'Vampires...!', Rex mumbles as he looks at the pale skin people in front of him.

Kyran and Adhara are already on his back as they also glare at the sudden arrival of the Vampires, the stink of blood that comes from these Vampires are very thick and it stings their noses since they have a way better smell sense than humans.

Right after Rex got pushed away, Jarvald already leaped and rescue Vivian that is still hurting from the silver bullets.

'Tch, talk about timing', Rex thought with a scoff.

Just when Jarvald was about to answer the question about Rex's royal bloodline, these Vampires appear out of nowhere and attack Rex.

Because of that, Rex lost the leverage over Jarvald to answer his question. He cursed the Vampires inside his head that decided to attack him first instead of attacking Jarvald who is clearly stronger than him.

Upon looking at the group of Vampires, Rex saw that the group is led by a female Vampire.

The female Vampire has glowing red eyes that are highlighted more with her black outfit, her white hair curls down to her back, and her fingernails are black and sharp.

Rex's eyes then landed on the vampire behind the leading Vampire,

'I know that one', Rex thought as he look at a Vampire that hides behind the leading Vampire.

It's the Vampire that manages to escape Rex when he rescues Rosie at Qrila City, this Vampire is also the one that gave the information that Supernatural is learning to use other races' spells.

Issac Delarosa,

"What kind of party is this? Why am I not invited?", the leading Vampire said.

The leading vampire looks at Rex with a smirk on her face that exposes her long and sharp fangs, and that smirk gave Rex goosebumps as he knows that the leading Vampire is no joke.

Even with the upgrade he gets, this particular Vampire still gives him goosebumps.

Rex glance at the woman before he asks with a frown, "Did you come here to kill me?"

Hearing this, the leading Vampire smiles even wider.

"No honey, the opposite actually. I want to keep you alive, Why don't you come with me without any resistance", The leading Vampires said while playing with her fingers.

Rex frowns even harder as he scans the leading Vampire,

<Ana Delarosa>

Race: Ancient Vampire - Queen

Power: Seventh Rank (Early) - Blood Fighter

Mental: 511

Strength: 1037

Agility: 1739

Endurance: 911

Intelligence: 966

Looking at Ana's stats, Rex gulped harshly seeing that she has seventh rank power.

This is the first time he ever encountered a Supernatural that reaches the seventh rank, and from the aura she emits, Rex felt helpless as her aura is sharp and domineering.

Her agility almost reaches triple Rex's agility.

After looking at Rex with an evil smirk, her eyes then glance to the side where Jarvald is taking out the silver bullets from Vivian hurriedly.

The leading Vampire then said with a frown, "Jarvald? How did you get here?"

Hearing this, Jarvald looks up upon the familiar voice before he replied with a fierce glare, "Ana Delarosa, What are you doing here?"

"The same as you I suppose", she replied while glancing at Rex.

Ana then turns her body towards Jarvald before she said with a sweet smile, "Can you kindly let me take him? I'm sent by the Werewolves to retrieve him"

"You damn Vampires! Do you really think I'll believe that?!", Jarvald roared angrily.

He then continues, "What happens to the alliance against Humans?! The Werewolf needs his bloodline, it will give us an edge against the humans!", Jarvald shouted desperately, he instantly realizes that the Vampires are up to something.

If what she said is true, there's no reason for them to not have a Werewolf in their group.

Especially since the Prince's aura is very sensitive and can be felt clearly by any Werewolves, so what Ana said is definitely a lie.

But Ana's smirk went even wider making her look eviler, "Why do you care?"

"It's not like you're still a part of the Werewolves, they thought you're dead and I'm planning to keep it that way", Ana added with her soothing sweet voice that makes Jarvald grit his teeth.

After saying that, Ana turns towards Rex and the others again.

"Where were we", she said playfully.

Rex gritted his teeth as he steals glances at Jarvald that just told Vivian to go away, 'I need to side with him if we were to escape from this', Rex thought with a frown.

Issac then suddenly said with his meek voice, "So what will it be? Come with us voluntarily or...?"

Hearing this, Rex gritted his teeth as he glared at Issac who is smiling at him mockingly.

Even with hiding behind Ana, Issac still flinched when Rex glare at him before Rex return back the mocking smile. This makes Issac grit his teeth as his breathing becomes heavy in anger.

"The hard way it is", Ana mumbles but before she can do anything,

A voice came from the trees as a couple of stepping sounds can be heard.

"It's this way, we're not going to let him get the treasures in that place"

"Why do we need to really?"

"What do you mean?! That brat hurt me, a UWO official and he must be punished!"

Rex heard this too before and it didn't take long for a group of humans to emerge from the forest, and all of them widened their eyes in surprise when they saw the Supernaturals in front of them.

The group of people consists of eight humans, and Rex found four of them familiar.

After emerging from the forest, the group of people suddenly stopped as they saw four Werewolves and Four Vampires in front of them.

They're caught off guard since they're not expecting this,

It's like they're in the Supernatural territory, this kind of lineup shouldn't be possible especially since this place is the human's territory.

BOOM!

Three of the humans burst with immense mana as three spirits appeared on their backs, one of them then shouted, "ALERT THE CITY! THERE IS A SUPERNATURAL ATTACK!"

"TELL THEM THERE ARE VAMPIRES AND WEREWOLVES ATTACKING!", he added.

"Yes!", another Awakened replied before running away.

Seeing the Supernaturals in front of them, the UWO official also sucked in cold breath since she can feel the powerful aura that came from these Werewolves and Vampires.

Ana glance to the side with her sharp eyes and saw the humans, "Oh, Delightful snacks"

SWOOSH!

In the blink of an eye, Ana turns into a blur before instantly attacking the group of humans.

CRACK!

"AARGHH!!"

"RAARGHH!"

Ana snap some of the Awakened's neck easily like snapping twigs.

Just with a swing of her black and sharp fingernails, blood splattered to the trees and the ground as the Awakened got killed instantly.

The sixth rank Awakened are nothing in front of her, Ana makes them look like toy soldiers.

Ana laughs as she bathes on the blood of the deceased,

She grabs the running Awakened that just realized that Ana is way out of their league by the shoulder, she then yanks them back before biting the Awakened on his neck.

"AAAHH!!", the Awakened shouted as his blood got sucked by Ana's fangs.

The scream of terror resounded to the surroundings as none of them manage to run from Ana's fangs, all of them got their blood sucked out of their body as their body turns pale and dry.

Even the UWO official, she regretted coming back for Rex.

She runs through the forest with heavy breaths, the fear in her eyes can be clearly seen as the laugh from Ana instill her with fear.

It didn't take long before her perspective started to spin,

The world seems to spin around as her consciousness started to fade, her head got chopped off cleanly by Ana without her even knowing how she died.

Meanwhile, Rex and the others can hear the scream of the Awakened.

With Ana busy not letting the Awakened away, the group of Vampires is left with Issac and two other Vampires that have a mid-sixth rank power.

Rex glance at Jarvald who is also looking at him,

Both of them nodded their heads in sync before Rex then whispers, "Kyran use your dark spells, and Adhara follow my lead"

After he said that,

BOOM!!

Rex and Jarvald vanish from the spots, the ground cracked under their might. Both of them pounce towards the group of Vampires that is caught off guard by the sudden attack.

Seeing this, Issac widened his eyes after seeing Rex's menacing glare.

CLANG!!

Jarvald tackled a mid-sixth rank Vampire with his body emitting a bloody aura, while Rex also aims at the mid-sixth rank Vampire, "Adhara, get that one", he said while pointing at Issac.

SLASH!

Rex slashed his new katana as the Vampire manage to block it with a blood barrier.

But the momentum from Rex's strength is too much as he manages to push the Vampire away, his strength right now almost reaches the four-digit and that rivals of a mid-sixth rank Supernatural.

While Rex is fighting against the Vampire, Adhara did what Rex just said.

Although she's still not in her right mind, the instinct of fighting is still there as her claws blaze with purple fire before slashing them at Issac.

The slash creates arcs of fire that emits terrifying heat,

BAM!

Issac got a slash right on his face but he already uses the same spell that Rex saw before, the Dragonman spell as his face was covered by the scales of a dragon.

Adhara's strength that is added by the Werewolf form pushes Issac back.

His feet create two lines on the ground as he tries to stop the momentum, but with Rex's Alpha Bearing skill that surrounded the place, Issac becomes weaker because of his mental.

"MOM!!", Issac shouted calling for Ana.

Without pausing her attacks, Adhara kept swinging her arms to take down Issac.

Meanwhile,

BLITZ!

Rex swings the katana in his hand that is blitzing with black lightning, few scratches can be seen on his opponents as the katana does its thing.

"Blood Magic! Bloody Mist!"

PSSHHH!

The vampire that is fighting with Rex uses his spell as his body burst with red mist.

Rex's vision got clouded with red mist as the smell of blood dominated his sense, he got trapped by the vampire inside the bloody mist.

SLASH!

"Rrghh!", Rex grunted as his leg got clawed by the Vampire.

He looks around the bloody mist but can't locate the Vampire, it's like his senses got blocked by the bloody mist entirely.

SLASH!

SLASH!

The attacks came repeatedly and Rex can't react to them,

After the last slash that landed on his shoulder, Rex steadies his breathing as the sky rumbles.

When the vampire is just about to attack,

BOOM!

A lightning bolt zapped Rex from the sky before his body disappeared, the Vampire was completely shocked after seeing Rex suddenly disappear.

The Vampire cancels the bloody mist spell and looks around in confusion.

But then suddenly,

KABOOM!

Another lightning strike landed on the Vampire as a katana pierced his chest cleanly, "ARGHH!
How did you-?!"

Rex stabbed the Vampire with his katana,

With his newfound strength, it's not a problem to pin the Vampire down with his katana since his strength is more than enough to rival this Vampire.

Rex then imbued his fist with red force as he punch the Vampire right on its face.

BAM!

The punch send the Vampire to dreamland, his head got planted on the ground roughly.

After knocking the Vampire out with his punch, Rex glance to the side and found Jarvald also already finish his fight. The vampire that unluckily has to fight Jarvald has all of his limbs ripped off and Jarvald bites the Vampire's head to finish him off.

It was a gory scene, but Jarvald didn't seem bothered by it at all.

"Now you're pissing me off", a sweet but threatening voice came from Rex's front.

Ana just finished massacring the Awakened that tries to run away, her mouth still has the fresh blood of the Awakened matching her red eyes that are now murderously looking at Rex and Jarvald.

Rex then saw Issac jump and land beside Ana, he manage to escape with claw wounds around his body even with the scales protecting him.

There's also a hint of Dark Mana around those wounds, It seems Kyran joins Adhara's fight.

With two Vampires dead, Ana's aura blasted threatening to tear Rex apart.

"You're gonna wish you didn't do that", Ana said lightly.

The air becomes cold right after she said that, her expression contorted as she saw the two vampires lying on the ground.

Hearing this, Rex widens his eyes in surprise, 'She kills all of them that fast?!'

SWOOSH!!

BOOM!

Ana karate chopped Adhara and then Kyran so hard that they got planted on the ground heavily, both of them slowly turns into their human form with just a smack of Ana.

It happened so fast that even Jarvald hardly react to her movements.

Both of Kyran and Adhara's bones got broken by that one attack paralyzing them instantly.

The blood aura around Ana's body becomes intense. She then disappears and sent Jarvald crashing away with a fist imbued with blood aura into the forest breaking dozens of trees in the process.

After doing that, Ana glances at Rex slowly with murderously eyes.

She tilts her head slowly making Rex's danger sense scream, and without Rex even realizing.

BAM!

GRAB!

"HUAKH!!!", Rex got punched in his stomach before his neck got grabbed by Ana, the powerful punch stirred Rex's insides making him spit a mouthful of blood.

Looking at this, Issac smiles from the back seeing Rex got beaten by his mom.

"What should I do to you?", Ana mumbles as she looks at Rex's eyes intently.

Rex struggles in her arms as the grip is too powerful for him to do anything about it, her frail and slender arm that looks weak produces such power that is way out of Rex's league.

"Fuck you", he said with a fearless smirk on his face.

Hearing this, Ana laughs hysterically with her sweet soothing voice.

"You should be thankful that the King will give a reward good enough to let your insolence slide", she said sharply while bringing Rex's face closer to hers.

But then, her eyes fall to Rex's beating heart, "But the pain that doesn't kill you, I think the king will let it slide", she smirks evilly while raising her claws.

Splat!

"Rrrghh", Rex groans lightly as his chest got pierced, his body turned back to human form because of this.

Her claws slightly grazed Rex's heart and this brought pain Rex has never felt before.

Even with the painful occurrence, Rex is not worried since Ana will not kill him. But he is still ready to activate the Invincible item if Ana tries to hurt Kyran and Adhara more.

Ana smiles like a psychopath as she saw Rex's painful look,

Before she can do anything else to Rex, a familiar voice interrupted them coming from the forest that makes Rex's eyes widen, "Rex...?"

Chapter 292 Werewolves Vs Vampires

"What happened here?", a woman asks after she saw blood covering the surroundings.

The man beside the woman also frowns after he saw the blood, there is even a corpse with its guts scattered everywhere and by the looks of it, its deaths are still recent.

With the corpse and blood, the man felt the bad omen, "I don't think we should continue"

"This is wrong, we need to go back. These corpses are high rank Awakened", the man said, he then went to his knee and inspect the corpse in front of him, "Whatever kills him, it happened so fast since there is no sign of struggle"

The man can feel the powerful mana leftovers from the corpse, the corpse is definitely a high-rank Awakened that got attacked by something.

Knowing this, the high-rank Awakened should be able to defend himself.

But the surrounding stated otherwise, the trees around this place are still intact and the ground doesn't have any signs of a battle. With a sixth rank power, destroying this place should be easy.

Hearing this, the woman also hesitated to continue.

But then she suddenly shakes her head, "He might be around here, we need to help him!"

After saying that, the woman runs forward following the trails of blood that should guide her to whatever powerful creature caused all of this.

Seeing this, the man widened his eyes as he follow the woman, "Wait! It's too dangerous!"

The more they travel deeper into the forest, the blood trails, and corpses increase.

It pummeled the woman's will to keep going further, but when the man was about to convince the woman to go back since this place is obviously dangerous.

BOOM!

SRRTT!

A crashing sound suddenly can be heard from their front,

Then the sound of many trees broken as something crashes through them can be heard from the right, it piqued their attention and without much thinking, the woman runs in the sound direction.

"NO! STOP!", the man shouted and grab the woman's arm.

Feeling the tight grab around her arm, the woman looks back at the man and said, "He might be in danger, shouldn't we help?! The city's people said they went this way!"

"I know, but you know that we can't do anything to help him", the man said convincingly.

But the woman only shakes her head stubbornly, she then twists her arm breaking free from the man's grab before she runs away completely ignoring the man calling for her.

It didn't take long for the two of them to exit the forest,

When the woman went through the forest, she saw a huge cliff in front. There are also Vampires around the place that makes the woman gasp in surprise.

But then, her eyes landed on a man that has his neck choked by a Vampire.

"Rex...?", she said lightly after she realized who the man is.

A honeyed voice suddenly calls out to Rex from the side, the voice is very familiar to Rex and he's hoping that he heard it wrong since the situation is not good.

Rex tries to turn his head to the side under Ana's grip.

After he manage to look to his right, his eyes widen as he saw two familiar faces.

He can't believe that the both of them arrive at a very bad time, there's a Seventh Rank Vampire holding his neck and he can't do anything about it.

The two familiar faces are Rosie and Edward.

Both of their body stopped when they saw Rex get held up by a Vampire.

They also saw Kyran and Adhara lying on the ground unmoving, the leftovers of battle can be seen around this place as both of their eyes widen.

"Another snack?", Ana suddenly said with a creepy smile.

Hearing this, Rex struggles even more as he said chokingly, "Don't! Leave them alone"

"You know them? This might become more fun than it already is", Ana said as she glance at Issac and signals him to bring Rosie and Edward to her.

Issac then looks at both of them with a fierce glare.

By the aura Edward and Rosie emitted, both of them are not as strong as Rex and the others.

The realization that Edward and Rosie are weaker makes Issac smile brutally, his confidence shot up as he walks pridefully towards them.

"You want me right?! Then take me!", Rex shouted desperately.

But hearing this makes Ana's smile even wider, by Rex's reaction she know that these two humans are something to Rex and this makes her delighted.

She then said, "Let's play a bit more, that expression of yours is tempting"

Rex struggles to break free as he uses all of the skills in his arsenal, he even uses the Berseker Curse as a red crescent moon symbol appeared on his forehead.

Even with all of that, Ana is still stronger than him by a mile.

"Keep struggling, I like it that way", Ana said as she looks at Issac who is approaching the two.

Seeing Issac coming at them, Edward steps forward to shield Rosie before his body burns with a dark fire that shocks Rosie since she has never seen this before.

Her eyes widen as she can feel Edward's power already reaches fifth rank and even more.

This makes her bite her lips as she looks at Rex, Edward, and the others one by one in thought.

"Rosie, run away from here right now and ask the city to bring reinforcements. I'll hold this one down, hurry!", Edward said while he went into his battle stance.

Right after he said that, "Going somewhere so soon?"

BOOM!

Issac propelled himself forward like an arrow of blood, his speed is fast that it is slightly faster than a peak fifth rank Awakened.

CLANG!

His claws were met with Edward's daggers as they locked in a struggle.

But the red scales suddenly started to appear on Issac's arms as Edward felt Issac getting stronger, Issac's increase in strength can be clearly seen since Edward got pushed slowly back by Issac.

Knowing that he will lose in a strength fight, Edward parries his claws and send a rising knee to Issac's chin.

Issac saw this coming as red scales covered his face, and when Edward's knee landed it got blocked completely by the red scales that didn't make Issac move ever a bit.

Seeing this, Issac smiles lightly and sent a roundhouse kick to Edward's head.

BAM!

Edward raises both of his arms to block the kick, but even so, the kick is very powerful that it sends him crashing away as his arm started to throb making the daggers in his hand flung away.

After getting rid of Edward, Issac smiles as he looks at where Rosie runs off to.

SWOOSH!

He dashes into the forest with an evil smirk as follows Rosie's trail.

This happened while Rex is still got held by Ana, he wanted to use the Invincible item but he's worried that Ana already know of his bluff.

Even the demons know about his bluff against the Shapeshifter at Faraday University.

So there's no guarantee that Ana who seems from a high-ranking family of Vampires didn't know, especially since the Vampires and Demons are the ones who coordinated an attack at the Great Barricade and successfully breached it.

The alliance between both of them is strong, and this makes Rex worried that if he uses the Invincible Item then it will be wasted.

But there's a part of him that says otherwise.

Rosie might be in danger, he needs to do something to help her.

If Kyran and Adhara got stabbed or beaten up, Rex is not that worried since they both are Werewolves, and if not fatal both of them will heal.

Edward and Rosie on the other side, they are humans and don't have that privilege.

It didn't take long for Issac to come back before throwing Rosie out of the forest, her body is beaten blue and blood decorates her mouth as she screeches all the way nearing Ana.

"She's the Chosen One mom, It's our luck to meet the Prince alongside her", Issac said.

Hearing this, Ana smiles as she sniffs the fragrant smell of blood that is coming from wounds around Rosie's body.

Seeing this, Rex's eyes widen as anger bubbled inside of him.

The state Rosie is currently in pain himself, she even started coughing blood as she lies on the ground weakly with many injuries.

By the look of her arm that is twisted, it seems she struggles from Issac but Issac broke her arm.

His berserk stats started to increase by the second as his eyes went red in anger.

<Warning!! The user's berserk stats has exceeded 90%!>

<Tight Spot!>

Ana Delarosa from the Delarosa Vampire family has attacked the user, his pack, and those who are close to the user. Dangering the user and those who are close to the user's lives can't go unpunished. Massacre the whole Delarosa Family! Failing this quest will cause 30% of the user's stats to decrease and reduce the user's level by 15!

Delarosa Family Members Killed 0/3

Time Limit: 4 Months

Quest Reward: 250,000,000 Exp, 25,000 Gold, Blood Rune, Ancient Vampire Core, Invincible

Because of the anger that comes from seeing Rosie's state, Rex's anger triggered the Berserk Quest which result in a quest to massacre the entire Delarosa Family.

The volcanoes of anger inside of Rex erupted breaking the patience that he desperately built.

Rex's eyes glow red as other notifications appeared,

<Blood Moon Blessing!>

<Bestowed Blood Abridge Thirst Skill!>

Any blood-related spells will be nullified in a 2 miles radius, and all of the user's attacks will be amplified against blood-related creatures!

Right after the last notification appeared,

SWOOSH!

A red shockwave exploded from Rex's body as it went on for two miles before disappearing, this caught Ana off guard as she didn't expect Rex still can use a skill even with her choking him.

"What happened?", Ana mumbles as her blood aura disappeared.

Even when she tries a couple of times, her blood aura won't come out as she glances at Rex in confusion, "What did you do?!", she shouted baring her two fangs.

But without answering Ana's question,

BANG!

Rex suddenly uses the black gun again and shot Ana right on her stomach.

"Argh!", Ana grunted as her grip loosened giving Rex enough time to break free from her grip and jump away to create distance.

The gunshot wound on her stomach started steaming.

Silver bullet works on Vampires too as she clawed the Silver bullet out of her stomach, but this gives Rex enough time to turn back into his Werewolf form and attack her.

It happened in an instant,

Rex manages to appear beside Ana and caught her by surprise, he then activates the Claw of Tormentor skill and slashes her right on her neck.

SLASH!

Four claw marks were left on Ana's neck, she manage to avoid a fatal attack.

Ana jumped away before she touch her neck, blood can be seen on her hand and the claw marks on her neck started to burn instead of getting healed.

"How is this possible?", she mumbles in surprise.

ROAR!!

BOOM!

Out of nowhere, Jarvald appeared behind Ana as she bites Ana's shoulder. He then clamped hardly with his fangs before throwing Ana away.

"Rarrghh!", Ana grunted after a chunk of flesh got bitten off by Jarvald.

Rex then appears beside Jarvald as they both stares at Ana menacingly, "I will not let the Vampire get their hands on the Prince", Jarvald said as he ready himself for a fight.

The two Werewolves from different backgrounds stand side to side in front of a Vampire.

It's a poetic scene of two Werewolves facing off against one Vampire tyrant, both of them standing unwavering even under Ana's piercing gaze.

Without waiting for an answer, Rex and Jarvald pounce at Ana.

Both of them use their all as they both attack Ana at the same time.

BAM!!

Ana blocked their attacks that come from two sides, even with her being weakened due to not being able to use any enhancement or spells related to blood, She's still a Seventh Rank Supernatural.

A red crescent moon symbol also appeared on Jarvald's forehead,

The two of them use everything that they can do to fight Ana, biting, clawing, they use all kind of attacks that has any chance to inflict damage.

Because of the no restraints fighting style, the battle is very brutal.

SLASH!

SLASH!

Rex attacks Ana repeatedly with his claws, and in between his attack Jarvald also joins in as they both overwhelms Ana with numerous angles of attacks.

Both of them are in sync with each other, their instincts lead them in this fight.

"AARGHH!!", a high-pitched scream escaped Ana's mouth as Rex manage to stab her back with his claws, the steaming sound can be heard as Rex's attack got amplified by the Blood Moon.

Ana roared a battle cry as she grits her teeth and went into the offensive,

Meanwhile, Issac slowly backs off as he too felt he can't use his blood magic.

But before he can find a place to hide, Edward suddenly appears on his side. His fists are burning with black fire, "Colossal Punch!"

BAM!

"Krgkkhh!", Issac manages to block it, the Dragonman spell is still working for him.

Just when he was about to fight back, his eyes widen when he saw Edward already duck down in front of him, "Colossal Tear!!"

BOOM!

Edward's body burns with black fire as a black fiery titan appeared behind him, he punches Issac so hard that his stomach almost rips open as he spat a mouthful of blood.

SWOOSH!

Issac get flung destroying a couple of trees before stopping,

"Rex?", Edward mumbles as he looks back to search for Rex, but his eyes widen when he saw Rex in his human form and Jarvald on their knees while Ana stands strongly in front of them.

Even with everything, Ana still prevails over Rex and Jarvald.

It's hard to believe that Ana still bested both of them, but the scene proves that she did it.

But even so, Ana can be seen hurting with numerous wounds around her body. It's not an exaggeration to say that she will collapse with another blow.

BOOM!

Jarvald got kicked screeching away as blood leaked out of his mouth, the moon symbol on his forehead disappeared after he stopped.

After doing that, Ana went to Rex once more before she grabbed Rex's neck once again.

With all of the buffs from the Blood Moon, Ana still beat them as she too can use the Dragonman spell just like Issac did.

Her skin becomes very hard to penetrate because of it,

The fact that she can use the Dragonman spell too caught Rex and Jarvald off guard, they both got careless to not expect the spell since even Issac can do it.

"You...You can't be left alive", Ana said with heavy breaths.

Her voice is now weak unlike her strong front before, the wounds surely drain her from power.

Rex tries to break free as Ana's grip becomes stronger and stronger, she was about to snap Rex's neck but when Rex was about to use the Invincible Item.

"STOP!"

Chapter 293 She Didn't Know

"STOP!"

Rosie suddenly shouted from the side attracting both Ana and Rex's attention, they both glance at Rosie who can barely stand with all the wounds around her body.

She's holding her right arm that is broken, her blood covered her face.

The treatment she gets from Issac is clearly brutal, and some of the blood even flow down to her left eye forcing her to close it.

Looking at this, Rex mumbles, "Just run..."

Rosie saw Rex's mouth move and told her to run, but her expression is stubborn before she looks at Ana without any hint of fear in her eyes, "I'm the Chosen One right?!"

"Then take me instead! and spare him!", she shouted desperately.

Hearing this, Ana looks back at Rex and tightens her grip, "You're not as important as killing the Prince", she replied nonchalantly.

Since Rex has shown to be able to use such a spell that is a bane for all Vampires.

Ana has second thoughts since leaving Rex alive will be more dangerous, her expression says it all as she is determined to snap Rex's neck here and now.

This makes Rosie grit her teeth, she then looks to the ground around her.

"Rrgghh!", Rex grunted as Ana tries to snap his neck, but with her weak condition, it is very hard for her to do so since Rex is a Werewolf.

His bones are tougher, and the layered muscles are more than any Supernatural.

Rex grip Ana's hand that is choking him trying to buy time, he saw Jarvald is slowly standing up while shaking his head.

He will definitely recover, Rex just need to give him more time.

After looking at the ground around her, Rosie's eyes fall to Edward's dagger that lies not far from her. She then grabs the dagger before she bit her lips,

Cut!

Rosie cut her wrist as blood flowed out,

The fragrant smell of her blood attracted Ana's attention again before Rosie points the dagger on her own neck, "Let go of him!"

But even so, Ana ignores her attempt.

Seeing this, Rosie shouted again, "If you kill him, then I will kill myself!"

Hearing this, Ana's body stopped before she replied, "You won't, I know you don't have the will to kill yourself. And what I said still stand, the Prince is more important"

Then suddenly,

STAB!

Rosie suddenly stabbed her stomach right after Ana doubted her resolve.

This makes Ana widen her eyes as she looks at the blood flowing out of Rosie's stomach, her expression is clearly worried that Rosie might actually kill herself.

She falls to her knees as she pulls out the dagger from her stomach,

"Take me instead, Rex will not kill himself so just take me and capture him later", Rosie said.

Ana then was about to do something as her eyes are eyeing Rosie but Rosie notices this and intervenes, "Don't try anything! You move, I will kill myself!"

"Do you really think I can't stop you from killing yourself?", Ana said with a wicked smile.

But Rosie saw through her fake strong expression, "Why don't we find out?", she replied with an unwavering expression that makes Ana hesitate.

Ana's expression makes Rosie smirk, Ana bit her lips in return knowing that Rosie saw through her.

Rosie's suggestion is clearly working since Ana is frowning in thought.

Seeing the turn of events, "No! Leave this place now!", Rex shouted.

Although Rex is the bigger fish since he's the Prince of Werewolf and can also use an anti-Vampire spell, Ana knows that Rex will not kill himself since he's fighting so hard to survive the ordeal.

If she kills Rex then Rosie will also kill herself,

The Vampire then will not get the Chosen One's blood, but if she takes Rosie then the Vampire will still have a chance to capture both of them.

It's just she can't get both right now, the situation said so.

"What do you say? Do we have a deal?", Rosie said lightly.

But out of her expectation, "No!", Ana replied coldly completely shocking Rosie.

Ana then suddenly stabs her claws on Rex's chest instantly piercing through his body, Rex widens his eyes and he spat a mouthful of blood because of this.

After doing that, Ana opens her mouth baring her fangs.

"NOO!!!", Rosie runs towards Ana while screaming hysterically.

BITE!

Rex got bitten right on his neck as he can feel his blood getting sucked by Ana's fangs.

His blood flow got interrupted as the blood flowed into Ana's mouth,

The two long upper fangs of Ana sucked the blood out of Rex's body like a torrent, Rex felt his body getting weaker by the second because of this.

Jarvald saw this before he roared, he can't let Ana kill Rex.

"RARGHH!", Ana got bitten right on her neck, Jarvald pulled her away with all his might but Ana was not going to let Jarvald pull her away without any resistance.

BAM!

Ana elbowed Jarvald's chest pushing the air out of his lungs before biting his neck.

Rex falls to the ground weakly as he touches his bleeding neck, but his mind is distracted by the notification that came from the system.

<Detected Forbidden Killing Attempt!>

<Eternal Curse Restraints has been Activated!>

'Eternal Curse?', Rex thought with a frown, but then his eyes lit up.

He looks at Ana who is struggling against Jarvald as he realized something, 'Does the curse forbid other Vampires to kill me?', Rex thought in surprise.

Rex knows that Calidora is the Vampire that is bound to him by the Eternal Curse.

The notification about the Eternal Curse from the system said something about restraints, if what Rex thought is true then something will happen to Ana.

Roar!

Jarvald roared as Ana sucked the blood out of him,

She then slap Jarvald away before her eyes went back to Rex, but when she was about to finish Rex off, "Eh?", she mumbles as she suddenly felt dizzy.

Ana suddenly stopped as she felt her throat starting to burn and her mind started to spin.

She grabbed her throat and started to scratch it feeling the burn start to get stronger, the sudden burn caught her off guard as her head rocked left and right.

Seeing this, Rex confirmed what he thought was true as he shouted, "Rosie! Get back!", Rex saw Rosie running towards them from the corner of his eyes.

Hearing this, Ana glances at Rosie that is nearing her.

Although her vision is a bit hazy since the dizziness and burn, she can still see Rosie who is running towards Rex.

With the last bit of her strength, Ana leaped towards Rosie ignoring the dizziness and pain.

Seeing Ana closing in on her, Rosie dropped the dagger and let herself be taken by her, "ISSAC! We're retreating!", Ana shouted as she takes out a red crystal.

Rex tries to stand up but his legs are not listening to him,

He then looks up at Rosie who started to be enveloped by red energy, "ROSIE! LISTEN TO ME!! DON'T LET HER TAKE YOU!", Rex shouted desperately.

But Rosie only smiles lightly as she saw Rex struggling to stand up.

"It's okay...", Rosie mumbles.

Rex then replied hurriedly as the red energy glows brighter, "No! She will get weaker, just break free! Now!", he said desperately trying to convince Rosie.

The effect of the Eternal Curse was about to kick in,

Ana sensed this since Rex's blood that she drinks burns her throat, and the dizziness also came from the blood so she had no choice but to just take Rosie who is easier.

It's better to catch at least one of them than nothing at all.

Rex knows this but Rosie didn't, she thinks that Ana is taking her instead of Rex.

She thought that Ana takes her proposal, but Ana is worried that she can't take any of them because of the curse instead.

"Arrgh!", Ana grunted as a mark appeared on her neck that shows the curse is affecting her.

Looking at this, Rex puts all of his might to stand up wanting to save Rosie from Ana. Once he manage to stand up, his body suddenly stopped when he saw Rosie's lips move.

There is no honeyed voice, just the movement of Rosie's lips.

All of the things and sounds around him slowly fade as he saw Rosie is trying to say something, it's like they're both locked into a stance where nothing around them interrupts their exchange.

But even without the voice, Rex knows what she's trying to say vividly.

'I love you'

Those are the words that came from Rosie's mouth making Rex's body freeze, tears escaped Rosie's eyes before her body turns into a red light and slowly disappeared from the place.

It take but just a moment before Rex snapped out of his daze.

The moment he snapped out of his daze, Rosie is already gone from the place as Rex falls to his knees. His body lost all power.

Tik...

Tik...

After Ana manages to escape, the sky started to pour.

It started slowly as Rex kneel on the ground unmoving after failing to save Rosie, then the rain started to get more intense by the second until the sky started to rain heavily.

He didn't move from his spot for a minute,

Edward slowly approach him from the side after taking his daggers,

The battlefield is filled with cracks and destruction that scarred the ground, blood also splattered everywhere marking the place with the stench of death.

But slowly but surely, the rain drains the blood from the battlefield.

"I'm sorry, I tried to stop her but she's just too stubbo Edward taps Rex's shoulder from the side.

Although he knows that it's dangerous to keep trying to find Rex, he was swayed by Rosie that thought Rex is in danger so he turns a blind eye to the potential danger.

She was true, but the danger is way out of their league as Edward fails to think with a clear mind.

They both shouldn't be here, and Edward regretted not stopping Rosie sooner.

Hearing this, Rex hangs his head down with a gloomy smile, "It's okay, It's not your fault", he said lightly that almost can't be heard because of the rain.

Rex then raises his head to the sky and added, "She didn't know..."

"Didn't know what?", Edward asks in confusion.

Rex glance at Edward with a troubled look and continues, "That Vampire, Ana. She's poisoned by my blood and will get weaker with time. But Rosie didn't know, she didn't realize"

"She thought that she's saving me, that's why she let herself be taken..."

~

Meanwhile, Delarosa Family's Mansion.

NGING!!

A red light lit up the garden as three people appeared, Issac and Ana are amongst them while the last one is Rosie.

"Huakhh!", Ana spat a mouthful of blood as she fall to the ground.

Seeing this, Issac hurriedly approaches her and supports her head, "Mom?! What happened? How did they manage to hurt you like this?", he asks worriedly.

But seeing Ana didn't answer, Issac looks at the mansion and called, "FATHER!!"

SWOOSH!

Right after he called his father, Delarosa appeared from thin air and frowns when he saw Ana lying on the ground while coughing blood.

Her skin started to let out a steaming sound as it turns red, the mark on her neck also glows.

"What happened?! I thought the Prince is just an early sixth rank?!", Delarosa asks in shock.

Hearing this, Issac then looks at Ana in concern as he replied, "The Prince is way stronger than the last time I saw him, and there's also a Werewolf helping him to fight with mother"

"Bring her inside! We need to give her more blood", Delarosa commanded hurriedly.

The Vampire Kingdom, Supernatural Territory.

Inside the castle of the King and Queen, four Royal Vampire Guards are standing idly inside the underground chamber of the castle.

But if one looks at their expressions, one can see that they are uncomfortable.

BANG!

BANG!

Banging sounds can be heard occasionally making the Royal Vampire Guards' hearts jump every time the sound happens, but the four of them try to ignore the sounds.

The underground chamber has some changes from the last time.

Aside from the chain that shackles Calidora's limbs, there are also steel pipes that separated the Royal Vampire Guards and the door with the place where Calidora is contained.

The steel pipes are imbued with runes and it looks stronger than before.

The banging sound came from Calidora who is banging her head against the steel pipes, her expression is that of a crazed one as she kept banging her head on the steel pipes.

Not long after, Nezera enters the room guided by a Royal Vampire Guard.

She saw how Calidora kept banging her head to the steel pipes, her red eyes are glowing brighter than normal vampires with a weird black pattern in them.

"Since when did she start doing this?", Nezera asks concerned.

The Royal Vampire Guard beside her then replied, "She's fine about five minutes ago, but then she started to bang her head repeatedly"

Hearing this, Nezero approach Calidora slowly.

"My child, What is wrong? Talk to me", Nezero asks lightly with a concerned expression.

But Calidora completely ignore her question as she kept banging her head, she's mumbling inaudible sound.

Nezero focus on her mumbles before she finally hears her mumbles,

"How dare you touch him", Calidora then giggles creepily, her giggles even give Nezero quite a chill since she never heard something like this come out of her daughter's mouth.

BANG!

"He's mine and mine only, how dare you touch him..."

BANG!

"I will kill you..."

BANG!

"I WILL KILL YOU!"

RUMBLE!

The ground shakes right after Calidora shouts, her deafening shout surprises the Royal Vampire Guards and even makes Nezero steps back.

Nezero then looks at Calidora in surprise, there's a maniac look on Calidora's face, and her mouth quirk up into a smile that contorted scarily.

"This...", Nezero mumbles before she saw Calidora's Eyes of Terror glow brightly.

Chapter 294 Family Crest

Tss....

Even though the sun should already come out since a new day has already started, the rainy weather covered the sky making the day barely brighter than before.

Rex stands under the rain as his emotion turns gloomy,

Just about a moment ago, Rosie got taken away right in front of him.

Although his relationship with Rosie is not more than just a friend, Rex knows that he felt some type of way to her and the thought of turning Rosie into his pack crossed his mind once in a while.

But since Rosie is only wanting to only be with him, Rex thought that it doesn't line up.

The purpose of him continuing his life and even creating the Silverstar pack is solely for Avenging his mother and father, he doesn't want to add unnecessary members that don't see the same way as he did like Rosie.

It's just the way he believed in, and he's planning to keep it that way for a while.

Even though he's a Werewolf now, Rex tries to keep his humanity intact.

So every time some thoughts nudge his humanity's side came to mind, Rex only shakes his head and just try to forget about it.

But this time is different, Rex looks to the side where a corpse of a Vampire lies.

The same troubling thoughts came to mind as he saw the corpse of the Vampire, without him noticing, Rex started to walk towards it before kneeling beside it.

He stretches his hand to the corpse as he held his breath,

The thought of doing something like this almost pains his soul, his trembling hands portrait it.

"What are you doing?", Edward suddenly called from the side stopping Rex's movements.

Hearing this, Rex takes a deep breath as he sits beside the corpse, "How are they? Did you check on him?", he asks ignoring Edward's question.

Edward glanced at Kyran and Adhara before he replied, "It's bad..."

"Both of their spinal cord broke and they can't move from the shoulders down, but Kyran somehow is starting to move despite the fracture. I'm guessing it's the Vampire from before?", he added.

Rex nodded his head as he slowly gets up,

But when he was about to go check on Kyran and Adhara, Rex saw a silhouette in front of him.

He recognized the silhouette as Jarvald who just recovered from his injuries, Jarvald is signaling for Rex to come to him.

Seeing this, Rex walks towards Jarvald.

The both of them stand face to face with each other, silence covered the both of them.

Although they're fighting together against Ana before, they're still enemies before she came and Jarvald tries to get his bloodline while Rex tries to kill Vivian.

"Thank you", Rex suddenly said, those words came out from Rex's mouth hard.

Out of all the wildest things that Rex has ever dreamed of, one of the things he never thought was thanking a Supernatural. A Werewolf to be exact.

It's hard to thank Jarvald, but without him, Rex will pretty much die.

Because of Jarvald and Rex injuring Ana so badly, she finds it hard to snap Rex's neck.

But if Rex was alone, Ana will not be as injured, and snapping his neck during her peak form is as easy as breaking a chicken's neck.

So he needs to thank Jarvald for at least that,

Jarvald turns his head away and replied, "I didn't help you for you"

"I'm just doing what other Werewolves would've done if other races trying to stab us from the back, your bloodline is important for us", he added.

Hearing this, Rex smiles, "I know"

But then suddenly, Rex saw a rune on Jarvald's shoulder that looks familiar.

It's a red T-shaped rune that he found very familiar, and when he thought for a moment Rex realized it's the same T-shaped rune as the Werewolf that killed his parents.

Although it's the same rune, Rex knows that the Werewolf that killed his parents is not Jarvald.

"What is that symbol on your shoulder?", Rex asks curiously.

Jarvald looks at the T-shaped runes on his shoulder before he said nonchalantly, "It's my Family Crest of course"

"Family crest?", Rex said in confusion.

Seeing Rex's confused look, Jarvald sighs as he shakes his head, "You really don't know anything about Werewolves aren't you"

After saying that, Jarvald the purpose, "Fine I'll explain the symbol in exchange for you to answer a question from me, Do we have a deal?"

Rex nodded his head, he didn't mind answering a question.

"This symbol is a crest of my family, Teinar. Every member of my family will be marked by this symbol, and as for the color, it glows based on our birth moon. Our family members mainly birthed at Blood Moon, but some are not", Jarvald explained.

While Jarvald is explaining, Rex paid attention closely.

'Teinar Family... That Werewolf is probably from Teinar Family too', Rex thought with a frown.

After he thought for a moment, Jarvald suddenly said bringing him back from his thoughts, "My turn, How did you become a Werewolf?"

"I know you're not from Ancient times, so tell me how did you become a Werewolf?"

Hearing this, Rex's mouth closed tightly as he thought for an answer.

Even though Jarvald seems to be honest with his answer, Rex didn't want to expose the existence of the system if that's the price of being honest.

He then finally said, "When I'm on the brink of death, the Moon gave me power"

"I don't know exactly how I become a Werewolf. But the next full moon after that incident, I turned into a Werewolf", Rex added convincingly.

Although he didn't mention the system, the answer he gave was all true.

Jarvald's eyes widen in surprise as he heard Rex's answer, "You're a human once?!"

The excessive reaction caught Rex off guard as Jarvald walks around him and inspects his body, he was inspecting Rex with a clear curiosity in his eyes.

"I can't believe it, How did a human has the Bloodline of a Prince?", Jarvald said in confusion.

Hearing this, Rex shrugs his shoulder as he too doesn't know how it happened.

After a moment, Jarvald finally calms himself down and he was about to leave, "Are you going to tell the Werewolves about my existence?"

Jarvald stopped as he glance at Rex, "One question only", he said with a smirk.

But then, "No", Jarvald answered.

Rex widen his eyes since he didn't expect Jarvald to answer him, he then added, "I'm in a difficult spot, and I'm not planning to go back to Scarlet Banes"

When Jarvald was about to leave, he then stopped and walks closer to Rex.

Rex was confused since he thought that Jarvald would leave but then suddenly,

BAM!

A fist landed solidly onto Rex's face as he got punched to one knee before he stopped the momentum with his hand, Rex touch his face before he looks at Jarvald in confusion.

"For stabbing Vivian", Jarvald mumbles.

He then added, "You better watch your back, I'm still going to get your bloodline", Jarvald then jumped into the forest leaving the place.

A moment after he left, Edward arrived beside Rex with a concerned look, "What happened?"

"It's alright, I deserve that", Rex said with a wry smile.

Rex stands up slowly as he looks at where Jarvald disappeared to.

But then suddenly, he realized something as he turns his body towards Edward.

Feeling the weird vibes in the air, Rex then brace himself by taking a deep breath and said, "Edward, I know it will be very hard to digest but..."

Edward looks at Rex in confusion but then his eyes lit up,

"It's okay, you don't need to tell me", Edward said hurriedly.

When Rex was about to say something more, Edward taps his shoulder and added, "You must be tired, let's bring the others back", Edward then turns back and walks towards Kyran and Adhara.

He leaves Rex who is surprised by his reaction, Edward didn't even let him finish.

As Edward walks further away, Rex felt a sense of hollowness between the both of them as he swallows back the courage that he gathered to say the words that he doesn't manage to say.

Rex really wants to tell Edward about him not being human anymore, but Edward denied it.

With that out of the way, Rex straightens his back and sighs a hard sigh. He then looks up and follows Edward to help Adhara and Kyran.

~

Meanwhile, Vampire Kingdom.

Delarosa and Issac are walking through the hallway with a Royal Vampire Guard leading them.

Beside them is Rosie who has a chain collar on her neck, she is leashed by Delarosa as she got dragged inside the castle.

While they're walking through the hallway, there are many guards around them.

There is one for every three meters, and they all are the loyal subject to the King and Queen from a distinguished loyal family.

"Do you know that the princess is having another tantrum again?"

"What do you mean?"

"I heard it just now, the princess is banging her head to the steel pipes that have just been installed thanks to the Undead the King requested. What's more surprising is that the steel pipes should be able to contain a peak sixth rank, and the princess manage to bent one of the steel pipes"

Delarosa and Issac heard gossip from the guards around them.

This makes Delarosa frowns as he heard the guards' conversation, "What happened to the Princess dad?", Issac asks.

Hearing this, Delarosa looks at Issac warningly, "We don't talk about the princess"

After seeing Delarosa's warning look, Issac shut his mouth tightly as they resume their walks.

Inside the throne room of the King's castle, Nezero sits on the throne with a man sitting in front of her that looks absent-minded as his eyes are hollow red.

She's enjoying the rainfall that can be seen from the throne room's window.

The rainfall brought a comfortable and relaxing air inside the suffocating throne room, it matches her current mood as she sits on the throne.

After looking outside the window, "Come...", Nezero said lightly.

The man that is currently sitting in front of Nezero that has a collar chaining him stands up and approaches Nezero with her upper fangs started to elongate.

Without a moment's pause, Nezero's eyes glow red as she bites the man's neck.

Bite!

The man tilts his head to the side completely exposing his neck for Nezero to devour, his blood slowly got sucked into Nezero's mouth as she savors the taste of fresh blood.

But just as she's savoring the blood, the throne room's door opens slowly.

A Royal Vampire Guard can be seen entering the throne room, the Royal Vampire Guard bowed slightly before walking forward and kneeling right in front of the stairs leading to the throne.

Looking at this, Nezero retracts her fangs from the man's neck as the man falls to the ground.

"My Queen, The Delarosa Family is asking for an audience", the Royal Vampire Guard said.

Hearing this, Nezero's eyes lit up as she commanded, "Bring them in"

After getting Nezero's approval, the Royal Vampire Guard opens the throne room's door before two Vampires enter the throne room.

"Greetings to the Queen", the two Vampires said in a union before kneeling the same.

Nezera straightens her sitting posture upon their arrival, her eyes lightening up, "Delarosa, What purpose have you come to see me?"

Delarosa stands up before he said, "I've brought some news that needed to be heard"

After saying that, Delarosa points at Issac that is still kneeling on the ground before he said, "My son and my wife has returned, they manage to bring the Chosen One"

Right after he said that Delarosa signaled to the guards before they bring in Rosie.

Upon looking at Rosie, Nezera looks at Rosie with her daggering eyes.

The guard pushed Rosie towards Delarosa before Delarosa scratched Rosie's arm, "Rrghh!", Rosie grunted as blood slowly seeped out of the scratch.

Nezera slowly stands up from the throne as she smells the fragrant blood.

SWOOSH!

She suddenly appear in front of Rosie making her jolt in shock before Nezera grabbed Rosie's hand forcefully and touch Rosie's blood carefully.

"What are you going to do to me?", Rosie asks meekly.

The situation she's currently in is an impossible one to escape, all of the Vampires around here have no less than fifth rank power while Nezera's presence gives a chill on Rosie's back.

Nezera smells the blood in her fingers as she got intoxicated by it.

She then opens her eyes slowly before she looks at Rosie, "Don't worry my dear, I will not kill you just yet", she said with a wicked smile.

Chapter 295 A Hard Shell To Crack

The afternoon that day,

Rex and the others are currently getting treated in the hospital, especially Rex since the blood energy that he got hit repeatedly by Ana is still lingering inside his body.

The doctor here is only a normal doctor, there are no healers Awakened.

So Rex can only make do with bandages around his body to avoid getting his injuries worsen, but his injuries are still open since the blood energy refused to let the doctor close the injuries using normal stitches.

Before Rex got treated, he already told the Doctor that he will be fine.

Since his regenerative abilities will kick in just a few days, Rex doesn't need to get treated immediately but the doctor insists to do it.

He said that it was an honor to treat him,

Normal humans can die upon getting contact with Supernatural energy.

But the doctor volunteered to tend Rex eventhough he got the most Supernatural energy on him, disregarding that this might cost his life.

While Rex is getting treated in a separate room,

The nurses inside the hospital peeked through the window on the door to see Rex, they're excited to see Rex in real flesh since he's the hero of the city.

"That is Rex Silverstar? He's so young!"

"I know right? If I can just shake his hand one time my life will be blessed"

"Of course, you will be blessed, he even brought back a living Vampire! Some said that he's an Early Sixth rank but I think he already surpassed that"

A couple of hours earlier,

"Edward, bring those two to the hospital", Rex said while squatting down.

Hearing this, Edward carries both Kyran and Adhara with his arms before he looks at Rex who is squatting beside a Vampire that has been stabbed by the Ameurus Katana.

"What are you going to do? Don't you need to be treated as well?", Edward asks.

Rex waves his hand and replies, "This one is still alive, I want to ask him some questions"

But upon hearing this, Edward's expression turns serious as he said, "You need to break his body first before bringing him into the city and chain him the old school style. No matter what you do, just put in mind that he's a sixth rank Vampire"

Although the Vampire in front of Rex is currently unconscious,

What Edward said is not an exaggeration, a Sixth Rank Vampire can easily destroy a city as weak as Wedron City that barely has any Awakened or Black Hands.

It will only take minutes for this Vampire to destroy the city, and Rex needs to be careful.

Rex nodded his head in understanding as Edward dashes away to bring both Kyran and Adhara to the hospital.

After Edward leaves, Rex then asks the system, 'How can I make sure a Vampire can't escape?'

<Linzite is a plant that is poisonous to all Vampires except for some, it will weaken a Vampire greatly if they drink the nectar from the plant>

Linzite turns out to be a flower with seven petals that is only about five inches tall, its crystal blue petals are glowing slightly with its anthers yellow in color that releases yellow powder whenever the flower moves.

The system shows Rex a hologram of the flower, and it's very beautiful.

Reading this, Rex bought a vial of Linzite from the system.

Rex inspect the vial of Linzite that he bought, this vial is an extracted nectar from the Linzite flower so it can be used for drinking purposes.

It will make anyone who drinks it gets healthy benefits except for Vampires.

After inspecting the vial of Linzite, Rex lifts the Vampire's head before he pours the vial of Linzite directly into the Vampire's mouth.

Gulp!

Upon the first draught,

"Huaakh!!", the Vampire snapped awake as he felt his throat burning.

The Vampire touches his neck that felt like it was melting before he looks at Rex in horror, "Linzite!", he shouted as he tries to break free.

But the katana pin him down, he can't break free from Rex.

BAM!

Rex sent another punch at the weakened Vampire sending him unconscious again.

After knocking the Vampire out, Rex pulls the katana off of him before he carries the Vampire and runs back into the city.

Arriving at the city,

The guards above the wall barricade look at Rex in shock, they saw Rex slowly walking towards the city with his bloodied clothes.

Amongst the guards, Rex can see a black hand, and he too is surprised.

But the thing that makes them surprised is not Rex, but rather the thing he carries.

Although the Vampires are not that different from a human physically, aside from their pale skin, Vampires give off a strong stench of blood and they have claws instead of fingernails with red eyes that give them off easily.

During the early emergence of Supernatural, some Vampires try to spy on the humans from within.

All of the Vampire spies got caught not long after entering the human territory, their stench of blood is too strong even through a cover.

Rex got inside the city after the guards opened the entrance for him,

Upon entering the city, Rex was greeted by the priest that is looking at the Vampire Rex brought in concern followed by the black hands.

"Is it dead?", the priest asks.

Rex shakes his head making the priest widen his eyes in surprise, "Are you mad?! Why are you bringing a Vampire inside the city?!", he says in aghast, the priest knows that a Vampire can easily wreak havoc and destroy the city easily.

"Don't worry, I got it covered", Rex replied calmly.

He then added, "I want to lock this Vampire up for questioning, Do you have a place in mind?"

Hearing this, the priest hesitated for a moment. He looks at Rex trying to see if Rex is sure that it will be okay before he finally sighs, "Follow me"

The priest leads Rex into the corner building that looks abandoned.

It is a quite big building that used to be a factory, but now it is abandoned and from the dust, the building collected Rex can say that it's been quite a while.

"This is perfect", Rex said before he went inside.

After he said that, the priest didn't follow Rex as Rex told them that he can handle it.

But one of the black hands insisted on guarding the place if something were to happen, and Rex can only sigh since this particular black hand looks stubborn.

"What are you going to do to him?", the black hand asks.

The black hand that decided to watch on the place is a woman that looks to be around twenty years old, she's quite young and Rex already knows that she has an enhanced strength gift and a mind-reading gift.

Hearing this, Rex puts down the Vampire before he glances at the woman, "Aren't you supposed to guard outside? I never agree to let you inside"

"I'm just making sure", the woman replied calmly.

Then the woman asks, "How did you capture that Vampire anyway, he's quite strong"

"I'm quite strong as well", Rex replied nonchalantly, he got nothing to hide since the world already knows that he has an early sixth rank power so it's not that weird if he can beat a mid-sixth rank.

But then suddenly, "Arghh!", the woman suddenly grunted while holding her head.

[That woman try to read your mind], Devo suddenly said, he sounds irritated.

Rex smiles lightly before he said, "Don't try to read my mind again, and wait outside before I run out of patience"

The woman widened her eyes upon hearing this,

Without any more comments, the woman left the building to wait outside since her mind-reading ability didn't work and Rex seems serious about what he said.

After the woman leaves, Rex then takes out a couple of red chains from the inventory.

The red chains are completely used only for restraining Vampires, they can suck blood aura from the chained Vampire whenever they try to resist.

He also added another protection,

With another item from the system's shop, Rex stakes each of the Vampire's limbs with a wooden stake with a rune on them before breaking each of the Vampire's limbs.

Even with all of that, the Vampire will not die.

Rex need to be extra cautious if he was about to interrogate this Vampire,

If he was careless then he will be gambling with thousands of lives in the city, and he doesn't want to let that happen.

Splash!

With a flick of his hand, Rex splashes the Vampire with a bit of Linzite.

Tss!!

The Vampire's skin makes a steaming sound before he jolted awake, he felt the unbearable pain around his body upon opening his eyes before he looks around in shock.

He realized that he becomes a prisoner, and Rex is standing in front of him.

"I won't tell you anything!!", the Vampire shouted.

Hearing this, Rex sigh since he knows where this is all going to go, "Everyone said that before I started, we know how it will end. I'm going to torture you so bad that you will eventually answer all of my questions, or you can just answer and I'll grant you a swift death"

~

Back to the present,

"It's okay, you've done enough now", Rex said to the doctor.

The doctor is currently tending the slight injuries around his legs, but his face already started to become pale and Rex can't bear to let him continue.

After a slight argument from the doctor, he finally agree to stop.

Rex sigh lightly as the doctor left the room, but then Rex saw Edward squeeze through the crowding nurses in front of his room and went inside the room.

"You really got quite a fanatic fans here", Edward said with a chuckle.

Hearing this, Rex smiles lightly as he lies on the bed.

Edward approach Rex's bed before he looks at Rex with a meaningful look, "What is it?", Rex asks as he knows that Edward wanted to say something.

"How are you?", he asks lightly.

Rex looks at Edward in confusion before he replied, "I'm gonna be fine, it'll probably take-"

But before Rex can finish, Edward cuts his sentence and said, "I mean about Rosie, she's taken by the Vampires and she might be in danger right now"

"I think she's going to be fine, at least for now...", Rex replied while positioning his body better.

The conversation he's having with Edward is a serious one, it's regarding Rosie and he can't be lax about this. Edward then asks, "What do you mean by that?"

"The Vampires want me more than Rosie", Rex replied with a sigh.

He then explains, "That Vampire, Ana. She now knows that Rosie means something to me, so I doubt they will just kill off Rosie or even do anything to hurt Rosie"

Hearing this, Edward frowns, "So they're going to bait you using Rosie..."

"Don't you want to know why they're aiming for me?", Rex asks as he looks at Edward intently.

Although Edward seems to don't mind the situation they're in, Rex felt weird since Edward didn't ask him about anything and just accept all of that has happened before.

He didn't ask why Vampires and a Werewolf is attacking them.

Edward didn't ask about what he's talking about with Jarvald before, he didn't ask anything and this makes Rex somehow uncomfortable.

"All I need to know is that they're a threat, everything else besides that doesn't matter much for me", Edward replied nonchalantly.

This makes Rex frowns,

But before he can say, even more, Edward shifted the topic of their conversation, "What are you going to do with the Vampire you captured? Have you questioned him?"

"I did but he's a hard shell to crack", Rex replied with a wry smile.

Before he gets tended by the doctor, Rex already tries to force an answer from the Vampire.

Even so, the Vampire didn't open his mouth at all even though Rex already tortured him beyond normal comprehension using the Linzite.

Edward then said, "What are we going to do now?"

"Let's wait for Kyran to heal and we'll interrogate that Vampire again, How're they?", Rex asks.

Hearing this, Edward shrugs his shoulders before he said, "I think Kyran will be fine, but I don't know why but something seems off with Adhara"

"Why don't you check it out?"

Rex looks at Edward in confusion before he got up from bed, "Alright, let's go"

Chapter 296 New World

Leaving the room, the nurses sent remarks of concern to Rex.

All of them advised Rex to not move much and stay on his bed, but with just a smile from Rex, all of them stopped their bickering as their faces went red.

At that exact moment, Edward and Rex went past them.

"The room is over here", Edward said as he signal Rex to follow him to the left.

The both of them went through the hospital hall with Rex still in a patient blue robe, there were not many people on this floor since this is the VIP section.

But some people glance at him curiously since his appearance is not exactly right to wander around in a hospital.

Both of them arrive in front of room 20,

Rex looks at Edward before Edward said, "This is Kyran's room"

After nodding his head, Rex opens the door and saw Kyran rushing to his bed weirdly while pretending to eat the tray of food on his bed with as many bandages around his body just like Rex.

Kyran even wears soft neck collars as he eats slowly.

Looking at this, Rex frowns in confusion, "Why are you panicking?", he asks.

"Nothing, I just don't like the food and the nurse is forcing me to eat this", Kyran said while pointing at the plain porridge in front of him.

Although he sounds convincing, Rex finds something is weird in Kyran's expression.

He doesn't know what, but Kyran looks odd for some reason.

Inside the room is nothing much except for medical equipment, the place is quite spacious just like Rex's room with a window beside the bed and there's even a toilet inside.

There's also a door right beside Kyran's bed that should lead to the next room.

"How're you doing?", Rex asks while sitting on a chair beside Kyran's bed.

Kyran looks at Rex who has numerous bandages around his body, he tries to hold in his laughter since Rex looks like a mummy and this makes Rex quite annoyed.

He then replied, "I'm fine actually, they forced me to wear this thing"

Kyran points at the soft neck collar that the doctor forced him to wear since his spinal cord is fractured, the doctor even wanted to do surgery but Kyran denied them since he's a Werewolf and these injuries will eventually heal by themselves.

"Can you walk?", Rex asks while looking up and down at Kyran's body.

Hearing this, Kyran stands up from the bed and takes off the soft neck collar showing that he doesn't need any of that.

But when he was about to bend his body, "Rggh!", he grunted.

It seems the hit from Ana on his back did quite a damage, even Kyran who is a Werewolf after-hours post the battle still hasn't recovered yet.

"Think u still need some rest", Edward added from the back.

Rex also sighs after Edward's remarks, but this makes Kyran feel agitated.

"I can move around freely, I just can't bend my body that much", Kyran added convincingly.

After seeing Kyran's determined look, Rex then finally said, "I want you to extract information from the Vampire I captured, Can you do that? Your Dark Element might be useful"

"Leave it to me!", Kyran said while puffing his chest.

Since Kyran has a Dark Element and also manage to extract information from the fake maid before, he definitely knows a thing or two about torturing.

It makes Rex think for a bit but Kyran's probably lucky with the last one.

"Here take this, go with Kyran to extract information from the Vampire", Rex said while giving the vial of Linzite to Edward, he then glanced at Kyran and said, "Make sure to ask her why Rosie's blood is important and the reason why the Vampires wanted to capture me"

Hearing this, Kyran nodded his head before the three of them left the room.

"Adhara's room is that one", Edward said while pointing at a door beside Kyran's room, door number 21 is Adhara's room.

Rex nodded his head before he went towards the door,

But seeing this, Kyran called to him, "Where are you going?", he asks.

Without turning towards Kyran, Rex answered nonchalantly, "Going to check on Adhara, you guys go on ahead", he said while waving his hand.

Kyran's expression becomes troubled for some reason,

"Is there something you want to tell Rex about?", Edward suddenly said from the side.

Kyran glanced at Edward with a wry smile before he shakes his head, "Rex is going to kill me, I shouldn't have told her", he said with beads of cold sweat around his face.

After reaching door number 21, Rex knocks on it and opens the door.

Once he opened the door, he can already see Adhara sitting on the bed while looking out of the window in a gloomy mood.

The room is identical to Kyran's room except for the door beside the bed, there's none here.

Her face turns towards the door upon hearing the door is opened,

Rex smiles at her as he walks in, but to his surprise, Adhara's expression turns colder upon seeing Rex coming inside the room which surprised Rex for a bit.

From the very start of their meeting, Adhara wears that kind of expression.

He never saw Adhara's expression this cold, and somehow Rex felt the same odd feeling just like when he meet with Kyran before.

"How're you doing? Feeling any better?", Rex asks lightly.

His question only replied with a slight hmm by Adhara, and this makes it even odder.

Rex reaches for Adhara's hair and slowly tidy her hair that falls down in front of her face, he did it casually since they just escape the ropes of death.

But when Adhara's face is fully revealed, Rex widens his eyes in surprise.

There's a tear flowing down her cheek as she avoids Rex's gaze, she kept facing the window even though Rex notices the tear flowing down his cheek.

"Why are you crying?", Rex asks in confusion.

Although the circumstances that they just escape from are very dire and depressing, Rex never thought that Adhara will cry from it since she's a strong woman in front of his eyes.

So the tear on her face greatly shocks Rex,

After Rex realized the tear, more tears came out of Adhara's eyes making Rex panic.

"Why don't you ask yourself why", Adhara said with a shaky voice as she wipes the tears flowing down her cheek for them to only be replaced by a new one.

Hearing this, Rex frowned in thought as he didn't know why she was crying.

Adhara then added, "Are you really going to act all innocent? Do you really think I'm stupid?"

"What do you mean? I never once thought of you like th-"

Before Rex can finish his sentence, Adhara suddenly snapped as she shouted, "Then why are you lying in front of my face?! I know what you did with Rosie!"

Upon hearing this, Rex's body froze as he didn't expect this topic to come out.

'How did she know about that?', Rex thought in surprise.

But then he suddenly recalled how Kyran is acting all odd and all as he finally realizes, 'Kyran?! Why did he tell her about this', Rex thought helplessly.

"Listen to me, I wanted to tell you but-",

Slap!

Rex's hand got slapped away as Adhara glared at him, she looks furious right now.

"You said that there is something between us, I don't mind you not making a move at all since all you can think about is getting stronger. But why did you do it with her? WHY?!", Adhara shouted as her tears burst, she let out all the frustration inside and pour it all at Rex.

Looking at this, Rex was at a loss for words as he went closer to Adhara.

But seeing Rex trying to get closer to her, Adhara jumped out of the bed as she points at Rex fiercely, "Don't you dare come near me"

Rex also stands up trying to calm Adhara down, "Just listen to me first"

Slowly but surely, Rex inches closer to Adhara and holds her hands gently but this makes Adhara burst as she started pushing and twister her arms.

Prang!

"Listen to me, hey, hey!", Rex tries what he can to calm her down.

Her push is filled with power as Rex got pushed back and hits the bed behind him, the bed's legs also have a wheel on them and this makes the bed get flung and hit the wall behind him.

It went on for almost a minute as Rex got hit repeatedly,

Anyone that is seeing this can see that Rex is really confused about what he should do.

But even though he kept trying until finally,

SLAP!

Adhara landed a solid slap on Rex's face leaving a red mark on his face, this caught Rex off guard but when Adhara was about to slap him again Rex shouted, "We didn't do it!"

Hearing this, Adhara's hand that was about to swing at Rex stopped.

"We didn't do it", Rex repeats his words one more time as he looks at Adhara seriously.

This makes Adhara's angry expression turns into a frown as she looks at Rex intently, Rex is inching closer as he whispers lightly, "We didn't do it okay?"

"What do you mean by that?", Adhara asks while still wary of Rex.

"That night on the train, I confess that I did get consumed by lust but! It's because of the Violet Moon, I already hurry back but there's just no time. But we didn't manage to do it I swear! We got hit by the demons before I manage to make a mistake", Rex explain clearly.

The night when it's the Violet Moon, his memories are blurry about that night.

But even so, Rex is sure that he didn't manage to do the deed with Rosie since they got attacked by the Demons and tripped the train over.

Adhara's body froze as Rex wrap his arms around Adhara's waist and pull her closer.

While he's doing this, Adhara is dazed before she snapped back from her daze and looks at Rex's eyes intently as Rex started to push her slowly towards the wall.

It didn't take long before Adhara is pinned on the wall covered by Rex's body.

Rex's breathing becomes heavy as his face turns red, but when he was about to lean forward Adhara puts her finger on Rex's lips stopping his advancement, "Is it true?"

"Or are you just lying to me?", she said seriously while studying Rex's expression.

Hearing this, Rex smiles teasingly exposing his human fangs.

He then pulls Adhara's finger away from his lips and leans closer, "It's true", he whispers before finally both of their lips intertwine with each other.

Their gentle kiss is soft but it turns into a lustful one in a matter of seconds,

All of the bandages around both of their bodies started to get stripped off by the opposites, they didn't feel any kind of pain anymore as their bodies burned with lust.

With his muscular arm, Rex grabs Adhara's athletic yet soft butts and lifts her off the ground.

Their kiss is growing more intense as their lust started to reach its max, all of the sounds around them are completely gone from their hearing except for the smooching sound their lips made.

Adhara tries to pull her face away but Rex didn't let her,

"Prove" Smooch "It to me if we have" Smooch "Something between us"

Hearing Adhara's soft lustful voice, Rex's body burns with vigor as he brings Adhara back to the bed that is already moved from its original spot before laying her on it.

Rex keeps pressing his body onto Adhara's as his hips thrust forward, poking Adhara's sacred place.

After savoring Adhara's lips to his heart content, Rex started to move down kissing Adhara's neck leaving red marks as she lets out beautiful moans that Rex has never heard before.

While Rex is doing this, his hand grabbed the button on her back and ripped it open.

He then parts his lips from Adhara's neck and looks at the messed up Adhara and her blushy face, her left breast is exposed because of Rex ripping her clothes roughly, her breasts are heaving up and down as her breathing becomes heavy.

It's enchanting at its finest, and Rex can't help but touch her breasts gently.

"Mmpfh!", Adhara moans after Rex's hand grab her breasts gently, her breasts fit perfectly on Rex's huge hand that surprised even Rex.

She's trying to hold in her moans while Rex is doing this, but this makes them even sexier.

Her eyes are droopy and they're filled with lust, it's like they're inviting Rex.

Rex plays with her breast as he got drowned in lust, the thought of becoming stronger occupied his mind 24/7 making him forget some beautiful things in life.

After having his greed satisfied, Rex stopped and take a second to look at Adhara.

The scene in front of Rex is immediately gets engraved on his brain, it was simply breathtaking and provocative at the same time.

Without her even noticing, her legs are still open even when Rex steps back for a moment.

Rex widen his eyes as he saw the sacred place that any woman always guards heavily, but Adhara lets all of her guards down and even bravely shows it to Rex.

The pink color is contrasting with Adhara's blue robe, and this makes Rex suck in a cold breath.

With the lust enveloping Adhara's body from head to toe, the pink color is already drenched as she spread her legs apart wider.

"Stop staring at it, and make me yours already", Adhara said amidst her heavy breaths.

Accepting the open invitation, Rex also ripped open his blue robe exposing his muscular body that is the dream of any man that strives for perfection.

Looking at this, Adhara stretches her hand and touches Rex's rock-solid abs.

But then, her eyes got attracted to the thick and long saber below Rex's abs that is already erected strongly and it's pointing at Adhara's sacred place.

Rex's heart is beating like a war drum as he slowly went to Adhara's sacred place.

After the tip of his saber meet Adhara's pink sacred place, Rex subconsciously held his breath and with a thrust of his hip, his saber slid inside easily.

Slip!

The feeling of flesh wrapping around his saber greatly shocked him as the feeling is something that he never felt before, it's a completely new world for him.

"Hahh!", Adhara moaned loudly as her voice slipped out.

Hearing her moan loudly, Rex looks at her and asks amidst his hazy mind, "Are you okay?"

Adhara nods her head a couple of times while biting her lips, she then signals for Rex to continue as Rex slowly started moving his hips.

Pah! Pah!

"Mmhh!"

"Ahh!"

The sound of flesh hitting flesh resounds inside the room.

Rex grits his teeth as he kept pounding Adhara with all his might, he's experiencing this for the first time, and he already got indulged fully in the act.

It went on for several minutes non-stop as Rex kept thrusting his hip back and forth.

The tempo started to become faster as Rex felt he was reaching his limit.

Adhara's moans also become louder as both of them forget anything about their surroundings, they both turn into an animal as they focus on nothing except themselves.

She subconsciously already cross her legs behind Rex's back until suddenly,

PAH!

After the last stroke, "Haahh!", Adhara lets her moans all out.

White juices came out of Rex's saber inside of Adhara's sacred place, with one pull from Adhara, Rex got pulled down as they both kiss each other intimately.

Their tongue dances with each other as their heavy breaths rhyme in sync.

"Is that proof enough?", Rex said with a slight smirk while still breathing heavily.

Hearing this, Adhara kiss Rex's lips gently once more before she smiles sweetly making Rex's face turns red, "That's more than enough!"

Chapter 297 Did I Miss Something?

"That's more than enough!", Adhara smiles sweetly.

Rex is currently lying on top of Adhara feeling the satisfaction that he never felt before.

The cold look that Adhara wore before was gone nowhere to be seen as her expression lit up with happiness, her smile stretches wide as Rex lies on top of her.

While Rex is catching his breath, notifications from the system appeared in front of him.

<The user has just finished a mating session with the Female Alpha!>

<Obtained 1,000,000 Exp!>

Looking at the notification from the system, Rex was quite surprised that he actually get exp from doing this with Adhara.

'Hmm? Might as well do it again', Rex thought with a huge grin on his face.

Rex then rest his head on Adhara's back before he started kissing her back, this made Adhara moan lightly in response as she glance at Rex teasingly.

"You're getting cheeky, we're in a hospital", Adhara said lightly.

Hearing this, Rex kept kissing her back as his saber slowly started to erect once again and it's poking Adhara's but making her body jolt upon feeling the touch.

With a slight smile, Rex pulls Adhara's body up from the bed.

Adhara shrieked playfully as the both of them began doing the same thing as before all over again.

An hour later,

Rex and Adhara are lying on the bed with no clothes covering their bodies, only the hospital's blanket covers their bodies as they lie beside each other with heavy breaths.

Now that their lust started to dwindle, the pain started kicking as they both felt their bodies sore.

Both of them lie sorely while looking up at the ceiling, their breathing is still heavy since they kept going with each other nonstop in the past hour.

The room is a mess since they become quite wild after the first time.

"So, What are you going to do about Rosie's situation?", Adhara asks while she glances at Rex.

Adhara rests her chin on top of Rex's chest as she looks at Rex's eyes curiously, aside from the argument they had before, Rosie is still in the hands of the Vampires.

Hearing this, Rex looks up to the ceiling in thought.

For all he knows, the Vampires wanted to get Rosie for some unknown reasons and they also want to capture Rex since he now knows that he has a Royal Bloodline of the Werewolf.

There's also the matter with the Green Messenger, and also Jarvald that wanted his bloodline.

Rex didn't know much about his Royal Bloodline except that he had the means to become a king of the Werewolf, and this caused many other Werewolves to desire his bloodline just like Jarvald.

"Since it came to this, I have decided", Rex said lightly.

He then looks at Adhara with a fierce glint before he continues, "I'm going to destroy the Delarosa Vampire Family, they tried to hurt us so we will response back the same"

Rex's plan before was to massacre a city or village of Dark Elves to finish the Blood Moon quest.

But with the attack from the Delarosa Family, Rex becomes determined to massacre the Delarosa Family so he will be attacking a Vampire city to finish his quest.

Rex needs to be careful though since Vampires are a high-rank Supernatural.

With the display of power from Ana before that toyed with Rex easily since she has a Seventh Rank Power, Rex needs to play it safe and find an easier Vampire city before coming to the big ones.

But in order to do this, he needs to get information about the Vampires' Kingdom.

Hearing this, Adhara sighs since Rex is back to his normal self again.

Looking at Adhara's dejected look, Rex caresses her cheek with a frown, "What's wrong?"

"I don't know, I just still can't believe that I finally did it with you", Adhara said as she turns her face away that started to turn red in embarrassment.

Rex smiles lightly as he pulls Adhara's chin back towards him, "It's great", he said lightly.

"But now we need to check on the Vampire that we caught, I'm worried that Kyran might've gotten careless", he added while taking his blue patient's robe and wearing it.

"Of course, back to our normal lives again", Adhara replied while sitting up.

When Rex was about to finish changing his clothes,

"You're not mad at Kyran are you?", Adhara asks with a hint of worry in her expression.

Kyran was clearly the one that told Adhara about his secret, no one was supposed to know except for him and Rosie but Kyran find out through the maid that he interrogated. There're no other people that know about his secret with Rosie so it must be him.

"Nah, I'm not going to do anything to him", Rex said with a wide grin.

Seeing Rex's wide grin, Adhara's expression turns helpless as she knew that it's clearly a lie.

Adhara wears her patient robe again but she needs to hold the back part since Rex ripped it open, so she can't go with Rex.

"Don't do anything bad to him, he's only looking out for m- huakh!"

Rex that just was about to leave the room suddenly stopped when he heard Adhara choked amidst her sentence, he looks back and widen his eyes when he saw Adhara throwing up a mouthful of blood.

With a dash, Rex caught Adhara before she can fall, "What happened?", he asks in confusion.

But then, a system notification appeared,

<Adhara's bloodline is evolving...>

Reading this, Rex immediately carries Adhara and lies her on the bed.

'How did this happen? Why is she evolving right now?', Rex asks the system in confusion.

<Mating with the user gives benefit not just for the user but also to Adhara, the mating session triggers her bloodline evolution>

After reading the system's answer, Rex saw Adhara's body makes a cracking sound.

"AARGHH!", Adhara shouted in pain.

Without much thinking, Rex bought a rune from the shop and puts it on the wall to prevent her shout from leaving this room.

He also closes the window curtains just in case,

CRACK!

Adhara then shouted as she felt her bones moving, "What's happening to me?!"

"It's going to be okay, your bloodline is evolving so just hang in there", Rex said lightly while gently stroking Adhara's head, she nods back in reply as she started to grit her teeth.

After convincing Adhara that she's going to be okay,

Rex stands in front of the door, he's afraid that someone might see what happened to Adhara from the window on the door.

So he can't help much but let Adhara finish the process.

Crack!

"RAARGHH!", Adhara screams in agony as blood leaked out of her mouth.

The process of the evolution went for almost half an hour as Rex stands worriedly by the door, and he becomes even more worried when he saw Adhara's fingernails slowly turn into claws.

Even her teeth grows sharper as she screamed in agony.

She then falls from the bed since the pain is too much for her to bear, it's not even night yet, and yet she's evolving right now as Adhara scratches the floor trying everything to endure the pain.

At times like this, Rex thanked that the system's shop is so useful in this kind of situation.

If Rex didn't have the system then at this moment, he might have already exposed his Werewolf identity and he will definitely be hunted down and will have no choice but to leave the human territory.

After the cracking sound is decided, Rex approach Adhara who lies weakly on the floor.

The bed and the white floors are already covered by her blood, claw marks stain the ground as he lifts Adhara's head up, "Wake up! Adhara!", Rex called worriedly.

But even after shaking and calling for her, Adhara didn't wake up.

<Adhara is unconscious>

The system said as it finished scanning Adhara's body, and this made Rex sigh in relief.

"Just rest here", Rex said as he kissed Adhara's forehead lightly.

With the evolution process ended, Rex left the room intending to check on Kyran and Edward that should be still in the abandoned building where the Vampire is held.

A couple of minutes later,

Rex is already changed into a white shirt with jeans that he bought from the system.

He arrives in front of the abandoned building and saw the black hand still guarding in front of the building, and her expression is that of someone that has just seen a ghost.

It's very pale and even her hands are trembling.

Beside her is Edward who is smoking cigarettes leisurely, his eyes lit up when he saw Rex as he approach Rex leisurely.

"Why are you out here? Where's Kyran?", Rex asks in confusion.

Edward saw Rex's bright face before he asks suspiciously, "What puts you in a good mood? Hmm, this is very suspicious. Did something happen?"

"I'm always like this", Rex replied but Edward saw a slight blush amidst Rex's stoic expression.

After inspecting Rex, Edward shrugs his shoulders, "He's inside, I don't think Kyran need my help"

Hearing this, Rex was quite confused since the reason he told Edward to go with Kyran is to keep an eye on him if he was to do something careless.

"What do you mean by that?", Rex asks again.

Seeing Rex's doubtful look, Edward points his chin at the black hand woman before he said, "Do you know what makes her trembling like that?"

"She took a peek of what's happening inside", Edward added while shaking his head.

Rex widens his eyes as he looks at the woman in surprise, 'What did Kyran do?', he thought.

Since the woman is a black hand, Rex can't find anything scary enough to make her tremble and pale like that, 'Did Kyran do something to her? but that doesn't make sense since Edward is here'

Without wasting any more time, Rex approaches the door leading into the abandoned building.

Before he can open the door,

Kyran suddenly opens the door first from the inside and came out of the building while wiping the blood from his hand.

He then closed the door before he was stunned when he saw Rex.

Kyran was surprised when he saw Rex was just about to enter the building, "Rex!", he shrieked in surprise as Rex's eyes landed on him coldly.

Seeing this, Kyran can only smile wryly as he can't get give an excuse to get out of this.

Based on Rex's cold expression, Kyran realized that Rex had already been confronted by Adhara and he probably knows that Kyran is the one that told her.

"Do you have something to say to me?", Rex said slowly, crossing his arms in front of him.

The words that came out of Rex's mouth makes Kyran feel suffocated and his bearing makes Kyran feel small and weak in front of him.

But before Kyran can answer, Rex points at the building and said, "Did you get anything?"

"Yes, I got him to answer both of your questions", Kyran's expression turns serious as he replied convincingly with a hint of pride in his tone.

Hearing this, Rex squints his eyes, "Are you sure he's telling the truth?"

"I'm quite sure, I don't think he's able to lie in these circumstances", Kyran replied.

Rex looks at Kyran inspecting his expression before he glances at Edward on his back, Edward nodded his head as a sign of confirmation before Rex looks back at Kyran.

He then said, "Fine, let's ask a few more questions. You didn't kill it right?"

"I think he's alive, I don't know", Kyran replied nonchalantly making Rex frown harder.

After nodding his head, Rex opens the door into the abandoned building and when the door opened Rex's body stopped as he looks at his front.

Kyran and Edward that are following behind him also stopped.

The scene in front of Rex was really unexpected as Rex looked at Edward in surprise.

'So that's what Edward means', Rex thought as he looks at the scene in front of him.

His eyes then landed on Kyran who is looking at him innocently and thought, 'Where did he learn to do something like this? Did I miss something?'

Chapter 298 Kyran's Dark Side

'Did I miss something?', Rex thought as he looks at Kyran in confusion.

The scene that he's seeing right now greatly shocked him since it never crossed his wildest mind, he thought that Kyran doesn't have the gut to do something like this.

Rex only told Kyran to try is because of what he did to the maid before.

Although he asks him to interrogate the Vampire, Rex didn't expect a thing since even himself can't make the Vampire talk even after trying all sorts of torture methods.

In front of Rex lies the Vampire still chained like before,

But this time the Vampire is in somekind of a basket of black water, the lower half of the body is gone as the Vampire dangles on air with the chains holding him up. Blood flows out from the Vampire's body into the basket of water making the Vampire weaker and weaker.

Kyran almost drains the Vampire from blood entirely,

Beside the basket of water, Rex can see numerous limbs of the Vampire.

It seems Kyran cut off its limbs and let them grow back before cutting them again, this stains the ground with a pool of blood.

Numerous unspeakable leftovers from the torture Kyran did can be seen throughout its body.

Rex walks closer to the Vampire and inspects the black water with the system, he was quite surprised when he saw the notification from the system.

<Dark Linzite Water>

This water is produced from a mix of Linzite, water, and also Dark Element. The product of the mix created this Dark Linzite Water that has its effect amplified, this now doesn't only hurt the Vampires but upon touching it a Vampire will feel their skin boiling and excessive exposure will vaporize them. It's pure Anti-Vampire Water.

'Did Kyran make this?', Rex thought in surprise.

With a sigh, Rex lifts the Vampire's head and can sense that the Vampire is barely alive.

Its left eye is blind with black complexions surrounding its left eye, the black complexions spread throughout its body and they look gruesome as it makes the Vampire's skin start decaying and even lets out a disgusting odor.

Rex can also see the sign of struggling around the place,

When he looked down, Rex can also see that the regenerative ability of the Vampire is still kicking in but every time it tries to heal the lower part of its body the black water vaporized it again.

Kyran makes sure to put enough water to prevent the Vampire to regenerate its lower half.

It's sadistic, and this makes Rex frown.

[You've got quite a subordinate, he's young but has so much potential], Devo suddenly said.

Hearing this, Rex felt a mixed feeling.

He doesn't know whether he should be happy that he got someone that is good at doing stuff like this, or sad that the innocent kid when he first met Kyran is nowhere to be seen.

This makes Rex feel conflicted, and Devo chuckles upon feeling Rex's conflicted feelings.

'Since when did he become like this? I know I taught him to be ruthless but this?', Rex thought as he look at Kyran in disbelief.

"What?", Kyran asks innocently while still wiping the blood.

Rex shakes his head before he asks, "So, What did you find out from this Vampire?"

After Rex asks that, Kyran told him everything that he found from the Vampire to the smallest detail leaving nothing that he didn't tell.

From what Kyran explains, there are two important things that Rex found.

The first one is about Rosie,

Based on what the Vampire said, there is a blood ritual that the Queen conducted occasionally for the Origin. The Queen will take the sacrifice up the stairs one by one while the sacrifice started to die, she has never been able to reach the top of the place.

The Vampires found that Rosie has special blood, and they were going to use Rosie as a sacrifice.

For the second one,

Kyran explains that the Vampire King has just issued for Rex's capture, the Vampires are keeping this a secret, and Rex concludes that they must not want the Werewolves to know about his existence.

Just like Jarvald before, the Werewolves will fight the Vampires if they were to realize his existence.

The Royal Bloodline that is flowing through Rex's body seems to be special, he doesn't know exactly what it is but the Vampires are keen on killing or capturing him as long as the Werewolves didn't find out about him.

"They even will reward whoever that catches you a Duke or Duchess position", Kyran added.

Hearing this, Edward was put into thought as he said, "Based on what I know, there is only one Duchess in the Vampire Kingdom and that is the Demelza Family"

"How good is that position for a Vampire?", Rex asks.

Edward then replied with a serious expression, "It's like being the King himself, no one can stand up to them as they're on a spot above others and just below the King"

The three of them frown as they realized the situation they're in.

Rex has a bounty above his head with a reward so great that it can tempt any Vampires, he also has to deal with Jarvald and also the Atkins that is still planning behind his back.

Aside from that, Rex also needs to convince the UWO to band with the SCO.

The Green Messenger was about to attack the Supernatural with an army of Black Hands, they were buying time to at least distract the attack on Eqosa City while they hold the reinforcements so Rex can have the leverage to negotiate a temporary alliance with the UWO.

But the fact that the Vampires are aiming at him added another thing to his mind.

There's also Rosie that he needs to save, numerous problems just won't stop coming to him.

'So many things to think about', Rex thought with a sigh.

He then takes a vial and pours the substance in it into the Vampire's mouth.

The Vampire drinks the substance slowly as his eyes started to open, it was a healing elixir he bought from the shop since the Vampire will die if left like this.

He still has more questions, "Hey, Can you hear me?"

Hearing Rex's voice, the Vampire looks up before his eyes land on Rex.

Based on how he blinks slowly, Rex can see clearly that the Vampire is very weak with the Dark Linztine still coursing through his veins.

When the Vampire slowly gazes to the side, his eyes suddenly widen.

"HELP!! SOMEBODY HELP!!", the Vampire suddenly shouted hysterically after his eyes landed on Kyran.

The Vampire then added desperately, "GET THAT MONSTER AWAY FROM ME!!!",

Rex frowns as he saw the Vampire's excessive reaction, the Vampire even called Kyran a monster which is rather impressive if he thinks about it.

Especially since the Vampire in front of him is a sixth rank Vampire.

Kyran's mouth quirk up into a terrifying smirk but when Rex glance at him, his expression turns back to normal as the terrifying smirk disappears from his face.

"Leave me alone", Rex said before Kyran and Edward nodded their heads and left the place.

After the two of them left the place, the heavy breathing of the Vampire quickly receded as he saw Kyran leave the place after giving the Vampire a last glance.

Rex then said, "Answer my question"

"Where is the Delarosa Family territory? Help me mark it on the map", Rex brought a map from the inventory as he shows it to the Vampire.

The map is the entire Map of Ratmawati City and also the Supernatural Territory bordering the city.

Hearing this, the Vampire's mouth suddenly closed shut not intending to answer Rex's question but his strong front is already broken unlike before.

"If you don't answer my question, I'll bring that monster back", Rex said threateningly.

Although he doesn't know exactly how Kyran is able to break the Vampire's spirit so easily, Rex knows that the Vampire is very scared of Kyran based on his reaction before.

So he can start to threaten the Vampire with this,

The Vampire's body jolted before he immediately said, "Please, I'll tell you anything! Just don't bring that monster back here, and just kill me swiftly after you're done asking questions"

Rex nodded his head seeing the humongous bleak aura coming out of the Vampire.

It's a more bleak aura than what he has ever seen before, it's almost unbelievable just how much fear the Vampire had from one exchange with Kyran.

After seeing Rex agree, the Vampire then points at the map with his eyes.

"This place?", Rex asks while pointing at a spot on the map with his fingers.

The Vampire nodded his head before he said weakly, "Delarosa's Family territory stretches from the Avonlet river until Sleatin City on the north"

Hearing this, Rex marked the places on the map with a marker before he nodded his head.

"Are they bordering other Family's Territory?", Rex asks.

Since the place is Vampire territory, then it's safe to say that the Delarosa territory is bordering with other family and Rex have to know this kind of thing if he were to destroy them.

The Vampire grit his teeth in pain before he forced out an answer, "Izora Family"

Rex looks at him intently waiting for an answer before the Vampire added, "Izora Family territory starts from the other side of Avonlet river, that's all"

After getting the answer, Rex mentally noted it before he stands up.

Just like the deal he made, Rex takes out his new Amuerus Katana and points it at the Vampire.

But before he was about to slash the Vampire's head, Rex then suddenly asks, "You do not happen to know the Delarosa and the Izora Families' powers don't you?"

Hearing this, the Vampire was unwilling to answer Rex.

Seeing this, Rex lies the katana on his shoulder before he turns around intending to call Kyran.

The Vampire widen his eyes seeing this before he finally gives in, "I know! I know!", he said stopping Rex from walking out of the place.

"Blood Locator and Blood Frenzy", the Vampire added.

Rex listen intently as the Vampire explains their power, and after the Vampire finished explaining their power,

SWOOSH!

He swings the katana and chops off the Vampire's head cleanly.

<Killed a Mid Sixth Rank Supernatural, Obtained 6,000,000 Exp!>

After killing the Vampire, Rex sigh as he looks at the place that is bloodied and gruesome.

'No wonder that woman in front is pale, I didn't blame her if she saw this kind of scene', Rex thought as his eyes landed on the limbs of the Vampire.

Rex walks closer to the limbs before he squats down and looks at them with reluctance.

'The corpse of a mid-sixth rank Awakened, I can become stronger if I embrace my Werewolf side', Rex thought as he hold a leg in his hand.

But after a moment, Rex shakes his head and puts the leg down.

His eyes then landed on the black water that he felt wrong to just toss it away, "Let's put it in the inventory", Rex mumbles as he walks closer to the basket of water.

Right when Rex looks at the surrounding, his eyes widen when he saw his surrounding turns reddish in color as a sweet laugh penetrate his ears.

~

Meanwhile, Faraday University.

Rex's room is emptier since Rex, Adhara, and Kyran are not there, only the maids and the butlers can be seen still cleaning the place and tending to Ryze who is left alone in the room.

Because of getting left by the other, Ryze is sitting alone in his bed with nothing to do.

The butlers and maids are treating him fairly well since the last incident, he's not as lonely as before with the butler sometimes talking with him.

But even as their bonds get better, the butler prohibits him from leaving the university ground.

Whenever Ryze was to leave the room, the butler also always accompany him no matter where he goes in fear that he might upset Rex again.

Since he can't freely go anywhere, Ryze is playing with his laptop that the butler gave.

The butler felt bad since Ryze doesn't have that many things to do, so he decided to get a laptop for Ryze to play with and since then Ryze has almost always browsed the internet.

But one night, while Ryze is playing with his laptop.

Crash!

The window inside his room suddenly shatter suddenly,

Because of the sudden event, Ryze was surprised as he fall to the ground before he rubs his butt since he fall butt first.

But then, he suddenly saw a hole on the ground beside him.

Feeling curious about what shattered the window, Ryze puts his little fingers inside the hole and gropes around before he pulls out something from the hole.

Turns out it's a bullet that shatters his window.

Ryze looks at the window scarily before the pointy side of the bullet suddenly opened.

He then looks at a white rolled paper that comes out of the bullet with a frown, and when he unfold the paper there's something written on it.

'Wait for me, I'm going to rescue you'

That is what the white paper said, and there's a letter M on the right corner of the paper.

Not long after Ryze read the paper in confusion, the door into his room suddenly opened as the butler came inside worriedly.

The butler saw the shattered window as his eyes widen, "What happened?!"

"Someone threw a rock to the window", Ryze lied as he hides the bullet behind his back, and this makes the butler's face red in anger.

He then stormed out while saying, "Wait here, I'm going to find who's responsible"

After the butler left the room oblivious to the small hole on the ground, Ryze then looks at the white paper once more as he mumbles, "M-Micheline?"

Chapter 299 I Don't Like To Share

Rex looks around his surroundings in confusion,

The place that should be dimmed lighted as there's no source of light except natural light turns to red, Blood red.

Feeling that something is wrong, Rex runs towards the door.

When he grabbed the handle of the door, Rex tries to pull it but to his surprise, he can't.

Even when he uses more power into his pull, the door won't budge as the same sweet laugh penetrate his ears once again.

'I've heard that laugh before', Rex thought with a frown.

The sweet laugh and the situation he's in felt familiar, it's like he has experienced something like this before but he can't put his finger on it.

But then, he suddenly remembered, 'It's that Vampire again'

Splash!

A sound of water splashing suddenly can be heard as Rex turns his body around, he looks at where the dead Vampire chained before and saw that its body suddenly started to twitch.

Under Rex's surprised eyes, he saw the Vampire's head raises up slowly.

The supposed to be dead Vampire raises his gaze to meet Rex's, but when Rex saw his eyes, it's not the same anymore.

His regular Vampire red eyes suddenly have black patterns on them,

Clang!

With a flick of the Vampire's hand, the chains that were supposed to be able to hold back a Vampire broke as the Vampire fell to the ground since it has no lower half of its body.

After doing that, the Vampire started to inch closer to Rex.

It crawls with its hands, there's a maniac look in its eyes as if the Vampire is obsessed with Rex.

Slowly but surely, the Vampire started to morph.

The lower half of its body started to heal and it didn't take long for it to start standing and walking towards Rex, its muscular male body also started to shift into womanly curves.

Rex saw the Vampire morph slowly into a female Vampire that is devilishly beautiful.

'It's her again, Calidora', Rex thought as his expression turns into a frown.

Calidora walks slowly towards Rex who is standing by the door stiffly, she walks leisurely as her eyes are glued onto Rex.

After reaching Rex, she touches Rex's shoulder lightly and started to circle him.

Knowing that this is all just an illusion from the Eternal Curse, Rex is not bothered to be wary of her since this is all is just an illusion just like the last time.

It has something to do with the Eternal Curse, and Rex can't exactly stop this forcefully.

"You broke my heart", Calidora suddenly whispers lightly.

Hearing this, Rex frowns since he doesn't know what Calidora is talking about.

She then rests her hand and chin on Rex's shoulder as her claws touch Rex's neck playfully, "You let that Vampire bitch taste your blood, I don't like that", she said.

As Rex's patience gets tested, he then said, "How did you do this?"

Calidora giggles sweetly exposing her beautiful fangs, she circles Rex again before stopping right in front of his face to face.

She then points at Rex's heart before she added, "You are mine, especially your blood. Don't go around sharing what's mine, I don't like to share"

Rex gritted his teeth since Calidora is not answering his question, his face started to turn red.

Seeing Rex's angry expression, Calidora smiles playfully.

"Don't you get it? We're connected", she replied slowly making Rex frown.

She then added while caressing Rex's face gently, "We're meant to be with each other, so why don't you just come to me and I promise I'll be nice"

SWOOSH!

In a fit of anger, Rex punched Calidora but his punch is missed as her body turns into blood.

This makes Calidora laughs sweetly again as Rex looks around with veins popping on his neck, he's angry and frustrated at the same time.

"Just accept it, you're mine and mine only"

"So be a good doggy and come to your owner okay?"

Hearing this, Rex's body blasted with energy as he glare at his surroundings, "COME OUT AND FIGHT ME!! I'M GOING TO KILL YOU!"

But even under Rex's threat, Calidora just laughs as a reply.

"Don't worry, we'll definitely meet soon enough"

"And while you keep refusing to come to me, I'm just going to drink your friend's blood in the meantime as a snack"

The last words that came out of Calidora's mouth burn Rex's body with anger.

When Rex was about to go berserk, the surroundings turn back to normal as the dead Vampire is still hanging by the chains as if nothing has happened.

Brak!

The door was opened as Kyran walks inside upon hearing Rex's shout.

"What happened?", Kyran asks in confusion.

He looks around the place and finds nothing except for Rex who is breathing heavily, his face is red and the expression on his face makes Kyran jolt.

Seeing this, Kyran approach Rex slowly, "Are you okay?"

"STOP TALKING!!"

Rex suddenly roared as his eyes glow red, his fangs grow longer making Kyran fall.

The sudden roar from Rex frighten Kyran as he crawls to the corner of the place, he was whimpering as he crawls to the corner like a scared dog.

After realizing what he just has done, Rex shakes his head while massaging his forehead.

But then suddenly, [How on earth are you cursed?]

'I don't know', Rex replied as he still doesn't know why he was cursed with this Eternal Curse.

While Rex is taking a brief moment to collect himself, he then suddenly thought of something, 'Devo, you're old right?'

[That's quite rude but yes], Devo answered slightly annoyed.

Rex already weaken the restrain as he wanted to ask Devo about something, 'Then what do you know of curses? You must know something'

[I've seen numerous curses in my lifetime, and I know that for someone or something got a curse then they must do something against the law of nature], Devo explains.

Hearing this, Rex frowns, 'Such as?'

[Something like Cannibalism for intelligent beings, Killing own kin, and many more. But that's not all curses, some curses are handmade that is created for revenge or that sorts and they're usually weaker than real curses]

'How do you identify real curse and handmade curse? and Do you know how to break a curse?', Rex asks.

But Devo replied in disbelief, [Do I look like a Witch?]

Rex sigh as he must be thankful for at least the information Devo gave to him.

Based on what Devo said, there are two types of curses that are a real curse and a handmade curse.

The Eternal curse came suddenly to Rex so it must be a handmade one since he didn't do anything that can break the law of nature, but he's not sure since the first time he saw Calidora she didn't hate him at all.

In fact, she's more like a friend.

Then suddenly, everything changes when the Eternal Curse started.

Calidora turns into a completely different Vampire from when Rex first meets her, it's like she's possessed by another entity that's not her.

With a sigh, Rex then walks out of the building after helping Kyran.

~

In the middle of the night,

Rex and the others are already nearing sector 3E, they're currently inside a train.

Along the way, Rex and the others are quite shocked by the streets that are filled with numerous signs, trash, and even a leftover from somekind of explosion.

The thing that makes them frown is that this occurrence spread through many sectors.

It's not just sector 3E but also other sectors, there must be something that happened while they're all gone to Lountain and Wedron City.

"Look at this", Adhara suddenly said while showing Rex her phone.

Rex takes Adhara's phone and saw the news about a riot happening throughout Ratmawati City.

People started to realize that the UWO and the SCO are currently in a game of power, and the people are the ones that got the most impact from it.

The Eqosa City getting attacked already known by many.

But the part where the Black Hand blocks the reinforcement, and the UWO who is trying to make the SCO the bad guy as a general knowledge exposes both of them.

Because of this, many riots sprouted as the people doesn't feel safe anymore.

'Although I didn't support this way, the people is helping me convince the UWO in some way', Rex thought as he nodded his head.

With the riots emerging in various sectors of Ratmawati City,

It'll be easier for Rex to convince the UWO to band together, Sebrof is probably in a pinch right now with so many riots emerging.

Rex might think that the UWO will sign the agreement before he needs to even convince him.

'Just to make sure, let's give them a push', Rex thought with a smile.

While Rex is scrolling to the news, his eyes suddenly landed on a woman speaking at a conference that he found familiar.

That woman is the woman that Rex met in Beah City, the ninth rank Awakened.

'Oh yeah I forgot about her, I'll put in mind to pay her a visit', Rex thought as he gave back the phone to Adhara.

The next day,

Rex woke up from his bed feeling good since he's back in his room now.

When he came back yesterday night, Ryze is still up playing with his new laptop and he was ecstatic to find Rex and the others has came back.

He immediately runs out of the room to meet with Delta, he missed her.

After opening his eyes, Rex looks at his side and finds Adhara is already up with no clothes on.

She's only covering her body with the blanket.

The smile on her face bloomed when she saw Rex wake up, "Good morning!", she said sweetly before hugging Rex from the side.

"You're up early today", Rex said as he rubs his eyes tiredly.

Upon hearing this, Adhara takes her phone and shows the screen to Rex, "It's not early, It's already quite late"

Hearing this, Rex looks at Adhara's phone before his eyes widen.

"Why didn't you wake me up?! I have to meet with Vargas at twelve and now I'm already an hour late", Rex said as he jumped from the bed.

Adhara giggle sweetly, "Guess last night took a toll on you huh?"

Rex didn't budge her teasing remark as he hurriedly went to the bathroom, a couple of minutes later he came out of the bathroom and started to wear his clothes.

He then checks his phone and finds Vargas already missed calling him three times.

While he was changing his clothes, Rex felt Adhara is staring at him before he glance at her and saw that her nails are currently turning into claws, "What are you doing?"

"Practicing, I still can't properly control it", Adhara said while looking at her claws.

Hearing this, Rex then tidy his clothes intending to leave as he said, "Alright, Don't let the maids and butlers see it though"

But before Rex leave the room, he suddenly went back.

Adhara looks at him confusedly since he just told her he will be going,

"I almost forgot, this is for you", Rex said as two beautiful daggers appeared in his hand before he tossed them at Adhara.

Looking at the daggers, Adhara's eyes lit up, "Where did you get this?"

"The temple before, I got a couple of treasures from there", Rex replied before he waves his hand and left the room leaving Adhara who is stunned by the beautiful daggers.

Moments later, Rex arrived at the principal's office.

Upon entering the door, Rex was greeted by a voice, "You're late"

"I got caught up by something, my mistake", Rex replied calmly before sitting on the chair in front of Vargas who is looking at him intently.

Vargas then said, "So? What's the plan?"

"Before we get into that, tell me how the riots affect Sebrof?", Rex asks curiously.

If the riots are affecting Sebrof as he expected, then he will be convinced 100% that the plan that he will do will force Sebrof to sign the temporary alliance with the SCO.

Hearing this, Vargas then said, "Yes, the riots are affecting Sebrof.

But when Rex was about to be happy, Vargas added, "Not just Sebrof, but the whole UWO are currently affected by this. People started to feel unsafe, and we need to handle that ASAP"

Rex nodded his head, but he was not worried since he got a plan.

"Then that means convincing Sebrof will be easy", Rex said.

He then locks his hands together by the chair handles as he gazes at Vargas seriously, "If Sebrof is affected then I'm convinced that my plan will work brilliantly, but before that, I need some information from you in order to execute my plan"

Vargas tilts his head with a frown, "What information?"

"Do you know an Official UWO member that has been arrested for suspected collusion with the SCO?"

Chapter 300 John Webster

"Do you know an Official UWO member that has been arrested for suspected collusion with the SCO?", Rex asks seriously.

The plan that he had can only be done after finding this UWO member.

Rex got an idea from when Adhara mention the scene in the UWO office, she said that there's a UWO official that got arrested that night for collusion.

Hearing this, Vargas looks down in thought.

But even after thinking for a while, Vargas shakes his head since he didn't know such a person.

"Is this person essential to the plan?", Vargas asked.

Rex nodded his head in confirmation, without this UWO member the plan can still work but it will be harder to find anyone else just like this one.

Seeing this, Vargas then suddenly takes his phone before he dialed someone.

"Come to my office right now", he said before hanging up.

Not long after he did that, the door opened as Linda walks in with her assistant formal outfit.

There's a tablet in her hand that Rex saw as she enters the room,

After Linda walks in and stands beside the both of them, Vargas then said, "Linda, Rex asks of an official UWO member that has been arrested for collusion with the SCO. Check the UWO database and find this person"

Hearing this, Linda nodded her head as she taps the table in her hand.

It didn't take long before Linda asks while looking at Rex, "There are three of them, Can you describe more of this member?"

"Which one of them works at the UWO office where Adhara gives the proposal to Vargas"

After hearing that, Linda then taps on her screen before she turns the screen to face Rex and Vargas showing the photo of a man in his thirties.

She then explains, "This is John Webster"

"Has been working for the UWO for 6 years until recently get arrested since he's trying to convince his upper management to band together with the SCO. Because of that, he's been arrested for collusion with three years of torture sentence"

Rex looks at the tablet screen intently, 'He has the same vision as me', he thought with a sigh.

While they both have the same vision since Rex and this John person wanted to make SCO and UWO band together to fight the Supernatural, their circumstances are different.

Linda explains that John tries by convincing his upper management with no backup.

Essentially he has a different vision and the others and tries to force his vision on them, different than Rex which has a connection with the UWO side and the SCO side.

"Where is he imprisoned?", Rex asks.

Hearing this, Linda scrolls the tablet before she said, "He's at Wailing Asylum"

"Alright, Get him out and told him to meet me here. We will-", Rex said but then,

Vargas suddenly intervenes amidst his sentence, "It's not going to be that easy to take him out I'm afraid"

Rex frowns upon hearing what Vargas said,

He thought that with an influential person such as Vargas, getting someone out from a prison that the UWO built will be as easy as one phone call.

"It's out of my jurisdiction to do that", Vargas added.

Rex then said, "We need to get him out, Do you have a way?"

After thinking for a moment, Linda approach Vargas before she whispers something on his ears as Vargas's eyes widen as he looks at Linda in shock, "It's too risky"

"What is it?", Rex asks curiously.

No matter how risky it is, Rex has the system and there's the transferral crystal.

He only needs to meet with this John guy and he can just teleport both of them out, it's that simple with the system.

Vargas sighed before he said, "Since we can't do this openly, someone needs to take him out of the prison so it will be risky"

"Don't worry, I can do it", Rex said confidently.

Seeing this Linda and Vargas frown as they doubt Rex can take John out easily, "Are you sure? That place is guarded by many high-rank Awakened, and the building has layers of protection before you can even come out of the building"

"Then you will have to face multiple armed militaries and Awakened, they have detection spell covering the whole prison so it's impossible to sneak in and out", Linda explained.

Rex asks the system before a smile crept on his face, "You don't need to worry about that"

"Just get me in the same room as the guy, and I'll take it from there", Rex added making Vargas and Linda look at each other in surprise.

After planning to get John out of the Asylum, Rex talked to Vargas about his plan.

It didn't take long for Rex to explain to Vargas since Vargas only need to contact the media to broadcast a piece of interesting news, while Rex and the others will do the rest.

Vargas then asks when Rex was about to leave, "I have one question"

"I trust you since you're definitely on Humanity's side, but what about the SCO? How can I trust you fully, you may be doing this just to benefit the SCO", Vargas asks.

Rex then replied calmly, "I told you, I just met an SCO member and share the same vision"

"You might say that but the truth may be that you're a part of them for all I know", Vargas replied while inspecting Rex's expression.

Even Linda who is standing by the side also looks at Rex intently.

The tension in the air started to rise as Rex kept eye contact with Vargas,

"What will benefit the UWO except for rallying against the Supernatural? From the way I see it, if we band with the SCO then the SCO will be more known and more accepted by the people", Vargas said sharply.

But contrasting to what Vargas expected, Rex smiles in return.

Rex stands up slowly under Vargas' gaze before he tidies his clothes, "You may trust me or not, it's all depending on you. But the UWO will also benefit from this alliance"

"How's that?", Vargas asks.

The smile on Rex's face becomes wider as he said, "Don't view the SCO as a small rogue organization. If the UWO band with the SCO, you will thank me for helping the UWO to meet an amazing inventor which invented all sorts of things that will benefit the UWO"

After saying that, Rex left Vargas' office.

Right when he wanted to go back to his room, Linda suddenly called him.

"Rex!"

Hearing this, Rex turns to his back and saw Linda is currently running towards him.

"What's wrong Linda?", Rex asks in confusion.

Linda stopped in front of Rex before she suddenly said, "Have you got the new invitation to the banquet? I heard they already rescheduled the banquet"

"I don't get any, I'll ask Stuart to see if there's a letter dropped on my room", Rex replied.

She then smiles lightly before Rex bids goodbye and left.

Not long after Rex left when Linda was about to go back to Vargas's office, she suddenly stopped when she saw someone is already standing behind her.

Linda sighed in relief when she realized that it was just Edward.

"Excuse me", she said wanting to walk past Edward but her hand suddenly got grabbed.

Looking at this, Linda was confused since she never really talk with Edward except for her knowing Edward as the principal's assistant and Edward is also Rex's friend.

Edward then said, "Aren't you going to apologize to him?"

"To Rex? Why did I need to apologize to him?", Linda asks with a frown.

Hearing this, Edward scoffs as he lets go of Linda before leaning on the wall with a serious look, "Although Rex has Ari to guard his room, the fake maid that got inside Rex's room is also the university's fault", Edward said sharply.

Since the maid manages to get inside Rex's room, it's safe to say that half of it is the university's fault for not protecting Rex's room better.

Especially since Rex is the strongest and most dear student of Faraday University.

Linda was at a loss for words before Edward added, "Rex is too occupied right now so he didn't blame the university, but I can speak on his behalf for him"

"You have no right to speak on his behalf", Linda rebutted warningly.

But even with her warning tone, Edward didn't back down, "I can just remind Rex of this, and you will have him to deal with him instead of me"

"What do you want?", Linda finally replied with reluctance.

Edward smiles as he said, "You're the assistant of the principal so you must have a lot of connections, all I want is for you to keep an eye on the Atkins and the Reed Family. Report back to me if you find anything that proves them working with each other against Rex, consider this your apology for Rex"

A moment later, Rex got out of room 505 with a frown on his face.

Since Linda just brought up the topic of the banquet, Rex remembered that he needs to collect the rest of the information from Evelyn.

And he finally gets the full version dirt of Wesley Atkins,

~

A couple of minutes ago,

"There you are, I was wondering when you will come back", Evelyn said after seeing Rex gets into her room.

Rex waves her remarks and sits on the sofa, "It's your turn to fulfill your part"

Seeing Rex's serious look, Evelyn smiles playfully as she walks closer to Rex before she sits on Rex's lap dangerously filling Rex's nose with her scent.

"Why are you being like this, cheer up", she said as she wrap her arm around Rex's neck.

But even with her being provocative as usual, Rex somehow still has a clear mind as he gazes at Evelyn's eyes, "You're in a good mood, I assume you win against that girl thanks to me?"

"And you will win against Wesley thanks to me", Evelyn replied with a smirk.

After the little conversation, Evelyn then continues as she stands up from Rex's lap and sits on the edge of the bed with a serious look, "As I said before, Wesley's wife is the bastard daughter of Daniel"

"As the saying goes, people attract the same people as them. Daniel is also a player just like Wesley, but there's a slight difference between the both of them"

"While Wesley doesn't care about his child at all, Daniel cares deeply"

"Usually what a player like the both of them fears the most is them being cheated on, or their child being cheated on. So I bet Daniel will go crazy if he knew about this"

"If Wesley tries to deny it. Just say Homont City, it's the city where his bastard son is born"

Rex nodded his head as he grasp the information Evelyn said, but then suddenly Rex can feel Evelyn's intense stare as she said, "You're not going to sell me out are you?"

"Just like you said before, I don't want to be on your bad side so no", Rex said as he stand up.

With his slow steps, Rex approach Evelyn who is sitting by the bed wearing her usual revealing clothes. He caresses her cheek while slowly bringing his face closer, "Besides..."

Rex stopped just a few inches away from Evelyn's face, "I like your good side better"

After saying that, Rex turns his body around and left the room.

"Wait, you may also need this information", Evelyn said stopping Rex from leaving the room.

After a moment, Rex left the room with the information he got from Evelyn about Wesley.

Unknown to him, Evelyn's face turns red after what Rex did to her earlier.

Her eyes are opened wide as she stares at the door where Rex left to, she then touches her chest feeling her heart is beating as she mumbles, "Why am I flustered?"

~

Rex walks out of Evelyn's room and went straight to his room,

Based on what Evelyn said, Daniel cares deeply for his bastard daughter even though his wife seems to not be aware of her existence.

If what she said is true then Rex can use this information against Wesley.

Wesley will definitely doesn't want Daniel to know about his cheating, if Daniel finds out about this, he might not be able to directly come at Wesley since he also doesn't want to expose his scandal.

But imagine a tyrant is glaring at you from the back, constantly prying at you.

Living while needing to constantly look back fearing that the tyrant will come at him at some point, Wesley definitely doesn't want that.

'The problem is what will make Daniel believe me', Rex thought while walking back.

Although he knows for a fact that Wesley cheated, Daniel will not believe him that easily since he didn't even have any proof except for Evelyn's words.

While he's thinking, Rex didn't realize that he's already in his room.

Adhara is still by the bed playing with her claws and fangs since she just became a High Werewolf, and she's getting used to her new body.

Rex then jumped onto the bed and closes his eyes, he will rest for a bit,

"Aren't you too relaxed with Rosie on the Vampire's hand?", Adhara suddenly said.

Hearing this, Rex then frowns as he buried his face deeper into the pillow, "I know that, but we can't exactly ask them to give her back. I'm still thinking about it, let me rest first"

The thought of Rosie is in the Vampire's hand is killing him, but he can't do anything.

As much as Rex wanted to save Rosie from the Vampires, he can't be reckless since Rosie is probably at the heart of the Vampire Kingdom which is way out of Rex's reach.

Adhara chuckles as she went back to practicing again.

'I need to check on the Blood Moon Essence and the plants that I got from the Exchequer', Rex thought remembering the items he got, 'I also need to think of pack member candidates'

With the pack member limits raised by three, Rex needs to fill that slot.

Three-pack member means a 15% increase in his stats, so he will need to think of the candidates that meet his criteria.

'I'll think about it after a nap', he thought.

Rex's eyes are closed but he heard Adhara start sniffing the air from the side.

Adhara sniffs a couple of times before Rex can feel Adhara go closer to him and sniffs his neck, "What are you doing?", Rex asks while still closing his eyes.

Then suddenly, "Why did you smell like a flower?"
