

Full-Moon 321

Chapter 321 Lunar Eclipse

"What is this?", Rex mumbles as he didn't expect something like this to be on the banquet agenda.

Women wearing belly dancer outfits came from the back room and step on the platform, they all have gorgeous curves that attract the male audience with veils of different colors covering their faces only leaving their eyes to see.

They came suddenly and instantly attracted the attention off of Rex,

Silence covered the entire room as the music started to change, the dancers are starting to move their hips showing off their elegant belly dance that pleases the eyes.

Each of their movements was in rhythm with the music beat,

Rex who is still standing finally snapped out of his daze and looks around, he then saw his name on a folded paper on a table.

The table was on his right near the huge doors,

It was a bit secluded since it was a little bit far away from the other tables where the 25 Golden Crest families receded, there's a clear distinction for guests in this place.

After noticing his name, Rex finally went to the table and sit on it.

With the performance still ongoing, Rex can only cage his intention to mess with the Atkins who he's keeping his eyes on especially Wesley who is currently watching the performance.

Even with his wife right beside her, the lust on his face can still be seen clearly as he's watching the dancers doing their performance professionally.

It didn't take long for Linda to come back with two glasses in her hands,

Linda approached Rex before she sat right beside him, she then gave Rex a glass while sipping her own enjoying the performance in front of them.

"I really want to mess with the Atkins", Rex mumbles while eyeing Wesley.

Although his voice is muffled by the loud music and the rattling of the dancer's outfit, Linda can hear what he said, "Just wait for a minute, the Banquet hasn't officially started yet"

"It's a custom for the 25 Golden Crest families to held a performance before the socializing part"

Hearing this, Rex reluctantly stays in his seat while waiting for the performance to finish.

While he's sitting down, he can see that there are many unknown faces around that he has never seen before, "Why don't you introduce me to the people here?"

"Look over there", Linda suddenly said pointing to the tables near the platform.

Rex follows Linda's fingers before she said, "That's where the top five families are sitting, you can see the Burton, Hester, and Macias family on the furthest-most tables"

Upon hearing this, Rex saw a middle-aged man right where Linda is pointing.

'That must be Daniel Burton, I'll greet him after this', Rex thought after deciding to visit Burton Family after the performance is done.

Since Adhara just told him that Daniel Burton values Rex as an asset to humanity, Rex didn't mind sparring with his son just to get on his good side.

Although the problem he had with Wesley Atkins has been suppressed thanks to Daniel Burton, Rex knows that it's still not over judging from Wesley's nature.

'I also need to visit Stevanus Reed, he's the one that invited me here anyway', Rex thought.

While Rex is waiting for the dancers to finish their performance, Rex suddenly saw Vargas on the corner of the place with other people sitting at a table near the big five families.

Looking at this, Rex tugged Linda's side and asks, "Vargas is here too?"

"Yes, he's a part of the High Table. The banquet also needs to be watched, it's not uncommon for the families to start mouth-fighting with each other that sometimes ends up really bad", Linda explained.

Rex nodded his head before he suddenly notice something,

The dancers that are performing on the stage suddenly started to come down and went to the tables, they didn't stop performing while visiting the tables.

Of course, some of the families denied their performance since it's not appropriate for their wives.

While this is all happening, Rex suddenly saw a particular dancer heading towards his table where there's only him and Linda sitting there.

The dancers approach Rex's table before started dancing beside the table,

She's one of the dancers with the best curves, even under the veil, Rex can tell that she's beautiful.

Rex was quite surprised to see her dancing so vigorously, even Linda felt the hot vibes surrounding the air as the dancers raises her leg and step right in between Rex's legs.

It caught Rex off guard as he frowns, 'She smells familiar'

The red blazing hair and the teasing eyes just above the translucent veils make Rex squint his eyes, then suddenly the woman leans towards Rex and whispers to his ears, "You came..."

"Evelyn?", Rex mumbles when he caught her scent when she leans over.

Hearing this, Evelyn that is still dancing vigorously in front of Rex smiles before she said, "I hope you give me quite a show today, I'm looking forward to it"

"What do you mean to show? What did you expect me to do?", Rex said with a wry smile.

But Evelyn didn't answer as she kept dancing, she then glance to the side for a moment before the smile on her face widen.

"Rex!", a voice called out to Rex from the side.

Rex glance to the back and saw Adhara waving at him from the entrance, her eyes then fall to Evelyn who is performing in front of Rex before her expression turns sour.

Evelyn saw Adhara coming towards them as she said, "Is she the infamous Adhara Alpenore?"

"How did you know about her?", Rex asks.

But then he immediately takes back his words, "Of course you knew", he added thinking that Evelyn knows about everything since she even know about Daniel's scandal.

With one swift motion, Evelyn mounted on Rex as if she was trying to give Rex a lap dance.

Her bodily scent filled Rex's nose making his mind go blank, Rex didn't even know where to put his hands on as he left his hands dangling on air stiffly.

As always, Evelyn never fail in tempting Rex beyond comprehension,

Rex widen his eyes upon seeing this, even Adhara widen her eyes when she arrived at the table and saw Evelyn mounting Rex seductively while giving her a teasing look.

"Are you satisfied with just her?", Evelyn suddenly asks.

This makes Rex bite his lips holding Evelyn's temptation, "Why do you ask that?"

Hearing this, Evelyn smirked lightly as if she was pleased with Rex's answer as she started to dance completely ignoring Adhara's fierce gaze from the side.

She's very daring and bold that surprises Rex,

If Adhara is not here then he won't back down to tease her back, but he can't do that with Adhara here so he can only let Evelyn have this one.

Evelyn bends over right on top of Rex while still keeping gaze with Adhara,

"If you ever feel sad about anything, feel free to come to me", Evelyn suddenly said.

After saying that, she then added, "Watch your six when you leave this place"

She seems to be enjoying every last bit of this moment before she suddenly waves her hair back, and after giving a wink to Rex, Evelyn left the table with her butt swaying left and right teasingly.

Rex didn't even realize that the music has already stopped,

'What did she mean by that? Don't tell me she also knew about my fight with Adhara?', Rex thought as he was quite perplexed by Evelyn's informant.

It's like she literally knows everything, and that scares him a bit.

Aside from that, the last part that she said also swiftly went past Rex's mind.

For her to warn him like that, it seems the Atkins already prepared something for him so he will heed Evelyn's warning and be careful on his way out.

"Do you know her?", Adhara said before sitting on an empty seat beside Rex, she seems to be quite annoyed by what Evelyn did.

Hearing this, Rex then said with a wry smile, "It's Evelyn Luc, Kevin's sister"

"You're not going to meet her again do you hear me?", Adhara said while glaring at Rex.

This makes Rex raise his arms in defeat as he doesn't have any excuse to rebut, and it will be worse if he even tries to rebut what Adhara said right now.

After the performance ended, the social part has just started.

Rex and Adhara talk for a moment since she just said she doesn't want to come, but Adhara told Rex that she changed her mind just like that.

"I'm going to visit Stevanus first then Daniel", Rex said while standing from his seat.

The people around have already started conversing with each other, and Rex finds that Stevanus is still sitting at his table and he doesn't seem to like socializing that much.

With a deep breath, Rex walks towards Stevanus.

Adhara wanted to accompany him but Linda quickly stopped her, "Today he's my man, so you sit here staying pretty while I accompany Rex", she said putting Adhara at a loss for words.

It takes a moment before she snapped out of her daze, but Rex and Linda have already left.

Meanwhile,

"Sir Stevanus", Rex greeted from the side.

Hearing his name got called, Stevanus looks back and saw Rex greeting him, "Rex! I'm glad you can make it to the banquet", he said with a surprised look.

But this makes Rex frown, 'Why is he so surprised? Isn't he the one who invites me here?'

"I didn't expect to be invited by you here, I'm honored to be your special guest", Rex shakes his head before bowing politely.

With a smile, Stevanus taps Rex's shoulders and said, "No worries, the pleasure is mine"

After exchanging a bit of pleasantries, Rex finally excuses himself with Linda as he left Stevanus intending to go to Daniel Burton to greet him.

But he got something in his mind, 'Why did Edward is very careful with the Reed Family?'

From the exchange they had before, there is nothing weird except for the fact Stevanus' surprised look when he saw Rex calling him.

"I think Daniel Burton is occupied", Linda said while pointing at Daniel.

Many people are trying to talk to him, especially from the lower rank families, it was not a surprise since he's the person who owns the ATC where Awakened can get any items.

After noticing that Daniel is occupied, Rex went to Vargas who is talking with a man beside him.

When he was about to go to Vargas since he also got something to say to him, Rex looks at his phone first and notices that it was already nearing nine.

Rex then takes the red chalk from his pocket and draws a symbol on his palm,

"What kind of symbol is that?", Linda suddenly asks surprising Rex who just got the notification from the system.

<Lunar Symbol has been drawn!>

<Sublime Lunar Prince Technique has been activated!>

With the technique activated preparing for the Lunar Moonlight, Rex hides his hand and replied, "Nothing, it's just something I do to calm myself down"

"You can get nervous too?", Linda asks in surprise.

Hearing this, Rex click his tongue and replied, "I'm a human too, of course, I get nervous"

After saying that, Rex then walks towards Vargas intending to inform him about the Green Messenger in the Supernatural territory.

Meanwhile, Supernatural Territory.

"Prince, the preparation is done", Ruston said as he points at his back.

They're currently inside a dark forest that is very secluded from where the other Werewolves reside, and there are hundreds if not thousands of unconscious Supernatural lying on the ground.

Just like what Zegrath asks earlier,

Ruston and his pack members gather the Supernatural needed to do the ritual, Zegrath is pleased with the view since there are some high-rank Supernatural amongst them.

There are Undead, Dark Elves, and even Vampires amongst the Supernaturals.

All of them are stacked together in a circle, only some of them are conscious to see what's going on but Ruston did something to restrain these Supernaturals' power to retaliate.

"Good job, I'll start the ritual now", Zegrath mumbles.

He then looks up to the Lunar Eclipse, the moon that should've been white turns reddish.

This is the full moon that was called the Selfish Moon, it makes Zegrath body rejuvenated just under the moonlight before he slashes his arm,

Slash!

After doing that, Zegrath then grips his hand harder to let the blood flow faster.

He then started to circle the weakened Supernatural as he creates the Ritual formation, a circle made from his blood was created before the wound from the slash before healed.

"With this, the ritual will start", Zegrath said feeling satisfied with the view.

He then signals for Ruston and his pack members to step back as he sits in a meditative position with the bunch of Supernaturals lying in front of him.

"@#!*#@#@!@", Zegrath started chanting.

Powerful energy started to envelop the surroundings as the Supernaturals that are still conscious felt their powers leaving them, it was as if something sucked their power dry.

Reddish energy started to envelop Zegrath like a blanket,

And after the formation lit up in red as the Supernaturals' power started steaming to the sky, Zegrath opens his eyes with a wide grin as he said, "Lunar Eclipse, Grant me all of your power as I am the rightful Prince of the Werewolves!!"

Chapter 322 Bloodrite Of The Prince

"Stop looking at the dancer old man, remember your age", Rex suddenly said while sipping his drink, he leans on a buffet table right beside Vargas.

Hearing this, Vargas choked on his drink as he heard Rex's nasty remarks.

He even coughs a couple of times making Rex chuckle as he asks with an innocent look, "What are you doing here? How did you get invited?"

"Stop pretending you don't know, Linda probably already told you", Rex replied calmly.

Since Rex decided to bring Linda to the Banquet to accompany him, there's no chance that Linda didn't tell something like this to her boss, Vargas.

Linda who is standing beside Rex can only smile wryly,

Based on her expression, Rex knows that what he thought was true and Linda already told Vargas.

After saying that, Rex glance to the side seeing a man that just talked with Vargas.

The man is standing straight like an arrow wearing a maroon tuxedo, his white hair and beard are styled well as they portray his age, and this man has an aura so sharp even amongst the room full of high-rank Awakened like this place.

It's clear that he's no ordinary man,

The man that just talked with Vargas casually before Rex approached him, Rex already somewhat guessed who it is, "Is that Sebrof that you just talked to?"

"President Sebrof, Yes", Vargas said while signaling to Rex to be polite.

Rex cursed his mouth since he forgot that he was in a room where many of these Awakened can stomp him easily, he then glances at Sebrof and finds that Sebrof is glancing at him sharply.

It makes his body jolted upon seeing this,

Sebrof is the most powerful man in the whole Ratmawati City! For Rex to address him so casually makes Rex realize his mistake, Sebrof's aura is crushingly powerful even when he's not openly showing it to Rex.

Rex smiled politely while raising his glass,

Although he tries to look natural, the cold sweat on his forehead and hand shows otherwise before Sebrof turns his gaze away with a scoff.

With Sebrof turning his head away, Rex can finally breathe.

Looking at this, Vargas pulls Rex further from Sebrof before he said, "Are you crazy? President Sebrof is not in a good mood so you should be careful with your words"

"I'm sorry", Rex apologized since the words just slipped out of his mouth.

Vargas sighed after scrunching his face, thankfully Sebrof didn't pursue this matter which can lead to a troublesome problem for Rex.

He then asks, "So, What do you want to tell me?"

"The statement is done, you can meet up with John Webster in the city of your choice. They will bring him there, and then you can continue to broadcast through the media as planned", Rex said making a smile appear on Vargas's face.

A few hours ago before Rex went to this banquet,

The Green Messenger has already informed Rex through the crow that his attack is finished successfully, two of the Vampires' food storage has been destroyed completely.

With this, the plan to force Sebrof has reached the end stage,

Vargas then mumbles happily, "So that's why some of the Vampires retreated back from Eqosa City, turns out they manage to do it"

After nodding his head a couple of times, Vargas finally said, "Any City near Eqosa City will do"

"Alright, I'll inform them to bring John Webster", Rex replied, with this Sebrof will definitely sign the temporary alliance between the SCO and the UWO.

But Rex can't help to think how would Sebrof do the alliance,

There's a high chance that Sebrof will ally with the SCO with the condition that their alliance will be kept a secret, and that will definitely upset the SCO.

<Sublime Lunar Prince Technique Activated!>

<Absorbing Lunar Eclipse Energy...>

Rex was surprised to see the system's notification,

The full moon breathing technique he bought is a Supreme Grade, it is the highest grade of a breathing technique and because of that Rex's expectation is high for this day.

"Hmm...", Rex exhales roughly as he can feel the energy getting absorbed into his body.

Even every time he exhales, his breathing turns slightly red but thankfully the red color is so faint that others can hardly see them.

'This is nice...', Rex thought as he look at the palm of his hand.

The symbol that he drew with the red chalk is glowing faintly as Rex's body automatically absorbs the Lunar Eclipse energy, Rex doesn't feel a thing except for feeling more refreshed than before.

Unlike the full moon breathing technique that he used before during the Dark Moon,

This one is a Supreme Grade so there's no painful feeling like during the Dark Moon. With every breath that Rex takes, his body also absorbs the Lunar Eclipse energy just like breathing air.

"I'll inform the media, tomorrow afternoon the news should already be broadcasted", Vargas said.

He then signals for Linda to follow him before she nodded her head, "I'm going to handle the matter with Vargas, don't get into trouble alright", Linda said before she follows Vargas.

Rex then nodded his head nonchalantly,

After a moment, he decided to look at the buffet table.

Rex takes a chocolate cupcake on the table before he takes a bite, 'Oh yeah, Is Adhara okay?', Rex thought as he looks back to the table where Adhara is sitting at.

At the far corner, Rex saw Adhara sitting while playing with her phone.

There's no indication of her feeling the Full Moon that is shining above, it's clear that what the system said about the Lunar Eclipse is a Selfish Moon must be true.

Rex can feel his body trembling upon the full moon,

He can already feel slight trouble in maintaining his form, it was different than during the Yule Moon or the Violet Moon.

It forced Rex to steady his breathing while holding the edge of the buffet table,

After collecting himself to maintain his form, Rex looks back to Adhara's seat intending to go back since Daniel is still occupied.

But then, he noticed something,

'Is that Hans?', Rex thought as he saw Hans walking towards Adhara.

There are two glasses in his hand but when Rex scans the glass, his eyes widen as he immediately rushes towards Adhara.

Meanwhile,

Adhara is playing with her phone,

She's currently looking at her balance account with a happy expression, the money that she got from Daniel reached the 8 digit mark and this is the most money that she possesses at a time in her entire life.

"I can't wait to surprise Rex", Adhara mumbles happily.

But then suddenly, she sensed that someone is approaching her as she glance at her back before her expression turns stiff upon seeing the man walking towards her.

Adhara stands up from her seat warily and said, "What are you doing here?"

"That's cold, I'm just offering you a peace drink for today", Hans replied with an unreadable smile, he looks genuine but Adhara sure hell doesn't trust him.

She then said, "What did you put in there?"

"Poison?"

"Drugs?"

Because she's dealing with Hans, it's clear that he has some motive in approaching her.

Hearing this, Hans pretends to touch his chest feeling hurt by Adhara's words, "That hurts, It's only a drink you don't have to drink it if you don't trust me", he said while handing the glass.

Adhara hesitated for a moment before she stretches out her hand to take the glass,

Upon seeing Adhara's hand reaching out for the glass, the smile on Hans' face started to grow wider but when her hand was about to touch the glass,

Grab!

"Hans! It's been a long time, I haven't seen you in a while", a voice suddenly interrupted them.

Hearing this voice, Hans frowns as the glass that he was about to give to Adhara got taken by Rex who is smiling at him from the side.

Rex holds the glass with a wide smile and said, "I heard you visited recently"

"I'm sad that you come to Faraday University but you didn't visit me, Don't you think that's quite cold of you?", he added sarcastically.

This makes Hans grit his teeth, "Excuse me"

Without even answering Rex's sarcastic question, Hans excuses himself as he tries to walk away from the scene but Rex was not about to let him go that easily.

Rex grab Hans' shoulder stopping him on his track,

"Where are you going so soon? You didn't answer my question", Rex said demandingly.

But with a bit of anger, Hans grabbed Rex's hand that is holding his shoulder, "Let go of me, Rex. I'm not going to ask twice", he said threateningly.

When Hans was about to twist Rex's hand,

Crack!

Rex suddenly put more pressure onto his grip completely shocking Hans,

Hans tries to pull Rex's hand away from his shoulder only to find out that he can't, he looks at Rex with a shocked expression as he thought in surprise, 'Didn't he just reach the sixth rank...?'

'Why can't I make him let go', Hans thought as he kept trying to pull Rex's hand away.

But Rex's grip was like a powerful death grip as Rex's face darkened, this made Hans start to sweat since he didn't expect that he can't move Rex's hand from his shoulder.

"Rrrghh!", Hans grunted feeling his collar bone was about to break.

After holding him for a moment, Rex finally let go as the smile on his face returned as he stares at Hans innocently while Hans rubs his throbbing shoulder.

He looks at Rex weirdly for a moment before he reluctantly left,

"How did you manage to do that? Hans should be a higher rank Awakened than you", Adhara suddenly said from the back.

Hearing this, Rex looks back with a stiff expression.

Without saying any words, Rex just looked up but Adhara completely understand it.

But she felt weird though since she doesn't feel any moonlight energy, she can hardly believe that this night is the night of a Full Moon.

With the Full Moon shining high up in the sky,

Rex's stats have been doubled because of this, the system notification even told Rex that the increase amounted to 150%, 20% higher than his normal increase.

While Rex is trying to sit down, Adhara can see that Rex is moving weirdly,

Looking at Rex's stiff expression with veins starting to bulge on his neck, Adhara looks down and finds that Rex's hand is steaming with his veins starting to turn black.

Rex hurriedly puts the glass Hans gave on the table before he said, "Silver..."

"What?!", Adhara exclaimed upon realizing that Hans just handed a Silver glass, it doesn't make sense since Hans shouldn't know that they're Werewolves.

<Direct Contact With Silver! The user's stats have been decreased by 20%!>

<The user will suffer a slight pain!>

<Regenerative Ability is blocked!>

Fearing to attract attention to Rex,

Adhara takes a scarf on her bag before wrapping it in Rex's hand, she even leans towards Rex a bit to cover his throbbing steaming hand because of the Silver.

"How did they get suspicious of us?", Adhara asks in confusion.

Rex shakes his head as he also didn't know how they get suspicious, "I don't know, but we need to be careful from now on"

"The decrease in stats because of Silver has been reduced from 40% to 20%, even the pain is not that much compared to getting shot by the Green Messenger before. Is this the effect of the Lunar Eclipse?", Rex thought inside his head.

<Yes, Moonlight energy for this night is concentrated on the user. Any weakness of a Werewolf has been suppressed>

While Adhara is wrapping her scarf on Rex's hand,

Rex's eyes suddenly widen after feeling a slight hard thump on his heart, he touches his chest in reflex as he lowers his gaze in pain,

He even started to gasp for air while holding his chest painfully,

"Rex?! What's wrong?", Adhara started to panic while keep looking around fearing that they might attract the attention of others.

But thankfully, their table is pretty far and the people are too busy talking with each other.

Rex's expression turns ugly as he tries to hold in the pain, "This is not the breathing technique or the Silver, What's happening to me?!", he screamed inside his head.

It's like having his heart stepped on by someone,

The pain makes it hard for Rex to breathe, notification from the system also clouded his vision.

<Bloodrite of the Prince Ritual has been commenced!>

<The user was acknowledged by the Lunar Eclipse to having the strongest bloodline currently amongst the Werewolves, Absorbing 80% energy produced from the ritual!>

"Huakh!!", Rex covers his mouth as he coughed out blood.

He was still confused about the situation, 'Bloodrite of the Prince? Who did the ritual?!'

~

Supernatural Territory, Scarlet Banes Kingdom.

"My King, it's starting!", Hallac said while looking at the huge pot in front of him that is starting to glow red exactly like the Lunar Eclipse shining above.

Hearing this, King Baralt looks at the big pot intently.

He then asks, "Explain to me what's happening Hallac"

"The spell that I conjure is a spell called Werewolf of the Strong, it is a spell to locate where is the strongest bloodline of a Werewolf reside. This spell will pinpoint the direction of the particular Werewolf with the strongest bloodline", Hallac explains slowly.

While he's explaining, King Baralt is impatiently waiting for the spell to bore fruit.

Red energy swirls above the big pot before suddenly,

BOOM!

A powerful shockwave exploded as the red mist-like energy emits mythical energy, it caught Hallac in surprise making King Baralt asks hurriedly, "What's happening? Talk to me Hallac!"

"This can't be...", Hallac mumbles in shock.

The mist-like energy hovers above the big pot before it shot out of the room window, it happens so fast but King Baralt and Hallac already look out of the window to see the direction where the red-mist energy went.

With a splash of the mist-like red energy, the energy splits in two directions.

Almost all of them went in a direction while the leftover energy went in another direction, this makes King Baralt confused as he glance at Hallac for an answer.

After gulping harshly, Hallac then said, "There's two..."

"Two what?!", King Baralt asks impatiently, he wanted to know who he needs to devour.

Hallac then glances at King Baralt with a blank expression and continues, "There's two Werewolf that has pure bloodline, and both of them are a Prince..."

"WHAT?! TWO PRINCES?!", King Baralt shouted in shock.

Chapter 323 Two Princes

"TWO PRINCES?!", King Baralt shouted in shock.

His expression is as if he just heard the most unbelievable thing in his life, King Baralt even stepped back a couple of steps as he can't believe what he was hearing.

With utmost shock, "H-How didn't we know anything about their awakening?!"

"I don't know, naturally a Prince should've emitted a powerful Mythical Energy upon awakening which we Werewolves can instantly feel. It shouldn't happen like this, I never heard a situation like this before", Hallac explains with a troubled look.

For a Prince to Awakened, the Werewolves will definitely feel their presence.

Because the prince will emit a mythical presence that is very sensitive to Werewolves, naturally their presence cannot be hidden from the Werewolves.

To think that two Princes have Awakened, and they didn't have any clue about it.

King Baralt was still at a loss for words before Hallac suddenly said, "Look!"

"The majority of the spell went to that direction. The prince in that direction has a purer bloodline than the other one there's no doubt", he added while pointing in a direction.

Hearing this, King Baralt glance at an armored Werewolf and asks, "What is in that direction?"

"I believe it's the human territory my King, there's nothing else in that direction aside from the human territory", the armored Werewolf replied politely.

This makes Hallac and King Baralt look at each other,

"It's the Werewolf in the human territory!", King Baralt shouted in realization.

Since the energy from the spell Hallac just conjured went towards the human territory direction, there's no doubt that the spell is going to the Werewolf in the human territory.

There are no explanations besides that,

Then suddenly, "My King! The other Prince seems to be near", Hallac suddenly said when he saw the small amount of his spell is landing not far from their territory.

Looking at this, King Baralt was even more flag battered since the Prince turns out to be near.

"One of the princes is near?!", King Baralt exclaims in surprise.

Realizing this, King Baralt's expression darkened as he asks, "Where is Ruston?"

"We haven't seen him around the castle, my King, it seems Ruston is attending to his pack", the armored Werewolf replied hurriedly.

But this makes King Baralt start to get angry, "Find him!", he commanded.

"What is he doing when we needed him the most! Find him and bring him here now! We need to devise a plan to capture the Prince", he added while waving his hand aggressively.

Hearing this, the armored Werewolf bowed before leaving the room.

Meanwhile,

"Ruston, look! The Lunar Eclipse energy... I can see it!", a fierce Werewolf with many scars around his body points at the full moon, there's subtle red energy going towards them.

More specifically, going to the ritual conducted in front of them.

Looking at this, the smile on Ruston's face can't be hidden showing that he's excited about this.

Zegrath is currently chanting non-stop trying to focus the energy towards him,

The sacrifice for the ritual, the Supernatural that has been gathered started to feel their powers getting drained fast as their life force also got sucked out of their bodies.

Only a handful of high-rank Supernatural was left wailing,

The other Supernaturals that have below sixth rank power have already died, their life forces are not abundant like the high-rank one and they are unable to handle the ritual power.

"Come to me! Acknowledge me!", Zegrath shouted while spreading his arms apart.

With immense dark energy coursing through his body, Zegrath looks at the Lunar Eclipse energy heading towards him with a crazed look.

Even the Werewolves around him started to cheer upon seeing this,

Some of them even started to tear up as they felt surreal about the situation, it has been a long time since a Prince conducted this kind of ritual.

The Supernaturals hierarchy was about to change with this,

After Zegrath becomes strong enough to challenge King Baralt and take his throne, the Werewolves under the Scarlet Banes flag will definitely evolve under Zegrath's guidance.

It will bring the Werewolves in a new height of power,

There's no doubt that if that were to happen, the Scarlet Banes Kingdom will definitely occupy the strongest Supernatural spot.

No other Prince other than the Werewolves have awakened,

The Origin has bestowed them with a headstart to raise the Werewolves' power, and the Werewolves around Zegrath are witnessing history to be made.

Even Ruston can feel his body trembling in excitement,

His hopeful expression can be seen clearly, but then something happened,

"Hmm?", Zegrath mumbles in confusion when he saw a huge chunk of the energy go away from him, he was completely confused as he saw the energy going further away.

Looking at this, Ruston started to frowns, "What happened? Why did the energy go away?"

"I don't know...This is weird", Zegrath replied in confusion, based on his calculation all of the energy should've gone to him since he even possesses a bloodline purer than King Baralt.

The other Werewolves are also confused,

After a moment, the leftover Lunar Eclipse energy went towards Zegrath before instantly killing the remaining Supernatural sacrifice that are still alive.

"Waaahh!"

"Raarrghh!"

Wailing sounds can be heard as the Lunar Eclipse energy ripped the life out of the sacrifice.

SWOOSH!

Zegrath's body then started to be bathed by the Lunar Eclipse energy as his body got strengthened immensely, his expression is that of a painful one.

ROAR!!

He even started to roar madly upon feeling the Lunar Eclipse energy,

But deep down Zegrath was not as excited after seeing that more than half of the energy that he should've absorbed turned away.

While this is all happening, Ruston look at where the energy disappears with a frown.

"Just where is the rest of the energy going?", he mumbles.

But then, his eyes suddenly widen after thinking of an impossible possibility that might explain who attracted the Lunar Eclipse energy, "Is there another Prince?"

~

Back to Rex,

Cough! Cough!

Rex is coughing blood a couple of times feeling his internal organs trembling, the painful feeling is evident through his pained expression as he holds his chest in pain.

This came out of nowhere and it caught Rex by surprise,

Looking at this, Adhara was at a loss in what to do while Rex is filled with pain.

In an attempt to help Rex ease his pain, Adhara grabs Rex's hand trying to give him strength as Rex grit his teeth trying to hold the pain.

While he's doing this, Adhara looks around as a lookout.

Although she's trying to remain calm, her expression shows that she's under much stress.

'Please, Don't look this way', Adhara thought hoping that the 25 Golden Crest Families to not look in their direction, it will be suspicious if they saw Rex in this much pain.

But then suddenly, Adhara suddenly saw a man looking at them from afar,

The man is around their age, and it's clear that he's one of the descendants of the 25 Families.

In a panic, Adhara hugs Rex's head trying to pretend to comfort him. She even kisses Rex a couple of times trying to make the man look away in discomfort.

Adhara didn't look back at the man to not make it suspicious,

But while she was panicking about the man, she suddenly felt something on her chest as she looks down at Rex before her eyes widen in surprise,

Crack!

Slowly but surely, Rex's horns started to grow.

Rex who is gripping Adhara's hand powerfully, Adhara can feel his fingernails also starting to become sharp and on the brink of turning into claws.

This shouldn't have happened to them,

Rex never had a full moon problem since he's the one that watches over Adhara and Kyran during the full moon, so this situation came too sudden.

"You're turning Rex! Stop!", Adhara whispers lightly.

Hearing this, Rex then replied struggling against the pain, "I...I'm trying!"

Seeing Rex trying desperately to forcefully stay in his human form, Adhara looks around trying to find a secluded place but what can she do when this place is crowded with people.

The thought of leaving the room crossed her mind, but it will surely attract attention to them.

Crack!

Adhara suddenly jolted when her hand suddenly get stabbed by Rex's hand, she bit her lips helplessly before hugging Rex's body, "Please don't do this, Please...", she whispers.

If Rex turns into a Werewolf here,

It will all be over with so many powerful Awakened here, Rex will have no chance of escaping especially since there is a ninth rank Awakened right here and now.

Sebrof for example can crush Rex in a blink of an eye.

Tears started to filled Adhara's eyes as she hoped Rex didn't turn,

While Adhara is hoping for Rex to stop his transformation, weird energy suddenly came out of her body and it started to envelop both her and Rex at the same time.

Upon feeling this weird energy from Adhara, notifications appear on Rex's vision.

<Female Alpha Energy, Reduce 50% of the Pain Brought by the Ritual>

<Shared Authority has been commenced!>

Right after the notifications appeared, Rex can feel the pain recede as he struggles to straighten his back while still fighting against the pain.

But it's not as painful as before thanks to Adhara,

Adhara looks at Rex worriedly before she asks, "Is it over? What happen to you?"

"I'm going to explain to you later. But now, help me get out of here for a moment", Rex said before he looks at the exit intending to leave.

Although he's okay right now, Rex can feel that something is heading towards him.

It was just a hunch that Rex is feeling, but Rex trusted his hunch and his hunch told him that whatever thing heading towards him will be too much to handle.

He needs to leave this place before the thing arrives,

Hearing this, Adhara finally helped Rex to stand up while trying to look as natural as possible since Rex can feel Wesley's gaze is on him.

The both of them started walking but then suddenly,

"Adhara, I didn't expect to meet you here", a voice suddenly greeted them from the side.

Rex and Adhara stopped in their tracks upon hearing this voice, Adhara remembers this voice as both of them turns towards the source of the voice.

The familiar face greeted them as Adhara replied, "Sir Daniel! A pleasure to meet you here"

Daniel chuckles for a bit before his eyes then landed on Rex who is standing stiffly beside Adhara, he points at Rex while squinting his eyes, "You must be Rex Silverstar"

"Pleasure to meet you Sir Daniel", Rex replied hurriedly.

The pain is still taking a toll on him slowly, he even swallows back the blood that is trying to gush out of his mouth to maintain his image in front of Daniel.

With a smile, Daniel then said, "Has Adhara told you about my request?"

"Of course, *Cough*, I'll gladly spar with your son. So How about we planned the date of the spar?", Rex replied while gulping roughly.

Looking at this, Daniel notices Rex's weird behavior, "You can do it now"

"Both of you can duke it out in a bit, It'll be the 25 Golden Crest Families meeting soon. So the kids will stay here, and at that time- Forgive me, but are you okay?", Daniel added but changed the subject seeing Rex's weak expression.

Adhara then intervenes, "We're about to leave for the toilet"

"I'm sorry Sir Daniel, but can we resume this talk in a bit?", Rex added before Daniel nodded his head as both of them excuse themselves and left.

It seems Daniel misunderstood something since he's grinning while looking at them leave.

Upon leaving the room,

"Huakhh!", Rex throws up blood as he leans his hand on the wall.

Some of the hotel staff approached him in worry, but Adhara denied their help.

It was only by sheer will that Rex can hold the pain in front of Daniel, but right after he's in the clear, Rex instantly throws up blood that he held all this while.

Adhara looks around before she decided to head to the toilet,

She grab Rex's arm before helping him go to the toilet, but when they were about to head towards the toilet Rex's hand suddenly got grabbed by someone.

Feeling this, Rex immediately retracts his hand back in reflex.

Although Rex is currently in so much pain, he's still on full alert ready for anything that might happen like the Atkins trying to do something to him.

But when he glanced to the left, he lowers his guard upon realizing who it is.

"Don't go that way!", Evelyn said in a hurry, she saw that Rex is not feeling well from afar and decided to run after him and Adhara outside.

Hearing this, Adhara frowns, "What do you mean?"

"Look!", Evelyn pointed to a direction where a group of men are eyeing them.

Adhara was surprised upon seeing this, and after looking at Rex for confirmation they both then follow Evelyn as the three of them started to run.

The group of men also runs after them upon seeing them run,

"Right this way!", Evelyn shouted heading down towards the lobby.

Many of the guild members can already be seen filling the first floor, but this acts as a perfect cover for them that is being chased by the group of men.

At this point, Adhara is supporting Rex to run.

They went through the crowd of people, and under Evelyn's guidance, they manage to escape.

Adhara looks back and saw the group of men is looking left and right, they manage to lose the group of men as they headed towards a hallway on the first floor.

The hotel is very big, and after following the hallway connected to the lobby.

The three of them arrive at a hallway full of VIP suites, Evelyn guides them to a room before she signals for Adhara and Rex to get in.

Without having any other choice,

Rex and Adhara went inside before Evelyn shut the door instantly.

Right after they went inside the room, Rex make Adhara let go as he fall on the ground in pain.

Evelyn looks at him in worry before she asks, "What's wrong with him? Is he sick?"

"Umm...", Adhara was thinking of an answer to tell but then, she saw Rex signal to her by waving his hand towards the toilet.

But Adhara didn't get what Rex is trying to say,

Rex gritted his teeth, he can feel something is nearing him as the pain become worse than before, "IT'S COMING!! ARGHH!!"

Chapter 324 Sacrificial Energy

"IT'S COMING!! ARGHH!!", Rex shouted as the veins around his neck bulged.

His shout was powerful and loud and he still kept going, the shout then suddenly slowly turns heavy as it makes Evelyn and Adhara's hearts tremble.

It slowly turns into an animal growl rather than a human groan,

Looking at this, Adhara immediately grabbed Evelyn's shoulder and forcefully pull her towards the bathroom so that she didn't witness what was about to happen.

But while she's being pulled away by Adhara,

Evelyn's eyes widen when she saw Rex start clawing the carpeted ground, she even saw the carpet get ripped open with just a scratch of Rex's fingernails.

Growl!

After pulling Evelyn to the bathroom,

Adhara immediately closed the bathroom door and lock it, she also didn't forget to lock the door to the room preventing anyone to burst into the room.

In one swift motion, Adhara did all of that.

She then went towards Rex who is clawing the carpeted ground as he tries to hold in the pain, Rex even started vomiting as he spat to the ground.

Looking at this, Adhara can also feel the pain Rex felt through their links.

Although the pain didn't amount to what Rex is currently feeling, she can still feel that and if she was the one feeling the pain then she will probably pass out by now.

Even Rex who has a terrifying amount of pain tolerance falls into this state,

Just by this fact, Adhara didn't want to know how much pain Rex is feeling right now.

All she can do in this situation is approach Rex and hug him while holding his hand, there is nothing more that she could do in this situation.

Splat!

Rex vomit a couple of mouthfuls of blood staining the red carpet darker,

While Rex is vomiting blood like a sick man, Adhara suddenly looks at the room and saw that all of the things in the room start to tremble as if there was an earthquake.

Rumble!

The glasses started making clicking sounds, even the heavy bed started to rock up and down.

Adhara was looking at all of this in horror, she then suddenly sense immense energy coming towards them from the window.

It was very powerful that it started to suffocate both of them,

Even Evelyn who is confused about the situation she's in right now especially since she heard Rex clawing the ground and his baritone inhuman voice from the bathroom felt the terrifying suffocation as the energy approaches their room.

"What is happening?!", she mutters while holding onto the sink.

The ground is shaking madly and she doesn't know why, if she gets out of the bathroom then she will definitely see the red energy coming towards the room from the window.

p Shatter!

Under the red energy power, the window shatters into a million pieces.

The red energy that comes from the Bloodrite of the Prince Ritual that Zegrath conducted blasted into the room, and all of that energy went towards Rex instantly.

Looking at this, Adhara immediately hugs Rex's body to protect him from the energy.

But what she did was futile as the red energy from the sacrifice went through her and go straight to Rex's body stubbornly,

ROAR!!

Rex roared with all his might as he can feel the red energy encompassing his entire body.

His entire body went stiff as Rex's fingernails burst into claws and the horns also poked out fully from his head, the red energy forces him to transform into his Werewolf form.

But Rex tries desperately to maintain his human form,

If he turns into his Werewolf form uncontrollably, the mythical presence and his Supernatural aura will be activated and the whole hotel will know that he's a Werewolf.

'I can't...Turn! Stop this!', Rex shouted desperately inside his head.

<Bloodrite of the Prince Ritual cannot be canceled, please be advised to go through with the process entirely since it's very beneficial for the user>

The system's answer didn't help Rex at all,

Usually, the system will help him in this kind of situation, but it seems this Bloodrite of the Prince Ritual is not an ordinary ritual that can be stopped easily.

CRACK!

Rex's bones and muscles started heaving up and down,

His entire body is getting larger and smaller as Rex tries to stay in his Human form, 'If I turn then it will be over! I need to stay strong!', Rex thought as the veins in his eyes bulged.

He's holding his head with both hands trying to stop the forceful transformation.

But then suddenly,

SWOOSH!

'I... I can't hold it!', Rex thought as powerful energy blasted from his body.

Looking at this, Adhara hugs Rex tighter as she was in a desperate situation witnessing Rex's struggle upon this unknown red energy.

Adhara screamed inside her head wanting to help,

Then suddenly, right when Rex was about to give up a notification appear,

<Female Alpha is Requesting Shared Authority!>

<Do the user allow this?>

Reading this amidst the immeasurable pain, Rex allows the Shared Authority without much thinking hoping that this will help with the pain that he's feeling.

After Rex allow the Shared Authority, the red energy started to move towards Adhara.

The red energy that clings onto Rex stubbornly started to get divided and crawls onto Adhara's body, and right when the red energy touches Adhara's skin,

"RAARGHH!", Adhara shouted in turn as her body jolted in pain.

It caught Rex off guard as he glance to the side,

Rex saw that the red energy is going to Adhara as the pain he felt reduced immensely, he can finally breathe a bit but that's not the same for Adhara.

She's also slowly transforming into her Werewolf form as her eyes turn white.

The pain instantly overwhelms her, Rex starting to regret allowing the Shared Authority until suddenly a notification appeared,

<Adhara can't handle half of the Sacrificial Energy>

<Her body will burst in one minute, Do the user wants to share the energy with the rest of the Silverstar Pack?>

'Give back 20% from Adhara to me! the rest you can split it!', Rex replied hurriedly.

At this point when Rex read the system's notifications, he doesn't have any other choice since waiting for too long will result in Adhara's body exploding.

Even now, Adhara already passed out from the pain.

Her body is still moving weirdly because of the Sacrificial Energy, it was a bizarre scene to see.

After Rex commanded the system, some of the sacrificial energy went back towards Rex.

Based on what Rex commanded, the sacrificial energy that went back to him should be 20% while half of the rest shot out from Adhara's body straight out of the window.

Since Rex has already felt the full extent of the pain,

70% of the Sacrificial Energy, he can still cope with it as he kept maintaining his human form.

'I'm sorry Kyran, but I have no choice', Rex thought as he look out of the window.

He then looks down to his trembling body as the Sacrificial Energy still kept forging his body, Rex then glance at the unconscious Adhara, 'We can get through this, just don't get caught'

~

Meanwhile,

Kyran is sitting bored with chains wrapping around his body,

Each of his limbs is chained to the wall behind him as a precaution for him to turn, but from the looks of it, Kyran seems to not be bothered by the full moon at all.

Just like what the system said, other Werewolves aside from the Prince will not get the blessing.

Adhara and Kyran were not affected by the Lunar Eclipse, Kyran even thought that he turned human again because the full moon is very clear in the sky.

If it's a normal full moon, Kyran would've been filled with rage right now.

"Yo! How're you doing?", a voice suddenly asks him after a man walks into the room.

Upon seeing the man bringing many snacks in a plastic bag in his hand, Kyran's expression lit up as he was very bored and tired of sleeping all day, "Edward! You came!"

"Adhara asks me to check on you, it must be boring here", Edward said with a smile.

Kyran nodded his head repeatedly before he takes the plastic bag from Edward's hand, he then look through the content before taking the bread that Edward bought.

Without hesitation, Kyran started to munch on the bread happily.

Because he's left by Rex here, Kyran hasn't eaten for almost a day and his stomach is grumbling.

Edward sat on the floor beside Kyran while looking at the chains, he was a little sympathetic for Kyran who is chained alone here inside an empty house.

"Are you feeling weird or something?", Edward asks lightly.

Hearing this, Kyran then answers without looking at Edward, "Nope, I feel completely fine!"

"Turns out the chains are not needed, Rex is too cautious about tonight's full moon", Kyran added while grabbing another snack and started eating it again.

Seeing this, Edward shakes his head, "It's better to be cautious", he mutters.

But then suddenly, Kyran's head suddenly snaps to the right feeling that there's something heading towards him which makes him alert.

The sudden reaction makes Edward frown, "What's wrong? What did you sense?"

"Something is heading this way", Kyran replied while looking in a direction warily, his expression turns troubled as he can feel the Sacrificial Energy closing in.

He then added, "It's something massive"

"Massive? It's not a person or a Supernatural?", Edward exclaims as he unsheathed his daggers.

When Kyran was about to answer, the room suddenly started trembling just like it did with Rex before the wall in front of them exploded.

BOOM!

SWOOSH!

Before Kyran can even react, the Sacrificial energy already flew towards him and went inside his body.

"W-What?!", Kyran mumbles as he looks at his hand.

He doesn't know what but he can feel weird foreign energy swirling inside him,

Edward who was also unable to react to the energy's speed looks at Kyran hurriedly, there he saw Kyran get knocked to the ground by the Sacrificial energy as he now is looking at his hand.

Kyran then glance at Edward in confusion as the Sacrificial energy started to forge Kyran's body.

"What's happening?! Edward?!", Kyran shouted as the pain slowly started to kick in,

His expression turns wild hoping that Edward can somehow help him, but when Edward was about to approach him,

SWOOSH!

A blast of red energy exploded from within Kyran's body, "ARRGGHKKHH!!", Kyran started screaming as his internal organ started to shake.

Blood spurted out of his mouth while he was screaming.

It was a gory scene as the blood kept coming out of Kyran's mouth, Edward's reaction was identical to Adhara's as he doesn't know what to do.

Kyran even started to get choked by his own blood as he grip the wooden ground with his hand,

CREAK!

The wooden ground started to make screeching noises as Kyran's fingernails started to grow into claws and stab the ground, he was still conscious but he can't stop his transformation at all!

CLANG!

With a pull from Kyran's body, the chains wrapping on his arm snap instantly.

ROAR!!

Kyran looks up towards the ceiling as his body started to be cloaked by azure fur, this all happened right in front of Edward's eyes as he stood still and watch Kyran transform.

It didn't take long for Kyran's mouth to turn into a muzzle,

Eyes as fierce as a predator, azure furs covering his whole body like a blanket as they even started to emit a faint blue aura, sturdy claws blossom as Kyran stretches his hand.

The Sacrificial energy mixed with Kyran's azure energy amplifies his aura by a mile.

"K-Kyran...", Edward mutters as he can't believe what he's seeing.

Hearing his name getting called, Kyran glance at Edward fully showing off his Werewolf form that is completely different than Kyran's usual appearance.

Growl...

A low growl escapes from Kyran's mouth as he bares his fangs at Edward,

The chains that are restraining his body, Kyran breaks them with a pull of each of his limbs as if it was nothing but a toy for him.

Although Rex bought it for cheap, it's still not an ordinary chain.

After breaking the chains restraining his body, Kyran cracked his body as he stares right at Edward's eyes completely towering in front of Edward.

Upon seeing Kyran's hulking figure and eyes, Edward steps back unconsciously,
Just from Kyran's eyes, Edward can see that there's no sign of his usual self right now only a beast that is filled with rage and overwhelming power.

Kyran growls lightly before he takes a deep breath and started howling,

AOOOUUU!!!

Chapter 325 He's A Supernatural!

AOOOUUU!

Kyran howls loudly making the room tremble, it was very daring and powerful which makes Edward grit his teeth with a hint of worry.

The howl is too loud, and it might reach out of the entire house.

"Kyran stop! Listen to me!", Edward shouted trying to speak with Kyran.

Although Edward knows what he's doing is futile since there is no hint of the regular Kyran in his eyes, he still decided to try hoping that Kyran will snap back to reality.

But that's just some hopeful thinking,

SWOOSH!

Edward widen his eyes when he saw Kyran merge with the darkness,

Looking at this, Edward immediately turns his body towards the exit of the house but then suddenly he raised his arms cloaked with his elemental aura after sensing something.

BAM!

In the nick of time, Edward manages to block Kyran's attack.

Kyran clawed out of the darkness and attack Edward from the side, but thankfully Edward's intuition is sharp and he manage to block Kyran's attack.

But just when he was about to exhale in relief, "What?!"

BOOM!

The power from Kyran's attack was too much for Edward to handle, he was thrown away blasting through the wall behind him before stopping right beside the door to exit the house.

After getting hit, Edward looks at his arms and found that it has already turned blue.

He was a higher rank Awakened than Kyran, he even taught Kyran for a while and naturally know his strength and limitation.

But thanks to Kyran's Werewolf form, all of that is amplified.

ROAR!!

Kyran roared menacingly before looking at the door, it's clear what his intention is.

With quite a bit of struggle, Edward stands up back to his feet with blood flowing down on his forehead blocking his left eye vision.

The tension inside the house was building up as Kyran stretches his claws menacingly, he even straighten his back making Edward looks small in comparison.

It's really shocking to see Kyran grows this much,

When he's still in his human form, Edward trumps his height by almost a foot.

But now,

Edward looks up and saw that his height is the one getting trumped by Kyran's Werewolf form, the situation was completely reversed.

After reaching for his pocket, Edward takes out two gauntlets.

"I won't let you leave this place", Edward mumbles while putting on the two gauntlets.

The two gauntlets are silver in color and based on the way Edward is holding them, the gauntlets look heavy with the fingertips' parts shaped into claws.

Edward puts it on on his hands while looking at Kyran with determination,

SHING!!

The gauntlets emit a silvery aura as Edward looks at Kyran, he looks very fierce, especially with the blood flowing on his forehead, he then steps forward towards Kyran before he said slowly, "If you want to leave this place, you're going have to go through my dead body"

"So snap out of this nonsense Kyran, or I'll beat it out of you forcefully", he added.

~

Meanwhile, back to the room where Rex is in.

The situation has been starting to recede as Rex breathes heavily while still on the ground, he looks at Adhara and found that she's still unconscious.

While the Sacrificial Energy still rampaging through his body,

Rex stretches out his hand to reach for his head, he then was surprised when he touches the two curved back horns poking from his head.

'I can't retract them back', Rex thought as his horns didn't budge.

Tap!

With much effort, Rex reaches for the table on his side and started to get up.

"Rrrghh!", Rex grunted as his body stopped mid-way, the pain is still there but it was not as painful as when Adhara haven't requested the Shared Authority yet.

After a moment, Rex sits on the chair in front of a table.

There is a mirror in front of him, Rex looks at his reflection and finds that he's in a mess.

His tuxedo is already tattered and it's wet because of his sweat, blood also stained his white shirt underneath his suit that is surely the blood that he vomits earlier.

Rex's eyes started to go down, and thankfully his claws has returned to normal.

Although there is still the scar from when his fingernails burst into claws, all of his fingernails have returned to normal and the only thing left is his horns.

"How long will the process end?", Rex mumbles to the system.

<Uncalculated, the user's body is being strengthened by the Sacrificial Energy. This process is very overwhelming and painful so the user's body responds by forcing to turn into the user's Werewolf Form, it's a self-preservation reflex of the body>

Reading this, Rex sigh as the forceful transformation starts to make sense.

Basically what the system said is that since the Sacrificial Energy is rampant and painful, his body's self-preserving nature kicks in and it forces Rex's body to turn into his Werewolf form.

Since his Werewolf form body is stronger, that's the natural sense of the body.

This happens to Adhara too as she almost turns into her Werewolf form, but she passed out too fast and this results in her body being unable to transform and getting overwhelmed by the energy.

Like what the system said, this will lead to her body exploding.

Thankfully Rex takes back some of the energy and also splits the remaining energy to Kyran, 'I hope Kyran is okay', he thought in worry.

While he's waiting for the process to finish,

Rex looks at his palm and finds that the symbol is still active, he's still absorbing the Lunar Eclipse moonlight on top of the Sacrificial Energy.

'I should turn out stronger after this', he thought while leaning on the chair.

But then suddenly, Rex heard a subtle steely sound coming from the bathroom direction.

He glance to the bathroom and find that the handle is getting twisted as Evelyn peeked out of the room, Rex can't do anything to prevent this.

The entirety of his body is filled with pain leaving him helpless on the chair.

If he wanted to, Rex can still move but it will be a very painful process and all he can do is hope that Evelyn will not overreact.

After peeking out of the bathroom, Evelyn's eyes landed on Rex.

Instantly, her eyes fall onto the horns poking out of Rex's head. Her eyes widen in surprise, she covers her mouth with her hands in disbelief.

"You're not a human...", Evelyn said in disbelief.

The words that came out of her mouth are so subtle that it's almost a whisper, but Rex heard this as he coughed a couple of times weakly, "Let me explain", he said.

But upon realizing this, Evelyn was about to leave the room hurriedly.

SWOOSH!

Rex flash steps towards Evelyn despite the pain all over his body, his body is trembling as he slammed the door close with his hand and pinning Evelyn on the corner.

Looking at Rex's very fast movement, Evelyn looks down with slight fear.

Unknown to her, Rex can see the fear that she's feeling before Rex said, "I won't hurt you, just listen to my explanation"

"You're a Supernatural, What more is there to say", Evelyn replied.

Hearing this, Rex sighed as he didn't blame Evelyn's reaction.

With a deep breath, Rex pushes Evelyn's body to the wall gently before he reaches out to her chin and raises it up, "Look at me", Rex said while looking directly at Evelyn's eyes.

Evelyn hesitated for a moment, but she reluctantly raises her gaze to meet Rex's.

After seeing her eyes intently, Rex then said, "During our few meetings together? Have I ever tried to hurt you before?"

Rex is trying to convince Evelyn to listen to him,

Her minds are flustered because of the fact that Rex turns out to be Supernatural, so Rex can't have it any other way aside from being direct.

Looking at Evelyn who is all silent, Rex smiles weakly,

"I could've hurt you if I wanted to, even now I can still kill you easily. But I don't, I won't", Rex added making Evelyn slowly looks at his eyes with a bit of doubt.

Seeing that Evelyn is listening to him, Rex smiles, "I'm still the Rex that you know"

"I-I'm just confused, How can you be a Supernatural while still being a student in Faraday University. How did you get away with all of this?", Evelyn asks in disbelief.

She just can't believe that something this big hasn't been found out by the UWO or even FAA.

Hearing this, Rex's smile turns into a teasing smile as he replied, "Turns out the proud Evelyn Luc doesn't know everything, I'm surprised"

This makes Evelyn bit her lips and turns her head away,

Rex's smile grows even wider as at least the atmosphere is not as tense anymore, it seems he manages to make Evelyn calm down for a moment.

But when Rex was about to say more,

THUD! THUD! THUD!

"Open the door!"

A voice called out from outside of the door startling both Rex and Evelyn,

Evelyn looks at Rex hurriedly, but Rex signals her to stay silent by putting his index finger in front of his mouth as he sniffs the door.

He was not about to peek outside lest he wants them to come in,

"It's the group of guys running after us before, they must be from the Atkins Family. Help me get rid of them", Rex whispers as he went to the other corner of the door.

Hearin this, Evelyn then asks, "Are you going to kill them?"

"Of course, the Atkins has a problem with me so I have no choice", Rex replied truthfully.

Since these guys are persistent in trying to find him, Rex was forced to get rid of them once and for all since they might get suspicious of what happened to the room if they get in.

But then suddenly, "I won't help you"

"What? Why?", Rex asks, Evelyn's answer caught him by surprise.

Rex looks at Evelyn in confusion before he suddenly realized, "You still didn't trust me... Fine, at least can you go to the bathroom and stay silent?"

THUD! THUD! THUD!

Without answering, Evelyn went to the bathroom and closed the door.

After she went inside the door, Rex slowly opens the lock to the door as he steadies his breathing since the pain is still there and he's forcing his body to move right now.

The door opened slowly as the group of guys gets inside cautiously,

Rex used the last bit of his gold to buy a sound barrier rune to make the room soundproof, he touch the wall behind him as the rune got engraved on it.

"Move in quickly! Check the entire room!", a guy commanded whisperingly.

Five guys went inside the room quickly as if they were trying to avoid anyone from spotting them, but when the last person to get in was about to close the door.

STAB!

"Huaakhh!"

<Killed a peak fifth rank Awakened, Obtained 2,000,000 Exp!>

Rex stabbed the last guy closing the door with his claws and instantly killing him, the guy didn't even have the time to react before he died under Rex's hand.

Since the group of guys is attracted to Adhara lying on the ground,

They didn't expect to find someone hiding behind the door, all of them snap their necks back and widened their eyes when they saw Rex killed one of them.

But what shocks them the most is the horns sticking out of Rex's head,

"He's a Supernatural!", one of the guys shouted upon seeing the horns on Rex's head.

Rex pulled out his hand out of the guy's body, the heart that Rex ripped from the guy's body is still beating in his hand as the guy falls down lifelessly.

With the heart in his hand, Rex looks at the others with a crazed look.

"I've experienced enough for today, your persistence is starting to get on my nerve", Rex said slowly as his eyes flashed with red light as he activated his Alpha Bearing skill.

Brak!

Three of the group of guys fall onto their knees upon getting affected by Rex's skill,

Because of the Alpha Bearing skill, Rex's body turns into a hulking monster as the three of them felt powerless in front of Rex's presence.

They got immobilized from the fight instantly,

Rex's eyes then landed on the last one that has his knees trembling,

With the blessing of the Lunar Eclipse that is concentrated on him, Rex's power is almost tripled in power as he crushed the beating heart in his hand as blood burst from the crushed heart.

He already scans the last guy and find that he's a mid-sixth rank,

The fight should've been more fierce since he's a powerful mid-sixth rank Awakened, but the poor guy pick the wrong day to fight with Rex.

Rex approach the guy slowly before standing towering in front of him,

His eyes then turn red as he looks down on the last standing guy, "I'm in a very bad mood, so please die", Rex mumbles with a crooked smile.

Chapter 326 Explaining To Evelyn

"I'm in a very bad mood, so please die", Rex said with a crooked smile.

GRAB!

Rex grabbed the last guy standing on his neck and lift him off the ground, the guy didn't even use any spells or even activate his spirit thanks to the fear effect from the Alpha Bearing.

His mouth even trembling as he looks at Rex with wide eyes,

"Y-You're a Supernatural! You will definitely get caught sooner or later", the guy said strugglingly since his neck is being pinched by Rex's hand.

The bitter truth that comes out of the guy's mouth makes Rex's expression darken.

Although Rex already knows of this fact since even the Atkins are starting to be suspicious of him, he still doesn't want to think about it as he glared at the last guy.

With a deep breath, Rex then said lightly, "I know..."

CRUSH!

Rex gripped the guy's neck completely crushing it,

He did it so easily that it's hard to believe the guy that died is a mid-sixth rank Awakened, the Lunar Eclipse is really enhancing Rex's body beyond imagination.

Even Rex thought that the Lunar Eclipse gives the highest stats increase,

With one swift motion, Rex cut off two of the kneeling guys' heads killing them instantly.

Rex left one of them alive since he wanted to ask a few questions, 'How in the hell did they get suspicious of Adhara being a Supernatural', he thought with a frown.

From the meeting with Hans before,

The sudden event makes Rex wonder how did the Atkins get suspicious of them, Hans clearly wanted to test Adhara by giving her a silver glass.

'Let's hope this one has the answer', Rex thought with a sigh.

After killing the group of guys that are after him, Rex puts his arms on his waist while looking at the bloodied place before he said, "You can come out now"

Hearing this, Evelyn opened the bathroom door slowly.

She then saw the corpses lying on the ground as she was caught in surprise, there was not even much ruckus from the fight as Rex killed all of them easily.

There is a complicated expression on Evelyn's face,

Rex notices this instantly as he frowns and asks, "What is it?"

"You better start explaining, or I will definitely scream", she said with a serious expression.

Hearing this, Rex smiles bitterly as he points at the rune engraved on the wall, "Even if you scream your voice won't be heard from outside"

Evelyn follows Rex's fingers and saw the rune on the wall,

This makes Evelyn steps back before Rex sigh, "But alright, I'll explain it to you"

A moment later,

"So basically, you're a human once and somehow you turn into a Werewolf during your mission in the military. You hate Supernaturals to the gut but finally decided to use your Supernatural power to help humanity against the Supernatural, Adhara, and Kyran don't mind being a Werewolf so you turned them and make them your pack? Does that summarize it?", Evelyn said while looking at Rex seriously.

Rex nodded his head before he replied, "That's pretty much the story"

Although there are some things that Rex left out from his explanation, aside from that, all that he said to Evelyn is pretty much true.

Because of the ritual, Rex has no other choice but to explain to Evelyn,

The only thing he can do in this situation is to convince Evelyn that he's not an enemy, he can just kill Evelyn right here right now but he doesn't have the heart to do that.

All of the humans that he killed,

They intend to harm Rex or those close to him, and Rex was not going to let that happen.

So killing Evelyn here is just out of the option, and besides, 'I don't know why but I had the feeling that she will be an excellent ally, the information she possesses are very valuable'

Rex then looks at Evelyn who is thinking, 'Will she be okay if I turn her into a Werewolf?'

Evelyn raises her gaze to see Rex with a frown, her suspicious look is evident just from a glance.

'Probably not', Rex shakes his head pushing the thought of making Evelyn one of his pack members, he got three spots opened and he intends to fill them as soon as possible.

Then suddenly, "Why should I trust you?"

Rex looks up and saw Evelyn looking at him intently, she's asking for a reason to believe him.

Hearing this, Rex thought for a moment before he finally said, "In a couple of days, the temporary alliance of the SCO and the UWO will be signed"

This caught Evelyn off guard as she look at Rex in surprise, "How do you know that?"

"It's simple, I'm the one who proposed it to the SCO and I'm working with President Vargas to make this alliance happen. What do you think?", he added with a cheeky smile.

Rex decided to tell this just to convince Evelyn,

By saying this, at least Evelyn will trust him for a bit since this information is not common.

The temporary alliance between the SCO and the UWO, Rex doesn't know how it will go and the information will become sensitive if the UWO decided to keep their alliance a secret from the public.

Judging from Evelyn's expression, it seems she understands the weight of this information.

"Fine, I'll trust you for now since you're being honest with me. But just so you know, if I heard you make a move against humanity I'll definitely expose you", Evelyn said threateningly.

But Rex shrugs his shoulders since that kind of thing won't happen,

'I really need some serious motivation if I were to do that, it's just impossible', Rex thought, he's confident about his motives to humanity.

After talking for a moment, Evelyn's attention suddenly turns to the last surviving guy.

"What are you going to do with this guy?", She asks while nudging her chin to the guy kneeling on the ground, it seems that he's in a daze as he kneels on the ground idly.

Rex was even surprised upon seeing this, 'This never happen before', he thought.

The Alpha Bearing skill is an AoE skill that lowers the stats of all enemies that are looking at him, it never did something like this where it puts the affected target in a daze.

"I'm going to ask him about something", Rex replied while squatting in front of the guy.

But even after waving his hand in front of the guy, or even slapping the guy lightly a couple of times, the guy didn't budge as he stares at his front blankly.

Rex stands back up while looking at the guy in confusion,

"What did you even do to him?", Evelyn asks from the side.

Hearing this, Rex also shakes his head and replies, "I just use one of my skills, it should only lower the power of anything that looks at me"

Evelyn thought for a moment before she said, "Maybe it's due to the Full Moon"

"Maybe, I'm not quite sure myself", Rex replied truthfully, he still doesn't know the effects of this Lunar Eclipse except the information from the system.

Evelyn then added in confusion, "Why didn't I get affected then?",

Based on what Rex said, the skill that he used should affect anything that lays their eyes on Rex but now Evelyn is looking at Rex but nothing is happening to her.

"I exclude you from the skill effect, Why? You want to feel it?", Rex asks with a teasing smile.

This makes Evelyn gulp harshly as her eyes land on the dazed kneeling guy, she will turn out like that if Rex decided to include her in his skill.

After trying everything that he can think of, Rex can't still snap the guy from his dazed state, and with a sigh, he decided to just kill the guy by chopping his head off.

Rex then sits back on the chair while waiting for the Sacrificial Energy to be fully absorbed.

Seconds turn to minutes as Rex waits for the process to finish,

The both of them had already tidied the corpses and Evelyn said that her men can handle this, so Rex didn't have to worry about the corpses.

Now they're waiting for the process to finish,

Rex only told Evelyn to wait and explains that the full moon is making his horn poke out like this.

He was not about to explain to Evelyn about the Sacrificial Energy that made him like this, so Evelyn nodded her head in understanding and decided to wait for Rex to collect himself.

After a moment, notifications from the system suddenly appear,

<Sacrificial Energy Absorbption Process has been finished!>

Right after the notification from the system appear in his vision, subtle energy exploded from his horns before the horns make a cracking sound as Rex retracts them back.

The subtle energy can be felt by Evelyn too as she asks, "Is it done?"

"Yep, I need to go back to the Banquet since I need to do something for Daniel Burton", Rex said intending to leave the room.

He already left for almost an hour,

From what Daniel said, the 25 Golden Crest Families should be in a meeting so Daniel's son should be waiting for him at the Banquet.

Rex then said, "Is it okay if I leave Adhara here?"

"I booked this room for the Banquet, my men will come here in a bit so Adhara will be fine here", Evelyn said while seeing Adhara lying on the bed still unconscious.

Hearing this, Rex nodded his head but he got stopped by Evelyn.

Evelyn look at Rex in disbelief before she said, "Are you really going back to the Banquet like that? You sure are careful about your identity as a Werewolf"

This caught Rex off guard as he looks down at his clothes,

He forgot that his clothes are tattered with bloodstains all over, he just remembered that he just killed a bunch of people just now.

With a wry smile, Rex looks at Evelyn and asks, "Do you have spare clothes?"

Evelyn face-palm herself, she can't believe that Rex almost gets out dressing like that.

A moment later,

Rex was given another black tuxedo by Evelyn's men, he thanked the guy that gives him the clothes to change into. Even the corpses are also cleaned up by them.

Not a single drop of blood and death was left in this room,

Even the stench of blood was completely wiped from the room, they destroy all evidence and didn't even forget to spray floral scent just for Evelyn's convenience.

They come and go quickly per Evelyn's order,

While this is all happening, Rex is looking at Evelyn who just closed the door after the men left.

She turns to her back and stopped when she saw Rex looking at her, "Why are you looking at me like that? Didn't you need to go back to the banquet?"

"Start changing your clothes", she added while turning her head away.

Hearing this, Rex didn't answer as he immediately takes off his tattered clothes only leaving a boxer on him as he started to change.

This caught Evelyn off guard as she saw how confident Rex are,

Evelyn walks past Rex as she went to sit by the bed, she then shakes her head and mumbles, "I know I told you to entertain me tonight, but I can't believe you shock me this much"

"Your life must be boring for you to think that this is entertainment", Rex replied while zipping his pants.

The sarcastic remarks make Evelyn pout as she turns to look at Rex, but when she was about to rebut she suddenly stopped as she saw Rex's topless figure.

With a dazed expression, "I always knew your figure is good, but this is just...."

Hearing this, Rex looks up to see Evelyn and saw her looking at his abs.

Rex scratch his head a couple of times with a wry smile, "When you spend a great amount of your life in the military and hating the Supernatural though you're just a normal human, this kind of physique is not a surprise"

"What are you talking about, not all of them have your kind of physique", Evelyn rebutted.

But even after saying that, Evelyn can feel the vibes turns gloomy as Rex remembered his life in the military where his days were filled with the feeling of hatred.

Looking at this, Evelyn's smiles blossoms, "Can I touch it?"

"Touch? Touch what?", Rex replied stutteringly as Evelyn looks at him teasingly.

Evelyn then gets up from the bed before she walks closer to Rex, "Can I touch your Werewolf Abs?", she whispers while touching Rex's abs with her index finger.

Her gentle touch makes Rex's body stiff,

"If you let me, then I might let you touch me too", she added making Rex gulp harshly.

Now that she said that, Rex's eyes started to go lower.

Rex knows that Evelyn has a devilish figure and one might argue even greater than Adhara's, his eyes then fall onto Evelyn's cleavage that can be seen through her illusion neckline red dress.

He didn't pay much attention before, but the red dress really amplified Evelyn's charm.

Looking at Rex's eyes that are looking at her cleavage, Evelyn smiled teasingly but when she was about to make a move,

RING!!

Chapter 327 Kyran Is Fine

"If you let me, then I might let you touch me too", Evelyn said as a smile blossomed on her face, the smile blossomed when she saw Rex's eyes land on her cleavage.

Evelyn doesn't know why, but seeing Rex's distracted look makes her feel good about herself.

While she's playing her fingers on Rex's abs, Rex didn't do anything besides gulping harshly, 'It's been a while since I did it with Adhara', he thought while looking at Evelyn.

Since they both got into a little argument about Rosie,

Rex hasn't gotten his usual intimate quatum with Adhara, he was about to get some but Hans ruined her mood with his talks about Rosie.

So the womanly scent coming out of Evelyn's body becomes very alluring,

Her scent shouldn't have had this much effect on Rex, but thanks to his argument with Adhara, her tempting scent was amplified greatly.

Both of their eyes lock onto each other as Evelyn started leaning closer,

The vibes started to turn hot as they both locked eye contact, but their moments together suddenly got interrupted by a loud ringing sound,

RING!

Rex was snapped out of his daze when he heard the ringing sound,

He reaches for his pants before he takes his phone from the pocket, someone is calling him, and turns out it is Edward who is calling him.

When Rex was about to answer, he suddenly stopped,

"Do you mind?", Rex said after noticing that Evelyn's fingers are still on his abs.

Hearing this, Evelyn also just noticed her hand is still on Rex's abs, "Oh, right!", she said stutteringly before she smiles sweetly and sits back down on the bed.

Rex looks at Evelyn intently before he said, "You know that I'm also a man right?"

Evelyn who just sat back down on the bed was attracted to Rex again, she then looks at Rex's bottom half before she chuckles sweetly, "You're very naughty"

"How can you be like that when your girlfriend is unconscious behind me?", she added.

This makes Rex looks to the side after he remembered that Adhara is lying on the bed, "Err, I'm going to answer this", he said before he walks out to the balcony.

Since this room is the VIP section, each room has its own balcony.

Cold but refreshing air brushes past Rex's skin as he answered the phone which is still ringing all this time, he looks up to the full moon before he picks up the call, "Edward? What's up?"

But Rex suddenly frown when he heard Edward's rough breathing,

"Are you okay? Where are you?", Rex asks in worry, Edward's breathing even sounds weird.

After a deep breath, Edward then finally said, "Don't worry about me, Are you still at the banquet?", he asks with a weak voice.

"Yes, I'm not going to be back until late", Rex replied.

Hearing this, Edward then asks, "How was the banquet?"

"The Atkins just made a move on us, I just finished dealing with their persistent people. Adhara is unconscious right now, but she'll be fine since I ask Evelyn Luc for help and now I'm going to do a request from Daniel Burton", Rex replied.

Edward is all silent on the other side of the phone after Rex said that,

The silence makes Rex frown even harder, he doesn't know why but he can feel something is wrong with Edward, "Why are you calling?", Rex finally asks.

"Nothing, I'm just checking", Edward replied.

After a brief pause, Edward then suddenly added, "Kyran is fine, you don't have to worry about him"

Rex was caught in surprise upon hearing this, 'How did he know about Kyran?'

'Adhara must've told Edward to check on Kyran since she changed her mind, but I hope Kyran didn't go berserk', he thought.

But when Rex was about to ask more about Kyran's condition,

The phone call was ended by Edward one-sidedly, and this makes Rex looks at his phone in disbelief as he's certain that something is wrong with Edward.

~

On the other side,

Edward is sitting on the ground, "Kyran is fine, you don't have to worry about him", his phone fell from his hand right after he hung up before he lean his head back onto the wall behind him.

A tired expression is plastered on his face as he looks up to the ceiling,

He then coughs out a mouthful of blood before he folded his leg and dangles his arm on his knees, it was a gory scene with blood splattered everywhere inside the house.

The entirety of the house is in ruin as Edward leans on the wall,

Edward's entire body is also filled with many injuries and some of them are still bleeding, it was clear that he's getting weaker by the second while he sits on the ground weakly.

After breathing steadily for a moment, Edward looks at his front,

The walls in front of him are destroyed and even the entrance to the house is ripped open, Edward can even see the outside because of the destruction they caused.

He's back to the room where Kyran is chained before,

But Kyran has not chained there anymore, instead, he's lying in front of Edward unconscious above a pool of his own blood.

Kyran already turned back to his human form,

Just like Edward, Kyran's body is also filled with injuries because of their fight.

Since he's a Werewolf, the injuries should've started to heal even when he's unconscious but the injuries are not healing at all.

There's a complicated look in Edward's gaze to Kyran,

Spit!

Edward spit some of the blood in his mouth before he suddenly hear footsteps, flashlights can be seen flashing into the house from the entrance.

"Hello? If anyone hears my voice, come out right now!", a voice called from outside.

Hearing this, Edward sighed before he shouted, "I'm over here, you can come inside"

After shouting that, two police officers holding a flashlight in one hand and a gun in the other enter the house cautiously.

Because of the fight he had with Kyran, even the electricity in the house is busted.

The two police officers went inside the house and saw the place is trashed, they saw wooden rubbles, huge holes on the wall, burnt walls, and even claw marks all over the place.

Upon seeing this, the two police officers were at a loss for words.

Just from the situation of the house that they're seeing, it's clear that there was a fight here and an Awakened is definitely involved.

Both of them then glance to their left and saw Edward through the huge hole on the wall,

Edward is sitting on the ground in the other room with blood covering his face and arms, they even saw an unconscious Kyran in front of him before Edward forced out a smile, "Noise Complaint?"

"Yeah...Noise complaint", one of the police officers replied while gulping harshly.

~

Back to Rex,

Rex walks back in after receiving the call from Edward,

There is an evident frown on his face which makes Evelyn curious, "Why put on such a serious expression? Who called you?"

"Not of your conce Rex replied coldly.

The weak voice and the rough breathing make Rex worry for Edward a bit since there's a high possibility of Kyran turning into his Werewolf form because of the Sacrificial Energy.

But if that were to happen, Edward wouldn't have survived that ordeal.

Although Edward is quite stronger than Kyran in his human form, all of that will change when Kyran turns into his Werewolf form so Rex thought that shouldn't have been the case.

'Then how did he know Kyran's situation if that was not the case?', Rex thought.

He was thinking hard about the situation, 'He even bothered calling me to tell me that Kyran is okay, so it doesn't make sense'

Hearing Rex's cold remarks, Evelyn then asks, "What are you going to do for Daniel?"

"I'm going to spar against his son, he should also be a sixth rank Awakened so Daniel thought I will be a good sparring partner for him', Rex replied before his eyes landed on Adhara.

Rex starting to have second thoughts about leaving Adhara here,

But he needs to go back to the banquet, it's not easy to get an opportunity to create friendly ties with a man like Daniel Burton.

"Do you even know who Daniel's son is?", Evelyn suddenly asks.

Without much thinking, Rex then answered, "I'll just ask around, it doesn't matter"

"There are about five dozen descendants of the 25 Golden Crest Families, Are you telling me that you're going to ask them one by one?", Evelyn said attracting Rex's attention.

Before Rex can say anything else, "I'm going with you"

Evelyn suddenly jumped from the bed and wrap her arms around Rex's arm, she was ready to go back to the banquet but Rex won't budge from his spot.

Looking at this, Evelyn frowns before she saw Rex's hesitating expression.

Rex is stealing glances at the bed where Adhara lies unconscious.

Evelyn notice this as her eyes landed on Adhara, she then suddenly widen her eyes in realization, "You don't trust me? I told you it will be fine to leave Adhara here"

"For someone who kept tempting me, I'm sure you have some motives", Rex replied.

Although Rex believes that he manages to convince Evelyn to keep his identity as a Werewolf a secret, he still can't push away the cautious behavior that is built within him.

Evelyn always tries to tempt him whenever they meet,

Even when they're still in the banquet when Evelyn is dancing in front of him, Evelyn said that if he's not satisfied with Adhara then he can just come to her.

It makes Rex think that she's trying to break him and Adhara apart,

Upon hearing this, a sweet chuckle escape Evelyn's mouth making Rex look at her in confusion.

"I do have motives for tempting you, but it's not a motive with bad intention so don't worry", Evelyn said while looking at Rex with a smile.

Rex then asks, "Then why do you keep tempting me as if you're trying to ruin me and Adhara?"

"Are you seriously that dull?", Evelyn suddenly replied.

This caught Rex off guard as he was not expecting such an answer, Evelyn then suddenly reaches out her hand to touch Rex's cheek before she added, "I'm doing this because I like you"

"Like me?", Rex mutters in confusion.

Out of all the things that he thought, Rex never once thought that Evelyn liked him.

Seeing Rex's confused expression, Evelyn then said, "Why else would I decide to keep you being a Werewolf a secret?", she then leans closer to Rex's ears.

"My motive is you, I'm going to snatch you from her", she added boldly making Rex tongue-tied.

Before Rex can even collect himself, Evelyn continues, "So, are we going back to the banquet or should I book another hotel room to make some alone time for us?"

Rex smiled wryly before he said, "Fine, I'll let you accompany me"

"That hurts me a little, I was hoping you would choose the latter", Evelyn pouted.

With Evelyn wrapping her arms around his arm, Rex heads towards the door intending to go back to the banquet to spar with Daniel's son.

After getting out of the room, Rex found two of Evelyn's men guarding the door.

He decided to trust Evelyn that she has no ill intention towards Adhara except for snatching him, and while they're heading back to the banquet Rex can't help but ask, "If I were to ask your permission to turn you into a Werewolf, are you willing?"

"Why do you ask that? Do you want to bite me or something?", Evelyn asks with a sweet smile.

She then added, "If you want to bite me, you can just ask me directly there's no need to make underlying excuses like this"

"Never mind...", Rex replied with a sigh making Evelyn chuckle.

Supernatural Territory, Scarlet Banes Kingdom.

"Ruston!! We've been looking for you all over!", an Alpha Werewolf shouted as he landed right beside Ruston who was quite surprised when he heard someone is calling him.

After landing beside Ruston, the Werewolf looks around with a frown.

The entirety of Ruston's pack is currently here and they all give a weird air making the Werewolf frown, "Why are your pack gathered here? Don't they have things to do?"

"I'm just-", Ruston was about to answer,

But the Werewolf intervenes, "I smell blood, Are you treating your pack members?"

"Yeah, It's a polite courtesy from me to keep these spoilt Werewolves happy", Ruston replied hurriedly following the flow of the conversation.

Hearing this, the Werewolf laughs loudly as he said, "You should hurry and find a new Omega"

Ruston can only smile wryly as his pack members stay silent, the Werewolf then added, "The King requested your presence, we're looking for a Prince around here"

"Prince?", Ruston mutters in confusion.

The Werewolf then said, "Yes, Prince! I heard the Prince has Awakened, King Baralt wanted to welcome the Prince so we're searching for him"

"Alright, I'll go meet with King Baralt", Ruston replied.

Upon hearing this, the Werewolf then nodded his head before he leaped away and left.

After the Werewolf left, one of Ruston's pack members then said harshly, "Welcome my ass, I bet King Baralt is creating this search party to devour Zegrath"

"I know, let's go back and try to not make King Baralt suspicious", Ruston replied.

He then added, "At least not now, let's buy some time for Zegrath to get stronger and Awakened his Prince power so that he can challenge the throne"

Chapter 328 Descendants

Rex and Evelyn walk side by side while entering the banquet again,

With a different company than before, some of the people in here realized that Rex came back after leaving for an hour with Adhara.

Not just one of them saw this happen, but many of them.

After entering the room, Rex looks around as the glances of the people here meet his eyes but he didn't fret about any of their gazes too much.

He noticed that the people in here are fewer than when he left before,

'The meeting has already started huh, I wonder what the Golden Crest Families discuss in this meeting', Rex thought while looking around.

Rex then turns his head towards Evelyn,

Evelyn is looking around nervously as she bit her lips, Rex even notices that she's hiding a bit behind his arm as if she's avoiding someone.

"Which one?", Rex asks making Evelyn turns her head to him.

With a frown on her face, Evelyn then asks back, "Which one what?"

"Daniel Burton's son, Which one is he?", Rex added, he's slightly annoyed since the only thing he comes back with Evelyn is because she said that she knew of Daniel Burton's son.

Hearing this, Evelyn's eyes jolted wide, "Oh! His son, right..."

Rex looks at Evelyn in confusion as she seems to be distracted, she was looking around trying to find Daniel Burton's son before she suddenly nudge Rex's arm.

"Do you see that asshole of a pretty boy right there?", Evelyn asks while looking in a direction.

Following her eyes direction, Rex saw a guy that looks to be older than him wearing black fashion glasses with his tattoos poking out of his sleeves that somehow increases his masculinity.

The guy then also looks at Rex after feeling someone is looking at him.

'His sense is quite sharp for a human', Rex thought while keeping eye contact with the guy.

After Rex found the guy, Evelyn then added, "His name is Dray, that is Daniel's son. Known for his asshole behavior and upfront physical fighting style with fast foot-work"

"Is that some common thing to know of his asshole behavior?", Rex asks in confusion.

By Evelyn's tone in describing Dray, Rex found that there's a hint of anger in her tone that Rex can hear clearly from her voice.

Hearing this, Evelyn scoffs, "Just trust me when I say he's an asshole"

"You can just go talk to him, I'll wait right here until you're finished", she added.

Rex sigh while he shakes his head, it is clear to him that Evelyn has some history with this Dray.

'Well just from first impression, he really does look like an asshole', Rex thought after seeing that Dray is currently embracing two women on both of his sides by wrapping his arms around their necks.

After noticing that Rex is looking at him, Dray lets go of the two women.

With confident and powerful steps, Dray walks over through the crowd heading towards where Rex and Evelyn are standing.

Looking at this, Evelyn rolled her eyes seeing the grin on Dray's face.

The perfectly lined shiny white teeth of his were exposed as he grins widely, it's not a nasty grin but instead, it looks more of a teasing grin and it sure hell is not directed to Rex.

It's directed to Evelyn who is already folding her arms in front of her in annoyance.

"My beautiful princess, I'm hurt that you didn't come to me during your wonderful performance earlier", Dray said while spreading his arms wide.

Evelyn then replied with an acute smile, "Dray! I prayed that you die but it seems luck is on your side!"

"What are you saying? Of course, lady luck is on your side! You have the face and body as if you take all of the women's beauty and have it for yourself!", Dray replied with a sweet remark waving his hand trying to portray Evelyn's beauty.

But this makes Evelyn's expression turns disgusted by the second,

Then with one quick motion, Dray suddenly hugs Evelyn who instantly becomes uncomfortable.

The uncomfortable smile on Evelyn's face was evident as she tries to push Dray away.

Although there's Rex who is standing beside Evelyn, Dray ignores him as if Rex is nothing but the air that doesn't even exist in his eyes only to be ignored.

While trying to free herself, Evelyn stomped Rex's foot asking for help.

Thud!

Rex was caught off guard but when he saw Evelyn's expression of help, he finally clears his throat and said, "Dray Burton, It's a pleasure to meet you"

"Can't you see I'm talking with my girl? Piss off!", Dray replied plainly.

His tone is calm and collected but his words are very sharp, he doesn't even look at Rex when he's talking and this puts Rex in a state of disbelief since even Daniel didn't have this kind of attitude, 'Calm down, he's Daniel's son', Rex thought.

Evelyn then suddenly shouted, "Who's your girl?! Definitely not me!"

"Baby, Are you still mad about the drink that I gave? It's purely to entertain you", Dray said.

Hearing this, Evelyn's mouth opened wide as she can't believe what Dray just said, "ENTERTAIN ME?! You asshole tries to drug me!", she shouted angrily.

A waiter holding a tray was walking past them as he heard Evelyn's shout,

Evelyn takes a glass from the tray before she splashes the drink with a flick of her hand, this came out of nowhere completely catching Rex and Dray off guard.

SPLASH!

The drink drenched Dray's blue formal tuxedo as Dray froze on his spot.

He even chuckle for a little bit since he didn't expect Evelyn to do this, he pats the part of his tuxedo that got splashed by the water as Evelyn left angrily.

All eyes are attracted to Dray as they saw Evelyn splash drinks on him,

Some of the descendants of the 25 Golden Crest even started chuckling upon seeing this, they find it funny to see Dray in this state which is a rare sight.

"Why the fuck are you all laughing?!", Dray shouted feeling embarrassed.

Upon hearing this, one woman that Rex finds pretty powerful for her age. Even stronger than Dray said, "That' what you get for being a player you prick!"

"Shut up! You're just mad that no guys wanted to get close to you!", Dray replied harshly.

His nasty remarks make the woman grit her teeth as her body glows with fire, the fire is blue in color and Rex even felt his Black Lightning slightly suppressed by the fire.

It seems the woman takes what Dray said personally,

'She's a peak sixth rank...!', Rex thought in surprise.

BOOM!

A blue fiery spirit that takes the shape of a snake-like dragon with horns appears behind her, it was her assimilated spirit and it amplifies her aura by a couple of folds shattering the ground around her.

Even the tables got blown away by her aura alone, she's one of the strongest here.

Since the head of the families of the 25 Golden Crest is in a meeting, even the UWO representative like Sebrot and Vargas also join that meeting.

There's none to watch over the descendants to prevent something like this to happen.

But from the other descendants' reaction, it seems this kind of event is a normal occurrence.

After activating her blue fire, the woman's eyes burn blue as she glares at Dray while taking a sword from her side that she seems to hide under the table.

Just like her body, the sword emits blue fire as the runes engraved on it activate.

Dray who saw the woman's hostile intention also activated his element, the wind energy circles around his body, and unlike the regular greenish color, this wind is completely white.

SWOOSH!

"Weapons should be left outside! This is not fair!", Dray rebutted angrily.

His weapon is not with him right now, and he can only fight using his bare hands against a sword which puts him at a big disadvantage.

"I'm gonna rip that mouth of yours!", the woman shouted angrily without caring for Dray at all.

The blue fire is rampaging to the surroundings as the other descendants step back to create distance, they all seem excited to see the outcome of the fight.

While the situation is escalating, Evelyn suddenly came back to Rex's side.

Rex looks at her in confusion since she's currently smiling, she then said, "That is Valery the eldest daughter of the Safran Family, she really hates Dray since Dray rejected her a while back"

"You're smiling because?", Rex asks.

Hearing this, the smile on Evelyn's face went wider as she replied, "It was my intention to attract her attention to Dray, that guy had it coming"

"And the drug part? Is that true?", Rex asks again.

Rex heard that Evelyn mention something about Dray trying to drug her but it seems he failed, and this pummeled Rex's first impression of Dray lower if that was true.

With a straight expression, Evelyn then said, "Yes, he did try to drug me"

"Aren't you going to stop them? Dray will be in trouble without his weapon, and you can't spar with him if that were to happen", she added.

Rex rubs his chin while looking at the scene in front of him,

Valery's sword is already emitting powerful blue fire added with her spirit energy, it even started to vibrate and the runes are glowing brightly thanks to the power she puts into the sword.

While Dray on the other side is gritting his teeth helplessly,

The spirit behind him is a white tiger with golden eyes, it was evidently more powerful than Valery's spirit since the spirit energy coming from the tiger is more powerful.

But even with the superior spirit, he still doesn't have any weapon on him.

Aside from that, Valery is a peak sixth rank while Dray is on the brink of going to her realm.

Although he's on the brink of breaking through to Valery's realm, he's still a mid-sixth rank which is still weaker than Valery.

[This fight is pathetic, I can't believe they're all humans]

Hearing Devo suddenly comment on the fight, Rex then asks, 'I want to stop them, Do you have any way of doing that without using my raw strength too much?'

[I can just shut their spirit down, and you can just stop them head on]

'Wouldn't that show too much of my body's raw strength?', Rex asks again.

If he was about to do that, it'll be a little bit weird since he's just an early sixth rank and it will look unnatural for him to stop a peak sixth rank Awakened like Valery or even a mid-sixth rank like Dray.

But since he will be sparring anyway, he might as well show them his powers.

Then suddenly, [Are you retarded or something?], Devo said stopping Rex in his tracks.

[If I suppressed their spirit then they can't use their spirit, they're as good as a fifth rank without their spirit energy], he added with a tone as if Rex is an idiot.

Rex widens his eyes as he flicks his finger in realization, 'Alright let's do that then'

"Take this!", Valery shouted as she went into her stance, she lowers her body with one foot in front while holding her sword with two hands on the side. Her blue fire swirls around her sword creating a circular shape that is beating by the second.

Looking at this, the descendants went into a buzz as they saw Valery's stance.

"Straight to her signature, she's not playing around"

"Dray can't possibly block that without his weapon, he will definitely dodge this one"

CRACK!

The ground under her foot cracks as her eyes blaze with blue fire, "Mystic Fire Art! Driving Dragon!", Valery chanted as she leaped forward with her sword pointing towards Dray.

SWOOSH!

ROAR!

Her blue spirit started coiling on her sword as she dashes towards Dray.

Without backing down, Dray also chanted his own move, "Great Spell! Disposition of Wind Technique"

SWOOSH!

"Zephyr Body!"

White wind energy covers Dray's body like a blanket as he prepares himself for Valery, the wind mana was starting to crystallize around Dray's body just like a barrier.

Anything that went past this barrier got immediately disintegrated,

"That's not enough, Dray can't block Valery with just that"

"It seems Valery will take this one, I don't even know what I'll do if I were h- Oh! He's changing his mind!"

The discussing descendants suddenly got surprised when Dray changed his stance.

Dray who just activated his defensive move changed his mind as the white wind mana concentrate on both of his fists, he has a crazed look on his face as he glare at Valery.

Grip!

With a grip of Dray's hand, the white wind mana exploded with energy as he chanted, "Disposition of Wind Technique, Compact Strike!"

BOOM!

Dray leaped towards Valery as they both intend to attack each other head-on,

Powerful surges of energy were leaking out of their body as they put their all into this attack, especially Dray who has no weapon on him this time and he needs to give out more effort to match Valery's attack.

The descendants of the 25 Golden Crest held their breath waiting for the collision.

Both Valery and Dray also looks at each other with fighting intent, but when they were about to collide with each other,

DEG!

Their visions suddenly got blurry as their spirit energy got disintegrated.

"What happened?!", Valery and Dray shouted inside their heads upon feeling their spirit is not responding, it's like they're back to the fifth rank again and having no spirit.

BOOM!

Despite the disturbance, both of them can't stop the momentum as they collide with each other.

Their collision creates a spark of elements before a powerful shockwave exploded, it was powerful but the descendants watching this frowned when they felt the energy.

It should be more powerful than this and they can tell that something is wrong,

Even with the powerful shockwave, the walls are not destroyed and even the windows are intact. Only the ground is destroyed, it seems the room is reinforced by a rune.

After the shockwave dissipated, both Valery and Dray widen their eyes,

They can feel something is holding their arms before they found a man standing between them, it shocked them so much that their body froze in place.

"Sorry to disturb this fierce fight, but I can't let you hurt Dray"

Chapter 329 Better Option

"Sorry to disturb this fierce fight, but I can't let you hurt Dray"

Rex stands between both of them with a calm expression as his eyes gaze at Valery, his hands stopped their attacks from colliding by blocking both of their attacks.

It shocks both Valery and Dray as they didn't expect someone would intervene.

After realizing that their attack has been blocked, Valery and Dray jumped away while keeping their eyes on Rex who is tidying his suit.

Even his suit is still buttoned while he blocks the attacks,

This makes Dray grit his teeth as he saw Rex's calm expression, his face started to turn red as he landed a couple of feet away from Rex.

"How dare you meddle in our fight! Are you Dray's associates?!", Valery shouted angrily.

Since she's from a high-rank family and also one of the strongest people here, Rex blocking her attack greatly offend her. She seems to even not know who Rex is,

With eyes burning with fire, she then added, "You look like a prick too, you must be Dray's associate!"

Hearing this, Rex was at a loss for words.

Rex even unconsciously looks at Dray in disbelief while inspecting Dray's appearance, 'I didn't look like him at all! Why did she call me a prick for no reason?', Rex thought in disbelief.

He then smiles wryly and said, "I'm not his associate"

"Shut up! You're not allowed to talk back to me!", Valery shouted as she disappear from her spot.

Swoosh!

Blue fire tracks were left as she dashes towards Rex with her blazing sword, it was very fast and precise without wasting any unnecessary movements at all.

It's clear that she's trained in the way of the sword, an offensive style at that.

Valery swings her sword downwards intending to chop off Rex's arm as an example, but right in front of her eyes, Rex turns his body a bit completely dodging her attack.

The blazing sword descend right in front of Rex's eyes before it smashed to the ground.

BRAK!

Without even pausing from her attack, Valery flips her sword blade and swings her sword horizontally seeing Rex manage to dodge her first attack.

Her movement is very fast, but Rex can see it all clearly.

'I shouldn't be able to dodge her this easily, her movement is very fast', Rex thought in confusion.

Rex saw the wide swing before he open his palm and slammed it on Valery's hands, it was a hard hit and it makes Valery's hands slip as the sword got freed from her hands.

Even when Rex manages to do this, he's still in disbelief, 'This is weird...'

CLANG!

With a backhand attack, Rex hit the hilt of the sword that just got freed from Valery's hands as the sword flung to the side before stabbing the wall beside them powerfully.

BAM!

This happened right in front of the descendants' eyes as they all widen their eyes in surprise.

All of them has their mouths open wide as they saw Rex handle Valery easily, he doesn't even look to be trying just from the relaxed expression on his face.

Many of them can't even see how Rex manage to flick Valery's sword away,

Valery swings her arms and finds that the sword that is supposed to be in her hands is gone, she swings nothing aside from brushing wind on Rex's face.

Rex was about to hit her to calm her down but he soon becomes quite surprised,

After realizing that Rex manages to knock the sword out of her hand without her even realizing it, Valery does a backroll as Rex raises his arm to hit her.

'She's pretty solid, Safran Family huh...', Rex thought, he's quite impressed by Valery.

"Who are you?", Valery asks after back-rolling away.

Hearing this, Rex looks to the surrounding and find that many of the descendants are also has a curious expression on their faces which surprises Rex.

'They're looking at me earlier, I thought they recognize me', Rex thought with a wry smile.

Turns out the descendants are looking at Rex since they didn't know who Rex is, and because they don't recognize him the descendants realized that he's not a part of the 25 Families.

Which explains the weird gazes Rex got before, especially when he even left with Adhara.

Dray who is watching from the side then suddenly said, "Now that I look at you, you're the barbarian that walks out from the banquet without saying anything!"

"Barbarian?!", Rex gasped in surprise.

The mocking from the descendants of the 25 Golden Crest Family sure surprises him.

Hearing this, another descendant from the side also joins in, "I saw him too! He dares to leave the banquet without even saying anything"

Rex was at a loss for words upon hearing this, 'I made a mistake', he said with a wry smile.

After realizing that him leaving the banquet is impolite, Rex then smiles politely and said, "I have an urgent matter to attend to before, I'm sorry if my actions offend you all"

While he's apologizing, Rex saw Evelyn is holding back her laughter from the side.

This somehow annoys him as he added, "I'm going to borrow Dray for a moment, please don't mind my intrusion and resume the banquet"

Rex then pulls Dray to the corner of the room under the descendants' gazes.

Some of them didn't care about Rex while some of them are still looking at him with unfriendly gazes, but Rex already apologized openly so it should at least wipe their hostility.

"Why the fuck are you pushing me?", Dray commented before pushing Rex back.

But to his surprise, Rex's body is rock solid and he's the one that got pushed instead even though he's the one pushing.

Rex then said, "Your father is asking me to spar with you"

"Father? Wait, you're Rex Silverstar?", Dray replied in surprise.

He then looks at Rex weirdly before he said, "I thought Rex Silverstar is an early-sixth rank"

"I am an early sixth rank, but don't underestimate me just because I'm a lower rank than you", Rex said before his body started cracking with black lightning.

Feeling this, Dray frowns when he felt the terrifying amount of mana Rex emitted.

"How?! You have more mana than me, a mid-sixth rank?!", Dray exclaimed as he felt that Rex is really powerful, even he who had used many items to increase his mana is still pale in comparison to Rex's terrifying mana.

After showing his mana, Rex immediately retracts them back to not attract attention.

Without answering Dray, Rex said, "I'm going to spar with you as your father's request, but I don't intend to do just that so I'm going to give you pointers if I can after I see your battle power"

Hearing this, Dray hesitated for a moment before he finally swallow his pride and nodded.

A moment later,

Rex follows Dray with Evelyn by her side, they're heading to a place that the hotel has already prepared in case something like this happened.

The two of them follow Dray walking to the top-most floor before they enter a room.

Dray gives somekind of membership card to the staff in front of the room before the three of them are allowed to go inside.

Upon entering the room, Rex and Evelyn were greeted by a unique place.

Turns out there is somekind of a sparring arena in this hotel, the place is square-shaped but is very big that takes almost half of the entire top-most floor.

Dray and Rex stepped into the arena, there is no ceiling above the arena.

Rex can feel the moonlight directly hit his skin,

Evelyn is watching them from behind the fancy marble fences that are surrounding the arena, she was also excited to see Rex fight albeit it's better for not being in the same room as Dray but she's not complaining to watch Dray get beaten up.

This hotel is a hotel that is used regularly for the 25 Golden Crest Family Banquet.

So this kind of room is not a weird room to have, they should have at least this kind of room where the 25 Golden Crest can spar or even settle a minor dispute.

"I'll be assessing your ability, attack me with all you got", Rex said calmly.

He's standing straight in front of Dray without any obvious stance, this makes Dray quite annoyed to see Rex's calm expression but he saw what Rex can do.

Dray then said, "I can't activate my spirit for some reason, so I can't go all out"

'Devo are you still suppressing his spirit? Stop the suppression right now', Rex said to Devo.

[I already stopped after you block their attacks before]

Hearing this, Rex can feel that his spirit energy is still latching onto Dray's body, 'Stop lying you damn spirit, I can see you suppressing him right now!'

[Tch, Fine... His spirit annoys me that's all]

After cursing Devo inside his head, Rex then said, "You can use your spirit now"

"Wait, then back when I'm fighting Valery and both of our spirit energy suddenly got blown away. That was your doing?!", Dray asks in surprise.

Rex can only smile mysteriously as an answer,

Looking at this, Dray was at a loss for words as he realized their difference in power.

He can't even believe that Rex is a lower rank Awakened than him, but the power gap between the two of them was very shockingly crushing.

Dray then snap out of his daze as he readies his sword,

The sword that he's holding is a very powerful sword and Rex can feel it, the hilt of the sword is wrapped with green cloth with the actual blade made purely by wind mana.

With a deep breath of Dray, his body turns into a gust of wind as he dashes towards Rex.

"Wind Disposition Technique, Compact Strike!"

SWOOSH!

Dray drives his sword forward creating an arc of wind with his thrust,

The power behind the strike was amplified multiple times by the sword he's holding, the attack was multiple times more powerful than the attack he did to Valery.

Rex dodge the attack by moving to his side,

An attack with a straight-line trajectory like a stabbing strike Dray did is easily dodged, it can only be used against opponents that are already weakened or much slower than yourself.

But Dray did it to Rex knowing that he's slower, Rex can dodge this easily.

After missing the strike, Dray duck low intending to slash horizontally to cut Rex's legs, "Disposition of Wind, Circular Compact Arc!"

Slash!

Dray who's confident in his combo widens his eyes when he saw Rex dodge his slash.

Rex jumped dodging the motion of his sword while cloaking his legs with black lightning, he can feel that the wind created by the slash can slash him if he doesn't use his element.

The full moon is illuminating Rex's back cloaking his front in shadow,

Looking at Rex who is still in the air, Dray swings his sword thinking that Rex can't dodge this.

But the same thing happened to Valery happened to Dray, Rex knocked the sword out of Dray's hand and kicks the sword away before stabbing right beside Evelyn who is watching.

She was caught in surprise when she saw a sword stabbed a couple of meters beside her.

"Now, Try fighting me without your sword", Rex said snapping at Dray who was still in disbelief that he got hit exactly as Valery did before.

He looks at Rex in surprise before he added, "Your move is sloppy..."

A moment later,

BRAK!

"Damn!", Dray cursed as he got knocked down screeching all the way to the edge of the arena after Rex landed a clean kick onto his chest.

He rubs his chest a couple of times as Rex walks towards him,

"You're fast just like Valery, powerful strikes, great footwork, but you focus too much on attack. Don't forget that you only have one life, you must judge when to be offensive and when you need to be defensive", Rex lectured while shaking his head.

Dray is powerful, but he's too reliant on attacks that Rex manages to land clean hits on him.

After saying that, Rex walks to the side while checking his phone.

With a struggle, Dray stands up while still feeling his chest burning from Rex's kick but then he heard someone is laughing behind him.

"Is there something funny?", Dray asks in annoyance.

While still laughing lightly, Evelyn then said, "The mighty Dray Burton has fallen, It seems you're right. Lady luck seems to not be on your side right now"

"Shut up", Dray replied with a rough exhale.

Dray decided to lean on the fence catching his breath,

The spar with Rex takes a toll on his cardio since he got hit multiple times, Rex didn't hit him for real though since he's trying to teach him respect for Daniel Burton.

"So, Is he your boyfriend or something?", Dray said amidst his heavy breaths.

Hearing this, Evelyn went silent for a moment before she said, "Nope"

"Not yet at least", she added making Dray turns to look at her, he even was at a loss for words when he saw Evelyn's cheeks start to turn rosy.

He never saw Evelyn like this, at least not to him.

Feeling irritated, Dray then said, "Why pick him instead of me! I've been trying to get myself close to you for a year now and you never gave me that kind of expression"

"Such a clever way to get close to me by drugging me", Evelyn replied sarcastically.

This makes Dray's mouth turns shut before he sighs and asks, "What kind of guy do you like anyway? I'm a pretty capable guy you know"

Hearing this, Evelyn was put into thoughts,

She puts her fingers on her chin thinking before her eyes land on someone, "I like guys wearing black, muscular, powerful, and certainly a gentleman that wouldn't do petty tricks"

Evelyn's answer makes Dray put his head down, there's a regretted look on his face.

"Then why are you clinging onto Rex?", Dray mutters in confusion.

His eyes then look at Rex who is checking on his phone on the side, "He's just bigger and more muscular than me"

"Probably more of a gentleman than me"

"He's also wearing a black tuxedo"

"I heard he's also a Zeragon"

"I also heard he helped in fighting the demonic cities"

"He's clearly stronger than me..."

Dray's mutters become lighter and lighter, at the end of his mutters Dray clench his jaw after seeing Evelyn's cheeky smile, "A clearly better option indeed", she said.

"You're talking about him didn't you?", Dray asks in realization.

Seeing the cheeky smile so evidently plastered on Evelyn's face, Dray looks back at Rex before he can't help but curse, "Fuck..."

Chapter 330 Summary From The System

While Dray and Evelyn are conversing with each other, Rex is on the other side looking at his lock screen with a troubled look on his face.

The phone call from Edward before won't stop bugging his mind,

'I swear he sounds weird, should I check on him after this?', Rex thought, he's a little bit worried about Edward since he definitely meets with Kyran who is absorbing the Sacrificial Energy.

Rex looks at his phone screen before he sighs,

He puts his phone back into his pocket but then suddenly remembered something, 'System, open my stats tab'

<Rex Silverstar>

Pack: Silverstar (2/5)

Level: 34 (83,200,000/100,000,000)

Race: Royal Black Werewolf

Full-Moon: 4 Hours 13 Minutes - Lunar Eclipse(On going)

Berserk: 40%

Sanity: 83%

Mental: 273 (+39)

Strength: 586 (+123)

Agility: 388 (+39)

Endurance: 604 (+108)

Intelligence: 703 (+20)

Rex looks at his stats and saw that his stats has increased so much from before, 'System, show me my default stats without the increase from the Lunar Eclipse', he thought.

Just from a glance, Rex can tell that this is not his default stats, but then suddenly,

<The displayed stats are the user's default stats, Do the user want to display the increased stats by the Lunar Eclipse?>

'As I thought, show me the defau- Eh?', Rex was stunned upon reading this.

It took him a good few seconds before his eyes widen in realization, 'THIS IS MY DEFAULT STATS?! HOW IS THIS POSSIBLE?!', Rex screamed inside his head.

All of his stats starting from Mental all the way to Intelligence has raised tremendously,

If he were to compare his current stats with his previous stats, with a rough calculation Rex estimate that they will differ more than five hundred points!

<Do the user wants the summary of the recent activity?>

'Show me right now, I want to know what happened exactly', Rex thought hurriedly.

Right after he said that a bunch of notifications appear in front of him as Rex started to read through all of them one by one.

<Sacrificial Energy Absorption Process has finished!>

<56% energy produced from the Bloodrite of the Prince has been absorbed!>

<Showing Absorbed Sacrificial Energy Log...>

<Fifth Rank Supernatural Log...>

<47 Early Fifth Rank Supernatural, 93 Mid Fifth Rank Supernatural, and 56 Peak Fifth Rank Supernatural>

<Sixth Rank Supernatural Log>

<32 Early Sixth Rank Supernatural, 20 Mid Sixth Rank Supernatural, and 11 Peak Sixth Rank Supernatural>

<Seventh Rank Supernatural Log>

<8 Early Seventh Rank Supernatural, 3 Mid Seventh Rank Supernatural, 1 Peak Seventh Rank Supernatural>

<Stats Increase due to Absorbed Sacrificial Energy>

<Mental Stat has been increased by 50>

<Strength Stat has been increased by 281>

<Agility Stat has been increased by 165>

<Endurance Stat has been increased by 244>

<Intelligence Stat has been increased by 80>

The summary that the system shows to Rex was very detailed, Rex reads through the entire notifications as he thought, 'The Sacrificial Energy came from Supernatural?'

'How did the ritual they conducted go to me'

<Bloodrite of the Prince Ritual is a ritual for amplifying a Werewolf Prince power during the Lunar Eclipse, it is done by sacrificing any life forms to fuel the targeted Prince that is acknowledged by the Lunar Eclipse>

Rex rubs his chin as he read the system's explanation,

'Then that means whoever did this ritual is also a Prince just like me, but the Lunar Eclipse acknowledge me more than him so I got 80% of the energy produced from the ritual', Rex thought, he already had a guess based on the system's explanation.

But then his eyes landed on the first few notifications, 'I got 56% since I share it to Adhara and Kyran, both of them should get 12% each'

Although Rex didn't know how this happened, he's grateful for whoever it is that does this.

Even so, Rex now got new information from this ritual that there's a Werewolf Prince just like him in the Supernatural territory, it worries him for a bit but Rex is pretty relieved knowing that he just hijacked that Prince's ritual and took more than half of the energy produced.

After reading through the notifications, Rex then asks, 'System, Can you compare me with other general Awakened?'

<With the data gathered, Yes>

'If my stats are put into Awakened rankings, Where will I be?', Rex asks curiously.

<Putting the user's default stats into the Awakened rankings will put the user in the upper echelons of the mid-Sixth rank realm, during the night will put the user in the upper echelon of the peak sixth rank realm>

<This doesn't include external enhancements like Force and skills>

Rex's smile started to grow wider as he read this, 'If it's the full moon?'

<Upper Echelons of the Early Seventh Rank>

The last notification makes Rex's expression turns brutal, 'The seventh rank huh?', Rex thought as he remembers the face of the Vampires that attack him after leaving Carabidis Temple.

Ana Delarosa...

'Enjoy your peaceful days bastard, It will end very soon', Rex thought with a brutal smile.

"Raarghh!"

Rex snapped out of his thoughts when he sensed someone approaching him from the back, he turns to look at his back and saw Dray is dashing towards him with a sword in his hand.

Feeling irritated by what Evelyn said, Dray went to attack Rex again.

"If you're going to teach me something then, Show me what you got!", he shouted.

The wind sword in his hands is emitting fierce mana as he dashes towards Rex, this makes Rex frown but when he looks to the side he saw a couple of people watching him.

One of the people watching him is Daniel Burton, it seems the meeting is over.

A smile appeared on Rex's face as Dray chanted, "Disposition of Wind Technique, Final Form!"

BOOM!

The ground cracked as the wind surrounding Dray swirls even faster than before, it creates a tornado as it engulfs Dray's body completely.

Rex can even feel the amount of mana behind this attack,

Even the energy that comes from Dray is at least three times sharper than before, it seems this is the signature technique identical to the Burton Family.

Daniel who is watching them even smiles from the side,

"Dray manage to learn that even when he's still a sixth rank? I'm quite impressed Sir Daniel", a woman said from the side commenting on Dray's technique.

Hearing the praise, Daniel chuckles lightly, "The brat insisted to learn the technique"

"Although the full extent of the technique can only be released by an eighth rank or higher, this is quite good for his realm", he added before his eyes landed on Rex.

The woman also looks at Rex as she mutters, "So, What's Rex going to do"

SWOOSH!!

Rex stands fiercely above the chaotic wind that sprouted surrounding him, Dray's spirit is amplifying his attack as the wind blows around the arena like a tornado.

'It's a powerful technique but...', Rex smiles as he takes out his own weapon.

He takes out the Ameurus Devourer of Souls Katana from thin air surprising the audience as well as Dray, but what is even more surprising is not that Rex takes it out from the air but the katana itself.

NGING!!

The Ameurus Katana glows with a red hue as Rex held it with both hands in front of him.

Looking at the sword Rex is holding, Dray gritted his teeth as he can feel the sword is no ordinary sword before he musters his leg strength and jumps up right after arriving near Rex.

The chaotic wind got swayed following Dray's sword as if it's a magnet to the wind.

With fierce determination and muscles bulging all over his body, Dray shouted as he slashes downwards with all his might making the entire arena shake, "Abstruse Wind of Agony!"

SWOOSH!

Rex imbued his immense black lightning mana to his katana,

The Amuerus Katana started to shake vigorously as the runes on it started to glow,

"He's not going to use any spells or technique? Is he planning to take Dray's attack head-on?!", Evelyn mutters from the side as she too watches from the side.

Even the woman and Daniel is also intrigued upon seeing this,

A smile appeared on Rex's face as he raises his katana to block Dray's attack.

BOOM!!

SWOOSH!

An even more powerful shockwave was created much more powerful than when Valery and Dray's attacks collided, Dray put all of his strength into this one attack.

The shockwave burst to the surroundings but Daniel blocked it with his elements.

None of the bursts of energy from the shockwave manages to reach outside of the arena, Daniel also knows of the technique Dray used so every movement of the wind got blocked by him perfectly.

When the dust recede everyone can see Dray's shocked state as he saw his attack get blocked by Rex.

But the surprise didn't last long as Dray smiled wryly, he already know that Rex is more powerful than him. He just wanted to try one last time because of his irritation from before,

BAM!

Rex sent a powerful kick on Dray's stomach blasting him away,

He kept rolling through the entirety of the arena before his body slammed to the fence surrounding the arena.

After kicking Dray away, Rex bowed a little to Dray before he walks towards Daniel.

Seeing his son get defeated one-sidedly Daniel can only shake his head, he was not as surprised as he should be which Rex finds surprising.

"I didn't realize that you're watching Sir Daniel", Rex said with a smile.

Hearing this, Daniel chuckles subtly before he replied with a sigh, "No need to be so formal, I thank you for accepting my humble request though the outcome is as expected"

While he's saying this, Daniel sent a glare to Dray which makes him jolt upon seeing this.

"You're praising me too much, I'm just lucky", Rex replied politely.

"Lucky huh...", Daniel mutters before he looks around trying to search for someone, "Where's Adhara? I thought that she was with you"

"She fell ill so I send her back", Rex lied with a sad expression.

Daniel was surprised to hear this before he said, "That's a pity, if her condition worsened you can call me. I have a friend that can help"

Rex smiles thankfully before his eyes land on a woman beside Daniel,

Although the woman is standing beside Daniel, Rex knows that this woman is not his wife since Rex recognizes this woman to be the Awakened he met in Beah city alongside Denzel.

The woman has blue hair with crystal clear blue eyes,

From just a glance Rex can tell who the woman is, how can he forget this woman who is a powerful Awakened and since she's working along with Denzel Rogers before.

It's clear that she's also a pillar of humanity, a ninth rank Awakened.

"Remember me?", the woman said with her soothing voice.

Hearing this, Rex widens his eyes as he slightly bows in respect for the woman, "I remember meeting you in Beah City, It's nice meeting you again"

Daniel was surprised to see this, "Giana, you've met Rex before?"

"Yes, We met when Rex is helping the people of Beah City that is being sieged by the blue demons", Giana replied making Daniel quite surprised.

Daniel looks at Rex with an unreadable look as Giana added,

"You remember me, that's good. But why didn't you come to the Sky Temple?", she asks.

Rex was caught off guard by the sudden question, he remembers Giana saying something about visiting the Sky Temple but he forgot thanks to the problem with Atkins.

With a wry smile, Rex then said, "I'm sorry, I've been busy and had not the time to visit"

"I was going to give you a spirit, an Awakened of your caliber shouldn't be assimilating with just any regular spirit but it seems I was too late", Giana said after noticing that Rex has already reached the sixth rank.

Dray who is walking past them from the side heard this as he widens his eyes,

He glances at the woman before he mutters, "Regular spirit? His spirit can even suppress my spirit easily as if I'm nothing"

"It's okay, I assimilated with a decent spirit", Rex said modestly.

But upon hearing this, Giana squint her eyes as she said, "Show me your spirit, I want to assess it myself if it's as decent as you said"

Hearing this, Rex smiles wryly, 'It seems she already prepared a spirit for me'

Giana's looks have a flavor of unwillingness in them, it seems she takes quite a bit of time to prepare a spirit for Rex to only find Rex has already assimilated with another spirit.

"Quickly, show me your spirit", Giana added hurriedly.

Without having any other choice, Rex then finally said, "If you say so"

Rex steps onto the middle of the arena making Giana confused, "Why did he need to go all the way there, I'm just asking to see his spirit"

"Maybe his spirit is really decent", Daniel replied nonchalantly.

But Giana quickly shakes her head, "Spirit is not that easily accessible, I doubt that"

After stepping into the middle of the arena, Rex closes his eyes focusing on his body before he summons Devo out of his body as mists started to suddenly appear.

When Giana was about to comment, a powerful surge of spirit energy suddenly exploded.

BOOM!

"What the..."
