Chapter 2651: Eldest Senior Brother: Fine, Thank You (2 in 1)

2651 Eldest Senior Brother: Fine, Thank You (2 in 1)

For the Godfiend Sea, Han Fei was just a passerby, even if he was actually a proper “demonic” cultivator.

However, in this world, the so-called demonic path was actually just a different path. In essence, it was no different from those super forces. For example, could the Heavenly Race consider themselves righteous? Of course not. Many things they did might be even worse than the demonic cultivators.

After leaving the Godfiend Sea, Han Fei didn’t choose to leave immediately, because he didn’t know if anyone was ambushing him in the Infinite Mining Area. He had so many trump cards, so he shouldn’t waste them in the Infinite Mining Area.

Although he knew that the source of the chase was the divine beasts, with his current strength and capital, he was not qualified to directly challenge the divine beasts.

He would return to the Infinite Mining Area soon, but definitely not now.

Han Fei ignored Liu Qiansi. In the past six months in the Godfiend Sea, he had basically never left his hand because Liu Qiansi had no ability to stay in the Godfiend Sea alone. Otherwise, he would have been mutated.

At this moment, after the seal was lifted, Liu Qiansi could finally speak. Then he looked at Han Fei in shock. “Aren’t you a god?”

Han Fei said, “B*llshit. If I were a god, would I accept you? There are countless strong masters following me every day, trying to follow me.”

Although Liu Qiansi hadn’t spoken in the past six months, he was not unconscious. He had actually seen what he should see. This was the first time in his life that he had seen so many strong masters. He had even seen a real god.

At this moment, Liu Qiansi seemed to understand why Han Fei had encountered so many pursuers along the way. It was probably related to the god hidden in Han Fei’s body.

Liu Qiansi asked, “Then are we still going back to the Infinite Mining Area?”

Han Fei thought for a moment. “I won’t go back for the time being... Wait here. I’ll go to my Origin Star first.”

Liu Qiansi nodded. “Okay.”

At this moment, Han Fei was not afraid that Liu Qiansi would run away, and Liu Qiansi did not dare to run either, not just because of the contract. This was because Liu Qiansi knew that Han Fei had a functional godly weapon that could point to directions, and he also knew that Han Fei could now completely kill him independently. More importantly, he knew too many secrets of Han Fei. If he dared to run at this time, he would definitely be found and ruthlessly killed.

Buzz!

When Han Fei's figure appeared in his Origin Star, his eyelids twitched and he gaped in shock. Is this my Origin Star?

Yes, Han Fei was dumbfounded. Countless towering trees appeared on his natal star, and clusters of spiritual fruits could be seen everywhere in the ground. The Immortal Qi, Chaotic Qi, and spiritual energy here were unbelievably rich. Furthermore, the energy here was richer than any paradise or cultivation holy land he had seen so far.

Han Fei glanced at the ground under his feet. This was no longer the ordinary land of the past. At this moment, there wasn't even Mystic Yellow Soil on his Origin Star. It was all Chaotic Spiritual Soil.

"Huh?"

Han Fei was dumbfounded. He couldn't even cover this place with the Mystic Yellow Soil, let alone the Chaotic Spiritual Soil. He couldn't help but recall that the Demon God gave him an opportunity. During the three years when he condensed the Dao Locks, his Origin Star seemed to have been raining. Could it be because of that?

"That's not right!"

Han Fei suddenly remembered that the rain shouldn't strengthen his Origin Star into this. However, the Universe Vast Soil that Li Tiangan gave him definitely played a decisive role. It was said that it could directly increase the strength of his Origin Star by one level.

When he read the information about the Universe Vast Soil, although he was shocked, he didn't expect it to be so effective.

This was the first time Han Fei had returned to his Origin Star in years. He looked at the Chaotic Spiritual Soil under his feet and the spiritual fruits and towering trees everywhere.

At the orchard he had opened earlier, Han Fei saw Wang Lanlan, Wang Xiaojiu and the others.

However, these guys were not secretly eating, but sitting cross-legged and cultivating. The reason was that the Emperor Sparrow was standing on the branch of a fruit tree, making these guys like primary school students, not daring to move at all. Apart from cultivating, they didn't dare to do anything else.

At this moment, the Emperor Sparrow glanced in Han Fei's direction. "Is it over?"

Since Han Fei could enter the Intrinsic Star, the Emperor Sparrow knew that Han Fei should be safe for now.

Han Fei asked, "Well, are you cultivating?"

The Emperor Sparrow nodded. "Your Origin Star has changed too much in the past few years. It's not good to improve so quickly, so I asked them to work hard to devour the resources in your Origin Star and cultivate. So far, the effect is not bad."

"No wonder."

No wonder he hadn't completely felt that the first Dao Lock was about to explode. It turned out that these guys were helping him digest it.

Han Fei was quite happy with it. Sometimes, it was not a good thing to gain too many opportunities.

Han Fei said, "Continue to cultivate."

At this moment, Han Fei looked at Little Black and Little White. They were swimming in the lake of spiritual energy in the form of a Yin-Yang pattern, but they hadn't woken up for the time being. It seemed that their last slumber wasn't over yet. However, judging from the flickering light on their bodies now and then, it was obvious that they were about to wake up.

Han Fei strode to the place where Wang Xiaojiu and the others were cultivating.

Then, Han Fei said, "Wang Xiaojiu and Huang Ergou, come out with me."

Hearing this, Wang Xiaojiu's eyes immediately lit up, and tears almost fell.

Hearing this, Wang Lanlan quickly winked at Han Fei, and Han Fei snorted coldly. "You haven't condensed four Dao Locks even though you've been here for almost 400 years and have plenty of resources?"

With that, Han Fei looked at the king sparrow. "When did she condense the third Dao Lock?"

Han Fei immediately sneered. "I knew it."

Wang Lanlan: "..."

Han Fei looked at Yu Jue again and nodded slightly. "Yu Jue is not bad. He has already condensed three Dao Locks. Keep it up."

Yu Jue didn't like to move. With such a good opportunity to cultivate here and endless resources, he was naturally unwilling to leave.

Sha Diao already had four locks, and the fifth one was about to be condensed, so Han Fei naturally wouldn't call him.

The reason why they were called Wang Xiaojiu and Huang Ergou was firstly because Wang Xiaojiu and Huang Ergou were fast, and secondly, because Huang Ergou was the second one among them to condense five Dao Locks. It was meaningless for them to continue cultivating.

After leaving the Origin Star, Wang Xiaojiu immediately shouted, "I'm free! I'm finally free!"

However, Han Fei said indifferently, "Wang Xiaojiu, I want you to go back to the ferocious beasts' settlement and deliver a letter to Li Luoluo for me."

"Huh?"

Wang Xiaojiu's face turned green. That's it? You want me to be an errand boy?

Han Fei took out a jade slip and threw it over. "Deliver it by hand without any delay. After you deliver it, go to a place called the Distant Camp outside the Infinite Mining Area and wait for me."

"Well, I'll give you half a year."

"Half a year?"

Han Fei said, "You think I give too little time? Do you want me to send you back to my Origin Star to continue your cultivation?"

"Okay, okay."

Wang Xiaojiu nodded quickly. Compared to returning to his Origin Star, he would rather stay outside. At least he would have more freedom!

Then Han Fei took out another two jade slips and threw them to Huang Ergou. "Ergou, I want you to go to two places. Firstly, go to the intelligence trading center of the Capital of Horror in the Hundred Alliance City. Find a woman named Xiangxianga, give this jade slip to her, and then go to the scavenger camp in the Infinite Mining Area. When you get there, someone will pick you up. I'll also give you half a year. In half a year, I'll wait for you in the Distant Camp outside the Infinite Mining Area."

"Yes, Master Han Fei. I'll definitely complete the task."

Only a month after Wang Xiaojiu and the others left, Han Fei was walking along the edge of the Godfiend Sea to the periphery of the Infinite Mining Area.

Suddenly, a voice appeared in his mind. "Little Junior Brother, today is the time for the gathering of the Void Temple. Feng Yu has proved Dao. Is it convenient for you to participate now?"

Han Fei's heart stirred. He had been waiting for this day for a long time. Han Fei quickly responded, "Yes, yes, I'll be there right away, Eldest Senior Brother."

Even if it was inconvenient, he had to create an opportunity. It was said that Eldest Senior Brother was going to give them gifts this time.

After a while, when the bronze door of the Void Temple appeared, Han Fei pushed it open and entered without hesitation.

Han Fei thought that he had come fast enough, but when he came in, he heard Feng Yu chattering.

"I didn't know that I would feel so powerful as a Monarch. Fifth Senior Brother, you said before that when I became a Monarch, you would specially forge a godly weapon for me. I remember that."

Fifth Senior Brother smiled and said, "Of course. In fact, I've already prepared for it. Otherwise, what do you think I've been doing these past few years?"

"Thank you, Fifth Senior Brother."

Han Fei happened to see this scene when he came in.

When Feng Yu saw Han Fei, she immediately waved her little hand and said, "Little Junior Brother, Little Junior Brother, I've already proved Dao. Let me tell you, proving Dao is too dangerous. If it weren't for the Flame of Life you gave me last time, I almost couldn't make it."

Han Fei hurriedly said, "Congratulations, Senior Sister, but how could your family lack the resources for you to prove Dao?"

Feng Yu said, "This has nothing to do with the amount of resources. It depends on compatibility. Hey, let me tell you, from the perfected Star Transformation Realm to the Dao Proving realm, your strength has at least three times the growth space. Furthermore, the level of the soul and power has changed, and you'll be more and more resonant with the world... Blah, blah..."

Han Fei chuckled and said, "Uh, just a three-time increase in strength?"

Feng Yu: "..."

Feng Yu: "I'm talking about ordinary people. Based on my growth, my strength has increased by five times. But this is because I haven't completely consolidated my realm. When I completely consolidate my realm, my strength will be 30% stronger than now."

Han Fei couldn't help but ask in surprise, "Can you become so much stronger?"

Feng Yu said, "That's me. Other people don't have such a great increase. According to my past experience, when a Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator reaches the Dao Proving realm, their strength usually increases by three times, or at most four times. I'm an exception because I'm talented. Of course, how much one's strength can increase depends on his bloodline, Dao bones, flesh, and soul."

Han Fei calculated in his heart. Feng Yu hadn't taken the Dao of Extreme Balance, so even if Feng Yu's strength was the same as his, when she reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm, her basic strength and soul were only 300,000, and it was almost impossible for her to exceed the limit of 300,000.

Increasing by five times was naturally a one-time thing. It was an intrinsic increase after crossing a major realm. Five times meant 1.5 million. This growth could only be described as terrifying. If she completely stabilized her realm and her strength increased by another 30%, it would be a terrifying combat power close to 2 million. This was no longer the combat power of ordinary Dao Provers. Even people who had proved Dao for thousands of years or even hundreds of thousands of years might not be stronger than Feng Yu.

However, he was different from Feng Yu. After embarking on the Dao of Extreme Balance, his basic strength and soul were 600,000. The power expansion brought by the Dao Locks was meaningless for Dao Proving and wouldn't be counted.

Even if his strength only increased by three times after proving Dao, he would still have 1.8 million points of strength. If he could steadily grow after stabilizing his realm, it would be easy for him to exceed 2 million points.

At that time, in addition to a huge increase in basic combat power, the level of his bloodline, the strength of his soul, and the hardness of his body would all increase by another level. Coupled with his control of laws, not to mention there was an insurmountable gap with Sky Openers, even with ordinary Dao Provers, there would be an insurmountable gap.

At this time, Lei Heng and Senior Sister Dark Shadow arrived.

When the two of them saw Feng Yu, they said, "Congratulations, Junior Sister Feng Yu."

At this moment, Senior Sister Dark Shadow said, "Huh! Eldest Senior Brother informed us, but why hasn't he arrived yet?"

Han Fei also realized that this was the first time he had encountered such a situation. Just now, he was so focused on listening to Feng Yu that he forgot about it.

Swish!

Senior Brother Six God arrived, along with Senior Sister Red Lotus and Senior Sister Green Lotus. Before Han Fei and the others greeted them, Eldest Senior Brother, Senior Sister Shen Le, Senior Brother Undead, and Senior Brother Azure Dragon appeared almost at the same time.

As soon as the Eldest Senior Brother arrived, everyone stopped exchanging pleasantries and bowed to him. "Greetings, Eldest Senior Brother."

Eldest Senior Brother grunted and then said, "Congratulations, Feng Yu."

The Eldest Senior Brother said casually, "Now that everyone is here, let's start the preaching!"

Sure enough, proving Dao was not a big deal for Eldest Senior Brother. Preaching was still first. Celebrations could only be ranked after preaching.

Han Fei and the others took their places one after another. The Eldest Senior Brother remained as still as a mountain, and his voice was like a mystic voice from the Nine Heavens, refreshing. "The Dao fuses with the heavens, and the Dao evolves into myriad techniques..."

When the Eldest Senior Brother spoke, Han Fei's heart trembled. He seemed to see all his Great Daos. These Great Daos' runes were circulating, one by one displaying their power.

However, under the power of these Great Daos, Han Fei clearly felt some special Great Dao changes. For example, he felt the genesis of the world and the separation of Yin and Yang. He felt the heat of light and the coldness of darkness. He felt the power to shake the world and the growth of all things. He felt the vicissitudes of time, the rise and fall of all things, and the destruction of the endless sky...

At that moment, Han Fei seemed to see more clever uses of his various Great Daos, but he didn't completely understand these clever uses. However, he saw more changes in the Great Dao power.

Han Fei seemed to perceive that this might be a manifestation of the law, although this manifestation wasn't very obvious.

Soon, these insights disappeared. When Han Fei opened his eyes again, the preaching was over.

However, he felt that he could study his Great Daos in depth.

At this moment, the senior brothers and sisters all looked at Han Fei.

Senior Brother Six God, who was closest to Han Fei, asked, "Little Junior Brother, are you going to prove Dao?"

Han Fei was puzzled. "No!"

Before Senior Brother Six God responded, Feng Yu shouted, "No, you're definitely going to prove Dao. The content of Eldest Senior Brother's lesson is related to Dao Proving. Once you're going to prove Dao, you will gain many insights. I was the same last time."

"Uh ~"

Han Fei couldn't help but look at Eldest Senior Brother, wondering if this lesson was specially taught to him by Eldest Senior Brother.

Eldest Senior Brother said, "Little Junior Brother, you need to complete what you haven't done before you prove Dao as soon as possible. You have accumulated too much power. You have to prove Dao within a hundred years. Otherwise, you have to create an avatar to delay the Dao Proving time."

Han Fei: "..."

The senior brothers and sisters: "..."

Senior Brother Six God said in surprise, "Didn't Little Junior Brother just enter the sect not long ago? He was only in the Sea Establishment realm when he entered the sect, and now he is about to prove the Dao?"

Feng Yu opened her mouth. She knew better than others the change in Han Fei's strength. Han Fei had been hanging around with Feng Xingliu since he entered the late-stage Star Transformation Realm. How many years had it been since then? And he was already about to prove Dao? Furthermore, he had to prove Dao. Otherwise, he could only delay the time by creating an avatar.

This meant that Han Fei's strength had grown so fast that even they found it unbelievable.

Fifth Senior Brother couldn't help but say, "Well, it seems that I'm going to be busy again. Junior Brother! Shall I build a weapon for you later?"

"Uh ~"

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Thank you, Fifth Senior Brother. However, even I didn't expect myself to prove Dao in a hundred years."

Senior Sister Shen Le said, "Little Junior Brother, Eldest Senior Brother can't be wrong, so if there's anything unfinished, you need to complete it as soon as possible. If these things are difficult, you can use the mark of the Void Temple."

Han Fei smiled bitterly. "Thank you for your concern, Senior Sister Shen Le. I'll try my best to take care of these matters within a hundred years. If I really have to use the necessary means, I won't hesitate."

Senior Brother Azure Dragon nodded. "Yes! Little Junior Brother, remember that the Spring of Life of the Heavenly Race is very useful at critical moments."

Han Fei said, "Thank you for your reminder, Senior Brother Azure Dragon."

Senior Sister Green Lotus and Senior Sister Red Lotus said, "Alas! Little Junior Brother will definitely know what to do. It won't be too late to ask at the next gathering. Today, since Feng Yu has proved Dao, we sisters have prepared some spiritual fruits for everyone. We dug them out of the Chaotic River."

Senior Sister Dark Shadow said coldly, "I'm curious."

Feng Yu asked, "What fruits are they, Senior Sister Green Lotus and Senior Sister Red Lotus? I heard about the Chaotic River from books. Is it fun over there? Are there treasures everywhere?"

Senior Sister Red Lotus giggled. "Feng Yu, the Chaotic River is not a fun place. Where there is opportunity, there is danger. When you reach the Carefree Level, I can consider bringing you there to play."

Lei Heng asked, "So, senior sisters, what fruit did you get?"

Han Fei was also looking forward to it. He had come to get some fruits, but he didn't expect that he would get some fruits after listening to his exclusive lesson.

Senior Sister Green Lotus waved her hand, and nine spiritual fruits flew towards Han Fei through the air.

Yes, although Senior Sister Green Lotus's strength couldn't keep up with that of Eldest Senior Brother or Senior Sister Shen Le, she could still share the spiritual fruits with them.

Han Fei thought to himself, I'm afraid it's throwing a brick to attract jade.

<Name > Divine Blood Bodhi

<Introduction > The blood of gods is scattered in the Chaos. Because of the long-time enhancement of the power of Chaos, it gave birth to the Divine Blood Bodhi. There is an extremely low probability that the Divine Blood Bodhi can illuminate one's original divine path. After swallowing it, it will have a trace of the will of a god and can withstand a basic divine tribulation. The Divine Blood Bodhi can also give birth to infinite vitality and extend the life of a Monarch by 100,000 years. It can also strengthen the bloodline and increase the power of the soul.

<Level > Chaotic Spiritual Treasure

<Quality > Ordinary

<Chaotic Qi Contained> 526,384 points

<Effect > It can illuminate one's original divine path and help him learn the will of the gods. It can also extend life and strengthen bloodline and soul.

"Oh my god."

A Chaotic Spiritual Treasure! As expected of his dear senior sister!

Senior Sister Green Lotus said, "Little Junior Brother, you'd better not eat this fruit for the time being. Take it after you prove Dao. There's even a chance that you can see your original divine path with it. Of course, if you feel that you need it when you transcend your monarch tribulation, use it. No matter how good the thing is, your life is more important. In the Chaotic River, there are plenty of treasures to find. Don't dwell on this. Transcending your monarch tribulation is the most important."

"Yes, Senior Sister. If it's not necessary, I'll keep it with me for now."

Han Fei thought to himself, This treasure is good, but it's not very useful to me now.

"Illuminate my original divine path?"

Feng Yu and the others voiced their doubts, and in the next moment, Senior Sister Shen Le explained, "This fruit is called the Divine Blood Bodhi. It's a spiritual fruit born from the blood of a god. There's a certain chance that it can illuminate one's original divine path. Green Lotus and Red Lotus took out nine at once. If I remember correctly, there can't be a cluster of nine Divine Blood Bodhi. It seems that you've found at least three pools of divine blood?"

"Hehe!"

Senior Sister Red Lotus smiled and said, "Alas, Senior Sister Shen Le, it's not a big deal. No matter how many pools of divine blood there are, they're all one-time gains. But Eldest Senior Brother, I heard that you're going to lose a fortune this time."

The Eldest Senior Brother smiled. "Lose a fortune?"

The Eldest Senior Brother looked at Senior Sister Shen Le with a smile, and Shen Le turned her head away. "Alas! Don't look at me. As the Eldest Senior Brother, of course you have to take out good things! Only when your Junior Brothers and Junior Sisters become stronger can they help you in the future!"

The Eldest Senior Brother's voice was still gentle, but he said, "Fine, thank you..."

2652 Here I Come (2 in 1)

Seeing this scene, everyone thought to themselves, so Eldest Senior Brother doesn't know that he is going to give them gifts?

However, this made everyone realize that Senior Sister Shen Le could actually make decisions for the Eldest Senior Brother? As expected of the second-ranked senior sister in the Void Temple!

From what she said, it seemed that Eldest Senior Brother had something good in his hands. If this thing was good for Eldest Senior Brother and Senior Sister Shen Le, it must be superb for them.

After a pause, the Eldest Senior Brother still said in a gentle voice, “Junior brothers and sisters, I’ve refined some divine tribulations before, so I’ll give each of you one. But you have to know that all external treasures are actually not a manifestation of your strength. You can’t have too many treasures, or you will lose your ambition to advance in crises.”

The so-called divine tribulation was a mark. The mark passed through the void and landed in the palm of its owner. In the end, a mysterious dark red lightning pattern appeared on the palm. It flickered for a few seconds before slowly disappearing.

The Eldest Senior Brother said, “The divine tribulation can be used to kill enemies and temper and strengthen yourselves. If you use this seal to strengthen yourselves, you’d better wait until you become Great Monarchs. Otherwise, don’t try this divine tribulation easily.”

“Can it kill enemies?”

Han Fei’s heart did a flip. This was the divine tribulation that a Great Monarch had to transcend when he fused with the Heavenly Dao. How many people could withstand the power of that tribulation? From what the Eldest Senior Brother said, even the disciples of the Void Temple couldn’t easily temper themselves with the divine tribulation if they weren’t Great Monarchs. Then wouldn’t the power of this tribulation be able to shake a Great Monarch?

At this moment, only Senior Sister Shen Le said, “The divine tribulation isn’t as simple as a heavenly tribulation. In this tribulation, it contains the essence of the fusion of ten thousand techniques. It can temper the body, the soul, the law, and the Dao heart. It has infinite uses. I sense that the Sea Realm might be in chaos soon. At that time, the Three Temples might reappear. In this chaotic world, Senior Brothers and Senior Sisters can’t help you much. Most of it will be up to you to deal with. However, at that time, don’t disgrace the reputation of our Void Temple.”

Everybody was shocked.

Senior Brother Six God added, “So my guess is correct. Is the Sea Realm going to be in chaos?”

Feng Yu asked curiously, “Why is the Sea Realm in chaos? Isn’t it peaceful now?”

Senior Brother Six God said, “The West Wilderness is in turmoil, the East Wilderness is at war, the South Wilderness is contending for power, and the North Wilderness has recovered its strength. It’s said that there seems to be some secret in the Central Sea Divine Realm. This is indeed a sign of chaotic times.”

Lei Heng said, “Well, interesting. That’s great. I can go to the Star Sea later. Senior Brother Six God, after this matter is over, shouldn’t you get out of there? I’ll come to you then.”

Senior Brother Six God said, “Yes! Wait, let’s wait until the chaotic situation begins.”

Han Fei was dumbfounded. Eldest Senior Brother’s gift had been gained, and it should be time for everyone to exchange information. Speaking of the turmoil in the Sea Realm, Han Fei thought for a moment and said, “There might be a group of demons appearing in the East Sea Divine Realm. At that time, a large number of immortal-level or even Great Monarch-level powerhouses might appear.”

“Oh?”

Han Fei said, "The Demon God in the East Sea Divine Realm I mentioned last time is not dead. And he may return soon."

"Huh?"

Senior Sister Red Lotus said, "He's really not dead? Then is he a god?"

Han Fei nodded. "Yes."

Senior Sister Dark Shadow said, "In that case, this should be the first god reappearing in the Sea Realm."

Fifth Senior Brother laughed and said, "Little Junior Brother, did you really find this guy? You're really bold. You even dare to find a god. Tsk, tsk..."

Han Fei said, "Fifth Senior Brother, you provided accurate information, so I went to look for opportunities."

Everyone couldn't help but think of the warning that their Eldest Senior Brother had given Han Fei. He had to prove Dao within a hundred years. It seemed that Han Fei had gained a lot of opportunities this time!

Han Fei wanted to see the senior brothers and senior sisters' attitude towards the Demon God, but their reaction was calm. Even when he mentioned that a god was about to reappear, they didn't react much as if they had expected it.

Han Fei thought to himself, It seems that my understanding of the Sea Realm is still not enough! Or is it true that as the God of War said, not all the gods have disappeared, but some of them, like the Demon God, are actually just dormant?

The gathering of the Void Temple ended and they returned to reality.

Han Fei stood still and pondered for a while. So far, he had done everything he could.

In terms of strength, he already had five Dao Locks.

The Emperor Sparrow also had five Dao Locks, and Little Black and Little White were coming soon. He had gotten a lot of treasures, and his karma with Old Yuan was almost over.

In the Infinite Mining Area, Zhang Beihai was already under his control, and the City of Origin was no longer a threat. He had consumed a large number of strong masters from these two cities during the northern expedition.

These powerhouses were even stronger than the power they had shown in the Chaotic Wasteland.

After all, in the Chaotic Wasteland, on the surface, there were only a few Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivators.

Half a year later.

In the Hero Tavern of the Distant Camp, Chen Xiong, the owner of the camp was mixing liquor casually.

It was crowded in the tavern.

Someone said, "Hey! Have you heard of it? It's said that a Carefree Realm powerhouse of the Central Sea Divine Realm's Fist Sect died on the way to hunt down the Human Butcher."

Someone sighed. "Really? Is your information accurate? Didn't they say that only Dao Proving-Level powerhouses died?"

The man said, "So our Distant Camp is a bit far from the eight camps! This news only came a few days ago. Uncle Xiong, you knew about this a long time ago, right?"

Chen Xiong glanced at them with a smile. "Shut up. Do you think those things are for you to discuss? Don't blame me for not reminding you. Don't ask around. Many forces in the Infinite Mining Area are very wary of this matter."

The man laughed. "That's for sure. We'll just talk about it in the Hero Tavern. Who would ask around? It has nothing to do with us."

Amidst the laughter, Chen Xiong lowered his head with a hint of helplessness in his eyes. He didn't expect that the young man would be so powerful. He had thought that the other party was a strong Heavenly Talent and it was fine to destroy the Black Wind Pirates. There were many people who could do this.

However, only after several years, there were more and more shocking rumors about the young man.

At this moment, he thought that he must not let others know that he had made a deal with this person. Fortunately, when the Black Wind Pirates were destroyed, this person didn't call himself the Human Emperor, let alone the Seven Kill Army.

But even so, he didn't dare to be negligent. Because more than a month ago, there were two more people here, two extremely powerful existences.

These two people would sit in a strange manner, and their behavior was occasionally abnormal. This confirmed to Chen Xiong that these two were not ordinary sea demons.

After a sea demon transformed into a human, they would learn the behavior of humanoid creatures to better adapt to such a living state. However, these two people were very unfamiliar with this. Besides, Chen Xiong often saw that these two people would accidentally show their furry tails and wag them.

Chen Xiong, who had seen a lot of things, was very sure that they were not sea demons at all, but divine beasts or ferocious beasts.

It was not impossible for divine beasts and ferocious beasts to appear in the outer camp of the Infinite Mining Area, but they were very rare. These two people had been eating and drinking here for a month. Occasionally, one of them would often ask about the Human Butcher, but he was not very willing to pay.

This made Chen Xiong vigilant. He had been on tenterhooks for a month, fearing that the two would find out that he had been in contact with Human Butcher.

Creak!

The door of the Hero Tavern was pushed open and a young man walked in, looking like an ordinary customer. However, the moment Chen Xiong saw this person, his pupils were constricted and his heart stopped beating for a moment.

Seeing the young man walking towards him, Chen Xiong was speechless, but he didn't dare to show it. After the young man sat opposite him, he pushed the wine he had just mixed over.

"Old Chen, long time no see!"

Chen Xiong said, "It's been a long time. You're like the sun in the sky now. Why are you here? You have to know that the information about you is very valuable now."

"Gulp! Ah~"

Han Fei picked up the glass of wine and drank it in one gulp. Then, he said indifferently, "There are some things that started here, so they have to end here."

Chen Xiong couldn't have felt more awful. Did Han Fei mean that he was going to destroy the Distant Camp?

Chen Xiong knew that Han Fei had this ability. The puppet army of Puppet City could easily crush the Distant Camp.

However, Han Fei put down the wine cup and chuckled. "Old Chen, it's never safe near the Godfiend Sea. It's time to move to your Distant Camp!"

"Snap~"

Putting down the wine cup, Han Fei got up and was about to leave.

Chen Xiong was taken aback for a moment, but then he suddenly thought of something. It seemed that Han Fei had searched for information about the Godfiend Sea when he was here. What did Han Fei mean by that?

"Wait a minute."

Chen Xiong hurriedly called out. Han Fei looked back, only to hear Chen Xiong transmitting a message to him, "Be careful. Two people seem to be following you."

Han Fei smiled and left without looking back. The two people Chen Xiong mentioned were Wang Xiaojiu and Huang Ergou.

They had planned to get up after Han Fei came in, but Han Fei went to talk to the tavern owner. Now that Han Fei was gone, they certainly had to follow him.

However, this scene surprised many people in the tavern. Those who could survive in the Infinite Mining Area were not stupid. These two strangers had been here for a month. How could they not attract the attention of some people?

As soon as Han Fei and the others left the camp, someone asked, “Old Chen, Uncle Xiong, who is this? Why is he so mysterious?”

Chen Xiong: “Oh! I don’t know. Don’t you know the rules of the island? Don’t ask what you shouldn’t ask.”

After making these people give up the idea of getting information from him, Chen Xiong carefully considered what Han Fei told him. In fact, he didn’t have to talk to him. They were just passers-by to each other.

However, he didn’t think Han Fei was teasing him by saying that. Was there any point in teasing him?

Therefore, Chen Xiong thought for a moment and said lightly, “It seems that we have to move!”

After leaving the Distant Camp, Wang Xiaojiu and Huang Ergou were much more obedient than before, because they had heard too much news about Han Fei along the way.

He had killed nine Dao Proving Level powerhouses in a row, and even a Carefree Realm powerhouse had died by Han Fei’s hands. When they first heard it, they were really shocked and couldn’t believe it.

However, since so many people were talking about it, they had to believe it.

Han Fei asked, “How is it going?”

Wang Xiaojiu said, “I quickly sent the letter to Big Luoluo, but Big Luoluo kicked me out after reading it and didn’t tell me anything, so I don’t have any information to feed back to you.”

Huang Ergou said, “Master Han Fei, it’s the same on my side. Xiangxiang didn’t give me much in return. When I went to the City of Scavengers, someone did find me when I arrived. After I gave the letter to him, he only said that he would arrange everything here.”

Han Fei nodded. “OK.”

Wang Xiaojiu asked, “Master Han Fei, I feel that you are planning big! What are you going to do? Can you tell us? We may be able to help you.”

Han Fei grinned. “Well! I’m going to kill.”

Wang Xiaojiu said, “I’m good at this. In the face of enemies, I, Wang Xiaojiu, will never show mercy.”

Dumbfounded, Huang Ergou asked, “How many is ‘many, many’?”

Wang Xiaojiu: “...”

Huang Ergou: “...”

...

Chaotic Wasteland.

The moment Han Fei stepped into the Chaotic Wasteland again, he couldn't help but sigh. Six hundred years had passed in the blink of an eye. This time, it was finally over.

"Xiaobai, Zhang Xuanyu, Kuanguang, Xia Xiaochan... This is my destiny, not yours. So, don't blame me for starting the battle in advance. Just wish me good luck!"

City of Wanderers.

Above the ice palace, Duan Qingsi was reporting some information. She said, "Recently, the war in the Graveyard Battlefield has become more and more intense, and many of us have died. For some reason, I feel that the people from the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin have become more active in fighting. In just a hundred years, hundreds of people have opened the sky. Some of our actions seem to have been targeted. In just ten years, more than ten Sky Opening Realm powerhouses have died."

Gu Tingnan said lightly, "Some people think that their training speed is too slow, so they are actually still training."

Duan Qingsi frowned. "Training soldiers regardless of the consequences?"

Gu Tingnan said, "For these deep-rooted big forces, they don't care about the consequences. What they want is the results. If my guess is correct, the frequency of battles between the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin must have greatly increased."

Duan Qingsi nodded her head. "That's right! Do you mean that it has something to do with the northern expedition in the Infinite Mining Area? I know that guy went to the Infinite Mining Area, but no matter how big the incident in the Infinite Mining Area is, how can it have such a huge impact on the Chaotic Wasteland?"

Gu Tingnan said, "I'm afraid it's not that simple. That guy might indeed be more suitable to be the Human Emperor than me."

"Hmph!"

Duan Qingsi turned her head away. "Why? Because he's talented, or because he acts lawlessly? I know he inherited Puppet City, but can that city really completely change the situation in the Chaotic Wasteland?"

Suddenly, Gu Tingnan's expression changed slightly. His gaze seemed to see through the void. He paused and said, "He's back."

"He's back?"

Duan Qingsi was shocked by what Gu Tingnan said. Although she refused to admit Han Fei's strength, it was because she had followed Gu Tingnan for a long time.

However, she knew how terrifying a huge city with hundreds of thousands of Sky Opening Realm puppets was. If the secrets behind the Chaotic Wasteland didn't surface, they naturally couldn't withstand the impact of such a huge city.

However, she was somewhat surprised. Did Han Fei really come back? He didn't even know the secrets behind the Chaotic Wasteland!

Gu Tingnan's leisure voice seemed to penetrate the endless sky. "Are you back?"

"I'm back."

In the next moment, someone stepped tens of thousands of kilometers away and quietly appeared outside the ice palace, avoiding the perception of almost everyone, including Duan Qingsi.

"Huh?"

Duan Qingsi's face changed greatly, because she found that she could no longer see through Han Fei's strength.

Before, even when Han Fei returned from the Divine Capital Dynasty, he was already very strong, but he was actually only in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm. Even if he could kill a Peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm cultivator, she could still see through his strength.

However, how long had it been since they last met? Even she couldn't see through his strength. What did this mean?

Buzz!

In the next moment, Han Fei appeared next to Duan Qingsi. He looked at Duan Qingsi up and down and then smiled. "When I asked you about it, you kept it a secret. It turns out that you only have four Dao Locks! I thought you had five."

Duan Qingsi: "..."

However, unlike the last time, Gu Tingnan didn't wait inside to talk to Han Fei. This time, Han Fei's original body came, which was a symbol of strength. He was completely on the same level as Gu Tingnan.

Gu Tingnan said, "Duan Qingsi has fought countless battles in the past 100,000 years and was heavily wounded. Otherwise, she would have had five Dao Locks. She was injured for the sake of the human race. I heard that you've gained a lot this time. Why don't you help her?"

"I don't want it."

Duan Qingsi's face was slightly cold. In her heart, she certainly took sides with Gu Tingnan. And the ambiguous relationship between her and Gu Tingnan made her even more blind.

It was as if her man had been doing something noble and great. She definitely didn't want to admit that other men were better than her man.

Therefore, after Gu Tingnan said this, Duan Qingsi directly refused.

Han Fei, on the other hand, asked curiously, "Is there any hidden injury in this world that can't be healed with the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique? Why do you want me to heal her?"

Gu Tingnan said, "Although the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique is strong, it's not absolutely invincible. As for me, I'm only at the Dao Proving level. Some injuries are beyond my healing range."

Han Fei frowned. "You can't even cure it. Why don't you come to me... Fine."

Han Fei suddenly understood and then smiled. "Okay! I got it."

Han Fei opened his palm, and a drop of milky liquid with a rich breath appeared in his hand. There was only one thing that was beyond the healing ability of the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique and he happened to have, which was the Spring of Life.

Only the Spring of Life of the Heavenly Race could have such an effect. He only had ten drops of this Spring of Life, but now he had to take out one drop.

The reason was that Gu Tingnan said that Duan Qingsi had sacrificed a lot for the human race. If Han Fei wanted to be the Human Emperor, he would definitely help such a hero.

Furthermore, Han Fei had once joined forces with Duan Qingsi, and Duan Qingsi had indeed attacked a Dao Proving-Level powerhouse. He had seen all of this. Gu Tingnan knew it, so did Han Fei.

Duan Qingsi looked at the milky water droplet in Han Fei's hand. Although she didn't know what it was, the terrifying life energy contained in it shocked her.

This time, Duan Qingsi was about to refuse, when Han Fei snapped his fingers and sent the Spring of Life into Duan Qingsi's body with Sword Two, the Primordial Dao Sword. Duan Qingsi was shocked to find that she couldn't even fight back.

"Is this guy already so strong?"

At that moment, Duan Qingsi was enveloped by white light. It was also the first time Han Fei had seen the power of the Spring of Life. Such a terrifying life force shocked Han Fei. As expected of the thing that Chu Hao had been coveting, and even Senior Brother Azure Dragon only asked for ten drops of this treasure.

Han Fei could clearly see that in the enshrouded white light, occasionally some red cracks were repaired. Those were the hidden wounds of Duan Qingsi, the kind that even the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique couldn't cure.

Seeing this scene, Gu Tingnan smiled faintly. "As expected of the Spring of Life. Such rich and majestic life force and such terrifying foundational repair power. It's really a waste for a Sky Opener to use it. Unfortunately, without this treasure, Duan Qingsi won't be able to get five Dao Locks in her life and it will be difficult for her to become a Monarch."

Han Fei said, "She doesn't have to have five Dao Locks to prove Dao."

Gu Tingnan raised his hand and made an inviting gesture as he said, "That's true, but a heavy injury to her foundation will definitely affect her Dao Proving."

Ignoring Duan Qingsi who was recovering, the two of them came into the room and sat opposite each other.

Gu Tingnan glanced at the rod in Han Fei's hand and said, "He wants to listen too?"

"Well, it's fine."

Han Fei loosened his hand and nodded slightly. Liu Qiansi turned into a humanoid tree and stood behind Han Fei. As a Dao Proving-Level cultivator, she was not interested in Gu Tingnan, but Han Fei asked him to pretend to be a stick along the way.

Gu Tingnan looked at Liu Qiansi up and down and then said, "Ask away! Even if it's for the sake of this favor, I will answer all your questions this time."

Han Fei didn't ask directly. Instead, he smiled casually. "Since I'm back, the war has started. You should have thought about this battle countless times, but you didn't expect me to start it."

Gu Tingnan said, "I'm just curious. Why do you think you can fight this battle?"

Han Fei said, "I'll have to ask you some questions before I know if I can fight this battle."

Without hesitation, Han Fei asked, "I want to know where the strong masters in the Chaotic Wasteland are, how many of them are there, whether there are any Great Monarchs, whether these people can come back, and how many of them can come back..."

Only today did Han Fei have the confidence to ask this question.

Gu Tingnan said, "I think you should have guessed it. Above the ice, there is indeed a mysterious place. It's not easy to go to that place, nor is it easy to return. The condition to go there is that one has to at least enter the Star Transformation Realm before there's a 30% chance of getting there. Of course, the stronger one is, the higher the success rate of getting there. When one reaches the Perfection Star Transformation Realm, there's a 90% success rate. In that place, they can obtain power, which can accelerate their growth, and their chances of proving Dao will greatly increase."

Han Fei asked, "What if they want to come back?"

Gu Tingnan said, "It's not easy to come back. You need strong masters to break through the barrier before you can send them back. However, it's not absolute. You should have seen it in the Infinite Mining Area. The City of Scavengers and the City of Origin can send nearly a hundred Perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouses back at the same time. This means that the strong masters there are strong enough to break through the barrier. One of the reasons why our City of Wanderers can survive here is that they need a force to train their soldiers."

Han Fei said, "That's not all, is it? There must be a strong master behind the City of Wanderers, right? This person must exist, but I don't know how strong he is. I guess you must have pledged allegiance to that person. Otherwise, the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin can also train each other's soldiers. There's no need for the City of Wanderers to appear and create a tripartite situation."

Gu Tingnan smiled. "Yes, this person does exist. The City of Wanderers exists because in the place above the ice, it's also a tripartite situation."

Han Fei's pupils were constricted slightly. Did it mean that that person was very strong and could contend with the real power of the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin?

This made more sense.

Han Fei asked, "Why did this person choose you?"

"I don't know."

Han Fei asked, "So, the City of Wanderers is also sending strong masters there?"

Gu Tingnan said, "There aren't many of them, but there are. Duan Qingsi and the others have been with me for too long and don't want to go there."

Gu Tingnan continued, "That depends on how confident you are of taking down the Chaotic Wasteland. I know that you have a puppet city with nearly 200,000 soldiers in the Sky Opening Realm. It's said that the strength of those puppets is mostly in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm and perfected Star Transformation Realm, right?"

"Yes."

Gu Tingnan shook his head. "To be honest, the number is enough, but the strength is not."

Han Fei frowned. "So I need to know the level of strength over there. How many Monarchs and enemies are there in that damn place?"

Gu Tingnan said, "I don't know. You must've killed those who came back. Their memories have been cut off, so we can't know the situation over there from their memories. The communication between here and there is unilateral. It's not that it can't go both ways, but for unknown reasons, no information is allowed to be sent back from there. Only information from here can be received."

Han Fei said, "If that's the case, doesn't it mean that as long as we solve the problem quickly, we can quickly wipe out the forces of the City of Scavengers and City of Origin? Then as long as we run away with our people, they won't have a place to chase us?"

Gu Tingnan shook his head. "No, they can be quite mobile after receiving the information. From the ice to here, if the situation is urgent, it will be very fast. The reason this situation hasn't happened is that the power to quickly sweep the two cities like you said hasn't appeared in the Chaotic Wasteland for the time being. If they know of your existence now, a war will immediately break out in the Chaotic Wasteland, and the destruction of the City of Wanderers will almost be inevitable. This is because they won't allow such a power to exist."

Han Fei asked, "So, you don't know what kind of power the other party has?"

Gu Tingnan said, "No, but I have some guesses."

Gu Tingnan analyzed, "Although the number of basic cultivators in the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin is quite a lot, their strength is not that great. Otherwise, even if they develop some primitive graveyard battlefields, our City of Wanderers won't be able to cope with them. In the past 100,000 years, I've been secretly investigating the birth rate of their powerhouses. On average, about 5,000 Sea Establishers are born every 100 years. 80% of them won't appear on the surface. According to the probability of death after various trials, the success rate of Dao Proving is between 30% and 40%. The success rate of going to the place above the ice is between 30% and 40%. The survival rate of Sky Openers is 80%. In the end, I came up with a number. In the past 100,000 years, at least 350,000 Sky Opening Realm powerhouses have gone to the place above the ice."

"Three hundred and fifty thousand?"

Han Fei couldn't help but be shocked. Are you kidding me? This was much more than he had expected! According to this estimation, his previous estimation was a complete joke.

Gu Tingnan continued, "Even above the ice, there will be some special training, and some people will die, but there are super strong masters there, so the survival rate will definitely be greatly improved. Therefore, I predict that in the City of Scavengers in the past 100,000 years, at least 280,000 to 320,000 Sky Opening Realm powerhouses are still alive."

Han Fei asked, "Is your estimation accurate?"

Gu Tingnan said, "I'm not sure, but it should be about the same. Otherwise, wouldn't I have wasted these 100,000 years for nothing?"

Han Fei frowned. "If there are so many strong masters in a City of Scavengers, what about the City of Origin?"

Gu Tingnan said, "The City of Origin may have more hidden strong masters than the City of Scavengers."

Han Fei was speechless. "In the 100,000-year Grand Competition of the Divine Capital Dynasty, only 800,000 people at the Sky Opening Realm participated."

Gu Tingnan said, "But those who can go to the 100,000-year competition are already very powerful among the Sky Opening Realm powerhouses. If all the Sky Opening Realm powerhouses in the entire East Sea Divine Realm go to the Divine Capital Dynasty, the number will increase by more than ten times. So, do you think you can still fight now?"

Han Fei's heart was heavy. If a million Sky Opening Realm powerhouses appeared at once, even if he had an army of 200,000 puppets, he might not be able to withstand them!

Han Fei suddenly thought of something and asked, "Isn't it said that one needs at least the strength of the Star Transformation Realm to go to the top of the ice? Then where did the people who haven't entered the Star Transformation Realm go? These people have to go somewhere, right?"

Gu Tingnan nodded. "Of course. On the ice, on the way to the mysterious place, there is a transit zone. It's not that cold, and it's an extremely resourceful place that's very suitable for cultivation."

Before Han Fei asked, Gu Tingnan continued, "I once wanted to enter that place to take a look, but outsiders are forbidden from entering it. Once you enter it, it's impossible for you to return, unless a strong master opens a channel after you reach that mysterious place and sends you back. There is a reason that the Chaotic Wasteland can be listed as a forbidden area in the East Sea Divine Realm. But the power there has never been revealed to the outside world. If you want to sweep through the Chaotic Wasteland, you don't have to worry about the cultivators who are still in the transit zone, but how many people have reached that mysterious place. I haven't been able to estimate this number. It might be 100,000, 150,000, but it shouldn't exceed 200,000. After all, it's not easy for Sky Openers to enter the Star Transformation Realm. Unfortunately, without an accurate number, everything is unknown."

Han Fei was slightly relieved. It was good that it was not 300,000 strong masters. Otherwise, this battle would be really difficult to fight. However, even if the other party only came back with 100,000 and 150,000 soldiers, it wouldn't be easy to fight this battle. This was only the basic military strength and didn't include the strong masters. Among the hundreds of thousands of Sky Openers, how many had proved Dao? How many were at the Carefree Level? How many were at the Immortal Level? Did the other party have any Great Monarch Realm masters?

But Han Fei was still solemn. "A hundred thousand years ago, the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin were already like this, right?"

Gu Tingnan nodded. "That's right. However, the Age of Doom was only 130,000 years ago when the City of Scavengers was founded. Therefore, even if they had already sent talents to that place in advance, the number wouldn't be much. However, it's hard to say about the City of Origin. The City of Origin is the local power of the Chaotic Wastelands. It was here before the Age of Doom, so it's impossible to know their true strength."

Han Fei said, "So, if I attack the City of Scavengers, I can still fight, but I can't take down the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin at the same time."

Gu Tingnan said, "If the City of Scavengers is really destroyed, the City of Origin won't sit by and do nothing. But in the early stages, they will most likely sit by and watch the tigers fight. You have a puppet army, so your combat power might not be inferior to the City of Scavengers. But the problem is that you can't be sure how many Monarchs there are in the City of Scavengers. Besides, you can't predict the attitude of the City of Origin after the war starts."

Han Fei's fingers gently tapped the ice table, his heart full of complicated thoughts. He had thought that the trouble he caused in the Infinite Mining Area, killing nearly a hundred Perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouses of the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin, would be enough to hurt these two powers.

But from the looks of it, it might be insignificant to them.

Even the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin might not be taken seriously by the existence above the ice in terms of combat power. The only significance of the existence of these two main cities was to continuously provide manpower.

After all, the strong were all cultivated from the weak and didn't come for nothing. Therefore, for these two cities, although their combat power was not good, their significance far exceeded that of a hundred Perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouses.

For a moment, Han Fei felt a chill down his spine. Could it be that he still couldn't shake the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin after doing so much?

However, since he had returned, he had to take action no matter what. He didn't have the time to slowly accumulate manpower. Even his Eldest Senior Brother had clearly said that he had to prove Dao in a hundred years. Otherwise, he would have to create an avatar to delay the time.

From the beginning, Han Fei had treated saving the human race as an experience for him, an experience concerning Dao Proving. If he completed this experience independently, it was certain that he would prove Dao. Therefore, in essence, he only wanted to complete this experience with his own means and strength.

Even if the senior brothers and sisters of the Void Temple took action, they had better only help him restrain some existences that he didn't have the strength to deal with. Otherwise, if the senior brothers and sisters of the Void Temple all went to help him, his trial would become empty talk.

Therefore, if the other party had a Great Monarch, he would ask his senior brothers to help him, because that was completely beyond his ability. It was a favor to him for his senior brothers to help him. And the power borrowed with his strength could be considered a part of his trial.

Han Fei thought for a moment and made a decision. That was, if it was really impossible, he would temporarily abandon his plan to attack the City of Origin.

As for the fact that the City of Origin would take advantage of his action, Han Fei was not afraid. The City of Origin had nothing to do with his Dao Proving. He just wanted to kill An Bailin for Xia Xiaochan.

Since his current strength was limited, he didn't mind letting him live a little longer. When he found Xia Xiaochan, he would think of a way to attack the City of Origin.

Gu Tingnan looked at Han Fei tapping the table with a contemplative look and thought to himself, Even my analysis of the strength of the Scavengers' City is like this, but from Han Fei's expression, it's obvious that he still wants to fight. This means that Han Fei's trump card is probably far more than Puppet City.

This made him tempted. If this battle could really be fought, he was really willing to take the risk. After all, saving the human race was also his obsession.

Back then, as the Human King, he had proved Dao without being able to save the human race. In fact, from that moment on, he had a feeling that he was no longer the Human Emperor.

But even if he wasn't the Human Emperor, so what? He still had to save the human race!

What he was worried about now was whether Han Fei was confident enough. After all, he had built the City of Wanderers painstakingly. This city was the spiritual sustenance of countless people. If he didn't make this decision right, he might drag the entire City of Wanderers down with him.

Gu Tingnan asked, "You still think you can fight?"

Han Fei was silent for a moment. "Of course I can. I'm not conflicted about whether I can fight or not. Why, you don't want to fight?"

Gu Tingnan said lightly, "I really want to know where your confidence comes from. What if, I say, there is really a Great Monarch in the City of Scavengers?"

With that, Gu Tingnan looked outside, and Han Fei seemed to understand what he meant. He understood that Gu Tingnan had concerns, and his concerns were the City of Wanderers.

This made Han Fei vigilant again. When people had concerns, they would be overcautious, unlike him, who was alone and fearless.

Han Fei said, "I can fight this battle. It's just a little beyond my plan."

After that, Han Fei said, "Do you have anything else to tell me? For example, if we destroy the City of Scavengers and save the human race, the position of Human Emperor will definitely belong to me. You should have known this when you proved your Dao, right?"

In fact, Han Fei couldn't understand how Gu Tingnan could prove Dao. As the former Human Emperor, he led countless humans to cross the east to the Sea Realm. In the end, only a small portion of these people escaped, but most were enslaved by the City of Scavengers. Under such circumstances, Gu Tingnan could still prove Dao after going to the Sea Realm. Han Fei couldn't figure it out except that he had abandoned his responsibility as the Human Emperor.

Gu Tingnan said, "I didn't give up my responsibility completely. At that time, the entire human race had no powerhouse who had proved Dao. As you know, the human race has a large population, easily in the hundreds of millions. You've been to the Sea Realm, so you should know that who doesn't want such a huge population? The reason why the City of Scavengers wants to intercept and enslave the human race is naturally because of the human race's population and reproduction ability. It's precisely because the human race has a large population that the City of Scavengers expanded from only eight cities to a hundred cities. These hundred cities are mostly humans. The Ten Thousand Scales Race suppressed the growth of the human race and used the power of the human race to obtain resources just to strengthen themselves. Therefore, even if I have to give up the position of Human Emperor, I have to become stronger. Only by proving Dao can I have the conditions to establish myself in the Sea Realm and have a chance to save the human race."

Han Fei nodded slightly. He could understand that. Gu Tingnan was known as the Master of Silence, which sounded a bit lonely and frustrated. He led the human race into the Sea Realm, but most of them were enslaved by a foreign race, and only a small portion of the humans escaped. How could a Human Emperor stand this? It was already not bad that he still persisted.

After his travels in the Sea Realm, Gu Tingnan found that he couldn't contend with these superpowers even if he proved Dao. However, if he didn't become a Monarch, he might not even be able to protect the remaining humans. Therefore, under such circumstances, he had to prove his Dao at all costs.

He even regarded proving Dao as the first step to save the human race, but this choice was actually a compromise because this would cause the human race to be under long-term suppression.

For example, the human race had been enslaved for 100,000 years, but Gu Tingnan couldn't do anything even if he built the City of Wanderers here. Even if the City of Scavengers knew Gu Tingnan's purpose, they didn't care. They could still enslave the human race.

But Han Fei was different. He regarded saving the human race as the only condition for Dao Proving.

He wouldn't prove his Dao unless he had saved the human race. His determination and temperament were naturally higher than Gu Tingnan's.

Han Fei got up and stretched out his hand. Liu Qiansi turned into a stick and returned to Han Fei's hand. Han Fei said, "Before I attack the City of Scavengers, I have two things to do. It may take me a few years, decades, or even a hundred years. But the next time I come, the plan to save the human race will begin."

After that, Han Fei paused and said, "I can understand you, but I don't appreciate you."

With that, Han Fei walked out of the house without looking back. When he passed by Duan Qingsi, she seemed to be struggling. Han Fei felt that her vitality was escaping. Even her power was expanding. If he guessed right, the next time he saw Duan Qingsi, she would have five Dao Locks.

Swish ~

Watching Han Fei leave, Gu Tingnan didn't get up but said lightly, "How many people in the world can save the human race to prove his Dao? How much luck do you have?"

...

Liu Qiansi: "How big a war are you going to start? Why does it sound so dangerous?"

Han Fei said, "Whether it's dangerous or not, you can only follow me."

However, Liu Qiansi immediately asked again, "Can you give me a drop of that water too?"

Liu Qiansi was naturally referring to the Spring of Life, but Han Fei simply knocked him on the head. "What kind of dream do you have in broad daylight? I can't even bear to use it, and you want to use it? Is there something wrong with my head?"

Liu Qiansi: "..."

On the other side, in a comprehensive trading market in the City of Wanderers, there was a hubbub of voices, and simple shop plaques were erected everywhere.

Shops were everywhere, selling all kinds of things. There were also some teenagers running around, as well as those fruit spirits that looked like pill furnaces. They shouted along the way, "Do you need Sweet Pills? Sweet Pills for sale."

Han Fei waved his hand and a "small pill furnace" ran over, saying happily, "My lord, do you want to buy Sweet Pills?"

The little pill furnace was stunned for a moment and then was overjoyed. "Okay, Master, please wait a moment."

Seeing this scene, many people thought that someone had come to do charity again. Soon, Han Fei had three packs of Sweet Pills hanging on his waist, two spiritual fruits on his left hand, and a drink in his right hand.

"Gulp~"

Han Fei strolled in the market, but no one continued to sell things to Han Fei. These people were actually very considerate. They knew that Han Fei came here to buy so many things to take care of their business, but they couldn't take advantage of this mentality to consume Han Fei's love.

Outside a shop along the street in this market, a group of people were queuing up with number plates.

On the plaque of the shop, the words "Prophecy House" were hanging.

Han Fei listened and heard a voice in the house. "Your luck is in the north today. Something good will happen to you when you meet metal. You must be fast. After today, you won't have this luck."

"Huh? Thank you, Master. Thank you..."

The man couldn't hide the smile on his face and went out happily. Seeing this, the people outside couldn't help but say, "It seems that this guy is lucky today? Otherwise, why is he smiling like a flower?"

Someone said, "Old Feng, what made you so happy?"

The guy called Old Feng chuckled. "How can I tell you? Go, go, line up."

But at this moment, a lazy female voice appeared in the Prophecy House. "Alright, that's all for today! I'm tired."

"Oh, but we've queued here for a long time!"

Someone frowned, feeling that this master was too casual.

But someone immediately shouted, "Hey, the master is tired. She needs rest! Let's go and come again tomorrow."

After the uproar, the people in the line weren't annoyed. Instead, they wandered off to shop in twos and threes.

At this moment, a voice said in Han Fei's ear, "It's not polite to eavesdrop."

Han Fei shrugged. "Did I eavesdrop? You didn't even try to hide it. How can you blame me for hearing what you said?"

Creak!

The door of the Prophecy House opened, and Han Fei walked in openly. When Han Fei entered, people were discussing, Who is this? Didn't the master say that it was closed today? Why did she open a back door for this guy?

Unfortunately, they didn't dare to question her, so they could only keep their curiosity to themselves.

In the Prophecy Room, Mo Qi was lying on a rocking chair, her two long legs knocking on an unknown skull. She was wearing a strange glasses-like thing and playing with a jade-like bone in her hand.

Seeing Han Fei come in, Mo Qi threw the bone to Han Fei and said, "Take a look at this thing. What is it used to be? There are traces of the aura of a Great Monarch on this bone, so it's rather troublesome to trace it back."

Han Fei took the bone and stuffed it into the eye of a skeleton nearby, saying casually, "Do I look idle?"

Mo Qi grinned. "Isn't that so? You came here to do charity. With a Sweet Pill in your mouth and a drink in your hand, you look like you came here to shop."

Han Fei shrugged, took out a Sweet Pill, and stuffed it into his mouth. He said casually, "Look, I came back so soon. it's been only less than a hundred years although the deadline we agreed on last time was a thousand years later. So, when are we leaving?"

Mo Qi looked Han Fei up and down. "How many Dao Locks do you have now?"

Han Fei said, "Take a guess."

Mo Qi said, "Strange, I can't tell. But are you sure you want to go now? It's still early."

Han Fei said, "Time waits for no man. I have a lot of things to do. Since this agreement with you has already been made, let's end it quickly. When it's over here, I still have something to do."

"Oh?"

Mo Qi asked, "Do you have the capital to contend with the City of Scavengers? Although you're doing well in the Infinite Mining Area and have obtained the inheritance of a Great Monarch, I think your understanding of the City of Scavengers should still be a little lacking."

Han Fei asked, "How do you know that?"

Mo Qi said, "Of course! You killed many Monarchs in a row. Some Carefree Realm powerhouses even died in your hands. I'm really curious. How did you kill a Carefree Realm powerhouse? I'm really curious..."

Han Fei said, "Hehe, it seems that your Time Temple has a lot of spies."

Mo Qi said aggrievedly, "This has nothing to do with our Time Temple. It's simple if I want to know. The Infinite Mining Area has suddenly become so chaotic. I don't even need to consider others. It must be you. Only you, a direct disciple of the Void Temple, can cause such a huge uproar. There's no need for any information. Anyone in the Infinite Mining Area can tell me this information."

Han Fei didn't deny it. These things might be able to be hidden from others, but definitely not from Mo Qi.

Han Fei didn't waste time talking to Mo Qi. Instead, he said, "If you have the time to talk to me, why don't you tell me about the palace? Since you've already investigated it, you should have entered it and proved Dao. What made you unable to prove Dao even now?"

Mo Qi said, "You take Dao Proving too lightly. If it's so easy, why did you spend so much effort to personally destroy the City of Scavengers? My path isn't as difficult as you think, but it's not that simple. To be honest, that palace is a palace left behind by our Time Temple. In addition to exploring the significance of this palace's existence, I also have to kill a real ominous creature suppressed inside."

"A real ominous creature?"

Han Fei's heart trembled. What was the meaning of the Three Temple's existence? It was to resist the ominous. The so-called ominous creatures in the Chaotic Wasteland were all polluted by the ominous power. They couldn't be considered real ominous creatures.

Therefore, when Mo Qi mentioned the real ominous creatures, Han Fei was immediately curious. He wanted to see what the so-called ominous creatures were like.

Han Fei immediately asked, "Have you seen it?"

Mo Qi said, "No, but I've once fought it remotely with the Great Dao of Time. I was surprised to discover that all my strength seemed to have been seen through by it. I couldn't shake it at all. There were even several times when I suffered the backlash of time and had to recuperate."

Han Fei said, "If that's the case, you could've cooperated with the Ten Thousand Scale Race. Why did you wait for me to appear?"

Mo Qi said, "Do you think I didn't? But people who haven't walked the Great Dao of Time can't enter that palace at all."

Han Fei asked, "Well... do you mean that you can't beat the danger inside?"

Mo Qi said, "Not exactly. It's just that I have to consume too much energy if I need to break through the various time barriers. Furthermore, that ominous creature seems to be very proficient in the Great Dao of Time, so I suffered a disadvantage."

Han Fei asked, "Then do you think my half-baked Great Dao of Time will work?"

Mo Qi said, "You're a disciple of the Void Temple! I don't believe we can't kill it."

Han Fei: "..."

Chapter 2654: Time Revival Technique (2 in 1)

2654 Time Revival Technique (2 in 1)

"Is this a matter of quantity?"

Han Fei was very speechless at Mo Qi's comprehension ability. Regardless of whether you were a disciple of the Time Temple or the Void Temple, you weren't gods, so you might die.

In danger, the combat power of two people couldn't be superimposed. Just because one person couldn't do it didn't mean that two people could.

The corners of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "Don't you have anything reliable to say? At least tell me what the real ominous creatures are like, right? What are their abilities and what are their abilities? Don't just say that they are powerful. I know they are powerful! If they aren't powerful, how can they be suppressed by a palace?"

Mo Qi said, "Uh... He seems to have mastered the Great Dao of Time."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "In other words, the so-called ominous creatures actually have the same cultivation ability as us. They have to master various laws of the Great Dao, and they have to use various combat skills?"

Mo Qi: "That seems to be the case."

Han Fei asked, "As a disciple of the Time Temple, have you never seen a real ominous creature?"

However, Mo Qi looked at Han Fei and said, "As a disciple of the Void Temple, have you seen it?"

"I... Fine! No matter what, let's take a look first."

Mo Qi asked, "Why are you in such a hurry? Don't you need to prepare?"

Han Fei asked, "Prepare for what? I don't know anything except that the danger is a real ominous creature. Besides, I told you I was busy. I have a lot of things to do. I'm here just to fulfill my promise to you."

After a pause, Han Fei suddenly looked at Mo Qi and said, "But let me make it clear in advance. If this matter is too dangerous, you'll owe me a favor. This concerns your Dao Proving. If you succeed in Dao Proving, do you think it's worth it?"

"Sure."

Mo Qi didn't hesitate. "As long as I can prove Dao, a favor is nothing."

Han Fei said, "This favor is to help me deal with the City of Scavengers."

Mo Qi said, "I know. I've guessed it. Your path of trial is similar to mine. Otherwise, you could've just gotten your senior brothers and sisters from the Void Temple to sweep through the Chaotic Wasteland. Why would you go through so much trouble? However, I can help you, but I won't risk my life. I estimate that there are many Dao Provers in the City of Scavengers. Even if I prove Dao, it's hard to say how many of them I can deal with."

Han Fei said, "It's okay. I don't mind."

For Han Fei, every ounce of strength he encountered was worth cherishing. Not to mention a Dao Proving-Level Monarch, even a Perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouse would be good.

Mo Qi said, "Alright! Since you're in such a hurry, let's go! I've waited for this day for too long. By the way, the rod in your hand seems to be a little strange. Why do I always feel a strong vitality from it?"

"Huh? It's alive?"

Mo Qi leaned over and wanted to look at Liu Qiansi, but as soon as she walked over, she saw Liu Qiansi roll a few times and stay far away from her. Then he said, "What are you looking at? Haven't you ever seen a rod?"

Liu Qiansi had been living in the Stormy Quicksand Sea and knew very little about the outside world. If Han Fei hadn't brought him out, God knew how long he would have stayed inside. Therefore, even if he heard about the Great Dao of Time, the Time Temple, and so on, he didn't feel anything, so her words were very blunt. After all, Mo Qi wasn't his master.

Mo Qi: "..."

A certain blue halo flashed across Mo Qi's face. A few seconds later, she curled her lips and said, "Heh, so it's a tree! Even a Dao Proving Level tree is so arrogant now? Believe it or not, I can throw you into the time turbulence. I guarantee you won't live to the next day."

Liu Qiansi: "..."

Han Fei said, "Okay, just let him stay in your place for a while. If this trip involves the Great Dao of Time, it will be inconvenient for him to go."

Liu Qiansi pointed at Liu Qiansi. "Will he run away? Do you want me to throw him into another timeline and fish him out when you come back?"

Liu Qiansi couldn't have felt worse. "Hey, woman, I'm at the Dao Proving Level. You, a mere Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator, want to mess with me?"

Mo Qi giggled. "Your master can cross realms to kill Dao Provers. Do you think I can't?"

The Chaotic Wasteland was covered in ice. In the depths, there would inevitably be tidal waves every hundred years.

Now, there were still decades to go before the hundred-year deadline. Han Fei didn't have the time to find out the exact source of the tidal waves. However, the palace of the Time Temple was only halfway through the impact of the tidal waves. It might be related to the tidal waves.

Three days later.

As Han Fei and Mo Qi got closer and closer to the palace, the number of ominous creatures around increased. And the strength of these ominous creatures naturally became stronger and stronger.

Along the way, because of the remnants of the ominous power last time, many ordinary ominous creatures had reached the Sky Opening Realm after devouring each other. They chased Han Fei and Mo Qi the whole way.

Han Fei asked, "Is the tide coming from this direction?"

Mo Qi said, "Yes, but when I was bored, I investigated the source of the tidal waves, but I discovered that this was beyond my ability. Let me give you a guess. I think the source of the tidal waves might be related to the secrets of the Chaotic Wasteland. Of course, I'm not very concerned about this matter. You might be, but I suggest you don't try to investigate it for the time being. There's an ominous Miasma behind, the kind that doesn't disperse all year round. Perhaps you can only see the road ahead when the tidal waves erupt."

Han Fei said, "I'm not interested for the time being."

Han Fei was really not interested. There were so many secrets in this world. If he had to learn every secret, he would be exhausted.

Besides, the exploration of secrets had to be based on one's own strength. When the tidal waves came, it was unknown how long he could hold out if he rushed into the depths of the tidal waves.

Under the obstruction of the ominous creatures along the way, it took Han Fei and the others a total of five days to reach the place Mo Qi mentioned.

As soon as he arrived, Han Fei felt the surrounding Time Dao runes. There was a blue halo circulating between the heavens and earth. To put it bluntly, he couldn't see the so-called palace at all.

Mo Qi activated the Great Dao of Time and opened an entrance at a specific spatial node.

Mo Qi said, "It's not too difficult to find this entrance, but it's very difficult for people not mastering the Great Dao of Time to enter. Even if I take him in, he will only die because he can't deal with the power of time later."

After Han Fei followed Mo Qi into the time barrier, he immediately felt a large amount of chaotic time power. Han Fei wasn't familiar with such chaotic time, but here, time was disordered. It might be static, fast forward, retrograde, or even parallel.

Therefore, if one wanted to enter this time barrier, he had to use the Great Dao of Time. Han Fei activated the Great Dao of Time, causing the surrounding Great Dao of Time to form a time cycle, excluding all chaotic power, forming an independent miniature time barrier.

"Huh!"

Mo Qi said in surprise, "What kind of high-level usage is this? Why don't I know it?"

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Everyone has their own comprehension. There are many things that you know but I don't know."

Mo Qi said, "It's different. You can learn what you don't know. However, this time cycle seems to follow a certain rule. I've never seen anyone use such a high-level usage. Hey, can you teach me this?"

Han Fei said, "If you can help me kill an immortal-level powerhouse or block three carefree-level powerhouses, I'll be happy to teach you."

Mo Qi: "Me? Do you think I can do it?"

Han Fei said, "I didn't say it had to be you. I can make an exchange with your Time Temple, if you really don't know how to use the time cycle."

Mo Qi said, "I don't have the final say, but I can give it a try."

Han Fei didn't really take it to heart. He just said this in passing. Logically speaking, the strong masters of the Time Temple should know how to use the time cycle. It was just that some people hadn't learned it.

Han Fei asked, "How long will we have to walk?"

Mo Qi said, "Not long. There will be an undirected time turbulence later. We'll be fine after walking it through."

"Undirected time turbulence?"

From the name, one could naturally tell the danger. If one wasn't careful, they would be involved in any time node and appear in an unknown time that didn't belong to the present.

In that unknown time, it was difficult for Sky Openers to break the rules of that time and descend or interfere with that world. This made those caught up in it have to fumble and search back and forth in the turbulence of time to find the way back. Of course, it was also possible that they might never be able to return.

After a while, when Han Fei saw a river-like time turbulence, his first reaction was that wasn't this the river of time?

However, Mo Qi reminded him, "time turbulence is different from the river of time. Although there are also paths to follow, this river is filled with time turbulence and chaotic time nodes. Especially those time nodes, don't be swept by them."

With that, Mo Qi didn't worry that Han Fei wouldn't be able to keep up and stepped into it first. Han Fei followed closely behind. The two of them were like two little worms in the time turbulence. The time cycle barrier around Han Fei was immediately impacted by the violent time turbulence. Although it wasn't dispersed by the impact, it formed a ring-like circle around Han Fei. It was as if Han Fei had become a star with gravity, and the blue halos surrounding him were chaotic time and time nodes.

Mo Qi immediately exclaimed, "Stay away from me. How can you gather time with the power of the Time Cycle?"

Han Fei was a little stunned himself, but his reaction was not slow. Because under the strong impact of the time turbulence, the cycle power around him was like a spinning wheel, reordering the chaotic time into orderly time, resulting in the current situation.

Han Fei even thought that if he could freeze the time turbulence at this moment, he would have the ability to return to different nodes.

Unfortunately, Han Fei didn't have the ability to freeze the time turbulence yet.

Bang!

When Han Fei got out of this time turbulence, he even brought out some time nodes, but they were sucked back by the time turbulence.

Mo Qi looked at Han Fei strangely. "Although you don't seem to have walked very far on the Great Dao of Time, your grasp of the Great Dao of Time is very unique. If you can enter the Time Temple, you will definitely be a Heavenly Talent of the Time Temple."

Han Fei ignored Mo Qi and glanced at the surrounding space. He couldn't help but say in surprise, "This is a space completely formed by the power of time, and it's a motionless space."

For a moment, Han Fei couldn't distinguish the concept of time and space.

Mo Qi said, "In space, time doesn't necessarily exist. But in time, there must be space. By freezing a space with the power of time, this space can last forever."

"Interesting."

Han Fei looked into the depths of this space. From afar, it seemed to be flashing with a star. However, Han Fei's eyesight and perception could see that it was a palace. It didn't look like a large space, at least much smaller than Chu Hao's Monarch Palace in the Raging Sea.

Of course, it was also possible that there was another world inside the palace.

The palace was shackled from multiple angles by eighteen chains of time as if it was locked in midair by the chains, looking very mysterious.

Han Fei asked, "Is this the palace?"

Mo Qi said, "This is it. Let's go. I'll take you closer to take a look."

In this time-freezing space, no matter how long it took, time wouldn't change in the outside world.

However, this didn't mean that Han Fei and Mo Qi wouldn't grow old if they didn't go out here. As outsiders, there would be spontaneous time passing on them, which had nothing to do with this space. In other words, they would still grow up and age.

Otherwise, the Time Temple could achieve immortality. If a super-large time-freezing space was built, one would only leave when needed, which was equivalent to immortality!

When the two of them came to the front of the palace, Han Fei frowned slightly. There was a time barrier outside the palace.

Mo Qi said, "It's this barrier, but this isn't just a time barrier, but many heavy killing arrays. I've broken through these layers of barriers several times, but I was ambushed by the ominous creature inside when I tried to break through the barrier, so I haven't really been able to enter this palace."

Han Fei was puzzled. "In that case, why are you sure that it's an ominous creature inside?"

Mo Qi said, "My seniors told me! It wasn't until I found this place and fought my way here that she said that I had to solve this trap by myself. In the end, I wasted ten thousand years. However, after such a long time, I thought that I was already very powerful and had a very strong understanding of the Great Dao of Time, but I still couldn't withstand the sneak attack of this ominous creature inside."

Han Fei said, "Then have you ever thought that maybe this palace shouldn't be broken in such a way?"

Mo Qi said, "The palace is here, the killing array is here, and the sneak attacker is inside. If it weren't broken this way, how should it be broken? In fact, if it weren't for the fact that the ominous creature inside is very good at the Great Dao of Time and that he often sneak attacked me when I was launching Time Great Technique, I wouldn't have been unable to pass it."

Han Fei asked, "So, what do you want me to do?"

Mo Qi said, "You have also grasped the Great Dao of Time, and your combat strength is also not bad. I can break these killing arrays, so can you. Therefore, I need you to help me block all the Great Dao of Time and killing arrays in front. I'll guard against the sneak attack of the ominous creature and eventually kill my way into the palace."

Han Fei understood. Mo Qi hoped he could assist her. He would restrain the time barrier and killing arrays at the periphery so that she could focus on the ominous creature in the palace.

From Mo Qi's tone, Han Fei could tell that she planned to face the ominous creature alone. After all, this was her trial. If she had a choice, she didn't want others to help her. Even before Han Fei appeared, she had been studying how to complete this trial by herself.

Han Fei asked, "Can you? I can trap all the killing arrays in the periphery, but I don't know if there are any stronger killing arrays in the palace. What if the ominous creature ambushes you in the palace and kills you?"

Mo Qi immediately said angrily, "I'm a disciple of the Time Temple after all. How can I die so easily?"

Han Fei pouted. "Okay! Whatever you say."

In any case, he just needed to assist her. This trip was naturally the most important thing in Mo Qi's life, but to Han Fei, it was just an ordinary experience in his life.

Han Fei had never been worried that anything would happen to him here, because this was Mo Qi's Dao Proving trial. It meant that the danger here should be within Mo Qi's tolerance range. With his current strength, even Dao Provers were generally no match for him. Therefore, he was confident that he wouldn't encounter an insurmountable danger.

At this moment, Han Fei clearly felt that Mo Qi was no longer teasing but was highly tense.

Upon seeing this, Han Fei walked out of the outer barrier of the palace without hesitation and said, "The prerequisite to Dao Proving is the stability of one's Dao heart. How can a mere trial shake the heart of a disciple of the Three Temples? Come..."

At this moment, Han Fei was carefree and unrestrained. His strong Dao heart and absolute confidence allowed him to cut open this time barrier with a single slash.

Mo Qi: "Alright, with your confidence, today is the day I, Mo Qi, prove my Dao."

The two of them entered the second barrier one after another.

As soon as he came in, what Han Fei felt was that time was like raindrops, turning into thousands of fragments of time that floated around Han Fei. These fragments were all the various fragments Han Fei had experienced in his life.

From him entering this world, getting to know He Xiaoyu, getting to know Xia Xiaochan, Zhang Xuanyu and the others to him going from the level-two fishery to the Scattered Stars Island and going from the Water-Wood World to the Thousand Star City...

For some reason, these memories of the past were reflected in these fragments of time. If that was all, the power of time that enveloped these fragments turned into long knives that slashed at Han Fei.

Clang!

Han Fei flicked his finger and tried to shatter the Time Blades with normal power. However, the Time Blades ignored Han Fei's attack and even passed through without any resistance.

Han Fei didn't panic. He grabbed at the air and drew out the Great Dao of Time as a saber. As he slashed out, the surrounding Time Blades of time shattered.

As for Mo Qi, she followed behind Han Fei on the right without attacking the entire time. She looked like a puppet and didn't move at all.

Buzz!

When these Time Blades were pierced through, Han Fei snorted casually. "Petty tricks. I hate it when others trigger my memories."

Han Fei muttered and was about to continue charging forward when he saw that the shattered Time Blades had scattered into flowing time lines. As these time lines increased, they seemed to become a small river that surrounded Han Fei and Mo Qi.

Han Fei discovered that he had fallen into a quagmire of time. He felt that he couldn't carry out the Great Dao of Time as if he had fallen into a silent state.

"It's the Time Cage. This is about the Great Dao of Time. It requires the Great Dao of Time to forcibly break through. It'll consume a lot of energy."

Upon seeing this, Mo Qi reminded him. She didn't know how far Han Fei had gone in the Great Dao of Time, so she reminded him. This was because this was the earliest time the Time Cage had burst out.

Swish ~

The moment Mo Qi reminded Han Fei, a time explosion suddenly appeared where Mo Qi was.

At the moment that time was annihilated, a small time storm formed here. Mo Qidao wasn't very panicked. She formed seals with both hands. "Time Stop, Annihilate."

Han Fei saw the annihilation of a space within a very small range. The time storm turned into a singularity, and even the small area of space that was restricted was sucked into the singularity.

After fending off the surprise attack of an unknown force, Mo Qi heaved a sigh of relief and quickly looked at Han Fei. Han Fei raised his hands and a pair of scimitars appeared in his hands.

“Rip ~”

Without using the Great Dao of Time to resist this cage-like river of time, Han Fei only summoned the Blade of Hope. He didn’t use many of these double knives, but the Blade of Hope was a godly weapon that could cross the river of time. They were not affected by time and could even exist for endless years in the river of time.

Therefore, shaking off the time cage with this knife was the most energy-saving way.

“Huh!”

Even though Mo Qi knew that she shouldn’t be distracted at this moment, she couldn’t help but exclaim in surprise when she saw the Blade of Hope. This was the first time she had seen a weapon that could cut open the cage of time. What kind of weapon was this?

However, Han Fei shouted in a low voice, “Don’t be distracted. The one inside is indeed powerful. While restraining me, he even tried to attack you. Interesting.”

Han Fei smiled. The killing arrays here were all killing arrays related to the Great Dao of Time. Furthermore, from the changes in the arrays here and the use of the power of the Great Dao, they were indeed controlled by someone.

Han Fei couldn’t help but wonder. Did the ominous creatures walk the same path as the myriad races in the Sea Realm? Did they all need to cultivate and master some kind of Great Dao? If so, what was the difference between the ominous creatures and the myriad races in the Sea Realm?

Just now, it was because he was trapped in the cage of time that Han Fei thought of the powerful power of the Blade of Hope. But now he suddenly realized that the Blade of Hope seemed to be a little resistant to the Great Dao of Time. Later, when he encountered a dozen kinds of arrays and powers in a row, Han Fei used the Blade of Hope to break all of them.

This made it almost impossible to use these Time Killing Arrays to besiege him and Mo Qi. This was because the ominous creature needed to constantly change its tricks, and Han Fei only needed to kill it with one slash.

Seeing that the palace was getting clearer and clearer in the eyes of the two of them, Han Fei even teased, “I thought this ominous creature was very strong. It seems that he only knows the Great Dao of Time. He’s very unfamiliar with great techniques, weapons, and combat skills!”

Suddenly, in Han Fei and Mo Qi’s vision, the two of them saw a huge scorpion. It had heavy blue armor that was shiny and had seven hooks on its tail.

“How is that possible?”

Han Fei was surprised. “How can there be any creatures in this damn place?”

Han Fei was shocked. Did he encounter a creature that lived in the river of time like the Time Dragon Carp? If it was that kind of creature, it would be really dangerous. Such creatures were usually very strange and unpredictable.

But in the next moment, Han Fei discovered that no information appeared in his eyes.

“Huh? Is it fake?”

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The seven long hooks of the scorpion tails seemed to burst out at a speed that Han Fei didn't have time to block. Han Fei only had time to slash with the Blade of Hope, thinking that if this thing was formed from the Great Dao of Time, the Blade of Hope should be able to break it with one slash.

Bang!

In the next moment, Han Fei was sent flying, and seven bloody marks appeared on his body.

“Huh? It's not fake?”

Han Fei frowned. His attack was blocked? This meant that not only was this scorpion real, but its strength wasn't in the Sky Opening realm at all. Since it wasn't at the Sky Opening realm, it could only be at the Dao Proving realm. However, why couldn't the Demon Purification Pot see the other party's information?

Similarly, a swift phantom swept past Mo Qi. Han Fei found that Mo Qi's combat technique was a little abnormal. She actually took out a palm-sized turtle shell.

As soon as the turtle shell was thrown out, it turned into a huge silver-armored turtle with a whoosh. Mo Qi stood on the silver-armored turtle, wearing a silver battle suit.

However, when Mo Qi used this turtle shell, her Great Dao of Time had been locked onto the silver-armored turtle. She had even prepared another time technique as if she was prepared to attack at any time.

Clang!

The stream of light bounced away, and Mo Qi said, “This technique is one of the six great divine techniques of the Time Temple. It's called the Time Resurrection Technique. It can trace the remains of a powerful creature and resurrect it for a very short time.”

Han Fei gaped in shock and asked, “Really?”

God of Fishing

2655 Ominous Mo Qi (2 in 1)

There were many marvelous techniques in this world, but this was the first time Han Fei had seen such a technique that could resurrect powerful creatures to make them fight for the user.

This technique was even more powerful than Han Fei's Time Fishing Technique. Time Fishing could only be carried out when one was in contact with a known powerhouse and the other party was aware of it.

But this Time Resurrection Technique could resurrect a strong master to fight for the user with only a piece of wreckage. If he had many remains of powerful creatures, wouldn't he be able to achieve infinite summoning?

Unfortunately, now was not the time to discuss this technique with Mo Qi. If this technique was really one of the six great divine arts of the Time Temple, there was no reason for her to tell him so easily.

Even if he used the Time Cycle to exchange for it, they probably wouldn't accept it. Fortunately, he had wanted to use the Time Cycle to exchange for an opportunity for the Time Temple to take action. Now it seemed that they might not even want it.

The light that ambushed Mo Qi was shaken back. Only then did Han Fei discover that it was a long snake-shaped fish that emitted a pale yellow glow. Its body was triangular, and the triangular shape was like a sharp blade. If Mo Qi had reacted a little slower, she might have been pierced by this thing.

Han Fei, on the other hand, didn't see it coming, so he was hooked a few times. However, such an attack was insignificant to Han Fei now. His hook could've torn a Dao Lock-level powerhouse into pieces, but it could only leave shallow wounds on Han Fei's body.

In the next moment, Han Fei extended his fingers and launched a counterattack. With the power of the Ragnarok, he blew up the scorpion.

"So strong."

Mo Qi was a little stunned. Is this the legacy disciple of the Void Temple? It was said that the combat power of the people from the Void Temple was the best in the Three Temples. Seeing Han Fei fight with her own eyes today, she was still taken aback. Others didn't know how terrifying the Time Resurrection Technique was, but she did.

All the disciples of the Time Temple who could come into contact with the Time Resurrection Technique had prepared dozens or even hundreds of powerful prehistoric skeletons. More importantly, the skeletons they prepared were definitely not as strong as themselves but stronger.

In any case, it would only take a short period of time for her to be resurrected. With Mo Qi's current strength, she could resurrect the skeleton of a Dao Proving Realm creature. It would take about 30 seconds.

Including the fish that ambushed him and the scorpions that attacked Han Fei, they were all at the Dao Proving realm.

She knew that even if this scorpion could hurt Han Fei, it would only be a minor injury. But she didn't expect it to be killed by Han Fei without even being able to launch a second attack.

Indeed, the rumors about the Infinite Mining Area weren't fake at all. Mo Qi thought that although she could also kill a Dao Proving realm powerhouse, it wouldn't be so simple and casual. She really didn't expect that in just a few hundred years, the guy who had to be careful even in the City of Scavengers might have already surpassed her in strength.

They were both disciples of the Three Temple, but she seemed a little weak. Her growth of more than 10,000 years was not comparable to his hundreds of years of cultivation. Just thinking about it made her a little depressed.

However, Mo Qi didn't stand on ceremony with Han Fei at this moment. She said, "Kill the one attacking me too! This technique isn't his killer move. I have to be in my peak state at all times to deal with the guy inside."

Han Fei didn't refute her. Mo Qi had waited for more than 10,000 years to prove Dao, so she naturally had to be careful. Since he had helped her, he naturally wouldn't be stingy with his help.

When the triangular fish pierced again, Han Fei pretended to reach out and grab it, but in fact, he stole the other party's speed with the Void Stealing Technique. Immediately afterward, he slashed again. With a long sound, the long fish was rolled from head to tail and finally turned into a small piece of bone, shattering on the spot.

At that moment, there was a brief silence, and the surrounding power of time was no longer circulating. There was no telling if the ominous creature inside was also stunned by Han Fei's actions.

Seeing this scene, Mo Qi was overjoyed. Cooperating with Han Fei was more comfortable than she had imagined.

Mo Qi said, "Don't be smug. He can still use such a resurrection technique many times. In the past, I fought him once and used the Time Resurrection Technique hundreds of times. It was because of her that I had to recuperate for more than three thousand years and almost died here."

Han Fei asked, "Why? Can't your resurrected creature beat the one he resurrected? Since you have this resurrection technique, can't you get more skeletons of powerhouses and kill him with numbers?"

Mo Qi said, "It's not that simple. As I said just now, this technique isn't his trump card. He can abduct all the creatures I revive with the Time Resurrection Technique and turn them into his combat power. Back then, I was chased by nearly 200 revived creatures and had to use my secret method to escape."

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "So you mean..."

In the next moment, Han Fei felt the turbulence in front of him. The hundreds of strange creatures that ran out at once rendered him speechless.

Han Fei shouted angrily, "Damn it! Why didn't you tell me that earlier?"

Mo Qi said, "What's the rush? Do you think I'll make two mistakes on the same matter? I'm waiting for now. Time Tide..."

With that said, the turtle that Mo Qi had resurrected just now suddenly self-destructed, forming a time tide. Wherever the tide enveloped, the timeline would shift. Although the revived creatures had already hurriedly prepared to evacuate, half of them were still covered.

All the creatures caught in the time tide disappeared without a trace.

In the next moment, Mo Qi laughed. "Haha, you've been tricked! I've been tricking people since I was a child. Who do you think you are?"

Han Fei seemed to get to know Mo Qi again. It turned out that this guy was already prepared. No wonder when she took out the turtle shell just now, she seemed very nervous as if she was prepared to do something at any time. It turned out that she resurrected the turtle on purpose. She was so careful because she was afraid that the turtle would be taken away by that person.

Perhaps the ominous creature inside felt that a turtle was insignificant in the battle, so it didn't take it away, resulting in this outcome.

In this space, time was clearly static, but Mo Qi could use the turtle to establish a channel between here and the outside world, tricking so many revived creatures.

Han Fei didn't discover this at all. Perhaps Mo Qi had been setting up a trap since a long time ago, but she didn't use it until this moment.

However, no matter what, the methods of the Time Temple were indeed a little terrifying. Dozens of Dao Proving realm creatures were sent to another timeline.

This was much easier than killing dozens of Dao Proving realm powerhouses. Otherwise, if there were really so many Dao Proving realm powerhouses chasing them, Han Fei and Mo Qi would have to escape.

However, Han Fei said, "Hey, hey. Don't be smug yet. There are still a dozen or so people who haven't been dealt with."

Mo Qi said, "There will always be fish that escape the net. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to invite you here! But don't panic. As long as you last for more than ten seconds, these resurrected creatures will annihilate themselves. I can't escape the pursuit of 200 resurrected creatures, but I can certainly deal with more than a dozen resurrected creatures. Besides, you're here, aren't you?"

Han Fei: "..."

Yes, Mo Qi went on strike again. She regained her previous cautious state.

Han Fei said, "Hey, will the ominous creature inside keep some remains of the creature, waiting to resurrect them to continue to fight you?"

Han Fei felt that the ominous creature inside was quite strange. It had all kinds of tricks and was determined to stop Mo Qi outside the palace.

As for Mo Qi, she seemed to be in a passive position, but her heart was actually filled with schemes. There was no telling what she was thinking.

Mo Qi said, "Let's get through this first!"

At this moment, the remaining sixteen revived creatures at the Dao Proving realm attacked Han Fei and the others.

Han Fei calculated in his heart. Although the combat power of these resurrected creatures was not at their peak, they were definitely not weak. If sixteen of them came at him at once, Han Fei believed that he could only take a beating. When he and Mo Qi were separated, they might be defeated one by one.

Han Fei took out a turtle shell.

The moment this turtle shell was taken out, Mo Qi was stunned. Wait, are you going to learn from me? But I've already used this move!

However, even though the move had been used, the resurrected creatures stopped one after another. After being stunned for a few seconds, half of the resurrected creatures continued to rush over, ready to test it out. Obviously, the one inside was afraid that he would be tricked by the same move, so he only let half of the resurrected creatures rush up.

However, Han Fei wasn't Mo Qi. Although he often schemed against others, that was under the rules he had set, not on someone else's home ground, and in this strange environment.

"Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique."

Buzz!

In a dark void, Han Fei shouted, "Come here."

"OK!"

Mo Qi swooshed into the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique. Then she heaved a sigh of relief and said, "You scared me. I thought you also knew the Time Resurrection Technique. However, what level is your turtle shell? You can use the talent technique on this turtle shell without resurrection."

Han Fei chuckled in his heart. Do I have to tell you that this is the Mystic Martial Monarch Armor? Even a Great Monarch could block it, not to mention a group of revived creatures at the Dao Proving realm.

Sure enough, when the revived creatures saw that Han Fei wasn't causing trouble, they all rushed over.

However, the dozen or so resurrected creatures crazily attacked the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique, but they couldn't shake it at all.

At this moment, Han Fei was like a bug. He shouldn't have appeared in Mo Qi's trial, but he happened to come and became a bug.

After looking at the super strong defense power of the Turtle Shell Sealing Heaven Array, Mo Qi said thoughtfully, "If you have this treasure, doesn't it mean that you can directly take me into the palace? What's the point of my trial? No, no, when this wave of revived creatures is gone, you'd better remove this thing."

Han Fei shrugged. "Of course! Otherwise, it will ruin your trial. But are you sure you can enter the palace by yourself? I think the person inside is also an old fox."

Mo Qi said, "Of course. It's precisely because the guy inside is unscrupulous that my trial is difficult. Otherwise, I would have proved Dao long ago."

Han Fei said, "Hey! Are you sure that the one inside is an ominous creature? Why do I feel that he's from your Time Temple? That Time Dao is as good as yours."

Mo Qi said, "My elders said that it's an ominous creature, so it must be an ominous creature. They won't lie to me about my Dao Proving. Therefore, I'm also very curious about what the ominous creature inside is like and why he's so familiar with the Great Dao of Time."

Twenty seconds later, the resurrected creatures outside all dispersed on their own. Han Fei waved his hand and the Mystic Martial Monarch Armor returned to his body.

This time, there was no obstruction around, and the killing array regarding the Great Dao of Time no longer existed. It seemed that the person inside had also realized that the helper Mo Qi had brought this time and Mo Qi's small methods had dodged most of his methods.

Since then, the second time barrier had been officially broken. All that was left was the palace itself.

It was not until here that Han Fei finally saw the palace clearly. There were no windows, and it was shaped like a princess's castle. The red and pink decorations on the outside made it look a little lively. There was only one door in the palace, which was not big, only two meters square. The gray and green bronze door was incompatible with the tall palace itself.

Seeing this palace, Han Fei crossed his arms. "Then go. It's up to you whether you can come out alive or not. I'll wait for you for a while, but not long. Or, you can leave me a life tablet."

Mo Qi snorted coldly. "I won't die."

Han Fei asked, "What if there are hundreds of revived creatures waiting for you inside?"

Mo Qi said, "That's impossible. If this place is so dangerous, it's impossible for the elders in my family to let me complete this trial independently. More than 10,000 years is long enough. I still have to settle scores with them when I go back. If I'm killed, humph, let's see if my master will turn the Time Temple upside down."

Han Fei shrugged. "Okay, in that case, you can go now!"

Swish!

Mo Qi took a step forward, preparing to go to the entrance of the palace. But in the next moment, she saw a stream of time swords sweep past. She had only taken half a step when she was beaten back.

When Mo Qi stood still, the power of time activated on her body, setting up a time shield around her.

"You're out?"

Han Fei was also stunned. As a third party, he felt a sense of familiarity when he saw this person.

"This seems to be... Mo Qi herself."

Yes, Han Fei was instantly refreshed. Wasn't this person emitting a dense ominous aura Mo Qi herself?

Mo Qi was also stunned. She opened her mouth wide, but then she scolded angrily, "Who are you? How dare you transform into me? I'll kill you on the spot."

However, the ominous Mo Qi said with a smile, "I'm pretending to be you? I'm you, and you're me. I have all your memories. Tell me, who am I?"

"Nonsense!"

Mo Qi was furious. "Stop pretending. I'll tear you apart."

Mo Qi suddenly pounced forward, and a Coiled Snake soared into the air behind her. A jade-colored bone spear stabbed out in her hand, wrapped in the rich power of time.

This wasn't Mo Qi's own weapon, but an ancient blow she had borrowed with the bones of an old powerhouse.

As for the ominous Mo Qi, she took out a crystal ball. A prehistoric behemoth sea dragon suddenly appeared in the crystal ball. He swung his tail and shattered Mo Qi's bone spear.

As for Mo Qi, she retreated in shock and exclaimed, "How can you know my secret?"

The ominous Mo Qi said, "I told you that I am you, and you are me. You and I are originally one. Do you think you're the only one who wants to kill me to prove Dao? Do you think I don't want to kill you? If I hadn't been trapped here all this time, I would have long rushed out to kill you to prove Dao."

With that, the ominous Mo Qi looked at Han Fei. "However, I didn't expect you to bring an outsider to help you on the path of proving Dao. Is this your way of proving Dao?"

Mo Qi didn't know how to answer for a moment.

Han Fei was the same. He was dumbfounded as he watched from the side. Ominous Mo Qi? No wonder she was so proficient in the Great Dao of Time. He had wondered why ominous creatures could play the Great Dao of Time so well. It turned out that this so-called ominous creature was actually Mo Qi herself!

If that was the case, did it mean that the mysterious young powerhouse in the Dao Enlightenment Palace of the Divine Capital Dynasty was referring to this?

Mo Qi's path of proving Dao was to sever her ominous body. Then what about him? Wouldn't his situation be the same as Mo Qi's? According to this situation, wouldn't his ominous body know all his upbringing?

Suddenly, Han Fei thought of something and said to the ominous Mo Qi, "From the looks of it, you and Mo Qi should have separated tens of thousands of years ago. Logically speaking, no matter what, you shouldn't be stronger than her now. What makes you think you can kill her?"

"Humph, can't I cultivate? In terms of cultivation talent, I'm not inferior to her. This place is unique. Although I'm restricted here, I can cultivate wholeheartedly and comprehend the Great Dao of Time at a tremendous speed. Why can't I kill her?"

Mo Qi looked at Han Fei. "Aren't you surprised at all? Why is there such a thing?"

Han Fei said, "Everyone has darkness and ominousness in their bodies. The further you go, the harder it is to get rid of them. If you don't know it yourself, this must be the path paved for you by the strong masters in your Time Temple in advance, so that you can kill her and prove Dao. It's just that you didn't realize it until today."

The corners of Han Fei's mouth curled up slightly. Hearing this ominous Mo Qi's words, he was much relieved. This was because ever since they separated, this ominous Mo Qi had been cultivating on her own.

If that was the case, Han Fei didn't think that the dark and ominous side of him would be stronger than his current self. In that case, the young man in the Dao Enlightenment Palace had indeed given him very important information.

Otherwise, if he waited until he embarked on the path of extreme balance or proved Dao before slashing out this ominous side, he would end up like Mo Qi. He might not be able to defeat him.

Perhaps, this was why the mysterious powerhouse said that this person would return to the past to kill him before he was born. It was probably because he was cut out of his body too early and realized that he might be no match for him in the future, so he thought of killing him before he was born.

However, on the other hand, neither Mo Qi nor his path was simple. It was even to the extent that his path might be even more difficult.

Perhaps it wasn't too difficult for him to kill her. Just saving the human race and destroying the Ten Thousand Scales Race was probably much more difficult than Mo Qi killing herself.

After all, Mo Qi had a 50-50 chance to kill herself. She and this ominous Mo Qi relied on their own strength to cultivate. They depended on their own strength to win. However, destroying the Ten Thousand Scales Race didn't depend on strength alone.

Mo Qi said in surprise, "There's something ominous in everyone's body? How did you know?"

Han Fei said, "But I didn't know that this was your path to prove Dao. Besides, don't believe her nonsense. From the moment she was cut out of your body, you were no longer one. You were two separate individuals."

The ominous Mo Qi snorted coldly. "Have you had enough chatting? This battle is ultimately a battle between you and me. It has nothing to do with this person. However, you found someone to help you complete the trial. You're already disadvantaged. Do you want this person to help you kill me?"

Han Fei shrugged. "I won't participate. You can fight by yourselves. However, you are an ominous creature. Even if you win, I will kill you."

"Kill me? You might not know this, but I haven't completely become ominous yet. If I can kill her now, I'll have a chance to replace her. At that time, what right do you have to kill me? Do you think this is just her trial of Dao Proving? No, this is also my trial of Dao Proving."

Han Fei: "???"

Mo Qi: "???"

Han Fei rubbed his head. "You want to replace her? Then where will the ominous be going?"

The ominous Mo Qi said, "From the looks of it, you haven't completed the process of 'slaying yourself'. By slaying yourself, you can naturally defeat the ominous. However, the Monarch-level Tribulation can also purify the ominous. If I replace her now, I can prove Dao normally. As long as I use the Monarch-level Tribulation to purify the ominous, I can still become a normal person."

"Ah, well..."

Han Fei didn't know that there was such a thing. But she had already become ominous. Why did she still want to return to being a normal person? Was it logical?

It seemed that he had to get to the bottom of this matter when he returned.

Mo Qi scoffed. "Humph! Dream on! I don't care what you are. You really think you're human?"

Buzz!

With a flip of her hand, Mo Qi took out a crystal ball. Another sea dragon appeared. This was the trump card she had left for herself a long time ago, but it didn't mean that she didn't have other trump cards. She wanted to test the strength of this ominous Mo Qi first.

2656 Self Severing Tribulation (2 in 1)

Han Fei retreated a distance, only to see two sea dragons rolling and slapping in front of the palace, biting and fighting fiercely. All kinds of time techniques emerged one after another.

In the ripples of the Great Dao of Time, the two of them appeared and disappeared...

Han Fei could roughly understand why the ominous Mo Qi said so much to him. She was probably still worried that he would attack unreasonably. If that was the case, regardless of whether she could win or not, she would be dead meat.

Therefore, she hoped to make Han Fei drop the idea of killing her by saying that she could still be a normal person.

Of course, Mo Qi wouldn't let Han Fei interfere in her battle of Dao Proving. Therefore, as long as she could win and Han Fei wouldn't attack her, she would win this round.

And Han Fei was also considering this question. What if this ominous Mo Qi won? Since it was ominous and negative, how could it transform into positive?

Could it be that there was the saying of putting down the butcher's knife and immediately becoming a Buddha?

Han Fei was puzzled. He felt that this theory didn't work at all. However, he didn't know enough about this aspect and didn't know why it didn't make sense.

But Han Fei still had someone to ask. This person was the Emperor Sparrow.

As the incarnation of the ominous and the ancestor of the negative, the Emperor Sparrow had a lot of inherited memories. He hadn't discussed with the Emperor Sparrow about Slaying Self to Prove Dao, but the latter should know something about it.

Han Fei said, "Emperor Sparrow, let me ask you something."

In his Origin Star, the Emperor Sparrow responded, "What's the matter?"

Han Fei asked, "Do you know that everyone has the ominous in their bodies?"

“Yes, but in fact, this saying is not completely correct. The correct saying is that there is an ominous seed in everyone’s body. We can call it the negative.”

“An ominous seed?”

The Emperor Sparrow said, “Do you remember that the Nine Giant God Turtle told you that the ominous can be divided into four levels? The second level is birth. He can silently plant an ominous seed in people’s hearts, which will unknowingly strengthen itself until one day, the seed begins to bite back. In fact, in the blood of countless races in the Sea Realm, there is such a seed. But most people die before they can cultivate to a high realm, so this seed has no chance of backlash...”

“Wait a minute, according to what you said, doesn’t it mean that the ominous have already spread throughout the Sea Realm?”

“You can understand it that way. But as I said before, this statement is not entirely correct. We can call the seed without the ability to backfire ‘the negative’. The negative is not completely the ominous, but if it is not controlled, it will be given enough opportunity to eventually return to the ominous.”

Han Fei asked, “What do you mean? What do you mean by ‘give enough opportunities’?”

The Emperor Sparrow said, “For example, you are one with the negative. You actually grew up together. You are him, and he is you. The stronger you are, the stronger he will be. In theory, you two are inseparable. Only when you’re proving Dao will there be a possibility of backlash from the negative in the Monarch-level Tribulation. Because at that time, he will have a chance to suppress the positive consciousness of the original body. To put it bluntly, you can actually understand it as the Inner Demon Tribulation in the heavenly tribulation or the Sky Fiend Tribulation. However, in the Monarch-level Tribulation, it’s called the Self Severing Tribulation. If you can’t survive this tribulation, then you will probably think that you’ll be dead. In fact, that’s not true. What dies is actually your positive side, not your negative side. Your negative side will return to the ominous. As for how it will exactly happen, I don’t know.”

“Hiss!”

Han Fei’s eyes immediately lit up. He knew that this ominous Mo Qi wasn’t telling the truth. Replacing Mo Qi? What the hell did she mean by replacing Mo Qi? It turned out that she was fooling him so that he wouldn’t take action.

Looking at the two people who were still fighting, Han Fei was not in a hurry but continued, “What if I get rid of my negative side in advance?”

The Emperor Sparrow said, “There are strong masters who can cut out their negative side in advance. However, the cut-out negative is not completely the ominous. He is still the Self Severing Tribulation, but this tribulation has been cut out in advance. Before proving Dao, if he can kill the negative in advance, then when he is proving Dao, the Self Severing Tribulation won’t exist. Others have nine tribulations, but you’ll only have eight. This will greatly increase the success rate of Dao Proving.”

“Eight tribulations? Really?”

“Generally speaking, only a very small number of people with very powerful talent and potential will sever the negative in advance when they estimate they can’t survive the Monarch-level Tribulation. This way, it can greatly reduce the probability of their death when they prove Dao. Most people actually still use the conventional method of proving Dao. They will only face the Self Severing Tribulation when they prove Dao.”

“Estimate they can’t survive the Monarch-level Tribulation?”

Han Fei couldn’t help but frown. He had a bad feeling after hearing what the Emperor Sparrow said. Was someone secretly helping him?

However, when he was in the Raging Sea, his father was secretly helping him. But who would do this for him in the Sea Realm?

It should be impossible for his parents. They might not even have the time to take care of themselves now. How could they have the time to go to the Sea Realm to help arrange things for him? It shouldn’t be the senior brothers and sisters of the Void Temple either. The Void Temple never interfered with its disciples’ cultivation. Every ten-year or hundred-year gathering of the Void Temple was actually a precious opportunity. The disciples of the Void Temple had to rely on themselves for the most of the time.

But apart from the Void Temple, who else would secretly help him?

Or could it be that he was indeed lucky enough to encounter a super powerhouse in the Dao Enlightenment Palace of the Divine Capital Dynasty and obtain a huge opportunity?

In any case, that person helped him sever the negative in advance. He didn’t understand it before, but now it seemed that this was definitely a good thing.

The Emperor Sparrow said, “Have you severed your negative side in advance?”

Han Fei thought for a moment and didn’t mention this to the Emperor Sparrow. When he was in the Dao Enlightenment Palace, he had lost contact with his Origin Star, so he didn’t remember mentioning it to the Emperor Sparrow.

However, it wasn’t too late for him to know the secret. This time, he just needed to know that the ominous Mo Qi lied.

Han Fei nodded. “Yes! You can think that way. But I have to find that guy and kill him.”

“You have the Vast Ocean Navigator, so it shouldn’t be a problem. I’m just curious. The person who can help you sever the negative is probably quite strong. He has to be at least a Great Monarch. Without this strength, it’s impossible for him to help others sever the negative.”

Thinking that the person’s back had been facing him from the beginning to the end, Han Fei didn’t see his appearance clearly, so he couldn’t tell if he knew him or not.

However, Han Fei estimated that he probably didn’t know him. So far, he had only seen a handful of Great Monarchs. He had seen Great Monarch East Martial, but the back of the mysterious powerhouse was different from Great Monarch East Martial. But in the Great Monarch realm, it was too simple to disguise himself, so Han Fei had no idea who would help him sever the negative.

However, he couldn't figure out these questions now. Han Fei just said, "Hey! Have you experienced the Self Severing Tribulation?"

"No, I don't need to experience it. I'm a kind of creature that doesn't need to sever the negative."

Han Fei: "..."

After a pause, the Emperor Sparrow continued, "In fact, there are quite a few creatures that don't need to sever the negative. Generally speaking, Companion Spirits don't need to sever the negative. Companion Spirits grow based on their master's growth. The master's upper limit is most likely the upper limit of Companion Spirits. If the master severs the negative, although Companion Spirits still have to undergo tribulations, most of them don't need to pass the Self Severing Tribulation. Furthermore, ordinary Companion Spirits' tribulations are usually easier to transcend. This might be a preferential treatment given to Companion Spirits by the Heavenly Dao. But I'm different. Although I won't have the Self Severing Tribulation, I'll still have nine tribulations. I just don't know how many tribulations I'll have this time since I've become a Companion Spirit."

Han Fei asked, "Are you an ordinary Companion Spirit?"

The Emperor Sparrow was silent for a while. "No!"

The Emperor Sparrow seemed to see Mo Qi who was fighting through Han Fei. It said, "You can help this woman when the time is right. Being able to sever the negative in advance proves that she's not an ordinary Heavenly Talent. She must have great potential. It won't be a bad thing to be on good terms with her."

"Oh?"

This was the first time the Emperor Sparrow asked him to help others. Han Fei was a little surprised.

The Emperor Sparrow continued, "But even if you can sever the negative in advance, it doesn't mean that he won't appear again. As long as you're alive, the negative will still appear. But after severing the negative, even if the new negative is born, it's impossible for him to contend with you unless in special circumstances."

Han Fei frowned. "In other words, he will still appear. Will I still have to face this tribulation during the divine tribulation?"

The Emperor Sparrow said, "I guess not. Just the Monarch realm isn't enough for you to grow to the point where the negative can contend with you. Unless you're corroded by the ominous and accelerate the growth of the negative or something. In short, you have to be careful when dealing with the ominous, but for now, this seems to be far away from you."

Han Fei said, "Heh! It's not far away. I often hear that now."

Suddenly...

Just as Han Fei was chatting happily with the Thearch Sparrow, he saw a Dharmakaya rising from the ground where the two of them were fighting in front of the palace.

This Dharmakaya had a human face and a snake body. Its eyes were pitch-black, and black flames were spewing out of its body!

Han Fei felt that this Dharmakaya looked strange enough, and the Emperor Sparrow said, "It's the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya, a powerful Dharmakaya that once ranked among the top ten Dharmakaya. I don't know where it ranks right now."

This Candle Dragon Dharmakaya was summoned by Mo Qi. It wasn't an inevitable process to advance from a Dharmakaya to a Dharma Idol. A Dharma Idol didn't necessarily crush a Dharmakaya.

Anyway, at this moment, Mo Qi summoned her Dharmakaya and shouted, "You ominous deserve to be killed. You can copy my memories, but can you copy my Dharmakaya? I obtained this 8,000 years ago. If I've guessed right, what you have is only the Green Snake Dharmakaya."

Ominous Mo Qi's face changed drastically and she seemed to be a little panicked. Han Fei did see a Green Snake Dharmakaya descend.

One dragon and one snake were entangled. Almost in the blink of an eye, the body of the Green Snake Dharmakaya became much weaker. The impact of the two collided, rolling up the power of time, containing the power of time corrosion.

Even Han Fei couldn't help but activate the Great Dao of Time to condense a time barrier.

On the other side, Mo Qi couldn't help but smile. "I've long eliminated the Green Snake Dharmakaya. Let's see how you can stop me."

However, Han Fei frowned slightly. This Green Snake Dharmakaya seemed to be different. Look at its fading shadow...

Suddenly, Han Fei shouted, "Mo Qi, that's not a Green Snake Dharmakaya, but a Dharma Idol."

Mo Qi was still feeling smug when she was shocked by Han Fei's words. But on second thought, so what? The Green Snake Dharma Idol was originally outside the top 100. Even if it fused with the ominous Mo Qi and condensed a Dharma Idol, it wouldn't surpass the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya.

However, the ominous Mo Qi glanced at Han Fei coldly. In the next moment, she screamed, "Dragon Swallowing."

Buzz!

The Green Snake Dharmakaya completely disappeared. With the protection of the Great Dao of Time, it transformed into a huge green snake that was tens of thousands of feet long and swallowed the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya into its stomach.

This scene stunned Han Fei.

The ominous Mo Qi won this round, but Mo Qi indeed panicked. How could she have expected her Candle Dragon Dharmakaya to be swallowed just like that? That's a f*cking dragon! Furthermore, that's a legendary ancient divine beast, Candle Dragon. It's really embarrassing that it was swallowed just like that! Furthermore, this is my trial to prove my Dao. If I lose, it'll be over.

“Dragon Flame Wave~”

The Candle Dragon that was swallowed by the green snake naturally wouldn't give up struggling. In fact, the Candle Dragon was still very powerful. The dragon flames directly pierced through the green snake.

However, the place where the green snake was pierced was quickly repaired with the power of time.

At this moment, ominous Mo Qi sneered. “Time Corrosion.”

When the combat skills weren't much different, ordinary combat methods and techniques became the deciding factor. Ominous Mo Qi wanted to use the power of time acceleration to wear out Mo Qi's Candle Dragon Dharmakaya.

After all, a Dharmakaya could only exist for a finite time. Once the avatar couldn't withstand the damage, it would be destroyed sooner or later, and it couldn't be summoned easily.

Seeing this, the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya became even more irritable. Mo Qi realized that she had underestimated her enemy. The Candle Dragon Dharmakaya was clearly stronger than the Green Snake Dharmakaya, but because she had underestimated her enemy, this objective advantage was gone.

At this moment, Mo Qi was going all out. With a thought, she spewed out a mouthful of essence blood and detonated the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya. In a disadvantageous situation, she had to destroy the Green Snake Dharmakaya of the ominous Mo Qi.

Fortunately, the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya was indeed strong. Therefore, even though the Green Snake Dharma Idol swallowed the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya, it was still annihilated by the explosion.

At this point, the Green Snake Dharma Idol and the Candle Dragon Dharmakaya disappeared one after another.

Han Fei was speechless. Mo Qi might have grasped the Great Dao of Time well, but she didn't have much combat experience.

It wasn't that Mo Qi hadn't fought enough battles, but that she had been tricked again. She could have had the upper hand, but she had been tricked by the other party.

However, such a sinister method of the ominous Mo Qi's was most likely to inherit her original body.

In normal battles, Mo Qi didn't have an advantage. Mo Qi seemed to have realized the seriousness of the problem. Although someone had created conditions for her, the difficulty to sever the negative was still beyond her expectations.

Before, she didn't realize that severing the negative was the condition for Dao Proving, but now that she had, she knew that this battle was the key to her Dao Proving.

At this moment, Han Fei said, “She lied to you just now. Even if she wins, she can't replace you. Self Severing Tribulation is one of the Monarch-level Tribulations, so once she really kills you, she will completely turn into an ominous creature. So, don't just treat her as an opponent. You have to treat her as a Monarch-level Tribulation.”

“What?”

“A Monarch-level Tribulation?”

While Mo Qi was surprised, she looked at Han Fei again. She didn't know why Han Fei suddenly knew this. If you knew, why didn't you say it earlier? Why didn't you say it so late?

It had to be known that ominous Mo Qi was certain that Han Fei wouldn't kill her, so she lied. But once this truth was revealed, the situation was different.

Sure enough, Mo Qi was refreshed. “You're just a tribulation, the Self Severing Tribulation. You fake, you want to kill me? Time Retrospect.”

In the face of a substitute who could almost replace him, ordinary people would be afraid, worried, and nervous. But in the face of a Monarch-level Tribulation, there was only one mentality, which was to overcome and resist it.

Han Fei stabilized Mo Qi's Dao heart, letting her understand that she was she and couldn't be replaced. She was unique and she was the true Mo Qi.

Although it seemed to be a useless belief, it was completely different on the Dao heart level.

Therefore, at that moment, Mo Qi seemed to understand what to do.

After understanding that ominous Mo Qi would never become her, Mo Qi chose to use the most basic power of the Time Temple, Time Retrospect.

However, this time, the person she wanted to trace back to was herself.

As if understanding Mo Qi's thoughts, Ominous Mo Qi let out a strange cry and crazily charged at Mo Qi. As she was cut out by Mo Qi, Mo Qi could trace back to her original self and kill the ominous Mo Qi. However, as the ominous Mo Qi had been cut out, no matter how she traced back, she wouldn't have the power to kill her original self. This was because their strength was balanced at first.

Therefore, once Mo Qi tracked really back, although she might not be able to kill the ominous Mo Qi, she could change the current situation.

Seeing that ominous Mo Qi was panicking, Mo Qi sneered in her heart. She had been waiting for this opportunity. At the moment when ominous Mo Qi pounced at her, Mo Qi tore open the space in front of her with one hand. She saw fluctuations suddenly appear in the space that had stopped time. It was actually connected to the river of time.

Upon seeing this, Han Fei hurriedly retreated. He thought to himself, Mo Qi has cut off the river of time!

“Oh my god, she can do this too?”

With her body as the foundation, Mo Qi severed the river of time and rolled herself and the ominous Mo Qi in. Seeing this scene, Han Fei knew that Mo Qi had won.

There was no other reason. This was Mo Qi's territory. No matter how hard the ominous Mo Qi cultivated, she was only cultivating alone. However, Mo Qi was different. In the past tens of thousands of years, she had grasped much more time techniques than the ominous Mo Qi.

In the river of time, Han Fei felt that even he might not be a match for Mo Qi who had mastered all kinds of methods.

Although he had also grasped the Great Dao of Time, he had never fought in the river of time. Even if he could fight, it would only be in an extremely short period of time.

In the home field of the Time Temple, although he might not lose, with the Great Dao of Time he had grasped so far, the odds of winning didn't seem to be high.

Boom ~

Less than a minute after Mo Qi and the ominous Mo Qi entered the river of time, Han Fei saw that one of the chains that clasped the palace had broken.

The breakage of these chains was definitely related to Mo Qi. Although Han Fei's perception range was less than one second, it was difficult to define their fighting time in the river of time.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The eighteen time chains that locked the palace were broken one after another. With every broken one, the palace seemed to flicker.

"Huh!"

Han Fei was surprised. Mo Qi hadn't returned yet. How did this palace open?

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei asked in surprise, "Wait, when did you run inside?"

Mo Qi just stood at the door and looked at Han Fei with a complicated expression. "It's a long story. It's not until now that I understand. What the Time Chains shackle is not the palace, but my own path. I'm about to prove Dao, right here and now. But I might have to go back on my word. I'm afraid I won't be able to help you deal with the City of Scavengers. Now that my master will come personally, I won't have a chance to stay here anymore."

Han Fei couldn't help but frown. "What? How long will it take for you to prove Dao?"

Mo Qi shook her head. "You don't understand! But you'll understand sooner or later."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Wait, what do you mean? Why should I understand it? I'm not from the Temple of Time. You owe me a favor. I've helped you a lot on this journey, haven't I? You're leaving just like that?"

Mo Qi said, "Tell me the way of Time Cycle, plus the favor I owe you, and I'll give you the Time Resurrection Technique in exchange. Is that okay?"

Han Fei shivered and said without thinking, "Okay."

Han Fei was about to burst into fury a second earlier, wondering why the girl was so untrustworthy. The next second, he got such a good offer. How could he refuse to trade for such a good thing? Only a fool would refuse to trade for one of the six great techniques of the Time Temple.

Although he didn't like them, he couldn't deny how powerful they were.

With a thought from Han Fei, a jade slip flew out.

Mo Qi waved her hand and unfolded a painting. The painting was engraved on a jade bone and disappeared into it. As long as Han Fei traced it back, he could learn the Time Resurrection Technique.

When Han Fei took the jade bone, Mo Qi said, "Let's go! My master is coming. The Prophecy House in the City of Wanderers is yours..."

Mo Qi wanted to say something but hesitated. After a pause, she said, "You'd better not show your scimitars in front of the powerhouses of the Time Temple. The consequences will be very serious..."

"Huh?"

Han Fei was about to ask something when the power of time here had already disappeared. When Han Fei looked again, there was no palace here. He had been sent out of this area by Mo Qi.

This time node disappeared, and he appeared in the Chaotic Wasteland again.

"Her master is coming? It seems that Mo Qi is the disciple of a powerful figure from the Time Temple!"

Han Fei thought that if what the Emperor Sparrow said was true, it was also a huge opportunity for Mo Qi to sever the negative in advance. Ordinary people wouldn't be able to obtain such an opportunity.

It could be seen that Mo Qi's master was definitely a very powerful existence.

Don't show the Blade of Hope? Then he remembered that the Blade of Hope could easily cut through time. Did this mean that he could suppress the Great Dao of Time with the Blade of Hope?

Now, he could suppress the Great Dao of Time. In the future, would he use this to suppress the powerful figures of the Time Temple? Therefore, Mo Qi reminded him?

Buzz!

Han Fei turned around and left without looking back. The powerhouse of the Time Temple had arrived. If anything was seen through by him, wouldn't he be in danger? If he attacked him, wouldn't he have to call Eldest Senior Brother for help? That would waste a Void Mark. So, the best choice was to run.

Another moment later.

At a certain time, a valiant woman appeared in front of Mo Qi. This woman looked at Mo Qi for a long time and said indifferently, "I made you guard here alone for thirteen thousand years. Isn't it hard?"

The woman looked back with blue light flashing in her eyes as if she was tracing back at something. In the end, she said indifferently, "I'll guard you. Now prove your Dao."

After Han Fei returned to the City of Wanderers, he stayed a few more days. While studying the things in the Prophecy House, he wanted to see if there were any special changes in the Raging Sea. There should be some special astronomical phenomenon if someone proved Dao.

However, from the looks of it, there didn't seem to be any special changes. It seemed that Mo Qi wasn't proving Dao in the Chaotic Wasteland. Or rather, the location of the palace wasn't in the Chaotic Wasteland, but in a time gap. There was no telling where she was.

However, since Mo Qi's master was here, Mo Qi's Dao Proving should be completed. After all, she had already passed the Self Severing Tribulation and had a powerful existence protecting her.

In the Prophecy House, Liu Qiansi said, "Master Han Fei, what's so interesting about these junk?"

Han Fei didn't respond but said, "Put a sign outside the Prophecy House. Tell them that I've gone to travel and the return date is unknown. Now I have something to tend to..."

Half a day later, Han Fei came out of Gu Tingnan's ice palace and left with Liu Qiansi.

And Han Fei threw all the messy things in the Prophecy House into his Origin Star. These things didn't have many special treasures. The only advantage was that three or five of them were still useful as the bones of prehistoric creatures in the Dao Proving realm. The others were mostly junk. He could only see some special creatures and deeds from ancient times.

After leaving the City of Wanderers, Han Fei issued an order in his heart and the Seven Kill Army reappeared.

In fact, they had been staying in Han Fei's Origin Star for a long time. Due to the problem of strength, there were some things that they couldn't participate in at first.

For a moment, Hong Yue, Jiang Ya, Yingyue, Xu Meng, and the others were a little excited because they discovered that they had returned to the Chaotic Wasteland again.

What did this mean? It meant that the Human Emperor was about to attack the Chaotic Wasteland.

Han Fei nodded slightly. "It's almost time."

Hong Yue and the others were shocked. Sure enough, the Human Emperor was going to take action.

Only Zhou Jingjing and the others didn't know much about Han Fei's ambition, but she knew that a big war was about to begin.

Han Fei looked around. Now, there were more than 68,000 people in the Seven Kill Army, a total of 432 strong masters in the Sky Opening Realm. A third of them were recruited later, but after such a long time of polishing, they had completely submitted.

Among these 432 people, only half of them were Star Transformation powerhouses including only ten perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivators, but no one had reached the perfected Star Transformation Realm.

This was actually the best Han Fei could do for now.

As for the rest, except for the children, all the Seven Kill Army had already established the sea. If the hidden power of the City of Scavengers was excluded, the Seven Kill Army controlled by Han Fei alone might be able to conquer the City of Scavengers.

Of course, the top combatants were definitely not as strong as theirs. There was no doubt about this. They might be able to compete with the number of Sea Establishers. After all, there were not many Sea Establishers in the cultivation fields of the cities governed by the City of Scavengers.

Basically, in those farms, except for the top 50 farms, there were only a few dozen Sea Establishment realm powerhouses, so there were about four or five Sea Establishers in each of the tens of thousands of towns under their jurisdiction. In any case, there were no more than ten Sea Establishers. In fact, most of them were human beings.

Without Sea Establishers guarding them, it was too difficult for those small villages and towns to contend with the tide every 100 years.

At this moment, Han Fei stood proudly in front of everyone and shouted in a low voice, "Everyone, especially the human powerhouses here, the human powerhouses I took out of the Chaotic Wasteland, you might have guessed what I was going to do. Yes, we are going to launch a counterattack~"

Boom~

Before Han Fei said anything, more than 10,000 human powerhouses were already excited.

Someone blushed and said excitedly, "This day has finally come. We're finally going to counterattack."

They were the first batch of living forces to liberate the human race. No one knew better than them the suffering of the human race in the Chaotic Wasteland.

Some people had tears in their eyes, and all their hatred flashed in front of their eyes. Their ancestors, wives, children, relatives, and friends had all died in front of their eyes. All of this was a sin of the Ten Thousand Scaled Race. Finally, they would start their revenge and become the pioneers of the liberation of the human race. This kind of mentality and this kind of glory made them, as Sea Establishers, shed tears.

One person shouted, and tens of thousands of people followed him. Their blood and Qi soared to the sky, making the people who joined the Seven Kill Army and the people in the former giant whale fortress feel inexplicably shocked. They believed that if they were faced with such a ferocious race, they probably wouldn't even have the courage to resist.

Han Fei said, "Everyone, listen up. From today onwards, you will no longer enter my Origin Star to cultivate. The following battle will also be the cruelest trial in your lives. I need you to split up and hide under all the cities of the Ten Thousand Scale Race, in the mining towns. Before the war starts, you need to lie low and endure. Even if you die, you can't expose our plan... Remember, hide in those towns. Don't take the risk to enter the cities. We can't afford failure."

With a wave of Han Fei's hand, more than 60,000 flying daggers flew out. These flying daggers were all ultra-quality divine weapons. They were mainly made of the life metals of the Star Sea Metal Swallowing Ants and were engraved with array patterns engraved with the Great Dao of Time.

Han Fei said, "Although what I'm going to say next is not what I want, everyone, this is a war between races, a decisive battle to free billions of human beings. We can't be negligent. Therefore, I have to say that this knife is called Sacrifice. Once you know that your plan has been exposed and you can't escape, you can die with this knife. Even if a Venerable comes in person, he won't be able to learn our plan from your broken souls."

"Hiss ~"

Apart from the human race, there were actually many people, especially those who had been recruited near the Infinite Mining Area. Their hearts skipped a beat. Was this knife so powerful?

However, when they looked at the human powerhouses, they all looked satisfied and approving. That kind of fanaticism horrified them. Was there a race in this world that was as crazy and fearless as the human race?

These self-destruction knives were refined by Han Fei in the years after the northern expedition. In those years, except for going out to collect the Origin Stars of the deceased every day, he had basically been refining these self-destruction knives.

At this moment, he scattered these knives, but there was one thing he didn't say. That was, this self-detonation knife could become an ultra-quality divine weapon. Han Fei not only set up time patterns on the knife to shatter the soul of the deceased so that others couldn't detect it, but he also secretly set up some small mechanisms. Once he refined this knife, if anyone wanted to rebel, the knife would explode.

In Han Fei's opinion, it was difficult for non-human beings to empathize with the humans in the Chaotic Wasteland. Once someone tried to rebel and revealed their plan, the consequences would be very serious.

Therefore, refining the Sacrifice Knife required essence blood, and the Sacrifice Knife was a knife specially hidden in the soul. When the essence blood fused with the soul, it could achieve control over a person. What Han Fei wanted was a foolproof method.

Then Han Fei looked at the Sky Openers and also took out flying knives, but they were not ultra-quality godly weapons but low-quality godly weapons.

Han Fei said, "These are also your sabers of self-destruction. You need to refine them on the spot."

"Yes, Master Human Emperor."

The Sky Openers were even more determined than the Sea Establishers. In fact, they wouldn't betray Han Fei, because such a grand victory was also their opportunity.

Following Han Fei was the best choice in their lives. There were too many benefits. All kinds of resources and techniques directly piled their realms up.

If Han Fei could win this battle, they would be heroes, and the return would be huge.

Immediately, the 70,000 people began to refine the Self-Destruction Knife in front of Han Fei. After they were done, Han Fei tested them with the Vast Ocean Navigator to see if anyone had a way to avoid the monitoring of the Self-Destruction Knife.

However, the Vast Ocean Navigator didn't find such a person. Perhaps there were many talented people in this world, but most of them were ordinary people. Being able to avoid the sabers meant that this person was extremely extraordinary.

After making sure that no one could avoid the power of the Self-Destruction Knife, Han Fei said, "Hong Yue."

"Yes."

Han Fei flipped his hand and threw out a jade slip. "The plan for Sky Openers is different from that for Sea Establishers. This is for you. From today on, you will be responsible for the sneaking in of Sky Openers."

Refreshed, Hong Yue shouted, "Yes, Master Human Emperor. I'll complete the mission with my life."

Then Han Fei said again, "Yingyue, Xu Meng, Jiang Ya, Ling Ran, Jiang Liuyu..."

"Yes."

Han Fei threw out a jade slip each and said, "This is the information of all the cities in the City of Scavengers and the mines in the villages and towns under their jurisdiction. You need to arrange for each human cultivator to form a small team with four non-human cultivators and sneak over. You have to be extremely careful while you're lurking."

"Yes, Master Human Emperor. We'll complete the mission with our lives."

In fact, Han Fei wasn't worried about them lurking. This was because the Seven Kill Army were all Sea Establishers. For ordinary villages and towns, the strongest were only Sea Establishers.

As long as they didn't take the initiative to enter the city, the probability of being discovered wasn't high.

Even if the scavengers met them by chance in the wild, with the strength of a team of five, they could probably annihilate those scavengers. After all, the soldiers of the Seven Kill Army were not ordinary Sea Establishers. These were all strong masters who had practiced many of Han Fei's techniques. Their real strength was higher than their realms.

If anything happened, it couldn't be helped. There was no perfect plan in the world. But as long as the plan of action wasn't exposed, it wouldn't be a big problem.

As for the villages and towns under the jurisdiction of the City of Scavengers, although they had some guesses about the sudden appearance of the few strong masters, the strength of the five Sea Establishers was enough to control them. Furthermore, Han Fei's plan for them was to lay low, not let them occupy the city. They were not fools. No one would show their identity as strong masters to everyone in a high-profile manner.

In order to be absolutely safe on this trip, Han Fei had already taught them the Heaven Deceiving Technique, which was a high-quality Sea Establishment Realm technique, so Han Fei was confident they wouldn't be discovered.

After the selection of various personnel was finished in half a month and the various teams left, Han Fei heaved a sigh of relief. Although his action against the Ten Thousand Scale Race seemed fast, it didn't mean that it was rushed. He had to make the necessary plans.

In addition, this operation to liberate the human race was actually trying to catch the enemy off guard. The Scavengers City was at most guarding against the City of Wanderers. Who would have expected that there was someone like Han Fei in the dark?

If Zhang Beihai hadn't died, he might have been able to send back some information for the Ten Thousand Scale Race to take more precautions. But the power of the Zhang Beihai in the Infinite Mining Area had completely been destroyed, and the information they told the Chaotic Wasteland here had long been fabricated.

After making these arrangements, Han Fei knew that it was time for him to return to the Raging Sea.

Before carrying out the final operation, Han Fei had a few things to do. One was to sever the negative. The mysterious powerhouse in the Dao Enlightenment Palace of the Divine Capital Dynasty said that he only had 800 years. Less than a hundred years had passed. No matter how much the ominous Han Fei had grown, he shouldn't be Han Fei's match.

The reason why t Han Fei might have a chance to kill Han Fei was that he had mastered the Great Dao of Time. Although Han Fei had never really tried to enter the river of time to change some of the things that had happened in the past, he knew that with his current strength, he could travel through the river of time.

If that ominous Han Fei's growth ability was like Han Fei, he should have the strength of a perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator by now. After all, if nothing unexpected happened, the ominous Han Fei had already embarked on the path of the Supreme Divine Technique, so it was only natural for him to become stronger. But compared to Han Fei's original self, the ominous Han Fei still lacked too many opportunities, so even if he had already condensed five Dao Locks, he couldn't be stronger than his current self.

Besides, with the Supreme Divine Technique alone, it was impossible for Han Fei to condense five Dao Locks. He should be hovering between the perfected Star Transformation Realm and one Dao Lock.

Although scavengers occasionally broke in, they were all killed and couldn't reveal the location of the Raging Sea. The City of Origin had been coveting the Raging Sea for too long and had broken into the Raging Sea several times with the God's Arrival Technique, but unfortunately, they were blocked and killed by the Beast King.

Although these people couldn't escape from the Raging Sea, once the number of times increased, the City of Origin could probably find out the approximate location of the Raging Sea from their whereabouts.

Of course, with Han Fei's capabilities, it wasn't difficult for him to return quietly.

After only seven or eight days, Han Fei found himself in the dark mist outside the Raging Sea again. He had covered this place with the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique, so no one would notice him even if he made a big noise again.

Buzz!

When Han Fei descended on the Raging Sea, it was still a gray mist. Immediately, Han Fei felt a perception sweep over.

"Teacher, it's me."

Buzz!

The Beast King appeared beside Han Fei with a swish. When Han Fei saw the Beast King, he was taken aback at first, but then his heart suddenly did a flip and he instantly retreated thousands of kilometers. A fist mark blasted out close to his body.

Before Han Fei said anything, the Beast King snorted coldly. "How dare you pretend to be my disciple? Kill..."

With a beast roar, the world rumbled and ten thousand beasts roared. The terrifying soul power directly impacted Han Fei's soul.

With a thought, Han Fei activated his Dharma Idol. His huge golden body completely withstood the soul attack.

Han Fei shouted, "Sir, are you crazy? It's me!"

"Don't call me teacher. I don't have a teacher like you... Oh no, I don't have a disciple like you. How dare you pretend to be my disciple? I'll kill you."

The Beast King held a godly weapon-level iron rod in his hand, and Han Fei seemed to see stars flashing. The law of strength shattered layers of the void and was about to slash at Han Fei.

Han Fei was speechless. What's wrong with the Beast King? Why doesn't it recognize me?

However, he couldn't just take the beating passively! Immediately, he activated the Ragnarok and extended his finger. The Great Dao in One burst out and cut through the flashing Star Scar Rod.

However, the Beast King cursed, "What a thief. You're only in the Sky Opening realm, but you can break the power of my law. Take another blow from me..."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Teacher, are you crazy? You don't even recognize me? I'm Han Fei, Wang Han!"

"F*ck off. My disciple returned more than sixty years ago. Who do you think you are? How dare you lie to me? Watch my Sky Raising Beast King Slash."

Whoosh!

The Beast King soared into the sky, as resplendent as the sun, augmented by the infinite power of the Heavenly Dao. Han Fei was somewhat surprised to find that the Beast King seemed to be fused with the Heavenly Dao of the Raging Sea.

Han Fei didn't have time to explain. He clenched his fist, roared, and punched at the sky.

"Sh*t!"

Han Fei didn't expect this situation. Why was the Beast King fine when he launched such a powerful attack? Seeing this, Han Fei used the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique again.

Boom!

The Heavenly Dao Chain shattered the World Annihilation Fist, but Han Fei stopped in time, so the Heavenly Dao Chain didn't continue to lock onto Han Fei.

The Beast King's rod had already struck down. When the blow hit the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique, it set off a monstrous wave, and the surging ripples spread out millions of kilometers.

"Sh*t!"

The Beast King cursed, "Is this the power a Sky Opener is supposed to have? B*stard, who are you?"

Han Fei was annoyed too. He shouted, "Teacher, are you stupid? The one who came back before was fake. Didn't you see that he exuded the ominous power? Hey, Teacher, do you know the ominous? This question is very complicated to explain to you. Anyway, he is fake, a negative power cut out of my body."

The Beast King said, "That's bulls*it. Everything was normal when my disciple returned. Also, you are the negative. He expected you to come after me, and here you are."

In the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique, Han Fei was already cursing. This fucking ominous is really hateful.

Han Fei said, "Why do you believe him and not me?"

The Beast King said, "He knows everything about the past. I know all your experiences."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Of course, he was cut out of me. How could he not know? Come on, ask me if I know everything. Do you forget that among the Monarch-level Tribulations, there's one called the Self Severing Tribulation? Since you've proven Dao, you should know what the Self Severing Tribulation is. However, a powerhouse helped me cut out this tribulation in advance."

With that, Han Fei removed the Turtle Shell Sky Sealing Technique and waved his hand, and a long stick appeared in his hand. "Look, this is the stick you personally forged for me back then."

Then, Han Fei turned his hand and summoned the Nine Palace Luck Ruler.

Han Fei said, "My father gave me this functional godly weapon. Does he have it?"

Then, Han Fei reached out and grabbed nine drops of water that were full of terrifying vitality. "This is the Spring of Life I got from the Heavenly Race. It's for Chu Hao to recover. Does he have it? I can guarantee that the fake Han Fei is definitely not in the Sea Realm now. He is going to enter the river of time, return to before I was born, and kill me."

"Hiss..."

The Beast King was a little stunned. From the moment Han Fei took out the rod he had made, he seemed to have realized something.

Yes, when the last Han Fei returned, it was too abrupt. He only said that Han Fei was chasing him. He needed to enter the river of time here and kill the ominous from the source.

At that time, he had revealed some things to prove his identity, but what he revealed was the Vast Ocean Navigator.

The Beast King knew what it was. It was a functional godly weapon that ordinary people couldn't have, and Han Fei happened to have one.

It was for this reason that the Beast King believed him, but that Han Fei didn't go to see Chu Hao, nor did he show any treasures like the Spring of Life. He just recounted the series of events that happened in the outside world and various memories of the past.

"Self Severing Tribulation?"

The Beast King couldn't help but say, "He has also shown some things else, including the dual-fish jade pendant and the Vast Ocean Navigator."

"Sh*t!"

Han Fei's face changed greatly and he cursed, "Son of a b*tch."

Han Fei extended his hand and grabbed his fishing rod. The Great Dao of Time burst out and he casually hooked the Vast Ocean Navigator out. "Teacher, did he show it to you like this?"

The Beast King: "Ah! Yes!"

Han Fei was lost for words. “Teacher, these things belong to me. Why did I have to fish with a fishing pole?”

With a thought from Han Fei, the Yin-Yang pendants and the Vast Ocean Navigator appeared one after another.

The Beast King said, “I did! He said that it was a time divine technique.”

Han Fei: “...”

Han Fei frowned and said helplessly, “How can you believe such nonsense? This is the Time Fishing Technique. You can fish out anything that you’ve come into contact with recently from the past.”

Han Fei said, “This is Hong Yue from the Thirty-Six Mystic Worlds. We just separated not long ago, so even if we are not in the same space, I can still fish him out. Do you understand now?”

The Beast King: “...”

With a buzz, Han Fei activated the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique, bathing himself in divine brilliance.

Han Fei said, “If I were the ominous, would I dare to use the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique? I believe that Han Fei definitely didn’t show you the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique.”

“Hiss!”

The Beast King’s expression changed drastically. “Not good. He said he wanted to see Xia Xiaochan.”

“Damn it...”

2658 Tracking (2 in 1)

Han Fei panicked. The ominous Han Fei returned to the Raging Sea ahead of him and visited Xia Xiaochan decades ago. What did he want to do?

Han Fei immediately realized the reason. This guy wanted to threaten him with Xia Xiaochan.

The ominous Han Fei, his negative side, must be very different from his authenticity. He could fool the Beast King, but he could also fool Xia Hongzhu into taking Xia Xiaochan away.

Han Fei even suspected that this guy might have gone to the Thug Academy, the Nine Palace World, or even attacked his sister, Yin’er.

Thinking of this, Han Fei almost fell apart.

The Beast King seemed to have realized that something was wrong. As Han Fei said, he knew about the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique, which could purify the ominous.

Han Fei could use the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique. So he was almost certain that this was the real Han Fei.

The Beast King said, "Little Wang Han, it's useless to be anxious now. It's been fifty or sixty years. What should have happened has definitely happened. This is not the time to be anxious. You have to figure out a way to deal with him."

Han Fei's eyes were a little red. He took a few deep breaths in a row and said, "I'll just kill him. If I've guessed right, his strength is much weaker than mine. Otherwise, he wouldn't have resorted to all means."

The Beast King said, "Although I've been guarding here all these years, I'm also taking care of the Raging Sea. Don't you have the Spring of Life? If Chu Hao recovers, his abilities should be greater. He will probably help, right?"

Han Fei shook his head. "If my guess is correct, these nine drops of the Spring of Life shouldn't be able to completely revive him. Besides, the ominous Han Fei must have entered the river of time at this moment. Even if Chu Hao revives, it's hard to say if he can cross hundreds of thousands of years and help me in that time... This is my own tribulation and I have to resolve it myself. As for Chu Hao, I can only meet him when I return."

Han Fei wasn't afraid that Chu Hao would attack him. Chu Hao shouldn't be so stupid as to make things difficult for a disciple of the Void Temple.

However, there was no need to meet Chu Hao now, because he couldn't help much.

Han Fei calmed down again and said solemnly, "Master, one of my purposes for returning this time is to resolve the Self Severing Tribulation, and the other is to take everyone into the Sea Realm."

"Enter the Sea Realm? Now?"

The Beast King was stunned. From the battle just now, he already knew how powerful Han Fei was. But even so, wouldn't it be too risky to bring people from the Raging Sea into the Sea Realm?

Han Fei said, "Master, let's talk about this when I finish the Self Severing Tribulation and return. By the way, I have a question. Why didn't the Heavenly Dao Chains attack you just now?"

The Beast King said, "That's simple, because I proved Dao here. Logically speaking, it's impossible to prove Dao here, but the place I'm in seems to be partly connected to the Sea Realm. In addition, I'm actually related to the World Origin of the Raging Sea, so the laws here won't attack me."

"The World Origin?"

The Beast King said, "Yes, although the Raging Sea is not in the Sea Realm, it's still a world. It might have been a very powerful place in the past. The World Origin here can give the Raging Sea such vitality, so it's naturally extraordinary. I borrowed some power from the World Origin and the Heavenly Dao to prove my Dao."

Han Fei seemed to have realized that if the Raging Sea was regarded as an Origin Ground, then the Beast King had borrowed the power of the Heavenly Dao of the Raging Sea to help him prove Dao.

In this way, the Beast King and the Raging Sea would be more intimate, so the Great Dao Chains here wouldn't make things difficult for the Beast King.

Knowing this, Han Fei knew that the power of the Heavenly Dao in the Raging Sea would not help him prove Dao. If he needed to prove Dao, he would probably have to use the Origin Ground in his hand.

However, now was not the time to think about this. Han Fei said, "Teacher, it's an urgent matter. I can't be at ease if I don't pass the Self Severing Tribulation. Don't worry about me. I'm going to the Merman Royal Family.

The Beast King also asked solemnly, "What can I do for you?"

As the Beast King said, now that it had happened, it was useless for Han Fei to panic. He tested his speed in the Raging Sea and found that once his speed exceeded five times the speed of light, the Heavenly Dao Chains would be drawn out.

Under such a speed restriction, it was useless for Han Fei to go to the Merman Royal Family as soon as possible. The old snail from the line of giant beasts was in the same situation.

However, in the Raging Sea, five times the speed of light was already very fast.

It took Han Fei thirteen days to come to the Merman Royal Family from the edge of the Raging Sea.

When Han Fei reached the Merman Royal Family, he spread out his perception and found that the number of the strong masters of the Merman Royal Family had increased. There seemed to be a few more Sky Openers, a lot more Sea Establishers, and the comprehensive strength of the bottom level seemed to have increased.

Secondly, there was a significant increase in the number of royal mermen and mermaids. Along the way, he saw some mermaids in trials, whose trial targets were all sea demons. Anyway, everything looked prosperous.

Han Fei wasn't surprised. Even if Han Fei wanted to take Xia Xiaochan away, he wouldn't do it openly. Otherwise, once it attracted the attention of the Beast King, the Beast King wouldn't just stand by and watch.

Not only the Merman Royal Family, but the human race should be the same. The only ones who might have a problem were the Thug Academy and the Nine Palace World.

At this moment, Han Fei was already very strong. Even Xia Hongzhu couldn't detect his perception.

At this moment, Xia Hongzhu was cultivating in the palace, and so was Chun Huangdian. However, both of them were heavily injured and their Qi and blood were extremely unstable.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei's heart sank. It seemed that what should have happened had happened.

Buzz!

The moment the palace barrier was broken, Xia Hongzhu and Chun Huangdian opened their eyes almost at the same time.

The two of them looked out of the palace at the same time. For a moment, they were furious.

“How dare you come again?”

Chun Huangdian’s voice was cold, as calm and arrogant as before.

While they were talking, Han Fei had already entered the palace. At the same time, Chun Huangdian stopped in front of Han Fei and activated the seal on the entire palace. Many forces were drawn out by Chun Huangdian and condensed into a spear beam that stabbed at Han Fei.

However, Chun Huangdian was only in the late-stage Star Transformation Realm. Although he was making fast progress, such an attack was nothing to Han Fei.

Han Fei simply extended his finger and pointed at the spear light. Chun Huangdian’s full-strength blow was annihilated on the spot, and no energy fluctuations escaped.

Han Fei said, “You’re too weak now and seem to have become impetuous. You’re not like the Chun Huangdian I know.”

Seeing that his attack failed, Chun Huangdian stepped back to Xia Hongzhu and glared at Han Fei.

Han Fei also stopped and looked straight at Xia Hongzhu. He was actually quite surprised because Xia Hongzhu’s strength had reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm, but he didn’t know if she had condensed a Dao Lock.

Han Fei guessed that Xia Hongzhu was probably the strongest person in the Raging Sea except for the Beast King. He didn’t know what the level of the Martial Emperor in Martial Emperor City was, but he didn’t think he could compare to Xia Hongzhu. After all, Xia Hongzhu was a god’s child.

Han Fei asked, “Where is Xia Xiaochan?”

Xia Hongzhu stared at Han Fei coldly. “You took Xiaochan away, and you’re asking me?”

Hearing Xia Hongzhu’s answer with his own ears, Han Fei frowned deeply. Although this was within his expectations, he couldn’t help but be a little angry to hear a definitive answer.

However, anger couldn’t solve the problem. Han Fei tried to calm down and said, “The Han Fei you saw before wasn’t mine. That is my negative side, which can be called my ominous body. I returned to the Raging Sea to kill him, but I was still a step too late.”

“Your ominous body?”

Xia Hongzhu also frowned. “Ominous body? The kind of creature in the tidal waves in the Chaotic Wasteland?”

Xia Hongzhu and Chun Huangdian had actually been to the Sea Realm, so they knew that it was ominous, but they only knew the ominous creatures in the tides and didn’t know much about the real ominous.

Han Fei shook his head. “No, creatures of that level aren’t the ominous in the true sense. When you’re passing the Monarch-level tribulations, one of the tribulations is called Self Severing Tribulation. What’s going to be killed is this ominous body. Mother-in-law, you will understand what I’m talking about when you prove Dao in the future. But now, since Xia Xiaochan has been taken away, I’ll bring her back.”

Xia Hongzhu frowned. She accepted Han Fei’s explanation immediately because she didn’t understand why Han Fei took Xia Xiaochan away.

At first, she thought that Han Fei was here to wake Xia Xiaochan up, but Han Fei just said that he would take Xia Xiaochan out and wake her up in the Sea Realm.

At that time, Xia Hongzhu felt that something was wrong. The reason why Han Fei left Xia Xiaochan here was to ensure that Xia Xiaochan wouldn’t be implicated.

But now, Han Fei wanted to take Xia Xiaochan away before the enemy was eliminated. What kind of reason was this? She didn’t think that only the outside world could wake Xia Xiaochan up.

Xia Hongzhu felt that she owed Xia Xiaochan, so how could she let Xia Xiaochan go on an adventure with Han Fei?

It wasn’t until this moment that she realized that the previous one wasn’t the real Han Fei.

Xia Hongzhu said, “In any case, you brought danger back to the Raging Sea.”

Han Fei nodded slightly. “That’s right. I’ll solve my own problems.”

After a moment of silence, Xia Hongzhu said, “He can’t open the coffin of the Ancient Tree of Life. Since you’ve returned, you might still have a chance.”

“Huh?”

Han Fei was refreshed. This was a rare piece of good news. Now that he thought about it, the coffin of the Ancient Life Tree that sealed Xia Xiaochan was given to him by his Eldest Senior Brother. It was normal that the ominous Han Fei couldn’t open it.

Han Fei was slightly relieved and suddenly said, “Mother-in-law, you seem to be seriously injured. Let me help you.”

Buzz!

Two pillars of healing divine light descended from the sky, enveloping Xia Hongzhu and Chun Huangdian. Then, Xia Hongzhu and Chun Huangdian both sensed that their wounds were disappearing at an unbelievable speed.

Their bodies were even emitting thick black smoke.

This was not surprising to Han Fei. After fighting with the ominous Han Fei, his body had probably been secretly contaminated by the ominous power.

Han Fei didn’t talk much with the two of them. He simply said, “Take a little rest. Your injuries will heal in a year at most.”

Xia Hongzhu's expression was complicated. "Have you proved Dao?"

Then, Han Fei looked at Chun Huangdian and said, "As much as I hate you, you were injured while protecting Xia Xiaochan, so I won't hold you accountable for our past grudges."

Chun Huangdian's lips curled and he snorted. He was indeed no match for Han Fei at this moment. Even his full-strength attack was meaningless to Han Fei.

Han Fei sneered. "This is probably how humans are. When facing an opponent weaker than them, they will always show their pride and strength. In fact, they are nothing."

Buzz!

Han Fei disappeared from the Merman Royal Family. Xia Hongzhu and Chun Huangdian scanned the area with their perceptions and found that Han Fei was nowhere to be seen.

In the palace, Chun Huangdian came back to himself after a long time. "How strong is he now?"

Xia Hongzhu thought for a moment and slowly said, "He should be in the same realm as me, but the strength he showed is stronger than mine. But in the same realm, there are the strong and the weak. Before, we couldn't shake Han Fei. I think it's impossible to measure his strength with the realm."

After leaving the Mermaid Royal City, Han Fei's first stop was the Thug Academy.

Since the unification of the human race six hundred years ago, the human world had been divided into two worlds. The Heavenly Palaces hung high in the sky, which was to give ordinary people a goal, and at the same time, to prevent too many strong masters from interfering with the growth of ordinary people.

However, the Thug Academy was definitely in the human world. The Thug Academy didn't care about one's identity or background when accepting disciples. It only cared about one's talent. If one kept staying in the Heavenly Realm, it wouldn't be beneficial to their development.

The Thug Academy had an exclusive island in the human world. The island was full of plantations, and the real entrance of the Thug Academy was only less than a thousandth of the island.

In the plantation, there were a few dilapidated houses. Two old men were drinking on a stone platform beside an open-air kitchen. There was a plate of peanuts, a pot of braised pork, and a row of barbecue grills.

"Gulp~ Ah~"

Jiang Daqian was slightly tipsy. He took a sip and said, "The Heavenly Realm has a Sky Ladder Competition to select talents. The Thug Academy can't just do nothing! Why don't we get Qu Jinnan to organize a talent audition in the human world for the Thug Academy?"

Old Bai snorted. "The Thug Academy recruits people based on quality, not quantity. Daji and the others already have some potential and have to bring them back before the Sky Ladder Competition. Don't worry. Aren't you babysitting your grandson? Jiang Qin and Yang Xie are too much. They just ignored their son and are wandering around in the Raging Sea. How many opportunities can they find in the current Raging Sea?"

Jiang Daqian scoffed. "Heh! Babysitting my grandson! That brat hangs around in the Heavenly Realm all day long. I heard that he follows Han Yin'er around and calls her 'Aunt' all day long. This brat is useless..."

Han Fei's perception swept across. In the current Thug Academy, only Old Bai, Old Jiang, Xiao Zhan, Wenren Yu, Wang Dashuai, his wife, Bai Lu, Yi Xiyan, Su Sanqian, and Su Daiji were on the island. He didn't know anyone else.

There were more than a hundred people in the Thug Academy on the island, but there were still so few people in the Thug Academy. It seemed that the Thug Academy's recruitment standards had been very strict all these years!

Buzz!

"Sh*t!"

"Han Fei? You... are back?"

Old Jiang was taken aback, but Old Bai still reacted normally. He looked at Han Fei in shock, a little dumbfounded and a little excited. Why did Han Fei suddenly come back?

Han Fei sat down and took out the Green Thunder Wine Gourd. He hadn't used this calabash for a long time. Now the wine inside had become the Ten-Thousand-Year Longevity Wine, which had extraordinary effects.

The Green Thunder Wine Gourd flew in the air and automatically poured a bowl for each of them. At that moment, the fragrance of the wine overflowed, and Old Jiang and Old Bai were refreshed by the smell.

Jiang Daqian said in shock, "Good wine! What kind of wine is this?"

Han Fei said, "It's none of your business. Just drink it."

Old Bai asked, "Why are you back? Did you come back alone? How is it outside?"

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "President Bai, no hurry. I'll tell you about it later. I have something to ask you now. About fifty or sixty years ago, did I come back?"

"Uh... You don't know whether you came back or not? Why are you asking us?"

Old Bai frowned and said, "Han Fei, are you alright? Have you lost your memory or something?"

Han Fei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. In the end, he had to explain what happened, but Old Jiang and Old Bai were both stunned by what he said. The ominous Han Fei? The Self Severing Tribulation? And the ominous Han Fei even took Xia Xiaochan away...

Although the two old men couldn't understand Han Fei's strength now, how could they not tell the seriousness of the problem? Part of Han Fei was cut out and turned into another Han Fei. This kind of mysterious thing shocked them.

Old Bai said, "Everything is normal in the Thug Academy. According to you, your ominous body only needs to take Xia Xiaochan away. Although you came out of the Thug Academy, you have the best relationship with Luo Xiaobai and the others. Now they are all in the Sea Realm, so there's no need for your ominous body to attack the Thug Academy. This way, other than angering you, it's meaningless. Taking Xia Xiaochan away is enough to threaten you. Theoretically speaking, it doesn't matter whether he touches the Thug Academy or not."

Jiang Daqian also said, "Besides, nothing happened to your sister, Han Yin'er. She came to the Thug Academy a few months ago. If something would happen to her, it would have happened fifty or sixty years ago."

Old Bai asked, "Han Fei, is the Self Severing Tribulation so difficult to transcend? It can transform into you and have such a high self-awareness..."

Han Fei said, "Yes and no. If he were in the Sea Realm, I could easily capture and kill him. But he's not stupid. He won't wait for me to kill him. I just didn't expect him to return to the Raging Sea so quickly."

Han Fei was speechless. The mysterious powerhouse said that he had eight hundred years, but it had only been less than a hundred years!

Han Fei paused and said, "President Bai, did anything happen in the Raging Sea fifty or sixty years ago? Or something abnormal?"

Bai Congye said, "I'm not sure about that. Wait here for a while. Of course, we should ask the Supreme Mystic World about this. They collect all the information in the world... I'll go there myself. Hey, do you want to go with me?"

Han Fei thought for a moment. "No, I'll go there myself. Let's talk when I come back."

With that, Han Fei disappeared. Old Jiang hurriedly said, "Hey, you forgot your wine gourd."

Han Fei's voice rang in their ears, "This wine gourd is no longer useful to me. I'll give it to you two. After finishing the wine in it, you will be at least at the peak level of the Sea Establishment Realm. Then it shouldn't be a problem for you to open the sky."

Old Jiang: "..."

Old Bai: "..."

Before going to Supreme Mystic World, Han Fei went to the former Nine Palace World. Han Xuan and Han Yin'er were both there, and Han Yin'er had a little fatty behind her.

Seeing that they were fine, Han Fei was relieved. He didn't plan to meet them again, or it would be meaningless to make them worry about him every day.

Supreme Mystic World.

Lu You looked at Han Fei in shock.

Lu You asked, "Something big fifty or sixty years ago? Apart from all kinds of incentive competitions, there hasn't been anything big in the Raging Sea these years... Wait, if there's anything special, there is. Do you still remember the Abyssal Chasm, Master Human Emperor?"

Han Fei said, "Of course. The Yin-Yang World and the Water-Wood World came out of there. How can I not remember it?"

Lu You waved his hand, and a jade slip appeared in front of Han Fei. He said, "Fifty or sixty years ago, to be precise, 58 years ago, an abnormal reverse surging phenomenon appeared in the Abyssal Chasm and a huge amount of energy flowed backward to the Sea Realm, which was recorded here by our Supreme Mystic World."

Han Fei scanned it with his perception and saw the information recorded. "The Abyssal Chasm surged back, and the world turned red. It spanned tens of millions of kilometers. Anyone who approached it was swept by the murderous intent and fell into madness. This phenomenon lasted for three consecutive days and returned to normal three days later. Later, a powerful person in the Sky Opening realm explored this place and was seriously injured. He didn't find anything, so this place was listed as the second most dangerous place after the Monarch Palace in the Raging Sea..."

Han Fei frowned slightly. Abyssal Chasm? Was it a coincidence, or what?

The Yin-Yang World happened to be in the Abyssal Chasm. At that time, his mother isolated the outside world with the Yin-Yang Millstone.

When he entered and left the Abyssal Chasm with the Nine Palace Luck Ruler, he almost entered an extremely dangerous place. Did the abnormality happen there?

If there was a place in the Raging Sea that Han Fei hadn't explored, it was probably that place.

However, could it be that the ominous Han Fei triggered that place? He definitely didn't go there by himself but under the guidance of the Vast Ocean Navigator.

And the ominous Han Fei's only purpose was to kill him. The mysterious powerhouse in the Dao Enlightenment Palace had also said that the way to kill him was to return to before he was born.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes slightly and said, "Don't tell anyone that I'm back."

Lu You: "Yes, Master Human Emperor."

Chapter 2659: Primordial Chaos (2 in 1)

2659 Primordial Chaos (2 in 1)

In less than three days, Han Fei came to the familiar Abyssal Chasm. He took out the Vast Ocean Navigator and asked, "Where did the ominous Han Fei go?"

The Vast Ocean Navigator pointed straight at the Abyssal Chasm. Han Fei thought to himself, It's true. The Raging Sea is developing peacefully now. The entire human world is busy cultivating and improving their strength. Everything is a scene of prosperity. Only something happened in the Abyssal Chasm, and this place happened to be where the Yin-Yang World used to be. He didn't believe that there was no connection.

When he was in the Sea Establishment realm, he had once felt the other path under the Abyssal Chasm, but at that time, he had felt a terrifying crisis. He felt that once he entered that place, he would definitely die.

But it was different now. Han Fei had already reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. His combat power was comparable to the Dao Proving Realm, which was much higher than before.

Buzz!

Han Fei flew towards a white spot in the darkness. At that moment, he felt his heart palpitate, but he no longer felt the sense of crisis.

It could be seen that the danger in the Abyssal Chasm was only relative. In face of such a dangerous and mysterious area, almost 99% of the powerhouses in the Raging Sea had given up the thought of exploring it.

In particular, when Han Fei sensed the spatial fluctuations here, his palpitations became more and more obvious, and he even felt a sense of crisis.

Buzz!

Han Fei suddenly stopped. There was a spatial barrier and a killing array here. As soon as Han Fei arrived, he felt that space was conflicting with each other. This was the power of the Heavenly Dao, not something human beings could exert.

"A natural barrier?"

If he had been a step slower just now, he would have been crushed by the power of space. Then he would have to resist the power of the Heavenly Dao here.

If he hadn't been as strong as he was before, he might have been crushed into points and died on the spot.

But Han Fei didn't panic. If it was a spiritual barrier, he would just break it. He extended his fingers and Sword Three burst out.

"Puff ~"

Bang!

This sword cut open this natural spatial barrier, but behind this barrier, infinite ferocious aura rushed out at once. If such a huge amount of ferocious aura rushed into his body, even Han Fei wouldn't be able to withstand it.

Therefore, Han Fei took out the Mystic Martial Monarch Armor and blocked it in front of him. As for the rear, he didn't care. This must be the reserve flowing of murderous intent as Lu You said.

"Huh? Primordial Ancient Land?"

This was not the first time Han Fei had felt the aura of a primordial ancient land. If the murderous intent he felt under the Steps was just fine, the manic vibe of the Primordial Era was especially obvious in the God Burying Ridge. And here, it felt like the God Burying Ridge.

In the darkness, a suction force pulled Han Fei out, but it was not strong. Han Fei did not take the initiative to move forward, because he seemed to hear wailing sounds in this dark spatial passage.

Soon, he saw red masses of light floating in the void. These masses of light took the initiative to approach Han Fei. Han Fei extended his hand to test them, only to find that the mass of light emitted an energy pulse comparable to the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm. Furthermore, this power could even shake the soul.

"Huh! This is a defensive booby trap. It was made like this purposely. Is there anyone in this place?"

The further he went, the more red blobs of light appeared out of thin air, combined with the power of space, and would directly reflect on the intruders to intercept them.

Fortunately, Han Fei had mastered the Great Dao of Space and was very strong. From the beginning to the end, except for the red mass of light that he took the initiative to touch, he only shattered two of them. The rest were all avoided by him.

Swish!

When Han Fei finally walked out of this passage, he stood in a vast primordial land.

Han Fei's first impression was that it was hot and dry. There was magma flowing everywhere on the surface, and extremely high flames occasionally appeared underground. On the ground, it couldn't be said that there was not a single blade of grass, but there was no greenness at all.

The spiritual energy here was extremely violent, even more violent than the Raging Sea. Han Fei only stood here for a while before his body began to burn with raging flames.

When Han Fei sensed that there was an invisible power trying to infiltrate his body from these flames, if he didn't stop it, he might be burnt.

Han Fei was a little surprised. How could a mere mortal fire hurt him? There was something wrong with the flames and heat here!

“Ah! It’s so hot, so hot...”

At this time, Liu Qiansi couldn’t hold it anymore. She trembled in Han Fei’s hands and began to scream, “No, I’m going to wither. What the hell is this place? Why is it so hot?”

Han Fei said, “You’re a Monarch. How can you be afraid of this?”

Liu Qiansi said, “But I’m a demon plant! It’s so hot! I feel very irritable. These fire elements seem to be trying to invade my body. Even a Monarch can’t stand being here every day.”

As she spoke, Liu Qiansi activated a Land of Laws in an attempt to resist.

With a thought from Han Fei, the Extreme Cold Pearl appeared in his hand. The flames immediately subsided, and within a thousand kilometers of Han Fei, the temperature suddenly dropped to normal, lukewarm and quite comfortable.

“Huff~”

Liu Qiansi sighed. “Where are we? Why is it so hot?”

Han Fei said, “We won’t know where we are until we explore it.”

Han Fei tried to scan with his perception. When his perception spread out in this violent killing intent, it could spread out for about 100,000 kilometers. However, it couldn’t last long. Otherwise, this power of fire could actually burn his soul. This was normal, as if he could barely release his perception on the ice of the Chaotic Wasteland.

The flames in this ancient primordial land seemed to be mixed with some unknown power. Han Fei could still release his perception for a hundred thousand kilometers, which could last for a period of time. But it was still terrifying.

However, the flames here could burn him. From this, it could be seen that the strength of this world was probably not inferior to the ice above the Chaotic Wasteland. It was impossible for ordinary people to withstand this fire.

Therefore, Han Fei was certain that this ancient primordial land was not in the Raging Sea. He must have come to a new place through the Abyssal Chasm.

Swish ~

The Emperor Sparrow seemed to sense something and immediately appeared on Han Fei’s shoulder. His entire body trembled as he said, “It’s comfortable. Where did you find this Ancient Primeval Land? Well, this is not as simple as an Ancient Primeval Land. This should be the end of the Primordial Era. The fire of chaos burned the myriad worlds, all races withered, and the strong sought survival. This danger spread throughout the Sea Realm, causing 90% of the creatures in the Sea Realm to die. After several eras of burning, the Sea Realm gradually returned to normal. New races were born and entered the ancient era.”

Han Fei frowned. "The fire of chaos, burning all worlds?"

"Yes! Times have been changing. Just like the existence of the ominous, if the Sea Realm is destroyed by the ominous, it's almost inevitable that all races will wither. However, the Sea Realm still exists. Perhaps new races will be born and the Sea Realm will enter an ominous era."

Han Fei said, "You never mentioned it before."

The Emperor Sparrow said, "It's been so long. Why should I mention this?"

Han Fei asked, "What about the era after the Primordial Era? It seems to be the ancient era?"

The Emperor Sparrow said, "To be precise, the ancient era was a revival era. After the end of the Primordial Era passed, countless new races were born, laying the foundation of the myriad races in the infinite ocean. After the myriad races in the infinite ocean found their paths, the appearance of the first god marked the beginning of the Age of Gods. It's that simple."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "Times have changed and countless years have passed... Does it mean that the Sea Realm may have experienced countless eras?"

"No. According to my inherited memories, the fire of Chaos burned the myriad worlds. It was because the previous era was not very stable that there was such an ending. That era was called the Chaotic Era, an era filled with Chaos everywhere."

"Chaotic Era? What's it like?"

"I haven't seen it, but it seems to be that the world is in a state of darkness and chaos and most places haven't been explored. In that era, a large number of Chaotic Spiritual Treasures, Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth, and even the legendary Nature Spiritual Treasures, Primordial Spiritual Treasures, and so on were born. Our Emperor Sparrow race was born in the chaos."

Han Fei was slightly lost in thought. How long has it been?

The Emperor Sparrow continued, "Don't be surprised. Your human race was also born in that era. However, the humans at that time were very strong. They were simply worlds apart from the current human race. If the two are compared, the people at that time are equivalent to gods. Unfortunately, the inherited techniques of that era have almost been lost. I don't know the details."

Han Fei asked, "Are there any other eras?"

"I don't know. It's hard to say if there is. Even if there is, it's too ancient to be traceable."

Han Fei nodded slightly. He was just curious. He didn't expect that the remnants of the primordial era would allow him to hear about some unheard-of eras from the Emperor Sparrow.

Entering a new world, Han Fei naturally wanted to test the upper limit of this world.

Therefore, he burst out at ten times the speed of light at once. After discovering that this place could carry ten times the speed of light, he strengthened it to twenty or thirty times.

In the end, he reached the bottom at thirty-two times the speed of light, but the so-called Great Dao Chains didn't appear here. This world was much stronger than the Raging Sea!

But soon, Han Fei perceived a place of bones.

It was a place where magma flowed. There were some huge bones around. These jade-like skeletons were almost all incomplete.

Han Fei reached out and grabbed a piece of skeleton, tracing it back in time. But then he discovered that the original bodies of these skeletons had been dead for a long time! Although he didn't have to go back in time personally, tracing back in time consumed a lot of spiritual power.

Soon, Han Fei saw a blurry picture in front of his eyes. It was a monster with a neck longer than a giraffe, a dragon face, and four limbs like the limbs of a dinosaur. He didn't know what this thing was, but through time traceability, Han Fei could see some scenes when he was still alive.

About seven or eight such monsters were hunting a huge copper-skinned yak-like creature. These long-necked creatures would first release a mental shock that could cause the yak to enter a chaotic state. In this state, the long-necked mouth opened dozens of feet wide, revealing three layers of dagger-like sharp teeth.

When the sharp teeth bit the yak, Han Fei could see flickering flames and electric arcs. Although it was difficult for Han Fei to judge the strength of the bite force, according to the vibration of the earth, it should have reached the Sky Opening Realm. Some long-necked monsters that couldn't bite the yak actually raised their necks and used their heads as hammers to hit the yak.

Han Fei felt a headache when he saw them smash their heads as hammers. It turned out that they were a group of iron-headed monsters. When their iron heads hit, they were obviously enhanced by the power of the Heavenly Dao. With a single blow, the surrounding mountains and rivers shook.

However, Han Fei also discovered that the mountains and rivers here seemed a little abnormal. What flowed in the river was not water, but billowing spiritual energy, like a turbulent river tide. On the mountain, there were occasional treasure lights. Such power shook the mountain, but the mountain didn't collapse.

"Is this the Primordial Era?"

Han Fei couldn't help but sigh. There seemed to be treasures everywhere in the Primordial Era!

After he came back to himself, Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Are there treasures everywhere in your Primordial Era?"

The Emperor Sparrow said, "What do you mean by our Primordial Era? I haven't really stayed in the Primordial Era. I just have the inherited memories. In the last Chaotic Era, there were treasures everywhere in the Chaotic Era. Therefore, in the Primordial Era, there were many treasures, so everyone's strength grew very quickly. Also, when everyone has treasures, they can't be called treasures, so you don't have to be envious."

Han Fei said, "The current Sea Realm is completely different from the Primordial Era."

The Emperor Sparrow said, "Of course. After the consumption of countless strong masters over the generations, even if there is a treasure every inch of land and an opportunity every hundred steps, they must have been consumed by now."

Han Fei frowned slightly and said, "So, the era where the Sea Realm is now should be called the Wasteland Era, an era where resources are exhausted."

Han Fei joked with him. In fact, the resources in the current Sea Realm were quite abundant. However, it couldn't be compared to the Primordial Era.

Tracing back in time this time consumed a lot of spiritual power. If he traced the bones of such a creature a hundred times, he would have to rest and recover.

However, the bones he saw here were actually relatively easy to recognize. Ignoring those whose level was below jade bones, Han Fei would occasionally trace the golden jade bones with Dao Patterns.

After searching for about ten times in a row, Han Fei finally found a skeleton of the Dao Proving realm. When tracing its past, he saw bears with two big horns on their heads. This bear was extremely good at jumping. With a stomp of its feet, it could step on a mountain in the Primordial Era. The force of its fist was almost comparable to the Star Explosion Fist.

"Interesting. I'll keep it."

He had to admit that this primordial ancient land was a good place. He could pick up the bones of Dao Proving realm powerhouses at random. If he picked up a hundred or so of them and used the Time Resurrection Technique to revive them to fight for him, there would be hundreds of Dao Proving realm powerhouses. He didn't believe that there were so many Dao Proving realm powerhouses in the City of Scavengers.

Even if there are, we probably won't lose, will we?

Unfortunately, considering his Great Dao of Time, he could revive at most fifty ancient creatures, which was a little weaker than Mo Qi, but Mo Qi was a disciple of the Time Temple after all. She specialized in the Great Dao of Time. It would be a little ridiculous if he, a dabbler, was even stronger than Mo Qi in the Great Dao of Time.

After searching for a long time, when Han Fei found the third skeleton of the Dao Proving realm, the danger that should have come still came. If this world wasn't dangerous, it would have long been explored by others. How could it have been left here until now?

Han Fei didn't run very far because he wanted to find the bones of the Dao Proving realm in passing. But soon, he saw five or six fireballs rolling in the void. Their goal was a magma lake.

Knock, knock, knock!

Just like a planet colliding with the earth, these fireballs crashed into the magma lake. Then, a fiery flood dragon seethed in the water, slapping and roaring. Soon, the five or six fireballs were sent flying.

"There are still living creatures here?"

Han Fei had thought that even if there was any danger here, there would only be some dead things. He didn't expect there to be living creatures.

He looked again, only to see that the five or six fireballs suddenly transformed into brawny men.

Han Fei was surprised to find that they were actually humanoids. However, their body structure was a little special. First of all, these humanoids had no hair and were bald. Then, there were fiery scales like magma carapace on their chest, abdomen, back, arms, knees, and even the soles of their feet.

Bang!

Han Fei saw with his own eyes that the fiery flood dragon whipped a person with its tail. After he was sent flying, he turned into a ball again. Then, he flattened a few small mountains on this primeval land and smashed a big pit in the ground. The ground around cracked and ripples spread out for tens of thousands of kilometers before being swept away by the murderous intent in the void and then annihilated.

However, from that blow, Han Fei could tell that the fiery flood dragon was at least a powerful creature in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm.

Even so, the humanoid that was sent flying actually bounced out of the big pit, turned into a ball, and continued to smash at the fiery dragon.

No wonder this was a dangerous place. A place like the Raging Sea where few people were in the Sky Opening Realm was actually connected to a world with many Sky Openers. How could it not be dangerous?

A moment later, the flood dragon couldn't take it anymore and seemed to go berserk. It spewed out a pillar of scorching flames, and the humanoids pushed their hands forward. Their hard carapaces flickered and formed a natural shield. The few of them worked together and blocked it.

Upon seeing this, the fiery dragon dove into the magma river and was about to run. These people certainly wouldn't let it. They roared and continued to roll out, continuously smashing the fiery flood dragon and causing it to be dizzy. Its head was deformed and it was finally smashed to death.

Although these people had consumed a lot of spiritual energy, they still smiled and carried the fiery flood dragon, preparing to take it away.

At this moment, Han Fei's heart did a flip, because a humanoid creature suddenly looked at Han Fei and roared, and the six balls rolled towards Han Fei at the same time.

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei had thought that they wouldn't find him, but it seemed that they were just too focused on the fiery dragon to notice him.

However, Han Fei had been staring at them after the battle, so he was discovered by them.

Han Fei also had many questions. Since they were humanoids and had come to him, he might as well catch and control one to see what this place was.

Han Fei: “???”

These people were speaking in the ancient language, which Han Fei could understand. The first time he came into contact with this language was when he was with the War Giants.

However, why did they have to catch the outsiders?

But the other party was already smashing at him. Looking at the six meatballs, Han Fei didn’t say anything but punched out.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

After six punches in a row, all six of them were sent flying. After all, no matter how strong they were, they were only in the late-stage Star Transformation Realm, not even in the peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm. Han Fei didn’t dare to use all his strength to hit them. What if he accidentally killed them?

If he had just arrived but had already offended a race before he even figured out anything yet, this wasn’t a good thing.

Therefore, Han Fei still showed mercy, but his attack wasn’t something they could block. However, the carapace of these six people was intact.

Han Fei thought to himself, With this kind of defense power, even if they took a solid punch from a Perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouse, they probably wouldn’t die.

But Han Fei didn’t continue to attack. Instead, he said, “There’s no need to fight. Why don’t we talk first?”

Someone was surprised. “Huh? Can this outsider understand our language?”

The other person said warily, “So what? An outsider is an outsider. Call the elders.”

Han Fei still didn’t take action. Although he was here to pursue his ominous body, since he had encountered this race, he might as well get in touch with them. What if they were related to the ominous body?

Besides, the ominous body wanted to kill him before he was born through the river of time, which meant that Old Han and his mother must have been here.

He needed an explanation as to why they were here and what they were here for.

Han Fei was not in a hurry to take action. Instead, he just watched one of them crush a fire crystal.

These people knew that they were no match for Han Fei and didn’t dare to attack rashly. But they were also curious. Is this person stupid? Why didn’t he leave when he knew that we had called for reinforcements?

In less than half an hour, more than thirty fireballs rolled out of the void in a row. When they returned to their human forms, Han Fei saw a leader.

This person's strength had reached the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. Han Fei could tell at a glance that he was accompanied by two perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouses and seven or eight peak-level late-stage Star Transformation Realm powerhouses.

Obviously, they took outsiders very seriously, or so many high-end combatants wouldn't have come at once. Even in the Sea Realm, this combat power was quite impressive.

The person in the lead was holding a walking stick formed from the bones of an unknown creature. He said, "Outsider, why have you come to our Lava Giant race? How did you find this place?"

"The Lava Giants?"

These guys called themselves giants, but they were twice as small as the war giants. On average, they were only five or six meters tall. Only the one in the front might be eight meters tall. Such a body size was actually not a giant, but they just called themselves giants.

Han Fei said, "I'm Han Fei. I came to your place after chasing a villain. I didn't expect to meet you. Perhaps we can have a deep chat. What do you think?"

Chapter 2660: Lava Giant Tribe (2 in 1)

2660 Lava Giant Tribe (2 in 1)

For some reason, the Lava Giants seemed to be very averse to outsiders. This was because outsiders who could survive in this ancient primordial land couldn't be weak.

For example, the flames here. The emperor sparrow had mentioned that the destruction of the Primordial Era was because of the flames of chaos. Han Fei didn't know if the flames here were flames of chaos, but their lethality was still huge. Ordinary people couldn't stay here for long before their souls and bodies couldn't withstand it.

Han Fei didn't want to weather through the flames, so he took out the Extreme Cold Pearl.

After sizing up Han Fei, the Lava Giant's tone was still a little stiff. "Recently, some outsiders have indeed entered our Lava Giants. That's you. The Grand Elder has already said that if any outsiders appear, we'll take them down."

With that, these Lava Giants surrounded Han Fei.

Seeing that these people had no intention of negotiating, they sounded quite disgusted with the outsiders. Did someone do something bad here? If anyone did anything bad here, it could only be his ominous body.

Han Fei could clearly feel that the other party was becoming more and more hostile and seemed unwilling to talk to him. But since he was already here, he certainly couldn't just leave.

Han Fei said indifferently, "If you can put away your hostility now, we can still sit down and have a good chat."

"Humph! Take him down."

With that, the elder of the Lava Giant Tribe completely erupted. His body emitted scorching flames as he took out two war hammers. This guy didn't intend to use his body as a weapon.

However, they were only in the perfected Star Transformation Realm, so Han Fei wasn't afraid of anyone here. He saw that the elder was actually approaching him in close combat with his hammer. The hammer technique attracted the surrounding fire essence and transformed into a hundred-foot-tall flame giant in midair as he hammered at him.

Han Fei concluded at a glance that this was not a Dharmakaya, but this person must have mastered some kind of Dharmakaya. However, in terms of strength, he had never been afraid of anyone.

Han Fei threw out a fist mark and a Star Explosion Fist appeared in the sky. Even after he completely mastered the Star Fist Technique, there were still faint star phantoms appearing.

Boom ~

Rumble!

A violent explosion swept across the nine heavens and ten earths. The earth caved in and the rocks shattered. Within ten thousand kilometers, the Lava Giants that were about to attack Han Fei were shaken back by this violent force.

The elder of the Lava Giant Tribe was sent flying too.

Crack!

The bulging flesh armor on the fist of the elder of the Lava Giant Clan shattered like glass, but it hadn't completely shattered. His arm and bones were broken, and one of his hands hung unnaturally.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes slightly. This person's body was so strong that he could resist his Star Fist with brute force. Even if it was just the Star Explosion Fist, it was enough to contend with a Dao Proving realm powerhouse. But this guy only lost an arm.

However, while Han Fei was surprised, the elder of the Lava Giant was also horrified. This person was only in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. How could he be stronger than him?

It wasn't that no outsiders had entered this place before, but the previous outsiders were too weak. Not to mention being able to fight him, any one of their clansmen could kill those people.

It was the first time they met someone as powerful as Han Fei. Also, why was it so cold around him? Was it because he had some kind of Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth?

Although this person's hand was broken, he didn't admit defeat. He rolled up and turned into a meatball, continuing to make use of the power of heaven and earth here to smash at Han Fei.

Han Fei punched again. This time, it was not the Star Explosion Fist, but the Silencing Fist.

Boom, Crack...

The elder of the Lava Giant Tribe was sent flying and smashed through the ground. His flesh armor was almost completely shattered, and blood that was as hot as magma flowed out of his body.

“Elder Giant Fire...”

“Elder...”

For a moment, these strong masters of the Lava Giants were all enraged. One by one, they burned, turned into balls, and smashed crazily at Han Fei.

Han Fei sneered. “As I said, I have no ill intentions. You shouldn’t discriminate against outsiders. Since you insist on solving the problem by force, I just have to accede to your wish.”

In the next moment, the Ragnarok was activated, and it was still golden fist marks. Boom, Boom, Boom. In less than a minute, the surrounding hundreds of thousands of kilometers were smashed to the ground. These Lava Giants all lay down, and half of them were even knocked out by Han Fei.

Han Fei walked unhurriedly to Elder Giant Fire and said casually, “Now, can we talk?”

Elder Giant Fire wasn’t scared at all. He shouted, “Outsider, it’s useless to hurt us. The Grand Elder is more than ten times stronger than me. You’re indeed strong, but not strong enough.”

In the heart of this elder, an array pattern condensed of flames was obliterated in the void, as if it was sending a message.

Han Fei shook his head slightly. “Are all giants stupid? Did I say I was going to fight you? If you keep behaving like this, I’ll kill you all.”

Han Fei didn’t doubt that there were strong masters in this world. The weakest member of this race was at least in the late-stage Star Transformation Realm, so it was only natural that their upper limit of high-end combat power could reach the Monarch realm.

He just didn’t know how strong the Monarch of the Lava Giant Tribe was and if there were any stronger Monarchs.

Han Fei was not in a hurry to attack. He was still waiting. Winning and killing were two different things. Once these people died, he would completely be enemies with the Lava Giants.

Elder Giant Fire had already sent a message. Someone else would probably come soon.

So fast?

Han Fei was lost for words. How small was this world? Even if the other party received a message, they shouldn’t have come so quickly, right? It would take at least one second to read the message.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes slightly. This one must be in the Dao Proving realm and was probably not someone the Dao Proving realm powerhouses in the outside world could compare to.

However, with Han Fei's experience in fighting the Carefree Realm cultivators, he felt that the other party was still a little lacking, but it didn't seem to make much difference.

When the Lava Giant saw his clansmen lying all over the ground, his first reaction was to grab a hammer and then look at Han Fei coldly. "Outsider, did you hurt my clansmen?"

At this moment, Elder Giant Fire roared, "Grand Elder, this person has the strength of the Dao Proving realm."

Han Fei said, "I want to be reasonable, but your people won't listen. Then I can only let them lie down and wait for someone who I can reason with."

The Lava Giant nodded slightly and put away the hammer, because Han Fei didn't have any killing intent or hostility. He was just a little curious. Could the people in the world outside prove Dao?

The man said, "Outsider, I can see that you've shown mercy to my clansmen. Then, why are you here?"

In fact, Han Fei didn't know why he was looking for them. But he knew that if the ominous body wasn't here, he must have entered the river of time from this world.

Han Fei took out the Vast Ocean Navigator and said in his heart, Where is the ominous body in this world?

However, the Vast Ocean Navigator didn't turn. Clearly, it was no longer in this world.

Under the puzzled gaze of the Lava Giant, Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Do you know the God of War?"

The Lava Giant shook his head. It seemed that he couldn't use the God of War to establish a friendship with them.

Han Fei said again, "You should know where I come from, right?"

This time, the Lava Giant nodded. "I know. It's just an Origin Ground that's slowly recovering. The power of the Heavenly Dao there is weak and the Great Dao there withered."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "Since you know that world, why don't you try to contact it?"

"There is an extremely unstable channel between your world and mine. I'm surprised that the channel didn't collapse when you came from that side."

"Collapse?"

Han Fei said, "That passage looks quite normal! Why would it collapse?"

The Grand Elder of the Lava Giant frowned. "How is that possible? We've tried countless times. First of all, the passage can't carry the strong masters of the Sky Opening Realm or above to pass. If anyone below the Sky Opening Realm tries to pass, they will be crushed by the power of the Heavenly Dao on the other side of the passage and instantly die. Therefore, why didn't the passage collapse when you passed it?"

Han Fei shook his head. No, except for that he was hit by some red balls of light floating in the void, everything was normal.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. "I can be sure that when I came over, the so-called passage was extremely stable. Besides, if the passage collapses, how can I come over?"

"Well..."

Han Fei wondered if he was talking about a different channel with the Lava Giant. Besides, some people had tried to enter this place from the Raging Sea before, right? Although most of them died, a small number of them had come here.

Or could it be that they had just descended here and hadn't really arrived here? Han Fei wasn't sure about this. When he had the time, he could go to the library of the Supreme Mystic World to check.

The Lava Giant seemed to be confused too. "There were indeed outsiders coming here in the past, but most of them couldn't contact us except for those coming via some special methods because they were burned to death by the Fire of Chaos the moment they came in. Therefore, we moved our entire race to the vicinity of this passage in order to discover the outsiders in time. That's why I have some understanding of your world. Your situation was an accident and we still need to verify it."

Han Fei didn't care. There was nothing to argue about. If they really couldn't get out, it could only be said that they were restricted by this world, not the so-called channel problem.

According to the elder of the Lava Giants, these flames were indeed unusual. It turned out that they were the Fire of Chaos. But the voice of the Emperor Sparrow suddenly sounded in Han Fei's mind, "This is not really the Fire of Chaos. Otherwise, I should be able to sense it."

Han Fei didn't care. It didn't matter to him whether it was the Fire of Chaos or not.

Han Fei said, "I just told them that my purpose of coming here is to find a bad guy. This person is as strong as me and can withstand the Fire of Chaos here. He came to this world 58 years ago. I want to ask, did anything unusual happen in this world 58 years ago?"

"58 years ago?"

Han Fei clearly saw that the Lava Giant's expression changed slightly. Clearly, he knew something. Then, he said in a low voice, "Yes, something did happen 58 years ago. Someone invaded my race's holy land and stole my race's treasure."

"What?"

"We lost our treasure?"

Elder Giant Fire and the other Lava Giants were all shocked.

Han Fei frowned. "Treasure? What treasure?"

“This is the secret of my Lava Giant race. Why should I tell you?”

Han Fei said, “I’m here to hunt that person down. If everything goes well, I’ll kill him and bring your treasure back. Anyway, you’ve lost your treasure. Why can’t you tell me? If you trust me, I might be able to get it back for you.”

The Lava Giant asked, “W-where do you know he is? How can you find him after so many years?”

Han Fei said, “I have my ways.”

The Lava Giant thought for a moment. It was indeed as Han Fei said. There was really nothing he couldn’t tell them.

He said, “What we lost was a drop of the essence blood of the Ancient Human Race.”

“Ancient Human Race?”

The Emperor Sparrow had mentioned that humans had existed since the Chaotic Era. At that time, the essence blood of humans should be extremely pure. If the ominous Han Fei used the devouring technique, it should be easy to absorb. After all, it was the blood of his own kind. He didn’t have to devour the essence blood of various powerful creatures to improve his bloodline like Han Fei was doing now.

However, did his ominous body also need to improve his bloodline? What was the point of improving his bloodline? He was the ominous!

Han Fei thought for a moment. “Senior, can you show me where the treasure was lost? But like I said, I might be able to get it back for you.”

After a moment of silence, Han Fei said, “Senior, since you’ve already proved Dao, you should have passed the Monarch-level Tribulation, right?”

The Lava Giant nodded. “Yes.”

Han Fei asked, “There is a Self Severing Tribulation in the Monarch Tribulation. Senior, have you experienced it?”

The Lava Giant nodded again. “Sure.”

Han Fei said, “To be honest, that person is my Self Severing Tribulation.”

“Oh?”

The Lava Giant was finally moved. “You mean, you want to sever the negative in advance? It’s impossible for you... Someone is helping you with that? Wait, it’s impossible for such a person to exist in your world.”

Han Fei said, “Senior, this world is very small, so is our world. Beyond our two worlds, there is a bigger and wider world, which is the Sea Realm. In the Sea Realm, there are still gods, some Great Monarchs, and even more Monarchs. Why is it impossible?”

The Lava Giant's eyes suddenly flashed. "Sea Realm? I've never heard of it, but there was indeed a sea in the former Primeval Land. Is that the former Primeval Land?"

Han Fei said, "That's right. In fact, it's just the original Primeval Land. Don't tell me you think that the world you're in is the entire world?"

"Hiss!"

"Huh?"

"Primeval Land?"

"So, we can leave now?"

"Where is that place?"

"But we can't get through the passage!"

The group of Lava Giants suddenly became excited as if they had found a home.

The Grand Elder of the Lava Giants said anxiously, "Have you found the way to the Primeval Land?"

Han Fei nodded. "Yes, but the Sea Realm isn't as good as you think. It's full of dangers, especially for the human race. They're bullied there."

The elder of the Lava Giant Tribe seemed to have thought something out. "Of course the Primeval Land is dangerous. Otherwise, why would it be called primeval? This isn't important. What's important is that you can get out. Can you... really pass through the passage?"

Han Fei said, "Of course... It's not impossible for you to get out. I don't think all the Lava Giants are Monarchs. For example, these people..."

Han Fei pointed to everyone except the Grand Elder. "As long as they are willing to enter my Origin Star, I can take them away."

Gulp!

Han Fei saw that the eyes of these Lava Giants seemed to be filled with anticipation.

He didn't know what these people were longing for. Although the Sea Realm might be a new world to you, it was very dangerous there. Especially, the Chaotic Wasteland was covered in ice, which was the opposite of this place.

The elder of the Lava Giants immediately became much gentler. He looked at Han Fei up and down. "Are you a human?"

The Lava Giant shook his head. "After the Primordial Era, there are no more pure-bloods."

Han Fei said, "Whatever you say. I have no ill intentions towards the Lava Giants. I have no intention of snatching the essence blood of the ancient human race. I just want to sever my negative side. I swear that if I can snatch the essence blood of the ancient human race, I will return it to the Lava Giants."

The Lava Giant took a deep look at Han Fei. "No, no, in fact, we don't mind someone reproducing the bloodline of the ancient human race. We just want to use the inherited memories of the ancient human race to find the place where our Lava Giant race used to live and find the home of our Lava Giant race... If you can really lead us back to the Sea Realm, it doesn't matter if you can take back that drop of essence blood or not. Besides, you can become a good friend of our Lava Giant race."

After that, the Lava Giant looked at his clansmen who had been beaten to the ground and shouted, "Haven't you rested enough? It's time to get up."

However, none of them got up. They were still all lying flat on the ground.

Elder Giant Fire said, "Grand Elder, there's power surging in our bodies. We can't recover."

Seeing that the elder of the Lava Giants was looking at him, Han Fei smiled. Healing divine brilliance descended from the sky and enveloped these dozens of people.

Not only had Han Fei used the Ragnarok, but he had also used the Dao of Slaughter God and the Invincible Path, causing the residual power in their bodies to destroy their bodies.

Seeing that Han Fei could control the divine power between the heavens and earth, the elder couldn't help but be surprised. This person seemed to be stronger than he had imagined.

When he first saw this person, he thought that Han Fei was only in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm. But when he saw the rod in Han Fei's hand, he denied this thought. How could an ordinary Perfected Star Transformation Realm cultivator be carrying a demon plant in the Dao Proving Realm?

More importantly, he had carried the demon plant of the Dao Proving realm and passed through the channel. This made his heart burn with passion.

"Huh? It doesn't hurt anymore?"

"Hiss! The hidden injuries in my body are all gone."

"What kind of divine technique is this?"

"What a magical healing power."

The group of hostile Lava Giants all became friendly at this moment because Han Fei said he could take them out, and because the Grand Elder had accepted Han Fei. Now they all looked at Han Fei differently.

The Grand Elder said, "I hope you don't blame them. It's just that 58 years ago, the essence blood of the ancient human race was stolen, so I ordered them to try to capture any outsiders they find, and I'll kill them if they can't."

Now, Han Fei understood that these people were hostile to outsiders just because their precious essence blood had been stolen.

On the way back, a Lava Giant even came to Han Fei and said, "Why are your fists so hard?"

“Wow~”

The man exclaimed, feeling that the name sounded so awesome. Even the Grand Elder looked surprised. The strongest human being in the world?

Elder Giant Fire was the first to protest. “That’s impossible. Our Grand Elder is the strongest human being in the world.”

Han Fei tilted his head and glanced at Elder Giant Fire. “To be precise, you are just humanoids, and I am the human with the purest bloodline now.”

Elder Giant Fire said, “Humanoids are human beings too. We didn’t look like this before. It’s said that we evolved into what we are now to deal with the burning of the Fire of Chaos. Before, we were not only bigger than you, but also in perfect human shape.”

Han Fei laughed. “As you said, that was in the past. If we have to calculate it this way, the strongest person in the human race now should be a guy called the God of War. He has reached the peak of the Great Monarch realm and can even fight gods.”

The Grand Elder finally said, “God of War?”

Han Fei said, “I’ll teach you a sacrificial ritual later. Maybe you can contact the God of War. He’s now in the distant sea of stars. Therefore, if you make offerings in the sea of stars, it’s very likely to contact him.”

The Grand Elder nodded. “Okay!”

After a pause, the First Elder asked, “Is there really a big world outside?”

Han Fei said, “Of course. In the Primordial Era, there were countless races. How could only you, the Lava Giants, survive? Since you know that there is still our Raging Sea outside this world, you should have guessed that there are many races in this world. If my trip goes smoothly, maybe you can see the current Sea Realm soon.”

To be honest, the conditions in this primitive ancient land were so harsh that ordinary people would have died long ago. It was a miracle that these Lava Giants could hold out here for countless years.

Because the two parties needed some time to communicate, it was not fast to return to the Lava Giant Tribe.

Han Fei sat directly on the shoulder of Elder Giant Fire. In terms of character, there was not much difference between the Lava Giants and the War Giants. They were not bad. It was so dangerous to come from the Raging Sea to here because the people who came couldn’t resist the attack of the murderous intent in the Abyssal Chasm, and the burning of the Fire of Chaos in this Primordial Ancient Land all day long.

Giant Fire asked in confusion, “Han Fei, why is it so cool around you? I feel a little cold.”

Han Fei played with the Extreme Cold Pearl and said, "This thing is called the Extreme Cold Pearl. It's an ultra-quality godly weapon that suppresses all flames."

"Tsk, tsk ~"

"Wow! Is there such a treasure in this world?"

"So great. What material is this made of?"

"No matter what materials are used, we don't have them here. Otherwise, we would definitely build hundreds of them."

Han Fei was lost for words. Do you think it's so easy to make a hundred of them?

However, Han Fei found that the weapons, accessories, and beads on these people's hands were all godly weapons. It seemed that this Lava Giant seemed to be very good at refining.

"Han Fei, what's the outside world like?"

Han Fei said, "It's very free. The world is huge and has a large population. It can accommodate billions of people. In any random competition, there are as many as a million Sky Opening Realm powerhouses participating."

"Hiss ~"

"So scary."

"So many people? There are only a few thousand of us."

"How big must the land be? Wouldn't it be tens of millions of miles?"

"Gosh, there are so many people. How can we recognize each of them?"

Han Fei said, "Don't. They're just strangers. You will only need to know them when you have to."

Listening to the chat of these Lava Giants, Han Fei sighed. Their world was indeed very small, much smaller than the Raging Sea. The reason why this world could also become an independent world was that it was a fragment of the Primordial Era. Its geographical area was not even one-tenth of the Raging Sea.

The space where the Lava Giants lived was even smaller. Except for the places where they lived, other places would naturally nurture some special creatures as their hunting targets.

This group of people had lived tirelessly for countless years. It was even possible that this lineage had been passed down from the Primordial Era.

After chatting enough, Han Fei finally came to the Lava Giant Tribe.

Then he was surprised to find that this was a cave-type lifestyle. They had dug mountains as their residence, and the bones of all kinds of creatures were piled up everywhere. The bones of countless creatures had been beaten into pieces and put on the ground. It looked very backward, but when Han Fei saw their living facilities, he was speechless. Even the f*cking fences of this Lava Giant Tribe were godly weapons. The row of totem pillars were all godly weapons, the kind that would automatically protect them.

Here, there were mostly refining stone tables. Han Fei could hear the clanking sounds from afar. Because there were enough godly weapons forming guardrails, the energy released by knocking on the refining tables was blocked by the guardrails, so it wouldn't affect their lives at all.

Someone shouted, "Huh? Grand Elder, when did you go out?"

Someone saw Han Fei on the shoulder of Giant Fire and immediately exclaimed, "Wow, an outsider, it's an outsider."

With this exclamation, countless people put down what they were doing and scrambled to run to the huge square paved with broken bones.

"Where? Where is the outsider?"

"Hiss! This outsider is so small!"

"Huh? It's so cool around this outsider!"

"Wow, I'm freezing to death."
