Chapter 2751: Death of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch (3)

2751 Death of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch (3)

“Ahhh~”

“I don’t want to give up! I’ve already embarked on the path of divinity. Why can’t I transcend the tribulation now~ Roar~”

Bang!

Emperor Myriad Scales was completely shattered, turning into a bloody mist and soul fragments. Under the illumination of this divine tribulation, he gradually faded away and finally dissipated.

Rumble!

The Great Dao crack of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch broke through the Chaotic Wasteland and spanned half of the East Sea Divine Realm. Even in places where the Great Dao crack did not appear, thunder rumbled in the clear sky, covering all the five divine realms.

In one day, two Great Monarchs had died one after another, making the strong masters of the Sea Realm all look at the East Sea Divine Realm.

It was also at the moment of the death of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch that a figure appeared on the Chaotic Wasteland.

When this person arrived, he happened to see the scene of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch being annihilated in the divine tribulation.

Then, the man couldn’t help but look at Han Fei and the middle-aged man next to him and then at the battle in the City of Scavengers.

“The human race has finally returned to the Sea Realm.”

Seeing this person, the Queen of Horror bowed slightly and said, “Lin Qian greets Great Monarch East Martial.”

Great Monarch East Martial nodded slightly. His gaze lingered on the lineage of ferocious beasts and divine beasts for a moment. When he saw the tiger demon, he nodded slightly. However, he didn’t ask why the ferocious beasts and divine beasts were here.

When he looked at the side of the ancient human, his gaze stopped on Chu Hao for a moment. The two of them looked at each other in the air, but their gazes quickly separated. Chu Hao knew that East Martial had already recognized him, but he wasn’t worried that East Martial would reveal his identity. In the previous battle, Great Monarch East Martial was the only one who didn’t participate in the battle. He even turned a blind eye and let Chu Hao run into the Chaotic Wasteland.

He had never exposed him back then, let alone now. However, Great Monarch East Martial could naturally guess that Chu Hao was in the human race during the 100,000 years he had disappeared.

As for the others, East Martial didn't pay much attention to them. He didn't notice the difference of Han Guanshu and Jiang Linxian.

In the end, East Martial looked at Han Fei and the middle-aged man again.

Of course, he could see the crazily dispersing vitality from the middle-aged man and knew that this person didn't have long to live. But at the same time, he was also shocked by this person's strength. Vitality was dispersing from this person so seriously, but he could still kill a Great Emperor with a flip of his hand. It could be imagined that this person might be a god at his peak.

The middle-aged man didn't look at Great Monarch East Martial at this moment. He was standing opposite Han Fei in his body. The middle-aged man said indifferently, "The Demon Purification Pot must be in the hands of our human race. Whoever snatches it will be killed. In addition, remember that the Demon Purification Pot has the tenth vine. I will seal this memory. Only after you obtain all nine vines will this memory be awakened. If you die, this secret will no longer exist..."

Han Fei couldn't help but be moved. He had always thought that the Demon Purification Pot only had nine small vines, or at least that was what Chu Hao said. Now he had six. And there was still one in the Heavenly Race, and the other two were missing. But this was the first time he had heard about the tenth small vine.

Han Fei said, "Thank you for your information, Senior. Don't worry. The Demon Purification Pot will definitely be in my hands."

The middle-aged man nodded slightly. "There's only so much I can help you with. I can only tell you that the Origin River is in chaos, and the River of Eternal Darkness flows out of the Sea of Eternal Darkness. It's difficult to return from the chaos, but you can go to Eternal Darkness. However, you can't do it yet. Try it when you finish with law fusion."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. The River of Origin? The River of Eternal Darkness? This senior had seen through his dual spiritual heritages and even seemed to have pointed out the source of these two divine spiritual heritages.

Buzz!

In the next moment, Han Fei felt that he was pulled by a great force. His soul returned in an instant, and in the next moment, he had regained control of his original body.

Han Fei knew that this senior had said everything he wanted to say to him.

At this moment, Han Fei saw the middle-aged man look up at the void and turn around, only to see that Great Monarch East Martial had appeared there at some point.

The middle-aged man glanced at him lightly and then looked at Han Fei. "My life has come to an end. Sixty million years have passed. I should take a look at the current world before I die."

Han Fei hurriedly said, "Senior, I still don't know your name. When the human race returns to its former glory, I shall tell you the news."

The middle-aged man laughed. "If I'm doomed to die, why bother to leave my name? I'm leaving..."

The endless void opened and the middle-aged man stepped into it. The endless void that others would be lost in was just a portal to the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man left without leaving his name. Although Han Fei didn't know how long he could live, according to the dispersion of vitality in his body, even if he could live, it would only be a few hours at most.

What would a person do when he knew that his life was coming to an end with only a few hours left? Where would he go? Everyone might have different answers.

The middle-aged man wanted to see this world again. Han Fei felt that it was good, but he was afraid that this person might be a little disappointed. The current Sea Realm and the former Primordial World should be completely two different worlds.

And here, the terrifying divine tribulation began to dissipate after the death of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch. However, the place where the battle happened today might become a very dangerous place in the Chaotic Wasteland. In time, this place would definitely become a forbidden area.

Chapter 2752: Death of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch (4)

2752 Death of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch (4)

He shouted, "My name is Han Fei. With the power of one of the ancestors of our human race, I killed the two Immortal-level Monarchs of the Ten Thousand Scale Race and the supreme ruler of the Ten Thousand Scale Race, the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch. Now, all the Monarchs of the Ten Thousand Scale Race have been wiped out... My fellow human beings, it's in your hands whether or not the Ten Thousand Scale Race will be wiped out... Kill..."

At this moment, everyone of the Ten Thousand Scale Race in combat was in despair. That terrifying human being was still alive!

However, there was already no Monarch left in their race. How could they fight?

Therefore, the morale of the Ten Thousand Scale Race was completely shattered the moment Han Fei shouted that all their race's Monarchs had been wiped out. Countless members of the Ten Thousand Scale Race fled in defeat.

However, it was impossible for them to escape at this moment. Even if a few of them could escape, so what? As the saying went, a rout was like a landslide. The army of the human race was overwhelming. How could they have a chance to escape?

"Kill!"

"Kill ~"

“Don’t let go of any of them. Master Human Emperor has already helped us kill all their Monarchs. We must not hold the others back. Even if we die, we must kill all the survivors of the Ten Thousand Scale Race.”

“Charge!”

“Ula~”

If nothing went wrong, this battle would last for several days and nights or even longer.

In Han Fei’s Origin Star, the billions of human beings were also crazy. They had won. Although they didn’t know the levels of the Monarch Realm, each of the Monarchs was obviously stronger than the last.

Although someone seemed to have helped Han Fei in the end, it was Han Fei’s ability to find such a powerful helper, right?

Therefore, countless people began to party.

Countless people even began to shout, “Master Human Emperor, let us out? We can participate in the battle too.”

“Master Human Emperor, our brothers in the Chaotic Wasteland might not have enough manpower. We can’t bear to see them risk their lives to fight! Master Human Emperor, let’s go out and kill to our heart’s content.”

“Master Human Emperor.”

However, Han Fei had no time to pay attention to them at this moment. He just responded, “Everyone, the war is not over yet. I’ll let you out after I deal with the subsequent matters.”

After that, even the sky curtain was removed, which made many people a little regretful.

However, they didn’t panic. They were going to enter the Sea Realm anyway, and it was only a matter of time.

Outside, Han Fei first cupped his hands at the tiger demon and the fox demon. “Thank you, Seniors. When I finish my matters, I’ll go visit the divine beast lineage. And I’ll do what I promised.”

The tiger demon nodded. “Okay! I’ll wait for you in the Central Sea Divine Realm.”

The fox demon chuckled. “Han Fei, I’ll remember your name. When you come to us, I’ll introduce you to the number one beauty of our fox race. Tsk, She’s my disciple.”

Han Fei: “...”

After the battle was over, the tiger demon and the fox demon turned around and left. Today’s battle had made their trip worthwhile.

Han Fei looked at the Queen of Horror again. "Thank you for your help, Queen."

The Queen of Horror said, "I didn't do anything. Logically speaking, I haven't returned the favor I owe you."

Han Fei took out a jade slip and threw it over. "This is my idea. Your Majesty, you may consider it."

The Queen of Horror took the jade slip and scanned it casually. She was slightly surprised and then looked at Han Fei deeply. "This is a serious matter. I need to go back and consider it."

With that, the Queen of Horror left with Wushuang. When she left, she seemed to be thinking about something and didn't talk to Han Fei much.

Then Han Fei looked at Li Luoluo. He took out a godly weapon-level treasure box, then a jade slip, and threw them over. "This is what I promised you. In addition, I have a proposal here. Take a look."

Li Luoluo's eyes finally revealed a look of joy and surprise. Of course, she knew what Han Fei had given her. With the Time Worm and the Space Worm, she could become a Great Monarch in a very short period of time. She had made a killing on this deal. She even owed Han Fei a favor.

However, after reading Han Fei's jade slip, she raised her eyebrows. "Okay, I agree, but it will take at least a hundred years."

"A hundred years?"

Then Li Luoluo had no time to chat with Han Fei. She shouted, "All of you, enter my Origin Star. Let's go home."

Li Luoluo hurried away, eager to go back to advance.

In the end, Han Fei looked at Great Monarch East Martial. After a pause, he thought for a moment and took out a jade slip. "Senior East Martial, I didn't expect you to come to this battle in person. There are some plans that don't include the Divine Capital Dynasty. But since you're here, can you consider them?"

Great Monarch East Martial was also a little puzzled. He took the jade slip and looked at it. Then, he was slightly moved. After thinking for a long time, he slowly said, "What a good Human Emperor. You're indeed bold. However, this matter involves a problem. If you can solve it, I'll agree."

"A problem?"

Great Monarch East Martial casually pinched his fingers and returned a jade slip to Han Fei. "The Divine Capital Dynasty will pay attention to you. But from today onwards, the Chaotic Wasteland will have no leader. What are you going to do?"

"Burp ~"

At this moment, a burp suddenly sounded in the sky.

"Don't worry. I'll guard the Chaotic Wasteland."

East Martial looked at the source of the voice, his pupils were constricted slightly, and his face changed slightly. “You... are actually here?”

“Gulp~ Ah~ Haha, you didn’t expect this, did you?”

Han Fei: “???”

When Han Fei saw the uncle who was walking unsteadily with a wine calabash in his hand and his chest half open and his hair messy, he was a little shocked, speechless, and puzzled...

“Fifth... Senior Brother?”

“Haha! I didn’t expect to be recognized at first glance. Little Junior Brother, you really know me well!”

God of Fishing

Chapter 2753: The Eve of Dao Proving (1)

2753 The Eve of Dao Proving (1)

Han Fei was speechless. Who the hell could tell him why Fifth Senior Brother, Old Desolate, would appear in this damn place?

Han Fei’s face suddenly darkened. “Fifth Senior Brother, aren’t you going to explain it to me?”

Han Fei was a little angry. I used up all my trump cards and fought a life-and-death battle, but my senior brother just stood by and watched the show. When everything was settled, he showed up, laughing!

Fifth Senior Brother laughed again. “Little Junior Brother, go about your business. I... Burp... need to take a nap.”

Han Fei: “...”

“Burp~ Bang~”

Fifth Senior Brother dove into the chaotic battlefield and began to snore.

Han Fei couldn’t help rubbing his head. Just as he was about to pull Fifth Senior Brother up, he suddenly looked at the void.

The void opened, and Hong Yue, Ying Yue, Xu Meng, and the others broke out of it.

Hong Yue shouted, “Master Human Emperor, we’ve fulfilled our mission. We’ve destroyed 17 secret trial fields of the Ten Thousand Scale Race, killing 181 Sky Openers and 56,802 Sea Establishers of the Ten Thousand Scale Race, 41,091 frogmen and blade demons, and saved 40,792 Sea Establishers of the human race.”

After that, Hong Yue released 40,792 people at once.

As soon as these people appeared, they were shocked by the terrifying energy fluctuations here. At this moment, the Great Dao crack hadn't completely dissipated, so they were shocked the moment they came out.

Han Fei glanced at Fifth Senior Brother and decided not to disturb him. Fine, you can sleep. I'll have plenty of time to talk to you.

He said, "My fellow human beings, I am Human Emperor Han Fei. The human race has been enslaved by the Ten Thousand Scale Race for 100,000 years. Today is the day of our revenge. As you can see, all the cities under the rule of the City of Scavengers have been destroyed by us. Sixteen Dao Proving-Level Monarchs, 11 Carefree-Level Monarchs, three Immortal-Level Monarchs, and a Great Monarch of the Ten Thousand Scale Monarch have all been killed by me. Now, a full-scale war between the human race and the Scavengers is erupting in the City of Scavengers. You don't have to ask anything. Just go. I want you to kill until the entire Ten Thousand Scale Race is wiped out."

Han Fei was not in the mood to talk to these people now. When they went to the battlefield, they would naturally know everything.

However, their brains were all messed up at this moment.

What was the Carefree Level? And what was the Immortal Level? Wasn't there only one Monarch in the Ten Thousand Scale Race? Where did the 32 of them come from?

Even Hong Yue and the others were stunned by Han Fei's words. They did see countless Great Dao cracks along the way, but they didn't expect that so many Monarchs had really died.

Also, there seemed to be more than thirty-two Great Dao cracks, right?

It had only been a few days since they last met. Why did it feel like they had missed a century?

But Hong Yue and the others didn't hesitate. They just said, "Everyone, follow us. It's time for revenge. Follow us to kill into the City of Scavengers..."

These Sea Establishers hadn't yet recovered from Han Fei's words when they were driven to the battlefield by Hong Yue.

These days, they had been fighting alongside Hong Yue and the others, so they respected and worshiped them very much. Although Hong Yue and the others kept talking about the Human Emperor, they didn't see him.

They didn't expect to hear such shocking news the moment they saw him. The City of Scavengers was gone? A superpower that had stood in the Chaotic Wasteland for 100,000 years was gone just like that?

Although the Ten Thousand Scale Race had more than 20 million Venerables, no matter how many Venerables they had, they were still defeated. Furthermore, the human Sea Establishers were hunting these Venerables crazily. In just one day, more than 8 million Venerables had been killed, and countless powerhouses of other realms had died too.

As for Han Fei himself, he didn't idle around. He led the returning Sky Opening Realm powerhouses of the Seven Kill Army to start a battle to besiege the Sky Openers of the Ten Thousand Scales Race.

Compared to these Sky Opening Realm armies, the hundreds of people in the Seven Kill Army were actually not very important. Furthermore, most of the Seven Kill Army was no match for them.

This couldn't be helped. How long had they been cultivating? How long had the Seven Kill Army been cultivating?

However, with Han Fei's participation in the battle, the situation immediately changed. For him, killing the cultivators under the Monarch Realm was as easy as pie.

Besides, Han Fei was only in the Sky Opening Realm.

Since Han Fei had opened all his five Dao Locks, he only had three days left. He had to transcend the Monarch tribulation in three days. Therefore, he was on a killing spree at this moment.

The Sky Opening Realm powerhouses of the Seven Kill Army who couldn't get involved in this battle watched as Han Fei led more than 4,000 Lava Giants to join the group battle.

Especially Han Fei, every time he attacked, a person would die.

That scene made their mouths dry. Duan Qingsi and the others who had returned were also stunned to see Han Fei's ferocious combat style. They felt that Han Fei's killing speed alone was almost comparable to the killing speed of the entire puppet army.

God of Fishing

Chapter 2754: The Eve of Dao Proving (2)

2754 The Eve of Dao Proving (2)

As for the Lava Giants, their combat power was quite good, mainly because they had many weapons! Each of them had hundreds of godly weapons. Seeing this scene, the members of the Seven Kill Army almost drooled.

More importantly, the Lava Giants were too sturdy to be killed.

Han Fei fought for two days and two nights, resting seven times in between, and only killed more than 28,000 people in three days.

As for the Lava Giants, they had killed more than 25,000 enemies in total.

The remaining less than 50,000 were also killed in large numbers by the puppet army.

In any case, on the third day, there were less than 8,000 members of the Ten Thousand Scale Race who could still fight, while there were still more than 96,000 people in the Puppet Army.

After that, Han Fei didn't participate in the battle anymore.

This was because he was preparing to make a breakthrough. He couldn't waste his spiritual power recklessly. He needed to appear in his peak state.

Half a day later.

When Han Fei came out of his Origin Star, the energy fluctuations on his body were getting more and more serious.

On the battlefield of the Sky Opening Realm, under the cooperation of the Lava Giants and puppets, there were only less than 2,000 members of the Ten Thousand Scale Race left, so Han Fei simply ignored them.

Han Fei greeted Old Han and his mother and then came to Fifth Senior Brother.

"Hulu~"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei pondered for a long time and was about to pick the wine calabash from Fifth Senior Brother's waist, when Fifth Senior Brother suddenly jumped far away. "Don't touch my wine..."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was amused. "Fifth Senior Brother, are you really sleeping, or are you pretending to be asleep?"

Only then did Fifth Senior Brother open his eyes in a daze. "Ah! Little Junior Brother! Oh, you're about to prove Dao! If you don't prove Dao now, why are you disturbing my sleep?"

Han Fei was lost for words. "Wait, Fifth Senior Brother, don't you have anything to say to me?"

Fifth Senior Brother asked, "Say what?"

Han Fei gestured with a black face. "Senior Brother, don't you know what I mean? Why are you in the Chaotic Wasteland? Are you the person behind the City of Wanderers? It's fine you didn't inform me before, but isn't it a little too much for you to watch the show from the side after I had already started fighting?"

Fifth Senior Brother shrugged. "Little Junior Brother! It's not my fault. Besides, no matter how angry you are, you can't snatch my wine calabash! This is my treasure."

"I..."

"Hahaha! Really? How did you find out?"

Han Fei was speechless. Am I blind or deaf?

Seeing that Fifth Senior Brother was about to reach for the wine calabash and drink again, Han Fei quickly stopped him. "Hey, hey, Senior Brother, stop. Drink it later. I'm about to prove Dao. Are you still in the mood to drink here?"

Fifth Senior Brother looked at Han Fei weirdly. "Just prove your Dao! How old are you? Do you need me to teach you how to prove your Dao?"

Han Fei said with a black face, "Okay, Senior Brother, if you don't want to tell me, let's talk after I prove Dao. However, Senior Brother, you said you were going to prepare a gift for me, right?"

"Haha! It's just a gift! Come, Little Junior Brother, pick one..."

Clang ~

A bunch of messy things were thrown to the ground by Fifth Senior Brother. Han Fei saw an ultra-quality godly weapon-level longsword, an ultra-quality godly weapon-level battle axe, a short knife that seemed to be an Acquired Spiritual Treasure, a turtle shell that seemed to be a Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth, and... a wine calabash?

Han Fei quickly grabbed the wine calabash.

Fifth Senior Brother looked at Han Fei with a faint smile. "Hey! Junior Brother, I accidentally dropped this wine calabash. Give it to me. Pick something else."

"Hehe..."

"No."

Han Fei thought to himself, I don't believe you. How can a wine calabash that can be placed together with a Spiritual Treasure of Heaven and Earth be ordinary wine? Fifth Senior Brother loves wine as much as his life. When the Void Temple gathers, he always takes two mouthfuls of wine even in front of the Eldest Senior Brother. Therefore, no matter how good the other things he throws out are, he should pick those related to wine.

Han Fei only took one.

Seeing this, Fifth Senior Brother hesitated for a long time, but in the end, he waved his hand. "Fine. I was too careless. Alas, what a huge loss... Hey, aren't you going to prove Dao? Why aren't you going yet?"

Seeing that Fifth Senior Brother had no intention of telling him any secrets, Han Fei didn't ask further. He guessed that Fifth Senior Brother wouldn't tell him until he proved Dao, so he didn't insist.

Han Fei said, "Okay! Senior Brother, you can drink first! Do you want me to make you two dishes?"

Fifth Senior Brother's eyes lit up. "Haha! What did I say? Little Junior Brother is the most considerate. Tsk, come on, make some dishes for me..."

However, Han Fei turned his head and said, "Alas! I'm going to prove Dao, so I'm not in the mood to cook. Fine, I'll make you two dishes after I return. But if I die during Dao Proving, tsk..."

Fifth Senior Brother: "..."

"Uh... Burp..."

The war in the City of Scavengers had been going on for three days and three nights. With the absolute advantage, the City of Scavengers had almost been turned upside down. The seawater here had been dyed scarlet.

At this moment, a large number of humans had gathered in the City of Scavengers. These people collapsed in the ruins. The continuous battles and killings had exhausted them.

God of Fishing

Chapter 2755: The Eve of Dao Proving (3)

2755 The Eve of Dao Proving (3)

However, exhaustion couldn't hide the joy in their hearts. They felt so happy that they had finally taken revenge. Even if they were asked to die now, many people would be satisfied.

A group of people were chatting at this moment. One of them was lying on a broken piece of soil with two axes spread out beside his hand. He said, "I have no regrets now. Brothers, we're really free."

Someone sighed. "Yes! When someone from the Seven Kill Army told me about it, I didn't believe it. Bah, I'm really a piece of shit. Master Human Emperor rescued us, but I didn't believe him. I was so stupid."

Someone sneered. "Haha, isn't it the same for me? However, Master Human Emperor should be the most difficult one. Thirty-two Monarchs! Brothers, they're Monarch, and it includes all the four levels of the Monarch Realm. How long will it take for Master Human Emperor to find a way to deal with them?"

Someone cursed, "Can you f*cking speak? The Human Emperor is omnipotent. How can mere Monarchs be compared to Master Human Emperor?"

Someone laughed and scolded, "Mere Monarch? How f*cking bold of you to speak that? Then become a Monarch!"

"Hahaha!"

The group of people chatted and laughed. Someone was suddenly stunned. Then, the smile on his face turned into shock, nervousness, and panic. Then, he looked ecstatic. This person rose with a swish and shouted, "Human, human, human, Zhao Fu, greets Master Human Emperor."

Everyone was stunned for a moment. Then, someone laughed and said, "Old Zhao! Stop pretending. How can Master Human Emperor come to our soil pit? If he does, I'll lick... the floor upside down."

However, this person suddenly stopped laughing, because people beside him bounced up one after another.

"Human Yu Dong greets Master Human Emperor."

"I'm Zhang Cheng from the human race. Nice to meet you, Master Human Emperor."

"I'm Xu Baipiao from the human race. Nice to meet you, Master Human Emperor."

Han Fei smiled and said, "You're right. This battle is indeed difficult for me... Hey, that fellow human, don't be so serious."

The person who just said that he would lick the floor upside down if the Human Emperor came was standing upside down and licking the floor while mumbling, "Yue Buqun of the human race greets Master Human Emperor."

"Ah, well... Do you have a disciple named Linghu Chong?"

"Huh?"

Yue Buqun hurriedly turned over and stood straight. "Master Human Emperor, I don't have any disciples, and I don't know anyone named Ling Huchong."

Han Fei waved his hand. "Okay, stop licking the floor. I'm just here to take a look."

With that, Han Fei disappeared in one step.

"Master Human Emperor has come to visit us in person. This is enough for me to brag about for the rest of my life."

"Master Human Emperor is so nice!"

"I stuttered just now. I don't know if Master Human Emperor heard my name clearly."

Yue Buqun, on the other hand, stroked his chin and pondered. "Well, I have to take in a disciple. This disciple must be named Linghu Chong."

Everyone : "..."

In the last half day, Han Fei spent about four hours walking through the ruins of the City of Scavengers. When many people saw Han Fei, their faces were filled with shock, and then there was only admiration.

Anyway, after this round, Han Fei clearly felt that the power of faith was increasing.

Buzz!

At that moment, Han Fei soared to the sky in a single step. He looked at Gu Tingnan and said, "The battle inside and outside the City of Scavengers is almost over. Can the City of Wanderers take over those who are fleeing?"

Gu Tingnan knew what Han Fei was going to do. Without any hesitation, he nodded and said, "Don't worry. I'll take over."

In the next moment, Han Fei's voice sounded inside and outside the City of Scavengers.

"My fellow human beings, I am Human Emperor Han Fei. Come to the center of the City of Scavengers as soon as you hear me..."

Swish! Swish! Swish!

As soon as Han Fei said so, the human powerhouses who were still paralyzed in the ruins rose to the sky one after another, wishing they had eight legs and hurried to the center of the City of Scavengers, fearing that they would be slower than others.

In less than an hour, hundreds of millions of humans had gathered here.

At this moment, Han Fei was standing proudly in the sky, and everyone looked up at him. They had never experienced such a scene before, so they couldn't understand what kind of admiration and admiration it was.

Han Fei shouted, "Everyone, open your minds and don't resist. Enter my Origin Star."

At that moment, everyone relaxed. If it were someone with ill intentions, they would be doomed. However, Han Fei's words were enough to make these billions of people immediately drop their guard.

After Han Fei collected these people into his Origin Star, a huge figure immediately appeared on his Origin Star.

At this moment, Han Fei didn't say anything else to them. He simply said, "My fellow human beings, I am Human Emperor Han Fei. Today, the Ten Thousand Scale Race that had enslaved our human race for a hundred thousand years has finally been annihilated. Did you hear it? Did you see it?"

Immediately, there was a clamor.

"We've witnessed with our own eyes how invincible Master Human Emperor is."

"Thank you, Master Human Emperor, for saving our people out of fire and water."

"Master Human Emperor, you are the eternal Human Emperor in our hearts..."

Han Fei didn't listen to these bragging. He said solemnly, "My fellow brothers and sisters, don't be happy too early. Although we won the war today, you have to know that I used too many external forces in this war. Without the Monarchs restraining the Monarchs of the Ten Thousand Scale Race, it's impossible for me to save you. No matter how strong I am, I'm only in the Perfected Star Transformation Realm, which is the peak of the Emperor Realm. And above the Emperor Realm, there are Monarchs, and above the Monarch Realm, there are even gods... In this Sea Realm, there are too many strong masters who want to explore the sea in the wilderness of the Sea Realm. The Sea Establishment Realm, which is the King Realm, is the most basic and ordinary combat power. Everyone, this is not the Raging Sea, and the outside world is not the Chaotic Wasteland. You have to understand that our current human race is still weak, very weak..."

Below, countless people became solemn. If Han Fei said that the human race was weak, it must be weak.

The humans in the Raging Sea weren't fools. Although the humans in the Chaotic Wasteland that were rescued weren't many, they were very strong. Especially after recovering so many cities, there were tens of millions of Venerables. As for the Raging Sea? Its population was ten times, a hundred times, a thousand times... However, there were only hundreds of thousands of Venerables. They were on completely different levels.

Therefore, Han Fei's words reminded them that they were no longer in the Raging Sea. What they were about to face was a brand-new world.

Han Fei continued, "My fellow humans from the Raging Sea, don't be discouraged. Because you are new to the Chaotic Wasteland, you will have a period of strength outburst. In an extremely short period of time, you may have consecutive breakthroughs. That's because you want to adapt to the environment of the Sea Realm, so you will naturally become stronger... I'm telling you this to let you recognize yourselves. Our human race is not a powerful race yet. We are very weak, including me, your emperor. Now, I want to show you a new realm. It's a realm that the human race in the Raging Sea, or even the Chaotic Wasteland, has never experienced... That is... the Monarch Realm."

Han Fei knew that many people thought that he was already a Monarch. Otherwise, how could he have killed so many Monarchs?

However, today, he wanted to clarify this matter to the human race. He said, "My fellow human beings, today, I, Han Fei, will transcend the tribulation to prove Dao. The result is unpredictable. Only those with a clear Dao heart, great perseverance and no fear of death can transcend it ... I don't dare say that I can definitely transcend it, but I have a fearless heart. I think you can have it too. If the human race wants to rise, someone has to sacrifice himself. Every step we take is a crisis; every step we take is a challenge; every step we take has to be explored... Today, I'll go first to transcend the Monarch Tribulation and become a Monarch. I hope you can remember what the Monarch-level Tribulation looks like."

Many people burst into tears and prayed in their hearts.

They knew how difficult it was for the human race. The people in the Raging Sea knew that Han Fei had unified the Thirty-Six Mystic Worlds. However, Han Fei didn't stop or enjoy the fruits of the human race's unification. Instead, he went east to find a way for the human race.

The people in the Chaotic Wasteland knew how difficult it was for the human race to have a Monarch. Before this, the human race in the Chaotic Wasteland didn't even have a Sky Opening Realm powerhouse, let alone a Monarch.

Therefore, they all hoped that Han Fei could successfully transcend the tribulation.

Someone shouted, "May Master Human Emperor transcend the tribulation and become a Monarch."

"Master Human Emperor, although we can't help you, we are waiting for your return."

"Master Human Emperor, you must return. Our human race still needs to rise in the Sea Realm under your lead."

"My fellow human beings, let's cheer together. We wish Master Human Emperor success in transcending the tribulation and becoming a Monarch."

"May Master Human Emperor transcend the tribulation and become a Monarch."

At that moment, hundreds of millions of human beings shouted and their voices shook the ground. It was like an ancient war song that lasted for a long time...

Chapter 2756: Slash the Monarch Tribulation (1)

2756 Slash the Monarch Tribulation (1)

Old Han's proposal and his crazily increasing power of faith in the past few days told Han Fei that this was the advantage of being the emperor of a race.

Not every emperor of a race could harvest power of faith crazily like he was doing now. Some races had long stood in the Sea Realm. Their authority might be great, but the power of faith they could obtain might not be satisfactory. After all, they couldn't guarantee that all their people would worship him.

However, the human race was different from the Sea Realm. The human race was at the beginning of a rise. The human race needed a leader to lead them to grow.

Secondly, there were many human beings. In the entire Sea Realm, there might not be many races with more people than the human race. This was because of conditions. The Sea Realm was dangerous and had a high probability of death. Everyone was used to death. It was already not bad for a race to have a population of a million or ten million. A race having a population of a hundred million was already a very big race.

No matter how much they promoted fertility, cultivation required time, but death could happen in an extremely short period of time. Therefore, it was destined that it was difficult for the races in the Sea Realm to maintain an efficient fertility and growth plan.

Of course, this was not absolute. Han Fei thought that if it was an abnormal race like the Insect race, they would be the same as or even surpass the development speed of the human race.

Anyway, there were billions of people in Han Fei's Origin Star at this moment. With so many people watching him transcend the tribulation, he couldn't let go of this wave of power of faith.

Although he hadn't fully understood the deeper role of the power of faith yet, he might as well save it first. After he proved Dao, he would have to consult Old Han.

Before Han Fei's departure, Han Guanshu and Jiang Linxian came together. These two days, Han Fei had been busy fighting and had no time to spend with them. Now that Han Fei had proved his Dao, the two of them naturally came.

Han Guanshu said, "Son, remember not to use the power of faith when you prove Dao."

Han Fei wondered, "Is there anything special about the power of faith?"

Han Guanshu smiled casually. "I'll tell you after you become a Daoist. In fact, it's not very useful, but it's still quite useful for you now."

Han Fei thought to himself, Your words are contradictory. They're not very useful, but they're very useful to me now. What kind of logic is this?

Jiang Linxian took Han Fei's hand and said, "Fei'er, the current power of the Heavenly Dao in the ancestral land of the human race is at most enough for you to prove Dao alone. After you prove Dao, the power of the Heavenly Dao in the ancestral land will be very fragile. At that time, only Venerables and below could enter it. Never let anyone above the Venerable Realm to enter, so we can't follow you in. Therefore, you have to take good care of yourself. I'll wait for you to return."

Han Fei nodded. "Okay!"

After a while, Han Fei returned to the Raging Sea.

At the moment he entered the Raging Sea, he had a feeling that his Monarch Tribulation was coming. Han Fei didn't go deep into the Raging Sea. His teacher Beast King had proved Dao at the edge, so the edge might be more stable.

Han Fei stepped on the void, rose to the sky, and sat cross-legged in the sky.

Rumble!

Less than two hours after Han Fei sat cross-legged, the tribulation clouds surged above his head and thunder rumbled incessantly.

To transcend the Monarch Tribulation, one had to use the power of the Heavenly Dao. However, the best time to transform the Heavenly Dao into one's own was when the Monarch Tribulation came. When the Monarch Tribulation came, the power of the Heavenly Dao would gather.

Therefore, Han Fei was absorbing a large amount of the power of the Heavenly Dao in the Raging Sea.

Three hours later, above Han Fei's head, the terrifying tribulation clouds covered tens of millions of kilometers in the sky. It was the power accumulated for the Monarch Tribulation.

As for Han Fei, he was neither sad nor happy at this moment. It was as if he had transformed into the master of a world, and his aura of Dao swept in all directions.

In Han Fei's Origin Star, everyone looked out through the sky. Apart from the boundless tribulation clouds, they couldn't see anything, but this didn't stop them from staring with widened eyes.

Suddenly, a huge vortex appeared in the boundless tribulation clouds. In the vortex, there seemed to be a dragon roar and a phoenix cry. Han Fei even saw the first bluish-purple lightning accumulating.

The first lightning bolt was blue-purple, and according to Han Fei's past experience, the second one would be light purple, indicating that his heavenly tribulation was very difficult.

However, he was no longer the Han Fei who was opening the sky. His current strength could no longer be calculated in terms of the Sky Opening realm.

"Huff~"

Han Fei took a deep breath and suddenly soared into the sky. In the sky, thousands of bluish-purple lightning bolts intertwined into pillars and arrived in an instant.

Roar!

Han Fei crazily made his Origin Great Dao operate. As for the first, and the weakest, monarch tribulation, of course, Han Fei wanted to swallow it.

The tribulation lightning could temper the body, refine the blood, and strengthen the soul. It could be said that except for the possibility of not being able to withstand it, all the tribulations were beneficial to the qualitative transformation of his body.

When Han Fei opened his mouth and swallowed the Monarch Tribulation, the humans in his Origin Star were dumbfounded. Is this a Monarch Tribulation? How can it be eaten?

Most people had transcended minor heavenly tribulations when they became law enforcers, so they knew what a heavenly tribulation was like. They had to be very careful in the face of every heavenly tribulation to prevent any accidents.

In order to transcend the tribulation, they even had to prepare spiritual fruits, pills, rare treasures, and so on.

God of Fishing

Chapter 2757: Slash the Monarch Tribulation (2)

2757 Slash the Monarch Tribulation (2)

However, they were really dumbfounded to see Han Fei swallowing a Monarch Tribulation so quickly.

More importantly, the heavenly tribulation was bluish-purple. In their opinion, it was a pillar of heavenly tribulation formed by hundreds of tribulation lightning. It was so terrifying that it wouldn't be a problem for the pillar to penetrate a Heavenly Palace.

"Gulp! So this is how a real powerhouse transcends tribulation."

"It seems that Master Human Emperor is at ease!"

"This is only the first heavenly tribulation. There's still more to come. Let's wait and see."

"Puff! Puff! Puff!"

Suddenly, everyone saw that thousands of cracks were torn all over Han Fei's body, spewing out a large amount of blood mist, and the power of the tribulation lightning could be vaguely seen in the snowy sun.

"Come back!"

It wasn't that Han Fei couldn't withstand it, but the power of the tribulation clouds was too much. They surged in his body and were about to break out.

But when the first lightning bolt entered his body, Han Fei felt that the hardness of his flesh and blood were rapidly improving, and he seemed to be instantly stuck at the limit of the Sky Opening Realm.

Rumble!

As Han Fei expected, the second bolt of lightning appeared, which was colored light purple. Han Fei swallowed the lightning unobstructed again.

Crack ~

When the Heavenly Tribulation entered his body, Han Fei felt that the critical point that had been stuck to the extreme was loosened. Sure enough, in the next moment, Han Fei broke through the shackles of the Sky Opening Realm.

At that moment, Han Fei felt that the blood and Qi in his body that was as full as a river was instantly cleared, as if a river had burst its dam and flowed for thousands of kilometers.

However, this power was pouring out so fast that every inch of Han Fei's skin was oozing golden blood.

After only one second, Han Fei had turned into a golden statue. It was not an invincible will or anything, but Han Fei's blood.

"One second, two seconds, three seconds..."

In the eighth second, Han Fei still swallowed all the power of this heavenly tribulation.

Others thought that Han Fei was awesome. He had already suffered two Monarch Tribulations in a row.

However, Han Fei was very cautious at this moment. The intensity of these two Monarch Tribulations was a little beyond his imagination. Especially the second one, it was so strong that the next moment, he vomited a mouthful of blood.

Han Fei activated all the Great Daos he had cultivated and sensed the strange power in the Monarch Tribulation. They were trying to change Han Fei's Great Dao.

Rumble!

The third lightning bolt had turned pure purple.

Although Han Fei could take the first two lightning strikes head-on, facing this one, he had to concentrate and turned many of his Great Daos into chains to buckle the purple Monarch Tribulation.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The chains were broken one after another and seemed to be filled with power in an instant. In the next moment, small explosions were happening all over Han Fei's body. This time, flesh and blood were flying around his body, and his bones were shining like jade.

"Is this the limit?"

Han Fei's face changed slightly. He had thought that he could swallow at least three Monarch Tribulations in a row, but now it seemed that he could barely withstand the third one, which meant that he couldn't withstand the fourth one.

Han Fei didn't dare to be negligent. He stuffed dozens of masses of liquid divine brilliance into his mouth in a row, and the flesh and blood returned to Han Fei's body, resisting the power of the lightning tribulation. They gathered and dispersed now and then.

Finally, Han Fei's flesh and blood didn't really recover until the third Monarch Tribulation disappeared.

Although the process was a little difficult, the result was gratifying. Although he hadn't broken through the Monarch Tribulations yet, Han Fei felt that his strength had taken a qualitative leap. As long as he consolidated it for a few days after the tribulation, his strength would undergo a qualitative change.

However, during the third Monarch Tribulation, Han Fei looked so miserable that he could barely maintain his human form. This made the hearts of countless people on his Origin Star stop beating for a moment, and countless people's faces were filled with worry.

In the end, Han Fei's body recovered, and they were greatly relieved.

However, as soon as the lightning ended, the tribulation clouds in the sky turned purple-gold with a faint golden light.

"Sh*t!"

Han Fei's face changed slightly. He felt that something was wrong. When the Emperor Sparrow opened the sky, he had seen the black heavenly tribulation. This time, it was his turn to see this purple-gold color. According to the gradually changing rules of the heavenly tribulation, wouldn't it turn into a golden heavenly tribulation?

Although he had never experienced it, he knew that it was definitely not a good sign. More importantly, this was the fourth Monarch Tribulation.

He endured the first three Monarch Tribulations. On the one hand, he could completely withstand the heavenly tribulations and absorb the power in them, which could help him better prove Dao and make his starting point after proving Dao was far higher than others. On the other hand, there were billions of pairs of eyes watching him now. As the Human Emperor, he had to set an example. He had to transcend the tribulation in an impressive way.

Otherwise, if he was dying after the tribulation, he might as well not let them see it. Although he would still receive the power of faith, it would greatly increase the humans' psychological burden.

Therefore, when he saw this purple heavenly tribulation, Han Fei knew that he couldn't hold on by force anymore. Perhaps he could still hold on, but the consequences would definitely not be desirable.

God of Fishing

Chapter 2758: Slash the Monarch Tribulation (3)

2758 Slash the Monarch Tribulation (3)

Therefore, everyone saw that a pair of boxing gloves appeared in Han Fei's hands. Under his body, there seemed to be a huge tide accompanying him. Han Fei condensed a Silencing Fist in his peak state and soared into the sky, punching out at the Monarch Tribulation.

Upon seeing this scene, the humans in Han Fei's Origin Star were all refreshed. Of course, they knew how difficult the tribulation was. No one could guarantee that they would succeed.

However, what Han Fei showed was a kind of boldness. He punched the Monarch Tribulation, which contained the kind of will and spirit that could shake the world. This kind of spirit was worth following and learning.

Roar!

When the purple-gold heavenly tribulation rumbled down, Han Fei roared and his fist mark soared into the sky like a shooting star.

Rumble!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

At that moment, everyone saw that Han Fei was walking against the tide in the pillar of heavenly tribulation. His long hair danced, and his fist aura collided with the heavenly tribulation, forming a shock wave-like protective cover that protected Han Fei tightly.

At this moment, Han Fei was frantically circulating the Godfiend Formless Technique. The power of the heavenly tribulation surged into his body. Even though his flesh and blood exploded, the fist mark was still there. In the end, the flesh and blood on Han Fei's right arm were gone, leaving only a shining golden bone.

"Puff ~"

Han Fei's body cracked, but the corners of his mouth cracked. He survived the fourth heavenly tribulation safely.

"Huff!"

As the liquid divine light entered his body, the cracks on Han Fei's body were repairing at a visible speed. The flesh and blood that had just disappeared returned.

In the eyes of everyone, the magnificent figure was extremely domineering, making their hearts surge.

"So strong! This is the first time I've seen such a strong heavenly tribulation."

"As expected of Master Human Emperor. Without even wearing a protective battle suit, he dares to face the heavenly tribulation purely with his body."

"He doesn't even need a treasure to transcend the fourth level of the heavenly tribulation. Master Human Emperor will definitely be able to safely transcend this Monarch Tribulation."

In the Thug Academy, a group of people were shouting crazily, "Eldest Senior Brother, come on! Eldest Senior Brother is invincible."

Old Bai and Old Jiang clenched their fists. If Han Fei could transcend the tribulation, he would be the first Monarch of the human race they knew. And Gu Tingnan had long been ignored by them. How could a person who used 100,000 years to prove Dao be compared with a person who used 600 years to prove Dao?

The fifth heavenly tribulation was also purple-gold, but the golden part was more intense.

This time, Han Fei also punched at the Monarch Tribulation, but he used the Time Arcane Technique, which was equivalent to two Silencing Fists in a row.

But the Monarch Tribulation became stronger and stronger. After the two fist marks, Han Fei's body inevitably cracked more than last time, giving people the feeling that he was almost broken.

This time, he used hundreds of liquid Divine Lights at once.

The sixth level of the heavenly tribulation was the same for Han Fei.

However, this time, not only did he use the Time Arcane Technique, but he also punched out again when the fifth tribulation was destroyed, using Time Jump.

But this time, there was very little purple part in the Monarch Tribulation. It was almost invisible, and there was only a bright golden color left.

Boom Boom Boom ~

After three consecutive Silencing Fists, Han Fei felt that the myriad Daos in his body were pierced by a large amount of golden light.

At that moment, Han Fei knew that his Great Daos had already begun to change. Endless enlightenment suddenly appeared in his heart. It was a brand-new power evolving in his body.

"The power of laws? So it evolved from the tribulation."

Han Fei seemed to understand something. This golden heavenly tribulation was not just a heavenly tribulation, but also contained many laws of the Heavenly Dao.

Halfway through the transformation of Han Fei's Great Daos, Han Fei's flesh and blood all dissipated under the bombardment of the golden heavenly tribulation.

In the end, the humans could only see a golden jade skeleton without any flesh and blood on it.

"Hiss!"

This was the invincible Human Emperor in their hearts, but he had been blasted into bones and his flesh and blood had disappeared without a trace. This Monarch Tribulation was too terrifying.

The Hexagon Starfish covered its eyes with its six tentacles, not daring to look, but half covering its eyes, trying to see if Han Fei could survive this tribulation.

At the same time, he wondered if he should transcend the Monarch Tribulation if it was so dangerous. The problem was whether the Emperor Tribulation would be as terrifying.

For a moment, the Hexagon Starfish panicked.

He Xiaoyu gritted her teeth, her body tense.

Han Yin'er's eyes were filled with tears. She knew that her brother was the leader of the human race, so he couldn't lose. However, people only knew that he was the Human Emperor, but they had never thought that he had also worked hard step by step to get to where he was today. There was too much pressure on his shoulders.

For a moment, on Han Fei's Origin Star, people shouted "Human Emperor", and the power of faith surged towards Han Fei.

Han Fei could feel it, but he believed what Old Han said, so he was determined not to use the power of faith. There must be a reason why Old Han didn't tell him about the alternative use of the power of faith until he proved Dao.

However, after the sixth Monarch Tribulation, the liquid Divine Light could no longer help him quickly recover. Of course, the liquid Divine Light still had to be used. Everyone saw that Han Fei's flesh and blood were intertwined and growing rapidly.

They looked at the heavenly tribulation and checked the speed at which Han Fei's flesh and blood were growing now and then, fearing that another heavenly tribulation would come before Han Fei returned to his full state.

With a thought from Han Fei, a million spiritual fruits rose to the sky, turned into a surging energy tide, and surged into his body crazily. At the same time, Han Fei put on the Heaven Suppressing Armor, stepped on the Star Sea Mystic Sand, and tied a Soul Sealing Pearl to his neck. Under Han Fei, there was the bronze tripod-like Lightning Drawing Platform.

God of Fishing

Chapter 2759: Slash Monarch Tribulation (4)

2759 Slash Monarch Tribulation (4)

At this point, Han Fei certainly didn't intend to resist the tribulation head-on. If he continued to resist it, he would be blasted to death. This time, Han Fei used so many treasures because with the Lightning Drawing Platform, he wanted to see if he could absorb the power of the tribulation into the Lightning Drawing Platform.

After all, with so many treasures in his hand, it shouldn't be a problem for him to block six or seven Monarch Tribulations. It depended on how much the Lightning Drawing Platform could absorb.

Of course, he couldn't place the Lightning Drawing Platform directly under the Monarch Tribulations, so the Lightning Drawing Platform wouldn't be able to withstand the power of the Monarch Tribulation and would definitely collapse.

In the end, Han Fei's flesh and blood didn't recover completely. He only recovered about 80% before the seventh Monarch Tribulation came. Han Fei didn't panic.

Inside the Soul Sealing Pearl, infinite soul power condensed into a sky curtain. Originally, this Soul Sealing Pearl was prepared for Han Fei to use slowly in the future. However, he underestimated his Monarch Tribulations. He had thought that without the Self Severing Tribulation, he would be able to easily transcend it.

But this was not the case in reality. When the seventh Monarch Tribulation came, unless he could launch dozens of divine techniques in a row, he would definitely not be able to withstand it.

Bang!

The Soul Power Sky Curtain blocked this Monarch Tribulation for about a second, and nearly half of the soul power in the Soul Sealing Pearl was consumed.

Seeing that the Soul Sealing Pearl couldn't hold on anymore, the Star Sea Mystic Sand rose to the sky.

This time, it only held on for half a second.

Then, the Heavenly Tribulation fell on Han Fei, and the Heaven Suppressing Armor was annihilated by the Heavenly Tribulation within half a second.

However, this bought Han Fei a little time, allowing his flesh and blood to recover by 90%.

When the pure golden Monarch Tribulation struck Han Fei, the flesh and blood that had just recovered quickly dissipated at a visible speed. In the past few seconds, Han Fei had comprehended too many things from this golden heavenly tribulation, and the power of dozens of laws flowed in parallel.

It was also at this moment that the center of Han Fei's brows opened, his Dharma Idol came out and an invincible will enveloped it.

Bang!

Ka ka ka ~

His Dharma Idol and the invincible will were destroyed at the same time. A large number of fine cracks appeared on Han Fei's golden jade bones.

Roar!

With a thought from Han Fei, more than three hundred masses of liquid divine radiance and a million spiritual fruits surrounded him and instantly exploded, turning into billowing energy that helped him withstand the power of the seventh heavenly tribulation.

In addition, the Lightning Drawing Platform under his feet began to activate, actively absorbing the power of the heavenly tribulation to bear the pressure on Han Fei.

In just three seconds, three purple lightning patterns appeared on the Lightning Drawing Platform in a row. They were all ten-thousand-year-old lightning strikes. In other words, the little leaked portion of the power of Han Fei's seventh heavenly tribulation was already equivalent to three ordinary Dao Proving lightning strikes.

Buzz!

Seeing that the Lightning Drawing Platform was shaking, Han Fei knew that it couldn't hold on anymore and quickly took it back. However, he had weathered through the seventh Monarch Tribulation.

"Huff~"

It was not until Han Fei saw the changes in the Dao Patterns on the Lightning Drawing Platform that he knew how terrifying his Monarch Tribulation was. At most 30% power of the seventh heavenly tribulation alone was equivalent to three ordinary Dao Proving thunderbolts. Didn't it mean that his seventh Monarch Tribulation was almost equivalent to others' entire Monarch Tribulations?

"Damn it, you're really giving me preferential treatment!"

Han Fei was much stronger than ordinary Sky Opening Realm powerhouses. Logically speaking, he could easily cross ordinary monarch tribulations and even swallow seven or eight ordinary monarch tribulations.

However, different people had Monarch Tribulations of different powers. If it were someone else, they might have been killed after the first strike.

In Han Fei's Origin Star, everyone saw that Han Fei had used up all his treasures and became nervous again.

"Not good. Master Human Emperor has already started to use his treasures, but aren't his treasures consumed too quickly?"

"I have a feeling that Master Human Emperor's Monarch Tribulation is a little different. Although I haven't experienced it before, when has a golden tribulation ever appeared?"

"The seventh one is already so powerful. What about the remaining two?"

"Master Human Emperor can even kill a Great Monarch. I don't believe he can't transcend this trifling Monarch Tribulation. We have to firmly believe that Master Human Emperor can transcend the tribulation safely."

The spiritual fruits in Han Fei's Origin Star were prepared for this moment. After the seventh Monarch Tribulation, Han Fei felt that his life level seemed to have changed.

When his flesh and blood condensed again, he clearly felt that the strength of his bloodline was different from before. It seemed to have lost a lot of impurities.

His Qi and blood were also stronger. 80% of the power of his Great Daos had been transformed into law comprehension, but Han Fei didn't have the time to sort it out now.

Seeing that the last Monarch Tribulation was about to appear, Han Fei took a deep breath. He had passed the Self Severing Tribulation. This should be the last and strongest tribulation.

It was just for this moment that Han Fei didn't use the Heavenly Dao of the Raging Sea to transcend the first seven monarch tribulations.

Han Fei's body hadn't fully recovered yet, only about 60%.

But Han Fei didn't panic. At this time, he unhurriedly took out a wine calabash, which he had just snatched from Fifth Senior Brother. He didn't know what it was but just drank the wine in it.

The pot of wine was emptied, and Han Fei's flesh and blood returned in the blink of an eye.

Han Fei was not surprised at all. Knowing that he was going to transcend the tribulation, the thing that Fifth Senior Brother gave him must be for him to transcend the tribulation. What he took was not a weapon, so there could only be one result. This wine was for him to recover.

At this moment, he shouted in a low voice, "Heaven Fusion."

Han Fei seemed to have turned into a black hole. The sky was filled with flowing light and the Dao runes of the heavens flowed back.

There was a need to choose where to prove Dao. The Beast King was augmented by the Raging Sea when he was proving Dao in the Raging Sea. Even if he used the strength of the Dao Proving Level, the power of the Heavenly Dao in the Raging Sea wouldn't suppress him.

It was the same for Han Fei now. Augmented by the power of the Heavenly Dao, Han Fei seemed to see where the World Origin of the Raging Sea was. It was a dry World Origin pool. The World Origin in the pool was only three kilometers wide, and only a thousand World Origin Fruits grew there.

"So small?"

Han Fei frowned slightly. Back in the Demon Domain, the World Origin pool guarded by the Dao Domain Sunflower Head spanned hundreds of kilometers.

Was the human race's ancestral land even incomparable to the Demon Domain? Of course not. The dried-up World Origin lake was actually extraordinarily large. That place was like a boundless river, but there was only so much World Origin lake left.

However, even so, Han Fei couldn't care less about this now. The last bolt of lightning was about to burst out.

"Huff~"

At this moment, Han Fei was half fused with the Heavenly Dao of the Raging Sea, so at this moment, Dao patterns appeared all over his body, densely covering the void. This was the response of the power of the Heavenly Dao to the coming Monarch Tribulation.

In this case, Han Fei took out a short knife. The knife hadn't been drawn yet, but the sheath was already full of Dao patterns.

Logically speaking, Han Fei was good at fists and swords now, but he didn't have any divine techniques on knives.

However, Han Fei could nurture a knife. He had nurtured this knife for a long time. In all the battles, Han Fei had never used a real knife. When the rolling golden and blood-red Monarch Tribulation descended, Han Fei's eyes turned cold.

In an instant, the blade was unsheathed and illuminated the nine heavens. In the blink of an eye, the knife was engraved with mystic Dao patterns. This knife was stained with Han Fei's golden blood and rose to the sky, shattering the sky, and darting straight at the tribulation clouds in the sky.

“Kill!!!”

The killing intent he had accumulated for days was all fused into this slash. If this slash didn't succeed, he would die.

After slashing out, the ultra-quality divine-quality knife in his hand that he had forged with all his strength shattered. The Dao patterns filling the sky rose with the knife beam.

Rumble!

The Monarch Tribulation fell, but this time, everyone saw that the sky was full of Dao patterns that turned into a knife with the knife beam. When the two collided, the Monarch Tribulation was cut apart. And the knife beam continued forward, heading straight for the sky, cutting into the end of the Monarch Tribulation and entering the vortex of tribulation clouds.

At that moment, Han Fei's Origin Star was dead silent...

God of Fishing

Chapter 2760: The Dao Proving Realm and Many Secrets (1)

2760 The Dao Proving Realm and Many Secrets (1)

Han Fei's last slash shocked everyone. Up to now, they had seen people fight against the heavenly tribulation head-on. However, it was unheard of for a knife to reach the end of the heavenly tribulation.

“A trump card must be a trump card. Look, the strange astronomical phenomenon caused by that slash is not something ordinary treasures and great techniques can compare to. That slash was awesome!”

“Heh! You speak as if you can understand it. If you can understand it, why are you still here?”

“Cut the crap. Now that Master Human Emperor has broken eight Heavenly Tribulations in a row, there should be one more. That's the most important one.”

Therefore, at this moment, everyone was waiting. Han Fei stood proudly in the void, feeling the overwhelming Dao patterns entering his body. At this moment, the Great Daos in his body were rapidly changing.

Furthermore, the Star Core in his Origin Star began to tremble. The Star Core began to be compressed rapidly, and the Dao runes of the Great Dao turned into wisps of laws that began to fuse again.

Therefore, everyone waited for dozens of seconds. When the tribulation clouds began to dissipate, the ninth heavenly tribulation didn't come.

At this moment, Han Fei's body was emitting golden light. As the tribulation clouds dissipated, Han Fei's dissipated flesh and blood had returned and he had recovered.

In his mind, Han Fei was comprehending these laws, such as the Great Dao of Space. Han Fei could feel that there were hidden spatial Dao patterns between the heavens and earth, almost everywhere. And these Dao patterns were classified.

For example, Han Fei could feel the killing power of the void, the void dao patterns of the void, the unstable dao patterns of the void, and so on... For example, the killing dao patterns were born based on the cutting power of the void. If combined with speed, it could create this power. For example, as for the void dao pattern, because the void was void, this pattern seemed to be able to connect to a world of nothingness, allowing one to jump over an extra long distance in space, ignore the void, and even achieve a non-directional spatial teleportation. Han Fei could even sense that he could enter the Void World. It was a special world that belonged exclusively to the Great Dao of space. For example, the unstable dao patterns of the void were unstable in themselves, but people could use these Dao patterns to create a void killing realm, a void vortex, a chaotic void, or even a random connection point in the endless void...

And so on. Because Han Fei walked too many Great Daos, he had comprehended too many things. With so many Great Daos, it meant that he had to comprehend many times more laws than ordinary.

The process of Han Fei comprehending the law was also the process of his body adapting to the strength of the Dao Proving Level.

His meridians were expanded, his divine meridians were unobstructed, his bloodline was upgraded, and his flesh and bone strength were all changing.

It wasn't until several hours later that Han Fei took the initiative to return from the comprehension of laws. In fact, he could come back to his senses after the breakthrough, but there were no enemies here anyway. He might as well hide in the sky and stand for a while to gather more power of faith.

After he came back to himself, Han Fei immediately looked at his information, only to see:

Owner: Han Fei

Level: 111 (Dao Proving)

Bloodline Ranking among the Clans in the Infinite Ocean: the 29,142nd

Immortal Qi: 170,000

Soul: 242 Origins

Strength: 242 Star Powers

First Spiritual Heritage: Origin Spiritual Heritage

Second Spiritual Heritage: Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage

First spiritual beast: Twin Yin-Yang Sky Swallowing Fish (Level 109)

Second spiritual beast: The Emperor Sparrow (Level 109)

Main Art: Godfiend Formless Technique

Han Fei was neither surprised nor unsurprised when he saw the message.

It was rather beyond his expectations that he directly entered the top 30,000 of the Bloodline Rank in the Infinite Ocean. Before, he hadn't finished bloodline devouring, but now, because of the tribulation, he seemed to have completed the process of accelerating the devouring.

Besides, under the influence of the Monarch Tribulation, his bloodline had also improved significantly.

However, he didn't expect that his ranking would rise by 90,000 places from below the 120,000th. He had just proved Dao, but his ranking had really jumped so much?

It was normal for the Immortal Spiritual Energy to reach 170,000. Billions of human beings were in his Origin Star. It would be good that there were still 170,000.

However, Han Fei didn't care about this now. He could easily create the Immortal Qi now.

The data about his perception had completely disappeared. Han Fei didn't know why and decided to test it later.

And his soul and strength had respectively reached 242 Origins and 242 Star Powers. Han Fei wasn't too surprised about this. This was because before the Dao Locks were opened, his soul power and strength were 60. After he opened his five Dao Locks, they directly reached nearly 100.

Although at the Dao Lock level, one could use a little power of the Dao Proving Level in advance, the power increased after he opened the Dao Locks wasn't his true power.

Therefore, Han Fei's overall strength had almost quadrupled.

Of course, he had just proven Dao, and there was a consolidation period after that. He should be able to greatly improve his strength. Feng Yu's comprehensive strength had increased by five times! Han Fei thought that his strength should be increased by at least five times.

However, it was already a huge breakthrough for him to be able to prove Dao. This meant that he had embarked on the path to godhood. If he had another tribulation, it would be a divine one.
