Chapter 1701: Face-slapping, Round 6 (2)

Since Little Phoenix was so persistent, there was nothing Feng Wu could say. She then looked at the horse.

The look on its face was complicated.

It didn't speak and only gazed at Feng Wu with a serious look in its eyes. It seemed angry but expectant at the same time.

Feng Wu heaved a sigh. "You can go now."

The horse looked frustrated as it stared at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu patted its head. "After all, we haven't signed any contract yet, and I already owe you a lot from before. I can't bring you any more danger. You can leave now. Be safe."

The horse glared at Feng Wu. It was very pissed.

Little Phoenix stood on Feng Wu's shoulder and said happily, "Look, you're not even qualified to fight alongside Xiao Wu. You poor thing."

Feng Wu threw a dirty look at Little Phoenix. Would this bird ever shut up?

The horse rolled its eyes at Little Phoenix, turned around, and dashed off.

Seeing that the horse really left, Little Phoenix was displeased once again. It told Feng Wu, "Look, it left its master at a critical moment. What kind of horse is that? I'm your most trustworthy ride!"

Feng Wu was rendered speechless by the bird.

The horse ran off.

It had no idea what it was angry about, nor did it have any idea why it felt so awful. It thought it was going to explode.

Before it went around a bend in the road, it turned around and saw Feng Wu and Little Phoenix digging up stones from the ground as they spoke together. It was quite a touching scene.

The horse bit its lip and watched.

That lousy bird wasn't a good worker at all! It was so lazy! There were so many stones and it was picking them up one at a time. That would take forever! The horse couldn't stop thinking about how it would handle the job. Hmph!

However, the human girl didn't try to stop it. Tears welled up in the horse's pretty eyes, and before it knew it, there was a wronged expression on its face.

Feng Wu didn't see any of that. Right now, she was setting up a formation.

She didn't think she could kill those people. All she wanted was to stay out of their sight so that she could make her breakthrough.

Soon, she found an underground cave a short distance away.

It was no bigger than ten square meters in size, and the opening was over 10 cm above ground.

Luckily, Feng Wu was petite. Anyone else wouldn't be able to fit inside.

After setting up a concealment formation, Feng Wu picked up Little Phoenix and jumped into the cave.

Concealment was her forte, and she had wiped clean all her tracks before she entered the cave.

Almost as soon as she hid herself, she heard hasty footsteps.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

It was then followed by the clash of blades.

There was a giant rock over her head with a small opening that she had sealed up.

She didn't have the energy to care about anything else right now.

To her, the most important thing now was her breakthrough.

Inside her, streaks of spiritual essence gathered into golden balls and dripped into her dantian.

The spiritual essence then escaped and flowed all over her body through her energy channels.

Feng Wu felt herself burning up, and she felt like she was being ironed out. Every part of her hurt.

Chapter 1702: Face-slapping, Round 6 (3)

Other people would have passed out from the pain.

Even if they didn't, they would have cried out in pain.

But Feng Wu wasn't just anyone. She fought as hard as she could to not make a sound.

But if there were other people around, they would see the sweat rolling down her forehead. Her clothes were all soaking wet, as if she had been in the water.

Water kept trickling down from her clothes to the ground.

The pain made Feng Wu's head go blank. It felt worse than ever.

Little Phoenix didn't go back into the ring space.

It was worried that if it did, it might not be able to come out when Feng Wu was in danger.

Hence, it sat on top of a wall 10 meters away. A rock protruded out of the cliff at a concealed angle.

Little Phoenix listened carefully for any sounds in the surrounding area as it watched over Feng Wu.

Luck wasn't on Feng Wu's side. When the men in black chased the men in white, they just happened to stop in the nearby area.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Little Phoenix grew more wary as it listened to the sound of clashing weapons.

It then looked at Feng Wu and saw that the noise was indeed affecting her. She frowned and nearly misguided her spiritual essence.

Little Phoenix's pupils contracted and it made up its mind.

It bit its tongue and sprayed the blood in the air.

It then drew a circle around Feng Wu with the blood.

It was a soundproof barrier.

And it could only be made by the blood from the tip of its tongue.

That was very precious blood and Little Phoenix wouldn't use it lightly. Given the current situation, however, it had no other choice.

Plus, it had a premonition.

If it didn't screen the noise, Feng Wu would be significantly affected. She wouldn't necessarily go berserk, but her progress wouldn't be very fast either.

According to its master, the more painful a breakthrough, the higher the level... Since Feng Wu was in so much pain this time, did it mean that she would advance more than one level?

Buzz.

While Little Phoenix was nervously guarding Feng Wu, she made a breakthrough.

Spiritual essence rose out of the ground and gathered around Feng Wu.

The white spiritual essence wrapped her up like a cocoon.

All her pores were open, so the spiritual essence was able to enter her body and rush into her dantian.

Little Phoenix stared nervously at Feng Wu while she made her breakthrough.

Was it only going to be one level? But one level was already very good news... Little Phoenix kept telling itself that, when it saw Feng Wu frown again.

Oh, my! Little Phoenix held its breath and looked at Feng Wu in excitement.

It was like having a baby. Giving birth to one was hard work, but twins would be a pleasant surprise!

Meanwhile, Little Phoenix watched Feng Wu in excitement and prayed quietly.

Please make it two levels, please!

Little Phoenix prayed wholeheartedly.

Rumble —

A rumbling sound filled the cave.

Luckily, Little Phoenix had set up the barrier before. Otherwise, the fighters outside would definitely have noticed!

Seeing that Feng Wu was making a second breakthrough, Little Phoenix almost jumped to its feet!

Ahhh —

Chapter 1703: Face-slapping, Round 6 (4)

Seeing that Feng Wu really was going to make a second breakthrough, Little Phoenix almost jumped to its feet.

Roarrrr —

OMG!!!

She really had a second breakthrough! Little Phoenix had only been speculating wildly!

Little Phoenix flew very excitedly around Feng Wu in circles.

Had it not been for the enemy outside, it would have laughed out loud.

Time slowly went by.

Feng Wu finally finished her second breakthrough.

Little Phoenix heaved a sigh of relief.

After this breakthrough, the difference in Feng Wu and Zuo Qingluan's cultivation levels wouldn't be so great anymore!

Zuo Qingluan was so intolerable that Little Phoenix wanted Feng Wu to advance as fast as possible so that she could kick that Zuo Qingluan's ass!

However —

When Little Phoenix thought that Feng Wu was going to open her eyes —

It stared at Feng Wu in disbelief.

What was going on here?!

She had had two breakthroughs, so why did she still seem to be in a lot of pain? It was as if her breakthrough wasn't over yet.

The next second —

Rumble —

There was the sound of a breakthrough again!

Little Phoenix was astonished!

This time, it was so excited that it almost lost its mind!

It stared at Feng Wu with unblinking eyes.

How was that even possible?!

How could that happen?!

After two breakthroughs in a row, Feng Wu still wasn't done? OMG!

Little Phoenix couldn't believe what it was seeing.

It forgot to blink.

Given Little Phoenix's special background, it had seen all sorts of things before, but never had it seen someone make three breakthroughs in a row!

It wondered if it was dreaming!

When Feng Wu opened her eyes, the first thing she saw was the astonished look on Little Phoenix's face.

After the breakthrough, Feng Wu felt as if she had soaked in spiritual water. A pleasant feeling flowed through her body, and she felt great.

"Hey, what's wrong with you?" Feng Wu gave Little Phoenix a strange look.

Little Phoenix was speechless.

Baffled, Feng Wu waved her hand in front of its face. "Hey, are you alright? Why do you look stunned?"

Little Phoenix finally returned to itself.

Looking at Feng Wu, it wanted to say something, but all words failed it.

Feng Wu grew anxious. She grabbed the bird and shook it. "Hey, did something happen when I had my breakthrough?"

Little Phoenix nodded.

Feng Wu asked, "Are you hurt?"

Little Phoenix shook its head.

Feng Wu asked, "Is the horse dead?"

Little Phoenix shook its head.

Feng Wu was relieved. "What, then?"

Little Phoenix asked, "You have no idea at all?"

Feng Wu was confused. "What should I know?"

Little Phoenix gave her an indescribable look. "What level are you now?"

Feng Wu mumbled, "I was a Level 4 Spiritual Elder before, so after the breakthrough... Gosh!"

She suddenly raised her head and looked at Little Phoenix in disbelief!

Little Phoenix nodded at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu couldn't believe it, and she murmured, "This can't be. I only made a breakthrough... Maybe not once, but twice. Why am I a Level 7 Spiritual Elder now? Is... is it a mistake?"

Chapter 1704: Face-slapping, Round 6 (5)

Little Phoenix almost laughed.

"A mistake? The spiritual essence is right inside you. Do you think it's a mistake?"

Feng Wu rubbed her nose. "Well... you're right. But I only remember two breakthroughs..."

Little Phoenix gave Feng Wu a strange look. "You were unconscious the third time."

Feng Wu was amazed. "I could do that while I was unconscious?"

Little Phoenix said, "That's right. I was going to ask you that. How did you make a breakthrough while you were unconscious?"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Little Phoenix let out a breath of relief and still sounded unconvinced. "For as long as I've lived, this is the first time I've ever seen something like this. Three breakthroughs in a row isn't even the most surprising part. You fainted, but you woke up without losing your mind. Instead, you made a breakthrough... Little Feng Wu, are you even human?"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say. She wanted to know the answer as well!

This was the first time she had ever experienced such an incredible thing!

"I'm a Level 7 Spiritual Elder now?" Feng Wu looked amazed. She then murmured to herself, "I'm a Level 7 Spiritual Elder now? I really am?!"

Little Phoenix nodded.

Thanks to the soundproof barrier, the people outside couldn't hear her.

Rising to her feet, Feng Wu walked around in the red circle, murmuring to herself as she walked, "I'm a Level 7 Spiritual Elder now? I am?"

Little Phoenix was speechless. "This woman is out of her mind."

Feng Wu grabbed the bird in excitement. "Do you remember? We were told last time that Zuo Qingluan is a Level 7 Spiritual Elder as well! That is to say, I'm her level now! I'm amazing! I caught up with her after five years!"

Feng Wu still couldn't believe it.

Little Phoenix looked at her in bewilderment. "It's like you said, we heard it last time. You've made quite the big improvement during this time, but Zuo Qingluan is also very talented. I'm sure she's made some breakthroughs as well."

Feng Wu said, "Even if she has, it can't have been faster than mine. The difference between us is shrinking even as we speak!"

Little Phoenix nodded. Feng Wu was correct about that.

"I'm a Level 7 Spiritual Elder now. OMG. I opened my eyes, and I'm a Level 7 Spiritual Elder..." Feng Wu patted her head.

Little Phoenix was speechless.

"Wait, what's this?" Feng Wu pointed at a white jade bowl on the ground and looked at Little Phoenix in bewilderment.

Little Phoenix just looked at Feng Wu in silence.

Feng Wu asked, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

Little Phoenix wanted to say something, but it sighed and kept silent.

Baffled, Feng Wu said, "Hey, if you have something to say, say it! It worries me to see you like this."

Little Phoenix said, "This is spiritual liquid. It escaped you when you made your breakthroughs. I absorbed those that dissipated into the air, and I put the liquid part into this bowl."

"And then?" Feng Wu looked at the bird innocently.

Little Phoenix threw back its head. "Aren't you the luckiest girl in the world?"

Feng Wu said, "If you didn't say that, I would still think I'm the most unlucky person in the world."

Little Phoenix asked, "Do you know why it's so hard to make three breakthroughs in a row?"

Feng Wu said, "Tell me, then."

Little Phoenix said, "Because only those with the greatest talent can do it. It proves that you have a lot of potential, and when you're lucky, the Heavenly God will reward you with spiritual liquid."

Chapter 1705: Face-slapping, Round 6 (6)

Feng Wu said, "So, you're saying..."

Instead of answering her, Little Phoenix asked, "Do you know who the Heavenly God is?"

Feng Wu shook her head, but she had a vague idea.

Little Phoenix said, "The Heavenly God is the current ruler of this continent!"

Feng Wu said, "Well, that sounds impressive." Although, her beautiful master used to be the ruler of this continent as well.

Little Phoenix said, "Do you know that when you made three breakthroughs in a row, you connected with the law of Nature, and the Heavenly God sensed you?"

Feng Wu looked perplexed.

Little Phoenix said, "The Heavenly God is already aware of your existence!"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Little Phoenix said, "I have no idea how lucky you can be. The Heavenly God was pleased, so he rewarded you with a bottle of spiritual liquid. Couldn't you feel it?"

Feng Wu said, "I just felt very nice. It was like basking in the sun after taking a shower, so languid and so comfortable."

Little Phoenix said, "That was it. You absorbed most of the spiritual liquid, and I absorbed a little. The last bit is in this bowl."

Feng Wu said, "Are we going to take it just like that?"

Little Phoenix said, "The spiritual essence is valuable to us, but to the Heavenly God, it's just daily drinking water. Would you remember every bottle of water you give to some random person?"

Feng Wu said, "Well..."

Little Phoenix, "Not every person that makes three breakthroughs in a row will get that reward. It all depends on the Heavenly God's mood. Apparently, you're very lucky today."

Feng Wu chuckled. "What a pity. If we can get some spiritual liquid of an advanced spiritual beast, maybe we can turn that horse into a spiritual beast as well."

"Hey, what's wrong?"

Little Phoenix was baffled when it heard those words. It stopped what it was doing and stared at Feng Wu with an indescribable look on its face.

Feng Wu asked, "What's wrong?"

Little Phoenix asked, "Do you not know?"

Feng Wu asked, "Know what?"

Little Phoenix said, "Do you not know that the original form of the ruler of this continent is a spiritual beast?"

Feng Wu looked perplexed.

Little Phoenix said, "Although I don't know what kind of spiritual beast it is, it definitely is one. That's why I said that you're very lucky!"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Little Phoenix said, "You were saying that you want to help the horse become a spiritual beast. After that, you made three breakthroughs in a row. You're so lucky that the Heavenly God showed you his favor and gave you some spiritual liquid. Are you sure you're not his illegitimate daughter or something?!"

Feng Wu cleared her throat.

Little Phoenix said, "It can't be just a coincidence! I'm not buying it!"

Feng Wu said, "I'm still trying to digest it myself."

She still felt light-headed.

Because the series of events was simply too big a coincidence.

"I —"

Just then, Feng Wu heard the sound of weapons clashing with each other, so she immediately stopped talking and shushed Little Phoenix as well.

It finally occurred to her that there was a battle happening above her head.

Feng Wu asked, "Are they still here?"

Little Phoenix nodded. "Yes, they're still fighting."

Feng Wu said, "I didn't hear them just then."

Little Phoenix said grumpily, "That doesn't mean they weren't there. I set up a soundproof formation before to block out the sound."

Chapter 1706: Face-slapping, Round 6 (7)

Feng Wu was baffled for a moment.

Little Phoenix had used that skill before, which meant that it wasn't all that useful...

"You don't sound so confident," Feng Wu said curiously.

Little Phoenix said, "Hey, mind your words!"

Feng Wu cleared her throat.

Little Phoenix said, "Our most important task now is to see what's going on outside, right? Forget about how confident I sound already."

Feng Wu scratched her head. "You have a point."

She and Little Phoenix lay flat on their stomachs and looked out through a gap in the wall.

One look and Feng Wu's eyes widened.

She then turned to Little Phoenix. "Isn't that the younger prince?"

After Sefiro offended Feng Wu, the younger prince had arrived with gifts to apologize. Feng Wu remembered the gifts, which were all quite impressive. Thus, the younger prince had left quite a good impression on Feng Wu.

Little Phoenix nodded. "It really is him. He wears white, and so do his guards. The other group is pursuing them."

If someone on the grassland tried to kill the younger prince, his brother would be the biggest suspect!

Seeing the black headbands that were identical to the one Seven wore, Feng Wu was convinced that the men in black were sent by the older prince.

Right now, there were over a dozen men in black, but the white side only had ten people left, including the younger prince.

The men in black all seemed to be in high spirits and good shape, while the younger prince's men were almost all wounded, and some were badly injured.

"Master, hide!"

The captain of the guards pushed the younger prince in Feng Wu's direction.

He had no idea that Feng Wu was hiding in the cave. All he wanted was to hide the prince.

Whoosh —

Feng Wu watched as the younger prince rolled into the cave and stopped by her feet.

The prince stared at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu also stared at him.

Little Phoenix almost exploded.

It wanted to kick the prince.

Why was this man so annoying?! The two of them had been hiding safely here and could walk out when this battle was over, but this prince just showed up!

"You! Get out of here!" Little Phoenix didn't care who he was.

Feng Wu shook her head at the bird.

Little Phoenix was infuriated. "We hid here first and we set up the formation to hide our energy. He's exposed us by entering this cave. Soon, the men in black will surround this place and catch us! I'm so mad at him!"

The prince had a guilty look in his eyes.

He had never thought that this would happen.

He bowed to Feng Wu with a wry smile. "I'm so sorry. I had no idea that you were hiding here. Otherwise, I wouldn't have brought you harm..."

After checking the situation outside, the prince turned to Feng Wu with a wry smile. "This is my own trouble, and I can't bring you into this. Don't worry. I'm leaving now."

Feng Wu looked at him.

When she last saw him, he was handsome, gentle, and as civilized as any well-taught teenager from the south.

Chapter 1707: Face-slapping, Round 6 (8)

But right now, his ragged white robe was covered in blood, and he looked a mess.

After some hesitation, Feng Wu asked, "Are you and your brother the only princes of the Senal Grassland?"

The young prince didn't know why Feng Wu asked that, but he still nodded with a smile. "That's right. We're my father's only sons."

Little Phoenix snorted. "Not necessarily. Your Chieftain Senal is still in the prime of his life."

The prince smiled bitterly and hesitated.

Little Phoenix said, "You're about to die; there's no better time than this to tell the truth. Why are you still holding back?"

Feng Wu realized that he was hiding something, so she gave the prince a half-smile. "Would your older brother try to kill you if your father hadn't given his tacit approval?"

The prince gritted his teeth and narrowed his eyes. There were things that he didn't want to think about, because if he did, he would fall into an abyss.

But she was right. He was about to die, so why should he hold anything back?

He said quietly, "My father is ill. I'm afraid he won't be able to have any more sons."

Feng Wu nodded. That explained it. No wonder the older prince could make up his mind and try to kill his brother.

"Are you interested in becoming the next Chieftain Senal?" Feng Wu grinned at him.

He looked at Feng Wu as if she had gone mad.

Was something wrong with his ears or had Feng Wu lost her mind?

He had been running for his life a moment before, and the next second, he was asked if he was interested in becoming the next chieftain.

He smiled bitterly. "Princess Feng, isn't that a bit far-fetched?"

Feng Wu waved her hands impatiently. "Far-fetched or not, just tell me if you're interested in that position. Yes or no?"

He was going to die anyway, so what was there to be afraid of?

The prince forgot about his forbearance and pretense at that moment. He stared at Feng Wu with piercing eyes. "Who wouldn't want to sit on the throne? I've dreamed about it, because..."

"Because only when I'm on it can I stop fearing for my life!" The young prince looked into Feng Wu's eyes and spoke in a serious tone.

Feng Wu said casually, "What if I told you that I can make that happen? How will you repay me?"

Make that happen?

The prince was amused. "Miss Feng, you..."

He didn't believe her at all!

If it was Master Teacher Si Basi who was saying this, the prince would believe every word. However, she was only a princess of the Junwu Empire. What made her think she could do that?

Smiling wryly, he waved his hands. "Princess Feng, I'm going out now. I won't put you in any danger..."

After that, he turned to leave the cave.

Feng Wu had been observing the prince this whole time.

He was kind, mild-tempered, and upright. It would be a blessing for the grassland if he could become the next chieftain. In contrast, the people of the grassland would suffer if the cruel and despotic older prince inherited the throne.

But she wanted to help the young prince mainly for personal reasons.

The older prince had sent an assassin to kill her, and she held a grudge against him for that. She decided that she would take what he wanted the most from him.

What did he want the most? Needless to say, it was the throne.

Chapter 1708: Face-slapping, Round 6 (9)

Thus, Feng Wu wanted the older prince to watch as she helped his brother take the throne. She was going to make this his biggest regret; only then would he realize that he had messed with the wrong person.

"Wait."

Feng Wu gave the young prince a grumpy look and pointed at the back of the cave. "The exit is over there."

"What?" The young prince looked at Feng Wu in bewilderment.

Feng Wu snapped, "Fine, I know you don't believe me, but you'll soon see my capability."

Her fingers moved slightly as she spoke, and she flicked them in the direction of the wall.

The prince looked at her with a wry smile.

This was a granite cave, and the walls were very hard. The idea of leaving through some underground tunnel was preposterous...

He had examined the rock as soon as he entered the cave.

However!

To his disbelief, a tunnel appeared at Feng Wu's command, and it ran very deep... He had no idea where it led to.

But it was still a tunnel out of here!

"You —"

It seemed newly made, and there were signs that it had been burned around it. The walls of the tunnel were charred as well.

"This..." The prince stared at Feng Wu in disbelief. "What's going on here?"

Feng Wu shrugged. "Unlike you, I make sure that I have an exit route when I'm hiding."

After she and Little Phoenix hid here, she had to work on her breakthrough, so she told the bird to open up an exit tunnel for them.

It was true that they were surrounded by granite, but Little Phoenix could spit fire.

It was a matter of minutes before the rock burnt down.

With its abnormal flame, Little Phoenix opened up a tunnel for them.

But the walls of the tunnel were still very hot.

Feng Wu pushed him toward the tunnel. "Go now! Those men are closing in. Go now before they catch you."

"I'm not leaving without you! I can't leave a girl behind while I run away! I brought you into this; if we're going to die, I'll die first!" the prince stubbornly held Feng Wu's hand.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Little Phoenix had been holding a grudge against the prince, but seeing his persistence, it began to like him better.

Feng Wu said, "Fine, if you want to stay and watch, stay. But stand over there and don't get in my way."

The prince looked at her in bewilderment and wondered what she was going to do at such a critical moment.

What Feng Wu was about to do was quite simple.

She wanted to weaken the enemy as much as possible, so she was going to blow up as many men in black as she could.

She quickly buried a few things in the cave.

An explosive formation soon took shape.

The prince looked at her and felt perplexed. "What did you bury there? Will it work?"

Little Phoenix stuck out its chest. "Of course it will! Just wait and see!"

But the prince wasn't convinced, and he reminded Feng Wu, "Those men are very capable. The weakest are Level 3 Spiritual Elders, and the stronger ones are Level 5. As for their captain, he's a Spiritual Lord."

Feng Wu didn't say anything since she had guessed as much.

The prince was anxious at first, but he gradually relaxed.

He had already accepted the fact that he was going to die. If he could make it out, it would be his lucky day, but if he couldn't... He smiled bitterly. That was practically the inevitable outcome.

Chapter 1709: Face-slapping, Round 7 (1)

"Let's go." After setting up the trap, Feng Wu ran toward the tunnel, dragging the prince along with her.

The temperature inside the tunnel was very high, but luckily, Feng Wu was fast enough. She moved like the wind, and the bottom of her feet barely touched the ground... The heat didn't affect her at all.

"Captain! The prince is hiding in the cave!"

One of the men in black reported to the captain.

The secret guards had a strict hierarchy. The captain, for instance, was of the same level as Seven, which made him the leader of the team.

His name was Six.

Captain Six smirked. "Does he think he can run away from us just by hiding there? How naive!"

The other man said, "Captain?"

Captain Six said, "The ground is granite, which is very hard. It can't be hacked open or melted down, not without an abnormal flame. Heh."

Another team member said, "So, the young prince has just run into a trap of his own making, which makes our job a lot easier."

The other team members all laughed.

This mission had turned out to be easier than they had expected.

They had thought that there would be a fierce battle, but the prince turned out to be very naive. The mole had lured him out here without much difficulty, and he had only brought a few guards with him.

Naturally, the older prince wouldn't waste such a good opportunity.

Captain Six waved his hand. "Come. Let's find the prince, kill him, and finish the job. We can then go back to claim our reward."

"Great!!!" Everyone was excited.

This was going to be a great achievement. With the younger prince gone, the older prince would have no rival left for the throne. They couldn't wait to claim their reward.

Captain Six wasn't a reckless man. He was pretty cautious.

With a wave of his hand, the remaining twenty men in black spread out and circled the cave.

He then made a hand gesture.

One of the men shouted, "Your Highness! Come out! We won't kill you!"

There was no sound from inside.

Right now, the young prince's guards had all been killed off and their bodies littered the ground. Their blood painted the ground red, creating a wretched scene.

One of the men in white moved his fingers slightly.

He was none other than the captain of the younger prince's guards.

He couldn't move anymore, but he was looking at the cave.

He had pushed the younger prince into the cave.

Tears ran down the captain's cheeks.

"Your Highness, I was trying to save you, but I sent you to your death..."

Tears and blood covered his face.

Right now, all that the men in black cared about was the younger prince in the cave. After all, it wasn't every day that they could achieve something as great as catching the prince.

One of them shouted into the cave, "Your Highness, are you really not coming out? If not, we're going to set a fire."

There was still no response.

Six frowned and made a hand gesture.

"Go have a look," he said.

"Captain! Let me go!"

"Captain, let me!"

"Captain, pick me..."

Immediately, everyone volunteered.

They all knew that they might not have such an opportunity again.

Six cast a stern look at his team members. "Everyone, follow me!"

Chapter 1710: Face-slapping, Round 7 (2)

"Yes, Captain!" the team members replied in unison.

The younger prince's captain of the guards watched in despair as Captain Six led his team into the cave...

"My prince..."

Six walked into the cave and found it incredibly dim inside.

That wasn't right. It was very bright outside, and light could enter the cave, so why was it so dark?

More importantly, where was the younger prince?

The cave was no more than ten square meters in size, so where could the younger prince hide?

However, at that moment —

Six suddenly had a bad feeling, and he shouted, "Out! Everybody out!"

But it was too late.

To claim the reward, the twenty or so men in black had jumped into the cave without a second thought. They moved too fast for anyone to stop them.

Therefore, when Six told them to get out, the last man was still at the entrance and blocked the way.

Rumble —

There was the terrifying sound of an explosion.

Ah!

And people screamed.

The younger prince's captain watched with wide open eyes.

What happened?

A massive explosion took place in the cave.

Flames sprang up and heavy smoke rose into the sky.

The black smoke covered the sky like dark clouds.

The ground shook and people's ears buzzed.

The ceiling of the cave shattered, and the rock shards rained down.

They were like a storm of bullets.

Luckily, the younger prince's captain, who was lying on the ground, shielded himself with a dead man's body in time. The dead body was almost shredded to pieces, but the captain was unharmed.

At the same time.

Captain Six and his members weren't as lucky.

It had never occurred to them that things could go so wrong just as they were about to wrap things up.

Since the explosion took place inside the cave, the impact was incredible!!

Ten men were instantly killed.

The surviving ones were all severely injured.

No one was unharmed.

As for Captain Six...

He had been the one to set off the explosion.

In fact, Feng Wu had considered this possibility when she set up the mines.

Catching the prince was such a big achievement that he would never share it with other people. He would do it himself, so he would definitely be the first to come down here.

Feng Wu had studied Six's physique and gait, with which she was able to calculate the possible route he would take...

One had to admit that Feng Wu's deductive ability was terrifyingly accurate.

Because of his greed, Six had come down here to catch the prince himself.

And he had led the team himself.

Therefore, he was right at the center of the explosion when the impact hit him.

He bore almost 90% of the impact.

Moreover...

Feng Wu had buried bombs not only in the ground, but in the walls as well. Once the bombs in the ground went off, it would set off a chain reaction.

Apart from the bombs, there were steel balls as well.

The steel balls flew everywhere...

When the bombs were detonated, the cave turned into a living hell...

"Cough —"

Six survived, but he was badly injured.

His right eye had been pierced by a steel ball, and he couldn't stop the bleeding.
