Chapter 3674: The Fourth Level of the Path of Invincibility, Mastering the Chaos (4)

For a moment, no one knew what to think of Han Fei. Was Han Fei still a human?

In fact, after Han Fei reached the Immortal Level and completed the Dao that the Heavenly Dao missed, he knew how to control the Sea of Stars, and once he controlled the Sea of Stars, he would definitely succeed on the path of invincibility.

At this moment, Han Fei was just going through the process. He wanted to directly open the Origin of Chaos, but the Eye of Heavenly Dao appeared on its own. And the Eye of Heavenly Dao represented the Heavenly Dao of the Chaotic Star Sea. By controlling the Eye of Heavenly Dao, he controlled the Chaos.

However, completing the path of invincibility still didn't increase Han Fei's strength. However, this meant that Han Fei was already invincible in the Chaotic Star Sea.

As long as it was in the Chaotic Star Sea, Han Fei could represent the Sea of Stars itself. No matter who came from the outside world and how strong they were, they couldn't kill Han Fei in the Chaotic Star Sea. Of course, if this person could destroy the Chaotic Star Sea with a flip of his hand, it would be a different story.

This process was very fast. After about half an hour, Han Fei completed this breakthrough on the path of invincibility. After all, this was just a matter of time.

On Han Fei's forehead, the Invincible Eye that used to represent the path of invincibility had already changed. Now, in his third eye, there seemed to be billions of rivers of stars flowing, deep and unfathomable.

It was as if Han Fei had embedded an Eye of Heavenly Dao in his eyes.

At this moment, the Chaotic Star Sea was still controlled by the rules of the Heavenly Dao, but Han Fei controlled the Eye of the Heavenly Dao, which meant that as long as he wanted, he could also control the rules of the Heavenly Dao.

The corners of Han Fei's mouth curled up slightly. With a thought, two Pearls of the Divine Realm appeared in his hand. They were the Pearls of Control of the Chaotic Ice Domain and the Chaotic Thunder Domain.

He said indifferently, "The Guardian Divine Realm is no longer needed."

Then, Han Fei used the power of the Heavenly Dao without hesitation. In the next moment, the rules of the Heavenly Dao in the Chaotic Star Sea seemed to have changed a little.

Immediately afterward, Han Fei's voice sounded in the Shattered Star Sea, the outer domain battlefield, and the entire Sea Realm. "I am Human Emperor Han Fei. I command the Heavenly Dao, rule the myriad worlds, purify the law, and dispel the ominous mist. From today on, there will be no ominousness in the Chaotic Star Sea."

Buzz!

As soon as Han Fei finished speaking, the entire Sea of Stars, the vast Star Domain, and the billions of star rivers were enshrouded in rays of light. Ten thousand Daos vibrated, and the light of laws spread out across the entire Sea of Stars.

Rumble!

Everyone saw with their own eyes that the vast Sea of Stars that was originally calm began to tremble.

Lightning, light, divine brilliance, extreme cold, divine fire... Countless powers bloomed among the endless stars.

In this star river, the ominous mist gathered the most. There were the most ominous creatures, so the Great Dao baptized it the most crazily.

...

Sea Realm, Free City.

As soon as Han Fei said so, many humans in the city walked out of the sealed barrier and looked up at the sky, trying to see something.

"What about the Human Emperor?"

"I can't see anything!"

"Of course. How far can your eyes see? How is it possible for you to see the Human Emperor?"

A strong master from another race shouted, "What are you doing? Hurry up and enter the barrier. Any power that dissipates from the sky can crush you!"

"Humph!"

A human elder sneered. "What do you know? The Human Emperor has already returned. What are we afraid of?"

"You old idiot, I know you humans worship the Human Emperor, but no matter how strong the Human Emperor is, how can he defeat the ominous alone?"

However, the old man's expression changed drastically. He raised his walking stick and pointed it at the powerhouse, shouting, "Hey, what are you talking about? He can command the myriad worlds and disperse the ominous. The Human Emperor said it himself. How can it be fake?"

"That's right. Which race are you from? How dare you doubt what the Human Emperor said?"

"Hey, I can understand that you're insensible. If you dare to say it again, although I'm weak, as long as I call out, a lot of huma powerhouses can hammer you to death."

The strong master of another race shook his head and thought to himself, I'm too lazy to argue with these stupid people. If you don't want your lives, so be it! I shouldn't have wasted my kindness on you.

Suddenly, someone pointed at the sky and said, "Look, it's stars. Stars all over the sky."

"Really? The sky has been sealed by the so-called Ice Domain Sea of Fire until now. I haven't seen a star in a long time. Let me take a look... Huh, really."

"Hahaha, Human Emperor didn't lie to me. The Ice Domain is gone."

"Wow, look, there are flames burning in the stars."

Someone didn't believe him. "Keep bragging. Do you know how far away that star is from you? There's still a f*cking fire burning. Why don't you say that there are lightning bolts between the stars?"

The man said angrily, "Why not? Look, if you f*cking dare to come out to take a look, isn't that lightning?"

"That's bulls * it. If there isn't lightning, I won't return the spiritual stones I owe you... F*ck... Is there really lightning among the stars?"

In just a moment, the streets of the Free City were overcrowded.

Someone roared hysterically, "The savior of the world is only the emperor of our human race."

Someone laughed. "I knew that Human Emperor would return whenever there was a crisis."

"Human Emperor, Human Emperor, Human Emperor!"

Instantly, the voices in the Free City rose and fell like a tide.

...

The Shattered Star Sea.

A large number of undead were still fighting.

Someone laughed. "Brother, I'll die first."

Someone greeted him with a smile, "Brother, you die first. I'll follow."

However, the moment the undead released all the death energy and self-destructed, with a bang, a thunder ball the size of a head suddenly descended, purifying the ominous creatures fighting him.

The undead could feel that even if he touched the thunder ball, he would disappear on the spot.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

However, the thunder ball didn't touch him. Instead, it jumped around in the Shattered Star Sea. Every time it jumped, an ominous creature was purified.

"F*ck, what is this?"

The other undead pointed at the sky. "Brother, you... Look."

The two of them looked up, only to see aurora flashing in the ominous mist and laws enshrouded. The ominous mist that they couldn't see through at first was actually turning incorporeal and turning white.

"Tweet ~"

A group of fire phoenixes, like a swarm of bees, swept inside and outside the ominous mist. An inexplicable rhythm came from the distant sky, and the sound waves rolled. Wherever the sound waves passed, the ominous disappeared. There was even an inexplicable wind blowing in the Sea of Stars, which carried divine brilliance. No one knew where it came from, but wherever the wind passed, the ominous was annihilated...

Such scenes were everywhere in the Shattered Star Sea.

In short, at this moment, countless laws were blooming, giving birth to a light of purification. In the vast Sea of Stars, countless places covered by the ominous mist began to gradually reveal light.

The Death God and the peak-level dominator-level ominous who were fighting outside this star river had both stopped.

The Death God felt everything he could feel in shock. He felt that the Great Dao and laws of the entire Sea of Stars seemed to be rioting.

The place he was fighting was already covered by the ominous mist. Although the fight between him and the dominator-level ominous had almost destroyed this place, it still couldn't avoid the erosion of the ominous mist.

But at this moment, all the laws in this star river were blooming with the power to disperse the ominous.

The peak-level dominator-level ominous said with a trembling voice, "Impossible. The Heavenly Dao is unconscious. How can it struggle?"

"The Heavenly Dao won't struggle, but humans will."

At that moment, a Time River flowed past here, and Han Fei's figure walked out of the Time River. Obviously, this was just one of Han Fei's old bodies.

The Death God's pupils were constricted. "You've returned?"

"That's impossible. I saw you fall into this Path of No Return with my own eyes. How can you return?"

The peak-level dominator-level ominous looked horrified.

Han Fei sneered. "I don't care if you believe it or not. I'm just here to send you to hell."

Han Fei flicked his finger, and a knife light appeared. A terrifying and vast aura dissipated from the knife light and crossed half of the Star River in the blink of an eye.

"Kill!"

"Puff ~"

A peak-level dominator still lacked one Dao. Even if he used all his strength, how could he be a match for Han Fei? When the dominator-level ominous creature found that all the Dao techniques here couldn't be used, Han Fei extended his hand into the void and directly cut off the other party's long river of life.

"Impossible, what kind of power is this?"

"Why are my Daos melting?"

"Roar!"

The Death God looked at Han Fei leisurely. The peak-level dominator-level ominous that he had been fighting fiercely for days couldn't even last two or three rounds in Han Fei's hands?

The Death God said leisurely, "Above the dominator level?"

"Um."
