

Wife 96

Chapter 96

The man who left Sunville Hotel was driving for a while when his phone rang. He glanced at the caller ID and hesitated before answering the call.

A composed voice sounded, “Where did you go, Kian?”

Kian Morris replied indifferently, “I’m at Sunville Hotel.”

The initially composed voice from the other end of the call panicked instantly. “What are you doing at Sunville Hotel, Kian? Jennifer will create a scene with me again if your older brother sees you and word gets back to her.

“Moreover, your company will face more challenges if she makes your older brother go against you.”

Kian remained indifferent as he replied, “Yohan wouldn’t target me. Your wife is the one who couldn’t let it go and had her relatives target me instead.”

After pausing for a moment, he said, “You don’t need to concern yourself with my affairs, Dad. I’ve told you that I won’t rely on the Morris family. I’ll work hard to provide my mom and myself with a better future.

“Don’t worry, Dad. I went to Sunville Hotel for business purposes only. I won’t let Yohan find out. He’s not someone I can easily meet.

Far from Yohan, the high–flying CEO of the Morris Corporation, Kian was currently in the toughest phase of his business journey. They were worlds apart despite being biological brothers. It would be difficult for him to even meet his biological older brother.

After all, he was only an illegitimate son. Even though his father, Duncan Morris, named him a Morris, everyone else in the family. couldn't accept him.

Even Bonnie, who treasured all her grandsons, had disliked him- all because he was an illegitimate grandson.

Kian had visited the Morris residence once when he was six. www.N@veIl(w)ORm.Com

Duncan wanted to adopt him back into the family then, but his wife, Jennifer, opposed it.

Duncan and Elena’s affair lasted several years before Jennifer learned about it. She created a huge scene and demanded at divorce, but he refused to divorte.

Eventually, Duncan stopped seeing Elena for the sake of his family. He only sent them monthly allowances. Whenever Kian missed him, he would send a car over to pick Kian up from their residence just to meet him.

Kian was now 26 years old. He had also lived all 26 years of his life as an illegitimate child who was mocked and scorned.

However, he couldn’t blame it on anyone else–Elena was the one who chose to sleep with Duncan when he was drunk, after all. She had taken advantage of him and seduced him.

As her son, Kian had to suffer the consequences of his mother being a mistress.

Since Duncan refused to divorce, he promised Jennifer that he would stop seeing Elena and would only take care of Kian.

Moreover, the business partnership between the Morris and Tunt families ran deep. Duncan only managed to salvage his marriage because a divorce would have been too co tly,

There was also a condition–Kian was no longer allowed to enter the Morris residence, as Jennifer refused to see him. It would only remind her of Duncan’s infidelity if she saw him.

Upon knowing that Kian was starting a business, the Tunts targeted him to no end, making it hard for him to survive in the business world.

Kian did not harbor any resentment toward Jennifer and his brothers. Even though his brothers did not interact with him, they never targeted him.

Sometimes, Yohan would even help him out behind the scenes. He knew that his company wouldn’t have survived without Yohan’s help.

Duncan, on the other hand, showed very little paternal love and never helped him out. Instead, he was afraid that Kian would appear in front of Yohan and challenge him for the family inheritance.

Kian refused to do so. He wanted to earn and spend his own money on his own accord.

So what if the Morris family was the wealthiest family in Donford City? That has nothing to do with him. WwW.NoVêlWorm.Com

Kian was born the fourth among the Morris brothers, yet he was never considered the fourth son of the Morris family.
