2631 Circle of Death (2 in 1)

With a Monarch guarding him, Han Fei no longer had to worry about his spiritual power being insufficient and needing to exchange control of his body with the Emperor Sparrow.

Half a day later, Han Fei returned to his peak state. He saw that the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was thinking about life, probably holding a grudge because he had become a servant.

He was probably still wondering why he was defeated.

Han Fei also had mixed feelings. Fortunately, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow had mastered the law of strength. Although it had to crush the Great Dao of strength and was more than three times stronger than him, he had made up for the gap with his extreme outburst. Otherwise, if it were a demon plant mastering the Great Dao of Wind, he might not have been able to win even if it was in the same realm as the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow.

Seeing that Han Fei had woken up, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow stood aside silently.

Han Fei sneered. "Who are you pretending to be melancholic for? You can only follow me now. It's your honor to follow me. Don't overestimate yourself."

Thousand Silk Monarch Willow: "..."

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow snorted in his heart, and then he swayed his branches, asking, "What should I do now?"

Han Fei said, "Go to the center of the Storm Quicksand Sea with me."

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow immediately raised his voice and said, "We can't go to that place!"

Han Fei asked, "Why can't we go there? Are there Monarch-level mine demons there?"

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, "There really are. I met them in the past. I've been here for a long time and walked everywhere here, except for the central area that I tried to enter three times but all failed. There must be a great horror there."

"Oh?"

Han Fei couldn't help being curious. "What kind of great horror can make you, a Dao Prover, not dare to set foot in it?"

Han Fei thought that it shouldn't be so exaggerated. After all, the central area of the Storm Ridge didn't reach the God Burying Ridge, right? Li Luoluo said that this was only the entrance to the God Burying Ridge. Could an entrance kill a Dao Prover-level powerhouse?

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, "There's a demonic sound there, also known as the Death Knell. The range of the demonic sound is called the Circle of Death. I controlled the mine demons to step in countless times, but every time, the mine demons I controlled died inside just because the demonic sound swept past them.”

“Demonic Sound?”

Han Fei asked, “What else? Didn’t you say that you had entered it three times? Since you can leave safely, it means that the demonic sound shouldn’t be powerful enough to kill a Dao Prover!”

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, “Of course, there are not only demonic sounds in the Circle of Death, but also many twisted and mutated mine demons. The combat power of those mine demons is so powerful that they exceed the realm that they’re supposed to reach. Some of these Sky Opening realm mine demons even master the power of laws. Of course, it’s not that I’m afraid of those mine demons, but the demonic sounds will ring every half an hour. Anyone covered by the demonic sounds will become ferocious. It’s like a mental demon appearing, bewitching the soul, causing you to fall into a crazy and violent state. As time passes, your mind will be corrupted and you will even completely forget yourself.”

“Really?”

Thousand Silk Monarch Willow: “I’m afraid it’s nearly billions of kilometers long.”

Han Fei asked, “Still in the Storm Quicksand Sea?”

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, “No, that’s the center of the storm. The wind there is not strong, but the law of wind is extremely powerful. The mine demons there are not like the ones you’ve encountered now. Although they are not gregarious, they are extremely fierce. Once you enter that place, you will face endless fighting.”

Han Fei pondered for a moment. “So, the dangers you mentioned are mainly the demonic sounds and the mine demons, right? Since you have entered it three times, how many Monarch-level mine demons are there? And how strong are they?”

Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, “I’ve only met one. It’s a Wind Bird in the Dao Proving realm. I once fought it, but I was defeated in less than a hundred seconds. It’s not because the other party is strong, but because the other party’s combat power is much stronger than mine.”

Han Fei thought that the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow was actually very strong. If the other party was stronger than the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, he might not be its match. After all, the Wind Bird should have mastered the law of wind.

Unfortunately, this Wind Circle was wrapped by the power of laws and he couldn’t deeply connect to his Origin Star here. Otherwise, with Puppet City and the 200,000 puppet army, no matter how many opponents there were in the Circle of Death, they would be flattened.

Now that he had come here, there was no reason for him to retreat.

In any case, he must go to the God Burying Ridge, not just for the old turtle, but also to see if there were other deeper mysteries of the Dao of Extreme Balance.

Since he had already embarked on this path, hoping that this path could break the rule that one couldn't become a god with the Supreme Divine Technique, he had to go on this trip.

The old turtle had probably guessed that once he chose to cultivate the Godfiend Formless Technique, this trip to the God Burying Ridge would be imperative.

Although the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow wanted to stop Han Fei, he couldn't influence Han Fei's opinion at all now. Since Han Fei said he wanted to go, he could only go with him.

Fortunately, the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow felt that Han Fei was very strong, comparable to a Monarch. Once he realized the horror of the Circle of Death, he would probably take the initiative to retreat.

Five days later.

With the help of the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, Han Fei passed through the Storm Quicksand Sea quite easily.

Although there were many gregarious mine demons here, they were only in the Sky Opening Realm, not to the point of being comparable to Bloody Hand Mine Devils in the Mine Demon Stream. Therefore, although they encountered a few more waves of mine demons on this trip, with the help of the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow, they were safe.

Boom ~

There was no telling if it was a coincidence, but before Han Fei entered the Circle of Death, he heard the sound of bells ringing from the sea of sand. It was very short and weak.

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, "It's the demonic sound. Because we are still in the Storm Quicksand Sea, the demonic sound will be swept away as soon as it enters the quicksand sea, so it's not obvious. In fact, the sound is very loud and even deafening."

Han Fei looked sideways at the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow. "Do you have ears?"

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, "The demonic sound attacks both the body and the soul. Besides, I can also transform into a human, but I think the demon plant body is more convenient."

Han Fei asked, "You can transform into a human? I've always been curious why your willows are so thin and don't even have leaves?"

Thousand Silk Monarch Willow said, "In the Storm Quicksand Sea, leaves are redundant. The willows are thin, so it's easy to break the law of strength in the Quicksand Sea. Therefore, my evolution direction is to use pure tree trunks and rhizomes to better survive in the Storm Quicksand Sea."

The corners of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "You look like a stick. Those who don't know would think that you are a weapon left behind in the storm quicksand."

Thousand Silk Monarch Willow: "..."

Han Fei asked, "Also, what should I call you? Old Qian?"

"Liu Qiansi."

The Thousand Silk Monarch Willow immediately responded, "This is the name I gave myself. It's a pretty name."

Han Fei said, "You haven't been to the outside world. How do you know it's a pretty name?"

Liu Qiansi said, "Although I haven't been to the outside world, there have been a lot of people who came in from the outside world. In addition to the direction you came from, there are many other directions. People often fall into the Storm Quicksand Sea."

Han Fei asked, "Did you take their memories?"

Liu Qiansi nodded. "Yes. It's precisely because I can see their memories that I know they're mostly here just for some mineral resources. I'm here. The entire Storm Quicksand Sea is my resource. I'm luckier than them. They have to dig and fight with the mine demons. I don't need it."

Han Fei asked, "Last question. The Storm Quicksand Sea is so big. How did you find me?"

Earlier, Huang Ergou mentioned that he smelled the aura of demon plants in the Storm Quicksand Sea, so it must be the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow. Did he really run into it by chance?

Liu Qiansi said, "Because the area you came to is my territory. We demon plants have a very keen sense of smell for living creatures, especially in this place that is full of mine demons. Besides, when one reaches the Monarch realm, he will have more premonitions. I just had a premonition that something would happen in my territory, so I discovered you."

Boom ~

After half an hour, the bell rang again. This time, the sound was much louder and even contained majestic power.

Liu Qiansi said, "In less than a hundred seconds, we will completely enter the Circle of Death. We can wait at the edge and enter when the next demonic sound sounds. In this way, we can stay in the Circle of Death for at least half an hour."

"Great ~"

Han Fei didn't refute Liu Qiansi's proposal. His understanding of this place was naturally not as good as Liu Qiansi's. In fact, half an hour was not short. He could do a lot of things here.

Soon, Han Fei and Liu Qiansi came to the edge of the Circle of Death. Han Fei could even feel that the law of strength here had been greatly reduced.

Finally, after the third bell rang.

"Huh?"

When Han Fei really stepped into the Circle of Death, he was surprised to find himself in a static desert.

Yes, there was no rolling quicksand here, no Great Dao of Strength hitting him at any time. There was only an icy breeze blowing across his cheeks, even cutting open a little bit of the Star Sea Mystic Sand on his face.

That was exactly what puzzled Han Fei. When he came in, his first thought was that he was in the middle of the Storm Ridge, where the eye of the storm was. Only the eye of the storm was absolutely calm and the temperature was lowest.

However, just as Liu Qiansi said, the Great Dao of Wind here was stronger than the Great Dao of Wind in the Storm Quicksand Sea. Although the wind here was small, the strength of the law was stronger.

However, with the Star Sea Mystic Sand protecting him, it was naturally impossible for this ownerless law of wind to hurt him.

Han Fei glanced around. This place stretched as far as the eye could see and had no obstruction of vision. The only thing that was a little out of place was a stretch of mineral stones that were gathered together twisted.

Liu Qiansi came in with Han Fei and said, "This is the Circle of Death. Don't release your perception. The law of wind here can easily blow away all perception power."

Han Fei tried to connect with his Origin Star, but he found that the connection was still very weak. It was almost impossible to materialize a large number of objects or release people.

Perception couldn't be used, and the Origin Star couldn't be connected. For this reason alone, even if many people had come in, it would be as difficult as ascending to the heavens to find the entrance to the God Burying Ridge in such a huge eye of the storm. After all, this eye of the storm was unimaginably huge and spanned billions of kilometers. How could it be so easy to find an entrance?

Liu Qiansi said, "Look there!"

Liu Qiansi pointed at the rocks for Han Fei to see. Han Fei was puzzled. "What are you looking at?"

Before Liu Qiansi said anything, the hill that was supposed to be a pile of mineral stones began to shake.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

With a thought, Han Fei flashed out, only to see three thick centipede-like mineral tentacles suddenly extend out from where he had been standing. These tentacles were a mixture of mineral and sand. They were big and small and complicated. Although they were tentacles, they were actually piled up randomly.

The hill had already stood up at this moment. It was a deformed irregular stone that looked like a tree tumor on the tree. Compared to its huge body, its six short legs were more like six tires. On each stone arm, five deformed tentacles grew out, making a total of ten.

"Is this a damn mine demon?"

In Han Fei's eyes, information emerged:

<Name > Demonized Mine Demon Giant

<Introduction > A mine demon whose soul wasn't strong enough in the first place. Its soul and body were corroded by the demonic sound and suffered irreversible mutations. Although its form is strange and its soul is mutated, it has perfectly mastered the Great Dao of Strength and can easily extract the power of minerals and the power of the Heavenly Dao. Therefore, its combat power far exceeds cultivators of the same realm.

<Level > 109

<Quality > Bad

<Realm > Perfected Star Transformation Realm

<Absorbable >

<Note > Mine demons whose souls have been completely distorted never have complete souls.

When Han Fei saw this thing, he felt terrible. With this appearance, he could perfectly grasp the Great Dao of Strength and easily extract the power of the Heavenly Dao?

Liu Qiansi said, "These are the mutated mine demons I mentioned. They have just entered the Circle of Death and there are still very few of them. Go a little further in and reach the middle of the Circle of Death, and you will find that there are more and more of them, and each of them looks different."

Han Fei didn't respond to Liu Qiansi's words, but instantly rushed forward and took a step out.

Han Fei naturally wanted to end the battle quickly and see how strong this Demonized Mine Demon Giant was. But the moment he quickly erupted, because he was too fast, he set off a gust of wind. The law of wind immediately activated on Han Fei, making Han Fei's Earth Star Sea Mystic Sand full of cracks.

Han Fei was speechless. Is the law of wind here so strong?

Also, the Star Sea Mystic Sand was a Chaotic Spiritual Treasure. How many times had it shattered on this road? Although a large part of it was because he couldn't fully unleash the power of the Star Sea Mystic Sand.

However, it was undeniable that the Star Sea Mystic Sand was not omnipotent. When he was still in the Sky Opening Realm, the power of the Star Sea Mystic Sand he could use was limited. Under the influence of his strength, its defense power was probably between high-quality godly weapons and ultra-quality godly weapons.

However, just because it was full of cracks didn't mean it was broken, and the Star Sea Mystic Sand could repair itself very quickly. It was a piece of sand in the first place, and its characteristics were very similar to the Infinity Water, which was that it couldn't be destroyed.

Boom!

Han Fei's current strength was not something an ordinary Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator could shake even without activating his Great Dao.

However, this blow only blew up half of the arm of the Demonized Mine Demon Giant. This was not the defense power that a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator should have at all. Even if he was made of minerals, his defense shouldn't be so strong.

Han Fei stood still. The Demonized Mine Demon Giant was sent flying dozens of kilometers away by the punch and whipped Han Fei with five mineral hand whips.

Han Fei raised one hand and pushed his palm forward. The five stone whips hit his palm with a bang.

Han Fei took half a step back and frowned slightly. "In terms of strength, he is indeed very strong. He is in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm but has three Dao Locks? Do you mean there are still many such mine demons in the middle of the Circle of Death?"

Liu Qiansi: "More or less. Anyway, there must be a lot of them, but this one is not weak. You can wait a little longer. If it can't beat you, it will go berserk."

"Um."

Han Fei responded and clasped his fingers, crushing half of the five stone whip tentacles of the Demonized Mine Demon Giant.

As for this Demonized Mine Demon Giant, perhaps because it instinctively realized that it was no match for Han Fei, the essence in its body began to converge, gathering a large portion of its strength on the minerals in its chest.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The five stone whips lashed through the air, and their strength was almost comparable to Bloody Hand Mine Devil's Slaughter Fist.

Han Fei counterattacked with an Invincible Fist Art.

The power collided, and the invincible fist mark and the Dao of Slaughter God permeated over, crazily impacting the mineral at the core part of the Demonized Mine Demon Giant's body.

The other party also sent some power over. However, when this power came over, Han Fei's eyes suddenly lit up.

"Is this the Dao of Extreme Balance?"

"No, that's impossible. It's impossible for the mine demons to master the Dao of Extreme Balance. There's an insurmountable gap between their soul power and their physical strength. With this gap, it's impossible for the mine demons to master the Dao of Extreme Balance."

But if it weren't for the Dao of Extreme Balance, Han Fei could clearly sense the charm of the Godfiend Formless Technique from the power displayed by this mine demon.

Liu Qiansi said, "Do you feel it? There's clearly something wrong with the strength of these mine demons. They don't seem to be able to burst out this power themselves. It's more like they've been given such power."

Han Fei asked, "How about their souls?"

Liu Qiansi said, "What kind of soul power can mine demons have? The soul power of these mine demons is quite chaotic. No matter how weak ordinary mine demons are, they still have a basic consciousness. These mine demons have no consciousness at all. They have no fear. Even towards me, they still attack me relentlessly, regardless of life and death."

Han Fei asked, "So you haven't tested their soul strength?"

Liu Qiansi said, "I can't tell. I tried to control them, but their soul power would try to counterattack and mess up my soul."

Han Fei said, "Then beat their souls out."

Han Fei's Yang Soul left his body and he put on the God Slaying Boxing Gloves. Then the Invincible Fist Mark burst out and he punched more than thirty times in a row, but only a small portion of his soul was blasted out.

This mine demon was almost crushed by Han Fei, but its soul power was still only a little bit.

Han Fei frowned. He didn't believe that the soul of this mine demon was only so little. With a thought, Han Fei activated the Godfiend Formless Technique. If they were of the same origin, he should be able to sense the soul strength of this mine demon with the Godfiend Formless Technique.

Han Fei punched through the huge body of the mine demon. Then, a dark blue wisp of black soul power appeared on Han Fei's arm.

"Huh ~"

Bang!

Han Fei's fist burst out and shattered the mine demon. In front of his eyes, the dark blue wisp of soul power suddenly took the chance and entered Han Fei's body.

Han Fei's face changed slightly. In the next moment, the Origin Spiritual Heritage and the Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage quickly absorbed this wisp of soul power. Then, Han Fei felt that the power of his soul suddenly increased a lot.

Almost at the same time, Han Fei felt the core of his Origin Star tremble. Under the influence of the Supreme Divine Technique, Han Fei's strength increased slightly.

"Hiss ~"

Liu Qiansi said in shock, "You can absorb this kind of soul? Aren't you afraid of being mutated?"

Han Fei was also stunned. It was impossible for him to be mutated, because this power seemed to be absorbed very easily and was quickly digested by the Origin Spiritual Heritage and Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage.

“Ownerless souls.”

Han Fei revealed a strange look. This was actually an ownerless soul, an extremely powerful ownerless soul. Just a little bit of it had increased his soul power by nearly 3,000 points.

The key was not the 3,000 points of ownerless souls, but the dark blue ownerless souls that he had absorbed far exceeded the power of his soul.

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, “Liu Qiansi, will the soul power change after one becomes a Monarch?”

Liu Qiansi said, “Of course, the strength of the soul will obviously change. In the Sky Opening Realm, if I'm attacked by a soul attack, I might be injured. But when I'm in the Monarch Realm, a soul attack of the same strength can't shake my soul at all.”

At this moment, Han Fei understood.

This was not the soul of this mine demon, but the ownerless soul he had absorbed. However, the strength of this ownerless soul was too high, so high that after this mine demon absorbed it, its soul immediately became chaotic.

“Demon God?”

Han Fei's eyes flickered. It seemed that the place was right. This mine demon clearly had this wisp of high-intensity soul power, causing his strength and soul to balance, so he showed the power that the Dao of Extreme Balance could unleash.

Why was there a balance? It was probably because this mine demon could only absorb so much, causing the balance of its soul power and strength. After all, external soul power was also soul power.

This also explained why the mine demons would mutate because they were not qualified to cultivate the Dao of Extreme Balance. The mine demons didn't have dual spiritual heritages, didn't have schizophrenia, and didn't have twin siblings. If they didn't mutate, who would?

However, if what Han Fei guessed was true, wouldn't he be able to frantically absorb this ownerless soul? Then, the Circle of Death might be extremely dangerous to others, but to him, it was a treasure trove, a treasure trove that could quickly increase his strength.

Of course, it was hard to say how much he could improve. This was because he couldn't blindly absorb ownerless souls. When the power the Star Core could feed back to him reached its limit, he probably wouldn't be able to absorb these ownerless souls.

All in all, this trip to the God Burying Ridge was a pleasant surprise.

Chapter 2632: God Burying Ridge (2 in 1)

2632 God Burying Ridge (2 in 1)

After killing this mine demon, Han Fei didn't continue to walk to the center of the Circle of Death, but stayed where he was and waited.

Liu Qiansi asked, "Why aren't you going further in?"

Han Fei said, "Wait, wait for the demonic sound you mentioned."

This demonic sound was called the Sound of Mourning by Liu Qiansi. It was definitely not simple. It was naturally unwise to rush blindly into the Circle of Death. At least Liu Qiansi didn't manage to completely withstand this Sound of Mourning. Otherwise, he would have long found the location of the God Burying Ridge.

After waiting for nearly half an hour, Han Fei suddenly felt the change of the law of wind here. These breezes first changed their direction, as if they were quickly sucked in by a suction force, and then suddenly attacked in the opposite direction.

Boom ~

It was like a bell ringing, echoing between the heavens and earth. There was no telling where the sound came from, but the entire eye of the storm was instantly filled with this booming sound.

This was completely different from the way sound spread. This sound seemed to exist in every wisp of the law of wind, or the power of the Great Dao in this world. When the sound rang, Han Fei's heart seemed to be heavily struck, and he felt suffocated for a moment.

At that moment, Han Fei felt that there seemed to be ownerless soul power in the bell tolling. Through the sound, it entered his body, and even the Star Sea Mystic Sand couldn't block it.

This was because this voice itself was a kind of soul power release. Therefore, anyone who heard this voice would instinctively absorb this soul power.

However, because the level of this soul power was extremely high and not something ordinary creatures could absorb, they couldn't digest it, so this soul power was independent of their own soul power.

However, it was clearly wrong for a person to have two kinds of soul power, so this external soul power conflicted with his soul, causing his soul to be messed up.

As for those who had absorbed soul power, regardless of whether they could use this soul power or not, their soul power was essentially rapidly increasing.

Boom ~

At the moment when the sound stopped, Han Fei also felt a dull boom. The scattered soul power sounds seemed to be retracted.

"Breath?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. This rhythm was very similar to a breathing technique, but not exactly, because the time it took to breathe was too fast.

At this moment, Han Fei turned around and looked at Liu Qiansi, only to find that thousands of strands of hair had wrapped her up tightly. On her black hair, green light was circulating. Obviously, she was resisting this demonic sound.

At this moment, the roaring sound had passed, and Liu Qiansi finally put away the black hair. But as soon as she put away the black hair, she saw Han Fei looking at her.

Liu Qiansi was also a little stunned and subconsciously asked, "Are you completely fine?"

Han Fei touched his nose and thought for a moment. "The sound is a little bit disturbing to me, but it's fine. How many times can you resist such a demonic sound?"

Liu Qiansi said, "About twenty times. After all, I'm a Dao Prover."

Han Fei nodded slightly. It was actually very rare to be able to withstand twenty such impacts. If his guess was correct, this soul power might really be emitted by the legendary Demon God. When the demonic sound invaded one's body, one would be instantly affected. If it were an ordinary Sky Opener, he might directly go crazy or barely block the first demonic sound attack.

After all, the level of this demonic sound's soul power was too high, and ordinary people didn't have a way to digest such soul power. Once the soul power circulated, it would definitely be messed up. Once the soul power was messed up, they would either suffer a backlash or be controlled by this soul power, trying to approach the Dao of Extreme Balance. As a result, it was difficult not to have mutations.

However, Han Fei didn't expect that the Dao of Extreme Balance could even change the mine demons. It even caused the mine demons to mutate and evolve into a mess.

At this moment, hearing that Liu Qiansi could withstand more than 20 demonic sound impacts, Han Fei was more confident. He didn't plan to take Wang Xiaojie and the others with him because he felt that they were not strong enough and would only become a burden to him in the Storm Quicksand Sea.

But Liu Qiansi was different. He was a real Dao Prover. Even if he encountered any difficulties, Liu Qiansi could block it for him.

In particular, when Han Fei found that he could digest the power of the demonic sound, the Circle of Death would no longer be a threat to him. The only thing he needed to worry about was the Monarch-level mine demons here.

Although Monarch-level mine demons were rare, it didn't mean that there weren't any. Since Liu Qiansi said that he had seen them, it meant that there were Monarch-level mine demons here.

Han Fei took out the Vast Ocean Navigator. With a thought, the Vast Ocean Navigator began to spin and pointed in a certain direction. At this time, Han Fei put on a faint smile and said, "Let's go in!"

Liu Qiansi was surprised. "Really?"

Han Fei asked, "Yes."

Liu Qiansi asked, "Then when will we come out?"

Han Fei shrugged. "I don't know."

Liu Qiansi was very reluctant, but no matter how reluctant he was, he couldn't resist Han Fei's will now, so he could only follow Han Fei in. He could only hope in his heart that Han Fei wouldn't do anything rash.

In the eye of the storm, the speed of light couldn't burst out. Otherwise, the law of wind that was floating like a breeze would be like a sharp weapon, cutting into your body at any time. You might be able to withstand it for one or two seconds, but after ten or eight seconds, even an ultra-quality godly weapon would be torn apart.

The speed of Han Fei and Liu Qiansi was less than 1% of the speed of light. Even so, Han Fei kept decelerating until the speed of light was one thousandth of the speed of light.

Liu Qiansi said, "Our speed is so slow. If we really go deeper, we won't be able to get out."

Han Fei said, "The faster you are, the stronger the power of the law of wind. I know that you can walk at high speed in your tree form, but in that case, you'll have to compete with the law of wind. With your strength, you can't walk at high speed for long. You will inevitably be created by the law of wind, so you didn't reach the center of this place in the end."

Liu Qiansi said, "But at such a slow speed, I'm afraid I will be corrupted by the demonic sound at most for twelve hours, lose my sense of self, and become a monster here."

Han Fei said indifferently, "You just want an answer. I can tell you that with me here, this demonic sound can't hurt you. So, don't worry and just go ahead. Block those who should be blocked."

Liu Qiansi relaxed when he heard that. He was waiting for Han Fei to say that. Although he guessed that Han Fei must have a way to deal with it, he had to wait for Han Fei to admit it. Otherwise, his fear along the way would affect his combat power.

Twelve hours later.

Since Han Fei and the others came in, they hadn't traveled more than ten million kilometers. Along the way, Han Fei had killed 109 demonized mine demons, and on average, he encountered nearly 20 demonized mine demons every hour.

However, their combat power was still not enough. Even with the enhancement of the Dao of Extreme Balance, it was still far from enough against Han Fei and Liu Qiansi.

Boom ~

Another demonic sound came, and Han Fei absorbed and digested this demonic sound as usual. But this time, Liu Qiansi let out a muffled groan. Han Fei felt that his emotions were becoming manic, and the soul fluctuations in his body were abnormally strong.

It was not until this moment that Han Fei laid his hand on Liu Qiansi's tree. Immediately, Liu Qiansi was refreshed. The inexplicable soul that didn't belong to him had finally left.

However, Liu Qiansi was shocked. He saw with his own eyes that Han Fei used some unknown method to suck away the soul power that could corrode the mind.

“You-you can even do that?”

After a while, Liu Qiansi said, “Did you absorb the demonic sound?”

Han Fei said, “This is not a demonic sound, but a kind of soul power. It’s just blended into this sound.”

“Soul power? Why can’t I feel it?”

Han Fei said, “Because the level of this soul power is very high, and it fuses with the body. It’s normal that you can’t feel it.”

“Then how can you feel it?”

Liu Qiansi: “...”

Liu Qiansi was not stupid. He asked suspiciously, “Are you actively absorbing this soul power? You killed those mine demons along the way for this soul power, right?”

Han Fei didn’t respond, taking it as a tacit agreement.

Han Fei was absorbing the soul power. In just twelve hours, his soul power had skyrocketed. Although it was still less than 500,000, it was because of the influence of the Star Core.

Besides, during these twelve hours, he seemed to be fighting and absorbing soul power along the way, but in fact, Han Fei’s physique was rapidly strengthening.

And this wave of improvement in strength was not over yet. At his current speed, he would probably need another 24 hours. This kind of opportunistic improvement should be limited by his Origin Star.

More than ten hours later.

This peaceful situation was broken. As Liu Qiansi said before, a large number of mine demons gathered in the middle of the Circle of Death.

He didn’t notice it before, but at this moment, he saw more than thirty demonized mine demons scattered here. In the sky, there were actually seven or eight monsters hovering. He could vaguely tell that they were mutated Wind Birds.

Liu Qiansi said, “Don’t alarm them. As I said, there are a lot of mine demons here. I didn’t return until I came here several times. This seems to be the case all the time. So when you said you were going to the central area, I thought it was difficult to reach it. Because I haven’t walked the rest of the way, but I have a feeling it won’t be easy.”

Han Fei said, “It’s just that there are more of them.”

Liu Qiansi said, “That’s possible, but it’s also possible that there are Monarch-level mine demons ahead! But since you have a way to resist the demonic sound, maybe you can try to break through.”

Han Fei nodded slightly. He knew what Liu Qiansi meant by “charge”. She meant abandoning the turtle speed and sprinting at a hundred times or ten times the speed of light. As for the speed of light sprinting, it was too dangerous for Liu Qiansi to do so.

Han Fei didn’t want to resist the law of wind because it was unnecessary. In a relatively safe place, fighting the law of wind would only consume him.

But it was different now. There were a lot of Mine Demons here, and it was quite difficult to defeat them one by one. In a one-on-one battle, these Mine Demons were like Muggles to Han Fei.

However, the strength of these mine demons was equivalent to powerhouses with several Dao Locks. If there were ten or eight of them, it would be a headache for Han Fei. If there were a hundred of them, even Liu Qiansi would feel a chill down his spine.

Liu Qiansi: “???”

Han Fei said lightly, “I want to conserve my strength. You are a Monarch. It shouldn’t be a problem for you to break through.”

Liu Qiansi was speechless. Is this the status of a servant? So low!

However, Liu Qiansi couldn’t refute Han Fei’s proposal, and Han Fei wanted to see Liu Qiansi’s ability. Although Liu Qiansi was a Dao Prover, if there were really so many powerful mine demons ahead, even for him, this trip wouldn’t be easy.

Liu Qiansi said, “Stand on my head.”

Han Fei looked at Liu Qiansi, lost for words. “You’re as thin as a bamboo pole. Won’t I be pricked if I stand on you?”

Liu Qiansi didn’t know what to say. You’re as strong as a Monarch. Why are you afraid of being pricked? You’re really good at insulting others!

Han Fei was teasing Liu Qiansi, but he was already standing on one foot on the top of Liu Qiansi’s trunk.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Tens of thousands of strands of hair burst out from Liu Qiansi’s trunk. These strands of hair stood up upside down and wrapped Han Fei into a cocoon. The cocoon turned into a blade and hit him. It was streamlined as a whole to deal with the law of wind.

Han Fei, who was in the cocoon, was also very curious. He could see the outside clearly from the cocoon as if the cocoon was completely transparent.

Then, under Liu Qiansi’s trunk, there were two disc-shaped roots. The roots on them were dense, and each root looked extremely tough with green light flickering.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

In an instant, strands of hair burst out of Liu Qiansi's body again. These strands of hair pierced through the void and landed in an unknown place.

Swish ~

In the next second, Liu Qiansi and Han Fei shot out at one tenth of the speed of light. At the moment when Liu Qiansi shot out with Han Fei, the mine demons realized that something was wrong and began to move. Some of them even roared thunderously and attacked Liu Qiansi.

Han Fei saw a large number of twisted tentacles made of mineral and sand, and countless whip shadows struck over.

However, even though Liu Qiansi was carrying Han Fei, his figure was still too small. A huge force burst out from his black hair. Under the pull of the black hair, Liu Qiansi and Han Fei quickly twisted and turned in various arcs on the sand, just like Spider-Man jumping among the buildings of the city, except their speed was different.

Liu Qiansi replied unhurriedly, "It's the law of strength. It's not difficult to break through the void, but it can't break through the void on a large scale. It's only enough for the black hair to penetrate."

Soon, Han Fei discovered that the landing points of these black hairs were different. They were nailed to the ground like javelins along the way, showing a trajectory. Only when Liu Qiansi's power burst out, those black hairs that broke through the void would flash with a green light, revealing their location.

Suddenly, Han Fei felt a huge bulge in front of him. Liu Qiansi jumped into the air and flew past the mine demon hidden under the sea of sand.

When passing by the mine demon, Han Fei looked down and found that it was a huge sandworm mine demon, but it had five huge heads. Each huge head was composed of a large disc plus thousands of sharp teeth. At the edge of the toothless head, a circle of eyeballs stared at Han Fei and the others.

Unfortunately, the five-head sandworm couldn't keep up with their speed, so it could only watch Han Fei and Liu Qiansi speed away.

However, once he jumped into the air, the hummingbird mine demons that were hovering all chased him. Different from the mine demons on the surface of the sea of sand, the Wind Bird mine demons that could step into the sky mastered the law of wind.

In the Storm Quicksand Sea, the mine demons mastered the law of strength, and their terrain advantage could double their strength. But in this Circle of Death, with the law of wind as the dominant force, it became the main battlefield of these Wind Bird mine demons. Mastering the law of wind was equivalent to mastering the geographical advantage, and their strength might be doubled.

Liu Qiansi said, "Be careful. These Wind Bird Mine Demons are even faster than me. They were born to live in such an environment and are extremely flexible."

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The black hair disappeared into the void, and then Liu Qiansi forcefully changed his position in midair, sometimes from high to low, sometimes from low to high, and sometimes landing on the surface of the sand. Seeing this, Han Fei couldn't help but nod secretly.

As expected of a Dao Prover. Even if he was alone, his combat ability was actually extremely terrifying. In other people's home ground, he relied on his own control to forcefully resist the law of wind and avoid the attacks of the mine demons countless times.

The only disadvantage was that Liu Qiansi could shake off the mine demons on the ground, but he couldn't shake off the Wind Bird mine demons. The sky was the home field of the Wind Birds, and the law of wind greatly restricted Liu Qiansi's movement. It was already commendable that he could narrowly avoid the attacks of the Wind Birds countless times.

However, there were more and more Wind Birds. From seven or eight at the beginning, there were seventy or eighty later, and now there were nearly two hundred.

This increase was completely related to how far Liu Qiansi ran. The faster he ran, the farther he ran, and the more Wind Bird Mine Demons would chase him.

As a result, Liu Qiansi could no longer move forward after only half an hour. This was because it was getting more and more difficult to dodge. As a result, every time Liu Qiansi shot out two strands of hair, one would be cut off.

Yes, this Wind Bird could cut off Liu Qiansi's green threads because the other party had mastered the law of wind.

Han Fei sighed. "These mine demons really don't know how lucky they are. They can grasp the law in the Sky Opening realm. Tsk, tsk. If it were outside, I'm afraid countless people would be shocked!"

Liu Qiansi was speechless. How can you still be in the mood to lament at a time like this?

Liu Qiansi said, "That isn't their own power, is it?"

Han Fei asked, "Yes and no. Can you hold on?"

Liu Qiansi said, "I can't hold on anymore."

Han Fei said, "It's already commendable that you can cross 15 million kilometers quickly. Now 278 Wind Bird Mine Demons are chasing us, and 39 are on the sea of sand. You'll be responsible for the sky, and I'll be responsible for the ground, OK?"

Liu Qiansi couldn't have felt worse. You have the combat power of a Monarch too, alright? Why are you only responsible for 39?

But there was no time to think now. He had to fight. Otherwise, if more mine demons arrived, it would be even harder to fight.

An hour later.

Han Fei sat panting on the sand and swallowed some ownerless soul power from time to time. 39 Mine Demons were equivalent to 39 strong masters with three or even four Dao Locks. Although he could unleash the combat power of a Monarch in a short period of time, he didn't dare to use it! To prevent more powerful Mine Demons from appearing during the battle, Han Fei could only use part of the power of the Great Dao.

Liu Qiansi, on the other hand, was even more miserable than Han Fei. There were dense claw marks left on the tree. His breath was suddenly weakened, so was his combat power.

Liu Qiansi said, "No, if this goes on, all my willow threads will be cut off. Although they are only in the Sky Opening Realm, if there are too many of them, they can still exhaust a Monarch to death."

Han Fei asked, "How much combat power do you have now? Tell me the truth."

Due to the influence of Han Fei's will, Liu Qiansi said truthfully, "60%. After all, too many of my hair is broken. If they can't borrow the power of the law, I should still be able to retain 80% of my strength."

"Good lord."

Han Fei would be lying if he said that he wasn't surprised. These mine demons were actually very powerful. Liu Qiansi had killed so many Wind Birds, but he still had 60% of her combat power. In other words, if it were a normal strong master with three or four Dao Locks, he could still retain 80% of her strength.

This meant that even a Dao Prover was not someone that Sky Openers could easily kill with the huge-crowd strategy.

Therefore, if the Wind Birds wanted to defeat Liu Qiansi, they might have to pay the price of a thousand deaths. And if it were a normal Dao Lock-level powerhouse, at least two thousand people might be needed.

This ratio really startled Han Fei. No wonder Monarchs were still the supreme existences in the Sea Realm. It was because ordinary perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivators would consume too much energy to kill a Monarch like Liu Qiansi.

Therefore, if Han Fei wanted to use the puppet army of Puppet City to attack an early-stage Dao Proving cultivator, he would have to sacrifice at least 2,000 level-seven puppets. And it was very likely that they couldn't kill him, because they weren't mine demons and didn't know how to run.

And this was only for the early-stage Dao Proving cultivator. What if he was in the Carefree Level? No matter how many Sky Openers died, they wouldn't be able to kill a Carefree Level cultivator.

Han Fei couldn't help but wonder how strong he would be if he could prove his Dao one day.

One day later.

After another battle, Han Fei and Liu Qiansi finally came to the center of the Circle of Death. Here, there was an altar, and behind the altar, there was a place surrounded by light. It was like a door, a door standing in the void.

In front of the altar, there was a group of mine demons sprawling in the sand.

Boom ~

The bell rang again, and Han Fei stepped on Liu Qiansi's head. The demonic sound soul power was gathering in Han Fei's body through Liu Qiansi's head.

As for the mine demons sprawling on the ground, there were faint vortexes swirling on the surface of their bodies. They seemed to be absorbing the ownerless soul power of this demonic sound.

Liu Qiansi asked, "What should we do? There seem to be seven or eight hundred of them."

Han Fei said, "They can't beat us in speed. Let's just rush in."

2633 Divine Tomb (2 in 1)

"Charge in? We don't even know what's behind this void door."

What Liu Qiansi said was true. Han Fei only knew that this void gate was the entrance to the God Burying Ridge, but he didn't know what was in the God Burying Ridge.

However, he felt that this should be part of the old turtle's plan.

Ever since he easily brought out the Godfiend Formless Technique, he had found it magical. He felt that the Godfiend Formless Technique was too easy and simple.

However, when he entered the Circle of Death, he found that the difference between cultivating the God Demon Formless Technique and not cultivating it was like heaven and earth. The demonic sound that Liu Qiansi was afraid of and the powerful mine demons everywhere not only couldn't hurt him, but also helped him grow.

Han Fei guessed that the old turtle must have foreseen this situation.

Since he had anticipated it, he should be able to go to the God Burying Ridge.

Furthermore, Li Luoluo had once confessed that they had actually all been to the God Burying Ridge, but they hadn't found the place where the Demon God died. This indirectly proved that they could enter the God Burying Ridge.

Furthermore, Li Luoluo had also clearly said that the center of the Storm Ridge was the entrance to the God Burying Ridge. The other party didn't lie about this at all.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "Whatever it is, we have to go in."

Han Fei had his own trump cards. He could still be willful at least twice. Therefore, at this moment, Han Fei said, "Let's charge."

There was nothing Liu Qiansi could do! He didn't know why he met Han Fei, this lunatic and gambler, although the other party was obviously here for this place.

The appearance of a void door here was indeed beyond his expectations. However, wouldn't it be too risky to rush in like this?

Unfortunately, Liu Qiansi had no say now. If Han Fei said so, he could only charge.

Swish ~

Liu Qiansi rushed out and brought Han Fei to the door of the void in an instant. After a slight pause, he plunged into the door of the void.

After entering, Liu Qiansi said, "The mine demons outside don't seem to have any reaction. They actually let us in."

Han Fei said, "They're cultivating."

"Cultivate?"

Liu Qiansi couldn't understand it, but Han Fei knew that they were waiting for the demonic sound. After losing their soul consciousness, they knew that absorbing the demonic sound would make them stronger.

Therefore, these mine demons were all waiting for the arrival of the demonic sound.

The only thing that surprised Han Fei was that he didn't encounter any Monarch-level mine demons along the way. Logically speaking, if the mine demons here heard demonic sounds every once in a while, their strength would be growing rapidly, so there should be a lot of Monarch-level mine demons here.

But now, the facts were right in front of his eyes. There were no Monarch-level mine demons.

Suddenly, their eyes lit up. In the next moment, they saw a scarlet world where the air seemed to be full of mania.

The baleful aura was mixed, the energy was chaotic, and the raging storm, mixed with the law of wind, swept across the world.

"Primordial Ancient Land."

Han Fei was shocked. Yes, this was a primordial ancient land.

In the past, in the Yin-Yang World, under the Steps into the Sea, there was a primordial ancient land, but that was nothing compared to this.

At this moment, Liu Qiansi and Han Fei were burnt by the raging energy storm.

Liu Qiansi immediately activated the law of strength and set up a barrier of strength around his body, extinguishing this energy fire.

Thousands of strands of Liu Qiansi's hair shot out, but in the next moment, Han Fei saw that these strands of hair couldn't break through the void. Furthermore, once the hair was out for a long time, it would start to burn.

Liu Qiansi was immediately horrified. "The space here is abnormally stable, and even the void can't be broken through. And the energy fire here is difficult to extinguish. Once I stop circulating the power of the law, we will immediately fall into a state of fire burning."

Han Fei took a slight breath. "It can't burn us to death. Let's wait and see."

Han Fei didn't need to release his perception to know how far his perception couldn't penetrate. It was difficult to release his perception at the periphery of the Storm Ridge, let alone in this primordial ancient land.

Han Fei looked around but didn't find any enemies. There was only chaotic energy and chaotic killing intent.

"I'm coming out."

Buzz!

When the Emperor Sparrow appeared, Liu Qiansi didn't feel anything. He naturally thought that it was Han Fei's Companion Spirit. However, when the surrounding baleful aura surged into the body of the Emperor Sparrow, Liu Qiansi realized that this person was the fiercest.

Even he didn't dare to absorb this kind of primordial murderous aura. If he wasn't careful, he would lose his mind and become crazy. It was simply one of the most dangerous challenges on the path of cultivation.

Liu Qiansi said, "There seems to be nothing here."

"Do you believe what you said? As a Monarch, you shouldn't show fear."

As he talked, Han Fei took out the Vast Ocean Navigator again, but it didn't turn.

"Huh? The old turtle isn't here?"

Yes, Han Fei's first question was not to ask where the Demon God died, but to find the old turtle. He felt that the anomaly in the Storm Ridge a few years ago was related to the old turtle.

Therefore, he thought that the old turtle should have arrived earlier than him, but it turned out that the old turtle wasn't here.

Once again, Han Fei thought to himself, "The place where the Demon God perished."

This time, the Vast Ocean Navigator pointed to the west, which was very clear.

Han Fei was slightly puzzled. Li Luoluo said that she had searched the God Burying Ridge for a long time but didn't find anything. However, with the Vast Ocean Navigator, he accurately found the location of the Demon God. It seemed to be too easy.

Liu Qiansi asked hesitantly, "Are we still going in?"

Han Fei shouted, "Let's go!"

In fact, Liu Qiansi had taken the initiative to ask this question. His heart was actually filled with curiosity. This was a world he had never stepped into. This kind of place represented not only danger, but also huge opportunities.

It was unknown how big this place was, but Liu Qiansi didn't dare to walk fast. In less than ten minutes, Han Fei and the others encountered the first creature in the primordial ancient land, a ghost-like thing floating in midair. It couldn't even be called a creature.

The Emperor Sparrow suddenly said, "A baleful demon. The baleful intent condensed into a demon. Many strong masters died here in the past. The remnant souls of these strong masters scattered in the world, and some of them didn't dissipate very cleanly, so they condensed into a baleful demon. To deal with a baleful demon, you can only use the power of your soul. The only thing you have to be afraid of is to never let the baleful demon enter your body. Try it."

Liu Qiansi didn't know the Emperor Sparrow, but from the way this person talked to Han Fei, he felt that these two people didn't seem like a master and his Associated Spirit.

Otherwise, why would an Associated Spirit speak to its master in such a tone?

Han Fei nodded slightly. This time, he took action personally and unleashed the power of his Yang Soul, instantly colliding with a baleful demon pouncing on him.

When the baleful demon saw Han Fei's fist mark, its body turned incorporeal and almost completely disappeared. However, when Han Fei unleashed the Soul Suppressing Roar, the other party paused for a moment and a hundred punches had already struck the baleful demon phantom.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The baleful demon probably didn't expect that someone would grasp its weakness so quickly, so its soul was shattered by Han Fei almost immediately.

At this moment, information popped up in Han Fei's eyes.

<Name > Baleful Demon

<Introduction > In the places with abundant baleful aura in the primordial era, the souls of the strong can't dissipate in time and are swallowed by the baleful spirit to form a baleful demon. The baleful demon is heartless and painless and can't die naturally. The baleful demon has a wisp of the remnant soul of the strong and can have the techniques and combat techniques of the strong when they're alive. But the best result for a baleful demon is to possess someone. Once it successfully possesses someone, it can hide in the depths of his heart. Every time the host's emotions fluctuate greatly, a baleful demon will appear and absorb these emotions as an opportunity for them to grow.

<Quality > Advanced

<Realm > Perfected Star Transformation Realm

<Collectible > Baleful Pearl

<Absorbable >

Han Fei discovered that this baleful demon was not very resistant to beatings. Just as he was slightly puzzled, the baleful demon turned completely incorporeal, turning into a blood-colored fog, trying to envelop Han Fei.

Han Fei retreated quickly and protected himself with the Star Sea Mystic Sand. With a flip of his hand, the Infinity Water turned into a torrent of knives, containing an invincible will and killing intent as they slashed at the mist.

“Puff! Puff! Puff!”

The baleful demon phantom in the mist was dimmed by this slash and almost disappeared, but just when Han Fei felt that he was about to kill this baleful demon, a pair of blood-colored eyes suddenly flickered.

“Sh*t!”

Han Fei was shocked. When did this thing attach to him?

“Gulp... Wake up.”

At the moment when Han Fei felt a chill down his spine, the voice of the Emperor Sparrow entered Han Fei’s mind.

In the next moment, Han Fei came back to his senses and found that half of the baleful demon had been swallowed by the Emperor Sparrow, and the cold aura on his back had disappeared.

Han Fei immediately realized that he was caught in an illusion.

“It’s not an illusion. It’s the Chaotic Evil Qi of the baleful demon. Once you believe it, he will really appear on you and immediately possess you.”

“Shit.”

Han Fei’s forehead was sweating. It was f*cking dangerous. He had clearly suppressed this damn thing in all aspects, but he was still almost possessed. If it weren’t for the Emperor Sparrow, wouldn’t he have been possessed now?

The Emperor Sparrow said, “It’s not that exaggerated. Even if you’re possessed by a baleful demon, as long as your Dao heart is firm and your soul is strong, he can still be obliterated. It’s just a little troublesome.”

Han Fei’s face slightly sank. He had just met the first baleful demon and he had almost been tricked. If there were too many of them, how could he resist them?

As a bystander, Liu Qiansi saw this scene the whole time. He also saw the baleful demon suddenly lying on Han Fei’s back and felt his heart skip a beat.

This wasn't because he was a Monarch so he could despise these baleful demons, but because even a guy as strong as Han Fei had almost been possessed. It was really scary.

Besides, he also knew that this was just a damn baleful demon. God knew how many of these things there were in this damn place. He couldn't perceive them with his perception, so he didn't even know where these things would suddenly appear from.

Of course, while Liu Qiansi was shocked by the existence of the fiend, he was also very curious about the Emperor Sparrow. This Associated Spirit looked so strong. It even dared to swallow a baleful demon. It was simply crazy.

Han Fei glanced at Liu Qiansi. "Let's go! Continue forward."

Liu Qiansi didn't say anything. He could tell that Han Fei had come prepared. Along the way, the demonic sound couldn't do anything to him, the mutated mine demons couldn't do anything to him, and the baleful demons couldn't do anything to him either. He was almost possessed by a baleful demon, but he forgot it in an instant and continued to walk deeper into the primordial ancient land.

At this moment, no matter how stupid Liu Qiansi was, she knew that Han Fei definitely had a clear goal on this trip. It might be a great opportunity.

If this was the case, did it mean that he might also obtain this opportunity? Thinking of this, Liu Qiansi stopped complaining and carried Han Fei forward.

Han Fei still stood with his hands behind his back, regaining his casualness. He said, "I have a feeling that something is wrong. Although the journey is already dangerous, I feel that something is missing. Why are there no Monarch-level mine demons in such a dangerous place?"

The Emperor Sparrow: "Perhaps it's just not the time to encounter them."

Liu Qiansi said, "No matter if it's the Storm Quicksand Sea, the Circle of Death, or here, it's not small. If we go straight to where we want to go, the probability of encountering a Monarch-level mine demon is not high. If a mine demon wants to reach the Monarch level, it needs at least many level-eight minerals, or a level-nine mineral. Such high-level minerals are extremely rare no matter where they are."

Han Fei nodded slightly, thinking that what Liu Qiansi said made sense.

Therefore, Han Fei put away the doubts in his heart and said to the Emperor Sparrow, "Don't you still lack two Dao Locks? Why don't you eat more baleful demons to nourish yourself?"

The Emperor Sparrow said, "I can make up for it even if I don't eat it. The murderous aura in this world is rich. If I stay in this environment for a long time, I'll have five Dao Locks at most in three months. However, it doesn't matter to me if there are Dao Locks now."

Han Fei: "Yes! It matters."

"What do you mean?"

Han Fei said, "The problem is me. If I don't solve the problem of the human race, it's impossible for me to prove Dao. And if I liberate the human race, I have to improve my combat power as much as possible. And if I don't prove Dao, you won't be able to prove Dao. Therefore, in the huge challenges and dangers in the future, the five Dao Locks will definitely be stronger than the three Dao Locks. It's the same for you, Little Black, and Little White."

The Emperor Sparrow was silent for a moment before saying, "Actually, I think your goal is too ambitious. Has it ever occurred to you that even if you've done your best, a Great Monarch suddenly appeared in the Chaotic Wasteland? Then how are you going to deal with it?"

Han Fei said, "That's fine. A Great Monarch will be dealt with by a Great Monarch. I'll just do my job."

"Alright! By the way, as for Li Luoluo, if you go out this time, don't contact her for the time being."

Han Fei asked, "Why?"

The Emperor Sparrow said, "The Seven Ultimate Divine Spider is very smart. She didn't attack me, probably not just because of you. Didn't you say that you felt something was wrong along the way? If this feeling is very strong, you have to believe this feeling."

Han Fei was stunned. "You mean, Li Luoluo did something here?"

"It's hard to say."

Han Fei and the Emperor Sparrow were chatting as if no one was around, but Liu Qiansi felt terrible when he heard their conversation. Why were the two of them talking about Great Monarchs? More importantly, from Han Fei's tone, it seemed that he had a very strong Great Monarch behind him.

At this moment, Liu Qiansi even felt lucky that he didn't kill Han Fei. Otherwise, if a Great Monarch-level powerhouse came to him to avenge Han Fei, he probably would be slapped to death.

Two hours later, after they killed more than 300 baleful demons with the help of the Emperor Sparrow, they finally came to a place of mountains.

Yes, at first glance, this place looked like desolate mountains. But when Han Fei approached one of them, he found that there was a strong aura of death on this mountain. However, in addition to the aura of death, there seemed to be treasures enshrouded in these mountains, as if there were treasures hidden in the mountains.

However, it wasn't realistic to dig mountains to hunt for treasures, because there were dozens of baleful demons on any random mountain. There was even a soaring sword aura on the mountain. It was clearly a Monarch-realm sword aura and contained unknown law power.

Liu Qiansi was dumbfounded. "Well, there are so many Monarch-realm laws enveloping the mountain. Some of the law powers even make me dare not approach."

The Emperor Sparrow said, "It's a Monarch Graveyard. It seems that this primordial ancient land was just an ancient battlefield. A large number of Monarchs died here. Their bodies were sleeping here, and the power escaping from their bodies became like this."

"A Monarch Graveyard?"

Han Fei and Liu Qiansi couldn't help but cry out. Both of them looked at the endless mountain and were dumbfounded, thinking how many Monarchs had died here!

“Gulp ~”

Liu Qiansi: “...”

Liu Qiansi was lost for words. “They’ve been dead for so long. There’s no way to tell, is there?”

The Emperor Sparrow said, “It’s simple. It depends on the size and the dense light escaping from the mountain. For example, this mountain is only more than 20 kilometers long. The halo on it is dim. It’s obvious that the Monarch buried in it is in the Dao Proving level, not the Carefree Level. As for that one, it’s more than 50 kilometers long. There are 70 or 80 baleful demons on it. Although the halo isn’t dim, it’s not strong. The Monarch buried in it was probably in the mid-Carefree Level. Look at that one, it’s more than 180 kilometers long. The surrounding mountains are all smaller than it. It looks like the moon surrounded by stars. The Monarch in it is definitely at the Immortal Level.”

“An immortal-level Monarch died here?”

The corner of Han Fei’s mouth twitched. As far as he could see, there were two Immortal-level Monarch Tombs within a radius of ten thousand kilometers.

Han Nan couldn’t imagine what kind of war had happened here in the past to cause so many Monarchs to die.

“Wait a minute ~”

Han Fei suddenly said, “Li Luoluo said that they couldn’t find the location of the Demon God, but according to this explanation, the bigger the mountain, the stronger the dead. Doesn’t that mean that as long as we find the largest mountain, we can confirm the location of the Demon God? The land where a god died is not something these mountains can compare to, right?”

“A god?”

Liu Qiansi screamed and trembled in disbelief. He knew that Han Fei was here for a purpose, but he didn’t know that they were here for a god’s tomb. Wasn’t this f*cking crazy?

Even the tomb of an ordinary Monarch looked extremely dangerous. How dangerous must a god’s tomb be?

Liu Qiansi felt that he was doomed. Although he was a Monarch, his heart wasn’t that big. And Han Fei, his master, was so bold. It seemed that Han Fei was here to dig up the god’s tomb! So he was just a tool for Han Fei to dig up the tomb?

As for Han Fei, he seemed to be having a headache too. Was there really a Divine Tomb? Judging from the situation, even if there was a Divine Tomb, he wouldn’t be able to break in, right?

Taking a few deep breaths, Han Fei felt that he had to use the Vast Ocean Navigator to find the divine tomb first. Whether it worked or not, he had to take a look first. If he couldn’t take the opportunities here now, could he not do it in the future? When he proved his Dao, he would be able to dig most of the Monarchs’ tombs here, right?

However, Han Fei didn't know why Li Luoluo didn't dig up this graveyard. If she really dug it up, she would definitely gain a lot.

When the Vast Ocean Navigator stopped spinning, there happened to be an immortal-level tomb on the way to the Divine Tomb.

Liu Qiansi asked, "How do I get in?"

The Emperor Sparrow: "It's a little difficult. There are easily more than a hundred baleful demons over there. How many do you think you can resist?"

Han Fei said, "Then let's slip in. That Monarch is only at the Immortal Level. I don't think he can recognize our disguise."

Then, Han Fei looked at Liu Qiansi. "Can you turn into a stick?"

Liu Qiansi asked, "Don't I look like a stick now?"

Han Fei said, "You'd better turn into a stick easy to hold. Look at your two disc-like feet. Have you ever seen a stick with feet?"

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Liu Qiansi shook his body and turned into a cyan stick, exactly the same as a long stick weapon.

With a thought from Han Fei, Little Black and Little White appeared.

Han Fei said, "Little Black, open your mouth."

After a while, a pure black fish swam between the cracks of the mountain. From time to time, the fish opened its mouth and absorbed the power of a strange law.

Liu Qiansi asked, "What kind of fish is this? How can it swallow laws?"

Han Fei asked, "Are you the master, or am I?"

Liu Qiansi: "You are."

Han Fei said, "Then shut up. The less you know, the better."

Although Little Black could swallow the power of the law, he could only swallow a little. Otherwise, if the noise was too loud, it would alarm those baleful demons.

Three days later, the bell-like booming continued, and in the God Burying Ridge, the sound was even louder than outside.

Little Black moved quickly and finally came to a small slope between Carefree Level tomb mountains as guided by the Vast Ocean Navigator. This slope was only ten kilometers long and had no luster at all. The mountain was dark and there was nothing here.

More importantly, even the baleful demons didn't bother to come here.

After Little Black spat out Han Fei and the others, Han Fei, the Emperor Sparrow, and Liu Qiansi stared at the five-kilometer-long hill in a daze.

The Emperor Sparrow: "Is your navigator broken?"

Liu Qiansi asked, "The god lives here?"

Han Fei rolled his eyes at him. "You think it's too small? Should I build a bigger one for you?"

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Han Fei said, "The Vast Ocean Navigator can't be wrong. I finally understand why Li Luoluo and the others can't find it. Who the hell can find it? There are tens of thousands of tomb mountains here. Normal people would definitely look for the biggest mountains! Who would pay attention to such a small mound? If it weren't for the bump, who would think it was a mountain?"

Chapter 2634: Mutation (2 in 1)

2634 Mutation (2 in 1)

Han Fei didn't try to dig through the small hill immediately. Instead, he took out the Vast Ocean Navigator and recited in his heart, "Li Luoluo's location in the God Burying Ridge."

Seeing that the Vast Ocean Navigator didn't turn, Han Fei was relieved. It seemed that Li Luoluo wasn't secretly spying on him and using him to find the place where the Demon God died.

Although Han Fei still felt that things were going smoothly, he didn't notice anything wrong, and no one followed him along the way.

If Li Luoluo didn't follow, the others, even if they were Carefree Level cultivators, shouldn't be so silent when they crossed this Monarch Graveyard.

Han Fei was relieved. He pointed with the Vast Ocean Navigator and soon found a corner on the hill.

Han Fei said, "Let's dig."

However, no one moved. Liu Qiansi looked at Han Fei, and Han Fei looked at Liu Qiansi.

Han Fei was lost for words. "Wait, you want me to dig? Do you forget that you're my servant?"

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Liu Qiansi was speechless. Although he didn't want to believe that this hill was the place where the Demon God died, wouldn't he be the vanguard if he dug a hole here?

Han Fei said, "Don't worry. If anything happens, none of us can escape."

Liu Qiansi bit the bullet and dug with his roots. The digging speed was not fast, because the soil in the Monarch Graveyard had long been affected by the power of many Monarchs and changed qualitatively.

In the Wind Circle, that Monarch-realm cultivator could condense a small mine with his own strength, filling the mine with divine crystals and Heavenly Dao Jade Essence.

And in this Monarch Graveyard, more Monarchs had died and were stronger. Liu Qiansi had only dug a hundred meters deep and had already dug up seven or eight divine crystals.

Furthermore, the soil was getting harder and harder, and the mountain was about to crystallize. After digging for another 200 meters, Han Fei discovered that this place was filled with Chaotic Spiritual Soil.

Even Liu Qiansi perked up. This was good stuff.

Han Fei said, "Give me all the Chaotic Spiritual Earth."

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Although Liu Qiansi was also tempted, at this moment, you should consider what would happen next. How could you still be in the mood to dig for treasures here?

Four hours later, Han Fei's harvest of the Chaotic Spiritual Soil could reach 3,000 cubic meters. If placed in his Origin Star, he could open a spiritual plantation of about 30,000 miles whose soil was comparable to the Mystic Yellow soil.

And this was only because they had only dug a portion of the area. If they really dug up this small mountain, let alone 3,000 cubic meters, they could even dig up 30,000 cubic meters. If they stayed in the God Burying Ridge for a long time, they might even be able to dig up 300,000 cubic meters.

It was imaginable that if he really had 300,000 cubic meters of Chaotic Spiritual Land, it would be enough to change the layout of his Origin Star. For a moment, Han Fei was tempted.

Boom ~

He didn't know how many times the roars had sounded. Suddenly, Han Fei felt something strange. This was because the soul power contained in the roars this time was stronger than any previous time, about twice as strong.

Han Fei hurriedly pressed his hand on Liu Qiansi's body and absorbed a large amount of soul power into his body.

However, it was also at this moment that Han Fei's star core was compressed to its current limit. The Origin Star seemed to have paused the back feeding of power, causing him to be unable to absorb a small part of this soul power.

"Huh?"

Han Fei frowned. This was not a good sign. Along the way, he had swallowed too much ownerless soul power, causing the Godfiend Formless Technique to be unable to quickly balance the absolute balance of strength and soul power. As a result, some ownerless soul power was excluded from his body after passing through the Origin Spiritual Heritage and the Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage.

At this moment, Han Fei looked at his personal information, and information popped up in his eyes:

Owner: Han Fei

Level: 109 (Sky Opening- Extreme Dao Balance)

Immortal Qi: 1,410,000

Soul: 59.99 Origins (59,999,999 points)

Perception Range: 60 million kilometers

Strength: 59.99 Star Powers (59,999,999 waves)

First Spiritual Heritage: Origin Spiritual Heritage

Second Spiritual Heritage: Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage

Main Art: Godfiend Formless Technique

“The upper limit?”

Han Fei realized that this was the limit of his current body. This bottleneck was the bottleneck of Dao Locks. If he couldn't break this bottleneck, his strength wouldn't improve any further.

It was even to the extent that once he left the God Burying Ridge and went to the outside world, he should be able to sense the Monarch-level Tribulation.

Therefore, no matter what, his first Dao Lock was about to be condensed.

It was not difficult to condense a Dao Lock. It was just to lock a portion of his strength with a Great Dao so that a portion of his body would be free and could store more power.

The appearance of the bottleneck made Han Fei understand that there was a limit to the Extreme Dao. This limit was calculated according to the comprehensive strength of the cultivator.

Because he cultivated the Godfiend Formless Technique, his soul and strength were synchronized. If others had come this far, only one of them would touch the bottleneck.

“Is this my limit?”

Liu Qiansi asked in confusion, “What?”

Han Fei said, “Nothing. What's your strength and soul when you reach the Perfected Star Transformation Realm?”

Liu Qiansi asked, “Including the Dao Locks?”

Han Fei shook his head. “No.”

“Two hundred and sixty thousand! My soul strength is as high as two hundred and sixty thousand, and my strength is two hundred and ten thousand. But I haven't compared it with others, so I don't know if it's too high or too low.”

Han Fei nodded. “It's very high.”

This number was indeed very high. Even for Han Fei, if he hadn't cultivated the Godfiend Formless Technique, his soul strength would only be about 300,000 points, but Liu Qiansi's soul strength was as high as 260,000 points. This height could be imagined!

However, as a freak who could run amok in the Storm Quicksand Sea, it was understandable that this guy had such high soul power. Most likely, it was because he had stayed in the Storm Quicksand Sea for too long and never lacked mineral resources.

However, this also indirectly confirmed that the Extreme Dao cultivators were really powerful. Liu Qiansi's soul strength was so high, and it was actually very rare among people of the same realm. There might not even be one in ten million people who were higher than him. However, the upper limit of the Extreme Dao cultivators was far higher than existences like Liu Qiansi, so under the same realm, they naturally had the absolute upper hand.

Liu Qiansi asked, "What about you? How much do you have?"

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Liu Qiansi was angry but didn't dare to say anything. If he had another chance, he would definitely stay far away from Han Fei. This person was simply a demon.

Suddenly, Liu Qiansi's body stiffened. He was shocked and shouted, "Not good, something is pulling my roots."

In the blink of an eye, a crack suddenly appeared under Han Fei's feet. Before he had any time to react, he, Liu Qiansi, and the Emperor Sparrow had all been swept away by an inexplicable force and disappeared from the spot.

When Han Fei stabilized himself and looked up again, he found himself standing on a towering cliff. Opposite him was a sitting giant, tens of thousands of feet tall, sitting on a mountain peak with his hands on his knees, looking straight ahead.

For a moment, Han Fei, Liu Qiansi, and the Emperor Sparrow were all intimidated by this giant.

The Emperor Sparrow was the first to react. "Look at your feet."

Han Fei and Liu Qiansi hurriedly lowered their heads, only to see a towering mountain under their feet, shining and enveloped with swirling clouds. However, it was not enveloped by the power of laws.

The Emperor Sparrow said, "It's the Inverse World. You didn't find the wrong place. This is the Divine Tomb. All the Monarch tombs in the outside world are a disguise, making people mistakenly think that the Divine Tomb is in one of them. But in fact, there are no extremely tall and majestic peaks there, nor are there the brilliant aura of gods. But the Inverse World is different. Look around. This mountain is so tall that on it, one can touch the sky and look down at the world. This is the real Divine Tomb."

"Gulp ~"

Liu Qiansi asked, "What is the Inverse World?"

“It’s a kind of created world. The paths of cultivation lead to the same destination. At the end of the Great Dao, there are many means. Creating a world means that the strong are strong enough to create a world. Generally speaking, only a Great Monarch-level powerhouse can do this. These worlds are hidden in a corner of the real world according to their creators’ wills. They are even harder to find than small worlds because they exist in unknown spatial nodes.”

The Emperor Sparrow said, “It’s different. The world barrier of a small world is far worse than this. Otherwise, why do you think the Monarchs couldn’t have discovered this place?”

Han Fei said, “I don’t care about it. I just want to ask, what’s with the giant opposite? Look at the giant. It looks solemn and seems to be enveloped by the power of laws. I just want to ask, is that a human? And who pulled us down?”

The Emperor Sparrow couldn’t answer Han Fei’s question either. This was the first time he had encountered such a situation.

However, the Emperor Sparrow knew who pulled them down. He said, “It’s not that someone pulled you down. It’s just that you accidentally touched this created world, so the will of this world forcefully dragged you in.”

Han Fei heaved a long sigh of relief. It was great that it was not someone who dragged them down. Otherwise, this person was too strong. They were brought here without knowing at all. Clearly, that force was much stronger than them.

Liu Qiansi said, “Then what should we do now? That giant is looking in our direction, which makes my hair stand on end.”

Han Fei said, “You don’t have any hair.”

Although he was teasing Liu Qiansi, Han Fei and the Emperor Sparrow were also a little scared. Anyone who saw the current scene would actually be a little scared.

It was like waking up and suddenly standing at the top of the mountain. Opposite you, there was a ten-thousand-foot-tall giant looking at you solemnly. This scene was simply unforgettable.

They stood on the top of the mountain for a long time, not knowing what to do.

Boom ~

The heads of Han Fei and the others were buzzing. However, at this moment, they saw a door appear between the eyebrows of the giant. The sound of soul power came from the door. With this sound, the surrounding soul power instantly filled the three of them.

Swish ~

Without hesitation, the Emperor Sparrow returned to Han Fei's body. A red light appeared on Liu Qiansi's body. Han Fei quickly laid a hand on Liu Qiansi and activated the Godfiend Formless Technique, drawing the red light into his body.

Only then did Liu Qiansi return to normal.

Boom ~

With another boom, the power receded in the blink of an eye and was absorbed by the door again.

When the sound of soul power subsided, Liu Qiansi's body trembled several times before he recovered.

Liu Qiansi said in horror, "It's horrible. I feel as if I've turned into a monster. My trunk is crooked and twisted like balls of black hair. Did you see that door?"

Swish ~

The Emperor Sparrow emerged from Han Fei's body again and looked at the center of the giant's eyebrows. "It seems that the source of everything is there. This giant shouldn't be a real person. It looks like a seal to suppress the things inside. Han Fei, if anything happens here, I am afraid I can't even save you. Are you going in?"

Han Fei narrowed his eyes slightly. "Yes! Since we're already here, how can we not go in? This demonic sound appears every half an hour. It seems that the door will only open when the demonic sound rings. We have to go over first and wait for the next demonic sound to appear."

Liu Qiansi said, "Are you really going? What will I do if you go in?"

At this moment, Liu Qiansi really panicked. If it weren't for Han Fei, he was almost 100% sure that he would have been demonized. At that time, he would become a monster like the mine demons in the Circle of Death, and even his soul would be lost.

Han Fei extended his hand and said casually, "Turn into a rod."

Liu Qiansi immediately knew what Han Fei meant. If he turned into a rod, Han Fei could hold him in his hand. Then, no matter how many times they encountered such demonic sounds later, as long as Han Fei was fine, he would be fine.

Of course, this also meant that he had to enter the door with Han Fei. What would happen was unknown. He might die, or might get great opportunities.

However, Liu Qiansi felt that even if there was really an opportunity, it should be Han Fei's. After all, only Han Fei could really deal with this demonic sound.

However, this was the only way for him to survive. This bet was actually very cost-effective. Only when Han Fei died would he die, unless Han Fei abandoned him.

Swish ~

Liu Qiansi turned into a long cyan rod and said, "Although I can turn into a rod, I am not a real weapon after all. My body hardness is only comparable to an ultra-quality godly weapon, but should still be lacking. Don't use me to fight a god!"

Han Fei was lost for words. "Heh! Do you want me to die? Fighting with a god?"

Han Fei casually held Liu Qiansi, then tilted his head and glanced at the Emperor Sparrow. "Although you are the king of ferocious beasts, the power of this demonic sound is obviously different from your path. If I don't call you, don't come out for some time."

"Okay!"

The Emperor Sparrow was not stupid. Only Han Fei could take this path. Once he embarked on this path, he'd better not even peep at it in Han Fei's body. If it was really the inheritance of a god, with the power of a god, all prying people might suffer a backlash.

However, he could ask Han Fei directly if there was anything, so it didn't matter if he peep or not.

After the Emperor Sparrow returned to Han Fei's body, Han Fei took a deep breath, stepped into the void, and walked towards the center of the giant's eyebrows.

As he said, he was already here, and he happened to have mastered the Godfiend Formless Technique. Since he had a smooth trip here, there wouldn't be something happening here.

Buzz!

After Han Fei took this step, the scenery in front of him seemed to have changed. Vaguely, he seemed to see a vague bridge between the mountain he was on and the giant, which was made of dense light mist.

However, when Han Fei took another step forward, his expression suddenly changed drastically.

There were three reasons why Han Fei was shocked.

First of all, the distance between the top of the mountain and the giant wasn't far. Otherwise, Han Fei and the others wouldn't have seen the door between the giant's eyebrows. Logically speaking, Han Fei would cover such a short distance in one step, but when he took this step, he found that the distance between him and the giant didn't seem to change.

Secondly, Han Fei found that after he took this step, his little finger was suddenly bent unnaturally. He knew his body. Han Fei was quite confident in his bones and physique, but one of his fingers was bent. Was it f*cking right? More importantly, he didn't feel any pain.

Lastly, what frightened Han Fei most was that the moment he stepped into the void, he felt that a person seemed to be standing behind him.

He wanted to look back, but this thought made him feel a life-and-death crisis.

Yes, at that moment, Han Fei knew that he couldn't look back. If he did, he would die.

At this time, Liu Qiansi also said to Han Fei via voice transmission, "Don't look back. I don't know what's behind us, but I feel that I'll die if I look back. It's horrible. I feel that I'm going to die just thinking about it."

Liu Qiansi almost cried. He was a dignified Monarch! Why would he feel like he was going to die just because of a thought? This made him really believe Han Fei's words. He was probably really here to find the Divine Tomb!

Liu Qiansi thought that it must be a divine technique to decide the life and death of a Monarch.

Han Fei said, "Of course, I don't need you to tell me."

Han Fei took a deep breath and took another step forward, partly to see if he could approach the giant, and partly to see what was wrong with his fingers.

However, when he took another step, Han Fei found that he seemed to be a little closer to the giant. However, his entire pinky was limp as if it had no bones, and he didn't feel any pain.

"Shoot ~"

Beads of sweat oozed out of Han Fei's forehead. It was too strange. At this moment, he wanted to retreat, but when he tried to move back a little, he could even feel a cold breath blowing into his neck.

"Shoot ~"

After cursing twice in a row, Han Fei panicked. If Wang Xiaojie were here, his hair must have all stood on end. There was no way back!

Han Fei asked Liu Qiansi telepathically, "Do you feel anything wrong with your body"?

Liu Qiansi said, "No! I'm in good shape. Why are you... Huh, what's wrong with your little finger? Why is it drooping?"

Han Fei frowned. Why was Liu Qiansi fine?

However, Han Fei had no way back now. He could only bite the bullet and take another step forward. Before Han Fei could curse, Liu Qiansi suddenly exclaimed, "How did your little finger become a tentacle?"

Han Fei's eyelids twitched crazily. Yes, his little finger had become like a slippery tentacle of an octopus.

Han Fei tried to move his little finger, only to see that it was unbelievably agile. It could turn 360 degrees without any obstacles and even roll into a squid roll. He could even feel every pore on the tentacle and the sharp nerves of the tentacle.

"Mutation?"

Han Fei's first thought was that he had mutated, which was the only explanation.

However, why did he mutate? He had two spiritual heritages and cultivated the Godfiend Formless Technique. They were naturally compatible and it had no resistance at all. How could he mutate?

Besides, at this moment, the demonic sound hadn't sounded, and he hadn't activated the Godfiend Formless Technique, so he wasn't in a cultivation state. How could he have a mutation?

"Illusion?"

Han Fei tried to keep calm. He wanted to turn back again, but his life instinct stopped him.

"No, if I turn back now, I will really die."

"Gulp ~"

Han Fei swallowed. Was it because of the thing behind him? But the other party was so powerful. Why did he have to make him mutate?

Seeing that Han Fei didn't respond, Liu Qiansi asked, "Y-You didn't mutate, did you?"

"Shut up."

Han Fei told Liu Qiansi to shut up. He calmed down and then activated the Great Dao of Time in his body, trying to reverse time.

However, just as the Great Dao of Time appeared, a dense mist blew over from behind Han Fei. In the next second, the Great Dao of Time was sealed.

Han Fei knew that it was impossible to walk a thousand kilometers with one step. He could only walk step by step from the top of the mountain to the center of the giant's eyebrows. And with every step he took, his body would mutate.

From one finger, two fingers, to one hand, Han Fei took a hundred steps before one of his arms was completely mutated. At this moment, Han Fei's arm had turned into a thick slippery tentacle, like a large piece of meat paste. The meat paste tentacle was split and grew a dozen small tentacles, looking very terrifying.

Liu Qiansi panicked and hurriedly shouted, "Are you crazy? You still want to go forward? Your entire hand has been mutated. You've only walked less than one-tenth of the way. If you really walk there, you will be entirely mutated."

However, Han Fei didn't stop but continued to move forward.

At first, his feet were still feet, but then his feet were no longer feet but wriggling soft tentacles. Because Han Fei never stopped, soon both feet became like this. Halfway through the journey, half of Han Fei's body had become a large wriggling mass of meat paste tentacles.

Han Fei's face had even begun to twist. However, the corners of his mouth that almost reached his ears slowly opened, revealing sharp teeth.

Han Fei was smiling, which made Liu Qiansi feel a chill down his spine.

"It's over, it's over. There's something wrong with his soul. I knew it. How can a Sky Opener covet the inheritance of a god? Isn't this f*cking courting death? I'm doomed. I'm doomed."

Liu Qiansi muttered. He guessed that the reason why he didn't mutate was that Han Fei was still holding him. And the method Han Fei thought he could use to resist the demonic sound had failed, so Han Fei had been mutating. Once he completely mutated, he would be finished too.

However, when Han Fei had covered most of the distance and his whole body had turned into a wriggling monster, on the face that could barely be seen as a human face, a big mouth opened and a voice said calmly, "I've already come so far. It's useless to disturb my Dao heart."

Liu Qiansi was almost crying. He scolded, “Who’s messing up your Dao heart! Don’t you know what you’ve become?”

“Shut up. I’m not talking to you.”

God of Fishing

Chapter 2635: Request of the Demon God, Secrets of the Soul Sea (2 in 1)

2635 Request of the Demon God, Secrets of the Soul Sea (2 in 1)

Liu Qiansi didn’t dare to speak again. If he wasn’t talking to her, who was he talking to? Was he talking to the person behind her?

However, there was no response to Han Fei’s question.

Han Fei continued, “This is a path on which I can only go forward. Although I will mutate if I go forward, I will die if I go backward. Therefore, my way of survival lies ahead. Since there is a way of survival ahead, can I understand it as a test?”

There was still no voice answering Han Fei, but Han Fei didn’t stop. Instead, he sped up a little and said, “If this is a test, what you want is definitely not a dead person. Along the way, I saw a lot of mutated mine demons. I believe this is a weak point of your technique, so if you want my body, it’s definitely not a mutated body. So I guess this is an illusion, although this illusion is so realistic that even I feel that I have indeed mutated.”

The more Han Fei spoke, the brighter the smile on his twisted face. In the end, he said, “So, everything I saw was just to mess up my Dao heart. If my Dao heart can be messed up, I’ll be useless and won’t be able to achieve anything. What do you think of me now?”

Han Fei’s eyes flickered, and in the next moment, his twisted face gradually returned to normal. Then, his entire head returned to normal. Then, his body and limbs returned to normal.

At this moment, Han Fei had already walked to the middle of the giant’s eyebrows. It happened to be exactly half an hour.

Boom ~

An ear-splitting roar seemed to explode in Han Fei’s ears. In front of him, a door of light suddenly appeared, and Han Fei stepped in.

The moment Han Fei stepped through the door, Liu Qiansi fell into a deep sleep, suppressed by an irresistible force, becoming no different from an ordinary stick.

Han Fei had thought that entering this door was only the first step, and there would definitely be other tests.

However, when he came in, he was surprised to find that there was a beating heart floating here.

No information popped up in his eyes, indicating that the Demon Purification Pot couldn’t see it through, or that it couldn’t be recognized by the Demon Purification Pot.

When Han Fei saw the heart, a deep voice finally sounded in Han Fei's ears. "If your Dao heart is messed up, you will really mutate and it will be irreversible."

"Huh?"

Han Fei wasn't surprised at all that someone was talking. He had been mentally prepared to see a god since he guessed that it was just a test.

However, when he heard that if his Dao heart was messed up, he would really mutate, he immediately felt a lingering fear and cold sweat broke out on his back.

When he took the first few steps and saw his body mutate, Han Fei actually panicked. At that time, it was the easiest time for his Dao Heart to loosen. If he couldn't hold on, he would be doomed.

Han Fei calmed down and cupped his hands. "Senior, are you... the Demon God?"

The voice said again, "It's me... I've waited for you for 1.8 million years. In the end, you're finally here."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei didn't know what to say. What? 1.8 million years? At that time, he wasn't even a f*cking tadpole.

Seeing that Han Fei was in a daze, the voice said leisurely, "I didn't expect that there were really people with dual spiritual heritages in this world. The heavens shouldn't have let you be born!"

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was stunned and asked, "Senior Demon God, what do you mean?"

The Demon God's voice was leisurely. "The spiritual heritages of man, the spiritual heritages of all things, are determined by the heavens. If one has dual spiritual heritages, he can master Yin and Yang, combine fire and water, and cover an infinite distance... There is no separation between good and evil, between gods and devils. If one has dual spiritual heritages, his existence defies the heavens. Therefore, it's difficult to find a single person among billions of creatures who has dual spiritual heritages."

Han Fei guessed that the Demon God meant that a dual-spiritual heritage cultivator could grasp too many Daos?

Han Fei said respectfully, "Senior, please enlighten me."

The Demon God's deep voice didn't sound distant or dignified as a god. Instead, he said calmly, "To put it bluntly, those with two spiritual heritages are incompatible with the heavens and earth. Their lives will be full of twists and turns. It's very difficult for them to grow up. It's already a miracle that you've reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. However, even so, your future path will be even more difficult. Especially the Monarch-level Tribulation, the heavens will spare no effort to destroy you."

Han Fei's expression changed slightly. "Senior Demon God, is the Heavenly Dao afraid of me? What's the purpose of him sparing no effort to destroy me?"

The Demon God said, "He is afraid that you will mess up Yin and Yang, disrupt the Heavenly Dao, and change the world. However... the Heavenly Dao is nothing. He suppresses all myriad techniques. He seems profound, but in fact, he's useless when faced with an invincible evil. Boy, you're very good. You live up to my years of waiting."

Han Fei was rather scared. "Senior, why are you waiting for me?"

The Demon God said, "To be precise, I'm not waiting for you. I'm waiting for someone who can reach the extreme of the Dao of Extreme Balance. This path was created for me, but I didn't reach the extreme. The technique itself has flaws. You should know this flaw."

Han Fei said, "Mutation."

The Demon God said, "The Dao of Extreme Balance can also be understood as two extreme Daos. However, it's very difficult for the soul and strength to advance together. If they advance together, it won't be allowed by the Heavenly Dao. Although I have been concentrating on making up for this shortcoming for a million years, in the end, I have only created some choices within the rules of the Heavenly Dao. It can't be perfect. Only those who are born with the ability to reach the extreme of this Dao can succeed."

The corners of Han Fei's mouth trembled. "Can this flaw be made up?"

The Demon God said, "People with man-made dual spiritual heritages, twins, and people with multiple personalities can barely continue this path. Of course, they can also abandon the Dao of Extreme Balance and switch from double Extreme Daos to single Extreme Dao. It's equally powerful, but this is only the last guarantee. Only those who can't continue with this Dao will take this path."

"Can there be man-made dual spiritual heritages?"

Han Fei's eyes widened. This was ridiculous. The heavenly heritage was preordained, or the heavenly heritage wouldn't have been called the heavenly heritage. But this demon god actually said that it could even be made. Han Fei couldn't believe it.

The Demon God's voice was leisurely. "Human beings have their limits. The man-made heritage has its limits and can't evolve. This is a disadvantage. Once you reach the bottleneck of this heritage, unless you continue to create stronger new heritages, it will be difficult for you to continue cultivating this path."

Han Fei wondered, "Is there no limit to the heavenly heritage?"

The Demon God said, "No. The heavenly heritage carries the power of the heavens and earth. Every time you transcend a tribulation, it will undergo a qualitative change. You can also forcibly improve your heritage by assimilating it. However, the man-made heritage doesn't have this characteristic. That's the difference."

Han Fei thought to himself, It seems that my dual spiritual heritages are indeed special. It was like a bug of the Heavenly Dao system.

However, Han Fei suddenly thought of something. "Senior Demon God, you just mentioned multiple personalities. Outside of this place, there is a Seven Ultimate Divine Spider with seven personalities. She is..."

"People with multiple personalities can transform the soul power and physical strength with the power of personality. I bestowed enlightenment on the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider you mentioned, but I haven't taught her the technique because although she can cultivate this Dao with her multiple personalities in the early stages, once she becomes a god, she needs to slay demons and cut off her negative side. This will cut off the balance. Once the balance is broken, mutation is inevitable."

"So that's it! So the real reason why you sealed yourself, Senior Demon God, is to cut off your negative side?"

"Huh?"

The Demon God was slightly surprised. "How do you know that I have multiple personalities?"

Han Fei hurriedly said, "I'm now in charge of Puppet City. I got this information from some ancient books."

Han Fei didn't mention Fifth Senior Brother. Although the Demon God and Fifth Senior Brother probably didn't know each other, there was no need to expose it, right?

"Puppet City! It seems that you are the descendant Mystic Martial found. Mystic Martial should still be trapped in the Godfiend Sea, right?"

Han Fei said, "The original body of Great Monarch Mystic Martial was indeed trapped in the Godfiend Sea, but by chance, I accidentally summoned a wisp of Great Monarch Mystic Martial's soul. At first, he had no memories, but when I reached the Godfiend Sea, his clone offered sacrifices and made a brief connection with his original body in the Godfiend Sea."

Han Fei didn't keep it a secret. It was better to make it clear. The old turtle and the others were trapped in the Godfiend Sea, which meant that he must have embarked on this path. Since he had embarked on this path, it meant that the old turtle was one of the descendants of the Demon God. As the founder of the Dao of Extreme Balance, the Demon God should be able to save them, right?

Wasn't the old turtle trying so hard to make him tell the news to the Demon God?

After a moment of silence, the Demon God said indifferently, "It's hard on him. However, you dare to come just because he told you about my existence? As the only person who can perfectly grasp the Dao of Extreme Balance, aren't you afraid that I will possess you and use your body to reach the peak of this path?"

Although he believed in the Demon Purification Pot, it wasn't complete yet. It was hard to say if it could block the possession of a real god. After all, the Demon Purification Pot had to hide when it encountered a Sky Opener before.

Han Fei paused for a moment before saying, "Senior, you've waited for more than 1.8 million years not just for an uncertain opportunity to possess me, right? Since you've already mastered the method to create spiritual heritages, it means that you can at least perfectly control the Dao of Extreme Balance now. You've already become a god. If you possess me, I'm afraid it will be another cultivation journey."

"Hahaha!"

The Demon God's deep voice slowly laughed. "Boy, are you trying to sound me out by putting it this way? But there's not much problem with what you say. To become a god, you can't rely on just one technique, nor can you become a god by grasping the Dao of Extreme Balance. Everyone has their own path. This path can only be walked by yourself and can't be taken by others. If you had appeared in front of me 1,800,000 years ago, there would only have been one outcome, which was that you would be possessed by me. But now, at the moment I see you, there's no need. Because I've already created a way to crack it."

Buzz!

Han Fei's eyes suddenly widened. He had created a solution. Didn't it mean that he could continue on this path perfectly?

But on second thought, it didn't make sense! If the Demon God created a way to break it, what would he have to wait for? If he directly nurtured Li Luoluo, his seal might be able to be broken, right?

Li Luoluo was originally a Heavenly Talent and one of the eight generals of the Emperor Sparrow in the past. Even if she couldn't become a god, it shouldn't be a problem for her to become a Great Monarch.

The Demon God asked, "You're wondering why I'm still here if I have a solution?"

Han Fei nodded. He certainly couldn't hide his thoughts.

The Demon God said, "Although I've created a solution, I'm still missing the last step. I need someone to help me complete it. That Seven Ultimate Divine Spider won't do. Only someone who can perfectly walk the Dao of Extreme Balance can complete this step. This is also the meaning of my wait."

"Me?"

Han Fei pointed at himself in disbelief. Why did this last step require a person like him?

Han Fei took a deep breath. "Senior, may I ask how I can help you with the solution?"

The Demon God said, "I need you to do something for me in the Soul Sea."

"Senior, you are already a god. Can't you go to the Soul Sea?"

Han Fei was dumbfounded. How could this matter be simple?

The Demon God asked, "Do you know where the Soul Sea is?"

Han Fei shook his head. He really didn't know. He could enter the Soul Sea and had entered it more than once, but that was in the past. Now with the growth rate of Little Black and Little White and the Emperor Sparrow, he could completely not rely on the Soul Sea. Only when Han Fei felt that he could trick people from the Soul Sea would he go in. Under normal circumstances, he wouldn't go into the Soul Sea.

This was because Han Fei discovered that as his strength increased, the primitive spiritual beasts in the Soul Sea became stronger and stronger. Furthermore, he always felt that every time he appeared in the Soul Sea, he would be watched by a power, so he was even more unwilling to go.

The Demon God said, "The physical body is a mortal body, but the Soul Sea is eternal. The Soul Sea is not a place for companion spirits to grow. The Soul Sea is the Soul Sea of all living beings. After a person dies, their soul will return to the Soul Sea. Even those whose souls you think have been destroyed, in fact, their souls haven't really been destroyed. Instead, a part of their souls have returned to the Soul Sea. After the souls return to the Soul Sea, they will most likely be purified and forget all the memories and causes of their previous lives. This huge Soul Sea operates with the Heavenly Dao. Every time a living being is born in the world, a wisp of soul will split off from the Soul Sea and become the soul of that living being."

Han Fei opened his mouth but didn't say anything. The Demon God's explanation of the Soul Sea subverted Han Fei's understanding. Perhaps countless people had guessed where the soul would go after a person died. But today, Han Fei got a clear answer, which was the Soul Sea.

But Han Fei quickly asked, "What about spiritual beasts and associated spirits?"

The Demon God asked, "To answer this question, you have to know where the Soul Sea is first."

Han Fei shook his head. How could he know?

The Demon God chuckled. "The Soul Sea seems illusory, but in fact, it's everywhere. Just like this world, there are thousands of creatures in this sea area, and there are also thousands of creatures in that sea area. The Soul Sea is the same. Generally speaking, when someone dies in reality, they will enter the nearest Soul Sea, and this Soul Sea corresponds to this area in reality. However, there are always exceptions to everything. These exceptional soul bodies, even after being purified, will follow some instincts of their previous lives in a short period of time and evolve into their forms in their previous lives. Such creatures will become Companion Spirits. However, Companion Spirits are not always Companion Spirits. Companion Spirits can also be separated from the Soul Sea for unknown reasons. Once the Companion Spirits find new bodies, they will be born into reality and become talented existences, which are so-called Heavenly Talents. As for most other souls, they are mediocre. Although they can be born into reality, they will be ordinary."

Hearing this, Han Fei wondered, "Then why don't I see any human beings or humanoid races in the Soul Sea?"

The Demon God said, "There are differences in the soul itself. The difference is the mental imprint in the depths of the soul. Humans and humanoids are an extremely ancient race. There are their figures in any era. My guess is that human beings or humanoids have extremely complicated minds or have inherited some inexplicable characteristics from ancient times, so I've never seen human beings or humanoid creatures in the Soul Sea. Those who evolved into human beings or humanoids later can't be taken as humans. Their original bodies aren't human beings or humanoids in the end, so they follow the general law I mentioned."

The Demon God's explanation was very clear. It meant that human beings and humanoids were very special and couldn't become Associated Spirits.

Returning to the main topic, Han Fei asked in confusion, "Thank you for enlightening me, Senior Demon God, but I still don't understand. Why does your solution have to rely on me?"

The Demon God said, "Humans have human spiritual heritages, and souls have soul spiritual heritages. With both the human spiritual heritage and the soul spiritual heritage, one can also be deemed as having dual spiritual heritages. Furthermore, one mainly cultivates the body, and the other mainly cultivates the soul. With both spiritual heritages in the same body, one can cultivate my Dao. Although I could create spiritual heritages, they were only acquired spiritual heritages. Only by creating new spiritual heritages from the source can they be considered dual spiritual heritages. Before that, I had already severed my soul and sent it into the Soul Sea. I also used a great technique to avoid the purification of the Soul Sea."

Han Fei couldn't help being horrified. "In other words, now, there is a wisp of your soul in the Soul Sea."

The Demon God said indifferently, "That's right, but there's a problem. Although I avoided the rules of purification of the Soul Sea, my soul has become an anomaly in the Soul Sea, so it's sealed by the Soul Sea. If my soul enters, the Soul Sea will recognize me as an anomaly and suppress me too."

Han Fei was puzzled. "No other people can do it? Does it have to be me?"

The Demon God said, "Otherwise, why do you think I had to wait for someone born with dual spiritual heritages? Unless you're transcending a tribulation, you won't be bound by the rules of the Heavenly Dao or even the rules of the Soul Sea at any other time. It's easy to send a portion of my soul in, but it's difficult to take out this portion of my soul. If someone else takes it, it will form a dual spiritual heritage pattern, be judged an anomaly by the rules, and also be suppressed. Only you, a person with dual spiritual heritages, can attach that portion of my soul to your soul and create an illusion to deceive the rules of the Soul Sea to take my soul out."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "Then will I be judged as a person with three spiritual heritage and be suppressed?"

"So, before you enter the Soul Sea, I will teach you the Spiritual Heritage Hidden Technique, which can help you hide one of your spiritual heritages. In this way, you can bring my soul back."

"Will it do?"

Han Fei thought to himself, Are gods so damn omnipotent? Is there actually such a technique in this world?

Wait, Han Fei suddenly thought of a problem. It seemed that his Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage could be hidden in the first place!

Han Fei asked, "Senior, can you tell that I have two spiritual heritages?"

The Demon God said, "Sure. Even if you don't operate the Godfiend Formless Technique, I can still feel the Immortal Qi flowing in your spiritual heritages."

Han Fei's heart stirred again. The Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage in his body gradually turned into nothingness as if it had never appeared.

"Huh!"

At this time, it was the Demon God's turn to be shocked. He asked in surprise, "Have you practiced some spiritual heritage hiding technique?"

Han Fei didn't say the name of the Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage, but said, "To be honest, my eldest senior brother once gave me a great technique to hide my spiritual heritage. He said that it would be useful for me in the future."

The Demon God was a little unconvinced. "Who is your senior brother? Which ordinary person would have this? Ordinary people don't need to hide their spiritual heritage at all."

Han Fei was waiting for this question. The Demon God was a god-level super powerhouse. If the Demon God burned the bridge after crossing it, who would he cry to? The other party could kill him with a thought. As for him, he could only count on this Demon God to be a good person and let him off.

Otherwise, if this Demon God killed him casually after using him, he would be the only one with dual spiritual heritages in this world. He wouldn't even have the final threat.

Therefore, Han Fei deliberately led the Demon God to ask.

Han Fei said, "Senior, have you heard of the Void Temple?"

Buzz!

Hardly had Han Fei said that when a rumbling sound rang.

However, this noise quickly subsided.

The Demon God's voice sounded again, "Are you saying that you are a descendant of the Void Temple?"

Han Fei cupped his hands. "Senior Demon God, I'm a descendant of the Void Temple. I'm traveling the world to gain experience."

Since the Demon God knew about the Void Temple, he should know how powerful the Void Temple was. However, this was a god. Han Fei wasn't sure if his Eldest Senior Brother could defeat him.

Han Fei was only suspicious. After seeing how strong Senior Brother Azure Dragon was and hearing Senior Sister Kagura's preaching, he felt that Senior Brother might also be a god. Who knew, Eldest Senior Brother had never mentioned his strength.

Although the gods had perished, it didn't mean that there were no gods in this world. He had once mentioned to the God of War that the gods were all dead, but the God of War looked disdainful.

Therefore, Han Fei needed to bet that his Eldest Senior Brother was also a god.

In front of the Demon God, Han Fei activated the void mark. "Eldest Senior Brother, Eldest Senior Brother, I need your help."

Han Fei didn't know if Eldest Senior Brother could receive the message in this place where the laws were chaotic, but he had to try.

Out of Han Fei's expectation, Eldest Senior Brother replied almost instantly. Han Fei was overjoyed. He said, "Eldest Senior Brother, I met a god... Blah, blah..."

At this moment, Han Fei bet that even if the Demon God knew that he was contacting his Eldest Senior Brother, he wouldn't attack him.

This was because if what the Demon God said was true, then he needed him. He had waited 1.8 million years, so he wouldn't kill him at this time.

The Eldest Senior Brother: "Demon God? I know this person."

Han Fei said, "Eldest Senior Brother, I'm just afraid that he will burn the bridge after crossing it."

Eldest Senior Brother said, "It's okay. I'll pay attention to your situation during this period of time. If he dares to attack you, I can kill this new god."

At that time, Han Fei's mentality was off the charts.

"Shoot! Shoot! Shoot!"

Han Fei was excited. His Eldest Senior Brother was really a god. He had always thought that his Eldest Senior Brother was a Great Monarch, but after seeing the power of Senior Brother Azure Dragon, Han Fei began to doubt it.

Now that this was almost confirmed, how could Han Fei not be excited? Other people's sects only had Great Monarchs, and even the Divine Capital Dynasty was dominated by the Great Monarch East Martial. But he had a god as his eldest senior brother. Looking at the entire Sea Realm, a god could almost instant-kill all forces.

After Han Fei was done being excited, he suddenly thought of something. "Eldest Senior Brother, can this Demon God be taken into our Void Temple? Can we suppress him?"

Eldest Senior Brother: "..."

2636 Terror in the Soul Sea (2 in 1)

No one knew what the Demon God would think if he knew what Han Fei was thinking.

Even Eldest Senior Brother paused for a moment. Then, he said, "He won't join the Void Temple. A god has a clear understanding of himself and has his own path to pursue. If it's not for special information, they won't join other factions."

Han Fei thought to himself, That's true. If the Demon God enters the Void Temple, what's his ranking? Will he be ranked thirteenth? Will he call me Senior Brother? Even if the Demon God wants to join, he probably will be too ashamed to do that.

However, since he had the Eldest Senior Brother's guarantee, Han Fei had no scruples.

Han Fei said, "I can enter the Soul Sea and help Senior Demon God take out that soul body."

The Demon God was silent for a moment. As a god, he might have realized something. The identity of the Void Temple did stun him for a moment.

At the same time, he had mixed feelings. Sure enough, all the Heavenly Talents in this world had great luck and opportunities.

He naturally knew why Han Fei revealed his identity as a member of the Void Temple and played some tricks in front of him. It was meant to make him afraid and prevent him from burning the bridge after crossing it.

The Demon God said leisurely, "Don't worry. As a god, I will keep my word. I didn't wait for so long to kill you. On the contrary, I will give you a certain opportunity."

Regardless of what the Demon God was thinking, at this moment, he needed to make a stand.

The Demon God was a cultivator from 1.8 million years ago. At that time, the Void Temple was different from the Void Temple Han Fei knew now. At that time, it was even more famous.

Han Fei was secretly relieved to hear the Demon God's answer. He said, "Senior Demon God, what do you want me to do? Enter the Soul Sea now?"

"No! I'll give you an opportunity first."

"Huh?"

Han Fei was overjoyed. He was naturally happy to hear the word "opportunity". Nowadays, ordinary things, including divine crystals and Heavenly Dao Jade Essence, were no longer opportunities for him.

Han Fei thought that the opportunities given by the Demon God should be good, right?

He certainly wouldn't refuse it. Since you said you would give me an opportunity, I'll accept it immediately.

The Demon God didn't hesitate. He said, "Judging from your state, you must have reached your bottleneck, right?"

Han Fei said, "Senior Demon God, you have a keen eye."

The Demon God ignored Han Fei's flattery and said, "The first opportunity I'll give you is to help you condense five Dao Locks."

"Huh?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. He hadn't condensed the first Dao Lock yet. If all five Dao Locks were condensed, his strength would definitely take a qualitative leap.

More importantly, this was exactly what Han Fei needed now. Although he had reached a bottleneck, it was still a long time before he could prove Dao. Besides, he would have to face his opponents in the future, so he might need a huge improvement in strength.

Buzz!

Just as Han Fei was thinking about how the Demon God would improve his strength, a bell suddenly rang, and Han Fei felt that his head was buzzing. In the next moment, Han Fei felt a terrifying power that he had never felt before. It was like mysterious Dao patterns between the heavens and earth and the enlightening sound of countless laws and Dao runes moistening his heart.

Anyway, Han Fei fell into a magical state similar to epiphany almost immediately. And the space where Han Fei was at this moment was filled with dense light gas, which was quickly flowing into Han Fei's body.

At the same time, this dense light passed through Han Fei's body, entered Han Fei's Star Bead, and appeared on Han Fei's Origin Star.

At this moment, a strange rain fell on Han Fei's Origin Star. The rain was gray. When the gray rain fell on Han Fei's Origin Star, the color of the land on it changed slightly.

Two years.

Three years.

A rain fell on Han Fei's Origin Star. Some trees were even tens of thousands of feet tall, some spiritual fruits broke through their limits, and the ground veins were filled with magical power.

And this power flowed from the surface of the Origin Star, through the ground veins, into the place of the Star Core.

In the outside world.

Han Fei fell into chaos. He felt that the blood in his body was surging like a tide, and his Dao bone was numb. It was as if infinite energy was attacking his body, circulating in his Dao bones and meridians.

Crack ~

As if a certain shackle had been broken, although Han Fei fell into chaos, he vaguely sensed that he was about to condense a Dao lock. The Dao lock used the Great Dao as a lock, locking a portion of power and avoiding the perception of the Heavenly Dao.

Han Fei had many Great Daos. With a thought, the Great Dao of Strength condensed into a lock and locked in his heart.

At that moment, Han Fei felt a lot more relaxed, as if part of his body had been completely liberated.

Immediately afterward, the Origin Star began to feed power back to him. In the cave where Han Fei was, there seemed to be ownerless soul power that was absorbed by Han Fei.

After an unknown period of time, Han Fei felt uncomfortable again. At this time, the Great Dao of Heavenly Enlightenment turned into a lock, liberating his body again.

Then the process repeated three times, and Han Fei locked the Dao of invincibility, the Great Dao of Time, and the Great Dao of Space.

The moment the fifth Dao Lock was condensed, Han Fei seemed to be woken up from this mysterious cultivation.

After waking up, Han Fei felt that his body was full of vitality and blood, as if he had been sitting cross-legged for thousands of years. His body was stiff, and whenever he moved, there seemed to be a thunderous explosion.

Level: 109 (Sky Opening- Extreme Dao Balance)

Bloodline Ranking among the Clans in the Infinite Ocean: the 120,012nd (Evolving: 3334/26012 years)

Immortal Qi: 1,410,000

Soul: 99.99 Origins (available: 59.99 Origins)

Perception Range: 99,990,000

First Spiritual Heritage: Origin Spiritual Heritage

Second Spiritual Heritage: Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage

Main Art: Godfiend Formless Technique

“Hiss ~”

Han Fei was astounded. What the hell? His strength had soared so much all of a sudden? He sensed that there were five Dao Locks in his heart.

Is this the power of the Dao Lock? A single Dao Lock can provide 80,000 Star Powers?

Besides, in addition to discovering the changes in his data, Han Fei also felt that his bones had changed into a translucent state of gold and jade fusion, with Dao patterns surfacing on them.

“Huh?” The evolution of his bloodline took more than 700 years, which meant that it took him three years to condense five Dao Locks.

While Han Fei was still shocked by the growth of his strength, he heard the Demon God’s leisure voice. “Your bloodline level is very strong, surpassing your Dao Bones, so I slightly strengthened your Dao Bones. Now, you have five Dao Locks, but you have to know that you have already reached your limit in the Sky Opening Realm. When the Dao Locks are fully opened, you will definitely sense the appearance of the Monarch-level Tribulation. Therefore, if you want to activate all the Dao Locks, you can’t do it more than three times. If the third time all your Dao Locks are opened, be prepared to face the tribulation!”

“Gulp ~”

“What if I don’t open them all?”

The Demon God said, "If you don't open all the Dao Locks, you'd better do it no more than ten times. Every time you open a Dao Lock, it will be more difficult to seal it again. If you do it too many times, you will find it difficult to recondense the Dao Locks."

Han Fei thought that it was enough. This opportunity was very big and what he needed now. Although the power he could use essentially hadn't changed, his ultimate combat power had undergone a thorough change.

Han Fei rose quickly. "Thank you for this opportunity, Senior Demon God."

However, the Demon God said, "These opportunities are a little compensation for you for the time being. Now, you can enter the Soul Sea."

Before Han Fei could well experience the five Dao Locks, the Demon God was about to let him take action. However, the Demon God's help this time did save him a lot of time.

In the past, Han Fei didn't care about whether he had a Dao Lock or not, because he knew that it was too difficult for him to reach the extreme of the Extreme Dao. Therefore, he didn't know when he could condense the first Dao Lock.

Besides, at that time, Han Fei knew that as long as he didn't open the so-called Dao Locks, he was only a perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator. Only by opening the Dao Locks could he become stronger. But the number of times the Dao Locks could be opened was limited, so Han Fei could deal with it casually.

Now, since he could directly become a powerhouse with five Dao Locks, he was naturally overjoyed.

On the other side, with his Eldest Senior Brother taking care of him and ensuring his safety, this trip to the God Burying Ridge was worth it.

Han Fei asked, "Senior, after I enter the Soul Sea, how can I find your soul body?"

The Demon God said, "In the Soul Sea, you and I are close, so you will easily sense my summoning. One thing to mention is that the rules of the Soul Sea restrict you from causing excessive killing. Otherwise, the Soul Sea will expel you."

Han Fei knew what the so-called expulsion was. He said, "Senior, you said that your soul body is suppressed by the rules of the Soul Sea. How can I save you?"

The Demon God said, "Actually, it's simple. The suppression of rules is nothing more than borrowing the power of the Soul Sea to suppress. This is the second compensation I'll give you, the Soul Sealing Pearl. This pearl can steal a portion of ownerless soul sources from the Soul Sea. After finding my body, you will have about ten seconds to use this pearl. These ten seconds are the key. You have to leave the Soul Sea within ten seconds. Otherwise, I'm afraid it will cause the suppression of the Soul Sea rules. At that time, even if you aren't affected by the rules, there's a possibility of you being suppressed."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. He knew the severity of this matter. Once his soul sank into the Soul Sea, he might not be able to get out.

Han Fei said, "Lord Demon God, it's easy for me to enter, but I'm not very proficient in the way to leave the Soul Sea."

The Demon God said, "I will help you establish a connection between your body and your soul. You don't have to worry about that."

Seeing that the Demon God had arranged everything, Han Fei naturally had no more scruples. He took the Soul Sealing Pearl and looked at it, and information immediately appeared in his eyes.

<Name > Soul Sealing Pearl

<Introduction > A Soul Sealing Artifact refined from the bones of a god. It can absorb a tremendous amount of ownerless souls in a short period of time. The upper limit of this bead can reach a thousand points of ownerless soul power. The Soul Sealing Pearl is a Void Pearl that cannot be broken by external forces. Only the will of a god of the same level can break it.

<Quality > Unrated

< Attached Soul > None

<Effect > Soul Sealing and Soul Absorbing

<Contained > A thousand Origins of ownerless soul power

<Can't be Reforged>

<Unrefined >

It could accommodate a thousands Origins of ownerless soul power? When he saw this information, Han Fei sighed in his heart. As expected of a treasure given by a god. Even the limit of his soul power after he condensed five Dao Locks was only 99.99 Origins, which was only one tenth of the Soul Sealing Pearl's storage.

Han Fei suddenly thought of something. "Senior Demon God, if I have this Soul Sealing Pearl, can I go to the Soul Sea to steal soul power at any time?"

The Demon God said, "Of course not! This Soul Sealing Pearl contains my Sky Stealing Array when it's refined. It was with this array that you will be able to hold out for ten seconds in the Soul Sea. If you want to continue stealing, you can only refine a new Soul Sealing Pearl."

Is that so?

Han Fei was excited just now. He felt that although he didn't need these ownerless souls, he could use them to cultivate his army, give them away, or make deals. They were very useful.

But now it seemed that he was overthinking.

Of course, although this bead was good, it was not very useful to him. Under normal circumstances, he didn't need to cultivate with the help of ownerless souls.

If there was a chance in the future, he could exchange the pearl for resources with his senior brothers and sisters. Of course, he wouldn't exchange it until he used up all the ownerless soul power in the pearl.

It wasn't easy for him to steal so much ownerless soul power from the Soul Sea, so he naturally couldn't waste it.

When Han Fei refined the Soul Sealing Pearl, he cupped his hands at the beating heart. "Senior Demon God, I'm leaving."

Buzz!

Coming to the Soul Sea again, Han Fei was no longer so curious. Possessing Little Black, he immediately sensed if the Soul Sealing Pearl had been brought over. When he found that he could clearly sense the existence of the Soul Sealing Pearl, he breathed a sigh of relief and spat out a mouthful of bubbles.

When Han Fei looked around, he found that he didn't meet a single Companion Spirit or spiritual beast.

It seemed that if one's location of the outside world was remote, his location in the Soul Sea would be remote too.

At this moment, Han Fei turned his head and saw the Emperor Sparrow standing on Little White's head. He said, "What's going on? I couldn't contact you for three years. If it weren't for the fact that Little Black, Little White and I are all fine, I would have thought that something happened to you."

"Three years?"

Han Fei said, "Some opportunities took me three years to digest. I now have five Dao Locks."

"Wait a moment. Have you already had five Dao Locks?"

The Emperor Sparrow was dumbfounded. When did it become so simple to condense a Dao Lock? Five Dao Locks in three years? Are you kidding me?

Seeing that the Emperor Sparrow was shocked, Han Fei didn't keep it a secret. He said, "I made a deal with a god. He gave me an opportunity. I need to come to the Soul Sea to do something for him."

The Emperor Sparrow's eyes lit up. "Is the god really still alive?"

Han Fei said, "I didn't see anyone but a heart. But since the heart is still beating, it should still be alive."

"What deal did you make with him? Why did you come to the Soul Sea? Han Fei, the gods are powerful. I don't think they need to make any deals with you. Be careful not to be tricked."

Han Fei said, "It's okay. It's a long story. Let's talk while we walk."

Han Fei turned in another direction. He vaguely felt that a very familiar power was attracting him. This should be the kind of feeling the Demon God mentioned. When he came here, he would naturally sense it.

While chatting with the Emperor Sparrow, Han Fei occasionally saw Associated Spirits passing by. However, none of the Associated Spirits passing by here were weak. For example, a Black Armored Lobster Han Fei saw was in the Sky Opening Realm.

Han Fei was stunned. Companion Spirits had their own levels before they were born, but they would become level-zero the moment they were born. Being in the Sky Opening realm in the Soul Sea meant the potential and talent of this Companion Spirit were great.

Han Fei certainly wouldn't eat Associated Spirits now, which would only bring him trouble. In fact, if it weren't for the sake of tricking others, he wouldn't have come to the Soul Sea now.

About two hours later, Han Fei felt that something was wrong. The familiar feeling was getting stronger and stronger. Besides, Han Fei felt that the seawater in the Soul Sea was slower and thicker.

The Emperor Sparrow asked, "Have we arrived? There seems to be some kind of rule restriction here. My mobility has become slow, and my strength is being suppressed."

Han Fei said, "Don't follow me. I'll leave here as soon as I get what I want."

The Emperor Sparrow: "Not necessarily. Although that Demon God said that he would help your body establish a connection with you, once the rules of the world suppress you, causing this connection to weaken, as long as you slightly slow down the speed of your departure, it can exceed ten seconds and suppress you. But I'm different. I was born not controlled by many rules of the world, so I'm considered an ominous sign. This is also the reason why I can take the initiative to leave the Soul Sea and appear in the outside world. Besides, if you are suppressed, it's equivalent to me being suppressed. The outcome will be no different."

"That makes sense. Then let's go together."

Han Fei no longer hesitated. Before he attacked, the rules wouldn't attack him. Although he didn't know what the rules were, he chose to believe in the Demon God.

He had waited for 1.8 million years for this opportunity. He must have tried his best to ensure that nothing happened to him. Otherwise, wouldn't he have waited for 1.8 million years for nothing?

At this time, Han Fei could no longer see any Associated Spirit.

After about half an hour, Han Fei and the Emperor Sparrow felt that the seawater here had almost stopped moving, and they were now like icebreakers sailing on the ice of the South Pole, slow and laborious.

However, slow as it was, they soon saw a water cage. The seawater there was completely still, like a cage. And in the cage, Han Fei saw a figure sitting cross-legged. At the moment Han Fei and the Emperor Sparrow arrived, the figure suddenly opened his eyes and his eyes glowed.

Boom ~

As this person rose, the water in the water cage slightly surged. Han Fei saw a large amount of power like the essence of water injecting into the cage.

“Open!”

The strange light that burst out from between the man’s eyebrows suddenly became several times thicker. Like a laser, it cut a palm-sized gap in the cage.

At this moment, the man shouted, “Help me!”

Han Fei knew that it was the time. Without any hesitation, he issued an order in his heart and Little Black spat out the Soul Sealing Pearl. At the moment the Soul Sealing Pearl appeared, the spiritual energy that was trying to inject into the water cage swarmed into the Soul Sealing Pearl.

The Soul Sealing Pearl’s suction force was so violent that it almost formed a violent sea current at once. As if a big river was turned upside down, the water poured down instantly. Even the power of the water cage was crazily sucked in.

“Open~”

In the water cage, the demonic god’s partial soul seemed to be slashing out a soul-stirring light with all its strength. However, this time, it didn’t break through the water cage.

Han Fei couldn’t resist this level of power. He was just a tool, here to take the demon god’s soul out. Using the Soul Sealing Pearl to stop the power of the soul sea from injecting into the cage was the only thing Han Fei could do.

“One second.”

“Two seconds.”

Han Fei was counting the time. The Emperor Sparrow stood on the top of Little White’s head and was also calculating the time. Ten seconds passed quickly. It wasn’t until the fifth second that Han Fei saw the soul body of the Demon God barely cut open the water cage.

Seeing that the Demon God’s soul body was about to come out, the power injected into the Soul Sealing Pearl suddenly soared several times, so much that the Soul Sealing Pearl seemed unable to absorb it anymore. A trace of power leaked out, trying to inject into the water cage.

Upon seeing this, the Demon God’s soul body emitted dazzling divine light as he forcefully pried open a corner of the water cage.

At the same time, Han Fei suddenly felt a connection from his body. It was a kind of summoning. At this moment, as long as he issued an order in his heart, he could return to reality.

However, the gap torn by the Demon God’s soul body showed signs of healing under the injection of part of the Soul Sea power. It was only because the Demon God’s soul body was too strong that it temporarily withstood the healing trend.

“Eight seconds.”

Roar!

At that moment, the Demon God’s soul body cracked, and he gathered all his strength to expand the gap again.

Han Fei had a bad feeling. An unknown horror seemed to be coming. He saw a large area of darkness, the kind of great horror he had felt in the past, or even more terrifying.

At this moment, Han Fei knew that he had to go.

Little Black and Little White’s bodies immediately turned into light, enveloping the water cage. At that moment, Han Fei felt that infinite power was sucked in by him.

Crack ~

It was World Devouring that blocked the external power from injecting into the water cage, so Han Fei heard cracking sounds almost immediately.

Then, Han Fei felt a wisp of soul power rush into his body.

“Let’s go!”

“Tweet ~”

At this moment, with a thought from Han Fei, the Soul Sealing Pearl instantly returned. With another thought, he had already accepted the call from his body.

“Huh ~”

“Huff~”

Han Fei took a deep breath and woke up with a shudder.

“Who is it?”

Han Fei was horrified. He felt that he had heard something and was startled, which took him back to reality.

But as soon as Han Fei shouted, he saw the beating heart shining brightly. And outside the heart, there was a half-illusory figure.

“Gulp...”

Han Fei swallowed. Is this the Demon God?

Chapter 2637: Ragnarok (2 in 1)

2637 Ragnarok (2 in 1)

It was the first time that Han Fei had seen a god. He looked no different from an ordinary person except that he was a young man with a decent look.

The physical heart of the Demon God phantom was beating at this moment. Every time it beat, there was an electric-like light, turning into countless electric currents in the phantom’s body and drawing out an extremely complicated spiritual heritage map.

This situation didn’t slowly stop until a hundred seconds later. Although Han Fei couldn’t understand it, it was probably the heart of the Demon God circulating the spiritual heritage of his soul body.

It wasn’t until a hundred seconds later that the Demon God said, “There are still great secrets in the Soul Sea. I don’t even know the level involved now. You were quite lucky to be able to escape this time. In a short period of time, don’t enter the Soul Sea.”

The Demon God nodded slightly. “Yes! The acquired spiritual heritage and the born spiritual heritage can’t be compared. Dual spiritual heritage is the foundation of the Dao of Extreme Balance. Now, in this world, only you and I have dual spiritual heritage. However, I need your help with one more thing.”

Han Fei said, “Please tell me, Senior Demon God. As long as I can do it, I will try my best.”

The phantom of the Demon God’s soul curled up the corners of his mouth slightly. “This matter is equally troublesome. If you complete this matter, I can help you unconditionally once. In addition, I can give you a divine technique I created. This technique can only be practiced by cultivators of the Dao of Extreme Balance. It’s called Ragnarok.”

Han Fei: “...”

For a moment, Han Fei couldn’t imagine what kind of divine technique this was. Only those who cultivated the Dao of Extreme Balance could practice it. Didn’t it mean that only he and the Demon God could use it in this world... Oh no, Green Lotus and Red Lotus could also use it. Wasn’t this a divine technique created by the Demon God for the Dao of Extreme Balance?

However, even such a divine technique had to be taught to him. It seemed that the matter that needed his help couldn’t be simple!

In fact, he didn't contribute much to the trip to the Soul Sea. It was mainly because the Demon God was awesome. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to save his soul body.

However, it was indeed dangerous. If he wasn't careful, he would be doomed.

Therefore, although Han Fei was curious and wanted the divine technique, he could only ask, "Thank you, Senior Demon God. But what kind of help do you need?"

The Demon God said, "There's no hurry. You can consider it after hearing it. Before that, let me ask you, do you know the origin of the Godfiend Sea?"

Han Fei said, "It's said that many people tried to walk the Dao of Extreme Balance in the past, but because they didn't have the conditions to cultivate this path, they mutated one after another. They were called demons by the strong masters of the Sea Realm, and everyone called this Dao the demonic Dao. Because of the mutation, cultivators of this Dao changed their temperament and became cruel and bloodthirsty, which was intolerable to the strong masters of the Sea Realm. Therefore, some strong masters established the Godfiend Sea, suppressing all cultivators of this Dao in it."

The Demon God smiled faintly. "Well, the rumors are entirely wrong. However, do you know who established the Godfiend Sea?"

Han Fei shook his head, but suddenly looked up at the Demon God. From what he said, something didn't seem right.

The Demon God nodded slightly. "It's me."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei couldn't have felt more awful. No wonder the Demon God asked him this question. It turned out that he was the one who created the Godfiend Sea.

Han Fei wasn't stupid. The Demon God created the Godfiend Sea to suppress these people. The Demon God must have found that the further one went down this path, the greater the problem would be. If it weren't for the people with dual spiritual heritages, these people might have become disasters when they grew up, so he had no choice but to set up a place like the Godfiend Sea.

The Demon God didn't care what Han Fei thought. He just said, "Since you have seen Mystic Martial, you should know that there are many top powerhouses suppressed in the Godfiend Sea, even including many Great Monarchs. The Godfiend Sea alone can't suppress them. Therefore, I guard the Godfiend Sea with my own body."

Han Fei couldn't help but look at the heart of the Demon God. He seemed to guess what the Demon God wanted him to do.

The Demon God nodded. "That's right. This favor is to take my god heart to the Godfiend Sea. Only when my two spiritual heritages are combined can I become a real god and give all the strong masters suppressed in it another way out."

Han Fei didn't speak but waited for the Demon God to continue.

If he just needed to send the Demon God's heart over, it shouldn't make the Demon God pay such a huge price. An unconditional attack and a divine technique shouldn't be so easy to obtain.

Sure enough, the Demon God continued, "However, this trip is not simple. When I fused with the Dao in the God Burying Ridge, although I eventually became a god, the Heavenly Dao didn't tolerate me. The Heavenly Dao didn't stop after the divine tribulation and tried to kill me. As a last resort, I killed my demon body and sealed myself. Today, since I haven't fused my two spiritual seas, I'm still an anomaly in the eyes of this world. Therefore, I can't appear directly in the Sea Realm."

Han Fei had a bad feeling. If he couldn't directly appear in the Sea Realm, how could he send his heart to the Godfiend Sea?

Han Fei asked, "Senior, do you mean parasitism?"

The Demon God said, "That's right. My heart will parasitize your body and seal itself to the greatest extent, preventing the Heavenly Dao from sensing it. However, even if I hide myself, my luck will affect you, so during this period, you might be plagued with misfortune. It's not that the Heavenly Dao wants to kill you. It's just that the rules of the world will spontaneously purify and eliminate the power that he can't control. Therefore, before you send my heart to the Godfiend Sea, you can only rely on yourself. I can't help you. Otherwise, I might be able to survive, but I'm afraid you won't be able to survive the divine punishment."

Han Fei asked timidly, "Senior Demon God, how great is this misfortune?"

The Demon God said, "I'll be hiding in your body, so the Heavenly Dao will take you as a variable. The misfortune is naturally directed at you. As for the misfortune, it's naturally based on your strength, but it won't be too great. Most likely, the danger comes from the Sky Opening Realm. But if the power of the Sky Opening Realm doesn't work on you, the strong masters in the Monarch realm will probably attack you. However, the Monarchs who attacked you shouldn't be too strong. After all, this misfortune will be produced according to your strength. They will at most be as strong as the rod in your hand. This is also why I let you cultivate five Dao Locks in advance. The stronger you are, the safer you will be."

After a pause, the Demon God said, "Of course, if you can get the people from the Void Temple to help you, this matter will be very simple."

Han Fei immediately shook his head. "I don't want to trouble my senior brothers and sisters."

The Demon God didn't say anything. He seemed to know a little about the Void Temple. Han Fei was unwilling because there were only three chances in total. Their value was no worse than the Demon God's unconditional help.

Han Fei calculated in his heart. If there would only be Sky Openers blocking him, he definitely wouldn't be afraid. But if the enemies' strength was at Liu Qiansi's level, to be honest, it would be difficult to deal with them.

Although he had condensed five Dao Locks, the Dao Locks couldn't be opened, so his combat power was no different from before. Therefore, it was still quite dangerous if he met someone of Liu Qiansi's level.

It was a coincidence that he could capture Liu Qiansi, and he also fought with all his strength. But in reality, most of the time, it was impossible for him to fight with all his strength. That would only let others take advantage of him.

However, the only consolation was that if he captured Liu Qiansi, he would have one more Monarch-level combat power.

Han Fei: "If that's the case, I can give it a try."

Han Fei thought that the distance from the western mining area to the northern mining area was actually not long. It would only take a few months for him to cover this distance. Then it would take him at most a month to enter the Godfiend Sea from the northern mining area. Two months would be enough in total.

Han Fei calculated that it might also take some time if accidents happened.

The Demon God smiled faintly. If it were before, he would have been worried that something would happen to Han Fei, but after hearing that Han Fei was a disciple of the Void Temple, he no longer had any concerns.

Since Han Fei was a disciple of the Void Temple, coupled with the Void Temple's way of doing things, he felt that the probability of Han Fei falling into a life-or-death situation was zero.

The Demon God said, "Come forward."

With the attention of the Eldest Senior Brother, Han Fei was not afraid. When he came to the Demon God, he saw the phantom of the Demon God's soul body immediately disperse into a wisp of smoke and enter the beating heart.

In the next moment, the heart swooshed into Han Fei's body, where Han Fei's heart was located, as if he had been possessed.

Han Fei was about to investigate, when suddenly a wave of fresh air rushed into his mind. In the next moment, countless complicated mystic runes appeared and disappeared in his mind.

Soon, information popped up in Han Fei's mind.

Ragnarok (Unrated)

<Introduction > This is a technique created by the Demon God that can both attack the body and the soul. It can combine power with the spirit and intensify the two, giving birth to the chaotic origin power. It can cut gods, destroy all things, and shatter Great Daos and laws. This technique can apply to any combat technique, giving it the characteristic of killing both the body and the soul, and double the user's combat power. It can also independently launch an attack, destroying gods and killing demons.

Deduction Cost: Cannot be deduced

Effect: Killing both the body and the soul

Note: This technique is restricted to those who cultivate the Dao of Extreme Balance. If others cultivate it, they will suffer a backlash.

“A divine technique killing both the body and the soul?”

Han Fei was shocked. Earlier, only when his Yang Soul left his body and combined with the God Slaying Boxing Gloves could he achieve the effect of killing both the body and the soul. But that was only powerful before the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm. Above the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm, there were actually many people who had Yang Souls. Although their Yang Souls weren't as strong as his, they had Yang Souls anyway.

Although he could still use the transcendent power of killing both the body and the soul, the effect would be greatly reduced on a true powerhouse.

However, Ragnarok was different. It had completely created a third power. This chaotic origin power could allow any combat technique and killing technique to carry the characteristics of killing both the body and the soul. It didn't even need the Yang Soul to leave the body. This power could even shatter the laws of the Great Dao. This was the most important.

It was fine that this divine technique could break the power of the Great Dao. But it could even break the power of laws! That shocked him. Didn't it mean that he would have the power to fight Monarchs?

Han Fei was sure that this technique was definitely the strongest divine technique he had seen so far. In the early stages, the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique might be comparable to it, but the significance of the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique lay in healing and recovery. This technique lay in killing. In the later stages, the strong's self-recovery was very strong, and the advantages of the Ragnarok would be especially obvious. This was a divine technique that would become stronger as one progressed.

The voice of the Demon God sounded in Han Fei's mind. “I suggest that you master the Ragnarok here or between the Monarch Tombs outside before leaving. In this range, the Heavenly Dao can't see through your anomaly. Once you enter the outer sand sea, misfortune will follow.”

Han Fei said, “Thank you for your guidance, Senior Demon God.”

The Demon God: “By the way, there are two things I need to remind you of. Firstly, because only cultivators focusing on the Dao of Extreme Balance can cultivate Ragnarok, it's very easy for you to get started. Although you can stay here for a period of time, don't stay too long. Without my soul power to support you, the baleful demons and mutated mine demons here will riot soon and this place will become a battlefield, and then there's no point for you to stay here. Secondly, while I'm in your body, you can't enter your Origin Star, nor can you make any changes in appearance and luck. You have to be mentally prepared.”

“I can't disguise myself?”

The Demon God said, “I'm not hiding in your heart, but in your body. In your bones, blood, and luck, only by completely imitating everything about you can I avoid the detection of the Heavenly Dao.”

Han Fei frowned. In that case, wouldn't his secrets be all exposed?

As if understanding what Han Fei was thinking, the Demon God said, "I can't know everything about you. Spiritual heritage is endless. It's impossible for me to know all of it. Besides, you have an extremely powerful soul-suppressing godly weapon and the mark of the Void Temple. I won't pry into your soul. As for the rest, even if I don't possess you, I can see through you at a glance."

Han Fei was relieved to hear that. It was fine as long as he could still keep his secrets. Even his bloodline could grow and wouldn't remain the same.

"Senior, can I enter other people's Origin Stars?"

The Demon God said, "If that person has already died, yes."

Buzz!

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that the Demon God fell silent as if it had disappeared from his body.

He definitely needed to cultivate the Ragnarok. This divine technique was too powerful. It could double his strength without opening the Dao Locks. Furthermore, it had the characteristics of killing both the body and the soul. It could also break laws. If he didn't cultivate it well in advance, he would be an idiot.

Han Fei wasn't surprised that he couldn't enter his Origin Star. Even if he could, he didn't want to enter. What if the Demon God descended and his Origin Star couldn't withstand the power of the god and collapsed?

"Ah! Are we out?"

At the moment when the Demon God disappeared, Liu Qiansi trembled in Han Fei's hand and made a sound.

Liu Qiansi's first reaction was to look around, but it didn't seem to be the Monarch Graveyard, but an unknown cave.

Liu Qiansi asked, "Where is this? Is the god still alive? Have you seen the god?"

Buzz!

While Liu Qiansi asked curiously, the space where Han Fei was began to tremble violently. The rocks fell and were about to collapse.

Han Fei said, "Shut up."

After that, Han Fei grabbed Liu Qiansi and took a step back. This was a simple passage. With one step, Han Fei crossed the void outside the mountain peak he came from. With another step, he appeared on the mountain.

Swish!

At this moment, the Emperor Sparrow also rushed out of Han Fei's body.

The three of them saw that the huge statue opposite them had collapsed, and the mountain under their feet had already begun to tremble.

The road was above their heads. Han Fei jumped and appeared on the Monarch Graveyard in the next moment. And the small hill under their feet didn't show any abnormality. It seemed that the collapse of the Inverse World wouldn't affect this place.

When Han Fei saw the Emperor Sparrow come out, the first thing he did was ask, "Did anything happen there after I left the Soul Sea?"

The Emperor Sparrow: "No! After you came out, the water cage there collapsed. I originally wanted to take you away, but you left very quickly, so I took Little Black and Little White away from that place. By the way, Little Black and Little White fell into a deep sleep. They swallowed a lot of power and probably won't wake up for hundreds of years. However, I have already taken them into your Origin Star. Hundreds of years will pass in a flash. Let them sleep."

Han Fei was immediately relieved. It was good that he was fine. He had thought that something had happened in the Soul Sea. Fortunately, the Emperor Sparrow was smart enough to escape from that place.

Little Black and Little White fell into a deep sleep. This was a small matter. Staying on his Origin Star for hundreds of years would only take a few years at most in reality.

Han Fei said, "Alright, don't you already have three Dao Locks? You can take advantage of this period of time to hunt the baleful demons and condense five Dao Locks."

The Emperor Sparrow: "Huh? You're so casual. Did the Demon God just let you go?"

Han Fei said, "Senior Demon God asked me for help in the first place. There's no reason for him to keep me there."

The Emperor Sparrow tilted his head and looked at Han Fei, seeming to understand something. After leaving that place, Han Fei still maintained the respectful title for the Demon God, and considering the collapse of the Inverse World just now, the Emperor Sparrow was rendered speechless. Son of a b*tch, is the Demon God now residing in Han Fei's body?

Seeing Han Fei nod imperceptibly, the Emperor Sparrow shut up and stopped talking about the Demon God. Although he had the pride of a Great Monarch, he was not a god after all, and he couldn't ignore the existence of a god.

Liu Qiansi was the only one who was stunned. He had no idea what Han Fei did. All he knew was that Han Fei mutated into a monster and then changed back as if nothing had ever happened.

One month Later.

In the sky above a Monarch Tomb in the Monarch Graveyard, there was a fierce battle. A group of seventy or eighty baleful demons were fighting in groups. Whoever was defeated would quickly be devoured by other baleful demons.

The Emperor Sparrow occasionally swept across and killed his way into the battlefield, killing a baleful demon from time to time.

On the other side, Han Fei was sitting cross-legged in a col. Liu Qiansi stood behind Han Fei and protected him.

At this moment, two baleful demons discovered their location and immediately rushed over. Liu Qiansi was about to attack, when Han Fei suddenly opened his eyes, raised his hand, and flicked his finger, and a saber beam shot out.

“Pu! Pu! Pu!”

The bodies of the two baleful demons cracked, and their souls were directly annihilated.

Liu Qiansi looked at Han Fei in shock. “Have you finished your cultivation?”

Han Fei got up, his body crackling. He warmed up a little, looked at the two dead baleful demons, and said indifferently, “How has the situation been recently?”

Liu Qiansi said, “It’s terrible. Since the demonic sound disappeared, all the baleful demons here seem to have gone crazy. They actually began to kill and devour each other. I think if they continue to devour each other, a Monarch-level baleful demon will appear soon. Oh no, according to Lord Emperor Sparrow, there seem to already be Monarch-level baleful demons here.”

Han Fei’s eyes glittered. “Oh? Where?”

“Where is it?”

Liu Qiansi was lost for words. “What are you going to do?”

Han Fei grinned. “Of course to meet them!”

Liu Qiansi: “...”

After a while, Han Fei and Liu Qiansi found the Emperor Sparrow in the Monarch Graveyard. When Han Fei arrived, the Emperor Sparrow was like a thief, stealing a baleful demon killed by other baleful demons with one claw.

Han Fei saw red light flashing on the king sparrow’s body. Clearly, it was swallowing the power of this baleful demon with the Fiend Eating Divine Technique.

Seeing that Han Fei had come, the Emperor Sparrow glanced at him. “Is it over? In the past few days, it has been completely chaotic here. Not only have all the baleful demons begun to kill each other, but they have also crossed the border to kill. So far, a Monarch-realm baleful demon has been born. I think you’d better leave early. It just so happens that my fourth Dao Lock is about to be successfully condensed.”

Han Fei knew that the Emperor Sparrow proposed this for his sake. The longer he stayed here, the more dangerous it would be. Although Han Fei had Liu Qiansi protecting him, two fists couldn’t resist four hands. If there were thousands of baleful demons besieging him, Liu Qiansi wouldn’t be able to resist them.

Han Fei said, "No hurry. Is the baleful aura here so intense? As a Primordial Ancient Land, there's no place more suitable for you to cultivate. Since you've condensed your fourth Dao Lock, you might as well condense the fifth one at once. Let's go find that Monarch-level baleful demon."

"Huh?"

The Emperor Sparrow was taken aback for a moment. Was Han Fei crazy? Of course not. He knew Han Fei very well. Without absolute confidence, Han Fei wouldn't let himself fall into despair.

Furthermore, Han Fei seemed to be determined to take down the Monarch-level baleful demon, which made the Emperor Sparrow a little uncertain.

The Emperor Sparrow asked, "Are you sure?"

"Of course."

The Emperor Sparrow looked at him deeply. "Come with me."

They passed seven or eight Monarch tombs and finally came to a very large Monarch tomb. This was the tomb of an immortal-level powerhouse.

At this moment, in the sky above the tomb, there seemed to be only one baleful demon absorbing the laws and Dao runes of this place. There was no second baleful demon.

The Emperor Sparrow looked at Han Fei curiously. He was not worried that something would happen to Han Fei. After all, Liu Qiansi was around.

Liu Qiansi also looked at Han Fei curiously, thinking that this person was definitely not here to seek death. It seemed that Han Fei had achieved a lot in cultivation in the past month. Otherwise, he wouldn't have come to find the Monarch-level baleful demon.

Han Fei said, "Liu Qiansi, if I don't speak, don't help me for the time being."

"Okay!"

Liu Qiansi was also curious why Han Fei was so confident.

In the next moment, Han Fei stepped in the air, his fingers floated in the air, and All Great Daos in One Sword burst out. However, at this moment, there was an unknown power on All Great Daos in One Sword.

The baleful demon seemed to have mastered the law of fire. Han Fei even felt that he had recovered some of his consciousness. As the baleful demon waved its hand, three thousand flames shot over.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

However, when the three thousand flames touched All Great Daos in One Sword, they were all distinguished, and none of them could shake the sword.

"Huh ~"

Liu Qiansi exclaimed, "This move can cut apart the power of laws? Why didn't I feel it before?"

Only the Emperor Sparrow knew that this was a power given to Han Fei by the Demon God, a power that could cut apart laws.

The baleful demon pushed forward with one hand and grabbed at All Great Daos in One Sword, trying to crush it. However, when he held the All Great Daos in One Sword with one hand, his entire hand was easily severed like tofu.

Not only that, after the power of this sword cut off one of the baleful demon's hands, the arm also exploded.

As the saying went, Kill the enemy while he's weak. The first strike was to catch the baleful demon off guard. Everything had to be based on actual combat.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Knock, knock, knock!

After fighting for a hundred seconds, the baleful devil's body was badly mutilated and its soul body was completely destroyed. Endless baleful intent surged violently in this place.

Bang!

In the end, Han Fei blasted the remnant body of the baleful demon with a punch. He looked down at his fist and muttered, "Although I can suppress it head-on, it will take some time for me to break it if the other party only wants to use the law to suppress me. It should be at least 30% more difficult to beat the enemy if I face a real person. However, there is a lot of room for improvement in my Ragnarok. It will only be stronger in the future. Now I should be able to face a Dao Prover head-on."

Han Fei smiled. He had finally made it to this point.

Chapter 2638: Riot in the Storm Ridge (2 in 1)

2638 Riot in the Storm Ridge (2 in 1)

Seeing that Han Fei solved a Monarch-realm baleful demon so easily, Liu Qiansi and the Emperor Sparrow were both shocked.

Liu Qiansi exclaimed, "How is it possible? This is a Monarch-realm baleful demon. How could it have been killed by you so easily?"

Han Fei chuckled. "Its foundation was not solid, it couldn't control its strength well, and its power of the law was only operating out of instinct. Besides, it only advanced into the Monarch realm for a short time."

Liu Qiansi said, "Even so, it shouldn't be so easy, right?"

The Emperor Sparrow took a deep look at Han Fei. "You seem to have mastered some power that can break the law?"

Han Fei nodded. "I obtained some opportunities on this trip, so I use this baleful demon to practice. However, there's still a huge gap between this baleful demon and a real Dao Prover. Its strength is only about one-third of Liu Qiansi's."

Although Han Fei said that this baleful demon was weak, in the eyes of Liu Qiansi and the Emperor Sparrow, this was a little pretentious.

The Emperor Sparrow was better than Liu Qiansi, because he knew that Han Fei had made a deal with a god, so he would definitely gain something. However, he didn't expect Han Fei's gains to be so great.

Han Fei said, "Hurry up! The baleful demon should be enough for you to condense the fourth Dao Lock."

The Emperor Sparrow didn't hesitate. It swooped over and devoured the power. After only an hour, the phantom of a Dao Lock appeared on the Emperor Sparrow again.

This situation lasted for about half an hour. At this point, the fourth Dao Lock was finally formed.

Han Fei said, "We'll stay here for a while longer. In the meantime, I'll help you condense the fifth Dao Lock. It might be dangerous after we get out."

"Dangerous?"

Before he finished, Liu Qiansi asked in surprise, "Danger again?"

Liu Qiansi felt that this trip to the Circle of Death was dangerous enough. If exploring the location of a god was dangerous, what level of danger would Han Fei encounter next?

Half a month later.

With the help of Han Fei and Liu Qiansi,, the Emperor Sparrow didn't disappoint them and quickly condensed the fifth Dao Lock.

Originally, condensing a Dao lock didn't seem to be a difficult task for the Emperor Sparrow, so everything happened naturally.

From now on, there might still be some opportunities in the Monarch Graveyard, such as digging up the Chaotic Spiritual Earth or even some hidden secret treasures, but Han Fei was no longer interested.

The baleful demons here were completely out of control and had already begun to fight crazily across regions on a large scale. If nothing unexpected happened, in the future, more than one Monarch-realm baleful demons would appear here. If they were given some time to consolidate their strength, it might only take decades for the mine devils here to stabilize their strength at the Dao Proving Level.

However, Han Fei didn't have time to wait here, and he didn't have to wait here either. Even if a baleful demon reached the Carefree Level, he couldn't hunt it. Even if he could hunt it, what was the point of hunting a Carefree-Level baleful demon?

Therefore, Han Fei left without hesitation.

Besides, there was no demonic sound here anymore. This matter would be exposed sooner or later.

After leaving the God Burying Ridge and returning to the Circle of Death, as Han Fei expected, there was also a problem with the mine demons here. Almost all the mine demons went crazy.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

As soon as Han Fei and the others came out, they felt consecutive tremors. It was the remnant power of the law of strength.

Liu Qiansi said, "Not good. The Circle of Death is a mess too."

Liu Qiansi looked at Han Fei. He knew the source of all the changes was Han Fei. This forbidden place that had existed for countless years had changed because of him.

Swish! Swish!

As soon as Han Fei and the others came out, a dense wind blade rolled up between the heavens and earth. However, these wind blades were no longer as simple as the Great Dao of Wind. The wind blades here were clearly products of the law of wind.

Han Fei raised his hand, and the Infinity Water turned into ten thousand knives and rushed out. The faint gray fog surged on it, and the Infinity Water easily cut through these wind blades.

Liu Qiansi shouted, "It's the Monarch-realm Wind Bird I met in the past. I'm no match for it here."

Upon hearing this, Han Fei's face immediately darkened. I haven't even left the Circle of Death, and I've already encountered a Monarch-realm mine demon?

Nothing happened on the way he came. Apart from meeting Liu Qiansi, he didn't even see the shadow of a Monarch-realm mine demon. However, when he left, they suddenly appeared out of nowhere as if they had been waiting on his way to go out for a long time.

Liu Qiansi said, "Are we going to fight them? I think we should be able to take them down if we join forces."

"Take my ass! Let's go!"

Han Fei didn't fight anymore. The Demon God had warned him that he would be plagued by bad luck if he left here. The rules of the Heavenly Dao would discover his abnormality and cause some bad luck to happen to him. The difficulty of this bad luck shouldn't be so strong from the beginning. At the beginning, it should only be the danger of the Sky Opening realm.

He didn't want to kill a Monarch as soon as he came up. If the rules of the Heavenly Dao felt that he was too strong, the bad luck they would arrange for him would rise to the Monarch realm. That would be fun.

Han Fei roared, "Run!"

"Huh? Run?"

Liu Qiansi didn't know what to say. Wasn't this guy always domineering? When he fought her, he seemed to have gone crazy and burst out with infinite fighting intent. Why did he start running the moment he encountered this Wind Bird?

However, since Han Fei was running, he certainly wouldn't stay here to fight.

In the next moment, Han Fei had stepped on Liu Qiansi's head and urged him, "Run! Don't just stand there!"

Liu Qiansi: "???"

Liu Qiansi couldn't have felt worse. Aren't we running away? Why do you have to slack off even when you're running away? Why do you have to step on me and urge me to run?

Liu Qiansi felt that he had known Han Fei well. This guy was clearly exploiting him. He felt that he had been captured by him with unknown means and then he used him as he pleased. He had never met such a shameless person in his life.

But he had no choice. He could only use his two disc-shaped feet to start sprinting crazily.

In terms of speed alone, Liu Qiansi was naturally incomparable to the Monarch-realm Wind Bird. Seeing that the Wind Bird was chasing him, Han Fei stepped on Liu Qiansi's head and said, "Stop him."

Liu Qiansi said, "But I'm running away!"

Han Fei stomped his feet. "I told you to attack, so attack. From today on, if you encounter any Monarch-realm enemy, you attack. When you really can't resist them, I'll consider attacking."

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Liu Qiansi almost burst into tears. She had never seen anyone exploit someone so hard. You can do it too, but you don't want to do anything. You're such a jerk!

However, Han Fei was his master. Liu Qiansi had no choice but to let out his black hair and stir the sky.

Clank, Clank, Clank ~

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Han Fei saw it clearly. The law of power that Liu Qiansi mastered was actually not much different from the law of wind of this Wind Bird. It was just that the environment of the Circle of Death allowed the Wind Bird to borrow the law of wind here at any time, so the other party could suppress Liu Qiansi.

But it didn't matter. When the two were of the same realm and strength, if one of them wanted to run, it would be very difficult for the other to kill the other party.

The chase and interception lasted less than six hours.

Liu Qiansi screamed, "Can't you help me?"

Han Fei said casually, "If you don't temper yourself through life-and-death crises, how can you become a strong master? Liu Qiansi, you have dominated the Stormy Quicksand Sea for too long, which obliterated your fighting spirit. Now I'm going to help you get your fighting spirit back."

Liu Qiansi said, "Thank you!"

"You're welcome."

At this moment, Han Fei and the others happened to encounter a battle of more than 200 demonized mine demons. Han Fei naturally wouldn't care about this, but who would have expected that when Liu Qiansi passed by here, he suddenly pulled his hair and jumped up.

"A sandworm? Another Monarch-realm mine demon?"

Han Fei's face changed slightly. The heads of the sandworms he had seen in the past were their mouths that were densely packed with tens of thousands of teeth. But this one had mouths in its mouth and instantly soared into the sky, trying to hunt. From its super big mouth, two more big mouths extended out in a row, and the outermost one covered a range of hundreds of kilometers in an instant. If it weren't for Liu Qiansi's quick reaction, they would have been swallowed by now.

Han Fei said, "Emperor Sparrow."

"Frenzying Eye."

The Emperor Sparrow knew Han Fei very well. After leaving the God Burying Ridge, he had sensed Han Fei's desire not to attack. Otherwise, with Han Fei's personality, the Wind Bird chasing behind him would have been killed by him long ago. Why did he not attack, risking being beaten?

At this moment, the Monarch-realm Sandworm appeared. Seeing that Han Fei still had no intention of attacking, the Emperor Sparrow helped. However, the target of the Frenzying Eye was not the Sandworm, but the Wind Bird behind them.

Earlier, he had wanted to take action, but Han Fei refused. Now it seemed that Han Fei wanted to preserve his combat power!

Swish, Swish ~

Liu Qiansi was like Spider-Man, crazily jumping and walking in the sand. Fortunately, there was no demonic sound on the way back. Although there was the law of wind blocking them, the Stormy Quicksand Sea was right in front of them.

Han Fei was calculating the time. In a hundred seconds, they would appear in the storm quicksand sea.

But while Han Fei was calculating with his fingers, the sand sea began to shake more and more violently, and Han Fei didn't spit until thousands of demonized mine demons seemed to be charging at him.

"F*ck! Even if it's bad luck, it shouldn't be like this, right?"

Thousands of demonized mine demons and Wind Birds rushed at them. Their target was not Han Fei or Liu Qiansi, and their strength was not in the Monarch-realm.

Judging from the direction of their sprint, they were clearly aiming at the center of the Circle of Death, but they happened to bump into Han Fei and Liu Qiansi.

Han Fei asked, "Liu Qiansi, can you rush over?"

Liu Qiansi's face kept changing. "Can't you help? I can rush over, but it will waste our time. There is still the big sandworm and the Wind Bird behind us. Once they catch up, it will be easy for them to surround us. Wait, why do I feel that something is wrong? The sea of sand is so big. Why are there so many mine demons along our route?"

Han Fei said, "Take a guess!"

Han Fei took out the Extreme Cold Pearl, thinking that this wouldn't be considered his own strength, would it?

The two sides almost collided head-on. The Extreme Cold Pearl was pushed forward, and in an instant, the extremely cold power of the Carefree Level swept out, freezing the three thousand kilometers of sky. Even the rushing mine demons froze.

Liu Qiansi knew the power of the Extreme Cold Pearl, but the Great Dao of Wind was stronger here, so the Extreme Cold Pearl could only last for one second at most before shattering.

However, one second was enough. Tens of thousands of strands of Liu Qiansi's hair burst out at the same time, grabbing the frozen mine demons in an instant. With the pull of these nearly a thousand mine demons, their speed burst to the speed of light.

Han Fei saw a green gas barrier in front of Liu Qiansi, but it was quickly shattering.

Ka ka ka ~

When the Star Sea Mystic Sand shattered, Liu Qiansi had already passed these demonized mine demons.

Liu Qiansi complained in his heart. Han Fei had so many means, but he only attacked once at such a critical moment. He was speechless.

Boom!

Behind him, the sandworm had arrived and swallowed countless demonized mine demons with its giant mouth, but its steps had been stopped.

Another moment later.

When Liu Qiansi saw the Storm Quicksand Sea, he almost burst into tears. He had never felt so close to the Storm Quicksand Sea before.

"Puff ~"

However, when the three of them appeared in the Storm Quicksand Sea, they saw countless fish heads moving, and a dense mass of mine demons that looked like manta rays were opening their mouths and swallowing something.

Liu Qiansi was stunned, so was Han Fei. The Emperor Sparrow entered Han Fei's body.

On the other side of the Stormy Quicksand Sea, in the Wind Circle.

Wang Xiaojiu and the others were eating clams in a cave under the sea of sand. Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan were cultivating at turtle speed.

Suddenly, Huang Ergou sniffed, feeling that something was wrong.

Wang Lanlan asked, "What are you sniffing? Is my clam not delicious enough?"

Huang Ergou frowned and said, "I feel that something is wrong. My sense of smell seems to have become much clearer all of a sudden. It doesn't make sense. My range of smell in the Wind Circle shouldn't be so far."

Wang Xiaojiu said, "Imperceptible pretentiousness is the most annoying. Ergou, you've been corrupted!"

Huang Ergou said, "I'm not joking with you. I really feel that something is wrong."

The next moment, Sha Diao frowned. "It does seem a little different. I seem to sense the smell of treasure again."

Immediately, Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan exclaimed, "Again! What level is it? Can we handle it? Otherwise, I would have discovered it long ago."

Sha Diao said, "Don't be hasty. I think something is wrong. My perception range wasn't this far before. Let's go out and take a look."

When they came to the Wind Circle, Wang Xiaojiu looked around for a while. "Is there a difference? No, the sandstorm is so strong. Let's go back to our nest and sleep with the Heavenly Law Jade Essence, okay?"

Wang Lanlan nodded in agreement. "That's right. I also think that with the resources we have now, we don't need to hunt treasure. Why don't we use up the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence and the divine crystals in our hands first? Perhaps Lord Han Fei will come back by then. At that time, let's hunt treasures with him."

"No..."

Sha Diao suddenly said, "Something is wrong. The Great Dao of Wind in the Wind Circle seems to have weakened a little. Although it's very small, I can feel it."

Huang Ergou also said, "That's right. I've accurately located the nearby Wind Demons. Although the distance isn't very long, I'm certain that the Great Dao of Wind is not that strong."

"Really?"

Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan were stunned. They didn't feel anything.

Sha Diao said, "Alright, we're already out, and three years have passed, but you haven't even had a year of combat experience. You're all sleeping lazily, especially Wang Lanlan. With so many Heavenly Dao Jade Essence and divine crystals, you only condensed a second Dao Lock. Don't you feel ashamed?"

Wang Lanlan patted her belly and said, "It's not embarrassing at all. It's an honor. It took me more than a thousand years to break through from the Perfected Star Transformation Realm to having the first Dao Lock. It's only been three years and I've already condensed a second Dao Lock. Isn't it fast enough?"

Sha Diao: "That's because you didn't have so many resources before. Now that the resources are in place, with the accumulation of the past two thousand years, you should have at least three Dao Locks now. When Master Han Fei comes back, I'll see how you explain it."

Wang Lanlan thought about Han Fei and felt a little guilty. She said, "Alright! Then I'll work overtime today and cultivate for a day?"

In the Wind Circle.

Sha Diao ran to a treasure trove. This time, it was not as dangerous as last time. They simply dug into a small ancient ruin and gained a lot.

Sha Diao said, "You've sensed the anomaly in the Storm Ridge recently. The intensity of the wind in the Storm Ridge is getting weaker and weaker day by day. So far, it has dropped by 20%. Wang Lanlan, you must have guessed what this means, right?"

While guarding the treasure, Wang Lanlan said, "Logically speaking, only changes inside the Wind Circle can weaken the external power of the Wind Circle. I'm afraid that Master Han Fei did something unknown there and might have destroyed the stability of the Wind Circle. But this is good. Firstly, it means that Master Han Fei is still inside the Wind Circle. Secondly, it's much more convenient for us to find and hunt Wind Demons and dig up treasures. Before, the Wind Circle was not suitable for early-stage Star Transformation Realm cultivators to come in. Now, it's not impossible."

Huang Ergou asked, "Then should we go to the Storm Quicksand Sea to take a look? What if something happens there too?"

Wang Xiaojiu asked, "How dare you go in if something is wrong there?"

Sha Diao said, "I don't think it's a problem to take a look. Anyway, it's cultivation. It doesn't matter where we go."

This day...

Bang!

A violent explosion sounded in the Wind Circle, and then it was swept away by the strong wind and disappeared. And at the place of the explosion, four ferocious beasts jumped out from under the sea of sand.

Wang Xiaojiu shouted angrily, "Huang Ergou, look at your stupid idea. Isn't it comfortable to stay outside the Wind Circle? Huh? Isn't your nose very sharp? Why can't you smell the sandworms?"

"Because I smelled a lot of Wind Demons. They were so close and so many that I couldn't recognize them."

Wang Lanlan said, "Who are you fooling? There aren't so many... Ah..."

At this moment, Wang Lanlan screamed, "Holysh*t, why are there so many of them?"

At this time, everybody looked back, only to see that on the surface of the sea of sand, a swarm of sand scorpions were moving quickly with their pincers raised. Among the sand scorpions, there were occasionally some big rolling conchs, and in the sky, a large army of Wind Birds was looming.

Because there were too many mine demons here, the sandstorm was blocked, so the visibility of Wang Xiaojiu and the others was greatly improved.

Wang Xiaojiu exclaimed, "Run! We've dug into the lair of the Wind Demons!"

As Wang Lanlan rushed forward, she cursed, "Huang Ergou, how did you lead the way? Are you crazy? With so many Wind Demons here, why did you come out from here? Is there shit in your nose?"

Sha Diao: "Cut the crap and run!"

Only Huang Ergou said aggrievedly, "I said that there was a very strong Wind Demon aura up above! Besides, the path I chose has the fewest Wind Demons."

Wang Xiaojiu roared, "You call this 'fewest'? The Wind Demons are almost sticking to my face. Are they few?"

Sha Diao said, "Sprint to the edge of the Storm Quicksand Sea. The Wind Demons never enter the Storm Quicksand Sea. It's a vacuum there. We'll be safe there."

Suddenly, some wounds appeared on Wang Lanlan's face. "Do you feel anything wrong? Why does this wind hurt my face?"

Huang Ergou suddenly roared, "Slow down, slow down, slow down... It's the law of wind, the power of law."

However, even though Huang Ergou had reminded others very quickly, Wang Xiaojiu, who ran the fastest, was already covered in blood and mangled by the law of wind.

Wang Xiaojiu looked at Huang Ergou angrily. "Why didn't you tell me there is the power of laws earlier?"

Huang Ergou said, "This place is very close to the Storm Quicksand Sea. I thought it was the power of law in the Storm Quicksand Sea. Who knew that the power of law in the Storm Quicksand Sea would appear in the Wind Circle?"

Sha Diao said coldly, "It seems that something big must have happened in the central area of the Storm Ridge. Even the power of laws has poured out. No wonder, no wonder so many Wind Demons are here. They want to absorb the power of laws."

Wang Xiaojiu was shocked. "Can the power of laws be absorbed? Isn't it something that can be transformed automatically after one proves Dao?"

Sha Diao: "That's not right. If you use the power of the law to polish yourself, you can quickly grow and become stronger. As it happens, the power of the law here isn't very strong."

Wang Lanlan immediately said dejectedly, "Then what should we do? With the power of the law in front of us and the army of Wind Demons behind us, let's hurry up and dig a hole to escape?"

Huang Ergou said, "We can't run away. The underground nearby has been occupied by sandworms."

2639 Master Han Fei Is Awesome (2 in 1)

Wang Xiaojiu and the others panicked. In front of them was the Storm Quicksand Sea, underground were sandworms, and behind them was the Wind Demon army. Were they being forced to enter the Storm Quicksand Sea?

At this moment, Wang Xiaojiu was still cursing, "Sha Diao, it's all your fault. And Huang Ergou is retarded and stupid. Why did we come to this damn place? Now we can't go back."

Sha Diao said, "What's the use of cursing me now? Ergou, see if there's a way out."

Huang Ergou said, "There is no way out. We can only go forward against the law of wind! The power of this law shouldn't be strong. If we're slower, we can definitely withstand it."

The Wind Demons behind us don't know any laws in the first place, so their speed will definitely slow down. So we should have a few days left.

Wang Lanlan said, "Even if we slow down, we can only delay them for two days at most. Wind Demons have better adaptability. This is not the Storm Quicksand Sea. Even if the power of the law is leaked, they can quickly adapt, so two days is the limit. Besides, sandworms are not affected by the law of wind, so their speed may not be slow. Once we slow down, we will probably encounter a large number of sandworms in half a day. At that time, a big battle will be inevitable."

Wang Xiaojiu asked, "Are the four of us going to fight a nest of sandworms?"

Sha Diao said, "I'll use the Protection of Sand to protect everyone. We don't have to slow down too much. We can probably hold on for a day."

Wang Lanlan said, "This is the only way now. Let's leave first. If we can't, we can enter the Storm Quicksand Sea and see if we can find another place to come out."

However, after walking for half a day, they realized that something was wrong. This was because they found that the sand under their feet was softening and flowing.

Wang Lanlan screamed, "Not good! The Storm Quicksand Sea is expanding!"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "It's over, it's over. Doesn't it mean that we are now in the range of the Storm Quicksand Sea? Ergou, is there a way out?"

However, at this moment, Huang Ergou was a little stunned and stopped there, sniffing.

Wang Lanlan asked, "Isn't your nose very sharp? Do you have to consider this?"

Huang Ergou was a little puzzled. "You may not believe it, but I smell Master Han Fei."

"Huh!"

Instantly, Wang Xiaojiu and Wang Lanlan's eyes lit up, and they asked in unison, "Where is it? Which direction?"

But Huang Ergou didn't answer directly. Instead, he continued, "At the same time, I smelled a Monarch-realm demon plant."

Everyone: "???"

Huang Ergou said solemnly, "They are together."

Wang Xiaojiu immediately exclaimed, "Did he encounter a Monarch-realm demon plant? Doesn't that mean it's even more dangerous on his side?"

Sha Diao's heart skipped a beat. "Where is he? We have to go over and help."

Wang Lanlan said, "Help my ass! A Monarch-realm demon plant can easily stab you to death. If you can't even take care of yourself, who can you help?"

Sha Diao: "Even if I die, so what?"

Huang Ergou said, "Stop arguing. They seem to be coming towards us."

Everyone: “???”

However, Wang Lanlan said, “No, our way out comes.”

The three of them all looked at Wang Lanlan, wondering why there was a way out.

Wang Lanlan said, “What do you think is behind us?”

Wang Xiaojiu shouted, “An army of Wind Demons!”

Wang Lanlan said, “That’s right. The Wind Demon army is a death threat, but when we encounter a Monarch-realm demon plant, they will become our natural helpers. Lord Han Fei is not stupid. He knows our strength very well. Why did he come here? Most likely not for us, but for these Wind Demon army.”

Sha Diao’s eyes lit up. “Yes, that makes sense. Wang Lanlan, you’re smart this time.”

Huang Ergou asked, “Then what should we do? Do we wait now?”

Wang Lanlan said, “No, we should go back now and stop close to the Wind Demon army. When Master Han Fei arrives and lures the Monarch-realm demon plant into the Wind Demon army, we’ll take the opportunity to slip away.”

Sha Diao: “The sandworms are faster. Once we go back, we may encounter sandworms.”

Wang Lanlan said, “What can we do? Seize the opportunity and prepare to charge! Huang Ergou, how far away is Master Han Fei from us?”

Huang Ergou: “It’s not very far. I feel... Huh! Their smell is getting clearer and clearer. At this speed, I’m afraid they can reach here in less than an hour.”

“Hiss!”

Wang Lanlan and the other two all sucked the sand in their mouths, and Wang Xiaojiu scolded, “Ergou, are you stupid? Why didn’t you tell me there was only an hour left?”

Immediately, Wang Xiaojiu and the others ran back crazily in the direction they came from. Otherwise, if they met Han Fei and that Monarch-realm demon plant, they would probably die.

Rushing forward in the law of wind, they were inevitably injured. But although Huang Ergou was injured, he shouted that Han Fei was getting close and that they were about to meet the sandworms.

Comparing the two, of course, they chose to fight the sandworms head-on. Otherwise, should they turn around and fight that Monarch-realm demon plant?

Therefore, the four of them plunged into the sandworms. For a moment, the giant sand sea monsters stuck their sharp teeth out of the sand. Their bodies were like giant earthworms, drawing curves in the sky. Some were like arched bridges, and some were like swimming snakes, rising and falling.

On the other side, Han Fei stood on the top of Liu Qiansi's body with his hands behind his back. He was thinking about what role Li Luoluo played.

This time, he seemed to have made a big fuss again. With the anomaly in the God Burying Ridge, a large number of baleful demons and Mine Demons were fighting and devouring each other. In the future, many Monarch-realm monsters would definitely be created. He definitely wouldn't clean up this mess, so he could only leave it to Li Luoluo.

However, it was already good enough that Li Luoluo didn't cause trouble for him now. Why should she help him clean up the mess?

Seeing that they were about to reach the edge of the Stormy Quicksand Sea, Liu Qiansi couldn't help but sigh. "I've finally escaped. It seems that I can't stay in the Stormy Quicksand Sea anymore. I'm finally going to walk out of this sea of sand."

Han Fei stomped. "Why are you sighing? Don't tell me you like this damn place. Come on, rush out. When we meet up with my people, I'll take you to see how wonderful this world is."

Liu Qiansi said, "Although we encountered 41 waves of Mine Demons along the way, it's actually not that much. Did you steal something from the god? Is that why these Mine Demons appeared?"

Han Fei said gloomily, "I stole the heart of the god."

"Although I haven't been to the outside world, you can't lie to me like this. Did you come all the way here to fall in love?"

Han Fei shouted, "Shut the f*ck up! Run!"

On this side, after killing more than 300 sandworms, Wang Xiaojiu and the other three were all covered in wounds.

Huang Ergou said, "Almost there. They'll be here soon."

Wang Lanlan asked, "Wang Xiaojiu, didn't you and Master Han Fei block tens of thousands of Bloody Hand Mine Devils alone? There are only less than a thousand sandworms, and you can't resist them?"

Wang Xiaojiu bit the bullet and said, "Nonsense, I can't resist them? If it weren't for the law of wind here affecting my performance, I could have killed all of them in minutes."

"Pfft!"

Huang Ergou's legs were scratched by the sandworms, and then he lost them. He exclaimed, "Not good! Come and save me!"

Swish!

Wang Xiaojiu was helpless. He had to save his friend. He was the fastest here.

Wang Lanlan, on the other hand, followed beside Sha Laosan. Sha Laosan attacked and she assisted him, so she was not injured at all.

Swish, Swish ~

Sha Laosan immediately shouted, "Not good! It's Wind Snakes in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm."

Huang Ergou said, "There are more than a dozen, no, more than twenty... No, more than thirty, from our side."

Wang Xiaojiu was immediately angry. "How many are there exactly?"

Huang Ergou said, "Thirty-two. They must all be in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm if they're so fast. Wait, that's not right... Monarchs, they smell like Monarch-realm Wind Snakes. We've encountered a snake nest. I don't know why a snake nest would appear here."

Wang Xiaojiu shouted, "Damn, where are the Monarch-realm Wind Snakes? Run!"

Sha Diao shouted, "If Monarchs attack us, we won't be able to escape!"

Wang Lanlan said, "Not good. The scope of the Stormy Quicksand Sea must have expanded. Some creatures in the Wind Circle have been teleported here. Snake nests are rare to appear! Why did they appear here? By the way, where is Master Han Fei?"

Huang Ergou: "Uh! Five..."

Wang Xiaojiu asked, "Five? Five seconds?"

Huang Ergou said, "Four..."

Everyone : "..."

Wang Xiaojiu shouted, "Master Han Fei, help!"

In fact, in the current situation of Wang Xiaojiu and the others, it was not the time to save their lives. Even if the sandworms and the Wind Snakes joined forces, it would not be a problem for them to hold on for a few seconds.

The main reason was that the Monarch-realm Wind Snakes frightened him.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

Although Wang Xiaojiu shouted, he was already moving in the air, leaving claw marks all over the sky. But after this roar, everyone keenly sensed that an extremely dangerous power appeared.

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

A mass of black hair covered the sky. In an instant, the hundreds of mining demons besieging Han Fei and the others were pierced by these black hairs and intertwined. Then, Wang Xiaojiu and the others saw that those sandworms were pulled out of the sand by hundreds of black hairs. Then, the water droplet-like thing on the black hairs turned into a piece of skin and wrapped the sandworms up.

It was the same case for the Wind Snakes. Although they were all in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm, the thirty-two Wind Snakes were all tied up in an instant, clearing the Mine Demons around Wang Xiaojiu and the others.

“Huh? Well~”

However, before they could exclaim in surprise, a huge Wind Snake chased over. Immediately, Huang Ergou’s expression changed drastically. “A Monarch-realm Wind Snake.”

Then, Huang Ergou looked at the bamboo pole under Han Fei’s feet, and his heart was in turmoil. A Monarch-realm demon plant?

The Wind Snake spread its wings and spewed out extremely cold wind. Then, thirty-two Wind Snakes in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm were dragged to block behind Han Fei by the black hair.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

For a moment, lightning flashed and thunder rumbled in the sand sea Wind Circle. It was actually the Monarch-realm Wind Snake that killed all the Perfected Star Transformation Realm Wind Snakes.

Without giving Wang Xiaojiu and the others time to be shocked, Han Fei reached out and pulled them all back. He pointed at Liu Qiansi and said, “Take the four of them.”

Dozens of strands of hair rolled into green vines and tied the four of them up. Then, the four of them were sent flying in the air behind Han Fei like kites.

Liu Qiansi said, “Not everyone can stand on me. They should be glad that I can make them fly.”

Han Fei didn’t care as long as he could take them away. As for how to take them, whether they stood or flew, it didn’t matter. After all, it was most important to survive.

Han Fei turned around and said casually, “Why are you here?”

Wang Lanlan said, “Master Han Fei, we’re here for you!”

Han Fei sneered. “I don’t believe you. How do you know I’m coming back? Also, it’s been more than three years, but you only have two Dao Locks. How do you have the cheek to look for me?”

Immediately, Sha Diao and Huang Ergou looked at Wang Lanlan gloatingly. How many times had they warned her of this, but she refused to listen? Great! Now the first thing Master Han Fei did was scold Wang Lanlan.

Wang Lanlan shouted, “Master Han Fei, the anomaly in the Storm Mountain must be your masterpiece! The anomaly also means that you should come back from inside, so we naturally have to come to you!”

Han Fei chuckled. "Don't pretend. If you are so loyal to me, you would have at least three Dao Locks now. Did I give you the Heavenly Dao Jade Essence and the divine crystals for nothing? If you don't want them, I'll give them to others."

"No!"

Wang Lanlan hurriedly said, "Master Han Fei, I have a feeling that I'll be able to condense three Dao Locks soon. Yes, very soon."

At this time, Liu Qiansi said, "Hey, can you stop chatting? I'm in the middle of a fight."

While Han Fei and the others were talking, Liu Qiansi had already led them into the Wind Demon army, and the Monarch-realm Wind Snake also rushed in.

A Monarch V.S. a Monarch. The Wind Snake seemed to be angry because Liu Qiansi used the Perfected Star Transformation Realm Wind Snakes as a shield. Liu Qiansi tried to control the Wind Demons to block this Wind Snake, but this Monarch-realm Wind Snake's control of the law of wind was very good. In terms of speed, it was much faster than Liu Qiansi, so it was hard to tell who would win. The other party was also unwilling to leave.

Because the battle between the two caused too much noise, it caused a large number of Wind Demons to attack. The Wind Demons were not very smart and attacked indiscriminately, causing this to become a three-party melee.

Wang Xiaojiu and the others didn't dare to speak. Although they knew that Liu Qiansi must have been subdued by Han Fei, at this moment, they were still hanging on the Green Silk Vines. If this big shot was unhappy and loosened the Green Silk Vines, they would be doomed. Therefore, even if they were extremely curious now, they didn't dare to ask. They just wanted to wait until they escaped.

Han Fei looked back at the Wind Snake, thought for a moment, sighed, and took out the Extreme Cold Pearl again. Yes, the Extreme Cold Pearl had now become one of his strongest escape means. As long as he froze the Wind Snake, it would give Liu Qiansi enough time to escape.

However, Han Fei wasn't sure if the frequent use of supreme-quality godly weapons such as the Extreme Cold Pearl would arouse the suspicion of the Heavenly Dao about his strength.

Therefore, along the way, Han Fei would rather not use it unless he had to.

Buzz!

As soon as the Extreme Cold Pearl appeared, the Monarch-realm Wind Snake and the large number of Wind Demons behind it were frozen in midair.

Even the Wind Snake was frozen for a moment. After all, the Extreme Cold Pearl was a strike at the Carefree Level. Even though it was an area attack, it was enough to shake a Dao Proving-level Monarch like the Wind Snake.

Sure enough, after Han Fei restrained the Wind Snake, Liu Qiansi finally had the time. He unleashed the Monarch's might and his black hair stretched out, turning into straight lines of soul that cut through these Wind Demons.

Success was inevitable if a Monarch-realm strong master wanted to escape from a bunch of Sky Openers. No one could stop him.

In less than half an hour, Liu Qiansi had left the range of the law of wind. Without the law of wind, Liu Qiansi's speed instantly soared to ten times the speed of light.

As Liu Qiansi ran, she asked, "Where are we going? If I remember correctly, there are ferocious beasts outside the Storm Ridge, right?"

Han Fei asked, "Do you know that?"

Liu Qiansi said, "Of course I do. Having been in the Stormy Quicksand Sea for so long, I've met more than one or two ferocious beasts. I know that there is a terrifying immortal-level creature among the ferocious beasts, so we have to find a way to circumvent them. There's no need to fight, right?"

"Are you talking about me?"

"Who? Who is speaking?"

Liu Qiansi was shocked, and then he felt another person appear on his head.

Li Luoluo was looking at Liu Qiansi and couldn't help but say, "You actually subdued this Monarch Willow. It seems that you are stronger than I thought."

"Big Luoluo."

Immediately, Wang Xiaojun and the others shouted. Seeing Li Luoluo, they felt very happy.

Han Fei wasn't surprised by Li Luoluo's appearance at all. He said calmly, "Do you know the Thousand Silk Monarch Willow?"

Li Luoluo smiled faintly. "Of course! After all, the Storm Ridge is also my territory. I know what's in the Storm Quicksand Sea. Of course, they might not know me. This willow tree is quite restrained and knows that outside the Storm Ridge is the territory of our ferocious beasts. Occasionally, when a ferocious beast falls in it, he can send it out. Because of this, it doesn't matter if he's inside."

Fortunately, Liu Qiansi didn't sweat, or he would have been sweating profusely by now. This existence could appear in front of him without a sound and was called Big Luoluo. Wasn't she the immortal-level powerhouse from the lineage of ferocious beasts?

Han Fei said, "Well, there was an accident in the Storm Ridge."

"Yes, I know. That place collapsed! I've already been there, but I didn't see you, so I came to the Wind Circle to wait for you."

Li Luoluo smiled and said, "To be honest, a little bit. I don't know how many Monarch-realm monsters you'll create. Storm Ridge will also undergo certain changes. This is a new challenge for our ferocious beast lineage. However, it won't be a big problem. Our ferocious beast lineage has guarded this place for so long and is quite boring. Now it seems that maybe in the near future, we won't have to guard this place anymore. What do you think?"

Han Fei asked, "Huh? Really?"

Li Luoluo grinned and chuckled. "They're safe now that we're here. Why don't you go back with me first? We can talk while eating."

Han Fei asked, "What about them?"

Li Luoluo said, "Let them go back by themselves! It will be troublesome to wait for them!"

"Well..."

Li Luoluo pouted and said cutely, "I'm hungry! Brother Han Fei, let's go back first?"

"Sh*t!"

Han Fei shivered. At the same time, Wang Xiaojiu, Wang Lanlan, Huang Ergou, and Sha Diao all changed their expressions and immediately shut up. They even closed their eyes, pretending not to know anything, like real kites.

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. Is this Li Keke?

"Okay! Liu Qiansi, you go to the ferocious beast lineage with Wang Xiaojiu and the others. I'll wait for you there."

Liu Qiansi was surprised at Han Fei's ferocity. He stole the heart of a god and then came to flirt with an immortal-level powerhouse. Wasn't he afraid that the god would kill him?

Liu Qiansi didn't want to stay with an immortal-level cultivator, which was very uncomfortable. He couldn't wait for them to leave, so he repeatedly agreed.

Han Fei turned his head, only to find Li Luoluo was looking at him with her big watery eyes. He said with difficulty, "L-let's go!"

Swish, Swish ~

Wang Lanlan shivered all over. "Who knows! Anyway, whenever Master Keke wakes up, someone will be in trouble."

Huang Ergou was still scared. "Should we go back a few days later?"

Sha Diao: "No! Master Han Fei is still in dire straits. We have to go back quickly."

Wang Lanlan exclaimed, "Are you crazy? That's Keke the Demoness... Uh, no, that's Master Keke. If you don't let her have her way, believe it or not, she'll skin you alive!"

Liu Qiansi was dumbfounded. He asked in confusion, "Didn't they have a good conversation just now? Is she as dangerous as you say?"

Wang Xiaojiu said, "My lord, this is a secret of our ferocious beasts. But it's okay to tell it to you. Well, can you put us down first? Let's walk slowly and talk slowly. It's best if we come back in half a month."

Liu Qiansi said, "I know, I know. Isn't it just to give them time to fall in love? However, you seem to be very afraid of this Master Keke. Huh, didn't you call her Big Luoluo before? Is Keke her nickname?"

Everyone couldn't help but look at Wang Lanlan. "Fall in love?"

Wang Lanlan said, "Well... it's actually possible."

Chapter 2640: Variety Devil Girl, Li Shishi (2 in 1)

2640 Variety Devil Girl, Li Shishi (2 in 1)

On the other side, Li Keke and Han Fei returned to the ferocious beasts lineage alone.

However, as soon as they left the Storm Ridge, far away in the southern mining area where the ferocious beasts and the divine beasts were confronting, a turtle rubbing a turtle shell in its hand suddenly raised its head.

"He appeared! He appeared!"

Swish ~

The turtle instantly disappeared from the spot. After a while, a temporary meeting began on the divine beast side.

A Blazing Fire Kylin said solemnly, "Master Bao, are you sure it's the smell of that Human Butcher?"

The turtle named Master Bao said, "I'm 100% sure that I once cooperated with this person in the Ruins of Gods. He was the one who opened my seal. Although I didn't sense the aura of the Emperor Sparrow, the Emperor Sparrow is his companion spirit, so it's normal for him to avoid my perception in Soul Sea or this guy's Origin Star."

A huge wolf with snow-white long hair looked solemn. "Sure enough, when the Emperor Sparrow appears, he must come to the ferocious beast lineage. I just didn't expect him to come so quickly. Didn't they say that when he was in Puppet City, this person hadn't proved Dao? Then as his companion spirit, the Emperor Sparrow definitely hasn't proved the Dao either! If they go to the ferocious beast lineage now, as an immortal-level powerhouse, will Li Luoluo listen to him, who is only in the Sky Opening Realm?"

A divine beast said, "No matter why they went to the ferocious beasts, they have at least appeared. We have to kill the Human Butcher and the Emperor Sparrow before they grow up. Otherwise, once this person proves the Dao, it will be difficult to kill them."

A divine beast said, "White Tiger, you've been in contact with this Human Butcher. What do you think?"

The white tiger was Bai Fei, who led the divine beast lineage to Puppet City. Because the matter of the Emperor Sparrow was of great significance, as soon as he returned to the divine beast lineage, he came to this battlefield bordering the lineage of ferocious beasts. He came here to find out if the Emperor Sparrow would come to the lineage of ferocious beasts.

The white tiger said, "This person now controls Puppet City and has at least 200,000 level-seven puppet armies. If Monarchs don't take action, how many people can be his match?"

The giant wolf said, "Sky Openers might not be able to do anything to him, but if he is really a troublemaker, why should we consider whether it's fair or not? We should directly mobilize Monarchs to take him down."

But the turtle, Master Bao, said, "Don't blame me for not reminding you. Whoever kills the Emperor Sparrow will die. You young people don't know how terrifying the former Emperor Sparrow was when he was the king of ferocious beasts. Last time, the Emperor Sparrow perished because of a sneak attack by three gods. But only in three years, these three gods perished one after another. Besides, whoever kills the Emperor Sparrow will die. This is an old saying. Which Monarch dares to kill him?"

For a moment, the divine beasts only felt a headache. Some divine beasts were speechless. "Is the Emperor Sparrow really so terrifying? If we kill him, we'll have to die. Is he the favored child of the heavens? Isn't it said that he's an ominous omen?"

Master Bao: "This is not a conflict. The Emperor Sparrow is the incarnation of the ominous, which has never been confirmed. But it's also true that the Emperor Sparrow is belligerent."

The white tiger asked, "Master Bao, why does the Emperor Sparrow want to make an enemy of our divine beast lineage? Although divine beasts and ferocious beasts don't get along, it seems not bad if we are at peace with each other! Why do we have to fight to the death in the end?"

Everyone nodded. What the white tiger said also asked their thoughts. They knew how terrifying the Emperor Sparrow was. The Emperor Sparrow was a disaster and the Emperor Sparrow was ominous, but they didn't know why.

Master Bao said leisurely, "I don't know the details. I only know from ancient secrets that the Emperor Sparrow seems to have done all this to become a god. Although he is the king of ferocious beasts and can match a god, he was not a god in the past. And among the gods, there are strong and weak. It's difficult to say which level of gods the Emperor Sparrow can oppose. Therefore, becoming a god is the obsession of the Emperor Sparrow. He feels that this path lies in our divine beast lineage."

"Huh? Well~"

Master Bao continued, "In fact, you should have discovered that whether it's for the lineage of divine beasts or for the lineage of ferocious beasts, the path of divinity has been severed. Since the Age of the Gods, which was after the death of the Emperor Sparrow last time, no god has ever been born in the divine beasts and ferocious beasts. This doesn't make sense. Therefore, not only does the Emperor Sparrow think that the path of divinity lies in the lineage of divine beasts, but the strong masters of our divine beasts also speculate that the path of divinity lies in the lineage of ferocious beasts, which led to this endless war."

The divine beasts all looked at each other. This was the first time they had heard of this. If this was the case, there was indeed a reason for the two parties to fight.

The Blazing Fire Kylin said, "Alright, let's keep this ancient secret to ourselves. If what Master Bao said is true, then sooner or later, there will be a big war between our divine beasts and the ferocious beasts. Once the Emperor Sparrow grows up, this war can start at any time. Therefore, we still have to kill the Emperor Sparrow. However, since the person who kills the Emperor Sparrow will die, there's no need for us to do it ourselves. Didn't that Human Butcher kill many people in Puppet City? Furthermore, he has the legacy of Puppet City. There must be many people who want to kill him and covet his resources. In fact, we just need to send this news to the Hundred Alliance City. Then there will naturally be people taking action for us. What do you think?"

"Not bad."

Instantly, the eyes of all the divine beasts lit up. This was a good idea. Without expending a single soldier, there would be countless people helping them hunt down the Human Killer and the Emperor Sparrow. This was indeed much more cost-effective than them taking action in person.

Otherwise, the battle between the divine beasts and the ferocious beasts might start again, and it would be an extremely tragic one.

Master Bao said, "Fine, I'll go with you. With me, the Monarchs in the Hundred Alliance City would believe it."

In Li Luoluo's backyard, under a random bamboo forest, between Han Fei and Li Luoluo was a hot pot. On the left side was a barbecue grill, and on the right side was a spiritual fruit platter.

"Gulp! Ah~"

This meal had been going on for two full hours. At first, Han Fei was a little restrained, but when he saw Li Keke eating so happily, he began to eat too.

At this moment.

Li Keke said, "Brother Han Fei, what a familiar taste. In terms of cooking, you are definitely the best I've ever seen. However, the spiritual fruits I plant aren't bad, right?"

Han Fei nodded. "Yes."

Li Keke said, "Brother Han Fei, look, I pointed out the direction for you. I gave you ferocious beasts. I even let you take in five top Heavenly Talents of the ferocious beast lineage. Is this considered sincere?"

Han Fei nodded. "Of course. I know it very well."

Li Keke trotted to Han Fei and rubbed against Han Fei affectionately, making Han Fei's scalp tingle. Then, she extended a small hand to Han Fei.

Han Fei was puzzled. "???"

Li Keke said, "The cultivation technique!"

Han Fei was puzzled. "What technique?"

Li Keke immediately pouted and shook Han Fei's arm. "Brother Han Fei, I've done so much because I want you to go to the God Burying Ridge and bring out the technique of the Dao of Extreme Balance!"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei knew that this meal was not simple. Li Keke must have helped him so much just for this moment.

Li Keke continued, "Didn't Brother Han Fei notice that you didn't encounter any Monarch-realm mine demons on your way? Everything went so smoothly and naturally."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Did Li Keke set it up in advance? That's not right. Li Luoluo was Li Keke back then?

F*ck, Han Fei was speechless. Aren't the two too f*cking difficult to distinguish? Was the person chatting with me Li Luoluo or Li Keke? Can Li Keke pretend to be Li Luoluo?

Li Keke said, "I don't have the cultivation technique!"

The Demon God had mentioned to Han Fei before that the path Li Keke took was exactly the same as the one he took back then. They both used personalities to balance the soul and power.

However, reality proved that this path was wrong. After the Demon God became a god, he immediately severed his other personality. After waiting 1.8 million years for him, he finally embarked on the right path.

Li Luoluo took the old path of the Demon God, which meant that she needed to sever six personalities after proving the Dao, and also needed to repeat what the Demon God had done today.

However, this kind of thing couldn't be done easily. After the Demon God became a god, he barely managed to create a soul body in the Soul Sea and obtain an innate soul heritage. Did Li Keke have this ability?

Han Fei said, "You're balancing your strength and soul with your personalities, right?"

Li Keke's big watery eyes flickered as she nodded repeatedly. "Yes. I can only borrow the soul power of the Demon God from the God Burying Ridge to cultivate, but how can it be better to cultivate with the right cultivation technique?"

Han Fei glanced at Li Keke with a complicated expression. "What if I say that your path doesn't work?"

Li Keke's pupils were constricted slightly. "Give me the technique, and it'll work!"

Han Fei shook his head. "This has nothing to do with cultivation techniques. Do you know that the Demon God also had split personalities before?"

Li Keke looked at Han Fei in surprise and nodded slightly. "It seems that Brother Han Fei knows a lot. There are probably no more than five people in the world who know this kind of secret. It can be seen that Brother Han Fei has gained a lot from this trip."

Han Fei glanced at her again. "Then do you know that after the Demon God became a god, he immediately killed the other personality of his?"

Buzz!

Li Keke suddenly perked up, and her expression changed subtly. She suddenly became cold and her eyes were sharp. She was no longer Li Keke.

Han Fei asked, "Who are you?"

"Li Bing."

Han Fei: "..."

Another personality popped up. The personalities Han Fei knew were only Li Luoluo, Li Keke, and Li Kuang. Li Bing had appeared before, but she had never reported her name.

As her name suggested, Li Bing looked so cold.

Li Bing said, "Why did the Demon God sever the other personality of his the moment he became a god?"

Han Fei sighed slightly. "I don't know the details. I only know that the heavens don't allow this Dao. Before becoming a god, you can indeed balance your strength and soul with your personalities. Once you experience a divine tribulation, there will be a problem. This is why news of the Demon God's death spread out as soon as he became a god. It's because he really died. One of his personalities died."

Li Bing's face was all dark, but she could still hold it back. She said, "Do you mean that if I want to become a god with this Dao, I have to cut off all the other personalities?"

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "No, even if you kill all the other personalities. Otherwise, why would the Demon God seal itself?"

Li Bing asked, "Why?"

Han Fei said, "Because once there are no other personalities to balance your soul and power, you will mutate. This is because your body can't carry double Extreme Daos at the same time, nor does it have the conditions to carry double Extreme Daos."

After dozens of seconds of silence, Li Bing suddenly asked, "What are the requirements to carry double Extreme Daos?"

Han Fei paused and didn't answer. Instead, he said, "Do you really want to kill all the other personalities? I can tell you bluntly that this is a condition that you can't fulfill. However, you still have a way out."

Li Bing's eyes lit up. "What way?"

Han Fei said, "Turn the Dao of Extreme Balance to the singular Extreme Dao."

Han Fei didn't tell Li Bing about the creation of a spiritual heritage, because if she reached the level of creating a spiritual heritage, she might still have to kill her other personalities.

"Ha! Can this be done?"

Han Fei frowned, feeling that something was wrong. Li Bing's cold expression was gone, replaced by a familiar carefree and cheerful personality.

"Li Kuang?"

"It's me!"

Li Kuang put his hand on Han Fei's shoulder and said quietly, "Brother, in any case, we're brothers who have gone through thick and thin together. Although they are unwilling, they think that the Singular Extreme Dao is good. How can there be a perfect solution in this world? How about this? Tell me how to turn to the Singular Extreme Dao first and I'll persuade them."

"Uh ~"

Slap!

Before Han Fei could speak, he was suddenly slapped in the face, and a slightly coquettish voice said, "Li Kuang, you dog, how dare you touch a man with my body? Do you want to die?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was lost for words. "You should blame Li Kuang! Why did you slap me? And who are you?"

"That's enough. Shut up, all of you."

Li Luoluo snorted again. This time, Li Luoluo's expression changed into a cold, indifferent and calm attitude.

Han Fei asked timidly, "W-who are you?"

She slowly summoned a water ball, elegantly put her hands into the water ball, and washed them. Then she sat cross-legged and looked at Han Fei casually. "My name is Li Shishi. Nice to meet you."

“Uh, hello!”

Li Shishi said, “You were talking about the information you got from the God Burying Ridge, weren’t you?”

Han Fei nodded slightly.

Li Shishi continued, “I went to the God Burying Ridge again. Although it’s chaotic there, the Monarchs’ tombs are safe. Where did you find the Demon God?”

Han Fei said, “I have my own way.”

Li Shishi said again, “Since you said that the Demon God’s other personality has died, have you seen the remaining personality of the Demon God?”

Han Fei nodded slightly. “Yes.”

Li Shishi said, “Tell me the location and the way in.”

Han Fei shook his head. “It’s useless even if you go there. That place has already collapsed.”

Li Shishi said, “There is no collapsed place in the God Burying Ridge.”

Han Fei said, “It’s an Inverse World. I don’t know if you’ve heard of this term, but it’s...”

Li Shishi said, “I know. You don’t have to explain. So what you saw was a remnant soul left by the Demon God?”

Han Fei couldn’t tell her that the Demon God was with him now, so he nodded. “Yes.”

Li Shishi asked, “Can a remnant soul unleash the demonic sound soul power for a million years?”

Han Fei said calmly, “After all, he is a god. It’s difficult for ordinary people to understand a god’s power.”

Li Shishi said, “The existence of the God Burying Ridge can’t be meaningless. Since you said that one of his personalities has perished, then the other personality must still exist. Since you said that the path of multiple personalities doesn’t work, even if I cut off other personalities, it still doesn’t work. Even after the Demon God cut off his other personality, he still sealed himself. Then why didn’t he seal himself in the God Burying Ridge? This should be the place where he cut off his personality.”

Han Fei said, “I don’t know.”

“No, you do. At least you know where he is sealed, don’t you?”

Han Fei looked at Li Shishi in surprise, thinking that this calm personality was a bit similar to Luo Xiaobai.

Han Fei said, “So what?”

Li Shishi said, “I guess you’re going to this place.”

Li Shishi said, "As I said, the existence of the God Burying Ridge can't be meaningless. If this isn't a place sealed by the demon god, why does the God Burying Ridge exist? There's only one reason. There's the key to this Dao in the God Burying Ridge."

Before Han Fei could speak, Li Shishi continued, "Why did the Demon God's remnant soul tell you so much? If you were an outsider, he wouldn't have told you this information that multiple personalities can't get through. Now that he had told you, you must play an extremely important role in it. I guess that the role you play is the key to the Demon God unlocking the seal and walking through the Dao of Extreme Balance. So, I don't know if the Demon God can walk through the Dao of Extreme Balance, but you definitely can, right?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei didn't know what to say. When he looked at the personalities in front of him, Han Fei wondered why Emperor Sparrow said the Seven Ultimate Divine Spider was very smart.

Now it seemed that she was not only smart, but also a master analyst like Luo Xiaobai!

Han Fei paused, wondering if he should fool her, but Li Shishi continued, "Okay, don't try to explain. I already know the answer. Since you can walk through the Dao of Extreme Balance and help the Demon God walk through this Dao, why can't you help us walk through this Dao?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei smiled bitterly. "To be honest, I really want to know who the last personality is and if he is even stronger than you."

Li Shishi said lightly, "His name is Li Chen. He has transcended himself and won't come out."

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "I have to admit that you're very smart and your analysis is spot on. I can walk through this Dao, and I can also help the Demon God walk through this Dao. However, I can only help the Demon God walk through this Dao, but I won't help you. It's not that I can't help you, but if you take this path, the price you will pay will exceed your imagination."

Li Shishi asked, "Kill my personalities?"

Han Fei nodded. "That's right. The first step is to kill all the personalities."

"What about the second step?"

Han Fei asked, "Can you do the first step?"

Han Fei said, "The second step can't be explained to you for now. But if there's a chance, I can ask for you, or you can ask yourself."

Li Shishi didn't dwell on this question but said, "The last two questions. Firstly, the significance of the existence of the God Burying Ridge."

Han Fei didn't know how to answer this question. He couldn't just say that the Demon God separated his body from his soul. His body sealed itself and suppressed the cultivators practicing the Demonic Dao, while his soul was cultivating and studying and secretly entered the Soul Sea.

If he really said that, it would contradict what he had said about there being only the Demon God's remnant soul here.

Finally, Han Fei raised his head and looked at Li Luoluo seriously. "Wait for me."

"Wait for you?"

Li Shishi looked at Han Fei calmly for a while and finally nodded slightly, seeming to agree with this statement. Because of Han Fei's appearance, the Demon God had a way to walk through the Dao of Extreme Balance.

Therefore, Han Fei's role was very important and was worth the long wait of the Demon God. The Demon God wasn't waiting for Han Fei, but Han Fei happened to meet the requirements of the Demon God.

Li Shishi asked, "Last question, where are you going?"

Han Fei said, "The Godfiend Sea."

Han Fei didn't hide it. Even the Immortal-level cultivators dared not enter this forbidden place, and this was the most suitable place for the Demon God to seal himself.

Sure enough, Li Shishi nodded. "I'm done asking. Li Luoluo, come out! Li Keke, stay there. Don't cause trouble."

Buzz!

The next moment, Li Shishi disappeared, and the person in front of him finally became the Li Luoluo he was familiar with.

As soon as Li Luoluo came out, she scolded, "What kind of people are you? Don't you take me, the master personality, seriously? Couldn't you have told me if you had any questions? I could have asked him, but now you've all been exposed. Are you happy?"

Han Fei: "..."

Then he saw Li Luoluo staring at Han Fei.

"Hmph!"

Han Fei was shocked. "Did I touch you?"

Han Fei felt that he was too naive. But forget it. He would just pretend that Li Keke was that pure Li Keke. If he really associated her with evil, it would be a little creepy.

Li Luoluo narrowed her eyes and glared at Han Fei angrily. "Damn it, I'm done asking. I have nothing else to ask."

Han Fei asked, "Uh, shall we eat?"

Han Fei was relieved. It seemed that he had passed Li Luoluo's test. This woman had indeed been paying attention to him.

At this moment, Li Luoluo suddenly said, "I didn't expect you to become a disciple of the Void Temple. Your identity really gave me a fright."

Han Fei asked, "Have you found anything?"

Li Luoluo said, "Of course. But why did you deliberately hide your identity? To temper yourself? If you directly revealed your identity, no one in the entire Infinite Mining Area might dare to attack you. But now, you chose to hide your identity. Do you know how many people have designs on your resources and Puppet City?"

Han Fei said indifferently, "If I really travel the world under the protection of Void Temple, others will hide far away when they see me. How can I continue on my path?"

Li Luoluo shrugged. "That's true. But let me remind you, when you leave later, you'd better be more careful. The Emperor Sparrow has appeared, and the divine beasts will definitely pay special attention to us. Be careful not to be caught by them. If you get caught by them, I won't save you. Let your senior brothers from the Void Temple save you."

Han Fei: "..."
