Chapter 2801: All About Demon Plants(2)

2801 All About Demon Plants(2)

In any case, the days of the human race were getting better and better.

It was precisely because the breakthrough tide had completely passed that the human race began to enjoy their lives. If they cultivated desperately at this time, the effect would not be so obvious.

In the past dozen years, everyone had been focused on cultivation and strived to make more breakthroughs, so their minds had been tense and their lives had been lacking joy.

Han Fei thought that it was time to make life easier for everyone. As for how to do it, it was simple...

On this day, as usual, after Han Fei came out of his Origin Star, he returned to the Thug Academy to have a small gathering with everyone.

The people he was familiar with in the past gathered together and began to cook and barbecue. This seemed to have become the daily life of the Thug Academy.

At the dinner table, Han Fei asked, "Old Jiang, do you want to make a plantation or not?"

Old Jiang raised his eyebrows. "This Chaotic Wasteland is invaded by the tidal wave every hundred years. Not even a blade of grass grows here. How can I make a plantation here? Besides, our academy doesn't occupy a large area now."

Han Fei grinned and said, "Although it's not big, life needs a sense of ritual!"

Jiang Qin interjected, "If it's possible, we can get one. But what should we plant? We came to the Sea Realm in a hurry, so we didn't bring the plants with us. Even if we take them here, those ordinary crops can hardly adapt to the environment of the Sea Realm."

Old Bai echoed, "Cultivation in the Chaotic Wasteland is not bad, but life here lacks some color. Han Fei, do you have any more advanced spiritual fruits or whatnot? You can transplant some of them."

On Yi Xiyan's lap was a girl. She asked curiously, "Mommy, what's a plantation?"

Yi Xiyan was holding a skewer of meat and eating as she said, "It's the demon plants in the Forest of Terror! Have you seen them? Void Vine, Heavenly Vine, and some plants without intelligence and countless times smaller than them."

"Ah? Then can we plant Void Vines? Uncle Void Vine took me to fly over dozens of cities last time."

"Gulp! Well..."

Yi Xiyan was at a loss for words. These children were born in the Chaotic Wasteland, so it was indeed difficult for them to understand what ordinary plants were. They only knew that demon plants were very powerful, and in the entire human cities, because of the limited space, demon plants couldn't develop demon plant communities wantonly. After all, this was the human race's territory.

Han Fei laughed. "Panpan, do you want to see what the plantation is like?"

Everyone couldn't help but look at Han Fei. Was he really going to do it?

Zhang Panpan nodded quickly. "Uncle Human Emperor, I want to see it..."

Han Fei reached out to rub Zhang Panpan's head and looked at everyone. "The breakthrough frenzy has passed. We lack new food. I heard that the supply of sweet pills from the City of Wanderers is not enough. After all, we are human beings. We should put food on the agenda."

Han Fei waved his hand, and the ground trembled slightly. At first, bamboo shoots rose from the ground in the area where Han Fei and the others were.

Then, these bamboo shoots were growing at a visible speed. In just dozens of seconds, the area within a kilometer had turned into bamboo wood. However, there were still many bamboo shoots that hadn't grown on the ground.

The bamboo wood shooting out of the ground immediately attracted the attention of many students of the Thug Academy. Although many people couldn't participate in Han Fei's dinner, they had been paying attention to this side. After all, it was rare for Han Fei to come back. They also fantasized that Han Fei would talk to them.

At this moment, a bamboo wood appeared out of thin air, and many students put down what they were doing and gathered around.

"Huh? Where is this bamboo wood from?"

"I haven't seen this green color in a long time."

"Oh, plants can grow in the Chaotic Wasteland?"

"Let's go and take a look..."

Seeing many people gather around, Han Fei said loudly, "Well, everyone, come here. Let's take advantage of today's leisure time to make a name for the Thug Academy."

Old Jiang said, "Focus on wheat, rice, garlic, peppers, ginger... all of them."

Old Jiang's attention was directly focused on food. He had thought that he should cultivate hard in the Chaotic Wasteland, but since Han Fei had started it, his interest was piqued. Since he wanted to plant plants, he should certainly plant food first!

Han Fei grinned and said, "Haha! Okay..."

Liu Qiansi appeared out of nowhere with a swish and complained, "Little Panpan, how can you say I look like this ordinary bamboo... Huh! That's not right! This doesn't seem to be ordinary bamboo. This bamboo seems to be a demon plant, right?"

Old Bai grabbed a bamboo randomly and said in surprise, "This bamboo is so tough that even Dangling Fishers can't break it. Has it just grown out?"

Everyone imitated him and pinched the bamboo. They also looked at Han Fei in shock.

They thought that if Han Fei could plant bamboo of this level with a wave of his hand, it wouldn't be a plantation but a demon plantation, right?

Han Fei smiled and said, "It's mainly because these seeds were born from my Origin Star, so they're no longer ordinary plants. But to everyone, what's the difference between a plantation and a demon plantation? Come on, let's continue..."

God of Fishing

Chapter 2802: All About Demon Plants(3)

2802 All About Demon Plants(3)

A large group of people followed behind Han Fei.

In an empty place of the Thug Academy, Han Fei waved his hand casually and a swath of wheat appeared.

Old Jiang asked, "Why is this wheat so tough? Why is it so full of spiritual energy? Isn't it too extravagant to make dumplings with this stuff?"

Han Fei said, "It can't be helped. This is already the lowest-level plant in my Origin Star."

Old Jiang: "..."

After that, Han Fei casually placed a few banana trees and loquat trees on both sides of the road. Then, he took a few steps and waved his hand, and a strawberry garden, peanut garden, pepper garden, and various other demon plant crops appeared in the Thug Academy.

When Su Daiji saw the peppers, she couldn't help but say, "I like peppers. I can make hot and sour potato shreds with them."

With that said, Su Daiji was about to pluck the pepper vine, clearly wanting to plant it in her source sea. However, as soon as she plucked it, she saw seven or eight peppers explode. The power could blow up a Dangling Fisher.

Su Daiji: "???"

Han Fei explained, "You can pluck them, but don't pluck them from the roots! Since they're demon plants, they're conscious. If you want to plant them, plant them with seeds!"

However, everybody looked at Han Fei weirdly.

Su Daiji asked, "Eldest Senior Brother, won't it explode if I eat it?"

"No, I promise you."

After a while, nearly half of the area of the Thug Academy was planted with all kinds of plants. There were no less than 50 kinds of fruit trees, as well as hundreds of flowers and plants.

And these were all demon plants, and all of them had consciousness. Those who didn't know better would think that the Thug Academy had already become a demon plant academy.

Old Jiang asked, "Wait, your Origin Star has already developed into this? Even these things can become demon plants?"

Han Fei said, "All plants can evolve!"

Han Fei picked a peach from a nearby tree and took a bite. "Nan, fertilize this peach tree."

Qu Jinnan thought to himself, Do I still have to fertilize them? No one will plant demonic plants with Spirit Concentration Art, OK?

But when spiritual energy poured in, everyone couldn't help but exclaim.

Just as Han Fei picked the peach, another peach grew out, and it was growing at a visible speed.

Qu Jinnan was dumbfounded and couldn't help but ask, "Doesn't it mean that as long as we fertilize them, we can harvest them infinitely?"

Han Fei said, "That's true, but the main reason is that you are already a Sea Establisher, so the Spirit Concentration Art you casually use can accelerate the recovery of these demon plants. If you are a Dangling Fisher, it will be slow. Even if you fertilize such a peach once a day, it will take at least five or six days to recover."

On the other side, a disciple of the Thug Academy exclaimed, "This is amazing. I can accelerate the growth of spiritual fruits by infusing spiritual energy."

Yes, this was no longer an ordinary fruit but a spiritual fruit. Everyone looked at the source of the sound. The young man who spoke was pressing his hand on a watermelon vine. As spiritual energy was injected, three watermelons grew on a vine.

Someone had already picked a strawberry and put it in his mouth in shock. "This, this strawberry doesn't contain much spiritual energy, but it contains a lot of energy. It's very suitable for body tempering!"

Hearing that, many people picked the newly-born spiritual fruits and looked at each other in bewilderment.

"Doesn't this mean that as long as I eat more fruits in the future, my strength can grow?"

At this moment, Zhang Panpan had already pulled Yi Xiyao to walk around the Demon Plant Garden. "Mommy, I want this, this, and this. I want them too. These fruits are so beautiful! I want to eat them..."

Old Bai and Old Jiang looked at each other. For some reason, they felt a little strange.

After a while, Han Fei came to an open space he specially reserved. As a seed was thrown down, a sapling broke out of the soil. As Han Fei poured several wisps of Immortal Qi on it, it grew into a towering tree a hundred meters tall in just thirty seconds. Its dense branches covered a radius of more than two hundred meters.

Ling Yuan asked, "Is this... a demon plant of the Venerable realm?"

For a moment, Ling Yuan even lost her voice. Not only her, but everyone present was lost for words.

"A Venerable-level demon plant? How can it grow out of thin air? This doesn't make sense, right?"

Han Fei said, "Don't panic. It grew fast because I injected a lot of Immortal Qi into it. The purpose of this tree's existence is mainly to suppress other demon plants and continuously feed some vitality energy to these ordinary demon plants. It can maintain the growth of these demon plants for a long time."

Old Jiang said in surprise, "Do you mean that the... demon plants we see now can continue to grow and become stronger?"

Han Fei smiled. "Yes."

The current human race didn't know much about demon plants, but the people of the Thug Academy could sense that Han Fei seemed to be playing a big game of chess.

They had once accepted terrifying demon plants from the Forest of Terror in a small place like the Yin-Yang World. Of course, they knew how terrifying demon plants would be once they grew up. However, they couldn't imagine what things wheat would become when they grew up as demon plants.

Old Jiang asked, "Do you want to promote it throughout the human race?"

Old Jiang was smart. Han Fei turned the Thug Academy into a demon plant garden, not just to add some seasoning to their lives. The potential of these demon plants was terrifying. Once a large number of demon plants were born, in a sense, wouldn't it be equivalent to another kind of soaring of the overall combat power of the human race?

God of Fishing

Chapter 2803: All About Demon Plants(4)

2803 All About Demon Plants(4)

Han Fei grinned. "Old Jiang, you know me."

Qu Jinnan asked, "Senior Brother, won't these demon plants divide up the humans' cultivation resources?"

Han Fei smiled and said, "The human race has grown fast enough over the years. We need some time to consolidate and accumulate. Otherwise, even if our strength has increased, our combat skills haven't improved at all. What's the point? A portion of the human race's resources will inevitably be vacated. What's wrong with planting some demon plants?"

Old Jiang said, "Interesting, but the growth of these demon plants can't be so easy, right?"

Han Fei nodded slightly. "Of course, this is only because the students of the Thug Academy are strong. If it were anyone else, they might not be able to produce a single fruit in dozens of days. The strong can produce it at will, but the fruits produced are a little useless to them."

Old Bai said, "In any case, this is a blessing for ordinary people with low cultivation strength. I think it's feasible. What do you think?"

"Of course! It can improve the human environment and plant spiritual fruits to eat. It might even be used in combat in the future. It's very meaningful."

"As expected of Senior Brother."

“As the Human Emperor, Senior Brother certainly has to consider the entire human race.”

The next day.

Because of the land constraint, even the Thug Academy didn't occupy much land.

In this city with a population of 500 million, the change of the Thug Academy would inevitably attract attention.

Early in the morning, the entrance of the Thug Academy was surrounded by people.

“Wow! Is this a spiritual plant? Spiritual plants can even be planted in the Chaotic Wasteland. As expected of the Thug Academy!”

“What do you know? This is the habit of the Thug Academy. Wherever there is a Thug Academy, there will be a plantation.”

“No one is in the mood to farm after entering the Sea Realm apart from them. They even brought a plantation to the Sea Realm. Do they have nothing better to do?”

“It does feel different to have more colors in the city.”

“This is the Thug Academy. Ordinary people can't enter.”

“We can at least take a look! The Thug Academy isn't closed. Look, there is a lot of bamboo over there. There are even calabashes hanging on the green vines.”

“What fruits are growing on the two trees at the door?”

“Hey! That's called a peach. Only the Yin-Yang World has it in the Raging Sea. It's said to be a specialty of the Thug Academy.”

“Aren't they afraid that someone will steal it?”

Everyone looked at the person who spoke speechlessly. “Are you brainless? Why don't you steal one of them? This is Master Human Emperor's academy. It's said that Master Human Emperor comes back every few days. Are you out of your mind? How dare you steal from Master Human Emperor's house?”

After a round of exclamations and sighs, people didn't take it seriously and went about their business.

However, at the same time, thousands of retail shops for demon plants appeared in the human cities. The names of the shops were all “All about Demon Plants”, and under the sign was a line of words: “The beautiful life of human beings begins with a seed.”

This was not the most important thing. At the bottom right corner of the sign, there was a signature, signed “Han Fei”.

Because of this sign-off, these shops were surrounded by people before they were opened.

Perhaps the current human race was a little arrogant because they were cultivating with such a high efficiency, or perhaps they really had nothing better to do, or perhaps everyone was too curious about the background of these little shops since they could have Master Human Emperor write signs for them.

At this moment, the shops were overcrowded.

Someone said, "What do you think these shops sell? They can even have Master Human Emperor write signs for them."

"Cut the crap. The Human Emperor has written that the beautiful life of mankind starts with a seed. They definitely sell seeds!"

"Sell seeds? Where can we plant seeds? Although our human race has risen very quickly, the land resources in our cities are so scarce that we don't even have enough space for cultivation. How can we have the space to farm?"

"Hey! Why is there no shopkeeper in this shop? When will it open?"

"It doesn't give any information about it! I don't know!"

"When I passed by yesterday, I didn't see such a small shop. It suddenly appeared today."

"By the way, I passed by three "All about Demon Plants" shops this morning. Do you believe me?"

"Hey, make way, make way..."

At this moment, a bamboo demon appeared behind the crowd. The bamboo demon was slender, like a two-meter-high segment of broken bamboo. Its body was straight and segmented. It walked on the ground with its roots, and there were two bamboo shoots on its roots. On the bamboo demon, there were naturally bamboo branches and bamboo leaves, which were not much different from common bamboo.

The bamboo demon was only an Explorer and wasn't strong. He said, "Come on, everyone, make way. The shop will open on time in four hours. Please line up in an orderly manner."

God of Fishing

Chapter 2804: Conscription Begins(1)

2804 Conscription Begins(1)

"Eh! Demon plants? I hadn't seen any bamboo demons in the human race before."

"Hey, Shopkeeper Bamboo, are you from the Water-Wood World?"

"Mr. Bamboo, what's your business exactly?"

"Mr. Bamboo, is the signing of Master Human Emperor real?"

"Shopkeeper Bamboo, introduce your shop first. Otherwise, we don't know what we're queueing to buy."

"That's right, that's right... This store appeared too suddenly. We weren't prepared!"

This green bamboo was naturally Han Fei, but he was just one of Han Fei's loose living beings. He said, "Don't be hasty. I made you wait for four hours because I was preparing a bulletin. I'll answer your questions later. Now, I've sorted out some manuals. You can read them first after the manuals are distributed. But please line up in an orderly manner. There is no manual if you don't line up."

"Oh! This Shopkeeper is quite tough."

"Interesting. Let's line up and see what he is up to."

After only a moment, there was a long line of hundreds of people at the entrance of the store. In order to avoid traffic jams, Shopkeeper Bamboo even made an "S"-shaped passage that could accommodate nearly a thousand people at once.

Even though the shop was not in the commercial center, the place was still not big enough. A thousand people were already the limit of the line.

However, when there was a crowd of people, there would be a special phenomenon, which was the bystander effect. To put it bluntly, people liked joining in the fun. When the people coming and going saw a large group of people gathered together, they would be curious and come over to watch. In just the time they lined up, there were already more than a thousand onlookers.

At this moment, Han Fei said, "Fellow Daoists, today is the joyous day of the opening of my little store, "All about Demon Plants". The opening time is scheduled to be two hours from now. Please wait patiently. Perhaps you still don't know what our store is about, so I'll give you half an hour to ask questions! After half an hour, I'll have to get busy with the opening matter. You can only read the manual..."

Someone immediately said, "Mr. Bamboo, is the signature on your signboard real?"

Han Fei said, "It's true. This is written by Master Human Emperor himself. Master Human Emperor thinks that other than cultivating, we don't have any fun in life. And the Chaotic Wasteland is special, so he asked us to open these shops."

The audience whispered to each other.

"I knew it. The signature can't be fake. Look where we are. Who dares to pretend to be Master Human Emperor?"

"That's right. Master Human Emperor is so considerate. He's afraid that we'll be tired from cultivating, so he wants to add some fun to our lives."

"Since it's a shop approved by Master Human Emperor, it can't be bad. No matter how long I have to wait, it's worth it."

Someone continued to ask, "Mr. Bamboo, I saw several "All about Demon Plants" shops this morning. Are the Shopkeepers all bamboo demons? Why haven't I seen your bamboo demons in the Raging Sea before?"

Han Fei said, "Well, we're not demon plants in the Raging Sea. Our lineage is a demon plant tribe outside the Chaotic Wasteland. We're just following Master Human Emperor now. Our tribe is not good at fighting, but we're quite knowledgeable about plantation. This is our first trip to the human race. Nice to meet you."

"Huh? A race that follows Master Human Emperor!"

"Haha! Don't worry, Shopkeeper Bamboo. Our human race is the most hospitable. Since you're followers of Master Human Emperor, you're our friends!"

"Yes, yes, we humans are quite friendly to our friends. I'm not bragging. You won't even want to leave as long as you come."

"That's right. Don't worry, Shopkeeper Bamboo. No matter what you sell today, I'll buy something from your shop."

Han Fei shook the leaves on his body and replied, "Thank you, my human friends. Let me explain a little bit to you. Our shops specialize in selling demon plant seeds. With the infusion of spiritual energy, these demon plants can grow quickly. As long as they are continuously nurtured, they can reach at least the Dangling Fisher Realm in a very short period of time. Furthermore, many demon plants can give birth to various spiritual fruits as they grow. Some can restore the spirit, some can increase the soul power, some can strengthen the blood and Qi, and some can provide energy... As the time to nurture demon plants increases, the level and strength of the demon plants will also become better and better..."

"What? We can plant spiritual fruits ourselves now?"

"Wait, a demon plant that can give birth to spiritual fruits will take hundreds or thousands of years to grow, right? Boss Bamboo, you only sell seeds in your shop. Then it will take at least 800 years to grow spiritual fruits, right?"

Han Fei said, "It's not that slow. In a while, Master Human Emperor will transplant my race's life demon plants to the various cities. Where there are life demon plants, the growth of the demon plants can be shortened to a few months or even a few days. The stronger you are, the more spiritual energy you inject into the demon plants, the faster the growth of the demon plants. If you are a Sea Establisher, it will only take a moment for you to grow a demon plant."

"Really?"

"Then how much spiritual energy should I inject? We aren't that strong. For example, the Hidden Fisher realm is the mainstream now. How long will it take for a seed to grow into a demon plant for Hidden Fishers?"

God of Fishing

2805 Conscription Begins(2)

Han Fei shook his leaves and said, "With the strength of a Hidden Fisher, you only need to pour one-tenth of your spiritual energy into a demon plant every day. It will take about three months to nurture a demon plant to the level of a Grand Fishing Master. If you use one-fifth of your spiritual energy, it will take three months to nurture a demon plant to the level of a Dangling Fisher. Of course, the further you nurture a demon plant, the more difficult it will be... However, you don't have to deliberately nurture a demon plant, because the main purpose of the Human Emperor is to give the city some new colors. If you just want to add some color to your home, a Hidden Fisher only needs to provide a demon plant with all his strength for one day and then you can have a fisher-level demon plant.”

“Shoot! I want to buy it! I want to buy it!”

“Haha, I didn’t expect us to be able to plant demon plants too. This Chaotic Wasteland is so boring. How can we not buy it?”

“Shopkeeper Bamboo, how much are the seeds? How do we trade?”

Han Fei continued to sway his branches and leaves. “When you enter the shop to buy something later, you’ll see the prices. As for how to trade, we’ll mainly receive ultra-quality spiritual stones, energy crystals, Clean Stones, and other items. I’d like to remind you that the Human Emperor doesn’t want to use demon plants to earn the resources in your hands, so he will establish a pool of poverty-reducing resources. Therefore, all the resources gained from the sales of the shops will be given to anyone below the Law Enforcer realm with special cultivation needs for free...”

Boom~

“Really?”

“Wow! As expected of Master Human Emperor.”

“Haha, I knew it. How could Master Human Emperor personally write a sign for a small shop? This is clearly disguised funding for cultivators below the Law Enforcer realm!”

“Master Human Emperor is awesome...”

Han Fei continued, “The poverty-alleviation resource pool will prioritize supplying those who have a need for a breakthrough but don’t have resources. After all, there are too many people below the Law Enforcer realm. If everyone needs resources, the poverty alleviation resource pool will definitely not be enough. Therefore, I hope everyone can tell the people around you that you can only apply if you meet the requirements. Any applicant will have someone conduct the corresponding background investigation. Once anyone is found to give false information, the poverty alleviation resource pool will permanently close to this person.”

“That makes sense. People with resources naturally can’t occupy the latrine but not poo. Bah, my words are a little vulgar, but the truth is simple. This is Master Human Emperor’s kindness. It can’t be taken advantage of by ill-intentioned people.”

“That’s right! Why should you wait? I can’t wait.”

Someone even took out dozens of ultra-quality spiritual stones and said, “Mr. Bamboo, I have money. No matter how expensive your seeds are, I’ll buy one.”

Han Fei waved his branches and leaves. “Everyone, no rush. What I just said is firstly the use of demon plants, and secondly, the poverty alleviation resource pool. However, if you want to buy demon plant seeds, there’s another condition.”

“Just tell us, Shopkeeper Bamboo.”

“I guess it requires strength. Otherwise, ordinary people might not be able to afford it.”

“Will there be a purchase restriction?”

Han Fei didn’t expect this person to guess so accurately. The supply of seeds would indeed be restricted. It wasn’t that he wanted to restrict the purchase, but that he wasn’t strong enough to control so many loose living beings at once. It was precisely because of this that he needed to use the power of the entire human race to nurture Han Song’s growth, and then nurture the growth of plants with Han Song’s growth. Han Fei was horrified just thinking about it. Han Song was at the Dao Proving Level the moment he was produced. With the support of the entire human race, it was very likely that he would reach the Great Monarch realm earlier than his original body.

Han Fei said, “Everyone, don’t worry. There’s indeed a limited purchase of demon plant seeds, but that’s because the output of seeds isn’t that high, but we’ll have a supply every day. However, we still suggest that buyers have to have a place to plant them and have the ability to nurture them. Otherwise, if you buy them back but can’t plant or raise them, you can only return them. What I actually want to say is that even if you plant these demon plant seeds into demon plants, they won’t be able to recognize you as their masters, nor can you cut them up to make them into weapons or something.”

“Huh? I was thinking of planting some weapons.”

Han Fei waved his branches and leaves. “Everyone, when demon plant seeds grow into demon plants, they are sentient and will have consciousness. To put it bluntly, demon plants and humans are just different races. Demon plants provide new colors to the human world, provide spiritual fruits, and even fight side by side with the human race when necessary. However, you want to cut off your allies who fight side by side with you and use them as weapons. That’s not very friendly. Master Human Emperor promised that the human race and demon plants would coexist peacefully.”

“Ha! Shopkeeper Bamboo, don’t listen to this guy’s nonsense. If he dares to cut demon plants as weapons, I’ll twist his head off.”

Immediately, a group of people echoed.

“That’s right. Who are you? You ate their fruits but still wanted to cut them into weapons. That’s outrageous.”

“If we break the promise Master Human Emperor made to the demon plants, Master Human Emperor will lose face!”

God of Fishing

Chapter 2806: Conscription Begins(3)

2806 Conscription Begins(3)

“Well, Shopkeeper Bamboo, don’t worry. We definitely don’t buy demon plants to make weapons. It’s already precious enough to get spiritual fruits from them. Whoever dares to have ill intentions will be punished.”

“Ha, Mr. Bamboo, we’ll supervise them for you. We can definitely find out whose demon plants are gone.”

The person who had said that he wanted to make a weapon with the demon plants was almost drowned by curses. He hurriedly explained, “No, I won’t do it! I just said it casually. How can I bear to kill the demon plants that have been with me day and night? I won’t. I definitely won’t.”

“I don’t think you’re that bold.”

Han Fei’s leaves swayed. Although he didn’t know why he had become Shopkeeper Bamboo, this nickname wasn’t bad. Han Fei said, “Now that everyone has understood it, I’ll distribute a manual to everyone. As the shop can accommodate up to 500 people at a time, the number of copies distributed will be 1,000. After reading it, please return it or pass it to the next person. There are names, uses, and paintings of demon plant seeds in the manual. If you have a goal, you can quickly choose and buy in the shop to make room for the people behind.”

“Haha! Fortunately, I found out that this store is special early on, so I was lining up here long ago. Look, there are already more than 3,000 people here.”

The people at the end of the line all turned green. Because of the limited space on the ground, many people flew into the sky and lined up in the sky like a pyramid.

Some people hurriedly asked, “Mr. Bamboo, you have more than one store, right? Where are the other stores?”

Upon hearing this, Han Fei thought to himself that he really didn’t specify the locations of the shops. He said, “Well, I’m going to mark the locations of all the shops next. Wait a moment. I’ll mark the locations of the other shops soon.”

With a flip of Han Fei’s hand, hundreds of bamboo shoots flew out in midair and stabbed into the left and right sides of the front door of the store.

Then, under everyone’s curious gaze, Han Fei summoned some Earth Vein Spring Water and ordinary spiritual springs and began to irrigate the bamboo shoots.

Someone recognized the Earth Vein Spring Water and couldn’t help exclaiming, “How extravagant it is to irrigate them with Earth Vein Spring Water!”

“Shopkeeper Bamboo, you’re too extravagant. Is this how you use the Earth Vein Spring Water?”

“Mr. Bamboo, I can help you irrigate the bamboo shoots. Can you give me some of the Earth Vein Spring Water?”

Han Fei said, "The Earth Vein Spring Water was given by Master Human Emperor. After all, as new shops, we have to attract customers' attention with something. I don't have enough for myself. I'm sorry, Fellow Daoist."

"Hahaha! It's okay. We were just kidding. Continue, continue..."

Under everyone's gaze, the bamboo shoots that had just been planted began to grow at a visible speed.

"Alas! Isn't this thing growing too fast?"

"The effect of the Earth Vein Spring Water is indeed different. Such a high-level product is actually used for farming. What a pity."

"Hey! Shopkeeper Bamboo, did you evolve from this bamboo?"

"Mr. Bamboo, is there an "All about Demon Plants" shop wherever there is bamboo?"

Han Fei said, "It's true in the early stages. For the time being, we bamboo is in charge of "All about Demon Plants" shops. However, if many people in the cities plant demon plants in the future, when bamboo is no longer so recognizable, other demon plants will be in charge."

"Come on, let's go find bamboo."

"Ha! Shouldn't we just wait here? Anyway, there are only about 3,000 people."

"Are you stupid? Think about it. Our human race has more than 300 cities and each city has a population of 500 million. With so many people, there can't be a shortage of "All about Demon Plants" shops. Otherwise, if we line up all day long, how many of us can buy demon plant seeds? Let's hurry up..."

"You think you're the only one smart here? The sudden appearance of "All about Demon Plants" shops must have attracted the attention of many people who are as curious as us. By the time you find another shop, there may be seven or eight thousand people in line. I'm not leaving. I'll just stay here."

Han Fei didn't care about their dispute. There were only 10,000 "All about Demon Plants" stores in the first batch, each with only 100,000 seeds in stock.

At this moment, Han Fei had distributed the jade slips to the first 500 people.

After a while, exclamations came one after another.

A female cultivator exclaimed, "Wow, the blossom of this peach tree is too beautiful! It also has an elegant and sweet taste. More importantly, it can also bear spiritual fruit, peaches. It's white with a hint of redness and its flesh is soft. It's said that when you bite it, your mouth will be filled with fragrant and sweet juice. More importantly, this peach can actually increase your Qi and blood and cultivation. I want this. I want this."

A female cultivator said, "Ah! You're interested in a peach tree too? Me too."

A female cultivator said, "This pear blossom is not bad either! It's so tender and beautiful. The big pear looks very delicious. The key is that the pear can restore spiritual power."

Someone said, "The pear blossoms are not good. The introduction says that the pear blossoms smell too strong and have the smell of fresh fish. We've been eating fish all our lives. I want to change to this one. A pomegranate tree, it has bright red flowers and a faint fragrance. Most importantly, the pomegranate fruit can be nurtured with spiritual energy. In addition to being edible, it can become a weapon after it's separated and injected with spiritual energy, releasing more than 600 attacks at a time. If more spiritual energy is injected into it, the power will be terrifying."

Chapter 2807: Conscription Begins(4)

2807 Conscription Begins(4)

A man said, "What are you looking at? Look at this. The tea leaves of the Flying Immortal Tea Tree can increase and nurture the power of the soul. Furthermore, this has no side effects at all."

"Hey! Brother, you think the same as me, but I'm not looking at the Flying Immortal Tea. I'm looking at something called a hawthorn tree. It's said to be very sour and also has the effect of improving the soul."

Someone said, "Haha, don't you think this cherry tree is worth it? More than 300 fruits can grow on one tree easily. If it's nurtured well and is injected with enough spiritual energy, three thousand fruits on one tree won't be a problem. With this, we can eat spiritual fruits every day. It's even more worth it than Sweet Pills."

"What do you know? All you know is to eat. The more fruits you get, the less effective it is! Look at this Teardrop Banana. Each tree only grows one fruit. It has the dual effect of improving the soul and spiritual power. After eating it, one's cultivation effect can be doubled in three days. This deserves to be called a spiritual fruit. What kind of useless fruit did you choose?"

Someone shook his head. "If we're all counting on spiritual fruits for cultivation, what's the difference between us and trash? Teardrop Banana? We might as well choose a banana tree. It grows a lot of fruits and can help with the growth of our Qi and blood."

"Roses are good. It's pleasing to the eye to keep them at home."

"Sword hemp is the most awesome."

"The Cannibal Flower can produce consciousness the earliest and can serve as a partner. This is called being intimate with nature."

Suddenly, someone chuckled. "Among them, only the Poisonous Tree is the best. It's simply a treasure for us poison cultivators!"

"Sh*t!"

"You are a poison cultivator!"

"Damn it! Why didn't you tell me earlier? I'll stay away from you."

The person who spoke: "..."

For a moment, the five hundred people who got the manual began to argue crazily. There were too many demon plants here, and everyone had different preferences, so the things they wanted to buy were naturally different.

However, in the eyes of the people who were still queuing up, the scene of them arguing crazily was a different matter. Regardless of what demon plants they were talking about, just from their excited expressions, they knew that these demon plants were definitely not simple.

Someone couldn't help but ask, "Have you finished reading the manual? Hurry up and pass the manual down! Why have you been quarreling with it in your hands?"

"That's right! If you have time to quarrel, hurry up and hand over the manual!"

However, when they were asking for the manual, the five hundred people in front all fell silent and began to read carefully again.

Someone among them said, "No rush! We haven't finished reading the manual yet."

"Yes, yes."

The person behind was anxious. "You've been reading a manual for so long. Are you translating some ancient characters?"

While the queuers chattered, Han Fei hung a sign at the door of the store, which read, "Peach pits on sale today, limited to 10,000 pieces. One ultra-quality spiritual stone or one energy crystal each piece. First come, first served. While stocks last."

Those who didn't get the manual raised their eyebrows. "It's just one ultra-quality spiritual stone. What a bargain!"

"Hey, what characteristics did you say the peach tree had?"

"It can increase your Qi and blood and cultivation."

"Yes, yes, this is it. It's just an ultra-quality spiritual stone. Haha, it seems that these seeds are not very expensive!"

Someone said anxiously again, "Shopkeeper Bamboo! Are you really not considering opening in advance? You don't seem to have anything to do now!"

Han Fei replied politely, "Sorry, the opening shall be at the agreed time. All the "All about Demon Plants" shops will open together. It's fast. Just wait for the life demon plants to appear."

"Life demon plants?"

"I don't know what they look like."

Two hours later, while everybody was wondering, golden leaves suddenly floated in the city. Then, everybody saw that a big tree was rising from the ground.

The big tree was full of golden leaves.

At this moment, many people in the city exclaimed, "Look, what is that?"

“Wow, what a big tree!”

“What kind of tree is this? Has a strong master been born among the demon plants?”

“Oh, it’s already three hundred kilometers tall.”

“It’s so beautiful! It’s even more beautiful than the Cloud Sea Divine Tree!”

This was a huge Sea Establishment Realm Ginkgo. Han Fei chose it because it was dazzling, eye-catching, and beautiful enough.

Of course, the life demon plants in different cities were different. There was only one ginkgo tree, but there was also a sky-reaching giant bamboo, a sky-hanging giant willow, a huge cannibal flower, a green pine that reached into the sky, and a fiery red maple tree...

At this moment, Han Fei’s voice came from the void. He said, “My fellow human beings, the Chaotic Wasteland is barren. In order to enrich your daily life, I’d like to add some color to your boring cultivation path. I’ve specially authorized a special demon plant lineage in the Sea Realm to sow seeds in our human race. In the cities, dozens of new “All about Demon Plants” shops have been established. You can go to them on your own... In addition, our human race will start a war with the City of Origin in a few days. This will be a chaotic battle for a hundred years. In this battle, many people will die on the battlefield. However, this is the path of our human race. If our human race wants to rise, we have to wipe out all obstacles on the road here... In three days, anyone above the Explorer realm can go to the street office and apply to participate in the battle.”

Chapter 2808: You’re Back?(1)

2808 You’re Back?(1)

The war against the City of Origin was expected by everyone. After more than ten years of hard cultivation, the human race had accumulated a large number of strong masters. They needed to consolidate and digest their cultivation growth through battle.

However, today, people were more interested in the new “All about Demon Plants” stores.

Although most people didn’t know what these shops were for, it must be an unusual event since the Human Emperor announced it in person.

After Han Fei made this announcement, all the “All about Demon Plants” shops announced their opening at the same time.

Buzz!

In the 300-odd cities, in the tens of thousands of “All about Demon Plants” shops, people in line entered one after another.

As soon as they entered the stores, everyone exclaimed.

“Wow! It’s so beautiful. This shop is actually a plantation.”

“So many demon plants. The demon plants that appeared in the manual have all been planted here. I thought only seeds were for sale.”

“Hiss~ Is this a peach tree? There are twelve peaches hanging on it. Are these peaches for sale?”

“What kind of tree is this? The red and pink mixed flowers are so beautiful. There are more than 200 flowers in such a small tree. The fragrance of the Blood Rhododendron can calm people down. It only charges three ultra-quality spiritual stones? Shopkeeper Bamboo, I want this...”

“Shopkeeper Bamboo, give me a seed of the peach tree!”

“Mr. Bamboo, this single rose is too small... What, it’s sold by cluster and has 99 roses per cluster? Only one ultra-quality spiritual stone? I want it, I want it...”

“Wow, isn’t this the golden tree that appeared in the center of the city just now? Is this... a ginkgo? Huh? Only two ultra-quality spiritual stones? I must buy this...”

“Shopkeeper Bamboo, I want to plant cherries...”

“Mr. Bamboo...”

Han Fei built a counter for himself and let everyone choose in the shop while he stood in front of the counter to collect the money. It wasn’t much, but he didn’t really want to make money. Seeing that everyone bought some demon plants, he couldn’t help but think that when the entire human race began to plant plants and use their power to nurture his avatar, Han Song, he might have a chance to reach the Immortal Level in hundreds of years, right?

Seeing that the customers who had finished shopping in the shop were still wandering around, Han Fei urged them, “Customers who have finished shopping, please don’t stay too long. There are still many people waiting in line outside. Please understand each other.”

“Alas! What a pity. Such a shop can only accommodate so few people! If only I could work here.”

Someone left, but there were still people who were hesitating. They wanted to see all the demon plants before making a choice.

There were also people who liked this and that and fell into a dilemma.

This kind of situation happened in all the “All about Demon Plants” shops. Han Fei urged them several times but it didn’t work. In the end, he could only say, “All customers in the shop, in order to let more people have a chance to enter the shop, now the rule is that everyone who enters the shop, whether you buy or not, must leave within half an hour.”

Sure enough, as soon as he said this, many people didn’t dare to delay anymore. One after another, people began to finish purchasing and leave.

Outside, the people who were still waiting in line said anxiously, “Why haven’t the people inside come out yet! Why are you so slow?”

“That’s right. Shopkeeper Bamboo, are you still there?”

“Mr. Bamboo is obviously doing business!”

At this moment, someone finally walked out. This person was holding a palm-sized red branch in his hand. As soon as he came out, he saw that the number of people in line had soared to 10,000!

“Oh! So many people!”

The 501st guy’s eyes lit up and he rushed into the store with a swish.

Someone who didn’t enter the shop immediately shouted, “Brother, why did you stay in there for so long?”

The man said, “Well, there is a limited purchase time in the shop. Everyone can only stay inside for half an hour at most. After half an hour, whether you buy anything or not, you must leave the shop. Let me tell you, there is a large plantation in this shop. The plants that appear in the manual are all in the plantation. There are tens of thousands of them. Once you enter it, you don’t want to come out. You’d better wait!”

“What? This shop doesn’t look big! How can there be such a large plantation?”

Someone smiled and said, “It’s just a small trick of the strong. Waiting for half an hour is not a big deal. It’ll be my turn in at most a day.”

“Brother, what’s that in your hand?”

“Well, this is a fig branch. It’s said that I just need to insert it into the ground and pour it with spiritual energy. This thing seems to be able to absorb ownerless souls. I think an energy crystal can help it grow.”

“Brother, I’m interested in this fig tree too. It’s said that if you eat this fruit, the effect of body tempering will double within three days. However, is its price expensive?”

The man grinned. “It’s not expensive at all. Just three ultra-quality spiritual stones or energy crystals. It’s no different from a free gift.”

The people who came from the Raging Sea more or less carried some resources. There might not be a lot, but it was more than enough to buy a few demon plants.

Of course, most of them were Hidden Fishers. Below Hidden Fishers, most of the people were only Grand Fishing Masters or Dangling Fishers. They really didn’t have many resources, and many of them didn’t even have an ultra-quality spiritual stone.

Chapter 2809: You’re Back?(2)

2809 You’re Back?(2)

It was useless for Han Fei to sell the seeds to such a group of people. They didn’t have the ability to provide nutrients for the demon plants.

All the “All about Demon Plants” stores were almost full. With nearly 10,000 stores opening 24/7, the customer flow had reached more than 200 million people. In three months at most, everyone who had the ability to buy demon plants had bought some. Now the stores should be less popular.

Many people couldn’t help shaking their heads when they saw the long queues. After only a moment, the number of people in line had soared to 50,000, and it was very bustling.

Those who couldn’t line up came to the statue of the Human Emperor to observe the giant ginkgo tree. The huge tree was more than 800 kilometers tall, with golden leaves falling covering the ground as if there was gold everywhere.

While people marveled at this magical exotic tree, someone suddenly said, “Look, is there a starfish in the golden leaves?”

“Why is the starfish here?”

“Why does the starfish have eyes? It has six eyes!”

A strong master said, “Let’s ignore that starfish. It seems to be raised by Master Human Emperor. It’s a starfish close to the Sky Opening Realm.”

“What?!”

“F*ck, so strong?”

“Senior Starfish, can you give me a golden leaf?”

Hearing that someone was calling him, the Hexagon Starfish stood straight and rolled its six big eyes.

“No way, no way. If I give each of you one of these beautiful leaves, the tree will be bald and the ground won’t flash anymore. But I can consider it if you barter with something shiny.”

“Something shiny? What is that?”

A strong master couldn’t stand it anymore. Seeing this scene, a person from the Yin-Yang World said, “Big starfish, if you continue to roll around here, you will be beaten to death when the Human Emperor sees you.”

The starfish’s body stiffened, and he quickly hid under the golden leaves. He prayed in his heart, Please don’t be seen, please don’t!

However, the Hexagon Starfish didn’t know that this huge ginkgo tree was like the demonic source that could command and control all the demon plants in the city. Therefore, how could Han Fei not know that he was rolling around here? He just couldn’t be bothered with this guy.

Human War Command Center.

Han Xuan frowned and looked at Han Fei. “Can’t you tell me now? What’s the point of making everyone plant flowers?”

Han Fei said, "Uncle Xuan, you'll find out about this in the future. By the way, when are we going to fight the war against the City of Origin? How to fight this war?"

Han Xuan said, "It's estimated to be in three months. Gu Tingnan and I have already discussed it. At that time, we'll set up a battlefield near the City of Origin that can accommodate a protracted battle, just like the graveyard battlefield, but you don't have to compete for the primitive graveyard. It's pure war. Tell them clearly that we want to train our soldiers."

Han Fei nodded slightly. "Okay! I'll ask An Bailin to cooperate with you on this matter. I won't participate in the specific war matters. Uncle Xuan, you can arrange it... By the way, before that, you'll have to lend me some people."

Han Xuan was puzzled. "What are you going to do?"

Han Fei said, "I want to plant some trees on both sides of the main roads in the human cities. So I need some strong masters to grow them."

Han Xuan: "..."

Han Xuan thought that he had been in contact with Han Fei's original body, but in fact, only Chu Hao knew that what appeared in front of everyone now was not Han Fei's original body at all, but an avatar, an avatar whose strength had reached the Dao Proving Level.

As for Han Fei's original body, he was still in his Origin Star.

Since no one in the outside world could recognize him, he could let Han Song occasionally guard the human race. This way, he could cultivate in peace.

Thirty-seven years later.

Outside the Chaotic Wasteland, a group of seven Sky Openers arrived.

One of the men said, "Castle Lord, this is the entrance to the Chaotic Wasteland. According to the information we previously learned, the forces in this Chaotic Wasteland can be said to be complicated. The three major factions are on par with each other. At present, it seems that only the City of Wanderers has humans. The other two major factions seem to be local forces. As a mere mobile fortress, if we rashly enter, I'm afraid..."

A woman in white looked at the sea area indifferently. This was the place where she left back then. She had returned after six hundred years.

Luo Xiaobai put her hands behind her back and looked calm. She said indifferently, "That's all information from the past. It's meaningless. The layout of the current Chaotic Wasteland must have changed."

Someone was puzzled. "Castle Lord, you haven't entered yet. How can you be so sure that something has changed in the Chaotic Wasteland? I heard that the City of Scavengers and the City of Origin both have Great Monarchs guarding them! If humans come out of the Origin Ground, I'm afraid... Sigh..."

Luo Xiaobai said, "Now is not the time for you to doubt me. Lu Xuan, how long have we known each other?"

Beside Luo Xiaobai, the cultivator who was two levels higher than Luo Xiaobai and had reached the perfected Star Transformation Realm said, "It's been 48 years. In these 48 years, our Demon Plant Fortress has gone through hundreds of battles in the wilderness. It's all thanks to your wisdom that we can survive until now and develop to the scale of 3 million people today."

Chapter 2810: You're Back?(3)

2810 You're Back?(3)

The other woman smiled and said, "Yes! Without Xiaobai, Brother Lu Xuan would have died several times. Brother Lu Xuan, if you can marry Xiaobai, it might be the greatest blessing in your life."

"Ha, haha..."

The Perfected Star Transformation Realm powerhouse couldn't help but blush. He subconsciously scratched his head, but his eyes kept glancing at Luo Xiaobai.

Luo Xiaobai frowned and glanced at the woman. "Yu Jiaojiao..."

Yu Jiaojiao giggled. "Fine! I won't talk about it anymore... But Xiaobai, I think Lu Xuan is really good. He's strong and honest. Although he is a little stupid, he'll definitely listen to you! Not that I'm bragging, but I'm afraid you can't find a man as good as Lu Xuan among the strong masters in the Sea Realm now..."

"Cough, cough..."

Lu Xuan blushed again, but he subconsciously raised his head and stood straight.

"Shut up!"

Luo Xiaobai said seriously, "This trip is actually my own business. You really don't have to follow me. There are a million people in our fortress. If we're trapped here because of my decision, I won't be able to redeem myself even if I die a hundred times."

Yu Jiaojiao also said seriously, "Xiaobai, we've known each other for 48 years. Maybe you're not the strongest, but I believe you're the smartest person I've ever seen. We don't have to take the people in the fortress with us, but we definitely won't let you enter the Chaotic Wasteland alone. However, just because you heard a voice, you traveled hundreds of millions of kilometers across the wilderness and even entered the Chaotic Wasteland resolutely. Is it really worth it?"

Someone echoed, "That's right! Castle Lord, the Chaotic Wasteland is not a place where you can enter and leave as you please. Even if you guessed right that the war inside has begun, 52 years have passed. Perhaps the war has long ended."

Yu Jiaojiao said, "It's not that we don't believe your decision. We just don't want you to take such a risk. This is the only time you've acted irrationally in the past 48 years."

Luo Xiaobai said indifferently, "You don't understand! Some things can be analyzed and resolved with rationality, but some things require courage and trust. And some things are worth it even if I die for it."

Yu Jiaojiao and the others all looked helpless. They really didn't understand. As long as Luo Xiaobai didn't die, she would definitely become a top powerhouse in the Sea Realm. Why did she make such a choice without hesitation for something she didn't even know?

Lu Xuan took a deep breath and said, "Let me enter the Chaotic Wasteland first. I'm the strongest here. I'll go in and investigate the situation first. This is my life tablet. If I die, please take care of Jiaojiao and the million people in our fortress."

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. "There's no need. The demon plant fortress is yours to begin with. I won't really be your master just because I saved you once. I'll make the decision on my own matters. Whoever stops me will no longer be my friend from today on."

Everyone : "..."

Buzz!

Luo Xiaobai stepped into the Chaotic Wasteland without hesitation, giving no time for these people to consider.

Yu Jiaojiao looked at Lu Xuan. "Well..."

Lu Xuan's expression turned serious. "Old Chen, you're the most experienced person in the demon plant fortress, second only to me. Stay behind. If our life tablets shatter, leave with the demon plant fortress immediately and stay far away from the Chaotic Wastelands."

Among the six people, an elder sighed slightly. "Xiaobai is indeed a born leader! She convinced all of you... Forget it, I stayed not because I'm afraid of death, but for the demon plant fortress. If you really die, I will definitely make a comeback in the future."

Lu Xuan nodded slightly and then shouted in a low voice, "Let's go!"

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The group of people disappeared into the Chaotic Wasteland, and Luo Xiaobai felt that the people behind were following up. She couldn't help but smile.

A true friend would help you regardless of life or death when you were in trouble. She, Han Fei, Le Renkuang, Zhang Xuanyu, and Xia Xiaochan were like this, but now, there might be a few more, or not. This was a long-term thing.

As for whether or not she would bring these friends into the pit, Luo Xiaobai wasn't worried. From the moment she heard the cicada sound, she knew that there was already chaos in the Chaotic Wasteland.

She didn't even need to think why the cicada sound could spread from the Chaotic Wasteland to the Sky Crater World. It was definitely not something an ordinary Monarch could do. To be able to do this, the person might even be a god-level existence. And even such an existence made a sorrowful cry, which showed how fierce the battle here was.

Although she didn't know how Han Fei did it, Han Fei was not a fool. If he dared to fight, he must have the confidence to fight. Otherwise, Han Fei wouldn't have waited for so long.

Since Han Fei felt that he had the confidence to fight, she certainly believed in Han Fei unconditionally.

This was absolute trust. Unless Han Fei died, something might happen to her on this trip. However, along the way, she had heard a lot of information. She had also intercepted many moving Sea Monster Fortresses outside the Chaotic Wasteland. The answer she got was that 52 years ago, a rain of blood filled the sky and spread throughout the wilderness.

From this, Luo Xiaobai deduced that this might be the signal of the death of someone extremely strong. Since they could kill such a person, no matter who won or lost this battle, the danger of this trip was greatly reduced.
