Chapter 771 The Crucial Moment

“But where are we going to find that Frosty Night Beast? And more importantly, can we beat it?”

Feng Wu was silent.

Just then —

Something howled in the distance!

Feng Wu’s stomach lurched. That sounded ominous.

“What was that?” Feng Wu and Chaoge exchanged looks, and both turned in the direction of the sound.

A snowy white magical beast jumped into sight, then ran toward them at full speed!

“That’s a mean magical beast! What’s going on?” Seeing the intimidating beast with horns sticking out of its head, Chaoge was on edge!

What was more, a candidate was being chased by the beast.

It was a girl so slim that she looked like she could be blown away by the slightest breeze.

The girl was in a wretched state as she staggered forward. She almost tripped more than once, but managed to regain her balance at the last moment.

Seeing Feng Wu, she cried out, “Run! You people, run!”

After that, she changed direction and led the Ice Fire Beast away from them.

Feng Wu had thought the girl would veer their way with the beast, for the crowd here might draw the beast’s attention away. Once the beast was distracted, the girl might be able to escape danger.

However, at the crucial moment of life and death, the thin girl chose to lure the Ice Fire Beast away from them... Feng Wu found that very touching.

Chaoge looked at Feng Wu, who nodded back at her.

“Stop right there!” Chaoge ran after the beast and began to throw lances at it.

Whoosh —

Ice arrows appeared in Chaoge’s hands and she threw them at the beast.

They missed the beast at first, but as Chaoge picked up speed, the arrows began to hit their target.

One arrow, two arrows, three arrows —

As soon as the arrows touched the beast’s back, they bounced off a red shield made of fire.

The Ice Fire Beast remained unscratched.

As a result, Chaoge couldn’t draw the beast’s attention away.

Just then —

Thump!

The thin girl tripped, fell into a pile of snow, and couldn't get back to her feet right away.

The Ice Fire Beast growled.

It sounded pleased.

After the long chase, it was finally going to have a taste of its prey.

“Roarrrr!” The Ice Fire Beast roared and was ready to pounce on the girl. It was going to swallow her whole.

“Stop!”

At that critical moment, Feng Wu finally caught up to the beast!

Little Phoenix uttered a long and loud cry as flames spurted out of its beak!

The fire successfully broke through the Ice Fire Beast's defense system!

What happened next was quicker than words could describe. Chaoge threw out seven ice arrows all at once!

Woosh! Woosh! Woosh!

They were aimed at the beast's forehead, eyes, and heart...

And the arrows hit all their targets.

“Roarrr —”

The Ice Fire Beast bellowed furiously!

That hurt!

These abominable humans!

The Ice Fire Beast had to face the reality: In order to reach the girl, it had to get rid of that sordid bird and that detestable teenage human girl!

Turning around, it charged at Feng Wu!

Feng Wu narrowed her eyes, but she didn't lash out right away, for she wanted to see what other tricks the beast had.

Little Phoenix and Feng Wu broke into a fight with the Ice Fire Beast right away.

The Ice Fire Beast naturally specialized in both ice and fire attributes, whereas Little Phoenix had the ice attribute and Feng Wu fire. It was an equal match!

Fire and ice exploded around them.

The air froze and burned at the same time.

Raging flames and biting frost fell by turns.

Chapter 772 Danger!

The girl that had been chased here by the beast was dazed on the spot. She hadn't expected to be saved.

Once she recovered from her initial shock, she ran toward Feng Wu, shouting, "Run! Run, now! This Ice Fire Beast is too advanced for you to handle!"

Feng Wu glanced at her. "And you are?"

"Zhu – Zhu Yingjun..."

"How did you piss it off?"

"I – I just happened to... steal its egg..." Zhu Yingjun showed Feng Wu a palm-sized egg.

Its shell looked translucent and had a pale blue glow. Dense spiritual essence was coming out of it.

"Why didn't you give it back?" Feng Wu frowned.

"It didn't want it back," said Zhu Yingjun. "There were two of them at first, and I tried to give one back, but it wouldn't even look at it before stomping it to pieces. So I just..."

Zhu Yingjun was still talking when —

Whoosh!

Feng Tutu woke up all of a sudden, opened its mouth, and swallowed the egg whole!

Feng Wu was speechless.

So was Zhu Yingjun.

The Ice Fire Beast turned its head to see that the egg was gone, and the look in its eyes grew savage all of a sudden!

"Roarr —"

Little Phoenix had almost suppressed the beast, but the latter went berserk without warning!

Thump!

Chaoge was thrown into the air!

The Ice Fire Beast then pounced at Little Phoenix!

Its speed was unbelievable!

The beast then opened its giant mouth, which looked as bottomless as a black hole.

And it inhaled, sucking Little Phoenix in its direction.

Little Phoenix, who had been moving nimbly in the air, felt as if it had been sealed in a block of ice. It went as stiff as a stuffed animal and couldn't even move a muscle.

“Roar —”

The Ice Fire Beast grinned hideously.

It sucked Little Phoenix's small body into its mouth!

Feng Wu couldn't just stand there and watch. Moving as fast as she could, she reached the beast the next second.

Gripping the beast's upper and lower jaw with one hand each, she forced its mouth open!

But that Ice Fire Beast was formidable.

And Feng Wu had to use all her strength to stop it from closing its mouth.

Her slender arms shook, threatening to give out.

The Ice Fire Beast's crazed eyes seemed to spit fire.

And the two of them were locked in a stalemate!

Little Phoenix was already in the beast's mouth. Seeing that the jaws had been forced open, it grabbed the chance to fight its way out!

In the end, it was able to crawl out before its strength gave out.

By then, Little Phoenix was soaking wet with sweat and looked as if it had been swimming.

“Roarrrr!”

Seeing the ready meat escape from its mouth, the Ice Fire Beast was beyond furious!

It glared at Feng Wu. Then, a beam of white light shot out from its body.

Shit!

Feng Wu's heart sank. The beast had leveled up!

It had been a Level 5 Spiritual Grandmaster, but had just become a Level 6.

And it was a level Feng Wu hadn't reached yet!

The Ice Fire Beast grinned viciously, eager to taste blood.

This petty human was going to die! The Ice Fire Beast lunged for Feng Wu's fair, slender neck with its sharp teeth!

Feng Wu twisted, dodging the attack.

As Feng Wu fled this way and that, the Ice Fire Beast ran after her in a frenzy.

Chaoge was exhausted and had collapsed on the ground with a severe injury.

Little Phoenix was recovering in Feng Wu's arms.

And that poor girl had been smashed to the ground and had passed out.

Chapter 773 There's Got to Be a Way Out!

Feng Wu wanted to run, but she saw the Ice Fire Beast head for Chaoge.

No!

The beast was way too powerful. One smack and Chaoge would die!

Without hesitation, Feng Wu struck the Ice Fire Beast hard in its back!

The Ice Fire Beast was ready to stomp Chaoge to death when Feng Wu kicked it in the butt. That was outrageous!

"Roarrrr!"

The Ice Fire Beast forgot about Chaoge and Zhu Yingjun right away. Instead, it pounced at Feng Wu.

Once it killed the strongest of the three, it would be able to take care of the other two! The Ice Fire Beast told itself this.

Seeing the beast come her way, Feng Wu turned to run.

Run, run, run!

She had to lure the Ice Fire Beast away, or Chaoge and Zhu Yingjun would be dead for sure.

Moreover, this magical beast belonged to Zone 2. It shouldn't be running wild to kill freely here in Zone 3.

The wind brushed over Feng Wu's skin, flinging snow into her face; it was so cold that her bones hurt.

But she couldn't stop. She had to run!

She had to run as fast as she could!

She had been careless!

If she had joined hands with Chaoge and the bird from the start, the beast wouldn't have gotten the chance to make a breakthrough.

But now —

Her only option was to lure the beast away, then work from there.

Feng Wu led the Ice Fire Beast toward Zone 2.

Keeping its gaze on Feng Wu, the Ice Fire Beast galloped forward at its top speed, driven by its rage.

The girl and the beast were both running as fast as they could in the snowfield.

It was intense and perilous!

Speed was a magical beast's advantage, and the Ice Fire Beast was able to run a little faster than Feng Wu.

It wasn't obvious at first, but as time passed, the distance between them grew shorter and shorter.

Looking over her shoulder, Feng Wu saw that the 1000m between them had been shortened to 800m.

At this rate...

The beast would eventually catch up!

What should she do?

Various ideas popped into Feng Wu's head.

She had to think of a way to get herself to safety before it caught up to her!

The Ice Fire Beast ran very fast.

700m...

600m...

500m...

Feng Wu gritted her teeth and kept running!

Luck wasn't on her side. Before she knew it, daylight faded.

Night was closing in.

And it grew colder.

The temperature in the snowfield plummeted.

-30, -40, -50 degrees...

It was freezing!

Every breath she exhaled turned into white mist.

Feng Wu looked over her shoulder again.

The distance between her and the beast had been shortened to 200m!

Shit!

Feng Wu's stomach lurched!

As night set in, the wind howled and she was losing strength from the continuous running.

The Ice Fire Beast, on the other hand, was indigenous to Proud Snowfield. The cold didn't affect it at all.

If Feng Wu's estimation was right, the beast would catch up to her in ten minutes!

Ten minutes...

Ten minutes...

Looking into the distance, Feng Wu could see nothing but an endless snowfield. How despairing that view was.

There was an option out there that could save her.

She could hit the panic button.

The moment she pressed it, she would be teleported out of this terrain.

However —

Feng Wu smiled bitterly.

She had made a bet with Mu Yaoyao. If she didn't get into Imperial College, she would have to give her head to that girl.

What was more, she needed to get in because of Jun Linyuan.

Chapter 774 Is She Going to Die?

What about her broken star piece?

A stubborn look flickered in Feng Wu's eyes.

No! She wouldn't give up! Never!

“Roar —”

The Ice Fire Beast was closing in on her!

100m!

50m!

30m!

20m!

The Ice Fire Beast locked its gaze on Feng Wu!

Feng Wu had been setting up the traps which she had used on the Spiny Frost Beasts before, but the Ice Fire Beast was far more intelligent and wouldn't be tricked.

Roarr!

The giant beast leapt up, then pounced at Feng Wu from behind!

It cast an enormous shadow on the ground.

Feng Wu tried to dodge.

However, a long chain suddenly grew out of the Ice Fire Beast!

That thick black chain had evolved from a black hair on its forehead!

The chain flew out and caught Feng Wu right away!

At that moment, Feng Wu finally knew what it felt like to be helpless and full of despair!

There was a terrifying hook on the chain!

It stabbed into Feng Wu's lower back, and with a jolt, the Ice Fire Beast pulled the chain back!

Feng Wu was dragged back until she was in front of the beast!

Thump! Thump! Thump!

The Ice Fire Beast brandished its front paw at Feng Wu, who was within reach now.

That hurt —

The beast punched Feng Wu three times in a row, which made Feng Wu see stars. She spat out a mouthful of blood.

She almost fainted from the blows!

It hurt...

She felt like she was dying...

But if she gave up just like that, she really would be dead in no time!

Summoning her strength, Feng Wu gathered her spiritual essence, grabbed the dagger that was hidden in her sleeve, and stabbed the Ice Fire Beast's forehead!

Once infused with spiritual essence, the sharp blade glinted coldly and looked invincible!

However —

Clank —

Ice Fire Beast smacked the dagger away with a sweep of its paw.

The blade didn't even touch the beast.

Thump!

Ice Fire Beast threw another punch, aiming at Feng Wu's head.

It opened a gash on Feng Wu's smooth forehead.

Blood ran down her face.

That had to be painful as hell...

Feng Wu's vision went dark and she could barely see.

She felt as if she was drowning in a dark ocean and her head was filling up with water.

Feng Wu knew that it came from the fear of death.

Wait —

The rabid beast then smelled Feng Wu's blood.

It was sweet, scrumptious, and full of spiritual essence...

The Ice Fire Beast could finally think straight again.

Without hesitation, it followed its instinct and lowered its head...

Whoosh!

It buried its sharp fangs into Feng Wu's slender neck!

Ouch —

That hurt!

Gurgle —

Feng Wu could hear the beast sucking her blood!

It was her blood!

Feng Wu was tiny compared with the beast, and it could drain her in a few more gulps!

Back in Imperial College —

Grand Secretary Fang was leaning forward in his chair as he stared at the screen with the biggest frown.

He was watching Feng Wu and the Ice Fire Beast!

He had been watching since the chase and had been on edge the whole time. He was furious when he saw what the beast was doing to Feng Wu.

"Xiao Wu! Hit the button! Now!" Grand Secretary Fang jumped to his feet and stared at the screen!

What button? Priest Wu, who had dozed off, was woken up. Rubbing his sleepy eyes, he looked curiously at the screen.

What could alarm the vice-principal of Imperial College so much?

What Priest Wu saw made him open his eyes wide!

What the hell?

Chapter 775 Big Problem!

"Is that Xiao Wu? As in our Xiao Wu?" Priest Wu woke up all the way when he realized what was happening.

Grand Secretary Fang didn't reply, for he was too focused on the screen to pay attention to anything else.

On the screen, Feng Wu was covered in blood.

Her hair, her face, her body... The blood was everywhere...

Gurgle —

The Ice Fire Beast seemed to have found the best drink in the world and gulped the blood down in great excitement.

Feng Wu drew in a breath.

She needed to think of a way to save herself!

Feng Wu flipped her hand and there was a bottle of medicine in her hand. She then drank it.

“What did Xiao Wu drink?” Priest Wu was confused.

Grand Secretary Fang had no idea!

Was it some sort of potion that could instantly increase Feng Wu’s strength?

Priest Wu made the same guess. “Can it be a potion that can immediately increase her strength? She’s a good medicine refiner. Maybe —”

Just then —

Bah!

The Ice Fire Beast, who had been sucking on Feng Wu’s neck, wrinkled its nose in distaste. Before it knew it, the beast tossed Feng Wu away.

What taste was that?

It stank, it was bitter, and it tasted disgusting!

As soon as the Ice Fire Beast threw Feng Wu away —

Feng Wu twisted swiftly in the air and landed on her feet. She then dashed off without hesitation!

Grand Secretary Fang and Priest Wu watched with open mouths.

What on earth did Feng Wu drink? The Ice Fire Beast had actually gagged at the taste?

Taking advantage of the hard-earned opportunity, Feng Wu bolted!

That wretched human!

The Ice Fire Beast was furious!

That blood was so delicious and the girl had run off before it could enjoy itself!

That foul taste had to be temporary! It would draw out all her blood once it caught her again. That way, it could filter the taste out of the blood and enjoy it again!

At that thought, the Ice Fire Beast chased after Feng Wu once more!

Feng Wu was covered in blood.

She left a trail of blood behind her.

And that was just the beginning.

The low temperature sealed the wounds on Feng Wu's body before long. Although it stopped the bleeding, it also introduced cold air into her system.

Feng Wu grew hotter and weaker as she ran.

The Ice Fire Beast followed her in hot pursuit!

It had only grown stronger after consuming Feng Wu's blood.

Suddenly, there was a rumbling sound!

What was that?

Looking over her shoulder, Feng Wu saw spiritual essence fluctuate violently around the Ice Fire Beast.

Seriously?!

Feng Wu didn't know how to describe her despair at that moment!

The Ice Fire Beast was much stronger than her to begin with, and it was going to level up even further!

After sucking her blood, her enemy was going to make a breakthrough!

Feng Wu felt like crying!

In front of the screen, Grand Secretary Fang and Priest Wu were equally shocked.

Priest Wu said in astonishment, "I thought the girl was a cripple, but she... she was able to get away from a Level 6 Spiritual Grandmaster magical beast! That..."

Those people out there didn't know Feng Wu at all!

Grand Secretary Fang's eyes flickered.

"This isn't a fair exam anymore." Grand Secretary Fang shook his head. A Level 6 magical beast should never have been part of the exam!

"It's going to be a Level 7 magical beast after the breakthrough," Priest Wu reminded him.

However, something else had shocked Priest Wu even more.

Chapter 776 The Pursuit!

Xiao Wu had spiritual essence... and she was an outstanding cultivator!

She was a cripple? Said who?!

Grand Secretary Fang took a deep breath. "Who do you think should go in? You or me?"

Priest Wu rubbed his chin. "Do you think that's really necessary?"

Grand Secretary Fang nodded. "There's something too unusual about Proud Snowfield as the setting for the physical tryout this time. Something big is going to happen. I need to let His Majesty know."

Grand Secretary Fang looked at Priest Wu. "Someone needs to go to the imperial palace. You or me?"

Priest Wu said, "I need to keep an eye on little Feng Wu."

Grand Secretary Fang nodded. He then talked to Feng Wu directly. "Xiao Wu, something's wrong with Proud Snowfield. Hit the panic button when you need to! Your life is the priority here!"

The message made Feng Wu's stomach lurch.

So, Grand Secretary Fang had been watching her this whole time.

He must have seen the perilous state she was in and had to be so worried about her.

She would never hit that button, but to reassure the old man, Feng Wu nodded. "Alright."

Meanwhile, she was still running at full speed!

However, she was feeling weaker and weaker.

The Ice Fire Beast had stopped chasing Feng Wu. Instead, it sat down and began to absorb spiritual essence from the air, so as to move up to the next level!

Magical beasts were naturally more powerful than human beings in their martial prowess.

Not to mention that the Ice Fire Beast was a level higher than Feng Wu.

After this, it would be two levels higher.

Before, Feng Wu was confident that she could lose the beast in a chase, but after drinking her blood, the Ice Fire Beast was now so familiar with her smell that she would never be able to get away from it.

The hair on Feng Wu's back stood up at that thought.

But was she going to withdraw from the tryout?

That had never been an option for her.

And she was in —

Feng Wu checked the map in her head.

She was running toward a more remote area away from the red dots, which represented the other candidates. At the moment, her own red dot was all alone in the snowfield.

All the other candidates felt like a world away...

Wait!

Feng Wu suddenly realized that there was something else on the map.

A few blue dots.

One, two, three... There weren't many, no more than ten.

And they came in different sizes... What were they?

Making her own dot as the reference point, Feng Wu studied the blue dots.

5km northwest of her, there was a medium-sized blue dot, which was...

All of a sudden!

Feng Wu drew in her breath!

She knew what those blue dots were!

They had to be magical beasts!

For that blue dot had to be the Ice Fire Beast!

Feng Wu's pupils contracted.

So, the blue dots were magical beasts more powerful than her.

Did these blue dots exist on all the maps, or was she the only one that could see them?

Feng Wu pondered the question, but this wasn't the time to be curious. Her top priority now was to get rid of that Ice Fire Beast.

All of a sudden!

An idea struck Feng Wu!

Those blue dots... they weren't there for nothing!

She knew what to do!

Rubbing her forehead to help herself concentrate, Feng Wu dashed toward one of the blue dots as fast as she could.

Chapter 777 Damn!!!

Feng Wu had picked that blue dot after careful consideration.

It was slightly bigger than the one which represented the Ice Fire Beast.

And it was 100km from her, which was a reasonable distance.

That dot it was, then!

Once her destination was determined, Feng Wu picked up speed and headed for it!

Night had set in and the wind blew even harder. Feng Wu felt as if there was a fire burning inside her.

But Feng Wu knew perfectly well that although the Ice Fire Beast wasn't chasing her now, she was in no way out of danger.

The sense of crisis hung over her head like the sword of Damocles. She didn't know when it would fall, but she was sure that she didn't have much time left before it did!

Run, run, run!

Thump!

Feng Wu ran too fast and she lost her footing. She then began to roll down a slope!

Luckily, the slope wasn't very tall and she reached the bottom in a moment.

Slumping over a snowdrift, Feng Wu gasped for air.

She felt too weak to even move a muscle.

A fire seemed to be burning inside her and the heat was spreading to all her limbs.

It felt so hot...

Feng Wu checked her own pulse.

She almost cried.

Because of the blood loss, evil energy had gotten into her system and cold air was rampaging inside her.

In modern terms: she had a fever and her temperature had spiked over 40 degrees!

Feng Wu felt so weak that she wanted to bury herself in the snow and sleep for as long as she wanted.

But reality wouldn't allow her to do that.

She was all by herself now and a lot of people outside were counting on her!

She couldn't back down!

Taking a deep breath, Feng Wu struggled to her feet.

She was having a hard time thinking straight and could barely keep her balance. She would trip over her feet every few steps.

After falling down into the snow again, Feng Wu flinched at the chill on her cheek. Patting her head to wake herself up, she scrambled to her feet again.

She had quite a bit of medicine with her, but no antipyretic.

It wasn't that she didn't know how to make it, but that she just never expected to need it one day...

Moreover, in order to break free from the Ice Fire Beast, Feng Wu had poured a peculiar potion down her throat.

That potion was concocted by mixing a lot of ingredients with weird tastes together. Not only did it stink, it was also detrimental to one's health. Feng Wu had created it to set other people up, but as it turned out...

However, it had helped her get out of the Ice Fire Beast's jaws; so what if it tasted a little weird?

But Feng Wu was well aware that her impaired state was directly caused by that potion.

50km...

30km...

10km...

Feng Wu stumbled and staggered, but she was getting closer and closer to her destination.

She took another look at the map.

Please don't let that blue dot go anywhere!

After all the hardships she endured, she finally hauled her semi-functional body into the valley. Her savior, the other magical beast, couldn't leave now!

Staring at the map, Feng Wu saw that the magical beast was slowly moving away.

Seriously?!

Feng Wu's eyes popped!

After everything she had done?!

Right at that moment!

Rumble!

Heavy footsteps came from behind her.

Feng Wu looked over her shoulder.

Shit!

The Ice Fire Beast was coming!

After the breakthrough, the Ice Fire Beast had ample spiritual essence. It looked invigorated and its speed had doubled!

It spotted Feng Wu from hundreds of meters away.

On the plain snowfield, Feng Wu was such an eye-catching target that she couldn't be missed.

That stupid human girl! She was so dead! The Ice Fire Beast stared at Feng Wu with bloodthirsty eyes.

Chapter 778 Chase to Kill

The Ice Fire Beast charged at Feng Wu at an unbelievable speed.

Shit!

An alarm seemed to go off in Feng Wu's head.

Run!

Feng Wu was overwhelmed by a sense of crisis and knew right away that she wouldn't survive if she let the Ice Fire Beast catch her.

Without hesitation, Feng Wu summoned all her strength and ran as fast as she could!

Run, run, run!

She had never run at such a speed!

But the Ice Fire Beast had discovered her, and it was too late to run!

The beast was gaining on her!

So was death!

Feng Wu's stomach lurched and she thought her heart was going to stop!

Was she going to die just like this?

In front of the screen, Priest Wu was worried sick!

That girl! Why wouldn't she withdraw from the tryout?

"Hit the button! Now!" Priest Wu sent a message to Feng Wu.

The voice came out so loud that Feng Wu thought her eardrums had shattered.

And it made her head spin.

But withdraw from the tryout?

Feng Wu shook her head. That had never been an option for her!

There had to be a way out! There had to be!

All of a sudden, an idea came to Feng Wu!

Yes! She wouldn't be able to catch up with the other blue dot, regardless of what kind of magical beast it was, but she could somehow draw it to her. With bait big enough, it could be done!

At that thought, Feng Wu shook the cub awake.

Feng Tutu might be sleepy all the time, but it was a smart and reliable companion in a critical moment like this.

All Feng Wu could use was her own blood.

After smearing Feng Tutu's neck with her blood, she gave it some instructions, then sent it off.

The Ice Fire Beast caught up to her the moment the cub dashed off.

Taking a deep breath, Feng Wu muttered an incantation. The next moment, the snow covered her, and she fell even deeper.

The Ice Fire Beast stared at the spot where Feng Wu had been a moment ago, a taunting smile on its face.

That stupid human girl. Did she think she could run away?

Die!

The Ice Fire Beast had very acute senses.

Moreover, now that it had risen to Level 7, its capability had doubled!

Thump!

It pounded the ground with all its might!

In front of the screen, Priest Wu's eyes popped.

He was worried sick!

"Feng Wu! Get out now! You're going to die! You really are! That's a Level 7 Spiritual Grandmaster magical beast!" Priest Wu shouted in Feng Wu's mind.

Feng Wu drew in a breath.

She couldn't afford the distraction anymore. Then, she removed the headband given by Imperial College.

Squeak —

Priest Wu realized that although he could still see Feng Wu, he could no longer hear her voice.

That was to say, she wouldn't be able to hear him either.

Priest Wu was astonished!

What on earth was the girl going to do?!

Priest Wu was exasperated, but he couldn't just drag Feng Wu out through the screen. All he could do now was stare at the screen nervously.

Back in the snowfield, Feng Wu was hiding under a snowdrift.

No matter where she hid, the Ice Fire Beast seemed to be able to sense her in advance. It pounded on the ground continuously.

And it was a Level 7 Spiritual Grandmaster!

Each blow created a 10m crater in the ground!

And Feng Wu tried her best to dodge every time.

She was able to narrowly get out of harm's way.

Over and over again...

Cold sweat rolled down Feng Wu's forehead as time went by. If one looked closely, they would notice that her face had turned ghastly pale.

Chapter 779 A Turn for the Better

Feng Wu was ghastly pale.

With the blood loss, she looked dreadful against the white snow.

She was covered in cold sweat, but she was burning inside at the same time.

The chill and the heat made Feng Wu feel like she was being roasted and frozen at the same time.

Creak...

She ground her teeth together, but couldn't stop them from chattering.

But what else could she do?

She was hanging on by the skin of her teeth and she couldn't afford any reckless moves!

Boom!

Another round of blows rumbled overhead!

The Ice Fire Beast was furious and gloating at the same time.

As a matter of fact, if it exerted all its power, it would have caught Feng Wu already.

However, the beast had grown proud after its breakthrough, and it was showing off its capability. Right now, it acted like a cat playing with a mouse. It was going to taunt Feng Wu and scare her before dealing the final blow!

Boom!

There was another round of pounding over Feng Wu's head.

As time went by, Feng Wu grew weaker and she felt dizzy. Her vision was going dark...

It hurt...

Feng Wu felt as if she had been torn in half!

One side was cold and the other hot!

She felt hot inside and cold outside!

Cold sweat and hot sweat was coming out of her pores at the same time!

It hurt...

Boom!

Another round of pounding!

This time, Feng Wu had no strength left to dodge and she had to take the assault with her own body.

Feng Wu's bloodless face and shivering body finally emerged from under the snow.

In the moonlight, the Ice Fire Beast saw Feng Wu lying in the snow with her eyes closed. It couldn't tell if she was alive or dead.

Blood was splattered on the snow around her.

The red color was almost blazing against the snow.

There was a greedy look in the Ice Fire Beast's eyes as it studied the blood on the snow.

Suppressing its urge, it slowly approached Feng Wu, one step at a time.

Closer, closer...

The Ice Fire Beast could smell the fresh blood...

Ssss —

It stuck out its tongue and licked its lips.

That was it. It was done pretending to be patient. It charged at Feng Wu and was ready to eat the human whole.

It had a premonition!

The human girl was spilling spiritual essence like a fountain!

She was like a ripe fruit!

Swallow her and the Ice Fire Beast would enjoy another upgrade in its capability!

Maybe it would become a Level 8 now!

The Ice Fire Beast was thrilled!

However, at that moment —

Arghhh —

There came a panicked cry, and it was coming this way.

It was in the Ice Fire Beast's nature to be cautious.

It looked up involuntarily in the direction of the voice.

In the moonlight, a black dot the size of a palm was running this way at tremendous speed!

And a giant magical beast was chasing it in a frenzy!

The giant beast was very powerful, but the little thing in front of it was too nimble. It kept changing directions, throwing the magical beast off-track.

A Qilin Beast?!

The Ice Fire Beast was astonished!

Qilin Beasts formed a powerful community in Proud Snowfield. They had always lived in Zone 1 and were at the top of the food chain!

Why would such a beast show up in Zone 2?

Before the Ice Fire Beast could figure it out, it saw that the Qilin Beast was coming this way!

Feng Wu had left the cub with explicit instructions and it knew what to do!

Whoosh!

The cub sprinted, leapt onto the Ice Fire Beast's back, then climbed onto its head. It then gave vent to a torrent of abuse.

Chapter 780 Surprise!

"Aww! Hit me and my dad will kill you!" the cub shouted in the language of magical beasts.

Your dad?!

This Qilin Beast was only a cub. Despite its young age, it was savage, extremely powerful, and very proud. It wouldn't stand for any sort of provocation.

Before the Qilin Beast could reply, the Ice Fire Beast flared up!

Its dad?

Are you kidding me?!

The Ice Fire Beast had no idea that the tiger cub belonged to Feng Wu and only thought that the grudge was between the tiger cub and the Qilin Beast. It bellowed, "I'm not your dad! Get the hell off my head!"

It only wanted to get rid of the other two beasts so that they wouldn't try to take its prey!

But —

The tiger cub took out an egg from the pouch around its neck.

It was almost half the size of the cub's body!

"No!" the Qilin Beast screamed!

But it was too late.

Still sitting on the Ice Fire Beast's head, the tiger cub aimed the egg at the tip of its horn.

Just like a human being cracking a chicken egg.

Crack —

"Dad, didn't you say you wanted a fried egg? Fry this one." The tiger cub patted the beast's head.

The Ice Fire Beast was furious!

Since when did it want a fried egg?

Enraged, flames rose from under the Ice Fire Beast's skin.

Sizzle —

The broken egg on its head was instantly cooked, and really became a fried egg...

But the Ice Fire Beast had no idea what was happening on its head...

“Brother!”

Qilin Beast cried out in disbelief!

Its eyes popped!

That was its little brother!

Its parents had enjoined repeatedly before they left home this morning that it had to take care of its baby brother! But now —

His brother had turned into a fried egg!

The Qilin Beast was infuriated!

It went berserk!

Its eyes turned bloodshot red as rage took over its mind.

Instantly, ice arrows rose up into the air and flew at the Ice Fire Beast!

“Dad! Dad! Help! Help —”

The tiger cub was so tiny that it could easily hide behind the Ice Fire Beast.

That only infuriated the Qilin Beast further.

Do you think your dad can save you? In your dreams!

The Qilin Beast shifted its murderous gaze to the Ice Fire Beast.

And more ice arrows smashed down.

During the pursuit earlier, the tiger cub had been boasting about its spectacular, formidable dad, who was supposed to be powerful enough to wipe out the entire Qilin Beast race.

The Qilin Beast already held a grudge against this dad because of that, and with what had just happened, it found the Ice Fire Beast even more despicable.

The Ice Fire Beast was infuriated as well.

It was going to have a quiet dinner of the human girl, but this Qilin Beast just showed up out of nowhere and began to attack it!

Did that Qilin Beast think it was going to sit there and take the hits?

The Ice Fire Beast considered itself powerful enough to move into Zone 1 already!

However, intimidated by the Qilin Beast race, the Ice Fire Beast could only grind its teeth. "Qilin Beast, you've been misled! That tiger cub isn't my son! I'm an Ice Fire Beast! How can I have a tiger as a kid?! Are you blind?!"

The Ice Fire Beast was so vexed.

It was still a virgin! How come it was a dad all of a sudden?!

The Qilin Beast smirked.

Your tiger cub boasted about everything to me. Its mother was a Silver Tiger! Are you going to shirk your responsibility now? That's just ridiculous!

The Qilin Beast didn't reply, but went on attacking the Ice Fire Beast.

The Ice Fire Beast lost its temper.

"I've had enough!"

This Qilin Beast might be a cub, but it was from a superior race that dwelled in Zone 1 in Proud Snowfield.
