Chapter 41 Revelation

ROAARR!

<The Enemy is Activating its Skill>

<Analyzing the Enemy's Skill...>

Daak roared in anger after getting mocked by Rex, wood element started to suck into its body, Its body is getting bulkier as it gains muscles all around its body, the slim tentacles that are not thicker than Rex's waist become bulky,

WHOOSH!!

A wave of wood elements filled the entire area, it then get sucked into Daak's body strengthening it.

Even Rex who is not an Awakened can feel the density of the wood elements emitted by Daak,

Daak then points its tentacles towards Rex, "Hum..an, will die!"

Rex looks at Daak's stats and was surprised by the increase,

<Daak>

Race: Tree Giant - Adult

Power: Early Rank Four - Puppeteer

Mental: 40

Strength: 75

Agility: 29

Endurance: 90

Intelligence: 68

Rex noticed a substantial increase in strength as it almost doubled in number entering 70s, but its endurance decreased by quite a bit.

Rex can see the wood elements prickling on Daak's skin, the skill seems to be quite a toll for Daak.

Daak curls its tentacles and swung them towards Rex, the power behind Daak's tentacle seems to be able to crush everything that gets hit by it.

Adhara who is fighting the two puppets turns her body away in fright, she can't bear to watch Rex got hit by it.

BOOM!!

The ground was utterly destroyed by the tentacles, rocks, and debris flew to the surrounding like a bullet as dust exploded covering the whole area.

Adhara glances back at the fight and started to worry, 'No way, Rex can't be beaten that easily right?'

Daak cracked a grin in delight, It is happy to land a solid hit to Rex but suddenly,
"That's a great skill", the dust started to fade away exposing Rex who was planted on the ground by Daak.

Blood is dripping from his mouth but the smile on his face was still evident as if Daak's attack is ineffective.

Adhara was delighted hearing the familiar voice,

While Daak widened its eyes in surprise, its already hideous face becomes more hideous in anger, Rex stands up there with his evil grin, especially after getting a notification from the system.

<Skill Analysis Complete>

<Checking the requirements for using the skill...>

<The user doesn't meet the requirement...>

<Altering the Skill...>

<Completed>

<Skill Learned: Brace of Moonlight>

After learning a new skill, Rex immediately uses it,

WHOOSH!!

The moonlight got sucked into Rex's body and nourishing it, Rex's body slowly becomes bigger and bigger as he gains more muscle on his body.

His force aura also got more condensed, the raindrop can't even approach one meter from Rex's body because of the force aura.

His eyes flash with a frenzy, his aura started to take shape of a dark red Werewolf on his back.

The aura gives out an immense killing intent that makes Rosie and Adhara struggles to breathe, Daak who is in the middle of the killing intent steps back unconsciously.

"You... You are not hu...man!!", Daak shouted after realizing Rex's power.

Rosie who is hazily watching from the side breath a long breath, "Wind Favor", she musters all of her remaining mana and chanted.

Wind Element started to gather at Rex's feet creating some kind of wings on his feet, Rex was surprised and looked at Rosie who just depleted her mana,

<The user's agility has been increased by 10>

Reading this, Rex smiles evilly, "Alpha Intimidation", he whispers as his eyes glow red.

<The target's stats have been decreased by 30%>

WHOOSH!

Rex suddenly disappeared from his spot,

Daak panicked, it looks left and right trying to find Rex but to no avail, fear started to crawl into Daak as it felt an immense danger lurking nearby.

Then suddenly, Rex reappear behind Daak and punch Daak's back,

BAAM!

Daak was sent flying to the front after getting punched on the back, its internal organs shook because of the punch, Daak spat out a green liquid because of the punch.

Before Daak can even stop flying away, Rex appear in front of Daak and punch Daak again,

BOOM!!

This sequel repeated again,

BOOM!!

and again,

BOOM!!

CRASH!!

Daak crashed to the nearby house destroying it completely and hitting the ground before Daak finally stopped,

If normal people were to see the place, they will run in fright unable to imagine the battle that took place here.

This happened just right in front of Rosie and Adhara who sucked in a cold breath, Rosie's eyes were blazing with admiration while Adhara smiles wryly watching Rex fight to his heart's content.

'He's so strong! He's way stronger compared to that night, I think it's time to bring him to my parents', Rosie thought while marveling at Rex's power.

Rex walks slowly to Daak,

His eyes were blazing with ferocity, his right hand bulged with muscle and emits a white hue.

Rex arrives in front of Daak who pathetically lies on the ground and raises his hand intending to finishes Daak off,

Daak's body is already torn open and green liquid covered its body from head to toe, the majority of the tentacles are already smashed and cut off.

From the looks of it, Daak is holding onto its last breath.

Just as Rex wanted to finish Daak off, suddenly a dark tentacle burst out off the ground aiming at Rex's chest.

Daak grins, Rex was caught off guard!

He gritted his teeth after seeing the smug look of Daak, he tries to dodge to the left but it is too late.

SPLURT!!

The dark tentacle pierced through Rex's right chest, blood spurted out of his mouth and chest, "Huakhkk!"

"REX!!", Adhara and Rosie screamed hysterically in a union.

Adhara's eyes turn blazing red, the ground beneath her explode sending her flying in Rex's direction.

The fire elements surge around her as she shouted desperately, "BURNING SCIMITARS!!"

A dozen fire scimitars appeared above her and sent slashing down to Daak, Daak smiles with satisfaction after piercing Rex.

STAB!!

The scimitars stab Daak's body, it then closes its eyes dead after getting burned from the inside.

Adhara runs towards Rex, she held Rex's head and put it on her lap.

"Rex! Talk to me!", she said with tears flowing down her cheeks.

Rosie also tries to look at Rex but her body is too beaten up and can only crawl weakly, her eyes also filled with tears.

Cough

"I got careless huh, It's okay I won't die", Rex said while cursing that Tree Giant in his head, when suddenly a notification appear making him sigh helplessly.

<The user is infected with a Tree Giant's poison, it will be very hard to move in the user current condition>

Adhara looks at Rex's pierced chest, it is a bloody gaping hole that looks horrifying.

"SOMEBODY!! HELP!!", Adhara screamed feeling desperate about the situation.

Rex and Rosie need immediate medical help because of their condition, while Laura is unconscious because of unknown reason and need to also got treated.

As Adhara was trying to find help, Rex was deep in thought because of the uneasiness he felt.

"Turns out the city is controlled by that Tree Giant so the humans that we meet turns out to be a corpse controlled by it, that explains their weird behavior and pale skin, but it still doesn't add up because Tree Giant doesn't eat human's kidney', he thought.

Rex was lying helplessly when suddenly he saw the little boy that he saw earlier pointing to the Tree Giant's carcass as if it's telling him to see it, the boy looks horrified of something,

Rex looks at the Tree Giant's carcass and saw a purple crystal on it, he struggles to position his body and inspects the crystal when suddenly his eyes widened in realization,

"ADHARA!! RUN!!", Rex screamed and shove Adhara away.

Adhara stumbles away, she gives Rex a confused expression, "That Tree Giant is also controlled by something!!"

Hearing this, Adhara's face went blank when suddenly a bone-chilling aura emerges out of the river,

ROAR!!

Rosie, Adhara, and Rex snapped their necks to the source of this bone-chilling aura,

A creature emerges from the bottom of the river, it is a huge black spider with a yellow striped back.

The spider is easily as big as a two-story building, it has eight legs with a sharp claw on its two front legs, its mouth looks hideous and filled with razor-sharp fangs, the aura it emitted is in the same level as the pawn vampire he meets before and it is suffocating.

"ANANSI?!!", Adhara shouted with her trembling voice.

Rex and the girls look at it with a helpless look, they are on the brink of giving in to the situation.

The huge spider turns its head slowly in Rex's direction, the couple of seconds of turning its head feels like an eternity.

The huge spider's eight horrifying eyes landed on Rex and the girls, it then raises its head smugly after sensing the helplessness of Rex and the girls.

'No wonder something doesn't add up, Tree Giant didn't eat kidneys. It turns out that Anansi is the Supernatural behind all of this, this whole city is a trap made by it. Its nickname as the Trickster Spider is not just for show', He thought while ridiculing himself.

Rex struggles to stand up,

Looking at Rex's still trying until the end, Adhara helps him up. Rex stands up on his feet only by depending on his willpower, it should be physically impossible for him to move.

Rosie also didn't want to be a burden as she also struggles to stand up preparing for their last stand.

'I will not let it end like this!', Rex thought with determination burning in his eyes.

Chapter 42 Rescued

'If we can't win, we need to run', Rex searches his inventory trying to find the stuff he needs.

He tossed Adhara and Rosie a mana and healing potion each, "Drink it hurry, we need to get out of here"

Rex turns his head in the Anansi direction, what he saw makes him gritted his teeth in frustration,

<Qisar>

Race: Anansi/Trickster Spider - Teen

Power: Mid Rank Five - Hypnosis

Mental: 210

Strength: 93

Agility: 112

Endurance: 90

Intelligence: 165

Looking at this, Rex screamed in his head, 'We can't beat this, It's on a whole new level!'

"Let's Run!! We can't beat it", Rex shouted at Rosie and Adhara but he didn't get any response.

He looks at both of them and saw them staring blankly at the spider, they then started walking towards the spider as if they are possessed.

Rex glances at the spider and saw its eyes glow yellow, it seems to be toying with Rex.

He turned his head trying to avoid his gaze especially after seeing Adhara and Rosie,

Rex ransacked his brain trying to find a way out, he saw a smoke bomb on his inventory and a rank 4 anti-magic stone.

The smoke bomb is self-explanatory, while the anti-magic stone is a stone that can deter rank 4 magic, it acts as a disturbance to the caster and nullifying the magic.

Rex bought this stone for a hefty price, he knows that anything above early rank-four is almost an impossible task for him to beat thus he bought this stone.

But Rex didn't expect to encounter a powerful rank-5 Supernatural,

He takes out the smoke bomb and anti-magic stone,

POOFF!!

BLITZZ!

Smoke exploded from the smoke bomb covering the entire area, an anti-magic soundwave also exploded from the anti-magic stone.

Inside the smoke,

Rex dashes to Adhara and Rosie knocking them out, he carries them both with his right hand and carries Laura on his left shoulder.

Just as he wanted to make a run for it,

Qisar frowns for a second because of the soundwave but it didn't take long for it to shrug it off, it then appears in front of Rex.

Rex falls to the ground in shock, he tries mustering all of his strength and sent out a punch.

Rex uses all of his remaining power and skills into it, this punch is the strongest punch Rex can muster on his own.

BAM!!

The punch land solidly on Qisar's front leg but it didn't leave a dent, there is some kind of barrier covering its whole body.

Rex smiles wryly, 'It's too strong, Is this the end?'

Just as Rex wanted to give up, "HEY BIG UGLY SPIDER!! STOP BULLYING KIDS!!", a shout was heard from the entrance of Vouver City.

Rex glance to his right and saw a group of guys in white cape appear, they wear an FAA badge on their chest,

The shout is imbued with magic, Qisar glance at the source of the voice with bloodshot eyes,

'Sound Magic! That's a rank 5 Awakened at least', Rex thought-feeling relieved when the spider changes target and leaped towards the group of guys.

The guy who just shouted musters the mana on his body, a bright light green rune appear majestically on his back.

To reach rank-5, an Awakened need to condense their mana into a rune, this rune is the source for them to use higher tier magic. Upon completing their rune, they can borrow higher-tiered magic like Sound Magic, Lava Magic, or even Ice magic. Rank-6 is where they perfected their rune and master higher-tier magic, they no longer borrow the magic from nature but can directly control it.

He then chanted, "Sound Magic! Sound Assault!"

WONGG!!

The air vibrates, Qisar stops in its track and struggle madly, its right front leg is wobbling like crazy before suddenly,

ROAAR!!

Its front leg exploded, Qisar screamed in agony feeling its right leg destroyed, it then continues on its path in a frenzy.

Qisar eyes glow yellow and immediately, a wave of yellow mental attack blitz from its eyes heading to the FAA group.

The leader of the group waves his hand, a man covered with white hood steps in front, he then moves his hand in a runic pattern and chanted, "Stone Magic, Barrier of Stone!"

The mana flows into his hand like crazy but suddenly,

ROAARR!!

Qisar eyes glow yellow, the mana that fills the man's hand suddenly gone berserk and exploded,

BOOM!!

"AKHH!", The man was sent flying away, the cape on her back is burning as she crashes to the wooden fence,

The leader of the group frowns, "Stay focus, Anansi can't only hypnotize your mind but also your body!", he said with a commanding tone.

He then waves his hand and immediately an ice barrier covers them from the mental attack,

NGIING!!

The group leader then opens the barrier and said casually, "Nathan, stop its movement!"

A muscular man on his right nodded his head and chanted, "Sand Magic, Quicksand", he then slams his hands on the ground.

ROARR!

The ground beneath Qisar suddenly becomes sand, it tries to get out of it but the radius of the quicksand is expanding at a visible rate.

"Lindo! Restrain it!", the leader said to another man on his left, the man is small in size and he wields a metal staff that has a red orb on top of it.

The man raises his staff, "Lava Magic! Lava Chain!"

Immediately after, a chain made of lava exploded from the ground as it strangles Qisar's legs and body, it is completely trapped inside the quicksand.

The leader then walks forward confidently, he looks at Qisar disdainfully as ice element started to gather on his hand.

"Die you filthy creature", he said with clear disgust on his face and chanted, "Great Ice Magic, Ice Judgement!"

SHRING!!

An ice spike thick as a house pierced through Qisar, it wails pitifully with bloodshot eyes before its struggle stops.

But suddenly,

SHRING!!

Another ice spike pierced through Qisar's head, making sure that Qisar is definitely dead, the leader didn't take any chances to let it live.

"Check the surrounding", the leader said before his gaze falls to Rex and the girls.

The FAA group scatters to the surrounding, they check every nook and corner of the place.

The group leader arrives in front of Rex, "You must be the kid who takes on this mission, my name is Argus and on behalf of the FAA, we give our apology for the mistake on our part", he bows a little to show his sincerity.

Rex was confused, "First of all, I offer my gratitude for saving us. What mistake?", he asks.

Argus straighten his back and replied, "Yes, the assessment should be a rank five Awakened in the least but we fail to know the existence of an Anansi and thus the wrong assessment"

"You think an apology is enough for this?", Rex said sharply, although Argus saved them, they shouldn't even be here if the mission is this hard.

Argus frown, "Don't go overboard kid", he said while giving Rex a warning look.

Rex was at a loss for words, "Did you just threatened me? You need more than an apology for this", he said unwilling to back down from the argument.

Argus and Rex were staring at each other, the stare is so intense that the guys that already came back went silent not wanting to intervene.

The gaze stayed for like thirty seconds before Argus breaks it off,

"Fine, I know you are Rex Silverstar. I'll give you guys appropriate medical needs and consult with your university to give you suitable points and rewards. But the next time, don't talk back to me kid, for this one I will let you off, your deeds saved my uncle in the war so consider this as thanks", he said pridefully.

Rex was unwilling to let go but he felt if he pursue this further, it will not be good for him so he nodded his head.

Although he nodded his head, he will remember this arrogant guy and repay the favor.

The other guys reported their findings, Argus then saw a Tree Giant carcass in the middle of the city, he was surprised as he glances at Rex.

'Did he do this? There's a rumor about him in the university, so it is true', Argus thought.

The girls are carried by Argus' group, they then brought back to Argus' group car and head out of the city after confirming the whole city is a corpse city that is made as a trap by the Anansi.

On the way back, Rex looks at his recent notifications from the system.

<Killed an Early Rank Four Tree Giant, Obtained 15,000 Exp, and 2000 gold>

<Participate in killing a Middle-Rank Five Anansi, Obtained 30,000 Exp, and 5000 gold>

<DING!!>

<Sudden Quest Completed!>

<Killing Intent!"

<Obtained 50,000 Exp, 10,000 Gold, and 5 Skill Upgrade>

<Level Up!>

<Level Up!>

<Level Up!>

Reading these rows of notifications, Rex was excited.

Although the mission almost got him and the girls killed, it brings many benefits, the saying of 'high risk, high return' really does applies to him right now.

'Looking back, the Killing Intent mission has so many rewards. It makes sense when in reality I have to kill that Anansi which was impossible for me', Rex thought while shaking his head.

He just leveled up to level 15, he put his 9 attributable stats to even out his stats other than strength, 'My strength stats are increased by a huge amount, I don't need to put any to it'

Because of his Absolute Strength passive skill, he got 4 points in strength every time he leveled up, so raising his level by three added an enormous 12 stats on it.

His stats now looked like this,

<Stats>

Name: Rex Silverstar

Pack: Silverstar (1/2)

Level: 15 (8,900/80,000)

Race: Werewolf

Full-Moon: 8 Days - Dark Moon

Berserk: 80%

Sanity: 50%

Mental: 41 (+2)

Strength: 50 (+15)

Agility: 30 (+6)

Endurance: 30 (+14)

Intelligence: 0

Attributable Stats: 0

<Average Human Adults have 5-7 points for each stats except for Intelligence>

He nodded his head in satisfaction after arranging his stats,

Rex is inside an SUV, the SUV is spacious even for twenty people, the girls are lying on the SUV floor covered with a sleeping bag.

They all are hypnotized by the Anansi and fall unconscious, medical treatment is needed but it's not incurable.

Rex makes sure that they are heading back to the university before he too falls asleep because of the fatigue and poison that is still lingering in his body.

Chapter 43 Future Hope

Two days have passed, Rex and the girls have gotten better except for Laura,

The doctor said that Laura has been poisoned by some kind of fruit, she will need to rest for a few more days before she can get back to normal activities.

Rex remembered that during the night at Vouver City, Him, Adhara, and Laura drink the juice from the street stall while Rosie luckily didn't. Turns out it is poisoned, Adhara and Rex are not poisoned because the poison is not strong enough for their Werewolf bodies.

The Anansi makes a trap from Lamia to the Tree Giant, it makes this trap to test the level of the enemy, which is a terrifying intelligence for a Supernatural if Rex thinks back.

After the mission, Argus holds his part true.

The university gives him appropriate medical needs, university points, and rewards.

Rex's name becomes even popular than before because of this, the university didn't keep the information a secret and broadcast Rex and the girl's feat, beating a rank four Tree Giant.

Rex didn't like the popularity but he can't control it, some upperclassmen started to know his name by now.

Mr. Joseph gives them 5000 University Points and High Elemental Stones for the girls and armor for Rex, Rex's previous armor already got tattered and destroyed because of the battle against the Tree Giant.

The new armor has a similar design to the previous one but the new armor has dark yellow shining tiger eyes on its shoulder pads. It is also imbued with a rank 4 earth element rather than a rank three protection rune.

<Sleeveless Tiger Pride>

<A sleeveless armor made of high-quality materials, this armor is made for a person using a short-handed weapon, the armor will not hinder the user's mobility and has high resistance against bladed strikes. It is imbued with earth elements that increase its durability and resistance to fire-based attack and an anti-magic rune

Increase the user's endurance and agility by 30 and 10, 5% resistance to magic attacks and 10% to fire-based attack>

Rex was happy getting the armor, mission from the university really does bring benefit.

If other students were to hear what Rex gets from a mission, they will turn green in envy because the rewards Rex gets are the same level as a person doing twenty missions.

The system's sudden quest also reward him greatly, he got 10,000 gold that is equivalent to a million dollar! and also 5 Skill Upgrade!

Rex was on the way to the class, he is looking down in thought.

'Hmm, what skill to get?', just as Rex was thinking, he remembers he got a skill from that Tree Giant.

'The system analyzed a skill randomly, I still can't get the pattern of it', Rex thought before he opens the skill tab.

There he found Brace of Moonlight skill, he then taps on it with his mind.

<Brace of Moonlight - Upgradeable>

<A mid-rank skill that the user got from a Tree Giant, this skill can only be used during the night under the moonlight. The user will absorb the moonlight and will temporary increases all of your stats by 20% but decrease your endurance by 20%, the skill time limit is 10 minutes and you will be in a weakened state after using the skill>

Reading this Rex nodded his head in confirmation, he then taps the Upgrade button to check how many skill upgrade to use and surprisingly it is exactly five skill upgrade.

'Is this a coincidence? Or is this system just want to take all of my points?', Rex thought, he then thinks about the pros and cons of the skill.

'I have an attack skill, mental attack skill, and Brace of Moonlight is an enhancement skill, I don't have a defense skill but I can make up with my Werewolf body', After thinking for a while, Rex decided to ask the system about the upgrade of Brace of Moonlight.

<Upgrading Brace of Moonlight will give the user two choices, enhance the skill temporary increase in stats or reduce the decrease in your endurance and reduce weakened state duration>

Reading this, Rex was tempted, 'If I can reduce the decrease in endurance and weakened state duration, it will make this skill a full-on buff with no side effect'

He then decided to upgrade his Brace of Moonlight, the system shows him the available upgrade,

<Pure Brace of Moonlight>

<A mid-rank skill that can only be used during the night under the moonlight, Increase your stats by 25% but decrease your endurance by 10%>

<Brace of Blood Moon>

<A mid-rank skill that can only be used during the night under the moonlight, Increase your stats by 50% but decrease your endurance by 30%>

Reading this, Rex immediately chooses the Pure Brace of Moonlight.

"Ouch!", He felt his brain tingles as a painful snap happened on his brain after upgrading the skill, but the feeling quickly disappears.

After upgrading his skill, Rex wanted to buy a better breathing technique but suddenly Rosie appears out of nowhere and hugs him from the back.

Rex was shocked but he quickly calms down, without even asking who it is he already knows it is Rosie.

Besides only Rosie who got the guts to do this, Rosie's ample body can't be mistaken with another girl.

"Rex!", She said happily.

Rex smiles cheekily after feeling other male student's envy gaze and replies, "What is it? Why are you so happy this early in the morning"

She then jumped in front of Rex and said happily, "Look at this!"

Rex raises his brows when suddenly wind mana started to gather in her hand, the mana is denser than before, "Basic Magic, Wind Blade!"

A sword made of wind materialize on her hand, the sword is excluding sharpness as the wind moves around it.

Rex was surprised, "You just got into Rank Three? well done!", he said trying hard to hide his envy.

'I want to use elements too', he thought, he id determined to buy an Elemental Affinity in the system's shop.

After Rosie shows off, Rosie suddenly comes closer to Rex and whispers, "Meet me after class okay? Don't bring anyone else", she then winks cutely at Rex.

Rex was confused but the winks make his body jolted a bit as he nodded his head.

He then separated with Rosie, Rex is curious about what Rosie wanted to do especially added with a wink that makes his thoughts wonder about something...

Rex shakes his head in denial, 'That can't be true'

Arriving at the class, Adhara already sits in her usual place just beside him.

The classroom went silent when Rex enters the class,

The students in his class already heard about Rex's feat and they started to grow more fearful of him, but instead of fear, some students become interested in him.

Just as Rex sits in his seat, Mr. Joseph got in and begin the class.

Today he is telling the students about the current situation of humanity to ignite some fighting spirit.

"As you all know, Zrolis City is still under the siege of a pack of Werewolves lead by Brutal Grey. the guilds under UWO and the FAA are working together to get the city back, they are still in the middle of preparing", Mr. Joseph said while he shows the news about the event in front of the class.

Mr. Joseph then looks at the students and asks, "Can someone tell me, how can Brutal Grey enter our territory and manage to siege Zrolis City which is a level three-city"

The students fell in thought, then Adhara raises her hand and said, "Our carelessness brought the Werewolves into our territory"

"Not quite right, anyone else?", Mr. Joseph said before glancing at the other students.

Then, Aldo, the class president answers, "The Werewolves are an expert at night, so it is hard to follow their movement"

Mr. Joseph chuckles and replied, "If that's the case, there will be no captured Werewolf but there is many captured Werewolf in humanity's side"

The class then went silent, then suddenly Rex raises his hand and said, "There is not enough manpower, or should I say, Awakenedpower"

Hearing this, Mr. Joseph smiles, "Yes, that is the right answer. Awakened is not that many compared to normal humans, if there is enough Awakened then why not just send a rank-7 Awakened to take back Zrolis City? Why can Brutal Grey never got captured?"

Feeling the students started to catch up, Mr. Joseph then continues, "That's right, there is no available Awakened to do that. The Supernatural knows this, that's why they are brave enough to enter our territory and siege Zrolis City. The high-rank Awakened are all on the border, fighting against the real horde of Supernatural, that's why..."

Mr. Joseph pause slightly, he stares at each of the students with determination and said, "You new Awakened are our future hope, the faster you get stronger, the fewer siege like in Zrolis City will occur, and the sooner we will win the war"

Hearing this, the students felt the burden on their backs.

Many of their eyes shone with determination, feeling the power to make difference makes this young Awakened blood boil.

Mr. Joseph nodded his head in delight before he continues the class.

RING!!

After hours of lesson, the class ended.

Just as Rex wanted to go out to meet Rosie, Aldo approaches him and stop in front of him, Rex looks at Aldo with a questioning look, "You guys just finished your mission, I'm here to inform you that tomorrow is the first-year internal tournament to get a spot in going to Faraday University to spar", Aldo said while giving them a list.

"Oh, okay I'll keep that in mind. Thanks for the information", Rex said taking the list and standing up.

Aldo nodded his head and left Rex.

Rex left the class, Adhara wanted to follow him but he denied saying that he has something to do, Adhara pouted and finally left to train.

Rex message Rosie,

"Where are you?"

"Wait, I'm almost finished. Just wait for me near the University entrance"

"Okay, don't be long"

"I won't"

After chatting with Rosie, Rex puts his phone in his pocket before he walks towards the university's entrance.

The entrance is crowded with people, Rex rarely saw upperclassmen because it is divided into their own section for different year students but the entrance is a mix of each year's students.

Rex played with his phone on the corner, he missed going outside of the university, "I hope Rosie will ask me to go out of the university", Rex thought.

Rex raises his head feeling his neck sore when suddenly he saw Rosie waving her hand from afar, He then walks towards Rosie,

Rosie changes clothes, before class she wears a casual outfit but now she suddenly transforms into a beautiful goddess wearing a red slim-fit dress highlighting the curves of her body.

But Rex's eyes fall to her lips, her lips are red wearing lipstick that looks mesmerizing.

Rex was stunned for a while before he snapped back from his daze, "Why are you wearing formal clothes?", he asks feeling confused.

But Rosie's next word makes Rex's heart skipped a beat, "We're going to meet my parents!"

"WHAT?!"

Chapter 44 A Deal With Acosta Family

Rex was stunned, he's from the military so this kind of thing still makes him nervous, and for the record, he never had a girlfriend his whole life.

His heart is thumping for unknown reasons, "Why so sudden? Do I look like I want to go out?", Rex said.

Rosie looks at Rex up and down, a pair of slippers, a black t-shirt, and shorts. Rex's appearance is too casual for dinner with her parents.

Rosie thought for a bit before she said, "It's in a mall, so we can buy clothes first", she then drags Rex outside.

Just as they got outside of University, "Wait, do you even have permission to go out?", Rex asks after remembering that students need the classroom lecturer's permission to go out of the university.

Rosie becomes annoyed by Rex asking too many questions, "Just shut up and follow me"

Hearing this, Rex sighed and decided to let Rosie drag him.

They both get in Rex's car and get out of the university,

The security which is an Awakened asks for their permission before the security let them out,

It is already afternoon when they got out of the university, the sun is golden while the sky is deep orange in color.

Rex felt he can finally breathe again after getting out of the university, in the university is too tense for Rex the vibe in it is not comfortable for Rex.

Compared to the outside where there are many normal wholesome people, Rex preferred the outside rather than the university.

Rex drives the car slowly, he didn't even turn on the air conditioner and open the windows to breathe the fresh air.

Rosie on the side was speechless, "Why do you look like someone that just got out of prison?"

The veins on Rex's forehead bulge feeling annoyed, "Can you let me be? I just got out of the military if you somehow forget", Rex said annoyedly.

Rosie chuckles and keeps teasing Rex, the drive is full of Rex's curses and Rosie's laughter.

They arrive at the mall where they first met, Rosie and Rex look at each other feeling nostalgic as they walk past the entrance.

The entrance is where Rex transforms for the first time,

While they are walking, Rex remembered that Lucas Platchi is dead, "Wait, if Lucas Platchi is dead, doesn't that mean you're free?", Rex asks.

"Are you dumb? Of course, my parents have multiple candidates", she replied irritatedly.

Rex scratches his head feeling dumb, 'What am I thinking, just look at her. With that kind of beauty, there will be no shortage of men lining up for her'

Rosie looks at the time and nodded her head, they still got time to buy Rex clothes.

They both arrive at a suit store, it is called Bugo Hoss,

The saleswoman approaches them with all smiles, "Welcome dear customer, what can I help you with?"

"I want to find a suit for my boyfriend here, can you recommend some?", Rosie said, she called Rex her boyfriend casually as if they really are one.

Rex was stunned on the side, Rosie noticed Rex stunned expression and whispered, "Stop doing that, if you're not casual about us we will be in trouble when we meet my parents"

Rex nodded his head and follow the saleswoman,

The saleswoman brought him to the measuring room, she then measures Rex's figure and said, "As a boyfriend, you must look good especially when you have that kind of beauty outside"

Rex can only smile wryly while hearing the saleswoman nag,

The saleswoman takes the measuring tape and measures Rex's shoulder, "You're frame is big, I recommend you black or maroon slim-fit modern style suit and matching pants. It'll be perfect for the both of you", she claps her hand and said with stars on her eyes.

She then goes outside to bring the suit,

'Why does she look so excited? Is this marketing strategy?', Rex thought before he chooses the option brought by the saleswoman.

Rex tries on the maroon suit, he also asks for shoes, he can't wear a suit while wearing slippers.

Rosie is sitting on the sofa waiting for Rex when suddenly the measuring room opened,

Rex got out of the room wearing the black suit, his muscular frame fits perfectly on the suit highlighting his masculine aura more than ever.

Rosie's mouth went wide for a second before she reverts back to being unperturbed, 'Does he always look this good? A suit really does bring the man out of any guys', she thought.

Something inside Rosie's heart moved as she looks at Rex,

"So? What do you think?", Rex asks when he gets no words from Rosie.

Rosie shakes her head and replies, "That'll do, you look decent. Let's go", she said trying to hide her flustered face.

Rex nodded his head and paid for the suit, his wallet is bleeding after paying the suit.

After getting Rex's clothes, he looks fresher than before.

If before his looks emits a bad-boy aura, now he brings a gentleman aura that attracts women.

While walking to the restaurant, many girls can't help but look in Rex's direction, some even went to Rex and asks his phone number directly before get cursed by Rosie.

The girls give Rosie a disgusted look and whisper to themselves, Rosie swears that she hears the word 'whore' in their conversation.

Rosie wanted to confront them but was stopped by Rex, "Don't, you will ruin your appearance if you make a fuss", Rex said trying to persuade Rosie to stop.

Rosie got annoyed by the girls that ask for Rex's phone number, she's fuming with anger but decided to ignore them, "They dare to ask for your phone number in front of me?! Did they think I am just going to stand here like a display?!", she said angrily.

Rex grabs Rosie's waist, he knows this is the only way Rosie will shut up.

Feeling her waist got grabbed by Rex, Rosie really did shut up with a blushed face.

Not long, they both arrive at the restaurant where Rosie's parents are already waiting.

They both fixed their clothes before entering,

The restaurant looks like a high-end restaurant based on the people who dine in here, it is a steak-oriented restaurant covered in a red carpet, and the place is golden with pillars on the sides.

Rosie looks around and found her parents near the window, the window showcased the street view from the fourth floor.

The both of them walk toward Rosie's parents,

Rosie's parent still didn't notice their arrival and still chat with each other,

The steps seem to become heavier the closer they got to Rosie's parents, Rex also starting to sweat because of the invisible pressure.

Unlike his relaxed state the first time he meets Rosie's parents, Rex felt nervous because now he will meet Rosie's parents as her boyfriend,

Nearing the table, Rosie's parents notice their arrival and glance at them.

Rex started to sweat even more, 'Why the hell am I this nervous? It's just meeting a couple of old people no big deal', Rex thought trying to calm himself down.

"Rex, don't do anything embarrassing. Remember, you promise me so don't ruin this and let me do the talking", Rosie whispers.

Hearing this, Rex nodded his head repeatedly.

The both of them arrive in front of Rosie's parents, they then sit in front of Rosie's parents.

Muji looks at them with a judging face, compared to his friendly demeanor from before, now he is glaring sharply at Rex.

Rosie hugs Rex's arm as she said, "Dad, Mom, this is Rex. You've met him before, he's from..."

Before she can finish her words, Muji already intervene hastily, "I know, he's the so-called heroes of Dwight City. And more importantly, a non-Awakened", he said while emphasizing the last words.

Muji scoffed, "A rank four Tree Giant? Don't be ridiculous. I won't approve of this relationship, I already got you a candidate"

Muji crossed his arms together and said, "Although Lucas died because of unknown reasons, I know the director of the FAA, he has a son that is already at peak rank-four in his twenty-two age. You're better off with him", the tone Muji used is an unbreakable one.

His tone hint that his words can't be rejected,

Rosie was at a loss for words, she wanted to rebut but the tears in her eyes are filling up.

In Rex's eyes, Rosie is a cheerful and cunning girl that seems unbreakable, she never wanted to show signs of weakness in front of Rex but the girl on his side now is not her usual self.

Rex stood on her side and frowns, Rex knows how much Rosie didn't want this forced marriage, she even wanted him to kill her rather than being married to a guy she doesn't like.

'Fine, I'll lend a hand', Rex thought before he musters his words and looks at Cinta right in her eyes.

Muji and Cinta glance at Rex with cold eyes, "How about we make a bet Mrs. Acosta?", Rex said confidently.

"A bet? what kind of bet can you even come up with?", Muji answered coldly.

Rex didn't even reply to Muji and continued to stare at Cinta, he didn't even glance or give any reaction to Muji's cold words.

"How dare you ignore me?!", Muji wanted to stand up fuming with anger but was stopped by Cinta's hand.

Looking at this, Rex smiles, "What kind of bet?", Cinta replies gracefully.

"There is a friendly tournament with the Faraday University in a week or so, Have you ever heard of Kevin Luc", Rex said with a grin on his face.

Cinta's eyes lit up hearing the name, "Of course, I know him. Kevin Luc, The Blazing Lion of Faraday. What about him?"

Rex positioned his suit and said, "If you know about Kevin Luc then you must know about his terrifying prowess"

Cinta raises her brows, she already guessed where this is heading.

Rex then continues, "What if I can be a match for him? Will you approve my relationship then?"

Cinta was deep in thought, she holds her chin thinking about Rex's words.

Muji on the side didn't want to have it, he then said, "That's impossible, you're not even an Awakened", he said impatiently.

Once again, Rex ignores Muji's remarks and pays close attention to Cinta.

Muji gritted his teeth in anger, but Cinta shakes her head forcing him to calm down so as to not make a scene.

Rex glanced at Rosie's hand below the table briefly, he saw a wind blade that points at her veins ready to strike at any moment.

"Mr. and Mrs. Acosta, look at your daughter", Rex said while pointing at Rosie who is trying so hard to hold on to her tears.

He then glances back at Cinta and said, "The consequences of rejecting my proposal and forcing her to marry the FAA director's son is not something you can pay", Rex said hinting something at Cinta.

Cinta and Rex locked eyes, Cinta then suddenly came to a realization.

After getting Rex's hint, Cinta clears her throat and said, "Rex, can you accompany me to the bar for a quick chat?"

Rex nodded his head and follows after Cinta, leaving Rosie and Muji alone.

But before Rex can follow Cinta, "Rex, what are you doing?", Rosie stops Rex and held onto his hand.

Rex stop and sent a reassuring smile to her making Rosie let go of Rex's hand,

Arriving at the bar,

"So you're saying my daughter will kill herself if I force her into this marriage?", Cinta asks while ordering a drink at the bar.

Rex glanced at her a bit before replying, "Yes, she already contemplating killing herself just now"

Cinta frowns, she massages her forehead in stress after getting reminded by Rex, 'If Rex didn't warn me, then she might just kill herself', she thought

Rex then continues, "Just accept the bet. If I win then let Rosie off this marriage"

Cinta turns her body and faces Rex, "What if you lose? What makes you confident?", she stares at Rex while squinting her eyes trying to read Rex's mind.

The corner of Rex's mouth quirked a bit as he replies, "Do we have a deal then?", Rex said confidently without even answering Cinta's question.

Cinta hesitated for a bit, she bit her lips, "Fine", she replies before leaving Rex behind with a drink in her hand.

Chapter 45 Basilisk Poison

After talking, they both go back to the table.

Rex sits beside Rosie and got questioned instantly by Rosie, "What did you guys talk about?"

"You'll see", Rex replied calmly.

Muji is glaring at Rex the whole time,

Even Rex got confused as to why he's this mad, 'It's not like I will kill your daughter, why are you so mad', Rex thought as he stares back at Muji.

Feeling the intense vibe, Cinta clears her throat and said, "Rosie dear, I accept the bet from Rex. He will fight with Kevin Luc and he has to put up a fight in order to win this bet"

Hearing this, Rosie's mouth went round.

She tugged Rex with her elbow and said, "Kevin Luc is not an easy opponent, don't gamble using me", she said while pouting.

Rex smile wryly, "Don't worry, I'm strong", he said while flexing his right bicep to Rosie.

Rosie rolls her eyes in annoyance, she can't comprehend how Rex still has the time to joke around.

"What?! But dear, Why?!", Muji shouted looking at Cinta helplessly.

Cinta rubs her hand on Muji's shoulder as she whispers something in Muji's ear.

Muji's eyes turned into shock, he glances at Rosie worriedly before meeting Rex's eyes.

His eyes show reluctance but eventually gave up, "Fine, when will this tournament begin?"

"It's most likely a week or so from now, you can come and watch if you want", Rex said while sipping the drink on his side.

"What if you can't give Kevin a fight?", Muji asks, his eyes look at Rex before falling to Rosie.

Rosie held her head low, she doesn't have the courage to look at her parents right now.

Rex raises his hand and patted Rosie's head, "That won't happen", Rex said confidently.

The words that came out of Rex's mouth bring a dependable feeling to Rosie,

She looks at Rex worriedly but Rex's smile seems to assure her that nothing will go wrong, Rosie decided to trust Rex on this one,

Muji and Cinta look at each other as a faint smile appears on their face, 'This kid...',

After clearing the urgent problems,

Rex claps his hand and said, "Okay that's that, now let's eat!"

Rosie shakes her head,

Unknown to Rex, Rosie just found a new goal in her life and that goal is him.

She is filled with motivation to help Rex when he's in need and become the girl he wants. In her eyes, Rex becomes one of the most important people in her life.

The four of them eat and talk leisurely, the intense vibe before vanishes suddenly as if they're just a happy family from the start.

After eating, Rex and Rosie got back to the university.

The night is already late, the city street is devoid of people, only a couple of cars passes by.

Inside the car, Rosie is watching the beautiful night sky while feeling the breeze of the night air.

She smiles as she looks at Rex who is focused on driving, "Thank you...", she mutters lowly.

Rex with his Werewolf sense hears Rosie's words, he unconsciously cracked a smile while driving through the city street.

Zrolis City,

Jarvald the huge werewolf with a red glowing rune on its right shoulder is commanding its pack,

The Zrolis City is already flattened by the Werewolves, the place is in ruin as no building survives their berserk. Jarvald's Werewolf pack consists of roughly 30 Werewolves, for a city with little to no defense, this is an impossible lineup to beat.

In the middle of the city lies a hut made of bones, It is where Jarvald's place.

Zrolis City is full of Supernatural, not only Werewolf but also all kinds of Supernatural like Ogres, Trolls, Liches, Ghouls, and even Grendels.

These lower-ranking Supernaturals have just arrived at Zrolis City, they are numbered in the hundreds and emits a terrifying aura that makes even ants ran away from them.

There is a couple of humans restrained in the middle of the city beside the bone hut, they are all shivering in fear.

Jarvald walks out of the hut, many restrained humans piss themselves just as they look at the menacing Jarvald.

He looks at the horde of Supernatural and said loudly, "Clear out the perimeter, Defend the city walls and send out scouts to inform us if any humans approach"

The Supernatural move obediently under Jarvald's command, the Ogres and ghouls go to the city wall, the Trolls and Liches went to the nearby places to clear out the place, and the Grendels scout the area.

Jarvald nodded his head before he walks towards the restrained humans, he lowers his body and stares at the guy that has no expression on his face.

The guy is wearing armor and he has a black crow tattoo on his neck,

"Where is the Silver Mooncrest?", Jarvald said right in front of the guy's face.

The other humans besides the guy shuddered in fear, just being near Jarvald brings a lot of pressure, especially for a normal person.

The guy throws his face away, he has no trace of desire to answer Jarvald.

Jarvald was angered, it grabs the guy's neck with its gigantic hand and lifts him up.

"Akh!", The guy grunted feeling his neck choked, he struggles to break free but It is no use, Jarvald's claw is poking his neck making it bleed.

Jarvald brings the guy closer to its face, "Let me ask you again, where is the Silver Mooncrest?"

The guy's mouth was closed shut, it didn't even waver in front of Jarvald.

"TELL ME WHERE IT IS!!", Jarvald roar right in front of the guy's face, the roar was so loud that even the guy's ears started to bleed but his expression is still the same.

Jarvald raises the guy and slams him down,

BAM!!

"Huakh!!", The guy spat out a mouthful of blood, he felt all the air on his lungs disappear instantly.

Then suddenly while Jarvald is fuming with anger because of the guy, another grey-furred Werewolf appears behind Jarvald.

The Werewolf looks womanly, it then held Jarvald's shoulder.

Jarvald glances at its back with bloodshot eyes, but after seeing the Werewolf behind, Jarvald immediately calms himself down.

"Vivian? What're you doing here? I told you to lead the pack to mine the Elemental Stone", Jarvald said.

Vivian didn't answer Jarvald as she stares at the guy with the black crow tattoo, "Isn't it the famous Black Hand, you become quite a pest for us these days", she said with vicious eyes.

Hearing this, Jarvald intervene, "Black Hand? So this guy is one of the Black Hand that the normal humans are talking about?"

Vivian nodded her head, "Tell us where it is, if you don't I promise it will hurt", she said with a smile on her face.

The guy was like a mute, he didn't even talk back or even change expression, if he didn't grunt before maybe Jarvald will think he is a mute.

Vivian smiles turned vicious in the blink of an eye,

BAM!!

She kicks the guy on his chest sending him screeching away, from the looks of it, Vivian is not that weaker compared to Jarvald.

She then like a phantom appear in front of the guy,

Vivian squatted down as her claws got longer, without thinking much, she slashes the guy's right arms.

SLASH!

The guy's right arm is sliced off cleanly, he gritted his teeth in pain but no sound came out of his mouth, as if he's trained for this kind of situation.

Vivian frowns, she looks at the guy and notices that his body is full of scars, and his eyes turned pitch black.

Jarvald walks forward and said, "I can tell he's gifted from his unusual strength during his struggle, usually a gifted has little to no bad odor but this one has a strong odor just like an Awakened"

"He's an enhanced human, his gift is enhanced by something", Vivian said as she creeps closer to the guy.

"Do you know Basilisk Poison? they said if someone got poisoned by it, they will bring pain worse than death", Vivian said with a sadistic tone.

Hearing this, the guy didn't even flinch and just stare forward blankly.

Vivian noticed the guy is reactionless, she lowered her body to the guy's level and held his chin, "The poison will torture you from the inside", she said while touching the guy's chest with her long nail.

Her fingernail ran through the guy's chest slowly and scratching it, "and your internal organ will go poof!"

Vivian signal to Zegrath who is standing on the side, Zegrath gives Vivian a bottle with a purple substance in it.

She held the bottle in front of the guy's face and said evilly, "The fun part is that the poison will not only poison you, but it will fly away finding your blood relatives and kill them all"

Hearing this, the guy started to sweat profusely, his lips started to tremble, "P..Ple..asee, Don't bring my relative to this, It's there...", the guy points in a direction.

Seeing this, Vivian smiled viciously, "Too late", she forces open the guy's mouth and pour a drop of the poison into him.

The guy struggles but with his body restrained by magic, he can't do anything but see the poison drop into his mouth.

Immediately after the poison enter the guy's mouth,

The guy's body started having seizures, his eyes roll to the back exposing only the white, blood started to bleed from all of the holes on his body, and foam started to come out of his mouth.

The restrained humans passed out watching the scene,

The guy's body tremble violently then suddenly,

BURST!!

His body burst into a meat paste, the inside of his body exploded as his body become flat.

Even Jarvald turned his head away unable to watch the gory scene but Vivian is watching it closely still holding the guy's chin and staring into his eyes.

After the guy died, a purple mist seeped out of his skin.

The mist then hovers around the guy's body before flying away, based on what Vivian said, the mist will probably find the guy's blood relative and kills them all.

After it all ended, Vivian got up from the place and said, "There, search for the Silver Mooncress there"

Jarvald sigh, he then commands the other to search for the Silver Mooncress there.

Vivian lean her hand on Jarvald's shoulder and said, "After getting that Silver Mooncress, you will become one of Royalty just under the Origin"

Jarvald smiles evilly, "And you will be there by my side as queen"

Back to Ochyra University,

Rex arrived at Ochyra University late at night, Rosie is already asleep in the car.

Her beautiful face looks mesmerizing even when she's asleep, she is so defenseless right now but Rex can only sigh thinking about before.

'Can't believe this girl almost wanted to kill herself', Rex thought, he then caressed Rosie's hair before carrying Rosie.

He walks to the university while carrying Rosie, the university didn't have any rules limiting the student's love life so the security let Rex in with an understanding nod.

Rex was speechless knowing that they're misunderstanding the situation but Rex is too lazy to explain.

After arriving at the dormitory section, Rex wanted to put Rosie in her room but he just can't find the keys.

He felt tired because of the day and wanted to meditate, so he decided to bring Rosie to his room.

Arriving at his room,

Rex lay Rosie down on his bed, he looks at Rosie briefly and got tempted instantly but he shakes his head.

'Calm down, I know I haven't seen much during the military but this is not right', he thought trying to calm himself down.

After mustering his willpower, he forced himself to start meditating,

2 minutes into the meditation, Rex glance at Rosie, he saw Rosie's exposed stomach before closing his eyes again.

5 minutes, the same sequel happened again, but this time his eyes fall to her steady breath that makes her breasts heaves up and down.

10 minutes, he gritted his teeth and finally slept beside Rosie, 'I won't do anything funny but don't blame me for sleeping on my bed', Rex thought as he closes his eyes.

Sometimes, Rationalizing is what people do to fool themselves into doing things, and that is exactly what Rex is doing.

Unknown to Rex, his decision will lead to a loud morning.

Chapter 46 Start Of Tournament

At Ochyra University Hospital,

"Where is the doctor? I can't believe I need to wait this long to even see my son's corpse?!", Duncan Platchi is pacing left and right.

His hands are clenched so hard that it turns white,

His face is dark and one can see that he is fuming with anger because the places around him are in a mess,

A woman beside Duncan is weeping in tears, "We didn't even get to give him an immediate proper burial"

As the two of them are getting more frustrated the longer they wait, suddenly the white door in front of them opened.

An old doctor dressed in a white coat emerge, "I'm sorry Mr. and Mrs. Platchi, your son's corpse is infected so it needs to get purified before getting buried, I hope that you can understand and follow the..."

Before the Doctor can even finish, Duncan flung the doctor to the side before he rushes into the room,

A Human that is killed by a rank 3 Supernatural or above will need to be purified, the Supernatural mana that is residing in the corpses can infect normal humans and makes them fall sick even if the burial is way deeper than the normal depth.

It can cause normal people to mutate into an abstract being, growing a limp horn, growing another head, abstract skin color change, and many more.

Awakened can also mutate but it is unlikely,

Because of it, the UWO has issued a law to purify corpses killed by a rank three or above Supernatural.

In the room, Duncan found Lucas that has a gaping hole in his body, Lucas's body is already been purified and ready to get buried.

Looking at his dead son, Duncan's eyes turned red as his brain gets clouded with anger.

He grips the old doctor's collar and lifts him up to the air, "Let me see the people that do my son's autopsy, I want to confirm if he's really dead because of a Supernatural or...Someone", Duncan said with fierce eyes.

The doctor can only wail in the air and nodded his head.

Somewhere in the Supernatural territory,

There is a castle on a rocky cliff that is almost as big as Ochyra University, the castle looks old with little to no light decorating it only torches were placed in certain places.

Trees around the castle are dead as mutated crows sit on the tree branches,

The castle is made of huge bricks that are constructed beautifully, there is only a one-pathway to enter the castle with a cliff on either side, the castle gives off an eerie vibe and mist is covering the surrounding.

Inside the castle, a beautiful woman that looks in her early twenties is lying on the bed reading a book.

The woman has pale skin with red ruby eyes, she has a little fang that is still growing and claws that also still growing.

She's reading a book called "Walking Amongst Humans", she is wiggling her legs with a happy expression as she read the book.

Then suddenly, she closes the book and went out of her room after wearing a nightgown that covers her athletic and curvy body.

She walks along the big corridor, there is almost no light in the corridor but she seems to walk perfectly fine.

Every time she passes, the guard wearing a light red combat armor salutes to her.

The woman only waves her hand gracefully every time she gets saluted, she seems to be used to the guard's behavior.

After walking for five minutes, she arrives at a huge door with a purple vampiric rune in the middle.

Knock! Knock!

She knocks on the door before the door opened,

"Calidora Dear? What's wrong?", a middle-aged man comes out of the door and asks with a soft tone.

Although he's using a soft tone, the king tattoo on his neck emits pressure but it is contrasting with his soft behavior towards Calidora.

"Father, Let me go to the human territory. At least let me see the battlefield to broaden my view", She said with pleading eyes.

Her red ruby eyes are shining as she said those words, it is mesmerizing to even imagine such red eyes she has not less seeing in person.

The middle-aged man was surprised before he replied with a cold tone, "No!"

Hearing the middle-aged man answer, Calidora already expected it and said, "Father, let me see what are we fighting against. If I'm caged in this castle, I won't become an outstanding Vampire"

The middle-aged man seems to fall into thoughts, he seems to hesitate in making a decision after all Calidora is his one and only child.

Unlike humans that can bear a child as long as they can,

Female Vampires can only give birth to one child, after giving birth to a child then their reproductive organs can no longer be sustained.

Because of that, Vampire is really possessive about their child.

If somehow their child got killed, it will hurt twice as much as when a human lost their child.

It is especially true for female vampires, upon having their child killed they will mercilessly find the culprit and hunt them for the rest of eternity.

When the middle-aged man wanted to decline again concerning his wife, suddenly a woman that resembles Calidora but looks more mature appeared from behind.

"You can go", She said calmly.

Hearing this, the middle-aged man was surprised, "But, it is dangerous especially on the battlefield"

The woman smiles and replies, "Just let her go, but you need to take at least three peak rank-four guards. I will ask the Haltija to send three guards to accompany you"

Calidora jumped in delight, she then runs to her mother and hugs her, "Thank you, mother! I will always be careful!"

The woman smiles while rubbing Calidora's head, "But you will not go to the battlefield, you will only go to a sieged human city"

Calidora didn't even hear what her mother says as she nodded her head repeatedly.

Back to Ochyra University,

"AAHHHH!!", A high-pitched scream was heard from room 13.

Rex jumped from his sleep because of the scream and look at his side, he saw Rosie covering her body with a blanket with a shocked expression.

Rex scratches his eyes still feeling sleepy and asks, "What is it?"

"You...You...How did I get here!", She asks still screaming.

Rex with his half-sleeping state got annoyed by Rosie's scream, he put his hand on Rosie's mouth, "Quiet down will you, just go to sleep", Rex said while closing his eyes.

Hearing this, Rosie was put into a whole new level of shock, 'How can he be calm about this? Did he do something to me?!

Fearing the possibility, "AAHH!!", Rosie screamed once again as the wind mana concentrated to her hand and blasted in Rex's direction.

WHOOSH!!

Rex who is still in his beauty sleep suddenly got pushed hard by the wind flinging him to the wall, THUD!

Rex crashed to the wall still in his pajamas,

He jolted awake because of the pain, he scratches his head in pain, "What the heck? How did I get here?"

"THAT SHOULD BE ME WHO IS ASKING!!", Rosie shouted from the sides surprising Rex who is sitting on the cold floor.

Rex glance at Rosie and suddenly his memories came back, He raises his hand to Rosie who is gathering another attack on her right hand, "It's not what you think!"

"YOU PERVERT!!", Rosie said as she sent another blast to Rex.

BOOM!!

Rex dodges to the side, "Calm down, it's a misunderstanding!", Rex said trying to calm Rosie down.

The wall thankfully is enhanced by elemental properties, so Rosie's attack doesn't leave a dent on it.

"WAIT!", Rex screamed as Rosie gather another attack.

"AAHH!!"

"THAT'S WHAT YOU GET FOR TAKING ADVANTAGE OF ME!"

Five minutes later, Rosie finally calmed down after Rex explain it to her while dodging her attacks, she also trusts Rex after checking that her clothes are still intact and she didn't feel funny.

"Oooh I fell asleep, you should've said so from the start!", Rosie laughs not feeling guilty at all.

Rex got annoyed and replied, "If you didn't attack me and wake me up calmly then this will not happen"

"Oh shut up! For someone like you, it's a miracle that you didn't do anything to me", Rosie replied while tying her hair to a ponytail.

Rex was speechless, just before he wanted to rebut, Rosie already gets up from the bed and enters the bathroom.

'Did that girl think this is her room, entering MY bathroom like that', Rex thought furiously.

After half an hour or so,

Rex and Rosie are ready to go to class, they both look matching with their black t-shirt and jeans.

They stare at each other for a moment before turning their heads the other way, 'I can't believe I just slept with Rosie, I wish I can turn back time', Rex thought trying to remember all the details he got from yesterday.

While Rosie on the other side is blushing, 'I just slept with Rex, what do I do...'

The both of them got out from Rex's room and was surprised to see Adhara in front of the door wanting to knock,

Rex and Rosie were also surprised, "Good Morning!", Rex greeted Adhara awkwardly.

Adhara locked eyes with Rosie as Rosie's shocked expression turns into a smug, she then leans to the side and kisses Rex on his cheek, Chup!

"Thanks for yesterday night! I'll see you later Rex", Rosie said as she waves to Rex cutely before leaving not forgetting to cast one last proud look to Adhara.

Rex touches his cheek in shock, a smile bloom on his face but immediately disappeared after getting a glare from Adhara.

Rex whistles and avoid Adhara's gaze before Adhara storm off the other way,

Looking at this, Rex was guilty, 'That Rosie!! She's a damn troublemaker!', he screamed inside his head while cursing Rosie.

Rex finally walks alone to the class,

Arriving at the class, 1-C students already lined up neatly in front of the class with Mr. Joseph in front.

Rex rushes to the line and follows them,

Today is the day of the tournament that will determine who will represent Ochyra University in a sparing tournament in Faraday University.

Rex needs to win this because he has a deal with the Rosiana Family to help Rosie,

The students arrive inside the training hall, the arena is already set as a barrier covers it.

There is already packed full of students, all of the Awakened from class 1-B to 1-D already gathered in the training hall creating a crowd of students inside.

Rex was chilling on the back when suddenly he felt someone is looking at him, 'Hmm?

He glances to his back and found a guy staring at him intensely,

Rex notices that the guy is familiar, he tries to remember from where when suddenly it came back to him.

'That's Gregg, I suppose he hates me because I almost take first place in the field test', Rex thought before he then stares back at Gregg.

Gregg slide his fingers at his neck signaling 'You're dead' to Rex,

Looking at this, Rex was speechless, he then laughs at how outdated this Gregg guy taste.

Gregg's veins bulge as anger creeps in him, he was angered by the audacity of Rex that can laugh after getting his threat.

Rex turns his head away from Gregg slowly, 'So, who is my first opponent?', Rex thought as he looks at the matching board being rolled in front of him.

Then suddenly,

<DING!!>

<Sudden Quest!>

<Tournament

A tournament is held by the Ochyra University to determine the students that will represent the Ochyra University in Faraday University. Win this tournament to hold the user's promise for Rosie's sake, additional rewards will be given if the user humiliate Gregg

Quest Rewards: 5000 Exp, 2500 Gold, and Steel of Rakshasa>

Rex was delighted after getting the sudden quest, he gazed up to the matching board when suddenly a voice seeped into his ears.

"First Match, Rex Silverstar Class 1-C against Gregg Eerbo Class 1-D. Students that is being called please step up to the Arena"

Rex and Gregg was surprised before their surprised looks turns into an evil smile,

Chapter 47 First Match

Fighting spirit burned on Rex and Gregg's eyes, they glance at each other disdainfully before casually walking into the Arena.

The crowd of students makes way for them,

Rex and Gregg are famous throughout the university, one is the first-ranker in the field test and the other one is a non-Awakened that can beat a rank four supernatural.

All of the student's eyes were locked onto them, their aura started to rise the closer they got to the Arena.

Some early rank-two and rank-one students feel suffocated because of Rex's and Gregg's aura,

Each of Rex's steps makes the ground around him tremble, while Gregg's step left a gash on the ground because of his wind elements.

The wind elements around Gregg become violent, the students around him needed to step back to avoid getting hit.

While Rex's aura gives the students around him goosebumps as if there is a Supernatural behind them that can kill them in a mere moment if they provoke Rex.

They both get into the Arena with burning eyes, they looked at each other fiercely.

Rex's eyes glister as he looks at Gregg's stats,

<Gregg Eerbo>

Race: Human - Teen

Power: Peak Rank Three - Wind Elementalist

Mental: 35

Strength: 28 (+10)

Agility: 40 (+8)

Endurance: 20 (+15)

Intelligence: 50

Looking at this, Rex was contemplating how to humiliate Gregg to get extra rewards from the system,

Meanwhile, the wind elements around Gregg are getting more violent, the wind element seems to cover his whole body like some kind of barrier.

Rex looks at the ground beneath Gregg and saw it was full of slashing marks, 'That wind barrier can defend and also attack, this is going to be troublesome'

Just as their fighting spirit is nearing its limit, the Lecturer that is in charge as a referee said, "Before we began, Students please greet the honorable Lecturers, Vice principals, and the principal of Ochyra University"

Rex stopped in his intense stare match and glance to his right,

Suddenly a huge platform made of translucent crystal emerges from the ground beside the Arena,

There is a couple of seats that divided into three rows, the bottom-most row is where the lecturers sit, Rex saw Mr. Joseph sitting there.

The middle row is for the vice-principals, there are four of them and each of them emits a terrifying aura that is stronger than the Pawn Vampire that Rex meets before.

But Rex's eyes fall to the right side middle row, he saw a middle-aged man wearing a military uniform.

His hair is white due to old age but his figure is still sitting straight like an arrow, his left eye is gone and there is a scar near his left eye.

The interesting part about him is that he doesn't emit any aura which means he is a normal person,

The middle-aged man wearing a military uniform is looking at Rex, Rex felt uncomfortable under his gaze.

In the top-most row sits the principal of Ochyra University, he is a middle-aged man with blonde hair, he emits no aura but unlike the middle-aged man before, Rex knows that this man is so strong just by looking at his cold eyes.

The principal gazes coldly at the Arena, he wears an all-black uniform that emits dark energy, there is a black saber behind him that is hard to look at.

Rex's eyes felt pain after seeing the sword for too long, Rex felt the black saber stares back at him.

All of the students bow slightly and shouted in a union, "Greeting from the students!!"

Rex also bows slightly while taking glances at the principal, the principal notices Rex's glance but he didn't do anything but stare at Rex.

Rex avoid his gaze feeling the pressure as he looks down to the ground,

Hearing the greeting, the principal nodded his head and waves his hand gracefully,

After getting approval from the principal, the referee continues with the match, "Rex and Gregg, the rules are simple, you cannot inflict life-threatening injury, forcing your opponents to step out of the Arena ground or surrendering will make you the winner, and you must follow my words. Breaking the rule will cause you to be disqualified and punishment, and good luck to both of you"

The referee signals Rex and Gregg to move to the corner,

"Who do you think will win?"

"I can't tell, they both in my eyes will be in the same footing"

"Gregg will probably win, his wind elements will be his advantage compared to a non-Awakened Rex"

Rosie who hears the student's conversation suddenly intervenes, "Of course Rex will win, you guys are just too dumb to comprehend it"

The students were angered after getting mocked, they glance to their back and saw Rosie folding her arms beside Adhara.

The curse words that the students want to say got stuck on their throats, "Rosie!"

Rosie gives them a 'What?!' face, the students got scared.

Although they can deal with Rosie, they can't possibly handle the consequences of angering Rex knowing that he's Rosie's boyfriend.

They immediately shut their mouth, "That's what I thought!", Rosie said pridefully followed by Adhara's little chuckles from the side.

On the Arena,

Rex puts on his battle stance, he wears the battle glove given by Adhara carefully, his sense was put to the max.

Rosie felt jealous looking at Rex who care so much about the battle gloves, she bit her lips In jealousy.

Adhara notice this and can't help to crack a smile,

Gregg goes into his battle stance, wind elements started to gather at his sword, the wind elements also gather to his body again and formed a violent barrier.

The referee glance left and right before he shouted, "BEGIN!!"

After the referee's signal, the violent wind around Gregg condensed into a wind spear, the wind elements started to gather more and more towards the spear,

Rex only stands there waiting for Gregg to finish his spell, he cracked a mocking smile and taunt Gregg by waving his hand.

Looking at this, Gregg was delighted, 'Don't blame me for beating you with one attack!'

"Basic Magic! Violent Spear!!", Gregg shouted as the wind spear above his head got launched towards Rex,

WHOOSH!!

The students felt the wind spear sucked the wind that caught in its trajectory,

Class 1-D lecturer's eyes lit up, "That's a very powerful rank three magic, Gregg is indeed a natural talent to wind element"

Hearing this, Mr. Joseph chuckles from the side.

Class 1-D lecturer frowns hearing Mr. Joseph's chuckles, "What's so funny sir Joseph?"

Mr. Joseph covers his mouth trying to stop his laughter and replied, "Nothing much sir Andric, but my students will not be beaten that easily"

The wind spear arrives in front of Rex, the violent wind already started to prickling Rex's skin.

Rex inhales a deep breath as he activates his skill, "Force Beam!", he punched the wind spear with only his battle gloves.

The students were mocking Rex who recklessly punches the wind spear but what happened next makes them sucked in a cold breath.

BAM!!

The raging wind spear that can pierce through anything suddenly disperse under Rex's punch, the wind spear that looks mighty disappeared just like that.

Gregg widened his eyes in shock, he didn't believe that one of his attacks can be deflected easily by Rex.

Rex straightens up his body and brushes the dust that got on his armor, "That attack is just so-so, the standard in getting into class 1-D seems low to me", he said mockingly.

Andric was also shocked by Rex's feat, 'HOW?!', he screamed in his head.

"Let's continue shall we?", Rex cracked his neck before dashing in Gregg's direction.

Gregg recover from his shock and raises his sword,

Rex arrives in front of Gregg and sent out a punch, the punch is purely imbued with his strength.

Gregg's body emits a green hue, he dodges to the side and slashes aiming at Rex's ribs.

Rex already predicted Gregg's movements, his eyes can see Gregg's movements clearly as he hit Gregg's sword with his elbow.

CLANG!

The sword slipped from Gregg's hand,

Rex smiles viciously and sent a kick to Gregg's stomach,

BAM!!

Rex's leg collides with Gregg's wind barrier, Gregg was sent flinging away as his barrier cracked.

Gregg landed on his feet but he's still getting pushed back because of the momentum, 'What an overwhelming strength, I need to avoid his attacks', he thought while looking at Rex.

Rex is looking at his leg who got slashed by the wind barrier, 'It's a good skill but it didn't do much damage', Rex thought before he focuses back on Gregg.

His leg is already starting to heal at a visible rate, he then smiles mockingly at Gregg, "I hope that's not all you can do"

Gregg was infuriated, he summons a sword made of wind.

He then lowers his stance while aiming the sword at Rex, "Boost!", the wind elements around him gather to his body making the green hue more intense.

WHOOSH!!

Gregg dashes towards Rex like a jet, his movement are way faster than before.

Rex's eyes can see his movement clearly but his body is too slow to avoid Gregg's attacks, in the nick of time, he decided to block the wind sword.

CLANG!!

The wind sword was caught between Rex's hands, Rex was pushed back before stomping the ground to stop.

The students watching this was in an uproar,

"How can Rex saw that attack coming?! I can't even see anything!"

"Not only can he see it but he can also block it!"

"I REFUSE TO BELIEVE HE'S A NON-AWAKENED"

The principal knitted his eyes, 'Interesting, I can clearly see he's not an Awakened'

After blocking the attack, Rex take advantage of Gregg's shocked state and landed a heavy blow to his face, "Force Beam!!"

BAM!!

His fists collided again with the wind barrier, the wind barrier is bent trying to block Rex's attack but the attack was too strong.

Rex's fists landed solidly on Gregg's face,

BOOM!!

Gregg was launched off of his feet crashing to the ground before bouncing off of it, the Arena ground cracked under Rex's might,

Gregg spat out a mouthful of blood as he was screeching away nearing the end of the Arena ground,

Andric shakes his head in disappointment, "He's filled with rage, Wind Elementalist is fast but he didn't take advantage of it and recklessly attack Rex"

The principal and the vice-principal also shakes their head, they can clearly see Rex is slower than Gregg but he taunted Gregg to make him lose his cool.

Rex's hand that caught the wind sword is bleeding but that damage is minuscule for Rex who has the regenerative ability.

He walks slowly towards Gregg.

Rex arrives in front of Gregg who is kneeling on four spitting out blood,

Just as he wanted to kick Gregg out of the Arena,

Wind elements gather on Gregg's right leg, he then sweeps Rex's legs making him stumble backward.

Gregg smiles, Rex was caught off guard!

"Gale Blast!", Gregg put his hand on Rex's stomach as wind elements gathered on his hand.

But Rex's reflex is in-human, he activates his skill, "Alpha Intimidation!"

<The Target's stats has been decreased by 30%>

Gregg who is staring at Rex's eyes suddenly felt his power leaving him making him dizzy,

Rex also sent a Force Beam towards Gregg that is not covered with a wind barrier, Gregg was shocked, 'What a reflex! I can't dodge!'

Gregg's hand burst with the wind element, the wind element exploded on Rex's stomach, while Rex's Force Beam landed solidly on Gregg's stomach also sending him flying away,

BOOM!!

The both of them was sent flying away,

The students quieted down, they held their breaths as dust covers the whole Arena.

"Did they both lose?"

"Sshhh!"

The dust starts to clear, the students found Rex who is already standing back up while Gregg is still struggling on the ground with blood leaking from his mouth.

"Huakh!", He spat another round of blood, His eyes is hazy, he lost too much blood.

'How can his reflex be that good? That's practically in-human', Gregg thought as he held his stomach in pain.

Rex's armor is bent but he didn't receive that much damage from Gregg's attack, 'Thankfully I cast Alpha Intimidation, it will be bad if I got hit without using it'

Gregg lifted his head and looks at Rex that has just arrives in front of him,

Rex smiles evilly and put his feet on Gregg's head stepping on him,

Gregg was aghast, his eyes turn bloodshot feeling the humiliation of being stepped by a non-Awakened,

"You lose...", Rex said before he kicks Gregg out of the Arena.

All of the students was stunned, it feels surreal seeing the things Rex do, 'One of class 1-D's elite lost just like that?'

Silence filled the Arena but suddenly, "YAAAY!! Rex won!!", a high pitched scream was heard.

Rosie is jumping in joy after seeing Rex beat Gregg,

The students shake their head still in daze before the referee announced, "First match winner! Rex Silverstar!"

Immediately after, the crowd burst in cheers.

"Wow!! That's amazing!!"

"He comprehended Force in his age! I better start training my body"

The crowd sent praises to Rex, seeing Rex did the impossible makes them motivated even more to become stronger.

"If he can do it, then it's possible for everyone!"

But some also cursed him of jealousy,

In their eyes, Rex has everything from looks, power, and beauty which even having one of them can satisfy anyone but Rex has them all.

Meanwhile amidst the crowd, a student is standing on the corner of the room, he gazes at Rex and smiles mysteriously.

Chapter 48 Lightning Elementalist

The fight ended with Rex as its winner,

The students sent their praises to him, Rex becomes the idol of many guys and girls.

He got down from the Arena with heavy steps, he touches his armor that is already bent because of Gregg's magic,

'I can't overwhelm Gregg with my current power especially during the day, If I can't overwhelm Gregg then there's no chance I can put up a fight against Kevin Luc', Rex thought with a frown.

Rex knows who Kevin Luc is, Kevin always appear on the news as the genius Awakened at his young age.

He is a Fire Elementalist that has terrifying potential, he stepped into rank three in his early fifteen years old and has the capabilities to reach rank eight in his life. Defeating an early rank four with his rank three power, trained to fight Supernaturals, and even got recruited into the number one guild in Ratmawati City, the Fire of Doom guild.

Compared to Kevin, the current Rex will have no chance.

'I need to get stronger, but how', Rex fell into deep thought, he held his chin while walking past the crowd heading to Rosie and Adhara.

Before Rex even got near to Rosie and Adhara, Rosie already runs to him and hugs him.

"REX!!", She said sweetly.

Rex was surprised but he already got used to Rosie, Adhara also approach him and said, "Congratulation, the Battle Gloves seems to be useful"

"Yeah, It's really great! Thanks!", Rex replied while taking the battle gloves off.

Rosie pouted on the side, she's being left behind by Adhara because of that stupid battle gloves but then she notices that Rex is zoning out.

"What's wrong Rex?", Rosie asks but suddenly she realized, "Are you thinking about Kevin Luc? It's okay if you lose really", she whispers.

Rex glance at Rosie, he saw a helpless look on her face.

Then suddenly something hit him, he opened his stats tab and saw that the next full moon is five days away.

'System, I need to get stronger fast, can you recommend me something?', Rex asks the system, it's worth giving a shot.

<Analyzing...>

<The next evolution will be in level 20>

<Buying a high-rank breathing technique for full moon is recommended>

<Detected 0 Intelligence stat>

<Buying elemental affinities are recommended>

Reading this, Rex was given two option to choose from.

He is contemplating about the two choices, he then asks the system, 'System, the Evolution before didn't give me many benefits like stats boost, why do you recommend me to evolve?'

After a brief pause, the system replies,

<Becoming a Werewolf gives you the power to turn others into half-Werewolf, Half-blood and Werewolf is essentially the same but the latter become a real Supernatural>

'System, in simpler terms please', Rex said feeling his head dizzy.

<Half-Werewolf can't become a real Supernatural they will stuck at that state forever, while Werewolf is a Supernatural and can evolve into higher ranking beings>

'So that means Adhara can't evolve further if I didn't help her, but if I turn her into a Werewolf then she can evolve on her own?'

<Yes>

After getting a piece of useful information from the system, Rex was still hesitating in choosing.

He wants to become an Awakened by buying Elemental Affinity but he knows it will take longer to raise his power, his fight is next week so it seems impossible.

Buying a breathing technique on the other hand will surely boost Rex's stats if he can reach level 20 and evolve,

After contemplating, Rex decided to buy a breathing technique for full-moon,

He opened the shop section and search for the full moon type breathing technique, he filters the breathing technique into high rank only.

Immediately after, rows of breathing techniques appear in front of him,

Rex has 17,000 gold in his pocket from the quest before and killing the Tree Giant and the Anansi,

The cheapest high-rank Breathing Technique is 15,000 gold, while the most expensive is 30,000 gold.

He only has 17,000 gold so he can only buy the cheaper one,

Rex filters the shop from the cheapest to the most expensive, after scrolling for a bit he found two Breathing Technique that he likes.

<Prince of Night Breathing Technique - High>

<Using this technique during the full moon will bring a great amount of Exp the longer and closer the user to the moon, the exp will be enhanced greatly during the Dark Moon. The user will gain a mutation, the user's attack will contain corrosive properties>

<Lin the Kapre Breathing Technique - High>

<Using this technique during the full moon will bring a great amount of Exp the longer and closer the user to the moon, the exp will be enhanced greatly during the Dark Moon. The user will gain a fire resistance>

'As expected of a high-rank technique, I am certain to get a mutation unlike low-rank techniques', Rex thought.

The first technique is an offensive one while the second is a defensive one, 'To be able to fight Kevin Luc I need to play defensive', Rex thought.

After decided what to buy, Rex immediately bought the second breathing technique.

He spent 15,000 gold for it, it is the cheapest high-rank Breathing Technique that gives him the desirable mutation.

The match continues, the students that have lower than rank three power can't participate in the tournament so only a handful of students will fight in the Arena.

Adhara and Rosie are watching the fight after they notice Rex is thinking about something, they decided to let Rex be.

Rex was left with 2000 gold left, he searches for elemental affinity and filters it to the cheapest, surprisingly it is within his budget.

He thought for a while, 'System, can I change affinities later if I decided to buy one?'

<The user can have multiple affinities if the user bought a low-rank affinity and wanted to upgrade it to a higher-rank affinity, then the user can just upgrade it using gold>

Reading this, Rex was elated.

He then browses the affordable affinities, there are common elements such as fire, water, wind, and earth and they all cost 1000 gold for the low-rank one.

Rex scrolls down and found exotic elements such as Shadow, Chaos, Lightning, and many more.

'I want my Strength to be my main stat, but I will be too slow if I focus on strength only. I need to find an element that can make me fast and compliment my high strength', Rex thought.

His eyes then fall to an element that costs 1500 Gold for its low-rank affinity, Lightning Affinity.

Lightning is a destructive element just like fire.

Although fire is the most destructive with little to almost none defensive capabilities, Lightning is almost as destructive but has speed as its form of defense.

It is the perfect elements for Rex,

He immediately buys Lightning Affinity from the shop, starting this day, Rex can become an Awakened just like everybody else.

After getting the necessary preparation for strengthening himself, Rex looks at Adhara, 'System, can a breathing technique used by Adhara?'

<Yes, all of the user's pack member can use the Breathing Technique the user bought>

Reading this, Rex decided if he has more gold he will buy for Adhara,

Soon, the day turns to noon.

The match for today ended, tomorrow the match will resume.

The students started to go out of the training hall to attend their own business.

Rex is walking out with Adhara and Rosie, "Oh yeah, now that I remember. Where is Laura?", Adhara asks.

Rex and Rosie widened their eyes, "I can't believe I forgot about her", Rex replies before face-palming himself.

"I heard Laura is recruited by the Ice Angel guild, she's probably busy right now", Rosie said casually.

'Well, she is talented and has connection I must say', Rex thought.

After that, Rex bid goodbye to the girls excusing himself to go back to his room tired.

But deep down he just can't wait to try out the Lightning Affinity, it's been his dream to become an Awakened and now it is only a couple of steps away.

Arriving at his room, he immediately sits down on his bed in a meditative position.

'First thing first, let's learn the Breathing Technique', Rex brought the Lin the Kapre Breathing Technique from the inventory.

Then immediately, a book appeared on his hand.

The book is red in color, the cover of the book is a tusked creature and the book emits a faint smoke from the creature's mouth.

<Do you want to learn this technique for 200 gold?>

Rex felt pain after seeing the costs increase the higher the rank, he then nodded his head in confirmation.

The book turns into a red light and seeped into Rex's head, rows of information that are many times more compact than his first technique enter his brain.

Rex felt pain in his head but he can manage to endure it, not long after he instantly learned the technique.

After learning the technique, the moment he's been waiting for has come.

Rex brought the lightning affinity out of the inventory,

Blitz! Blitz!

An orb made of lightning appeared on his hand, the lightning is blizzing around chaotically, it even prickled his skin as if it's attacking him.

The orb is small, it is only the size of a tennis ball.

'System how do I use this?', Rex asks the system, he felt nervous for no reason while looking at the lightning orb.

<The user needs to close the user's eyes, held the Lightning Orb with both of the user's hand, and try to absorb it>

Rex do just as the system says,

He closes his eyes and tries to absorb the Lightning Orb on his hands,

Rex tries to feel the lightning properties but he can't feel anything, this continues for about an hour before finally, he can sense a little bit of the lightning mana.

He can feel the lightning mana inside the orb, the lightning mana is a ball object that is dark blue in color and it is very minuscule in his surrounding.

Unknown to Rex, the lightning orb already disappeared and absorbed by him.

He is currently still in a meditative state, he remembers Adhara explained that the first rank is to feel the elements and need to accumulate enough mana to advance to the next rank.

Rex tries to pull the lightning mana on his surrounding but none of them reacted to him,

Another hour passed,

Rex's veins bulged, he tries very hard to attract the lightning mana but it only moved by a little bit before it goes back to floating around.

Two hours passed,

Every time Rex rest for even a little bit, the lightning mana that is already close to him goes back to its usual behavior which is floating around.

Rex got frustrated but he didn't give up,

Finally, after five hours of meditating, he managed to attract one lightning mana after so much effort.

Blitz!!

He felt his body tingles as electric shock runs through his body, it didn't hurt him but rather it felt great.

Rex opens his eyes slowly and looks at his hand, he can feel the lightning mana coursing through his blood.

<Congratulation! The user has become a Lightning Elementalist!>

Reading the system notification, Rex was stunned, his brain go blank before suddenly, "YESS!!!", he shouted in delight.

'I finally become an Awakened!'

Chapter 49 Dreaming

Happiness substance inside Rex's body rushes into his brain,

His body trembles as the happiness meter was sent through off the chart!

Rex wanted to scream to the world, 'I AM AN AWAKENED', but he refrains from doing so lest he got reported by other students around his room.

But his body can't handle the joy of becoming an Awakened,

He decided to stand on his bed and started jumping happily like a kid given his first candy by their father.

Although he is cold during the military, it is because the vibe there is very tense making him cold all day long but here,

Ochyra University is peaceful, it is far away from the battlefield so Rex's childish side that is hidden for so long finally burst out of its cage.

He jumped for 5 minutes straight before slamming his body on the bed tired,

'Although I got a low-rank affinity, I am an Awakened still', The long-awaited moment of him becoming an Awakened finally came, 'This is all thanks to the system', Rex thought.

He then wondered, 'I wonder how it will feel when I got a high-rank affinity, surely it will be much easier to attract the mana towards me'

He then sighs, 'With hours of dedication, I can only attract one Lightning Mana'

It is a very arduous feeling, especially when Rex lost his focus for a second and the mana started to wander off away from him.

He wanted to pull his hair out in frustration but he finally manages to absorb one Lightning Mana, As he is resting on his bed, suddenly a dinging sound was heard from the system,

<DING!!>

<Congratulation on completing Becoming An Awakened Achievement>

<Obtained 1 Low-Grade Mana Charm Elixir>

<Congratulation on completing Lightning Elementalist Achievement>

<Obtained Lightning Spell Bundle>

Reading this, Rex becomes intrigued.

'So the system has an Achievement feature as well, that's awesome!', he thought before he opens the inventory to check the rewards he got.

There are not many things inside his Inventory, so he quickly found the items he got,

He taps the Mana Charm Elixir and read the description,

<Mana Charm Elixir>

<An elixir that can help an Elementalist to attract elemental mana more smoothly, upon use, the user can attract elemental mana 2x better than normal>

'HA! This is what I really need', Rex thought happily after getting frustrated by the Lightning Mana.

He then excitedly taps the Lightning Spell Bundle,

Immediately after, the bundle appeared on his hand.

A blue box that has a Lightning Rune on its keyhole appears on Rex's hand, he then commands the system to use it before the box suddenly floats in front of him.

SHIING!!

The box glows bright blue before the lightning rune dissipate as the box opens,

Then a couple of notification appears in front of him,

<Obtained Lightning Spell: Lightning Salvo>

<Obtained Lightning Spell: Mystic Shock>

Reading this, Rex was even more elated.

One has to know that spells in this world are very expensive, only an Awakened that does research on elements can make such spells.

We call such Awakened, the Pioneer.

The Pioneer is highly respectable Awakened because of their job and the difficulty of the job, they needed to be respected because they are the origin of all the spells available in this world.

Spells that are made by these pioneers are very expensive,

The lowest-ranking spell will cost hundreds of thousands of dollars but thankfully the Ochyra University provided a wide variety of spells in the Library.

But there is always an exception,

There is some Awakened that can make their own elemental spell as if they are meant to use the spell, they are considered to be the genius of genius like the person Rex will fight later.

Kevin Luc,

Rex checks the spell he got but immediately felt down when he saw the requirement in using the spell, he has to be at least rank three in power to use the spell.

'Guess Adhara was right, I can't use a spell until I got into rank three', He thought dejectedly.

Rex lies tiredly on his bed when suddenly he wandered to his imagination land,

Inside some kind of throne room that is packed with humans,

The humans in uncountable, it is full of humans as far as the eye can see.

They are kneeling respectfully towards a man sitting crossed leg, it is Rex who is sitting on some kind of throne with closed eyes.

His body emits a faint holy glow as he was sitting with closed eyes, then suddenly,

RUMBLE!!

Rex's body exploded with lightning element, the vibrating electric current is blitzing chaotically around Rex's body,

The sky turned dark as dark clouds cover it, the sky is also rumbling with the same rhythm as Rex's lightning.

"OH MY GOD!!!"

"ALL HAIL THE MIGHTY REX!!!"

"His affinity towards Lightning Elements is so powerful as if the lightning nature itself chooses him!"

"Please save us of mighty Rex!"

Rex's current state is as calm as water, he didn't even faze by the cries of the pleading of millions of humans around him.

He's still closing his eyes in a meditative state,

The cries didn't stop when suddenly, Rex's body emits another round of energy but this time it is like a rainbow.

BOOM!!

Another energy explosion happened, Rex's body is sending immense pressure as a rainbow aura covers his body from head to toe.

The mana around him got sucked into him, Rex didn't even have to try to absorb the before the mana runs happily towards him.

"GOD!! HE IS A GOD!!!"

"ALL OF THE ELEMENTS ARE COURSING THROUGH HIS BODY!!!"

"HAIL LORD REX SILVERSTAR!"

Then suddenly, Rex opened his eyes abruptly.

VROMM!!

The air started to vibrate, the pressure emitted by Rex is so strong that even the furthest human can still feel heavy pressure from him.

His gaze swept through the crowd of human,

Every human bows their heads unable to look at Rex's eyes, they are worshipping Rex in the midst of chaos.

The elements inside Rex's body becomes more violent before suddenly,

WHOOSH!!

Rex's body disappeared, he then arrives in front of hordes of millions of Supernaturals that look terrifying.

The hordes of millions of Supernatural emits an immense bloodlust humanity has never seen before,

In front of them, even the strongest-willed warrior with decades of experience will tremble in fear.

The killing intent are so thick that it is starting to materialize as a giant red demon standing on top of the Supernatural with its vicious red eyes,

Rex who is the target of the killing intent seems unfazed,

He only felt a gentle breeze from the killing intent, he then said loudly, "I, REX SILVERSTAR SENTENCE YOU ALL"

Rex pauses as his gaze swept through the horde of Supernatural, he points his finger to the horde of Supernatural before declaring loudly, "TO DEATH!!!"

RUMBLE!!

The dark sky that is covered with clouds suddenly rumble as it spat out black lightning from it,

The sight is mind-blowing, the black lightning is like lightning judgment sent by God himself.

Even without feeling the power, from the looks of it makes the low and mid-ranking Supernatural kneel in fear.

Rex's body emits a dark current, the pressure he emits makes the horde of Supernatural suffocated.

He then gracefully waves his hand before suddenly,

BOOM!!

BOOM!!

BOOM!!

Black lightning was sent struck to the horde of Supernatural, the materialize killing intent demon didn't even survive one attack of the black lightning.

"RUN!!"

"THIS IS JUDGEMENT DAY!! EVERYONE RUN!!"

"DEAR GOD ALMIGHTY, PLEASE HAVE MERCY!!"

"AAAHHH!!"

Screams of cries and wails seeped into Rex's ears, the cries and wails are like music to his ears as he laughed maniacally, "HAHAHAHA!!"

"I WILL KILL EVERY SINGLE ONE OF YOU!!", Rex screamed as rainbow-colored mana glows from his hand.

He flicked his hands, the rainbow-colored mana was shot to the Supernatural,

WHOOSH!!

Multiple tornadoes appeared out of nowhere pinching the horde of Supernatural, they are trapped in the middle of violent tornadoes.

BOOM!!

The ground trembles, the mountain exploded with lava.

The Supernaturals even the high-ranking ones fall to their knees, they can't steady their balance as regret starting to appear on their faces.

"HAHAHAHA!! FEEL FEAR!!", Rex screamed in joy.

Before he can even bathe himself in the joy of triumph, suddenly the dark clouds starting to dissipate,

The black lightning stopped attacking the horde of Supernatural before suddenly a bright golden light comes out of the sky,

A goddess that is glowing golden brightly descends from the sky, she has a pair of mesmerizing golden wings on her back that span thousands of miles.

Rex wanted to see the goddess but she is too bright to see, Rex felt insignificant in the goddess presence,

The goddess approaches Rex gracefully,

Rex tries to open his eyes but the light is too bright then suddenly, "REX!! WAKE UP!!"

BOOM!!

The goddess slapped Rex so hard that he woke up inside his room, he felt dizzy and unconsciously touches his cheek that got slapped by the goddess,

Rex checks the time and saw 8:00 A.M. on it,

He stretches his limbs when suddenly,

KNOCK!! KNOCK!! KNOCK!!

"REX!! OPEN THE DOOR!!"

THUD!

Rex jumped from his bed in shock, he fell face-first to the floor,

'No wonder the goddess in my dream has an annoying voice, it turns out Rosie is knocking on the door disturbing my beautiful dream', Rex thought as he cursed Rosie.

"WAIT OKAY! What's the hurry", Rex shouted from the inside.

"Open the stupid door! It's been 20 minutes since I stand stupidly in front of your door", She screamed with an annoyed tone.

Rex lazily walks to the door and opened it for Rosie,

Before Rex can even see Rosie, she already excuses herself while mumbling, "Why do you have to lock the door, you know I will come in the morning"

"Huh?! It's called common sense woman!", Rex rebutted.

Rosie pouted while puffing her cheeks and sits down on Rex's bed, "Hurry and take a bath, We need to go to the Arena"

"The match will start at 9, what's the hurry?", Rex said while taking his towel.

Rosie looks at Rex with a pained expression, "I can't believe you forgot, today is my and Adhara's match before determining the quarter-finals"

Rex raises his brows, "Oh, Good Luck!", he said casually.

Hearing this, Rosie's face is red in anger, "HURRY UP!!", she pushed Rex into the bathroom and slam the door.

'Haha, I'm going to discipline her this time around', Rex thought as he turns on the shower.

After twenty minutes,

Rex and Rosie walk together to the training hall, they are walking leisurely under every student's gaze.

Rosie puffed up her chest proudly while Rex is playing with his phone,

The both of them arrive in the training hall, "Rosie, where is Adhara? Why is she not with you?", Rex asks,

"I don't know, yesterday when I texted her she said that she will be waiting right over...There!!", Rosie answers before she pointed in a direction.

The place where Rosie pointed is pretty secluded,

The training hall has two floors, there is a big glass on top of the training hall to allow the sun to penetrate inside.

Rex and Rosie approach the place just under a big tiger statue, the both of them search the place that is full of students and found Adhara standing under a shade.

They approach Adhara,

"Yo Adhara, Why are you here?", Rex asks as he waves his hand.

Adhara glance at Rex coldly and replies, "Nothing"

Rex notices Adhara's cold response, he wraps his arm around her neck and said playfully, "Why? Are you still mad about yesterday?"

Rosie was about to get pissed but suddenly, Adhara shrugged Rex's arm off, "Don't touch me", she said coldly.

Rex was confused, "What's wrong? Are you really mad?"

Hearing this, Adhara threw her face away not intending to answer Rex at all.

Rex sighs, he grabs Adhara's hand and pulls her back to their usual spot but suddenly just before Adhara got pulled out of the shade, "STOP!!"

"Stop bothering me and leave", she said before going back to the place under a shade.

'What the? Is she on her period or something?', Just as he was about to pull Adhara again, a notification appeared in front of him.

<The Dark Moon is near, Adhara will get more restless>

Reading this, Rex widened his eyes in realization, 'So that's why she's being weird like that'

Chapter 50 Rosie's Surprising Opponent

Rex leaves Adhara to herself, he thinks that Adhara will probably be like that until the Dark Moon arrives.

Rex and Rosie left Adhara alone and went to their usual place around the middle of the training hall.

The lecturers, vice-principals, and principals are already seated on their sit,

The match is about to begin, the referee goes inside the Arena and declared loudly, "We will resume the tournament! The students that are called please get inside the Arena"

The matching board started to roll again,

"Next match! Ivy from class 1-D and Logan from class 1-C", the referee announced before a blue-haired woman with a dashing light blue armor walks gracefully to the Arena.

She is waving to the crowd with a gentle smile,

The crowd especially the guy becomes hectic after getting a wave from Ivy,

"YOU GO, PRINCESS!!"

"SHE WAVES AT ME!!"

"LOOK!! She wears her famous armor, Blue Current!!"

Rex was intrigued,

Class 1-D rarely interact with other classrooms because they are a privileged student, they are the focus of the university.

Rex approaches a guy beside him and asks, "Who is she? Why is she so famous?"

The guy didn't even turn his head to Rex as he answers, "Did you live in a cave or something? She is a celebrity, she is in the entertainment industry, movie and stuff"

The guy is unwilling to look at Rex by sacrificing his time to look at Ivy,

'Huh...My bad', he smiles wryly before focusing back on the Arena.

Rex looks at Ivy and Logan's stats and shakes his head, 'One is a peak-rank three, the other is an early-rank three'

Ivy is standing in the Arena like a goddess, she still has a gentle smile on her face even after her opponent is standing in front of her.

Her opponent didn't stand out in any way, Logan even has a nervous expression on his face.

The referee stands beside both of them and said, "The rules are still the same as before, no life-threatening blow, knock your opponent out of the Arena or surrendering to become a winner"

After the referee saw the both of them nod, "BEGIN!!!"

Before Logan can even concentrate his mana, Ivy already arrived in front of him with her fist covered in a blue aura.

"Eh?", Logan was still processing what just happened when suddenly,

BAM!!

Ivy's fist landed solidly on Logan's face, If one looks closely they will see a tiny water explosion just after the hit landed.

Logan was sent flying away crashing to the ground outside of the Arena,

The referee looks at Logan before announcing, "Winner, Ivy Larson!"

"WOOWW!!!"

"THAT'S OUR PRINCESS!!!"

"NO GIRL CAN MATCH OUR PRINCESS' POWER!!!"

The crowd burst into cheers, the guy is racing with each other to give more praises to Ivy.

Ivy looks at the crowd while raising her arms, she then winks cutely to the crowd making the guy's heart melt because of her cuteness.

Rex was standing still while folding his arms, 'That's as expected, her power is way above that Logan guy'

After the match ended, Ivy got down from the Arena but suddenly her eyes met with Rex's.

Her expression turns weird for a second before returning to her usual gentle smile expression, the change in expression was caught by Rex.

'Seems like she hates me too because of the field test', Rex thought sighing.

"Rosie, you ready? I got a feeling you're up next", Rex said while teasing Rosie a bit by poking her waist with his elbow.

Rosie was annoyed and replied, "Stop that! Just see as I shock you with my power", she scoffed loudly but inside she felt nervous, especially when she is only an early rank three.

"Alright, I'll watch over you", Rex said before his eyes glister to look at Rosie's stats,

<Rosie>

Race: Human

Power: Early Rank Three - Wind Elementalist

Mental: 21

Strength: 19 (+5)

Agility: 30 (+5)

Endurance: 12 (+10)

Intelligence: 33

'Well she did improve tremendously, I think she will manage as long as the enemy is not a peak rank three', Rex thought.

The matching board starting to roll again, the roll felt longer to Rosie for some reason but then suddenly the matching board stops.

The name the matching board displayed makes the surrounding students silent,

"Next match, Rosie from class 1-B and Adhara from class 1-C please get inside the ring", the referee said loudly breaking the silent atmosphere.

The words sent lightning to Rosie's mind, she was stunned.

Her mind went blank for a while, "Eh? ADHARA?!", she shouted feeling shocked.

Rex was also shocked beside Rosie, 'Out of all the students that are in here, she has to fight Adhara', Rex thought, feeling sorry for Rosie.

"It's okay, just do your best", Rex said trying to cheer Rosie on although it sounds dry.

Rosie glances at Rex and saw a gist of doubt in Rex's expression, she gritted her teeth and walks to the Arena.

"A fight between Rex's girlfriend and his mistress is about to begin"

"Mistress? Adhara? Why did you say that?"

"Well, I saw Rex flirting with Adhara. Forget it, even thinking about it makes me mad", the guy thought with a scene where Adhara got choked with a satisfied expression seeps past his mind.

Rosie arrives at the Arena with cold feet, she held her sword tightly as she saw Adhara enters the Arena with a calm look.

"Should I go easy on you?", Adhara said calmly.

Hearing this, Rosie gritted her teeth in frustration.

Rosie knows that Adhara is way stronger than her, especially when she knows that Adhara got almost half of the points during the field test alone by killing countless Skeletons.

Rosie then gets into her battle stance as she replies, "You better not regret going easy on me"

Adhara scoffed, "Please, Don't overestimate yourself"

Rex got closer to the Arena just in case, he feels that Adhara is not her usual self because of the Dark Moon approaches.

Rex looks at Adhara's stats and widened his eyes,

<Adhara Alpenore>

Race: Half-Werewolf (Silverstar)

Power: Mid Rank Three - Fire Elementalist

Mental: 32

Strength: 26 (+7)

Agility: 30 (+5)

Endurance: 23 (+3)

Intelligence: 40

Looking at Adhara's stats, Rex was shocked.

'She improve drastically from last time, her physical abilities raise so much is probably because of becoming a half-Werewolf', Rex thought but seeing her intelligence, Rex knows Adhara is probably working hard.

"The same rules applied to both of you", the referee said as both Rosie and Adhara nodded their head.

Just as the Referee wanted to start the match, Adhara stopped him and said, "Wait, just to be fair"

Adhara stripped her armor off,

This scene makes Rosie's eyes widened in shock, "You!", Rosie felt hurt, she thought that Adhara and she are close but who would've thought she mocks her this much.

The students watching are also gasping in surprise,

"She's that confident huh?"

"Well, they have a beef with each other so this seems right"

"Did you forget? Adhara and Rex is like an unstoppable duo during the field test compared to Rosie who passed out cold during the field test, she is more compatible with Rex"

"Oh yeah! Now that you said it, this will be an easy win for Adhara"

A woman sitting on the vice-principals seat is looking at Adhara with interest, her eyes are blazing with passion as she looks at Adhara.

The referee looks at Adhara, "Are you sure?"

Adhara nodded her head before the referee shouted loudly, "BEGIN!!!"

Swiftly after the referee starts the battle, Adhara already condensed fire mana on her hands and shouted, "Burning Scimitars!!!"

Immediately after,

Sixteen scimitars appeared above Adhara, the scimitars are circling around above Adhara's head like a hawk stalking at its prey.

Her Burning Scimitars becomes stronger than before,

During the field test, she can only summon up to 12 scimitars but now it increased to 16 scimitars.

Rosie can feel the power behind the scimitars, the condensed mana is more powerful than anything she comes up with.

Adhara points one of her fingers to Rosie,

One fire scimitar that is circling above her head suddenly jolted, it then spins its body making a burning blaze of fire heading towards Rosie.

WHOOSH!!

Rosie gritted her teeth and shouted, "Dual Wind Blade!!"

Wind Mana converges onto Rosie's hands, she then slashes both of her hands towards the burning scimitars.

SWOOSH!!

Two wind blades slashed the air and went straight to the burning scimitars, Adhara smiles mockingly seeing Rosie's attempt.

Both attacks collided with each other,

Contrasting with what Rosie expect, the wind blades that collided with the burning scimitars immediately dissipated as the burning scimitars becomes even bigger than before.

Her eyes went round in surprise, "Boost!", the wind element gathers at Rosie's feet as she rolls to the side avoiding the burning scimitars.

BOOM!!

The ground exploded because of the scimitars, the impact sent shockwaves to the surroundings even managing to push Rosie to the edge of the Arena.

'Adhara has a natural counter to Rosie, Fire will only become stronger against the wind element. I'm afraid she can't win this', Rex thought.

Rosie got up from the ground, 'I'm too weak, Adhara is way stronger than even I anticipated'

"Are you feeling like giving up now?", Adhara said calmly, in her eyes Rosie is not even an opponent that can make her go serious.

Without even answering Adhara,

Rosie musters the wind element around her as her body glows with a green hue, she then imbued her sword with wind elements.

The sword on Rosie's hand glows green, the sharpness of the sword increased because of the wind element.

SWOOSH!!

She dashes like a gust of wind, her speed is faster than before making the lower-ranking students unable to see her movement.

Adhara saw this as she waves her hand sending the burning scimitars towards Rosie,

Rosie spent her all on this attempt, her sense is put to the max as she dodges each of the scimitars thrown at her.

BOOM!!

BOOM!!

BOOM!!

Rosie dodges each of the attacks by propelling herself left and right, she managed to avoid all of the scimitars because of her speed.

"Futile attempt", Adhara said.

She held her hands up and slam it down sending six scimitars towards Rosie simultaneously,

Seeing this, Rosie gather the wind element below her feet. She jumped avoiding all six of the scimitars.

Adhara was quite surprised but then,

Rosie who is in mid-air suddenly kicks the air behind her, she launches herself towards Adhara's direction, 'Let's use that spell', she thought as her hands glow bright green.

The wind mana becomes more violent on her hands as if the wind itself becomes alive,

She waves her hand, "Way of Enlil"

Beneath Adharas's feet wind elements are gathering like crazy, she wanted to dodge the attack but the win gripped her tightly in place almost sucking her in.

"First Stance, Wind Pillar!!"

WHOOSH!!

The ground beneath Adhara exploded with wind element as Adhara propelled upwards,

Before Adhara has the time to recover, Rosie already appeared in front of her with violent wind on her sword,

The wind on her sword exploded violently, Rosie's eyes turn green as she slashes the air, "Second Stance, Wind Eruption!!"

BOOM!!

Immediately, a wind hurricane that can tear anything apart exploded from her sword heading towards Adhara.

Adhara felt pressured by the hurricane, she can't dodge the attack in mid-air,

'I Win!!', Rosie thought as she saw the hurricane was about to hit Adhara.

Then suddenly Adhara's surprised expression turns into a grin, the rune on her shoulder glows brightly as she disappeared from her spot.

Rosie landed on the ground and jumped backward while looking left and right trying to find Adhara but she can't find her,

"Too bad, you're too slow", a whisper comes from Rosie's back.

Rosie snaps her head to the side and saw Adhara was already behind her, her body glows red.

'When did she?', Rosie thought in surprise then suddenly,

"Ignite!"

BOOM!!!
