

G E D 591

Chapter 591 Is Feng Wu Doomed?

Seeing this, the crown prince's face turned livid and a frighteningly cold air began to come off him.

Once he was angry, sand and pebbles were blown into the air, an intimidating energy filled the courtyard, and everyone was overwhelmed by a sense of foreboding!

No one knew who turned their heads first.

"Shit!"

"Oh my god!"

"It's His Royal Highness! The crown prince! He's here!"

Some of the people here had seen Jun Linyuan's face before, but for most of them, this was the first time they had ever met the crown prince in person.

Turning around, they saw a stunning teenager with cold, brooding eyes, and the air he gave off only showed how unapproachable he was.

The teenager was anything but attainable. Even his most casual glance was a demonstration of what an invincible ruler he would be one day!

"Your Royal Highness —"

Everyone began to drop to their knees!

It wasn't just because he was the honorable crown prince, but because he was unparalleled in his capability!

They wholeheartedly worshiped him for his martial prowess.

Thump!

Thump!

Thump!

As Jun Linyuan walked in, everyone went down on their knees and prostrated on the granite pavement.

Even the lofty teachers of Imperial College bowed to him.

Jin Li, who had been humiliating Feng Wu with all her might, knelt down as well.

Not only was she in charge of the inspection, she was also the form teacher of the first-year students.

Lady Wang knelt down.

So did Feng Liu.

And Mu Yaoyao.

And everyone else but Feng Wu!

Chaoge was also intimidated by Jun Linyuan's authoritative air, but Feng Wu was standing there with her chin raised... Chaoge had no choice but to stand next to Feng Wu, though her legs trembled.

Jun Linyuan headed directly for Feng Wu and his cold gaze locked on her!

Although Mu Yaoyao was on her knees, she was over the moon.

Feng Wu, aren't you in love with His Royal Highness?

Well, this is the most humiliating moment of your life and His Royal Highness is here to witness everything. I bet you want to kill yourself now.

With her head lowered, Mu Yaoyao gloated to herself.

Many people were frowning at Feng Wu.

She wasn't kneeling.

Who did she think she was?!

"Little Feng Wu, you're in trouble again!" Jun Linyuan sounded rather impatient and he was frowning.

Feng Wu was vexed.

She found it rather strange herself. After everything Mu Yaoyao and the others said, she hadn't felt a thing. However, that single sentence from Jun Linyuan could make her lose her temper.

Feng Wu snorted, turned her head the other way, and ignored Jun Linyuan.

"Oh god —"

Many were stealing glances in her direction, and were speechless to see how arrogant she was!

Please!

You're in the presence of His Royal Highness! As in Jun Linyuan, the crown prince! He's one of the most respected men of the empire, the most promising teenager, and the best of his generation!

You're nothing but someone without spiritual essence, a forger, and a morally compromised girl! How dare you ignore His Royal Highness! You're so dead!

Jun Linyuan snickered. "Why, you're taking it out on me now?"

Everyone felt chills down their spines at those words.

Oh god...

Feng Wu was really doomed this time...

Many broke into a cold sweat, but they couldn't help but admire her. She actually had the guts to lose her temper at His Royal Highness... Although she would probably die the next moment, but that was still very brave of her!

However, Feng Wu only turned around, stared at Jun Linyuan with her beautiful eyes, and smirked.

Chapter 592 What's Happening to This World?

Putting her hands behind her back and sticking out her chest, Feng Wu darted a look at Jun Linyuan. "You know, you're not the only one who has a temper, Your Royal Highness. Other people have emotions, too. You're not that unique!"

Everyone on their knees was astonished at Feng Wu's words!

Feng Wu was so...

Did she have a death wish?

Did she have any idea who she was talking to?

Wait, she had addressed him as "Your Royal Highness," so she must know that he was Jun Linyuan...

But she still said what she had, knowing that she was talking to His Royal Highness... Had she given up hope altogether because she knew she was doomed?

Jun Linyuan looked down at Feng Wu. The girl had gotten bolder. With her chin raised, she reminded him of a little peacock, which was... so adorable.

Despite how he felt inside, Jun Linyuan kept his face grim and smirked at the teachers of Imperial College. "What's going on?"

He... still hadn't throttled Feng Wu? Well, it would happen soon enough. Kneeling on the ground, Jin Li was gloating inwardly, but she kept a straight face. "Your Royal Highness, this girl is called Feng Wu and she's a cripple with no spiritual essence. However, she forged an exam permit and tried to sneak into the exam room. I caught her in action!

"Forging the exam permit for Imperial College is a heinous crime! She has to be punished as a warning to others!" Jin Li smiled maliciously.

"What do you think the proper punishment is, then?" Jun Linyuan shifted his brooding gaze to Jin Li.

His Royal Highness... was speaking to her...

Jin Li was so excited that even her voice trembled.

She suddenly recalled something.

His Royal Highness had been engaged to Feng Wu once. Although the engagement was called off, their names had still been mentioned together. Thus, His Royal Highness must hate Feng Wu so much for putting Jin Li in such a predicament.

At that thought, Jin Li glanced at Mu Yaoyao, who nodded back at her.

That gave Jin Li the support she needed. She said loudly, "I think... a death penalty is the most appropriate!"

That shocked everyone!

Death penalty?!

Wasn't that a bit too much?

Lady Wang and the others were thrilled at that statement!

The death penalty! Hahaha! Was Feng Wu really going to be killed to set an example? If Feng Wu was dead... Lady Wang had never felt so satisfied! That would be wonderful!

Standing next to Jun Linyuan, Feng was speechless when he looked at the crowd, as if they were the biggest idiots in the world.

Death penalty? You people must have lost your minds.

Just then —

“Wait —”

Mr Lu, who had just gotten wind of the news, hurried into the courtyard. After taking in the situation, he was utterly befuddled.

He stared at Jin Li. “What did you just say?!”

Seeing Mr Lu, Jin Li said in a hurry, “Feng Wu should receive the death penalty for her crime!”

Mr Lu didn't know what to say.

Before he could ask, Jin Li began to tell him what happened.

Mr Lu was even more bemused!

“You're saying that... Little Feng Wu's exam permit is fake?!” Mr Lu cried out in surprise and looked at the young teacher strangely.

“Yes, sir!” Jin Li had no idea what a fool she was making of herself and she actually handed Feng Wu's and Chaoge's exam permits to Mr Lu.

She even mumbled, “That's a terrible replica, anyway. You can tell that it's fake at first glance.”

Mr Lu didn't know what to say.

Chapter 593 How Terrifying!!!

As if she hadn't said enough, Jin Li went on telling Feng Wu off. “Sir, this Feng Wu girl is so arrogant. She was very disrespectful toward His Royal Highness!”

Mr Lu didn't know what to say.

He looked at Feng Wu and His Royal Highness in turn.

The principal of Imperial College was anything but dumb. Mr Lu had long seen through everything!

He began to suspect it when His Royal Highness picked on Feng Wu, but Feng Wu was able to turn things around after a single visit to the crown prince's residence.

Then, this morning, this national exam had been postponed for Feng Wu!

When he asked what happened and when the exam could begin —

What did Feng tell him?

“Don’t ask. As for when to start, well, it’ll start when Miss Wu gets here.”

Miss Wu... as in Miss Feng Wu here, right? Mr Lu had to go to court and report to His Majesty just then.

He was only gone for a minute and little Feng Wu had been put through all this?

Mr Lu stole a glance at Jun Linyuan.

The crown prince, who never let his face betray anything, looked darker than a stormy day at the moment.

The more Jin Li said, the grimmer the look on His Royal Highness’s face...

Mr Lu didn’t need to ask another question.

He cut her off. “You fool!”

Jin Li was cracking up inwardly. “Hahahaha! Mr Lu just called Feng Wu a fool! Feng Wu is so dead!”

However, Jin Li was still gloating when Mr Lu waved his hand. “Take her down!”

Mr Lu was pointing at Jin Li, instead of Feng Wu or Chaoge.

Jin Li was dumbfounded. “What?! Mr Lu... Mr Lu...”

Imperial College had its own impressive guards!

Two guards showed up at the command and charged at Jin Li.

Jin Li looked shocked. “Why are you after me? Why me? Take Feng Wu down! She’s right there!”

At the same time...

Many looked at Mr Lu in astonishment.

That was right. Shouldn’t they be after Feng Wu? This had to be a mistake.

“Mr Lu! Why me?! Why —” Jin Li struggled violently.

Mr Lu stole another glance at Jun Linyuan and saw that the latter had cheered up a little... So, the female teacher had really pissed His Royal Highness off.

Mr Lu smirked. “Who told you that her exam permit was fake?”

WHAT?!

WHAT?!

WHAT?!

That statement shocked everyone!

“Did Mr Lu say that her exam permit isn’t fake?”

“Does that mean that Feng Wu’s exam permit is genuine?”

“But hers is red and ours are green.”

—

Meanwhile, Jin Li was even more confused!

Feng Wu’s exam permit was a real one?! No! It couldn’t be!

Jin Li stared at Mu Yaoyao in disbelief!

It was Mu Yaoyao who had given her the instruction to humiliate Feng Wu in front of everyone... Oh god, that exam permit was real? That meant, everything she had said and done was...

Chapter 594 Things Never Went As Planned

At that thought, Jin Li almost fainted...

She wasn’t the only one shocked.

Feng Liu, Lady Wang, Mrs Duan, Duan Chaoyue, Duan Chaoyin... and many others were all watching what was happening in disbelief.

That exam permit was legit?

Feng Wu really had an exam permit?!

“No, it can’t be! How can she have one?! She has no spiritual essence at all! She’s just a crip-”

An idea came to Jin Li all of a sudden!

She remembered the exemption rule of Imperial College!

“She got recommendations from three members of the education board?!”

That reminded everyone else.

That was right. If that exam permit was authentic, that was the only possibility!

“But... but it can’t be! Feng Wu is useless! How could she have persuaded three elders?! I don’t believe it!”

“Oh god, it just occurred to me. That exemption indeed comes with a red exam permit!”

“No way! Is Feng Wu that well-connected?”

“Maybe the bosses still see some hope in her and think that she can get her abilities back with a little push?”

“You know what? So what if Feng Wu has a real exam permit? Does she have spiritual essence?”

“You’re so right —”

Seeing that His Royal Highness was losing his patience, Mr Lu waved at the teachers. “What are you waiting for? Go back to your inspection.”

“Yes, of course —”

The inspection went on smoothly.

Soon, Feng Wu and Chaoge entered the exam hall.

Chaoge was displeased and kept grumbling. “How stupid can those people be? Would anyone trying to forge an exam permit make it red?”

Feng Wu chuckled. “What are you mumbling about there?”

Chaoge frowned. “I’m just pissed. Did we get insulted for nothing?”

Feng Wu smiled. “It won’t be for nothing.”

“Huh?” Chaoge looked at Feng Wu in bewilderment. “Xiao Wu, are you going to beat them up?”

“Let’s start with some face-slapping.”

“But how?”

“You’ll see.” Feng Wu found her seat according to the number on her exam permit.

The exam hall was actually an open space.

A hundred candidates were arranged in a ten-by-ten square.

Feng Wu sat in the first row of the fifth column.

And an invigilator sat right in front of her...

Feng Wu’s stomach sank!

Luckily, as the other exemption, Chaoge sat right next to her.

Chaoge’s seat was on Feng Wu’s right.

That was to say, Chaoge was the first in the sixth column.

Chaoge didn’t know whether to laugh or cry at the seating arrangement.

To their frustration, sitting in the first row, they were right under the invigilators’ noses.

The bright side was that they weren’t too far apart. At least they were still in the same exam hall.

Just then, Chaoge tugged at Feng Wu’s sleeve. “Xiao Wu... I...”

Feng Wu looked back at Chaoge, knowing perfectly well that Chaoge’s answers would be... hopeless.

Grand Secretary Fang suffered from the threat of a stroke every time he corrected Chaoge's exam paper. It always took him a long time to calm down, and in the end, he just let Chaoge go out and play on her own.

Just then —

Other candidates began to enter the hall.

Each hall contained 100 candidates, but somehow, almost everyone Feng Wu knew was in this one.

Especially Duan Chaoyin, who sat right behind Feng Wu.

And Duan Chaoyue right behind Chaoge.

And...

Chapter 595 Xiao Wu Is More Amazing Than You Can Imagine!

Duan Chaoyue and Duan Chaoyin weren't the only acquaintances here.

Feng Wu recognized Ye Yafei's minions as well, for she had met them at World Tower before.

They were Huo Yin, Wen Ling, Liu Hao, and Mu Qing.

Mu Yaoyao was here, too. She sat on Feng Wu's left, the first seat in the fourth column.

Behind her was Yao Hao and Yao Ying, the siblings Feng Wu had met at Grand Secretary Fang's place.

What was more —

Ning Chenxi was also here.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Apparently, apart from Yu Mingye, everyone was here.

Chaoge looked at Feng Wu and wanted to say something, but couldn't.

Feng Wu had told her before that she would find a way to let Chaoge copy her answers. But with all these people here, they would be closely watched on all sides. What should they do now?

"Heh, Duan Chaoge, there you are." Duan Chaoyin gave Duan Chaoge a contemptuous look.

As her sister, Duan Chaoyin knew Duan Chaoge's abilities too well.

Most of the candidates here had had a normal education since they were little, making their way through the junior and intermediate schools before moving on to the senior one, which was Imperial College here.

However, Feng Wu and Chaoge were the only exceptions, for they had never graduated from the junior school, nor had they attended the intermediate one.

Chaoge would have exploded at Duan Chaoyin's provocation on any other day, but now, she only buried her head in her hands and rested her elbows on the desk with a long face.

What was she supposed to do with this exam?

Xiao Wu would get admitted to Imperial College and she would be turned down... And the distance between herself and Xiao Wu would only grow further and further...

Oh god...

In terms of her cultivation level, she was qualified to apply, but she was so lopsided in her theoretical knowledge. Books were like lullabies to her.

Seeing that Chaoge wouldn't reply, Duan Chaoyin smirked. "Duan Chaoge, I'd leave this instant if I were you."

Chaoge still wouldn't reply.

Duan Chaoyin snorted. "After all, it would be so humiliating to hand in a blank answer sheet."

Chaoge sighed inwardly. That was spot on.

Mu Yaoyao looked at Feng Wu and saw the latter sitting there with her eyes closed to adjust her breathing. She tried to provoke Feng Wu. "What a poser!"

Feng Wu ignored her.

Resting her head on her left hand, Mu Yaoyao played with her pen in her right hand and casually said, "Feng Wu, I'm warning you. Keep your eyes on your own paper and don't try to copy mine. I'll report you."

Those around Mu Yaoyao guffawed.

Duan Chaoyin followed suit. "Duan Chaoge, I'm warning you. Keep your eyes on your own paper and don't try to copy mine. I'll report you."

"Hahahaha —"

Everyone cracked up.

They seemed to have forgotten that Feng Wu and Chaoge were here as exemptions.

How could anyone with that exam permit be ignorant?

However, they simply looked past that, as if trying to fool themselves.

Chaoge was furious at the provocation. She smacked the desk and jumped to her feet!

"Mu Yaoyao, you idiot! You know nothing! Xiao Wu got 290 in the test Grand Secretary Fang gave her yesterday!"

Everyone was silent at Duan Chaoge's bellow.

All eyes were on Duan Chaoge.

Three seconds later —

"Hahahaha —"

Mu Yaoyao was the first to burst out laughing. She laughed so hard that she was in tears!

That seemed to flick a switch and everyone around her began to scream with laughter.

“Hahahaha —”

“Hahahaha —”

Chapter 596 A Pretty Girl Like Her

“290 points? Hahaha, hahahahaha —”

Mu Yaoyao laughed until her belly ached. She leaned back in her chair, guffawed, and almost gave herself the cramps.

So did the rest of the candidates.

“290? Hahahaha — Duan Chaoge, are you an idiot or are you an idiot?”

Duan Chaoyin also leaned over her desk and her voice trembled with laughter. “290? Hahaha — do you have any idea how hard Imperial College’s exam is? And do you even know what the questions are? 290? The top student only got 250 last year!”

“Hahaha —” Mu Yaoyao was still laughing so hard that she couldn’t talk normally. She was only able to calm down after quite some time. “And you know what’s really funny? Grand Secretary Fang... Hahahaha —”

“Feng Wu, you do know that Grand Secretary Fang is my grandfather, right? His time is so precious that he didn’t even have time to teach me. And you say he taught you, gave you tests, and corrected your papers? You’ve got to be kidding me! That’s the funniest joke I’ve ever heard!”

“Hahahaha! Look, Feng Wu chose the wrong person to talk herself up with. This is Princess Mu and that’s Princess Mu’s grandfather! Would he teach Feng Wu instead of Princess Mu?” Duan Chaoyin was trying her best to flatter Mu Yaoyao and she would agree to anything the latter said.

Mu Yaoyao said arrogantly, “Of course not! My grandpa only lent her a few books. How dare she go around telling everyone that my grandpa prefers her to me and looks after her! She’s shameless!”

Smack!

Duan Chaoge smacked her desk!

“Of course Grand Secretary Fang prefers Xiao Wu! He gave us past exam papers every day! He corrected our papers and explained everything to us! He said Xiao Wu is so clever that no one’s her match!”

“Really? How so?” Duan Chaoyin smirked.

“Xiao Wu memorized 1000 must-reads and read 10,000 extracurricular books in seven days! Hmph! You know nothing about how brilliant she is!” Chaoge stuck out her chest and felt proud for her friend.

“Hahahaha —”

However, Mu Yaoyao and Duan Chaoyin only guffawed again.

“Memorized 1000 books in seven days?”

“And read 10,000 books, too?”

“Who does she think she is? An immortal? No one can read so many books in such a short time!”

“Each lie of hers is more ridiculous than the last.”

“And do you know what’s most awful about Feng Wu?”

“What?”

Mu Yaoyao raised her voice. “She’s been sitting there all this time with her eyes closed while Duan Chaoge, her little minion, does all the talking. She can always clear her name later, saying that she didn’t say anything and that Chaoge made everything up. ‘Chaoge? Well, don’t mind her. She’s not right in the head.’”

Wow!

At those words, all the other candidates in the exam hall stared at Feng Wu in disbelief!

For a pretty girl, she really was a schemer!

“No wonder they say that the most beautiful girls are the most canny ones...”

“Poor Duan Chaoge. Doesn’t she have any idea how Feng Wu is using her?”

Everyone was talking at the same time and no one tried to keep their voices down.

Sitting on Feng Wu’s left, Mu Yaoyao stared at Feng Wu with a smirk on her face.

Feng Wu, not only will I ruin your reputation and make everyone despise you, I’ll also drive a wedge between you and Duan Chaoge, and make her betray you as well! I’m sure what I said will make Duan Chaoge think twice.

Chapter 597 There’s Only One Explanation!

But what really happened was —

Mu Yaoyao didn’t know Duan Chaoge at all.

Chaoge might be impulsive and hotheaded, but there was one thing that she would always believe — she was on Feng Wu’s side no matter what!

“Mu Yaoyao!” Chaoge smacked her desk and jumped to her feet!

“Quiet!”

There came a female voice.

And everyone turned in that direction.

The voice belonged to a pretty young woman with blond hair and blue eyes. She was slightly older than the candidates.

Feng Wu had met her before.

It was that teacher who had tried to give Feng Wu a hard time when she went to register for the exam.

If Feng Wu remembered correctly, the teacher was called Qiao Yi.

Qiao Yi came in with a stack of exam papers. She scanned the room with her eyes and fixed her gaze on Feng Wu in the end.

The look she gave Feng Wu was hostile. She then snorted. "The exam is going to start now and you're still bickering?!"

Qiao Yi wasn't the only teacher in the exam hall.

As a matter of fact, Imperial College's entrance exam was probably the strictest exam out there.

Each column was monitored by a separate invigilator.

That was to say, there were ten of them in total in this hall.

Right now, they were all giving out exam papers to the candidates.

Each exam paper contained five pages, which made it ten pages in total along with the answer sheets. Everyone ended up with quite a stack of sheets.

Qiao Yi was in charge of Feng Wu's column and she smirked at Feng Wu when she gave her the paper. In a voice low enough for only Feng Wu to hear, she said, "Let's see how many points you can get!"

Qiao Yi had always been rather hostile toward Feng Wu.

However, Feng Wu had been composed from the very beginning and ignored all the provocation.

Upon receiving her paper, Feng Wu quickly skimmed through the questions. Good, she had covered most of the topics. Feng Wu was much more confident now.

She started with section one.

The first section was to fill in the blanks.

Grand Secretary Fang was as experienced as he claimed; he was right about finding all the answers in those 1000 books.

Feng Wu smiled a little.

Before long, she finished all ten questions without any difficulty.

Feng Wu glanced at Chaoge, who looked back at Feng Wu with a pleading expression in her eyes.

Feng Wu nodded and closed her eyes.

As a matter of fact, Feng Wu was communicating with Feng Tutu, who was in Chaoge's chest pocket at the moment.

This was the cheating method Feng Wu had come up with.

She would tell Feng Tutu the answers, and it would then tell them to Chaoge. All Chaoge needed to do was write everything down.

But...

When Feng Wu tried to talk to Feng Tutu in her head, she got no reply.

Feng Wu: !!!

There was only one explanation.

Feng Tutu was fast asleep.

Feng Wu rolled her eyes. It was normal for a cub to be sleeping all the time, but not now!

Chaoge was a little flustered and began to poke her belly with a finger, trying to wake up the little thing.

But —

Hm —

Feng Tutu turned around in Chaoge's warm pocket and went on sleeping.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Neither did Chaoge.

Both sighed in resignation and Feng Wu had no choice but to move on to the next question.

The second section required writing from memory.

Like the first section, this part was a test of one's memory. As long as one worked hard enough, it was impossible to get this part wrong.

Chapter 598 What? His Royal Highness Is the Invigilator?!

Qiao Yi walked from the first row to the last and saw that everyone was doing a good job. Even Feng Wu seemed to be giving correct answers.

However, she frowned when she spotted Chaoge's paper.

It was completely blank.

Qiao Yi was about to say something when —

Steady footsteps came from outside, and from the sound of it, a lot of people were coming this way.

What an aura!

How intimidating was this power!

Many looked up involuntarily, trying to see what VIP was coming.

However, they almost dropped their pens!

"H- His Royal Highness..."

“N- No way...”

“O. M. G...”

Were they hallucinating? Jun Linyuan was in the same exam hall with them!

Qiao Yi was the head invigilator in this hall and her eyes widened in astonishment when she saw Jun Linyuan. It seemed that she had no idea that the crown prince would be coming either.

Jun Linyuan didn't come alone.

Mr Lu was by his side and Feng was right behind him.

“Your Royal Highness, Sir...” Qiao Yi was a little flustered.

As a pretty young woman, Qiao Yi worshiped and admired Jun Linyuan to a fault, like many other women her age.

And now, the legend was right in front of her...

In his usual arrogant manner, Jun Linyuan stared at Feng Wu with a passive face.

Mr Lu rubbed his forehead. Forget about inspecting the exam halls – the young man was here for the girl!

While the crown prince couldn't look away from Feng Wu, Mr Lu and Feng exchanged knowing looks.

“Mr Lu...”

Qiao Yi, who had been puffed up with arrogance in front of Feng Wu, was at a loss over what to do now. Cheeks flushed, she didn't even know where to put her hands and feet.

Mr Lu asked, “Your Royal Highness, have you tried invigilating an exam before?”

“No,” replied Jun Linyuan in a cold voice.

“If that's the case... Your Royal Highness, would you like to monitor this one?”

Feng sighed with relief. It seemed that he wouldn't be alone in trying to make excuses for the crown prince.

However, the candidates' mouths fell open at the suggestion!

Seriously?

His Royal Highness?

An invigilator?

What was Mr Lu thinking? There was no way His Royal Highness would agree!

But Mu Yaoyao and the others still felt their hearts skip at those words.

How they wished that His Royal Highness would say yes...

Especially Mu Yaoyao, who pleaded with her eyes...

Please stay, please! Your Royal Highness, stay!

But Feng Wu wanted exactly the opposite.

She was going to help Chaoche cheat. Feng Tutu already wasn't acting as planned, and if this unpredictable Jun Linyuan joined in... It would become an impossible mission!

At that thought, Feng Wu looked up at Jun Linyuan and shook her head.

Go away! Please!

Staring at Feng Wu with his cold, brooding eyes, Jun Linyuan smiled a little.

The girl really wanted him to leave, didn't she? Well, she wouldn't get what she wanted.

He nodded. "Alright."

That was a reply to Mr Lu.

Alright?!

Feng Wu almost banged her head on her desk at that answer!

Jun Linyuan! Why did that guy hate her so much?!

He kept raising the difficulty level for her, telling her to get top place and get full marks.

Meanwhile, he kept pulling her leg, stopping her from reading her books and almost making her late for the exam.

Luckily, by some miracle, the exam had been postponed, or her plan would have been completely ruined by Jun Linyuan!

Chapter 599 She Doesn't Know the Answer!

Feng Wu was vexed, but the rest of the candidates were elated!

Especially the girls, who all had butterflies in their stomachs.

His Royal Highness —

He was here —

And they were here in the same room with him. So close...

This was something they could brag about for the rest of their lives!

Even Qiao Yi was over the moon, to say nothing of the students.

She couldn't help but speculate. Why would His Royal Highness agree? For whom?

Mr Lu had no idea that his suggestion had stirred up nearly all the female candidates here.

With a wave of his hand, Mr Lu said, “We won’t need so many invigilators here. Qiao Yi, stay. The rest of you can leave now.”

Hence, the other invigilators left the hall.

Feng brought in an armchair and put it right at the front of the hall.

That was, right opposite Feng Wu.

The two people were less than two meters apart.

Many girls were sick with jealousy!

Why was Feng Wu the lucky one?!

On the other side, Mu Yaoyao was infatuated with the crown prince’s chiseled profile.

He was beautiful.

She felt as if her soul had been stolen away.

Why would His Royal Highness say yes?

Of everyone in this room, Feng Wu was the one His Royal Highness hated the most, so there was no way that he was staying for her. Apart from Feng Wu, Mu Yaoyao deemed herself the prettiest girl with the best manners and from the finest background...

The more she thought about it, the pinker her cheeks became. She thought her heart was going to jump out of her throat.

But —

The crown prince never took his eyes off Feng Wu for one moment!

The look he gave her was sharp, fierce, and stern. It was the look a beast gave its prey — very aggressive.

Feng Wu took a deep breath.

Whatever. She would finish her exam first.

She quickly finished the first two sections.

That cheered her up a little, for she knew all the answers and was confident that she would get full marks for them.

She then moved on to section three.

The multiple choice questions.

The answer was only correct when all correct option(s) and only the correct one(s) were selected.

Moreover, most of the subjects covered in this section were from those 10,000 books.

Feng Wu tended to lose points in this section.

She was very careful and wanted to make sure that she got everything right.

For not only did she have to be first, she had to get full marks.

Question one: done.

Question two: done.

—

The problem was that Feng Wu still had three unread books from those 10,000 and she hoped that she was lucky enough to not run into anything she hadn't read.

Question eight...

Question nine...

Up to the ninth question, Feng Wu was still confident that she had gotten everything right.

Her head went blank when she read the tenth question.

No —

She hadn't read anything on this subject before...

The only possibility was that it was from one of the three unread books.

Feng Wu took a deep breath.

She went through everything she had learned and racked her brain to find an answer. However, to her frustration —

She couldn't find one.

She knew nothing about this subject.

She didn't have an answer.

And that was a fact.

This question —

She wouldn't get any points!

Chapter 600 Heart Racing!

It would be much easier if all Feng Wu wanted was to get the highest mark of all the students, but she needed more than that. She had to get full marks!

Otherwise, her broken star piece —

Feng Wu took a deep breath. When she opened her eyes again, she stared at Jun Linyuan, looking disgruntled.

She wouldn't be so helpless over this question if he hadn't made her sleep!

She was displeased?

Jun Linyuan frowned.

He had postponed Imperial College's entrance exam for her alone. Shouldn't she feel a debt of gratitude for his kind act and wag her tail at him like a puppy now?

Instead, she was giving him attitude.

That upset His Royal Highness right away!

Hmph!

Feng Wu grunted inwardly, feeling as angry as she was aggrieved. She picked a random answer, then moved on to section four.

She made a mental note to come back to this question and give it another go once she finished all the other sections.

Section four was Feng Wu's favorite.

Analyzing techniques and manuals and coming up with innovations – this was practically handing marks to Feng Wu on a plate.

She could already get full marks on questions like these when she was five years old.

Section five was on auxiliary skills.

And Feng Wu was even more confident about this section.

She had more knowledge on auxiliary skills than experienced teachers in Imperial College... more so than the teachers who came up with these questions. No question they designed would be close enough to defeat Feng Wu, and she would get full marks without breaking a sweat!

The entire exam took four hours in total.

But it only took Feng Wu half an hour to finish all the questions.

Once she was done with her own, she proceeded to Chaoge's.

"Feng Tutu! Feng Tutu!"

Feng Wu closed her eyes and called Feng Tutu, who lay in Chaoge's pocket, in her head.

The cub had finally gotten enough sleep and woke up at Feng Wu's call. It rubbed its eyes and yawned.

"I'll speak and you'll write on Chaoge's stomach. Understand?" Feng Tutu talked to Feng Tutu in her head.

"Yeah —" Feng Tutu nodded.

Feng Wu then began to deliver the answers, while Feng Tutu scratched everything on Chaoge's stomach.

Feng Tutu could write?

Well, it couldn't before, but after a crash course from Feng Wu in the past few days, the little thing could write now.

Chaoge was thrilled!

Finally! The answers!

However, Jun Linyuan frowned at that moment.

For as the most able man in the room, he had sensed the slightest fluctuation of spiritual essence.

And it was between a person and an animal, instead of between two people.

That was because —

To prevent candidates from cheating, Imperial College had blocked all telepathic channels between people.

It took Chaoge a few minutes to finish answering the first question in section one.

She was slowed down quite a bit because she had to guess what Feng Tutu was writing.

Jun Linyuan rose to his feet just as Feng Wu was about to send out the answer to the second question.

That made Feng Wu jump a little.

After all, she was cheating.

However, she managed to keep her face calm and her eyes closed, as if she was resting.

With his hands behind his back, Jun Linyuan walked from the first row to the last and back again like any normal invigilator. He ended up stopping next to Feng Wu.

Many girls almost dropped their pens in excitement at Jun Linyuan's reaction.

They were so excited!

So nervous!

And so thrilled!

Knock, knock, knock — Jun Linyuan tapped Feng Wu's desk with his long fingers.

Feng Wu had to open her eyes. She raised her head and shot Jun Linyuan a warning glance!