125 Alex vs Edmund 2

"Elemental Sanguin Sword Art. Elemental Eighth Slash"

Alex released another sword wave, and its power is the same as Edmund's sword strike. Both of the sword strike clashed each other and destroy each other. Because of their clash, another shockwave vibrate the battlefield. This time, even the demon side felt this shockwave.

In the demon headquarters. They are in a meeting before suddenly a powerful shockwave vibrates the battlefield.

The demons immediately stood up.

"What is that?" The demon that Alex met back then stood up and ask. The current demon king, Zhar Dias Volmion 77th

"We don't know, young lord" The one who answered him is the one who saves Alex when he fought a rank 7 centipede. "Immediately send the scout"

Not long after, a messenger came in, "Report. There is a big fight in the Human's camp. It seems they are fighting among themselves"

"Good work" Zhar said. The old man beside him suddenly said, "Young lord. Now that there is infighting among the human. It is the best time for us to attack them. We can finish them off in a single sweep"

Zhar pondered for a moment, he recalled a youth that saves him back in Sagur Forest. 'It seems that you are too late' he thought. He stood up, "Alright. Now is the best time for us to finish those humans. We will attack now"

"Yes"

In three minutes, all the demon soldiers have gathered and ready to fight. "All soldiers, hear me. The humans are fighting among themselves, It's the best time for us to finish them off in a single sweep. We will destroy the human now. All troops Charge"

"Uoooo! Kill the HUMAN!"

The demons start marching toward the Humans side. Not long after, they see the human encampment.

"Milord, The human encampment is in sight"

"All troops, Charge!"

"Uooo"

But, just when they are about to charge. There are more than twenty figures that suddenly appeared in front of them.

The demons were shocked. They should not able to appear here. After all, they face a very big problem. But to see that they suddenly appear in front of them...

"Why are you Demi-humans appear in here?" One of the generals of the Demon race suddenly appear in front of them and ask.

"We just want to stop this war." The Elven Queen with her peerless beauty suddenly walked gracefully to the front and said.

"Hmph. You want to stop this war? What a joke. This is the best time to finish the humans. Move aside!"

"Is that so? We can only stop you here" The Elven Queen lead the other four along with their rank 7 commanders to stop the demon. They released their mana signaling they are ready to fight. they are in a standstill. The demon can't recklessly fight those demi-humans, because they recognize all of the face present. They are the Five Race Leaders.

In the meantime, Alex continues his clash with Edmund. Now he broke through. He starts to gain the upper hand.

"How...how can you get stronger?" Edmund was startled with his improvement. He didn't know that Alex had a breakthrough. But he knows that Alex's become far stronger.

He starting to get suppressed by Alex. He is unwilling. There is only one more way for him. The dark flame suddenly gushed out from his body and enveloped him.

'Is he trying to do something?' Alex frowned, "I won't let you! Fire Phoenix Art. First Stage. Phoenix Summon"

Alex shot another fire phoenix toward Edmund.

"Boom!" The crowds were anxious, especially those from Zircodina. Edmund take those attack head-on

When the smoke cleared. They can see a figure standing on the ground. There is no wound in his body. Instead, his appearance has changed. His hands become pitch black, his white eyes become black and his black eyes become bloodshot. His appearance becomes like a devil. "Hahaha! I never thought that I need to use my last resource. After using this technique, I will die. But I will drag all of the people here, along with those demi-humans and demons with me."

Edmund walks slowly. "Do you think that I only fed those people in three towns. NO! I already feast another ten towns. Taste this power! Zircodina Imperial Sword Style. Last Strike. Ultima"

Alex frowned, he used his previous move to counter this attack. "Elemental Sanguin Sword Art. Elemental Eight Slash!"

The two sword waves clashed again and the battlefield vibrates once more. But this time, Alex's sword wave suddenly got sliced by Edmund's Strike. The sword strike continue flying toward Alex.

"I can't dodge. Sh*t" Alex can't dodge this attack. "Flame Armor!"

"Wuu! (Flame Armor!)" Sherry adds another layer of Flame Armor.

"BOOM!"

Everyone can see. After that clash, they saw a big cut wound on Alex's body. Everyone from Zircodina cheers, especially John, 'Just Die! This is not your era, I will make sure to make your woman die the cruelest death'

"Cough!" Alex spat out blood. He is bleeding. He immediately took out a few pills and swallow it. But the wound still not closed.

Dean Marco, Draco, and Leyfon disappeared, they want to help him. But suddenly, The rank 8 from Zircodina and Holy kingdom get in their way.

"Move!" Marco was angered.

"Over my dead body"

They started their fight too.

Meanwhile, Alex was in thought. Now that his body experienced it. He can feel the attack. It's not because its power is stronger than his sword wave that it managed to slice his Elemental Sword Wave. There is another thing that he felt missing from his Sword Wave. It wasn't an element, power, or speed. Alex came to a realization. "Sword Intent!"

"That sword strike just now contained sword intent. Sending a sword intent flying with a sword strike." That's right, he never thought of combining his sword intent with his sword wave. He will practice his sword intent too after this, but for now, there is an enemy in front of him that he needs to kill first. 'But can I combine it now? No! that's not it. to kill him, I will combine it now!'

"But how can I hit him with that even if I can combine it? I have used my all" Alex desperately search for a way to defeat Edmund.

"Wuu(Master)"

Sherry's voice came to his mind, she called him 'Master' and because of it, Alex came to a realization, "That's right, Master! I still have another identity"

Alex swallowed a few more pills, but the cut wound still hasn't closed. Edmund charged toward him "Die!"

They begin their clash again. Alex stored his spear and face Edmund with his sword alone. "Haha, you abandon your spear"

Edmund thought that Alex has given up. He thought he will win this fight. Alex didn't fly. He continues fighting Edmund in the ground. It makes Edmund sure that he is only buying time, it is only a matter of time before he exhausted and die. With blood continue seeping out from his wound. Alex occasionally takes a pill.

They fought for another hundred rounds before suddenly Alex stop and coughed blood. Edmund also stops, he laughed "Haha, I give you one last chance. I will plant a curse in you and you will give your eternal loyalty to my Zircodina Kingdom. You can marry my granddaughter Rieze if you want"

Alex smirked, "Is that so? You need to have the ability to kill me first"

"Hmph, you don't even realize your own condition"

"Who is the one who didn't realize their own situation?" Alex smiled, he raised his hand, "Body Chain Array. Activate!"

Suddenly, there is a bright glow from the ground. If they inspect it closely, the glow comes from the Blood that continues seeping out from Alex's body and splattered on the ground. When Alex swallowed pills occasionally, it wasn't a healing pill, instead, it was the Blood Replenishing Pill. He continues to replenish his blood. If he used the monster's blood. Edmund will realize his unusual action, but if he used his own blood. He moved around while fighting Edmund was to draw this array on the ground with his blood. Then he baited him to the center of this array before he takes a few steps back and spat some blood to make him think that he almost died, Edmund will drop his guard if that happens. And now is the best chance to use it.

The array was glowing as a few chains appeared from the ground and bind Edmund.

Alex covered his sword with his sword intent. He will imbue his sword strike with sword intent. He raised his sword carefully. A tyrannical sword wave starting to fuse with his flame. With that, he knows, this is the best chance he gets. With the sword intent fused with his flame, there seems to be a connection to the sword, because of the sword intent, the sword giving its strength to this attack, It was like a new gate for Alex, he finally grasped how to use this sword properly. Before he just using its sharpness, but now, he used the sword full strength. He swung his sword down.

"Sanguin Sword Art. Ninth Slash"

A powerful sword wave made its way toward Edmund.

"Haha, you think that these chains can hold me down? You are wrong? Even I can't move from my position, I can still move my hands and feet. Take this! Zircodina Imperial Sword Style. Last Strike. Ultima"

The two sword waves clashed again.

"That was the purpose of that. I need to make sure that you can't move from that position. As for your strike... That won't be necessary anymore"

"What do you me..." Before he finished his words, He saw his sword strike got cut by Alex's sword wave. Alex's sword wave continue flying on his way. He struggled to escape from the chain but to no avail. He raises his sword to block Alex's sword wave. But sadly, with the addition of his sword intent. His sword immediately split to two and he is too, split into two.

Alex didn't stop, he immediately disappeared.

Dean Marco still fighting those guys from the Holy Kingdom and Zircodina, they haven't realized that Edmund had been killed. Suddenly Alex appeared between them, He swung his sword to the current rank 8 Marshall from Zircodina.

"What?" He was startled, instinctively used his sword to block it. But unfortunately, Unlike Edmund, he blocks Alex's sword in a hard way, because of that, Alex's sword sliced his sword along with his hand like a tofu. Another rank 8 died, he underestimated Alex and Edmund's power in that fight.

"Alex!" All of them were surprised, but the Dean was very happy at this moment. With his appearance, he immediately confirm Edmund's death and shouted. "Zircodina Previous King, Edmund had been slain by Alexander Sirius!"

"Uooo!" The soldiers from Acacia Kingdom immediately roared.

"Let's stop here!" Alex said

Zircodina Previous Marshall along with the pope and his paladin were dumbfounded. The Previous Marshall immediately looked toward Edmund's direction but only to see a pair of his body on the ground lifelessly. The pope was shocked too, But now they were in cahoots, he sweatdropped. The youth in front of him can kill rank 9 warrior. That means...

On the other hand, the paladin beside the pope spoke. "Even though he can kill him, he now severely injured and can't do another surprise attacks, I will kill him right now!"

As he said that he charged toward Alex. But the same as the previous one, he underestimated Alex too much. Alex sliced his sword easily and behead his head. Another rank 8 paladin now died in his hand. Alex pointed his sword to Zircodina Previous Marshall and the Pope. "Who wants to fight me again?"

Those two can't speak at all. Alex continued, "If you think that you can kill me because this wound, then it's easy"

Alex swallowed a few pills, this time it was the healing pills, not Blood Replenishing Pill. His wound started closing with the speed visible with naked eyes. Those two dumbfounded, while there is a sly grin on Dean Marco's mouth. He immediately went to Alex and took out his pouches.

"That's right! Who wants to fight? Here take this Alex, I still have many pills" The shameless old fox said all his pieces.

Alex shook his head and gave those two cold gaze.

"Zircodina...surrender"

"Holy Kingdom surrender" Seeing that Zircodina previous king died and Alex healing his wound, he knew there is no other way beside surrender to him.

"But... There is still something I need to do" Alex disappeared. The dean knew what he wanted to do, he also disappeared, he wanted to watch his student finally free from his past from up close.

The moment he appeared he already in front of John. Everybody was startled, especially John.

"You- You Bastard! You are the one who ruined my future. If you are not here. You are only the one who got dragged to this world. You are just a mob. While I am a Hero!" John was desperate.

"Yes. You are a Hero" Alex said nonchalantly, "But your 'Hero' should be written 'HEro' instead of 'Hero'"

"What do...You!" Before he finished his words, John suddenly understood his meaning.

"Oh, as expected of a lustful 'hero'. You know what I mean" Alex mock him.

The dean looked at him with a confused face. His curiosity got the best of him, He can't help but ask him "What do you mean about 'HEro'?"

"Teacher know about me come from a different world, right?"

The dean nodded.

"In my previous world. There is a meaning if I separate them"

"You mean to separate them to 'H' and 'Ero'?"

"Yes"

"But, what exactly they mean?"

"the former mean perverted things and the latter mean Lewd things"

"But, aren't they the same thing?" The dean was confused.

"That's exactly the reason. 'Lewd+Perverted=Lustful Hero' that is the meaning" Alex giggled.

"Pfft" Dean Marco can't help but laugh loudly. "Bahaha... HEro, Hahaha... I have learned. Maybe later, we don't need a 'hero'. What we need is something else. If not, we might need to keep our daughter inside our house"

"You!" The hero was angered to death. He raised his sword. Alex kicks his ball. Because of that kick, the hero crutch on the floor in pain.

"Hmm, even though it wasn't there anymore, it still hurt huh..." Alex said casually. Alex grabs John's head. Not long after, many symbols appeared on his face. "You love sex, right? I will give it to you before your death"

John suddenly didn't let out a sound. One minute...Two minutes... After three minutes, suddenly foam start appearing from his mouth. Not long after, he died.

"Alex, what did you do?"

"I just fulfill his wish. Since he loves sex. I give him what he wants before he died"

"Ho... That is your mouth spouting a vague reason. The detail, please..." The dean said. He was curious about what Alex did just now.
