Chapter 3181: War Erupts, Revenge Begins (1)

After Ye Qingchan died, Si Hongye was indeed very angry. She had known about Ye Chanyi's situation a long time ago. A divine descendant who couldn't become a god was no match for Ye Qingchan in any way.

If it weren't for the high priest's hesitation, if it weren't for the fact that Yun Duo came to take Ye Chanyi away with the help of the Southern Dipper, and if it weren't for Pei Bai helping Yun Duo, Ye Chanyi wouldn't have had a chance to rise to prominence at all. If Ye Chanyi hadn't risen to prominence, she would have died the moment her bloodline was discovered to be problematic.

Therefore, Si Hongye had been holding back her anger. She believed that all of this was because of the high priest's weakness, the arrogance of Yun Duo, and Pei Bai siding with Yun Duo.

Therefore, after Jiang Buyi promised to give her a divine persona, she agreed without hesitation. If only Wang Han could be exchanged for a divine persona, why wouldn't she?

The high priest had long been targeted by the strong masters of the Eternal Race. She was just being selfish to try to transcend the tribulation and become a god! And if she could obtain a divine persona, she would no longer need to transcend the divine tribulation to become a god. Even if the god formed by refining a divine persona was only the most ordinary or even the weakest god, so what? No matter how weak a god was, it was still a god, not something a Great Monarch could compare to.

Once she became a god, she could change the current situation of the Miracle Forest and turn the table for the Miracle Forest.

Roar!

The revived Heaven Battling Bear expert slapped again, but this time, its target was Si Hongye.

Rumble!

The billowing ripples shook, and two strong masters appeared in front of Si Hongye, blocking this blow.

Another ten Great Monarchs walked out of the void one after another, and someone said in a dignified voice, "All participants in the joust, leave this place immediately. Otherwise, if you're implicated, don't blame me for not reminding you."

Swish! Swish! Swish!

"Let's go!"

"Let's go! This is a Monarch-level battle, not something we can watch casually."

Feng Yu frowned. She waved her hand and retreated with Feng Qingcheng and Feng Xingliu.

Feng Xingliu asked telepathically, "Why didn't everything go according to plan? What's going on now?"

Feng Yu said, "I told you that the Miracle Forest is not credible. See what happened now? He was framed. What else could have happened?"

Zhang Xuanyu's face changed slightly. This kind of game was no longer something he could participate in. He could only leave it to Han Fei.

After only one moment, all the observers and contestants had left at least hundreds of millions of kilometers away. Otherwise, they might be killed by the aftershock of the battle.

In the field, three Great Monarchs joined forces to fight the Heaven Battling Bear. After all, it was just resurrected and hadn't regained its intelligence, so although its combat power was super strong, its instincts alone weren't enough to suppress many Great Great Monarchs.

Han Fei's face turned cold. Needless to say, this was definitely Jiang Buyi's doing. Although Si Hongye hated him, it was meaningless to do this. Why would she betray the Miracle Forest? Wasn't she afraid that if she exposed him, he would really be a descendant of the Primordial Divine Race and cause them to take revenge on the Miracle Forest?

However, since Si Hongye had done so, there must be a reason he didn't know.

But he couldn't understand why Jiang Buyi would rather frame him for being a descendant of the Primordial Divine Race than reveal his identity as the Human Emperor Han Fei.

He was already Jiang Buyi's enemy. There was no reason for Jiang Buyi to hide it. Unless... he was fishing. He wanted to use others to trick and kill him. At the same time, he wanted to frame his identity as a member of the Primordial Divine Race to attract the real experts of the Primordial Divine Race to come and help.

However, how did he know that the experts of the Primordial Divine Race would come? Could it be that the Primordial Divine Race had planted a mole in the Miracle Forest?

For a moment, Han Fei didn't quite understand Jiang Buyi's plan.

At this moment, the revived strong master of the Heaven Battling Bear Race couldn't withstand the bombardment of many Great Monarchs. Perhaps because of the excessive consumption of power, or perhaps because of the huge consumption of the stronger creatures that Han Fei resurrected, this strong master of the Heaven Battling Bear Race only existed for less than 20 seconds before disappearing.

At this moment, a Great Monarch said, "Si Hongye, is he really a descendant of the Primordial Divine Race?"

Si Hongye said, "Absolutely. Not only him, but Ye Chanyi is also a descendant of the Primordial Divine Race."

"Si Hongye, shut up."

The high priest was finally angry. She pointed the wood in her hand and the void distorted. The laws of the heavens turned into vines that wrapped around Si Hongye and tied her up in the void.

Yun Duo and Pei Bai attacked at the same time. They didn't expect Si Hongye to be so crazy. Not only did she expose Wang Han, but she also wanted to expose Chanyi. Was she trying to push the Miracle Forest into a fire pit?

"Alas! High Priest, it's not too late for her to finish."

At this moment, a Great Monarch had arrived. Fire origin energy surged around him, and a spark instantly ignited the laws of the heavens. All the vines of the laws were burned to ashes in the blink of an eye.

Yun Duo and Pei Bai's attacks were all annihilated under this blow.

The corners of the Great Monarch's mouth curled up slightly. "High Priest, we shouldn't interfere in the family matters of the Miracle Forest, but since it involves the Primordial Divine Races, we have to ask. Great Monarch Hongye, please continue."

Si Hongye knew that there was no turning back now. There was nothing she couldn't say. She looked at the high priest and said, "Instead of watching the Miracle Forest decline day by day, why don't you let me resolve this mess?"

God of Fishing

Chapter 3182: War Erupts, Revenge Begins (2)

The high priest said, "Stupid, Si Hongye. You deserve to die."

"Heh! I deserve to die? You're too weak. If you had listened to me back then, Qingchan would have reached the Immortal level now. With the two Divine Paths in hand, she might have become a triple-divine persona god in the future. Now, it's all ruined by you. You're the one leading the decline of the Miracle Forest. You call me stupid? In fact, you're the stupidest one."

The more Si Hongye spoke, the more excited she became. "When Ye Chanyi opened the sky, we discovered that she was a descendant of a god. Why didn't we kill her back then? Because you didn't kill her, my disciple Qingchan died. I'll remember this grudge in my heart forever."

"Huh?"

A Great Monarch from the Central Sea Divine Realm said, "How can the Miracle Divine Tree bear a fruit with the bloodline of a god?"

Si Hongye said, "The Miracle Divine Tree was a divine tree that existed since the Chaotic Era. It can bear any kind of fruit. Perhaps it was just a coincidence that the divine tree attracted an unknown soul body to give birth to this special fruit. It was so special that when Ye Chanyi was born, she held a godly weapon-level jade pendant and had a birthmark... Heh, at that time, I wanted to take her as my disciple, but you, the high priest, gave her to Yun Duo as her disciple. You like Yun Duo, so when a Heavenly Talent was born, the first one you thought of was Yun Duo. I accepted this matter, but God didn't let me down. When Ye Chanyi opened the sky, we found that she was actually a divine descendant, which destined my disciple, Qingchan to inherit the Miracle Forest. But when I proposed to kill her, you guys hesitated. Now, on the trip to the God Ferrying Ancient Land, Wang Han came to Ye Chanyi with the other part of the jade pendant... Tell me, what's the identity of Wang Han?"

As soon as Si Hongye said this, everyone understood.

Since Ye Chanyi had the bloodline of a god, it was only natural that the person who came to her with a token also had the bloodline of a god.

All the Great Monarchs here agreed with Si Hongye's guess. Or rather, it was no longer a guess, but the fact that Han Fei was a descendant of a god.

However, unlike Ye Chanyi, Ye Chanyi was a reincarnation body. She might have known about the Primordial Divine Race before, but she might not know them now. Wang Han, on the other hand, was not reincarnated. He was powerful and talented and almost invincible among his peers. Such a person was definitely rare even in the Primordial Divine Race. He must know a lot more than Ye Chanyi.

Many Great Monarchs looked at each other with joy in their eyes.

This meant that once they captured Wang Han, they would be able to dig out the entire Primordial Divine Race.

"Hahaha!"

Someone laughed and said, "I thought that the Primordial Divine Race would appear in the West Wilderness. I didn't expect that we would accidentally find its member here."

Someone smiled. "Everyone has the right to kill the remnants of the evil Primordial Divine Race. High Priest, we'll take Wang Han and Ye Chanyi away. Do you have any objections?"

The high priest's face was cold. It was difficult for her to keep these people alone, but it was even more impossible for her to let them take Ye Chanyi away. Since Han Fei said that the problem of the bloodline of the Primordial Divine Race would be resolved, it was most likely true. If he succeeded, Chanyi's potential would definitely be greater than Ye Qingchan's.

Even if she couldn't become a god with a triple divinity, how could a god with a double divinity be weak?

The high priest looked at Han Fei. At this moment, if Han Fei didn't use his real trump card, it would be difficult for him to resist.

"Heh! A bunch of hypocritical Great Monarchs, you speak as if you're already certain to defeat me."

Han Fei chuckled, and twelve skeletons appeared behind him. Some of the skeletons were complete, and some were incomplete. However, whether the skeletons were complete or incomplete, there were rich law patterns overflowing from these skeletons.

The Great Monarchs from the Central Sea Divine Realm were shocked. They had witnessed how terrifying the Heaven Battling Bear was. It was already rare to find the bones of one of such strong masters. How could this guy have so many?

At this moment, the laws of time were intertwined, and masses of time power enveloped these skeletons. From time to time, roars came out, and the sound was earth-shaking.

Han Fei roared and looked at the high priest. "Attack and I'll help you transcend the divine tribulation."

"Take him down."

A powerful Great Monarch from the Central Sea Divine Realm reached for Han Fei.

"Ridiculous. You're just a brat. If your entire race can't survive the divine tribulation, who can you protect?"

"Alas..."

The high priest heaved a sigh. She didn't want to take sides. She needed time.

However, both sides were forcing her to choose a side. If she didn't take action, she wouldn't offend the Central Sea Divine Realm, but her cooperation with the human race would be invalid. Besides, Han Fei had a void mark. If he really took action, not only would the Demon Purification Pot's Divine Vine be lost, but Chanyi would also completely abandon the Miracle Forest, and she wouldn't have the power to resist the Void Temple.

If she sided with Han Fei, she would immediately offend the Central Sea Divine Realm. After this battle, the entire Miracle Forest would probably have to be relocated.

As for what Han Fei said about helping her transcend the divine tribulation, she didn't know if she should believe it. But with the protection of the experts of the Void Temple, they could indeed help her transcend the divine tribulation.

Bang!

On Han Fei's side, the Time Resurrection Technique hadn't been completed yet. The Great Monarchs from the Central Sea Divine Realm all took action, especially the peak-level one. If he didn't stop him, Han Fei might have to use the void mark in the next moment.

Rumble!

In the blink of an eye, the high priest had no room to think. However, in the end, she chose to take action. Where Han Fei was, the ground changed, and Han Fei and the surrounding void were teleported out.

God of Fishing

Chapter 3183: War Erupts, Revenge Begins (3)

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The entire Miracle Forest, which stretched billions of kilometers, seemed to come alive in an instant. Infinite laws were gathering here, and the strength of the high priest soared in an instant. The old woman stood in front of Han Fei, and a green barrier protected this place.

"Li Qingming, how dare you cover up for the remnants of the evil Primordial Divine Race? Do you really think we Central Sea Divine Realm dare not touch your Miracle Forest?"

The high priest roared, "No matter if my choice is right or not, you will always die ahead of me. Yun Duo, Pei Bai, protect our people and retreat to the Miracle Divine Tree."

"Yes, High Priest."

Yun Yun and Pei Bai were both shocked. They didn't expect things to turn out this way.

Si Hongye's face flushed with anger. "Idiot, you old woman, you're risking the entire Miracle Forest."

The high priest pressed the wooden rod in her hand into the ground, and with continuous bangs, pillars rose from the bottom of the Miracle Forest. Endless demon plants grew crazily around these pillars, and layers of green ripples bloomed here.

The peak-level Great Monarch of the Central Sea Divine Realm was horrified. He knew that the high priest was determined to keep them here even if she had to use the power of the entire Miracle Forest.

He shouted, "Everyone, either we or they will die today. Unseal..."

Buzz!

Crack! Crack!

The chains on these Great Monarchs seemed to have been broken. This was a bit like the Dao locks of the Sky Opening Realm. Clearly, these Great Monarchs didn't dare to transcend the divine tribulation. After their strength grew to its limit, they had no choice but to seal their strength with the chains.

At this moment, as soon as the shackles were opened, the ground collapsed and plants flew everywhere.

The twelve Great Monarchs attacked at the same time, shattering the green barriers one after another.

"Hahaha!"

Han Fei grinned ferociously. "High Priest, your Miracle Forest won't regret this choice. You're from the Central Sea Divine Realm, right? There are many of you, right? Today, all of you will die here..."

Swish swish swish!

Behind Han Fei, one expert after another was revived, a total of 12.

It was not that Han Fei didn't want to revive more, but he didn't have the ability to revive more experts at this moment. Twelve people were already his limit.

In an instant, 12 prehistoric Great Monarchs were revived. In the wood cage, the tide of laws surged and collided with each other. Ancient divine techniques burst out one after another, and in an instant, they suppressed the twelve opposing Great Monarchs.

At this moment, in the high priest's cave in the Miracle Divine Tree, Han Fei's black mist body suddenly said, "Girl, enter my Origin Star."

On the other side of the arena, it was completely invisible. Billions of kilometers of the world had been sealed and suppressed.

Xia Xiaochan asked palely, "How did it become like this?"

Han Fei said, "There's no time to explain. High Priest, I'll take the Demon Purification Vine."

Swish!

Taking advantage of the fact that many Great Monarchs were locked in the arena, Han Fei's black-mist body immediately took action. The Creation Divine Chain instantly shot out, passing through countless barriers, wrapped up the small vine, and quickly pulled it back.

At this moment, Yun Duo and Pei Bai had no time to pay attention to the Miracle Divine Tree because they had to protect the countless creatures of the Spiritual Race.

Therefore, the Creation Divine Chain took away the small vine easily.

It was also at this moment that the Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm who were in the spiritual barrier all changed their expression. The small vine of the Demon Purification Pot had been stolen.

"Damn it, Li Qingming, the Demon Purification Pot's divine vine was stolen. No one can save your Miracle Forest now."

The High Priest: "Let's see if you can survive!"

"Wondrous technique, Sky Burial."

"Wondrous technique, Soundless Sound."

In the void, infinite strands of hair surged towards the twelve Great Monarchs like a tsunami.

Two of them were not strong enough. Even though they had unlocked their seals and activated all their secret methods, they were still entangled by the black hair. As soon as they cut them open, they were entangled again.

They wanted to unleash a soul technique, but the infinite demon plants here made a sound that ordinary hearing power couldn't hear at the same time. Although this sound couldn't be heard, it was a killing technique completely targeting the soul. It was continuously surging into the bodies of these Great Monarchs.

Of the two techniques, one trapped the body and the other invaded the soul. Even though they were all Great Monarchs, they were still entangled and it was almost impossible to kill Han Fei.

The high priest had already done this, and the ancient experts summoned by Han Fei was also unleashing their power.

There was an ancient insect that had barbs all over its body. It transformed into a human and controlled plants as knives. It controlled billions of knife lights to charge crazily at a trapped Great Monarch.

Puff, puff, puff!

Ka ka ka!

This Great Monarch's flesh and blood were all cut apart as if being cut into pieces. His soul couldn't dodge either. When these vegetation knife lights collided with each other, the sound waves burst out and the Silent Sound of plants washed over him continuously. Finally, this Great Monarch's body and soul were wiped out.

Rumble!

The Great Dao Crack caused by the death of the Great Monarch swept across the Sea Realm in an instant.

In the Sea Realm, a Great Monarch was almost a ceiling-level powerhouse. The death of such a powerhouse was enough to shake the entire Sea Realm.

At this moment, the shocked observers who had just run out were all shocked.

"A Great Monarch died so soon?"

"It's horrible! Who died?"

"I don't know! It's locked down inside and we can't watch the battle at all. It's reasonable to say that the Great Monarchs killed Wang Han, but no matter how strong Wang Han is, he's only Immortal-level. Even if he died, it's impossible for such a Great Dao Crack to appear!"

God of Fishing

Chapter 3184: War Erupts, Revenge Begins (4)

Zhang Xuanyu was anxious too. He asked Feng Yu telepathically, "Do you know if something happened to Han Fei?"

Feng Yu said, "No, he can't be killed. The one who died is either a Great Monarch from the Central Sea Divine Realm or from the Miracle Forest. However, I don't know what method he used."

At that moment, the patriarch of the Phoenix Divine Race sighed. "Han Fei is really a troublemaker!"

Aunt Huo asked, "Shall we help him?"

The patriarch said, "No rush. Let's wait until the end."

On the other side, outside the Miracle Forest in the South Sea Divine Realm, a Great Monarch was rushing in the Void World.

But suddenly, a strange sting appeared silently in the Void World.

"Pfft!"

The Great Monarch's body was instantly shattered, and in the next moment, even his soul was swept away by a black shadow.

Rumble!

However, a Great Monarch wouldn't die so easily. The moment his soul was about to be destroyed, he detonated himself.

However, after this Great Monarch detonated himself, countless dense knife nets cut through the Void World.

The self-detonating Great Monarch had to show up, or his soul would be shredded along with space.

However, the moment he appeared, a shadow seemed to possess him and shattered half of his soul with a punch.

"A Supreme-level assassin from the Southern Dipper? We have no grudge against each other. What do you mean?"

The shadow appeared and said coldly, "Because... the revenge of the Primordial Divine Race has begun..."

Upon hearing this, the Great Monarch retreated quickly, and the shadow's voice seemed to ring in his ears. "Since I dare to tell you, it means that you're already dead meat."

Bang!

The Great Monarch suddenly retreated, but a shadow gathered in his body, forming a figure that instantly broke out of his body.

Rumble!

A Great Dao Crack appeared again, but this time, it was not in the Miracle Forest at all, but outside it.

Not long after the death of this Great Monarch, several people arrived. And one of them was Jiang Buyi.

In the Void World, Jiang Buyi looked calm. Beside him, there was a peak-level Great Monarch guarding him. In addition, there was another person. Although he was only an Immortal-level expert, he could activate the Time Law.

This person was manipulating time to recall the battle just now.

After only a moment, the man suddenly opened his eyes and said in silence, "A Supreme-level assassin from the Southern Dipper."

Jiang Buyi sneered and then strolled in the Void World, deep in thought. "No wonder we haven't been able to find any traces of them in the West Wilderness. It turns out that the Primordial Divine Race has been hiding in the Southern Dipper..."

"Can you find the way to the Southern Dipper?"

The man said, "Let me try."

After a while, suddenly, blood spurted out of this person's seven orifices, and his soul was destroyed. He had actually died.

"Young Master Buyi, we can't stay here long. Whoever killed someone from the Time Remembrance Technique must be a god-level powerhouse from the Southern Dipper. We can't fight him head-on."

"What a pity. It wasn't easy for me to control a person from the Time Temple, but he died just like that... Clean up the mess and don't let the Time Temple find out."

"Yes, Young Master. Are you going to the Miracle Forest?"

Jiang Buyi shook his head slightly. "There's no need to go. Han Fei has no choice. If I guess right, he will have to use the last void mark."

...

On an island in the South Sea Divine Realm, there stood a solitary peak. A masked woman stood silently upon it.

"In the end, we're still discovered!"

The woman suddenly said, "All assassins of the Southern Dipper, listen to my order. Kill indiscriminately for half a day. Abandon the South Sea Divine Realm and enter the West Wilderness in half a day."

...

On the Miracle Divine Tree, Han Fei's black-mist body had just stolen the small vine of the Demon Purification Pot and only had the time to throw it into his Origin Star when the suppressing pressure of a Great Monarch pressed over.

Obviously, the twelve Great Monarchs trapped by the high priest were not all Great Monarchs lying in ambush here.

Although the identity of the Primordial Divine Race attracted many people, some people still kept an eye on the Miracle Forest Tree.

"Twin in one."

Buzz!

With the Twin Divine Technique, Han Fei's black-mist body ignored the high priest's sealing barrier and fused with his white-mist body. Han Fei's aura suddenly soared.

After the twin fused, Han Fei immediately looked at Si Hongye.

The high priest did not attack Si Hongye, probably because she felt somewhat sorry for her.

However, Han Fei didn't care about that. Although the mastermind behind all this was Jiang Buyi, the person who directly caused all this was Si Hongye.

If Han Fei had a chance, he certainly wouldn't let go of Jiang Buyi, but he certainly wouldn't let go of Si Hongye either.

With a thought, Han Fei summoned two resurrected experts to attack Si Hongye. One of the two Great Monarchs was an ancient mantis, and the other was an ancient dragon snake. Because they were manifestations of their original bodies, they would only attack in their most primitive state.

Han Fei said, "High Priest, it's not convenient for you to take action, but Si Hongye wants to kill me, so I'll take her life."

The high priest looked solemn, but in the end, she didn't say anything, as if tacitly agreeing with this result.

However, Si Hongye's expression was ferocious. "How dare you take my life with just two corpses without intelligence?"

Behind Si Hongye, a Divine Wheel spun, and for a moment, red leaves flew around her. Every red leaf was made of laws. They were extremely sharp and scorching. There seemed to be the law of space in them. This must be Si Hongye's original law.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

When red leaves drifted towards Han Fei, the ancient dragon-snake spewed out a beam of ice. Wherever the beam passed, the vegetation turned to ash and the red leaves withered.

The two swift blades of the ancient mantis were so fast that they were not weakened at all even though they were blocked by countless vines.

The two slashes instantly shattered Si Hongye, but the latter had already turned into red leaves that filled the sky and drifted everywhere.

However, she underestimated the strength of the ancient experts. The ancient mantis slashed out thousands of times in an instant, and terrifying blades bloomed like huge snowflakes, destroying the red leaves that filled the sky in the blink of an eye.

Boom!

Si Hongye was slashed out. Then, the ancient dragon snake swept its tail, gathered the power of laws, and smashed a large area of the red leaves protecting her with its tail.

Han Fei wasn't surprised at all that Si Hongye was suppressed. Even the remnants of their souls were comparable to Great Monarchs, let alone the resurrection of their original bodies. Even if they didn't have any intelligence, ordinary Great Monarchs couldn't resist them.

The moment Si Hongye was sent flying, she suddenly felt her mind go blank. She immediately came back to her senses, but a person had appeared in front of her at some point in time. Who else could it be but Han Fei?

Si Hongye was about to attack when she realized that she couldn't use her strength at all. She couldn't even control her body. She lowered her head, only to see that a black chain had tied her up.

"What did you do to me?"

Han Fei sneered. "You should've said what I'm going to do to you."

Han Fei raised his hand, and the Creation Divine Prison flew into the air and enveloped Si Hongye's head.

When an ancient text appeared, Han Fei's face was cold. He shouted, "I am the guardian of the Divine Prison. Si Hongye, you have killed others 2,106 times out of jealousy and attacked the weak 1,982 times. You have framed others 47 times, avoided fighting the ominous 11 times, harmed your clansmen 109 times, betrayed your clansmen once... I find you guilty... You'll be imprisoned for 13,278 years, burned by hellfire for 13 years, 6 months, and 7 days and whipped 800 times... Do you have any objections?"

"Nonsense, little thief, you think you can judge me?"

Han Fei grinned. "That's exactly what I was waiting for."

Immediately, Han Fei snorted coldly. "How dare you defy my authority? I hereby pronounce you guilty of the higher degree and sentence you to 20 years of hellfire burning as an additional punishment. Just enjoy!"

On the other side, the peak-level Great Monarch of the Central Sea Divine Realm was shocked. "The Creation Divine Prison has appeared?"

God of Fishing

Chapter 3185: How Dare You Try to Kill a God? (1)

Creation Divine Prison.

Si Hongye was locked up in a cage, right opposite Qingshu. Her entire body was burning with raging flames.

"Ahhh~"

The hellfire burning would cause excruciating pain.

In the opposite cage, Qingshu had weathered through the burning of hellfire. After all, his punishment was only 38 days of burning. But he wasn't any better. Every day, he had to be whipped, and every whipping almost killed him. It had been going on for half a year.

As soon as Si Hongye was locked in, Qingshu looked at Si Hongye's cage in shock. As the cage was only a seal but not soundproof, Qingshu hurriedly shouted, "Hongye, you were also caught by Wang Han? You must endure it. Although the burning of the hellfire is painful, you'll be fine as long as you endure it. I have some experience in fighting the hellfire. How long will you be burnt?"

Si Hongye was also shocked. Qingshu was still alive?

Holding back the pain, she said with difficulty, "Thirty-three years."

Qingshu: "..."

"Hahaha!"

In the prison, a voice laughed out loud. "33 years? I advise you to leave your inheritance and blow yourself up!"

A rough voice snorted. "She'll be burned by the hellfire for so long? Obviously, she's not a good person. I'm afraid this woman must have done something horrible to harm the myriad races."

Si Hongye struck the cage seal with all her strength, but only caused a shallow ripple.

The elder's voice sounded again, "Stop wasting your time. You think you can break the seal of the Creation Divine Prison with that little ability of yours? Even if you are a hundred times stronger, don't even think about it."

"The Creation Divine Prison?"

Si Hongye was shocked. She suddenly thought of something. She seemed to have seen information about the Creation Divine Prison in ancient books, but there was very little information about it. It was said that it was a prison that could even imprison gods.

Qingshu was also dumbfounded. He was really terrified by the 33 years of hellfire burning. He had only been burned for 38 days and he almost wanted to kill himself. How could Si Hongye endure 33 years?

In the outside world.

Rumble!

Another Heavenly Dao Crack shook the Sea Realm.

Yes, in just a short while, another Great Monarch died here. Counting the one who died outside the Miracle Forest, three Great Monarchs of the South Sea Divine Realm had already died.

However, since the high priest had already decided to stand on Han Fei's side, she naturally had to end the battle quickly. Although Han Fei had summoned 12 prehistoric Great Monarchs, there were only 13 of them, including the high priest.

These Great Monarchs from the Central Sea Divine Realm were not useless. Even if they couldn't beat them, they could at least resist them for a while.

If no reinforcements came during this period of time, they would be dead meat.

But did they really have no reinforcements?

At this moment, several Great Monarchs had appeared. Yun Duo and Pei Bai had to fight.

However, just the two of them weren't enough. Three more Great Monarchs descended. Just as they tried to break the seal of the high priest, the high priest couldn't care less about the exposure of her avatar and came up to attack, stopping the three of them.

However, this was only temporary. After such a big incident happened in the Miracle Forest, some Great Monarchs hiding in the South Sea Divine Realm were rushing over.

Therefore, the high priest's original body made up her mind and shouted, "Wondrous Technique, Strange Parasitic Technique."

Immediately, three Great Monarchs who were already covered in wounds from the continuous battles saw countless nomological law patterns that didn't belong to them surged into their bodies.

Then, flowers and plants began to sprout from the bodies of the three Great Monarchs. There seemed to be roots planted in their bodies, spreading, crazily devouring their flesh and taking root in their bones.

Even their souls couldn't escape. Soul demonic plants bloomed and bore fruit. With the Great Monarchs' bodies as nutrition, they grew at a visible speed.

The other Great Monarchs couldn't even protect themselves and couldn't help.

The strongest peak-level Great Monarch roared, "Li Qingming, are you crazy? You don't want the Miracle Forest anymore?"

The high priest's old voice sounded coldly, "I'm just doing this for the Miracle Forest. Please die."

Rumble!

Rumble!

Rumble!

The Great Dao Cracks came one after another. The contestants who were fleeing out of the Miracle Forest were all horrified.

How long had it been? After the death of many Great Monarchs in the East Sea Divine Realm, was a war of this scale going to break out in the South Sea Divine Realm in just a few years?

Someone was shocked. "Six Great Monarchs have already died. Is Wang Han really so important?"

Someone sighed as he ran. "Wang Han represents the Primordial Divine Race. Once he is caught, the Primordial Divine Race will probably be wiped out again. A war is inevitable. But why is the Miracle Forest involved?"

Someone was horrified. "The high priest locked down the arena. Is she covering up for the Primordial Divine Race?"

Someone shouted, "Is this a f*cking place to chat? Let's leave the Miracle Forest first. If we're caught in this battle, we'll be killed."

At the same time.

In the Divine Capital Dynasty of the East Sea Divine Realm, the crown prince of the Divine Capital was sitting on his throne, enjoying the singing and dancing in front of him.

He said leisurely, "Fortunately, I didn't stay in the South Sea Divine Realm. Otherwise, God knows if I would have been involved. Heh, Han Fei is really a jinx. Wherever he goes, Great Monarchs die. I don't know if it's a good thing or a bad thing to befriend him."

God of Fishing

Chapter 3186: How Dare You Try to Kill a God? (2)

In the Central Sea Divine Realm, an expert of the Ancient Demon Race roared.

"B*stard, where did the Sea Realm get such combat power to kill so many Great Monarchs in a row? Has a god appeared?"

A strong master of a divine race looked into the void and said gloomily, "The four divine realms have had accidents one after another. Are they going to break free from the control of the Central Sea? Humph, dream on."

On the insect island where Senior Brother Six God was staying, Lei Heng was cooking a blood dragon with a wine pot in his hand.

Lei Heng looked up at the void. "This was done by Little Junior Brother, right? Does he have enough void marks?"

Senior Brother Six God asked leisurely, "Did you have enough void marks back then? By the way, why are you here instead of in the West Wilderness?"

"I'm fast! I just wanted to have a meal and chat with you. Now everyone knows that you are also a disciple of the Void Temple. The Central Sea Divine Realm must be suppressing you."

Senior Brother Six God chuckled. "It doesn't matter. I've built the North Sea into an iron bucket. Who dares to oppress me?"

Lei Heng sneered. "But you haven't become a god yet. What if there is really a god in the Central Sea Divine Realm who goes crazy?"

However, Senior Brother Six God said with disdain, "Just because I'm not a god, I can't kill those useless gods?"

Lei Heng shrugged. "Okay, you're powerful, OK? By the way, you've already taken this path to the extreme, haven't you? Why are you still unwilling to become a god?"

Senior Brother Six God smacked his lips. "Fourth Senior Brother and Fifth Senior Brother refused to become gods either. Why should I become a god? They wanted to become god slayers, so I set them as role models."

Lei Heng curled his lips. "Alas, Senior Sister Dark Shadow is different from you guys. She's not that greedy."

Senior Brother Six God snorted. "That's why she suffered a great loss! She hasn't mastered the divine persona yet, let alone broken the shackles of the divine persona. I advise you to stop wandering around in the Sea Realm and go to explore the Sea of Stars!

Lei Heng said, "Go with me."

"I'm not going. I'm fine in the Sea Realm. No one disturbs me. I can concentrate on cultivation. If you want to find someone to go with you, go to Feng Yu or Little Junior Brother."

"Heh ~"

Lei Heng curled his lips. "I'm not going to find Little Junior Brother. He has a lot of things to do. He still has to take care of the human race. How can I have the time to wait for him? Forget it, if you don't go, I'll go find Feng Yu. She should be quite anxious now... Enough talking. I'm going to find Feng Yu."

Boom!

A lightning bolt flashed and Lei Heng disappeared without a trace.

"Alas, finish the food first! Why didn't you leave the wine to me..."

...

South Sea Divine Realm, Miracle Forest.

Another three Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm had died. In this arena, there were only seven people left. The high priest fought the peak-level Great Monarch alone, and the remaining six Great Monarchs struggled to resist twelve prehistoric experts. While being beaten black and blue, they had to resist the strange parasitic technique.

As for Han Fei, he activated his Original Great Dao to its peak state and tried to participate in the battle several times, but he was directly blasted out several times. He had no choice. After all, a Great Monarch was a Great Monarch. The Creation Divine Chain failed repeatedly.

It was different from taking down Si Hongye. Si Hongye was alone and no one helped her just now. However, these Great Monarchs were helping each other. Even if he could barely take down one of them, the other would try to prevent Han Fei from taking that person down even if he would be seriously injured.

In the Creation Divine Prison.

Qingshu was comforting Si Hongye. Suddenly, Han Fei projected the scene of the battle outside to Qingshu.

Qingshu's face changed greatly. "What's going on? Why is the high priest fighting so many strong masters alone, even using the power of the Miracle Forest?"

Si Hongye was resisting the hellfire when she heard Han Fei's leisurely voice. "Qingshu, Si Hongye betrayed the Miracle Forest, causing the Miracle Forest to be at war with the Central Sea Divine Realm. My name is Han Fei, not Wang Han, and I am the current Human Emperor. I am now in an alliance with your Miracle Forest. I will give you a chance to help the high priest save the Miracle Forest. Every time you suppress a Great Monarch, you will be exempted from 10,000 years of imprisonment and a thousand times of whipping. Whether you can leave the Creation Divine Prison depends on your luck. Are you... willing to fight?"

"I..."

Han Fei didn't hide his voice from Si Hongye. Before Qingshu could speak, Si Hongye exclaimed in shock, "That's impossible. How can you be the Human Emperor? You're clearly a remnant of the Primordial Divine Race."

Han Fei said, "Stupid. If I weren't the Human Emperor, why would the high priest choose to join forces with me? Because I'm not suppressed by the bloodline of the Primordial Divine Race. I... can become a god."

In the depths of the cage, the old man suddenly said, "Han Fei, what do you mean? Why did you mention the Primordial Divine Race? Are you our descendant?"

Han Fei said, "Senior, that's right. As I told you, now that the West Wilderness is in turmoil, the Central Sea Divine Realm is trying to harvest the divine bloodline of the Primordial Divine Race. These b*stards treat me as a member of your race and want to use me to dig out the entire Primordial Divine Race. Now there is a chaotic battle between Great Monarchs outside."

Roar!

The rough voice shouted, "B*stard, when I go out, I will destroy the Central Sea Divine Realm..."

Han Fei habitually ignored this yelling old man and said, "Qingshu, you only have three seconds to make a choice."

"I'm going out."

Qingshu took a deep look at Si Hongye. His thoughts were very simple. Since the high priest had taken action, he would take action unconditionally. If it weren't for the safety of the Miracle Forest, the high priest wouldn't have attacked with all her strength.

God of Fishing

Chapter 3187: How Dare You Try to Kill a God? (3)

Buzz!

In the barrier of the arena, Qingshu suddenly appeared, making the high priest overjoyed. Sure enough, Qingshu was still alive. He was just locked up in the Creation Divine Prison.

Laws rumbled throughout the entire battlefield.

The high priest said, "Qingshu, work with Han Fei to buy me some time."

"Yes, High Priest."

At this moment, more than ten seconds had passed since the battle. Han Fei felt that these resurrected prehistoric Great Monarchs could last at most ten seconds. He had no choice. These guys were very strong when they were alive. He couldn't summon dozens or hundreds of them at once. Otherwise, why would he need Qingshu's help?

Han Fei shouted, "Qingshu, try to entangle one of them."

Upon hearing this, a large number of golden vines spewed out of Qingshu's palm. At the same time, he summoned the projection of the giant tree and instantly fought one of them. Han Fei issued an order in his heart and the three prehistoric experts separated this person from the others.

For a moment, it was a four-on-one battle. Including Han Fei, there were five of them.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

After Han Fei was sent flying seven or eight times in a row, Qingshu finally lured this person to use the Soul Suppressing Spiritual Treasure to defend against the enemy. Han Fei's eyes flashed, and he immediately used the Void Stealing Technique.

Buzz!

The four Monarchs attacked this person at the same time and tied him up. Finally, the Creation Divine Chain tied him up.

When the person came back to his senses, he found that he had lost all his combat power.

Qingshu was controlled by the Creation Divine Chain back then and knew how terrifying the chain was. He knew that he would have one more companion in the Creation Divine Prison.

The Creation Divine Prison descended, and golden characters appeared.

"Pang Yin, you have killed 1,609 strong masters of the myriad races, killed 132 descendants of meritorious gods, and deprived other races of their luck three times... You are an unforgivable sinner.. I find you guilty... You'll be imprisoned for 1,202,278 years, burned by hellfire for 50 years and whipped 13,500 times... Do you have any objections?"

"Shoot ~"

This time, even Han Fei was shocked. This was how the Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm were like? He was simply a heinous sinner. Although he hadn't been sentenced to death, he would be imprisoned for more than 1,200,000 years and burned by hellfire for 50 years. This sin was countless times greater than Qingshu's.

Even Qingshu was dumbfounded. He had already talked to the old man in the Creation Divine Prison, so he naturally knew the abilities of the Creation Divine Prison. Now hearing that Pang Yin had given such a heavy punishment, it was obvious that he was not a good person.

Han Fei was still waiting for Pang Yin to resist so that he could give him additional punishment. However, Pang Yin was horrified and said, "I plead guilty."

"Huh?"

This was the first time Han Fei had seen someone pleading guilty so willingly. Obviously, this guy knew about the Creation Divine Prison.

"Hmph!"

Han Fei snorted coldly. Fine! 50 years of hellfire burning was enough for him to suffer. Even if he could survive until he was released from prison, he would just kill him.

Rumble!

In addition to Pang Yin, With Qingshu, thirteen Great Monarchs, and the three strange techniques of the high priest, another Great Monarch was finally killed.

Finally, there were only five people left.

But Han Fei's face changed slightly. It was almost time. These prehistoric Great Monarchs were about to disappear. Han Fei shouted, "Qingshu, retreat."

Qingshu didn't know what Han Fei was going to do, but he knew that although this guy was only Immortal-level, he had a lot of tricks up his sleeve. There must be a reason for him to tell him to retreat.

However, at the moment he retreated, Han Fei made up his mind. "Explode, all of you, explode..."

Boom Boom Boom ~

The twelve prehistoric Great Monarchs detonated themselves one after another. Even the high priest and the peak-level Great Monarch were shocked and immediately retreated.

A terrifying power swept across Han Fei and Qingshu. Han Fei, wearing the Chaotic Star Armor, was still sent flying thousands of kilometers away, with blood spurting from his seven orifices.

Rumble!

In the sky, two extremely terrifying Great Dao Cracks appeared consecutively, indicating the death of the two Great Monarchs.

"Damn it, only two of the dozen Great Monarchs were killed?"

Han Fei was speechless. It seemed easy for the God of War and the others to kill Great Monarchs! Including Senior Brother Six God, they could kill Great Monarchs as easily as slaughtering dogs. He didn't expect that when it was his turn to fight them, they would be so difficult to kill.

He couldn't go on like this. If he showed his true strength now, he would probably be easily recognized by any Great Monarchs in the future.

The high priest was the same. As the strongest person in the Miracle Forest, Han Fei thought that with her combat power, she could easily kill Great Monarchs. He didn't expect this battle to be so difficult for her. In comparison, she was even inferior to Chu Hao, let alone Senior Brother Six God and the God of War.

Han Fei had forgotten that Chu Hao was also a monster that could run all the way from the West Sea to the East Sea chased by countless Great Monarchs and manage to escape alive.

The self-detonation of the Great Monarchs was an indiscriminate attack, and this place was seriously damaged. However, there were still three strong masters from the Central Sea Divine Realm left.

The high priest suddenly took out her cane, and the top of the cane blossomed. In the next moment, a divine pressure descended, and the phantom of a goddess descended.

Seeing this, the peak-level Great Monarch of the Central Sea Divine Realm was horrified and immediately unleashed his full strength. As his soul revolved, a projection of a god also descended.

Bang!

The divine powers collided, and the spiritual barrier here finally couldn't resist this terrifying power and cracked.

"Die!"

Since she had done so much, the high priest certainly wouldn't let these people live. The power of divinity swept over them one after another. Except for the peak-level Great Monarch of the Central Sea Divine Realm, the bodies of the other two were directly destroyed, and they could only barely protect their souls with their Soul Suppressing Spiritual Treasures.

God of Fishing

Chapter 3188: How Dare You Try to Kill a God? (4)

Shocked, the two of them were about to escape when the high priest roared and the goddess waved a long whip at them.

"Stay here!"

"Enough!"

At this critical moment, a huge hand reached out of the void, covering the entire battlefield, crushing the goddess's projection.

At that moment, the void cracked open, and a figure as resplendent as the sun stepped out of the void.

"Humph ~"

After a soft snort, the high priest seemed to have been hit hard and suddenly spewed out a mouthful of essence blood.

"A god?"

The high priest spread out her laws. The moment the god appeared, she knew that she couldn't fight anymore. No matter how strong she was, she was only a peak-level Great Monarch. With the power of the Miracle Forest, she could fight dozens of Great Monarchs at the same time.

However, this was only limited to Great Monarchs.

Gods and the Great Monarchs were two different concepts.

The high priest said in a hoarse voice, "Gos transcend this world and are forbidden from interfering in worldly affairs. Why did you attack the Miracle Forest in public?"

Han Fei was shocked too. A god from the Central Sea Divine Realm had appeared?

For a long time, the gods didn't seem to meddle in the affairs of the world. Even a figure like the Demon God would only help him because he owed him a favor.

Now, this god couldn't bear to see the Great Monarchs of the Sea Divine Realm be killed?

The god snorted. "Under normal circumstances, I certainly wouldn't intervene. However, the Miracle Forest colluded with the remnants of the evil Primordial Divine Race to kill the Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm and directly damaged the peak combat power of the Sea Realm. Your actions are no different from subverting all the myriad races in the Sea Realm."

Seeing that there was no way to resolve this matter, the high priest became relaxed instead. "The Miracle Forest tries to subvert the myriad races in the Sea Realm? Have you ever asked your conscience? Who is harvesting others' luck, who is collecting the divine bloodline, and who secretly controls the Sea Realm? Who in the Sea Realm doesn't know the answer? In nearly ten million years, the Miracle Forest sent five generations of goddesses and three hundred Great Monarchs to the Sea of Stars. It's ridiculous to say that we intend to subvert the Sea Realm."

"Are you questioning me?"

The god extended his hand, and the high priest was imprisoned by the laws around her. She was pinned in the air by an invisible hand.

"Humph! It's the duty of the strong masters of all races to fight the ominous in the Sea of Stars. Which power doesn't have their own gods fight in the Sea of Stars? You're arrogant and stubborn. Is this the reason why you killed the Great Monarchs of the Sea Realm?"

"Hahaha... Cough, cough..."

The high priest's face was pale. "Do you dare to kill me? I can die at the hands of Great Monarchs, but I'm not afraid of gods. If I die, the goddess of my race will definitely sense it. Even if she can't return, her decree will eventually descend on the Sea Realm... I don't know how you will respond then."

Bang!

The body of the high priest was directly crushed, and the god's voice was majestic. "How dare you, Li Qingming? Who said I wanted to kill you? You defied the dignity of a god, so I can give you a small punishment as a warning to others."

Then, the god wrote a decree in the air with one hand. "Miracle Forest, led by Li Qingming, went astray and was almost blinded by villains. I couldn't bear it, so I will take the Miracle Forest into the Central Sea Divine Realm and guard it strictly. However, although she can escape the death penalty, she can't escape punishment. Li Qingming, the high priest of the Miracle Forest, has already lost her mind and defied the dignity of a god. She shall be suppressed in the Central Sea Divine Realm until she dies..."

The divine sound swept across the Sea Realm, and all living beings trembled.

The high priest had no room to resist. Her soul was pinched and she couldn't refute.

Then, the god looked at Han Fei. "You, an evil divine descendant, instigated the high priest of the Miracle Forest. You deserve to be killed. If you confess where the remnants of the Primordial Divine Race are hiding and their main figures, I can show you mercy."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei didn't expect that his plan to steal the Demon Purification Vine would develop to this point. All the trump cards he had prepared were wasted since a god had appeared. Did he have to use the void mark one last time?

"Heh..."

"F*ck..."

Bang!

As soon as Han Fei said this word, he exploded into a mist of blood.

However, in the next moment, a dazzling light appeared. The Great Dao of Life Replacement was activated, and the invincible state was on.

"Bah, can you stop me from speaking?"

"Are you f*cking addicted to acting? Do you really think you're the god of all living beings? Don't make it sound like no one has seen a god before. Look at you. Those who don't know the situation might think you're the strongest god who controls the life of everyone in the Sea Realm."

At that moment, Yun Duo, Pei Bai, Qingshu, and the Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm were all dumbfounded.

"Is this person crazy? He even dares to curse a god?"

While talking, Han Fei took out the God Slaying Arrow. Without any hesitation, he directly unlocked the seal on the God Slaying Arrow.

Swish ~

The God Slaying Arrow ignored the laws here and suddenly shot out.

The god looked solemn and his voice was full of anger. "God Slaying Arrow? How dare you kill a god..."

"Go to hell!"

Han Fei was so angry that he pointed at the god and cursed, "Damn you! You idiot, do you think you're the only god in the world? Why don't you go to fight the ominous?... You must be the silliest one to be the first to jump out..."

Bang!

The Great Dao of Life Replacement was activated again, and at this time, this god had no time to talk to Han Fei. The God Slaying Arrow shot out, and even he had to resist it with all his strength...

God of Fishing

Chapter 3189: A God War (1)

The God Slaying Arrow could kill anyone below the god realm. Even an ordinary god would definitely be injured by it.

Han Fei didn't expect the God Slaying Arrow to kill this god. If this god retreated, it would be fine, but if he didn't, he would definitely not be able to return today.

The god from the Central Sea Divine Realm retreated quickly, but the speed of the God-Killing Arrow was much faster than he had imagined, even faster than when he used all his strength.

The god summoned three high-quality Nature Spiritual Treasures and they blocked in front of him.

Clang!

A gong was shaken away. Its luster was dim, and cracks appeared on its surface. This high-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure was cracked.

Clang!

A hole was left in a coiling dragon shield, and the shield was trembling as if it were wailing. Such a wound was enough to cause its level to drop.

Crack!

The tip of a bright red long sword was broken, and the brilliance of the sword dissipated.

Ka ka ka!

The god's face changed drastically, and threw a punch. However, his entire arm shattered inch by inch, and divine blood sprinkled in the sky.

Where his broken arm was, there was also the power of divinity, constantly destroying his regenerated flesh and blood.

The power of the arrow finally dissipated. At that moment, everyone looked at Han Fei as if he were a monster.

Han Fei was holding a fishing pole and fishing in time, seeming to be looking for something. With his other hand, he pointed at the god and scolded, "You idiot god, do you think you're qualified to order me around? Why don't you attack me again? Come on! If you have the guts, come here and I'll skin you alive."

"How dare you offend a god?! Let's see how many times you can survive my attacks and how many God Slaying Arrows you have!"

The god didn't think that Han Fei had many God Slaying Arrows. He knew the source of the God Slaying Arrows. Since Chen Lingsu was already dead, she couldn't give out many of them.

In an instant, the god attacked again, and Han Fei was forced to use the Great Dao of Life Replacement again. However, Han Fei's fishing rod suddenly pulled out of the Time River, and the God Slaying Arrow that had just been consumed appeared in his hand again.

"Damn it!"

The god was speechless. Fishing a God Slaying Arrow from time? How did this guy do it?

The other Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm were also dumbfounded. How could this be? If Han Fei could repeatedly fish for the God Slaying Arrow, how many gods would be enough for him to kill?

In fact, Han Fei could only fish once from a time node. If he caught the God Slaying Arrow this time, it would be troublesome the next time. If he still wanted to fish for the God Slaying Arrow, he could only fish once when the time node was placed in the Graveyard of the Gods. However, the Graveyard of the Gods was too far away and special. Even if he could fish, it would take him at least a hundred seconds or even longer.

But Han Fei didn't care. The second God Slaying Arrow was shot out without hesitation.

The god's face changed greatly. Having experienced it once, he couldn't waste any more high-quality Nature Spiritual Treasures. If he wanted to resist this God Slaying Arrow, he had to use stronger weapons.

He took out a long spear, and a peerless Dharma Idol appeared behind him. Endless laws gathered at the tip of the spear and a cold light shone. Divine power surged into the spear to enhance its power. There seemed to be dozens of array marks.

Swish!

Similarly, when he launched the spear, the power was earth-shattering. The forest below him was instantly crushed into powder by the kinetic energy the moment he launched the spear.

Clang!

The roar surged, the void shattered, and the divine sound stirred in all directions. Even billions of kilometers away, some people were stunned by the terrifying divine sound.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

One figure after another ran out of the Miracle Forest crazily, not daring to stop for a moment.

"Terrifying! How powerful is this? Can a battle between Great Monarchs reach this level?"

"What Great Monarch? This power contains divinity. A god must have taken action."

"A god? How is it possible? Isn't it said that the Sea Realm has no gods? Where did this god come from?"

"That's bulls*it. How do you know there is no god in the Sea Realm? This power has exceeded our range of perception. How far away is it? But even at such a distance, it can shake us. How can a Great Monarch do that?"

"This is crazy. It's just a joust. Why is there a god war?"

"Run! Run as fast as we can!"

In the field, the high priest, Yun Yun, Pei Bai, Qingshu, and the others, including the Great Monarchs of the Central Sea Divine Realm, couldn't help but stay away.

Blood oozed from the corner of the high priest's mouth as she continued to mobilize the power of the Miracle Forest to protect the Spiritual Race's retreat.

In the depths of the Miracle Forest, the strong masters of the ferocious beasts and the divine beasts each shouted, "Everyone below the Monarch realm, hide underground. Don't come out without my permission."

...

The god's remaining arm was already dripping with blood, and the spear in his hand was wailing.

BAM!

The spear fell out of his hand. It was not that he couldn't hold it anymore, but that the divinity of this god was completely suppressed and he couldn't hold the spear anymore.

"Pfft!"

The arrow blasted a hole the size of a ball in the god's chest. His upper body was pierced through and it was difficult to heal.

"Pfft!"

Half of the soul and essence blood of this god dissipated, and he looked shocked. Is the God Slaying Arrow so powerful that even an ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure can't resist it?

At this moment, Han Fei threw his fishing hook into the Time River again. "Trash god, weren't you very arrogant just now? Come on, let's continue to fight. To be honest, I don't have any arrows left. Now I want to fight you one-on-one. Come here!"

God of Fishing

Chapter 3190: A God War (2)

The Great Monarchs were speechless. If you ran out of arrows, why did you throw your fishing rod into the Time River again? Isn't that nonsense?

Even the god was thinking that he might be able to take another God Slaying Arrow, but he wasn't sure if Han Fei could fish out another God Slaying Arrow.

He looked at the Time River. Han Fei's fishing time node was not far away. At this time distance, he might not be able to keep up with Han Fei's speed.

At this moment, the god suddenly felt the void tremble, and his divinity instantly erupted, forming a protective divine aura. Just as this protective divine aura was formed, a pair of scimitars instantly attacked from his side and back.

Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang!

Roar!

With a deafening roar, a swift figure slashed out thousands of times in the blink of an eye, shattering the protective divine aura of the god.

Bang!

This god was sent flying, and a piece of flesh on his body was cut off.

"A Great Monarch?"

The divine aura reappeared, but a spiral blade arrived in an instant and collided head-on, breaking his protective divine aura again. A thick scimitar sent him flying hundreds of thousands of kilometers away, causing the god's blood to fly.

"How dare you, a mere Great Monarch, provoke me, a god?"

With a thought from this god, the ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure spear shot back. Even if I can't kill the God Slaying Arrow, can't I kill a Great Monarch?

However, as soon as the spear arrived, it was sent flying by a half-arc knife.

"Extreme Dao Body Refining?"

The god was shocked. A Great Monarch who was an Extreme Dao Body Refiner! How could there be so many freaks in the South Sea Divine Realm?

"Damn it!"

If it weren't for the fact that one of his hands had been broken by the God Slaying Arrow and his other hand had been seriously injured too, how could he have been ambushed by a Great Monarch?

The moment the Great Monarch's spear was knocked away, his body turned red, and his strength suddenly soared to a level. A saber beam that cut across the world slashed down.

Bang!

Rumble!

This god was hit a million kilometers away in the void by this slash and finally smashed into the ground. In mid-air, a badly mutilated arm was falling.

And at that moment, the figure of the sneak attacker finally appeared.

It was a giant crocodile, holding double knives. He was burly and huge. As he stood in the void, the surrounding space was trembling.

He was none other than the Eastern Divine Crocodile.

After leaving the Godfiend Sea, everyone had their own things to do. Li Tiangan and the Sky Ghost Toad went to the East Sword Pavilion, Jiang Honghua seemed to have gone to the Central Sea Divine Realm, Xie Wukuan was in the Infinite Mining Area, the Demon God was missing, and the Eastern Divine Crocodile came to the South Sea Divine Realm.

However, although there were other Great Monarchs from the Godfiend Sea in the South Sea Divine Realm, Han Fei didn't call them. He thought that if he called too many of them, people would know his identity.

He only asked the Eastern Divine Crocodile for help, and he only wanted him to help him block the high priest of the Miracle Forest.

However, as soon as this guy appeared, he went straight to kill the god.

Besides, he came out without giving him a signal.

"Hahaha! It feels so good..."

The Eastern Divine Crocodile opened his mouth, caught the arm of the god, and swallowed it into his stomach.

"I didn't expect that I would get such a good deal as soon as I left the Godfiend Sea. A god from the Central Sea Divine Realm! I would've called more brothers over if I had known that I would meet you."

Han Fei was stunned to see that. Brother, this doesn't match our plan!

Bang!

The ground suddenly exploded, and dust flew up, covering the sky and the sun. Golden light bloomed and rose into the sky. The god exploded, and his flesh and blood were crazily recombining.

The Eastern Divine Crocodile sneered. "At least 30% of your strength has been lost. Now that you've rebuilt your true body, your strength will be reduced by at least 5%. You b*stard from the Central Sea Divine Realm, are you looking down on me?"

The divine voice resounded, "What the heck are you?"

The Eastern Divine Crocodile stepped into the air, and in the blink of an eye, he became ten times larger. "I'm the eldest son of the leader of the Eastern Mountain Divine Race in the South Sea Divine Realm. B*stard, do you remember me?"

Buzz!

As the Eastern Divine Crocodile cursed, a thousand fist marks shot out at an incredible speed from the flying dust.

The Eastern Divine Crocodile didn't have time to curse anymore. He brandished his two broadswords and, like wheels of fire and wind, collided with the fist marks of the god.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

However, the Eastern Divine Crocodile was only a Great Monarch after all. The fist light was getting faster and faster, and in the end, he could only barely block it.

Bang!

In the dust, a terrifying fist mark shattered the void and smashed into the body of the Eastern Divine Crocodile. The latter was blasted thousands of kilometers away in an instant, crushing endless trees.

A gust of wind rose and the dust dispersed. "I remember who you are. A fake divine race that claimed to be a real divine race was annihilated by us. I didn't expect there to be a fish that escaped the net."

This god seemed to have recovered from his injuries and looked no different from when he just came. However, Han Fei didn't believe that this guy was really fine. The Eastern Divine Crocodile said that his strength had been greatly damaged, so his strength must have been greatly damaged. Otherwise, the Eastern Divine Crocodile wouldn't have suddenly taken action and torn off one of this god's arms.

However, Han Fei had a headache. The Eastern Divine Crocodile had fought for a long time. Although he had torn off an arm of the god, he was still sent flying thousands of kilometers away easily. Could he really kill this god alone?

"B*stard! It's good that you remember. Even if you b*stard become a god, how strong can you be? Take a hundred thousand slashes from me first."
