

Full-Moon 81

Chapter 81 White Ninja

A couple of hours passed,

The VIP train that Rex and the girls are in finally stopped.

The train stops on the northwest side of Ratmawati, the place is full of people and many of them are wearing white coats.

Rex and the others walk out of the train with their luggage,

They all looks around them and were quite shocked, this place is literally the embodiment of future technology.

All of the things in this part of Ratmawati City are developed to the highest level of technology, even the buildings, and transportation here can even fly!

Hera steps in front and said, "Welcome to Sector 2E also known as the Research Sector, the place where all of the researches about Technology, Supernatural, Weapons, and Awakened are conducted.

Ratmawati can be divided into five sectors starting from 1 to 5, these sectors will then further divided into the alphabet starting from A to E. A means north part, B means east part, C means south part, and D means west part.

E on the other hand is a special place, it is created for a special place just like this place. So 2E from before means Sector 2 - Special part of Ratmawati City.

Rex and the girls nodded their heads in amazement, the place is simply a sight to behold.

After getting out of the VIP train, Hera asks them to follow her.

Because they don't know anything about the place, Rex and the girls decided to just follow her lead.

As far as the eyes can see, the place is colored full white.

Hera said that the materials made in this place are sturdier than in other sectors, it is the same materials as the materials used to make the great wall surrounding Ratmawati City.

Through years of in-depth research, the scientist finally able to manipulate these materials.

"Rex! Look at that! That building is literally flying!", Rosie said excitedly while pointing in a direction.

Rex only replies with a gentle smile, he's touching his temple with a frown, 'Damn, I drink too much. Thankfully my Werewolf body can make me sober up faster, if not I don't know if I can even walk', his mind is somewhere else.

After exiting the train station, a white car stopped in front of them making a screeching sound.

Rex and the others stopped,

The door of the car opened revealing a man wearing a white uniform, he's standing straight like an arrow with a gentle smile on his face.

He approaches Rex and said, "You must be Rex Silverstar am I correct?", he stretches out his hand for a handshake.

Hearing this, Rex was confused, "That's right, and you are?"

"Forgive me for my late introduction, I am Mathias one of the lecturer's assistants of Faraday University assigned to be your assistant during your visit", he retracts his hand before replying politely.

Rex rubs his chin in thought, "How do you know I'm here?"

Mathias points above the train railway, there lies a round object that surrounded the railway, "That thing will scan all the people and items a train brought, it is one of our latest discoveries", he said with a proud look.

'Huh, that's a good security system', Rex thought while nodding his head.

Hera steps forward and asks, "Mathias, Why can't the train go further? this place is still far away from Faraday University"

"There is an accident in the station in front of this one, it suddenly exploded. The FAA is investigating this so we must go by car", Mathias explains.

Rex looks to his side and saw smoke hovering in the sky, what Mathias said was indeed the truth. There seems to be an explosion in front.

After exchanging pleasantries, Mathias offers to give them a ride to Faraday University for convenience reasons.

Rex didn't decline and enter the car.

The train station is quite far from Faraday University,

Unlike Ochyra University that has a train station inside of it, Faraday University doesn't have one because they are not as gigantic as Ochyra University.

They are more of a high-requirement university that focuses only on the best of the best.

The car they are riding is fast, only thirty minutes and they manage to cover 125 miles half of the journey to get to Faraday University.

Rex looks outside and saw that the place they are in is not that crowded unlike before, only a couple of people can be seen walking around.

"Where are we? Why is it so desolated?", Rex asks, his gut is telling him something is wrong.

Mathias looks outside and frowns, "This is not the way to Faraday University, excuse me for a moment"

Mathias glance at the driver and shouted, "Hey! Where are we going? We got direct order to bring Rex to Faraday University"

The driver didn't answer and only keeps on driving like a robot.

"This guy? I'm sorry, let me teach him a lesson", Mathias said before he walks to the front.

But suddenly,

Tik...

Tik...

Rex's ears caught something clicking, he focuses on the sound when suddenly his eyes widened in surprise.

He grabs Rosie, Adhara, and Hera before smashing the car's window to jump out.

Mathias was shocked, he doesn't know what Rex is thinking when suddenly,

Tik...

BOOM!!!

The driver in front exploded blowing the car into smithereens, it destroyed the car leaving nothing but a pile of metals.

The four of them got blasted away crashing into a building next to the road, they only got minor injuries but it was still quite a shock to them.

Mathias is nowhere to be seen, he's probably dead under the explosion.

'That was close! Who did this?!', Rex thought as he checks on the other.

The girls and Hera were shocked by Rex's sudden movement but seeing the explosion they thanked Rex in their hearts, if Rex didn't bring them out then they will probably die!

Hera was in disbelief, "Who the hell has the guts to do this?! Although Ochyra University is new, our principal is one of the strongest out of all major universities!"

Rex was also in thought, 'Is this Gregg's plan? to kill me in a fucking car?'

Before they can breathe easily,

Rex suddenly felt something approaching them, he can feel it from afar many strong aura is approaching them.

"Guards up! We have visitors", Rex said to the others.

Hearing this, the others were stunned.

After jumping out of the car, they are flung away crashing into an abandoned warehouse nearby.

The warehouse is huge, there are many unfinished vehicles inside of it with many big tractors filling the warehouse.

Not long after, a group of people clad in all white appeared around them like a ghost.

They are numbering twenty plus peoples, they wear clothes like a white ninja with a katana on their backs, and all of them emits a threatening aura.

Even dumb people will instantly know what they are, Assassins!

Looking at the group of people, Hera sucked in a cold breath.

She's expecting a quarrel between students in Faraday University but who would've thought that before even arriving at Faraday University they already got ambushed by a group of people.

Rex looks at his surrounding, there is two peak rank four and three early rank four that can threaten the girls. Hera is a peak rank four while he himself without the full moon is equivalent to a mid-rank four.

The rest of the white ninja is mid or peak rank three, it will be quite difficult to get out of this situation.

'If worst comes to worst, I will use the remaining lunar blessing to massacre all of them', Rex thought as his eyes glisten evilly.

~

Meanwhile, in the Vampire Kingdom.

The Vampire King is walking along a hallway alone in thought,

He walks with steady steps that are not fast or slow, his eyes are blank as he seems to be thinking hard about something, and not long after he arrived at a huge door.

The door is sealed and there is a huge red glowing rune in the middle of the door.

The Vampire King exhales gently before pushing the door open,

What greets the Vampire King is a black majestic coffin in the room leaning on some kind of throne,

There are many paintings of their Vampire Ancestors on the sides but the painting above the black coffin is the biggest.

It is chilly inside the room, sinister red energy leaked out of the majestic coffin like an endless tide of blood.

The Vampire King approaches the black coffin and kneels in front of it, his kingly demeanor vanished instantly in front of the black coffin.

He claps his hand and immediately a group of Vampire Guard came out of nowhere inside bringing fifty human women, they all have blank gazes as if there's no soul inside of them.

BURST!

With a flick of the Vampire King's finger, the fifty women burst into blood and twirl above his head.

The mass lump of blood then levitates into the air before approaching the black coffin.

Upon getting closer to the black coffin, the blood suddenly got sucked into the blood coffin and in a blink of an eye, it all got sucked into it without leaving a single trace.

CLANG!!

The black coffin's lid opened abruptly,

The Vampire King lowers his gaze avoiding the creature inside of the coffin's gaze, he felt suppressed by the aura of this creature.

"Elder Nolacula, I rejoice upon your temporary awakening", the Vampire King said while kneeling.

Nolacula who just got awakened from his slumber walks out of the coffin, his claw gripped the coffin tightly before he walks outside.

The bats that are sleeping on the roof of the room suddenly flew toward Nolacula, it then hovers on his back before turning into a black robe covering his entire body.

He opened his eyes slowly and looks at the Vampire King in front of him, "Solomon, my child, why have you awaken me?", an astral voice seeped into Solomon's ear.

"My deepest apologies Elder, this lost lamb simply wants to ask a question", Solomon said with a trembling voice.

He tries to raise his head to be more polite while asking but Nolacula's dark red eyes give a natural fear to him, he can't bring himself to raise his head.

Nolacula frowns, "What is it you want to ask? Speak your mind, Solomon"

After Nolacula allows him to ask, Solomon then opened his mouth and said, "There is a weird occurrence, there is a human-skinned Werewolf that emerges amongst the humans. I'm asking if elder knows something about this"

Hearing this, Nolacula's stoic expression becomes a little bit surprised for a second.

He walks to the side in thought before saying, "There is one moment that I remember, my ancestors once told me there are rituals to possess a human body"

Solomon perked up his ears after hearing Nolacula's words, he never knew of this ritual.

"The exact ritual is a secret so I don't know how, but the Werewolves might know it", Nolacula said, he scoffed in despise after mentioning the Werewolves.

Solomon bowed his head deeper and replied, "Based on the Werewolves, they said it is not one of them"

Nolacula's face was etched with disgust while looking at Solomon, "You believe the Werewolves simply because of their statement? Hah! you're too naive, but if it's true then there's only one possibility"

The mockery coming out of Nolacula's mouth makes Solomon's body shiver, he's afraid that he might get slapped to death right this moment.

Nolacula grins showing his two sharp fangs, "There is a forbidden ritual from ancient times, only the demons know of this forbidden ritual. Ask the demon's ancestor about this, tell them you represent me before asking them, tell Tilrith that we will be even if she tells you this ritual"

Solomon nodded his head, he will immediately do as Nolacula said.

But then a frown appeared on Solomon's face, "I'm sorry elder, but what is this forbidden ritual you speak of?"

Nolacula wanted to go back to his coffin but was stopped by Solomon's question, he glances with his dark red eyes at Solomon briefly making him scared shitless before answering, "Possessing humans is temporary, the human's innate power will eventually push us out but, the forbidden ritual can turn human into us..."

BOOM!

Hearing Nolacula's words makes Solomon's heart thump faster, it's like a lightning exploded on his brain making his breathing heavy.

'We...We can turn humans into our kind?!', Solomon screamed inside his head.

Chapter 82 Abnormal Students

Solomon walks out of Nolacula's room with a complicated expression,

Creak...

Boom...

The door shut completely,

Before leaving the place, Solomon bowed one last time before finally leaving the place.

He was in deep thought, 'Ritual that can turn human into our kind? Is that even possible?', the information he got from Nolacula is big news that can potentially be used as a weapon, he is so excited to find this ritual Nolacula speak of.

'Demons huh, I wonder what will Saruth think', he thought.

Because of Nolacula, Solomon becomes more positive in the war against humans.

"Seth!!", Solomon called.

In a flash, a vampire appeared in front of him kneeling on the ground. If Rex was here then he will certainly recognize this vampire as the one who rescued Calidora.

"Yes my lord", Seth greet politely.

Solomon then ordered, "Bring me an Abaddon Stone from our treasury, and prepare to go to the demons"

Hearing this Seth bowed his head and asks, "Forgive me for asking, but why do we need to bring the Abaddon Stone, my lord?"

"Call it etiquette for meeting demons, we will leave after dawn", Solomon said before walking past Seth.

~

Meanwhile,

Rex is looking around him, his enemies surrounded them from all angles.

The warehouse is abandoned and there are no people in this vicinity or rather it has been taken care of by these guys.

"They came instantly after we got blasted here, so it is their plan to get us here. The train station explosion and the driver must be their doings. They seem to have a pretty deep connection to have a driver from Faraday to blow up just like that', Rex thought.

Rex and the others are looking around cautiously, there is no way out except to fight!

Then suddenly,

<Sudden Quest!>

<Ambush!>

Defeat the white assassins without getting substantial injuries.

Quest Reward: Sabertooth Lion Fang, 100,000 Exp, and 1000 gold

Quest Failure: The user will be crippled.

Looking at this, Rex got another reason to fight as an evil smirk appeared on his face.

Hera gritted her teeth, she looks at two people who are standing on a fence that looks like the leader and said, "How dare you attack us! We are from Ochyra University!"

Rex can tell one is a male and one is a female, they both wearing masks and emits a cold chilling aura.

The male leader of the white ninja didn't answer her question, his eyes just look coldly from behind his mask.

Rex's eyes glisten,

<Kiru>

Race: Human

Power: Rank Four(Peak)- Smoke Elementalist

Mental: 76

Strength: 68

Agility: 78

Endurance: 41

Intelligence: 110

'Smoke Elementalist with well-rounded stats and high intelligence, this will be troublesome', Rex thought before his eyes fall to the female leader.

<Miru>

Race: Human

Power: Rank Four(Peak) - Poison Elementalist

Mental: 55

Strength: 58

Agility: 105

Endurance: 48

Intelligence: 107

Just after seeing Miru's power makes Rex's eyes bulge, 'Poison Elementalist with really high agility! I can already tell she's going to be the most troublesome to deal with, I need to prepare'

Rex opens the store section and skims through trying to find an antidote elixir, "Who are you?", he asks trying to buy time.

Kiru jumped from the fence landing a couple of meters away from Rex, "Your killer"

"Miru and Kiru, I suppose you both are more than just a comrade am I right?", Rex said with a smile on his face, he slowly gets closer to the girls before giving them the elixir he bought.

Rex is in front of the girls so his back is towards them, he puts his hand on his back and shakes the antidote elixir signaling the girls to take it without alerting the enemies.

Miru jumped to Kiru's side, her mask covered her expression but Rex knows she's shocked.

"How do you know our name?", she asks with a cold tone.

Rex simply chuckles and said, "What do you think?", a cheeky smile appeared on his face.

Miru and Kiru seem hesitant, they look at Rex warily.

'Drink the elixir after my signal, I will attract their attention', Rex whispers to Adhara on his sides.

Hearing this, Adhara also tells the others of Rex's plan.

Kiru and Miru takes saw Rex suspicious move and take out their katanas from their back followed by the other white ninja, Shing!

Shing!

Shing!

But before the White Ninja do anything,

Rex's right hand started to emit a white hue, he already activates the Lunar Blessing storage and musters his strength before he punched the ground, "Force Beam!!"

BOOM!!

The ground shatters under Rex's punch sending debris to the surrounding, he decided to finish this quickly because of the dangerous Poison Elementalist

In the moment of surprise,

Rex chugged the elixir he bought from the system before dashing to his right, his move was extremely fast.

Swoosh!!

The white ninjas that are on his right were surprised by Rex's sudden movement,

SLASH!!

Rex grows his claws a little before slashing the two early rank four ninjas on his right, they didn't even understand what happened before their necks suddenly burst with blood.

Miru and Kiru are too late to react, Rex's movement is too sudden for them.

"HERA!!", Rex shouted as he signals to Kiru on her left.

After chugging the elixir, Hera's body burns with intense fire before she bolted towards Kiru.

"Smoke Magic! Smoke Domain!!"

SWOOSH!!!

Black smoke exploded from Kiru's body, it envelopes the surrounding in smoke hindering everyone's vision.

There is a greenish mix inside the smoke, 'It's mixed with Miru's poison magic', Rex thought.

Hera stopped abruptly, she lost sight of Kiru.

Adhara and Rosie put their back on each other, they can't fight against Miru or Kiru because of their lower rank so they decided to stick with each other.

Tap! Tap! Tap!

The sound of light footsteps was heard from their surrounding,

Rosie and Adhara already activated their aura, their alert was put to the max.

Two white ninjas suddenly appeared from their side with their mana imbued katana, they both slash at each Adhara and Rosie respectively.

Slash!!

Rosie surrounded her hands with wind mana enhancing her hand before blocking the attack, while Adhara already summons 24 scimitars around her and also blocks the attack.

After attacking, the ninjas disappeared into the smoke again.

Rex on the other hand, after killing the two early rank four ninjas he's also engulfed by the smoke.

'This is bad! I can't locate Adhara and Rosie, this smoke is messing with my vision and smell', Rex thought, the smoke around him is so thick that he can't see anything beyond it.

The sound of fighting can be heard occasionally, it seems the others are fighting too.

Then suddenly, he senses a sharp object slicing through the wind. There are two katanas aiming at his legs and head.

With his inhuman reflex, he jumped sideways and kicks the ninja aiming at his leg,

BAM!

The ninja that got kicked was sent away before a loud crashing sound was heard,

'What?! How is that possible? His reflex is insane!', Miru thought before she goes back into the smoke.

Before Rex can breathe, Miru already attacked him again.

Slash!!

Rex manages to dodge the attacks but she keeps coming from all sides! the attacks are relentless!

'Shit! I can see that the katanas have a green substance on them, it must be poison', Rex thought as he dodges Miru's attack desperately.

Although he already drinks the elixir from the system, it is not wrong to be extra careful.

Just as leans his body to the side to dodge Miru's katanas, she suddenly spits a needle from her mouth.

Swish!!

Caught off guard, the needle stab Rex on his chest, "Argh!!"

He can feel the poison enters his body but thankfully the elixir from before immediately fights the poison back. Before the poison can spread, it is already dealt with by the elixir.

Miru smiles after seeing Rex got stabbed, she readied her katana and dashes towards Rex.

Her eyes glint evilly, she stabbed her katana towards Rex from his back.

Stab!!

Just before it hits Rex, his body suddenly cracked with black lightning.

BOOM!!

It hovers around his body chaotically attacking his surrounding, it even grazed Miru's mask destroying it immediately.

'Eh?', Miru was shocked!

Before she can retract her katana back, Rex suddenly turns to his back and caught her hand, he then grins, "Caught you!",

Miru was shocked after getting her hand grabbed, she then suddenly felt her hand got pulled before getting slammed to the ground.

BAM!!

"Huakhh!", Miru spat a mouthful of blood.

The air on her lungs got forced out, blood burst from her mouth because of the impact, 'Why is he not poisoned?', she thought.

The black lightning stunned her body for a second making her loses focus and got slammed, 'and What is this black lightning?! High tier element?!', she cried out in surprise.

Rex raises his hand intending to finish Miru off but suddenly,

Miru snapped out of her daze "Poison Magic, Venomous Breath!"

WHOOSH!

Miru spat green gas from her mouth, it caught Rex off guard!

He immediately pulled his hand back from Miru and covers his nose trying to not breathe and jumping away.

After Rex's hand got off from Miru, she immediately gets back up and dashes into the smoke escaping Rex.

The green gas prickled his skin but it is not a problem, his regenerative ability is stronger.

After Miru decided to retreat back, Rex hears a fight is happening on his left, 'That must be Hera fighting against Kiru, this smoke is annoying so we need to defeat him first', he then dashes towards Hera direction.

Meanwhile, Adhara and Rosie are bloodied, their clothes are tattered with scars.

There are about six, rank-three ninjas attacking them through the smoke relentlessly. They attack and immediately disappear not letting them land an attack.

Rosie and Adhara wanted to back off a bit but suddenly the ground gripped their legs,

She looks down to the ground and saw a hand made of rock holding her leg in place before suddenly six white ninjas appeared from all of their sides.

She gritted her teeth before suddenly her eyes glow green, "First stance, Wind Pillar!"

BOOM!!

Wind mana exploded from beneath her feet sending both her and Adhara flying,

The six white ninjas missed their attacks, they glance at Rosie and Adhara who is mid-air before suddenly,

WHOOSH!!

The wind mana around them suddenly wrap around their body restraining them, it is like a wind tentacle holding them in place.

Looking at this, Adhara didn't waste the opportunity.

Fire mana gathers around her mouth, her mouth becomes fiery red as the fire mana grew more intense by the seconds.

She takes a deep breath, "Normal Magic! Fire Breath!"

SWOOSH!!

Fire gushed out of her mouth endlessly, it burns the place with fire.

The six white ninjas tried to dodge but only two of them manage to break free of the wind tentacle and dodge it.

"AARRGHH!!", the others scream in pain as they felt their bodies burn.

Some of them use mana to shield them from the attacks but it is not enough, their skins started to make a bubbly pop under the intense heat before their body turns black dropping dead.

Adhara's attack can rival that of an early rank four, she's almost unbeatable on her realm.

After scorching the white ninjas she didn't stop,

The rune on her neck glows green as her movement becomes faster, in the blink of an eye, she arrives between the ninjas that managed to dodge.

She stretches both of her hands towards the two white ninjas that manage to dodge her attack and chanted, "Ignite!"

BOOM!

Both white ninjas got flung upwards before they can realize what's going on, they saw Rosie on their sides with glowing green eyes.

The wind mana already viciously gathered on her hand, "Wind Eruption!"

BOOM!!

Wind hurricane exploded from her hands, it is much more powerful than before because of her higher rank.

It threatened to tear the white ninjas apart.

The remaining white ninjas didn't have the time to chant before the hurricane hits them, "Leader! Save us!! ARGHH!!", they shouted desperately but it is too late.

The wind hurricane ripped their body apart making the hurricane turns red in blood.

Rex on the other side hears this scream as a smile appears on his face, 'They both have done well', Rex thought. There are currently many white ninjas corpses around him, he already killed off the remaining white ninja on his way.

Kiru is currently fighting against Hera,

"Fire Magic!! Nova Slash!!"

SWOOSH!!

Red cleave rushes out of Hera's hands, it burns the ground black heading towards Kiru.

Kiru vanishes into a smoke dodging the attack before he jumped up landing on the fence he stands before, he felt something is wrong.

Not long, Miru appeared beside him with a haggard look.

"Miru? What happened? Who did this to you?", Kiru said in confusion, aside from Hera there should be no one that can threaten her.

Miru replied with heavy breaths, "It's Rex! He's not a rank three, he's inhumanly strong!"

Hearing this, Kiru frown.

The smoke started to clear out revealing all of the white ninja's corpses.

He was shocked to his core, 'Didn't they say he's probably peak rank three? How can he push Kiru until this state and kill off all the others?!'

Kiru looks down and saw Rex and the girls covered with blood,

They are not like normal students that he always fights, it feels like fighting a group of trained soldiers that is used to killing.

'They're not normal!', Kiru screamed in his heart.

Rex looks around and saw Adhara and Rosie fine, he also saw Hera still burning with vigor.

He got 50,000 Exp from killing the white ninjas, it is quite a harvest for him.

He then glances at his surroundings and saw the girls were shocked while looking at Rex.

Black lightning is hovering around his body like a shield, it gives off a powerful pressure although he is quite far away from them.

'Is that Rex?!', this thought seeps into the girl's and Hera's minds.

Looking at the unfavorable situation, Kiru gritted his teeth and said, "We shall retreat, let's report back our findings"

Kiru and Miru turns to their back and wanted to dash but suddenly,

"Where did you think you're going? You're staying with me!"

Chapter 83 Novice Assassins

"Where did you think you're going? You're staying with me!"

The black lightning becomes more intense around Rex's body, he looks at Miru coldly, "Flash!!"

SWOOSH!!

Rex's body disappeared from the spot leaving sparks of black lightning,

He uses his newly acquired skill from the system that he just learned, it is a utility skill that increased his speed briefly.

In a blink of an eye, he turns into sparks of black lightning.

Then suddenly, he appeared beside Miru just a couple of inches from grabbing her neck.

One has to know that Miru is a speed specialist based on her high agility stats, although she is hurt, she's still a fast Elementalist.

'Eh?', she looks to her back and saw Rex right behind her back.

Miru widened her eyes in surprise, she didn't expect Rex can be this fast based on the fight they had before where Rex barely catch up to her.

Without giving her another chance to run, Rex grabbed her neck and slammed her down back to the warehouse.

Kiru on the side was also shocked, 'When did he catch up to us?'

BOOM!

Miru slammed to the ground making a huge web-like crack, "Argh!!", she grunted in pain, blood gushed out of her mouth like a fountain.

Rex knew based on Miru's stats that she is a glass cannon who can't take hits, getting slammed two times was her limit.

He then landed beside Miru who is lying helplessly on the ground, he stomped his feet on Miru's neck pinning her down on the ground.

Miru struggles to move Rex's feet to no avail, her bones are broken in numerous parts of her body and Rex's strength is way above her league.

Looking at this, Kiru stopped with his eyes bulged crazily. He then dashes back to the warehouse fuming with anger, "LET HER GO!!", he shouted angrily.

Hearing this, Rex only chuckles slowly, "Or what?", he put more force on his stomp making Miru cough blood.

"STOP!!", Kiru panicked, he looks at Miru with sorry eyes before raising his gaze to meet Rex, "What do you want?"

"What do I want? You're asking me that?", Rex laughs.

The white ninjas attack him out of nowhere, and how can he let them go just like that after threatening his and the girls' lives.

His eyes then turned cold abruptly, "Who sent you?"

Kiru gritted his teeth desperately, his assassin side won't let him say it but looking at Miru's condition makes him struggle internally.

Rex studied Kiru's expression and said, "What are you doing? You're an assassin, this is the time where you leave and report to your client", he then grins while pressing his feet on Miru's neck, "Oh, I know! Is it because this girl is your sister?"

Rex noticed that Kiru and Miru look similar, they are also different from the assassins he knows.

He once met a group of assassins called the Crimson Smile, they are a group of specially trained Assassins during his time in the military. they hardly show any emotion or even socialize, and they are decisive enough to leave their caught comrade unlike Kevin in front of him.

It's a bit extreme but it's how they supposed to be, any information about their client cannot be leaked because it is taboo for an assassin.

Based on his perspective, these duo assassins are probably forced to be an assassin.

Hera is watching this from Rex's back, she sucked in a cold breath, 'So that's why my instincts told me to avoid him, he's a cold-blooded monster himself'.

Her back is drenched in a cold sweat,

Looking at Rex changes her view of him, she can't see Rex as her student anymore.

Even imagining Rex win against Kevin is not an impossible task anymore, rather, she will not be surprised if Rex totally wins one-sidedly.

Adhara and Rosie on the other side are already used to this, they have seen Rex becomes this cold multiple times.

He becomes like this whenever any of their lives were threatened.

Rex's ears perked up, he hears something coming their way, "Surrender now, If not I will kill your poor little sister. Time's limited, make your decision now"

Kiru is still internally struggling, but seeing Miru's bloodied eyes and painful wail makes him finally let go of his katana.

Clang!

Looking at this, Rex's smile becomes even wider.

He signals Hera to take the guy's weapon and restrain him, he wanted to interrogate them later.

Rex can hear the FAA approaching the warehouse because of the explosion from before, he doesn't want them to capture Miru and Kiru for personal purposes so he decided to hide them.

He opened the system and search for restrain items, he bought two items that are Aura Lock and level four Seal Chain.

Aura lock is an item that can hide an Awakened aura for a day while a level four Seal Chain is a chain that can seal the power of a rank four Awakened or below for a day.

His heart is bleeding because of the costs of these items especially the level four Seal Chain, he sighs, 'This'll do', Rex thought, he then put the item he bought to Miru and Kiru.

The Seal Chain is just like a normal chain but has a weird aura surrounding it, it becomes invisible after it is used on Miru and Kiru. The Aura Lock on the other hand is a tattoo etched on the target's body, it is a black skull-shaped tattoo.

Kiru didn't struggle because Miru is still under Rex's feet, he obediently let Rex do his thing.

He felt his body loses all power, for years of being an Awakened this is his first time feeling like a normal person again, 'What is this?', he thought looking at the invisible chain wrapped on his body.

After restraining Kiru, he then lifts his feet before started restraining Miru.

Miru is in very bad shape, her voice is hoarse and she can't even get up properly alone.

She can only look at Kiru with a sorry expression, she probably felt guilty because of her getting caught.

After putting it on Miru and Kiru, Adhara approached Rex and said, "Rex, the FAA is coming"

"I know, help me hide them", Rex replied after restraining both Miru and Kiru.

Looking at this, Hera was confused, "Why do you intend on hiding them?"

"Ms. Hera, there must be people after our back so I need to know who. Relying on the FAA will only put me in the dark, so I will be the one doing the interrogating", he said nonchalantly.

Hera nodded her head, she then asks, "Okay...but how did you know the FAA is coming? I don't hear anything"

Rex and Adhara were stunned and didn't answer, they were thinking how to answer, "You didn't hear it? I hear it too", Rosie intervenes with a smile.

Hera was confused but suddenly,

VROOM!!

The sound of many vehicles arrives in front of the warehouse, from the sound Rex knew it is the FAA.

Miru and Kiru who now can't move their body were put in the back of a white truck not far from Rex and covered by a blanket they found.

They can only helplessly lie down lest they want to get caught by the FAA which is worse.

'At least we might survive if we stay silent, if we got caught by the FAA then we will definitely be executed', Kiru thought as he signals Miru to stop wailing.

Thud!

Thud!

Thud!

The sound of footsteps was heard from the outside,

Not long after, the warehouse entrance was opened revealing a group of people wearing FAA uniforms.

The leader of the group is a robust old man, his eyes gazed at the surroundings sharply.

He was quite shocked looking at the piles of corpses scattered around the place, his eyes then landed on Rex's group.

He approaches Rex's group and said, "Who are you?"

Before anyone can answer, Hera already stepped forward and replied, "We are the representatives of Ochyra University for a tournament in Faraday University, my name is Hera, one of the lecturers of Ochyra University"

The old man squinted his eyes and saw Hera's uniform, "What happened here?"

Hera explains to the old man about the event starting from when they got here, she didn't miss out on any details except for Rex saving them from the explosion before.

She feels that it will be hard to believe if she said that, well Rex is a student after all.

Hearing Hera's explanation, the old man was angered, "How dare they ran havoc here, MEN!! SEARCH THIS PLACE", he shouted.

The FAA people then started to search this place,

It makes Rex and the others sweat a little fearing they might found Miru and Kiru,

If the FAA found out about Miru and Kiru then they will probably question Rex and the others further, it will be a pain if they manage to do so.

'Hopefully, the items I bought are not for nothing', Rex thought.

Not long after, "South CLEAR!!"

"North CLEAR!!"

"West CLEAR!!"

The FAA people reported one by one, their report is like a beautiful song playing on Rex's ear.

'They didn't find them!', Rex thought relieved, but suddenly,

"I think I hear something!! Eastside!!"

Hearing this, Rex and the others started to sweat.

Miru and Kiru are on the white truck on their east, it makes their hearts beat faster.

Rex held his breath, 'Shit! They found them?'

The old man walks towards the east side, he wanted to check what's the sound they're hearing.

He looks around the place then suddenly, "Please, don't kill me"

A white ninja survived Rex's attack, his right arm is chopped off his body and his face is pale in pain and fear.

Looking at this, the old man waves his hand signaling to bring this man.

Rex and the others sigh in relief, they were thankful that Miru and Kiru are not caught by the FAA.

Hera then steps forward and said, "Sir, can you take us to Faraday University?"

The old man glances at Hera briefly before waving his hand.

A man comes towards him and salutes, "Let them fill in a report about what happened before escorting them to Faraday University"

Hearing this, the man salutes again before guiding Rex and the others.

After about half an hour of making a report, they finally resume their journey towards Faraday University.

They are currently in an FAA van heading towards Faraday University, the four of them are sitting on their backs with tired expressions.

"Rex!! When did you get the black lightning?! You're keeping secrets again!", Rosie pouted, Rex keeps getting further and further away from her.

Adhara and Hera also got their ears perked up waiting for Rex to answer,

Rex chuckles lightly, "I'm not keeping secrets, I just evolved my elements during our time in the VIP train"

Hearing this, the girls were shocked.

"That's not fair! How can you evolve your element like that?! Where did you even get the resources to do that?", Rosie complained.

Adhara on the sides also added, "Yeah, it's very expensive to evolve an element. Even talented people need at least months of dedication to evolve their elements"

Hearing this, Rex felt overwhelmed because of their attempt to pressuring him to answer, "Fine, I got it from the trip I told you about. I meet an opportunity there, that's why I got the resources to evolve my element"

Rosie and Adhara's eyes turn green, "BRING US IN YOUR TRIP NEXT TIME", they shouted in a union.

Rex can only nod his head helplessly, 'I can't possibly bring you guys, not if you're not a part of SCO', he thought.

Because of this event, Hera changes her perspective of Rex.

'Power matching that of a peak rank four, black lightning, and coldly decisive. He will be a great person in the future', Hera thought while looking at Rex who smiles helplessly under Adhara and Rosie's pressure.

She chuckles wryly, 'This guy...', she can't believe that this smiling and innocent-looking guy just killed dozens of people about an hour ago.

Chapter 84 Faraday University

<Sudden Quest Completed!>

<Killing Intent!>

<Obtained 5000 Exp, 2500 Gold, and Medium-Grade Mana Charm Elixir>

<Sudden Quest Completed!>

<Ambush!>

<Obtained 100,000 Exp, Sabertooth Lion Fang, and 1000 gold>

<Level Up!>

<Obtained 3 Attributable Stats>

Rex smiles after he got the system's notification, but he was confused as to why the Killing Intent got completed like that.

'Oh well, thanks for the free reward', he then put the attributable stats into his endurance. He got a feeling that he will need it.

He closes his eyes to rest or at least that's what he wanted.

But as soon as he closes his eyes, his head was filled with thoughts about everything that happened to him recently.

'I need to go back to the warehouse again to get Miru and Kiru, I'll probably do it tonight', Rex thought. Miru and Kiru are currently in the warehouse hiding, the place is still filled by FAA so it is still a mystery whether Kiru and Miru will still be there when he got back.

He then remembered about the ambush before, 'Whoever sent them, they will be alerted about how strong I currently am. But it's odd, I don't sense any killing intent from them as if they're just wanted to injure me or test me'

From the way the assassins move, they never attack Rex's group vital part. Even Rosie and Adhara only got slashes on their body, none of them was injured badly.

It seems the assassins only wanted to injure them.

After shrugging it off, Rex then opened the system tab remembering he still got 8 Skill Upgrade,

He opened the skill tree tab to see if there's anything that catches his eyes, he needs more skills in his arsenal before he reaches rank three.

'I need defensive skill, it will be useful during hard times. I can't just keep relying on my regenerative abilities', Rex thought.

After scrolling for a minute in his mind, his eyes caught a skill.

<Force Manipulation - Level 1>

Force is an aura that is produced by a strong fighter that trains their body to their max, it is a sign of a master hand-to-hand combat fighter. This skill can help the user to feel and manipulate force that can greatly increase the user's body durability, it can be applied to anything the user thought.

Seeing this skill, Rex was tempted.

Not many people comprehended force in this era because of Awakened powers,

An Awakened usually focuses on their elemental mana which can also increase their physical power but mainly uses spells, the Force however needs an astonishing amount of physical training and will increase their physical attributes more than elemental mana can.

Because of learning Ugrok's skill and upgrading it to Force Beam, Rex can tap on this Force power but he still can't feel or control it.

The Force only gets activated when he uses Force Beam.

'Let's learn this skill', Rex decided to learn Force Manipulation. The skill costs 5 Skill Upgrade and it is divided into three levels, the cost for this skill is 15 for level two, and 30 for level three.

With the amount he has now, Rex can only buy the first level.

He then learns Force Manipulation skill,

Immediately after, rows of information enter his brain and his body jolted a little. Unlike learning books or spells, skills from the skill tree didn't cost any gold.

His body glows with a white hue, he felt his body becomes stronger and more powerful than before.

Rex can also feel different entities in the surrounding, there is a white, dark yellow, and red substance dancing around along with elemental mana.

It is a bizarre entity,

Every time it gets close with Elemental Mana, the Elemental Mana simply changes its routes but if they do collide the Elemental Mana will just go through the entity.

'That must be Force', Rex thought, he then tries to absorb this Force.

Unlike Elemental Mana, this Force can be absorbed easily but Rex can only absorb the white Force. The dark yellow and red Forces didn't budge no matter how hard Rex tries to attract them.

He was confused but he then suddenly realize, 'That must be a higher-level force, that's why I can't absorb it yet'

After absorbing the White Force for about a minute, he then suddenly can't absorb this White Force anymore.

There is a limit to how much he can get this White Force.

He can feel his body filled with these White Force and he also felt stronger!

'I must try this out later, I reckon that my physical abilities raise for quite a bit', Rex thought, he then tries to surround himself with the White Force.

His purpose for getting this skill is to make a barrier made of force, it will act as a defensive measure.

Rex puts his focus to the max, he guides the White Force to surround his body like a barrier.

The White Force easily covered Rex's body creating a thin white barrier that hardly seen by naked eyes, it makes Rex's skin brighter.

'Let's try out its durability later when I got to Faraday University', Rex thought.

Just as he wants to open his eyes, Rosie already shouted from his side, "REX!! We're here!!!"

Rex jolted because of Rosie's shock, he opened his eyes and straightens his body forward but slipped and stumbles to his other side.

Squish!

His head landed on something squishy, "Eh?", he was stunned for a moment.

A sweet womanly fragrant seeped into his nose, it smells like a sweet lavender that felt soothing to his nose. He can't help but praise the person wearing this perfume, he nodded his head repeatedly but suddenly.

Tsss!!

Rex's head suddenly felt scorching hot, he looks behind him and can't help to sweat.

His head accidentally lands on Ms. Hera's twin big mountains, it landed perfectly in the middle.

They are currently in a van so the seat is face-to-face with each other, Hera, Rex, and Rosie is on the left side while Adhara is on the right side facing them.

'So that's why it's weirdly squishy and soothin', Rex thought but his expression suddenly freezes when he saw Ms. Hera's expression.

"Ms...Ms. Hera...", he said stutteringly.

Hera's red aura started to leak out, her face becomes red like a tomato.

Rex is preparing himself to get slapped, he closes his eyes accepting his punishment but that slap never comes.

He opened his eyes and peek at his front, he saw Hera looks down embarrassedly.

He wanted to apologize fearing Hera will report him but suddenly, Hera only turns her head away and leave Rex's head be which is still laying on her chests.

"Eh?", Rex was stunned, he still can't process what Hera's action meant.

Just as he wants to clear the misunderstanding, suddenly two hands grabbed both of his shoulders.

His back started to sweat, he felt two tigresses looking at him from his back.

He slowly looks at his back and saw Adhara and Rosie with bulged veins, they are smiling gently but their aura is intending to explode at any moment.

Crack!

Their knuckles make a cracking sound, it is starting to get intense.

Rex looks at suddenly saw his own body releasing a pale black aura, his Bleak Sense saw immense fear coming out of his own body!

"Wait, It was an accident", Rex said wryly.

Adhara and Rosie didn't even want to hear Rex's explanation before suddenly, "AAHHH!!!"

~

In an office somewhere in Ratmawati City,

"Where are they? Why haven't they reported back yet?", a man wearing a black suit shouted with clear confusion, his eyebrows scrunched together in thought.

The person in front of the man replied, "I don't know Mr. President, we haven't got anything back from them"

The man touches his chin in thoughts, "That's weird, there should be at least one of them reporting back"

"Yes, It's not their usual style at all. There's no way this Rex Silverstar beat them all right?", the person said with a frown, he looks worried.

The man leans to his chair, and lights a cigarette, he then said, "How many White Assassins did you send to test them?"

The person looks down on a paper and replies, "I sent twenty-plus people, two peak rank four, and a couple of early rank fours to handle him, the rest are rank three. It should be enough to test a student like him"

After pausing briefly, the person continues, "The lecturer, Hera is only a peak rank four. So the mission should go smoothly"

Hearing this, The man chuckles a little, "Even Kevin can only hold his own against a peak rank four Awakened, let alone a nobody from Ochyra University. Let's just wait for a little"

~

Rex and the girls are currently walking towards Faraday University entrance,

Rex got a huge bump on his head because of Rosie and Adhara earlier, he follows the girls while holding his bump.

"I didn't even do it intentionally", Rex mumbles to himself.

Just before they arrive at the entrance, a woman wearing blue blazers with a white t-shirt underneath is waiting for them in front of the entrance.

Based on her clothes, she is definitely one of the lecturers of Faraday University.

Hera leads the others towards the woman, she puts on her stoic professional look as they approach the woman.

"Welcome to Faraday University, I'm Rita one of the Lecturers here", the woman said while bowing slightly.

She then continues, "You must be the representatives of Ochyra University, it's my pleasure to welcome you all here. I heard about the accident, my sincere condolences"

Rita glance at them before her eyes widened for a second, then a frown appears on her face.

Rex caught this weird reaction, 'Why she looks shocked after looking at us?'

Hera also notices this and then said, "Thank you, we thankfully manage to kill all of them"

Hearing this, Rita can't cover her shocked expression anymore. She then smiles awkwardly and said, "You must be tired then, please follow me to your rooms"

They then follow Rita to their rooms,

Faraday University is just like sector 2E, they are covered with white-colored and look futuristic.

The buildings are made of the same materials as sector 2E and it is comfortable to walk in, a huge levitating chandelier with a red crystal on top of it that emits a translucent red light greets them after they enter Faraday University.

It majestically shone on all corners bringing a comfortable feeling.

'Hmm, the fire mana is dense here. Is that chandelier a treasure?', Rex thought.

The students here are also wearing white uniforms, and they are all looking stoic and serious. It's not bustling like Ochyra University, they are all like robots.

Some of the students are wearing high-tech equipment that Rex has never seen before, firearms are also a common thing here.

Just by looking at them, Rex already knows they are all boring geniuses. He felt comfortable in this quiet atmosphere.

After walking for a while, they finally arrive at their rooms.

It is located on the outer-most dorm section, it is not luxurious like his room in Ochyra University but it's alright.

"Here's the key for your rooms, please if you need anything just call me by pressing this button", Rita said pointing at the hologram etched on the wall.

The other nodded their heads before Rita finally left them.

Just after Rita left, Rex said, "They're the ones who send the white assassin before right?"

"Yes, her expression is like an opened book", Hera said sharply, she's fuming with anger but she held it in.

Adhara also added, "Yes I can see her surprise aura and it is very intense, she definitely thought we will be in a bad shape"

Meanwhile, Rosie on the other hand got left out.

From the moment they arrive at Faraday University, her focus goes to the surrounding place that looks like a spaceship.

She didn't understand what's going on, "Wait what?", she said confusedly.

~

"Hello? Did you get Rosie? Where is she? I will immediately go there?", Gregg asks the person on his phone.

Bzztt!!

Gregg frowns, "What do you mean Rex has a peak rank four-guard protecting him? He's just a nobody"

BZZTT!!

Tuut~

"WHAT THE HELL!!", Gregg shouted madly, he can't believe that his plan failed just like that. He wanted to kidnap Rosie to lure Rex into a trap but who would've thought that Rex has guards on his side.

Gaby approaches him with a curious look, "What is it?"

"They failed, they got attacked by White Ninjas out of nowhere", Gregg said with a darkened expression.

Chapter 85 Training Ground

Rex approaches Rosie and smacks her head,

SMACK!!

"What's that for?", Rosie pouted while holding her head, she looks dumb right now.

Rex sent her a mocking look and said, "Pay attention to your surrounding, don't get caught up with unnecessary things"

"It's my first time here, why do you have to be so mean", Rosie rebutted, turning her head away.

After talking briefly, Rex and the others unpack their things and settle down.

They all will stay in this room for the rest of their visit.

The room is spacious and has two king-sized beds. It is decorated neatly with futuristic white and grey furniture, hologram clocks, voice control hologram telephone, and it even has its own automated kitchen and bar.

All in all, it is quite a spacious room.

Rex felt he's living in the future just by seeing the stuff they use, it's nothing compared to Ochyra University's medieval-style building.

He was the first to unpack his stuff, the girls still have tons of things on their bags.

The room also showcases the full view of sector 2E from its windows, it is breathtaking, to say the least in Rex's opinion.

The street is covered with greenery and a glass shield on top of it, skyscrapers reach high touching the sky, and there is also a flying castle way above the sky that is located way higher than the flying cars.

Rex was curious about the castle, he will try to remember and ask it later.

After seeing the scenery, Rex then went to the bathroom to freshen himself before going to the training ground.

He didn't forget what he came here to do, he wanted to provoke Kevin.

Ten minutes later,

"REX!! Open up, I need to pee", Rosie shouted while banging on the door.

Rex is currently looking at the mirror, "Wait a sec, I need to brush my teeth!", he shouted back.

He grabbed his toothbrush and wanted to start brushing his teeth but suddenly he notices something, he stares at his teeth in confusion.

He suddenly can sharpen his fangs at will, it is like a muscle on his fangs that he can control.

From the moment he becomes a High Werewolf, all sorts of changes happened to him starting from his nail that can turn into a claw, and now his teeth can become longer at his will.

'Huh, I'm not going to turn into a real Werewolf right?', Rex thought.

Although he can extend his fangs, he can't imagine biting someone's limb off. The last time he did it was when he fought Zegrath and he didn't even bite off his limbs, he only bites it. He does that purely because of the heat of the moment, and instincts.

BANG! BANG! BANG!

"Rex open the door?! Why are you taking so long like a girl?", Rosie shouted again.

Rex started to get annoyed, he finally opens the door and walks out, "You're so noisy, keep it down will you?"

Rosie only scoffed before slamming the door at him.

'This girl is always as hectic as ever if only I didn't agree to become her boyfriend', Rex sigh.

He wanted to get dressed but suddenly,

Thud!

Hera who is sitting on the bed was surprised when she saw Rex, the phone in her hand falls to the ground making a thudding sound.

Rex saw Hera's surprised look, he looks down and found that he's only covered in a towel.

His muscular build that can even make the most muscular man to shame was exposed, his towel only covers his private parts revealing his V-cut all the way down to his knee.

Adhara saw this and said, "He always do that ms, you have to get used to it"

Hera turns her red face away and nodded his head, 'You're a teacher Hera, snapped out of it', she thought.

She's always cold to men in general, because of that she never has any kind of relationship. This is her first time seeing a man's body, it makes her feel stifflingly hot for some reason.

Rex got dressed quickly, he then said, "I'm going to the training ground"

Before he can even open the door, "Let me come, I'll accompany you", Hera said hurriedly while taking her bag and phone.

Rex didn't argue and let her come, 'She's probably scared I'm going to make a scene here'

Adhara didn't come because she's not done unpacking her things.

After that, they both went out of the room and search for the training ground.

The sun is already got engulfed by the night, it is still late so Rex is in a hurry to find Kevin, 'I'll just go to the training ground to test out my new skills, I'll make a ruckus there to lure Kevin', Rex thought.

While both of them are walking side to side, every student they met along the way casts them a curious gaze.

Some even tried to talk to Rex but he quickly realized that they're filming him, so he decided to ignore them.

"It's a visitor! Which university did they come from?"

"I don't know, quick post it on the university web!"

"They're probably the representative from the new university, Ochyra University. This is going to be fun"

Rex hears all of their whispers with his enhanced hearing, 'Well, at least Kevin will know I'm here because of them', he thought.

It's easy to find the training ground, unlike Ochyra University.

There is a small robot in every corner of the place, it can help the students or visitors in finding places or even report something.

The little robot is like a small astronaut, its eyes are blue and it can change emotions depending on its mood.

"What can you help me? I mean What can I help you?", the little robot said.

Rex and Hera chuckle a little before saying, "Can you guide me to the Training Ground? I don't know where it is"

The robot's emotion turns into a surprised look before it replies, "You must be a visitor then, Let me guide you", it said before starting to guide Rex and Hera.

It looks cute especially when it moves its tiny legs to guide Rex to the training ground.

After about five minutes, they finally arrive at the training ground.

The little robot bids its goodbye after accompanying them to the training ground, it gives Rex and Hera a card before it waves its cute hands and going back to its original spot.

Hera's eyes shone while looking at the robot,

From a glance, Rex definitely knows that she thinks the robot is cute, if not for Rex here, she probably will play with the robot some more.

Rex then looks at the training ground in front of him, he's still at the entrance so he can't see the inside yet.

The place has more crowds coming in and out of the training ground, it is more lively compared to other parts of this university.

The students notice Rex's weird clothing, they then whisper among themselves.

Rex ignore the student's curious gaze and studied the students getting into the training ground, they queue neatly to get inside the training ground.

They show the card to a robot at the entrance of the training ground.

The robot then takes the card and scans it, then they scan the person who gave the card before suddenly the person's information appears on the screen beside the robot.

"Kayla Sklire, Second Year, Grey", the robot said with a robotic voice before letting the person inside.

Looking at this, Rex was confused, "I understand the first two but what did Grey mean?"

Hera shakes her head, "Let's just try it, I'm sure it will be fine", she said before pushing Rex to go first.

'You said it will be fine but you push me to do it first', Rex chuckles.

He then queues up the line and not long it is his turn, he gave the card he got from the little robot.

The robot did the exact same procedure as before, it scans the card before scanning Rex's body.

It shot a light blue light from its eyes towards Rex's toe all the way to his head, then Rex's information appears on the screen.

"Rex Silverstar, Visitor, Brown", the robot said before letting Rex through.

Hera was up next, "Hera Larson, Visitor, Brown"

After they both got scanned, they look at each other before looking at the entrance in front of him.

The entrance of the training ground is only covered with blue buzzing energy, it renders everything behind it unseeable from the outside.

Rex already saw the other students and they only walk past this entrance.

He then stretches out his hand and inserts it into the entrance,

Bzzz...

It makes a buzzing sound, he looks at his hand and saw that it was swallowed by the entrance but he can still feel his hand.

After making sure, he went all the way inside.

Bzzz...

Rex and Hera went inside the entrance, they close their eyes because of the bright light but soon they adjusted.

They opened their eyes slowly and greeted by the huge training ground filled with students.

Sound of fighting and shout can be heard from all direction, many students are training with their weapons, some is meditating in a quiet room on his right, and some are sparring with each other.

It brings different kinds of vibe from the quiet vibe on the outside.

Rex's eyes shone brightly when he saw many facilities that help the students in training, 'No wonder Kevin is cocky, our training ground is lackluster compared to this', Rex thought.

Hera on Rex's side is writing something on her phone, it looks like she's documenting this place.

Rex was confused about an orb floating above everyone in this training ground, he has one of these floating orbs too and it is brown in color. There are four colors of these orbs, Red, Grey, Brown, and Gold.

He was curious as to what these orbs signify but then suddenly,

Rex's ears are attracted to something on his right, it is the sound of a fight.

There are students inside some kind of arena, the arena is a circle shape and it is covered with blue energy that looks slightly different from the entrance.

Rex is not stupid so he immediately knows that it is a barrier made to keep the fight inside the arena.

There are about ten arenas on his right, and it is all used by students.

Rex saw some of the students inside the arena is not fighting another student, rather, they fight against a robot that Rex has never seen before.

"What is that?!", Rex shouted excitedly as he approaches the arena.

The robot inside of the arena looks drastically different from the little robot he met before, the one inside the arena looks tough and more fearsome.

It is human-shaped with different models, some use firearms, some use elemental attacks, and some are purely physical. They also vary in size, the robot using a firearm is massive, the one using an elemental attack is lean, and the one using a physical attack is muscular.

Rex was excited to fight these robots.

He then saw an Arena that many people gathered to watch, it is the center-most arena with a man inside of it.

The man is wearing a sleeveless combat suit, his legs are covered with armor and he's swinging his saber against a black human-shaped robot also using a saber that fully utilizes physical attacks.

"Here goes Bruce challenging a level four P-1 robot, he can't win this"

"I saw him train hard for this fight, but P-1 is too much. Its physical abilities can match that of an early-rank four Supernatural, it's not a peak rank three opponents"

BAM!!

Bruce got pushed back after colliding with P-1, his eyes are still calm as water.

P-1 didn't give him the chance to breathe, it dashes towards him and sent a roundhouse kick aiming at Bruce's head.

Looking at this, Bruce raised his arm to block but suddenly.

P-1's leg makes a mechanical sound before it suddenly changes its kick trajectory to Bruce's stomach, it caught Bruce off guard as it lands a heavy kick to Bruce's stomach.

BANG!!

"Akh!!", Bruce was thrown away crashing to the arena walls.

Looking at this, Rex shakes his head, "That P-1 is faster than that guy, it also has some martial arts programmed into it making it lethal. The guy's good but it's not enough, if it was me I can defeat it easily", Rex mumbles.

"It's not that the guy is bad, you're the one who is a freak", Hera said from the sides.

Rex only replied with slight chuckles when suddenly, "Oh really?", a voice interrupted them from the side.

Chapter 86 Testing Training Robot

"Oh really?"

Rex and Hera glance to their side and saw a man wearing a combat suit, he's as tall as Rex but much leaner than Rex.

"What do you want?", Rex said coldly.

Hera on the side started to panic, she didn't know what to do. Rex is giving a glare to the guy and it makes her heart thump, 'One wrong move, this guy will be done for', she thought.

She wanted to interrupt it but the guy beat her to it, "Chill dude, I'm just asking. The name's Bennie", he said while stretching out his hand.

Rex's frown disappears, "Sorry about that, My name's Rex. Rex Silverstar from Ochyra University", many people came to provoke him so he subconsciously answers with a cold tone to any stranger that greets him.

Hearing this, Bennie freeze a moment with a frown, "Rex Silverstar? I heard that from somewhere"

Then suddenly,

Snap!

Bennie snap his fingers and said with a surprised expression, "Rex Silverstar! The one awarded two medals of honors from UWO!"

Rex smiles awkwardly, 'My name is quite famous I must say, well a teenager that brings changes to the war is certainly something', he thought.

Bennie laughs, "That's a surprise, what are you doing here?", he asks.

"I'm one of the representatives of Ochyra University", Rex replied nonchalantly, he turns his head to watch back the fight in the arena.

Bennie nodded his head and said jokingly, "So, what did you said earlier about he's not good enough and you can beat that robot easily?"

"It's up to you to believe it or not, but that's simply the truth", Rex said calmly.

For him the robot has too many flaws, it is programmed so he can't blame the robot.

"That person inside is Trevor, he's a peak rank three Awakened and is known for his hand-to-hand combat. He is arguably one of the best fighters in Faraday University", Bennie explains.

Rex listens to him and nodded his head, he can see Trevor has a gold orb above his head.

He becomes more curious about the floating orbs, "Say, what are these orbs on top of my head and the others", Rex asks Bennie.

Bennie chuckles making Rex felt embarrassed, "It's my first time here, stop laughing"

"These orbs signify our status, Grey means it is a normal student, Brown is for visitors like you two, Red is for students that breach the training ground rules multiple times, and gold is a top ranker of Faraday University", Bennie explains while pointing at each of the orbs.

Hearing this, Rex understands the gist of it.

The students around him mainly have grey orbs, he can see some of the students with red orbs but he can't find any students with gold orbs except for this Trevor.

"What's this rule you talk about?", Rex asks.

"The rules are simple, everyone in this place can challenge each other except for people with red orbs, a student can decline people with red orbs. And also it is prohibited to inflict permanent injury or ganging up without permission", Bennie said.

Hearing this, Rex was quite a shock by how simple the rules are, 'Then these red orbs students must be really violent', he thought.

After looking around, Bennie suddenly said, "Why don't you try fighting the robot then?"

"I can do that? I'm a visitor, is that even allowed?", Rex asks.

Bennie laughs a little, "Of course, especially since you're a guest you can use this arena to your will"

Just as Rex wanted to try it, Hera on the sides held him, "Rex, don't make a scene please"

Rex can only send Hera a smirk before leaving her.

Her worried expression crumbles turning even paler, she can only follow Rex helplessly.

Trevor is already beaten by the P-1 as the fight ended, the students around cheered him up but his expression is darkened. Rex can immediately tell that he's a hard-working student just by looking at him.

After Trevor walks out, Rex walks past him followed by Bennie and Hera.

Looking at them, Trevor held Bennie and ask, "Who are they?"

"The representatives of Ochyra University, that guy said he can beat level four P-1 easily", Bennie said before he shrugs his hand off and left Trevor.

Trevor squinted his eyes as he studied Rex, his expression then turns into shock, "F...Force!!!"

The arena has a changing room inside of it, it is a place where fighters change into their equipment and set their opponents via hologram.

"Did you bring your equipment? If not I can lend you mine", Bennie said after seeing Rex didn't bring anything.

Rex only waves his hand as he takes out his battle gloves from Adhara.

Bennie was speechless, "You need armor to fight them, it's suicide to fight P-1 without equipment"

Hera on the side held Bennie, "It's okay, he always fights like this"

'What? Is he cocky or just that good?', Bennie thought before letting Rex went inside the arena.

Rex adjusted the robot into the same one Trevor fought, he wanted to test the robot's skill and also his Force barrier.

'I'm not going to fight with my Black Lightning, let's save that for the fight with Kevin', Rex thought.

He then enters the arena under the Faraday University's students.

"Who's that? He wanted to try fighting level four P-1 that even Trevor can't beat?"

"He's a visitor, look at his orb"

"A cocky fighter from another University, I'm going to enjoy him losing"

Rex ignored the crowd of students and started to stretch, his calm demeanor makes the students sent a mocking look to him.

Not long after, the entrance on the other side of the arena opened revealing the P-1 robot.

On closer inspection, the robot is already recovered from the fight against Trevor. It is black in color with yellow glowing eyes, it is muscular and as tall as Rex, its face is covered with a mask, and it's covered with armor from head to toe.

If any other fighter that uses a battle glove fight this robot, they will be at a huge disadvantage because of the thick armor covering its body.

But Rex is no ordinary fighter.

Trevor watches Rex intently from the side, he wanted to see the extent of Force user that he always dream of.

Rex squat down and touches the ground, 'It is the same sand as the training hall in Ochyra University, It'll be easier to fight it then', Rex thought.

He's already used to this terrain so he's not worried,

A fighter that has never fought on sand terrain will use unnecessary stamina to move because of the sand, they can easily get tired if they're not used to the sand. The sand is also dune so it makes moving rather hard, it tends to suck in the fighter's feet when they make a sudden move.

P-1 drags the huge saber on its hand leaving a straight line on the ground, the saber looks heavy and menacing to other students.

Looking at the approaching P-1, Rex focuses the force in his body to make a translucent barrier.

His eyes then glisten,

<P-1>

Race: Robot

Power: Rank Four(Early)

Mental: 0

Strength: 75

Agility: 55

Endurance: 50

Intelligence: 0

'A well-rounded stat, it only has physical stats just like it's programmed', Rex thought.

Teng!

A 'Ready' sign hologram appeared above the arena, it then started to count down from three.

Rex activates his Force to cover his whole body like a blanket, then a notification appeared.

<The user's stats have been increased by 10%>

Looking at this, Rex was delighted, 'Not only I have an extra layer of protection, but I can also increase my stats without the moon'

He then looks at the robot in front of him with excitement, his body unable to hold in the excitement as it started to tremble.

He wanted to try out his new skills and also taste the technological development of humans in this last decade.

Teng!

'START!'

BOOM!!

P-1 dashes towards Rex immediately exploding the sand beneath it, it was programmed to be an aggressive fighter.

Rex jumped back to guard and wait for P-1's move,

P-1 slashes Rex with its huge saber creating a crescent shockwave, the power behind the slash is not to be underestimated.

The slash was fast, it approaches Rex like a shadow but Rex can see it clearly.

His high perception due to his Werewolf bloodline can see the slash clearly, it is a fast slash but he manages to raise his arm to block it.

Clang!!

The saber seems to clash with the metal plate of his battle glove creating a clanging sound that can be heard throughout the training ground.

But if one looks closely, there is a thin white barrier that blocks P-1's attack.

The saber got blocked cleanly by Rex, 'The Force Barrier seems sturdy enough to block an opponent with 75 Strength'

P-1 makes a mechanical sound before the saber slash again towards Rex.

Rex react to this sudden movement and jumped away dodging the saber, it didn't come close to touch Rex.

BAM!!

The saber hits the ground creating a splash of sand, it misses Rex completely.

P-1 didn't stop, it keeps dashing towards Rex madly sending a flurry of slashes that keep getting blocked by Rex easily.

"Look at that guy on the defensive, he can't do anything against P-1's flurry attacks"

"Of course, that is level four P-1 that even Trevor can't defeat"

Bennie also shakes his head in disappointment, he thought Rex will be different but who knows he can't defeat level four P-1.

Hera on the side notice Bennie's expression and said, "You better keep watching"

Meanwhile,

P-1 started to use its hand and legs to attack Rex alongside its saber, it raises its arm and makes a heavy slash towards Rex.

Rex held his arm up to block the saber but suddenly he heard a mechanical sound on P-1's leg.

Just when the saber wants to connect, it suddenly stopped mid-track as P-1 sent a kick towards Rex's head.

It is the same move as the one that finishes Trevor.

Rex already figured out P-1's pattern as he dodges the kick by rolling to the side and punch P-1's shoulder joint.

CLANG!!

The punch shatters P-1's left arm like it was nothing, it stumbles back before stabbing the saber to the sand and stopping.

The crowd was dead silent seeing this scene, they can't believe that P-1 that only a couple of second and third-year students can beat got shattered like that.

It is simply a slap to every student's face that mocks Rex earlier.

Bennie was also shocked, he scratches his eyes trying to make sure what he's seeing is true, "Oh my god! He shattered it!! P-1's arm just got shattered by his bare fist!!"

All of the doubts Bennie has over Rex got washed to the drain, he's simply astonishing.

Hera on the side also cracked a smile, 'He didn't even use his elements, it felt good to have a student like him', she thought.

In the arena,

After shattering P-1's arm, Rex didn't stop and dashes towards P-1 that just got up.

He pulls back his arm as his eyes glint ferociously, "Force Beam!"

P-1 raises its other arm to block Rex's punch, but it is useless.

CLANG!!

P-1's other arm got shattered by Rex's punch, it completely crumbles into pieces like broken glass. It got pushed back stumbling a couple of meters, P-1's condition is pathetic to describe.

The saber on P-1's other hand that just got shattered falls and stabs to the ground.

Rex pulls this heavy saber off the ground under each student's gaze, he then swings the saber in a crescent shape.

Slash!

The saber cuts P-1 in half, it buzzes for a moment before its yellow eyes died down.

Teng!

'Winner! Rex Silverstar!'

After the announcement, the students were still silent as they refuse to admit what they have just witnessed.

Hera on the other hand is clapping her hands madly followed by Bennie, she was so hyped about Rex's win.

Trevor on the outside was also speechless, 'So that's the power of a Force User', he thought with excited eyes.

"Yep, that's not much of a challenge", Rex mumbles as he walks out of the arena.

Just before he turns his body an announcement suddenly appeared above him,

'New Challenger!', a mechanical voice seeped into Rex's ear, it makes everyone look at the other corner in confusion.

Rex also cracked a grin, 'Challenger? This is gonna be fun', he thought

Chapter 87 Meeting A Friend

'New Challenger!'

The other end entrance opened revealing a masked guy not wearing any armor just like Rex,

He wears a black tank top with a necklace decorating it, combat pants that hugged his legs tightly, and his body is jacked, unlike the usual lean students.

From a glance, Rex can already feel this guy's dominating pressure.

He somewhat felt the guy's aura is familiar, 'Did I know him?', Rex thought with a frown.

The guy started to walk inside the Arena with steady steps,

His demeanor tells Rex that he's not impressed with Rex's feat before, his long strong stride adds a confident aura around him making Rex feel annoyed.

The guy stops about five meters away from Rex, his back is straight as an arrow.

Rex is trying to figure out the familiar guy in front of him, he just can't put his thumb on who this familiar guy is.

"Who's that?"

"Masked student? I never saw him before"

"But his demeanor looks similar to that guy, the first-year top three ranker"

"Now that you said it, he indeed looks like that guy. He even has a gold orb"

The guy stares at Rex from behind his mask, "You changed, I'm quite surprised that you have become this strong. It also shocks me to see you here, I thought you will not be interested in this kind of tournament", he said with a muffled voice.

Hearing this, Rex becomes more certain that this guy is someone he knows.

Before Rex can even answer,

'Begin!'

The hologram screen announces the start of the fight, the guy instantly dashes towards Rex.

He wears brass knuckles similar to Rex's, the decisive dash and movement are all telling Rex that this guy is an expert!

BAM!

Rex blocked the guy's right punch, he can feel his force barrier trembling for a bit.

'This guy is strong!', Rex thought, he then jumped back to create a distance between them trying to restart the match.

Rex knows that the first one to close the distance will have the momentum in hand-to-hand combat, so he's trying to restart the fight.

Looking at Rex jumping back, the guy smirks.

Swoosh!!

The guy's body glows with a red aura, his movement becomes even faster as he rains a flurry of punches towards Rex.

BAM!

BAM!

BAM!

Rex got pushed back because of the punches, it is way heavier than P-1's attacks before.

He dodges the guy's left hook and counter with an uppercut towards the guy's chin, Rex's counter is flawless and it is very hard to dodge or block it.

Just before the punch landed, the guy suddenly jump dodging the punch by a hair's length.

'What?! His reflex is pretty good, he's even better than any students I fought', Rex thought, he was surprised that his counter got dodged easily.

The guy landed a couple of meters away,

'This is my chance!', Rex thought as he dashes like a shadow, he arrived in front of the guy in mere seconds.

Rex can see the guy is surprised, he then rains punches towards him.

Every punch he sent is targeted and decisive, it should overwhelm any opponents he fight even during his military times against veterans but the scene in front of him shocked him to the core.

The guy's defense is rock solid, he blocks and dodges every punch and even has the time to counter some of them.

The crowd was mesmerized by the fight, even the other fight stops after seeing Rex's.

"Oh my god! They're even!"

"I don't know which one to root anymore, they're both good!"

Trevor's eyes glued on the fight, it is his passion to become an expert of hand-to-hand combat.

Hera was also shocked, she can't believe that someone can be on par with Rex's hand-to-hand combat that even no students in Ochyra University come close.

Rex dodges the guy's counter and sends a kick towards his right kidney,

The guy noticed that he can't dodge it so he quickly twists his body and sent a spinning back fist towards Rex's head.

BAM!!

Both of them got hit,

Rex's kicks landed on the guy's back because of the guy's movement, while the guy's spinning back fist got planted right on Rex's face. They got flung a couple of meters before stopping.

Blood leaked out of both of their mouths, the attack they receive is heavy and it definitely hurt them both.

After a brief pause, they dash to each other again.

'His defense is rock solid! I need to aim his legs', Rex thought, during the military, he is taught to aim at the opponent's legs if they are turtling. It will make them opened up and do mistakes.

Rex swing a low kick but suddenly,

Grab!

Before Rex can even aim at the guy's legs, the guy already anticipated this and grab Rex's leg and push him to the ground.

'Shit!', Rex fell to the ground.

The guy quickly get on top of him pinning Rex down,

Rex's hands is held by the guy, he's in an unfavorable position with his chest exposed to attack.

Just as Rex wanted to get out of the position, he saw the guy's mouth started to get fiery as fire mana concentrate.

In the nick of the moment, Rex manages to pull his leg and kick the guy off of him.

Rex then rolls backward and stand back up with his battle stance, he then said, "That's cheating, I thought we're fighting using fist only"

The guy didn't respond,

Looking at this, Rex decided to also use his skill.

Force started to gather on his hand fiercely creating a white hue, it makes the wind flutter. Because of Rex's Force Manipulation skill, he can control the amount of Force in his Force Beam and he can even use all of the force in his body to gather on his arm.

His Force Beam skill grows stronger thanks to the Force Manipulation skill.

The guy didn't sit idle, Fire mana started to twirl around his fist before turning into a red hulking figure.

It stares at Rex fiercely before he dashes towards Rex.

Rex accepts the guy's challenge as he dashes towards the guy with intense Force swirling on his arm.

"Force Beam!!"

"Fire Titan Art, Colossal Punch!"

BOOM!!

Both fists collided creating a huge explosion of energy,

The explosion makes the sand burst creating a shockwave to the surrounding, it makes everyone inside of the Training Ground glance at the arena feeling the intense fight.

It blasted both Rex and the guy away towards the Arena's wall,

BAM!!

They both got planted inside the Arena's hall creating a huge crater on it, the Arena barrier even flickers because of the impact.

Rex gets out of the Arena's wall with a smirk etched on his face, his full of injuries body seems to not hurt him at all.

On the other side,

The guy is also going out of the Arena's wall, he also has a smirk on his face as his mask cracked.

"It's been quite a while...Edward", Rex said with a smile.

Edward scratches his head chuckling, "I wanted to keep it a secret some more but you caught on too quickly Rex, That's no fun", he said with injuries all over.

He then walks toward Rex before giving him a bro hug, "How are you dude?"

"Hah! I'm fine. I was quite surprised and confused when you can hold against my attacks, but your military-style takedown gives it off", Rex replied.

All this while, Rex never meets an equal in hand-to-hand combat. He was quite shocked at first when he found a pretty sturdy guy in this place but who would've thought that this guy was Edward all along.

"No wonder It's hard, it's you all along", Rex continues before tapping Edward's shoulder.

Edward laugh out loud and said, "Of course, they didn't call me Turtle King for nothing. Let's catch up, I know a place around here"

The crowd was speechless, the fight ended just like that. They both left the arena while joking with each other like an old friend, which makes the crowd confused.

Hera and Bennie follow from the back,

Hera was quite confused and shocked by Edward's sudden appearance but Bennie doesn't, she then asks, "Who is he?"

Hearing this, Bennie answered, "He's Edward, the other guy who got the same two medals from UWO just like Rex. Heroes of Dwight City"

"That's the Edward?! No wonder he can match Rex, How can every ex-military personnel be this strong?", Hera said wryly, she still can't believe there's another monster that can compare to Rex.

Bennie chuckles lightly, "I don't think so, it's just them I must say. Heroes of Dwight City really lives up to their name"

After walking out of the Arena,

"That's the guy on the web! Rex Silverstar!"

"No wonder he knows our top ranker, Edward Rearta"

"Why are they so fierce, Military Personnel are so scary"

The crowd looks at them with different gazes, but one thing for certain. They will not mess with Rex.

"I never ask you where you are but who would've thought you're in Ochyra University after those injuries", Edward said while shaking his head. He then continues, "Now look at you, you're so strong and you can even match me without using your Awakened power. That's so cheeky of you, Noob Awakened"

Rex smiles, he then said, "You notice I become an Awakened?"

Edward chuckles lightly, "Really? Your elemental aura is reeking as if it was about to burst out of you"

"A lot has happened, I'm glad to see you", Rex said genuinely.

"Hey, hey, I'm not used to you being like this. Usually, you would've said something like, 'Yes, I will use this power to kill Supernatural!', or something like that", Edward said jokingly.

Rex can only chuckle wryly, remembering his days inside the Noob Box.

"Oh yeah, after the tournament we can visit Kyle's parents", Rex said, he remembers the conversation he had with Edward before.

Edward widened his eyes and replied, "I just remembered that, let's do that then"

Bennie and Hera were ignored on the back, they haven't said a word since they left the Arena.

Just as they're talking, Rex's phone rings.

Ring!

Rex looks at it and saw Rosie calling him,

Edward saw it from the side and said jokingly, "Is that you're girlfriend? I'm not surprised to see you fall to a girl knowing how long you're in the military"

"Well sort of", Rex replied before answering Rosie.

Edward on the side was shocked, "Wait, I just said that as a joke, a JOKE! I can't believe you really have a girlfriend", he said with a surprised expression.

Rex ignores Edward's shout, "What is it?"

"Why are you so grumpy? We're done packing our stuff, where are you", Rosie shouted.

Hearing Rosie's shout, Rex can only put away his phone for a bit before answering, "I'm going to catch up with a friend of mine, I'll send you the location later"

"Okay, don't forget to send it", she replied before ending the call.

"Quite a sassy one you got, she's perfect for you", Edward joke.

Rex replied Edward with a glare making him shut his mouth completely, 'He's still as scary as ever', Edward thought.

Just as they wanted to leave the Training Hall, a voice called out to them, "Ho, it's the hero of humanity Edward, who's that on your side?"

Chapter 88 Wicked Smile

"Ho, the hero of humanity Edward, who's that on your side?", a mocking voice seeped from their backs

Hearing the voice, Edward frowns as his face turns red in anger.

Rex noticed Edward's changes before he looks back with a cold look, he wanted to know who's the one that can make the outgoing Edward angry like this.

On his back is a group of students,

The leader of the group is the one who called out to Edward, his disgusted expression can be seen clearly when his eyes landed on Edward.

He has red hair that falls down to his right side, a big scar crossing his chin all the way to his neck that looks brutal, and also he brought two people with him.

"What do you want?", Rex answered coldly, he doesn't know why but his anger is bubbling.

The guy glance at Rex mockingly, he puts his face just a couple of inches away from Rex as he said fiercely, "Do you know who you're talking to? a trash's friend will also be trash, so zip your mouth if you don't want to get hurt"

"Just beat him up Chris, he needs a good beating", a woman laughs from the side while tapping Chris's shoulder.

Rex stands there motionless, his expression darkened.

Hera started to sweat, he can feel Rex will explode at any moment, 'What do I do? my body refuses to move', she thought, Rex's aura and the scene before makes her body trembles even if she wanted to stop them.

"What is your problem with Edward?", Rex asks coldly, he doesn't want to be impulsive in this kind of situation. From Chris's confidence, he's probably got a great background and Rex has too many troubles on his hands already, he didn't want to add another.

His eyes glisten as he sees Chris's stat,

<Chris Sullivan>

Race: Human

Power: Rank Three(Peak) - Fire Elementalist

Mental: 28

Strength: 26

Agility: 34

Endurance: 30

Intelligence: 50

Seeing this, Rex was confused, 'This guy can't possibly defeat Edward, he can't even come close to Edward's skills', he becomes more certain that this guy has a solid backer.

Chris points at Edward who is putting his head down in anger, he pokes Edward's head repeatedly while saying, "This guy attack me just because I mock his friend, what's the dead kid's name again?"

"It's Kyle, what a loser. He got killed by a lowly Ghoul", The woman on Chris's side laughs hysterically.

"Yeah right? A loser got a medal from dying against a ghoul!", Chris's said while holding his stomach in laughter, tears came out because of his excessive laughter.

Hearing this, Edward's veins bulged angrily, "YOU BASTARDS!!", he raises his hand but got stopped.

Rex's body is trembling, his aura started to leak chaotically as his body cracks with a little bit of black lightning.

He looks up and glares at Chris with murderous eyes, the anger within him erupted like a volcano. He unconsciously activates Alpha Intimidation as his eyes glow red.

"Eh?", Chris freezes under Rex's gaze, he doesn't know why but his whole body started to tremble under Rex's glare. It felt like his body is restrained by waves of water, it is hard to move or even breathe. Rex's killing intent is so thick that he felt scared, he can't even look at Rex.

<Berserk Quest!>

<Pride of a Friend>

Due to the user's berserk stat exceeding 90%, Berserk Quest has been triggered. Kill Chris as a sacrifice for the user's dear friend, failing this quest will bring a tremendously high penalty.

Time Limit: 10 Hours

Quest Reward: 500,000 Exp, 8,000 gold, Invincible x1, and High Ore of Vindication x10

Quest Failure: -50% Sanity, -50% Mental stat during the next full moon.

Rex's suppressed his anger as his murderous gaze turns into a smile, he then bowed a little, "I'm sorry for wasting your time, please excuse us", he can already feel the immense fear emitted by Chris so he didn't want to scare him more lest he finds shelter from him.

He then signals to the others to leave, even Edward turns his body and left unwillingly.

Hera and Bennie sigh in relief, they thought Rex will go berserk and attack Chris right this moment. If that were to happen, they can't even imagine the consequences.

The girl beside Chris shouted, "How dare you leave before we let you! Come back here!", she then spit onto Rex.

The spit landed on Rex's back making him stop abruptly, "You got a problem?", the girl said mockingly.

Everyone around Rex got stunned by this scene, they can't even fathom someone did it to them nevertheless to Rex!

Rex exhales slowly as he ignores her and left the scene.

She then scoffed in annoyance and said, "Chris, why did you let them go like that? You have to beat them up, if not they will become more full of themselves in the future"

Chris didn't answer the girl, he doesn't even move from his spot.

"Chris?", the girl approaches but what greeted her was Chris with a pale expression, she touches Chris's shoulder and she can instantly feel his body trembling.

'What is that?! He's...He's a monster!!', Chris thought in fear, he needs a couple of minutes after Rex left before he can finally move his body.

After leaving the training hall, Edward shouted at Rex with anger.

"How can you let them be like that?! It's Kyle for god's sake, he sacrificed himself for us! I don't care, I will go back and beat them", He's frustrated with Chris's group.

He wanted to go back to the Training Hall but suddenly Rex gripped his shoulder,

Edward glance at Rex with confusion but Rex's expression makes him jolted.

Rex's face is decorated with a wicked smile that makes Edward jolted in shock, he gripped Edward's shoulder tightly, "Oh they will be sorry alright, just follow me"

He's doesn't want any more enemy but something just can't be tolerated, he even got a quest from the system which boosts his motivation for killing Chris. Out of all, he just can't tolerate people mocking his friend especially

"What will you do?", Edward asks before getting a twisted expression reply from Rex.

~

Back in Noob Box,

It is already night with the moon hanging up in the sky brightly, there is little to no sound in the Noob Box as the recruits were all getting ready for bed.

Rex on the other hand is cleaning the Captain's room, he's the one in charge of it today.

He just finishes the cleaning and started to walks back to his barrack, he's covered with sweat from head to toe so he decided to go take a shower real quick.

Other recruits that have night shifts like him avoid him when they met, he's always known as the weirdest.

The other recruits once hear him sitting on his bed while mumbling, 'T-shaped Red Rune on his shoulder, 9 foot tall, greyish black fur, deformed ears, and black aura', he keeps saying this over and over again like a lunatic.

Some even heard him repeatedly mumbles, 'I will kill you', some even saw him suddenly cry in the middle of his mumbles.

Because of that, the other recruits avoid him thinking that he went crazy.

But not all of them think like that, some sympathy him for having PTSD and one guy especially keeps him company every time he wanted to cry.

His name is Billy, but other recruits called him Lil Billy because of his small frame.

Rex always finds a remote place when he wanted to cry, but somehow Billy always found him and listens to his cries. In the morning they often got punished for not sleeping on time, but Billy takes the punishment with no regret.

He doesn't know why but he felt Billy knows what he feels, Billy feels like an older brother for him.

Just after Rex wanted to wash from sweat, he suddenly hears a noise near the bathroom.

'Who is it? Aren't they afraid they will get caught by the patrol guard?', Rex thought, at first he thought a group of recruits sneaks outside to smoke.

But when he got closer he recognizes a familiar voice,

"I can't, my hands haven't recovered from yesterday's punishment"

"What do you mean Lil Billy? I told you to do my shift, you dare to talk back to me?"

"Yeah Lil Billy, does last time's beating not enough?"

Hearing this, Rex peeks at them and saw Billy cornered by two recruits. They are smacking Billy while mocking him.

The guy looks at Billy disdainfully and said, "Fine, where's your dinner. Give it to me"

Billy takes out a couple of bread and fruit from his pocket and hands them over to the guy, he didn't even fight back.

"That's a good boy", the guy pushes Billy making him fell to the ground.

The other guy laughs mockingly as they opened their zipper and piss on Billy, once again Billy didn't fight back and let them piss on him.

Rex who is looking at this scene gripped the bucket he held strongly, his eyes bulged as immense anger erupted within him making him threw the bucket full of water to the two guys.

Splash!

"What the heck?! Who's that!"

Without even pausing, Rex attacks them with erupting anger.

He punches the guy's stomach, the guy felt the heavy blow from Rex before he kneels on the ground holding his gut.

The other guy wanted to attack Rex but Rex is faster,

He held the other guy's head and slam his head towards the other guy's nose,

BAM!!

The guy's nose broke as blood spurted out of his nose, he then fell to the ground holding his bleeding broken nose.

Rex didn't stop, he kicks the guy who is kneeling on the ground right on the face.

BAM!!

The guy got smashed to the wall, "Argh!! Stop!!", the guy pleaded but Rex is not that merciful.

He held the guy's head and slam it to the wall, it immediately knocked the guy unconscious as blood dripped from his head.

Rex with his murderous eyes and a smile glance at the broken nose guy,

"Rex! Stop, it's enough!", Billy held Rex's arm trying to stop him from continuing the fight but got smacked away by Rex.

Rex already got engulfed with anger as he sits on the guy before starting to pound him repeatedly,
BAM!!

Two of the guy's teeth got knocked out of his mouth,

BAM!

The guy's right eye got bloated as it turned dark blue, he can only helplessly receive Rex's punch without even having the energy to defend himself.

Looking at this, Billy ran to the nearby barracks and shouted, "HELP!! There's a fight!!"

The sleeping recruits woke up abruptly, their intense training makes them easy to wake up before all of them rush following Billy.

The group of recruits saw Rex pounding at the guy as they rush to separate them.

"LET GO OF ME!!", Rex struggled, he pushes everyone that held him back crazily. The disturbing part about this is that a smile was plastered on Rex's face all the way through the end, he didn't even feel bad about destroying both guys.

The recruits got overwhelmed by Rex, "Help! He's strong I can't hold his right arm alone"

After a while, they finally manage to separate Rex from the battered guy with the help of eight guys holding him back.

The next day, Billy thanked Rex wholeheartedly and said that he doesn't need any help. He said that if he needed help then he will ask Rex, but all this time he never said anything.

The event caught the captain's attention.

The captain sent the two guys to prison while giving heavy punishments to both Rex and Billy,

Rex and Billy got chained and whipped 100 times in front of the other recruits, they are punished for disturbing the Noob Box's peace and not following the order.

Rex then got the most intense training without food until dinner and went on therapy, while Billy disappeared from the Noob Box.

Through those rigorous punishments and training his hatred for Supernatural still buried deep within him, the therapy doctor even deemed him incurable.

And from then on, he got transferred to the Special Reconnaissance Unit where he finally ends up meeting Kyle and Edward.

~

Edward got a flashback of that event, he's still new at that time and he saw how Rex brutally beat the two guys half death, it is a gory scene with blood spilling everywhere.

He himself as an Awakened can't possibly have the mental to beat a guy half-death, or at least he can't do it back then.

It was a scene that he can't forget, and the expression Rex gives to him is the same as that scene.

'Chris is dead, he provokes the wrong guy'

Chapter 89 One Condition

Inside one of the vice-principals offices,

"What?! How can they be unharmed?!", a man shouted with anger.

A woman in front of him jolted in fear, she puts her head down, "I don't know, they shouldn't be able to defeat twenty-plus White Assassins with two Peak Rank Four leading them"

The man paces left and right in panic, beads of sweat started to emerge on his forehead, "You don't understand, this is a request from..."

RING!!

Before he can even finish, the hologram telephone rang just beside the woman.

She drags the hologram towards her with trembling hands, "Sir Manuel, there's a phone call for you", she said meekly.

Manuel was stunned, his face starting to turn pale before he answers, "Hello?"

"Manuel it's me, how was it? Is there anyone from them that uses a brute style of fighting and can kill my son with only their raw strength? Is it Rex Silverstar?", the person on the phone said with an impatient tone.

If Rex hears this, he will recognize this voice as Duncan's voice.

Manuel's breaths become heavy, he then answered stutteringly, "It's...It's definitely Rex, I assure you", he lied desperately fearing the man on the phone knows that he failed.

"I knew it", Duncan said before he hung up.

The woman lost all her face colors, "Sir, Why did you lie? If that person finds out then..."

"Shut it! Let's just hope there will be no problems", Manuel said, he then sits on his chair roughly while messaging his forehead.

~

The pale crescent moon shone like a silvery claw in the night sky, the streets become silent with almost no people around.

It's already night when Rex and the others got out of the university,

Because of the event before, Rex decided to postpone the catchup with Edward to a different time.

He needs to finish the Berserk Quest that he got as soon as possible because he still needs to go back to the warehouse to check on Kiru and Miru.

'So when my Berserk stats exceed 80% I will get this kind of quest? but the system gives me a warning before the quest suddenly appear', Rex thought,

He didn't know how the Berserk Quest works, he tries to ask the system but this time the system didn't answer.

They are currently in the nearby cafe with an intense vibe, it subconsciously makes Hera and Bennie's mouths dry.

They can feel Rex and Edward's sour mood.

"Hera, Bennie, Leave me with Edward. I want to talk to him alone for a moment", Rex said calmly, he wanted to talk to Edward about the quest.

Hearing this, Hera and Bennie look at each other nervously.

Bennie is the first one to gets up, "Well, I got something to do as well. Nice to meet you, Rex, I'm going now", he said before he left.

Hera was hesitating, her guts tell her that Rex is going to do something bad.

After they both left, Rex looks at Edward with a meaningful look.

"What do you want to do? I know that look and I say it is madness!", Edward rebutted, he knows that Rex intends to kill Chris.

Rex smirks evilly, "Why are you so dense, do you not want to kill him?"

Edward straightens his body, he sighs before saying, "Believe me I wanted to, you see the scar on his face? That's my doing"

Hearing this, Rex was quite surprised, "I know that you can beat him easily, whose behind him?"

"I really want to kill him but Chris is from the Sullivan Family, a high-ranking family just under Platchi Family. I got banned from challenging Chris, and I also almost got kicked out of the university", Edward said peevishly, his hand trembled while remembering this event.

'As I predicted, he's indeed from a high-ranking family', Rex thought.

He then notices, "Platchi Family? what's Sullivan Family's relation with the Platchi's?"

Edward thinks for a while, "The 25 Golden Crest is the rank for the highest family in Ratmawati City, because of that the Platchi and Sullivan didn't get along in fact they're rivals. If I remember correctly, it's been three years since Sullivan Family tries to overtake Platchi Family's 25th place but fail"

Rex listens to Edward closely before asking, "What is this 25 Golden Crest standing? Is it possible for one of them to hire assassins to attack someone?"

Edward was confused, Rex's question is out of context but he still answers it, "For the 25 Golden Crest families, it is easy to hire assassins but if that someone is an Awakened then they can't kill them until they get enough to prove them guilty but that only applies when they're being monitored"

He looks towards the night street before he continues, "The Sullivan can't kill mindlessly because they're not the part of the 25 Golden Crest, the Platchi is also under UWO watch because of their illegal business, so they certainly can't kill mindlessly"

Hearing this, everything clicks inside Rex's head as he said, "Come with me, we'll go somewhere first", he then walks out of the cafe leaving Edward.

"What the heck, he didn't even pay!", Edward mumbled, he paid to the cashier before following Rex.

After a while, Edward and Rex arrive at the warehouse where Kiru and Miru are hidden.

There are no people around the warehouse,

There's still a couple of FAA officers around the warehouse but there are only a couple of them, only one unit consisting of four people is in front of the warehouse guarding it.

Rex already scans the four of them and saw they are only mid-rank three, so sneaking around them is easy for Rex and Edward.

He decided to not bring Rosie and Adhara as usual because the lesser the people know what he's about to do, the better.

'I hope they're not caught', Rex thought, he enters the warehouse silently.

Rex and Edward is an expert of sneaking in, they're drilled in Noob Box and they can proudly say that their skills are above the majority of people in terms of sneaking in a place.

He then walks to the white truck where he put Kiru and Miru, he takes a big breath before he opens it.

Thankfully, Kiru and Miru are still there staring at him sharply.

"Why are we going here? Aren't we supposed to talk about Chris?", Edward said, he peeked his head inside and saw two people with assassins' outfits.

He was quite surprised before he asks, "Who're they? How did you know they're here?"

Rex ignores Edward before he grabbed Miru and Kiru and left the warehouse through the backdoor. Edward can only helplessly follow him.

They then went to a small warehouse located on the back like a shadow in the night.

Rex tossed Kiru to the ground roughly before signaling Edward to close the door.

"Rex tells me what are you planning, I hate to be left out in the dark", Edward said helplessly, Rex continues to ignore him along the way making him feel frustrated.

Rex glanced at Edward briefly before saying, "After this, I'll tell you"

Rex whispers to Edward what he wanted Edward to do before his eyes landed on Kiru.

Edward was surprised for a little before he nodded his head, he then left Rex and went to the other room bringing Miru with him under Kiru's eyes.

Kiru panicked but Rex's words interrupted him, "Who sent you?"

Hearing this, Kiru sighs before answering, "I want you to promise to let me and my sister go if I tell you everything"

Rex sent Kiru a weird look, he then approaches Kiru slowly.

Kiru's heart thump faster every time Rex's step got closer to him, he felt an overwhelming pressure from Rex's presence.

"I think you don't know the position you're in", Rex said before he gripped Kiru's neck and slam him to the wall.

BAM!!

"Argh!", Kiru grunts in pain, the stuff inside the warehouse trembles because of it.

Rex puts his head closer to Kiru, "You and your sister's life is under MY mercy, so start talking before I told my friend to do something exciting to your sister there"

Hearing this Kiru's eyes bulged in anger,

If eyes can kill, Kiru would've killed Rex a million times.

Kiru's body trembles before he sighs helplessly and said, "We are from the White Terror sent by Manuel, one of the Vice-Principals of Faraday University to test and injure you", he turns his head away in defeat.

Rex studied Kiru's expression, "Are you lying to me?"

"I swear on my sister's life it's true!", Kiru said desperately, he looks sincere but Rex is not that innocent.

Grip!

Rex tightens his grip on Kiru's neck, "Do you really think I believe that?", he then threw Kiru to the wall before he said to Edward in the other room, "Edward! Come here!"

Hearing this, Kiru raises his head to see Miru.

He saw Miru got dragged out of the other room roughly, "You MONSTER!! You're not a student!! Damn you!!"

Miru has no power in her body, her injury added with the level four Seal Chain makes her unable to move an inch.

Rex then said, "You can do whatever you want to her"

After getting Rex's command, Edward reaches out his hand with an evil smile intending to strip Miru.

"Stop! Get your hands away from me!", Miru struggled to no avail, her body can hardly move.

Rex's smirk got wider, he pins Kiru down with his feet and said jokingly, "By the way, my friend there is a pretty nasty sex sadist. I'm not quite surprised if your sister will begin begging to die in a minute"

"NO! PLEASE!! IT'S THE TRUTH!! I DIDN'T LIE!!", Kiru shouted helplessly under Rex's feet, he wanted to help Miru but he's unable to move Rex's feet.

Edward already stripped Miru off of her armor, only a thin white layer left from exposing her body.

Kiru is struggling madly as if he's possessed by a demon.

"Do you feel like telling the truth now? Who sent you?", Rex said, his words rang on Kiru's mind along with the sound of Miru's wail.

He's in a helpless situation, "STOP!! I WILL TELL YOU!!"

Rex signals Edward to stop before he gazes at Kiru, 'If what I predict it's true, then I can proceed with the plan', he thought.

"I don't know who it is but Manuel said that this mission is an order from an important person", He said truthfully, he can't bear to see his own sister got played by Edward.

Rex put more strength on his feet, "Who is he? Tell me a name"

Kiru answer helplessly, "I really don't know! Manuel only said that I swear!", immense desperation can be clearly heard from Kiru's hoarse voice.

Tears still decorated his face while he looks at Miru who is also teary.

Rex studied his expression one more time before he finally nodded his head, it seems Kiru's words are true this time.

'It's not clear but Duncan is the main suspect, it's safe to think Duncan is the one behind this', Rex thought, he already matches all the puzzles and it all directed him to Duncan.

He lifts his feet before he walks slowly towards Miru.

Edward is looking coldly at Kiru who is coughing blood because of Rex's stomp, he seems unbothered by it.

"Fine, if that's true then I have a condition before I let you both go", Rex said.

Kiru raises his head with a questioning look before Rex continues, "I want you to bring me a guy called Chris Sullivan in four hours, that is if you want your sister to live"

"He always drinks in a place called Holyclub at night, you can find him there", Edward added from the side.

Hearing this, Kiru frowns hard but he eventually nodded his head, "I'll do it! Just don't hurt my sister anymore"

Rex smirked, he opened the seal chain calmly.

It's night, Rex didn't even felt concerned that Kiru will take them by surprise and brought Miru away.

Kiru was also stunned, he looks at Rex who looks calm before Rex's eyes suddenly glow red.

He felt immense fear after he looks at Rex's eyes, he immediately threw away all of his thought about fighting Rex.

Rex looks at his phone before saying, "Time's ticking"

Chapter 90 Kidnapping Chris

Edward looks at Rex with a disbelieving look, "Sex sadist? Really?"

Rex can only chuckle from the side, he needs to do that to at least make Kiru more desperate.

"So what's your plan? I don't understand any of it", Edward asks, he's been in the dark all the way until now and he demands to know the plan.

Kiru already left the place, he's already on his way to kidnap Chris.

Rex found a chair and sits on it before he replied, "Recently I make an enemy, he's Duncan Platchi"
Hearing this name, Edward was shocked.

Duncan Platchi is not a nobody, he's the Black Tiger Guild president and also the head family of the Platchi Family. He often shows up in the news so everyone will naturally recognize the name Duncan Platchi.

"Are you mad?!", Edward said as he put Miru inside the other room.

He walks back towards Rex before he also sits down on a chair, "How the hell did you make him your enemy? and what does Duncan Platchi have to do with killing Chris?"

Rex smirked, "I killed his son Lucas Platchi"

"You...You kill his son?!", Edward gasp in surprise.

Rex ignores Edward and continues, "You said that the Platchi is an enemy of Sullivan's right? The White Assassins is sent by Faraday University as a request from Duncan to test me, so what happens when a White Assassin that was sent for a nobody like me kidnaps Chris the son of the Sullivan Family, and then they found Chris dead on the street?"

Edward was in thoughts, he then realized, "Then the Sullivan will think that Duncan testing you is only an excuse to kill Chris! Especially since Lucas died, the Sullivan will have more than enough reason to blame this all to Duncan!"

"Exactly", Rex smirked evilly under the moonlight.

Edward felt a cold chill running on his spine as he looks at Rex, 'He came up with that? I always know he's scary but this...'

Outside of the Holyclub,

The place is silent from the front, there is no music heard from anywhere around this place except for two bouncers in front of a metal door.

But when people opened the door and left, immediately the loud DJ music was heard.

The Holyclub seems to be fully soundproof from the inside, it didn't bring any discomfort to their surrounding.

There are hardly any people left in the street, it is already night and not many places are open for business.

"Did you look at the girls brought by Chris from the Sullivan Family? They are all top-notch beauties!", bouncer 1 said while creating a sexy figure by waving his hand.

Bouncer 2 on the right chuckles, "Don't dream about it bro, you're not even an Awakened there's no chance for you to get that kind of girl"

Bouncer 1 slap Bouncer's 2 shoulders annoyedly, "Man shut up, you're killing my vibe"

They both joked with each other to pass time, unknown to them there is a figure watching them from an alley located on their side.

The figure is undoubtedly Kiru.

Chris is not a nobody so Kiru knows exactly which Chris Rex is talking about, there is only one Chris that is major enough to be assassinated at Faraday University.

Kiru looks at the surrounding, he is also a citizen of sector 2E so he knows what he needed to watch out for.

Sector 2E is an advanced sector and it is almost covered with a 24/7 CCTV drone that roams around the place as well as normal CCTV.

It is very hard to do criminal things in the heart of Sector 2E especially near Faraday University where the population of Awakened people is more compared to the outskirts of Sector 2E.

Kiru saw a small drone flew towards his place, he then turns his body into smoke.

The drone looks around the place not noticing a cloud of smoke that went under a car that is parked on the side, it then flew away towards another direction.

Without wasting another second, Kiru notices a group of people leaving the Holyclub as he seeped past them and went inside.

"Why do I smell something burning all of a sudden?", Bouncer 1 said while rubbing his nose.

Bouncer 2 looks at him weirdly and replied, "This is Sector 2E, it's literally impossible for something to catch fire in this place"

"Huh that's weird", Bouncer 1 said before they talk other things.

Inside the Holyclub,

The place is crowded with people from all ranges of ages, the DJ is jumping up and down with the beat while the crowd of people dances to the rhythm. The music makes their hearts tremble with excitement, the flashing light makes them drunk in the night, and there's even a dancing robot on the stage.

Holyclub is the perfect place for men or women to let out their stress and dance with each other, forgetting about their identities and indulge in the night.

p "CHEERS!!"

One of the rooms that are located in the VIP section burst with laughter, they're all drinking to their hearts' content.

The difference between this specific room and the others is that there are a couple of guards in front of the room wearing black glasses. From a glance, everyone around the place knows that someone important is inside of the room.

"Chris!! I heard you just embarrass Edward in the training ground! I should've seen that", a man said with a beautiful blonde girl on his lap.

Chris laugh while flirting with the girl beside him, "HAH! Of course, that fucking loser is lucky my father prohibits me from killing him"

"No worries! I'll drink to that!!", the guy replied while raising a glass.

Chris accepted the guy's toast and slam the glass together before drinking it in one go.

The world is spinning in Chris' perspective, he had too much drink that makes him unable to think straight anymore.

Awakened is basically superhuman, they have enhanced everything that can put even the strongest normal human to shame. Although they are strong, they also have a downside.

All of the poisons that manage to get inside their bloodstream will also spread faster, it is because of the intensity of what they can do with their Awakened power that can speed up their heartbeat or even hasten their metabolism.

Because of this, poison or even alcohol is very effective for them. They can die twice or even thrice as fast as normal humans.

Chris got addicted to the feeling of getting drunk, he's currently making out with the girl beside him.

Amidst the hectic night in Holyclub, one infiltrator manages to get inside.

Kiru still in his smoke form stick to the floor as he seeped past every people that manage to get in his way without alerting them.

It went smoothly because of the loud music and drunk people.

After scanning the place, he then notices a couple of guards in front of a room, and these guards are an Awakened unlike the other majority of people in here that is a normal human.

He then felt the guard's aura and all of them is weaker than him, he then slowly approach the guard.

The guard frowns when they felt something is off, they look around but they unable to notice anything.

Without a moment's pause, there's suddenly a white flash that blinds them.

They can't react to the white flash, their necks suddenly got slashed and all of them fell one by one in front of the room.

Thud!

The people around didn't notice three guards fell to the floor before Kiru drags them to the corner and cover them with a black cloth he found on his way there.

'There should be more Awakened inside, I need to make a disturbance', Kiru thought as he waits in his smoke form beside the room.

He waited for someone to walk past the room,

Not long after, he found a man walking sluggishly towards the room's direction.

Looking at this, Kiru tripped the man by hitting his leg before the man stumbles and fell towards the room's door opening it completely.

"Ah!!!", the man grunt after he fell.

The people inside the room glance at him with hostility, "Who the fuck are you?! Breaking in here like that?"

The man didn't even hesitate, he left the room hurriedly.

Seeing this, three people inside the room ran after him leaving the room.

Kiru on the side smirk, 'two ranks three Awakened and one rank four awakened left the room, that's good', he then crept through the door and notice that there are only four people inside.

He closes the door silently before he scans the room.

The room is luxurious with a circle sofa in the middle around a fireplace, it has its own bathroom, pole for the dancer, a bedroom, and even its own bar where they can call the bartender to makes their drinks.

Kiru already looks around the room with his smoke form and already created an escape plan.

Chris and his friend are currently making out with two girls, the room filled with lustful atmosphere as their hands started to grope the girl violently.

"Ahh", the girls moan in pleasure.

Unknown to them, there is a white figure standing just beside them looking at them coldly.

Kiru silently goes to the other guy on the sofa that is moving his hips like crazy, the girl under him is gripping the guy's body while moaning crazily.

"You like that?! You want me to go harder?!", the guy said while pulling the girl's hair.

The girl keeps moaning in pleasure, her moan makes the guy motivated and started moving his hips even faster but suddenly.

"Huh?", the guy was confused, the moan suddenly stopped.

He looks up heavily, the alcohol is still messing with his mind while he keeps moving his hips but then he saw the girl's neck is sliced by something, his eyes widened for a moment.

He wanted to push the girl away in panic but his throat also got sliced by a white flash,

Without even creating a single sound, the guy and the girl's died before Kiru pulls them both slowly and puts them behind the sofa.

This happened without Chris knowing anything, his mind is currently between the girl's breasts.

After hiding the corpses from Chris' sight,

Kiru sneaks silently towards Chris, 'He said to bring this guy to him, so it's okay if I hurt him a bit right?'

He arrives behind Chris, he takes out his katana slowly without a sound.

Chris should've noticed someone is behind him but his senses are dull because of the alcohol, it makes sense for him to not notice Kiru especially with such a beauty in front of him.

He then started to strip the girl while the girl started to strip him,

Kiru lets them both strip each other, he senses that Chris's shirt is emitting a weird aura so he wanted him to take it off lest it has defensive properties.

And sure enough, Chris takes off his shirt not long after.

Looking at this opportunity, Kiru takes his katana and drives it through Chris's right shoulder.

STAB!

A katana suddenly stabbed through his shoulder all the way hitting the girl's throat killing her, "Akh!!", he was confused about what just happened.

His blurry eyes try to look at his front before he realized, "WHO THE FU...", before he can even struggle.

Kiru hits the back of his neck sending him to dreamland immediately, Chris doesn't have a chance as a peak rank three Awakened against Kiru who is a peak rank four Awakened.

'That's pretty easy for a son of a high-ranking family', Kiru thought.

Just when he's about to take Kiru, he hears footsteps from the outside. It seems the people that just left were about to head back.

Without wasting a second, Kiru lifts Chris's body before he went to the bathroom and exits through the window.

Not long after, a group of guys arrives at the room, "Where's the guard? Are they slacking again?"

"I don't know, that's weird", another guy replied.

When they look at the room, their faces turn pale in a matter of seconds.

"SEARCH THIS PLACE!!"
