Chapter 581 So Mad!

Other people would have passed out with joy if Jun Linyuan had started a conversation with them...

And now, this was the first time His Royal Highness had ever cooked something himself. He hadn't even washed chopsticks for his grandmother, who had doted on him. But Miss Wu...

Miss Wu had kicked that pot of porridge... to the ground...

Feng broke out in a cold sweat of anxiety!

As expected, Jun Linyuan's face turned livid and he stared at Feng Wu with a murderous look in his eyes!

But Feng Wu was no less pissed than he was!

"Jun Linyuan, how could you do this to me?! How could you make me sleep? I haven't finished reading my books! What if I can't get first place or full marks? Your terms are already so harsh and you just keep making more trouble for me! I hate you!"

Feng Wu got angrier and more aggrieved as she spoke and tears began to well up in her pretty eyes.

"I can forget about the books for now. Just tell me this: Do you know that Imperial College's entrance exam is today? The answer is obviously yes!

"But you still brought me here against my will and left me in the middle of nowhere! Not only did I have to stand all the bug bites and the cold wind, I couldn't even read!

"And you made me sleep!

"Do you know what time it is now?

"And do you know when the exam starts?

"It's almost nine o'clock! It's five to nine in the morning!

"And the exam starts at nine!

"How am I supposed to get there in time?! The exam will probably be over when I get there!

"Jun Linyuan, you're the worst!"

Feng Wu was so mad and so aggrieved that she couldn't keep her tears back anymore.

She turned to leave without giving Jun Linyuan any chance to explain himself!

Jun Linyuan was astonished!

He still stood there dazed after Feng Wu was gone.

"Your Royal Highness..."

Seeing Jun Linyuan's livid face, Feng quietly went up to his master.

Jun Linyuan took a deep breath, but still couldn't hold back his anger. He kicked a giant oval rock!
Rumble!

The giant rock the size of a house instantly crumbled to pieces.

Gesturing in the direction Feng Wu had left in, Jun Linyuan bellowed.

"I only made her sleep for her own good!

"She looked like a panda! Should I just do nothing?!

"Reading in the moonlight? Has she lost her mind?! Her eyes would be ruined!"

Feng rubbed his nose as his young master stomped his foot in rage.

"How was it my fault?! I did nothing wrong!" Jun Linyuan yelled at Feng. "Nothing!"

Feng heaved a long sigh. "Your Royal Highness, Miss Wu is really mad this time."

"Big deal. She's mad? I'm madder!" Jun Linyuan said proudly.

"Miss Wu won't talk to you..."

"And I won't talk to her either!" This was the first time he had wanted to cook and he had actually taken action, but she had kicked the pot over!

How dare she?! She was so dead!

The more Jun Linyuan thought about it, the more infuriated he became.

His Royal Highness was hopeless...

Feng sighed inwardly, but he still had to remind his master of something, or the young man would probably never find a girl.

"But Your Royal Highness, Miss Wu was right about one thing."

Chapter 582 The Exam Starts When She Arrives

"You're the one forcing her to get into Imperial College but you're the one making her miss the exam.

"You told her to get first place but stopped her from reading.

"You're making her get full marks, but prevented her from studying by making her sleep.

"Your Royal Highness, I would be very angry, too, if I were Miss Wu," said Feng in a serious tone.

When Feng turned serious, things were really serious.

So, Jun Linyuan straightened his back. "Is it that serious?"

"Yes, and probably more so than you think," Feng said earnestly. "Miss Wu has put so much into this exam – she will only hate you more if she misses it. Your Royal Highness, do you want Miss Wu to hate you?"

Of course not!

But... did that mean he was going to swallow that reprimand?

Of course Jun Linyuan wouldn't have it!

Feng said, "Your Royal Highness, accounts can always be settled afterward; the priority now is the exam..."

Things should be taken care of in order of their importance and urgency... Feng had a point.

Jun Linyuan rolled his eyes at Feng. "Use your head. If she's running late, postpone the exam!"

Feng said, "Alright... to what time?"

Jun Linyuan rolled his eyes again. "The exam will start when she arrives! Any questions?"

Feng gave his young master a strange look.

If he cared about her so much, why did he have to be so mean when she was around and keep picking on her?

"Your Royal Highness, girls should be treated gently..." Feng tried to talk sense into the crown prince.

Jun Linyuan shifted his cold gaze to Feng and was back to his proud self again. "Gently? She wishes!"

Feng almost burst out laughing, but he managed to keep his face unperturbed.

Jun Linyuan snorted. "She's not to be told about this. You'll have me to answer to if she knows I did this!"

Feng was speechless.

Talk about doing exactly the opposite... Your Royal Highness, you're the perfect example.

Feng was exhausted inside out. Not only did he have to arrange a secret escort to keep Feng Wu safe on her way back, he had to come up with a good excuse to delay the exam...

Feng Wu had no idea of any of that, nor did she know about the conversation between Jun Linyuan and Feng.

After storming off, she rushed all the way down the mountain and was dumbfounded —

Which way was the city?

Was she supposed to run all the way back?

It was nine o'clock already and the exam started at nine —

Would she get there in time?

Feng Wu searched her memory and recalled that it had taken Jun Linyuan almost an hour to arrive here last night.

Feng Wu: !!!

It would be noon by the time she got back to the imperial capital!

At that moment, Feng Wu was seriously considering murdering Jun Linyuan.

She was overwhelmed by despair when —

Clip-clop, clip-clop —

She heard the sound of a horse coming her way from behind.

Feng Wu turned around and her eyes lit up!

“Is that a Galloping Horse? The fastest horse ever?!”

Feng Wu looked up at the rider and saw a teenager with fine features. He wore a fitting blue brocade robe and had an elegant air to him.

Without thinking, Feng Wu grabbed the bridle and pushed the teenager out of the saddle!

“What?”

The elegant teenager had been arrested by Feng Wu’s beautiful face as soon as he spotted her, and he was thinking

Chapter 583 Feng Wu the Robber

The nice-looking teenager had been reciting a poem about how the girl was so beautiful she was beyond description.

However, the next moment, that genteel girl who looked softer and slimmer than a willow branch...

She jumped up, kicked him out of the saddle, and robbed him of his horse.

Not only that, she also tossed a spiritual stone onto his chest as if she was sending a beggar away. “I’ll take it!”

After that, with a clatter of hooves —

The girl disappeared into the distance with the horse.

The teenager was speechless.

He was the son of an emperor, for Christ’s sake! Spirit stones were the least of his concern!

Feng Wu had no idea that she had just forced her offer on a royal prince... All she could think of was getting to Imperial College ASAP!

The exam, the exam, the exam...

Feng Wu was worried sick!

After all the hard work and all the books she had read and recited, if her chance was ruined because she was late to the exam... she didn’t think she would be able to take it.

“Hya — faster, faster, faster —”

Blood rumbled in Feng Wu's ears and the wind grazed her cheeks like blades.

All she could think of now was whether she could still go in when she arrived late.

Chao should have gone in already, right?

While Jun Linyuan was giving Feng Wu a hard time, Yu Mingye had a rough night as well.

He spent the whole night shivering on Imperial Capital Tower, jumping at every little noise.

A wolf howled in the middle of the night and he thought it was Jun Linyuan coming. He almost jumped off the tower in fright.

In the end, he was so cold that he had to catch the wolf, skin it, and turn it into a stew. However, he ate until the day broke and Jun Linyuan still didn't show up...

Feng Wu rode the horse as fast as she could and it still took her two hours to get to town.

By then, Feng Wu almost had a nervous breakdown.

It was a two-hour ride, which meant that it was eleven o'clock already... The exam would have finished by now.

Feng Wu heaved a long sigh, but she wouldn't give up just yet and still rushed to Imperial College as soon as she could manage.

However, she was astonished when she arrived at the square outside the college!

What?

That wasn't right!

Why were there so many people?

A lot of parents were here, but there were teenagers as well, who looked like exam candidates.

Jumping off the horse, Feng Wu grabbed the first person she saw and asked, "Has the exam started yet?"

The person she asked was a teenager with delicate features. He was dazed by Feng Wu's beauty when he saw her face... Involuntarily, he blushed and lowered his gaze.

However, he then spotted Feng Wu's fluffy pajamas and her fluffy slippers... He raised his head in astonishment and looked at her strangely.

"Answer me. Has the exam started yet?" Feng Wu glared at him.

"Oh, right —" The teenager came back to himself and replied. "No, it hasn't."

"How come? Shouldn't it have started like two hours ago?" Feng Wu's eyes widened in surprise. In that moment, all her anxiety was gone, turning into curiosity instead.

Before the teenager could answer, a teenage girl moved closer and said, "Right? It should have started a long time ago, but the exam got postponed."

Chapter 584 It's All Because of You!

"When will the exam resume, then?" Feng Wu was thrilled!

Holy crap. Someone up there must really like her! Otherwise, why would such a thing happen?

She was late and so was the exam? Hahahaha —

In that moment, Feng Wu was so excited that she wanted to guffaw.

It had to be the luckiest day of her life.

"We have no idea." The girl was very enthusiastic and seemed to make friends quickly. She added, "We don't know if the exam will resume today. We may have to come back tomorrow."

"By the way, do you know why the exam was postponed?" The girl moved closer, lowered her voice, and blinked at Feng Wu.

"Why?" Feng Wu asked curiously.

"I heard that it was because Mr Lu was assassinated," the girl whispered.

The boy shook his head. "How does that have anything to do with our exam?"

"Who knows. No one has told us anything, anyway, nor do we know when the exam will start." The girl frowned, then her eyes lit up. "Hey, what are your names? I'm Ye Qing. Nice to meet you."

"I'm Zhao Shu," said the boy quietly.

"Feng Wu," said Feng Wu.

It had been five years since Feng Wu enjoyed her fame, so that name didn't raise an alarm.

Ye Qing grinned. "Feng Wu? Where have I heard that name before? Right, there was this golden girl who had that name as well. Guess what? I used to live in her shadow when I was little."

"Did you?" Feng Wu rubbed her nose.

Zhao Shu and Ye Qing both had something to say on the matter.

Zhao Shu sighed. "That's right. Back then, Feng Wu meant so much. All the boys used to stand in His Royal Highness's shadow and all the girls in Feng Wu's."

Ye Qing nodded. "I really liked Feng Wu and I can't stop wondering what happened to her. Come to think of it, those people out there are so awful. Feng Wu has to be the one who suffered the most from losing her ability — she was the victim, for God's sake. But the only thing those people did was add insult to injury and scoff at her. Shame on them."

Zhao Shu said, "But didn't they say that Feng Wu crippled herself because she got greedy in her cultivation?"

Ye Qing snorted. "And you believe that? Plus, so what if she lost her ability because she tried to move past her limits? Everyone wants to become better and stronger. Since when was that a crime?"

Zhao Shu rubbed his nose. "I didn't say she did anything wrong..."

Since the exam hadn't started, Feng Wu found a corner to take off her pajamas and change into a simple pale blue outfit instead.

She wandered around, looking for Chaoge, but the latter was nowhere to be seen.

She was sure that Chaoge had to be looking for her as well.

At that moment, outside the gate of Imperial College —

Mr Lu's stately figure showed up in front of everyone.

"Mr Lu! It's Mr Lu!"

Everyone began to shout and cry when they saw Mr Lu.

"Mr Lu, why is the exam postponed?!"

"Mr Lu, when will the exam begin?"

"Mr Lu..."

The crowd kept pushing forward and the slim Feng Wu ended up at the front.

Chapter 585 The Exam Starts Now

Someone bumped into Feng Wu and almost pushed her out of the line.

Mr Lu noticed Feng Wu when he turned to look that way.

He heaved a sigh of relief when he recognized her.

And the look he gave her was full of grievance.

Before, he actually had no idea when to start the exam, but as soon as he spotted Feng Wu, Mr Lu knew that he could make the announcement now.

He gave Feng Wu another aggrieved and accusing look, which gave Feng Wu the creeps.

What was that about?

Mr Lu waved his hand. "We can proceed with the exam now. Line up for inspection. The exam starts in an hour."

He turned to leave after another wave of his hand.

What a day... Now, he had to go to court to explain everything to His Majesty. Delaying the national exam was too big a deal even for the head of Imperial College to do without a good reason.

At that thought, Mr Lu gave Feng Wu an aggrieved look for the third time today.

Feng Wu didn't say anything.

That felt so weird.

“Duan Chaoge, why are you here?!”

There came a shrill voice.

Feng Wu was looking for Chaoge herself. Hearing that voice, she immediately rushed in that direction.

In the center of the crowd.

Holding two sets of stationery in her hands, Chaoge was glaring at someone opposite her.

And they were people Feng Wu had met recently: Chaoge’s two elder half-sisters Duan Chaoyin and Duan Chaoyue.

Seven days ago, Duan Chaoge was taken and Duan Chaoyin and Duan Chaoyue got beaten up.

That day, the two sisters stopped their father from looking for Chaoge.

That was to say, the Duan family abandoned Duan Chaoge.

The two sisters were certain that Duan Chaoge would die a miserable death after being snatched. Little did they expect her to show up here.

“Wh- Why are you here? Shouldn’t you be dead by now?!” Duan Chaoyin frowned and stared at Chaoge contemptuously.

Chaoge smirked. “You really want me dead, don’t you? Well, you’re not getting what you want! You’ll have to die first!”

“How dare you talk to your big sister like that?!”

“My big sister wants me dead! I’ve got even worse things to say!” Chaoge snorted.

Duan Chaoyin was furious!

What had happened to Chaoge? She used to be such a dumb girl and never talked back. All she did was try to fight back physically, but she wasn’t their match and would always end up miserable. But now —

“Chaoge —”

Just then, Feng Wu arrived at Chaoge’s side.

Hearing that voice, Chaoge turned around and spotted Feng Wu. She was over the moon!

“Xiao Wu! Xiao Wu!!!” Chaoge jumped at Feng Wu and flung her arms around the latter. “Xiao Wu, you’re finally back. Sob — I woke up this morning to find the window open, but you were nowhere to be seen. I was so worried!”

“Are you here alone?”

“No, everyone is here and they’re out looking for you. Uncle Qiu said that I would be late for the exam if we waited for you at home, so we all came here to look for you. You’re really here, sob —”

Chaoge was so glib and quick to react when Duan Chaoyin and Duan Chaoyue gave her attitude, but she was almost in tears when she finally saw Feng Wu. Her biggest fear was finally gone.

“Silly girl.” Feng Wu rubbed her head.

Just then, they heard a contemptuous voice.

“Xiao Wu? As in Feng Wu?” Duan Chaoyin snickered. She then scrutinized Feng Wu with a smirk on her face.

Chapter 586 Kneel And Apologize

Feng Wu had no intention of talking to them. Taking Chaoge’s hand, she was going to leave, but —

“So, you’re Feng Wu —”

Duan Chaoyin said loudly. Going up to Feng Wu and walking around her, Duan Chaoyin smacked her lips. “You really are as pretty as they say. Good job.”

Feng Wu considered the two sisters a joke and she was going to lead Chaoge out of the crowd.

It would be a waste of her life to talk to them.

“Feng Wu, do you know that Duan Chaoge was poisoned?”

“Do you know that her cultivation level dropped?”

“Do you know she was kidnapped?”

“Do you know that her engagement was canceled?”

“Do you know...”

The noise over here soon attracted some attention.

Feng Wu frowned. Duan Chaoyin wanted to humiliate Chaoge in front of everyone.

“Smack!”

There came the sound of a hard slap!

It was quick and accurate and Duan Chaoyin spun around at the impact!

She was dumbfounded!

She was slapped? By a cripple?!

“Feng Wu! You’re dead!” Duan Chaoyin wanted to jump at Feng Wu and tear her to pieces, but —

“Feng Wu? What are you doing here?” A voice came from behind them.

Turning around, Feng Wu saw the face of her all-time enemy. Lady Wang was here.

Lady Wang had accompanied Feng Liu here for the exam today. She was drawn over by the hubbub of voices, but she spotted Feng Wu among the crowd.

She frowned and gave Feng Wu a dangerous look.

The Duan family recognized Lady Wang. Duan Chaoyin's mother was actually quite familiar with Lady Wang, for they would often meet at social events.

Mrs Duan pointed at Feng Wu in fury and said to Lady Wang, "Is she that Feng Wu from your family? What kind of upbringing did she have? How could she hit another person in public?! Is that how the Fang clan teaches their children? Give me an explanation or I'll never let this drop!"

The exam was about to start and many people were here. The place was packed.

Around them, all eyes were on Feng Wu now.

Lady Wang's face darkened. She glared at Feng Wu and took a deep breath. "Why are you here?! This isn't the right place for you!"

Feng Liu's eyes went bloodshot red when she saw Feng Wu.

The look in her eyes was as cold as ice. "Feng Wu, I feel so ashamed to share the same surname with you!"

Immediately, many scoffed at Feng Wu.

A girl next to Feng Liu tugged at her sleeve and whispered, "Feng Liu, isn't she here to see you off?"

Feng Liu smirked. "See me off? You think too highly of my sister here. She hates me so much. Why would she do that?"

"What's she doing here, then?"

"How should I know? To admire us for being able to apply for Imperial College, probably. After all, she's a cripple with no spiritual essence at all." Feng Liu shrugged.

The onlookers all smirked at Feng Wu.

The look on Lady Wang's face turned grimmer and she bellowed at Feng Wu, "You shouldn't be here! You're not qualified for the exam and you'll only bring shame to the family! Get lost! Now!"

Mrs Duan snorted. "Really? Get lost? Did my Chaoyin just get hit for nothing?"

"Mrs Duan, how do you want this to be handled, then?" Lady Wang took a deep breath. She felt so humiliated in front of so many people and she wanted this to go away ASAP.

Chapter 587 Hahahaha —

"She must kneel and apologize!" Mrs Duan was anything but forgiving and she demanded that Feng Wu get down on her knees.

Chaoge smirked. "Forget about the apology already. And kneel? Who the hell do you think you are?"

"Duan Chaoge!"

Duan Chaoyin and Duan Chaoyue bellowed in unison!

They never knew that Duan Chaoge could be this daring!

“Oh my, what’s going on? Why is everyone here? This looks fun —”

A pretentious, cloying voice came from a short distance away.

And everyone turned to look —

“Isn’t that Princess Mu?”

It was indeed Mu Yaoyao, the daughter of the Mu Mansion.

“Wow, it’s Princess Mu! Grand Secretary Fang’s granddaughter!”

“Grand Secretary Fang is one of the seven members of the education board. Although he didn’t design the questions this time, he’s done so a few times in the past.”

“So, Princess Mu has an advantage this time, right?”

Many eyed Mu Yaoyao expectantly, as if wanting to pry her head open to have a look inside.

Some even called out, “Princess Mu, do you know what we’re going to be tested on?”

Mu Yaoyao rolled her eyes grumpily.

She didn’t like that question at all!

She had thought that Grand Secretary Fang being her grandfather, she was sure to get in. All she needed was a little hint from the old man!

However, to her utmost surprise, Grand Secretary Fang wasn’t her grandfather at all!

Well, at least he was her granduncle, wasn’t he?

However, the old man wouldn’t tell her anything, let alone the actual exam questions, while the others just assumed that she knew everything.

Mu Yaoyao had come to the exam in a foul mood. When she heard that Feng Wu was getting laughed at here, she came as soon as she could.

“Why, isn’t it Feng Wu, the once genius of the Feng family and a useless piece of shit now? Why do you have to come here on such a joyful day? You’re only bringing humiliation to yourself, you know?”

Mu Yaoyao grinned at Feng Wu and gave the latter a contemptuous look.

Seeing that Mu Yaoyao was rather hostile to Feng Wu, both the Duan and Feng families let out a breath of relief.

Before Feng Wu could say anything, a voice came from the front of the crowd. “All candidates, stand in a line on the left and all family members should make their way to the back. Now!”

The inspection was going to start now.

However, to everyone’s surprise —

Feng Wu and Chaoge went to join the line as well.

Mu Yaoyao grabbed Chaoge right away. “Hey, you two. Get back there. This is where the candidates line up!”

Feng Wu was a cripple and Chaoge a fool. There was no way that they were candidates!

Mu Yaoyao made sure that her voice was loud enough for everyone to hear.

Many looked back and smirked at Feng Wu and Chaoge.

Feng Wu kept her composure and remained unperturbed. Chaoge, on the other hand, couldn’t take it anymore. She yelled, “Why should we?! We’re here to take the exam!”

Mu Yaoyao guffawed.

So did Duan Chaoyin.

And Feng Liu.

And everyone else.

Anyone who had the tiniest amount of cultivation could tell that Feng Wu had no spiritual essence. She was just a commoner. Take the entrance exam of Imperial College? She had to be joking!

Mu Yaoyao pressed her hands to her stomach and laughed until she was in tears. “Oh god. Seriously, Feng Wu, can you be any more ridiculous? You? Imperial College? Hahahaha —”

Chapter 588 How Bold of You to Stay

Feng Liu was also laughing so hard that she was in tears. “Oh god, that has to be the funniest thing I’ve ever heard. Hahahaha — Feng Wu is going to Imperial College? Hahahaha —”

Duan Chaoyue and Duan Chaoyin were also cracking up. “There’s no way that Chaoge is qualified to take the exam! Do you know how much her cultivation level dropped by? She’s only a Level 6 now!”

The prerequisite for the entrance exam was Level 9!

“Why are these people so annoying?!”

Zhao Shu and Ye Qing, who were slightly further ahead, turned around at the noise. They then saw those people laughing at Feng Wu.

Ye Qing sighed. “I didn’t know that she was that Feng Wu. After five years, she’s... But even if that’s the case, they shouldn’t laugh at her like that.”

The queue was moving forward at a quick pace.

One would show their exam permit for inspection. Once it was verified and the candidate was cleared of any cheating materials, they were given permission to go in.

Feng Wu and Chaoge were in the same line and the inspector worked efficiently. In less than 15 minutes, it was their turn.

By then, Mu Yaoyao had almost given herself cramps from all the laughing.

“Hahaha, Feng Wu, how bold of you, staying in that line just to save face.”

There were two lines in total.

Mu Yaoyao had deliberately stayed by Feng Wu’s side and kept taunting the latter as they moved forward.

However, Feng Wu didn’t even look at her during the process.

It was as if Mu Yaoyao didn’t exist.

But Mu Yaoyao wouldn’t let it drop.

Feng Wu had endured everything so that she could get back at them when the time was right.

At the same time.

Lovebird Valley.

Once Feng had taken care of everything as the crown prince commanded, he went back to his young master.

“Your Royal Highness, it’s been taken care of. Miss Wu has arrived at Imperial College,” reported Feng.

“I see,” Jun Linyuan said in an indifferent tone. Putting his hands behind his back, he looked at the view in the valley.

“Your Royal Highness,” said Feng casually, “They were laughing at Miss Wu.”

“What?” Jun Linyuan frowned and turned his piercing gaze on Feng.

“They were laughing at Miss Wu for showing up at the exam without any cultivation ability... Your Royal Highness, will they bully Miss Wu?”

Jun Linyuan’s back stiffened.

“I hope they won’t give Miss Wu a hard time for the exam permit. Your Royal Highness, Your Royal Highness —”

Feng watched as his young master charged down the slope!

He ran so fast!

Thump! He smashed into a tree and the tree was in pieces.

With a wave of his hand, Jun Linyuan leveled a small hill flat.

When Feng saw him again, Jun Linyuan was at the foot of the mountain.

Feng went after his master in a hurry.

Before long, Jun Linyuan arrived at Imperial College.

It had taken him about an hour to take Feng Wu out there on his shoulder, but he used less than ten minutes to get back to town...

He was this fast when he was furious!

As it turned out... he had taken a detour when he took Feng Wu out last night.

But Feng Wu didn't know that. It was her turn to be inspected at the moment.

The inspector was a female teacher whom Feng Wu hadn't met before.

Feng Wu handed her the red booklet, then went to stand on a low stone platform, where she would be searched.

"What —"

The inspector narrowed her eyes in a dangerous manner when she saw Feng Wu's exam permit.

"You —"

Staring at Feng Wu, the teacher raised the exam permit. "Come here."

Feng Wu was bewildered. "Why?"

Chapter 589 Banned From Imperial College for Life?

"Why?" The teacher smirked. "Do you not know why I told you to step down from there?!"

"I don't." Feng Wu looked innocently confused.

By then, they had attracted everyone's attention.

"You don't know? You forged an exam permit! Stop telling me you don't know in that innocent voice!"

The teacher's face was livid!

Immediately, everyone behind Feng Wu cried out in surprise!

"Forge an exam permit?"

"No kidding? Is that even doable?"

"That's so bold of her! Forging an exam permit?"

Looking at Feng Wu, Mu Yaoyao laughed until she was in tears. "Hahaha, hahaha, hahahaha — Feng Wu, that's why you dared to join the line. You forged an exam permit, hahahaha —"

Instantly, all eyes were on the red booklet in the teacher's hand.

The teacher cast a stern look at Feng Wu, then turned to Chaoge. "Your exam permit, please."

Chaoge handed the teacher her exam permit.

Another red booklet.

The teacher was furious!

“You two are in it together, aren’t you? How dare you!” The teacher thought that her head was going to explode with fury!

“Hahahaha —”

Both Duan Chaoyue and Duan Chaoyin guffawed.

They knew it! There was no way that Duan Chaoge would qualify to take the exam. That girl was a fool!

“That’s it! The two of them forged their exam permits together!”

“That’s why they’ve been sticking with each other! They’re in this silly scam together!”

“What were they thinking? If they had to forge one, why didn’t they make it green? How can they be so stupid?”

...

Mrs Duan gave Lady Wang a taunting look. “I see that’s how the Feng clan teaches their daughters. That’s an eye-opener.”

Lady Wang was infuriated!

That Feng Wu was bringing shame down on the entire clan!

“Where are their parents? Quickly, take these two students away!” The teacher exchanged looks with Mu Yaoyao when no one was looking and raised her voice in an arrogant manner. “They’re banned from applying to Imperial College for life!”

Wow —

Everyone cried out in surprise.

“Isn’t that a bit too much?”

“Banned for life? Their futures will be ruined!”

Future recruits for the political and military circles were almost all graduates of Imperial College.

The teacher smirked. “Too much? It’s all there in the school regulations, rule number 53. I’m only enforcing the regulations.”

She then added, “Let me have a look at the names. Feng Wu of the Feng clan and Duan Chaoge of the Duan family, is it? Where are the people of the Feng and Duan families? Take them back now! Stop humiliating yourselves here!”

The teacher was puffed up with arrogance.

For Mu Yaoyao had promised the teacher, who was called Jin Li, a huge sum of money in return, if Jin Li could embarrass Feng Wu in front of everyone.

Lady Wang and Mrs Duan exchanged looks, and both saw humiliation in each other’s eyes.

“Why, Mrs Feng, is it? Feng Wu is a daughter of your family, isn’t she? Take her back now and teach her well. Virtue, not cultivation, should be the most important quality for a person.”

Chapter 590 Oh God... What’s Happening?

Lady Wang was seriously considering killing Feng Wu there and then.

“Oh my, isn’t it Mrs Duan? Duan Chaoge is your daughter, right?”

“She’s the daughter of my husband’s concubine...” Mrs Duan could barely keep her smile on.

“That still makes her your daughter. Mrs Duan, you shouldn’t focus on your own daughter and ignore your stepdaughter. Otherwise, you’ll be criticized for favoritism.”

Mrs Duan was speechless. She made a mental note that she would teach Duan Chaoge a good lesson after they got back — give her a good whipping, to start with!

As fellow sufferers of humiliation, Lady Wang and Mrs Duan couldn’t shirk their responsibilities anymore and had to come forward.

Jin Li watched as the two ladies introduced themselves as Feng Wu’s aunt and Duan Chaoge’s stepmother respectively.

Jin Li snorted. “Take them back home now. They’re only going to bring shame to themselves and your families here.”

“Yes, of course —”

Lady Wang and Mrs Duan gritted their teeth, but had no choice but to smile obsequiously.

Lady Wang went up to Feng Wu, grabbed the latter by her sleeve, and said in a low, intimidating voice, “Feng Wu, are you done making a joke of yourself here? Go back home with me right this instant!”

Feng Wu looked at her in bewilderment and said earnestly, “No, I won’t.”

Lady Wang almost had a heart attack. “How can you be so shameless?! Your scam has failed and these people are all laughing at you! You’re bringing shame down on the entire Feng clan! Go back home! Now!”

She then tried to drag Feng Wu away.

But —

She couldn’t make Feng Wu move an inch.

Feng Wu looked at her innocently. “What scam? My permit is genuine.”

Chaoge was also yelling at the top of her lungs. “My permit is real! Like, it can’t be any more real than this! Why are you saying that we forged them? Are you blind or something?!”

Many onlookers watched with open mouths —

Mu Yaoyao herself was cracking up. “Hahahaha — I’ve never met someone as shameless as you two! Your scam has already failed and you’re still sticking to your lie. That’s just, hahahahah —”

At Mu Yaoyao's words, many followed suit and began to laugh as well.

Jin Lin's face was livid. "I've received the instruction from Mr Lu that the exam will start in fifteen minutes. Feng Wu, Duan Chao, are you not going to leave willingly? Fine. I hereby condemn these two people for disturbing order on the day of the exam. Take them down and lock them up in the dungeon! We'll deal with them later!"

Imperial College came with its own jail.

Four stalwart men appeared from behind Jin Li, and all with bulging muscles, which was a clear sign of their considerable physical strength!

Feng Wu narrowed her eyes and her lips curled into a dangerous smile.

This teacher had been pushing her limits for so long that she left Feng Wu with no choice but to teach her a lesson.

However, before Feng Wu could do anything —

Boom!

A gust of wind blew across the square!

Clouds of sand rose up and pebbles skittered across the ground.

The air became so dusty that people had a hard time keeping their eyes open.

There was a frightening energy around them!

Oh god... What was happening?

As a matter of fact, Jun Linyuan had arrived —

He had run as fast as he could like a streak of lightning!

However, he slowed down once he reached the front gate of Imperial College. Clearing his throat, he put his hands behind his back and strolled into the courtyard.

Feng walked behind him.

Because all eyes were on Feng Wu at the moment and everyone was ready to see her bring shame upon herself —
