Chapter 51 The Principal's Warning

Rosie was caught off guard, she didn't expect that Rosie can dodge her attack mid-air, 'Shit!'

BOOM!!

Adhara's body exploded with the fire element, the explosion sent a devastating shockwave to the surrounding.

The Barrier flickers because of the explosion, the barrier is only made to be able to sustain an early rank four power because no first-year got into rank four yet.

But now, the barrier flickers which means Adhara's attack almost as good as a rank-four.

Rex was also shocked, he also didn't expect Rosie can force Adhara to use her Agility Rune given by Rex when she turned into a half-Werewolf.

The Arena was filled with smoke, the students can't see what is happening inside the Arena.

"Did Adhara win?"

"Rosie definitely takes a direct hit from Adhara's spell, It's hard to picture Rosie still standing after that"

"Ssstt, shut up dude"

Soon after, the smoke starting to dissipate.

The students can slowly see what happened inside the Arena,

They saw Adhara is still standing with fire blazing around her body, she looks annoyed for some reason.

On the other side, Rosie is surprisingly still standing on two although bloodied.

Her eyes are still staring at Adhara's eyes, her eyes seem reluctant of the outcome but the reality already said so.

'I already use my family's skill, but Adhara is just too fast. I need to learn the third stance if I want to win', Rosie thought with reluctance.

Rex shouted from the side, "It's enough"

Rosie glance at Rex while still burning with determination, she then sighs and wanted to surrender but suddenly Adhara arrives in front of her with a blazing fire hand.

Adhara sent a punch towards Rosie,

The referee notices this and wanted to stop it but Rex beat him to it,

BAM!!

Rex caught Adhara's punch as he stares at Adhara sharply, "I told you it's enough", Rex said while applying pressure to Adhara's hand.

Adhara snapped out of it, she looks at her hand and was shocked.

Adhara's aura vanished instantly as she looks at Rosie with guilt, "Rosie, I'm sorry. I don't know what gotten into me"

Rex nodded his head to Rosie before Rosie replies to Adhara, "It's okay, I forgive you"

Just as the three of them wanted to get down from the Arena, a devastating pressure suddenly locked onto them.

This pressure is not like any Rex has ever felt before, Adhara and Rosie felt the pressure and were slammed to the ground unable to resist.

Rex also falls to his knees feeling the pressure, he raises his head with great struggle and saw the principal is looking at them coldly.

The principal's gaze seems to carry thousands of tons that can make even kings kneel in fright, Rex felt his body was pressed down by an enormous creature that can kill him in a whim.

The principal stands from his seat, "Rex Silverstar, How dare you interfere with the Tournament?"

The students went silent after they hear the voice, they all look down on instinct fearing they will be targeted after Rex.

Rex opens his mouth struggling to reply, "My apologies for stepping out of bounds, I act on instinct. It will not happen again", Rex replied while trying hard to maintain eye contact with the principal.

The principal scorn, "There is a referee here for a reason, you don't need to interfere or, are you looking down on the lecturers?", He said with an air of authority.

The principal's words are heavy, even the surrounding students fall flat to the ground.

Dark energy started leaking from the principal's body, the saber on his back is trembling as if it's excited because of the dark energy.

His blue eyes sent a piercing gaze towards Rex who is not breaking eye contact with him,

Just as the scene starting to escalate, the middle-aged man in military uniform stands up and said, "Sir Principal, I think it's enough. It is not appropriate for you to take the problem into your hands, let the lecturers do it instead"

The principal locked eyes with the middle-aged man before he scoffed and retract his aura back,

He cast one last look towards Rex, "I hope you will refrain yourself from doing such things again", He said to Rex before he sits back down.

Rex and the girls can finally breathe,

They stand up from the ground before they leave the Arena with heavy expression, 'Although I know I'm wrong for interfering, the principal shouldn't do that to a student', Rex thought.

He swears that he will remember this event,

The referee clears his throat before declaring, "Although there is some disturbance, I declare Adhara Alpenore as the winner in this match!"

The students clapped awkwardly, they are still not out of the tension yet.

Rex and Rosie got out of the training hall while Adhara excuses herself and went back to the place under the tiger statue.

"You did well, I'm surprised", Rex said to Rosie while walking towards the infirmary to treat Rosie's injury.

Her body has a few scratches because of Adhara's attack, especially her arms that are burnt because of trying to block the attack.

Rosie's face turned red as she replied, "I lost, How can you be surprised"

"HAHAHA", Rex laughs before he continues, "You are fighting against Adhara, I thought you will lose miserably but you put up a decent fight well done!"

Hearing this, Rosie stomps the ground grumpily, "Hmph!!"

Although she looks mad, deep down she is happy because at least she is not as helpless as before anymore.

Rex got his face closer to Rosie's,

Rosie's face turned red as a tomato, 'Wait, what did he want to do? There are so many people here', she thought.

But suddenly, Rex only got closer to her ears and whisper, "Actually, I want to tell you something about Adhara later"

Hearing this, Rosie replied, "Okay"

'What am I thinking?', Rosie thought as she turns her head away feeling embarrassed.

After treating Rosie's injury, they got back to the training hall.

A rank five healer is treating the student's injuries so, after just about a minute or so, Rosie's injury healed until she's back to her perfect form.

The match continues, the fight is not as exciting as Adhara and Rosie but some are still decent especially the students from class 1-D.

After hours of fighting, today's match ended.

Rex and Rosie got out of the training hall,

They waited for Adhara but they can't seem to find Adhara.

They tried searching for her, they search left and right but they can't find Adhara as if she's vanished.

After giving up, they walk back and separated on the dormitory section.

The day already turned into night, Rex was preparing himself to go to the rooftop to do his daily quest.

Before he left, he already texted Adhara and Rosie to meet up at the rooftop.

He arrives at the rooftop and saw Rosie already sitting in his usual spot, Rex approach Rosie and surprised her by poking her waist.

"AAHH!!", she jolted in shock.

Rosie then glances at Rex and hits him on his shoulder, "Stop doing that! I told you for some reason I can't seem to sense you clearly"

Rex laughs teasingly before sitting in front of Rosie,

Rosie rested her head on her hand and said, "So, what do you want to say about Adhara?"

Hearing this, Rosie's eyes widened in surprise, "WHAT?!!", she screamed hysterically.

Rex glance at his surrounding, the students are all looking at Rosie, "Keep it down, do you want the whole University to know?"

Rosie then closed her mouth with both of her hands, "You can turn others into a Werewolf?!", she asks.

Rex glance at her before nodding his head,

"She's acting all strange lately is because the Dark Moon is approaching, So don't take it to heart", Rex explains trying to make Rosie understand.

"So that's why", Rosie replied as she realized Adhara's odd behavior, she remembers when Rex turns into a Werewolf for the first time and it is not pretty.

Before Rosie can ask some more, Rex notices Adhara already arrives and signals it to Rosie.

"Hai Rosie", She greeted coldly, her eyes then landed on Rex.

"Rex...", She said sweetly, her tone is very different from greeting Rosie.

Hearing this, Rosie was at a loss for words.

She was annoyed greatly by Adhara's bold provocation before Adhara sits beside Rex and hugs his arms sweetly,

Rex can only smile wryly as he asks the system, 'System, you say that she supposed to be cold?'

<The more the Dark Moon is nearing, Adhara will yearn for the user more because of the Dark Moon traits>

Rex then asks again, 'What traits?'

<The Dark Moon is also known as the Desire Moon, Werewolves will like to be in the dark and they will yearn for the people they are close with>

Reading this, Rex laughs dryly, 'Haha, this is going to be troublesome'

Rex looks at Adhara who is snuggling under his arm and said, "I told Rosie about you, so you don't have to hide it from Rosie"

Hearing this, Adhara glance at Rosie, "Oh, Good then"

Looking at Adhara, Rosie gritted her teeth, "I condone your behavior but...I WON'T LET YOU DO THAT TO REX!!", she shouted after seeing Adhara is wrapping around Rex like a snake.

"Get off of him!!", she said while pulling Adhara away from Rex.

Adhara ignores Rosie's shouting, she pulls Rex's hand and put it on her neck signaling Rex to squeeze it.

Looking at this, Rosie becomes more hectic, "Don't you dare squeeze it!!", she glares at Rex sharply.

'What have I got myself into?', Rex thought while smiling dryly.

After a couple of minutes of trying to take Adhara off of Rex, Adhara finally concedes and sits normally.

Rosie is hawking Adhara up and down, she will immediately move when Adhara tries to coil around Rex again.

Her mind wanders as she looks at Adhara, 'Why did Rex makes her into a Werewolf and not me? What's the reason', she thought before resting her eyes on Rex who already started meditating.

Meanwhile, Inside a mansion that is bigger than the Frostbrand Mansion.

The mansion is luxurious with a hexagonal-shaped garden and a big fountain in the middle of it that has a blue crystal on top of it. The mansion is filled with guards that emit a powerful aura, based on the aura alone they are not less than rank four power.

The guard is guarding each corner of the mansion, they wear a black uniform with a black tiger badge on their chest which means they are a member of the black tiger guild.

A muscular middle-aged man is sitting while intertwining his hands in front of him in thought,

If Rex was to see this man, he will immediately recognize this man as Lucas' father Duncan Platchi.

Duncan was in thought, 'I knew it, Lucas didn't die because of that skeleton. He died because someone crushed his neck, but which student has that kind of strength?'

After giving it some thought, Duncan grabs his phone and dials a number, 'It seems I need to pull some strings with the lecturers that are in charge of the field test'

Back to Ochyra University,

Rex is already inside his room, he changed his clothes into his pajamas preparing to sleep.

Just as he wants to sleep, a black crow is pecking on his windows with a green scroll on its mouth.

Rex wakes up from his bed and opens the window,

The crow landed on Rex's arm as it gave Rex the scroll, it then flapped its wings and left Rex.

Rex opens the scroll and reads it,

'Rex, This is me. I hope you become stronger than the last time because I already assembled a team that will accompany you, so be prepared to meet them soon. Also, asks your girl friend if she wanted to join our organization, her potential is pretty good. That's all, be safe and Goodbye for now.'

Reading this, Rex fell in thought, 'A team huh, I wonder what kind of freakish people they are'

He then slams his tired body on his bed before closing his eyes entering dreamland, but little did he care he forgot to close the window.

Chapter 52 Morning Surprise

The next day,

Gregg is inside the university clinic, there are a couple of people beside him that have a worried expression on their face.

His body is wrapped with bandages making him look like a mummy, his mouth is also swollen because of the fight against Rex.

He touches his head with hatred,

Gregg can still feel Rex's feet stepping on his leg, his dignity and reputation are gone just like that.

"Gregg, we should seek revenge. That Rex kid is becoming blunter lately", a girl beside Gregg said while peeling an apple.

The other people beside Gregg also added,

"Yeah! Let's just beat him up!"

"How dare he injure you like this? Don't he know who we are?"

"A non-Awakened dare to do this? We can't let this slide"

Gregg looks at them with a heavy gaze, the blazing hatred inside his heart is also knocking on his conscious as if telling him to do just as they said.

Gregg then smiles evilly, "Of course I will have my revenge, I will beat him up!"

"Beat him up?", the girl beside him stopped peeling the apple as she looks at Gregg in his eyes, "You must kill him"

Hearing this, Gregg widened his eyes in shock, "What? Kill? Why would I do that?"

The girl beside him smiles mischievously and replied, "During the field test he almost got the first rank, now he can already beat you up. If we let him continue, he will be unstoppable and he will become a thorn for our group"

Gregg was fell into his thoughts, he then asked, "But how? Killing him inside the university is close to impossible"

"Did you forget? You and the other top ranker will go to Faraday University. We can set a trap then", the girl said evilly.

Hearing this, Gregg's eyes lit up as he nodded his head, "Let's do it!"

Meanwhile, Rex is still in bed comfortably moving around unknowing that Gregg and his group are planning to kill him.

"Ekh...", His body turns to the right as his hand search for his pillow, Plump!

Rex's hand landed on something smooth and soft, he unconsciously pulls the soft and smooth object and brought it close to him thinking that it is his pillow.

Swiftly after he pulls the soft and smooth object, a pleasant womanly fragrant enters his nose.

He then tightly hugged the smooth and soft object feeling comfortable more than ever, unknown to him there is a woman lying beside him.

After fifteen minutes, Rex scratches his eyes while stretching his body.

He wakes up from his bed and looks at the time,

Just as he turns his body to the right to see the time, he saw a woman with minimal clothing sleeping on his bed just beside him.

Rex jolted from his bed and shouted in shock, "ADHARA?!!"

'When did she get inside my room? Wait, wait, wait, more importantly, why is she in my room?!', Rex screamed inside his head.

He's trying to think of a logical reason for the situation in front of his eyes, his brain is still processing slowly because he just got out of bed.

Rex approach Adhara, he shakes Adhara's body a little trying to wake her up, "Adhara! Wake up!"

Rex gulped nervously, Adhara is only wearing a black tank top and black underwear.

Adhara is so defenseless right now that is killing Rex's inside, her scent seeped into his nose making his face steaming red.

Rex wanted to wake Adhara up but suddenly, Adhara's eyes tremble.

Adhara slowly opened her eyes,

Her eyes locked onto Rex who is still bare-chested while looking at Adhara, Rex prepares himself to get misunderstand again but suddenly,

Adhara's hand wrapped onto his neck and pull him towards the bed,

Rex widened his eyes in shock, Adhara is still half-sleeping as she pulls Rex into the bed and hugs her before closing her eyes again.

"Hmmpffh!", Rex's head was squeezed by Adhara like a pillow.

He can feel Adhara's twin soft mountain squeezing him,

Rex wanted to get up but his other side stopped him from moving, 'This is a once in a lifetime opportunity! How can you just get up like that', a mini red Rex with horns appeared on his left shoulder and said.

Then suddenly,

A mini white Rex that has an angelic halo and wings shakes his head, 'You must be a gentleman, it is not right to take advantage of the situation'

The mini red Rex scoffed, he pulls a red trident out of thin air and throws it to mini white Rex.

Poof!!

The mini white Rex disappeared, 'Don't listen to that dumb guy, just go with the flow'

Finally, Rex's little bit of consciousness disappeared as he closes his eyes again unintending to get up from the bed.

Twenty minutes later,

Adhara stretches her body feeling satisfied with her sleep, she doesn't know why but today's sleeping feels much better than her usual sleep.

Adhara felt something heavy pressed onto her hand and saw Rex sleeping peacefully under her brace,

She widened her eyes in shock,

'How did I?... Did I just slept with Rex?', she thought as she tries to remember what happened last night.

After brainstorming her brain, she remembers she got lonely for some reason and decided to go to Rex and jumped through the window.

Adhara's face blushed Rex, 'What's gotten into me? I'm so embarrassed'

She then looks at Rex's sleeping face and can't help to compliment him, 'He looks so fierce when he's awake but look at him now, sleeping like a baby', Adhara thought as she pinches Rex's cheek.

Rex moves his body feeling Adhara's pinch,

Adhara then stops looking at Rex and decided to let Rex sleep some more, she then goes to the bathroom to take a quick bath before she got out intending to make Rex food.

Adhara came back and brought the ingredients,

Rex's room is a VIP so there is also a kitchen located just in front of the bathroom and the door, the kitchen is full of equipment but Rex never uses it because he can't cook.

He is not a picky eater so, his unable to cook is a minor thing.

Adhara tied her hair into a ponytail and started cooking, she also didn't forget to turn on music from her phone to accompany her cooking.

She decided to make Rex a typical American breakfast, she made an omelet, sausages, bacon, and bread.

Her hands are preparing the food skillfully, she sliced the sausages, tend to the bacon, omelet, and also the bread simultaneously.

The saying 'Women is good at multi-tasking' is displayed clearly by her.

Not long after, the smell of aromatic fragrant filled the room.

Rex who is still sleeping like a log suddenly snuffles using his nose, the fragrant of the food enters his nose making him watery.

He then opens his eyes slowly while adjusting to the surrounding,

The sunlight is bright, he needs to blink his eyes a few times before he can adjust to the surrounding but the scene that appeared in front of him quickly make his eyes widened.

In front of Rex, he saw Adhara dancing a little while cooking the food.

The problem is that she only wears her black tank top and underwear from yesterday! her beauty is exposed clearly right in front of Rex's eyes making his throat dry.

'I wish time will stop', Rex thought as he looks at Adhara.

Honestly, put any man in Rex's shoes then they will act exactly like Rex because Adhara is a top-notch beauty that can match Rosie.

Adhara felt something staring at her, she glances to her left and saw Rex already got up.

Her face turns red as a tomato, she turns off the music shyly before saying, "Good Morning, I just finished making breakfast"

Adhara takes the plate and places it on the table just beside the bed,

Rex smiles before he got up and sit waiting for Adhara to put the food on his plate,

Adhara brought the food and immediately, a flavourful fragrant stings Rex's nose making him unable to wait to dig in.

After putting the food, Adhara looks at Rex and said, "Well, what are you waiting for? Dig in!"

Hearing this, Rex immediately takes his spoon and fork and immediately scoop the food in front of him, and puts it in his mouth.

Gulp!

"It's delicious!!", Rex said excitedly.

The flavor of sweet and sour is perfectly blended in his mouth, Rex can't even comprehend how Adhara learns to cook amidst her training.

Usually, an Awakened whether it is a male or a female will put all of their efforts into training their power making them literally dumb at any normal chores.

Not all, but most of them.

So finding that Adhara can cook makes Rex excited even more,

In the blink of an eye, Rex's plate is already shining empty.

There is not even a scratch of leftover left on Rex's plate which makes Adhara smile in delight, 'Hehe, he likes my cooking!'

"Finished?", Adhara asks with a beautiful smile plastered on her face.

Rex nodded his head repeatedly with food all over his mouth,

Adhara takes a tissue and wipes the food around Rex's mouth for him making Rex stunned.

After wiping, Adhara then asks, "Rex, Am I weird lately? Does it have to do with the full moon?"

Hearing this, Rex's expression turns serious, "Yes, the nearer the full moon, the more restless you become. But don't worry, I'm here to help you", He said with a reassuring tone.

"If that's so, Is that why I feel lonely when I'm too far away from you?", Adhara asks innocently.

Cough! Cough!

Rex suddenly coughs hearing Adhara's question, he tries to construct words to explain it before answering, "Dark Moon is the next full moon, it is also known as Desire Moon. Werewolves tend to hide in the dark and yearn for the people they...Ekhm!...Love"

Adhara's face blushed red instantly, she can't bring herself to look at Rex's eyes, 'He knows! Stupid Dark Moon', she cursed inside her head.

Rex then reminded her seriously, "Remember, three days from now will be the full moon. Make sure you are near me, we probably need to ask permission to go out"

Adhara nodded her head in understanding.

After eating, Rex prepares himself to go to the Training Hall.

Just as they about to leave, they can already see Rosie walking towards Rex's room with a shocked expression.

Rosie approaches them hurriedly and asks, "Adhara? Why are you here? Did you arrive before me?"

Before Rex can even answer, Adhara suddenly reminded of something.

She leans to Rex's side and kissed Rex's cheek,

Chup!

She then looks at Rosie who is shocked by the sudden kiss and replied, "Me? I slept over in Rex's room, I felt lonely so he let me sleep with him. Didn't you Rex?"

Rosie's jaw dropped, 'This annoying girl!' She gives the words I said back then straight back to me'

Rex was silent on the side, Adhara is looking at him while signaling Rex to nod and somehow like he's being hypnotized, Rex nodded his head.

"REX!!", Rosie screamed hysterically.

Five minutes later, the three of them are walking towards the Training Hall.

Adhara has a happy atmosphere around her while Rosie has a heavy vibe coming off of her as if there's a dark cloud above her head.

Rex in the middle of the girls was looking down while rubbing his cheek, he got both slapped and kissed on his right cheek! How could they!

Not long after, they arrive at the Training Hall.

This is the last day of the tournament, only eight people will get a spot to participate in sparing against the Faraday University.

Rex is already guaranteed a spot because he already beat the number 1, Gregg Eerbo.

Today, he comes to the Training Hall because Adhara will have another fight while Rosie will also fight to determine whether she has a chance to get a spot or not.

The referee is already inside the Arena, "Rosie from class 1-B, and Lyn from class 1-C please come into the Arena"

Rosie is the first to be called against Rex's classmate, their power is about the same and they both are Wind Elementalist.

Rosie felt nervous because if she loses, she will have no chance of going to Faraday University.

The referee glance at both of them, "BEGIN!!"

Chapter 53 Sensing The Plot Before It Started

Rosie gets into her battle stance, she's putting all of her focus on Lyn fearing she might not go to Faraday University with Adhara and Rex.

She predicts Adhara will definitely win the next round,

If Adhara is not giving her all when fighting against Rosie, then her combat power will be immensely powerful compared to the other students.

During her spare time when she's not with Rex, Rosie always trains hard thinking back to when they're in Vouver City.

Not only she can't give too much impact, but she is also almost unable to defend Laura.

Rosie inhales a deep breath while closing her eyes, she then exhales while refocusing on Lyn who's legs are already enhanced by the wind element.

Wind Elementalist is known for their speed, the wind elements are unrivaled in terms of speed.

"Boost!", Rosie also enhanced her speed preparing for Lyn's attack.

Lyn is a girl with brown hair, she looks normal in terms of look but the scar on her hand makes her look like a fierce woman.

"Wind Wave!!!"

SWOOSH!!

A gust of wind blows the Arena hard, Rosie raises her sword in front of her to block the gust of wind.

The wind is so strong that it actually manages to lift Rosie from the ground,

Lyn squats a little before jumping towards Rosie,

Her hands are covered with wind elements that are shaped like a knife, she swung her hands at Rosie intending to slash her.

Rosie waves her hand as the wind blows to push her down, she dodges Lyn's attack and sent out a kick to her stomach.

Lyn didn't intend to block, she also sends a punch to Rosie's face.

BAM!!

Both attacks landed solidly but to Lyn's surprise, Rosie's kick is heavier than what she expected.

"Huakh!!!", Lyn wailed in pain as she was being pushed backward.

"They both are on equal footing"

p "The loser will be determined by their stamina, and I think Lyn will fall first"

Rex is watching Rosie's fight seriously, he saw that Lyn is taking heavy breaths in between the fight, unlike Rosie who still looks great.

Rosie's amazing figure is not just for show, she trained hard to get that kind of curve and her stamina pays off.

Noticing the momentary advantage, Rosie dashes and deliver slash after slash towards Lyn.

Rosie's hand is like a blur as she dances around with a sword on her hand, Lyn can only hold her hand imbued with wind element up trying to block Rosie's attack.

Slash! Slash!

Lyn's arms are bloodied, the wind element that is covering her arms is not strong enough to block Rosie's countless slashes.

Rosie raises her sword and swung heavily down but suddenly,

The wind elements on Lyn's hand tremble, she caught Rosie's sword, "Twisting Snake!"

WHOOSH!!

Rosie was caught off guard, Lyn is as fast as her but still grabbing her sword is not what she expected to happen.

The wind becomes a gushing gust that coils around Rosie, the wind is like a snake made of wind that is wrapping around her body restraining her.

Rosie gritted her teeth, she can't move!

Looking at this, Lyn smirks in satisfaction, she then dashes towards Rosie intending to finish her off but suddenly,

Rosie's eyes turn green, the wind mana inside his body becomes violent.

Lyn stopped in her track feeling the immense mana circulating inside Rosie, she remembers this attack that Rosie use to almost beat Adhara.

She wanted to back off but she was too slow,

"Way of Enlil! First stance, Wind Pillar!"

BOOM!!

Lyn got rooted on her spot before the ground beneath her exploded with gusts of wind, she was flung into the air.

She felt her body ache because of the attack, "Akh!"

Rosie then appears right beside Lyn as her eyes glow green, "Second stance, Wind Eruption!!"

Her sword trembles uncontrollably, the wind mana gathered towards her sword before she thrust forward forcefully.

WHOOSH!!

Swiftly after, a wind hurricane slams towards Lyn's body as she spat out a mouthful of blood.

The hurricane slammed to Lyn and flung her to the Arena ground forcefully,

BAM!!

Lyn felt the air inside her lungs escaped from her lungs, she lies on the ground helplessly feeling pain all around her body.

Rosie landed on the ground beside her as she points the sword at her neck,

"Winner for this match! Rosie!", the referee announced after seeing that Lyn can no longer fight.

Rosie was standing still, then suddenly she jumped in joy, "YES!! I WON!!"

"WOOHOO, Nice match Rosie!!"

"That spell is so strong!! I think it's a middle-grade spell!"

The students clapped their hands respecting Rosie as its winner, they also fear Rex if they didn't clap for Rosie.

Rosie looks in Rex's direction,

Rex raises both of his thumbs up congratulating Rosie, he is also mesmerized by Rosie's spell and thought, 'Just a bit more and I can use spells like this'

Rosie got down from the Arena while jumping happily,

She arrives at Rex and said, "How was it? I'm strong right!!"

Rex chuckles seeing Rosie's childish behavior, but nevertheless, he nodded his head agreeing with Rosie's statement lest she throws a tantrum.

"You'll surely get a spot at Faraday University", Rex said confidently.

Hearing this, Rosie got even motivated and nodded her head.

The match continues as usual, the intensity of the fight becomes fiercer because only stronger students are left during the match.

Adhara got into a match with class 1-D but she easily defeated him using her overwhelming speed because of the agility rune.

Her opponents didn't have a chance to even land a hit on Adhara before getting knocked out of the Arena.

Rosie's next match was also held today,

Her opponent is another student from class 1-D but he immediately concedes, 'No need to fight Rosie and becomes Rex's enemy, I'll just concede the fight', he thought.

The student glance in Rex's direction, he saw Rex staring at him fiercely.

He immediately turns his head away breaking the eye contact, he was scared shitless because of Rex's gaze.

Unknown to him, Rex is oozing off while staring at him.

He is thinking about how to get gold to buy a higher-rank affinity so he can become a rank three quickly, his thinking face does indeed look scary though.

With that, Rex, Adhara, and Rosie got a spot for each of them.

Gregg and his group are watching Rex from afar, they have a darkened expressions on their faces.

"Shit! Can't believe Adhara and Rosie got a spot!"

"Yeah, How can we make a trap for Rex if both of them will be beside him all the time"

Gregg was deep in thought, he also didn't feel confident in his plan, 'Rex alone is already enough of a threat but now adding Adhara and Rosie it is impossible to trick him'

Just as he was in thought, the girl that suggests killing Rex opened her mouth.

"Are you guys stupid? Having Rex's girls come will make the task a thousand times easier", she said confidently.

The others look at her in confusion, "Gaby, What do you mean?", Gregg asks.

Gaby scoffed and replied, "Although Adhara is probably as strong as you, Rosie is only an early rank three"

She then smiles evilly and continues, "We can just gang up on her and kidnap her, then Rex will have no choice but to come to us"

Hearing this, the others' eyes lit up.

They then also smile evilly while glancing at Rex and Rosie, killing intent filled their gaze.

Rex was chatting with Rosie when suddenly,

<DING!!>

<Killing Intent!

There is a malicious killing intent towards you, Find the culprit and kill them!

Quest Rewards: 5,000 Exp, 2500 Gold, and Medium-Grade Mana Charm Elixir>

Rex was surprised by the Sudden Quest, he then snaps out of his daze as he looks around him.

He then notices Gregg is staring at him but turns his head away when he was caught looking at Rex, Rex then smiles brutally, 'I'm planning to ignore you but you decided to kill me, let's see who kills who'

Gregg and his group are also smiling brutally thinking about the day they kill Rex, little did they know that Rex already knows about their plan.

Somewhere in Ratmawati City,

There is an underground city that is full of people wearing masks and black robes, they have one thing in common that is the black crow badge on their chests.

The people in here are all tending to their business when suddenly a visitor came to their city,

The visitors consist of two people, one male, and one female.

They are called visitor because their clothes clearly differentiate them from the others, the male wears elegant all-white clothes that has a gold chain decorating it while the female wears haggard brown clothes that looks shabby.

Both of them look in their late twenties or even early thirties, judging from their mature aura.

Out of nowhere, a figure appeared in front of them.

He's not different than the others, the only key difference he wears a crow mask that emits a fire gas and there is a six-headed crow badge on his chest.

"Who are you guys?", the masked figure asks coldly, he didn't even bother covering his rank six power threatening the visitors.

The male visitor then bows politely and replied, "I am Devan and this besides me is Liliya, we are here as the chosen green recruits"

Hearing this, the masked man raised his brows.

"Show me your tattoo! If it's fake, don't even think of getting out of here alive", the masked man said fiercely, his voice is muffled because of the mask but that instead adds an eerie tone to him.

Devan and Liliya both sweat because of the threat, they both then immediately show each of their tattoos.

Devan's tattoo is located on his chest while Liliya's tattoo is located on her thighs.

The masked man approaches both of them, his hands are glowing with red energy.

He then taps both of the tattoos with the red energy, the energy looks scorching hot but instead of hot Devan and Liliya felt a cool feeling from the red energy.

Immediately after getting tapped,

The Devan's and Liliya's crow tattoo's eyes lit up with a green hue, the green energy is fighting back the red energy before both of the energy dissipated.

Looking at this, the masked man lowers his aura, "So you are the Green Messenger's team, just wait here", he said after hawking at Devan and Liliya top to bottom.

After saying that, he disappeared instantly.

Not long after, a green mist suddenly appeared in front of them and reveals the Green Messenger wearing his usual mask.

"Welcome to the Stygian Crow Organization, Please follow me", he said lazily as if his soul is not there with him.

Devan and Liliya looks at each other before following,

The three of them walk to the center of the city where a huge black castle lies majestically.

It is made of grey bricks that look ordinary, but the castle itself takes a huge chunk of land in the middle of the city.

After entering the castle, Devan and Liliya gasp in shock.

The inside of the castle is contrasting with its outside, the inside is golden in color with many big pillars. The chandelier has many diamonds and gems decorating it, the floor is a red carpet, maids and butlers also walking around busily.

It is simply more luxurious than anything they have ever seen, there are many unusual decorations inside the castle.

Devan looks around him and notices a big black skin that still has its fur that is on display inside a glass box, the skin is located in a room that can be seen through the crack of the door.

The skin is so big that inside the room is only the glass box.

When Devan looks at it carefully, he saw a dark blue rune on the skin that emits a terrifying amount of mana.

After realizing what it is, Devan widened his eyes in shock as he stumbles backward.

Thud!

Devan's shoulder nudge Liliya's back, she then looks at Devan weirdly.

She follows Devan's eyes and saw the black-furred skin on display inside a room, she immediately notices what it is, 'That... An Enchanter!!'

An Enchanter is a title given to Supernaturals that is highly skilled in strengthening spells, they are usually the first to be targetted in war because their spells make even a rank two Supernatural to almost have a rank four power!

Because of their crucial role in the war, the Enchanter is usually heavily guarded or located in the middle of an Army that makes killing one of them an impossible task before defeating the army.

'To think this organization can kill an Enchanter, based on its overwhelming mana it must be a very, very high-ranking Enchanter too', Liliya thought in surprise.

She now has more respect for the organization, her body even trembles in excitement.

The Green Messenger leads them to the west side of the castle, they saw many people the same age as them with different robe colors.

The three of them arrived at a big door,

On top of it, there is a big sign that says 'Green Recruit'

Below the sign, there is also a small sign that says, 'Green is Luck, Green is Tranquility, Green is Nature. Green is good but be wary of the Green Messenger'

In front of the big door, the Green Messenger suddenly turned around and said, "This will be your place, you can come and go as you please but you must follow these rules"

Devan and Liliya were silent listening to the Green Messenger, their view on this organization that has just saved them turned 180 degrees because of the Enchanter before.

Then he continues, "First, You must clear at least one mission every month. Second, You will swear loyalty to the SCO. Third, you cannot share about all the things related to the SCO"

Hearing this, both Devan and Liliya nodded their head in understanding.

Then, Liliya asks with a timid tone, "Umm, How do you know that we are loyal and never talks about the SCO to others?"

Hearing this, the Green Messenger smirked, "Oh trust me, we know. Oh I almost forgot, the mission can only be done by a group of three"

Green Messenger wanted to leave the two but suddenly he stopped and said, "The ritual for the swear of loyalty and secret promise will be held after the third member arrives here"

"Where's our third member?", Devan asks with curiosity.

"You will meet him soon, he's young so don't expect too much", the Green Messenger said before vanishing into green gas.

Chapter 54 Dark Moon Arrives

Three days have passed,

Today is the day the Dark Moon arrives, Rex can already feel his body becomes weird.

It is still morning but Rex can feel the anger within him bubbling up slowly, the anger is like an eruption of volcanoes that will burst during the night.

During these three days, Rex didn't forget to do his daily quest and his meditation routine fearing that his sanity will get decreased somehow.

He is now close to leveling up, he reckoned that today will be the day he will actually jump a couple of levels to get into level 20 where his next evolution will occur.

Rex is weirdly calm about the Dark Moon but as soon as the day the Dark Moon arrives, nervousness started to swallow him whole.

'What if I can't control myself again like before?'

'What would I do if both me and Adhara can't control ourselves and go berserk'

'Is my stats enough to handle the blessing of Dark Moon?'

These thoughts filled Rex's mind since he woke up, he just can't seem to calm his mind down.

He attended class, as usual, he walks with both Rosie and Adhara.

Rex glances at Adhara, he saw Adhara's hands are shivering for unknown reasons and her expression looks as if she's holding something in.

Rex was thinking hard, he must find a way to avoid direct moonlight and a place where there is no crowd of people.

The only place he could think of is the Emham Forest where he first transforms or Clinnia Mountain located on the border of Ratmawati City and the seas in the north.

The problem was Clinnia Mountain is pretty far, although Ochyra University is located in the middle of Ratmawati City it still takes about three hours more or less by train to reach Clinnia Mountain.

The only choice Rex has is the Emham Forest,

But he read that the Emham Forest is under FAA inspection because of the Cyclops that reside there, the Cyclop is still not found.

'I have no other choice', Rex thought before he enters the class.

Not long after Rex and the girls enter the class,

Mr. Joseph arrive, he wanted to start the class but Rex raises his hand and asks to talk with him.

Mr. Joseph nodded his head and follow Rex,

"What do you want to talk about? I got the news that they accepted you", Mr. Joseph said after they both got out of the class.

Rex thinks for a brief moment, 'It's not like I have a choice from the start anyway', he thought.

"It's not about that, me, and Adhara want to take a day off. We wanted to train to prepare for the sparring tournament", Rex asks lying to Mr. Joseph's face.

Hearing this, Mr. Joseph raises his brows, "Are you really training? I heard the rumors of you and Adhara you know", he said with a suspicious look.

Rex was confused, "What rumor?"

"They said a student saw you, Ekhm, choking Adhara sexually", Mr. Joseph said while trying hard not to judge Rex.

"WHO SPREAD THAT RUMOR!!!", Rex suddenly shouted in anger.

Mr. Joseph was surprised, "No need to get so worked up, It's just student's rumor", he looks at Rex weirdly.

Rex realizes what did he just do, "I'm sorry for shouting Mr. Joseph!", he apologizes while slightly bowing.

"Hmm, no worries. Just focus on your training okay", Mr. Joseph said as he cast one last complicated look before going back to the class.

Rex sighs, 'Holding the anger is harder than I thought'

After getting permission from Mr. Joseph, Rex waves at Adhara signaling her to get out of class but suddenly Rosie already wait for them in front of the class.

"What are you doing?", Rex asks Rosie after they got out of the class.

"I'm coming with you guys too, your problem is also my problem", Rosie said innocently, she has a stubborn look on her face.

Hearing this, Rex was horror-stricken, "Rosie, go back! It's too dangerous. I don't even know if I can control it"

Rosie still maintains her stubborn look and replied, "Don't worry, I can protect myself"

Rex grabbed Rosie's shoulders feeling frustrated and said, "You don't understand! My power will raise because of that, I'm saying this for your own good"

Because of Rosie, he really needs to calm himself to not explode.

"No! I'm coming with you, whether you like it or not!", Rosie still didn't back down.

Rex calms himself, he then surrenders and lets Rosie follow him after she suddenly takes out a rank-four protection rune that is given by her parents.

During all this time, Adhara is silent with trembling hands.

Her expression is still troubled, "Adhara what's happening? Talk to me", Rex asks feeling worried.

After struggling to open her mouth for a while, she then suddenly screamed, "STOP TALKING!!", Adhara's eyes turned bright yellow.

The students passing by all glance at Adhara,

Adhara's scream is so loud that makes her the center of attention, Rex immediately brought her away fearing someone will become more suspicious of them.

Rex takes the girls to his cars,

Without a second of waiting, the car bolted out of the University heading towards Emham Forest.

Emham forest is not that far from Ochyra University, if there's no traffic then they should arrive in 20 minutes or so.

Inside the car, Adhara is holding her head in pain.

Rex takes a quick glance at Adhara while driving, 'System, it's not night yet. Why is Adhara becoming like that?'

<Lack of Willpower will result in Werewolves being unable to maintain the anger boiling within them>

<Even during the day, the Full-Moon properties are already lingering around. The user is only slightly affected because of the user very high willpower>

Reading this, Rex frowns, 'My willpower is probably strengthened because of the war. Adhara is abused by her father, this is probably the cause she is lacking in willpower'

Rex stepped on the gas, he wanted to get out of the crowd as soon as possible.

Rex really wanted to increase his pack members because they can grant him exp and also they will be his reinforcement in future problems, but if he can't control Adhara then he won't add another member until Adhara is better.

The car sweep past the street swiftly, Rex is driving like a madman inviting people to honk at him in anger.

"Is Adhara going to be okay?", Rosie asks worriedly, although Adhara sometimes is cold and harsh Rosie knows that she is like that because of the Dark Moon.

Rex glance at Rosie through the rearview middle mirror and replied, "To be honest, I don't know. This is the first time I turned someone into a half-Werewolf"

"You should've prepared something like this better, stupid!", Rosie said harshly.

Rex can only scratch his head feeling bad about the current situation they are in,

After 25 minutes of crazy driving, they arrive at the Emham Forest.

The Emham Forest is a forest that is maintained by UWO of Ratmawati City, this forest is the place for new Awakened to hone their skills by battling mutated animals.

The Emham Forest has many mutated animals that are ranging from normal animals to rank three in power.

Random people can't get inside the forest, they must at least be an Awakened to enter.

The last time Rex was here, he jumped into the Emham Forest in the middle of the night and didn't get noticed by the guards.

Emham Forest is located inside Ratmawati City,

Rex is still confused as to how the Cyclop can wander all the way through here, it should not have been possible for a Supernatural to enter Ratmawati City.

Rex and the girls approach the entrance of the Emham Forest that is guarded by armed soldiers, they then show their student IDs to the guards.

The guards scan the ID before letting Rex and the girls in,

Rosie is helping Adhara to walk inside the forest, the soldiers stare weirdly at Adhara but they didn't meddle and let the three of them in.

Entering the Emham Forest,

The Emham Forest is a dense forest that is full of animals, the air around the forest is different and it is very humid.

Upon entering the Emham Forest, Rex wanted to find a cave to at least cover Adhara from direct contact with the Dark Moon.

The Emham Forest is untouched by humans, that's why Rex is expecting there to be at least a cave somewhere in here.

Adhara can't walk properly so Rosie help her by wrapping Adhara's arm around her neck,

Rosie and Rex wander around the forest trying to find a cave or even something that can act as a shelter.

The day turned into noon,

After searching for hours, they are resting under a big tree,

They tried to search a shelter for hours but they can't seem to find any, they only encounter dense trees as far as the eyes can see and a waterfall.

Once in a while, they encounter mutated animals but they are scared when they met Rex's gaze.

Unlike humans, the mutated animals have a more keen sense that can sense danger, they realize Rex is not the prey but rather the predator that is on top of the food chain.

Rex also felt the anger within him raises as time passes by,

Rosie notices that Rex became silent just like Adhara, his normal eyes are flickering between dark blue color and his natural brown color.

The atmosphere becomes intense the further into the noon,

Rosie felt the tense atmosphere because of the silence, she can't even stare in Rex's direction who is currently massaging his temples.

After resting, they started to move again.

Rex didn't say anything, he just suddenly gets up from the ground and signals Rosie to follow him resuming the search for a shelter.

The sun is already starting to drown from the sky, the bright golden-orange starting to get darker.

Rex checked the time on his stats section, the Dark Moon is already three hours away.

Then suddenly, his body releases faint white steam.

Rex suddenly felt uncomfortable under the noon sunlight, his body is aching as the sunlight stings his body.

Based on gut feeling, he picked up his pace and goes towards the waterfall.

Rosie is behind him helping Adhara who is already has a pained expression etched on her face, Rosie is starting to become restless too.

Arriving at the waterfall, Rex notices a crack between the waterfall.

He then instinctively walks inside the crack and found a hidden cave there.

If not for his sudden instinct to look at the waterfall, then they won't find this hidden cave behind the waterfall.

The three of them enter the cave,

The hidden cave is so dark that Rosie can't even see her hands, she can only rely upon Rex's footsteps to follow him.

Rex suddenly stops, "Put Adhara here. Rosie, you get out of here and wait somewhere safe", Rex said with heavy breaths.

He tries so hard to suppress the anger within him, he then continues, "Wait until I call your name, If I don't then don't bother finding us"

Hearing this, Rosie wanted to rebutted but she realizes now is not the time so she nodded her head and left the hidden cave.

After Rosie leaves the both of them, Rex slid down the cave wall while holding his chest.

An hour passed, the day already turns into night.

The moon shone brightly under the veil of the night sky, but somehow the moon today seems eerier and darker than usual.

Rex is sitting on the ground, his right hand is holding onto a rock that is clenched by him.

His chest felt a burning sensation that can burst anytime soon, he really wanted to destroy something because of the burning anger inside of him.

Adhara is lying motionlessly on the ground, only heavy breaths can be heard from her.

CRACK!!

The rock on his hands shatter,

Rex presses his head on the wall trying to hold the anger in, he started banging his head on the cave wall feeling desperate.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

After a moment, Rex felt his limit is nearing.

He looks at Adhara with heavy eyes,

Adhara's nail already gotten longer than normal, it also becomes thicker and stronger as she scratches the ground madly.

Rex looks at his hands and saw the same is happening to him, his nails become fiercer.

Then suddenly, notifications appear in front of him.

<Dark Moon will start in ten minutes!>

<Checking the user's Stats...>

<Adding Mental stat into the user's Sanity...>

CRACK!!

Rex didn't get to read the notifications, he already started rolling on the ground in pain. His body started to make a cracking sound as the white steam his body emits becomes denser.

"AAAKH!!", Adhara on Rex's side also screams in pain.

<Dark Moon has arrived>

Chapter 55 Mysterious Hole

<Dark Moon has arrived>

At the exact same moment as the last notification appear,

Rex felt his body changing, he looks at his hands with bloodshot eyes as his body make a cracking sound.

Crack! Crack!

Black fur started to grow from every part of his hands, it is growing at a visible rate.

Rex was astonished by the scene, it is his first time seeing all of this happened with a fully conscious state.

"AAAAKKKKHHH!!!", Adhara on the side is wailing in pain.

The first time Rex transforms, he also screams despite having trained during the army to be immune to torture.

The pain is simply unbearable for a human.

Her scream are so loud, one can even hear the pain she felt just by hearing her scream. The scream is echoing inside the cave, it raddled through the entire cave as if it can make the whole cave tremble.

Rex glance at Adhara strugglingly, his eyes are hazy but he can clearly see Adhara's pained expression as her body wiggles uncontrollably, 'So that's what happened during transformation', Rex thought

Then suddenly,

Rex felt his skull cracking uncontrollably, he can see it with his own eyes that his mouth slowly turns into a snout.

Rex started to feel the overwhelming pain, he gritted his teeth so hard that is started to bleed.

If not for his consciousness,

Rex is probably already bitten his tongue to distract him from this pain, but he knows if he does that then he'll die.

But soon, Rex's face turns solid red.

He can no longer hold his desire to shout, "AAAAHHH!!!"

Their scream and wails were loud but it is muffled by the waterfall

Rosie who is not far from the waterfall is sitting under a tree, she glances worriedly in the waterfall's direction.

She remembers clearly when Rex transform the first time,

Rex's consciousness disappeared during the transformation, that night Rosie was lucky.

She blocks the direct moonlight by closing the curtains, Rex's willpower is also strong enough to bring back a little bit of his consciousness.

This weakens Rex's link with the moonlight, this helps Rex in seizing the opportunity to distance himself from Rosie.

But now,

Rosie looks in the waterfall's direction, 'This is an opened field, nothing can block the direct moonlight except that cave'

She then bit her lips in worry, 'If Rex can't control his transformation, what should I do?'

Meanwhile inside the hidden cave,

Rex and Adhara's scream turns into a growling sound, the both of them started to look more and more like Werewolf.

Rex's body is covered with black fur, while Adhara's has black fur here and there.

Not long after, the growling stops.

Rex slowly gets up from the ground, he's still connecting with his new body, his Werewolf form.

<Transformation Complete!>

<Congratulation on completing Maintain Consciousness during Transformation Achievement>

<Lunar Blessing Storage has been unlocked!>

<Creature of the night passive skill is Active!>

<Increase all of the user's attribute by 150%>

Notifications appeared in front of him, Rex is still feeling dizzy so he didn't quite read the notifications.

He leans on the cave wall while holding his head,

Rex's body is now exactly like a fully grown Werewolf unlike his half-state before, his muscle is bulging and thick. His legs turn into hind legs, his mouth turns into a snout that is filled with razor-sharp teeth, and his eyes glow dark blue.

After adjusting to his transformation,

Rex can feel the power coursing through his veins, he feels like he can take on anyone right now.

'So this is my Werewolf form, I'm probably almost as strong as a normal Werewolf', Rex thought as he clenched his fists.

He then suddenly notice the other changes, 'I can see everything clearly!'

Rex looks at his surrounding,

He was surprised by his eyesight! His eyes can catch a drop of water dripping from the cave top clearly and it is in slow motion!

Rex glances at the surroundings, he can even see the tiniest ant that is on the corner!

He was fully surprised by the Werewolf's eyesight, 'It's godlike I must say, No wonder they're so strong'

After inspecting himself,

Rex wanted to see how's Adhara doing but suddenly his eyes widened in shock,

Adhara is not there!

Rex immediately dashes to the cave mouth, he gripped the cave mouth with his bare hand and crushing it.

'I still have to get accustomed to this', Rex thought before suddenly he caught a weird smell.

Sniff!

His nose caught a weird smell that is coming from his south, he also smells a little bit of Adhara's scent.

He then looks in a direction before disappearing from the spot.

Before Rex notice, Adhara went missing,

Rosie who is gluing her eyes on the waterfall suddenly saw something came out of it, she knitted her eyes trying to assess the creature.

'Is that Rex? No...It's Adhara!', Rosie thought before she realizes the womanly figure of the creature.

Adhara's eyes are not the same as usual,

Her eyes are glowing bright yellow, her body becomes more muscular and her body emits a greenish aura as she sniffs around.

She then seems to sense something before her eyes went bloodshot, Adhara then jumped away leaving the waterfall.

'Where is she going?', Rosie thought in worry, she knows Adhara is consumed by her transformation right now.

Just as she wanted to wait for Rex's signal, suddenly a huge black creature crawls out of the cave.

Its aura makes Rosie felt a sense of oppression even though it is quite far from her,

The creature is filled with black fur but there is a dash of light blue fur on its right hand, its eyes glow dark blue that looks brighter in the night.

The creature's claws gripped the cave mouth, it smashes the rock that it grips.

'Is that...Rex?!! Why is he so different?', Rosie screamed inside her head.

Rex right now is completely different from his half-state during the blood moon, his appearance greatly shocked Rosie to her core.

Rosie slowly back away, 'His aura...He's almost as strong as a mid-rank four!!'

But then suddenly, Rex sniffs the air before his eyes slowly landed on Rosie.

They maintain eye contact for a few seconds that feels like an eternity for Rosie, but suddenly Rex disappeared from his spot.

The night engulfs his body, Rosie can't keep track of Rex's movement.

'What?! Where did he go? Did he manage to control it or not?!', Rosie started to panic.

She held the protection rune of her hand, her hand started to get sweaty as she readied herself to crush the rune.

Rosie knows that the protection rune that she brought may not be able to block Rex during his transformation, especially after feeling his aura.

Rosie looks around with a panicked expression, she's desperately trying to find Rex but how can she.

She can't even sense Rex when he's normal,

Now that Rex is in his transformation state, it is literally impossible for Rosie to sense Rex. Even some rank four Awakeend might not be able to sense him.

Just as she was getting frustrated, she suddenly feels an eerie aura behind her. The aura sends a shiver down her spine.

Grrr!!

A low growling sound was heard from her back, she gulps forcefully while slowly turning her body.

What's standing behind her make her legs turns into jelly,

She fell to the ground butt first as her lips trembled in fright, her eyes widened fearfully, 'I'm dead!!'

She closed her eyes abruptly but suddenly,

"Ro..sie"

Rex called her name weirdly, he is still not accustomed to his new body.

Hearing Rex's low baritone voice, Rosie opened her eyes in shock, "Rex?! You manage to control it?!"

Rex nodded to Rosie,

Rosie felt immense relief, she exhales a long breath after confirming Rex is in control.

She then raises her head to meet Rex's eyes, her hands are moving by themselves as she touches Rex's face as if she's mesmerized by it.

"So this is your transformation, or should I call, your true self?", she said while embracing Rex's snout.

Hearing this, Rex snorted, "No, this...is not Rex. I'm a Supernatural, but...my heart is still that of... Humans"

Rosie smiles charmingly and replied, "Supernatural or not, as long as it's you...It doesn't matter to me"

He doesn't know why but the anger boiling inside him suddenly felt cool as if Rosie's word is filled with magic that can make him calm down.

Rex then held Rosie's hand and asks, "Adhara?"

Hearing this, Rosie stepped back and replied, "I saw Adhara went that way, she looks like she's targeting something"

After saying that, Rex suddenly carries Rosie up in a princess style.

"What are you...", before Rosie can finish her sentence, Rex suddenly bolted like a streak of lightning.

WHOOSH!!

"WAAAH!!", Rosie screamed in surprise.

Rex held Rosie on his shoulder, his speed is so fast that the trees are brushing past them before Rosie can even see them.

Rex's speed is greatly enhanced because of the Dark Moon, his speed is now comparable to at least early-rank four Awakened.

SWOOSH!!!

Rosie looks down at Rex's hind legs and saw them moving like a blur, her eyes can't keep up and she started to feel dizzy.

Not long after, Rex suddenly stops.

He looks at Rosie worriedly before Rosie replied, "I'm okay, just need to rest for a bit before continuing"

Rosie held her mouth wanting to throw up, but then Rex's voice seeped into her ears, "We're here"

Hearing this, Rosie looks to her back.

She saw a big broken tree that is squashed by two huge boulders, in the middle of the two boulders is a small hole.

The hole looks small but that is if it's compared to the two huge boulders,

Although the hole looks small, it can fit Rex's big burly body with still some room left.

Rex frowns, 'Her scent is obviously in front of me, but where?... Did she get inside that hole?'

Rex approaches the hole between the boulders, the hole is dark with no light at all. He felt nothing strange from the hole, it just looks ordinary and felt ordinary.

Looking at Rex, "Go inside Rex, why are you so scared about it. You're a big Werewolf for god sake"

Hearing this, Rex suddenly had the urge to smack Rosie but he held it in.

He then walks inside the hole,

Just when his hand went inside the hole, his body suddenly vanished in front of Rosie.

"REX?! Where did you go?!", Rosie shouted in panic.

The cold eerie night makes her feel afraid especially when she's all alone, the cold wind blows on her neck as the bushes shaking weirdly.

'I got a bad feeling about this', Rosie thought in worry.

She bit her lips and walks inside the hole too before her body also vanished from the spot just like Rex.

Chapter 56 Zrolis City

Some time ago, Zrolis City.

The Supernatural led by Brutal Grey has finished mining the entire Elemental Stone Mine, they are transporting the Elemental Stone to the cargo that just arrives a couple of minutes ago.

Jarvald is organizing the horde of Supernaturals to load the Elemental Stone,

While he was busy, Vivian approaches him from the back.

She then held Jarvald's hand and said, "It's close, I can already feel it", she takes a big breath with a satisfied look.

"I know, my body is trembling with power", He replied while clenching his fist.

Vivian smiles sweetly, "And today, the Silver Mooncress will bloom. Because of the Dark Moon, it will turn into Dark Silver Mooncress enhancing its abilities greatly"

Jarvald laughs joyously, "The Origin blessed me with this opportunity, I am destined to become a great Werewolf", he said pridefully.

Just as they were chatting, Zegrath approaches them timidly.

"Jarvald, the King's Messenger is here", he said while pointing at a Werewolf that has sharp bones coming out of its body and its claws are eye-catching because of how big it is.

Beside the Werewolf is a woman, she has a seductive body that seems to attract the male Supernaturals to her. Two small horns on her head, a black tail that wiggles left and right behind her, and one pair of black wings.

Just from one look, no Supernatural can mistake which race she's from, A Succubus.

Jarvald frowns, "What is Bertolf doing here, and more importantly who is she? I already contacted him yesterday", Jarvald said with annoyance.

Vivian also glances at the Werewolf and clear hate was written on her face.

Bertolf and the Succubus approach them.

The Werewolf has a mocking expression, while the Succubus wears a cold and indifferent look on her face.

Once they arrive in front of Jarvald and Vivian, Bertolf said pridefully, "We meet again Jarvald, this besides me is the representative of all other Supernatural besides the Werewolf, lady Xenarah. I and Lady Xenarah is here to confirm if what you're reporting about the Elemental Stones were true or not"

Then, Xenarah opened her seductive lips and said, "The Ministers wanted to verify if what you report is true, or perhaps less than what you actually got", her eyes are squinting as she scans Jarvald's reaction.

"Are you doubting me?! There are only 600 kilos of High-Grade Elemental Stone there, you can check it", Jarvald rebutted.

"I myself believe you Jarvald", Bertolf said sarcastically before he continues, "Let me check and get this over with"

From the looks of it, Jarvald and Bertolf have a history together.

Bertolf and Xenarah then walk to the cargo and roughly calculates the Elemental Stones in their heads, After checking the cargo they both go into the mine to see if there's some left.

Jarvald and Vivian have darkened expressions, the other Supernatural looks at them with doubt.

"Is the King's Messenger here to inspect Sir Jarvald?"

"There's no way Sir Jarvald smuggles a bit of the Elemental Stones for himself right?"

Hearing the horde started talking about him, Jarvald's head turns red in anger.

"HAVE YOU SEE ENOUGH?! Are you satisfied in making the horde look down on me?!", Jarvald shouted in anger.

His aura is rising to a terrifying level, the lower rank Supernatural steps back in fear.

Bertolf who is still looking around the mine grins as if the aura is just a breeze in his walk, "You're not scaring me"

Vivian held Jarvald's arms and shakes her head, "There's a time for everything", she whispers lowly.

Hearing this, Jarvald retracts back his aura unwillingly.

Bertolf caught Vivian's words as he smiles evilly, "I'll personally escort the Cargo so you don't have to worry much", he said.

But when he's about to leave, Bertolf stops and said, "I forgot, the King wanted to know. Is it true?"

Jarvald was confused, "The new Alpha in the human's territory?", Bertolf continues.

Hearing this, Jarvald nodded his head in confirmation, "I can feel the aura not long ago, although it seems it's weak. Nevertheless, I can guarantee a new Alpha was born in the human territory"

"Huh, that's weird. How did a stray Werewolf get inside the human camp", he replied before walking away.

Vivian then intervenes, "The rally of the human's guilds is approaching, the scout just informed us yesterday. So it will be better if you stay and help us"

Xenarah and Bertolf stop on their tracks, "Why should we stay? Just leave after cleaning up the city. Your work here is done, the Elemental Stone Mine is empty", Bertolf said in confusion.

Then suddenly, Vivian widened her eyes before turning back to her normal composed expression, "The Vampire King just notified us to wait for the princess, he told us to let the princess inspect the city for a couple of days before going back"

Bertolf frowns, he then scoffed, "As if I will believe that, there should be at least 10 Royal Vampire to escort the princess, and based on my knowledge the Royal Vampire is on the battlefield" Bertolf said before turning his body and left followed by Xenarah.

"It's true, the princess is on her way here. They want the princess to not attract attention, that's why the princess is escorted by 4 Haltija", Jarvald said defending Vivian.

Bertolf and Xenarah frown, they nodded their head before they instructed the cargo and left Zrolis City.

After they left, Jarvald spat to the ground in hatred, "Let's see who will bully who after I absorb the Silver Mooncrest", he snorted before going back to his hut.

Unknown to Jarvald and Vivian, Bertolf suddenly left the cargo after telling Xenarah that he has something to do.

Xenarah denied his permission but eventually let Bertolf leave the cargo but he owes a favor for Xenarah.

Bertolf get back to Zrolis City, "This Jarvald and Vivian are hiding something, why aren't they going back and risk fighting the human, vampire princess? don't make me laugh. There must be something"

Arriving at Zrolis City,

Although his body is even bigger than Jarvald, surprisingly he can sneak around well by creeping by the side and avoiding crowded places.

His eyes then landed on a certain Werewolf that is not as powerful as the other, Bertolf got even certain after seeing a red mark on the Werewolf's back, the mark of an Omega.

Zegrath is doing his chores, he is getting the food ready for Jarvald's pack to eat.

But just as he wants to turn to the right to wash the meat he got, a hand suddenly grabbed his neck and pulls him into an abandoned house.

BAM!!

The door closes before Zegrath can even understand what's going on, he then looks at the creature that pulled him and tremble in shock.

"Sir Bertolf?!!", he screamed in shock.

Bertolf looks at Zegrath with his piercing gaze, he then said threateningly, "Answer my question truthfully", the claw on his hands glint with sharpness.

This makes Zegrath gulps hard, "I swear I will reply truthfully"

Hearing this, Bertolf nodded his head and asks, "You are the Omega of Jarvald's pack?"

"Yes! Although I haven't done the ritual of joining his pack", Zegrath replied truthfully, he has a sad look while saying the latter words.

Hearing this, Bertolf smiles evilly, 'That's great, he's still free'

To join a Werewolf's pack, the stray Werewolf needs to do a ritual that is held with the Alpha of the pack himself.

This ritual will instill loyalty and obedience to the stray Werewolf, if the stray Werewolf doesn't do this then they are still an unofficial member of the pack and the pack will not help unofficial members when they're in trouble.

"Then tell me, why Jarvald still held the horde and the pack here risking to get attacked by the humans", Bertolf asks hurriedly.

Zegrath then explains hurriedly after feeling Bertolf aura leaking impatiently, "The princess is coming, so they must keep guard of the city until she satisfied her curiosity"

Hearing this, Bertolf was stunned, 'So the princess will really come here'

But then, Zegrath suddenly continues, "There is a blooming Silver Mooncress in this city coupled with the Dark Moon, that's the sole reason Jarvald is willing to guard the princess. If there's no Silver Mooncress, he probably will deny the request and report to the King"

Hearing this, Bertolf widened his eyes in realization, 'So that's why that bitch Vivian said that, you think you can kill me?!'

'I can't absorb the Silver Mooncress because I'm at my limit, but I don't want to let that Jarvald get it either. The Silver Mooncress will emit a powerful moonlight blessing, he will know if the Silver Mooncress doesn't get absorbed instantly, I can't just steal it', Bertolf thought then suddenly his eyes landed on Zegrath.

He then whispers to Zegrath, "Tell me, do you want power?"

Hearing this, Zegrath nodded his head repeatedly as if he's a dog wagging his tail on the owner to get food.

"Why do you want more power?", Bertolf asks in curiosity.

Zegrath closed his eyes for a moment before saying, "It's been a thousand years our race has been sealed. Although I'm young when I'm sealed, the hatred within me is still burning in that thousand years"

Hearing this, Bertolf raises his eyebrows, "I myself hates humans too but...", Bertolf looks at Zegrath's eyes that suddenly burned alive.

He then continues, "I think you bore more hatred than anyone I have ever seen, help me steal the Silver Mooncress and you will gain the power you desire", Bertolf said which makes Zegrath's eyes lit up.

Meanwhile,

Inside the Supernatural Territory, A huge Werewolf that can easily stomp on Bertolf and Jarvald sits on his throne with a lump of meat in his hand.

Three female Werewolves are stroking his fur seductively,

The huge Werewolf is inside a big and spacious castle that is located in the middle of the forest, the Castle is full of Werewolves guarding it.

There are many huts surrounding the castle where normal Werewolves live, it looks peaceful despite the eeriness of the place.

Then suddenly, the throne door opened revealing a seductive succubus.

She kneels respectfully after arriving at the foot of the huge Werewolf's throne and said, "King Baralt of Scarlet Banes Kingdom, I Xenarah from Sallan Family brought you the report from Zrolis City", She said respectfully.

She exposes her seductive cleavage unconsciously while kneeling, King Baralt then waves his hand and sent the female Werewolves away.

"Where is Bertolf?", he replied casually while biting a big chunk of meat on his hand.

Xenarah bows her head deeper and replied, "He said he will keep an eye on Jarvald to make sure and will go back with the horde"

King Baralt nodded his head, "Tell me about the report"

"There are roughly 600 kilos of Elemental Stones mined and it is confirmed by me and Bertolf, the Elemental Stones will be distributed evenly to the other kingdoms. Jarvald said that the horde and him will stay there to babysit the Vampire princess, He also confirms the existence of the new Alpha", Xenarah said explaining exactly what they have found.

Hearing the later part, King Baralt raises his eyebrows, "Hoooh, Interesting. Make sure to tell anyone who encounters that new Alpha to contact me, I want to know all of it"

Xenarah bowed her head deeper as a nod, "That's all your highness, I must inform the other kingdoms. I bid you farewell and good day your highness"

Xenarah gets up and wanted to leave but suddenly, "Who gave you the permission to leave my kingdom early?"

King Baralt walks down from his throne slowly, he then approaches Xenarah who stopped mid-track.

"Why don't you accompany me for a while, who knows maybe you will give birth to a hybrid", King Baralt said while grabbing Xenarah's waist.

Xenarah's face darkened while King Baralt grins lustfully.

Inside Ochyra University,

Hera is tidying up her table preparing to leave, but suddenly her phone rings.

She looked at it, it was an unknown number but that day Vice-Principal Charles tells her to pick up her phone when an unknown number calls her.

She doesn't usually answer an unknown number but today is an exception, "Hello?", she said after accepting the phone call.

"Ms. Hera?", the other person on the phone asks.

"Speaking, who is this?", Hera asks after not knowing the voice of the other person.

The other person coughs before replying, "This is Duncan Platchi, I hear that you are the one who brought my son's corpse"

Hearing this, Hera frowns, "Yes, I did. What's the matter?"

"The thing is, I want to ask who are the people there when you took my son's corpse?", Duncan said with a cold tone.

Hera thought for a while, 'It's Rex, Adhara, and Rosie with other unconscious students. This smell like trouble'

"If I remember correctly, there are many unconscious students but the conscious ones are Rex Silverstar, Adhara Alpenore, and Rosie", Hera replied.

Duncan pauses for a few seconds, "Thank you for your time Ms. Hera", he replied before one-sidedly ended the call.

'How rude', Hera thought.

She bit her lips as she types in her phone, "Rex, Duncan Platchi just ask me about Lucas incident. Don't do anything stupid and do what he wants, you didn't kill Lucas so there's nothing to hide"

After thinking for a while, "Tell Adhara and Rosie for me, Duncan is probably investigating you three"

Hera then puts down her phone, she then nodded her head in thought, 'At least I warn them, That's all I can do'

Chapter 57 Godking Summit

Inside the Scarlet Banes Kingdom,

King Baralt held a glass of golden glass in his right hand, he is standing on the balcony looking down on his people with his forehead scrunching deep in thought.

The morning breeze brushes past him as he was playing with his glass leisurely, but suddenly a Werewolf clad in golden combat armor approaches him from the back.

The Werewolf has a clad of red fur near its head, its yellow eyes also glow because of the shade.

He then bowed deeply and said, "Excuse me your highness pardon to disturb you, the kings and queens have arrived and waiting for your presence. The monthly Godking summit is about to begin"

King Baralt gulps the wine and walks past the still bowing Werewolf,

He arrives in a big room that looks like a meeting room with a round table in the center, there are 12 seats but only five are filled excluding King Baralt.

The six figures inside the room focus their gaze on him,

The six figures in the room are the highest-ranking Supernatural, their aura is devastatingly powerful that even the guards need to wait outside lest they got crushed by the aura.

The six of them each have one of their personal assistants standing by their side, tension filled the air as the six figures sit casually on their respective seats.

King Baralt waves the scaled hide on his shoulder as he sits down on his seats, then suddenly a big red figure that has horns coming out of his head and piercing light yellow eyes opened his mouth.

The aura he emits is like a tidal of hell flame that threatened to scorch the entire place down, "What is this meeting about King Baralt?", he asked with an impatient tone.

King Baralt waves his hands before a Werewolf brought five big bags that are filled with elemental stones, "There are 600 kilos of Elemental Stones mined, the Werewolf will take 300 kilos of it while the rest will be divided to all of you"

Hearing this, the others widened their eyes, but then suddenly they remember something.

The lady on King Baralt's right has pale skin, there are two fangs sticking out a little and the scent of blood filled her body.

From just a glance one will know that she's a Vampire,

"King Baralt, I believe your offer is too rude don't you think?", she said disdainfully.

King Baralt kept his calm face as he chuckles lightly, "That's the last thing I want to hear from someone who asks my pack to babysit their daughter, Isn't that right Queen Nezera", he said sarcastically.

Hearing this, Queen Nezera frowns.

She wanted to rebutted but she eventually closes her mouth unwillingly,

"Anyone else?", King Baralt said confidently.

"Let's stop this useless quarrel, the Werewolf paid the most contribution so I will agree on this offer", A skull creature wearing a black robe and a black orb on his hand said with its astral voice.

The other also nodded their head agreeing to the offer,

"I agree with King Lax'rad"

"I agree with it too"

"For this once, I will agree with Lax'rad"

Queen Nezera mood turns sour, she can't believe the other gave up the Elemental Stones easily.

But suddenly she realized something, "Fine I'll agree"

Hearing this, King Baralt grins in victory.

Queen Nezera turns her head to the red figure earlier who hasn't agree, this figure is the Demon King and he is known to be arrogant.

Just as the Demon King was in thought, his assistant on his side whispers, "Lord Saruth, just agree on this. It's not worth it to fight with King Baralt, the Dark Moon is near"

Saruth gritted his teeth before he said unwillingly, "FINE!", he said before he throws his face away angrily.

King Baralt's grins become even wider as he felt satisfied seeing Saruth unwilling expression.

"Next topic, How's the spell research project?", Lax'rad asks curiously, the black orb on his hand is trembling as if it's excited too.

A man that has a faceless face moved a little, his eyes are black hollow and his arms and fingers are slender and long.

He then said, "The task is given to the Vampire, can you tell us your findings Queen Nezera. Or perhaps, did the vampires fail?", the man said with a weird changing voice.

That faceless man is the Shapeshifter King, King Oddity.

Queen Nezera's ears perked up, she then scoffed proudly, "Of course we find something, Demelza one of the royal family under our kingdom managed to use the Siren's skill. It is quite fascinating, she almost destroyed a city with a flick of her fingers"

King Oddity was shocked although his face can't show emotions, he then claps his hands, "As expected of Vampire, your talent in magic is pretty high"

Lax'rad then intervenes, "Let me meet that Vampire, I want to know all the details"

"Sure, but it will be under our kingdom not yours", Queen Nezera said while squinting her eyes.

"HAHAHA", Lax'rad laughs, he then continues, "No need to be on guard, this is for the best of Supernatural"

After discussing the Spell Research Project, King Baralt coughs a little to ease the tension and said, "Onto the main topic, Jarvald in Zrolis City just sent a report yesterday"

"There is a new Alpha born out of the center of the Human territory, Jarvald is also certain that it is the aura of an unknown Alpha Werewolf", King Barat said while intertwining his hands in front of him.

Hearing this, the other kings and queens are shocked, "How could that be?"

"There's zero possibility in entering the center of human territory, it's suicide"

Then suddenly, a woman that emits a seductive charm who is silent all this while opened her lips, "My messenger confirmed Jarvald's attention, she can't be mistaken about the Alpha's aura"

The others nodded their head, they are forced to believe that the Alpha's existence is real.

Queen Nezera replied, "One of the Royal Family under my kingdom just attacked a level two city, I will ask them if they encounter this matter"

"King Oddity, the Five Conversion under you is an expert at stealth. Why don't you send one of them to investigate this, Stray Werewolf", Lax'rad said.

King Oddity who is listening from the sides then opened his mouth, "Oh I'm grateful for your praise King Lax'rad, I will then do so"

"Yes, this is urgent. If there's a possibility of a Werewolf residing in the human territory, we need to find him and find out how did it get there", Lax'rad said.

The others nodded their head before they discuss other matters,

Meanwhile, Rex, Adhara, and Rosie suddenly vanished from Emham Forest.

After a while, Rex appeared in a forest that looks different from Emham Forest.

The forest terrain is exactly the same as Emham Forest but the difference is there is no sound at all as if this place is empty of living beings.

Rex doesn't know how long the time passes before he got there, the sky is washing them with water heavily.

He tries to find Rosie and Adhara but he can only find Rosie unconscious just beside him, he then looked up to the sky.

The Dark Moon is still lingering in the sky which means the night is not over yet.

To make sure, Rex looks at his stats tab.

Name: Rex Silverstar (Werewolf Form)

Pack: Silverstar (1/2)

Level: 15 (63,500/80,000)

Race: Werewolf

Full-Moon: Dark Moon (8 hours remaining)

Berserk: 30%

Sanity: 75%

Mental: 100 (+2)

Strength: 125 (+5)

Agility: 75(+1)

Endurance: 75 (+4)

Intelligence: 5

Attributable Stats: 0

Looking at his stats, Rex was shocked.

'My stats are astonishing is probably because of the Dark Moon', Rex thought.

He approaches Rosie and tugged her a little, he is trying hard to control his power to not accidentally slash Rosie with his sharp claws.

Rosie moved a little before her eyes slowly opened,

Her eyes then suddenly opened wide as she looks around, "Where are we?!"

Rex shakes his head, the certain thing is that this place is not Emham Forest so it is very likely that they got teleported.

He helps Rosie get up,

Then suddenly, his nose picks up Adhara's scent that is not far from here.

He also suddenly felt his heart pained, as if his soul is attacked by something, 'System what happened to me?'

<The link between you and Adhara is eternal, you are feeling pained because Adhara is also in pain>

Reading this, Rex immediately grabs Rosie and bolted to Adhara's direction.

His heart starting to throb painfully, he started to worry that Adhara might not make it if he was a second too late.

WHOOSH!!

He dashed like a madman through the forest,

Not long after, Adhara's scent becomes more evident as he got closer to the place.

Rex then saw a couple of huts that are not far away from him, he also noticed many big blue creatures that held big tree trunks in their hand.

He knew that creature, it is a bunch of ogres that are making a circle while cheering.

Rex got a bad feeling, he then picked up his pace and swiftly arrives at the crowd of ogres.

The ogres noticed Rex's aura as they all look back towards him, the circle slowly breaks and shows a bloodied Adhara that is fighting against an ogre.

Adhara and her opponents are bloodied, they are in some kind of deathmatch against each other.

Rex looks around and saw a big red-skinned creature sitting proudly on a throne made of wood, it widened its eyes as it saw Rex's appearance.

"You!!", the creature shouted as it stands up from his throne.

"UGROK RIGHT!! She stinks your scent!!", The big red-skinned called Ugrok said with burning eyes while looking at Rex and Adhara.

Rex was confused, 'Who is this thing? Did he know me?'

Rosie climbs down from Rex's shoulder and whispers nervously, "Rex, he seems to know you. Do you recognize him?"

"No", Rex replied hesitatingly.

'Why do I felt like he's familiar, did I really met him before?', Rex thought, he realizes that the creature in front of him is the wanted Cyclops that is inside Emham Forest.

'No wonder nobody finds him, the portal looks too ordinary', He then looks at Adhara.

His expression darkened when Adhara is in a bad state, her right arm is broken and her face is bloodied.

Rex looks at Adhara's opponent with immense killing intent,

The ogre that was fighting Adhara steps back in fright, it can feel the tremendous killing intent rushing towards him from Rex's eyes.

<DING!!>

<Sudden Quest>

Your pack member Adhara is in danger, a group of ogres leads by a cyclops is toying with Adhara. Save Adhara and survive the ordeal, the rewards will be given depending on the user's feat.

'This is the first time the System gives the rewards based on my feat, this must be special', Rex thought before he raises his eyes to look at Ugrok.

"Ugrok hate you! Ugrok will kill you!", Ugrok said menacingly as his body started to emit a reddish aura.

Rex's eyes glisten,

<Ugrok>

Race: Cyclop - Teen

Power: Mid Rank Four - Berserk Fighter

Mental: 60

Strength: 127

Agility: 82

Endurance: 104

Intelligence: 80

Looking at Ugrok's stats, Rex was not impressed.

His mind is already clouded by anger, he doesn't know why but seeing Adhara in a bad state pained his soul as well as his heart.

Rex scanned the group of ogre and saw all of them are at least mid-rank three, he puts his arm in front of Rosie signaling to not interfere.

'I won't interfere even if you didn't tell me, a dozen of Ogres for god's sake', Rosie thought, she felt dizzy because of the Ogres aura.

"Pure Brace of Moonlight"

WHOOSH!!

The thick moonlight from the Dark Moon got sucked fiercely into Rex's body, his eyes turn pitch black as the moonlight nourished his body.

His muscle bulged, his big size becomes even fiercer and thicker because of the moonlight.

Rex looks like the embodiment of the abyss itself, the white hue on his body turned black as if it corrupted by the dark moonlight.

Ugrok felt Rex's power raises tremendously, his instinct is telling him to run away from the Werewolf in front of him but his pride in the Cyclop bloodline on his veins wouldn't let him.

Rex opened his eyes abruptly, his body emits an intense black hue.

ROARR!!

Rex roared menacingly before suddenly he disappeared from his spot,

Ugrok can see Rex's movement but he's too late to stop Rex from his track, Rex's claws already a few inches away from the Ogre's neck.

SLASH!!

The ogre's head that hurt Adhara suddenly flew to the sky, it didn't know what happened before his head got slashed by Rex.

<Killed a Peak Rank Three Supernatural, Obtained 5000 Exp>

Ugrok looks at Rex alertly,

Rex stands menacingly in the middle of the crowd of ogres, he then looks back with his fierce eyes.

"Blood for blood, get ready to die!!"

Chapter 58 Cluster Domain

"Blood for blood, get ready to die!!"

Rex's aura is turning more violent than ever, the aura expanded into a big Werewolf figure behind him that sent a blazing glare at the ogres.

Instead of the usual red color, the aura behind Rex is black charcoal.

The Werewolf figure's gaze makes the ogre's legs tremble, the invisible pressure that Rex emitted alerts their danger sense to the maximum.

Ugrok gritted his teeth in anger, the blood inside him starting to boil, "Ugrok will fight you!!!", he shouted while the red hue on his body become more intense.

Ugrok's eye becomes bloodshot,

ROAAR!!

Ugrok roared creating a small soundwave that pushes back the surroundings, his tusk and horns become sharper and stronger.

His size becomes as big as Rex with his Pure Brace of Moonlight active,

Rosie, Adhara, and the Ogres all step back in fright, the aura that comes out of Rex and Ugrok makes them felt like a puny ant in front of two monsters.

Ugrok smiles brutally, he can feel his blood boil in anticipation.

His Cyclop bloodline comes into play,

The Cyclop race is a Primordial race that exists a long time ago, they are a berserker rage that loves to fight and bathe in their enemy's blood. Legend said that they went extinct because they provoked anyone to fight, the countless enemies united and their arrogance becomes the reason for their demise.

Rex on the other hand also smiles brutally, he can feel the rising power of Ugrok and can't help to get even more excited.

The rage is bubbling up inside him,

His adrenaline spiked, he can't contain the sensation as he rushes towards Ugrok.

WHOOSH!!

Rex's hands tremble as the black hue on his right hand becomes fierce, the corrupted Force inside him got condensed into his right hand, "Force Beam!!"

Ugrok's red aura also condensed into his right hand, he intended to take Rex's punch head-on.

He dashes forward in a straight line like a jet, his big body is contrasting with the speed he shows that is astonishing.

Ugrok's right hand glows red brightly as he let out his skill, "Earth Shatter!!"

The aura that got emitted from these two is astonishing, the ogres, Adhara, and Rosie already got out of the way instinctively.

BOOMM!!!

Both fists collided creating an explosion of Force,

Both of them has comprehended Force, the explosion of Force grew more destructive because of the collision between different Force.

The shockwave created by the collision flattened the ground and trees around them,

Rosie creates a shield made of wind to defend herself but the explosion is too strong, she got thrown away because of the shockwave.

Adhara and the Ogres on the other hand got scorched as they were blown away by the explosion,

Ugrok and Rex who create this explosion are still maintaining their colliding fists, they glare at each other brutally.

The Force on their hand are resisting each other before suddenly,

BOOM!

The resisting force exploded, they both got blown away because of the explosion.

They both got propelled like a broken kite destroying everything on their path, Rex didn't stop until he crashes into the rocks nearby while Ugrok stops after destroying his hundredth trees.

Silence covered the whole area,

Rosie got up from the ground, she got a few burn marks here and there but it's not severe, 'What happened? Where is Rex?'

Just as she looks around trying to find Rex, suddenly a black shadow flew past her.

SWOOSH!!

Rex already dashes towards Ugrok who is also already rushing towards him with fierce eyes,

The both of them sent a punch that is filled with only raw strength each,

BAM!

Rex's fists landed on Ugrok's stomach while Ugrok's landed on Rex's face,

They both smile like a battle maniac as they traded blows after blows,

BAM! BAM! BAM!

From the onlooker's perspective, the fight between both of them doesn't involve a strategy rather only a full-brawn fight where each of them exchanges hit after hit.

They both are just like a crazed maniac that finally got a match after a long time.

SLASH!!

Rex clawed Ugrok's face, his claw is strengthened by the Dark Moon.

The dark energy on his claws has corrosive properties making the wound on Ugrok's face blackened.

BAM!!

Ugrok replied by planting a punch on Rex's stomach, "Grr!", Rex spat a mouthful of blood.

'In terms of strength, this guy is stronger than me but...!', Rex looks at Ugrok that is grinning with pride.

But the grin got smacked away from his face when suddenly Rex's eyes glisten, "Alpha Intimidation!"

<The enemy's stats has been decreased by 30%>

A sense of hopelessness suddenly seeps into Ugrok's mind,

Rex who is standing in front of him suddenly becomes bigger and scarier inside Ugrok's mind, then suddenly Ugrok's body felt weak for some reason.

'Alpha Intimidation is so convenient', Rex thought but suddenly his fangs started to throb.

<Dark Moon Blessing!>

<The dark moon has just given its blessing to the user, Drain Bite skill is unlocked and can be used>

Reading this, Rex was surprised.

Dark energy started to concentrate in his fangs, Rex opened his mouth and bite Ugrok's shoulder which is still in a daze from the Alpha Intimidation.

CRUNCH!

"RAWRR!", Ugrok groaned in pain, the bite jolted him out of his daze.

<Obtained, 3000 Exp...>

<5000 Exp....>

<9000 Exp....>

Rows of notifications appeared in front of him, Rex's bite drains Ugrok of his vitality and power.

<Level Up!>

Ugrok felt his power draining fast, then suddenly his red skin becomes scorching hot.

Rex felt his fangs burning inside Ugrok's body, he then retracts his bite and stepped away to make a distance between them.

ROAR!!

Ugrok roared but the roar sounds like a war cry instead, tears come out of his eyes but they immediately dissipated because of the heat.

<Analyzing the Enemy's skill...>

Ugrok glances at Rex with wavering eyes, then suddenly,

BAM!!

A fist landed on Rex's stomach, "Huakh!!", Rex spat a mouthful of blood and was sent screeching away.

Rex can't see Ugrok's movement before Ugrok's fist landed solidly on him, the fist contains fire properties that seem to scorch the skin that got hit by Ugrok's fist.

The punch was the heaviest that Rex has ever gotten during this fight, his ribs cracked because of the punch.

Rex wanted to get up fearing Ugrok will do a follow-up but that never happens, he looks in Ugrok's direction and saw Ugrok kneeling on the ground with heavy breaths.

Ugrok's aura is getting weaker, Rex realizes that it was his last attack.

Adhara is lying on the ground weakly, her body got scorched and wounded everywhere so she doesn't have the power to stand.

Rex's eyes then landed on the group of ogres that is not far away from him,

The ogres got chills running on their spine as they turned stiff because of fear, every single one of them was rooted in their place.

With his remaining strength, Rex kills all of the ogres with little help from Rosie.

<Killed a mid-rank three Supernatural, Obtained 3500 Exp>

<Killed a peak-rank three Supernatural, Obtained 5000 Exp>

<Killed a peak...>

The crowd of ogre got dealt with quickly by the combination of Rex and Rosie, they all lose their will to fight and died swiftly leaving Ugrok alone.

Ugrok is still on his spot,

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Rex's heavy steps got closer to Ugrok as Ugrok tries to look at Rex with heavy eyes,

Rex brought his Claw up intending to finish Ugrok when suddenly,

DEG!

His body suddenly thumped, and his gaze turns hazy as he lost his footing and also fall onto his knees.

Rex held his stomach in pain, 'It seems my body is hurt more than I thought'

Then suddenly his hand's trembles, he lost his power before he falls to the ground weakly followed by Ugrok that also falls to the ground beside him.

Looking at this, Rosie runs towards Rex in worry, "Rex! Are you okay?", she asked with a worried tone.

"Arghh!!", Rex groaned in pain, the leftover of Ugrok's energy is still scorching his inside violently like a parasite.

Rosie panicked, she looks left and right doesn't know what to do.

'What the heck is that skill? Even my Werewolf Form got hurt by it', Rex thought before suddenly,

<Skill Analysis Complete!>

<Checking the user's intelligence stat...>

<Uncompatible>

<Completed>

<Blitzing Cry skill is pending, Intelligence Requirement: 40>

Reading this, Rex has mixed feelings, 'Well at least I can learn that skill', Rex thought before he opened his inventory and takes out the healing stone given by Rosie.

Rex pretended to take the stone from his pocket taking out the healing stone,

Rosie noticed this, she then takes the stone from him and crushes it to immediately help Rex's injury.

The green light from the healing stone envelope Rex's body, the green light enters his stomach and fights back the burning leftover energy inside him.

The process doesn't hurt instead it gives Rex a calming feeling like being massaged,

Not long after, Rex can feel the energy vanish from his inside as he tries to clench his fists feeling his power comes back to him.

He stands back up with the help of Rosie, "Rosie, I happen to have a rank two healing stone. Give it to Adhara", Rex said after finding the stone lying on his inventory.

He bought the Healing Stone for the mission in Vouver City,

Rosie takes the Healing Stone and asked, "Will Adhara went berserk again if I heal her?"

"Just heal her, After she's healed we'll see if she will go berserk in front of me", Rex replied before Rosie nodded and went to heal Adhara.

Then suddenly, notifications appeared in front of him.

<DING!!>

<Sudden Quest Completed!>

<Calculating Rewards...>

<Obtained 50,000 Exp, 10 Skill Upgrade, 5000 gold, Dark Rune, Claw of Diamond Wolf, and Cluster Domain>

Looking at this, Rex was surprised by the rewards.

'I never get this many types of Rewards. Wait, Cluster Domain? What is that', Rex thought before he decided to deal with Ugrok first.

Ugrok's face is pale, he didn't even speak all this while even though he's conscious.

Before Rex wanted to kill Ugrok, "Your name is Ugrok right? Tell me what is this place", Rex said while looking around him.

The place is empty, there is no sign of life besides the dead ogres and Ugrok.

Ugrok then answers weakly, "Yes, Promise to spare Ugrok then Ugrok will tell you"

Hearing this Rex was aghast, his expression darkened, "I can kill you now if you don't tell what this place is"

Ugrok sighs helplessly, "This is a Cluster Domain made by Ugrok's ancestors, it is a place made for Ugrok to continue the Cyclop race. But sadly, Ugrok's partner died during childbirth"

Rex was shocked, "What is a Cluster Domain?"

Ugrok doesn't want to tell Rex but Rex's claw is already on his neck, "It is another dimension of a place, all of the natural rules applied in here"

'So basically it is another Emham Forest in another dimension? That's pretty cool, I can make this my pack base', Rex thought, his eyes then shows signs of killing intent.

Looking at this, Ugrok gulped hardly and said hurriedly, "If you kill Ugrok, this place will fall! Ugrok is the owner!"

Hearing this, Rex hesitated for a moment, then suddenly.

"Huwaaaaa!!"

Chapter 59 Lin The Kapre Ritual

Baby cries were heard from inside the hut,

Ugrok widened his eyes in fright, he tries to stand up with all of his remaining power to get inside the hut.

Rex frowns, he lets Ugrok sluggishly walks back to his hut.

Rex decided to follow him, 'Is that the child, I mean his child? a baby Cyclop?'

The closer they got into the hut, the louder the cries of the baby is.

Ugrok opened the hut,

The hut is filled with animals hide that covers the whole floor, many animal's tusk and horns also decorated the insides. In the middle of the hut lies a bed, there is a little creature on it flailing its hands while crying.

Ugrok eye lit up, he got closer to the little creature with caring eyes.

He strokes the little creature gently, the fierce bloodthirsty fighter that Ugrok shows before is nowhere to be seen.

Ugrok's right arm is scorched and bloodied,

The injury is nasty but although it hurts, Ugrok didn't show any kind of pained expression while he caresses the little creature with his left hand.

On closer inspection,

Rex noticed that the baby Cyclop is not a pure one, Cyclop has one eye and reddish-brown skin. They also have one horn coming out of their head, and two blunt fangs on their mouth but the little creature in front of Rex is different.

The baby Cyclop has the same color as Ugrok but it has two eyes, Cyclop also has a big burly body but the baby in front of him has a lean proportional body.

Then suddenly, Rex realized something as his expression turns into shock, "HALF-HUMAN?!", he cried out in shock.

Ugrok glances at him and said, "Yes, his mother is a human"

Rex killing intent suddenly rises, his face darkened with disgust.

Rex grabs Ugrok's neck and lifts him up, "You forced a human to bear your baby?!", he roared in anger.

Ugrok struggles trying to break free from Rex's grip but his body is still in a weakened state, "Ugrok never force her! Akh It was never Ugrok's intention!"

Rex squinted his eyes scanning Ugrok's expression,

There is no sign of lying from his expression but it still hard for Rex to believe it, humans despise Supernatural so it's almost impossible for a situation like that to happen.

After pondering briefly, Rex lets Ugrok go,

Ugrok catches his breath while holding his neck, "Why are you judging Ugrok?! You are a Supernatural just like Ugrok", he said grimly.

Hearing this, Rex frowns as he remembers, 'He only knows my Werewolf form, he doesn't know I was a human before'

"Believe it or not, I was a human before I turned into this thing", Rex said.

Ugrok's expression turns skeptical, "Impossible!", he said but suddenly he remembers Adhara's form that looks weird.

"I don't care what you think. tell me, why are you here in the middle of Human Territory?", Rex asks curiously, Ugrok can aim for Rosie at any moment during the fight but he didn't, this left a good impression on Rex.

Rex felt that Ugrok hate him more although Rex is in his Werewolf form,

Ugrok lifts the baby Cyclop up trying to calm him down, "Ugrok's race loves fighting, we are called the berserker but after our demise, the remaining Cyclop doesn't want to fight anymore. So I ran away to this place, a place where my ancestors built to shelter Cyclops from the coming war"

'War? Did he meant the war that is ongoing now?', Rex thought.

"Ugrok plan is to live here until the day Ugrok die using the animals in Emham Forest as food, Ugrok doesn't want to fight anyone, Ugrok is only afraid that the humans or Supernaturals will kill Ugrok's son", He said with a sad expression.

Hearing this, Rex was put into thoughts, 'My conscious doesn't like killing someone that has no will to fight, as long as he doesn't threaten human then it's alright if I let him be'

"Fine, I will spare you. But if you kill any humans, I will hunt you down!", Rex threatened.

Ugrok nodded his head,

'System, is the Cluster Domain you mean is this place?', Rex asks the system.

<Yes>

'Ugrok says he is the owner, what did he mean by that'

<Currently the Cluster Domain is his, you just need to locate the Energy Crystal to turn it into yours>

Hearing this, Rex stands up and asks, "I want to be the owner of this place, where is the Energy Crystal"

Ugrok raises his head hesitatingly, he then replied, "Promise me to let me and my son be if we didn't disturb the humans"

Rex nodded his head, he promised and he meant it.

Ugrok still not buying it, "If you really mean it then swear upon your Origin!"

Rex was confused but he nodded his head to show his sincerity, "I swear upon my Origin that I will not kill Ugrok and his son if they didn't threaten the humans"

Origin Swearing is a sacred promise for Supernatural, If any Supernatural breaks the promise then they will be hunted and killed by their ancestors themselves and this is the holiest promise a Supernatural can make.

After swearing, Rex suddenly felt his body restrained by an invisible chain.

<the Origin has bound the user, Breaking this promise will kill the user instantly>

<Removing Origin Promise...>

<Success!>

Rex smiles bitterly, 'Well this is not sincere if the System erases it right? oh well'

Ugrok then tells Rex about the Energy Crystal that sustains this dimension, he said that the Energy Crystal will show up during the morning inside this hut.

After that, hurried footsteps were heard from outside the hut until suddenly the hut curtain opened forcefully.

Rosie gets inside the hut and shouted, "Rex! Adhara went berserk again!"

Rex then got out of the hut and saw Adhara is destroying the surroundings as if she's possessed.

'System, how do I calm Adhara down?', Rex asks hurriedly.

<Overwhelm Adhara with the user's aura, it will activate the brand on her neck and calms her down>

Reading this, Rex immediately went closer to Adhara and forcefully let out all of his aura.

Adhara who is pacing back and forth like a lunatic suddenly snaps her neck in Rex's direction, she can feel the familiarity with Rex's aura.

The brand on her neck also burns, it acts as a way to force a branded person down.

The burning anger inside of her suddenly started to soothe as she whimpers submissively under a shade,

"Adhara! Take control of it!", Rex roared trying to pull Adhara's conscience to take the lead.

Rex's eyes glow brightly, he is looking at Adhara intently.

Adhara suddenly jolted, her lips trembled as she says weakly, "Rex..."

Her voice is so low but Rex caught it, he then said, "Try controlling your transformation, at least don't wreak havoc this place"

Adhara crawls away and sits under a shade,

"Rosie, help me keep an eye on her. I must do something for a while", Rex said as he remembers that he needs to level up quickly using the breathing technique.

Rosie nodded her head and accompany Adhara,

After that, Rex went to an empty field.

Lin the Kapre Breathing Technique is etched inside his head, 'First step, I need to make a ritual formation to execute this technique'

Rex cuts his own finger and immediately draws the formation on the ground, he follows every step according to the book.

The formation is made of three runes symbolizing God, Gift, and Wealth.

God is the source of the power that will be granted to the ritual user, the power then turns into gifts by the god to enhance the ritual user, and these gifts will bring an immense wealth of power for the ritual user.

After the runes are drawn perfectly in a triangle shape, a sitting creature statue emerges from the ground.

The creature is smoking a cigarette and its body is long and muscular, the creature looks like a living tree-like creature but it is different from a Tree Giant.

Its two hands are stretched in front of it palm facing down,

Rex then walks to the center of the formation just under the statue's two hands, he then sits in a meditative position.

The statue's eyes then glow dark red, three dark red orbs float out of the runes creating a majestic triangle pattern with Rex in the middle of it.

Rosie saw a statue emerge out of nowhere, 'What is he doing now? How did he know all of this stuff', She thought.

Rex felt the abundance of Dark Moonlight Energy around him got closer to him, he then chanted, "Absorb!"

WHOOSHH!!

The orbs suddenly become a magnet and pull the surrounding Dark Moonlight Energy into the statue, the orb slowly turned blacker by the seconds because of the Dark Moonlight Energy.

The statue absorbs all of the Dark Moonlight energy in the surrounding endlessly, if Rex looks at his stats then he will probably notice the remaining time of the Dark Moon decrease.

Dark Moonlight Energy pours endlessly inside the statue, the statue was filled with Dark Energy as its eyes glow with dark energy.

Then suddenly, the statue's hands moved.

Its hands got closer to Rex then swiftly after,

BOOM!!

The Dark Moonlight Energy got transferred towards Rex, it is rushing endlessly inside Rex that makes him engulfed by darkness.

ROARR!!

Rex roared in pain, the transfer of Energy is way more painful than he had anticipated. Even with his Werewolf form, he still felt immense pain as if his body is stabbed countless times by invisible swords.

The Dark Energy is flowing forcefully in his body, he felt like he will explode if this continues on.

Rex calms himself down, he tries to execute the breathing technique to absorb the intense Dark Moonlight Energy so he will not explode.

He steadies his breathing, the dark energy slowly got digested into Rex's body and nourishing it.

There is also a spark of fiery energy that came out of the statues, the fire energy helps Rex's body to sustain the immense Dark Moonlight Energy.

He gritted his teeth in pain as rows of notifications appeared in front of him,

<Absorbing Dark Moonlight Energy...>

<Obtained 40,000 Exp...>

<Level Up!>

His experience points are rising like crazy, although Rex didn't see it, he can feel his power got stronger and stronger.

The dark energy is still flowing and rushing like crazy out of the statue, the three orbs also still has the same amount of magnetic powers towards the Dark Moonlight Energy and it seems the ritual will not end anytime soon.

Meanwhile, Zrolis City.

"Yes, just a couple of hours left before it finally blooms", Jarvald said with an excited expression.

The Silver Mooncress is mutating slowly and it will be ready in just a couple more hours, he can't wait to absorb it and becomes a rank seven powerhouse.

"Jarvald! The princess has arrived!", a Werewolf said from afar.

Hearing this, Jarvald is annoyed, "Tch!!", he then left the Silver Mooncress.

Unknown to him, Bertolf is already watching him from afar.

He is in a dilemma, he wanted to snatch the Silver Mooncress now but it still not bloom yet and the effect will be greatly reduced but the timing is so perfect.

Just as he wanted to take the Silver Mooncress,

SWOOSH!!

'Hmm? What happened? Why is the Dark Moonlight Energy becomes thinner?', Bertolf thought before he glances at the source of the disruption.

Bertold then thought, 'How can this be? someone is absorbing this much energy?', he then glances at the Silver Mooncress and saw that it is wavering as the Dark Moonlight Energy got sucked out of it a little.

'Who in the hell done this?!'

Chapter 60 High Werewolf

"RAARGHH!!"

Rex roared painfully, the ritual is still active as the Dark Moonlight Energy rushed into him like an endless current of water.

The pores on Rex's body are forced open and it is starting to becomes red because of the intensity, Rex got careless and thought he can do the ritual without preparing himself.

It's only been 5 minutes into the ritual but his mind is ready to pass out, the Dark Moonlight Energy fills every inch of his body like a raging vortex.

Rosie on the side got worried, she can see that Rex is suffering inside the current of Dark Moonlight Energy.

The energy is relentless, it greedily gets inside Rex non-stop.

Rex's mind is already engulfed by pain, he can't focus on executing the breathing technique anymore and he is on the verge of passing out.

'I can't pass out or I'll die!!', Rex thought trying so hard to resist.

<Warning!!>

<The energy is too much of the user's body! It is advised to stop the ritual>

<It is advised to stop the ritual!>

The system sent danger notifications over and over again but Rex can't move his body, he can't think anymore and his vision becomes blurry.

In a panic, Rosie makes a wind blade and slashes the orbs surrounding Rex.

SLASH!!

The orb got slashed in half but the ritual didn't stop, she gritted her teeth and slash the remaining two orbs.

SLASH! SLASH!

Swiftly after the third orb got slashed, the suction force disappeared and the statues crumble to the ground.

Rosie runs towards Rex and caught him before falling to the ground, Rex's body is steaming but Rosie gritted her teeth and endure the heat from Rex's body.

She held Rex's head worriedly, "Rex, Rex! Answer me! Hey!", she said while tapping Rex's face trying to wake him up.

Rex's mind is dizzy and his body is steaming, he can only see Rosie's blurry worried expression and her voice is echoing on his ears before he fell unconscious weakly.

The main branch of UWO in Ratmawati City,

Sebrof is sitting in his room leisurely while reading through countless reports, the reports make a mountain of papers on his desk.

Judging from his looks, Sebrof is already in a very bad mood.

Then a man wearing glasses that look like a secretary walks inside the room,

He then bowed respectfully and said, "President Sebrof, the guilds will rally Zrolis City tomorrow. They already scouted Zrolis City and confirms that Brutal Grey is still there, outside of that there is no other report"

"Good, I want to get a detailed report on Zrolis City. Tell them to send a group to search for the looted Elemental Stones, the High-Grade Elemental Stone can't be stolen"

The assistant bowed deeply and replied, "I will make sure to inform them"

Just as the assistant wants to leave the room, he suddenly remembers, "Oh sir, they also said that the evacuated resident of Zrolis City is rioting to the guilds. They said for all the taxes they paid, instead of the Awakened, the people they called Black Hand is the first to lend a helping hand for them and they are unwilling to pay taxes anymore"

"WHAT?! Black Hand? What do they look like?", Sebrof shouted in shock.

The assistant lowers his head, "It's them, sir, the residents said they are Un-Awakened that has the power to rival Awakened. They also have a..."

"a black crow tattoo", Sebrof murmurs before the assistant nodded his head.

Sebrof is fuming with anger, his face went red before he gets up from the chair abruptly and slams the table.

BAM!!!

His eyes are filled with anger, "This wouldn't happen if the guilds cooperate!! Now look at the situation, the people will start relying on this black hand more and more!!"

Sebrof glances at the assistant fiercely that makes the assistant flinch, he points his fingers at the assistant, "Tell the guilds, if there's an attacked city make sure to get there under 6 hours!! I don't care what it takes! If they don't, I will get down there and disciplined them myself!"

Hearing this, the assistant nodded his head repeatedly before leaving the room hurriedly.

Zrolis City,

Jarvald is walking toward a woman clad in a black dress that is surrounded by four creatures,

These four creatures are definitely the woman's guard, they look fierce and emits a dangerous aura but Jarvald doesn't mind their aura.

The four creatures have different skin colors, there are red, blue, green, and brown respectively.

The red-skinned creature has a T-shaped burning horn that comes out of its forehead, its body is emitting black smoke that makes it look like the messenger of hell itself. the blue-skinned creature is the weirdest, its body is glandular, it has fins coming out of its spine and its hand is like a fish, made to swim. The brown-skinned creature is made of wood, it wears spiky armor and it doesn't have a head instead is a bunch of roots growing on its head. The green-skinned one is a creature that has four arms, its body is covered by green fur, there is an extra layer of fur on his back that looks like a cape.

The four of them are different but there is one similarity, there are four black dots on their foreheads.

One will instantly recognize these four creatures, they are the Haltija or also known as Nature's Embodiment.

"Welcome Princess Calidora, please pardon the messy place", Jarvald said politely although his expression said otherwise.

Princess Calidora scoffed, "Drop the pretense Jarvald, Just take me around the place"

Hearing this, Jarvald then smiles smugly, "Well if you say so"

He straighten his back proudly and continues, "I'm sorry princess, I'm busy. I will let Vivian accompany you on your little tour", he said before leaving the princess.

Princess Calidora threw her face away before she left with Vivian followed by the Haltija, Zrolis City is destroyed but there are some houses or equipment that are scattered everywhere, but the houses attract Princess Calidora the most.

Princess Calidora then enters one of the houses excitedly,

The inside of the house is spacious, a casual style with a TV, Radio, and Furniture are all decorating the living room.

"What is this thing? Is it a treasure?", Princess Calidora points at the TV and asks excitedly, her eyes contain stars as she glances left and right.

Vivian glances at the TV, "It is an entertainment item that can show moving images"

Hearing this, Princess Calidora's interests are piqued.

She presses the buttons on the Tv randomly before suddenly,

Ting!

The TV turns on,

Princess Calidora got excited but soon she turns gloomy, the TV only shows a buzzing black and white current with no moving images.

Princess Calidora sighs, "Maybe this item can only be used by Humans"

After that, Princess Calidora went upstairs curiously.

Upstairs she found bedrooms, she sits on the bed and felt good for some reason, "This item is so fluffy, do they use it to meditate?", Princess Calidora asks.

"No, they use it to sleep", Vivian replied flatly.

"Sleeping? I want it!", Princess Calidora said, the Haltija takes the bed before they destroyed the wall and jumped down to place the bed outside.

Vampires or rather any other Supernatural rarely sleep, they don't need to sleep, unlike humans.

The only time Vampires are sleeping is when they got no blood for a while which results in their body stiffening and they will be forced to sleep until they got blood from somewhere.

After getting the bed, Princess Calidora then stumbles into the bathroom.

She glances at her right and found a mirror there, "Is that, me?"

The mirror shows a beautiful woman portrait clad in a black dress, the front of the dress is V-shaped that exposes her breasts a little. Her shiny purple eyes look mesmerizing, the fangs poke out perfectly, beautiful curves on the perfect places, and her face was overwhelmingly beautiful as if the best artist carved her face carefully and creates a masterpiece anyone will not forget.

Princess Calidora reaches out her slender hands and gently touches the portrait of her in the mirror, she was stunned by the mirror.

But suddenly, the fire-skinned Haltija interrupts her daze, "Princess, I'm sorry but I think we should resume your inspection. I believe we may not have that much time left"

Hearing this, Princess Calidora bite her lips, "Take this item, I want this"

The Haltija immediately takes the mirror carefully before they all resume their inspection.

Meanwhile,

The next day, Rex opened his eyes.

He blinked his eyes a couple of times adjusting to the surrounding, Ugrok's hut interior immediately greeted him as he opens his eyes,

Rex wakes up from the bed with difficulty, he held his buzzing head while he looks around the hut.

He only found the baby Cyclop sleeping beside him peacefully, Adhara and Rosie are nowhere in sight and the place is silent.

Rex began to worry, just when he's about to get up he saw his hands already returned to normal.

'The Dark Moon has ended?! Did I reach the next evolution?!, Rex thought before he opened his stats tab.

<Rex Silverstar>

Name: Rex Silverstar

Mental: 40 (+2)

Strength: 70 (+5)

Agility: 35 (+1)

Endurance: 35 (+4)

Intelligence: 15

Attributable Stats: 15

Reading this, Rex was relieved.

Rex remembers what happened last night, 'Thanks to Rosie I survived the ritual, If she's a minute too late then I will probably die because of the Dark Moonlight Energy'

He then notices that he also got a fire-resistance passive skill from the ritual before, and also he felt his regeneration properties have strengthened.

<Fire Resistance - Low>

The user is blessed by the Kapres after successfully using the breathing technique, gives the user resistance against fire-related skill or spells by 10%.

He nodded his head because he buys the technique just for this, it will be useful against Kevin.

Rex then walked out of the hut, he wanted to find the others but to his surprise, they are grilling meat in a bonfire.

Adhara is wearing a blanket because her clothes are ripped off because of the transformation, she held a cup of hot water in her hand.

Rosie and Ugrok seem to get along fine as well, they both threw jokes at each other although Ugrok's joke doesn't seem right.

"What did you do for fun back in your town?", Rosie asks curiously.

Ugrok laughs loudly while slapping his thighs, "Ugrok used to watch Ugrok's father crush animal's skull for fun, it is exciting when Ugrok's father beat the chief leader"

Rosie smiles awkwardly, 'What the heck is fun about that'

Adhara notice Rex approaching, she threw her face away weirdly.

"Hey guys, How long have I been passed out?", Rex asks while sitting beside Adhara.

Rosie flinched before replying, "Not long, only half a day probably"

Rex nodded his head, he then looks at Adhara curiously, "So, how did it felt? Are you afraid of the full moon now?", Rex teased Adhara.

Instead of fear, Adhara's cheeks suddenly blushed, "It hurts but...I want to feel it again"

Hearing this, Rex was speechless, "WHAT THE HELL! YOU CRAZY WOMAN!"
