Chapter 2621: Mountain Patrolling (2 in 1)

2621 Mountain Patrolling (2 in 1)

The western mining area was essentially not much different from the northern mining area. The only difference was that the ferocious beasts had strong masters and they had lived here for too long and opened up a unique path.

Most of the other places were as dangerous as the northern mining areas. This was also a natural barrier for the ferocious beasts. Otherwise, no matter how many strong masters there were in the ferocious beasts, their number wouldn't exceed 100,000. Compared to the entire Infinite Mining Area, this number was still small.

If it were an ordinary person, it would be very difficult for them to cross the countless natural barriers and reach the ferocious beasts without the guiding of the ferocious beasts.

Of course, Han Fei was not an ordinary person. Although he knew that the ferocious beasts were in the western mining area, he didn't know the exact location of the ferocious beasts. The map of the Infinite Mining Area he had obtained previously didn't involve this area at all but only roughly marked a location.

As for Han Fei, with the help of the Twin Divine Technique, he walked unhurriedly and slowly like when he entered the northern mining area.

The difference was that Han Fei had completely lost interest in those ordinary mine demons. He had too many resources. He couldn't use up such a large number of resources.

Besides, what he needed now was not resources. As long as he cultivated step by step, his strength would naturally grow. After more than six years of hibernation, he felt that his strength had reached a bottleneck. It wouldn't be long before he could condense the first Dao Lock.

Han Fei didn't care if he had a Dao Lock. The existence of a Dao Lock was to limit his strength. However, having a Dao Lock didn't mean that he was necessarily strong. Without a Dao Lock, one could directly prove his Dao after comprehending the law.

To put it bluntly, the Dao Lock was prepared for those who couldn't quickly prove Dao. Those who were truly confident and could prove Dao at any time didn't need the Dao Lock to restrict their strength.

Whether it was someone with a Dao Lock or someone without a Dao Lock, once they proved their Dao, they would be equal.

The reason why the Emperor Sparrow had Dao Locks was that he had swallowed too much ominous power, and Han Fei's strength was limited to the Sky Opening realm. Otherwise, the Emperor Sparrow wouldn't have needed to condense Dao Locks at all and could have directly proven Dao.

In the end, it was Han Fei who burdened the Emperor Sparrow.

More than three months later, Han Fei advanced at a turtle speed in the western mining area with his black-mist body, avoiding many dangers, and finally encountered the first non-mine demon creature, which was naturally a ferocious beast.

Han Fei was lost for words. Was it certain that he would meet ferocious beasts in the western mining area? Of course not. The entire western mining area was unimaginably huge.

He was just walking in the direction indicated by the Vast Ocean Navigator when he happened to encounter a ferocious beast.

Was this a coincidence, or was it destined?

Han Fei was here to look for the God Burying Ridge. There might be secrets about the Demon God, or even inheritances, buried here. But on the way to look for the Demon God, he encountered a ferocious beast. This inevitably reminded Han Fei of what Wang Xiaojiu said. He said that the ferocious beasts were arranged to come to the Infinite Mining Area of the East Sea Divine Realm. In other large divine realms, there were also ferocious beasts sent over, but most ferocious beasts actually didn't know this.

Then, was there a possibility that the ferocious beasts were related to the Demon God?

Han Fei wasn't sure now, but as long as he kept going down, he would find out sooner or later.

At this moment, what Han Fei saw was a pangolin, or a guy who looked like a pangolin, chewing on a level-six mineral at the moment. Since the other party dared to appear in this remote corner alone, he was definitely not a mediocre person. His strength was in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm.

Perhaps it was because his carapace and scales were very hard that he dared to come so far to hunt.

For the first time, Han Fei saw that the mineral was for eating. Han Fei could see that after the pangolin ate this mineral, the scales on its body were shining. It was not until six hours later that the light of the scales on its body faded away, and then it plunged into the mountain.

"Damn it. Didn't I just steal a level-eight mineral for eating? It's been three thousand years. Why am I still not allowed to go back? The Hundred Dragon Mountain Range is such a damn remote place with so few mines. Who would come here?"

The pangolin seemed to be very familiar with the terrain here, and it seemed to have dug many passages in the mountain. It quickly went from one mountain to another, muttering along the way.

"Alas, the resources of the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range are getting scarcer and scarcer. Why are the mine demons not coming?"

"It's been 3,000 years. Big Luoluo's anger should have subsided."

"Alas, why am I always the one who comes out to work? Sooner or later, I'll reach the perfected Star Transformation Realm. At that time, I won't listen to her orders... I'm going home. Today, once again I got nothing."

Han Fei listened to the pangolin muttering to itself along the way. It seemed to be depressed.

Han Fei didn't intend to attack it. It wasn't his purpose to attack an unknown person.

Following the pangolin all the way, Han Fei crossed nearly ten thousand mountains and finally saw a clam mountain piled up like a fortress at the intersection of warm currents. Besides, the clams here were all living creatures.

If one took a closer look, they would even find that the clam mountains here were distributed regularly and piled up like beehives. With Han Fei's keen perception of arrays, when he saw the environment here, he found that this was a big array. And the person who arranged the big array was lying on his back in the water, holding a big clam in his arms and banging it.

"An otter?"

Han Fei was speechless. It turned out that there were only two ferocious beasts here, a pangolin and an otter. At this moment, the pangolin returned and said angrily, "Wang Lanlan, I was patrolling the mountain outside, but you were eating and drinking at home. Aren't you a little too much?"

Slurp~ Slurp~

The otter didn't move but just snorted lazily. "Alas, Juejue, why are you still so petty? The Hundred Dragon Mountain Range is not dangerous. It's just a routine patrol. There's no need for both of us to do it."

The pangolin roared angrily, "Don't call me Juejue. My name is Yu Jue. You made my name sound not masculine at all."

Wang Lanlan said, "Why do you need to be masculine? Do you want to attract me? I warn you, give up! I won't consider you unless you can get me back to the clan and build a hundred nests for me."

Yu Jue was so angry that he laughed. "You think too much. I would rather die alone than fall in love with a lazy bum like you."

Boom ~

As soon as Yu Jue shouted this, his head was hit by a clam shell, which shattered. Yu Jue, on the other hand, seemed fine and even scratched his head twice with his claws.

However, Yu Jue was still furious. "Wang Lanlan, don't go too far. If you hadn't secretly eaten two level-eight minerals, could you have advanced to the Perfected Star Transformation Realm? Just wait. I'm about to advance too. When I advance, I'll be the first to smash your head."

Boom ~

Caught off guard, Yu Jue was hit in the head by another clam shell. Wang Lanlan kicked and floated over. She turned to look at Yu Jue and said, "If you keep nagging, get out of my nest."

"Humph ~"

Yu Jue snorted and didn't say anything. Instead, he took out a level-six mineral and nibbled on it.

Crunch ~

Wang Lanlan's eyes lit up when she saw the level-six mineral. She swam all the way over. "Where is the level-six mineral from?"

Yu Jue snorted. "I met two stupid mine demons. They hid in the depths of the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range and were dug out by me."

Wang Lanlan said, "Two? Give me one."

Yu Jue immediately said, "No, I already ate one on the way."

Boom ~

Yu Jue was hit again and immediately said angrily, "Wang Lanlan, if you hit my head again, I won't let you off."

Wang Lanlan snorted arrogantly. "Why didn't you save one mineral for me?! I let you live in my nest for nothing... Hey, Juejue, why don't we sneak back?"

When Yu Jue heard this, he quickly shook his head like a rattle and said in a muffled voice, "I'm not going back. If Big Luoluo sees us run back like this, she will twist our heads off."

Wang Lanlan finally turned over and whispered, "Big Luoluo doesn't have the time to care about us. I heard that she's so worried now. The Emperor Sparrow has appeared in our Infinite Mining Area. How can she not be worried? I heard that she can't sleep all day long."

Yu Jue asked in confusion, "How do you know that?"

Wang Lanlan said, "When you were patrolling the mountain, Wang Xiaojiu came here! He nagged for a long time. He also said that the batch of level-seven minerals he brought back was about to be used up. If we don't steal some now, we won't be able to."

Yu Jue said in shock, "Steal? Wang Lanlan, you still don't give up stealing? Do you want to guard the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range for another ten thousand years?"

Wang Lanlan said, "It would be a waste not to steal them. Do you think Big Luoluo doesn't know? She's just not in the mood to care. Wang Xiaojiu said that Ergou took more than 200 people to steal one piece each."

Yu Jue was shocked again. "Is Huang Ergou crazy? How can Big Luoluo not know?"

Wang Lanlan said, "She knows! That's why Huang Ergou only took those who are about to make a breakthrough to steal. Big Luoluo turned a blind eye to it, so they got their way. Although they were sent to guard the Storm Ridge, they succeeded! I heard that Huang Ergou successfully condensed four Dao Locks. What a pity! I only condensed one Dao Lock."

Yu Jue couldn't help but exclaim, "Huang Ergou has four Dao Locks? How did he condense them?"

Wang Lanlan said leisurely, "Wang Xiaojiu said that Huang Ergou stole the minerals from him. Wang Xiaojiu was so angry that he chased him and beat him up more than a dozen times."

Yu Jue was dumbfounded. "I... Wang Xiaojiu came all the way here and didn't bring a few pieces of level-seven mineral?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Yes! He brought two."

Yu Jue asked, "Where are they?"

Wang Lanlan said, "I ate them! There are only two pieces in total. Wang Xiaojiu is getting stingier and stingier."

"Ahhh~"

Yu Jue's tail soared into the sky, turned into a huge tail, and slapped Wang Lanlan directly. However, before this huge tail could be completely condensed, it was slapped in the head by Wang Lanlan and disappeared.

Yu Jue roared indignantly, "Wang Lanlan, I'm gonna kill you!"

"Slurp~ Slurp~ Ah~"

While stuffing clam meat into her mouth, Wang Lanlan said lazily, "Idiot, why are you angry at me? We have to think of a way to go back and steal some more minerals. At most, we'll be punished for guarding the Storm Ridge like Ergou. Anyway, I'm tired of staying in the Hundred Dragons Mountain Range. If it were the Storm Ridge, there would be more people."

Yu Jue was speechless. He said in a muffled voice again, "But it has only been three thousand years since Big Luoluo sent us to patrol the mountain. We're supposed to patrol the mountain for five thousand years."

Wang Lanlan said, "Heh! If we don't go back, the next time we go back, Big Luoluo might be replaced by the Emperor Sparrow. In my opinion, Big Luoluo doesn't have the mood to care about us at all now. This is a good time to slip back. At most, we'll be scolded by her! Besides, you're only one step away from the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. With your pure Prehistoric Ferocious Beast bloodline, with some more resources, you might be able to condense a Dao Lock in a few hundred years. Isn't it better than patrolling the lousy mountain? Only one or two mine demons can be met several years here. Who can stand it?"

Yu Jue hesitated for a long time before saying, "Then, are we really slipping back?"

Wang Lanlan said, "It's up to you. Anyway, I've condensed a Dao Lock. But you haven't reached the perfected Star Transformation Realm yet."

Looking at the simple-minded Yu Jue and then at the shrewd Wang Lanlan, Han Fei thought to himself, The ferocious beasts do seem interesting.

As for who Big Luoluo was, she must be a leader-level powerhouse among the ferocious beasts, probably a Monarch. Otherwise, how could she casually arrange for these ferocious beasts to stay or leave?

However, Wang Xiaojiu had been here recently, which was something he didn't expect. If Wang Xiaojiu had been here, it meant that the camp of the ferocious beasts might not be far from here!

Of course, Wang Xiaojiu was fast and naggy. Maybe he was really bored and wandered around. Cats were like this, jumping around and excited for no reason.

Han Fei thought that since he had found the ferocious beasts, could he not go and take a look? This was God's will! According to the personality of the Emperor Sparrow, if he really proved his Dao, he would definitely take down the ferocious beasts in the Infinite Mining Area. There was no need to hide this.

There was nothing wrong with their worries. The Emperor Sparrow had long been tempted, but his strength hadn't been enough yet and he was still lying low. Not only did he want to subdue these ferocious beasts, but his goal was the entire ferocious beasts.

However, it might not be a bad thing for him in the medium to long term if the Emperor Sparrow could subdue the ferocious beasts. There were not many humans left in the entire Sea Realm, and everyone knew that the human race was weak.

The rise of the human race was definitely not something that could be achieved overnight. Puppet City could only provide a place of refuge for the human race, but billions of humans couldn't just be packed in Puppet City.

Therefore, it would be great if more major factions could form an alliance with the human race.

However, he was hesitant to go to the ferocious beasts directly. They had several Monarchs, and the strongest of them was at the immortal-level. If he went in openly, they might attack him.

At this moment, Yu Jue was wondering if he should go back. After all, he wasn't as carefree as Wang Lanlan who could stay anywhere.

Yu Jue was about to argue with Wang Lanlan again, hoping that Wang Lanlan would continue to egg him on for a while. Then maybe he would make up his mind.

"Stop dilly-dallying. You're such a timid pangolin. You're tempted but don't dare to do it. So what if you've reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm? Even if you have five Dao Locks, can you prove your Dao?"

Buzz!

At that moment, Yu Jue instantly shrank into a ball, all the scales on his body stood up, and his hair stood on end.

Wang Lanlan disappeared in an instant and stood in a corner of the clam mountain, which should be the array eye.

Han Fei, on the other hand, showed up without hesitation. After he showed up, the pangolin was shivering because the person who spoke was standing on him.

Besides, with the terrifying suppressing pressure, he felt that he might be crushed to death if he moved.

Bam! Bam!

Han Fei kicked Yu Jue's head twice and said, "Look at you. If I were you, I would have gone back long ago. Since Big Luoluo is so lax with you, what are you afraid of?"

At this moment, Wang Lanlan turned into a human and looked like a girl. She held a branch in his hand as a weapon, looking quite valiant.

She shouted, "Who are you? How did you get in?"

Han Fei pointed at the pangolin and said, "I came in with him!"

Wang Lanlan shouted coldly, "That's impossible. How can I not know you've entered my nest?"

Han Fei was too lazy to explain. He just shrugged and said, "I mean you no harm, really. Otherwise, how could this fool come back alive?"

With that, Han Fei walked down from the pangolin, and the latter tried to burrow into the ground. However, Han Fei casually grabbed his tail and said, "Stop running! Get down."

Activating the Great Dao of Strength, Han Fei slapped Yu Jue's head, and the latter fell to the ground, setting off surging ripples.

On the other side, Wang Lanlan grew anxious. "Let him go, or we'll have to fight to the death. My Lazy Bum Array is not a joke. At least I can make you die with me."

Wang Lanlan just bit the bullet and bragged. Make this guy die with her? How could a terrifying existence who could sneak into her nest without being noticed by her at all possibly die with her?

Han Fei said, "Your array is not bad, but I've been here for a long time. If I hadn't studied it thoroughly, would I have come to see you?"

As he talked, the big array began to tremble, and a water sword appeared in every corner of the big array. At some point, the Infinity Water had penetrated into the foundation of the big array.

If Han Fei detonated the Infinity Water at this moment, even if he couldn't completely break through the array, it wouldn't be able to trap him.

"Tweet ~"

With a flash between Han Fei's eyebrows, the Emperor Sparrow soared into the sky. The Emperor Sparrow stood on one of the array foundations of the Clam Mountain, glanced at Yu Jue and Wang Lanlan, and said softly, "Two pure-blooded Prehistoric Ferocious Beasts? That's rare. Why don't you kneel down to me?"

Buzz!

Whether it was Yu Jue or Wang Lanlan, they felt as if they were struck by lightning. There was a thunderclap in their minds, directly stunning the two of them.

Yu Jue's body trembled crazily, and he was horrified. "M-Master E-Emperor Sparrow?"

"Gulp ~"

Wang Lanlan's eyelids were also jumping crazily at this moment. While swallowing her saliva, she thought about the news of the reappearance of the Emperor Sparrow. I'm doomed. Why did the Emperor Sparrow appear in this damn place?

At this moment, Wang Lanlan didn't dare to run. Firstly, she couldn't run away. She had already felt that something seemed to have changed in the array. Secondly, her bloodline was directly suppressed, and her strength suddenly decreased by 30%. In such a state, she didn't even dare to think about running away under the nose of the Emperor Sparrow.

Wang Lanlan hurriedly said, "Wang Lanlan greets Senior Emperor Sparrow. Senior, please don't lower yourself to our level. One of us is a pangolin, and the other is an otter. Our meat is not delicious. It's both sour..."

Han Fei saw that Wang Lanlan was almost crying. He glanced at the Emperor Sparrow speechlessly and said, "Hey, that's enough, alright? Look at how scared she is."

The Emperor Sparrow snorted and said indifferently, "I don't have the habit of eating ferocious beasts. The two of you, come to greet me."

How could Yu Jue and Wang Lanlan dare to disobey him? That was a bloodline suppression. The moment the Emperor Sparrow appeared, they knew that they couldn't escape.

It had to be known that among the ferocious beasts, only one or two out of a hundred were pure-blooded. Unless their bloodline was awakened, it was almost impossible for them to return to their pure-blooded state.

Therefore, pure-blooded ferocious beasts had a very high status among the ferocious beasts. Furthermore, because their bloodline was pure, their cultivation potential was extremely high. Under normal circumstances, their bloodline could directly suppress non-pure-blooded ferocious beasts.

Now, they finally experienced the feeling of their bloodline being suppressed. It was a fear that originated from their hearts. This fear had nothing to do with their Dao hearts. It was instinctive fear.

If they had already proven Dao, this instinctive fear would still exist, but at that time, they could completely suppress this instinctive fear.

The Emperor Sparrow landed on Han Fei's shoulder, and like two elementary school students, Yu Jue and Wang Lanlan transformed into humans and stood in line respectfully.

The Emperor Sparrow said, "Tell me, who is in charge of you now? I mean, which one is the strongest among you?"

Yu Jue's face was pale and he didn't dare to speak. Wang Lanlan was a little stronger than Yu Jue, but her voice trembled. "Seven, Seven Ultimate Divine Spider... Lord, Lord Emperor Sparrow, we, we are all good ferocious beasts."

"Seven Ultimate Divine Spiders? Humph~"

The Emperor Sparrow raised his head high and looked sideways at the two of them disdainfully. "A ferocious beast is a ferocious beast. How can there be a good ferocious beast? Since you are ferocious beasts, you should show your true nature. Are the two of you descendants of the Thousand Wit Otter and the North Dark Pangolin?"

Wang Lanlan and Yu Jue nodded repeatedly. As long as they could be related to their ancestors, they just needed to nod. Besides, what the Emperor Sparrow said was true.

The Emperor Sparrow's attitude softened slightly. "No wonder, one is foxy and the other is hopelessly stupid."

Han Fei couldn't help but look at the Emperor Sparrow. "Is the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider very powerful?"

The Emperor Sparrow nodded slightly. "A fully-grown Seven Ultimate Divine Spider is indeed not weak. They were born with seven laws. It can be said that they have the most combat skills among the Prehistoric Ferocious Beasts, and they are also extremely intelligent. When I was the king of ferocious beasts, I had one Seven Ultimate Divine Spider among my eight generals."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. It seemed to be quite powerful. One had to know that the Emperor Sparrow used to be able to fight gods alone and controlled countless ferocious beasts. To be ranked among the eight generals under him, it was probably a Great Monarch-level powerhouse.

Han Fei didn't feel much when he heard this, but Wang Lanlan and Yu Jue felt that their heads were buzzing. It turned out that Big Luoluo's bloodline was so strong? They had stolen a lot of Big Luoluo's things in the past.

The Emperor Sparrow glanced at the two of them sharply and said, "Now, I'll give you a chance to serve me. Remember, there's only this one chance. If I prove my Dao in the future, you might not be qualified to serve me."

When Yu Jue heard this, he hesitated.

However, when Wang Lanlan heard this, she immediately replied, "I, Wang Lanlan, swear with my bloodline, am willing to follow Lord Emperor Sparrow and never betray you. If I violate this oath, the heavens and the earth will punish me."

Wang Lanlan directly took out a wisp of her essence blood. Han Fei immediately felt that the drop of blood contained mysterious Dao Patterns.

The essence blood turned into a Dao, melted in the sky and quickly disappeared.

Han Fei glanced at the Emperor Sparrow, who said indifferently, "Different from other races, whether it's a ferocious beast or a divine beast, bloodline is extremely important. All the inheritances are in it. Once you swear on this, if you betray me, your bloodline will be severed and your inheritance will no longer exist."

After that, Wang Lanlan kicked Yu Jue and said, "Idiot, swear! It's your blessing to be able to follow Lord Emperor Sparrow."

Only then did Yu Jue realize what was going on. He hurriedly said, "I, Yu Jue, swear with my bloodline that I'm willing to follow Lord Emperor Sparrow and never betray you. If I violate this oath, I'll be executed by the heavens and the earth."

Similarly, a drop of essence blood containing Dao runes melted into the sky.

Han Fei was surprised. It was so easy to subdue the two? Sure enough, the Emperor Sparrow's name was very useful. With just a few words, two pure-blooded beasts had pledged loyalty to him.

The Emperor Sparrow said, "This person's name is Han Fei. Seeing him is like seeing me. Follow him for the time being. Well, Han Fei, give them some benefits. It's impossible for me to not give my lackeys anything."

Han Fei thought to himself, They're your lackeys, but you want me to give them benefits? Fine, since you're my spiritual beast, I'll do it for you.

Han Fei thought for a moment and realized that it would be too stingy to give away level-seven minerals for the two pure-blood ferocious beasts. He took out two level-eight minerals and threw them out. "One for each of you."

"Hiss ~"

Yu Jue and Wang Lanlan's eyes lit up. A level-eight mineral! They had secretly eaten one and had been punished to patrol the mountain for 5,000 years, but now it had become a gift?

Wang Lanlan was overjoyed. "Thank you, Master Emperor Sparrow. Thank you, Master Han Fei."

Just as Yu Jue was thanking him, the Emperor Sparrow said, "Give another one to this North Dark Pangolin. He's about to make a breakthrough. With another level-eight mineral, he can quickly stabilize his cultivation base and save at least a thousand years of cultivation."

Yu Jue was overjoyed to hear that. He hurriedly shouted, "Thank you, Master Emperor Sparrow. Thank you, Master Han Fei."

Upon seeing this, Wang Lanlan secretly glanced at the Emperor Sparrow, who said, "A level-eight mineral can't help you condense two Dao Locks. Besides, whether you have a Dao Lock or not has nothing to do with your strength. Being my lackey is already an opportunity for you."

Wang Lanlan hurriedly bowed. "I dare not think too much about it. I'll listen to your arrangements, Master Emperor Sparrow."

Thousands of mines gathered around where the ferocious beasts lived. There were 33 super mines. In terms of total number, it couldn't compare to the entire Hundred Alliance City. However, considering the number of ferocious beasts, it was obviously a huge resource.

Of course, for ferocious beasts with 80% of them in the Sky Opening realm, the so-called super mines were not very meaningful to them.

At this moment, Han Fei had transformed into Yu Jue's appearance. From his face, voice, breath, luck, pressure, the Great Dao, and soul, he looked no different from Yu Jue in any aspect.

Wang Lanlan was holding a big clam in her arms and sucking it while walking. She had looked at Han Fei countless times, and finally couldn't help but ask, "Master Han Fei, is there really no problem with your imitation?"

Han Fei asked, "Do you see anything wrong?"

Wang Lanlan shook her head. "I can't find any problem at all, but Big Luoluo is very strong. I can't see through your disguise, but maybe Big Luoluo can. If your identity is exposed, it's difficult to guarantee that no one from the ferocious beasts will have designs on you."

Han Fei asked, "Is the Big Luoluo you mentioned at the immortal level?"

Wang Lanlan nodded repeatedly. "Yes, Big Luoluo is the strongest of our ferocious beasts. It's difficult for us to guess what a Monarch is capable of."

Han Fei smiled casually. "Don't worry."

If it were before, Han Fei wouldn't have dared to pretend to be someone else and show up in front of other Monarchs.

But now, his strength was completely different. He could completely use the disguise power of the Heaven Concealing Divine Technique, plus the effect of the Heaven Deceiving Technique and half of the essence blood he had extracted from Yu Jue to disguise himself. He wanted to see if an immortal-level powerhouse could see through him.

Even if he was seen through, he wasn't afraid. Han Fei even wanted to meet the leader of the ferocious beasts. If the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider was really as smart as the Emperor Sparrow said, and if the Demon Purification Pot was right that anyone who killed the Emperor Sparrow would die, then the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider had no reason to kill him.

Besides, even if that person really wanted to kill him, it was impossible for him to come up and kill him without saying anything. If that was the case, this Seven Ultimate Divine Spider would be too stupid. There were many rumors outside, and Wang Xiaojie had even personally witnessed that the Emperor Sparrow was his spiritual beast. He should have considered what kind of person could have a terrifying existence like the Emperor Sparrow as his spiritual beast.

Therefore, although this trip to the ferocious beasts was a bit risky, it was worth a try. With the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider's control and information network in the western mining area, maybe he could learn some things about the God Burying Ridge.

Three days later.

Han Fei and Wang Lanlan had already snuck back to the ferocious beasts' camp. There was no such thing as a city here. There were all mountains, so most of the ferocious beasts ran from this to that mountain.

In fact, many of the ferocious beasts were very naughty and often went to the homes of the powerful ferocious beasts they were familiar with to steal things.

After stealing things, it didn't matter if they could run away or not. If they couldn't, they would be beaten up or punished, just like Wang Lanlan and Yu Jue.

At this moment, as they approached the camp, there were more and more ferocious beasts. From afar, Han Fei could often sense the figures of ferocious beasts shuttling randomly around. Even in the void, there were ferocious beasts fighting fiercely, but no one cared.

Han Fei said, "Your punishment hasn't been over yet. If you enter the camp openly, won't you be kicked out?"

Wang Lanlan certainly couldn't go in openly. "The reason why I went to steal minerals with Yu Jue was that Yu Jue had always liked to dig tunnels. Half of the tunnels under our camp were dug by him. Previously, we were happy to play hide-and-seek in the tunnels, so no one would pay attention."

But Yu Jue wasn't stupid. He knew to keep some secret tunnels.

Wang Lanlan shook her hand and took out a topographic map, which was densely packed with route maps and all routes were marked, including the length and depth of the tunnels. Those without special colors were common tunnels that anyone could come in to have fun. But there were also some special tunnels marked on it.

Han Fei asked, "What do the red routes represent?"

Wang Lanlan said, "They were used when we went to steal... Well, when we visited our friends."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. I don't believe you. Visited your friends? Why did you need to dig tunnels to visit your friends?

Wang Lanlan chuckled. "Master Han Fei, in fact, our habit of stealing is not really stealing. This is actually a kind of training to train your perception ability, screening ability, defense ability, judgment of danger, and so on..."

Han Fei said, "Then put treasures directly in your Origin Star. Who can steal them from your Origin Star?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Of course we will put some things on our Origin Stars, but we will also hide treasures at home and wait for others to steal them, mainly to motivate us to grow."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Are you looking for trouble?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Well, if we don't steal anything but get caught, we'll go to the void to fight the owner. If we win, we can still take the things away."

Han Fei found it interesting. How did these ferocious beasts invent such a cultivation method?

However, on second thought, Han Fei asked, "Do you mean that I can steal too?"

Wang Lanlan said, "As long as your identity isn't exposed, it should be fine, Master Han Fei. However, it seems that except for a very few strong masters, there might not be anything at our home that you're interested in."

Wang Lanlan didn't think that anyone who could casually throw out three level-eight minerals was short of money. With his wealth, did he need to steal?

Han Fei realized that it did make sense. He wouldn't steal unless it was a Monarch's treasure, but that would be too much. If he pretended to be a ferocious beast just to steal, it would be embarrassing.

After all, in a sense, he not only represented himself, but also represented the Emperor Sparrow. If he really stole the ferocious beasts' treasures, it would be fine if he didn't get caught, but if he was caught, the image of the Emperor Sparrow might immediately collapse.

Han Fei asked again, "Which tunnel is connected to Big Luoluo's home?"

Buzz!

Wang Lanlan looked at Han Fei in shock. "Master Han Fei, are you going to steal from Big Luoluo? If Big Luoluo finds out that you are not Yu Jue..."

Han Fei said with a smile, "First of all, you two shouldn't appear in the ferocious beast camp now. Secondly, you planned to steal Big Luoluo's treasures in the first place. Lastly, if I don't steal Big Luoluo, what's the point of going to the ferocious beast camp? To spend all day in the tunnels? I won't even be able to take a walk there."

"But..."

Han Fei said, "No buts. Since Big Luoluo has a good temper, there's no reason for her to beat and kill me."

Wang Lanlan said, "Big Luoluo has a bad temper sometimes. When she's fierce, she's very scary. Especially when she's fierce to her enemies, everyone is scared."

The corners of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "Cut the crap. Let's go. Lead the way."

As long as the Emperor Sparrow was his spiritual beast, Han Fei would never be able to escape from the ferocious beasts. Since he had to come into contact with them sooner or later, he might as well do it this time.

Wang Lanlan awkwardly led Han Fei into a cave in a mine. When they really entered the mine dug by Yu Jue, Han Fei was amazed that this guy wasn't very stupid. This cave was riddled with holes and there were countless roads behind each hole. Who the hell could remember this?

After Wang Lanlan led Han Fei through tens of thousands of caves, he was finally convinced. No wonder the North Dark Pangolin hung around with the Thousand Wit Otter. A smart person and a very powerful fool were more compatible than two smart people.

Wang Lanlan said, "Master Han Fei, the roads I took you on had never been used before. Otherwise, you might encounter many ferocious beasts on other roads. Now, we are more than 300 kilometers deep into the mine where Big Luoluo's home is. Because this is a super mine, it has the ability to block perception, so even Monarchs can't reach here with perception. But are we really going there?"

Han Fei said, "Sure. Tell me, how can I steal things? Even if she can't sense it in the mine, once we leave the mine cave, as an immortal-level powerhouse, how can she not even find you?"

Wang Lanlan said, "When Big Luoluo cultivates at home, she doesn't envelop everything with her perception. She will only set some small traps. As long as the traps are not triggered, we are lucky. So as long as the noise is not too loud, as long as we don't meet her face-to-face, we can steal."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Isn't this sending resources to you?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Big Luoluo is rich! Rich people just want to play. She treats this as a game, so do we. However, if you lose the game, you have to be punished, but you will just need to cultivate in seclusion for a hundred years, patrol the mountains, guard the Storm Ridge, go on business trips to the Hundred Alliance City, or harass divine beasts, and so on. Everyone is used to it."

Hearing Wang Lanlan's words, Han Fei was really curious. This strong cultivator's hobby was a little special! If people came to steal from her every day, even a Monarch wouldn't be able to resist 100,000 people stealing at the same time, right?

Han Fei said, "Let's go up."

Wang Lanlan made up her mind. Since she was already here, even if she was discovered, Big Luoluo wouldn't blame her, right? She was only in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. Besides, since the Emperor Sparrow had ordered her, there was no way she could refuse the Emperor Sparrow!

Wang Lanlan led Han Fei all the way up and said, "Master Han Fei, when we go out, we have to be careful of the traps set up by Big Luoluo. Big Luoluo often sets up some small arrays, illusions, mechanisms, ripples of Dao patterns, bug puzzles, and so on..."

Han Fei was dumbfounded, but he thought that it was just some small traps and not a big problem. He said, "Can we use perception?"

Wang Lanlan said, "It can only be used in a small area. It's not a problem to use it in a place visible to the naked eye. Once it's used in a large range, it will be equivalent to telling Big Luoluo that you're here. Then you will be caught in an instant."

Han Fei nodded slightly. Soon, he and Wang Lanlan walked to the end of this passage. The last ten meters of the mine had not been cleared. Only when this passage was activated would Yu Jue come to clear it.

However, this naturally couldn't stop Han Fei. Although he wasn't a North Dark Pangolin, he was very good at digging too.

With a thought from Han Fei, the Infinity Water turned into the big claws of the pangolin and began to dig. After only dozens of seconds, a channel was dug out.

Han Fei and Wang Lanlan stuck their heads out, only to see a forest of demon plants, but didn't find any traces.

In the Infinite Mining Area, it was not easy to establish a demon plantation forest. It could only be said that Big Luoluo must value the quality of life and not want to look at hard stones all day long.

Wang Lanlan jumped out and said via voice transmission, "Master Han Fei, we should be in Big Luoluo's demon plantation forest. There are more than 300 such demon plantation forests at Big Luoluo's home. Even if we walk with our eyes closed, we won't encounter Big Luoluo."

Han Fei also jumped out at this moment, glanced casually, and said, "Does she like treasures very much?"

Wang Lanlan said, "That's right! When Luoluo is happy, she will let tens of thousands of people search for treasures together. Whoever finds them will have the treasures. But the premise is that the scenery in her house can't be ruined. Therefore, we can only find it with our own wisdom. Last time, it was I who found a level-eight mineral. Unfortunately, Yu Jue was so happy that he triggered a mechanism, causing the two of us to be caught."

Han Fei nodded slightly and walked casually to the flowers. He pointed casually and among the thousands of flower buds, one bloomed instantly. This flower bud wrapped a level-seven mineral.

"Huh? Well~"

Wang Lanlan was dumbfounded. He found it so easily and even got a level-seven mineral?

Wang Lanlan asked, "Master Han Fei, how did you find it?"

Han Fei asked, "Is there a need to look for it? Can't you see that the stem of this flower is slightly more curved than other flowers?"

Han Fei said, "Okay! You may not have good eyesight. Let's wander around."

With that, Han Fei threw the level-seven mineral to Wang Lanlan. The latter took it and raised her eyelids, thinking, Is this mine?

However, just as she thought so, she heard Han Fei say, "Remember to give half of the treasure you find to Yu Jue. Yu Jue is weak. You are smarter than him. You should give him some pointers."

Wang Lanlan nodded. "Yes."

Wang Lanlan followed him, but before he walked more than thirty steps, Han Fei stopped and turned to a big tree not far away. He flicked his finger, and a small spider on the tree flew to another tree.

In the next moment, a leaf fell from the tree. The moment the leaf fell, it turned golden.

Wang Lanlan exclaimed, "A one-time low-quality godly weapon, the Golden Leaf Saber? Master Han Fei, how did you find it?"

Han Fei touched his nose and said, "There is a spider on this tree. Spiders usually represent wealth."

Wang Lanlan was speechless. "That's it?"

"That's it."

Wang Lanlan: "..."

After another hundred steps, Han Fei suddenly walked to the side of the road, moved a stone away, and moved the stone to the opposite side of another stone. Then, he saw that the stone cracked, revealing a level-seven mine.

Wang Lanlan: “...”

An hour later.

Han Fei and Wang Lanlan finally walked out of the demon plant forest, only to see that Wang Lanlan was looking at Han Fei weirdly. He was simply a f*cking god! She saw with her own eyes that Han Fei took out a jade slip from the mouth of a caterpillar. It was actually a concealment technique.

Along the way, Han Fei had seen through 68 mechanisms and obtained 60 level-seven minerals, three low-quality one-time-use godly weapons, two jade slips, and three drops of Soul Purification Water.

Wang Lanlan had always felt that she was smart enough, but in fact, after meeting Han Fei, she realized how stupid she was! It turned out that Big Luoluo’s house was full of treasures, but she had never found these treasures.

After leaving the demon plant forest, a bluestone road appeared, and not long after, they saw a corridor. Wang Lanlan said, “Ah! It seems that our luck is very good! This is called the Opportunity Corridor. There are 108 steps in the entire corridor, and every step is a random teleportation door. Behind these 108 teleportation doors, there must be a place with top treasures, such as level-eight minerals, high-quality godly weapons, even one-time high-quality godly weapons, great techniques, and even divine techniques.”

Han Fei asked, “Only one has such an opportunity?”

Wang Lanlan nodded. “Although only one has such an opportunity, there will be an opportunity behind every teleportation door. Whether we can find it depends on luck.”

Han Fei asked, “Where is Big Luoluo usually?”

Wang Lanlan said, “Big Luoluo is usually cultivating! She is only responsible for arranging opportunities.”

Han Fei couldn’t help but frown. “Isn’t the probability of meeting her very low?”

Wang Lanlan said, “That’s right! That’s why this is called the Opportunity Corridor! When you encounter the Opportunity Corridor, it usually represents opportunities. The success rate of stealing is as high as 99%.”

Han Fei nodded. “Okay! Then let’s go! Let’s take a look around.”

Han Fei thought to himself, Big Luoluo is also a big-headed person. How rich must she be to be able to afford the stealing of so many ferocious beasts?

On the other side, under a big tree in the super mine, eight ferocious beasts were hanging on a branch.

These ferocious beasts were hung upside down on the trunk, and under the tree, there was a girl holding a whip in her hand, panting angrily.

Pa! Pa!

Slap!

“Howl~ Howl~”

The girl waved the whip in her hand and snapped it. The eight ferocious beasts hanging upside down on the tree were whipped until their skin and flesh were lacerated.

If Han Fei were here, he would definitely find that Wang Xiaojia, who had been looking for him to chat, was hanging here, and he was the first to hang up.

“Oh! Big Luoluo, I was wrong. I’ll go to the Storm Ridge to guard it.”

Slap!

With one hand on her waist, the girl cursed, “Shut up. You triggered eight seals in stealing. Ha, the seal bells are ringing nonstop in my ears. Don’t you know I’ve been upset recently? Do you think you’re qualified to guard the Storm Ridge? You’ll probably end up being swallowed by the storm!”

Slap!

A ferocious beast wailed, “Big Luoluo, I was wrong. Don’t keep whipping my ass on one side! Change to the other side.”

Slap!

“No, I won’t. I just like whipping this side.”

The ferocious beast hurriedly said, “Big Luoluo, it’s all Wang Xiaojia’s fault. Wang Xiaojia was too fast and didn’t stop in time, so he touched the seals!”

Wang Xiaojia immediately cursed, “Bullshit, I didn’t. It wasn’t me. It had nothing to do with me. You guys were too slow.”

Slap!

“Woof ~”

Pa! Pa! Pa!

The girl whipped him seven or eight times in a row before she vented her anger. “You’re the noisiest! Sooner or later, I’ll rip your fur off. Make you stay with Baldy. You two are a good match.”

Wang Xiaojia was immediately unhappy. “How can Baldy be compared to me? I am a pure-blood cat, but he is a fake one. He doesn’t even have fur. He can’t be called a cat.”

Pa! Pa!

“Shut up, shut up! Why do you nag all day long? You’re the most annoying one in the entire ferocious beast lineage. Nag, nag, Why didn’t you die in Puppet City?”

Wang Xiaojiu said, “Big Luoluo, I haven’t nagged you recently! Stop whipping me, or you will kill this lovely cat.”

Big Luoluo snorted coldly. “It’s good that you’re dead. I don’t want to see you again. Get your ass to the Storm Ridge and cultivate in the Wind Circle for eight hundred years. I’ll skin you alive if you dare to come back a year earlier.”

“Woof ~”

Wang Xiaojiu wailed in pain, “Don’t, Big Luoluo, I can go to the Storm Ridge, but I don’t want to enter the Wind Circle! If I go there, I’ll be killed in only eighty years!”

The girl snorted. “Great, then you can keep Baldy company.”

The other ferocious beasts didn’t dare to speak, fearing that Big Luoluo would send them into the Wind Circle as soon as they opened their mouths.

“Hehe...”

The girl crossed her arms. “What a coincidence. Here comes another wave. Let me see who is so unlucky as to teleport right to me?”

Han Fei and Wang Lanlan did enter a portal at random, but when their eyes lit up, they saw seven or eight ferocious beasts hanging on the tree, and a girl was looking at them gloatingly with her arms crossed.

“Ahhh~”

“Li Luoluo?”

Wang Lanlan screamed and was dumbfounded on the spot.

Wang Lanlan sat on the ground. Before the girl could speak, she wiped her tears and said, “Why am I so unlucky! Big Luoluo, Juejue insisted on coming back. It has nothing to do with me!”

With that, Wang Lanlan suddenly remembered that Yu Jue was on Han Fei’s Origin Star at the moment, and the person beside him was played by Han Fei.

Wang Lanlan looked at Han Fei apologetically, thinking that it was a slip of the tongue.

Han Fei’s eyelids twitched crazily. He was also stunned on the spot. Needless to say, the cat hanging on the tree was an old acquaintance. And the girl under the tree... was also an old acquaintance.

Han Fei didn't know what to say. Big Luoluo? He had thought that this was a very unique name. Now it seemed that this was Li Luoluo. Li Luoluo from the Yin-Yang World and then Li Luoluo who hid in a corner of the Raging Sea. The Sea Realm was so big. He didn't expect to meet this woman here.

"Huh!"

The girl was also taken aback for a moment. She opened her mouth and said, "Very good, Juejue, you're really something, aren't you? How dare you call me by my name?"

Slap!

The whip came at him. Han Fei wanted to block it, but since he was acting as Yu Jue, he didn't do so and was whipped to the ground.

Han Fei didn't know what to do. Li Luoluo was Big Luoluo. Wasn't this woman only a Sea Establisher? Even if she was just a clone back then, why was her original body so strong?

You're an immortal-level powerhouse and the leader of the ferocious beasts. Why did you come to Yin-Yang World to become a Law Enforcer? Are you serious?

However, Li Luoluo didn't seem to notice Han Fei's abnormality at first. She just sneered. "Wang Lanlan, Juejue, you two are really capable! Is your punishment over yet? How dare you come back to steal from me? Do you think I don't exist?"

Wang Lanlan immediately said, "Big Luoluo! It's Wang Xiaojiu. Wang Xiaojiu came to my place a few days ago to show off, saying that he had stolen a lot of minerals. He bewitched me, Big Luoluo. Please beware of this."

Wang Xiaojiu was annoyed. "Wang Lanlan, come on! I didn't show off to you. I just went to chat with you. You can't slander me!"

Wang Lanlan said, "It's you, it's you. You were showing off in front of me. Otherwise, how could I have come back?"

Slap!

Li Luoluo whipped at her. "Cut the crap. How can Wang Xiaojiu bewitch you? How many people in the entire ferocious beast lineage are smarter than you? And you even put the blame on Juejue. How dare he come back by himself?"

In the next moment, the two of them only saw a flash before their eyes, and then they were hung next to Wang Xiaojiu.

Han Fei was dumbfounded. This was really embarrassing. He, the dignified Human Emperor and the master of the Emperor Sparrow, was hung on a tree and whipped by someone. He had never been humiliated like this in his life!

No, Han Fei immediately made a decision. Wang Lanlan was still next to him. What would she think if she saw him whipped?

He had come here to visit the leader of the ferocious beasts. Since they were acquaintances, it should be easier for him to communicate with her, right?

The moment Han Fei slightly changed his aura, Li Luoluo immediately looked at Han Fei and narrowed her eyes.

Li Luoluo looked at Han Fei for two or three seconds. Han Fei didn't feel anything, but Wang Lanlan was already panicking. Her state made Li Luoluo even more certain of her guess.

Swish ~

With a casual wave of Li Luoluo's hand, everyone fell to the ground. She said, "Everyone, get lost. Wang Xiaojie, go to the Storm Ridge. It's been 3,000 years, but you stupid cat haven't proven Dao. If you still can't prove Dao this time, don't come back."

"Woof ~"

Wang Xiaojie was shocked. He shouted, "Didn't we agree that it would be 800 years? How did it become Dao Proving? Big Luoluo, I'm wronged! Can you spare my life?"

Li Luoluo said, "No! Get your ass there first. When I'm in a good mood and go there for a walk, you can beg me for my mercy."

When Wang Xiaojie heard this, he immediately said, "Then I'll go find Huang Ergou now. Goodbye, Big Luoluo."

Wang Xiaojie was about to slip away, but then he said, "Big Luoluo, Wang Lanlan is really wicked. You can't let her off easily. She is a pure-blooded ferocious beast, but she only has one Dao Lock now. What a disgrace. She should be thrown into the Wind Circle and modified."

"F*ck off."

"Yes."

Swish ~

Wang Xiaojie ran away with a swish. The others also looked at Li Luoluo expectantly. The latter snorted coldly and said, "You guys, go patrol the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range for 3,000 years. Get lost."

"Yes, yes, goodbye, Big Luoluo."

At this moment, no one cared about Han Fei and Wang Lanlan. They felt that Wang Lanlan and Han Fei had actually saved them. Otherwise, they might have been hung for seven days and seven nights.

Therefore, before they left, they gave Han Fei and Wang Lanlan a sympathetic look.

After everyone left, Li Luoluo narrowed her eyes and looked at Han Fei. "You could have hidden yourself from me, but you deliberately revealed a strange aura. Since you're not Yu Jue, who are you?"

Ripples flashed on Han Fei's body, and in the next moment, he returned to his real appearance.

"Han Fei?"

Li Luoluo's pupils were constricted slightly. For a moment, she didn't know what to say. How could I meet this guy in my hometown?

Only Wang Lanlan looked at Li Luoluo in shock and said in surprise, "Do you know each other?"

Li Luoluo wasn't stupid. The moment she saw Han Fei, she seemed to understand something and couldn't help but say, "Human Butcher?"

Han Fei smiled and nodded. As long as Li Luoluo wasn't stupid, she would definitely be able to guess it.

Li Luoluo couldn't help but roll her eyes. "I should have guessed that the Human Butcher is you, but I didn't expect you to be so good at running. You came to the Infinite Mining Area alone. What's with the Seven Kill Army?"

"I picked it up."

Li Luoluo mocked, "I want to pick one up too. By the way, I also want to pick up Puppet City. Where's the Emperor Sparrow? Why didn't I know that your spiritual beast is the Emperor Sparrow?"

Han Fei said, "I can't tell you that, but I'm also surprised to see you."

Li Luoluo rolled her eyes. "Where did Juejue go? Did you kill him?"

Han Fei asked, "Do I look like someone who willfully kills innocent people?"

Li Luoluo: "Do you think you haven't killed enough people?"

Han Fei was lost for words. "He's cultivating in my Origin Star, going to break through to the Perfected Star Transformation Realm."

Li Luoluo's face darkened. "So you took my people under your command?"

Han Fei shrugged and said, "You can't say that. I just happened to meet him. How would I know that Big Luoluo is you? If I had known, I would have come straight here."

Wang Lanlan looked at Li Luoluo and Han Fei from time to time, wondering when the two of them knew each other. Big Luoluo had never left the ferocious beast camp!

Besides, the two of them seemed to have an extraordinary relationship! Could it be that they were a couple?

Seeing Wang Lanlan's eyes rolling, Li Luoluo whipped her. "Stay here. Don't run anywhere. If you run, I'll throw you into the Wind Circle and let you be blown by the wind for eight thousand years."

Wang Lanlan: "..."

Wang Lanlan was speechless. I didn't do anything! Also, what the hell is 8,000 years? After 8,000 years, there will be nothing left of me.

Wang Lanlan hurriedly said, "I won't run. I definitely won't run. I won't even move."

After that, a mussel appeared in Wang Lanlan's hand. She sat on the ground with the mussel in her arms, preparing to eat until Li Luoluo and Han Fei finished chatting.

Li Luoluo pushed back and a teleportation door appeared. She smiled faintly. "Since you're already here, let me show you around."

After a while, Han Fei came to Li Luoluo's real cultivation field. Just like when she was young, Li Luoluo still liked colorful things. The forest where she lived had many insect statues, flowers and trees disguised by colorful insects, and many childish things, such as swings, cotton beds, warm pools, windmills, and so on.

Of course, not all of them were made of worms. For example, there were peach trees here that were full of peaches, as well as olives, bananas, and so on. Han Fei vaguely remembered that these were the seeds he got from the underground city of the Scattered Stars Island. He didn't expect Li Luoluo to also get a batch of them and plant them all over the mountain here.

Furthermore, these fruits became spiritual fruits here, and they were top-notch spiritual fruits. Because the power of minerals here was too rich in spiritual energy, it was difficult for these fruits not to mutate.

Li Luoluo picked two peaches from the peach tree and threw one to Han Fei. She rubbed her hand on the peach and took a bite of the peach.

She said, "Let me make it clear. Although I'm Li Luoluo, I'm not exactly the Li Luoluo you know. You should know that Li Luoluo is just my clone, but her personality is similar to mine. And I sent out tens of thousands of such clones back then."

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "Can clones cultivate?"

Li Luoluo explained, "My clones are different. They're made of worms and can exist independently, so they can cultivate on their own."

Han Fei couldn't help being surprised. "Then wouldn't it be easy for you to become a Great Monarch as long as you create tens of thousands of clones and make them all cultivate to the Sky Opening Realm or even the Dao Proving Realm? Why are you still only at the Immortal level?"

Li Luoluo couldn't help but be speechless. "ONLY immortal level? You haven't proven Dao yet, and you despise I'm only at the immortal level? If you want to surpass the immortal level and become a Great Monarch, it's not as simple as having a few clones. No matter how many clones you have, it's only an increase in strength. However, there's a limit to the immortal level. At this limit, no matter how many clones you have, it's useless. A Great Monarch comprehends the ultimate truth of the Great Dao and the law of all things and creates his unique path. It's not as simple as you think."

After that, Li Luoluo looked at Han Fei up and down. "But your cultivation speed is really fast. It's only been a few hundred years, but you've already reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. Furthermore, you can already kill powerhouses with five Dao Locks and fight a Monarch head-on. I didn't think you were so talented before."

Han Fei smiled and said, "I was in the Raging Sea. How can the Raging Sea compare to the Sea Realm?"

Li Luoluo snorted. "That's true. To be able to become the master of the Emperor Sparrow, you should have peerless talent. But I still can't figure out how the Emperor Sparrow became your spiritual beast."

Han Fei suggested, "Do you want me to call him out, and you two have a chat?"

"No!"

Li Luoluo refused. "I'd better not see him. I'll definitely have a headache when I see him. His appearance has been a headache for me for a long time. Now because of your appearance, I suddenly feel better. I don't want to see him now. If I can't hold back..."

Han Fei said, "Whoever kills the Emperor Sparrow will die."

Li Luoluo snorted. "I know, I know. If I really want to kill you and him, do you think I need to do it myself?"

"Gulp ~"

Han Fei took a bite of the peach and said, "There's indeed no need, but we're old acquaintances after all. With such a relationship, there's no need for us to fight. But I'm curious. Since you're already so strong, why did you split up so many clones? Also, how did you find the Raging Sea and enter the Yin-Yang World from it?"

Li Luoluo said, "I had told you! I went to find the Time Worm and the Space Worm. Later, I found Chu Hao, who was in the Monarch Palace in the Raging Sea. But when I found him, the Time Worm and the Space Worm had already been taken away by someone, and then that person created the Ten Color World. I chased all the way to the Ten Color World, but the worms had already been taken away by your father, Han Guanshu, and your mother, Jiang Linxian. As a result, they were hunted down by others and ran away. Later, I tried my best to enter the Yin-Yang World. Before that, I had been raising worms in the Monarch Palace for a period of time."

Han Fei was speechless. So the insect tide I encountered in the Monarch Palace was raised by Li Luoluo?

There was a reason for all coincidences. At this moment, Han Fei realized that many things were preordained.

However, when Han Fei heard about the Time Worm and the Space Worm again, he couldn't help but wonder, "Are these two worms really that important?"

Li Luoluo seemed to be interested. "Yes, very important. My Monarch Path is only short of these two insects. With them, I can immediately become a Great Monarch."

Han Fei's heart skipped a beat. This was f*cking awesome!

Han Fei's heart did a flip and he couldn't help but ask, "Will the Time Worm and the Space Worm die?"

Li Luoluo looked straight at Han Fei. "No, but it's very difficult to find them. God knows which time and space node they are in. But if you can find your father and mother..."

Han Fei shrugged and said, "You know, I can't go back to the Raging Sea now. The Ten Thousand Scale Race has enslaved the human race for 100,000 years. If the current location of the Raging Sea is exposed, it will be the doomsday of the human race. Besides, to be honest, even if I go back now, I don't think I can find them. I think you saw my father just after I won the Sea Quelling Painting. Why didn't you go to talk to him?"

Li Luoluo said, "Don't you know the strength of my clone? And at that time, your father didn't have the aura of the Time Worm on him, so I was prepared to wait. Who knew that your father was so elusive? I wanted to come out of the Raging Sea so that my original body could go over, but who knew that my memories of the Raging Sea would be severed by you after I came out. More importantly, you didn't cut off just one memory but seven of my memories..."

As she spoke, Li Luoluo stared straight at Han Fei.

"Hahaha, wasn't that to prevent the Raging Sea from being discovered? As you said, if your memories hadn't been severed by me, I'm afraid you would have gone to the Raging Sea long ago, right?"

Li Luoluo snorted. "That's right. But I'm actually not in a hurry, because since you are still alive, a war will break out in the Chaotic Wasteland sooner or later, so I've been waiting."

The corners of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "Wait for me to prove my Dao and then attack the Chaotic Wasteland? Have you thought how many years you will have to wait?"

Li Luoluo shrugged. "I haven't thought about it. My life at home is quite easy. In the blink of an eye, 500 years have passed. If it weren't for the appearance of the Emperor Sparrow, I would be living quite happily now."

Li Luoluo: "Yes! But I keep having clones come back! The scenery my clones have experienced is all my own experience. Isn't it good to travel all day long?"

Han Fei was speechless. Li Luoluo's mentality was really good, as could be seen from how she hid treasures every day and let her subordinates steal them.

Li Luoluo said, "Now I'm relieved to see that you've reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm and can already fight Monarchs. It seems that you are not far from proving Dao. That means that the Raging Sea will come to the Sea Realm sooner or later. This is a good thing."

Han Fei said, "Even if the Raging Sea comes over, my parents will not necessarily come over. Are you sure I can find them?"

Li Luoluo said, "Yes! As long as time and space are not destroyed, the two insects won't die. Besides, can your parents really sever all ties with you? In the Raging Sea, there must be a way to find them. Since the place and the people have been confirmed, why am I in a hurry?"

Han Fei retorted, "Aren't you afraid that the Time Worms and the Space Worms will be found by the Time Temple?"

Li Luoluo: "..."

Li Luoluo glanced at Han Fei. "What do you mean? The Raging Sea also involves the Time Temple?"

The corners of Han Fei's mouth curled up slightly. It seemed that Li Luoluo didn't know everything. He nodded. "Yes, so I can't guarantee that I can find these two worms. I can only try my best."

Li Luoluo frowned. "The Time Temple can even set foot in that crappy place. As expected of one of the three Holy Temples. Oh, right, why did you come to the ferocious beasts? I don't think you knew who I was before you saw me, right? Are you here on behalf of the Emperor Sparrow to persuade us to surrender?"

Han Fei shook his head. "No. Have you ever seen a Sky Opener subduing an immortal-level powerhouse? But I'm here to express that the Emperor Sparrow doesn't just represent disaster. We may not have much interaction for the time being, but there shouldn't be any hatred between us. Why don't we watch the growth of the Emperor Sparrow? We can start as allies."

Li Luoluo scoffed. "Is this the reason why you dare to come to the ferocious beasts alone? Not to mention killing the Emperor Sparrow, there is more than one ferocious beast who can kill the Emperor Sparrow now."

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Also, the Emperor Sparrow said that the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider was one of the eight strongest Great Monarchs under him in the past."

Li Luoluo: "This is a reason, but no one can guarantee that after so many years, people won't betray him! Besides, that's the former Seven Ultimate Divine Spider, but it doesn't mean that it's the current Seven Ultimate Divine Spider."

Han Fei: "Also, as the leader of the ferocious beasts, have you never heard of me?"

"What did you do?"

Li Luoluo looked at Han Fei curiously. "It's only been a few hundred years, but you've already left a mark in the Sea Realm?"

Han Fei was speechless. "Didn't any of you participate in the 100,000-year competition of the Divine Capital Dynasty?"

Li Luoluo said, "Of course not. Which of the ferocious beasts and divine beasts will go to that competition? If we do, our bones will be torn apart and refined into weapons on our way to the Divine Capital Dynasty."

Han Fei said, "Then I think you should ask around. When I show my real name, which Monarch dares to attack me?"

The corners of Li Luoluo's mouth twitched. "You show-off. Have you hooked up with a Great Monarch?"

Humph...

Han Fei raised his head forty-five degrees and looked at the sky proudly. "That was decades ago. I was hunted by the Monarchs of the Heavenly Race. I had no choice but to ask for help from my sect. Then, my senior brother stepped on the Heavenly Gate and stood up for me... Alas, I was too weak!"

Li Luoluo: "..."

Seeing Han Fei's smug look, Li Luoluo couldn't help but be curious. "Who is your senior brother? I've been in the East Sea Divine Realm for so many years. Why didn't I know of such a strong master? Is your senior brother Great Monarch East Martial?"

"It would be too self-aggrandizing for me to tell you this information. I suggest you ask around and you will know the answer."

Li Luoluo said, "Hey, aren't you bragging?"

Han Fei said, "Keep a low profile."

Li Luoluo: "..."

Li Luoluo waved her hand. "Forget it, I'll ask around myself. However, did you come here just to chat with me? You didn't intend to subdue the ferocious beasts, so you came to chat with me, like Wang Xiaojie?"

Han Fei asked, "What do you think?"

Li Luoluo: "Okay! What's the matter exactly? Although our relationship seems okay, it's just my clone who is very familiar with you. In all my memories, you only occupy a very small part."

Han Fei didn't listen to Li Luoluo's nonsense. She used to be called Variety Devil Girl, so he just listened to what she said.

Han Fei said, "To be honest, I did pass by the ferocious beasts on this trip. I didn't expect to be exposed, so I purely wanted to take a look. But now, there's something else I really have to ask you."

"No problem! Old friend, I'm still counting on you to help me find the Time Worm and the Space Worm. I'll help you if I can, provided that it doesn't involve anything related to the Emperor Sparrow for the time being."

Li Luoluo was so straightforward that Han Fei was a little surprised.

Han Fei said, "Well, do you know the God Burying Ridge?"

Buzz!

Li Luoluo's pupils were suddenly constricted, and the smile on her face disappeared. "Where did you hear this name?"

Seeing that Li Luoluo's attitude had changed so drastically, Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Why? Do few people know about the God Burying Ridge?"

Li Luoluo took a deep look at Han Fei. "Logically speaking, there shouldn't be many people in this world who know about the God Burying Ridge. It's even possible that they are already dead. Now you suddenly ask me about the God Burying Ridge. What do you think I should think?"

Han Fei couldn't help but think of Fifth Senior Brother. Did he personally witness the death of that Demon God?

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Have you forgotten that I took over Puppet City? So I know some ancient secrets."

However, Li Luoluo still looked at Han Fei, her expression no longer casual, and he said, "Han Fei, I thought we were friends. You should be able to see that I'm actually a good Monarch. Why did Puppet City have records about this secret? Why did you come?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Li Luoluo's reaction was so big. It seemed that she knew the relationship between the Demon God and the Dao of Extreme Balance?

Han Fei asked curiously, "Is the appearance of the ferocious beasts here also related to the Demon God?"

God of Fishing

Chapter 2624: Storm Ridge (2 in 1)

2624 Storm Ridge (2 in 1)

Han Fei didn't say his purpose immediately, because people believed that the Dao of Extreme Balance was the demonic path. Their attitude towards the demonic path had always been hostile. Han Fei didn't know what Li Luoluo's attitude was. Anyway, he didn't want to ruin their relationship because of this.

Han Fei's relationship with Li Luoluo was actually just average. If they really fell out, it wouldn't do him any good.

Therefore, Han Fei only pointed out the Demon God but didn't say why he was here.

However, Li Luoluo looked at Han Fei deeply. "Are you here to find a way to extreme balance?"

Han Fei thought to himself, Is it so obvious?

Han Fei asked, "Why do you think so? Can't I come here to kill the demon?"

Li Luoluo suddenly relaxed. "I thought about it. If you want to liberate the Raging Sea and save the human race, you must have to have the ability to contend with the City of Scavengers. This can be seen from the fact that you can grow to this point in just more than 500 years. You are trying your best to become stronger. And the Dao of Extreme Balance is a path to quickly become stronger, so the possibility of you coming to kill the demon is almost zero. You can only come to become a demon."

Han Fei grinned. "Do you think I would abandon myself in order to become a demon? You should know that the path I take doesn't allow me to become a demon."

Li Luoluo: "This is also the reason why I lost my cool just now. I'm thinking how can you save the human race once you become a demon? Unless you have a way to master the Dao of Extreme Balance without becoming a demon."

Han Fei's heart trembled. Is Li Luoluo so bold guessing?

But on the surface, Han Fei's lips twitched. "You really think too much. Have you ever heard of anyone who cultivates the Dao of Extreme Balance and doesn't become a demon?"

Li Luoluo: "I know! The Demon God himself doesn't become a demon. In this world, as long as there is a precedent, it's possible. If you don't have such a method, why do you want to find the God Burying Ridge?"

Han Fei said, "Would you believe me if I say that I want to refer to the Dao of Extreme Balance and see if I can create a different path?"

Li Luoluo shook her head. "I don't believe it! Sophistry is cover-up, and cover-up is the truth. Since you know that no one in the world can walk the Dao of Extreme Balance without becoming a demon, you still dare to come. That doesn't make sense. After all, you're not here to see me."

Li Luoluo's eyes became brighter and brighter. "So, do you really have a way to embark on this path?"

Han Fei shook his head. "I don't. Don't slander me."

Han Fei thought to himself, No matter what method Li Luoluo used or what identity she used to ask him, he wouldn't admit it. The fact that he was born with double spiritual heritages might be his greatest trump card in the future.

Li Luoluo looked at Han Fei suspiciously. Few people in this world dared to take this path. If Han Fei dared to come to the God Burying Ridge just because he had read some ancient records, first of all, this kind of person was definitely a certain kind of paranoid cultivation maniac. Only such a person wouldn't care about becoming a demon.

But Li Luoluo knew very well what kind of person Han Fei was. No matter what this guy looked like, he was still a decent person. Since his character hadn't changed, it was impossible for him to come here without complete confidence.

Therefore, Li Luoluo's heart stirred. "Oh! Congratulations, you've really found the right place. Few people in this world know that the God Burying Ridge exists. I even suspect that there isn't anyone who knows that the God Burying Ridge is here. Perhaps this information can only be obtained from ancient inheritances. I know that you have a special treasure that can point the way. However, this secret can't be told to others. If you know, I can let you off. But since you've seen me, I can't let you tell a third person or a fourth person, so you need to swear an oath."

Han Fei couldn't help but sigh. Back then, he was the one who controlled Li Luoluo. Unexpectedly, the tables had turned.

Han Fei said, "I can swear an oath. I won't tell anyone about this."

This time, Han Fei made an oath. Li Luoluo was an immortal-level powerhouse after all and had lived for countless years. It was useless to play tricks on her.

After a while, Han Fei watched his essence blood dissipate in the sky and couldn't help but ask, "Can I ask why you are so secretive about the information of the God Burying Ridge?"

Li Luoluo: "Haven't you guessed it?"

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. "So, this is the secret that your entire lineage of ferocious beasts has been guarding."

Li Luoluo chuckled. "Of course."

Han Fei took a deep breath. "So, have you entered the demonic Dao?"

Li Luoluo smiled faintly. "Take a guess!"

Han Fei couldn't help but remember that Li Luoluo was known as the Variety Devil Girl. Furthermore, he suddenly remembered that Fifth Senior Brother said that the Devil God had two personalities. After becoming a god, he killed himself.

Although Fifth Senior Brother wasn't sure if the Demon God was dead, he at least mentioned dual personalities. This made Han Fei recall that Li Luoluo not only had dual personalities but seven.

So, was this a coincidence? She was already an immortal-level cultivator, but she still had seven personalities? Logically speaking, personalities could be killed. Why couldn't an immortal-level cultivator kill her multiple personalities? It must be because each of her multiple personalities was very powerful, Li Luoluo couldn't kill them, so even a clone of hers could have seven personalities.

Han Fei suddenly changed the topic. "How are Li Keke and Li Kuang recently?"

Li Luoluo smiled and said, "Not bad. Occasionally, they come out for some fresh air. But most of the time, they are cultivating. If you come at the right time, you might be able to see them."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Sure enough, Li Luoluo's other personalities were still here. Since they were here, it basically proved that Li Luoluo had become a demon.

At the very least, when he cultivated the Godfiend Formless Technique, his dual spiritual heritages would operate. If the power of one spiritual heritage increased one's strength, so would the power of the other spiritual heritage. That was why the Godfiend Formless Technique had twice the basic combat power and twice the power enhancement of the Heavenly Dao.

Then, if Li Luoluo really erupted, would it be seven times her strength?

Han Fei thought for a moment and didn't think so. If all the strength was given to one person, wouldn't there be no checks and balances between the seven personalities?

Unfortunately, Han Fei didn't understand the specific distribution of power between the seven personalities, so he couldn't understand the benefits and disadvantages of Li Luoluo entering the demonic Dao.

But at least, he felt that there was a high chance that Li Luoluo had entered the demonic Dao, but so had he.

Han Fei didn't continue to dwell on this question. Since Li Luoluo had expressed it so clearly, Han Fei didn't want to hide anything. He simply said, "So, I've sworn my oath. Where is the God Burying Ridge?"

Li Luoluo didn't hide it. With a wave of her hand, a swing chair appeared beside her. She sat down casually and began to sway.

She said, "The ferocious beasts scattered in the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range in the east, the Barbaric Plains in the south, the Continuous Mining Area in the north, and the Storm Ridge further west.

The place you came from is the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range, which mainly prevents the Hundred Alliances and the peripheral forces from entering the ferocious beasts camp. The Barbaric Plains, to put it bluntly, is a battlefield, a place where the ferocious beasts and the divine beasts fight. To the west is a natural chasm called the Storm Ridge, which is said to be a mountainous land. But in fact, this storm is so huge that its Wind Circle spans billions of kilometers. So far, no more than ten people have been to the center of the Storm Ridge, and they are all Monarchs."

Han Fei asked, "So, the God Burying Ridge is at the center of the Storm Ridge?"

Li Luoluo said, "You can say that. That place is the entrance to the God Burying Ridge. We ferocious beasts have explored the real God Burying Ridge countless times, but we haven't been able to find the place where the Demon God died. It just so happens that your direction-pointing treasure may come in handy."

Han Fei couldn't help narrowing his eyes. "How can you tell me such important information so easily?"

Li Luoluo said, "After all, you are the master of the Emperor Sparrow. Perhaps you can find some clues. Furthermore, we ferocious beasts have been guarding this place for generations. You might as well give it a try first. If you can't even go to the entrance, it won't make any difference whether you come or not. Oh, right, the God Burying Ridge is dangerous. After all, this is where a god died. The real God Burying Ridge is rife with danger. Don't get killed."

Han Fei couldn't understand Li Luoluo because she told him so much information that he suspected that she had a purpose he didn't know.

However, Han Fei didn't think the old turtle would randomly ask him to go to a place to die, so he had to go there no matter what. If he really couldn't explore it, he could try again after he liberated the human race and proved his Dao. Anyway, the old turtle had been suppressed for millions of years. He probably wouldn't mind waiting for another thousand years.

Han Fei asked, "Then should I go there directly?"

Li Luoluo: "Didn't Yu Jue and Wang Lanlan already pledge loyalty to you? Let them take you there. But I think you'd better do what you can. After all, I still hope you can bring the Raging Sea into the Sea Realm. This way, I still have a chance to get the Time Worm and the Space Worm and become a Great Monarch. If you can help me become a Great Monarch, I will owe you a favor, a favor from a Great Monarch."

Han Fei smiled casually. "If I can liberate the human race, I'll give it a try even if you don't tell me."

Li Luoluo waved her hand, and a teleportation door appeared. She said, "Don't get killed! You have to know that if you die, the human race will probably have no hope."

Han Fei walked to the teleportation door and smiled. "Thank you."

With that, Han Fei stepped into the portal and disappeared.

After Han Fei had left, a cold voice came out of Li Luoluo's mouth. "Do you trust this person so much? To be able to be the master of the Emperor Sparrow, this person is definitely ambitious. Don't play with fire and burn yourself."

Then a male voice said, "To be honest, I'm quite excited. We've guarded this damn place for so long, and it's enough. I think this guy might be the person we're waiting for."

Then, a gentle voice said, "In any case, the Emperor Sparrow has returned. A chaotic world has already shown signs. I quite hope that Little Brother Han Fei can obtain the inheritance of the Demon God. If he succeeds, this path might be cleared."

Li Luoluo's main personality returned. "Alright, shut up. It's useless to say too much now. Let's see if he can unveil this chaotic situation."

On the other side, Wang Lanlan just sat on the ground without moving, waiting for Han Fei and Li Luoluo to return.

With a flash of light, Han Fei appeared in front of him. Wang Lanlan rose and looked at him. "Where is Big Luoluo?"

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei turned into Yu Jue again. "She didn't come, but she punished you to go to the Storm Ridge."

"Oh, okay! Then should we steal some more things?"

Han Fei laughed. "You have to look at the future. These treasures can no longer help you advance easily. Even if you condense a second Dao Lock, do you want to condense a third lock by stealing treasures?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Of course."

Han Fei said, "You have to comprehend the law. Having only one Dao Lock doesn't mean that you can't prove your Dao. Why are you so obsessed with Dao Locks?"

Wang Lanlan said, "But if I have five Dao Locks, the success rate is higher!"

Han Fei said, "Nothing is absolute."

Han Fei remembered that Senior Brother Azure Dragon once said that restriction couldn't really solve the problem. It hadn't been long since Feng Fei reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm, but she was already going to prove her Dao. Had she condensed a Dao Lock? Obviously not, but could you say that after Feng Fei proved Dao, she wasn't as strong as those guys with five Dao Locks? This wasn't necessarily the case. The strength depended on one's own path.

Therefore, there was no need to deliberately condense a Dao Lock. Just like the Emperor Sparrow, he condensed a Dao Lock because he needed it, but he wouldn't rely on it.

"Let's go."

Wang Lanlan asked, "Where are we going?"

Han Fei said, "Storm Ridge! I heard that it's also a wonder. If we don't see it with our own eyes, we'll have come in vain."

Wang Lanlan perked up. "Master Han Fei, are you going too?"

“Yes.”

There might be thousands of ways to enter Li Luoluo’s house, but there was only one way out.

When Han Fei and Wang Lanlan came out, they saw Wang Xiaojiu sleeping on a huge rock.

Just as Han Fei and Wang Lanlan came out, Wang Xiaojiu suddenly opened his eyes and bared his teeth at Wang Lanlan. “Wang Lanlan, you are too much. I went to chat with you out of kindness, but you betrayed me and made me be sent to the Wind Circle. Don’t you have anything to say to me?”

Wang Lanlan said, “You’re not alone. I’ll go with you.”

“Huh?”

Wang Xiaojiu was surprised. “You’re going too? That’s right. You two sneaked back. It would be strange if Big Luoluo spared you. But it’s good that we have more people. OK, let’s go find Huang Ergou.”

Wang Lanlan wondered, “Huang Ergou? Didn’t he succeed in stealing?”

Wang Xiaojiu chuckled. “Succeeded? Huang Ergou has been hung up and beaten up, and then was thrown to the Storm Ridge half a month ago.”

Wang Lanlan was surprised at first and then angry. “Wow, Wang Xiaojiu, so you deliberately went to me to tempt me and Yu Jue to come back to steal treasures.”

Han Fei echoed, “Yes, he did it on purpose.”

Wang Xiaojiu said, “No! I just wanted you to come back and play with me, but I was caught first. At this time, you happened to bump in and teleported directly to Big Luoluo. You are really unlucky.”

Wang Lanlan said, “Cut the crap. I now have reason to suspect that Huang Ergou was also tricked by you. Otherwise, that stupid dog wouldn’t have been willing to go to the Storm Ridge.”

Wang Xiaojiu ignored her and jumped to Han Fei’s side with a swish. He turned into a kitten and stood on Han Fei’s shoulder, saying, “Juejue, when will you reach the Perfected Star Transformation Realm? I didn’t see you a few days ago.”

Han Fei imitated Yu Jue’s tone. “I was making a breakthrough at that time, so of course you couldn’t see me. Why are you all standing here? Let’s go! Compared to the Hundred Dragons Mountain Range, I prefer the Storm Ridge.”

Wang Xiaojiu muttered, “It’s a pity that Big Luoluo has been hiding more treasures recently, attracting countless people’s attention. So far, at least 3,000 people have gone to the Storm Ridge.”

Han Fei asked in surprise, “So many? Did something happen in the Storm Ridge?”

Wang Xiaojiu looked at Han Fei in surprise. “Huh! Juejue, you’ve finally become smarter. It seems that you’ve become smarter since I saw you the last time three thousand years ago!”

Wang Xiaojiu sneered. "Really? I didn't see it."

Wang Xiaojiu said carelessly, "A few years ago, a lot of Wind Demons ran out from the depth of the Storm Ridge, so Big Luoluo increased the number of treasures. Naturally, many people would be hung up, beaten up, and thrown over. Everyone wanted to go to the Storm Ridge to play and by the way steal from Big Luoluo. Why not?"

A few years ago? Was the old turtle causing trouble?

When the old turtle told him the news, he wanted to find the Demon God himself. Now that his body had been rebuilt and his memories recovered, he naturally wanted to find the Demon God too.

Han Fei felt that this possibility was not small.

However, if it was really the old turtle, the old turtle's speed was quite fast. He had arrived a few years ago. He didn't know if he would meet him this time.

After Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan chatted for seven days, they finally arrived at Storm Ridge.

At this moment, Han Fei finally understood why Wang Xiaojiu went to the Hundred Dragon Mountain Range to chat with Wang Lanlan, because Wang Lanlan was very good at chatting.

More importantly, these two guys were very good at bragging.

For example, Wang Xiaojiu said, "You may not believe it, but at that time in Puppet City, Master Emperor Sparrow and I hit it off at first sight. Before he showed up, he took the initiative to chat with me, marveling at my imposing aura and the bearing of a future Great Monarch... Later, Master Emperor Sparrow fought tens of thousands of Bloody Hand Mine Devils alone. How could I sit by and do nothing? Although I didn't know that he was the Emperor Sparrow, he was my friend! How could I just watch him fall into despair? I went up and repelled all enemies, shocking Master Emperor Sparrow..."

Wang Lanlan stole a glance at Han Fei and echoed, "I believe that Lord Emperor Sparrow fights many enemies alone. But you? You really didn't run away? And hey, your way of chatting is not good. You don't give us any food while chatting. How stingy are you? If it were me, I would have given Lord Emperor Sparrow a big clam!"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "What do you know? Is Lord Emperor Sparrow the kind of person who is greedy for food? We are soul friends."

Wang Lanlan said, "Won't your mouth be dry if you keep chatting?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "What are you talking about? Can we get to the point? Have you heard about Lord Emperor Sparrow fighting a Great Monarch in the last battle? After that, Lord Emperor Sparrow took the initiative to find me. He said that I was a rare genius among the ferocious beasts and asked if I was willing to follow him."

Wang Lanlan asked, "Then what did you say?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "I'm definitely a cat with backbone! Although he is the Emperor Sparrow, he won't be able to easily make me submit. I told him that when you become a Great Monarch, I can consider it."

Titter ~

Han Fei almost burst into laughter. Why the hell didn't I know that you have such a backbone?

Slap!

Wang Xiaojiu slapped Han Fei's head. "What are you laughing at? You can't even chat with Lord Emperor Sparrow. You'll probably kneel on the ground when you see him."

Han Fei: "..."

Wang Lanlan's heart tightened. She looked at Wang Xiaojiu pitifully, wondering if this guy would be beaten to death.

Han Fei bared his teeth. Fine, keep bragging. When we reach the Storm Ridge, I'll make you a bald cat.

The Storm Ridge was composed of an outer force field and the Wind Circle.

There were actually very few mountains in the periphery. It was more like a plain, because the violent wind had flattened some places that could be flattened. Due to the long-term blowing, sand and stones were flying here, like an endless super sandstorm.

Therefore, the periphery was mainly a huge sea of sand. Perhaps because the Storm Ridge covered a large area and contained a large number of mines, the sand and stones contained a large amount of mineral power.

Where there was a mine, there would be a mine demon. There were only a few kinds of mine demons, such as Wind Snakes, Wind Birds, Wind Conchs, and so on, which were collectively called Wind Demons. Although these mine demons had long been used to the wind fields, a large number of them were sent flying out of the Wind Circle every day. It was just like how a large number of fish and shrimps would always be left behind when the seawater ebbed. Therefore, the Storm Ridge needed a large number of ferocious beasts to guard it.

Based on the conversation between Wang Lanlan and the others, Han Fei learned that there were 20,000 to 30,000 ferocious beasts permanently stationed in the Storm Ridge.

Because the ferocious beasts were energetic and liked to run, they hunted the Wind Demons like sheep every day. Because the Wind Demons belonged to the storms, after they found that they had been blown out, they would find a way to get into the Wind Circle again. They were not interested in fighting the ferocious beasts. Only those who couldn't get into the Wind Circle for the time being would fight the ferocious beasts. They were like fish and shrimp left on the beach after the ebb tide. When the tide rose again, they would return to the sea. Some could even jump and chase the seawater back.

Previously, there was no anomaly in the Storm Ridge, so although there were many Wind Demons being blown out, the ferocious beasts had to kill them quickly to prevent them from running back.

But now, something happened to the Storm Ridge, too many Wind Demons had been blown out of the Storm Ridge, and they couldn't go back for a while, so the Wind Demons almost flooded the Storm

Ridge. Therefore, the ferocious beasts guarding the Storm Ridge were increased, and new ferocious beasts were driven over to guard it every day.

Therefore, as soon as Han Fei and the others arrived, they often saw ferocious beasts fighting with wind demons on the sand.

For example, Han Fei saw a Wind Bird mine demon flashing in the sky, and a fox was biting the wings of the Wind Bird, refusing to let go.

As a result, the wind bird bumped around with the fox, raising sand and dust.

As soon as Wang Xiaojiu arrived at the Storm Ridge, he swooshed out and shouted above the sand sea, "Who can tell me where Ergou is? Hey, hey, hey, answer me if you hear me. Who saw Ergou?"

God of Fishing

Chapter 2625: Ancient Corpse (2 in 1)

2625 Ancient Corpse (2 in 1)

The periphery of the Storm Ridge was very large, and it was naturally impossible to defend it with only more than 20,000 ferocious beasts, so they could only guard the route to the ferocious beasts. As for other places, they just ignored them.

The Wind Demons were the strongest in the Wind Circle. Outside the Wind Circle, their strength would be greatly reduced. If they fought other mine demons, very few Wind Demons could really survive outside.

At this moment, Han Fei had a headache. Why the hell did he have to go with Wang Xiaojiu again? Besides, Han Fei didn't think Huang Ergou would be any better.

As the saying went, birds of a feather flock together. Wang Lanlan and Wang Xiaojiu were a perfect match. Huang Ergou was probably no different either. The only normal person here was Yu Jue.

He asked telepathically, "Who is that Huang Ergou?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Huang Ergou is a big dog with a very keen sense of smell. He is also a pure-blooded descendant like us. In the entire ferocious beast lineage, Huang Ergou's sense of smell can be said to be number one. In addition to his sense of smell, this guy has evolved into a talent for tracking. Therefore, under normal circumstances, we will take Huang Ergou with us when we steal things or hunt treasures."

Han Fei said, "It sounds interesting, but since he has such talent, why does he still need you?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Because he's not good at fighting! He's a dog with four Dao Locks, but his combat power is mediocre, about the same as mine."

Han Fei thought that it was indeed a little low. Wang Lanlan only had one Dao Lock. It seemed that he had spent all his talent on treasure hunting.

Wang Xiaojiu didn't keep a low profile at all. Flying at thirty times the speed of light, he didn't return until half an hour later.

Panting, Wang Xiaojiu said, "I heard that Huang Ergou was tricked by Sha Laosan. He said that he was going into the depths of the Wind Circle to find treasures. He may have already set off. There should still be time for us to chase him."

In Han Fei's mind, Wang Lanlan explained. "Sha Laosan is a rat sable, a pure-blooded ferocious beast. It's said that he's the descendant of the ancient Sky Penetrating Rat and the Wind Thunder Sable. His treasure hunting ability is even stronger than Huang Ergou's. He originally had seven siblings and an old mother. In an exploration of the Wind Circle, in order to snatch a Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth, seven of his family of eight perished. In the end, only he was lucky enough to obtain the Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth and survived. Because he was the third child in his family, he was called Sha Laosan. Gradually, he even calls himself Laosan. He said that he had forgotten his original name."

Han Fei couldn't help but sigh. "In order to hunt a treasure, his entire family was sacrificed. This person's life is really tragic."

Wang Lanlan said, "Well, Sha Laosan used to be quite active and had a good relationship with us. Later, he became more antisocial and wandered in the Wind Circle all day long. Of course, like Juejue, he liked to dig holes. However, although this sea of sand is sand, there are many mineral sand, so it's not easy to dig. He can't dig as fast as Juejue."

At this moment, Wang Xiaojiu suddenly came close. "What are you two whispering about? Why are you talking behind my back?"

Wang Lanlan glared at Wang Xiaojiu and said angrily, "I'm telling Juejue that Sha Laosan must have found a good treasure. Otherwise, he would have gone there himself and wouldn't have dragged Huang Ergou with him. Anyway, you are here. We must chase them."

Wang Xiaojiu was lost for words. "Why do you have to chase them when I'm here?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Because you are the strongest among us!"

Han Fei said, "You go first, and I'll go second. I've just advanced to the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. I don't want to die in the Wind Circle as soon as I come to the Storm Ridge."

Wang Xiaojiu was speechless. "Juejue, why are you still so timid? It seems that you haven't learned any of my outstanding qualities! If you want to cultivate, how can you follow the prescribed order? If you are so timid, how can you get through the test of your Dao heart and let your Dao heart weather through the Monarch-level Tribulation? Let me tell you, even Huang Ergou dares to enter, but you don't dare to?"

Han Fei said, "Huang Ergou has four Dao Locks."

Wang Xiaojiu said, "But he is still useless, no better than you at all. Let's go. Don't waste time. If we're too slow and the tunnel they dug collapses, we won't be able to find them."

Wang Lanlan asked, "Are you sure you can find where they went in from?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "How can this stump me?"

"I've dug holes with him, and I know his digging habits very well. Before he does anything big, he will definitely pay tribute to his mother and siblings. The hole is right there... Alas! I said too much, bah bah... Don't tell anyone what I said! And don't tell anyone."

Han Fei pretended to be honest. "I won't."

Wang Lanlan said, "I never joke with Sha Laosan."

After about half an hour, Wang Xiaojiu took Han Fei and the others to a sand dune outside the Storm Ridge.

The wind and sand filled the sky, and Han Fei seemed to see an endless black wall. This was the wind wall of the Storm Ridge.

The wind in the Storm Ridge had swept up too much sand and dust, so if you looked at it from a distance, you would find that half of the world had been blocked, forming a black wall.

But that was not the case. The density of the sand in the sandstorm was gradual, so it looked like a wall.

Wang Xiaojiu slapped Han Fei. "Juejue, dig. Dig while there's no one here."

Han Fei thought to himself, Wang Xiaojiu is such a big mouth. If his identity is known by him, he probably won't be able to keep it a secret for a few days. If he doesn't tell others, he may suffocate to death.

Therefore, Han Fei could only endure it for the time being. When he had a chance, he would bring Wang Xiaojiu over and beat him up.

Digging was a basic skill. Of course, Han Fei could do it. He could only temporarily serve as a laborer. This was the first time Han Fei had excavated this kind of sand sea filled with the power of minerals.

This excavation required a huge demand on strength. This made Han Fei understand why there were so many people mining in the Infinite Mining Area. It was because the excavation of minerals was very difficult and required extremely high strength, so mining here could last for a long time.

Although Han Fei didn't dig up the real essence, he felt that the sand was not easier to dig than minerals.

Different from mines, mining in mines was a process of destroying mines. Although top-level minerals would radiate around and give birth to associated mines, mining itself was a kind of destruction.

But the sand in the Storm Ridge was different. Mining here meant softening the sand first and then compacting it around to form a channel. The power of the storm here was very strong and affected the ground veins, so there was no other way to dig a lasting path unless a tunnel was made. Even if Han Fei could dig a channel now, it would collapse in half an hour.

Wang Xiaojiu said, "Dig in this direction. Yes, in this direction. Come on, accelerate..."

Han Fei said, "Stop nagging. Can't you see I'm digging?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "Juejue, you disappoint me! Now that you've reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm, your digging speed should be much faster!"

Han Fei suggested, "Why don't you do it?"

"Hey! Juejue, your temper became worse!"

Wang Lanlan rolled her eyes. She wondered how Wang Xiaojiu would react when he found out that the Emperor Sparrow was right next to him.

After half an hour, God knew how far Han Fei had dug. It was probably more than a million kilometers. Although Han Fei was extremely strong, he couldn't help but admire those who could keep digging. He even missed the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp. If only that guy were here.

Suddenly, Han Fei dug out a hole with a bang. He looked again and found that it was an underground space made of minerals. The space was not big, less than three thousand meters. The surroundings were compressed with minerals and sealed with a spiritual barrier to create such a large space. Otherwise, this space would have collapsed long ago.

In the entire space, only seven memorial tablets, one big, six small, were placed at the center. This should be the place where Sha Laosan commemorated his family.

Wang Lanlan said, "They're not here. They seem to have set off. Sha Laosan must be angry that we dug our way into here, right?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "That's because they didn't wait for us. Besides, we didn't destroy this place."

With that, Wang Xiaojiu pointed to a loose place and said, "It collapsed not long ago. That's it."

Han Fei repaired the place where the spiritual barrier of the mine was broken. He thought to himself, Let's keep digging! If we can dig all the way to the center of the Storm Ridge, it will be good. At least we should be able to avoid a large number of Wind Demons.

As for why he was led by Wang Xiaojiu to find treasures for no reason, he didn't know. However, if Huang Ergou and Sha Laosan's treasure hunting ability and perception ability were top-notch, they might be able to help him. It shouldn't hurt to keep them by his side for the time being. However, if he really wanted to take them to the center of the Storm Ridge, these people would have to all be under his command. Of course, it depended on whether they had the strength to go there.

They were all pure-blooded ferocious beasts. Except for Yu Jue, they were all Dao Lock-level powerhouses. He didn't mind having more subordinates like this. As for Li Luoluo, he didn't really understand her thoughts yet. However, he didn't doubt that Li Luoluo wanted to find the Time Worm and the Space Worm. Otherwise, she wouldn't have appeared in the Raging Sea.

On the other side.

In the vast sand of the Storm Ridge, somewhere under the sand, a little yellow dog and a long rat were sprinting under the sand sea.

The yellow dog said, "Old Sha, wait a minute. Why do I feel that something is wrong? I smell decay. Is the Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth you mentioned guarded by an ancient mine demon? You know, a mine demon of that level is usually a dead strong master who still has a certain level of consciousness or extraordinary power.”

Sha Laosan’s voice was slightly deep. “This is how the Wind Circle is. Although the other party may be dangerous, if we succeed, we may gain a lot. Ergou, you already have four Dao Locks. If we succeed this time, I will help you condense the fifth Dao Locks with my savings. At that time, once your five Dao Locks are solidified, you’ll be able to prove Dao. Big Luoluo will help you, I will help you, and everyone will help you.”

Huang Ergou was tempted, but his cautious attitude still made him doubt. “I don’t think I can succeed in proving Dao just because I have five Dao Locks! Besides, look at Wang Xiaojiu. He has already had five Dao Locks, but he hasn’t proven Dao yet.”

“Everyone’s situation is different. You think that Wang Xiaojiu can’t prove his Dao? In fact, he is just waiting for opportunities and looking for opportunities. Otherwise, why do you think he participated in the northern expedition last time? Facts have proven that this northern expedition was as dangerous as the previous ones, and he didn’t get any opportunities! Ergou, opportunities are created by ourselves and won’t take the initiative to go to you. We pure-blooded ferocious beasts can easily have five Dao Locks as long as we slowly absorb resources and cultivate slowly. Indeed, we can have five Dao Locks. But you have to understand that the Dao Locks exist for those without opportunities. Those who are truly lucky and have endless opportunities don’t need Dao Locks at all.”

Huang Ergou was persuaded by Sha Laosan. He nodded and said, “Okay, then let’s go. However, if we encounter any danger that we can’t defeat, retreat immediately. Don’t hesitate at all. Compared to opportunities, I cherish my life more.”

Sha Laosan: “I cherish my life more than you do. My mother and brothers have all died. I am their only hope. I have to carry their hope to live. I have to prove my Dao. Otherwise, how can I face them?”

“Stop!”

After more than an hour, Sha Laosan suddenly stopped digging. He said, “We’ve arrived. What smell did you smell?”

Huang Ergou sniffed around. “The power of minerals here is exceptionally strong, about five times stronger than in the Sand Sea of the Storm Ridge. Apart from the rotten smell, I seem to smell the smell of laws.”

Huang Ergou’s eyes widened. “Yes, it’s a law. Did you come because you feel the power of a law?”

Sha Laosan nodded. “That’s right. It’s the power of laws, and it’s the power of laws that’s been concealed or even sealed. What you’re feeling now is just the dispersion of laws. What does it mean that such very clear laws can be continuously released?”

Huang Ergou’s eyes gradually lit up. “It means that it emanated from something. This thing is immortal, and the law will last forever... However, I also smelled a rotten breath, which I felt more clearly than before. A strong master must have died here in the past, or this kind of breath wouldn’t have appeared.”

Sha Laosan licked the corner of his mouth and said, "A hundred kilometers ahead of us is a solid mine under the sea of sand. What does it mean to have a solid mine in the Storm Ridge?"

Huang Ergou said, "It means that it's an extremely high-level mine. It should be at least a level-five mine. It can't be lower."

Sha Laosan said, "More than that. Sniff again."

Huang Ergou sensed it again. After a while, he said, "I feel the heat dispersing with the power of minerals has a slight direct effect on me. Well, this solid mine is at least a level-six mine."

Sha Laosan licked the corner of his mouth. "That's right. Even this mountain is a level-six mine. You can imagine what the thing or treasure hidden in the mountain is like. Ergou, our chance is here."

Huang Ergou was instigated. This time, he was indeed shocked again. Even the sealed place was made of a level-six mine. How powerful was the hidden opportunity?

Huang Ergou finally calmed down. "Why didn't you ask Wang Xiaojie to come with you? With that guy here, if there is really a problem, with his speed, we have a high chance of escaping."

Sha Laosan said, "Ergou, there are few good things in this world. You said I should take Wang Xiaojie with us, but he has already condensed five Dao Locks. He needs opportunities more than us. Once he gets the opportunity, he might be able to directly prove Dao. But what about you and me? Are we going to snatch his opportunity to prove Dao?"

Huang Ergou thought to himself, That's true. In fact, opportunities should be obtained by one person. This way, it's easiest to reach the sky in a single step.

This time, Sha Laosan took him with him probably because he was afraid that if he was in danger, it would be difficult for him to survive alone. Huang Ergou said that if they succeeded this time and the opportunity could be divided between them, then they would split it. If the opportunity couldn't be split evenly, he would guarantee to provide him with enough resources to help him condense the fifth Dao Lock.

But if Wang Xiaojie was also included, how could Sha Laosan bribe Wang Xiaojie? If the opportunity was taken by Wang Xiaojie, wouldn't they get nothing in the end?

Huang Ergou took a deep breath and said, "Let's continue to dig. If that place is a solid mine, it won't be easy for us to dig through or break the foundation of the mine."

Sha Laosan said, "Don't worry. I've been damaging the foundation of this mine for a long time. I'm only one step away from breaking through this mine in no more than four hours. We'll have to play to the score. If we encounter an invincible opponent, we'll have to retreat first."

In the blink of an eye, three hours passed. Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou were digging out the foundation of the mine that spanned more than 20,000 kilometers.

This mine had existed for too long and was almost integrated with the ground veins and the sea of sand. Only by destroying its foundation could they truly destroy the mine.

At this moment, because of the actions of the two of them, this place had already begun to sink into the depths of the sea of sand. And cracks had already appeared in many parts of the mine.

Because of this, the rotten breath became more and more intense, and so did the breath of the law. Both of them were extremely vigilant at this moment. If they found anything wrong, they would leave quickly.

Sha Laosan laid a hand on the mine and slowly turned it into sand. This was a strange ability that could soften the mineral into sand. He said, "I will try my best to dig a way out. Ergou, your sense of smell is unparalleled. You can detect the enemy's energy fluctuations and laws through your sense of smell, so it's up to your judgment later."

Huang Ergou's heart skipped a beat. "Understood. Don't talk."

The power of the mineral was slowly entering Sha Laosan's body, swimming throughout his body, and then leaking out from every corner of Sha Laosan's skin. Sha Laosan was like a steamed crab. At this moment, his combat power was at his peak. He was ready to launch a peak strike at any time.

An hour later, Huang Ergou said for the seventh time, "I can't feel any violent energy fluctuations. Although the law is rich, the fluctuations are not large and the danger is not high for the time being."

Sha Laosan said, "I've already sensed the internal barrier. It's more difficult to turn it into sand. It may take another hour."

Another hour later.

Huang Ergou said for the thirteenth time, "I didn't feel any danger. Have you cleared it?"

Boom ~

While Huang Ergou was asking, the inner barrier of this mine was broken by Sha Laosan. In the next moment, Huang Ergou and Sha Laosan immediately retreated and were ready for battle.

This was because the moment the passage was completely opened, the rich power of laws surged at their faces.

The power of laws of this level made them feel great pressure.

But soon, Huang Ergou and Sha Laosan stopped, because there was no killing intent, no additional power dissipating, no soul impact, and nothing here. It was as if this place was just a place where the power of laws was rich.

"Huff~"

Taking a deep breath, Sha Laosan said, "Don't panic. It doesn't look like there's any danger. Let's go take a look."

Therefore, the two of them turned back and lay at the broken entrance. Braving the impact of the law, they looked into the inner space of the mine.

What they saw stunned them.

“Oh my Big Luoluo, oh my god, Third Brother, we become rich!”

Huang Ergou’s eyes widened like copper bells.

“Gulp ~”

Sha Laosan was also shocked. He saw that there was a space of about a thousand square meters inside the mine, and the walls in this space were not all made of minerals. They saw many divine crystals, which were minerals that had been contaminated with divinity. They could no longer be described as “minerals”. The divine crystals were comparable to level-eight minerals, and here, there were thousands of them, embedded on the rock mineral walls disorderly.

Sha Laosan said, “It’s because the minerals were contaminated with divinity. After a long time of corrosion, they became divine crystals.”

Huang Ergou asked, “Look, isn’t that the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence? It’s so big. There are so many of them.”

In the mine space, there was a six-prism-like jade marrow. It was clearly the Heavenly Dao Jade Marrow, which was produced due to the assimilation effect of the power of the Heavenly Dao. There were only eight of them here, each of which was priceless. If the Heavenly Dao Jade Marrow was used to cultivate, not only could the body and the soul be strengthened, but it could even better help the soul fuse with the Heavenly Dao.

However, as their gazes moved down, suddenly both of them held their breath. This was because at the center of the eight Heavenly Dao Jade Essences, there was a mine demon dressed strangely. Yes, a mine demon dressed in clothes, but his body was not made of minerals, but divine crystals.

And the rich power of laws was escaping from this mine demon’s body.

Huang Ergou asked, “This is because he has been contaminated by divinity for a long time, so this ancient strong cultivator, along with himself, has turned into divine crystals?”

Sha Laosan said, “It looks like it. Look, the yellowish-brown mud at the bottom is the Chaotic Spiritual Soil. It’s said that it can nurture corpses and keep them intact. It seems that this person died in ancient times.”

Huang Ergou asked, “What should we do? Dig all these out and take them back?”

Sha Laosan pondered for a moment. “Don’t panic! This person seems to have died long ago. Perhaps he struggled for hundreds of thousands of years but failed to persist.”

Huang Ergou said, “Who cares? Anyway, the resources here belong to us. Hahaha! We’re rich this time. There’s almost no doubt that I can condense the fifth Dao Lock.”

Sha Laosan said, “I didn’t sense any mysterious arrays here. Ergou, do you smell essence blood?”

Huang Ergou shook his head. “Not at all. It seems that this former strong cultivator has indeed completely perished, not even leaving a trace of his soul.”

As they talked, the two had already entered the cave.

Huang Ergou stared at the divine crystals and the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence, but Sha Laosan had already come to the strong cultivator's jade-like body. An eye opened between his eyebrows. He wanted to see if he could pry into this strong cultivator's law.

Instantly, Sha Laosan shouted, "Ergou, run!"

God of Fishing

Chapter 2626: Ancient Monarch (2 in 1)

2626 Ancient Monarch (2 in 1)

This sudden change made Huang Ergou panic. He turned around and ran. The moment Sha Laosan shouted, Huang Ergou also felt a strange smell. It was an extremely rotten smell. This ancient strong cultivator who had turned into divine crystals had actually revived.

This completely shattered Huang Ergou's understanding of perishing. Although it was a little ridiculous that this puppet could revive under such circumstances, this proved its strength.

Boom ~

Unfortunately, by the time Huang Ergou turned around and was about to run, it was already too late. The eight pillars of Heavenly Dao Jade Essence emitted a barrier halo. Although Huang Ergou was already very fast, he still bumped into the barrier.

Breaking the barrier was not what Huang Ergou was good at, but what Sha Laosan and Yu Jue were good at. Huang Ergou knew that it was useless to panic now. The four Dao Locks appeared at the same time and were snapped. Having no time to think, a pair of bramble gloves appeared in his hands. His first target was a corpse that had turned into divine crystals.

Bang!

Unfortunately, before he could launch a punch, Sha Laosan slapped back and sent Huang Ergou flying.

Earlier, Wang Lanlan had said that Huang Ergou's combat power was not high. Although he had four Dao Locks, his combat power was actually not much different from hers.

Therefore, although this guy tried his best, he was still slapped away by Sha Laosan.

However, after Sha Laosan slapped him, his body hit the barrier instead. As for his eyes, two were bloodshot and one was clear. He shouted, "Ergou... Cutting the body is useless. Cut the barrier."

As soon as he said so, an old voice burst out of his mouth. "Let me out, let me out..."

It was an unconscious roar, so Sha Laosan could resist the power. "Ergou, this guy is out of his mind. His head is not clear, and the power of his soul is not fully awakened. Come on, come on, I can't last long..."

"Woof ~"

Huang Ergou panicked at this moment. This ancient strong cultivator was obviously a Monarch. Even if it was a remnant soul, it was not something Sha Laosan could deal with. In the depths of the Infinite Mining Area, there were still many such remnant souls!

Some were completely lost, some were still conscious, some were crazy, and some had completely woken up.

As for the person in front of him, he seemed to be crazy but still a little delirious. It was hard to say if he would suddenly wake up. If he really woke up, Sha Laosan would have no chance to escape the fate of being possessed.

Therefore, Huang Ergou really went all out at this moment. His blood began to burn as he tried to shatter the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence Array.

Boom ~

Although Huang Ergou was not that strong, he was not weak. Therefore, when this blow hit the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence, the huge force raised shook violently in this place, causing him and Sha Laosan to bleed from their seven orifices.

Even the entire space began to tremble, and this trembling radiated in all directions from the mine.

Bang!

Huang Ergou was slapped away by Sha Laosan again. Sha Laosan's face was twisted, but he seemed unable to withstand the power of possession.

He also shouted, "Mine, it's mine. You want to snatch my opportunity? Go to hell!"

Then, Sha Laosan suddenly rushed to Huang Ergou's side. Huang Ergou didn't move at all under the suppression of the power of the law. He threw a punch at him. Seeing this scene, his heart turned cold. How could he resist the power of the law?

But in the next moment, this punch hit the side of his head, dimming the entire spiritual barrier. This punch even smashed through the spiritual barrier as if it had smashed through a membrane.

Sha Laosan wanted to speak, but all he could make was giggling sounds.

"Gulp ~"

Huang Ergou was almost crying. He shouted, "Take your hand back!"

"Giggle ~"

Bang!

Sha Laosan pulled out his fist. Huang Ergou wanted to take advantage of this moment to escape through the place where the fist broke through the spiritual barrier, but as soon as he stuck his head out, one of his legs was grabbed by Sha Laosan.

"Puff ~"

Sha Laosan twisted and collided in midair and finally threw Huang Ergou away. But Huang Ergou's eyes suddenly lit up as he shouted, "Wang Xiaojiu, I smell Wang Xiaojiu. Wang Xiaojiu is here."

Knock, knock, knock!

Having no time to think, Huang Ergou hammered the barrier dozens of times before being sent flying by Sha Laosan again.

At this moment, Sha Laosan struggled to say a few words, "Stupid... Do you want to kill... him?"

Although Wang Xiaojiu had five Dao Locks, the one they were facing was an ancient Monarch. Although he was only a remnant soul, he still had the power of law. Even if Wang Xiaojiu came, so what? He would still be beaten up.

Huang Ergou roared, "Wang Xiaojiu is fast. He will find a way. Tell him to go back to Big Luoluo and ask for help."

"Dodge!"

At this moment, Sha Laosan's only clear eye was also a little red. He shouted "Escape!" and then changed his accent, muttering, "You all want to snatch my treasures. You're all my enemies. You all deserve to die..."

Bang!

At this moment, Han Fei finally dug into an underground passage that hadn't completely collapsed.

Wang Xiaojiu's eyes lit up. "Hahaha, I knew it. We made it in time. This passage hasn't completely collapsed yet. The traces are obvious, indicating that it's the last part of the road. Sha Laosan purposely compacted this passage to prevent accidents and for escape. This proves that this passage was dug in four or six hours. Come on, let's go in case this place collapses."

Buzz—

However, as soon as Wang Xiaojiu said so, there was a violent earthquake in the sea of sand.

Wang Lanlan said, "They're fighting. I think they're fighting up ahead."

Wang Xiaojiu said, "It seems that they have encountered a mine demon! Don't panic. Although this place is already deep in the Wind Circle, with the strength of Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou, the mine demons here should be no match for them. But we have to leave quickly. This tunnel won't last long under this kind of shock."

Buzz!

Consecutive shocks appeared. Before Wang Xiaojiu could sprint, with a bang, the tunnel in front of him collapsed.

Wang Xiaojiu screamed, "Alas! I told you to hurry up! Look, the road we just found collapsed again."

Wang Lanlan said, "Who can you blame? What's the use of yelling? Dig by yourself!"

Han Fei slightly frowned at this moment. Something was wrong. When this power passed through the sea of sand and arrived here, Han Fei felt the effect of some other power. It seemed to be a higher-level power.

“The power of laws?”

Although Han Fei hadn’t comprehended the law yet, it didn’t mean that he didn’t know this power. He had guessed that the law was like the refinement of the power of the Great Dao, a unique and pure power. Compared to the power of the Great Dao, one was like a punch, and the other was like an awl. If the same power erupted and struck out, it must be the power of the awl stronger.

Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan had never felt this power, but Han Fei had once transformed into Mystic One and experienced the power of a Great Monarch. Although he had almost forgotten this power after coming out of the memory illusion, it didn’t mean that he didn’t remember it at all. He still had some understanding of laws.

Han Fei said, “Stop it. I feel that something happened up ahead. Something is wrong with this power.”

Wang Xiaojiu asked, “Something is wrong? Why? Are there many mine demons ahead?”

Han Fei said, “Maybe the mine demons ahead are very strong.”

Wang Xiaojiu asked, “How strong can it be? Although the Storm Ridge is dangerous, it’s mainly because there are many mine demons inside, not because the mine demon is very strong.”

Wang Lanlan, on the other hand, was not as careless as Wang Xiaojiu. She knew who Han Fei was. If Han Fei said it was strong, it must be very strong. So did it mean...

Wang Lanlan suddenly said, “Could it be a Monarch? Sha Laosan is such a loner. If it weren’t for the fact that he couldn’t take him down alone, would he have called Huang Ergou over? So, could it be that they have already found an opportunity but encountered a Monarch?”

Han Fei asked, “If it’s really a Monarch up ahead, can we come back?”

Wang Xiaojiu said, “Alas, Juejue, why are you still so stupid? If there is really a Monarch, could he have caused such a big uproar? He would’ve suppressed Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou without causing such a strong earthquake. So, this just shows that their enemy is not as strong as we thought. I don’t think it’s a Monarch. Instead, it’s very likely that it’s just a mine demon with five Dao Locks.”

Wang Lanlan said, “Wang Xiaojiu, you’ve become smarter this time!”

Wang Xiaojiu said, “Of course. I was very smart in the first place.”

Han Fei’s heart stirred. Without further ado, he slightly circulated his power and the digging speed doubled.

Wang Xiaojie exclaimed, "Juejue, why are you suddenly so fast?"

Han Fei said, "It's an inherited secret method. Only used in emergencies."

Wang Xiaojie didn't doubt him at all. "Come on, at this speed, we will be there soon."

A hundred seconds later.

Huang Ergou was already covered with cuts and bruises. Although Sha Laosan's soul had been resisting, Huang Ergou had basically been crippled during the period when he failed to resist. If it weren't for Sha Laosan's interference every time this Monarch-level soul attacked, Huang Ergou would have long become a dead dog.

Seeing that Huang Ergou couldn't hold on anymore and that he couldn't hold on either, Sha Laosan sighed in his heart. Treasure hunting, treasure hunting, he finally knew why his race had declined. This couldn't be helped! As the saying went, he that touched the pitch shall be defiled.

Huang Ergou's heart sank. Unfortunately, he still failed to live up to the expectations of his mother and brothers!

However, he was the one who brought Huang Ergou here. Huang Ergou trusted him, and he didn't want to let him down.

Roar!

At that moment, the power of Sha Laosan's soul suddenly erupted. He gathered all his strength and suddenly seized control of his body. He roared, "Ergou, run... Ahhhhh..."

Huang Ergou was refreshed. One of Sha Laosan's eyes glowed. He tried to control his body and punched through the spiritual barrier.

Boom ~

Huang Ergou instantly jumped up, turned into a ray of light, and rushed out. He saw that Sha Laosan tried to stop him, but he stopped himself.

Huang Ergou's speed exploded again as he rushed out crazily. Activating the Great Dao in his body, he condensed his voice and shouted, "Wang Xiaojie, quickly save me!"

After the roar, Huang Ergou's strength and vitality were exhausted, and he crashed heavily into the sand for thousands of kilometers and fell on his face.

Then, after a full minute, a great medicine spread out of Huang Ergou's gloves to replenish his body. This was his trump card, to save his life at the last moment.

Not daring to stay any longer, Huang Ergou rushed out again towards Wang Xiaojie.

Regardless of Huang Ergou's combat power, he had four Dao Locks. When he exerted all his strength, his voice spread across tens of millions of kilometers, and in the end, there was only a whisper.

Wang Xiaojiu, who was urging Han Fei to dig a tunnel, muttered, "These two people are too unethical. They didn't even call me for treasure hunting. Humph, when I see them, I'll beat the hell out of Huang Ergou."

Wang Lanlan said, "Then what about Sha Laosan?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "I'll beat him up too. Anyway, however, as the only one among us who has the protection of the Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth, Protection Sand, I can't beat him to death."

Wang Lanlan said, "I'm afraid you can't beat him. Sha Laosan is the strongest among us. Apart from being fast, your combat power is no match for him."

Wang Xiaojiu said angrily, "That's impossible. It's not that I'm bragging, but in the Mine Demon Stream, I fought tens of thousands of Bloody Hand Mine Devils alone with Lord Emperor Sparrow. Do you think I'm bragging?"

"Wang Xiaojiu, quickly save me!"

Just as Wang Xiaojiu was bragging, a very, very small, almost negligible voice came through the vibration of the sand. If it were an ordinary perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator, he might not have heard it.

However, how could Han Fei and the other two be ordinary?

Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan's faces changed drastically, and Han Fei narrowed his eyes slightly. This voice was very far away!

Immediately, Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan jumped up at the same time to help Han Fei dig the hole.

They didn't dig before because they were not good at digging, and their speed was definitely slower than Han Fei's. However, this didn't mean that they couldn't dig. If Wang Xiaojiu, who had five Dao Locks, really dug with his full strength, his speed was actually very fast.

In an instant, the three of them attacked together, and the speed of digging was several times faster.

Wang Xiaojiu said, "Not good. Something must have happened. With Sha Laosan's strength, even cultivators with five Dao Locks can't take him down. What treasures have they found? What level of mine demon is guarding them?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Although we're deep in the Wind Circle, we're still far from the deepest part. They shouldn't encounter enemies who can make them cry for help!"

Han Fei thought that they must've run into a Monarch-level mine demon. Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan couldn't feel the power of the law, but he could.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, if it were a Monarch, wouldn't it only take him a few slaps to solve Huang Ergou and Sha Laosan? How could they hold on for so long and even cry for help?

At this moment, Wang Lanlan's voice rang in Han Fei's mind, "Master Han Fei, please save Huang Ergou and Sha Laosan. If you really do, I believe they will submit to you. These two are both extremely talented, the best of pure-blooded ferocious beasts, and have top talents."

"Huh!"

Although Wang Xiaojiu was digging angrily, he still looked at Han Fei in shock and exclaimed, "Juejue, how did your digging speed suddenly become so fast?"

Han Fei ignored Wang Xiaojiu. This was his fastest speed of digging. Of course, he could walk on the sea of sand. With the Vast Ocean Navigator, he could find that place even without the traces of digging from before.

However, above the sea of sand, there was a storm. According to Wang Lanlan, there were many Wind Demons in the storm, which would hinder his advance.

Therefore, instead of leading them directly through the sea of sand, it was better to dig holes.

After all, this hole had already been dug by Sha Laosan. Although it had collapsed, it was dozens of times easier to dig than if it hadn't. Besides, since Huang Ergou's voice could be transmitted over, it meant that he was already very close to that place. There was no need to walk on the sea of sand.

Only twenty seconds later, Huang Ergou was digging hard. With a bang, the mine was penetrated, and Wang Xiaojiu, Wang Lanlan, and Yu Jue had arrived.

It was the first time that Han Fei saw Huang Ergou. He was speechless, thinking that Huang Ergou looked no different from a yellow rural Dog that had been beaten black and blue.

Huang Ergou, on the other hand, had no time to exchange pleasantries with them. He immediately ran back and roared, "Come on, save Sha Laosan! He was possessed by an ancient Monarch who had turned into divine crystals. However, only his remnant soul was left, and he's delirious. Sha Laosan's soul is resisting, but it can't last long."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Possessed?"

Wang Xiaojiu was also shocked. "An ancient Monarch?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Then why bother to fight?"

Huang Ergou said, "We can fight him, the ancient Monarch was only suppressing Huang Ergou with his law. Although the remnant soul is possessing him, it's not very fast because it's crazy. Sha Laosan can still resist it. Let's beat Sha Laosan and the ancient Monarch's Yang Souls out and separate them by force."

Swish ~

In the blink of an eye, the road ahead had been cleared by Huang Ergou, so Han Fei and the others arrived in the blink of an eye.

Everyone took a closer look, only to discover that it was a mine that hadn't turned into sand.

Huang Ergou said, "It's inside. This mine has been turned into sand by Sha Laosan. Let's work together."

This time, neither Wang Xiaojiu nor Wang Lanlan spoke. Wang Lanlan was no longer lazy and attacked with all her strength.

Bang!

The outer wall of the mine suddenly exploded, and the place that had already been turned into sand by Sha Laosan was penetrated again. And because of the powerful bombardment of the four of them, the space was penetrated by hundreds of meters.

At this time, Han Fei saw that the long, rat-like ferocious beast, with three red eyes, was not struggling at all as Huang Ergou said.

Huang Ergou's heart skipped a beat. He said in shock, "It's over. It's too late."

When the big rat saw Han Fei and the others, it was not as crazy as Huang Ergou said. He said, "Well, you actually dare to come back? Four perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivators. It just so happens that I have been sleeping for too long and need power to replenish myself. Contribute all your Origin Stars!"

Wang Lanlan did the same. A Dao Lock was broken.

Han Fei didn't have to do it, because Yu Jue had just advanced to the Perfected Star Transformation Realm.

However, in the next moment, the void began to distort. Suddenly, the power of laws descended. Han Fei saw a sword condensed in the void. It was not the power of the Great Dao, but the sword of laws.

Swish ~

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Wang Xiaojiu's paws were all cut off by the sword, and Wang Lanlan's hand was cut off by the sword.

As for Huang Ergou, he was already covered in wounds. It seemed that it took a lot of effort for him to run away, so his body was almost cut into two pieces.

Only Han Fei was the exception. The sword of law failed to make Han Fei take half a step back when it fell on him.

Wang Xiaojiu also looked at Han Fei in shock. Why didn't you take even half a step back? Although I blocked most of the power, the remaining power was not weak! How could Juejue block it?

"Huh?"

At this moment, the big rat looked at Han Fei and was slightly stunned. "You can block the power of my law? But so what? This person is struggling to guard his soul with a soul suppressing godly weapon. He will be obliterated by me in at most thirty seconds. How can you save him?"

Wang Lanlan shouted, "Master Han Fei..."

"Alas..."

Han Fei heaved a long sigh and said, "I didn't intend to take action at first, but it seems that the so-called Sha Laosan can still be saved. I'll give it a try! However, if I can't resist the power of the Monarch, there's nothing I can do."

Han Fei snapped his fingers, and a drop of water condensed into a water-shaped sword in midair. This sword was full of Dao runes and killing intent and shining with a golden light.

Yes, the Dao of Slaughter God and the path of invincibility were all injected into All Great Daos in One Sword.

Wang Xiaojiu and Huang Ergou were dumbfounded. Huang Ergou's eyes were shining, and Wang Xiaojiu's eyes were wide open. Is this Juejue?

Bang!

Half of the mine collapsed. The terrifying impact hit the sea of sand thousands of kilometers away. Above everyone's head, the sea of sand collapsed, causing a depression.

The ancient Monarch was horrified. "How can a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator be so strong? Could it be that in this life, even a Sky Opener is already so strong?"

Han Fei put on a smile. "Your body doesn't belong to you. You haven't successfully possessed him. You want to suppress me with a wisp of your soul and your law? Heh, I'm sorry to tell you that I'm invincible in my realm. In your current state, you're no different from a Muggle."

2627 Bestow a Name (2 in 1)

After fighting the Great Monarch Bloody Hand, Han Fei no longer had any respect for Monarchs.

According to Huang Ergou, this Monarch in front of him hadn't been able to completely suppress and kill Sha Laosan's soul, which showed that he was still very weak.

To be precise, such a person couldn't be considered a Monarch. He was at most a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator who had the power of laws.

Han Fei also felt the power of the law pressing on him, full of tingling pain. However, under the effect of the invincible will, the power of this law was too weak, so he could slash it apart.

The big rat was horrified and shouted, "If you attack me, this person will definitely die."

However, in the next moment, Han Fei suddenly burst out at more than 30 times the speed of light. Furthermore, it was not the speed of his body, but his Yang soul that left his body.

Boom ~

Han Fei punched Sha Laosan, and the latter was punched into afterimages, which was a sign that his soul was almost shattered by Han Fei.

Knock, knock, knock!

After a hundred punches in a row, Sha Laosan was almost beaten into a bloody mess, and the Monarch's Soul Body that was not protected by a soul suppressing godly weapon was punched out of the body by Han Fei.

Gulp!

Huang Ergou swallowed and said, "Wow! Has Juejue had an atavism? Or has he encountered some kind of opportunity? Why has he suddenly become so fierce? This is too fierce!"

Wang Xiaojiu's eyes were still rolling, but the hair on his body had already stood on end. It was not because Wang Lanlan called Yu Jue Master Han Fei, but because he had seen the Yang Soul's fist technique not long ago. Wasn't this... used by Brother Human Butcher?

Wang Xiaojiu was dumbfounded. How did Brother Human Butcher become Juejue? He was the f*cking owner of the Emperor Sparrow! He even asked him to dig holes and knock his head along the way...

On this side, the Monarch's soul was blasted out, but he was not completely defenseless. When he was beaten, he condensed a wisp of a law sword and stabbed at Han Fei's Yang Soul the moment his Yang Soul left his body.

However, something unexpected happened. A wisp of gravel that flickered like a star suddenly appeared on Han Fei's Yang soul. When this law sword landed on it, it seemed to be absorbed and only pushed Han Fei back for a hundred kilometers.

It was only a hundred kilometers away. With a thought, Han Fei activated the Void Stealing Technique, trying to steal this person's consciousness.

This Monarch's Soul Body clearly froze, but Han Fei felt that this guy's consciousness directly collapsed. Yes, perhaps because it had just regained a little consciousness when it was stolen by him, causing this guy to collapse.

Frowning, Han Fei pounced on the soul body and pierced through it with one hand. At the same time, he grabbed the soul body with the Void Lines. As the other party fell into chaos again, Han Fei tried to obtain some clues about ancient times through the soul body's memories.

Unfortunately, he only saw a very small part of it, which was the scene when this guy was suppressed. It was a casual sword light that came from a figure tens of millions of kilometers away. He couldn't even see the person before he was pierced through and nailed here.

The sword Qi exploded and condensed a snowflake-like sword Qi seal here, so this person was suppressed.

“So strong.”

Han Fei couldn't help but be shocked. This person was a Monarch. Although he didn't know what level he was at, he could be nailed to death with a casual slash from thousands of kilometers away. How strong was that person?

Han Fei said, “You're already dead. What's the point of lingering out? Go! Cultivate in your next life.”

In the next moment, the Monarch's soul body exploded and turned into invisible dust.

Han Fei stopped pretending. Since he had already erupted like this, it was impossible for Yu Jue to be fighting. Therefore, his body quickly changed from a pangolin to a human form.

Plop.

When Han Fei returned, he saw Wang Xiaojiu sitting on the ground.

Han Fei smiled. “I heard that you call me brother? I heard that I appreciate you? I heard that you rejected me? I heard...”

Huang Ergou was puzzled. Of course, he now knew that this person was just pretending to be Juejue. But why was Wang Xiaojiu so scared? His whole body was shaking.

“Woof ~”

Wang Xiaojiu wailed, “Brother Human Butcher! I was only joking with you on my way here! For the sake of Master Di Qiao, please forgive me!”

With that, Wang Xiaojiu leaned his head in front of Han Fei, as if he were apologizing. “I was just bragging on the way. You can knock my head to vent. Please cool down...”

Huang Ergou: “...”

Han Fei smiled and stretched out a finger, hanging above Wang Xiaojiu's head. Wang Xiaojiu was so scared that he almost exploded.

Bang!

With a flick of his finger, Han Fei flicked Wang Xiaojiu's head, and the latter fell directly into the sea of sand, sinking nearly ten kilometers into the sea of sand before stopping, and a dent appeared on his head.

The power of this finger set off surging ripples, which made Huang Ergou bare his teeth and his body tremble unconsciously. So strong, so strong. Who is this?

Wang Xiaojiu, on the other hand, was not hurt much. After all, he was also a cat with five Dao Locks, so he wouldn't be crippled by Han Fei.

However, it was lying motionless in the sand, pretending to be dead.

"Alas..."

Wang Xiaojiu appeared in front of Han Fei with a swish. He was no longer that nagging cat.

Han Fei ignored him and looked at the mangled Sha Laosan. At this moment, his soul finally recovered, but because he had been suppressed too hard by the remnant soul of the Monarch, he could only say thank you with difficulty before lying on the ground, exhausted.

Wang Lanlan reluctantly took out a spiritual pill and hesitated whether to feed him or not. Han Fei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He waved his hand, and in a flash, Sha Laosan was enshrouded in divine brilliance. His body was rapidly recovering, his bones were cracking, and his soul seemed to be bathed in warm spring water.

"Gulp ~"

Huang Ergou and Wang Xiaojiu both widened their eyes and didn't dare to speak. Seeing this, the stingy Wang Lanlan immediately put away the pill in her hand.

Han Fei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. You're a Dao Lock-level powerhouse anyway. Won't your stinginess affect your Dao Proving?

When the divine brilliance dissipated, Sha Laosan's body finally returned to normal, and his soul recovered a little. At least, he finally had energy to speak.

Sha Laosan knelt on one knee towards Han Fei, his voice rumbling. "Thank you for saving my life, Benefactor. My life will be yours in the future. Sha Laosan is willing to go through fire and water for you."

Different from Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan's personalities, Sha Laosan didn't have a smile and even kept a straight face. However, his words were much tougher than those of Wang Xiaojiu and the others. He was straightforward, decisive, and looked like an upright person.

Sha Laosan saw everything just now, but his soul was so exhausted that he didn't even have the power to control his body. Therefore, he watched Han Fei blast the remnant soul of the Monarch out of his body. If he didn't have a soul suppressing godly weapon, his soul might have been shattered just now.

But this was nothing, because he knew that Han Fei was saving him.

At this moment, the stupid Huang Ergou finally realized what was going on. "This is..."

Wang Xiaojiu immediately glared at Huang Ergou, thinking to himself, If you don't know how to speak, just shut up. Human Butcher is the boss of Emperor Sparrow. You should call him lord, big shot...

Han Fei glanced at Wang Lanlan, and Wang Lanlan was immediately refreshed. He quickly pointed at Huang Ergou and said, "Shut up. This is the Human Emperor, Master Han Fei, the master of the current Emperor Sparrow, and the new master of Puppet City. Master Han Fei is extremely powerful. He could even fight a Great Monarch alone! If we hadn't gone to the depths of the Wind Circle by the way, you silly dog and Sha Laosan would have been dead."

"Master Emperor Sparrow?"

Huang Ergou and Sha Laosan felt that their heads were buzzing. Although they didn't participate in the northern expedition, they knew how dangerous it was.

Even Mo Jiu had perished in Puppet City, which involved a battle of Great Monarchs. They couldn't imagine how Wang Xiaojia and the group of ferocious beasts that went to the northern expedition survived.

Compared to Huang Ergou who was stunned, Sha Laosan reacted faster. Looking at Wang Lanlan's attitude and Wang Xiaojia's lackey look, Sha Laosan immediately said, "Thank you, Master Han Fei and Master Emperor Sparrow, for saving my life. I can't repay you. I'm willing to serve you like a dog."

As he spoke, Sha Laosan took out his essence blood and waited for Han Fei to nod, preparing to swear an oath.

Wang Lanlan wasn't surprised at all. Ever since the news of the appearance of the Emperor Sparrow spread, there were already voices among the ferocious beasts saying that the Emperor Sparrow would return sooner or later. If he returned in the future, they would most likely submit to him.

After all, he was the king of ancient ferocious beasts. Who could resist such an existence?

Therefore, although many ferocious beasts hadn't seen the Emperor Sparrow yet, they already had the heart to submit. And those who didn't have the heart to submit and were even hostile to the Emperor Sparrow were all ferocious beasts in the Monarch realm, or those who were conceited that their talent was peerless and could become Monarchs or even Great Monarchs. But there were very few such ferocious beasts in the Infinite Mining Area.

Sha Laosan set an example, and Huang Ergou hurriedly followed suit, taking out his essence blood, preparing to pledge loyalty.

They naturally respected and loved Li Luoluo, but it didn't mean that they would refuse to submit to the Emperor Sparrow. If Han Fei forced them to choose between Li Luoluo and him, they might not choose either of them. They might even die for Li Luoluo.

However, seeing Wang Xiaojia and Wang Lanlan, they felt that there was probably no hatred between Han Fei and Li Luoluo, and they shouldn't fight. At this time, the odds of gambling with their lives were very small, and the chance of gambling with their future was greater.

Han Fei didn't refute but said indifferently, "If you are all willing to follow me, aren't you afraid of Li Luoluo's punishment?"

Sha Laosan said, "Big Luoluo is a very open-minded Monarch. It has always been up to us to decide some important matters and choices. Besides, on the path of Master Emperor Sparrow's growth, there will inevitably be many ferocious beasts following him. Big Luoluo definitely understands this. This is a danger, but also an opportunity."

Sha Laosan was very straightforward, and Han Fei couldn't help but nod. When he met Li Luoluo, the two of them didn't talk too much about the future of the Emperor Sparrow. However, because of his identity as the king of the Emperor Sparrow, he would eventually have an inextricable relationship with the ferocious beasts.

Therefore, Li Luoluo was very generous to tell him the location of the God Burying Ridge. Perhaps she wanted to do the Emperor Sparrow a favor. In this way, if Han Fei could get the Space Worm and the Time Worm in the future, he would definitely think of her.

Of course, if Han Fei didn't give her the Space Worm and the Time Worm, it was possible that Li Luoluo's lineage wouldn't have much interaction with Han Fei. This was probably one of the reasons why Li Luoluo turned a blind eye to Han Fei subduing Wang Lanlan and Yu Jue.

Han Fei put on a smile, glanced at Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou, and then looked at Wang Xiaojiu.

Wang Xiaojiu: "???"

In fact, Wang Xiaojiu had been embarrassed ever since Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou submitted to Han Fei. It was obvious that Wang Lanlan and Yu Jue had submitted to Han Fei, and now Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou were going to submit to him too. He was the only one who hadn't submitted to him yet. He had thought to pretend that he didn't know anything, thinking that Han Fei wouldn't force him to surrender, would he?

However, who would have expected Han Fei to look straight at him? Wang Xiaojiu felt a chill down her spine.

To be honest, he didn't want to surrender. As a free and undisciplined cat, he could do whatever he wanted. That was his greatest joy. Now that he had to submit to someone for no reason, he was a little resistant. Although the person who he submitted to was the Emperor Sparrow, he was a very powerful cat. If he surrendered to someone just like that, wouldn't he lose his freedom?

However, under Han Fei's shining gaze, Wang Xiaojiu was embarrassed and uneasy. In the end, he had no choice but to put on an innocent expression and look at Han Fei curiously.

When they looked at each other, Han Fei was speechless. Can't you see the look in my eyes? Why are you acting cute here?

Han Fei snorted. "You don't want your fur anymore?"

Wang Xiaojiu's hair all stood on end and even his back was bent. Han Fei said, "Perhaps you want the Emperor Sparrow to talk to you in person."

Immediately, Wang Lanlan, Sha Laosan, and Huang Ergou hurriedly said, "Greetings, Master Emperor Sparrow."

"Um!"

The Emperor Sparrow said indifferently, "Infinite Demon Cat, I didn't have time to care about you last time. I didn't expect to meet you again so soon."

Wang Xiaojiu felt that tears were about to fall. It was fine when facing Han Fei. He had chatted with Han Fei all the way and didn't feel that Han Fei was bad. But when the Emperor Sparrow looked at him, he felt his heart turn cold.

Wang Xiaojiu hurriedly said, "Greetings, Master Emperor Sparrow."

The Emperor Sparrow: "If I remember correctly, your race should have been extinct long ago."

Wang Xiaojiu said, "Ah! Well, there's still me."

The Emperor Sparrow: "Do you know why your race is called Infinite Demon Cat?"

Everyone couldn't help but look at the Emperor Sparrow. Even Han Fei looked at the Emperor Sparrow too. This guy's memories were very clear. He had clearly cultivated from level one. Why did he know so much about his previous life's inheritance? Could it be that his inherited memories were all about his previous life?

Wang Xiaojiu shook his head. He really didn't know. He had never met a cat like him since he was born.

The Emperor Sparrow said indifferently, "Because of the Infinity Dao, your race can be traced back even earlier than the Age of the Gods. It can be traced back to the primeval era, when it was the era of divine beasts and ferocious beasts. Your ancestors once created the Infinity Dao, broke the shackles of the Great Emperor, and became gods. Unfortunately, in the Age of the Gods, because of the death of Great Monarch Infinity, the Infinity Dao declined. The strongest person of your race in the Age of the Gods only reached the Great Monarch level. His name is Wang Xian, and he ranks sixth among the eight Great Monarchs under me. In your generation, how much more of the Infinity Dao can you grasp?"

Wang Xiaojiu's eyes turned green. After a long while, he said, "There's... there's such a Dao? There is nothing about it in my inherited memory!"

Wang Xiaojiu's breathing became rapid. Wow, there were gods in his ancestors. This matter could probably be bragged about for the rest of his life.

The Emperor Sparrow snorted. "There are two situations where inherited memories will disappear. The first is that your bloodline hasn't been completely awakened, so you can't open the inheritance of the Infinity Dao. The second is that you're the reincarnation of a wisp of soul left behind by an Infinite Demon Cat in the past. Although your bloodline has been connected, the path has been severed. If you want to reopen this path, either you have to comprehend this Dao again, or... someone can reproduce this Dao for you to help you comprehend it."

At that moment, Wang Xiaojiu's breathing quickened and his eyes glowed. He didn't feel anything about bloodline awakening at all, and he was already a pure-blooded ferocious beast. How could he further awaken his bloodline?

Therefore, Wang Xiaojiu couldn't help but say, "Master Emperor Sparrow, you mean..."

The Emperor Sparrow said coldly, "When I prove Dao, I can control the true meaning of laws. Then I can help you comprehend the Infinity Dao again, if you have the talent."

“Gulp ~”

Not just Wang Xiaojiu, even Wang Lanlan and Sha Laosan couldn't help but swallow saliva.

What was talent? If he didn't try, who knew if he had the talent or not? Besides, this was the Emperor Sparrow's personal promise. It wasn't necessary for him to lie!

Wang Xiaojiu hurriedly said, “I'm willing to follow Lord Emperor Sparrow, and I can also swear an oath.”

Wang Lanlan hurriedly said, “Master Emperor Sparrow, what do you think of my bloodline?”

The Emperor Sparrow squinted at her. “You're just an ordinary pure-blooded ferocious beast. However, one's future can't be completely determined by bloodline on the path of cultivation. Everyone has his own path. In this world, no one can become a god by bloodline.”

Wang Lanlan was a little disappointed and sighed in his heart. She really hoped that she could have a bloodline like Wang Xiaojiu.

Han Fei nodded slightly. “Okay!”

Now that his identity had been exposed, Wang Xiaojiu and the others had to be on his side, especially Wang Xiaojiu. Who knew when his big mouth would reveal his identity to the entire world.

Of course, he also took a fancy to Wang Xiaojiu's strength. It was not easy to subdue a strong master with five Dao Locks. He might not need Wang Xiaojiu and the others to follow him for long, but in the short term, they would definitely be a great help to him.

After a while, Wang Xiaojiu pledged loyalty to him, and Han Fei took them to the mine.

When Han Fei saw a large number of divine crystals, Heavenly Dao Jade Essence, and Chaotic Spiritual Earth, he couldn't help but exclaim. These are all good things! Sure enough, if you want to become rich, the only two ways are robbery and treasure hunting. If he subdued people like Sha Laosan and Huang Ergou who are born to treasure hunting, they might really be of great use in the Storm Ridge. At the very least, they can find some treasures!

However, Han Fei didn't need the divine crystals and Heavenly Dao Jade Essence now. If he had found so many divine crystals and Heavenly Dao Jade Essence before he practiced the Godfiend Formless Technique, he might have been salivating.

Unfortunately, now that he was practicing the human race's Supreme Divine Technique and the Godfiend Formless Technique, he didn't need to rely on these external things at all.

However, the Chaotic Spiritual Earth was a good thing. It was something needed in the Origin Star. When he was in the Demon Domain, he had killed the demonic sources and obtained a few pieces of Chaotic Spiritual Earth, but the quality was too poor, incomparable to what he saw now.

There were a total of about 800 cubic meters of Chaotic Spiritual Earth here, and nearly 100 cubic meters had reached the high-quality level. Compared to the tiny bit of Chaotic Spiritual Earth in his Origin Star, the Chaotic Spiritual Earth here was enough to subtly improve about 10,000 kilometers in his Origin Star. It was enough to make the land within 10,000 kilometers reach the level of Mystic Yellow Soil.

It wouldn't make much sense if they were evenly distributed on the entire Origin Star. His Origin Star was too big, and there was too little Chaotic Spiritual Earth. Therefore, he could only gather the Chaotic Spiritual Earth together. This way, he could plant a medicinal garden in his Origin Star. This way, he could continuously produce spiritual fruits.

Han Fei looked at the divine crystals and the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence and thought for a moment. "I want all the Chaotic Spiritual Earth. You can take half of the divine crystals and the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence. Take Yujue's portion."

"Ahhh~"

Wang Xiaojie, Wang Lanlan, and Huang Ergou had already rushed over. Only Sha Laosan was still standing behind Han Fei, motionless.

When Han Fei looked at him, this guy was actually distracted.

Han Fei was lost for words. "What are you thinking?"

Sha Laosan came back to his senses and then hurriedly said, "Someone said I would face a deadly situation twice in my life. The first time, my mother and six brothers died to save me. I owe them a lot. The second time, Master Han Fei helped me regain my life... Therefore, I have a presumptuous request."

Remembering the mourning hall that Sha Laosan set up, Han Fei nodded slightly. "Go on."

Sha Laosan said, "Sha Laosan is dead. Please give him a name, Master Han Fei."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei thought for a moment. "I'm told that you have two bloodlines, the Sky Penetrating Rat and the Wind Thunder Mink?"

Sha Laosan nodded. "Yes, my lord."

Han Fei thought for a moment and suddenly thought of something. He put on a smile and muttered, "Isn't it a bit inappropriate to call you Sha Diao?"

However, as soon as Han Fei muttered this, he heard Sha Laosan say, "Thank you for the name, Master Han Fei."

"Uh..."

2628 Sand Sea Wind Snake (2 in 1)

Han Fei didn't know if he should explain to Sha Laosan why he changed his name to Sha Diao so quickly.

However, he thought for a moment and decided to let it be! He didn't know Sha Laosan very well and couldn't give him his surname. Han Diao sounded even sillier than Sha Diao, so let it be.

Healed by the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique, Sha Diao returned to his peak state in half a day. After all, he was a powerhouse with four Dao Locks. Without having irreversible damage, his recovery ability was terrifying.

Half a day later.

Han Fei said, "Since you already know my identity, I won't keep it a secret from you. I'm not here for treasure hunting. I'm going to the center of the Storm Ridge. Have any of you been there?"

"The center?"

They were all shocked.

Wang Lanlan was stunned. She didn't know that Han Fei had a purpose in this trip. She thought that Han Fei was here to subdue the ferocious beasts, but he found that he knew Big Luoluo, so he gave up.

Wang Lanlan said, "Master Han Fei, the center of the Storm Ridge is not a place that Sky Openers can set foot in. None of us have been there. Some Sky Opening Realm ferocious beasts have entered it before, but no one has ever come out alive. Later, that place became a forbidden place."

Wang Xiaojiu also said, "We can't go in! We don't know what the center of the Storm Ridge is like, but we are still in the periphery of the Storm Ridge. Although it is dangerous, we can still explore it. But once we cross this periphery, we will go to the Storm Quicksand Sea, which is a place where we can't get out once we get in."

"Storm Quicksand Sea?"

Han Fei was puzzled by the name. He could understand the Quicksand Sea, but what was the Storm Quicksand Sea like?

Sha Diao said, "The so-called Stormy Quicksand Sea means that it's not an ordinary Quicksand Sea. The entire Quicksand Sea is like a sea current, and the movement is abnormally violent. It's like a Quicksand Storm. It covers a wide area and has no blind spots. No matter which direction you go, you can't get around it. A Monarch-level powerhouse from the ferocious beast lineage once went in and came out. He said that in the Stormy Quicksand Sea, there are a large number of gregarious mine demons. Although they are also made of fine minerals, they are made of mineral gravel. Not only are they difficult to kill, but once you are surrounded by these mine demons, no Sky Opener may be able to escape."

Han Fei frowned slightly. "So, even if your lineage of ferocious beasts guards outside the Storm Ridge all year round, few people have entered the Storm Quicksand Sea?"

Huang Ergou said, "Master Han Fei, I once stayed at the periphery of the Stormy Quicksand Sea for a period of time. The smell there is mixed. In addition to ordinary gregarious mine demons, I suspect there are even more terrifying mine demons. When the Storm Ridge was opened to outsiders, even many Monarch-level masters died there. There are no more than a hundred ferocious beasts who can come out of the Stormy Quicksand safely. Most of them only entered the periphery and stayed for a short period of time. This is because if they stay long enough, they will fall into a storm and be swept deep into it, and they won't be able to find the way they came."

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. It seemed that the Stormy Quicksand Sea was indeed not a simple place. But it did make sense. If the center of the Storm Ridge was really the place where the Demon God died, it would definitely be dangerous. How could ordinary people step into the place where a god died?

For example, Few people below the Sea Establishment realm could walk in a battlefield of Sky Openers and walk out alive.

Han Fei said indifferently, "Apart from the gregarious mine demons and suspected terrifying mine demons in the Storm Quicksand Sea, is there anything special or dangerous?"

They said in unison, "Lost."

Wang Lanlan said, "It's very easy to get lost in the Stormy Quicksand Sea. The wind there contains the power of laws. Once you're swept in by the storm, you won't be able to find your way out without special means. The quicksand there contains the law of strength. Once you get lost in the Stormy Quicksand Sea, it means endless battles and endless danger."

Wang Xiaojie hurriedly added, "There's also the law of wind and the law of strength themselves. Perhaps the power of the law in the Stormy Quicksand Sea is not particularly strong, but under the corrosion of the power of the law all year round, the swirling quicksand there can forcibly scrape a powerhouse in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm to death. Big Luoluo once said that in the Stormy Quicksand Sea, a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator can only last for at most three days. After three days, perhaps he won't die because of insufficient strength or replenishment, but his combat power will definitely be greatly reduced because of extreme mental exhaustion. Once his spiritual power can't withstand it at all, once he sinks in the Stormy Quicksand Sea, death will be his only way back."

Han Fei asked, "Can't I fly over from the sky?"

Everyone shook their heads, and Wang Lanlan said, "You can't fly over. The Storm Quicksand Sea has another characteristic. It will absorb the power of the heavens and earth here. It's not impossible to forcibly soar into the sky there, but it will consume a lot of your energy. In such a case, you will fall into the Storm Quicksand Sea before you can even last a day or half a day. By then, you will be exhausted and won't be able to survive the dangers in the Storm Quicksand."

Han Fei asked calmly, "What else?"

Wang Lanlan said, "This is the information we know about the Storm Quicksand Sea."

Han Fei thought that it was impossible to fly. It made sense. Otherwise, if he could fly it over easily, what kind of forbidden place was that?

As for the sense of direction, Han Fei felt that with the Vast Ocean Navigator, he shouldn't get lost. Even in a violent hurricane, the Vast Ocean Navigator still had the ability to point direction accurately.

As for the law of wind and the law of strength, this was a problem. But now that he had the Star Sea Mystic Sand to protect his body, it could be said that attacks below the Monarch level might not be able to break his defense at all. Therefore, the ordinary mine demons in the Storm Quicksand Sea, even if they were gregarious, shouldn't be able to kill him. Of course, although they couldn't kill him, they would definitely cause him trouble.

In the end, now that Little Black and Little White had become stronger, there were many ways for him to resist the power of this storm. The key to the problem was what Huang Ergou said. There might be terrifying mine demons in the Storm Quicksand Sea.

If he encountered a Monarch-level mine demon, would he be a match for it? If it was just a Dao Prover, that would be fine. He had a lot of trump cards now. He should be able to fight someone who had just entered the Dao Proving realm. Of course, if it was someone who had been in the Dao Proving realm for a long time, it would be hard to say.

However, how could there be a safe place in this world? He had been through danger all the way here. Even if he really encountered a Dao Prover, he would be able to fight him with the power of Puppet City.

Of course, this was under extreme circumstances. If possible, Han Fei wouldn't fight with unknown Monarchs in unfamiliar places. He was more likely to run away.

Han Fei thought about the dangers he might encounter and quickly made a decision. "Let's go to the Storm Quicksand Sea. You can go back then. There are some things that I don't need your help with."

Sha Diao said, "Sha Diao is willing to follow Master Han Fei into the Storm Quicksand Sea."

Han Fei said, "Well, Sha Diao! Don't keep calling yourself Sha Diao in the future. You... You can just call yourself 'I'. Just keep your name to yourself."

Sha Diao said, "I understand. I... I'm willing to follow you into the Stormy Quicksand Sea."

Han Fei shook his head slightly. "What can you help me with? Since you've all said that the Storm Quicksand Sea is dangerous, you should know that going in blindly will not help me but hinder me."

Sha Diao said, "My lord, I've already fused with the Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth, Protection of Sand. I can completely transform into a sand body."

Han Fei sneered. "I know you have a Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth. But aren't you afraid that the power of law in the Storm Quicksand Sea will shatter you? Don't argue. No matter how powerful your Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth is, it has the power of law. When you can resist the power of law one day, I'll take you with me."

Sha Diao's face turned red. He had indeed never tried to resist the power of the law with the Protection of Sand. However, even if he didn't try, he knew that it would probably be very difficult. It was indeed a problem whether he could help Han Fei or not.

Wang Xiaojia also echoed, "Okay, Laosan, to be honest, how many people can you fight in the Storm Quicksand Sea? You'll only be killed after a round of besieging by the mine demons. Listen to Master Han Fei. Don't go with him."

Sha Diao said solemnly, "Wang Xiaojia, please call me Sha Diao from now on."

“Uh! Okay, okay, Sha Diao.”

Han Fei couldn't stand it anymore and urged, “Alright, now that the treasure has been found and the remnant soul of this ancient cultivator has really died, return to the sea of sand. I want to see what it's like inside the Wind Circle.”

“Hoop~ Hoop~”

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Han Fei and his subordinates broke out of the soil. As soon as they came to the surface of the sea of sand, the wind whistled in their ears and roared. The mineral gravel and the powerful storm hit them like billions of knife lights.

Except that the storm itself almost formed infinite wind blades, the flying gravel was so fast that when they hit people, they were like beads full of metal sharpness aura. It was fine to be shot by one or two of these beads on the body, but in this Wind Circle, every moment, tens of thousands of mineral grains hit the body.

With such power, once a peak-level Sea Establisher entered it, he would probably be instantly shot into a beehive. Then his flesh and bones would melt, and even his bones wouldn't be left behind. The Sky Opening Realm was the basic qualification to enter. If one didn't want to be affected by such a storm and fight freely, he had to at least reach the Sky Opening Realm.

Therefore, as soon as he appeared, Han Fei understood that in a place like the Wind Circle, one had to be at least in the Star Transformation realm to be qualified to enter. Otherwise, if an early-stage Sky Opener dared to enter, the wind demons here should be able to easily kill him.

No wonder the Storm Ridge was described as so dangerous. No wonder not many people entered the Wind Circle to cultivate. If they wanted to cultivate in the Wind Circle, they had to have the ability to resist such violence for a long time.

In addition to the power of the storm itself, because the raging wind was too strong, perception could not be spread out at all. Once perception left the body, it would immediately be blown away by the storm. Although Han Fei didn't feel the power of the law in this storm, he clearly felt the power of the Great Dao of Wind.

He couldn't even release his perception, let alone establish a connection with his Origin Star. It was impossible for him to enter his Origin Star. As soon as the entrance appeared, it would be immediately shattered by the wind and gravel.

Swish ~

There was no telling if it was Han Fei's luck, but soon after he came out, he saw a vague figure in a hidden storm darting at Han Fei from the sand particles.

In this sand storm where perception couldn't be spread out and vision was extremely poor, the danger level of the mine demons had to be increased by a level.

However, no matter how strong the mine demons were, no matter how favorable the situation was for them, it couldn't close the gap in realm and strength.

Han Fei grabbed with one hand, and the surrounding storm temporarily collapsed. When they looked again, Han Fei had already grabbed the tail of a Wind Snake with a void hand.

<Name > Sand Sea Wind Snake

<Introduction > A Sand Sea Wind Snake is condensed from mineral gravel. It's born to have the ability to control wind. In a storm, its speed is unparalleled and can reach the speed of light explosion. The Sand Sea Wind Snake can transform into a snake at will and grow wings like blades. It can absorb the power of minerals, cut through godly weapons, and kill Sky Openers.

< Level > 108

<Quality > Level-Five Mine Demon

<Realm > Late-stage Star Transformation Realm

<Absorbable >

<Note > The Sand Sea Wind Snake can hide in the wind and turn into sand. To kill it, you have to kill its soul with one blow.

The information disappeared in the blink of an eye, and the Sand Sea Wind Snake dispersed into sand and tried to escape.

However, Han Fei's speed was even faster. His fingers were like swords as he pointed in the air, cutting through the sand.

Boom!

In the storm, there was a flash of lightning, indicating the death of this Sand Sea Wind Snake. As for the level-five mineral gravel, it was not easy to collect. In an instant, half of it was blown away by the storm. Han Fei reached out to pick it up but only got half of it.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, the remaining level-five mineral gravel was all swallowed by Huang Ergou.

He even smiled at Han Fei to curry favor with him.

It was not that Han Fei cared about the level-five mineral gravel, but he just wanted to study the Wind Demon.

Han Fei squeezed the level-five mineral gravel in his hand into a ball and threw it to Huang Ergou like a stone.

The latter didn't mind. He opened his mouth and swallowed the mass of level-five mineral, shouting, "Thank you for your reward, Master Han Fei."

Han Fei said, "No wonder the ferocious beasts mostly guard the outside of the Sea of Storms. If they cultivate in the Sea of Storms, it will be quite difficult to collect these minerals."

Huang Ergou and Wang Lanlan's combat power were relatively low among the four of them, so when they saw Han Fei casually grab and kill a Sand Sea Wind Snake by pointing a finger at it, they couldn't help but secretly take a breath. This big shot was really strong! Even in the Wind Circle, killing a Late-stage Star Transformation Realm Sand Sea Wind Snake was as easy as crushing an ant for him.

Wang Xiaojie and Sha Diao were not too surprised. Wang Xiaojie had seen how terrifying Han Fei was when he went on a rampage. He was a monster who could even resist the Great Monarch Bloody Hand, so it was only natural that he could crush a Sand Sea Wind Snake.

Sha Diao also took it for granted. Since Han Fei saved him, he had started to worship Han Fei, not only because the Emperor Sparrow was his spiritual beast, but also because he had personally experienced the pain of being beaten by Han Fei. At that time, the Monarch-level remnant soul tried to resist, but in the end, it was crushed from head to toe and had no chance of winning at all.

Therefore, Sha Diao didn't treat Han Fei as a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator at all. In its eyes, Han Fei's strength was no different from that of a Dao Prover.

"Hoop ~"

Just after Han Fei killed the Sand Sea Wind Snake, the wind suddenly sounded in Han Fei's ears, accompanied by the sound of soul sprinting. He took a leap and tapped the surface of the sand with his feet. Instantly, billowing ripples shook in the sand, and a mineral conch was kicked out.

Wang Lanlan and the others followed up. She explained, "Master Han Fei, this is a Sand Sea Rumbling Conch. It likes to bury its body in the sea of sand and wait for time to hunt. However, the Sand Sea Rumbling Conch is not very dangerous. The slightly more dangerous ones are the Wind Conch. This kind of conch can condense the power of storms and form a mineral shell and a wind force field on the surface of its body. Its defense power is astonishing. Even if it's a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator, it will take him at least seven or eight moves to kill a Wind Conch."

Wang Lanlan praised Han Fei smartly. She seemed to be introducing the conch, but Han Fei could tell that she was flattering him. It meant that Han Fei could kill the enemy with one move, which showed that his talent and strength were both amazing.

Of course, after entering the Wind Circle, Han Fei couldn't be fighting alone. Otherwise, why would he bring four guards with him?

After Han Fei killed two creatures in the Wind Circle in a row, Huang Ergou, Sha Laosan, and the others looked at each other and hurriedly took the initiative to attack.

It had to be said that the number of mine demons in the Wind Circle was more than Han Fei had imagined. He had thought that the ferocious beasts guarding here all year round would kill a lot of mine demons.

But after stepping into the Wind Circle, Han Fei realized that the number of Wind Demons in the Wind Circle was much more than that of the puppets in Puppet City. God knew how many mine demons of this level were in the huge Storm Ridge.

At this moment, Han Fei took the lead to attack, and Sha Diao and Huang Ergou took the initiative to attack. After only ten thousand kilometers, they killed four mine demons in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm.

However, when other people were attacking, including Wang Xiaojiu, Wang Lanlan followed Han Fei with a big clam in her arms. When Han Fei didn't attack, she didn't attack either.

Han Fei: "Why didn't you attack?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Master Han Fei, I want to stay by your side! Huang Ergou and the others are enough to kill the wind demons. This can also be a trial for them. I'll be in charge of chatting with you."

Swish ~

Wang Xiaojiu rushed over with a swish and tilted his head to look at Wang Lanlan. "In terms of chatting skills, Wang Lanlan, you are still far inferior to me. Master Han Fei, let me chat with you. I guarantee you won't be bored."

Han Fei was amused. "Isn't it a bit too perfunctory for you to cover up your slack-off?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "I'm not being perfunctory! It's just that I've already had five Dao Locks. I should give this rare opportunity of cultivation to the three of them! Especially Wang Lanlan, you only have one Dao Lock. How do you have the cheek to follow Lord Han Fei? Hurry up and clear the way with Sha Diao and the others."

Wang Lanlan said, "I'm the first to follow Master Han Fei."

Wang Xiaojiu said, "But you are the weakest! When Master Han Fei proves his Dao, it'll be outrageous if you still only have one Dao Lock. Besides, you don't have a special bloodline like mine. Sigh, not every pure-blooded ferocious beast can lie flat."

Wang Lanlan: "..."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "How far is this place from the Storm Quicksand Sea?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "With our current speed, there are about three days to go. The further we go, the more Wind Demons there will be, and the stronger they will be. But they are mostly within the Sky Opening Realm, mainly in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm. Although many of them are in the Perfected Star Transformation Realms, they are relatively scattered. The Wind Circle is so big, so the chances of us encountering them are not high. Along the way, we can only meet at most one or two hundred. It can't compare to the Mine Demon Stream here."

Han Fei's face turned cold. "In that case, cut the crap. If the four of you attack together, the three-day journey will be reduced to one and a half days. OK, that's it. Otherwise, I'll take you into the Storm Quicksand Sea. Believe me, I can do this. After all, the Storm Quicksand Sea is a path that can make people stronger, right?"

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Wang Lanlan said, "Sha Diao, it's more efficient if we cooperate..."

Han Fei shook his head slightly. He didn't know if it was a wise decision to accept Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan. If it was a life-and-death moment, the two of them would probably run away.

"It seems that I should nurture Huang Ergou, Yu Jue, and Sha Diao more in the future. They're simple, loyal, and hardworking. They'll definitely be more useful than these two lazy b*stards in the same realm."

2629 Storm Quicksand Sea (2 in 1)

Thanks to the efforts of the four of them, Han Fei finally came to the edge of the Storm Quicksand Sea.

In the past three days, Han Fei had gained some insights. It was really not easy to cultivate in this Wind Circle. Those who were not strong enough could easily die, or they could only cultivate in the outermost of the Wind Circle.

Even Wang Xiaojiu and the others could be said to have been through hundreds of battles in the past three days. They were in danger several times, and it was Han Fei who solved the enemies in the end.

At this moment, Han Fei and the other four stood at the edge of the Storm Quicksand Sea, looking at this strange scene in amazement.

The quicksand surged like a tide. It was clearly a sea of sand, but it seemed to be a huge tide in the sea. In addition, this tide was circulating. Every time it rose and fell, it created a turbulence that disappeared in the quicksand in the blink of an eye.

In the sky above the Quicksand Sea, the storm was even stronger than the outer Wind Circle. The world was pale yellow, and visibility was probably less than three to five meters.

But soon, Han Fei felt that some cyan halos flickered on his knife light, which was exactly the law of wind that Wang Lanlan and the others mentioned. Soon, the knife light vibrated and rumbled, but it was completely destroyed by the law of wind after only less than a thousand kilometers.

Wang Lanlan and the others knew that although it was just Han Fei's casual blow, this blow was also a knife light of the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. Such a knife light could easily slash hundreds of thousands of kilometers away outside, but here, it was annihilated within a thousand meters. It could be seen how terrifying the Storm Quicksand Sea was.

Wang Lanlan said, "Master Han Fei, except for the law of wind, undercurrents are surging under the Quicksand Sea, and the vortex is difficult to see. I'm afraid that half of the power of the slash just now was sucked into the vortex of the Quicksand Sea."

Han Fei nodded. He had noticed that the slash could cut thousands of meters above the Quicksand Sea. But in the Quicksand Sea, it became much weaker.

Han Fei said casually, "It seems that no Wind Demons have approached this place."

Wang Xiaojie said, "Once the Wind Demons enter the Storm Quicksand Sea, they will also be swept in. Their result will be the same as ours. Once they get lost in it, it's only a matter of time before they die. The greatest possibility is that they will be swallowed by the mine demons in the Quicksand Sea."

Han Fei asked, "Ergou, what do you smell?"

Huang Ergou thought for a moment. "I smell the scent of a large number of mine demons, but they shouldn't be very strong. In addition, I smell the scent of demon plants. Yes, it's the smell of living demon plants. I often smell it at Big Luoluo's house, so even if the life aura state is different, the essence is the same. They're all demon plants."

Everyone couldn't help but look at Huang Ergou in confusion. You said there were demon plants in this damn place?

Even Han Fei frowned slightly. The environment here was so harsh. What kind of demon plants could survive in such extreme conditions?

Huang Ergou said, "I can be sure. And the vitality of this demonic plant is quite stable. Apart from that, I didn't smell anything else. Perhaps it was affected by the law of wind, so I can't smell anything further away."

Han Fei said, "Enough. It's already not bad to be sure that there are demon plants here. Alright, you can go back! Wait for me outside the Wind Circle."

Wang Lanlan said, "Master Han Fei, why don't you just leave? Few people can get out of this place after they enter it."

Wang Xiaojiu nodded quickly. "Yes! In the past, even Monarchs often died in it. After all, no one can withstand the power of the law every day!"

Han Fei snorted and stepped into the Storm Quicksand Sea. In the blink of an eye, Han Fei's figure disappeared without a trace in the storm. Only a voice remained. "Before I return, you have to cultivate hard. Don't waste the divine crystals and Heavenly Dao Jade Essence."

"Huff!"

Sha Diao: "Wang Xiaojiu, be polite. Master Han Fei is also your master."

Wang Xiaojiu said, "My master is Lord Emperor Sparrow. Forget it, let's just go back quickly, OK?"

Wang Lanlan asked, "Should we wait here?"

Huang Ergou said, "The speed of cultivation in the Wind Circle is far faster than outside the Wind Circle. Besides, the periphery of the Storm Quicksand Sea is a relatively safe place. The wind demons dare not step in easily for fear of being swept in. As for the mine demons in the Quicksand Sea, I'm afraid it's extremely rare for them to come out, so isn't this place the most suitable place for cultivation?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "Stupid. If it's really so easy, how can you be the one who takes advantage of this? Countless people have already come, trying to take advantage of this. Although it is relatively safe outside the Storm Quicksand Sea for the time being, you don't know that a law storm will be set off here. Once the law storm comes and we don't leave, there will only be one outcome, which is to be swept into the Quicksand River."

"A law storm?"

Wang Lanlan asked, "Why didn't you tell Master Han Fei earlier?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "I don't have to tell him! He was going to enter the Quicksand Sea anyway. What could he not encounter in it? Why would he care about a mere storm? Come on, let's go."

The reason why Han Fei took Wang Xiaojiu and the others along this way was actually very simple. He wanted to see their respective abilities.

In three days, after thousands of battles, Han Fei learned their combat power, fighting style, fighting habits, and even temperament like the back of his hand.

At this moment, Han Fei stepped into the Quicksand Sea. Instead of entering the Quicksand Sea, he stopped above the Quicksand Sea without moving.

At that moment, Han Fei felt a magnificent suction force coming from under his feet. It was a power that was about to trap him. This power contained the law of strength.

Yes, the moment he stood on this quicksand sea, he had already sensed that this place not only contained the law of wind, but also the law of strength.

His body seemed to be sucked by the quicksand sea. Although he could break through the suction force, it was unnecessary. He could just maintain this state and experience the difference between the law of strength and the Great Dao of strength.

Apart from the law of strength he felt under his feet, the sky above the Storm Quicksand Sea was indeed filled with the law of wind. Different from the power of the Great Dao, the destructive power of the sand in the wind had increased by more than three times.

Han Fei perceived it carefully. Around him, a barrier of the Great Dao of Strength was erected. As the sandstorm slapped, Han Fei personally saw the grains of sand being blocked by the Great Dao of strength after penetrating it. After being blocked, the sands even burst out the last power, which was extremely refined, like crystals condensed from a Great Dao.

In other words, when the law of wind pushed the sand, in addition to acting on the sand, it even changed the internal structure of the sand.

Even if the external force disappeared, there was still a last burst of power inside.

Bang!

On the surface of Han Fei's body, the power of the Great Dao burst out and with a bang, shattered the wind around him. But in the next moment, a strange scene happened. The scattered sand, under the effect of the law of wind, returned in the next moment and continued to trap Han Fei.

"Interesting. The power of the law has the ability to self-converge?"

Bang!

Breaking free from the sand again, Han Fei burst out with speed and broke through the barrier of the law of wind. The scattered sands gathered again, as if gathering into a big ball. Because there was no Han Fei blocking it, the big ball fell directly into the sea of quicksand, and in the next moment, the entire ball was eaten by the sea of quicksand.

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei chased after it. This time, he didn't resist the suction force in the quicksand sea. He wanted to catch up with the sand ball condensed by the law of wind and see what would happen after it entered the quicksand sea.

When Han Fei sank into the quicksand sea and released his perception in an extreme range, he saw that the sand ball was attracted by the law of strength and suddenly dispersed, forming a vortex.

"Oh! In their respective law domains, can laws devour, cover, accommodate, or even transform into each other?"

The sand ball condensed from the law of wind contained a lot of the power of the law of wind, but when it was rolled up by the law of strength, the power dispersed. At that moment, the law of wind was swallowed by the law of strength, or to put it another way, it was transformed.

This was the first time he had come into contact with the power of laws. He felt that it was indeed more magical than the Great Dao. The so-called power of the Great Dao was more about the combination of the power of this world.

However, the power of the law was more complicated and varied.

However, the only problem now was that to master the infinite changes, one not only needed to understand the characteristics of the law, but also needed to understand where the law came from.

Characteristics weren't important. Where they came from was.

Han Fei's first reaction was that the law was separated from the Great Dao. But how could he separate the law from the power of the Great Dao? Han Fei didn't have much clue about this problem.

However, he wasn't here to comprehend a law. Although laws were good, it was the specialty of a Monarch. In fact, fundamentally speaking, the power of a law was the use of a higher level of power. Once one comprehended a law in the Sky Opening Realm, his combat power would probably rise several times. This would violate the law of the heavens. Therefore, the probability of one comprehending a law in the Sky Opening Realm wasn't high. It was mainly because after the Monarch-level Tribulation, the power of the Great Dao would undergo a qualitative change.

It was not bad to be able to understand the characteristics of some laws. At least, he knew something about the power of laws.

After experiencing the power of two laws, Han Fei had a rough idea. Three times. The power of the law in the Storm Quicksand Sea was about three times stronger than the same Great Dao.

Although the gap was not small, it didn't cause much damage to Han Fei. Of course, although it wasn't big, Han Fei didn't need to be corroded and hit by the power of the law here for a long time.

Therefore, Han Fei was immediately covered in a layer of Star Sea Mystic Sand. It was also sand, but the probability of the law here dispersing the Star Sea Mystic Sand was almost zero.

At this moment, hidden tides were surging in the Quicksand Sea. If Han Fei allowed the Quicksand Sea currents to sweep over, his position would constantly change.

Therefore, Han Fei stabilized himself and resisted the impact of the sand tide.

However, when Han Fei did this, he frowned slightly. The sand tide was actually affected by the law of strength and the law of wind, so the thrust was astonishing. Without activating his Great Dao, Han Fei almost had to use all his strength to resist this push.

"It seems that I can't stay here for long. If I stay here for too long, my mental state will definitely decline. Even if I can withstand the push of the sand, it won't be easy to deal with the mine demons living here."

Han Fei immediately took out the Vast Ocean Navigator. As he issued an order in his heart, the needle pointed in a certain direction.

Buzz!

Han Fei rushed out with all his strength. The quicksand was like a tide, but it was relatively sparser than the sand in the Wind Circle, so he didn't need to dig holes to move forward.

The only bad thing was that this quicksand sea had great resistance. Han Fei could have burst out with more than thirty times the speed of light, but here, he could only barely maintain twice the speed of light.

This gave Han Fei a headache. Considering the depth of the outer wind currents, it would take him at least half a month to get out of this Storm Quicksand Sea.

"No wonder they dare not enter the Storm Quicksand Sea. Normally, a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator's spiritual power will be exhausted after holding out for one day in this damn place. Three days is the limit even for a powerhouse with five Dao Locks. This is not counting the situation of the mine demons here. Even if they encounter a mine demon of the ordinary Wind Demon level, they might immediately fall into a perilous situation."

Han Fei remembered that Li Luoluo told him this information so casually. She didn't seem to try to kill him, but to test him. However, was she testing him, or was she testing the Emperor Sparrow? Or was there another purpose?

Half a day later.

Han Fei was glad that he hadn't met the mine demons in the Quicksand Sea yet. Perhaps the living conditions here were very difficult, so the number of mine demons wasn't as many as they said.

While Han Fei was thinking, he suddenly rushed into a large silver sea of sand. He took a closer look, only to see strange fishes no more than several meters long, whose bodies were erect and as thin as paper. Their bodies were composed of extremely smooth minerals, which must have been polished by the law of strength and the law of wind for a long time.

In Han Fei's eyes, information immediately appeared:

<Name > Silver Blade Mine Fish

<Introduction > A Silver Blade Mine Fish is condensed from mineral sand. Affected by the law of strength and the law of wind, its body is as thin as a cicada's wings and as sharp as a wind blade. Silver Blade Mine Fish are gregarious mine demons. They can only break through the wind and waves in the Quicksand Sea in a group. Once they are alone, they will be swept up by the quicksand and be beaten to death. They use the mineral sands in the quicksand tide as their energy supplement. They can't stop for their entire lives and can only swim nonstop.

<Level > 101

<Quality > Level-Four Mine Demon

<Realm > Early-stage Sky Opening realm

<Collectible > Level-Four Mineral Sand

<Absorbable >

In Han Fei's eyes, information appeared one after another. From level 101 to level 105, it kept changing. He didn't see one stronger than level 105, or maybe he hadn't seen it yet.

Because perception couldn't be released in the Storm Quicksand Sea, even if these Silver Blade Mine Fish were only thousands of kilometers away from Han Fei, he didn't know.

This was why Han Fei bumped into the school of fish.

These Silver Blade Mine Fish were actually taken aback by Han Fei, but they reacted faster, as if they were already used to this sudden change. Therefore, this huge school of fish, led by the lead fish, suddenly turned around, and thousands of Silver Blade Mine Fish seemed to turn into a complete big fish, breaking through the quicksand tide, cutting open the Great Dao of Wind and the Great Dao of Force, and instantly rushed past Han Fei.

Clank, Clank, Clank ~

At that moment, Han Fei almost lost control of his body. It was as if in an instant, tens of thousands of knife lights hit him, and even the Star Sea Mystic Sand was full of cracks.

Of course, the Star Sea Mystic Sand wouldn't be shattered, but the fact that a group of early-stage Sky Opening realm mine demons could crack the Star Sea Mystic Sand proved how terrifying these Silver Blade Mine Fish were.

It was not that a single Silver Blade Mine Fish was terrifying, but that the impact of their combination was very terrifying.

After the first round of attacks failed, the Silver Blade Mine Fish instantly turned back, trying to launch a second round of attacks. Han Fei certainly wouldn't let it.

Han Fei flipped his hand and threw out the Extreme Cold Pearl. In an instant, the sky was frozen. The Silver Blade Fish all froze. However, the Extreme Cold Pearl was fine for living creatures with flesh and blood, but the number of mine demons it could kill was limited. It was unrealistic to kill tens of thousands of mine demons at once. At most, it could freeze them for a while.

Besides, the power in the Storm Quicksand Sea wouldn't allow the freezing power of the Extreme Cold Pearl to last long.

Therefore, Han Fei clenched his fist and threw out a Star Explosion Fist. Like a star exploding, the impact immediately blew up these frozen Silver Blade Mine Fish in all directions.

At this time, the quicksand poured back and the law of strength was activated. Because the Silver Blade Mine Fish that had been blown up could no longer gather in groups and their bodies could not return to normal movement for the time being, nearly half of them were destroyed by the quicksand sea in the blink of an eye, causing lightning and thunder to flash above the quicksand sea.

In the end, there were less than 500 Silver Blade Mine Fish that could barely be gathered together. Only 500 of them could barely keep their group alive. It was impossible for them to settle scores with Han Fei. If they were scattered again, they would probably be wiped out.

The Silver Blade Mine Fish that had grown to this level had some consciousness, so they quickly hid in the quicksand and never showed up again.

However, less than a hundred seconds after the Silver Blade Mine Fish ran away, thousands of hairs suddenly extended out of the sand, piercing through the silver power of the Silver Blade Mine Fish and directly piercing through the five hundred Silver Blade Mine Fish.

At the end of every thread, there was a strange water drop-shaped fruit. When the thread pierced through the Silver Blade Mine Fish, the fruit suddenly cracked, turned into a skin, and enveloped the Silver Blade Mine Fish. It lasted for about half an hour. When these skins turned into water drop-shaped fruits again, there was no Silver Blade Mine Fish here, only some ordinary sands.

On the other side, Han Fei quickly put away the Extreme Cold Pearl. Looking at the Quicksand Sea that had returned to normal, he could only take out the Vast Ocean Navigator again.

He had no choice. Once he lost his direction in the battle, he had to correct it in time. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to cross this Storm Quicksand Sea.

Taking action again, Han Fei became vigilant.

The Silver Blade Mine Fish could be said to be very weak. In order to adapt to the harsh environment of the Storm Quicksand Sea, they had evolved into slices to resist the law of strength and the law of wind.

However, even a group of creatures like the Silver Blade Mine Fish could shatter the Star Sea Mystic Sand collectively. What if their individual strength was stronger? What if their individual strength reached the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm or even the perfected Star Transformation Realm?

Han Fei didn't dare to imagine it. If he encountered a mine demon of that level, his only way out would be to run.

One day later.

Han Fei encountered the second wave of mine demons, a kind of Flying Leaf Shell. This kind of mine demon was different from the Silver Blade Mine Fish. They were shellfish, and their originally flat bodies became even flatter, like leaves fluttering and moving with the sand. However, these things spun with astonishing cutting power. Fortunately, their level was similar to the Silver Blade Mine Fish, so they didn't cause any substantial damage to Han Fei.

One day.

Three days passed.

On the seventh day, Han Fei encountered as many as 13 types of gregarious mine demons, with an average of two groups every day. And the strength of these gregarious mine demons was indeed constantly growing. From the Silver Blade Mine Fish that was only in the early stage Sky Opening realm, to today, seven days later, Han Fei encountered a group of disc-shaped starfish whose average strength was in the Star Transformation Realm. The strength of the mine demons here was slowly improving, and the threat was getting greater and greater.

At this moment, the Emperor Sparrow shouted, "Are you done resting? If you are, take your body back. There are too many of these starfish and they are extremely fast. We can't just keep killing them."

Han Fei said, "Okay, okay. It's my turn."

The Emperor Sparrow: "Why am I the only one rotating with you? Why don't you call Little Black and Little White out to rotate with you?"

Han Fei said, "In such a chaotic battle, I'm afraid that Little Black will go crazy and then I might not be able to take my body back."

"It seems that your will is still not strong enough. You can't even suppress your spiritual beast."

Han Fei regained control of his body and threw out the Extreme Cold Pearl, blocking thousands of disc-shaped starfish. But another thousands of them still surrounded him from all directions.

Although these disc starfish were also gregarious mine demons, they weren't densely packed and only formed groups within a certain range. Therefore, the Extreme Cold Pearl couldn't freeze all of them.

The chase had been going on for half an hour. The Emperor Sparrow had killed about 60% of the disc starfish with one blow. Here, he couldn't use the Eyes of Disaster, or God knew what other groups of mine demons would be attracted over. At that time, it would be even more dangerous. But fortunately, the Emperor Sparrow had already solved most of the disc starfish. With so little left, even if Han Fei took his time, he could wear them down in at most another four hours.

Two hour later.

The number of disc starfish chasing Han Fei had decreased by nearly half, with only less than 2,000, and the others had all been shaken off. Han Fei was about to throw out the Extreme Cold Pearl again, preparing to freeze them again.

But suddenly, Han Fei had a bad feeling. He threw the Extreme Cold Pearl at an unknown place backhand.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

In the next moment, Han Fei saw thousands of hairs shooting out of nowhere from the Quicksand Sea. These hairs pierced through the nearly 2,000 disc starfish behind Han Fei in an instant. Then, a water drop-shaped fruit turned into a skin and enveloped those disc starfish.

Looking at the direction where the Extreme Cold Pearl was thrown, there were thousands of hairs trying to hit him. Fortunately, he reacted quickly and had the Extreme Cold Pearl. Otherwise, he would have been ambushed.

“Sh*t!”

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei performed the Saber Drawing Technique, holding a piece of quicksand and cutting through the hair. After this slash, only a hundred strands of hair were broken.

Han Fei reached out and grabbed the broken hair. Then, information popped up in his eyes.

<Name > Thousand Silk Monarch Willow

<Introduction > A strange demon plant that grows in the quicksand sea. This demon plant was born to have the ability to absorb the power of minerals. Because the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow’s body is extremely thin and moist, it can survive in the quicksand sea and deprive the souls of the mine demons to eat. The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow is small and can shrink into a ball, but its silk is like a net and comparable to a godly weapon. Fishing with a thousand strands, it is good at hiding, good at hunting, and extremely difficult to catch.

<Level > 111

<Realm > Dao Proving

<Collectible > Thousand Silk Buckle

<Absorbable >

<Note > The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow’s only weakness is that its body toughness is average.

“There are really demon plants here?”

Han Fei’s expression changed slightly. In such an extremely harsh environment, the existence of demon plants was unimaginable.

Besides, this demon plant looked extremely aggressive and could endure. When so many disc starfish were chasing him, it didn’t attack. But when he spent a lot of effort to get rid of most of the disc starfish, it suddenly attacked and killed more than 2,000 disc starfish in an instant.

Even without the Demon Purification Pot, Han Fei knew that this Thousand Silk Monarch Willow couldn’t be a demon plant in the Sky Opening realm.

At this moment, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was not only going to attack the disc starfish, but also wanted to kill him.

Seeing that the black hair was almost in front of him, Han Fei's fingertips burst out with All Great Daos in One Sword. The sword contained the Great Dao of invincibility and the Dao of Slaughter God as he slashed the black hair.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

After the slash, the hair was twisted. Although nearly half of it was broken, a small part is still attached to Han Fei.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Han Fei saw that the hairs circled his hands, feet, and body countless times and tied him up. At this moment, the water droplets on the hairs suddenly opened into skins and wrapped Han Fei up.

"Fuse!"

At this moment, Han Fei didn't dare to be negligent. He had been at a disadvantage after the first round of confrontation. He hadn't even seen the true form of the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow and was almost eaten by this thing. How could he accept this?

The thin skin that enveloped Han Fei was quickly riddled with holes of various sizes like paper being burned by flames. Then, a black-and-white mist enveloped the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow.

This was naturally the swallowing power of Little Black. The Twin Divine Technique could be used to escape, but not only could it be used to escape.

Little Black and Little White were no weaker than him. The black mist was like a corrosive mist, swallowing everything it saw.

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow also felt that something was wrong and tried to pull back its hair, but it was too late. The water droplet-like things on the hair had been swallowed clean by Little Black.

And Han Fei didn't flinch. According to the Demon Purification Pot, this Thousand Silk Monarch Willow only had the strength of the Dao Proving Realm. Although it wasn't weak, it wasn't too strong. With his strength, he should be able to fight it.

Han Fei grabbed these black hairs and was about to trace them, but in the next moment, these black hairs broke apart one after another, and the remaining black hairs disappeared into the void.

The demon plant escaped?

The black mist didn't chase into the void, because it couldn't break the void barrier here. However, the target of these black hairs wasn't just him, but also the disc starfish.

Therefore, when Han Fei found that the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was about to retreat, he certainly wasn't happy. He turned around and slashed at the tentacles that were swallowing the disc starfish.

"Humph! You want to run after you attacked me? Dream on."

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow also discovered Han Fei's purpose. This person actually still wanted to fight it to the death. It was very decisive. It stopped devouring immediately and exposed the disc starfish again and rushed at him.

Han Fei's face slightly changed. Was this the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow's String Puppet Technique?

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow didn't seem to care about these disc starfish at all and just treated them as tools for self-detonation. Han Fei didn't expect this at all and was directly covered in dust by the serial explosions.

Besides, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow had no intention of stopping at all and surrounded Han Fei.

More importantly, there were nearly 2,000 disc starfish here.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

More than three hundred disc starfish surrounded Han Fei's Star Sea Mystic Sand ball.

Rumble!

After all, all these disc starfish had entered the Star Transformation Realm. More than three hundred of them detonated themselves collectively. Even the Star Sea Mystic Sand, which was a Chaotic Spiritual Treasure, was blown into pieces.

Enshrouded in the Star Sea Mystic Sand, Han Fei's black-mist body was blasted into vomiting a mist of blood by the shock.

Buzz!

Han Fei hurriedly summoned two masses of liquid divine brilliance and fused his twin bodies. Then, he turned around and ran. Thousands of Star Transformation Realm cultivators were detonating themselves crazily. Wouldn't he be blown up if he didn't run?

But when Han Fei fused his twin bodies, the black hair came again, but this time it was different. The black hairline was filled with a light blue luster.

"F*ck, a soul attack?"

This time, Han Fei had no time to think. He activated the Great Dao and activated the World Annihilation Fist. He knew that the Star Explosion Fist couldn't shake this dual attack, but the World Annihilation Fist could destroy this soul attack.

Rumble!

In the quicksand sea, the rapidly circulating sand sea blew out a vacuum area of more than three thousand kilometers. The thousands of hairs were shattered, but Han Fei still took a round of self-detonation from the disc starfish, causing the Star Sea Mystic Sand on Han Fei to shatter.

Fortunately, the Star Sea Mystic Sand covered Han Fei's body again in the blink of an eye.

Han Fei's eyes were cold. "Do you really think you can break my defense? I'd like to see how many hairs you have."

At this moment, Han Fei no longer cared about the consumption of his spiritual power. The Star Sea Mystic Sand left his body and turned into tens of thousands of sand blades, each shining with golden light and red light. With the enhancement of the Art of Invincibility and the Dao of Slaughter God, he collided with the disc starfish.

A hundred seconds later, when all the disc starfish died, Han Fei punched open the Quicksand Sea and flew into the sky. He was going to walk on air.

Flying across the quicksand sea was a very dangerous thing, because the quicksand sea itself would extract the power of his Great Dao and absorb his speed, but at this moment, Han Fei couldn't care less.

After fusing with Little Black and Little White, he was full of killing intent. He no longer cared about consumption and was no longer stingy with the power of the Great Dao. He exerted all his strength. Under the drag of the Quicksand Sea, his speed of more than thirty times the speed of light was only about twenty times.

But even so, it was still very fast. The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow might be an overlord-level powerhouse in the Quicksand Sea, but that was the Quicksand Sea after all. Han Fei didn't believe that its speed could exceed twenty times the speed of light.

Besides, since the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow could attack him, it meant that it wasn't far away from him.

Following the direction indicated by the Vast Ocean Navigator, it only took Han Fei less than six seconds to find the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow. Han Fei grinned. "Not bad. You attacked me from tens of millions of kilometers away. If you were at the periphery of the Storm Quicksand Sea, the result would be disastrous."

Boom ~

Han Fei punched through the quicksand sea and sank into it. At this moment, what came at him was actually a tide of tens of thousands of mine demon fish.

"Shoot ~"

Han Fei retreated quickly and shouted, "Freeze!"

At that moment, the Extreme Cold Pearl was activated, and the Carefree Level attack barely slowed down the fish tide army. Han Fei had already held the giant hammer in his hand, turned into a shadow, and launched an ultimate hammer strike.

Boom ~

Han Fei's body went soft. This blow consumed too much energy, but it should be able to disperse the fish tide.

"Dharma Idol World."

Han Fei didn't attack these fish tides immediately. Even if he killed all these fishes, so what? This was just a school of fish controlled by the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, and it wouldn't hurt the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow itself.

Therefore, Han Fei activated his Dharma Idol and activated the Great Dao.

At that moment, Han Fei's body swelled. On his two fingers, All Great Daos in One Sword condensed. He turned into a sword shadow and instantly broke through the school of mine demon fish, rushing towards the quicksand sea where the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was.

At this moment, Han Fei was somewhat excited. This was the first time in his life that he had fought a Dao Prover with his own strength and methods.

Although he didn't want to fight this battle, the other party had really gone too far. If he didn't solve it now, God knew what kind of trouble this thing would cause him later.

At this moment, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow seemed to be anxious. He didn't expect this person to be so tough as to chase him from above the Quicksand Sea against the huge pressure. Didn't he know that this would consume a lot of spiritual power? Once his spiritual power was exhausted, he would be doomed.

Even at this moment, the Emperor Sparrow said, "If you want to fight, at least give me some time to recover. I'm afraid both you, Little Black and Little White have consumed a lot of energy in this battle."

Han Fei said, "The opportunity is fleeting. I can't care so much."

Han Fei grinned and roared, "Kill!"

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

Seven hair vines were broken in a row, and Han Fei's sword was finally exhausted. However, Han Fei was not without gains, because at this moment, he saw the true form of the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow.

It was a green tree that was as green as sapphire. It was no more than ten meters tall, but its roots were twenty meters long, looking extremely strange.

"Outsider, let's talk nicely. I'll let you pass."

At this moment, Han Fei received a voice transmission from the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow. However, Han Fei shouted coldly, “F*ck you. I can still pass if I kill you.”

Han Fei opened his mouth and spat out a sword beam. It was too late for the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow to mobilize the fish tide. The remaining three hair vines intertwined again, overflowing with green light, and the law of strength was attached to them.

He said, “Outsider, you can’t kill me if you just use external forces to forcibly increase your strength.”

Han Fei didn’t answer.

Seeing that the hair vine was about to reach him, Han Fei put on a smile. “Steal~”

Everything that Han Fei had done was for this moment. The blood sword he spat out was just a trick to make the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow mistakenly think that it was his strongest blow.

But in fact, Han Fei’s real goal was the Void Stealing Technique. He was improving himself so crazily not to fight the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow head-on, but to prevent himself from being counterattacked when he used the Void Stealing Technique.

The third stealing was to steal the consciousness of the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow.

Sure enough, in the next moment, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow’s attack suddenly stopped, and a green light bloomed on Han Fei’s body. It was the law of strength.

Almost in an instant, Han Fei understood the law of strength. Because in the Storm Quicksand Sea, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow had the most contact with the law of strength and the law of wind. The Great Dao of Strength was the foundation for understanding strength. The power of the Great Dao belonged to the Heavenly Dao.

However, the Great Dao was fused with the heavens and was the basic Dao of the world. It was universal. Anyone who comprehended the Great Dao of strength had the same combat power and combat techniques.

However, the law was different. The law didn’t focus on the generation of force, but on the additional characteristics of force. This was one of the fundamental differences between the Great Dao and the law.

The strength had many features. For example, when a seedling breaks through the soil, it shows the toughness of strength. For example, when a sword or a saber cuts, it shows the sharpness of strength. For example, when a huge power pressed down, it shows the pressure of strength.

When one proved Dao his, they could transform their Great Dao into a specific characteristic, and a law would be thus produced. This law far exceeded the basic Great Dao.

At this moment, Han Fei understood why it was difficult to comprehend laws in the Sky Opening Realm. It turned out that it was really a qualitative change that only happened after Dao Proving. Laws were transformed from Great Daos.

Unless there was such a transformation method in the Sky Opening Realm, one couldn't possess the power of laws.

Of course, now was not the time to consider this. After extracting the power of the law of the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, his consciousness was stolen too.

However, Han Fei still suffered a backlash when he stole the Monarch's consciousness. It was just that the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow's realm was too low and it had just proved Dao. Han Fei's continuous enhancement allowed him to completely withstand this backlash, although his head was a little dizzy.

However, this consciousness stealing wouldn't last long, no more than ten seconds.

However, neither the Walking Dead Puppet nor the Soul Controlling Law Seal could control such a Monarch in such a short time.

Although he had a strong killing intent just now and felt that it was suicidal for the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow to attack him, he didn't think so when he completely suppressed this Dao Prover.

Dao Provers were already paramount existences in the Sea Realm. They were already overlords. It would be a waste if he just killed an overlord like this.

At this moment, Han Fei extended the Void Lines and quickly buckled the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow while it was still unconscious.

When the Void Lines buckled the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow's soul power, Han Fei was already bleeding from his seven orifices. Although the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow's consciousness had temporarily crashed, it could still resist external forces controlling its soul.

Therefore, when the Void Lines buckled the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, Han Fei's soul was injured by the backlash.

After Han Fei persisted for about six seconds, he finally temporarily controlled the other party's soul.

Immediately, Han Fei took out a wisp of soul and extracted a wisp of the other party's vital essence. Different from humans, demon plant-type creatures' vital essence was similar to humans' essence blood.

Han Fei summoned the wisp of soul and the vital essence and forcibly used the other party's soul as the sacrifice to sign a master-servant contract.

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow seemed to have realized something wrong. It struggled crazily instinctively, making Han Fei bleed hard from all seven orifices.

But in the end, the contract was successfully signed.

“Puff ~”

In the next moment, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow came back to itself, and Han Fei also spewed out a mouthful of essence blood.

When the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow saw that Han Fei was only ten meters away from it, it was really startled and immediately wanted to stab Han Fei to death. However, in the next moment, its soul was extremely painful, and it found that it couldn't do anything to Han Fei.

“Outsider, what did you do to me?”

Looking at the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow that was struggling, Han Fei sneered. “You and I have signed a master-servant contract. Now you are my servant. If you dare to attack your master, you will die.”

“Nonsense.”

At this moment, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow quickly shrank from a tree to a two-meter-tall bamboo pole man. This Thousand Silk Monarch Willow actually grew legs and feet.

However, his feet, like two large discs, were firmly sucked to the ground.

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow ran away, but as soon as it ran a hundred kilometers, its body froze, because its instincts told it not to run and not to leave its master behind.

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow turned pale in shock, and its long hair danced wildly. It only fell into a trance. How did it suddenly become someone's servant?

Besides, the person in front of it was only in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. How could he become its master?

Han Fei pushed away the quicksand that had resumed its natural rotation, walked to the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, and said indifferently, “You should have felt that your soul was controlled just now. Perhaps your impression is not clear, but let me tell you again that you have become my servant. Now, you have two choices. One is to blow yourself up. I can't control this. If you want to die, it's your business. Or, be loyal to me and become my servant. In this way, maybe I will set you free someday in the future.”

Pop! Pop!

“Don't lie to me, Devouring Tooth.”

At this moment, tens of thousands of strands of hair returned, trying to pierce through Han Fei. However, all the strands stopped ten feet away from Han Fei. No matter how hard the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow tried, the strands of hair couldn't take another step forward. Now, it couldn't even touch Han Fei. Once killing intent arose in its heart, it would immediately be bound by the contract.

“Ahhh~”

At this moment, Han Fei put his hands behind his back and said proudly, “The winner takes all. Who said that a Monarch can certainly beat a Sky Opener? I don’t have much patience. I’ll give you a hundred seconds to consider. Think carefully. Either die or submit. Choose.”

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was silent for a long time. Fifty seconds later, Han Fei said casually, “Half of the time has passed.”

Han Fei’s reminder seemed to pull the Thousand Silk Emperor Liu back to its senses.

It said, “Will you set me free?”

Han Fei smiled contemptuously. “That depends on your growth level. Do you think you’re very powerful? When I prove Dao, if you can’t follow in my footsteps, you won’t even be qualified to stay by my side as a servant. Then I won’t need you anymore.”

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow wanted to slap Han Fei. Am I not qualified to be a servant? I’m a Monarch!

Han Fei added, “I can subdue you even though I’m only in the Sky Opening Realm. How many people in this world do you think can do that? Do you think you can resist me if I prove Dao?”

Although the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow resisted in its heart, it had to admit that Han Fei was very strong. Just now, its hair couldn’t even break his defense. It controlled the disc starfish to blow themselves up, but it still failed to kill him. Instead, they were all killed by him.

Furthermore, this person walked above the Storm Quicksand Sea, broke through the tide of demonic fish alone, and cut off his thousands of willow whips in a row. This kind of person couldn’t be simple.

He knew that if Han Fei proved his Dao, it was very likely that it wouldn’t even be able to withstand a single blow of his.

However, how could it, a Monarch, still grow if it became a servant? This would be the biggest mountain on its path of cultivation.

But if it didn’t submit, what would it face?

Thousand Silk Monarch Willow: “Why should I believe that you will set me free?”

Han Fei snorted coldly. “You have no choice but to believe me. Also, you’re not qualified to bargain with me. I’m already showing you the greatest kindness by not killing you. If you weren’t useful to me now, I would’ve killed you without hesitation. After all, few people dare to attack me without being killed.”

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow sensed Han Fei’s momentum, which was domineering but not pretentious at all. The other party’s killing intent was strong, and it was obvious that countless souls had died under his hands.

In the end, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow surrendered. It was afraid of death. It had already weathered through the slow path of cultivation. If it chose to blow itself up and die for dignity, what was the point of its long efforts? To have its dreams come to nothing?

Han Fei seemed to have guessed the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow’s choice. He just nodded casually. “Now, block this quicksand sea and guard me. Don’t move with the sand.”

This battle was not easy at all. Han Fei had used almost all his methods. If it weren’t for the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow being careless and the Void Stealing Technique, he could only escape.

Of course, if the puppet army of Puppet City could be released, they could still crush the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow. However, this was the Storm Quicksand Sea. Puppet City couldn’t be released at all, nor could he connect his Origin Star. So he had to rely on his own strength.

It could only be said that he was lucky this time. If the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was stronger and reached the Carefree Level, he would only have one outcome, which was to run. There was no other choice.
