Chapter 3221: Secret of Death, Origin of the Three Temples (5)

Did the undead cultivate to continue cultivating? But what was the purpose of cultivation? Endless battles, countless life-and-death separations. What was the point of such cultivation?

Every undead cultivator had a reason, and the Death God was no exception. Why did he create the undead cultivation technique? Perhaps, in the final analysis, he still couldn't achieve the Ultimate Affectionless. Was it because there were too many people he couldn't bear to part with?

Suddenly, Han Fei asked, "Why didn't you choose to die?"

At that moment, everything around him seemed to be frozen, and a calm and magnetic voice said indifferently, "Because they can't die in vain. Otherwise, what are our efforts worth? Therefore, I was born from death and want to kill to the end of the world. I want them to follow me to seek an answer."

In the next moment, Han Fei was drowned by the endless tide of sea demons.

He felt that his consciousness was fading, and it was weirdly quiet. He didn't think at all, but he seemed to exist. Han Fei didn't know if he was alive or dead.

If he had to describe his current state, it would be to describe it as empty, quiet, and blank. He couldn't feel time or life. It was as if he was wandering in the Sea of Stars and had seen the endless desolation in the Sea of Stars, but he didn't have any memories of it.

Han Fei seemed to see two lights and wanted to follow them. He followed the two lights for a long time, but he couldn't catch up with them.

After an unknown period of time, at a certain unintentional moment, he seemed to see the appearance of the two lights clearly. The two scimitars seemed a little familiar.

"Hope..."

Han Fei seemed to suddenly regain consciousness. He suddenly woke up from this chaos. He still had a road to walk and a war to fight. He remembered what the person said. Those people couldn't die in vain. Someone had to find an answer.

It was also at this moment that a fuzzy figure seemed to appear in this endless desolation and silence.

The man said casually, "Do you feel it?"

Buzz!

At that moment, Han Fei suddenly opened his eyes and felt the return of all his power.

The moment his perception returned, the figure in front of him turned from blurry to reality. In front of his eyes, there was a white-robed man standing with his hands behind his back.

The man said casually, "Fire of Hope? You woke up earlier than I expected."

Han Fei suddenly came back to his senses. The three hundred years of experience seemed to be vivid in his mind. The feeling of emptiness and chaos also lingered in his heart.

The man said leisurely again, "What did you comprehend?"

Han Fei tried to calm himself down and slowly said, "Death has no law. Death is a state, a piece of chaos, and this state is eternal immortality, but also like death."

"What else?"

The light in Han Fei's eyes became brighter and brighter. "Death is not the end of everything, but the beginning of everything. There are no laws in the world, but because of the beginning, there are laws and Great Daos... So..."

Han Fei suddenly shut up, looking shocked.

The man in white chuckled. "So what?"

Han Fei's eyelids twitched as he said with difficulty, "So, everything is born from death, including life. No, the void, the void is not in death. Time is not either... Death, void and time..."

At this moment, Han Fei understood. He suddenly understood why there were three temples in this world. It was because these three were the beginnings of Chaos.

The laws of life were one level weaker than these three.

But Han Fei vaguely felt that something was still wrong.

Without the void, time was meaningless.

Without life, death was also meaningless. Therefore, at that level, life was weaker than death. Death was the source of life. However, in a sense, life and death were equal.

Han Fei said, "Therefore, there is no law of death in this world at all. Instead, there is the infinite tolerance of death. You used this tolerance to create the undead, mixing death and life... Therefore, the undead creatures are not real dead things, but a special life form between life and death."

At that moment, the Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage in Han Fei's body began to tremble.

The man in white said, "I told you from the beginning that once you walk into the Ten Directions Purgatory, there's no turning back. You've comprehended it, so... you will never die again."

Chapter 3222: Return to the Graveyard of Gods (1)

Han Fei's feelings at this moment were extremely complicated.

The man in white said that he would never die again. It was indeed literal. He would never die again. As long as the void was there, time was there, and the death chaos was there, he would not die.

However, immortality was not an absolutely good thing.

He wouldn't die, but if he was scattered, he would return to the state of no memory, no feelings, and boundless quietness. Then, at some point in time, he would suddenly revive.

However, perhaps when he revived again, things had changed. He wasn't dead, but everything related to him might have been completely erased.

Just like in the past three hundred years, in the end, he was the only one left.

Han Fei suddenly regretted coming to the Immortal Temple, because at this moment, he didn't even have the right to die.

And the experience of the past three hundred years was actually telling him that no matter how long the people around him could live and how strong they were, they might not be able to survive him in the end.

In this vast Sea of Stars, he... would eventually become a lonely existence.

Han Fei felt fear, a fear that he couldn't die.

He couldn't help but look at the white-robed man in front of him. "Senior Death God?"

Han Fei thought of this person. He was the man who once appeared in the Dao Enlightenment Palace of the Divine Capital Dynasty, and he was also the one who helped him sever the negative.

"It's me."

Han Fei immediately said, "Senior Death God, if this is only the seventh purgatory, what will the subsequent levels of the Purgatory be like?"

"The levels of the Purgatory behind?"

The Death God said indifferently, "You've finished the Ten Directions Purgatory."

"Huh? I just experienced a reincarnation."

The Death God slowly turned his head, but Han Fei couldn't see his face clearly. He said, "Stepping into the reincarnation, you were in the seventh level of the Purgatory. I forgot to tell you that if you die in the reincarnation, you will really die."

"Really dead? How is it possible? I..."

Han Fei was shocked. "I died once?"

The Death God's voice was calm. "How can you know death without experiencing death? The entire reincarnation is the seventh level of the Purgatory. During this period of endless life-and-death separation, mental torture is the eighth level of the Purgatory, and the ninth is death."

Han Fei's pupils were constricted. "I've really died once."

Suddenly, Han Fei asked, "How long have I been dead?"

"Three hundred years. You have too many opportunities that others can't have. Even in death, there is a power to guide you to revive. Therefore, it only took you three hundred years to comprehend death."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei's heart trembled. Three hundred years in reincarnation, three hundred years in reality. He had spent a lot of time on this trip.

But on second thought, it seemed that time was no longer the most important thing for him.

At this moment, Eternal Darkness Spiritual Heritage was operating in Han Fei's body.

Death was not a law, but a state. After comprehending this state, Han Fei knew that there was no need for him to pursue the existence of the law of death.

Han Fei asked again, "Senior Death God, since the ninth level of the Purgatory is death, what about the tenth?"

The Death God sighed slightly. "In this world, the creatures of all races have experienced bumps, hardships, love, hate, emotions, and desires... Isn't this the most difficult purgatory in the world?"

Han Fei thought for a moment and realized that it was true. Since he was young, all kinds of feelings had popped up in his heart.

However, he was here to find the law of death, but it was unnecessary now. After all, death was just a state. He had already understood the power of death.

Han Fei asked one last question. "Senior Death God, is there no higher path? Is there no power in this world beyond death, void, and time?"

The Death God shook his head slightly. "I don't know, at least not for now. Therefore, you need to walk the rest of the road yourself."

In the end, Han Fei just cupped his hands. "Thank you for your Ten Directions Purgatory, Senior Death God."

The Death God nodded slightly. "It's time to open the Path of Reincarnation."

Han Fei thought to himself, Sure enough, he knew that the Path of Reincarnation was with me, and he had known it a long time ago.

"Senior, do you know why the Path of Reincarnation is with me?"

"Does this matter?"

Han Fei nodded solemnly. "Yes."

The Death God chuckled. "Then find the answer yourself!"

Han Fei curled his lips slightly. He wasn't surprised by the answer of the Death God at all. It seemed that he had always been shrouded in a huge mystery.

No one had ever helped him solve this mystery, but they didn't seem to mind him knowing this mystery.

Han Fei cupped his hands. "In that case, I'll take my leave."

The Death God waved his hand. "Go! Perhaps you don't have much time left."

Han Fei paused and nodded slightly. In the next moment, as Han Fei activated the Distanceless Gate, the No. 3 Distanceless Gate of the Chaotic Ice Domain suddenly appeared here.

When he saw the Death God, the Distanceless Gate trembled slightly. The Death God waved his hand. "You embarked on this path yourself. It's meaningless to regret it. Therefore, while there's still time, do whatever you want!"

Han Fei came to the Distanceless Gate, paused, and said, "I also want to try killing my way to the end of the world."

Chapter 3223: Return to the Graveyard of Gods (2)

Buzz!

Han Fei left the Immortal Temple. Although he had never seen the Immortal Temple or the true appearance of any Yama, he had indeed obtained a great opportunity from here.

If this was really an opportunity!

It was also at this moment that Han Fei understood that the Three Temples might be older than he had imagined, but all of this didn't seem to be important.

Death God, Eldest Senior Brother, and Master of Time were very likely the three strongest existences in the known Chaos. The three of them represented three extremes, but even so, they were still no match for the ominous. How powerful was the so-called ominous?

Han Fei couldn't measure this standard, but he knew that he couldn't embark on these three paths, because these were the three paths of failure, even if they were all very strong.

Returning to the Sea Realm, Han Fei sighed. He had missed the gathering of the Void Temple again. It seemed that from the moment he stepped out of the Chaotic Wasteland, even attending the gathering of the Void Temple had become a luxury.

Three hundred years had passed. God knew what had happened in the Sea Realm. At this time, Xia Xiaochan might have already rushed to the West Wilderness.

Han Fei thought for a moment and activated the void mark. "Eldest Senior Brother."

"Little Junior Brother, are you ready?"

Han Fei said firmly, "I'm ready."

Eldest Senior Brother said, "Wait a moment."

Han Fei didn't know what Eldest Senior Brother wanted him to wait for. It was just a moment. He wasn't in such a hurry.

At the same time, at the end of the boundless Sea of Stars, a convergence of blood-red and purple, an ancient vast ancient river leading to the unknown, Eldest Senior Brother suddenly said, "Death God, Time, come."

As soon as Eldest Senior Brother said so, a figure in white appeared beside him. Who else could it be but the Death God?

He said, "I've watched the river for countless eras, but I haven't seen you walk the river."

Eldest Senior Brother said leisurely, "If I leave, will you guard this place?"

In the next moment, time intertwined, and the dignified voice of the Master of Time Temple sounded. "If he is guarding it, I'm afraid he will walk in."

In the next moment, the Master of Time Temple in a resplendent golden robe appeared with his hands behind his back.

Eldest Senior Brother said calmly, "Everyone, choose one each!"

The Death God's voice was calm. "Leave the Eternal Race to me. The Path of Reincarnation will open, and the Monarchs will become gods. If the Eternal Race dares to pick these countless divine tribulation fruits, they won't be able to go back."

Master of Time Temple said indifferently, "Leave the ominous battlefield to me! Similarly, within a thousand years, the Time Temple will preside over the ominous battlefields in the 1,081 domains of the Sea of Stars. Our Time Temple will block the strongest wave."

At this moment, with a chirp, a delicate voice said angrily, "Why do you leave the most difficult one to our Void Temple?"

The Master of the Time Temple said calmly, "Shen Le, this can't be helped. Your Void Temple has too few people."

Death God: "Indeed."

Eldest Senior Brother said indifferently, "Alright, there's no dispute about this matter. I'll block the strongest ominous."

Shen Le curled her lips. "You... forget it. Then I'll be the only one hosting the gatherings in the future. You know my style."

Eldest Senior Brother gave a rare smile. "Got it."

Shen Le glared at Death God and Master of Time, and her figure turned incorporeal. In the end, she only left a voice here. "Everyone from the Void Temple, no matter what you are doing at this moment, let's have a meeting."

...

"Everyone from the Void Temple, no matter what you are doing at this moment, come have a meeting."

Senior Sister Shen Le's voice suddenly sounded in Han Fei's mind. He was puzzled. Just a moment ago, it was Eldest Senior Brother speaking, but now it had become Senior Sister Shen Le?

Besides, Senior Sister Shen Le asked them to attend the meeting. This was clearly not the time for a gathering. Also, no one was allowed to be absent from this gathering.

Han Fei summoned the bronze door and stepped in.

As soon as he entered, he heard Senior Brother Lei Heng say, "Senior Sister Shen Le, what's going on? This is not the time for a gathering, right?"

Senior Brother Six God was puzzled. "Where is Eldest Senior Brother?"

Green Lotus was slightly surprised. "Senior Sister Shen Le? Are you hosting the gathering?"

Red Lotus: "That's a big deal."

Senior Brother Azure Dragon circled in the sky. "Where is Eldest Senior Brother?"

Feng Yu appeared slowly, her body still burning with scorching flames. "Senior Sister Shen Le, you forced me to show my trump card."

Han Fei thought to himself, Feng Yu looks so murderous. Where did she go to fight?

Senior Brother Undead and Senior Sister Dark Shadow also appeared one after another, but they didn't speak.

This time, no one greeted each other, because they were all puzzled.

"Gulp~ Ah~"

Fifth Senior Brother said leisurely, "It doesn't seem like good news."

Senior Sister Shen Le glanced at Han Fei casually and then said, "There will be no lectures in this gathering. I'll only tell you a piece of news. The Path of Reincarnation is about to open. A storm of blood is about to sweep across the Sea Realm and the entire Sea of Stars. The ominous is returning, and all the battlefields are about to open. Eldest Senior Brother is very busy. I'll host the future gatherings."

Even the Void Temple didn't know Han Fei's secret, so Feng Yu, Lei Heng, Senior Sister Dark Shadow, Senior Brother Six God, and the others were still very shocked.

Lei Heng asked, "So suddenly? If the Path of Reincarnation opens, what about the Eternal Race? If no one restrains them, what can they do?"

Senior Sister Shen Le said, "Don't worry. The Immortal Temple will take care of the Eternal Race."

"Huff!"

Everyone couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief. Then, Senior Brother Six God said, "The Path of Reincarnation has been opened. I don't know what the other places are like, but in a hundred years at most, the Sea Realm will definitely fall into chaos and conflicts."

God of Fishing

Chapter 3224: Return to the Graveyard of Gods (3)

Shen Le said, "To fend off external threats, one must first ensure internal stability. Little Junior Brother, Lei Heng, Junior Brother Six God, I don't care how you distribute your tasks. But do please unify the Sea Realm within a thousand years. What I'm talking about is unification. Anyone who resists shall be killed. In a thousand years, I want a complete Sea Realm."

"Sh*t!"

Han Fei was stunned. What was going on? Was the effect of opening the Path of Reincarnation so great? Why did Senior Sister Shen Le suddenly become so murderous?

Senior Sister Shen Le said, "Junior Brothers and Sisters, our Void Temple has suffered an internal rebellion. Many talented junior brothers and sisters died in that rebellion. Therefore, although there aren't many people in our Void Temple now, I don't want a similar situation to happen again. Besides, the ominous has returned. I want a Sea Realm that is united against the outside world, not a mess."

Senior Brother Six God: "Yes, Senior Sister Shen Le."

Lei Heng said, "No problem, Senior Sister Shen Le. However, as for the unification of the Sea Realm, we should give Little Junior Brother some time to gain experience for the time being. Anyway, within a thousand years, I promise to take down the Sea Realm."

Han Fei could only bite the bullet and nod. "Okay, Senior Sister Shen Le."

Senior Sister Shen Le continued to instruct, "Old Five, you don't have to guard the Chaotic Ice Domain anymore. The Time Temple will take over. I'll give you a thousand years."

Fifth Senior Brother clicked his tongue. "So hasty?"

Shen Le said, "This is the time that Eldest Senior Brother bought for you."

Fifth Senior Brother said seriously, which was really rare for him, "Okay!"

Then, Shen Le looked at Senior Brother Azure Dragon. "You too. A thousand years."

Senior Brother Azure Dragon nodded slightly. "Okay."

Shen Le continued, "Green Lotus, Red Lotus, you don't have to stay in the Chaotic Sea all the time. The time limit I'll give you two is ten thousand years."

Green Lotus and Red Lotus looked at each other. "Understood, Senior Sister Shen Le."

Senior Sister Shen Le didn't continue to arrange for Senior Brother Undead and Senior Sister Dark Shadow. Instead, she said, "Everyone, since you've come this far, you should know what we'll face in the end. This time, it's different from the ominous return of the Age of Gods. This ominous return is comparable to the one in the Primordial Era. And that time, all races were almost wiped out."

Everyone was refreshed. Had it finally come? Was the epic battle that concerned the lives of all races about to begin again?

When Eldest Senior Brother was here, everything seemed to be casual, and no one felt any pressure. Today, Senior Sister Shen Le directly piled the mountain-like pressure on everyone's shoulders.

It was precisely because there were few people in the Void Temple that everyone had to try their best.

Han Fei knew that Senior Sister Shen Le must have given Fifth Senior Brother and the others a thousand years to become gods. There was no second possibility.

In fact, Han Fei felt that Fifth Senior Brother and the others had long surpassed ordinary Great Monarchs. Instead of calling them Great Monarchs, they were more like gods in the Great Monarch realm.

Now, they still needed Senior Sister Shen Le to personally urge them before they were willing to make a breakthrough. There was no telling what they had done earlier.

Seeing that the order had been given, Senior Sister Shen Le nodded in satisfaction and said, "Alright, this gathering is over. This time, take it that our Void Temple has completely come out of seclusion. I'm different from Eldest Senior Brother. Eldest Senior Brother will give you as much time as possible. But I'm different. You just don't have any pressure, so you dawdle. Okay, I'm done. Everyone, go about your business."

After that, before everyone could leave, Senior Sister Shen Le ran away.

Everyone was still in the Void Temple when Lei Heng said leisurely, "Who can tell me why the opening of the Path of Reincarnation causes such a great uproar?"

Fifth Senior Brother said, "Why bother to ask this question? Hurry up and control your Four-sided Lightning Domain. Don't get involved in the matters of the Sea Realm."

Lei Heng was speechless. "Senior Sister Shen Le just instructed me."

Fifth Senior Brother said, "That's for you to clean up the mess."

Senior Brother Six God sighed slightly. "I wanted to cultivate for another 30,000 years, but unfortunately..."

Senior Brother Azure Dragon's voice was dignified. "Alright, everyone should have heard it. Time is tight now. We should make breakthroughs and gain experience."

Han Fei suddenly said, "Senior Brother Azure Dragon, I might go to your place later."

Senior Brother Azure Dragon: "Okay, then I'll wait for you for three hundred years."

...

Everyone left one after another, not in the mood to chat.

Senior Brother Undead and Senior Sister Dark Shadow didn't speak, and Senior Sister Shen Le didn't arrange anything for them, so Han Fei tacitly believed that they knew the current situation very well.

Not to mention Fifth Senior Brother, he must know everything.

As for Senior Brother Six God, Senior Brother Lei Heng, Senior Sister Shen Le tacitly agreed that these two people had the means to clean up the mess for her and take down the Sea Realm, which proved that they could become gods at any time and their combat power was abnormally powerful.

As for Feng Yu, she should be about the same as him now. Although he was trapped in reincarnation for three hundred years, Feng Yu shouldn't have broken through to the Great Monarch realm in just three hundred years, right?

Or rather, if she made another breakthrough, she would only be a Great Monarch.

As for Senior Sister Green Lotus and Senior Sister Red Lotus, they should have some great secrets. After all, they walked the same path as him, the Dao of Extreme Balance, but he didn't know how far they had gone.

Senior Sister Shen Le gave Fifth Senior Brother and the others a thousand years, but she gave Green Lotus and Senior Sister Red Lotus ten thousand years. Obviously, there was something he didn't know.

On second thought, Han Fei activated the void mark.

In the next moment, Senior Sister Shen Le replied, "Little Junior Brother, what's the matter?"

God of Fishing

Chapter 3225: Return to the Graveyard of Gods (4)

Han Fei thought to himself, Now even when he activated the void mark, it was Senior Sister Shen Le who replied. It could be seen that the matter of his opening the Path of Reincarnation was indeed serious and even tied Eldest Senior Brother down.

Han Fei said, "Senior Sister Shen Le, I have a technique that I want to give to Senior Sister Green Lotus and Senior Sister Red Lotus."

"Oh? Give it to me. I'll give it to them."

Han Fei didn't hesitate. Since Senior Sister Green Lotus and Senior Sister Red Lotus walked the Dao of Extreme Balance, the Godfiend Body should also be a bottleneck on their path.

But it was also possible that they had already passed this bottleneck. But in any case, he had to give this technique away. At this moment, there was no point in keeping it to himself.

The technique was absorbed by a void, and then Senior Sister Shen Le said, "Little Junior Brother, I'm not trying to pressure you. If you can't take down the Sea Realm in a thousand years, it doesn't matter. After all, your path is not in the Sea Realm. Ten thousand years, I promise you still have ten thousand years to squander freely."

Han Fei said, "Thank you, Senior Sister Shen Le. I'll try my best."

"Um, okay... As for taking in disciples, if you don't meet a suitable person for the time being, you can put it aside for the time being."

"Okay, Senior Sister."

Han Fei thought to himself, If Senior Sister Shen Le hadn't mentioned it, I would have forgotten.

He had no time to take in disciples. Anyway, most of the trial layout of the Void Temple had been set up. He just needed to wait and see if anyone took the bait.

...

After the hasty gathering, Han Fei's heart stirred, and the drop of Nether River Water given by Chen Lingsu appeared in front of him.

Now, his original law had been confirmed, which was the law of life and law of death. Although there was no specific law of death, it was an absolute state. It didn't matter if there was a law or not. It also represented his original law.

After all, the significance of an origin law was to encompass all laws. And death, even the law of life, was included. It could be said that in this world, except for the void and time, there shouldn't be any law that death couldn't encompass.

Buzz!

A nebula appeared. With a thought from Han Fei, the Creation Divine Chain appeared under his feet and took him into the Chaotic Nether River.

In the Nether River, it took Han Fei three days to come to the Graveyard of Gods again.

The moment Han Fei reappeared in the Graveyard of Gods, the star tombs began to tremble.

A loud voice rumbled, "He's back."

There was a trace of anticipation in the voice of a god. "So fast? Just three hundred years?"

A god asked, "Little friend Han Fei, can the Path of Reincarnation really be opened?"

Han Fei's voice was confident and firm. "Of course."

Several hours later, Han Fei came to Chen Lingsu's star tomb again. This goddess was playing chess with herself. Here, hundreds of remnant souls of gods had already gathered.

Seeing Han Fei return, she sighed slightly. "It seems that I thought you could find him back."

Han Fei sighed helplessly. "I didn't have time to find him at all. However, if you wait on the Path of Reincarnation, there might be a trace of hope to meet him. I wonder what kind of spiritual treasure Senior wants to give me this time."

Chen Lingsu smiled. "You can't wait anymore?"

Han Fei chuckled, but then he said solemnly, "Seniors, let me tell you clearly that the reincarnation cycle will open today."

Buzz!

The divinities of the gods here surged.

A god couldn't help but sigh. "What can I say? We were supposed to die, but we're welcoming a new life?"

A god sighed. "Fate is really unpredictable!"

A god reminded them, "Don't be happy too early. I believe you know what it means that the Path of Reincarnation opens. Once this Path opens, the Sea Realm and the Sea of Stars will be in chaos."

A god said, "It's better than not opening it. If the Path of Reincarnation doesn't open, all races will be destroyed sooner or later."

A god sneered. "These b*stards from the Eternal Race. After I reincarnate and become a god again, I'll definitely kill these b*stards."

A god shook his head slightly. "The Eternal Race has been living in the Soul Sea for too long and has too many strong masters. Even if we become gods again in the future, I'm afraid we won't be a match for them. We still have to wait and hold back. Once the Path of Reincarnation opens, the path of the Soul Sea will be severed. The Eternal Race will be punished sooner or later. There's no rush."

Chen Lingsu said, "Okay, be quiet! Since this day has come, there's no need to waste time here. Take out the things you prepared for Han Fei!"

A burly projection of a god appeared. Han Fei knew that it was a refining master.

The god laughed. "Little friend Han Fei, this weapon is a token of our appreciation. The only pity is that we can't witness its glory."

A god sighed. "Old Man, don't sigh. If you cultivate fast, you might have a chance to see it."

Han Fei thought to himself, What kind of weapon is it that even these gods want to witness its power?

The god waved his hand, and a huge chess card covered a hundred thousand kilometers of the void, spinning and shrinking from time to time. When it finally landed in front of Han Fei, it was only one meter square.

Information immediately appeared in Han Fei's eyes.

< Name > Creation Chessboard

< Introduction > The Creation Chessboard is made of 361 pieces of divine bones of different gods. When it's cast, the gods fuse the peak power of their lives into it. The chessboard spans 19 paths. With charm and divinity as the pieces, 360 pieces can be placed. Every time a piece is placed, it will be a blow from a god.

< Quality > One-time ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure

<Effect 1> When a piece is placed, a god will appear. Every time a piece is placed, it will be like a blow from a god.

<Effect 2> Killing trap: Every time 24 pieces fall, a killing trap can be formed. The power of the killing trap can be three times the power of a single chess piece.

<Effect 3> Dragon Slaying: Every time 180 pieces fall, it can form a dragon slaying trap and unleash ten times the power of a single chess piece.

<Effect 4> Finishing: It'll launch a finishing blow when all the chess pieces are placed. That blow can fuse the power of a hundred gods and the lasting time is uncertain.

< Can't be Reforged >

< Unrefined >

<Note> The strongest ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure in history, whose power far exceeds most Nature Treasures.

God of Fishing

Chapter 3226: The Path of Reincarnation Opens (1)

"The Creation Chessboard?"

When Han Fei saw the power that the Creation Chess Card could show, although he had high expectations for this weapon, he still felt that he had underestimated the value of this weapon.

For example, the Blood Sky Blade's strongest blow was Blade Death, which was to exchange for ten times the combat power with the destruction of the Blood Sky Blade. This way, every time he used it, he would get a high-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure-level treasure.

But the Dragon Slaying trap of the Creation Chessboard could unleash ten times the power of a chess piece, which meant that the Dragon Slaying trap could unleash ten times the power of a god. Han Fei didn't dare to imagine how unbelievable this power was.

Even the power of a killing trap could unleash three times the power of a god, which was unbelievable. Compared to the Blood Heaven Blade, it was like one was in the heavens and the other was in the underworld.

If an ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure was extremely powerful and much stronger than a high-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure, then a one-time ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure was a level stronger than an ultra-quality Nature Spiritual Treasure.

In terms of level, if this wasn't a one-time use weapon, it could definitely be ranked as a Supreme Nature Treasure or even surpass it.

Therefore, when Han Fei saw the attributes of the Creation Chessboard, he couldn't help but be shocked. Having this Creation Chessboard was actually equivalent to having the power to kill gods.

Han Fei looked solemn. He bowed slightly to the gods. "Thank you for your kindness, seniors. I will definitely let this Creation Chessboard fulfill its value."

Chen Lingsu said indifferently, "I've given it to you. It's up to you how you use it. Anyway, since we're going to be reincarnated, many things and residual power are useless. In that case, we'll just inject them all into this Creation Chessboard. You can use it to kill some traitors of all races in the future, such as the Eternal Race."

Han Fei nodded slightly and said calmly after putting away the Creation Chessboard, "Seniors, if I've guessed right, when the Path of Reincarnation opens, both the Sea Realm and the Sea of Stars will be in turmoil. This era might not be very good, but if you can awaken your memories after reincarnation, remember the time node of ten thousand years later. At that time, I'm afraid the ominous might have returned..."

How could everyone not know the significance of these ten thousand years? Someone said, "To be honest, we are already very satisfied that the current Sea Realm can resist the ominous for ten thousand years."

A god smiled and said, "In ten thousand years, we should still have a chance to fight."

A god said, "There's no time to lose. Little friend Han Fei, when can the Path of Reincarnation open?"

"Now."

"Now?"

The gods were stunned. So it's up to you whether the Path of Reincarnation can be opened or not?

Han Fei said, "Seniors, please guard me."

With a thought from Han Fei, the green jade stone bridge suddenly appeared in front of the gods.

"Huh? Well~"

"Is this... the Path of Reincarnation?"

"Am I seeing things? The Path of Reincarnation has always been with Little Friend Han Fei?"

Although the gods didn't know the Path of Reincarnation, they could roughly guess it, so at this moment, they all looked shocked.

Of course, there was also ecstasy. If that was the case, wouldn't they be able to enter the cycle of reincarnation immediately?

Chen Lingsu held her long bow and said indifferently, "Everyone, this matter should be a secret for us. Before we reincarnate, we have to cut off this memory. After all, if anything happens after the reincarnation, we can't expose Han Fei."

A god echoed, "That's right. The Path of Reincarnation is with one person. If the Eternal Race finds out about this, the consequences will be disastrous."

A god said solemnly, "Before entering the Path of Reincarnation, let's cut off this memory one by one!"

"Seconded."

"Agreed."

Han Fei didn't really care about this. After reincarnation, it would take them thousands of years for them to awaken their memories. Once they awakened and didn't grow up, they probably wouldn't be too high-profile.

Furthermore, as soon as the Path of Reincarnation opened, not only the gods in front of him entered the cycle of reincarnation. This was because after someone died, only part of their soul returned to the Soul

Sea, and some entered a certain unknown place on the Path of Reincarnation. God knew how many remnant souls and divine thoughts had been accumulated over the endless years.

Therefore, among so many people, who knew where to find these gods?

Han Fei stepped onto the green jade stone bridge.

If he wanted to open the Door of Life and Death, he had to open the Door of Rebirth first.

Since he had already made a decision, he no longer hesitated. He strode to the Door of Rebirth and looked at the words "The day the Door of Rebirth opens is the time when the ominous returns" sealed on it.

Han Fei reached out and immediately tore off the seal. This was not a powerful seal. It only served as a warning, so Han Fei didn't find it difficult to remove the seal.

When the seal was completely removed, Han Fei reached out and pressed on the Door of Rebirth, pushing it with a huge force. "Open."

Buzz!

On the Door of Rebirth, brilliance bloomed, and the relief patterns on the door seemed to come back to life.

Ka ka ka ~

As the Door of Rebirth opened, what Han Fei saw was a vast starry sky with flashing stars. The dense gravel-like stars seemed to be right in front of his eyes, but also seemed to be far away.

Han Fei had a feeling that every flashing star was a reincarnation position, as if it was waiting for the corresponding soul body to enter this place.

On Han Fei's side, he didn't feel anything different. He only felt that after the Door of Rebirth opened, there was a faint suction force. The suction force was very small, as if telling him to walk here.

However, although Han Fei didn't feel anything, in the Sea of Stars, inexplicable roars began to come from the countless ominous mists.

At the front line, in an endless ominous mist, a voice came. Han Fei had only lifted the seal of the Door of Rebirth, but he seemed to have lifted some shackles that bound the ominous.

With buzzing sounds and roars, a large number of ominous creatures rushed out of the ominous mist.

On the front line, a magnificent city stood, which was a natural chasm to stop the ominous.

Many strong masters came out of seclusion.

But what was faster than them were countless time cocoons. There seemed to be creatures in the cocoons that were stirring and about to break out.

Someone on the front line was shocked. "The Time Resurrection Technique? Has the Time Temple taken action?"

"What's going on? There are so many time-cocoons. Is the Time Temple going to personally suppress the ominous?"

"No, look at the ominous mist."

"Roar, roar ~"

One world-ending level war beast after another rushed out of the ominous mist. There were as many as huge waves in the sea. Although they were composed of drops of water, you couldn't count how many drops of water there were.

In the billions of time cocoons, big cocoons broke open from time to time, and ancient creatures surged out of the cocoons, covering the sky and the earth.

Someone was shocked and swallowed with difficulty. "It... It seems that something big has happened."

...

Soul Sea, Bloodline Divine Tree.

In the Sea of Stars, every time a creature was born, the corresponding bloodline on the Bloodline Divine Tree would flash.

In the vast Sea of Stars, countless creatures were born at all times. Therefore, the Bloodline Divine Tree was shining with the light of bloodline at all times like flashing stars without stopping.

But suddenly, the Bloodline Divine Tree dimmed. There was not a flash on the tree, and the scene of stars flashing could no longer be seen.

Buzz—

All of a sudden, figures appeared in front of the Bloodline Divine Tree one after another.

"What's going on? Why is the Bloodline Divine Tree no longer flashing?"

"Is there something wrong with the Bloodline Divine Tree?"

Suddenly, in the Soul Sea, a figure that inexplicably caused endless fear appeared in front of the Bloodline Divine Tree.

"Greetings, Soul Master."

This person exuded a power that even the gods didn't dare to look at. He slowly said, "This day has finally come. The Path of Reincarnation has been opened."

"What? The Path of Reincarnation?"

"How is it possible? The Path of Reincarnation has disappeared for so long. How can it still open?"

"Didn't the Path of Reincarnation disappear since the Primordial Era?"

"How can it be? If the Path of Reincarnation opens, won't the Bloodline Divine Tree be useless?"

"No, we can't let the Path of Reincarnation open. Once this Path is opened, all races will definitely fall out with us. Besides, those Great Monarchs will no longer have any scruples. They will probably use this opportunity to become gods."

The Soul Master slowly said, "The Path of Reincarnation has opened and the ominous has returned. The myriad races don't have the time to deal with the Eternal Race. Pass down my order to find out who opened the Path of Reincarnation."

However, as soon as the Soul Master said so, he reached out and grabbed, and the souls of the two god-level powerhouses near him shattered.

The vitality in these two people's bodies was completely severed, and this place was immediately covered in a blood-colored halo. In the Soul Sea, a death knell sounded.

The two gods were killed so easily, which shocked the surrounding gods.

The mysterious powerhouse reached out and grabbed, and two broken souls appeared in front of him. He threw out two drops of blood that emitted a bloody light and said indifferently, "The two of you, go to the Path of Reincarnation and see if you can find any clues on the Path of Reincarnation. After you reincarnate and awaken your memories, temporarily integrate into the myriad races."

These two divine souls trembled, not daring to disobey.

As the mysterious powerhouse let go, the two of them left the Soul Sea and disappeared into the vast Sea of Stars.

...

Han Fei didn't know what happened in the Sea of Stars, let alone that the Eternal Race had already begun to search for him.

At this moment, the Door of Rebirth had been opened, but there was still no reaction. He probably needed to open the Door of Life and Death too.

Compared to the silence of the Door of Rebirth, Han Fei knew that there would definitely be a different reaction behind the Door of Life and Death.

When he came to the Door of Life and Death, the seal on the door, "If you want to open the Door of Life and Death, open the Door of Rebirth first", was gone. Han Fei took a deep breath and pushed with one hand, and a huge force surged.

Buzz!

A dazzling white light shone in through the crack of the door. The moment the white light poured out, it shone on the ground and burned with raging flames.

"Hellfire?"

Han Fei was shocked. He looked at the words on the Door of Life and Death, "When A Person Dies, He Is Relieved of All Burdens. The Hellfire Burns His Body and Eliminates Evil." He suddenly understood something.

He looked back, only to see that the entire road seemed to be instantly ignited by flames, full of hellfire.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, he couldn't feel the burning of the hellfire. Was it because the Path of Reincarnation was his?

Han Fei stared at the Door of Life and Death for a while. He had no idea what was behind the dazzling white light, because he couldn't see it at all.

Han Fei tried to touch the white light behind the Door of Life and Death, wondering if he could walk out of here to take a look.

However, as soon as his palm touched the white light, it was almost burnt. There were only bones left in one hand, and even the bones were full of cracks.

Chapter 3228: The Path of Reincarnation Opens (3)

"Huh? I can't walk it?"

In his palm, vitality surged, and flesh and blood intertwined. In the blink of an eye, Han Fei's palm returned to normal, but he also gave up the idea of leaving through the Door of Life and Death.

Buzz!

At this moment, Han Fei felt the ground began to tremble slightly.

Then, he saw that the Door of Life and Death began to grow larger and larger. Not only that, but the hellfire began to burn to both sides with a swish, and the road under his feet no longer had hellfire, as if it had turned into a pavement.

In addition, the Door of Life and Death began to gradually leave. This road seemed to be stretched longer and longer.

Buzz!

Suddenly, Han Fei felt the vibration of the green jade bridge itself. When he looked back, he saw a new pair of couplets appear on the pillars on both sides of the green jade bridge.

"This life is like the moon in the water, and the next life is like a flower in the mist."

The couplets meant literally nothing. However, Han Fei seemed to realize something and quickly came to the green jade bridge. Then, he saw that the river under the bridge began to flow.

When the river began to flow, Han Fei clearly felt that time was running.

Yes, on the Path of Reincarnation, time flowed faster.

In the past, when he entered the Path of Reincarnation, he stayed on the road for a long time, but it only took him a moment outside. Many times, he even felt that time on the Path of Reincarnation froze.

Now, time began to accelerate, and the flow speed was comparable to the outside world. Could it be that the time on the Path of Reincarnation should have been the same as the outside world?

Swish ~

While Han Fei was thinking about this time problem, suddenly, a figure appeared in Han Fei's vision.

"Someone came?"

Han Fei immediately felt refreshed. It was a young man. On the green robe he was wearing, laws were circulating and there were remnants of divinity. It was obvious that he was quite extraordinary.

This young man's soul carried divinity, which meant that this person was undoubtedly a god. His true strength far exceeded his, so he couldn't clearly judge the other party's specific realm.

However, although this young man's strength far exceeded his, Han Fei felt that at this moment, he didn't seem to be able to use his strength. He seemed to have relied on the green robe to come to the green jade stone bridge so quickly.

There was still a trace of confusion and dullness in the young man's eyes. It wasn't until he saw Han Fei standing on the bridge that a trace of clarity slowly appeared in his eyes.

The two of them looked at each other for a long time. Laws surged on the young man's green robe and enveloped him. The latter glanced at the words on the green jade stone bridge and slowly said, "I seem to have died. Where is this?"

Han Fei said casually, "The Path of Reincarnation."

But before the young man could continue to ask, the laws and divinity that emerged from his green clothes were actually attracted by the river under the green jade stone bridge. As the divinity gradually disappeared, Han Fei saw that the young man's pupils seemed to gradually become dull again.

Buzz!

Han Fei felt refreshed. The power of the young man's law was drawn into the river. Didn't this mean that a new law had appeared in the river?

If everyone who walked the Path of Reincarnation would leave the power of laws behind when crossing the green jade stone bridge, wouldn't he have infinite power of laws?

Han Fei was overjoyed. In this way, he could superimpose countless laws in an extremely short period of time.

"Hey! Can you hear me?"

Suppressing the urge to take a bath in the river immediately, Han Fei asked tentatively, but he didn't get a response. The young man's eyes seemed to struggle for a moment, but then his eyes became glassy again.

The young man strode onto the green jade stone bridge. The moment he walked onto the green jade stone bridge, Han Fei saw that a large amount of law power was dissipating from his body.

Han Fei raised his eyebrows and looked under the bridge. In the slowly flowing river, the young man's figure dissipated a massive amount of laws, which were far ten times, a hundred times, or a thousand times more than the laws he was dissipating now.

"Huh?"

Han Fei was surprised. The laws in this person's body were being absorbed by the river.

Han Fei observed this person. When he walked past him and was about to get off the bridge, Han Fei could clearly feel that the power of his green robe was getting weaker and weaker, as if it was gradually turning into ordinary clothes.

When he walked down the green jade stone bridge, Han Fei felt that this person had become an ordinary person.

"That's not right!"

Han Fei walked around the man and saw that there was a trace of divinity between his eyebrows. This trace of divinity seemed to be very obscure and wasn't absorbed by the river.

"This doesn't seem right. As soon as I said the words "Road of Reincarnation", the clarity in this person's eyes disappeared. Is the word "Road of Reincarnation" magical, or is there something else?"

Han Fei still wanted to follow this person to continue studying.

However, at this moment, he saw another man in a Dao robe come under the bridge with a page engraved with talismans. The scroll was shining.

There was also a trace of clarity in this person's eyes. After seeing the green jade stone bridge, this person's expression changed slightly. The Dao scroll in his hand turned into divine patterns that surrounded his body.

Then, he stepped on the green jade stone bridge. In the reflection of the river, the scroll's brilliance was gradually absorbed and slowly dimmed.

Seeing this, Han Fei realized that the green robe of the last person and the Dao scroll in the hands of this person must both be extraordinary. These two things contained a large amount of the power of laws, protecting a trace of their divinity, allowing them to cross the green jade stone bridge safely.

Chapter 3229: The Path of Reincarnation Opens (4)

"Another powerhouse far exceeding my strength."

Han Fei frowned slightly. "It seems that these gods, or even stronger powerhouses, were prepared at the moment of their death."

Han Fei discovered that the people on the Path of Reincarnation shouldn't be sober, but the treasures of these two people made them temporarily retain their consciousness and even be able to speak.

However, most of their divinities and law powers had been absorbed by the river. Even with such extraordinary treasures, they could only barely leave a trace of divinity.

Han Fei could imagine that once these people entered the reincarnation cycle and successfully reincarnated, this wisp of divinity would be their magic weapon to quickly rise.

When the man saw Han Fei standing under the bridge and looking at him, he paused and then nodded at Han Fei without saying anything.

Even when he walked down the green jade stone bridge, the Dao scroll in his hand hadn't dissipated, but its power seemed to have been greatly reduced.

The man slowly said, "Thank you."

Just as this person was about to pass Han Fei, Han Fei suddenly said, "Cut off the memories of this place."

The man hesitated for a moment and said, "Okay!"

Han Fei watched the man cut off this part of memory. After severing this memory, his pupils became slightly glazed. Han Fei didn't continue to stop him and let him continue forward.

Before the two of them reached the Door of Rebirth, more people arrived, more than one. One after another, seven or eight people came.

"Good lord, they are all above gods."

Han Fei saw that each of them seemed to have a way to protect a wisp of his divinity. However, most of these seven or eight people, like the first person, could only barely keep a wisp of divinity.

But the second man in the Dao robe was different. He was almost reincarnated with the Dao scroll and all his memories. The reason why he asked him to cut off the memories of this place was actually to cut off the memories of him seeing him.

After a while, when more than 30 people boarded the bridge, the first person to cross the green jade stone bridge had already reached the Door of Rebirth. After that person crossed the Door of Rebirth, the stars in the vast Sea of Stars instantly shone and erupted with unparalleled light.

Han Fei saw the man throw himself into a certain star with a swish, and then the star dimmed.

"I see. Every time someone enters the cycle of reincarnation, a star will be extinguished. However, how many people can use up this vast star sea?"

Han Fei didn't pay attention to the Door of Rebirth anymore. They walked their own path. It didn't matter even if they entered the cycle of reincarnation with divinities. Perhaps they would grow up faster in the future this way. If they could, Han Fei didn't even mind them bringing power and spiritual treasures into the cycle of reincarnation. Only in this way could they rise quickly.

...

Outside, the Graveyard of Gods.

The moment the Path of Reincarnation opened, Chen Lingsu and the others were tempted. Because they were very close to the Path of Reincarnation, which was right in front of their eyes, many gods couldn't help but be led into the Path of Reincarnation.

It seemed that the Path of Reincarnation was extremely attractive to them. At such a close distance, they had to hold on to their minds to barely resist this temptation.

These gods had yearned for it for too long and didn't want to resist this temptation at all.

Someone said, "Everyone, I'm leaving first. When my memories recover, let's meet again and drink and chat happily."

With that, this person's remnant soul flew to the Path of Reincarnation.

Someone laughed. "Everyone, I'm leaving too. There's nothing else to say. It's already a great opportunity for us to live another life. I'm leaving."

Someone smiled. "The Graveyard of Gods. I really look forward to seeing my own graveyard after reincarnation."

Someone sneered. "What's there to see? It's just some spiritual treasures. Let's go..."

"Let's go together."

The gods entered the Path of Reincarnation one after another. In the end, when only Chen Lingsu was left here, she branded a line of words on her Origin Star. "I've entered the Reincarnation and I'll be waiting for you."

After that, Chen Lingsu also entered the Path of Reincarnation.

On the Path of Reincarnation, Han Fei came to the Door of Life and Death after watching the situation on the Door of Rebirth. He was shocked to find that countless souls of various colors were pouring in from the Door of Life and Death.

The road here was already full of various creatures. There were huge beasts with huge bodies, azure dragons swimming in the void, huge rocs, ancient demonic bulls with heavy steps, human beings, sea demons, Insect races, demon plants, humanoids, and countless other races. The teams of these big shots directly stretched this road very long.

If this path was considered the main path, then on both sides of this path, countless souls were being burned by hellfire, wailing and howling. When they tried to step onto the main path, they would be blocked by an invisible force and couldn't cross at all.

Han Fei saw that some people were completely annihilated by the hellfire, and some people's souls were becoming pure. When their souls were no longer contaminated by the hellfire, these souls could step onto the main path from the hellfire.

However, after they entered the main road, they couldn't cut in line. The creatures walking in the middle of the main road had no intention of letting them cut in line at all, so they formed a team and could only follow the side of the central queue.

Therefore, on the main road, there were soon three queues walking side by side.

Because people walked out of the hellfire every moment, the two new queues were filled with various souls in the blink of an eye. Some souls wanted to come out, but there was no place for them at all, so they could only wait in the hellfire eagerly.

In addition, Han Fei also discovered a novel phenomenon, which was that some people on the main road didn't need to line up. Most of the strong masters with divinity still had some consciousness. Different from those creatures that had already fallen into a daze, they would walk out of the line and quickly cross this road to the front of the green jade stone bridge.

Therefore, there were roughly three kinds of creatures that came in from the Door of Life and Death.

The first was that the big shots didn't need to line up and had a certain level of self-awareness.

One was creatures that could walk on the main path as soon as they came in. These creatures were at least Monarchs.

The last was the creatures of the other stages. Their strength was uneven and they needed to be burned by hellfire.

As for why Monarchs could walk on the main path without being burned by hellfire, Han Fei discovered that the moment they passed through the Door of Rebirth, white flames would burn on their bodies for a moment.

This white flame was different from hellfire. It was more like a purifying fire. Han Fei suspected that it was caused by the white light of the Door of Life and Death. Perhaps, behind the white light, there was a place he didn't know at all.

Although the Path of Reincarnation was open now, Han Fei felt that he still didn't know enough about it.

He had a feeling that the process of these creatures entering the cycle of reincarnation was too simple. At most, they would be burned by hellfire. Only those who had committed heinous crimes would be burned to death. Most people could still enter the cycle of reincarnation after experiencing hellfire.

Han Fei rubbed his head and suddenly felt that something was missing on the Path of Reincarnation.

If he could get the Ten Yamas here...

Han Fei only thought for a moment and couldn't help but laugh. If he wanted to get the Ten Yamas here, wouldn't he have to take the entire Immortal Temple here? He wasn't that powerful. The Death God was a dominator-level powerhouse. How could he give him the Immortal Temple that he had built with all his strength?

"Forget it, that's it for the time being! Anyway, after these creatures reincarnate, their ultimate fate is to fight the ominous. The Path of Reincarnation is only equivalent to a transit station. There's no need to make it so complicated for the time being."

At this moment, Han Fei saw a figure rush out of the Door of Life and Death. This figure didn't need to line up at all but was walking quickly on the main road of the Path of Reincarnation.

"Is it... Chen Lingsu?"

God of Fishing

Chapter 3230: Stack Ten Thousand Laws (1)

This soul body was Chen Lingsu. The other party clearly retained her consciousness.

At present, among the souls of the powerhouses Han Fei had encountered who didn't need to cut in line, there were no more than five who could do what Chen Lingsu did. Obviously, the strength of these people was probably not as simple as that of gods.

Chen Lingsu could seriously injure a god with one arrow, so her strength was very likely to have reached the God Slaying level. In other words, the people he had just encountered were very likely all God Slaying-level powerhouses.

Chen Lingsu soon came to the green jade stone bridge. She gently raised her hand, and a butterfly appeared at her fingertips. Instantly, the butterfly flapped its wings, and a large amount of divine power enveloped Chen Lingsu.

But then, Chen Lingsu gave up. She looked around. "Han Fei, are you there?"

Chen Lingsu's own strength seemed to be suppressed, so she couldn't see the Path of Rebirth from the Door of Life and Death at a glance. But as the master of the Path of Reincarnation, Han Fei could.

Chen Lingsu suddenly called his name. Han Fei was stunned for a moment and replied, "Yes."

Swish ~

Han Fei came to the front of the green jade stone bridge and couldn't help but wonder, "Senior, is there anything else I can do for you?"

Chen Lingsu was not surprised to see Han Fei at all. Instead, she said bluntly, "Have you not completely mastered the Path of Reincarnation?"

"Huh? Why do you say that?"

Chen Lingsu looked back at the long team and said, "There are only three queues. How long will it take for all these creatures to reincarnate? Can't you expand the queues?"

"Uh ~"

Seeing that Han Fei scratched his head and looked confused, Chen Lingsu couldn't help but say, "It seems that you don't know much about the Path of Reincarnation. If you control the Path of Reincarnation, you should have a way to expand and change the shape of the Path of Reincarnation. For example, the width, length, strength of the hellfire, and even the pressure on divinity and laws."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "Oh? Senior, do you know how to master it?"

Chen Lingsu shook her head slightly. "I don't know, but I know that someone once walked the Path of Reincarnation. It seems to be different from the current Path of Reincarnation. By the way, have you seen him?"

Chen Lingsu was naturally pointing at Li Daoyi, whom she had been waiting for. However, Han Fei didn't feel any anomalies in the butterfly hairpin, so no one named Li Daoyi had crossed the green jade stone bridge so far.

Han Fei shook his head. "Not yet, but there are still many strong masters queuing up to enter the cycle of reincarnation. Perhaps he is behind."

Chen Lingsu frowned slightly. "Do you mind if I stay here for a while?"

Han Fei looked at Chen Lingsu. Although she hadn't crossed the bridge yet, the power of laws on her body was also being absorbed by the river, but not as quickly as after she boarded the bridge.

Han Fei said, "Senior, even if I agree, I'm afraid you won't stay long. After your divinity and the power of laws are sucked dry, you will lose consciousness."

Chen Lingsu shook her head slightly. "Can't you give me the power to stay here?"

"Me? Can I?"

Han Fei's heart stirred. He didn't know that he had such an ability. However, after Chen Lingsu's reminder, Han Fei immediately tried to communicate with the green jade stone bridge.

Unexpectedly, he really felt something different this time. There seemed to be some rules reflected in his mind. At that moment, he seemed to understand many operation rules of the Path of Reincarnation.

The first thing Han Fei sensed was that the Path of Reincarnation had rules that suppressed all powers, divinity, and laws. Even if a god entered the Path of Reincarnation, he was just a pure soul waiting for reincarnation here.

However, the suppression of the Path of Reincarnation wasn't absolute. For example, the power it used to suppress laws was to melt the laws, not to deprive them at once.

Therefore, there were god-level powerhouses who could barely protect a wisp of divinity with some law treasures. As long as those law treasures could successfully support them to the Path of Rebirth, the wisp of divinity and memories would be preserved.

Also, anyone who stepped into the cycle of reincarnation usually had no memories after reincarnation. Even if they preserved their memories, they would only be stored in the deepest part of their soul and needed to wait for the opportunity to awaken. This opportunity might be the occurrence of an event or reaching a certain level of strength.

However, there was an exception, which was that some people could completely retain their memories and enter the reincarnation if they controlled a Nature Treasure-level treasure or a law-type treasure that was strong enough.

Therefore, it could be seen from this that the Path of Reincarnation was very powerful, but it was not absolutely without loopholes.

Furthermore, the Path of Reincarnation could indeed be long, short, wide, or narrow. He could adjust it according to his will. However, this required certain conditions, and the conditions were actually related to the number of laws he stacked.

"Huh?"

"Is the Path of Reincarnation actually related to my own strength?"

Han Fei clearly felt that the Path of Reincarnation seemed to have other powers, but he didn't have the ability to activate them now. And now, the powers displayed by the Path of Reincarnation seemed to be only its basic powers.

It turned out that he had only opened the Path of Reincarnation, but he couldn't control it yet, nor could he make changes in the rules.

With a thought from Han Fei, the Path of Reincarnation was widening at a visible speed.

As the Path of Reincarnation widened, the soul bodies that could only wait in the hellfire anxiously immediately rushed out. At first, the scene was a little chaotic, but in a moment, lines formed.
