly asks, "If that's the case, Why don't the demons help the Vampires in finding this Prince so it will be faster?"

"Of course, we will gladly help", King Saruth agreed.

After a brief exchange of words, Delarosa finally left with the parchments in his hand.

"Do we really need to help the Vampires? Shouldn't we focus on our strength?", Azzen whispers while looking at Delarosa's back who is leaving the room.

King Saruth shakes his head, "If that Prince manage to reunited with the Werewolves, they will be an even bigger threat since our own Demon Prince hasn't awakened yet"

"The Werewolves will dominate the Supernatural race if that were to happen", he added.

King Saruth then stands up from his throne before he said, "For your second question, we do need to strengthen our demon power. Our biggest threat is the Dragonman and Sirens right now, If the Werewolf Prince Awakened then that means the Siren's Five Kings of the Sea and the Five Sacred Dragons might just wake up from their slumber, and if that were to happen before our Demon Prince then the hierarchy will change"

From that explanation, Azzen nodded his head in understanding.

"So we need to act fast. Scour the human's territory and find more Abaddon Stones, we will wake the Demon Prince first to maintain our power", King Saruth instructed.

Chapter 273 Blood Moon Box

In the middle of the night, Rex and Adhara are currently meditating under the moonlight at the top of a tall building.

The top of the building exposes them fully to the moonlight.

Their bodies glow with steamy moonlight energy as their body felt rejuvenated, it makes them relaxed and calm as their skin bathes under the moonlight.

While bathing under the moonlight, Rex and Adhara also meditate together.

Because of their mastery over their breathing technique, they can meditate easily as breathing. There's no need to split their focus to using their breathing technique.

Rex glance to his side finding that Adhara is hard to not get looked at.

Adhara's breathing is steady as she regulates the moonlight that enters her body using her breathing technique, her eyes are closed and the steamy moonlight energy added a sparkling decoration to her beautiful figure.

She's currently wearing a dress with an open back, this attracts Rex's attention fully.

'I never really think about our relationship, but I can't deny that I have feelings for her', Rex thought while gazing at Adhara.

It struck his mind that if he wanted to, Adhara probably won't deny him.

Especially since she becomes the female Alpha, the system basically announces that Adhara is his woman of the pack.

Rex then remembers the time he had with Adhara after meeting the Atkins.

They share a pretty intense making-out session with each other, and the more Rex thinks about it, the more he becomes annoyed by the intrusion of Edward.

While he's thinking about this, Rex's eyes landed on Adhara's lips.

'Should I just tell her how I feel?', Rex thought with slight hesitation.

Unknown to him, Adhara's face started to blush, feeling the intense stare she got that started to disturb her meditation.

But then, Rex suddenly remembered the time he had with Rosie.

Although Rex will not make her one of his pack, because of her action, Rex slightly hates Rosie because of using him during the Violet Moon.

It filled his heart with guilt, but what's done is done.

He also can't blame the deed to Rosie solely, because he did enjoy it.

'I'm pretty sure she likes me, but what she chooses to do is wrong. Not that I completely blame her though, what I said to her probably makes her desperate', Rex thought.

Even though Rosie's action is very wrong, Rex knows where that desperation comes from.

All she wanted is to become one of his pack members, her talent is not very good considering she's still a peak third rank Awakened.

If Rex is in her shoes, he will probably cling onto himself too.

After seeing Adhara become as strong as she is now, Rosie has more reason to pursue to become Rex's pack member aside from her feelings for Rex.

'Maybe I should give her a chance? Besides she's quite persistent', Rex thought.

While he's thinking about that, a voice suddenly disturbs him, "Are you going to look at me all night or what?"

Rex snapped out of his thoughts and found Adhara looking at him.

"Aren't you the one wanting me to look at you? Why did you wear a revealing dress like that?", Rex asks while he skims down his fingers lightly touching Adhara's exposed back.

His gentle touch makes Adhara's body warmer as she blushes like a tomato.

Adhara then replied, "I don't bring that many clothes, so I'm forced to wear this"

Hearing this, Rex chuckles knowing that Adhara is clearly lying. There's no way she forgot to bring casual comfy clothes for a time like this.

While Rex's fingers skim down Adhara's back, his fingers stop at Adhara's butterfly tattoo.

"You know, this tattoo is the very first thing that attracts my attention to you", Rex said while marveling at the butterfly tattoo.

Adhara was skeptical about this, "When did you first see my butterfly tattoo?"

Upon realizing what he said, Rex clears his throat slightly after remembering that he daydreamed about being with Adhara while he was jogging.

[What a virgin], Devo suddenly said.

Hearing this, Rex widened his eyes in shock, 'How did you talk through the suppression?!'

[Even if I'm suppressed I can still see and hear your thoughts, it just takes a chunk of my spirit energy to bypass the suppression and talk], Devo replied with a slight mocking laugh.

'Mocking me is a reason enough to use your spirit energy? Is that it?', Rex asks feeling annoyed.

But this makes Devo's laughs reverberate in his mind, [Of course, what you showed me earlier screams a virgin to me]

Rex was clearly embarrassed, 'Shut up! There's a reason people have their own thoughts!'

"Rex?", Adhara called out seeing Rex dazed again.

Rex shakes his head before he replied, "Forget what I said, let's just resume our meditation"

After looking suspiciously at Rex, Adhara finally went back to her meditation.

Seconds turn into minutes, minutes turn into hours followed by the changes of the shade from the moonlight because of the disturbing clouds.

While the moon was covered by the clouds, Rex stopped meditating.

'Let's check the items I got from the system', Rex thought before he takes out the Moon Box from the inventory and inspects it.

Upon summoning the moon box, a box appeared in his hand.

The Moon Box is about the size of Rex's hand with steel on its edges, there is identical ancient writing on the four sides of the box while the top of the box has a full moon mark on it.

Rex inspects the Moon Box and finds nothing special about it.

Even upon closer inspection, the Moon Box doesn't emit any aura or some sort making the box look as ordinary as ever.

After looking at the Moon Box, Rex looks at its description.

<Moon Box>

The box that will grant anyone that opens it the power of the moon, it's the ultimate blessing of any Werewolves or beings that can harness moon power. The Moon Box will show the true nature of the being that opens it, and make way for the being that opens it to reach that nature.

'As always, the system likes to give riddles', Rex thought with a frown.

Without deliberating any longer, Rex intend to open the Moon Box before suddenly the system gave him notifications.

<Opening the Moon Box!>

<The Moon Box is scanning the user's nature...>

<Associating with the compatible moon...>

<Completed!>

<Blood Moon has been selected!>

Right after the last notification, Rex widened his eyes when he saw the Moon Box in his hand slowly emitting energy before the moon mark above it turns red in color.

It surprised Rex because he's not expecting this.

This happened right in front of Rex's eyes, and his body feel the energy coming from the Moon Box becomes even more familiar to the day he first turn into a Werewolf.

During the time under the Blood Moon.

<Opening the Blood Moon Box!>

Clank!

The Blood Moon Box in Rex's hand suddenly jolted open as Blood Moon energy spilled out of the box and invades Rex's body.

Rex can't do anything except for accepting the Blood Moon energy.

With the Blood Moon energy slowly seeping into Rex's body, he closes his eyes trying to feel the purpose of the Blood Moon energy.

The Blood Moon energy appears in a fraction of a second.

Even Adhara who is meditating beside him can only feel slightly weird energy before it disappears, the Blood Moon energy got sucked into Rex's body instantly.

But then suddenly, Rex felt the wind around him change.

Upon opening his eyes, Rex was taken aback when he saw his surroundings turn reddish in color.

Rex finds himself in an unknown place that he has never seen before, there is nothing around him as if he just got transported into a dead plain.

He then looks around and doesn't find Adhara beside him anywhere.

'This looks similar to the Yule Moon's vision', Rex thought as he looks around cautiously.

During the Yule Moon's vision, the system told Rex that the Yule Moon was just warning him upon its power to disintegrate any Werewolf that got exposed to it.

It shows by turning Rex's body into ash inside the vision.

So based on that, Rex was quite intrigued by what this Blood Moon trying to say.

While waiting for something to happen, Rex's vision suddenly blurred again before he got transported again based on the changes happening in the surrounding.

Rex then inspect the surrounding before his eyes widened as he remember this place.

The place that he won't forget even if he died a thousand deaths, nothing can make him forget about the place where his real parents got killed in front of him.

After realizing where he is, Rex looks to his hand and finds that he's not a kid anymore.

With trembling steps, Rex walks up the stairs knowing what he will see. The same scene that haunts him in his sleep for years.

Thud!

Thud!

Rex arrives in front of the same door that is still etched on his mind until now.

Upon peeking inside the door, Rex saw the same scene where his mother and father struggle to live in front of the ink-black Werewolf with a T-shaped red rune on its shoulder.

But different from his memories, Rex barged inside the room.

"MOM! DAD!", Rex shouted angrily as his muscle contracted.

This sudden entrance makes the ink-black Werewolf glance back with its bloodthirsty eyes, it saw Rex wanting to punch him from the back.

Bam!

Instead of sending the Werewolf crashing away, the punch stopped after colliding with the Werewolf's back.

The loud crashing sound and shockwaves that Rex expected never came.

'Revenge...'

A whisper seeped into Rex's ears,

Rex look at his fist once more and saw that he's turned into a kid again, his muscular arms turn into a weak and frail arm that doesn't threaten the Werewolf at all.

"W-What...", Rex mumbles in confusion.

Without even minding Rex, the ink-black Werewolf started to do what it did in Rex's memories.

The Werewolf raise its black steel claws intending to slash Rex's mother's head cleanly, but Rex jumped with his little body and hold onto the Werewolf's left hind leg trying to stop him.

But it didn't work as the same scream can be heard,

"NABILA!!"

Thud!

Rex's father rushes to Rex's mother's severed head before hugging it tightly.

'Weak...'

Another whisper seeped through Rex's ears, stating what Rex already understand fully.

With a loud shout of anger, Rex's father swung the metal bat he grabbed towards the Werewolf's head but it did nothing just like Rex remembered.

It all happened again in front of Rex, the Werewolf grabs his father's neck easily.

'Weak...'

All Rex did to try to stop the Werewolf did nothing, the Werewolf ignored him as the Werewolf bites Rex's father's head before munching on it.

Splurt!

His father's blood flooded Rex's body in red as he saw his father killed again.

Rex falls to his knees as he touches the blood that splattered onto him with a blank expression, his expression slowly changed into anger as he saw his father's blood again.

"RAAARRRGHHH!!!!", he shouted on top of his lungs with veins bulging on his neck.

The shout contains mixed emotions that Rex feels in the current moment as he slammed his head on the ground in hopelessness.

Shock, Sadness, Hopelessness, Sorrow, Desperation, and Anger.

All of these emotions can be heard clearly in Rex's shout of pain, the pain of seeing this scene surfaced again from the deepest part in his heart.

While he's shouting in agony, the evil laughter of the Werewolf rang in his ear.

Until suddenly, the blood, the laughter, and the corpses of his parents vanished as Rex lift his body and look at the glowing Blood Moon in the sky.

'Power..', the Blood Moon whispers to Rex again.

Rex's eyes turn bloodthirsty as he gazes on the Blood Moon, he's head is filled with the desire to avenge his parents' death to that evil Werewolf.

The same evil Werewolf then appeared in front of him with a mocking look.

But when Rex was about to attack the Werewolf in anger, his body stopped abruptly.

He then look at the Blood Moon with determination before he shouted, "GIVE ME POWER!"

Right after he shouted that a red light beam shot from the Blood Moon.

Rex embraces the red light beam with open arms as Blood Moon Energy filled his body, the feeling of immense power seeped through his body making Rex smile.

But then suddenly, Rex snapped out of the vision with heavy breaths.

"What's wrong Rex?", Adhara hold Rex's shoulder from the side in worry looking at Rex's body filled with sweat and his gasping breaths.

Rex grips Adhara's hand back gently while trying to steady his breathing.

This makes Adhara even more worried before Rex replied, "It's nothing"

Hearing this, Adhara is not that dense to believe his lies as Rex gets up, "I'm going to sleep first, goodnight", he said before jumping down the building.

Looking at this, Adhara frowns, "What's wrong with him?", she mumbles.

Unknown to Adhara, Rex's eyes flash with red light as a notification from the system can be seen in front of Rex.

<Blood Moon Quest Activated!>

<Finish the Blood Moon Quest to acquire King Mark of the Blood Moon!>

Chapter 274 Vampire And Werewolf Kingdoms Movement

Vampire Kingdom, Delarosa Family Mansion.

Delarosa enters the mansion and saw his wife and Issac waiting for him in the living room, they both stand up when they saw Delarosa get in.

Upon looking at Delarosa's excited expression, both of them look at each other in confusion.

"My Dear, What puts you in such a good mood?", the woman vampire asks seeing that her husband looks a hundred years younger with that excited look.

Issac also steps forward and asks, "What great news do you bring father?"

But Delarosa walks past them completely ignoring their question before he put parchment on the table, he then signals to his wife and Issac to look at the parchment.

Looking at this, both of them look at the parchment in confusion.

They saw the drawing of a male human on the parchment and based on the aura, both of them knew that the one that makes this drawing is a demon.

"Is this the thing that puts you in a happy mood? a drawing of a human?", his wife asks.

Hearing this, Delarosa sighs in disappointment seeing the underwhelming expression of his wife about this parchment.

Delarosa then said, "That is the drawing of the Prince of the Werewolf!"

Upon hearing this, his wife widened her eyes in shock before she took the parchment again.

Because of what Delarosa said, the parchment becomes even more important than their life as they know how valuable this parchment is.

"How did you get this?", his wife asked in surprise.

Delarosa smiles proudly before he said, "The other family members are too busy searching for the Prince of Werewolf blindly, all of them deny to represent the King and Queen in meeting with King Saruth at his stronghold"

"I didn't expect anything when the tasks were given to me, but turns out the task was a blessing in disguise!", Delarosa explain with a mischievous smile.

His wife jumped in joy upon hearing the news, they're very lucky to get this.

But then, his wife frowns after realizing something, "What do you want to do with this? Should we tell the King?"

"We have to maximize this chance that we're given by the Origin, If we told the King then the King will broadcast this parchment to the other Vampires and we will lose our advantage", Delarosa said with a frown.

Then suddenly, his wife snaps her fingers and suggested, "We can tell the Queen about this, We can convince her to give us a chance to get this Prince"

"That's true, but what can we use to convince the Queen that we can find the Prince?", Delarosa mumbles in thought.

After saying that, both Delarosa and his wife fall into their thoughts.

But then suddenly, Delarosa's eyes landed on Issac who is currently holding the parchment with Rex's drawing on it with a frown.

"What are you thinking Issac?", Delarosa asks.

It's not an everyday thing that his failure of a son thinks hard about something.

Hearing his name getting called, Issac look at Delarosa briefly before his attention went into the parchment again, "I don't know, but this human looks familiar"

A moment passed, Issac suddenly remembered.

"I knew this human! He's the human that attacked me during my mission!", Issac shouted.

Delarosa stands up from his seat before he walks over to Issac, he then holds Issac's shoulders with an excited look, "Are you sure?! This is the human that attacked you?!", he asks while showing the parchment to Issac.

p Issac nodded his head, he's 90% sure that's the human that attacked him.

The situation gets even better for the Delarosa Family,

His wife then asks, "Dear son, Can you remember anything that can help us locate this Prince? Did you manage to scratch him and get his blood perhaps?"

"We can locate the Prince if you got his blood", the wife added.

Issac frowns trying to remember that night.

Many things happened that night, the sudden appearance of Rex and Liliya riding Delta destroyed the easy mission that he take for his reputation's sake.

It makes his reputation dwindle further as he failed to extract the expected humans.

But then, Issac said while remembering that night he fought with Rex, "That Prince is very strong but he's not that strong, I reckon that he's probably around peak fifth rank to early sixth rank power"

"Anything else?", Delarosa asks expectantly.

Then suddenly, Issac remembered something, "Oh! The Prince seems to know the Chosen One, I heard she shouted his name"

"Rex...", Issac mumbles.

Hearing this, Delarosa and his wife widened their eyes in surprise.

Delarosa then said, "We got a bit of a bargaining chip to convince the Queen, but I think it's still not enough to completely convince the Queen"

But then suddenly, Issac summons the sphere of blood on his hand.

"I might not get the Prince's blood, but I got the Chosen One's blood right here", Issac said as he plays with the blood that he extracted from the Chosen One.

~

Scarlet Banes Kingdom, Werewolf Territory.

King Baralt walks along the hall with powerful strides, his bearing is that of a king but he frowns when he saw the slight changes of attitude from his guards.

Their eyes don't look at King Baralt the same way again, and it disturbs him.

Because of this, King Baralt picked up his pace with boiling anger as he went down the small stairs that leads onto a dimly lit room.

After arriving in front of the room, there are two guards on each side of the door.

Upon seeing King Baralt's arrival, both of the two guards bowed slightly before they opened the door behind them to let King Baralt enter.

Right after the door is opened, King Baralt can already see a Werewolf in there.

The Werewolf wears a red hooded robe that has the robe look more scarlet because of his own blood, his two arms are chained up to the ceiling while his two legs are left unrestrained.

Inside the room has a couple of torture tools, there's also a white flower on the side.

If Rex was here, he will instantly recognize that white flower to be the White Rye that is very toxic to Werewolf no matter how powerful they are.

The room is closed with no source of light, it's completely isolated.

"Are you going to confess about your trickery Hallac?", King Baralt said with a cold tone.

Hearing this, Hallac raises his head to meet King Baralt's eyes slowly before he smirks, "I didn't use any magic to manipulate the necklace, you're simply aren't able to face the truth"

"You're no King", he added not restraining any of his words.

King Baralt's eyes went red in anger as he grabs Hallac's chin with murderous eyes, "You dare talk to a King like that?! I can have you killed with a word from my mouth"

But even under the enormous pressure of King Baralt, Hallac only chuckles mockingly.

Looking at this, King Baralt pushes Hallac's face to the side in anger as the chains restraining Hallac's arms make a clanging sound.

Without any remorse, King Baralt wears a magical glove.

He then dipped his fingers on the white substance that is extracted from the White Rye before he touch Hallac's chest with the fingers that he just dipped in.

Tssss!

"RAARGHH!!", Hallac shouted in pain as the white substance scorch his skin.

His blood vessel around his chest that King Baralt's finger landed on started to bulge and turn black, it's completely gruesome as the skin started to sizzle.

One by one, the blood vessels on Hallac's chest started to break.

After a long hurtful process that seems like an eternity, King Baralt retracts his hand back.

He takes off the magical gloves before he went into his thoughts.

Looking at King Baralt thinking in his head, Halalc then said, "The other Enchanter, they also didn't find any magic that you accused me of putting in that necklace right?"

Hearing this, King Baralt shouted as he glance back fiercely, "Silence!"

BOOM!

Blue energy envelop King Baralt's body as Hallac felt suffocated from the pressure.

Even the chains restraining Hallac's arms started to make a cracking sound, but it didn't take long before King Baralt retracts his aura back and looks down in thought.

After feeling the pressure lifted off of his chest, Hallac finally breath normally again.

"It's not that you're not the strongest", Hallac mumbles with heavy breaths.

King Baralt turns his body around to Hallac with a questioning look, he heard what Hallac said and feel confused about it because it's just doesn't make sense.

Feeling the question gaze,

Hallac then explained, "Maybe what the Origin meant by the strongest is not the raw power of a Werewolf, but rather, the bloodline of the Werewolf"

"That still doesn't make sense! I'm accepted by one of the moons", King Baralt rebutted.

But before he can become angry once more, Hallac then intervenes, "You forgot that there's a Werewolf in the human's territory that has a King Mark, Maybe he's the one that has the strongest bloodline than any other Werewolves"

Hearing this, King Baralt was at a loss for words.

What Hallac said is true, he knows that there's a Werewolf in the human territory that has a King Mark just like him.

This means that the Werewolf is also accepted by one of the moons.

"What do you suggest we do?", King Baralt finally said as he look at Hallac intently.

~

The next day,

Rex opened his eyes slowly as the morning light penetrates the room they are in.

But unlike any other morning, Rex felt comfortable upon waking up, and turns out that he woke up in Adhara's embrace.

It surprised him as he looks up to Adhara who also woke up because of him.

"Did I wake you up?", Rex asks lightly with his croaky morning voice.

Hearing this, Adhara smiles gently before she replied, "No, I wake up long before you wake up"

Rex then wake up from his bed before touching his panging head, 'The dream is back again, Why do the Blood Moon need to show me that vision again', Rex thought with a sigh.

Then suddenly, "What did you dream about just now?"

What Adhara asks surprised Rex as he glances at her in confusion, "Why are you asking?"

"I don't know, maybe because you're screaming mother and father the whole night so I decided to hug you in your sleep", Adhara replied nonchalantly.

Rex widened his eyes in surprise, "Did I really say that?"

"Yep, I heard you mumbling and shouting throughout the night so I got curious", Adhara said while tying her hair into a ponytail.

She then added, "So? Are you going to tell me?"

Rex smiles wryly upon hearing this, it's been quite a while since he dreamt about that night again but the dream resurfaced again because of the Bloom Moon Box.

'Adhara didn't know about my real mother and father', Rex thought with a sigh.

Out of all the topics about his life, Rex really doesn't want to talk about his real mother and father as it's very hurtful to just remember.

After thinking for a while, Rex finally said, "I'll tell you next time"

But before Adhara can pout, Rex kissed Adhara's forehead shutting Adhara's mouth instantly that was about to say something to him.

Rex then went to the bathroom leaving the stunned Adhara on the bed.

A couple of hours later,

Rex and the others have already arrived at the cliff where Carabidis Temple lies, it's a deep cliff and the cliff makes Adhara and Kyran's expression pale.

"Are you sure this is the right place?", Adhara asks in concern.

Kyran also looks down on the cliff before his eyes widen, "I don't think this is the right place"

Hearing both of their comments makes Rex chuckles slightly, who won't be scared if they're told to go down a deep cliff with dark clouds on its bottom.

They didn't even know what lies beneath the dark clouds.

But Rex already checked the bottom of it, so he's not worried at all.

"Let's go, there should be fringes around here that we can use to go down. If you don't go down I'm going to kick you guys from my pack", Rex joked before walking to the side.

Adhara and Kyran can only follow Rex from the back helplessly without having any other choice.

Delta also follows behind them, but she's not that worried as she hops towards Rex.

Chapter 275 Going Down The Cliff

Clack!

Small pebbles fall down into the dark clouds as Rex and the others follow the tight fringes, only the tip of their toes can step on the fringes because of how narrow it is.

They need to use their full focus to just follow the narrow fringes.

But the occasional rumbling sound that the dark clouds make distracts Adhara and Kyran greatly, it startled them every time it sounds.

Kyran and Adhara looks down with trembling legs,

The depth of the cliff is very deep, even third rank Awakened might just die instantly if they fall from the top to the bottom.

Added with the dark clouds that cover the bottom, it makes both of them suck in a cold breath.

While they're all following the fringes, the sky suddenly rumbles.

"The timing cannot be any worse", Adhara said as the sky started to rain, it was clear just about five minutes ago and then suddenly it started raining.

Rex looks up to the sky before he mumbles, "It's raining again just like last time"

Because of this, Adhara had to stop as she can't travel the fringes anymore.

The rain started to make the fringes wet and slippery, she almost tripped down because of the wet fringes and decided to just stay on her spot and stick to the cliff wall like a lizard.

Rex who is already further down than them looks up and saw Adhara stopping.

"What's wrong Adhara?", Rex asks with a slightly higher voice than normal, his voice got muffled by the rain sound.

Hearing this, Adhara then answered without looking at Rex, "I don't think I'm good with heights"

"Don't think and just follow the fringes, we're almost there", Rex said trying to convince Adhara to keep going down.

But Adhara then shouted back, "Says someone who has claws!"

While Adhara and Kyran struggle to go down, Rex and Delta are going down easily by using their claws that they stabbed into the cliff walls.

Rex can only smile wryly while the four of them inch down the cliff slowly.

After a slight hesitation, Adhara also started to follow the fringes again but slower.

It takes them longer to reach above the dark clouds than it should be, the rain makes their movements slower.

Rex and the others stopped above the dark clouds as Rex stopped just above it.

If Rex stretches his hand down then he can touch the dark clouds with his hand, that's how close they're right now with the dark clouds.

"What's next?", Adhara asks from the side.

But then, Kyran suddenly said with a frown, "I can feel something moving in the dark clouds, I think there are mutated animals in there"

"There are mutated bugs in that clouds but it's weak, Kyran! Go on Delta's back!", Rex instructed.

After Kyran jumped to Delta's back and holds onto Delta's back, Rex also grabs Adhara's waist while preparing himself to jump down.

Looking at this, Adhara looks at Rex in horror.

"What are you doing?", Adhara asks with a pale expression.

Rex glance at the scared Adhara briefly before he replied, "Don't worry, we just need to jump through these dark clouds"

"Are you crazy! You didn't even know what's down there!", Adhara rebutted in horror.

But Rex ignored her before he glance at Delta, "Delta, activate your white force as to not let the bugs prickle your skin"

While saying that, Rex also summons the yellow barrier.

The yellow barrier came out of Rex's body like a steaming gas, and the yellow barrier also enveloped Adhara who is pulled close to Rex's body.

"Okay let's jump in 3", Rex signals.

"One!"

Hearing this, Adhara takes a deep breath to prepare herself as she hugs Rex tightly,

But just after Rex said, "Two!"

Rex jumped down first followed by Delta and Kyran as Adhara screamed in horror, the four of them then disappear inside the dark clouds.

Upon entering the dark clouds, the same cold feeling can be felt.

The mutated bugs instantly went to them trying to bite Rex and the others but got stopped by their force barrier, the prickling feeling didn't happen because of this.

After falling down for quite a bit with Adhara's scream as their background sound.

Rex and the others went through the dark clouds before the scenery that Rex last saw appeared once again, it's still the same as the last time Rex is here.

Grip!

With a grip from Rex's hand, Rex stopped their falling momentum.

Delta also follows Rex as she grabs the cliff wall with her claws stopping her and Kyran from falling further.

"What is this place...", Kyran asks as he looks down in surprise.

Adhara also opens her eyes slowly after noticing that they're not falling again, her throat feels sore because of how loud she scream before.

But before she can complain, she suddenly saw the scenery below them.

She turns her head left and right to look at the place she arrived in,

The scene in front of her and the others is Carabidis Temple which is a dark dim lighted dessert with a square-shaped Egyptian temple in the middle of the place.

Light came only from torches that are put around the temple, and the small statues around it.

Aside from the mesmerizing view of the Carabidis Temple, Kyran and Adhara can also see a bunch of mutated animals roaming around.

They're walking around aimlessly,

Some of them are mutated insects, while some are mutated animals.

Out of all of the mutated animals down here, the most eye-catching one is the big cat that has its front legs abnormally bigger than the other two back legs.

There are three of them, and the three of them are lying in front of the temple's entrance.

'They're guarding the temple entrance? The last time I'm here the one that guards the entrance is a mutated fifth rank snake', Rex thought with a frown.

It seems like not all of the things here are the same as he remembered.

Adhara looks at the huge temple in awe while she's still being carried by Rex, "How did you find this place? Are you a lunatic?", she asks nonchalantly.

"What do you mean a lunatic?", Rex replied slightly annoyed.

Hearing this, Adhara looks at Rex before she said, "To find this place means you must've jumped into the dark clouds out of curiosity, what does that make you if not a lunatic?"

Rex was at a loss for words,

Now that he thinks about it, if the system didn't tell him about this place then he won't find it.

Only a lunatic will jump into a deep cliff with the bottom of it covered with dark clouds, it's simply unlikely for anyone to find this place.

"Shut up", Rex replied before letting go of her.

Tus!!

Adhara falls to the sand below them face first, she stands up in anger but got her mouth closed by Rex's hand before she can complain.

"Ssstt!", Rex tries to make Adhara calm down before he points to the left with his eyes.

After pushing Rex's hand away from her mouth, Adhara looks back and saw a mutated wolf walking towards them while sniffing the air.

Delta and Kyran also landed beside them and ducked low to avoid any attention.

But even with them trying to suppress their aura, the mutated wolf seems to pick up their scent as the mutated wolf makes way to them.

"What should we do? That wolf is heading towards us!", Adhara whispers.

Rex glance at the mutated wolf before a smile appeared on his face,

Not long after that, the mutated wolf arrived in front of them as the mutated wolf raises its gaze before its eyes landed on Rex.

Looking at the mutated wolf, Rex kneels down on the ground.

The mutated wolf then strides lightly towards Rex before he started rubbing the mutated wolf's neck as the mutated wolf whimpers.

"You know this mutated wolf?", Adhara asks in confusion.

What happened in front of them happened randomly,

The mutated wolf walks over to them as if it knows they arrive, and then suddenly Rex started to rub the mutated wolf's muzzle as if they did this before.

Rex then replied while playing with the mutated wolf, "I've scouted this place before"

"Back when I first scouted this place, there is a disturbance on the entrance of the temple and I decided to find a safer route inside the temple. And during that search, I met with this mutated wolf who show me the way inside", he explained.

Hearing this, Adhara and Kyran nodded their heads.

While Rex is playing with the mutated wolf, the mutated wolf's eyes landed on Delta who is looking at it full of hostility.

But then, the end of the mutated wolf's mouth quirk up to a smirk.

This makes Delta becomes even angry in jealousy but Rex didn't see this, only Kyran and Adhara who stand behind Rex saw this exchange happening with a wry smile.

"Kyran, go scout the surrounding", Rex suddenly said.

He then continues, "Check what is the entrance condition and if there's still a crack on the left side of the temple, with the dark surrounding you can stealth through the mutated animals here easily"

After saying that, Rex glance at the mutated wolf again before he said, "Guide him"

The mutated wolf nodded his head as if he understand Rex, it then glances at Kyran before it turns to its back and started running away.

Seeing this, Kyran's body glows with the dark element as he started to blend with the darkness.

Rex stands back up before he looks back and finds Delta is averting her gaze, he then looks at Adhara in confusion before Adhara reply with a wry smile.

"Let's find a place to hide while waiting for them", Rex said finally said.

~

Edward and Ari are currently in a car heading towards Faraday University.

They already arrived at Ratmawati City, and now they only need to go back to Faraday University with the items that they will give to Evelyn Luc.

While on the ride, both of them didn't talk at all.

Ari who is sitting on the back glance at Edward and find that his face is pale, it seems that Edward is holding something back.

Just when they're about to reach Faraday University.

Edward suddenly told the driver to stop when he saw a gas station, the driver then went into the gas station before he parked there.

"I'll be back", Edward said before he gets out of the car.

After getting out of the car, Edward went straight to the bathroom.

He quickly get into one of the bathroom booths that is empty before he kneels in front of the toilet seat before he started to vomit.

The fluids that came out of Edward's mouth has a hint of blood in them.

Edward vomits for a couple of minutes before he feels better, he then sits on the ground lightly with heavy breaths.

"I overdid it", Edward mumbles as he looks at the black fire that sprouted on his hand.

Based on what it looks like, it seems Edward is still not adept at using his new technique and the fight he had a couple of days ago takes a toll on his body.

After resting for a couple of minutes, Edward takes out the pouch from his pocket.

The pouch contains the Ambrosia Cloud and the Grisly Mist Bear Heart that he will deliver to Evelyn Luc, he looks at it before he pulls himself together and stands up.

While Edward is in the bathroom, Ari's phone rang as he answered it.

"Sir?", Ari greeted.

After that, the person on the other side said something as Ari replied, "It's not only Kyran but Edward also have the same changes"

Ari then glance in the bathroom direction before he added, "I think it happened fairly recently. Although we don't have enough evidence, what Wesley said might be worth considering since the probability of it's true is there"

"Yes, Sir", Ari replied before he hung up on the phone.

Not long after that, Edward can be seen coming out of the bathroom as Ari looks at him attentively with a mysterious look.

Chapter 276 Wind Symbol

Rex finds a spot not far from where they landed, It's a small building that he saw on his right.

The weird thing is the small building is like a mini pyramid located on the corner of the place, the entrance of this small building has no door on it.

But there is a fire symbol above the entrance to this little pyramid that looks ordinary.

After entering the small pyramid, Rex finds that the inside is square-shaped.

There's nothing inside except a square-surfaced perfectly carved rock that lies in the middle, it has drawings around it with a weird pattern on each side.

"Just what the hell is this place", Adhara said while getting inside too.

With the addition of Adhara inside, the small place becomes cramped as the room they have to walk around is limited.

Rex look at the square-surfaced rock, he saw that there's another little pyramid on it.

It's located in the middle of the rock's surface and it's black in color, the black color makes it stand out with the brown sandy color on the surrounding.

Adhara also saw this little pyramid too,

She stretches out her hand to touch the pyramid and saw that there's transparent energy on it.

The energy is crystal blue in color and it hovers around the small black pyramid, it stretches onto Adhara's hand when her hand got close to it.

Looking at this, Adhara becomes curious, "What is this?"

"Don't touch that, we don't know what that energy is", Rex reminded while looking at Adhara.

But Adhara then said while still playing with the crystal blue energy as it lingers around her fingers, "I don't feel anything from this energy", she mumbles.

After shaking his head, Rex stepped out of the small pyramid.

Delta is standing on guard in front of the small pyramid, she can feel other mutated animals wanting to go over here but thankfully they're on the corner-most place.

The mutated animals didn't hover this far from the temple.

While Rex is waiting for Kyran, his eyes then suddenly landed on something.

He saw a glowing light that came from his left, it picked his attention just now as the glowing light got covered by the big tree on his left.

But after going to the small pyramid, the big tree didn't block the glowing light anymore.

Looking at this, Rex frowns as he gives a signal for Delta to wait here before he dashes to the glowing light direction on his left.

With the current power that he had, sneaking through the mutated animals is easy.

Rex slipped past all of the mutated animals that are around him easily, he then arrives close enough to see the source of the glowing light.

'Another pyramid?', Rex thought with a frown.

Upon closer look, Rex saw that the glowing light came from another small pyramid.

This small pyramid is identical to the small pyramid that they just found earlier.

The difference between the first one and this one is that this one is glowing with a sandy color light with a symbol just above the entrance.

Rex squint his eyes and saw that the symbol is a wind-shaped symbol.

After noticing the symbol, Rex frowns as he looks at the wind-shaped symbol, 'Why did that symbol look familiar', he thought.

But even after thinking for a moment, he didn't know why the symbol looks familiar.

Not wanting to check inside the small pyramid lest it's a trap, Rex goes back to the others quickly fearing that Kyran has already come back.

Reaching where Adhara and Delta are, Rex saw that Kyran is still not here.

"Where were you?", Adhara asks after coming out of the small pyramid.

Hearing this, Rex points at the glowing light on his back and replies, "I just checked that out, it's the same as this building but it's glowing"

Adhara looks at the glowing light in confusion.

They then rest in front of the small pyramid while waiting for Kyran.

Meanwhile,

After leaving Rex and the others, Kyran follows the mutated wolf on the back as the mutated wolf runs in the temple's direction.

With the dark element cloaking his presence, Kyran can follow the mutated wolf easily.

Many of the mutated animals glance at the mutated wolf nonchalantly, but none of them expect or even see a shadowy figure following behind the mutated wolf.

Not long after, the mutated wolf stopped near the entrance.

Kyran also stops near the entrance of the temple, he's currently looking around from above the tree as to not notify the mutated animals.

In front of him lies the temple entrance with the three big cats guarding it.

Two huge statues lie on each side of the temple's entrance magnificently, they make the big cats look small in comparison.

The statues are statues of a human with a cat head.

Black daggers are held in the left statue's hands, while the right statue held black khopesh swords on each of its hands that look sharp.

After checking the entrance of the temple, the mutated wolf resumes.

Kyran follow the mutated wolf as it dashes to the left side of the temple,

One of the big cats in front of the temple's entrance turns its head towards the running mutated wolf, it squints its eyes for a moment as the mutated wolf disappears to the left side of the temple.

Passing a couple of mutated camels and scorpions, they arrived at the left side of the temple.

The mutated wolf stopped in front of the crack on the left side of the temple, Kyran approach the crack before he popped his head inside and look at the insides of the temple.

"It's very dark...and what are these writings", Kyran mumbles in awe.

Just by peeking inside the temple, he can already tell that the temple is very old and the writings on the wall are very ancient and mysterious.

After confirming that the crack is still there, Kyran then suddenly frowned.

He looks at the crack on the temple before he mumbles, "I think Delta won't fit, let's just crack it some more so she will fit"

Crack!

Crack!

Kyran pounds the crack while simultaneously trying to make as little sound as possible.

Because the temple wall is already cracked, making the crack bigger is an easy task as the crack crumbles like a crust under Kyran's pummeling.

But then suddenly,

Swosh...

Instantly, Kyran's body got engulfed by the darkness as he blended in the dark.

Because he's currently not training and is inside an unknown place, he's all the time cautious making his reaction time very fast.

It just takes a second as Kyran blended with the dark again.

While looking around cautiously from the dark, Kyran looks to his back trying to find what causes the sandy sound that he heard just before.

He thought that some mutated animals were about to jump on him.

"I swear it's from that direction", Kyran mumbles as he looks at the place just beside the lone mutated camel in front of him.

Although he didn't know what makes that sound, he know that it didn't come from the camel.

But even after waiting for a moment, Kyran found nothing.

Deciding that waiting here for too long is not a good idea, Kyran glance at the crack and finds that it's big enough before he and the mutated wolf go back to Rex and the others.

Unknown to both of them,

The sand around the area that Kyran was suspicious about started moving as soon as he left.

Not long after, Kyran and the mutated wolf got back.

"So? How was it?", Rex asks while folding his arms in front of him.

Hearing this, Kyran then reported what he found from his scout, "The crack is still there and I already make it a bit bigger so that Delta can fit in, and as for the entrance, the big cats are still guarding there and it seems they won't move anytime soon"

Rex nodded his head, he was about to devise a plan but then he saw Kyran's troubled expression.

"What is it?", Rex asks again.

Kyran snapped out of his thought before he replied, "I don't know why, but I just feel like something is looking at me but I don't know what"

But upon hearing this, Rex started to frown.

'Kyran has amazing sense, if he senses something then it's safe to assume that there really is something spying on him', Rex thought as he looks around warily.

With the gifted sense, Kyran got and turned into a Werewolf.

Kyran's senses are amazingly sensitive, it's even more sensitive than Rex's sense.

"Trust your gut, If you feel something is watching you then you're probably right", Rex said making the others also glance around warily.

All of them becomes paranoid as even the sand brushing their feet startled them.

But after nothing happened to them for a while, Rex then explains as he attracts all of the others' attention to him.

"Alright, listen to me", Rex called.

After getting the others' attention, Rex takes a stick that he found on the side before he draws a gem on the sand and said, "This is what we're looking for"

"What's that?", Adhara asks from the side.

Rex points at the gem that he draws with his stick before he explains, "This is the Gem that we're looking for, the gem should be easy to find because it will emit green light. This Gem should be located inside the temple there, and based on what I scouted way back, the Gem will be guarded by three guardians"

"So we will defeat the guardians first, then we will get the Gem", Rex added.

While Rex is explaining their mission here, the others are listening to him attentively as they're quite fascinated and curious about this place.

Based on the look of the place, Adhara and Kyran know that this place is special.

After they all learned about the objective, Rex devised a plan to sneak into the temple through the crack that Kyran has already confirmed.

It didn't take too long before they started to move.

Since the crack is located on the left side of the temple, they only need to go on a straight line because they're already on the left corner of the place.

Rex and Adhara will lead the others.

Slash! Slash!

<Killed a Peak Rank Three Mutated Animals, Obtained 10,000 Exp>

<Killed an Early Rank Four Mutated Animals, Obtained 50,000 Exp>

<Adhara Killed an Early Rank Four Mutated Animals, Obtained 25,000 Exp>

Both of them take down the mutated animals that are on their path with ease.

Rex clawed the mutated animals' neck with his claws while Adhara slit their throat with purple blazing fire that almost killed them instantly.

All of them died as Rex and Adhara stop their body from falling to the ground loudly.

The mutated animals' bodies got caught by the two of them before they lie the carcass down on the ground gently.

Because of this, there is almost no sound can be heard.

The mutated animals on the left side of the temple are easy to deal with because they're mainly rank three and rank four.

If compared to Rex and Adhara, these mutated animals are nothing.

After the path is cleared by Rex and Adhara,

Delta, Kyran, and the mutated wolf then follow the two of them, they didn't need to do anything as many fresh carcasses and blood splattered on the sandy ground.

It didn't take long for them to arrive at the crack.

But upon arriving at the place, "Where's the crack?", Rex asks with a frown.

Hearing this, Kyran runs to the front to look around and turns out the crack on the wall is gone without any trace of it existing in the first place.

"I swear that I saw the crack here", Kyran replied in disbelief.

Back when he checked out the crack with the mutated wolf, he saw the crack with his own eyes.

But reality proves him wrong, the crack is not there anymore.

Kyran still trying to find the crack around this area to no avail "I just crack it bigger a moment ago", he mumbles in confusion.

He even tried to explain it to Rex, he make sure to inspect it carefully.

Looking at Kyran's shocked expression, Rex frown harder as he glances around cautiously, 'Kyran shouldn't be lying, then this can only mean one thing'

Right after he thought that Rex senses something from the ground.

"Look out!", Rex shouted as he pushed Adhara and Delta to the side, Kyran already sensed it first as he jumped away.

BOOM!

Two gigantic spikes sprouted from the ground out of nowhere, Adhara and Delta got flung to the side as the spikes blasted the ground.

Swoosh!

Sand flew to the surroundings because of the sudden sand spikes, it covered their vision with sand as a huge silhouette appeared in front of them.

After recovering from the attack, Rex looks at the silhouette that just appeared.

But then, he suddenly remembered, 'Wind symbol?! It's the creature I saw last time!', he screamed inside his head.

Chapter 277 Sand Elemental

'It's the creature from last time!', Rex screamed in realization after seeing the huge silhouette in front of him that appear from the ground.

Now that he saw the creature in front of him, Rex remembered the last time he's here.

After going inside the temple, the system gave Rex a quest to beat the three guardians to get an extra reward before getting the Carabidis Gem and finishing his Pack Quest.

He then followed the light inside the temple and find himself in front of the huge gate.

There's a hurricane symbol on the huge gate that catches Rex's eyes, and when Rex popped his head inside to peek, he saw this creature that now is in front of him!

Adhara and Kyran look at the creature in front of them in shock.

The creature in front of them is like the embodiment of sand, its lower half is completely made of swirling sand while the top half is humanoid but the creature has no face at all.

Only a set of red eyes lies on its face, the rest of its face is completely flat.

Rex scans the creature with the system before he gritted his teeth,

<Carabidis Sand Guardian>

Race: Elemental Spirit

Power: Sixth Rank (Early) - Sand Elemental

Mental: 193

Strength: 622

Agility: 180

Endurance: 309

Intelligence: 396

Looking at the stats, Rex was quite shocked by the ridiculous amount of strength.

ROAR!!

Right after he scans the Sand Elemental in front of him, the three big cats that are supposed to be at the entrance suddenly lunge in front of them.

The three big cats stand beside the Sand Elemental with their fierce claws on display.

By the looks of things and how the Sand Element reacts to their arrival, Rex realized that these three big cats will fight alongside the Sand Element.

Rex then looks to the side and saw the mutated wolf got impaled by the sand spikes.

With nobody to help the mutated wolf, it got impaled easily since it's only a low-rank creature that doesn't hold a candle in front of the Sand Elemental.

Although their story is not much, Rex slightly feels pain looking at the dead mutated wolf.

He then glance back at the four creatures in front of them before he said, "You guys take care of the mutated wolf, I'll try to fight that thing"

Hearing this, the others nodded their heads as they went into their battle stance.

Even Delta prowl deeper baring her fangs as she fixated her eyes on one of the big cats that are also looking at her with full hostility.

"Let's go!"

CRACK!!!

The ground cracked as Rex jumped towards the Sand Elemental like a maniac.

After Rex's signal,

The others also follow behind him, they all pick their big cats to fight with as their bodies glow with different colors.

BOOM!

Rex's fist glows with a yellow hue as he activated his Force Beam, his arm muscle contracted as he drives his fist towards the Sand Elemental.

Swoosh!

"What?!", Rex widened his eyes, his fist went through the Sand Elemental.

The Sand Elemental can't be touched by his fist as the momentum pushes him through the Sand Elemental, but before he landed on the ground, a sand spike blasted from the ground threatening to impale him.

By twisting his body in the air, Rex manages to dodge the sand spike by a hair's length.

He then landed on the ground before looking back at the Sand Elemental as his battle spirit got riled up, "Then let's try this!"

BLITZ!

Rex's body cracked with black lightning as stretched his hand up and summon a lightning strike.

BOOM!

The Sky Rupture spell landed directly on the Sand Elemental but just a fraction of a second after the Sand Element creates a sand barrier around its body.

But Rex saw that his black lightning hurt the Sand Elemental for quite a bit.

Parts of the Sand Elemental turns black and stiff like glass because of the Sky Rupture spell, and from the way it glares at Rex, it's certain that the Sky Rupture spell hurt it.

"Spells work on it!", Rex mumbles as he tries to conjure another Sky Rupture.

The Sand Elemental feels another disturbance of mana from above, and in response to Rex's attack, its body got sucked into the ground and disappears.

BOOM!

Because of that, the Sky Rupture missed as Rex looks around cautiously.

The Sand around him rumbles because of the Sand Elemental, it's like a creature under the sand moving around creating a track wherever it goes.

Rex's eyes darted left and right before suddenly, his legs got grabbed by something.

Before he can do anything in response, the Sand Elemental grip Rex's leg before it is tossed Rex to the side crashing to the cliff wall.

BOOM!

A web-like crack appeared as Rex's body crashed into the cliff wall.

While Rex is fighting with the Sand Elemental, the others also are currently fighting against their own big cats.

Roar!

The big cats that are fighting Delta have many injuries as the fights go on.

It's a brawl between two animals and their fights are brutal, the biting marks and claw marks that are the sign of their brutal fight can be seen on both of their bodies.

But Delta's body has a little fewer injuries than the big cats.

Thanks to the force barrier that is surrounding her, this helped her in blocking light scratches.

In contrast to Delta's fight, Kyran's fight is the other way around.

Kyran was pushed around by the big cat fighting him because of their gap in power.

The big cat's strength is evidently stronger as every time Kyran clashes against the big cat, he's the one that got pushed back instead.

Boom!

"Arghh!", Kyran grunted as he got flung to a tree on his back.

He glances at the charging big cat that is full of bloodlust before he rolls on the ground to dodge the charging big cat.

Crash!

The tree got uprooted from the ground as the big cat crashed onto it.

Nasty claw wounds can be seen around Kyran's body as his breathing becomes heavy, some of the wound lets out thick yellow pus as the venom on the big cat's fangs takes effect.

This drains his stamina greatly although the wound is recovering at a visible rate.

Kyran looks at the growling big cat before his eyes lit up realizing something, "I don't need to fight it head-on, let's try the way Edward did", he mumbles as his gaze becomes different.

The big cat's lounge towards him menacingly but this time, Kyran's body got engulfed by the darkness as he dodge the attack easily.

With a quick move of his hand, Kyran manages to slash the big cat with his dagger.

It slashed the big cat's side, and although the wound is not deep it's still a start as Kyran begins the taste of victory.

Growl!

The big cat turns its body and attacks Kyran again.

But with the new fighting style that he just decided on, he started to avoid the big cat's frontal attack and turn to dodge it instead.

Numerous slash wounds started to appear around the big cat's body.

In a fit of anger, the big cat swings its huge claws to Kyran who is already on its back powerfully after realizing the pattern that Kyran uses.

Kyran's new fighting style consists of dodging and attacking from the big cat's blindspot.

Although the big cat is just an animal, it can learn Kyran's fighting style and counter with a slash to the back instead of to the front.

Looking at this, a determined look appears on Kyran's face.

The slash looks off balance because how the big cat has to rotate its body fighting against its momentum forcefully, and this will result in a weaker attack.

Realizing this, Kyran raises his leg, "Block what you're able to...", he mumbles.

BAM!!

Kyran's foot was able to block the big cat's attack as the slash got stopped mid-track, this surprised the big cat as it didn't expect Kyran who is weaker in terms of strength can block its attack like this.

With a smile on his face, Kyran pushed the claw away with his leg and swing his dagger.

Stab!

ROAR!!

The big cat roared painfully as Kyran manage to stab its right eye with his dagger, blood started to leak out of its eyes as it stumbled around in pain.

"It worked!", Kyran mumbles in delight before his smile turns into a vicious smile.

Turning to the other side of the battle,

Adhara is also fighting against one of the big cats, and based on their clashes their strength seems to be equal but Adhara's speed is dominating the fight.

Swoosh!

The fiery daggers dances around the dim-lighted place turning the surrounding to purple.

While she dodges the big cat's attack like a dancer, Adhara also is thinking about something as she instinctively dodges every of the big cat's attacks.

"Aim for vital parts", Adhara mumbles as her eyes land on the big cat's belly.

Roar!!

The big cat leaped toward Adhara with the huge claws aiming at her, any normal human that saw this scene would be scared but not Adhara.

With a glint of her eyes, Adhara also dashes towards the big cat.

Just when the claws were about to connect, she ducked down and slides with her knees completely dodging the big cat's attack.

And during this little gap, Adhara is under the big cat.

The fiery daggers burn even brighter as Adhara thrust them to the big cat's belly, the dagger cut through the skin easily like butter.

ROAR!

Feeling its belly gets stabbed, the big cat wail in agony.

Swoosh!

The surrounding sand started to swirl around the big cat as its body disappear and reappeared on Adhara's side.

Looking at this, Adhara was quite surprised.

Turns out the big cat is able to use somekind of spell that can teleport it using the sand, it's quite a powerful spell but it's probably too late.

Adhara glance at the big cat and saw the puddles of blood beneath it.

Because of how clean and deep the stab was, the big cat started to bleed out and its body started to get weak because of how much blood it was losing.

"Let's wrap this up", Adhara mumbles swinging her daggers around.

But then suddenly,

SWOOSH!!

BOOM!!

A figure flew past Adhara before a huge crashing sound was heard.

The mutated animals that are surrounding this place started to notice the fights, especially since the loud crashing sound reverberated in the surrounding.

All of the mutated camels run away, while other predator mutated animals started to close in.

Adhara looks around and finds that the place started to be crowded as the mutated animals are closing in, she then glances at the crashing sound and realized that it's Rex that got sent flying away.

"Rex!!", Adhara shouted from afar.

Hearing his name getting called, Rex lifts up his head before he mumbles, "Although my spell connected, it's not very effective against the Sand Elemental", Rex then stands up with bruises around his body.

"Rrghh...", Rex grunted while holding his right arm that got a nasty bruise on it.

He then glances at the Sand Elemental with a troubled expression, "Its strength is ridiculous, every hit is like a truck", he mumbles in pain.

While Rex is standing up, Adhara glance to the side as she felt something monstrous.

But when she glanced to her right, Adhara steps back subconsciously as she saw the Sand Elemental that is glaring at them with its red eyes.

It's still the same Sand Elemental, but what makes her so surprised is the changes.

Different from what it looked like before, now the Sand Elemental is more muscular with a stabbingly powerful aura that emits out of it.

Swoosh!

The Sand Elemental approached them slowly as its body towers over all of them.

Even Kyran and Delta got distracted from their fight as the Sand Elemental becomes even more eye-catching, they gasped when they saw the Sand Elemental.

Aside from its now threatening being, the Sand Elemental now has four arms...

Chapter 278 One Guardian Down!

Swoosh!

The Sand Elemental stands towering in front of them like a giant, its four arms are bulging with muscles and it increases the energy that is coming out of the Sand Elemental.

Because of this sudden appearance, Kyran, Delta, and Adhara stopped their fights.

The half-beat big cats also step back from the fight while they're distracted by the changes on the Sand Elemental.

One might think that they need to finish off their prey lest it bite them from the back.

But the Sand Elemental that is glaring towards them is like a magnet that attracts their attention, but the attraction comes from their danger sense.

Rex scans the Sand Elemental before he gritted his teeth.

'Its stats have increased dramatically, especially its strength that reaches 900!', Rex thought as he lightly pull Adhara to his back in worry.

The situation might just get out of hand.

Now that he reached the sixth rank, Rex thought that his power can easily beat the guardians of the Carabidis Temple since he can even beat the raven before who almost reached the mid realm.

But turns out the Sand Elemental in front of him is way stronger than he thought.

'It's not night, I need to transform', Rex thought as he looks at the Sand Elemental.

He then glance at Kyran and Delta before he shouted, "Stay close! This one is going to be a hard one to take down"

Hearing this, Kyran and Delta wanted to get close but then,

The Sand Elemental suddenly raises all of its arms up as the sand around this place got pulled to them, Rex can feel the amount of energy that the Sand Elemental gathered.

"SPLIT!", Rex shouted completely retracting his words back.

Just after he shouted that the Sand Elemental swings all of its arms down as the four of them jumped away to dodge it.

KABOOM!!!

With the added strength, the Sand Elemental created a huge crater on the ground.

The shockwave is so astonishing that Rex and the others got shot away unable to withstand it, even the mutated animals around got hit and sent crashing away.

After they recovered, Rex and the others widened their eyes in shock.

Because of the slam from the Sand Elemental, the huge crater spans throughout the Carabidis Temple except for the places around the temple that is covered with an energy barrier.

Aside from that, all of the places got cracked as the walls rumble.

"We're going to fight that? Its strength is terrifying", Adhara commented from the side.

Getting hit by one of the Sand Elemental attacks will definitely crush their bodies and result in death, even their Werewolf hardened body and bones can't withstand that.

Rex gritted his teeth before his body makes a cracking sound.

Crack!

The three of them saw Rex's body transform into a full-fledged Werewolf, his aura shot to the sky as his transformation completed.

Horns that stick out of his head and his fangs made him look vicious.

After turning into his Werewolf form, the others started to feel some sort of aura that makes them hard to look at Rex with their eyes.

It appears out of nowhere, and they can't describe the feeling they had now with words.

When they look at Rex, it's like they're looking at a Mythical being and they're afraid that looking at him with their eyes will soil Rex's presence.

This happened to Kyran and Delta, not Adhara though who have no trouble looking at Rex.

Rex in his Werewolf Form glance at the Sand Elemental with his dagger eyes making the Sand Elemental flinch, it's the presence that startled the Sand Elemental.

ROAR!!

With a loud roar that reverberated to the surrounding, Rex then dashes towards the Sand Elemental like a beast.

His razor-sharp claws glisten as he activated his Claw of Tormentor skill.

Looking at this, the Sand Elemental didn't sit still as a huge shield made of sand materialized before it used the shield to counter Rex's attack.

CLANG!!

Their clash makes a clanging sound as Rex felt his claw tremble upon impact.

Using his skill also can impact the Sand Elemental,

It's clear that the strength still goes to the Sand Elemental, but the Sand Elemental didn't come out of it unscathed as the shield it makes got destroyed by one swing.

After testing the waters, Rex kept attacking like a maniac.

The pain that stacked on his claws got ignored as he keep swinging his arms, he even added a Sky Rupture spell in the midst of his fight to overwhelm the Sand Elemental.

Many sparks were created because of their slash,

Rex's movements are fast while the Sand Elemental stays on its spot while blocking and counter-attacking with its four arms.

From the looks of it, Rex is having a hard time penetrating its defense especially with the four arms that has quite a bit of reflex.

While this is all happening, Kyran's mouth is wide open as he saw the fight.

It's the first time he saw the full transformation of Rex, and the power within him that is threatening to erupt makes him completely in awe.

But Adhara on his side snapped out of her daze as her eyes blazed with purple fire.

Although the Sand Elemental is way stronger than her, it's not that she's completely helpless in front of the Sand Elemental since its movement is rather slow.

Swoosh!

Fire comes out of Adara's palm as she started to fly towards the Sand Elemental.

Purple Fire Mana gathers on her body as she chanted heavily while blazing with purple fire, the ground beneath the Sand Elemental started to burn ablaze, "Great Spell! Fire Maelstorm!"

BOOM!

The ground exploded with endless purple fire that engulfs the Sand Elemental entirely.

"RAARGHH!", Adhara shouted as she pours all of the mana she can gather in this attack, the Fire Rune also glowed brightly that it even burns Adhara because of how much mana she tried to gather mana.

But as expected, her fire didn't do much damage aside from distracting the Sand Elemental.

Rex saw this is all happening before he stopped and channels the Black Lightning in his body, the amount of mana that he gathers completely exceeds any of his previous attacks.

The sword that he used to fight the raven cracked under his immense mana.

This time, Rex will try to use his entire body as a vessel to contain the mana that even a fourth rank weapon can't handle.

'Devo, help me out!', Rex said while gritting his teeth.

Hearing this, Devo was amused at how much mana that Rex is currently gathering thanks to Adhara's distraction, [All this mana to kill a Sand Elemental, Fine I'll help]

Right after Devo said that,

BOOM!

Rex's body explodes with black lightning as Devo imbued Spirit Energy to his black lightning.

It's like Rex's black lightning just got injected with steroid as it becomes thicker and more powerful, even the Sand Elemental feel the wind as it turns to Rex while getting blazed with Adhara's purple fire.

After amassing the maximum output of mana that he can gather, Rex raises his arms to the sky as he chanted, "Great Spell! Sky Rupture!!"

CRACKK!

BOOM!s

BOOM!!

Multiple Lightnin Bolts rain down from the sky hitting the Sand Elemental repeatedly.

ROAR!!

The Sand Elemental roared in pain as the lightning bolt destroyed its shield that it just made shattering it into a million pieces, and even its two additional arms got charred by the Black Lightning while trying to block it.

Added with Adhara's spell, the destructiveness was increased by a mile.

BOOM!!

BOOM!!

It didn't take long before Rex's Sky Rupture Spell engulfs the wailing Sand Elemental.

While Rex kept channeling the Sky Rupture Spell to rain down to the Sand Elemental, Adhara suddenly notice the sand get lifted from the ground and started to swirl around.

It didn't take long before a sandstorm appear swirling around them.

This makes Rex and Adhara struggle to keep their focus to maintain their spells, the sandstorm started to pull their feet off the ground.

But then suddenly,

Roar!

Delta ran towards the wailing Sand Elemental with Kyran on her back.

"I see it! Bring me closer to it!", Kyran shouted as Delta gallop towards the Sand Elemental even amidst the sandstorm that tries to push them away.

Unlike Rex and Adhara who is channeling, both of them can focus on the sandstorm.

Thud Thud Thud!

Delta arrives near the Sand Elemental as the sandstorm near it becomes even stronger, but the white force around Delta's body helped them get through although struggling.

The sand and debris start to cut their bodies as they stride near the Sand Elemental.

With the force of the sandstorm that amounts to a ridiculous level, even the smallest grain of sand turns into shrapnel that can pierce the skin.

After they manage to arrive in front of the Sand Elemental that is still got blasted by Sky Rupture spells repeatedly, Kyran's eyes flash as he saw an orb in the middle of the Sand Elemental's body that is brown in color.

It's really hard to see this brown orb that blended with the whirling sandstorm.

Kyran then prepares himself as Delta almost arrived, the black lightning started to zap their surroundings adding the obstacle towards the Sand Elemental.

And when his chance comes, Kyran's body got cloaked with Dark Mana as he jumped.

Delta's white force also lingers on Kyran's body helping him immensely.

Because of the constant Black Lightning Bolts that Rex rains to the Sand Elemental, there is a hole in the middle of the Sand Elemental's chest and the Sand Elemental is having a hard time healing the hole.

Rex saw this happening while his eyes are blitzing with black lightning.

'What is he doing? Is he mad?', Rex thought in surprise, he can't believe that he saw Kyran get very close to the Sand Elemental and his Sky Rupture spell.

Then, Rex saw as Kyran got inside the Sand Elemental's body and grabbed something.

His skin started to get teared by the force of the sandstorm, blood leaked around his body painting his entire body in red.

It's almost too much to look at, but Kyran didn't stop.

His expression is full of resolution as he reaches for the brown orb, his mind is perfectly clear trying to ignore the enormous amount of pain that he's currently experiencing.

This is easily the most pain he received in his life,

But Rex's words slipped past him that somehow helped him go through the pain.

Feeling that Kyran is inside its body trying to reach for the brown orb, the Sand Elemental becomes even crazier as the sand storm becomes even stronger.

After reaching out for the brown orb, Kyran pulls it and sticks out his bloodied hand up.

Rex and Adhara saw the brown orb in Kyran's hand.

Looking at the brown orb, Adhara and Rex realized what Kyran is trying to do as they gather mana one more time to conjure another spell.

Kyran saw that Rex and Adhara notice what he's trying to do before he threw the orb away.

The orb got tossed outside of the Sand Elemental's body as it tries to reach for the orb, it's clear that the orb is a vital part of the Sand Elemental.

But with its slow movement, it can't outrun Rex and Adhara's spell.

"Ring of Fire!"

"Sky Rupture!"

BLITZ!!

SWOOSH!!

Purple fire erupted from the ground engulfing the brown orb, thick lightning bolts struck down to the brown orb from the sky at the same time.

Crack!

ROAR!

A visible crack appeared on the brown Orbs' surface as the Sand Elemental roared in pain.

Under the two spells powerful pressure, the brown orb can't withstand it for long before the crack started to spread until suddenly,

Splash!

The brown orb shatters into a million pieces.

Right after the brown orb shatters, the sandstorm started to become chaotic as the Sand Elemental rocks its body left and right in pain.

Its center body starts to glow with a brown light and it gets brighter by the second.

By the second, the glow started to condense on the Sand Elemental's chest.

The Sand Elemental screamed with its astral voice that is filled with pain, and looking at this, Rex's body turns into a streak of black lightning while activating his buff.

He flashes steps towards Kyran who got stuck inside the Sand Elemental.

The force started to rip him apart as Kyan shouted in agony, it's clear that the situation he's in is not good and Rex had to step in.

SWOOSH!

With body cracked with black lightning, Rex penetrates the Sand Elemental's body and snatches Kyran inside before bursting through the back.

He got there just in time before the Sand Elemental exploded with energy alongside the sandstorm.

BOOM!

Another even more powerful shockwave blasted from the condensed light in the Sand Elemental's chest that not only pushes them but also scorch anything that touches it.

But Kyran's body already got engulfed by Rex's yellow barrier, and it block most of it.

SWOOSH!

The shockwave makes them roll on the ground a couple of times like a rolling ball, they didn't stop until they got pushed for more than a thousand feet away.

After the shockwave resided, Rex recovers with many cuts around his body.

He then looks at Kyran who is coughing blood but still a smile is plastered on his face, "I think I can tolerate more pain than before"

"Don't be that careless again", Rex replied with slight anger.

But upon hearing this, the smile on Kyran's face didn't fade.

Looking at Kyran's smile, Rex shakes his head in disbelief, "Just don't do that again", he said but there's a hint of a smile on his face.

<Killed Carabidis Guardians 1/3>

<Killed Carabidis Wind Guardian, Obtained 5,000,000 Exp>

Chapter 279 What The Hell Is Happening

"Just don't do that again", Rex said with Kyran lying in front of him.

Somehow Kyran manage to help them beat the Sand Elemental by spotting its core, then he got stuck inside the Sand Elemental almost got ripped to shreds by the condensed light.

What Kyran did was a mad move,

If Rex was not there in the nick of time, he will die alongside the Sand Elemental.

But aside from his reckless behavior, Rex can't deny that Kyran's sense is very useful in such a situation, and without it, the fight will get longer.

They might even lose if the only thing that can kill the Sand Elemental is by destroying its core.

Kyran smiles widely upon seeing Rex's mouth quirked up, the blood that is oozing out of his body should kill any Awakened but he's not just a human.

After saving Kyran, Rex's body turns normal as he looks at the destroyed surrounding.

He's trying to find Adhara and Delta that should also be pushed back by the shockwave, Adhara is further away from the explosion but Delta is very close since she's the one that brought Kyran closer to the Sand Elemental.

On his right, Rex saw Adhara coughing as the sand got inside her mouth.

From the looks of it, she's probably fine because as soon as she saw Rex she gets up and runs towards him.

"Rex! Kyran!", Adhara shouted while running towards them.

Although she's further away from the explosion, her left arm is tilted in the wrong direction that making Rex frown in concern.

He then asks, "What happened?"

Hearing what Rex said, Adhara looks at her left arm before she smiles wryly, "My left arm hit the tree behind me pretty hard, I think it's broken", she said after feeling that her left arm is numb.

Rex sigh before he looks around in worry, "Where's Delta?"

Their surroundings are filled with sand, trees, and mutated animals.

But now, many of the trees got flattened by the explosion while the sand around them becomes more abundant for some reason.

'It's probably because of the Sand Elemental', Rex thought.

After that, Rex and Adhara helped Kyran lean on a tilted tree before they started to look around.

Because of the air consisting of a little bit of sand, Rex and Adhara's smelling sense is not quite as good as the usual place as they struggle to search for Delta.

They went left and right around the sandy place with no sign of Delta.

But Rex notice something weird from the surrounding too, 'Where did the mutated animals go? Some should survive the explosion', Rex thought with a frown.

The mutated animals are many here, it's weird to see this place very empty of life.

Rex then glance at the temple's entrance and saw a glimpse of a mutated camel going inside, it seems all of the mutated animals runs inside of the temple.

"REX! I FOUND DELTA!", Adhara suddenly shouted.

Hearing this, Rex immediately went in Adhara's direction.

Arriving beside her, Rex looks down and saw the third quarter of Delta's body is covered by sand creating a mound, only her tails can be seen from this view.

Without waiting any longer, Rex and Adhara dig the sand in worry.

The sand is not quite deep and when they manage to dig Delta out, they sucked in a cold breath as they both stepped back in disbelief.

In front of them, Delta lies weakly with an human-sized tree fragment stabbing her belly.

The tree fragment penetrate her belly cleanly until it burst out from her back.

Looking at this, Adhara's body froze not knowing what to do but then Rex then notice a slight movement on Delta's body, "She's breathing!", he shouted in joy.

For a second there, Rex thought that Delta is dead.

But thankfully, she's still alive and if treated she will recover since her body is way stronger.

Rex falls to his knee before he caressed Delta's head,

Feeling the gentle touch on her head, Delta's eyes opened slightly but weakly and saw Rex looking at her in worry.

A small whimper came out of Delta's mouth as if she's saying that she's fine.

"Let's bring her to the city first, we will get back here later", Rex said before he glance at the temple in front of him with slight hesitation.

The first guardian they met is this strong, and the others should be as strong as this one.

Rex dare not to think like this but there's a chance that the other guardians might be stronger than the Sand Elemental, it's hard to say by looking at the temple's entrance that gives off a mysterious aura.

After looking at the temple's entrance for a moment, Rex signals the other to leave.

The climb up is harder than climbing down,

Because of carrying Delta's body, it's simply not possible for Rex to carry such a huge beast while climbing the cliff wall with his human body.

So he needs to turn into his Werewolf form so he can move freely.

Adhara is tasked to carry Kyran while Rex is carrying Delta, they're still haven't started their climb yet since the wood fragment is still there and Adhara's left arm is broken.

Delta will bleed out if the wood fragment is pulled, and she will die then.

Rex was wrecking his brain to climb the cliff, he can't find an alternative since he's the only one that can still move freely.

Almost all of his injuries are minor and not threatening, and it's healing too.

The problem that Rex just realized is that Adhara's hand is broken, and now he's thinking twice to let Adhara carry Kyran up with her condition.

He thought of leaving Adhara down here while he brings the two up.

But he can't really do that since Kyran is still weak, and he can't possibly hold onto Delta's body that will also apply more pressure to Delta's wound.

Adhara will also not be safe here, it's too risky.

Looking at Rex who is in a dilemma, Adhara then said, "Just bring Delta back first"

"I can't do that, What happened if something happened while I was gone here?", Rex replied with a frown, the temple is mysterious and there's no guarantee that Kyran and Adhara will be safe here.

Before he becomes conflicted, Rex immediately asks the system.

At first, Rex thought that he can just transport back to Wedron City with the others.

Turns out, all transportation items cannot be used here because of some sort of energy that blocked any transportation.

It surprised Rex and now the situation becomes problematic.

Although he can just buy healing elixirs from the shop, he's not that rich anymore.

Spending gold needlessly if they're not urgent will just pummel his gold down, and he still needs many things that he needed to save the gold for.

Reaching the sixth rank is the max for his current element, he needs to evolve the black lightning.

With Delta's immense life force, she shouldn't die because of her injury.

But in this situation he needs to be decisive, Rex then finally said, "I'm going to go on first with Delta, I'll come back for the both of you later"

"Just make sure to stay on this spot, don't wander around", Rex added.

"Okay", Adhara replied as she nodded her head.

After deciding to just leave them both here and get back as soon as possible, Rex looks around to make sure one last time before he finally turns into his Werewolf Form again and leaped up while carrying Delta.

Both Adhara and Kyran saw as Rex stabbed his claws and make his way up the cliff.

His movement is very agile and fast that it didn't take long for him to disappear in the dark clouds, all of this happened in just a few seconds.

Adhara sits down while leaning on the cliff wall with Kyran beside her.

The fight that they just had is the hardest fight for them, even now they still can't believe they manage to defeat such a monster.

"You're really bold back there", Adhara said lightly.

Hearing this, Kyran glance at Adhara weakly with wounds covering his body and replied, "I figured that creature can't be killed that easily, and then I spot that orb"

Adhara smiles lightly as they both rested.

The rough subtle wind that has some sand on it brushes their body.

After the fight with the Sand Elemental, there are no sounds that can be heard from the mutated animals except for the sound of the wind.

While Adhara is resting, her eyes then suddenly get attracted to something.

Since the explosion from the Sand Elemental's death flattened the surrounding place except for the temple that is covered with an invisible barrier.

In front of her, Adhara saw three similar small pyramids as before.

She saw the small pyramid that they got in before, the small pyramid that Rex found glowing, and another small pyramid on her right that looks identical to each other.

The small pyramid that Rex said to be glowing is now emitting a sandy aura.

Adhara saw that the brown aura hovers in the air before it got attracted to something, that something is located right where the Sand Elemental just died.

Looking at this, Adhara then stands up with a bit of struggle and approaches the brown energy.

Kyran who is closing his eyes on the side felt Adhara gets up as he opened his eyes slightly, "Where are you going?", he asks weakly.

Hearing this, Adhara waves her hand and replied, "Just wait there"

Adhara approaches the place where the Sand Elemental died which seems to attract the brown energy, she gets closer to it before she saw the brown energy hovering above a spot of sand.

Upon noticing this weird occurrence, Adhara then went on her knees and dig that spot.

It didn't take long before she saw a glowing orb buried inside the sand, and the brown energy becomes excited as it caress the glowing orb.

She then takes the orb with a slight hesitation before she inspects it.

Based on the appearance of the light brown glowing orb, it's similar to the core Kyran just tossed.

In fact, it's completely the same as the core Kyran just tossed, but Adhara remembers that the core got destroyed into a million pieces.

"Is this a fragment of the core? Or even an essence of the core?", she mumbles lightly.

After inspecting the golf-sized orb, Adhara then looks at the glowing small pyramid in front of her and the orb in her hand with a frown.

The small pyramid is like pulling the orb towards it whilst in Adhara's hand.

She then went towards the small pyramid with the glowing orb in her hand,

"Rex told us to stay put!", Kyran shouted from the back after seeing Adhara go closer to the small pyramid with the glowing brown orb.

Hearing this, Adhara then shouted back, "I'm just going to check it out!"

Arriving at the small pyramid, Adhara went inside as the brown energy guides her inside.

Inside the small pyramid, there's also a square-surfaced rock that has the same black small pyramid in the middle of its surface.

Adhara went inside the place and saw that the brown energy is signaling for her to put the brown orb on top of the black pyramid.

With a slight hesitation, she wanted to place the brown orb on top of the black pyramid.

But just as her hand almost arrives on top of the black pyramid, her hand stopped as she remembered that Rex told her not to do anything.

After shaking her head, Adhara wanted to leave when suddenly,

Clang!

Adhara widened her eyes when suddenly the brown orb shot towards the black pyramid before it stopped right on top of it.

This caught her off guard since she didn't know something like this might happen.

Illumination brown light blinded Adhara's vision as the brown orb rotates above the black pyramid, and when the light resided,

Rumble!

The ground shakes making Adhara stumble in her place, she instantly runs outside in worry.

When she got outside, she saw the brown orb appear on top of the small pyramid with a wind symbol on the entrance before it shot a brown light towards the temple's entrance.

Kyran also saw this happening as the brown light shot at the temple's entrance.

Adhara was petrified since she doesn't know what is happening, she then look at the entrance before her eyes widened in surprise when she saw the right statue beside the entrance suddenly tilts its cat head towards her direction.

Before she can comprehend what she's seeing,

One of the Khopesh swords that the statue held suddenly flew towards Adhara making her flinch, it travels lightning fast before stabbing the ground in front of her.

CLANG!

The Khopesh sword stabs the ground in front of Adhara as it emits a brown hue, and by the energy, it emitted Adhara knows that it's a powerful sword.

Right after the Khopesh sword landed, the small pyramid on Adhara's left burst with energy.

BOOM!

The small pyramid that looks normal before suddenly glows with a red light just like the small pyramid with the wind symbol before, and this startled Adhara and Kyran as the booming sound came out of nowhere.

"What the hell is happening!", Adhara said in shock.

Chapter 280 You Can't Go There

Rex burst through the dark clouds with Delta on his other hand.

He's climbing with one hand by stabbing the cliff wall with his claws, the weight of Delta's body doesn't really bother him since his strength has reached a terrifying level but her size makes it harder for her to be carried.

Upon going through the dark clouds, Rex sigh in relief as the rain has already stopped.

Although the rain has already stopped, the cliff walls are still wet and slippery but with his claws, he can't really slip that easily.

In just a few jumps, Rex manages to reach the top.

His movements are like a beast as he climbs the cliff wall, holes are left behind where he stabbed his claws marking the spot with every jump he does.

After arriving at the top, Rex dashes with all his might towards the city's direction.

Delta is still very active while he's carrying her, so Rex is not that worried about her not making it but instead he's more worried about Adhara and Kyran who he left down there.

They might be in danger this second, he doesn't know.

~

Meanwhile, Inside Faraday University.

Edward just got out of room 505 after giving Evelyn the items that she asks for to Rex, Evelyn accept the items he brought gracefully with a hint of excitement in her eyes.

She even asks Edward to accompany her to drink a glass of wine.

Because of the excitement in Evelyn's eyes, Edward doesn't want to ruin her mood so he accompanies her for a drink inside the room.

While they're inside the room, Edward can't help to get distracted.

It's like Evelyn doesn't know the norm of dressing with a guy inside her room.

She's only wearing a revealing nightdress that makes Edward's throat go dry, every inch of her being screams alluring.

Even Rex got tempted by her, so it's not surprising to see Edward tempted also.

His face is currently flushed after getting out of the room, even his clothes have some wet spots on them because of his sweat.

"She's very stimulating", he mumbles while shaking her head.

For all the time he becomes a student of Faraday University, he only knows Kevin has a sister.

He never met with the Blazing Lion of Faraday University's sister.

It's clear that his experience inside the room is very tempting, to say the least, and Edward needs to scrunch his face with his hand before leaving Evelyn's room.

After leaving the place, Edward was surprised when he saw Ari intercept him.

Ari intercept him just when he was about to leave Evelyn's room hallway, and he was quite surprised to see Ari here since they part ways after arriving at the university.

"Why are you here?", Edward asks with a slight frown.

The exchanges he had with Ari before made Edward suspicious of him, now he knows that the Reed Family has something to do with the assassin before.

This provides more reason for Edward to be cautious around Ari.

Seeing Edward's cautious behavior, Ari sigh lightly.

He then signals for Edward to get to the side of the way since there're students passing by before he said, "You want to know why we let the assassin through?"

Edward raised one of his eyebrows questioningly while gazing intently at Ari, he wanted to know why Ari did that but he knows that he won't get it that easily.

"Then let me ask you this, Did Rex do that to you?", he asks lightly.

Hearing this, Edward frowns as he didn't quite get what Ari means by that.

He then added, "Your fire, and also Adhara's, Did Rex do that?"

Ari's question caught Edward off guard but he tried to keep his expression neutral, giving more reaction than he needs to will just be the same as telling Ari the answer.

"Why did you conclude that?", Edward replied calmly.

Ari squint his eyes trying to see through Edward's expression, he then said, "Adhara becomes stronger with him by her side, you get stronger with him by your side, and also Kyran-"

"You forget about Rosie", Edward intervenes.

If Reed's family's guess is based on that, then Rosie can be brought up.

From the start of Rex's arrival at Ochyra University, Rosie is the first one to be by his side and she's not that strong even until today.

Hearing this, Ari stopped mid-sentence.

Both of them stare at each other probingly while keeping eye contact.

The students passing by them look at them weirdly, even the guards in front of Evelyn's room glance at them weirdly as they can feel the intensity coming from them.

After fierce eye contact, Ari finally said, "Look, I'm trying to give you a way out. If you answer me then I'll give an information in exchange for your answer"

"What kind of information?", Edward asks questioningly.

Ari didn't answer as he look at Edward demandingly, but this makes Edward steel his mind and decide to not tell him anything.

It's better to just tell Rex about this, the Reed Family can't be trusted.

But when he was about to refuse, "Edward!"

A woman voice called out to him from the side,

Hearing his name getting called, Edward glance to the side and find Rosie calling out to him, and from her heavy breaths, it seems she's been running here.

"Rosie? What's wrong?", Edward asks in confusion.

Rosie looks at Edward in delight but then her eyes landed on Ari, "Are you guys talking about something?", she asks after seeing the two.

She can feel the weird air around both of them, and she felt like she just interrupted something.

After getting asked by Rosie, both of them started to feel Awkward.

"I'm going to check the perimeter, goodbye", he said before turning into a gust of wind and disappearing from the place.

Rosie was confused but then she didn't mind and look at Edward.

Edward glance at Rosie before she asks, "Where have you been?"

"I'm just doing some quests with Rex and the others, why?", Edward replied nonchalantly.

Hearing this, Rosie's eyes lit up before she asks hurriedly, "Do you know where Rex is? I need to talk to him about something"

"I don't know, have you texted him or called him?", Edward asks back.

Rosie takes out her phone before showing the screen to Edward, "I already texted and called him, but he never answers his phone"

"I don't know where he is, we separated because I needed to do something for him", Edward replied while shrugging his shoulders, he don't know where they went.

But when Edward wanted to leave, Rosie stopped him, "Can you please help me?"

"What do you want me to do? I don't know where he is", Edward replied back truthfully, he even emphasize the word I don't know to her.

Rosie then asks pleadingly, "Can you call him?"

"You said it yourself he can't be reached, how could he answer my call?", Edward said in confusion.

Although the place they went before is clouded with mist, the signals in these current times are many times stronger so Rex should've been able to be reached.

But of course, there are some places that are still unreachable.

So with that being said, there will be no difference if Rosie called or even Edward called since she said Rex can't be reached.

Rosie then insisted, "I didn't say that he can't be reached, Just please call him once"

With a sigh, Edward finally takes out his phone and dialed Rex's number to call him.

The phone rang a couple of times as Edward looks at Rosie in confusion, and it didn't take long before Rex finally picks his phone up.

"Edward? Have you brought the items to Evelyn?", Rex asks.

Edward glance at Rosie who is pulling up her face closer to hear what Rex is saying before he answered, "Yeah I just give her the items"

"Ok alright then, we'll be back in a couple of days", Rex then replied.

Hearing this, Edward then asks as he heard some wailing voice on Rex's background, "What is that sound? Is it Delta?"

"Yeah, she's being treated right now. We got into a fight and she got impaled on her belly, but she will be okay", Rex replied assuringly.

After saying that, Rex was about to hang up.

But before he can hang up, Rosie suddenly signals to Edward before Edward then said hurriedly stopped Rex, "Rex!", he called out.

"Yeah? Is there anything else?", Rex replied back.

From the tone of Rex's voice, Edward can hear an urgent tone in it.

Rosie who is by Edward's side then signals to him to ask Rex where he is, "Where are you right now?", Edward asks calmly.

Hearing this, Rex pause for a moment before he answered, "Wedron City, Why?"

After hearing where Rex is, Rosie immediately thanked Edward before she immediately leaves the place hurriedly completely ignoring Edward who is trying to stop her.

"I gotta go, talk to you later", Rex suddenly said before he hung up.

Edward puts his phone back in his pocket before he chased Rosie who was about to disappear into a corner, "Wait! You can't go there!", he shouted in worry.

Based on what Rex said, it's clear that they just fought something.

He told that Delta just got impaled, so if Delta got hurt then he can't imagine what will happen to Rosie if she went there all on her own.

So he chased after her to prevent that from happening.

Unknown to both of them, Evelyn is eavesdropping by her door and heard the conversation Edward had with Rosie and also Ari.

She then closes the door lightly with a smile, "You're very mysterious indeed"

~

After hanging up on Edward, Rex looks to the side and saw the doctor is currently handling Delta that is already lying down on a steel platform.

He's currently inside a hospital room in Wedron City.

The city thankfully has a vet for treating Delta, he's not used to treating such a huge beast like Delta but the people here said that he's the best in the city.

So Rex lets him deal with Delta, it should work out since Delta has a very strong body.

"Treat her well doctor", Rex said lightly.

Hearing this, the doctor looks at Rex with a smile before he replied, "Of course, you can rest assured that I will give the utmost to handle her"

Rex nodded his head after hearing the doctor's confident answer.

Without waiting for Delta to be treated, Rex left the hospital room before he runs back to Carabidis Temple to check on Adhara and Kyran.

The injuries on them should heal quite a bit, but the real danger is Carabidis Temple.

In no time, Rex reaches the cliff that has Carabidis Temple on the bottom of it before he instantly jumps into the cliff.

He then stabs his claws as he started making the way down.

Not long after that, Rex penetrates the dark clouds and his eyes instantly got attracted to the small pyramid that is glowing with a reddish light.

'That one is not glowing before', he thought with a frown.

Then he also saw the small pyramid that has the wind symbol on its entrance shooting brown light towards the Temple, he's now sure that this place changed since he left with Delta.

Rex landed on the sandy ground briefly and looks around.

He didn't find Adhara and Kyran anywhere, 'Where are they?!', he screamed inside his head.

Without wasting any more time, Rex dashes forward. He smells Adhara's faint smell that lingers in the air as he makes his way towards the small pyramid with a wind symbol on its entrance.

On his way there, Rex saw the right statue is looking towards the small pyramid.

Aside from that, the statue on the right also has one of its swords disappeared making Rex frown even harder.

Upon entering the small pyramid, Rex saw Adhara and Kyran in there.

He widened his eyes before he sigh in relief, "What are you guys doing here? Didn't I tell you to stay put until I got back?", Rex said with a hint of anger.

Numerous things can happen to them, and they make him worry by going here.

Adhara and Kyran glance at Rex who just enter the small pyramid, they're glad that Rex got here.

But upon looking at the both of them, Rex saw a faint brown light that shines on their faces, "What is it?", he asks curiously.

After approaching them, Rex saw a sword in front of them that shone with brown light.

Rex looks at the sword in surprise as he didn't expect to see this, he then looks at Adhara and Kyran who are also confused, "What happened here?"