

Full-Moon 441

Chapter 441 Silverstar Family

"There's no barrier blocking me to get you now, I'm going to look forward to our little date...My Alpha..."

Rex stepped back in surprise, he was caught off guard by Evelyn's words and wink.

The smeared blood on Evelyn's lips makes her lips look redder and more tempting, it even matches with her blazing red hair and beautiful rosy face that makes Rex gulps harshly.

It may be because of the situation they're in, but somehow Evelyn looks more enticing.

Her torn clothes from the explosion ripped some parts of her clothes around the waist, and back area exposing her smooth skin, the very curvy body added with her mesmerizing but provocative eyes are looking at Rex bringing a weird feeling as if they want him to come closer.

Rex's eyes are locked onto Evelyn's eyes unable to avert his gaze,

The sexual tension started rising as a faint fragrance smell started to cloud Rex's mind, it was not the same usual smell that Evelyn gives off but weirdly different.

Unconsciously, Rex's body is already attached to Evelyn.

His muscular arms are already wrapping around Evelyn's waist while she lets this all happen still staring at Rex's eyes, the powerful urge started to increase Rex's confidence to get closer.

Their faces are already an inch away tilting to the opposite sides,

Even their warm breaths are already brushing off of their faces, they were locked on the moment but when their lips were about to connect with each other,

Growl!

Both of them stopped when they heard Delta growling from the back.

Rex stopped upon hearing this before glancing at Evelyn's back, there he saw Delta lying on the ground weakly dispersing the sexual tension in the air instantly.

There was an awkward silence between them as they both realized what they were about to do.

Evelyn bit her lips thinking back to a minute ago when she almost kisses Rex, she then suddenly takes out her phone and grabs Rex's arm.

"What are you doing?", Rex asks in confusion.

Hearing this, Evelyn ignores Rex and pulls him before sitting beside Delta.

After sitting beside Delta, Evelyn pulls Rex closer before she stretches her arm to take a picture with her phone, "Memories remember?", she said with a huge smile.

"It's a big moment, you actually defeated Wesley", she added.

Evelyn also didn't forget to call for Delta to make her look at the camera,

Since Rex had just fed Delta the white apple before, the side effect of exerting her physical body is starting to take effect but even so, Delta still glances at Evelyn's phone.

Click!

The three of them take a couple of pictures,

Rex didn't retaliate letting it happen, and when they're done he's quite happy with the result.

It's a bit funny seeing Delta trying so hard to squeeze into the picture with her weakened body, some of the pictures even had only Delta's face on it while Evelyn on the side is trying to push Delta from blocking herself.

After taking a picture, "We're already late for the official meeting, let's go", Rex suddenly said.

Hearing this, Evelyn nodded her head without even glancing at Rex as she was still looking at her phone but then, "What about Delta? Is she okay?"

"Come with me for a sec, I've had a place where she can rest", Rex replied.

After saying that, Rex grabs Delta's huge body as she growls weakly before he lifts her up easily as if Delta's weight is only a couple of hundred pounds.

With the stats he has now, lifting Delta's weight is easy.

Rex brings Delta along with Evelyn deeper into the Emham Forest before they stopped in front of a hole, it's the entrance of the Cluster Domain he owned.

"What is this hole?", Evelyn asks while looking at the hole in front of her.

There is a very big broken tree squashed by two big boulders that are even bigger than Delta's body, in between these boulders lies the hole leading to the Cluster Domain.

It's been a while since Rex is here, 'Ugrok should still be here, I wonder what he's up to'

"You'll know when you get inside", Rex said before striding into the hole.

Under Evelyn's eyes, both Rex and Delta's bodies got sucked into the hole before both of them disappear as if they got teleported away.

With a bit of hesitation, Evelyn then follows after them.

ZONG!

Evelyn opened her eyes when she can feel that she is in a different place, and true enough, the sight that she was seeing right now differ from the Emham Forest.

"It's Emham Forest, but why is it looks different?", she mutters while looking around.

Hearing this, Rex then replied from the side shocking her, "This is a Cluster Domain, it's like another dimension of Emham Forest but handmade"

"If that's the case, has anyone ever tried getting in here except you?", Evelyn asks curiously.

Although the hole is well hidden, there's no guarantee that from the many Awakened that are training here, not one has managed to spot this hole.

But Rex shakes his head, "No one can get inside without my permission"

The last time when Rex transferred the ownership of the Cluster Domain from Ugrok to him, the system told him that he has absolute control over the Cluster Domain.

When Rex ran after Adhara into the Cluster Domain, Ugrok probably forgot to close it.

"Ugrok!", Rex shouted after answering Evelyn's questions.

Evelyn was surprised upon hearing Rex shout before a huge creature suddenly landed right beside them, she was surprised as the weight of the creature even makes the ground tremble.

She looks at the creature before she slowly raises her gaze,

The creature is way taller than her or even Rex with a thick body that can make the ground tremble, she even needs to look up just to see the creature's eye.

Upon seeing the creature, Evelyn gasps, "This can't be..."

"Cyclop is real?!", she exclaimed in surprise.

Rex looks at Ugrok and saw some noticeable changes in his body, his size has increased.

'Sixth rank... Cyclop race is truly terrifying', Rex thought seeing Ugrok get stronger once more.

For someone who is kept in a Cluster Domain without any resources whatsoever, Ugrok advancement can be considered very fast that trump over the majority of Awakened.

This just shows how powerful of a race Cyclop are,

But then, Rex noticed that there was somekind of lightning spark around Ugrok's body.

It surprised him at first but upon seeing Ugrok's stats, Rex find that Ugrok somehow gained lightning affinity, 'Is it because of the Energy Crystal? Probably...', he thought.

After noticing Rex visited them,

Ugrok looks down before he said, "It's been quite some time, What does Ugrok need to do?"

"This is Delta, I want you to look after her for a while", Rex puts Delta down lightly.

Hearing this, Ugrok nodded his head before his eyes landed on Evelyn who is still looking at him with wide eyes, "I am Ugrok, Ugrok wants to know your name", he asks with a rough voice.

"O-Oh... I'm Evelyn", Evelyn replied still in a daze.

She then glances at Rex signaling for him to explain how can there be a Cyclop in front of her, but when Rex was about to explain,

"Woohoo!"

Blitz!

A streak of lightning suddenly started to circle them excitedly,

Evelyn looks at the streak of lightning before her eyes widen once more, it's another Cyclop but this one is much leaner and has two eyes, unlike Ugrok.

"Dyrmir! Stop or Ugrok will be angry!", Ugrok warned before Dyrmir stopped running around.

Just from scanning Dyrmir, Rex found something interesting.

'He's on a brink of reaching the fourth rank and also has an affinity to lightning, if he's a half-human can he be an Awakened too?', Rex thought while rubbing his chin.

But then, Rex saw the utter disbelief in Evelyn's expression.

He chuckled a bit before he finally explained, "Long story short, Ugrok and Dyrmir here are the remaining survivors of the Cyclop Race. They have been living here and swore to me to not attack humans, that is why I spare them"

While Rex is explaining, Dyrmir who noticeably got taller approach, Evelyn.

"Dyrmir's name is Dyrmir, Are you a human? What's your name?", Dyrmir asks curiously.

Evelyn can only smile wryly as she looks at the small Dyrmir very contrasting to Ugrok who has become even bigger than Delta, the contrast dazed her too much.

A moment later,

After putting Delta in the Cluster Domain to rest, Rex and Evelyn got out of the Emham Forest.

Upon leaving Emham Forest premises, Rex saw the others are waiting for him.

But he was dazed by his thoughts, 'Who is Wesley's backer?'

'If they can even clear the university and its surrounding, the backer must be a part of the UWO', he thought but then suddenly he widen his eyes as he suspects someone.

He's unsure but it's a possibility, 'Let's see if he's really the one'

After thinking about that, Rex focuses back on his front.

Rex looks to the side before he saw his parents looking at him, with a sigh he then approached them, "Mom... Robert... I want to say th-"

"There's nothing to say son, you're a grown man and you can make your own choices"

"We will not judge you, I rather you do that than you get killed"

Both Robert and Mrs. Greene express their support knowing the mental burden Rex must've felt showing that to them, so they decided to just trust in Rex and hope for the best.

Hearing this, Rex was stunned before he smiles lightly, "Thank you..."

After saying that, Rex's eyes then landed on the neatly lined luxurious cars that are parked in front of the Emham Forest with many people that wear bodyguard attire.

It seems they're from the Platchi and Reed family,

But Rex's eyes didn't look at the cars and bodyguards for long, his eyes landed on a man leaning beside a car with a wide smile on his face.

That man is none other than Edward,

Rex approached Edward before he glanced at the one distinctive cars,

All the other cars that are lined up in front of the Emham Forest are the same model, a luxurious black sedan with tinted windows.

The one that Edward is leaning on is not a black sedan, but a sports car instead.

"I see that you already take the initiative to take your rewards before me", Rex said while pointing at the sports car with his eyes.

Hearing this, Edward smiled even wider, "The latest blue chrome GT-R"

"Zero to sixty in just below 2.5 seconds, I'll take this as you paying your debt for my destroyed car in that misty mountain", he added while smoking his cigarette.

Rex shakes his head before a woman approached him from the side,

The woman is Audrey, the woman that is holding a gun beside Stevanus before, "This is the takeover details of the Atkins Family business, all of them are taken over successfully through our raid", she said before handing Rex clipped papers.

"You're going to be surprised by it", Edward added from the side.

Rex took the clipped papers before reading them briefly,

After reading it for a moment, the smile on Rex's face becomes even more evident the further he read through the clipped papers.

Seeing Rex's smile, Audrey looks at Rex in a bit of awe.

She can't believe that the person in front of him is the one who took down the Atkins Family, not only a family that is above the Reed Family in terms of ranks but also their rival.

Just from this feat alone, Audrey has become very polite in front of Rex.

The thought that she was acting hostile to him before when Rex talked with Stevanus Reed gave her goosebumps, her family can also be defeated if even Wesley Atkins died at Rex's hands.

Snapping out of her daze, she then explains simply,

"The Atkins businesses have a total net worth of 400 billion dollars, as per the deal you made with sir Stevanus Reed we'll be taking 10% of the business. In total, you, Rex Silverstar now owned 360 billion dollars business making you the fourth-youngest and richest person in the whole Ratmawati City"

Hearing this, Rex was at a loss for words as he heard what Audrey said.

Even though Wesley gave him a hard time living in constant stress, the end of their conflict gave him so much wealth that he might just thank Wesley's tomb later.

It's mind-blowing how much this wealth is for a person like him.

"You want to smoke?", Edward suddenly shoves a cigarette in Rex's direction, there's a teasing smile on his face which makes Rex can't help but chuckle.

Having a great day, Rex takes the cigarette, "Why the fuck not"

At the event of the official meeting between UWO and SCO,

The event is held in sector 2A which is a very small and elite place, only the 25 Golden Crest Families can buy land in sector 2, and sector 2A can only be owned by the top ten families.

Aside from that, this place has very strict regulations where one can't act freely.

Even the top ten of the 25 Golden Crest Families need to follow these strict rules, if they don't then they will be penalized by the UWO and FAA or even hunted.

Everlasting Wonder is the place where the event is currently held,

It's a spacious open place that can only be entered by a few people, for lower-class citizens, this place is like a holy ground where the strongest of the strongest can enter. The place spans about three or four miles in length and width, beautiful white marble blocks are decorating the ground with a tall temple-like stage in the middle.

This place is used by the ninth rank Awakened to fuel the barrier surrounding Ratmawati City.

Ratmawati City is covered with a barrier that is made for dozens of years by the combination of powerful Awakened and formation master, their combined effort created a building called Jewel of Last Hope that can create this humongous barrier covering Ratmawati City.

But the Jewel of Last Hope must be maintained, Arcane Mana is the fuel of this building.

Everlasting Wonder is a place to fuel the Jewel of Last Hope, but now it is used by the UWO to officially meet with the SCO in front of the public as a sign of courtesy or even power.

Many people are dying to get here as this is a very rare occasion.

p Hundreds of thousands of people are gathered around the Everlasting Wonder, the air in the Everlasting Wonder brings a very pleasant feeling and comfort.

Aside from the beautiful white scenery decorated with beautiful mutated plants,

Everlasting Wonder is square-shaped and surrounded by manmade flowing water that added a holy feeling to the place, fresh and fragrant air, elegant design constructed by the best of the best, and also statues of the current ninth rank Awakened are carved around the place.

Just like its name, this is a place where Wonders exist.

The crowd started to burst into a discussion as they look at the temple-like stage.

Since it's very hard to see what's happening on the stage, there are four big holograms above the temple-like stage showing the condition on the stage for people that are too far away.

On the stage, two sides are sitting opposite each other.

While waiting for the event to start,

Duncan and Maurice who are sitting on their side of the family is whispering with each other,

"Is Rex going to be here?"

"Probably not, but I wouldn't be surprised if he suddenly decided to attend the meeting"

Each of the families of the 25 Golden Crest has its own seats,

About seven seats organized in three rows are prepared for each of the families, one elegant golden chair in the first row followed by the others in the back rows.

There is quite a gap between them, so the Platchi's whispers can't be heard.

Aside from the Platchi Family whispering with each other, other families are looking at the empty seats where the Atkins Family should be sitting.

Sebrof is sitting calmly on his seat while keeping a straight posture,

In front of the nine-headed crow muscular man, Sebrof needs to keep a strong front as he calmly kept his gaze on the nonchalant nine-headed eyes.

But then, a person walks over to Sebrof and whispers,

The moment Sebrof hears what the person said, he's having a hard time to kept his composed expression as his expression started to waver while gripping the seat handle.

Just as the air around him changes, a commotion appears from far away,

This attracted the attention of the people on the stage as they thought it was the Atkins Family.

At the entrance of the Everlasting Wonder, a couple of black sedans arrived at the entrance attracting the crowd on the edge of the place.

Dozens of Awakened wearing bodyguards outfits came out of the black sedans,

Each one of them walks around the cars before standing neatly creating somekind of path beside a particular car, all of them then bowed when the door opened.

Sebrof who is glancing at the commotion squints his eyes,

As a powerful Awakened, the distance between the stage and the commotion is not a problem for him as he can clearly see the black sedans, "It can't be...", he mutters.

But then suddenly, Sebrof widen his eyes when he saw the person walking out of the car.

The shocked expression on Sebrof's face can't be hidden as he can't believe who is he seeing right now, his expression even makes the nine-headed crow man glance at the commotion.

Adhara wearing a neat silver outfit came out of the car followed by Evelyn,

"Isn't that Adhara Alpenore? Rex's woman?"

"Adhara? What is she doing walking on the red carpet like that?"

"Why is she coming out from there? That's only for the 25 Golden Crest Families, and why the hell is Evelyn with her?"

From the bickering of the crowd, they were surprised by the sudden arrival.

But then suddenly, Evelyn and Adhara stopped in their tracks just standing beside the door as if they were waiting for someone.

Just a moment after that,

BLITZ!

A black lightning strike descends from the sky surprising the onlookers,

Many of the guards immediately held their weapons expecting an attack, but after the smoke produced by the black lightning strike receded, a muscular man wearing the same silver attire just like Adhara's appears.

Looking at this, the guards' tense bodies relaxed once more as they recognize the macular man.

It makes Sebrof face darken when he saw the muscular man,

The muscular man creates an even bigger commotion as the crowd realized that it was Rex, they all are surprised and confused at the same time by his arrival.

Rex fixated his eyes on the stage after using his Ether Blink,

Straightening his back, Rex gazes around the place with his chin slightly lifted up, after doing that he ignores the crowd and fixated his eyes back on the stage.

With his very sharp vision,

Rex stood on his spot with his dominant posture while locking his eyes on Sebrof who is also looking at him from the stage, their gazes clash with each other.

Both of their gazes collide before a smile crept on Rex's face,

Rex then walks through the red carpet leading to the stage with confident steps.

The crowd was bustling upon seeing Rex heading to the stage, even some of the other families are looking at this in surprise, especially the Luc Family.

Evelyn's father is surprised to see Evelyn is walking beside Rex,

Rex slowly steps toward the stage with a stoic expression while keeping eye contact with Sebrof, he didn't avert his gaze to anywhere aside from Sebrof.

Each of his steps makes an illusionary thundering sound to the onlookers' ears,

It didn't take long before Rex reaches the stage where the SCO and UWO representatives are sitting, he then started ascending the stairs calmly.

Under everyone's eyes on the stage,

Rex walks slowly with confident steps passing by the seats of the other 25 Golden Crest Families before stopping at the empty seat, he then glances around the stage.

But then, under everyone's surprised eyes Rex did the unthinkable.

With one swift motion, Rex sat on the head family seat where the Atkins Family should be before he leans his cheek on his fist showing his calmness to the others.

"My apologies for being late, I'm here to replace the Atkins Family"

"I will be representing... the Silverstar Family"

Chapter 442 Lectured By A Kid

"I will be representing... the Silverstar Family"

BOOM!

Everyone on the stage and even the entire Everlasting Wonder were shocked to their core upon hearing what Rex said, it was like a bomb exploding inside their heads.

The story of Rex leading the descendants is still fresh,

Nobody expected that the rising star from Ochyra University that transferred to Faraday University will be able to lead the descendants like that, much less create a family.

But the top ten rank families recover the fastest as they seem to already know.

Just like Duncan said before, the other families probably knew about Wesley Atkins' fight with him so what shocks them the most is that Rex actually won.

The others on the other hand are utterly shocked since they don't know anything.

"Silverstar Family? Does Rex intend to create a Family?!"

"R-Rex replaced the Atkins Family?!"

"What happened to the Atkins Family?! Did something happen to them?"

"Silverstar family... He's making his own family just like Alex!"

All of the crowd of people that are present at the place was aghast seeing Rex's sudden arrival and announcement, many questions filled their heads as they are all confused.

Each people that are watching from home or present here exploded into a heated discussion.

It's simply unthinkable that Rex who was known as one of the prominent students turns out like this, the turn of events shocks them so much.

Amongst the crowd, there is a particular person that is shocked the most.

"Rex?! Since when did he become this influential?", the person mutters while looking at Rex crossing his legs on the hologram above the temple-like stage.

But the roar of the crowd went silent once more thanks to the guards,

Seeing this, the nine-headed crow man glance at Prof. K who is averting his gaze, "So that's why you're late Prof. K, this is so unlike you", the man whispers.

"I didn't do anything at all", Prof.K defended while still averting his eyes.

The nine-headed crow man smiles in amusement before he then looks at Sebprof who seems to be very surprised, "Don't you need to explain this, Sebprof?"

Hearing this, Sebprof snapped out of his daze and looks at the nine-headed crow man.

"It doesn't matter, today's event is to show our alliance to the public. Anything else besides that can be discussed at a later date", Sebprof replied with a darkened look.

Sebprof didn't forget to turn off his mic so the crowd didn't hear what he said.

After the sudden turn of events, the official meeting continues with a very tense air around the stage as Rex who just declared that he's replacing the Atkins Family sat amongst them.

Many family heads are unable to say anything as they're still in front of the public.

They all can just stay silent while Rex is sitting amongst them calmly, there's not one hint of worry in his demeanor as he follows through the entire event.

At the start, Sebrof gave a speech about their current circumstances with the Supernatural.

Jax, who is the nine-headed crow man is next.

Just like what Sebrof did, Jax did the same but he instead introduced himself and explain the purpose of his organization in helping humanity fight the Supernatural using other means than being an Awakened like the UWO.

The speech covers everything about the SCO,

Each of the messengers is introduced to the public, their latest astonishing invention that can help humanity such as the guns Prof. K developed, and even briefly explaining how they can make people that are not an Awakened possess such an inhuman strength.

It sparks some interest even for the 25 Golden Crest Families,

Some of the crowds are also given the opportunity to ask Jax about all the things related to the SCO, the public trust is important after all.

With confidence and air that seems to instill people with a sense of security,

Jax answers all of the questions convincingly without a momentary pause, the crowd's vision of the SCO started to change as the misunderstanding is cleared from their name.

At first, people's view of the SCO is very bad.

Their view of the SCO is the doctrines of the UWO, people thought that they were bad people.

But all of that was cleared by Jax and Sebrof as they explained that it was a misunderstanding, their friction is not caused by bad intention but rather the SCO trying to prove themselves.

Everything came out naturally from Jax's mouth, it's the air of a powerful leader or a King.

It comes to the point where each of the 25 Golden Crest Families is asked one by one whether they agree to the alliance or not, and everything went smoothly.

Rex is also included although the Silverstar Family's appearance is very recent,

'This is how it should be, humanity joining together to fight the Supernatural back', Rex thought as he scans his eyes around, he still can't believe that he plays a big role in this realization.

If not for him and Prof. K, maybe both organizations will still be fighting against each other.

The Supernatural will unknowingly be benefitted from their fights, and Rex will not let the Supernatural benefit from this further.

But then, Rex's eyes suddenly landed on a woman.

Just from a glance Rex immediately realized who this woman is, the woman looking at him is Giana who also sat amongst the 25 Golden Crest Families.

Her eyes are fixated on Rex, 'Why is she looking at me like that?', he thought.

Aside from that, Rex also finds that the head family seat of the first rank family is empty, only Gerrard and a woman that seems to be his mother is sitting there.

But then, Rex caught Daniel glancing at him a couple of times.

'I need to explain this to Daniel, Wesley is his son-in-law after all', Rex thought.

Although Daniel looks at Rex a couple of times with curious gazes and a hint of hostility, Rex knows that Daniel can't talk to him directly with his wife on his side.

Wesley's wife is Daniel's bastard daughter after all,

After the sun was about to set, the event ended with Sebrof and Jax shaking hands.

The shaking hands is a sign of their alliance in front of the public, and the public cheered for this since the UWO will not be alone anymore in fighting against the Supernatural.

Black hands will be helping them, and it won't take long before humanity becomes stronger.

Just after the event ended, the crowd dispersed.

Many of the guards that are scattered around the Everlasting Wonder started to guide the crowd to leave the place, this is still a holy place and needs to be secured.

Rex stands up from his seat when he sees the other families leaving.

"About four of the top ten families are hostile to you, I can read them but I think they're still wary since you defeated Wesley Atkins", Adhara whispers from the side.

Hearing this, Rex nodded his head, 'Well, it's as expected', he thought.

After nodding his head, Rex looks to the side and finds Adhara is not at all nervous which surprised him since he thought that she will be nervous in front of these powerful people.

But she's giving a very elegant front instead, she even gave him a sense of pride as a man.

Instead of descending down from the stage just like the others, Rex waited on the side as the other 25 Golden Crest Families left while he waits for Sebrof.

Upon descending down, Jax gave Rex a look before he also leave.

The messengers of the SCO also knew about Rex's endeavor, so they didn't say anything and act normal as they all went down off the stage leaving Sebrof.

"Go to Daniel and explain this to him", Rex whispers to Adhara.

With a nod, Adhara also went down but she then whispers before leaving Rex, "His emotional aura is dark green, it's not greed I'm sure of it. It must be something else"

Sebrof's eyes are looking at Rex sharply as he said while lighting up a cigarette, "You even made your own family uniform, I assume that you already planned this to happen"

"What are you talking about? I'm only here to replace the Atkins Family", Rex replied.

But Sebrof scoffed, "Stop the nonsense, I know you killed Wesley Atkins and took over his entire business for yourself. Are you not afraid of the consequences?"

"If we're going that way, then why did you help Wesley?", Rex asks back boldly.

During the Atkins Family attack, the university and its surroundings are devoid of people which should involve the hand of someone in the UWO that has the authority to do that.

Added with Sebrof's look earlier, Rex already knows that it's him.

There's no one that has the authority greater than him in the entire Ratmawat City, Sebrof controls everything including the 25 Golden Crest Families.

Some families might argue back but technically he's above them in power.

Upon hearing the accusation, Sebrof frowned for a moment.

"I never helped Wesley, you must make a mistake", he replied nonchalantly.

Rex re-position his seat to face Sebrof before he sat there again calmly, he gazes at Sebrof before he added, "You said to stop the nonsense, then why are you still talking nonsense?"

There is a slight pause after Sebrof hears this,

"You lied to me, you're a part of the SCO all along", Sebrof said squinting his eyes.

Although Rex was surprised upon hearing this, he kept his neutral expression, 'Wesley might've told Sebrof to help to take me down, but I don't think that is it', he thought.

Rex looks back at Sebrof before he replied, "Wesley told you about it huh?"

"But you've been attacking me from the start way before you confirmed that I worked with the SCO, what is your true reason for aiming me, Sebrof?", Rex said questioningly.

It's a hunch, but Rex believes that Sebrof has other reasons.

Hearing this, Sebrof looks at Rex dead in the eyes for a couple of seconds before he finally said, "Every time I'm fighting Supernatural or even in danger, my feeling always alert me"

"I trust my gut feeling, and my gut is telling me that you're dangerous"

"So, Rex Silverstar... What secrets are you hiding?", Sebrof added inspecting Rex's eyes.

Rex felt his throat dry upon hearing this but he still remain stoic, he then stands up before a thought came to mind, "Is that really the reason? Or are you envious of my power?"

It's a wild guess, but Adhara told Rex that his emotional aura is dark green.

Although Rex has never seen emotional auras before, he knows that green represents nature.

In a person, green represents greed but Adhara told him that it's not greed so if that's not it then there's only one thing left, Resentment.

Hearing this, Sebrof crushed the cigarette in his hand.

Sebrof's expression turns red in anger that even his aura started leaking pressuring Rex in front of him, but even in front of this Rex still calmly gazes at Sebrof although feeling a bit stuffy.

He then added, "I'm sure you know that I have the potential to reach the ninth rank realm"

"So I'm just wondering if the reason you resent me is that you don't want me reaching the ninth rank, since both of our elements are lightning..."

The words that came from Rex's mouth make Sebrof's expression darken,

But without even waiting for Sebrof to reply, Rex moves on from the subject with a sigh, "Wesley Atkins wanted to kill me repeatedly and I also tried to make peace with him, but you also know that Wesley is a prideful and arrogant man so he didn't listen and left me with no choice but to fight him head-on"

"The only thing I want is to kill Supernatural, but you people will not leave me in peace"

"So Sebrof... Let me tell you this now, don't make me do what I don't want to do. Don't leave me with only a choice of blood, I don't want any of that. Leave my family alone and you'll see that I will contribute greatly to the war against the Supernatural"

Hearing this, Sebrof looks at Rex in silence before he said, "The other family will not like this"

"Just tell them that the Silverstar Family will be the 25th rank family, I won't meddle with their affairs as long as they don't meddle with mine. In fact, I can help them"

But even still, Sebrof added, "It's not enough, the other families will test you"

"And how about the public? What are you going to do if they find out?"

Since the public opinion for higher class people like them are important, knowing that Rex killed Wesley Atkins no matter the reason will definitely look back.

Sebrof knows this but seeing Rex's expression, it seems he already handled it.

"Let them try, I've got the SCO and some families backing me too. Even without their help, I'll show them that I'm not to be messed with"

"And as for your other question... Don't worry about it", Rex replied with a grin.

He then turns around intending to leave before he stops,

With a glance to the back where Sebrof is still looking at him, Rex added, "Remember, I'm not on the UWO or SCO's side... I'm on humanity's side"

"Don't do anything to change my mind, and one more thing..."

"Supernatural has more ninth rank than the current humanity, you're the leader of Ratmawati City so shove your pride to the side and let me help you. Humanity is at stake here"

After saying that, Rex left the stage under Sebrof's complicated gaze.

Sebrof looks at Rex's back which is getting further away as he stood on his spot, he then takes out another cigarette before he lit it again, "I got lectured by a kid huh...", he mutters.

While walking away, Rex is also in his thoughts.

Today is the day that humanity join forces to fight against the Supernatural, he made this day happen with his own two hands and determination.

It's still overwhelming even though he's the one that did it,

Aside from that, he also made a very clear statement to Sebrof that he doesn't want to be disturbed and wants to just focus on the Supernatural.

Rex even said that the Silverstar Family will be the 25th rank family,

He does that just to tell the other families that he's not a threat, he doesn't want any influential power that will only hinder his growth to take his revenge on the Supernatural.

But even so, Rex is not that naive, 'These next couple of days will be hectic'

'Maybe I should make a statement to the other families very hard so they won't disturb him again, having a reputation similar to the Macias Family will not be bad'

Chapter 443 Friendly Ties

In just a moment,

Rex reached the exit for the 25 Golden Crest Families where he found some of the head families hadn't gone back yet, they were still conversing with each other here.

Some of them have even taken the initiative to make contact with Jax,

Knowing that Jax possesses a serum that can make normal humans as strong as them, the head families are definitely interested in having one of those serums.

In order to get that, they need to befriend Jax first and welcome them as an ally.

Rex even saw Gerrard, Daniel, and Giana talking with Jax alongside the messengers, they are already moving ahead of the other families.

After inspecting the place,

The sight of another gathering of head families attracted Rex's attention, they seem to be waiting for him amongst them are the Luc Family, Reed Family, and the Platchi Family.

'Are they waiting for me?', Rex thought while looking at his front.

Other than the three families that are familiar to him, there are four other head families that Rex doesn't recognize since he's not really familiar with all of the families in the 25 Golden Crest.

Back during the news about the undead mission,

Rex has seen each one of them coming out of the meeting room, but he didn't know them.

Although Rex doesn't recognize those four head families, he does recognize the descendants that are standing beside them clearly.

There are Tyrice, Vanessa, Valery, and Morana.

Looking at Rex approaching them, Evelyn was the one to step forward as she approach Rex and whispered, "I know you don't know who they are, so I'll introduce them to you"

"Thanks for the help", Rex replied with a wry smile.

One of the head families is a middle-aged man with long brown hair, the man steps forward approaching Rex before he stretches his hand forward.

The descendants behind this man are Tyrice and his brother,

As expected of an Earth-related Elementalist, the man has a muscular body as big as Rex but there's a smile on his face, "Rex Silverstar, I heard a lot of things about you from my sons"

"Rex, this is Sir Hector from the Rojas Family", Evelyn introduced.

Hearing this, Rex shakes Hector's hand before he replied with the same smile, "Nice to meet you sir Hector, I've worked with your sons before and they are an exceptional Awakened"

"Compared to you, they are just so-so", Hector replied while glancing at Tyrice.

But after saying that, Hector's expression turns serious, "Although your family's appearance is sudden, I just want to say that I welcome you to the 25 Golden Crest Families"

"I'm thankful for your open arms, sir Hector", Rex replied.

After Hector sent his greetings, the other head families that Rex doesn't know also give Rex their congratulations and greetings after being introduced by Evelyn.

Dario Kai Safran is the head of the Safran Family, Valery's father.

He looks older than the rest of the head families in Rex's opinion, but that might be caused by the burn wound on Dario's cheek all the way to his neck.

Without even looking at Dario's stats, Rex knows that he's a Fire Elementalist.

Bakari Patterson is the head of the Patterson Family, Morana's father.

Unlike Dario that looks fierce with the burn wound on his face, Bakari is the complete opposite having very smooth white skin, crystal clear blue eyes, and white hair and beard.

It might be the effect of being a Grace Water Elementalist for him to have this appearance.

The last one is Vanessa's mother, Luisella Rirgas.

Just like Vanessa and Sabrina, Luisella has blonde hair with dark blue eyes with a calm and cold demeanor, the temperature around Luisella seems to be cold for some reason.

It definitely has something to do with her element,

One of the things Rex notice from her is her very luxurious blue robe with white furs.

"We've heard many things from our child about how you help them during the mission, and for that, we're here to extend our helping hands to pass the next coming days", Bakari said.

Dario also nodded his head, "From your expression, you probably already knew about this"

"Yes, I know that the other families are going to test me and I'm thankful for your help. I will ask for your help if I deem the situation necessary", Rex replied with a nod.

But then, Rex glance at Luisella that is silent all this while.

Upon receiving Rex's questioning glance, Luisella then said with her elegant tone, "My apologies, but I'm here regarding the matter my daughter did to you. I can't help you regarding the other families, but I also want to remain a neutral family to the Silverstar Family"

After hearing this, Dario and Bakari excuse themselves as they have other matters.

Stevanus, Duncan, and Evelyn's father are waiting on the side for Rex to finish his matter with Luisella, it seems they have something to talk about.

"Your daughter exposes our brief encounter to the Atkins Family", Rex replied coldly.

Because Vanessa gives the exact details of what happened during their meeting as a scavenger, it results in the Atkins Family trying to see if he's really a Supernatural.

Although it ended well, things might've gone very badly.

Rex still remembers this but he doesn't pursue it further, other pressing things need his attention and the problem he has with the Rirgas Family can be postponed.

But since the matter is brought up, Rex decided to see if Luisella is an open-minded person.

Luisella sighs as she glances at Vanessa who is looking down to her feet before she turns back to Rex and said, "We prepare to help you in other means than fighting against other families"

"Our family is not combat-ready, so I hope you understand", she added.

Hearing this, Rex then thought for a moment while still keeping eye contact with Luisella who seems to want to settle their differences once and for all.

While Rex is looking at Luisella, he's in fact talking with the system.

'System, how much will it cost to find the exact location for the Sculpture of Replica and Argent Debilitate Liquor?', Rex asks curiously.

Since the matters in the human territory are almost done,

Rex will need to advance his power further by finishing the Blood Moon quest to get King Mark, but for that, he will need to finish the Commitment Quest.

Three items are needed to be collected, and those two Rex has no idea about.

<Location of the Items cannot be bought by the user, buying the location of the items will result in an automatic fail of the Blood Moon Quest>

'Fair enough', Rex thought before he focuses back on Luisella.

After a moment, Rex finally said, "I'm in need of information, I will tell you the items I'm searching for at a later date. If you help me find it then I will pardon Vanessa's blunder"

"Thank you for your generosity sir Rex, then I'll take my leave", Luisella replied.

The three of them then give Rex a light bow of respect before leaving the place, Vanessa didn't forget to apologize once more before they all left.

Rex was left with Duncan, Stevanus, and Evelyn's father.

Duncan came and whisper to Rex, "We already done your request, Kyran did his job well and we already got the proof we need. What are we going to do with it?"

"Just save it, we'll use it if Sebrof decided to do something against us", Rex replied.

Although Sebrof seems to understand where Rex is coming from,

There's no guarantee that he will not do anything to him even though Rex already stated his reasons, a wise leader should be convinced by Rex's words.

But for Sebrof, Rex is still skeptical, 'It's not wrong to prepare for the worst...'

"Are they still there?", Rex asks.

Hearing this, Duncan nodded his head, "Yes, they are waiting for you"

With that, Duncan nodded his head before he excuses himself from the others that are still present waiting for Rex to finish his matters.

Knowing that Evelyn's father seems to be wanting to talk to Rex,

Stevanus then sighs as he said, "I'll be in touch in a couple of days regarding the Atkins Family, Audrey will visit you to talk regarding the future of our ties"

After saying that, Rex nodded his head knowing what he meant.

Even though it's not necessarily Stevanus' fault for Ari to do something to Edward and Kyran, it's still partly his fault for assigning an ambitious man like Ari.

During their meeting, a couple of days back,

Rex told Stevanus about what Ari did and true enough, Stevanus doesn't seem to be that surprised as Ari is known to want to be acknowledged by him very much.

Knowing Rex's source of power will definitely make Ari acknowledged by Stevanus.

But that ends up badly, and now Stevanus has to pay the price.

After nodding his head, Stevanus glanced at Evelyn's father, "Sir Tristan", he greeted, Tristan nodded his head before Stevanus left.

Now there is only Evelyn's father, mother, and Kevin alongside Evelyn on Rex's side,

Rex glanced at Evelyn's father, Tristan before he said, "Sir Tristan, What do I owe the pleasure for you to wait for me? Do you need me for something?"

"No, but there's some serious matter that we need to discuss", Tristan replied.

Hearing this, Rex was confused as he didn't know where this conversation is going, "If that's the case, tell me what it is. You are Evelyn's father after all, so I have a high respect for you"

Tristan's expression didn't budge even under Rex's complimenting words,

Although Rex is sure that he didn't do anything to anger or even upset Tristan, there's a slight tension that appeared out of nowhere as Tristan look at Rex with a sharp gaze.

Even Evelyn is confused upon looking at her father like this, "What is it father?"

"You shut up! This is a talk between me and Rex, don't meddle into this", Tristan replied sternly, and this further confused Evelyn since her father rarely talks like this.

Rex calmly gaze at Tristan waiting for him to speak,

It takes more than a minute of very high tension before Tristan finally opens his mouth, "I know what you did with my daughter... come clear to me now"

'Is he talking about the factories raid? I thought Evelyn said it was okay', Rex thought.

But seeing the sharp glare from Tristan shows him otherwise,

The silence makes Tristan clench his jaw as he inspects Rex with his eyes and seeing that Rex doesn't answer makes him finally snap, "You scoundrel!"

"I know Evelyn is pregnant with your child!", he shouted.

"Eh...?"

Rex who is preparing an excuse for the factory's raid was surprised by Tristan's question.

Out of all the things that he thought Tristan will say,

He didn't expect this at all, it's more confusing the more Rex thought about it since although he's quite intimate with Evelyn it hasn't got that far.

'We haven't gone in that direction yet...!', Rex thought in confusion.

But then he suddenly realized what he just thought, 'What am I saying? Yet? Did I expect something to happen between us?'

"Father! What are you saying!", Evelyn shouted in embarrassment.

But Tristan still has the stern look while he's looking at Rex dead in the eyes, this shows that Tristan is actually serious about asking about this.

Rex smiled wryly, "What makes you come to that conclusion sir Tristan?"

"Don't give me that nonsense! I've heard that Evelyn invited you to her room a couple of times, and even Hector's kid told me that you're sleeping in the same room with Evelyn during the mission from the UWO"

"One of the assigned guards on Evelyn's room told me that Adhara suddenly came to her room angrily, I heard that it has something to do with your mother. What else does that mean if not for what I thought?"

"I know you both are planning to tell us the last because I'm harder to convince!"

Evelyn's mother also wipes her tears with a handkerchief, "My daughter is pregnant..."

The embarrassment that Evelyn was currently feeling was amplified when even Kevin believed what their parents are saying, her face becomes redder by the second.

Unable to contain her embarrassment in front of Rex,

"What are you saying!! Let's go home right now!!", Evelyn shouted before pulling her family away.

Tristan and his wife still struggle to find out the truth as they got pushed by Evelyn away, they're still angry at Rex for having a relationship with Evelyn without them knowing.

She then turns to look at Rex with a red face and said, "I'll see you later Rex!"

"Yeah...sure...see you later", Rex replied with a wry smile.

Although he's still shocked, thankfully it's just a misunderstanding and it didn't cause any problem between him and the Luc Family.

With the Luc Family gone, Rex glance to the side.

The black sedans that are owned by him are already waiting for him with Adhara standing by the cars, she seems to be finished talking with Daniel as Rex approached her.

"Are you done with Daniel?", Rex asks.

Hearing this, Adhara nodded her head, "I've shown him the pictures"

"Daniel is still a bit hurt from Wesley being killed but he didn't pursue the matter, he only told me that we just need to refrain from killing his bastard daughter and her child"

Rex's expression darkened for a second upon hearing this,

Adhara saw the change in expression as she already expected Rex to feel a bit uncomfortable with the request, but Daniel is not Wesley so it's not good to go against him.

"So they intend to kill our families but we can't kill theirs huh...", Rex mutters with a sigh.

After taking a huge deep breath, Rex finally calm himself down before he looks at Adhara, "Fine then, killing them will just create more trouble so let's just leave them be"

"But we still need to meet with them, let's go, he added.

Upon hearing this, Adhara then replied, "Wait, we're going to them right now? To their mansion?"

"Of course, we still got things to do", Rex said shortly before intending to enter the car.

But then Adhara stopped him, "How about the other families that are going to test us? What are we going to do to defend ourselves from them?"

"That's simple, we need more men of course", Rex replied with a grin.

Adhara was confused upon hearing this, she then said, "How can we get more men to join our family? Will we make recruitment of Awakened?"

"No... I need people that are loyal", Rex replied.

After saying that, Rex dial someone on his phone before the other side picks up, "Edward, Do you still have contact with people from the military?"

The person Rex calling turns out to be Edward,

"I still got some of their numbers, why?", Edward asks from the other side.

Hearing this, the grin on Rex's face becomes even wider before he finally said, "Do you recall the Disaster Squad? I want you to contact them..."

Chapter 444 Car Experience And Not Joking

"Do you recall the Disaster Squad? I want you to contact them..."

Upon mentioning the Disaster Squad, Edward went silent for a moment before he finally replied, "I have their contacts but what are you asking about them?"

"Are you trying to create a riot or something? they are brutes", he added.

But Rex only smiles mysteriously which only Adhara can see, "Just call them up, I want to meet with them. I need them for something"

"Even if you want that, What makes you think they're going to come?" Edward asks.

Just like the squad name, the Disaster Squad is a very rebellious and barbaric group that is only sent by the military on a hazardous mission where they want to create chaos on the battlefield.

Only five people are inside the Disaster Squad,

Although these five people are very barbaric that act and walk like literal thugs, they tend to finish the mission perfectly as they are ordered.

Rex then almost instantly replied, "Tell Tandu that I'm calling him"

"Just tell him that I have a ticket for him to meet with Zera, if he heard that then he won't be able to help himself but come to me", he added.

Hearing this, Edward was confused but he then finally agree to hit them up.

After calling Edward, Rex hangs up the phone before he enters the black sedan followed by Adhara that heard his conversation with Edward.

With that, the car drives away leaving the Everlasting Wonder.

Inside the car, Rex is looking outside of the window where buildings, streets, and even people are passing by in a blur.

The car moved through the privilege lane,

Other black sedans are making somekind of formation around Rex's car, it's exactly as if Rex is the president of the Ratmawati City.

Rex seems to be thinking, but he's instead looking at the system.

<The user's legs have been raised by 40 levels!>

<Agility stat increased by 120>

Frevor of Agility is one of the items that he got from the quest he completed after killing Wesley Atkins, absorbing it raised Rex's legs by a whopping 40 levels which is surprising.

His body level is the highest, but now his legs become the highest levels thanks to that.

Now, Rex is looking at another notification from the system.

<Diabolic Claws of the Origin Fragment>

Diabolic Claws of the Origin is one of four unique power possessed by the Werewolf Origin, the Maniac Reaper is one of the nicknames that is bestowed to the Werewolf Origin by those who survive meeting with the Werewolf Origin because of the Diabolic Claws' unique power.

Requirement to use: Finish the third Blood Moon quest

After reading the description of the Diabolic Claws of the Origin Fragment, Rex sat on his seat in thought as he find something new.

Out of all the time he possessed the system,

Not once did he find a requirement to absorb an item, every item that he got from the system can be absorbed directly without having to meet any requirement.

But this one has a requirement, and Rex frown because of this.

Aside from that, the description from the system didn't tell him the exact power that will be granted to him if he decided to use this fragment.

'System, what does this item give me upon using it?', Rex asks.

<Giving the information about the Diabolic Claws of the Origin Fragment will bring severe consequences, Does the user want to continue?>

The warning from the system stopped Rex to ask further,

But he's still curious so he decided to change the question, 'Is it because of the Origin's power?'

<Power of the Origin is so vast that even without the presence of the Origin itself, the power will still dwell until the end of time. Nothing can undo the Origin power except for other Origins>

Shaking his head, Rex then decided to think it some more.

Although Rex is still skeptical about the Diabolic Claws of the Origin, he knows that absorbing the item will definitely make him stronger since it's a fragment of the Origin.

Out of nowhere, "So, What is this Disaster Squad?"

Rex snapped out of his thoughts and glanced at Adhara on his side, he then closed his eyes recalling the time he's in the memory, "It's another special unit of the military"

"I'm from the USR a scouting-based unit while the Disaster Squad is a special unit that is known to focus on creating as much havoc as possible, but that's not the only thing going on for them. I know one of the people in the Disaster Squad and turns out the Disaster Squad is a jack of all trade squad, their members each is an expert at something"

Hearing this, Adhara nodded her head listening to Rex's explanation.

But she then suddenly said, "Now that I think about it, you've never talked about your life in the military. I only know that you're in the military since young"

"There's nothing to talk about", Rex replied nonchalantly.

Adhara saw a change in Rex's emotion aura upon shifting the conversation to the military.

Realizing that his life in the military is quite sensitive, Adhara changes the topic of the conversation back, "What are you going to do with the Disaster Squad?"

"I've told you before, we need men", Rex replied with a smirk.

Upon hearing this, Adhara widen her eyes as she realized what Rex is about to do, "Don't tell me you're going to make them all an Awakened?!"

Rex only smile in reply hearing what Adhara said,

Just from the smile alone, Adhara knows Rex is not joking around about this.

"I'll support everything you do but what are you going to do to make them loyal just like you said earlier?", Adhara asks in confusion.

As Rex said before, he wanted people that are loyal.

The Disaster Squad from Rex's explanation seems to have a bad reputation albeit it's not what it looks like, but surely they're not going to instantly be loyal to Rex

Hearing this, Rex smirks again, "You'll see..."

After saying that, the inside of the car becomes silent again.

About five or ten minutes later, Adhara glances to the side and finds Rex looks to be tired but he seems to not want to rest since they still have things to do.

His eyes are blinking slowly, today is a hectic day so it's not a surprise to see him like this.

Out of nowhere, Adhara suddenly got an idea.

While Rex is enjoying the soft and nice seat he's sitting on with the sector view from the window, he suddenly glances to the right feeling Adhara is moving.

Upon looking at his side, Rex frowned, "What are you doing?"

"I know you're tired and sleepy, but I know just the thing to make you wide awake", Adhara said while unbuttoning the top button of her silver outfit, she did it slowly and in a way that can make Rex gulp harshly feeling his throat becoming dry.

Under Rex's eyes, Adhara takes off her silver outfit entirely.

But she didn't stop there, she then takes off her white t-shirt underneath her silver outfit exposing her silky smooth skin and the white undergarment she was wearing.

Although Rex is tired, his eyes were opened wide upon seeing this.

The seats inside the black sedan are facing each other with quite a spacious space in the middle, the driver's seat is separated from the backseat with an automatic small window.

It's just like a government official car that gives privacy to the backseat.

Because of that, the driver can't see and hear what is happening in the backseat if the people in the backseat don't want them to.

Even the voice from the backseat can only be heard by the driver through a button.

If the people in the backseat press the button, then the driver will be able to hear them but if not then the driver can't hear anything.

After taking off her upper clothes leaving only her white bra,

With a teasing smile, Adhara kneels in front of Rex who is sitting with his eyes fixated on Adhara, "It's been a while since we did it because of the things happening"

"Let me help you relax", she added sending a shiver on Rex's body.

It's like an electric current that travels through his body just from hearing the words coming out of Adhara's mouth, his legs feel weak suddenly because of that.

Gulping harshly, Rex then mutters, "Right now?"

"Why? Are you afraid that we will get caught?", Adhara asks.

Her hands then landed on Rex's thigh which makes Rex's legs weaker, he then replied, "Of course! I don't want anyone seeing you half-naked like this"

Hearing this, Adhara chuckles sweetly as she didn't expect that answer.

Although Rex has a serious look on his face, it can't help but make Adhara quite happy seeing how surprising and possessive Rex's words can be.

With a chuckle, Adhara suddenly said, "Igor... backseat privacy mode please"

"Backseat Privacy Mode is active"

Right after Adhara said that a robotic sound that came from the speaker inside the car replied to her which makes Rex confused, but then the window on Rex's side turns darker and the driver's seat window makes a clicking sound.

"Igor? Did Wesley name the voice service his bastard son?", Rex asks in surprise.

But he then added, "More importantly, How did you know that?"

Seeing the confused look on Rex's expression makes Adhara smile teasingly, she can't help but unzip Rex's pants as she said, "Are you sure that's what you're going to focus on?"

"I know it's private bu- wait- calm down!"

The tiredness that Rex was feeling was replaced by something else as Adhara started working, his body becomes tense and he was unable to even mutter any words.

He even presses his hand on the side of the car as his body becomes tense.

Only a slight rough moan escape his mouth, nothing else.

Seconds turn into a minute, the driver kept driving the car proficiently without knowing that Rex is currently feeling like heaven on earth because of Adhara in the backseat.

A moment later,

The black sedan Rex is in arrives in front of a big mansion after four hours of driving.

Although sector two is not as big as sector three, four, and five the traffic caused by people attending the official meeting makes a half an hour ride becomes four hours.

It takes very long to get here but Rex felt it went by like a breeze,

The driver opened the door gently before Adhara walks out of the car with a bright smile on her face, she looks at the big mansion in front of her with maids waiting by the door.

Adhara even hummed a little while drinking a bottle of water as she walked toward the door.

In the back, Rex followed after but he need to support himself by holding onto the car.

'What the fuck?! How many times was it? My legs are freaking numb!', Rex thought as he tries to stand up, his expression is stoic as there are many Awakened here.

<The Female Alpha has pleased the user, Obtained 500,000 Exp>

The notification from the system is different, but Rex has already seen this notification like two dozen times during the four-hour ride which sapped his strength.

Rex sighs, 'Didn't she want to help me relax? this is not relaxing!', he thought.

Still keeping his stoic expression as his reputation must be maintained, Rex wanted to get out of the car but his legs are not listening to him.

"Are you okay sir Rex?", the driver asked.

Since the driver is the closest to Rex getting out of the car, the driver saw Rex's legs are slightly trembling which confused the driver very much.

But Rex raises his hand, "I'm fine"

After a couple of seconds, Rex finally got out of the car before rubbing his tensed neck.

Raising his gaze to look at his front, Rex then also heads to the door.

Upon seeing Rex get out of the car, all of the Awakened that guarded this mansion immediately bowed their heads while Rex walk past them.

The mansion is very big and luxurious,

Rex got out right in front of the mansion beside a water fountain with many luxurious cars parked inside, even the fence to enter the mansion turns out to be a quarter-mile long.

Because of the privacy mode, Rex didn't realize the mansion is this big.

After arriving in front of the door into the mansion,

The maids opened the door for Rex exposing the spacious golden filled color living room, six people are already sitting on the sofa there including Adhara.

Just from a glance, Rex finds Edward and Kyran sitting on the sofa.

On the opposite sofa, three people sat there with two being a woman while the other one is a boy not older than Kyran from the looks of it.

Although Rex didn't request it, the single sofa is reserved for him.

Upon seeing Rex walking inside the mansion, the three people sitting on the opposite white and golden sofa stand up while their eyes are looking down to the ground.

Rex signals for them to sit back down before he sat on the single sofa,

The green-haired woman that is around Rex's age is recognized instantly, she's Wesley's daughter, Jane Atkins.

Beside her are her little brother and her mother, Margaret.

Crossing his legs in a dominant manner, Rex then gazes at the three remaining Atkins before he fixated on Margaret and finally opens his mouth, "Do you know why I'm here, Margaret?"

"It's regarding the business handover", Margaret replied with a calm look.

Rex squints his eyes when he saw her calm look before he asks again pointing at Kyran and Edward, "Do you know about your husband's affairs? Did these two tell you yet?"

Hearing this, Margaret's expression twitch a bit before she replied, "Yes..."

"I want you to sign all of the businesses under the Atkins Family to me, every single one of them", Rex demand without any hint of mercy.

If not for Daniel, he would've killed Margaret and Jane.

The little brother will not be killed since Edward will probably stop him, but still, he would've shown no mercy to this family for what Wesley tries and has done.

Margaret bit her lips before she said, "Can I make a demand?"

"You're not in a position to demand anything from me, just do as I say", Rex replied sternly.

But almost instantly, Margaret then added, "You won't do anything to me, my father told you that he wouldn't sit still if you do anything to me. I'm just asking for a spare to maintain my family"

Rex's expression darkens upon hearing this,

Even Adhara, Kyran, and Edward shake their heads upon hearing what Margaret said, she didn't sugarcoat her words at all and said it to Rex bluntly.

It's a very stupid move for someone who is on the backside of this negotiation.

A powerful surge of energy blasted from Rex's body as the clear anger can be seen on his face, the aura shocks the remaining Atkins so much as the situation feels surreal.

Just not too long ago, they were the top ten families of the 25 Golden Crest.

But now they're pushed to the side by a young man that is standing in front of them, Rex Silverstar becomes a nightmare for the Atkins Family.

Margaret widen her eyes as she didn't expect this kind of response,

"I'm getting tired of this...", Rex mutters before suddenly,

SWISH!

Stab!

Out of nowhere, the Amuerus Katana flew toward Margaret before stabbing her right on her chest near her collarbone, "Arghh!!"

The swift motion can't be seen by Margaret or Jane,

Rex even controls his power precisely that the Amuerus Katana only stab through Margaret and doesn't blow the sofa away, it only pins Margaret to the sofa as the white and golden sofa has a dash of red color on it now.

"Mother!!", Jane shouted before glaring at Rex.

But upon seeing the hideous face on Rex's expression, she just realized that she has just glared at the Rex Silverstar that even her father couldn't beat.

With a slow movement, Rex stands up menacingly.

The red steaming energy mixed with sky black lightning aura is still coming out of his body, he then straightens his back before he said, "Daniel only said to not kill you"

"He never said anything about hurting you", Rex added.

Hearing this, Margaret started to regret saying that to Rex as she coughs blood.

Rex then slowly steps towards them before he stops towering in front of them, "Let's restart our conversation shall we? Sign over all of the Atkins Family businesses..."

"Or I'll cut each of your limbs"

"And believe me if I say I'll cut your limbs, I'm the person who even blew up my own family just to win against your husband. So don't think I'm joking"

Chapter 445 Red Throne And Arnulf The Special

"So don't think I'm joking..."

Hearing the words that are coming from Rex's mouth makes Margaret quiver while holding the katana stabbing her chest, she regrets acting confident and bold to Rex.

It's true that Daniel Burton is her father, but she's nothing but a bastard daughter.

Even if Rex killed her right here right now, Daniel will probably attack them later but he will not be reckless since his wife doesn't know about any of this.

Rex can just use that card against Daniel if he really had to,

But since Daniel is a business partner and also one of the good head families in the 25 Golden Crest, Rex decided to honor his request but Margaret is pushing the line.

With a meek voice, Margaret then said, "I'm sorry for acting out of line..."

"Please forgive me, I can't leave my children alone so please don't kill me", she added pleadingly.

Sensing that Edward was about to say something, Rex raises his hand before he replied coldly, "If you're sorry then do as I said, sign the papers and hand all of the Atkins Family wealth to me"

"O-Okay, I will...", Margaret replied before Rex signaled to someone.

There's a man standing by the door,

Upon seeing Rex signaling to him, the man then approaches Rex with a black suitcase in his hand that should be the papers Rex is talking about.

After the man takes out the papers, Rex grabbed the katana and pulls it out.

The blood gushed out of Margaret's chest as the katana got pulled out, she groans a little but she can only grit her teeth and scatter to the papers.

Jane helped her to sign the papers while the boy cries on the side,

Edward who is watching this from the back approach the boy before he lifts him up gently,

Looking at Edward who is approaching, the boy becomes even tearier but didn't put any fight as Edward then heads to the door intending to leave the place.

"What are you doing with my brother?", Jane asks from the back.

Hearing this, Edward smiled reassuringly as he replied, "It's bad for your brother to see this, I'll just be outside until the matters here are done. Don't worry, I won't do anything to him"

With that, Edward left with the little boy.

Rex went back to sit on the single sofa while waiting for Margaret to sign the papers,

Because of Rex's sharp and fierce eyes that are watching her like an eagle watching its prey, Margaret didn't hesitate to sign the papers at all.

About ten minutes later, Margaret suddenly stopped.

"Why are you stopping? I don't have all day", Rex said from the side.

Margaret holds a piece of paper before she raises her gaze to look at Rex hesitatingly, she then mutters, "I-Including all our assets? Will you not leave us anything?"

"In my point of view, I'm generous enough...", Rex said nonchalantly.

Hearing this, Margaret raises one of her brows before Rex added, "I left the three of you with your lives, and I believe that is infinitely more valuable than your wealth"

"Or am I wrong?", Rex grabbed the Amuerus Katana by the handle.

Since the katana is stabbed right beside the sofa he's sitting on with Margaret's blood still decorating it, this slight display clenched Margaret's heart.

This makes Margaret and Jane's bodies tense,

Although what Rex said is true, they both still hesitate but seeing Rex's ruthless display from before makes Margaret shakes her head and signs the asset allocation.

Each one of the assets the Atkins Family had will be transferred to Rex,

In another ten minutes, Margaret finished signing the papers as the man glanced at Rex before nodding his head, "Our business together is done"

"Now you can leave my mansion", Rex added.

Biting their lips, Jane helped Margaret to stand up before they both bowed fearfully and left the mansion just like Rex ordered.

This place now belongs to Rex, not the Atkins Family anymore.

"I'm not really on board for letting them leave like this", Kyran mutters from the side.

Hearing this, Rex chuckles since he knows where Kyran is coming from, "They might try to seek revenge, but I doubt they will succeed. Let them try all they want"

"Do you want me to make sure they won't come after us?", Kyran asks from the side.

But Rex shakes his head, there are other things to handle first that are way more important than the remaining Atkins.

With the display before, Rex also doubts they will attack them in the near future.

"Get used to your power, that's what I want you to do", Rex said commandingly.

He then glance at Adhara and added, "You too Adhara, get stronger. We will be going to the Supernatural territory, and I want you both to be ready"

Now that the main problems have finished, it's time to move on to the next.

Upon hearing this, Adhara nodded her head as she know it was time for them to save Rosie after finishing the matters to protect their parents.

Rosie's condition is unknown, but they clung to the hope that she's at least alive.

When Rex was about to call someone,

Kyran stopped in his tracks before he turned toward Rex again, he then said, "Rex, I think there's something that you should see first"

Hearing this, Rex stopped before he follows Kyran.

On the second floor where a hallway with about six or seven doors is located, Kyran leads Rex to the door at the end of the hallway on the left which looks different.

Unlike the other white with golden linings doors, this one has a shade of red.

"What is in this door, Kyran?", Rex asks curiously.

Without answering Rex,

Kyran opens the door revealing a spacious room decorated with many heads of Supernaturals, red and golden carpet starts from the door all the way to an elevated seat in the middle.

But that's not the most eye-catching part,

Rex's eyes fall onto the seat that looks like a throne and levitating in the air, it is carved beautifully in golden color with the top of the throne shaped like majestic two wings and handles the shape of an eagle.

He squints his eyes upon seeing this,

Just from a glance at this golden throne, Rex realized that it's not a normal seat.

His eyes glisten before he scans the golden throne,

<Throne of the Golden Keen Hawk>

It is an eighth-rank item that will grant an ability called Eagle Mind to the one that sits on it, this ability will allow seeing a place that the one sitting on the throne has visited before through the manifestation eyes of an eagle in the sky. The one sitting on the throne will also be granted a 20% increase in mana absorption and 5% proficiency in Spirit Meditation.

Upon reading this, Rex was surprised to see that such an item lies in this place.

Not only does the item is a powerful eighth-rank item, the benefit it brings for the one sitting on the throne is very useful, especially the Eagle Mind.

But the Spirit Meditation part confused Rex,

If Rex were to guess, Spirit Meditation must be something related to achieving the eighth rank but that's just a guess so he's not sure.

Without any hesitation, Rex then walks slowly towards the golden throne.

Rex jumps on a couple of stairs that lead to the golden throne before he turns around, he then looks at Kyran before slowly sitting on the golden throne.

Swish!

A surge of subtle energy flows from the golden throne,

Under Kyran's eyes, the golden throne started changing right after Rex sat on it.

The entire mansion slowly turns from white and golden color into red and brown instead, somehow the throne molds the entire house as if it's adapting to Rex.

It's very surprising that even Rex was caught off guard,

All of the insides such as the furniture, ornaments, and even the outsides of the mansion changed almost instantly, the subtle surge of energy from the golden throne enveloped the entire mansion.

Even the people that are outside were surprised to see this,

Rex and Kyran marvel at the scene as after the entire mansion changes, the golden throne Rex is sitting on also changed color into red and golden.

The process didn't take long and after it finished, the surge of energy dispersed.

Adhara who also saw these changes went inside the room and saw Rex sitting on the blood-red throne, he was sitting with a surprised look.

"What happened to the mansion?", she asks in confusion.

Hearing this, Rex also shakes his head as he replied, "It's the throne I'm sitting on"

"Somehow when I sat on it the mansion turned like this, but so far I didn't feel anything changed drastically except for the appearance of the mansion"

After briefly talking, Adhara and Kyran left the room.

Rex is left all alone in this room that has turned darker because of the red and brown color, he then feels the throne and finds some energy connecting to his back.

It makes him feel a bit different, but he's sure that it's the throne effect.

With a wave of his hand, Rex activates his sky black lightning element before he finds that his absorption rate is just as the description said increased by 20%.

The increase can be felt directly in his body,

If Rex was to have this throne during his early times as an Awakened, his growth will be insurmountable especially if he amplifies it with a Mana Charm Elixir.

'Let's test this throne ability', Rex thought.

Rex closes his eyes before he focuses his mind to see the inside of his room in Faraday University, and after a bit of blackness, something surprising happened.

In his mind, he can see the top of Faraday University as if he's an eagle.

The students walking around Faraday University can be seen from above, it's just like watching a CCTV from the sky that covers the entire university.

He needs to run tests using this ability but from this alone, Rex is quite happy.

Seeing a place just like an eagle from the sky, the throne's ability gave Rex quite a bit of shock, 'It allows me to have a vision like this? Too bad I can't see the places I haven't been before'

From the system's description, the throne's ability has one flaw.

Although Rex can see a place as if he's an eagle from above, he can only view places that he's actually been there before.

Places like the Supernatural territory can't be viewed,

Rex then went back to the top of Faraday University again in his mind, 'Can I get a closer look? Maybe to get inside the university?'

Just as he thought of that, he tries to look inside his room.

It's like literally being an eagle, Rex can flap his imaginary wings and get closer to the university.

But to his surprise, his head suddenly feel a very powerful pain that came out of nowhere before he jolted his eyes open as the ability canceled by itself.

'I need to train to use this, that hurt a lot', Rex thought with a sigh albeit a bit excited.

Meanwhile,

Supernatural Territory, Scarlet Banes Kingdom Territory.

Ruston walks slowly into somekind of forest that is located outside of the actual Werewolf Kingdom, the trees around him are very thick.

The width is way bigger than his own body even though he's a Werewolf,

He's currently walking on a very thick root that is above the bushes that can make one lost in them easily, the forest is also very quiet and damp.

There is not many living being that can be seen around here,

Only a couple of mutated squirrels with purple fur can be seen jumping around the trees, they look in Ruston's direction briefly before minding their business.

Even Ruston didn't do anything when one mutated squirrel went past him,

For a Werewolf that is very beastly and violent like him to let a mutated squirrel go past him like that is unthinkable, almost as if Ruston is avoiding these little creatures.

Not only that but other plants can also be seen around.

Purple plants are the most dominant plant in this forest as they can be seen all around that glows in the darkness of the night with a beautiful purple hue which is pleasing to see.

The purple plants can be seen everywhere,

Just like the mutated squirrels before, Ruston also avoids these purple plants.

Although there is an urgency in Ruston's expression while he's traveling through the forest, he still carefully watches where he's going.

Not long after, Ruston stopped before he looks around warily.

After confirming that no one is following him, Ruston jumped into a hole between tree roots that is clearly well hidden from anything passing by.

Splash!

The sound of splashing water can be heard as he landed,

Just after landing, Ruston immediately feel a presence as a pair of eyes emerge from the darkness that made him kneel in utter respect.

"Ruston... Why are you here?", the pair of eyes said.

With light steps, the pair of eyes emerge from the darkness exposing its body.

From the dark aura surrounding the figure's body, the suppressing aura that even suppressed Ruston's body, this figure is definitely Zegrath.

Hearing this, Ruston then replied, "My Prince... I brought news"

"The world has blessed us once again, Arnulf the Special has awakened from his slumber and immediately searches for you when he realized the Dark Prince is awake"

Zegrath frowned upon hearing this, "Who is Arnulf the Special?"

"He is the loyal subject of th-"

Before Ruston can even finish his sentence,

BOOM!

The ground around them suddenly shook surprising both Zegrath and Ruston, they sensed a presence suddenly appeared above them.

Zegrath looks up with a frown as the presence is quite weak,

Feeling the presence, both Zegrath and Ruston jumped out of the hole they were in before they landed outside and saw a humongous creature.

Just from seeing the black furs and muscular body, the creature is definitely a Werewolf.

After sensing Zegrath and Ruston coming out of the hole, the unknown Werewolf glances back slowly exposing its devious glowing eyes and sharp fangs.

Ruston widen his eyes before he said, "My Prince... This is Arnulf"

The Werewolf that has appeared out of nowhere turns out to be Arnulf, the one that Ruston came all the way to here just to bring the news to Zegrath.

Arnulf's body is at least one and a half sizes of Zegrath's,

His eyes are like jewels from the depth of hell itself, blood covering his mouth and arms but his bearing feels ordinary no matter how much Zegrath looks at him.

Zegrath widens his eyes when he saw the purple plants all over Arnulf's body.

But when Zegrath wanted to remind Arnulf, he was even more surprised to see the purple plants are not affecting Arnulf's body at all, 'It's very poisonous, how can he not be affected?'

Turns out the purple plants and even the purple squirrels are all poisonous,

One touch from them will corrode through even a Werewolf's regenerative ability which is why Ruston is very careful in traveling the forest, but Arnulf didn't seem to be bothered by it.

Before Zegrath can say anything,

Arnulf fixated its eyes on Zegrath and saw the dark energy coming from him.

Under Zegrath's eyes, Arnulf that is certainly not normal suddenly kneels on one knee just like meeting a king, "My Prince... I have awakened and am ready to be of service for you"

Chapter 446 No Princes Can Escape My Claws

"My Prince... I have awakened and am ready to be of service for you"

Arnulf kneels on one knee in front of Zegrath who is inspecting him with his eyes, the same black furs, fangs, and claws just as any other Werewolf have.

With still clear confusion in his eyes, Zegrath glanced at Ruston.

For him, It's very weird for Ruston who is currently even more powerful than himself to refer to Arnulf with high courtesy, especially since Arnulf's aura is very weak.

"This is Arnulf?", Zegrath asks pointing at the kneeling Arnulf.

Hearing this, Ruston nodded his head before he saw the questioning look on Zegrath's face, "He might not seem much from a glance, but he's not as simple as you think"

Although a bit skeptical at first, Zegrath decided to trust Ruston.

If not for Ruston's help then he might already be captured by King Baralt, so the least he can do is trust Ruston who basically risks his life to save him.

But aside from that,

The purple plants all over Arnulf's body that don't do anything to him prove that Arnulf is not as simple as it seems, so Zegrath doesn't question it further.

"Aren't you surprised the Dark Prince is me?", Zegrath asks.

But without hesitation, Arnulf then answered still with his head down to the ground, "You're not the Dark Prince that I know of, but your aura doesn't lie..."

"The Origin must have his reason for picking you as the Dark Prince"

Upon hearing this, Ruston also added, "Ossuary of the Slumbering just opened not too long ago, King Baralt with his Enchanters enter the Ossuary and find the original Dark Prince's body has decomposed. This creates quite a stir inside the kingdom"

"But I'm guessing it's because you have been chosen as the Dark Prince"

"Knowing this, King Baralt becomes even more determined to find you, my Prince. I think we need to go somewhere far from here, my pack will help you with all our might"

Zegrath listen to this before he nodded his head, then his eyes landed on Arnulf again.

"How did you leave the kingdom? King Baralt didn't suspect you to go to me even after finding the decomposed corpse of the previous Dark Prince?", Zegrath asks squinting his eyes.

If Arnulf just awakened then he must meet King Baralt,

Seeing how Arnulf is very respectful to him, then Arnulf should've known as the loyal servant of the Dark Prince and if that's the case King Baralt will definitely not let him go.

With a calm tone, Arnulf replied, "They put me inside a room"

"I know they're doing that to make me a prisoner for them, but they underestimate me too much. I managed to escape the Kingdom with not much trouble"

"With the current Werewolf kingdom, even I'm embarrassed by it. They're a disgrace"

Hearing this, Zegrath then said, "Going through the detection of many Alphas?"

"I found that very hard to believe, some of them definitely sensed you escaping the kingdom but you manage to get here without a scratch?"

But before Arnulf can reply, Ruston replied to Zegrath's remarks.

He said, "My prince... as I was saying earlier Arnulf is special, just give him an opportunity to forsake your doubts and you will be surprised at what he can accomplish"

Zegrath listens to Ruston attentively as he continues, "Arnulf is even older than King Baralt..."

The realization snaps Zegrath's neck toward Arnulf who is still kneeling in front of him, there's a disbelieving look on his face after hearing what Ruston said.

"He's even older? You're from the Beginning Era...", Zegrath mutters in shock.

Although some questions remain, Zegrath shakes his head and decided to give Arnulf a chance.

"Do you know that there's another Prince aside from me that has awakened?", he asks, the time when his ritual is disrupted by this Prince is still fresh in his memories.

Hearing this, Arnulf raises his head, "Which Prince is he?"

"I don't know what moon he's associated with, but his bloodline is purer than me"

"Baralt is going after me so I need to get stronger, another Prince will just be a hinder to my raise to the throne. Arnulf, can you bring that Prince to me...?", Zegrath asks.

Upon hearing this, Arnulf cracked a nasty grin.

Out of nowhere, his body started to get cloaked by steaming red energy that changes his entire demeanor almost instantly giving him an ancient and powerful feeling.

This change even surprises Zegrath,

Arnulf then bares his ferocious fangs as he replied, "Don't worry my Prince..."

"Just give me some time and I'll drag that Prince to your feet, I don't care if they're the Super Blue Prince, Violet Prince, or even the Red Prince, I'll bring them to you without fail"

"No defenseless Princes can escape my claws"

~

The next day,

Early in the morning, Rex's parents arrived at the mansion.

With the mansion that was previously owned by the Atkins Family allocated to the Silverstar Family, Rex decided to let his parents live here.

The mansion is located in sector two of Ratmawati City,

Only the top influential people in the whole of Ratmawati City can have a mansion in sector two, and not only that, this part of sector two is where only the top ten families in the 25 Golden Crest can buy and live.

Because of that, this place is heavily guarded.

Not only by the guild members associated with the top ten families but this part of the sector is crowded with the most powerful member of the FAA and UWO.

Some of the lower class people called this the God's Sanctuary,

Sector 2A has one golden rule that is absolute and must be followed, the rule stated that there will be no killings and even casual fighting on this ground.

If anyone was caught doing that, they will be hunted and killed without exception.

Rex didn't know this rule until late,

With this rule, if Wesley decided to just stay here and didn't come out to attack him at all then Rex will have no means to even touch Wesley.

But since he left sector two, he got baited and killed easily.

The very strict rule makes Rex decide to tell his parents to live here, Mrs. Greene and Robert then decided to follow Rex's lead as the place is very nice.

Only the luxurious of the most luxurious mansion is built here,

Knowing his own mother, Rex is very sure that his mother will love to live here.

Even back in the room, he got in the university, Mrs. Greene looks quite happy with the maids and butler although sometimes she prefers to do house chores on her own.

Not only that, this mansion has everything she will ever need.

Starting from a very big pool with a jacuzzi on the edge, a home theatre that she can use to watch movies, a karaoke room, and others that will keep her company.

Mrs. Greene can even call her friends here if she wanted to,

With the facilities inside the mansion, Mrs. Greene and her friends will have more fun talking and hanging out here than going to the mall or restaurants.

It saves Rex some worry with her living here,

Rex currently is sitting on the red throne just like before, but there are a bunch of things in front of the red throne that each emits different kinds of energy.

There are exactly four items in front of the red throne,

Upon seeing the four items in front of him, Rex cracked his fingers in excitement.

'Can't believe it costs me ten million gold to buy these four items, but it's definitely worth the costs', Rex thought with a huge grin.

After looking at the items in satisfaction,

Rex then takes out an item from his inventory before the entire room got engulfed by a bright light, it's very bright that even blocked his vision.

But even then, his grin never left his face.

Closing his eyes, Rex puts the glowing bright item in between his hands.

The entire room is dead silent as Rex meditates on the red throne while closing his eyes, not one bit of sound can be heard as it was dead silent.

It went on for an hour but there is some noticeable changes,

Unlike the very bright light that the item emitted before, the light coming from it started to become dimmer and dimmer as if its energy got sucked out of it.

Rex kept absorbing the item until the circular item is nothing compared to before.

The light coming from it is not even as big as a candle, it's already feeble and after a couple of minutes later the item turns into a speck of light and vanishes.

Swish...

Just after the item vanishes, there are some changes in Rex's body.

If anyone were to see him right now, they will see a feeble speck of mana around his body that is glowing with pure white color.

After adjusting to the changes, Rex opens his eyes.

His eyes glow white before he looks down at his hands, the grin came back again to Rex's face when a notification from the system appears.

Obtaining these items that he bought is all thanks to the Platchi Family,

Since Margaret has signed over the entire business of the Atkins Family, the legal procedure went smoothly and now Rex has legally owned the Carlance Swift Auto.

Aside from that, the money Wesley owned has also been transferred to Rex.

From Wesley's money alone, Rex got more than one and a half billion dollars and more to come from the revenue of the car businesses that he now owns.

If converted to the system's currency, Rex got a bit over fifteen million gold.

This is by far the most gold he has ever had in the system, it's not the kind of money that he even dreamt about a year ago when he was sitting in the military.

But now, he becomes one of the richest people in the entire Ratmawati City.

Rex went down from his throne before taking another item,

The item is shaped like a sculpture of an angel but is completely made of light, it looks ordinary from a glance but upon touching it the entire room turns white in color.

It's not the color of the room that changed,

But instead, the entire room changes as if the entire place is made of nothing but light.

It all came from the angel sculpture, and not only that, but the room was also suddenly raining with something that almost looks like snow but it's clearly different.

Upon touching Rex's body, this snow-like thing went through him.

Just from this alone, it's obvious that they're not snow but something else.

After taking the angel sculpture, Rex also took two elixirs.

With both items in his hands, Rex sat back down on the throne intending to move on to the next step that he already prepared for with much thought.

Rex puts the elixirs in his pocket before focusing back on the angel sculpture,

Although he hasn't done anything, there is an excited expression on his face as even his body trembles in excitement for a bit.

Not intending to wait any further,

Rex brings the angel sculpture closer to his face before he then whispers softly, "Pure as the white color with a soothing hum wrapped with kindness, the bright angels willingly resigned fully to god"

"But when the night comes, even god's fences are none"

"Oh angel of the night, guide this lost pilgrim clouded in the dark as you are the one that can give the faculty that can even defy god!"

Just after the last sentence that escapes Rex's mouth, the light composing the angel sculpture turns bluish as the angel's face becomes crooked and sad.

Its wings slowly turn into glass flakes made of light as it slowly shatters.

Even the angel sculpture started levitating in front of Rex emitting energy that is getting stronger by the second, and before Rex know it,

SHING!!

A powerful ray of light shot from the angel sculpture toward Rex,

The energy coming from the ray of light is unending as Rex gritted his teeth trying to receive all of the energy, he's like a greedy suction machine that engulfs everything.

Some changes in mana construct inside his body can be felt clearly,

"Argghh!!!", Rex grunted in pain as the energy forces its way in.

BOOM!

Some guards that are guarding outside of Rex's house caught a very bright light through the window from the room Rex is in, they were shocked since their eyes feel like burning.

All of them need to avert their gaze if they don't want their eyes to get burnt to crips.

Even though Rex's scream of agony is very loud as the veins all over his body tensed and bulged, none of the guards can hear his scream.

Not only that, even the explosion sound and impact don't escape the room.

It seems Rex has already installed the room with runes in order to do what he's doing right now, everything has been planned for this moment.

Rex started to levitate on the air inside the room,

He got pulled off the ground by the energy from the angel sculpture that is still pouring out, and the pain got even more powerful but Rex endures through the process.

A couple of empty elixirs can be seen under the red throne Rex is sitting on,

Because of the energy from the angel sculpture, the holes around Rex's body shot out blue light as if the energy completely filled his body to the brim.

It went on for minutes until suddenly,

BOOM!

The barrier covering the room shook even though Rex already engraved the room with runes, each one of the runes costs him a whopping fifty thousand gold which speaks of its power.

But even then the barrier still trembles upon getting hit by the shockwave.

After the process ended,

The floating angel sculpture slowly dissipated turning into glass flakes of light, it disappears slowly from the bottom all the way to the top until it's completely turned into nothingness.

With heavy breaths, Rex tries to stand up strugglingly.

Even with the pain, he's feeling right now, there's no blood coming out of anywhere around his body as his insides are completely scorched by the energy from the angel sculpture.

It was excruciatingly painful but Rex suffers through it,

Rex catches his breath as he deactivates his Berserker's Curse skill, he then stands up using the red throne as support before he tiredly sits on it.

The entire room turns silent once again,

Everything turns back to normal again as Rex tiredly sits on the throne, but he can't help but smile tiredly when he saw a couple of notifications pop into his vision.

The smile is the widest one he has ever put on in his entire life,

If Adhara or even Kyran saw his excited smile then they both will be surprised, this is a kind of expression that Rex rarely uses, a genuine happy face.

But Rex's smile was interrupted when he sensed something,

Rex quickly changes his clothes into more proper ones since the one he wore before has already torn, he then walks towards the entrance.

In the living room, no one is there except for him.

Adhara and Kyran are currently training making the mansion look empty.

With light steps, Rex descend down from the second floor and saw a maid already standing beside the door wanting to open the door since someone has knocked on it.

Rex signals the maid to let him before sending her away,

Before Rex even open the door, he already knows who are the people in front of the entrance just from smelling their scent, 'Let's welcome them shall we'

Chapter 447 Disaster Squad And Surprise

'Let's welcome them shall we?'

Rex stretches his hands to the handles of the entrance before pulling them open.

The big entrance that can even fit five or more people getting in at the same time was opened exposing a group of people, it's more than a group of brutes rather than people.

But it's a sight that makes Rex crack a smile.

Without even anyone introducing these people, Rex already recognized them.

In front of the group of people is Edward whose expression is flushed, it seems he's really drained mentally from bringing this group of people here.

"Welcome to my humble mansion", Rex greeted while spreading his arms to the side.

The group of people consists of five excluding Edward, four of them are a man while one is a woman that is more manly than an actual man.

It's not that she had a big figure or anything,

But it's because of her expression and eyes that emit a glint of a man, her hard expression with a very toned body covered with black leather skin-tight clothes and a black trench coat outer amplify her somewhat fierce look.

All of the five have one thing in common, they're wearing a black beret with a skull badge.

Upon hearing Rex's greeting, one of the people steps up.

This man wears a black tank top showing off his muscles, a tiger tattoo decorating his whole right arm with guns strapped to his waist.

"Where the fuck is Zera? I want to meet her right now!", the man demanded.

Rex looks at the man before he chuckles for a bit, "Don't worry, Tandu...you'll meet with her but more importantly what happened to your right eye?"

"You got scratched by a cat or something?"

Just from the exchange alone shows that Rex seems to know Tandu and is close with each other, but before the man can reply another bald man from the side laughs out loud.

Hearing the laugh makes Tandu grit his teeth,

Tandu tries to swing at the man intending to punch him right in the face but dodged easily, while still laughing the man said, "Tell him what happened to your eye, Tandu"

"I'm sure he will be interested in hearing your great duel", he added.

Rex inspects the man that is laughing and realizes who it is, the black skin of the man makes him impossible to be mistaken with the other member of the group, "This must be Aldo"

Aldo, the one Rex is referring to is the man that is currently laughing.

He has dark skin with a bald head, but the thing that catches Rex's attention about Aldo is his huge hands which are very big compared to normal.

When Tandu was about to jump at Aldo, Rex intervenes, "Stop fighting, Let's get inside first"

After hearing this,

Tandu clicks his tongue before going inside, he's still glaring at Aldo who just made fun of him before the others also follow after Tandu enters the mansion.

Rex sits on the single sofa while the others follow after him,

Upon seeing the people getting inside the mansion, the maid that is standing by the side was a bit surprised since there's a clear difference in terms of Rex's appearance and the group of five.

Since Rex has left the military for quite some time, the military feeling to him is already gone.

On the other hand, the air of this group of people is still thick with military walking with an arch back and even in an orderly manner with Tandu in front.

"Hey! Where's the booze at?!", Aldo shouted before sitting down on the sofa comfortably.

But as if his loud voice was not enough, he then looks at the maid just beside the stairs before he added, "You there! Pretty girl! Bring daddy some booze"

"Such a fancy mansion but didn't even provide a drink? What is this?"

"Damn, you fuckers from the USSR are living up the world"

"Fucking hell, What is this fragrant smell, where's the mud at?"

Expecting such behavior coming from the known unit called the Disaster Squad, Rex waves his hand signaling for the maid to bring them some drinks.

While Edward on the other hand is sitting on the stairs,

There's a good ten feet of space between him and where the Disaster Squad are sitting, he even sighs a couple of times while looking at the scene.

One man that looks way thinner than the others are walking around,

Although the man seems to be walking around, Rex knows what he's doing, "Giraldo, put down that thing you take and sit here before I smash your head into the wall"

Hearing this, the thin man called Giraldo clicks his tongue and puts back a golden frame.

Rex's eyes then landed on Tandu again before he asks, "So, What's up with your eyes?"

Bringing up the same topic as before again, Aldo chuckles again making Tandu's expression turn fierce before Tandu said, "It's because of a fucking Orc"

"Nothing too special, so let's just ski-"

Aldo intervenes in the middle of Tandu's sentence, "He's mocked by an Orc"

"So he decided to duel alone with the Orc bare-handed but the Orc takes out a blade and stabs his eye, what piece of dipshit"

Hearing this, Tandu nodded his head repeatedly.

But then, Aldo added, "When I say dipshit I mean you, Tandu. Who the fuck got injured by an Orc these days, probably half a brain-dead man just like you"

"What the fuck did you say?!", Tandu shouted angrily.

The only woman in the group then suddenly move feeling annoyed by the two quarreling with each other, she hits Aldo right on the back of his head without holding back.

Aldo grabs his head in anger but seeing the woman glaring at him makes him smile wryly.

Seeing this, Tandu scoffs, "You're afraid of a woman? What a waste of a man"

"Fuck do you want my balls to get ripped off by her? She's freaking crazy", Aldo shouted back but realizing what he just said, he started to sweat as he can feel the woman's glare on his back which makes his spine tingle.

Rex stopped them as he said, "Alright now, this is not why I call you all here"

"Where's Zera at?! I want to meet her right now, that's why I'm here", Tandu said leaning his body forward expectantly, his eyes show that he's really eager to meet with Zera.

But Rex shakes his head, "You'll meet with her after this, don't worry"

"I called all of you here to give you guys an opportunity, I'm extending a direct invitation for you guys to join my new family. How about it? I'm sure you're sick of being a part of the military, especially their food", he added.

Upon saying this, the room instantly went silent.

Anyone can hear a pin drop in this kind of silence, even Edward looks up in surprise when he suddenly realizes the entire room went silent.

There's a tension that filled the air as all of the Disaster Squad gazes at Rex.

"You? Leading us? Don't make me laugh, no one can lead us", Aldo replied with a stern look, he's smiling but it looks like he's holding back his anger.

With a calm expression, Rex then replied, "I can make you an Awakened"

Hearing this, Giraldo laughs from the side as he said, "You're not even an Awakened, and you're saying that you can make us an Awakened? That's not even a funny joke"

"Even if you are an Awakened, making others an Awakened is impossible", the woman added.

But Rex crooked up a smile as he said, "Oh? I forgot that you guys are inside the military, and you never watch the news except for what your upper ranks officer told you"

"Let's update your memory", he added.

Just after saying that, Rex's eyes sizzle with sky-black lightning.

Upon seeing this, the Disaster Squad widen their eyes in surprise as they can clearly see black lightning sizzling around Rex's eyes showing that he's indeed an Awakened.

Then suddenly, "This is an exclusive offer as fellow comrade in the military"

All of the Disaster Squad widen their eyes when they heard Rex's voice but it was not coming from their front, heck even Rex is not sitting on the single sofa anymore.

The voice came from the back as Rex appear on their backs.

Rex's movement is very fast, it looks like he vanished in front of the Disaster Squad's perspective just like a ghost.

"How did you..."

Before Tandu can finish his sentence,

Once again Rex vanished into thin air, but this time his entire body turns into sparkles of blue light before a voice attracts their attention again, "What does it look like? I'm an Awakened"

"Even if you do, there's no way you can turn us into an Awakened", the woman said again.

Although Rex is only close with Tandu, he has met with the entire squad.

Just from their couple of meeting alone, they all know that Rex is not an Awakened during his time in the military but it seems that is not the case right now.

The display shows them that Rex is actually an Awakened,

Rex chuckles lightly before he sparkles into blue light before appearing on the single sofa again, he leans back before he replied, "I'm saying that I have a way"

"All you need to do is to accept to join my family and serve under me"

"Don't worry I won't be as harsh as the military, you all will have some free time here and there and what's more you all can have the chance to become an Awakened", he added.

The entire Disaster Squad was at a loss for words,

Even though they are not an Awakened they know that Rex just used a different element just now, the first time he vanished he used a lighting element and the second one is a different one.

Tandu can't help but asks, "Am I going crazy, or do you have a second element?"

"Oh you mean this?", Rex smirk before his hand is enveloped with blue light, the blue light glows brighter as the smirk on Rex's face becomes even wider.

"I'm also a Lunar Light Elementalist!"

~

A moment ago, inside the red throne room.

<Congratulation, the user has become a Light Elementalist!>

<Light Elementalist Achievement has been completed!>

<Obtained Light Spell Bundle!>

Rex absorbed a high-grade light affinity orb that he bought from the system, he decided that he will become a Light Elementalist on top of his Lightning element.

The reason is quite simple actually,

Before choosing an element, Rex bought each of the elements' information.

With that, the system gave Rex the overall description of each element from the basic ones to the exotic ones helping him to make a decision.

Rex read all of them and falls to one decisive decision,

Out of all the elements that are available in the system's shop, the light element is the one that has many protection spells from dark energies that the Supernatural uses.

It also gives the most endurance on top of the protection spells almost as good as the earth element.

Another reason for his choice to become a Light Elementalist is because of the element it can evolve into, the element he aims for is the Lunar Light element.

The angel sculpture he bought before is called the Night Angel Sculpture.

Just like the Warden of the Sky Core, the Night Angel Sculpture will allow Rex to evolve his element into the Lunar Light Element which is also a mid Ultimate Element.

Upon reaching the Lunar Light Element, Rex is rewarded by the system.

<Congratulation on upgrading the user's Light Element into a mid-Ultimate Element, Lunar Light!>

<Lunar Light element matches the user's race!>

<Resistance to silver has been increased by 15%!>

<Resistance to White Rye has been increased by 10%>

<Obtained Ultimate Spell Lunar Dust Illusion, and Light Ego!>

Thanks to the gold he currently possesses from Wesley Atkins' money, Rex got more than enough money to buy everything he can for his second element.

Even if he wanted to, he can buy the third or fourth element.

But if he did that then he will be lagging behind since he needs to meditate on all of those, and it will be time-consuming for him to even reach the fifth rank.

Much less buying each element a spirit of their own,

Rex looks at the notifications from the system as he cracks a very wide smile, but his smile was interrupted when he sensed the Disaster Squad's arrival.

~

Back to the present,

All of the Disaster Squad was at a loss for words upon hearing what Rex said, they all are still unable to comprehend what they were hearing right now.

"L-Lunar Light Elementalist?"

"and also Lightning Elementalist?"

Seeing the surprised look on their expression can't help but make Rex smile.

The notorious Disaster Squad which is always very chaotic and loud suddenly becomes this silent as they look at Rex in disbelief, anyone in the military will be shocked upon seeing this.

While leaning on the sofa, Rex crosses his legs, "How about it? Are you interested?"

"Fuck this, Do you really think you can entice us with that? I've beaten an Awakened before, you're probably not that strong!", Aldo shouted before he leaped from the sofa.

Aldo's big hands are already stretched intending to grab Rex,

But as if Rex is already expecting this, he waves his hand before out of nowhere Aldo got flung back before hitting the wall behind him.

Bam!

A couple of black tentacles then emerge from the walls before restraining Aldo completely.

"That's it... This is what I expected from the Disaster Squad, try and take me down if you still think I'm not worthy as your leader", Rex said with a huge grin.

At night,

Rex is inside the throne room while sitting in a meditative position, he can sense that the Disaster Squad is inside the training room where they're still fighting with him.

'Lunar Dust Illusion huh... it's quite useful', he thought.

The system gave him an Ultimate Spell Lunar Dust Illusion as a reward for evolving his element into a mid Ultimate Element, it's a spell that allows him to control something called Lunar Dust.

It has many uses but it's mainly creating illusions,

Inside the training room of the mansion, there's another Rex fighting with the Disaster Squad to test their will and this other Rex is an illusion.

Although it only has 30% of his stats, it's still a useful spell.

Now Rex is sitting in a meditative position while absorbing the piles of high-grade Light Elemental Stones, he will try to reach a higher rank for his Lunar Light element.

One might be confused about how Rex uses an Ultimate Light Spell instantly.

Just after he become a Light Elementalist before, he found that his body subconsciously stores Lunar energy as a Werewolf and thus he can compensate for his lack of mana.

If anyone was to hear this, then they will definitely be surprised.

Even Adhara and Evelyn who are also Dual Elementalist will be surprised, their secondary element still needs to reach the third rank to even use a spell.

But Rex bypassed that thanks to his compatible Lunar Light element,

Light element is also not as chaotic as Lightning, so Rex finds it easy to control it.

After a couple of hours of meditating using the Light Elemental Stones, Rex has reached the third rank for his Lunar Light element and decided to stop for a moment.

While Rex is resting on the red throne, he then suddenly remembers something.

'I wonder what they're doing, they better not hunt humans right now', Rex thought as he closes his eyes, he intends to check Wedron City.

Jarvald and Vivian are hiding there near the city,

Rex uses the Eagle Mind ability of the throne before he appears above Wedron City in his mind, since he has been there, he can see the Wedron City using the Eagle Mind ability.

Upon looking at Wedron City, there are some clearly seen changes in Wedron City.

Their walls are under construction, and they will look way better than before.

After inspecting Wedron City for a little bit and finding that the people are prospering there, Rex then flaps his imaginary wings to the side a little bit.

He focuses on the ability and finds that he now can hear and even feel the situation there.

At first, when he just used the throne's ability to see Faraday University, he can't hear or even feel anything, he just can observe from above like an eagle.

But now he finds that he can even hear and feel the place as if he's really there.

Rex looks around before he frowns when he saw a Werewolf standing on a tree trunk,

The white furs and muscular body shows that this Werewolf is definitely Jarvald, 'What is he doing? What is he looking at?', he thought in confusion.

Jarvald is standing on top of a tree trunk while looking at the far distance,

Pinpointing the place Jarvald is seeing right now, Rex realized that the direction of where Jarvald is seeing should be the Supernatural territory.

Rex looks back at Jarvald before he squints his eyes,

Upon closer look, he finds that Jarvald has a slightly fearful expression on his face as if he's troubled by something or someone.

Even Vivian who is just below the tree seems to be shivering,

'What are they scared of?', Rex thought with a frown.

The few meetings he had with Jarvald show that Jarvald is quite a menacing Werewolf, he's also very fearsome in a fight so seeing him like this makes Rex confused.

But then suddenly, Rex looks to the side in surprise,

Aooooouuuu!!

Out of nowhere, a loud howl that even reaches the Wedron City coming from the Supernatural Territory direction resounded making the fear in Jarvald's face becomes even more evident.

Even Rex feel a chill run down his spine,

'What the fuck is that howl? Why am I also trembling...'

Chapter 448 Front Soldier Of The Radical Era

'What the fuck is that howl? Why am I also trembling...'

Even when Rex is not actually there near Wedron City, the howl sent a shiver down his spine as if he is really there and can clearly feel the howl affecting his actual body.

It's like a soundwave of pure terror that makes Rex also looks in the direction of it.

But when Rex is frowning after hearing the howl, his eyes then catch the people in Wedron City acting as if nothing happened, the merchants and some people that are coming out of the walls to hunt are doing their business without even a hint of concern.

For such a powerful howl, they should become more careful so this is weird.

'Didn't they hear the howl? Why aren't they reacting to it?', Rex thought in confusion, but then he have a wild guess that the howl can only be heard by Werewolves.

Probably some sort of frequency that can only be caught by Werewolves.

If what he suspected is true then this Werewolf that just howls is not just a regular Werewolf.

Rex then looks at Jarvald and Vivian below him, he saw both of them running through the forest before disappearing into some kind of cave.

It seems they are hiding from the howl,

After remembering the location of the cave, Rex wanted to cancel his Eagle Mind ability before suddenly a ray of energy shot up to the sky that is coming from the howl direction,

He marvels at it but then suddenly, "Argkkh!"

The Eagle Mind's ability suddenly got canceled before he falls from the red throne holding his chest, Rex is gripping his chest as his eyes waver from normal to glowing red.

'What's happening? I can't control my body!', Rex thought in surprise.

Just after seeing the energy that shot up from the sky, his entire body started to burn as his eyes turns red and will not change back no matter how hard he tries to control himself.

It's not supposed to be like this, he's usually able to perfectly control his transformation.

<The user has been affected by Ancient Spell, Tracing Howl!>

<Manual Transformation skill has been overruled>

Out of nowhere, the burning sensation all over his body started to shift.

This makes the burning sensation stronger as his blood rushes faster alongside his heavy breaths, and without even being able to hold anything back.

Swoosh!

Red energy burst from his body shooting up to the sky,

Rex looks at his body which is now brimming with red energy, his claws and fangs are exposed but he tries desperately to suppress this feeling that is forcing him to howl.

'What the hell is this?! Ancient Spell?'

The carpet got scratched by Rex's claws as his hands tensed, it's similar to when he got the Silverstar Howl skill but the urge to howl is ten times greater.

'If I howl now... I'm going to get caught!', he thought while gritting his teeth.

With veins and muscles bulging all over his body, Rex desperately holds the urge to howl, he even bites his lips that are starting to bleed due to his fangs until the red energy dissipated after a minute.

He then kneels on the ground on all four with heavy breaths, 'What was that...'

'It must have something to do with that Werewolf that howls before, Tracing Howl? Is he trying to locate me or something? and it definitely worked'

The red energy that exploded from his body before is definitely the sign that the Ancient Spell work, and whoever that Werewolf is, it knows where he's right now.

After recovering from the sudden form of attack, Rex retracts back his transformation.

Not long after, Adhara and Kyran got inside the room as they are the only ones that can feel Rex's dominating aura that shot to the sky.

Rex stands up slowly before he peeked outside of his mansion from the window,

In front of his mansion lies many Awakened that is guarding his place talking with each other, they're mainly from the Platchi Family and Reed Family.

Seeing them minding their business, Rex turns his head away.

'Does that weird red aura only be sensed by Werewolves? If that's the case then I'm sure that Werewolf doesn't want anyone to know that he's searching for me'

'But how did he do that? Is it the Werewolf King?', he thought while shaking his head.

Adhara who saw Rex's body drenched in sweat and even saw blood on the corner of his mouth asks, "What happened? I suddenly feel your aura becomes berserk"

Rex sat on the red throne in thought, he doesn't answer Adhara's question.

In just a moment of thinking, Rex then stands up from the throne and said, "I need to go somewhere, you guys stay here. Wait for Gistella to be here with Ryze and wait for me"

After saying that, Rex changed his clothes into black armor again.

With two swords strap on his back, Rex went out of the mansion without any of the guards even noticing before he dashes away jumping through the tall fence.

A moment later,

Rex is currently dashing like a streak of black lightning before he finally stops, he has arrived near Wedron City as the wall under construction can already be seen at the far distance.

It only took Rex two hours to go to Ratmawati City entrance from sector two.

At the Ratmawati City entrance he was delayed a bit since he needs to pass the guard, but knowing that he's a seventh rank Awakened makes them let Rex through.

Adding another two hours, Rex arrived near Wedron City.

With him reaching the seventh rank, Rex's speed is way faster than before as he becomes noticeably faster than Delta who was supposed to be his mount.

It's not an exaggeration that he can dash a mile in one second.

Rex then resume his journey as he went into the forest near Wedron City,

From the Eagle Mind ability he saw through before, Jarvald and Vivian should be in this forest where they're hiding inside a cave avoiding contact with the humans.

If they made a ruckus here then the Awakened from the UWO and FAA might investigate.

Seeing that Wedron City has done their merchant things using the tree of fire from before, their value as a city definitely rises in the eyes of the big organization so anything that happened here will be known by the UWO and FAA.

Rex dashes inside the forest like a shadow in the night,

Even ghosts probably wouldn't be able to follow his movements, he comes and goes in a blur.

A couple of mutated animals didn't even sense Rex's aura before it was too late, Rex passes them first before the mutated animals realize his violent aura.

They got flung away from the wind behind Rex, he's that quick.

While dashing through the forest, 'Why does it have to be now?'

'Just when everything is almost done and I can focus on saving Rosie, something like this happened at the worst time', Rex thought while gritting his teeth.

Rosie is held in the Vampire territory,

In order to get the information about Rosie's whereabouts, Rex needs to attack the Delarosa Family first since he also needs to test how he fares against Royal Vampires.

But with the appearance of that howl, he needs to become more careful.

Just from the howl of this unknown Werewolf and what it did to him alone, Rex knows that this particular Werewolf is not just a normal Werewolf.

For a howl to affect him, a Prince this much is actually quite terrifying.

It's like this particular Werewolf has dealt with a Prince of Werewolf just like him before, and just the thought of that makes Rex grind his teeth as he knows this is not going to be easy.

Feeling a bit angry, Rex picks up his pace.

About ten minutes later, Rex arrives in front of a well-hidden cave.

With many mutated animals here that are as strong as a fifth rank, this deep inside the forest is devoid of people, 'It seems they held their end of the bargain', Rex thought.

The last time Rex met with Jarvald and Vivian, he warned them about killing humans.

Seeing the place they're in that has plenty of mutated animals, lack of food will not be a problem so they should be able to quench their thirst.

But even if they did attack humans, they should make damn sure Rex doesn't know.

If Rex just suspects even a little bit that they're attacking humans in their spare times, he will not hesitate to eliminate them before going to the Supernatural territory to save Rosie.

Upon sensing Rex's arrival, Jarvald and Vivian came out of the entrance.

There's a stern look on Jarvald's face as he saw Rex standing in front of the gaze, "You're not supposed to be here, are you crazy?!", he shouted.

"Why? I want to know who that Werewolf was", Rex replied with a frown.

It's not Jarvald's reaction that makes him frown, but the meek aura that somehow surrounded his body which is so uncharacteristic of him.

Jarvald should be a fierce Werewolf also known as Brutal Grey,

But the meek aura surrounding him is contrasting with his notorious reputation, for such a fierce Werewolf like Jarvald to become like this shows the heaviness of the unknown Werewolf.

This makes Rex more concerned,

Rex then added, "Your expression tells me that you know who that howl belongs to, I need to know about that Werewolf. That howl affects me which shouldn't be possible"

Hearing this, Vivian steps forward, "L-Let's get inside first"

Sensing that there is no hostility coming from the both of them, Rex decided to follow them into the cave before the three of them stop.

While walking into the cave, Rex saw a rune engraved on the ground.

<Rune of Werewolf Secrecy>

An ancient rune that has the power to block sound and aura from getting out, it is a modified rune that is made specifically to hinder the Werewolf's senses.

'They really scared of this Werewolf', Rex thought with a frown.

Rex looks at Jarvald and finds that he's glancing at the cave mouth a couple of times, he seems very paranoid which makes Rex turn his eyes toward Vivian.

Noticing Rex is gazing at her, Vivian sighs, "That howl belongs to Arnulf the Special..."

Without even Rex knowing who this Arnulf is, there's a sudden change in their surroundings as the cold wind breezes their bodies as if the name Arnulf itself has power behind it.

The name is like a bad omen that shouldn't be spoken lightly,

"Arnulf is so dangerous that he's slumbering when the other Werewolves are awakened during the Seal Breaking or what the humans called as the Supernatural Emergence, he's not even a Prince but the world decided that he's way too powerful for the current times. He's a Werewolf that lived even during the Beginning Era", she added.

Hearing this, Rex narrows his eyes and mutters questioningly, "Beginning Era?"

"Beginning Era is an era during the ancient times, tens of thousands of years ago and actually divided into two eras, the Radical Era and the Era of Might. Jarvald is quite experienced for a Werewolf as he lived during the Era of Might where Supernaturals are fighting against each other for Supremacy"

"Even Bertolf who is older than Jarvald is still only lives inside the Era of Might"

"The both of them fought alongside the Princes of Werewolf against other races, Bertolf can be considered as a right hand for a couple of Princes but even he has only seen a glimpse of the Origin himself one time during his span of life"

Rex listen to Vivian's explanation attentively,

It's not what he came here to do but it will surely be informative to learn about the Supernatural history, but then Vivian looks at Rex directly in his eyes.

"Arnulf is not the right hand of the Princes, he's a front soldier", Vivian added.

Hearing this, Rex frowns, "Front soldier? Then how did he do such a powerful howl? If he's a front soldier then he should've been quite weak"

"You didn't let me finish", Vivian said making Rex stop.

She then continues, "He's a front soldier dating back to the Radical Era where the Origin has just received their power, he fought alongside the Origin through many battles even against the ancient humans making him the oldest Werewolf aside from the Princes"

"Bear in mind that during the Radical Era, Werewolves only amounted to less than five hundred"

"We give him a nickname the Special because the chances of surviving through the Radical Era for a normal Werewolf is almost zero percent, only Arnulf survived the Radical Era and still lives to this day..."

Boom!

Rex widen his eyes in utter disbelief as he heard Vivian's story of this Arnulf.

If put into the perspective of the humans, then Arnulf is a veteran that went through all battles and wars humanity went through and survived making him the ultimate veteran.

But not only that, Arnulf even fights alongside the Origin!

Upon looking at Rex's expression, Jarvald then said from the side, "Arnulf is not as talented and blessed as other Werewolves, he might even have the slowest growth for a Werewolf"

"His battle experience separates him from the other which makes him a terrifying figure"

"Even with his current age, he should be only in the sixth rank realm. But it's quite hard to pinpoint what realm he is right now", he added.

Hearing this, Rex frown as he finds that Arnulf's power is very low for his age.

Jarvald saw Rex's frown before he said, "But don't be mistaken by his realm... If you meet him right now even though you got noticeably stronger, you'll die in a second"

Rex gulp harshly as he didn't expect to feel a tinge of fear,

But that tinge of fear was quickly pushed to the side as he clenched his jaw, 'If I really want to exterminate all Supernaturals, then I must go through him...'

After steeling his will, Rex then asks, "What's that howl for?"

"Arnulf is a loyal servant of the Dark Prince, it seems the Dark Prince has awakened, and knowing King Baralt he will probably try to devour the Dark Prince to make himself stronger"

"The Dark Prince has a talent for devouring creatures to make him stronger"

"It's way more potent than regular Werewolf devouring others to become stronger, and if I were the Dark Prince then I will probably tell Arnulf to search for you. Eating other Prince will naturally make him way stronger, and that howl is probably a method to locate other Princes"

Jarvald replied explaining the urgency of the situation,

Even Rex feels his throat dry as he got another problem coming his way, and it has just become way dangerous if he were to get inside the Supernatural territory.

But he had no choice, he had to, for Rosie.

"Alright, thanks for the information. I'll create a measure for Arnulf", Rex said while standing up.

Seeing this, Jarvald also stands up before he said warningly, "Whatever you do, don't go outside of the human territory. Arnulf has methods from the ancient times like that howl before"

"Don't worry, I can handle myself", Rex replied while turning to the cave mouth.

Before he left the cave, Rex glanced back at Jarvald and Vivian and said, "I've met with Rurvi before, I will handle Rurvi so you better prepare for when I bring Rurvi to you"

After saying that, Rex walks out of the cave mouth under Jarvald and Vivian's gazes.

Out of nowhere, the dark sky began raining drenching Rex's armors as he deactivate the red force barrier around his body trying to embrace the rain.

"I need more power...", Rex mutters amidst the rain.

With a deep breath, Rex activates his black lightning before disappearing from the place.

Chapter 449 Werewolf Fiend

The next day,

Rex got up early in the morning when the sky is still dark, he was now inside the master bedroom of the mansion located on the back of the mansion's second floor.

It's quite private as there are no rooms except for the master bedroom in the hallway.

Unlike usual, Adhara is currently sitting in a meditative position beside him as she has been training non-stop to get used to using spirit energy.

The same goes for Kyran who is also training non-stop with Adhara,

Last night Gistella and Ryze already reached the mansion after getting picked up by some men Rex assigned, Rex has also given Gistella something that can make her stronger.

From the system, Rex finds how to make Gistella stronger.

Gistella has become a full-fledged Werewolf ever since the day Rex killed Wesley, she didn't turn into a normal Werewolf like Adhara but she turns into a sub-race called Werewolf Fiend.

It's a branch of mutated Werewolf that has been influenced by Death Energy.

Rex is quite happy with what Gistella turned into,

Just like how an Undead becomes stronger, Gistella as a Werewolf Fiend can become stronger by absorbing or perhaps eating a source that is rich with negative energy.

Mana is considered positive energy except for the Dark mana,

Negative energy is mainly consisting of Supernatural Energies except for the Dragonman, so Gistella becomes a Werewolf that will get stronger by absorbing Supernatural.

Aside from that, she also has a unique skill called Scale of Fiend.

It's a skill that extracts the pure essence of negative energy every time she absorbs a rich-filled energy source through anything, this pure essence of negative energy can be then used to summon a dark bronze scale around her body that amplifies her power.

These scales can nullify a portion of an attack and also enhance her bodily power.

Rex doesn't know how much pure essence she will extract and also the length of time using the Scale of Fiend, but from the explanation alone it's quite a powerful skill.

She has become a Werewolf that is literally bound to killing Supernatural.

Just like what Rex said the first time he wanted to turn Gistella into a Werewolf, she will repay her sin of killing humans by killing Supernatural in return.

Rex has also given Supreme Rank Breathing Technique to each of his pack members.

This Breathing Technique is called Vampire Bane Breathing Technique will make their body covered by a lesser form of Linzite, it will sting any Vampires that touches them.

It will also help them to tear through a Blood Spell if necessary.

After rubbing his face, Rex then went to freshen himself.

While he's taking a shower, he suddenly smiles, 'They're still at it? For a normal human, they're certainly monsters', he thought while shaking his head.

In just a moment, Rex got out of the bathroom and saw Adhara is still meditating.

Rex lets her meditate some more before heading outside of the bedroom while only wearing somekind of dark blue chino pants that he bought from the system.

His things are still at the university so he decided to just buy clothes from the system.

Exiting the bedroom, the entire mansion is still dark.

Only a couple of lights along the hallway and below helps to navigate through the mansion, when Rex takes a left on a corner he suddenly saw Gistella just got out of the shower.

The fragrant scent of the soap lingers in the air as she got out of the shower.

Seeing this, Rex can't help but smile when he saw Gistella wrapping her body with a towel which means she at least understands the fundamentals of being a human.

"Master... Where are you going this early?", she asks while approaching Rex.

But when Rex was about to answer, he suddenly saw Gistella kneeling when she reached in front of him which makes him sigh, "I told you, you don't need to do this with me"

"I won't do it in front of the others, but if we're alone please let me do this", she replied softly.

Hearing this, Rex was about to decline her wishes but he suddenly saw that Gistella looks somewhat calm while she was doing this which changed Rex's mind.

With a sigh, he then finally replied, "Fine, but only when there's no one around us"

"Thank you master...", Gistella replied bowing her head.

Rex rubs Gistella's head with his hand making Gistella widen her eyes but it was not caught by Rex as he continues, "I'm going to check the guests, they're still in the training room"

His voice snap Gistella out of her daze from having her head rubbed by Rex,

She then looks up to see Rex and asks, "Do you want me to accompany you, master?"

The act of her looking up exposes some parts of her womanly body covered with a towel and also her bright blue eyes, it makes Rex turns his head away unconsciously.

It still feels surreal for him that Gistella turns into a somewhat attractive woman.

When Rex was about to decline, he suddenly stopped, 'She needs to improve her social ability if she wanted to become a proper human, lets just let her accompany me'

"Alright, go get dressed and I'll wait for you downstairs", Rex finally replied.

A moment later,

Rex looks up from his phone after sensing Gistella is descending the stairs.

The skin-tight white pant hugged her legs perfectly showing her plump curves, there is a silver decoration in the shape of a flower near her right thigh, and her silvery-white hair matches her plain red v-neck t-shirt that is a bit too small which makes her toned but silky smooth stomach pokes out every time she took a stair down.

Even the Silverstar mark in the middle of her chest is exposed clearly to see.

It came out of nowhere, but Rex suddenly felt a bit intoxicated by this side of Gistella that he never would've thought would fit her.

'She looks dashing in red and silver', he thought appreciating what he was looking at.

While inspecting Gistella descending down the stairs, Rex's hand moved as he bought a couple of things from the system's shop that he can't help but buy.

Two items appeared from thin air in Rex's hands,

Gistella walks closer to Rex with her eyes fixated on the two items that appeared, the left one is a pair of silver bracers that covers the arms until the elbow, while the other one is a silver shield with a huge rune engraved on it, and the size of it is quite small compared to the normal size of a war shield that should be the size of her body.

"This is for you, it's going to help you defend the others in a fight", Rex said.

Hearing this, Gistella's eyes turn starry for a moment as she falls in love with the bracers and shield, she gratefully accepts the two items she's been given and instantly wore them.

Upon seeing this, Rex nodded his head appreciating his taste, 'Now she's perfect'

Just like as he expected, both items are perfect for her as if they're made just to be worn by her.

Rex bought the silver bracers that are called Silver-Forged Bracers of Fleeting Defense, these silver bracers cost 80,000 gold which amplifies all defense-related abilities by 20% and also adds 100 extra Endurance each.

The shield on the other hand is called Arian or also known as Guardian of Nobility.

It cost about 150,00 gold which gives a raw 500 Endurance to the wearer, the shield also grants 40% of the wearer's endurance as a protective barrier around that shield as an extra layer.

Gistella looks down while playing with her fingers, "Thank you, master..."

"No problem, now, let's go check the guests", Rex said before leading the way.

The training ground is located on a separate building on the right side of the mansion, it's used by the Atkins to train since the entire place is protected by an eighth-rank protection rune.

Entering the training room, Rex is instantly greeted by the sight of the Disaster Squad.

But instead of training, all of them are lying on the ground beaten up to the pulp while a man that looks exactly like Rex is standing in the middle of the training ground.

Even Gistella is surprised to see this scene,

"Oh, Is that all of the Disaster Squad might?", Rex remarks cheekily.

Hearing the familiar voice, Tandu strugglingly looks up while holding his hurting stomach before he widens his eyes, "H-How come there's two of you?"

"You mean, that?", Rex said while pointing at the other him standing in the middle.

Rex then added with a nasty smile, "That's just an illusion of me, I try to set it about 30% of my power but it seems you all are still not a match"

"Fuck that, let me be an Awakened so I can beat you up", Tandu replied back.

The other member of the Disaster Squad can't even stand up like Tandu, all of them are on the ground bruised and some even coughing blood.

With a flick of Rex's hand, the other him turns into blue light and disappears.

Since this place is owned by one of the top ten families in Ratmawai City, the training ground is automated with technologies that Rex doesn't even know how to operate.

The training room is a rectangle shape that is quite big,

In the middle of the place is sand that should be used for shadow fighting or even using a dummy, but the gaps located on the edge of the sandy ground show that it seems the floor can be exchanged with other terrains.

Rex walks past the people on the ground before he stands in the middle,

"I'm quite surprised that you guys kept fighting through the night, it takes quite a huge fighting spirit to actually fight that hard", Rex complemented with a smile.

Although it sounds mocking, he's genuinely praising them.

30% of his own power must be around the fifth rank realm or even as high as the early sixth rank, the illusion is just like a robot that Rex can set how it will act but its attack is still something that normal humans can't take even once.

But seeing them fighting like this, they're certainly monsters.

Scanning the entire Disaster Squad, Rex finds that all of them have at least a gift while Tandu has the highest as he has three gifts.

Just from this alone, it makes sense for Tandu to be the strongest amongst.

"You all pass my tests, so I'm going to make you all an Awakened now...", Rex utters.

Hearing this, all of the Disaster Squad's eyes lit up as they forced their hurting bodies to sit while gazing at Rex expectantly.

Seeing their eager expression, Rex then takes out five affinity orbs from the inventory.

There are two earth affinity orbs, one fire affinity orb, one wind affinity orb, and the last one is a poison affinity orb which Rex will give to Tandu.

Everyone's eyes lit up after seeing the five affinity orbs,

If known then many others will kill for these affinity orbs, only the system has them.

With that, Rex taught them how to absorb the affinity orb.

A moment later,

"Hah! I can really feel it!", Aldo exclaimed as his body glowed with a brown hue.

Another buddy of his, Giraldo also exclaimed after seeing his body glows with a red hue showing that he's an Awakened now, "Fuck! I can now burn that fucking one-eyed officer!"

The others are also inspecting their bodies excitedly,

Because of becoming an Awakened, their wounds are becoming less painful alongside their bodies becoming even stronger reaching an inhuman level.

Now they all are already standing,

"Tandu, you can finally beat that orc using bare hands! Congratulation dipshit!", Aldo said with a mocking smile, he saw Tandu's body glowing with a dark green hue.

Hearing this, Tandu didn't even reply as he laughs maniacally at himself.

"With this, I'm confident I can beat that damn illusion of yours!", he said while pointing at Rex intending to challenge the illusion again.

But then suddenly, Giraldo's eyes landed on Gistella.

The sight of such a beautiful woman within reach of his hands makes his body trembles in excitement, he then asks, "Who is that? I can feel that she's meant to be mine"

Rex glanced at Gistella before he let out a chuckle,

"Her name is Gistella, she only dates a man who is stronger than her", Rex said teasingly.

Gistella didn't respond as her crystal blue eyes are gazing at Giraldo, her eyes are cold and sharp as she stands beside Rex unmoving like a statue of a princess.

Instead of being intimidated, Giraldo becomes even more excited, "Really?!"

"Then say less! Come and fight me, baby, let papa beat you before we can move on to dessert!", he added while taunting Gistella to fight with him.

Clearly annoyed, Gistella looks at Rex with a meaningful look.

Seeing this, Rex then shrugs his shoulders, "Alright, I'll let you hurt them just this once. Make sure to pummel each one of them so they won't act out again"

Hearing this, a condescending smirk appears on Gistella's face.

But instead of only Giraldo, even the other three guys including Tandu stand up as they ready themselves to fight with Gistella hoping to beat her.

They won't just decline such a generous offer like this,

The only woman in the Disaster Squad looks at Gistella before she stands up and walks to the side, she walks past Gistella and said, "You don't need to hold back, they're sick in the head"

"Maybe some punches to the balls will make them finally think with their actual head"

After looking at the excited guys, Rex walks out toward the exit nonchalantly before he said, "Gistella, make sure to hurt them but don't kill them alright"

"As you wish master...", Gistella said before suddenly,

BOOM!

Violent white-bluish energy exploded from Gistella's body surprising the four guys, they all widen their eyes as they can feel Gistella is stronger than even Rex's illusion.

Tandu who snapped out of his daze started to cold sweat,

"W-Wait Rex! Stop her! I'm tapping out, I'm not a part of this!", he shouted.

Aldo who also got sent back to reality after feeling Gistella's aura becomes pale, "S-she's also the same! She'll rip my balls off!!"

"Fuck you, Giraldo! This is all your fault!"

Chapter 450 Mansion Beside The Ice Cascade

Later that afternoon,

After leaving the Disaster Squad to be beaten up again by Gistella, Rex calls a couple of people before an Awakened that guards the mansion comes and finds him inside.

Rex is currently reading something on his phone before he saw the Awakened approach him.

"Sir Rex, these are the last two letters", the Awakened said.

Hearing this, Rex nodded his head before taking the two letters and putting them on the table in front of him, there are also two other letters on the table beside the one which he just got.

With the four letters placed in front of him, Rex opens them one by one and reads the content.

Inside all of the letters that he just received are lists of four families ranked from one to four, Rex is not familiar with all of the families on the lists.

After scanning for a bit, Rex finds one letter that is different than the others.

Across all of the four letters, each one of them gave the lists identical except for one letter that has the first listed family different than the others.

The first listed family should've been the Mistin Family,

But instead of the Mistin Family, the letter that is different than the others listed Halpen Family instead that caught Rex's attention.

While he's looking at the four letters in thought, the sound of the door closing can be heard.

Adhara who just finished meditating looks down and finds Rex sitting in the guest room thinking, there are four letters on the table which spike her interest.

"What are you thinking about?", She asks while descending the stairs.

Rex didn't answer her as he was currently inside his thoughts, he didn't even move when Adhara is already sitting beside her and reading the letters.

Scanning the letters for a bit, Adhara also finds the same particular letter.

A frown appears on Adhara's face before she glances at Rex, "What are these lists?"

"You said that there are four families from the top ten that don't like me right? I asked the Patterson, Rirgas, Rojas, and Safran family to check who those four are and everyone gave the same lists except the Rirgas Family...", Rex replied with a frown.

Hearing this, Adhara was also put into thought as she also finds this odd.

Rex knows that the Rirgas Family is the weakest Family amongst the four families he asked for help, but identifying the families from the top ten that will test him shouldn't be that hard.

With the resources as a family in the 25 Golden Crest, this much surely easy for them.

But turns out the lists of families given by the Rirgas Family are different, and from this Rex slowly realizes what this meant and so is Adhara, "Do they know you're asking for the same lists from the four families?"

"No... I purposefully told them that I'm asking this only to them", Rex mutters lightly.

Just from this alone, Adhara's face darkened, "Should we visit the Rirgas Family?"

"From my perspective, they are hiding the Mistin Family by putting the Halpen Family in there. Rirgas Family is not on our side", she added.

Hearing this, Rex also nodded his head as he also came to the same conclusion.

If each of the four families thought that Rex only asks them for this information specifically, then it'll be easy to differentiate a fake friend among them.

Rirgas Family sent a different list from the others,

The others gave Rex a list that is identical, only the Rirgas Family sent a different list and this is too much for a simple mistake on their part.

But still, Rex has thought of some other possibilities, "Or maybe they're threatened"

After thinking briefly, "Let's just give them a visit", Rex said before he stands up from his seat.

"We will make them an example for the other families, I'll tell Vargas about this and you go and tell Kyran, Edward, and Gistella to get ready", he added with a sinister glint in his eyes.

A moment later,

Rex and the others got out of a black sedan in sector 3B,

Sector 3B is known as the water sector since the city is separated by a huge man-made lake that spans the entire sector 3B, the place is not technologically advanced like sector 3E but they're the most advance in terms of magic ornaments and buildings.

Everything here no matter if it's a building, lamps on the street or even the transportation are all integrated with mana on them.

It's an eye-opener for anyone visiting for the first time,

The place feels really like a fantasy world from medieval times except with modern technology, everything around here is revolving around the usage of mana.

"Rirgas Family's mansion is near the town hall just beside the Ice Cascade", Rex said.

He points at the other side of the lake, to get there they need to go across the bridge to their far-right, he then glances at the others again and said, "I'm going to a nearby hotel to meditate"

"You guys handle this matter, If anything happens I'll know", he added.

Hearing this, the three of them nodded their heads without questioning Rex's instruction.

With the Silverstar Family being born, Rex becomes the head family and if he did this on his own then his reputation will look bad so it's time to let them handle these things.

So the three of them will handle the matter with the Rirgas Family,

Before the three of them left, Rex tells Adhara to stretch her hand out.

The palm of Rex's hand glows with a rune before he grabs Adhara's hand, and a slight glow appears before Rex retracts back his hand.

Adhara looks at her hand before she saw the rune has been transferred to her palm.

She wanted to ask what the rune is for but Rex beat her to it, he points at the rune and explains, "Engrave that rune at the entrance of the mansion, do that before fighting them"

With that, Adhara nodded her head before the three of them dashed away.

Looking at their disappearing backs, Rex then walks along the street beside the beautiful man-made river while looking at the buildings on his side.

There are many magic shops here, he then decided to check out the shops.

Meanwhile,

Swoosh!

Adhara, Gistella, and Kyran are all strapped with their armors as they prepare themselves to attack the Rirgas Family to ask for their explanation.

The Rirgas Family is not in the top ten, so their mansion is not in sector two.

Although they probably can jump across the huge man-made lake, the lake turns out to be surrounded by a translucent blue barrier.

It's not painful when touching it, but the barrier is very sturdy.

Even if it's not sturdy, breaking the barrier just to jump across the lake would just be flashy and they don't want to attract any attention.

The bridge is decorated with sun symbols attached to strings,

It's the God's Lenience Celebration that is still ongoing, even sector 3B is celebrating this event, many people wearing costumes can also be seen as they hover around the passerby while showing off their costumes.

Even a couple of the celebrating people in costumes circles the three,

Without minding the celebrating people, Adhara and the others cross the bridge.

The three of them follows the street before they saw a glowing blue huge crystal-like ice the size of a building that is fenced in a square, it's shaped like a thick crystal and brightens up the street with its beautiful blue light.

Upon seeing this, Adhara looks at the sign in front of the crystal-like ice.

'Ice Cascade'

That is what the sign says,

Although she already saw this on the internet when they were on the way here, the Ice Cascade still mesmerized Adhara and the others as it is quite an attraction itself.

Just like what it looks like on the internet, the Ice Cascade is just like a waterfall.

But instead of water falling from the top, it's a mutation of mana that possess a physical form that resembles water as they fall from the top to the bottom.

When this mana reaches the middle, it slowly turns into mist before hitting the ground.

All of the mist that is produced by the falling mana gathers on the top again creating somekind of blue aurora before it turns back into the physical form again.

The process takes about half a minute before repeating again,

"The mansion should be at the back of the Ice Cascade, Kyran go check the place and count the guards guarding the mansion", Adhara instructed.

Hearing this, Kyran nodded his head before he disappears into the darkness.

Both Adhara and Gistella then walk to the side to get a better view of the mansion behind the Ice Cascade, they're observing while pretending to take pictures of the Ice Cascade trying to not be suspicious.

Just from a glance, there are at least four guards in front of the mansion.

While waiting for Kyran to come back, Gistella suddenly points at a blonde woman that seems to be heading to the mansion, "I recognize that human, Sabrina", she said.

Adhara looks at where Gistella is pointing before she squints her eyes, 'Sabrina huh...'

From the side, Adhara and Gistella are watching Sabrina who is supposed to be Vanessa's sister, they saw Sabrina sneaks around the guards which confuses them.

But this is nevertheless a good thing for them,

Adhara signals to Gistella with her head before they both dash away intending to intercept Sabrina, they did this without even the passerby noticing.

"Thankfully today the guards are few...", Sabrina mutters.

She's currently sneaking beside the Ice Cascade while eyeing the guards in front of the mansion, for some reason she seems to not want to get caught by the guards.

Sabrina waits for a perfect moment when the guards are conversing with each other.

She readies herself when she saw a gap that she can use to dash to the side of the mansion, but just as she puts some power on her legs, a hand suddenly covers her mouth before she got pulled away instantly without even the guards noticing.

Not intending to be pulled anymore, Sabrina's body started glowing light blue.

The ice mana in the surrounding started to get sucked by her body, but before she can even do anything her stomach got hit powerfully arching her stomach.

It gives enough time for her to get brought onto a rooftop of a building,

Brak!

Sabrina got tossed on the rooftop roughly before she raises her gaze intending to look who are the ones that dare to do this to her on her own turf.

In front of her stands two women,

One of them holds two daggers that emit violent and powerful mana, Sabrina was shocked when she saw that each dagger has a different element imbued in them.

While the other one is holding a shield with a cold and indifferent look on her face.

Upon looking at the woman holding a silver shield with her distinctive silver hair and crystal clear blue eyes, Sabrina widens her eyes in shock, "You're that woman with Rex!"

During the undead clearing mission, Sabrina saw Rex bring back a woman.

Although it's hard to look at her with the clothes she was wearing, her silver hair poked out and her bright blue eyes can still be seen faintly.

The shock is evident but she's more shocked when she realizes the other woman,

"A-Adhara?!", Sabrina exclaimed again.

With the appearance of Rex and Adhara barging during the official meeting between the UWO and the SCO, everyone knows her as Rex's woman including Sabrina.

Feeling confused, Sabrina then asks, "Why are you doing this?"

"Your family will be the example, the Silverstar Family will show how we deal with families that wanted to mess with us", Adhara replied with a cold tone.

Her body then started burning with violet fire that is blazingly hot after adding wind mana.

The fact that Adhara is a dual Elementalist alone gives quite a big shock to Sabrina, but now she said that the Silverstar Family will use her family as an example makes her speechless.

Adhara's eyes blaze with purple fire as she chanted, "Great Spell!"

Hearing this, Sabrina looks to the ground around her before she widens her eyes.

A line made of purple fire circles around her that emits a ridiculous amount of mana, before Adhara finishes chanting she creates an ice dome that surrounded her body.

"Fire Maelstorm!"

BOOM!

Just like before, a purple fire vortex bursts from the ground and it engulfs the ice dome in flame.

Adhara controls the Fire Maelstorm to make it small but concentrated instead, the heat coming from the purple fire vortex melts the ice dome slowly.

Sabrina is trapped as she looks around in horror,

Not only does she is a higher rank Awakened than her, but she has also been adjusting to the sixth rank realm years earlier than Adhara.

But to think that her ice dome imbued with spirit energy get melted this quick surprised her.

When she's thinking of a way out,

Crash!

Adhara suddenly tore through the ice dome with a thrust from her daggers, the Duality Daggers doesn't have any problem tearing through the ice dome.

With the addition of the moonlight, her power rivals the upper mid-sixth rank realm.

Sabrina's pupil dilated as she saw Adhara break through her spell, she wanted to activate her spirit to make a commotion but she was way slower.

The left dagger glows with wind mana,

It boosts Adhara's speed as she suddenly already arrives in front of Sabrina,

Upon seeing Adhara is already so close to her, Sabrina can't even react, she saw Adhara swings her right dagger which is imbued with purple fire before blood splashes her face.

Splat!

Just using one swift motion, Adhara cuts off Sabrina's entire left arm.

Sabrina looks to the side and saw that her left arm is non-existent, she was utterly in disbelief upon seeing this as her nerves started to feel the pain.

But before she can scream in pain,

BAM!

Gistella appears behind her and knocked her out cold, she did it so easily.

"It's been a while since I fought with an Awakened, this is a nice stretch", Adhara mutters while cracking her body, it has been very long since she's in an actual fight.

Hearing this, Gistella nodded her head, "You're not rusty at all..."

But when Adhara was about to answer, Kyran jumps out of a shadow and saw Sabrina lying on the ground with her left arm severed unconscious, "Who is this?"

"Sabrina, the oldest daughter of the Rirgas Family", Adhara replied.

She then continues while looking at the unconscious Sabrina, "Gistella spotted her sneaking through the guards, and we decided to use her to get inside the mansion. How many guards are there?", Adhara looks back at Kyran.

Kyran nodded his head without a change in his expression, he then shakes his head.

"They're quite weak, there are twelve guards around the mansion with the strongest being a peak sixth rank while the others are early sixth rank and even some fifth rank. If we wanted to, we can barge into the mansion forcefully", Kyran explained nonchalantly.

But Adhara shakes her head as forcefully breaking in will just cause a commotion.

When she was about to say something, Kyran intervenes again, "I also find some Awakened hiding around the place, and I'm certain they're not from the Rirgas Family"

Hearing this, Adhara frowns before she understands the situation.

'It seems what Rex thought is true', she thought before she finally said, "Me and Gistella will get inside the mansion using Sabrina, you will take care of the hiding Awakened and meet me inside. Can you do that Kyran?"

Kyran nodded his head without a hint of hesitation, "Killing from the dark is my speciality"

"As long as they're not a seventh rank Awakened, I'll kill them with no problem. I'll meet you inside", Kyran added with a confident grin.

A moment later,

Boom!

Adhara landed right in front of the guards that are guarding the entrance of the mansion.

The guards' eyes started to bulge realizing that Adhara is dragging Sabrina's body by the neck, but what surprised them more is that Sabrina's left arm is completely severed.

Adhara looks at the guards with cold eyes before stepping forward.

When one of the guards wanted to leap in anger, another buddy of his stopped him.

"I-It's Adhara! That's Rex Silverstar's woman!", he said.

Hearing this, another guard looks back at Adhara with wide eyes, "Why is she holding miss Sabrina like that, does she have no fear? Even if she's Rex's woman, this is still our place"

With Adhara as a distraction,

The guards didn't even realize as a figure is sneaking from the side, and when they realized the figure they are way too late.

Slash!

Bam!

Gistella grabs two of the guards by the neck before crushing them with a twist of her hands.

After doing that, Adhara dropped Sabrina's body before she dashed forward and stabs the other two guards right below their chin simultaneously before she slit their throats making them fall to the ground while holding their bleeding necks silently.

Blood decorated her Duality Daggers but she didn't seem to be disturbed by this,

She remembers what Rex said earlier, and giving them a swift death will definitely lessen the carnage that will happen if she didn't handle the situation exactly like this.

Adhara stops in front of the tall fence before she touches it with her hand,

There is a glow that appears on her hand before the fence got marked with a rune, and after saying that she then looks at the mansion in front of her.

"Remember what Rex said, we have to leave a mark on the Rirgas Family..."
