

G E D 1351

Chapter 1351: Ice and Earth?

The scary fact was that at this advanced level, a slight mistake could ultimately lead to failure.

The magma beast lost its momentum from the very beginning, which gave Feng Wu a great opportunity. As a result —

Feng Wu smiled a little.

She charged at the magma beast before it could stand back up.

In fact, Feng Wu could have drawn out the Fallen Star Sword.

Nothing would be able to compete with the Fallen Star Sword!

However, that wasn't what Feng Wu did.

Because the magma beast wasn't important enough for her to draw out her sword.

Thump!

Feng Wu jumped onto the giant.

Standing amidst the flames, Feng Wu waved her hand, and whoosh!

It started snowing heavily.

"Ice and snow?!"

Someone outside the Dragon's Gate cried out.

"Does Feng Wu have the ice attribute? Since when?!"

Many people looked confused.

As far as they could remember, Feng Wu had always had the fire attribute. When did she obtain a second attribute?

"And that stance she's using is very advanced!"

"Feng Wu is so capable..."

"I have the ice attribute as well, and I'm a Spiritual Elder. Why couldn't my ice extinguish the beast's fire?"

But Feng Wu's ice could!

Ice and snow drifted down onto the magma beast.

Instantly —

The flames all over its body gradually went out as the snow fell.

“The fire is put out!”

“The magma fire!”

“Didn’t Chief Qiao say that the beast is already a teenager?”

—

Instantly, all eyes were on Feng Wu.

The teenage girl seemed to shine as resplendently as the sun.

Over and over again, she did amazing things to change other people’s opinion of her!

That was incredible!

How could a teenage girl be so impressive?!

Everyone was still admiring Feng Wu for what she had done when suddenly —

The magma beast lying stiffly on the ground convulsed.

The next second, it looked up and glared at Feng Wu.

Plop, plop —

Snow started falling off its body.

Its eyes were scarlet red.

And flames rose from its body again.

Qiao Yi was thrilled.

She cried out, “The beast is back on its feet! The beast is back on its feet!”

Immediately, a lot of people looked at her.

Someone murmured, “Isn’t Miss Qiao Yi the daughter of Chief Qiao, and a Year 1 teacher?”

“So, she’s Feng Wu’s teacher, isn’t she?”

“Why is she so eager to see Feng Wu fail?”

“I saw the bet she put in. It’s a lot higher than ours.”

“She’s so...”

However, Qiao Yi didn’t hear any of that. Right now, all her attention was on Feng Wu.

Feng Wu saw the beast wake up and new flames sprout.

So what?

She had extinguished the fire on the magma beast before, so of course she could do it again.

“Come, ice and snow!” With a wave of her hand, ice and snow started falling again.

They immediately put out the new flames rising from the magma beast.

Everyone watched with their mouths agape.

Seeing that things had turned against it, the beast turned to flee.

Feng Wu smiled and lightly touched the ground with a fingertip.

Whoosh —

Chapter 1352: Purple Vines

Everywhere Feng Wu touched, spikes shot out of the ground.

“Gosh! How did Feng Wu learn Icy Spikes? Isn’t that an advanced skill only for Year 2 students? How can she do it?”

“No, you’re missing the point here. One has to have both ice and earth attributes to pull it off. Does Feng Wu have the earth attribute?”

“So, she has fire, ice, and earth attributes now? That’s just...”

Many people were astonished!

Once more, they were amazed by Feng Wu’s performance!

And they weren’t alone. Even Feng Xun was shocked by what Feng Wu was doing.

“Since when did little Feng Wu obtain the earth attribute?” Feng Xun turned to Xuan Yi and asked, “Xuan the Second, did you know about this?”

Xuan Yi shook his head; he had had no idea either.

Feng Xun rubbed his chin. “What else is the girl keeping from us? Can’t she keep a lower profile?”

The very conspicuous Feng Wu had reached the eighth floor.

It was also the eighth trial.

Feng Wu narrowed her eyes when she entered the floor.

Because she couldn’t see anyone anywhere.

Looking around, she saw that the ground was covered with purple vines which had little white flowers scattered among them.

But where was everyone?

Looking around, Feng Wu couldn’t see anyone.

That only made her more wary.

All of a sudden!

She detected that a thin vine had suddenly wrapped itself around her ankle.

“Watch out!”

Many people outside cried out.

However, both of Feng Wu’s feet were already caught by the vine.

The purple vine had been moving tentatively at first, but after it caught Feng Wu, it grew bolder and started moving faster.

The vine was only as thin as a finger at first, but gradually became as thick as a baby’s arm.

In a matter of seconds, it was wrapped tightly around Feng Wu.

“OMG!”

“Shit!”

“Feng Wu is tied up! Is she going to fail?”

—

Many people were worried about her.

Meanwhile, Feng Wu still remained unperturbed. If one had to point out what had changed —

The only difference was that the look in her eyes had become more fierce and profound!

Squeak —

The purple vine began to wrap tightly around Feng Wu’s body.

Feng Wu was a slim girl to begin with, and the vine around her body only made her look slimmer.

Outside —

Many people had had confidence in Feng Wu at first, but now —

When they saw how the purple vine was wrapped around her, they held their breaths anxiously.

But there were those who let out breaths of relief.

“Please strangle Feng Wu!”

“Let her fail, please.”

“Don’t let her pass the eighth floor. That way, we’ll all win.”

Many people had bet heavily on Feng Wu’s failure, so if Feng Wu made it through the elite level, they would lose so many points.

Crack —

The creepy sound went on.

Feng Wu’s body twisted under the pressure.

“Feng Wu is going to be killed...” That was the thought in many people’s heads.

Even Feng Xun had gotten to his feet nervously as he stared at Feng Wu.

He had broken into a cold sweat and was so afraid that something would happen to Feng Wu.

Chapter 1353: The Amazing Feng Wu (1)

Feng Xun recalled that Feng Wu still hadn’t used her Fallen Star Sword yet.

“Use it now! Use your Fallen Star Sword! Does she want to be killed?” Seeing the vine wrap even tighter around Feng Wu, Feng Xun clenched his fists.

And what was Feng Wu doing right now?

It was true. When the purple vine had wrapped around her at first, Feng Wu really felt unable to move at all.

Crack —

The purple vine kept tightening around her.

Feng Wu could feel the pain.

Should she use the Fallen Star Sword, her ultimate weapon? An idea suddenly struck her.

She recalled a little trick which her beautiful master taught her when she was little.

In plain terms, it allowed her to shrink to a smaller size.

Being a smart girl, Feng Wu mastered the skill almost immediately.

According to the beautiful master, this skill was only a petty trick to help her relax.

Now that she was tied up by the vine, however, Feng Wu realized that this petty trick could do so much more than help her relax.

In a critical moment like this, it could save her life!

When everyone thought she was still tied up by the vine, she had already slipped out of the “cocoon” from the other side.

But because of the angle, almost no one outside saw what she did.

Almost.

“What’s she doing? Is she willing to die for this stupid challenge?” Feng Xun was exasperated.

Because the purple vine was killing her.

What was more, it was especially tight around her waist.

“Feng Wu is doomed. She’s trapped inside, and the purple vine has gained the upper hand. She has no way out now.”

“Look, that vine is so tight around Feng Wu’s waist. That waistline can’t be bigger than 60cm!”

“I know! How many people can have such a tiny waist? Feng Wu is going to be cut in half!”

“Look, it’s still growing tighter. 58, 57, 56, 55... Oh god!”

Feng Xun was on edge as well. “Has little Feng Wu lost her mind? Why won’t she use her Fallen Star Sword? She obviously has it!”

No one answered him.

Exasperated, Feng Xun grabbed Jun Linyuan. “Boss Jun, do something! Aren’t you worried?”

The crown prince gave Feng Xun a bewildered look. “Worried? About what?”

“Little Feng Wu is going to be snapped in half! Aren’t you concerned?”

Feng Xun was almost in tears.

Jun Linyuan only glanced at him indifferently and asked, “What’s there to be concerned about?”

Feng Xun: !!!

He almost exploded when he heard those words from Jun Linyuan. The surrounding girls, on the other hand, were thrilled.

They didn’t say anything, but it was all in their eyes.

“Did you hear that? Did you? His Royal Highness couldn’t care less about Feng Wu dying!”

“I don’t think he’ll be affected by Feng Wu’s death at all!”

“Who said that His Royal Highness cares about Feng Wu? That’s just preposterous!”

Chapter 1354: The Amazing Feng Wu (2)

Seeing that Feng Wu was going to die and that the crown prince didn’t care about her, all the girls were over the moon.

But soon —

“45cm? 40cm? 35cm?”

“Wait! No one’s waist can be as small as 35cm!”

“It’s 30 now!”

“25cm!”

“Oh god... 10cm!”

Crack! The “cocoon” snapped in half.

Outside —

“Ahhh —”

“Is Feng Wu dead? Is she really dead?!”

“What a shame! Why did she have to be so stubborn?”

“That’s why you shouldn’t bite off more than you can chew. Otherwise, you’ll end up like Feng Wu.”

Many people sighed, but they gloated over Feng Wu’s predicament at the same time.

Qiao Yi had never felt so happy before. She was ecstatic!

“Feng Wu is dead, just like that... How wonderful!”

However, before her smile could grow wider, things took a turn.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The purple vine started retreating, as if its soul was being sucked out.

The vine was almost a thousand meters long and seemed to have a mind of its own.

As the vine retreated, it gradually exposed the ground beneath it, and translucent bones were scattered all over the place.

“Are those the bones of magical beasts devoured by the vine?”

“Gosh, this purple vine feeds on flesh and blood.”

“Hey, where is the vine going? Why did it disappear so suddenly?”

—

Everyone was still feeling baffled when —

They saw what had really happened.

When the mist dissipated, they could see the core of the vine, and they were shocked.

The core of the purple vine did exist!

Moreover, the core had shrunk into a ball, and someone was holding it.

The fact that the core had shrunk wasn’t scary, but the person was!

“OMG!”

“Oh my god!”

“No! No way! That’s impossible!”

“Isn’t Feng Wu dead? Didn’t the vine cut her in half? Why is she still alive?”

“Not only is she alive, from the looks of it, she has also taken control of the vine’s core!”

“If she controls the core, she controls this massive purple vine!”

“But why is she still alive?”

“How did she survive?”

And she didn't even seem injured.

—

Outside, the Year 2 students were almost driven mad by all the surprises Feng Wu gave them.

Why did their school have such a student?

“How did she do it?”

“Is she even human?”

“Does she have supernatural powers?”

Feng Xun was the happiest of them all.

“Hahaha! I knew it! I knew little Feng Wu was going to be alright! She's incredible!”

The crown prince glanced at him.

Recalling how anxious he had been earlier, Feng Xun blushed.

“Boss Jun, you knew all along that Feng Wu had already escaped, didn't you?” Feng Xun asked Jun Linyuan.

He wasn't expecting an answer, but —

The crown prince said, “Yup.”

Feng Xun looked like he had seen a ghost. Boss Jun just admitted it!

Chapter 1355: The Amazing Feng Wu (3)

Of these people, Qiao Yi was the most devastated of them all.

Right now, she had clenched her fists and was shaking from head to toe. Her eyes practically spat fire.

“How can this be? Isn't she supposed to be dead? Why is she still alive? Why?!”

Qiao Yi gritted her teeth and bit her lower lip so hard that it bled.

Feng Wu had no idea of the complicated feelings which the others had about her. Right now, she was squinting at the purple vine in her hand.

In fact, she had known from the very beginning that she had to solve the problem at its root.

The purple vine had covered the entire place, but Feng Wu had been convinced that it had to have a core somewhere.

If she could take control of the core, the vine would no longer be a threat.

Thus, as soon as she slipped out of the vine, Feng Wu had immediately headed for the core.

Other people might not know where the core was, but Feng Wu did.

Because she knew formations.

The vine had been arranged in a formation, and Feng Wu was able to calculate where the core was.

Most people only learned formation skills by the book, but Feng Wu was able to apply the logic of formations to other problems.

That was why Feng Wu was able to take control of the core and defeat the vine so easily.

Then –

Feng Wu stared at the core.

The look on her face had never been so serious.

Under her gaze, the core began to shrink.

At first, it was the size of a football, but it grew smaller and smaller until it was only the size of an egg.

Feng Wu stuffed it into her sleeve and happily moved on to the next floor.

Outside, many people were astonished again.

“Wait a minute! What was that?”

“Feng Wu took the core!”

“That purple vine is the trial itself, and a very rare spirit plant, but she just took it with her!”

Instantly, everyone turned to Chief Qiao in bewilderment.

“Can we take away whatever has been placed inside the Dragon’s Gate?”

Chief Qiao was as dumbfounded as they were.

He said, “Of course not!”

“But didn’t Feng Wu do exactly that?”

Chief Qiao was speechless.

He had taught here for many years, but this was the first time he had seen someone remove an “examiner” from its floor...

“Wait, that’s hardly the point here. The more important thing is that Feng Wu is already on the ninth floor!”

“That’s the last trial at the elite level!”

“If she passes this one, a lot of people here are going to lose.”

Instantly, they all fell silent.

That was right...

In order to make Feng Wu lose more points, they had bet heavily. A lot of people had staked all their points.

“Who could have known?”

“I never thought Feng Wu would get this far!”

“And she just keeps giving us pleasant surprises!”

“That’s not pleasant at all! It’s frightening!”

—

“So, Feng Wu isn’t going to pass the ninth floor, is she?”

Many people pressed their palms together and prayed in silence, hoping that Feng Wu would fail this trial.

Meanwhile, Feng Wu was on the ninth floor and had narrowed her eyes.

“How much time do I have?”

She asked the fairy the question in her head.

Chapter 1356: The Amazing Feng Wu (4)

The fairy was impressed by Feng Wu’s quick progress as well, and she sounded very excited. “Don’t worry. You were very efficient, and we still have 30 minutes left.”

Feng Wu smiled wryly.

How could she not worry?

The first few floors were so easy, but it had taken her half an hour to pass them. She still had quite a few floors left; time was of the essence here.

She was on the ninth floor now.

“What’s this trial about?”

Many people watched curiously, but they couldn’t figure it out.

“Listen. Do you hear that?”

Someone cried out.

Instantly —

Everyone stopped talking, and silence fell over the square.

Cuckoo — cuckoo —

“What’s that?”

“Is that a bird?”

“Why birds? Can they stop Feng Wu?”

“Wait! I know what it is! I read about it in ‘Strange Creatures of the East.’ Those are Laughing Cuckoos!”

“What’s a Laughing Cuckoo?”

“They twitch when they laugh, and they start spitting black liquid out of their beaks. As soon as that liquid touches a person —

“That person will turn black, become weak, and can’t activate their spiritual essence at all.

“All it takes is one drop of that liquid.

“However, that liquid contains a rich amount of spiritual essence. Once the toxin is removed, it’ll be edible and will help one’s cultivation greatly.

“Therefore, this trial is dangerous, but it’s a great opportunity as well!”

—

Instantly, all eyes were on Feng Wu.

There were so many Laughing Cuckoos, and they were all flapping their wings!

The inky liquid they spat out rained down, so what could Feng Wu do to keep the liquid from touching her?

All it would take was just one drop to paralyze her.

All eyes were on Feng Wu.

Even the powerful crown prince didn’t look away from her.

What a girl...

No one noticed the little smile on his face.

Nor did they see his flickering eyes.

Feng Wu had no idea that so many eyes were on her. Right now, she had narrowed her eyes and was staring at the Laughing Cuckoos.

The “laughing” part of their name was very accurate, for right now, they were all cracking up like crazy people.

As they laughed, the toxic inky liquid dripped down from their beaks!

One, two, three, four... Feng Wu counted in her head.

There were 999 of them in total.

That was incredible!

This was the hardest trial Feng Wu had run into since entering the Dragon’s Gate.

Some of the previous trials might have been difficult, but she knew how to solve them.

But now —

She was at a loss.

Could she wrap herself up to cover all her skin? Any other day, Feng Wu would have that option, because she had her ring space.

But she was inside the Dragon's Gate now, and she knew Chief Qiao would be able to see her.

So, she decided to play it safe.

If she couldn't do anything about herself, she would have to do something about the birds.

"It's been three minutes..." the fairy prompted when she saw that Feng Wu wasn't taking any action.

Feng Wu bit her lower lip. She still didn't know what to do.

Chapter 1357: The Amazing Feng Wu (5)

The fairy sighed and said in a sorry voice, "I wish I could help you, but even if I can come out, I'm still too tiny. I can only stop a few birds at most."

Outside —

Everyone was nervously watching Feng Wu.

Most of them had bet on Feng Wu failing at the elite level, so they were all praying inwardly.

"Lu Yuntao, did you bet on Feng Wu not being able to pass the elite level as well?" Leng Hu glanced at Lu Yuntao.

Lu Yuntao said, "Yes."

Leng Hu asked, "How many points did you use?"

Lu Yuntao showed her two fingers.

"200?" asked Leng Hu. Lu Yuntao shook his head.

"2000?"

He shook his head again.

"20,000?"

Lu Yuntao looked like he was going to cry. "Yes..."

Leng Hu said, "Have you lost your mind?! Do you even have that many points? Wait..."

Lu Yuntao gave Leng Hu a pleading look and didn't know what to say.

"Don't tell me that you put all of Tiger Head's points in!" Leng Hu wanted to smack Lu Yuntao in the head.

Lu Yuntao said timidly, "You said Feng Wu wasn't that capable at all, so I thought, why waste such a great opportunity. It's not like this is going to happen every day. So I..."

Leng Hu wanted to slap him.

Gu Honglang stopped Leng Hu. "Don't hit him. Anyway, we don't know the final result yet."

Leng Hu rolled her eyes at him. "Have you seen what Feng Wu has done so far? Of course she's going to pass the ninth floor. I'm sure of it!"

"If that's the case, why is she still standing there?" Gu Honglang smirked.

Leng Hu turned to look at Feng Wu.

He was right. Feng Wu really was still standing there with a big frown on her face.

That immediately cheered Lu Yuntao and Leng Hu up. Their eyes practically sparkled.

However, that good mood didn't last very long.

Whoosh —

Feng Wu raised her hand, and something flew into the air.

What the hell?

Everyone stared at it in bewilderment.

Soon, they found out what Feng Wu had been doing while she had been standing there.

She...

"OMG!"

"Is that even doable?"

"Feng Wu is so..."

"How can someone be so smart? How?"

—

So, what was it that had surprised everyone?

The thing Feng Wu threw into the air was none other than the core of the vine which she had brought with her from the eighth floor.

Feng Wu's original plan was to take the core back home and plant it in Fallen Star Yard.

It had a formation of its own, and was portable.

With this core, her family would be much safer, and she would be able to take more risks.

However, reality never turned out the way one hoped.

The core told her that all of the magical beasts and plants in the Dragon's Gate were bound by spells. As long as the spells were still active, they could never leave this place.

Since she couldn't take it away, Feng Wu decided to make good use of it.

She had been knitting just then.

She knitted the vine into a dense net, which was an idea she had gotten from her experience on the eighth floor.

Therefore, when everyone else thought that Feng Wu had run out of options, she already had a plan, and had started working on it.

By now, Feng Wu had made the vine into a big net!

Chapter 1358: An Ideal Future Husband

The Laughing Cuckoos were still guffawing and sneering at Feng Wu when they were ensnared in the net.

Whoosh —

With a swift movement, the net caught all 999 birds.

Outside the Dragon's Gate, some were excited, some disappointed, and some cried until they collapsed.

"I can't believe it!"

"This Feng Wu is such a genius!"

"She took something away from the eighth floor and used it on the ninth floor. Is this really her first time taking the challenge?"

—

Just when everyone thought that Feng Wu was going to rush to the tenth floor, which was the start of the hell level —

Feng Wu stopped.

Not only did she stop, she also turned around and walked up to the net.

A transparent vial was hanging under the net, and it was now filled with that toxic inky liquid.

It was taken from all the Laughing Cuckoos. As for the birds themselves...

The purple vine had already crushed them.

"Gosh! Feng Wu has so much inky liquid now!"

"It'll be so beneficial for cultivation!"

"After she comes out, I'll try to buy some from her!"

"Me, too!"

—

Just then, Qiao Yi spoke in a cold voice.

“Have you forgotten the bet?”

That immediately woke everyone up.

They suddenly realized...

“Ahh —”

“Oh god!”

“I put in 3000 points!”

“I put in 5000!”

“It’s 10,000 for me!”

Despair filled their hearts, and they were all shocked.

Judging by the loud wails, most of the people here had bet on Feng Wu not passing the elite level.

Every member of Tiger Head looked defeated, except for Leng Hu.

“Aren’t you sad?” They all looked at her.

She glanced at the others and said, “That’s not what I bet on.”

Gu Honglang said, “Did you bet on her not passing the difficult level?”

Leng Hu rolled her eyes at him. “Do I look like an idiot to you? Why would I do that?”

“Then what did you bet on?” The others all looked at Leng Hu.

Leng Hu raised her chin. “What do you think?”

They asked, “It’s not the hell level, is it?”

Leng Hu asked, “Why not?”

“Don’t you hate Feng Wu the most? Why did you bet on that?”

Leng Hu rolled her eyes again. “I hate her, but I don’t hate the idea of more points.”

The others were rendered speechless.

Staring at her, they said, “We thought you didn’t think Feng Wu would do well.”

Leng Hu stared at them as if they were idiots. “I don’t, but I do have faith in Young Lord Feng and His Royal Highness’s judgement.”

That was a very reasonable argument.

Right now, Feng Xun was the happiest person in the crowd. “Hahaha, Chaoge, many people bet that Feng Wu would stop at the elite level, didn’t they?”

The crowd around him didn’t look too happy.

Chaoge nodded and said matter-of-factly, “The total pool is 2 million points, and a little over 1 million of them was for Feng Wu not passing the elite level. Adding in those who bet that Feng Wu would fail at the common and difficult levels, that’s 1.5 million points.

“The other half a million points are on her making it to the hell level.” Chaoge said, “However, no one has even mentioned the insane level.”

Chapter 1359: Gongshu Yunruo?!

Instantly, Feng Xun didn’t feel so happy anymore.

Because the terms were that if Feng Wu couldn’t pass the hell level, Feng Xun would have to pay back three times his bet. That was to say, if that happened, Feng Xun wasn’t going to gain any points.

He stretched out one hand to Chaoge. “Who bet so heavily on the hell level? Show me the list!”

After glancing at the list, he asked, “Who the hell is Shu Yunruo?”

Most people on that list had only put in a few thousand points, but Shu Yunruo had put in 400,000!

A handsome teenager stepped out of the crowd and smiled at Feng Xun. “Hello, Brother Feng.”

“Gongshu Yunruo! It’s you!” Feng Xun rolled his eyes at Shu Yunruo.

Shu Yunruo was the son and official heir to the Gongshu family. For some undisclosed reason, he had changed his name to Shu Yunruo when he came to study at Imperial College.

Immediately, a lot of people stared at him in amazement.

Gongshu Yunruo?

Gongshu?!

As in the legendary Gongshu family?

“Gongshu?” Xuan Yi glanced at Feng Xun.

Feng Xun nodded. “That’s right. He’s that kid from the Gongshu family. When we visited Taiyuan before, he used to follow us everywhere.”

Shu Yunruo rubbed his nose in embarrassment.

When Taiyuan and the Gongshu family were mentioned, everyone realized who the teenager was.

This Shu Yunruo was the most important descendant and the first in line to inherit the Gongshu family, one of the nine major clans!

Many girls’ pupils contracted when they heard that, and Leng Hu was no exception!

They had been classmates for so long, but they didn't know that Shu Yunruo had such a background, which had just turned him into the ideal future husband.

"Didn't they say that Shu Yunruo is an orphan from some remote mountain?"

"What are you thinking? When was the last time you saw a village boy who looked like that? He totally has that unapproachable look that belongs to the son of an old and well-known family."

"What a shame. If I had known earlier, I would have tried to become friends with him..."

"It's not like he would actually agree to be your friend."

"Hm..."

Over on the other side, Feng Xun patted Shu Yunruo on the shoulder and said, "Hey, Brother Yunruo, that's not very nice. You bet 400,000 points. Are you trying to take away all my winnings?"

Shu Yunruo smiled at Feng Xun. "So, Brother Feng, are you suggesting that I should change my stake?"

Feng Xun asked, "What would you like to change it to?"

"The insane level," said Shu Yunruo with a smile. "I'd like to bet all my 400,000 on Feng Wu entering the insane level."

Feng Xun stared at Shu Yunruo in disbelief.

"Are you out of your mind?"

He wasn't the only one who felt that way.

"The insane level? Did Shu Yunruo just say that Feng Wu could get to the insane level?"

"Wow, Shu Yunruo has to be out of his mind."

"That's impossible. There's no way that Feng Wu can go that far! She'll never be able to get through the hell level!"

"Why does Shu Yunruo have so much confidence in Feng Wu? Do they know each other well?"

Everyone had their own speculations.

Meanwhile, Feng Xun looked at Shu Yunruo in bewilderment. "Are you sure you want to change it?"

Chapter 1360: Kill the Person She Hates the Most

Shu Yunruo smiled and said, "Yes."

Feng Xun asked, "Why?"

Shu Yunruo said, "Because I have faith in Feng Wu."

Feng Xun grumbled inwardly. Even he didn't have that much faith in Feng Wu. Deep down, he was convinced that she wouldn't be able to pass the hell level.

He was about to make the change, when he heard a cold voice: "No."

It was the crown prince himself.

Feng Xun and the others exchanged bewildered looks.

Tilting his head, the crown prince stared at Shu Yunruo with cold, piercing eyes.

Shu Yunruo shuddered and was overwhelmed with fear. A cold sensation ran down his spine.

Those eyes were so terrifying that he was awestruck and intimidated.

Shu Yunruo, the known genius of Imperial College, didn't dare meet the crown prince's eyes.

In the Dragon's Gate.

Feng Wu took down the bottle filled with the toxic inky liquid, sealed it with a cork, and put it into her sleeve. She then moved to the next floor.

Each level consisted of three trials. Thus, the fourth, seventh, and tenth floors represented the three thresholds.

The tenth floor.

"How much time do I have?" The smell of blood filled Feng Wu's nostrils when she stood at the entrance to the tenth floor. She frowned and narrowed her eyes.

The fairy said, "You have 25 minutes left."

Feng Wu nodded. Before she knew it, she had gripped the Fallen Star Sword on her back, and the look on her face had never been so stern.

Seeing the look on her face, the crowd grew nervous as well.

What awaited Feng Wu on the tenth floor?

Blood...

Red, warm blood slowly oozed out through the gap under the door.

Feng Wu was even more wary.

The door was unlatched. Feng Wu held the hilt of the Fallen Star Sword in her right hand and narrowed her eyes. She needed to be very cautious now.

The door finally opened.

Many people were frightened when they saw what was inside.

"That's..."

There was so much blood.

Feng Wu stepped right into it.

Everywhere she turned, she could see nothing but blood, and the red color gave her the creeps.

The dangerous feeling made Feng Wu narrow her eyes. All of a sudden, her head went blank, and a wretched feeling swept over her.

Rumble —

A voice suddenly rang out.

“Welcome to the hell level, little girl. Yes, this is that legendary place —

“Here, you’ll experience the joy of killing.”

After a pause, the sinister voice rang out again. “You can kill whomever you hate in Imperial College.

“Little girl, close your eyes and picture the person you hate the most in Imperial College. Hahaha —”

The evil voice trailed off.

However, that eerie, suffocating feeling still lingered in everyone’s heads...

The person said that Feng Wu could kill the person she hated the most.

“Hey, who do you think Feng Wu hates the most in Imperial College?” Leng Hu chuckled and was intrigued.

“Well...”

A lot of people hated Feng Wu, but no one knew whom Feng Wu hated, which only made them even more curious.

“What if I don’t hate anyone?” Feng Wu’s eyes snapped open, and she stared at a spot in the air.