225 Announcemen

"I assume all of you have seen something odd about Seven Stars Cut. Regarding that, I will explain that to all of you."

The sect master paused a bit, but even so, no one dared to speak a single word. They were not scared, but because they were very curious about it and dying to know something about it. They gulped down.

"But first, I want to give a big thanks for Alexander Sirius, who managed to unravel the secret of Seven Stars Cut" He said. Then he turned to Alexander Sirius, "On behalf of the entire Heavenly Sword Sect, thank you."

"You might have speculated this the moment you saw the power difference between a single layer Seven Stars Cut and multiple layers Seven Stars Cut. Let's take a look at the first exchange about these two Seven Stars Cuts. When Disciple Evelyn used a single layer Seven Stars Cut but managed to cut Disciple Nina five layers Seven Stars Cut.

The truth is, we, including myself, never know that the Seven Stars Cut we used in our daily life is not the real Seven Stars Cut. That might be the reason why our Seven Stars Cut became only an Earth Tier Martial Arts. Thanks to this little friend Alex. The genuine Seven Stars Cut finally sees the light again.

That's why, on this occasion, I want to announce to you. The true and only Heaven Tier Martial Art finally come back to our sect. With this Special Occasion, I will elevate the status of Alexander Sirius to Special Core Disciple.

He will receive the benefit of Core Disciple while he doesn't need to do the duty of Core Disciple. We have decided to give him this special status to thank him for his contribution. And also take this as a warning. The sect will protect him. Whether you are this sect disciples or not. If you try anything funny toward him, then don't blame this Sect Master to be impolite."

He let out a killing intent, and everyone can see that the sect master was dead serious. They gulped down. Everyone except one person. That's right, it was Abram. After getting trashed by Alex, he was dying to pay back. Even though he was a former young master because his uncle stole the position of his father as the lord of Jalagonia Family, one of the prominent families in Zhou Kingdom.

He might not be able to touch him in the sect. But, he can kill him outside the sect. As long as he did not leave any trace about it, the sect master will not know about it.

"As long as you get it, you can rest assured. Now, I also can use the real Seven Stars Cut. On this joyous occasion, I want to tell you that I will make a special class concerning this Seven Stars Cut. So, if you want to learn the genuine Seven Stars Cut, you can come to the special field beside Cultivation Pavilion.

I will personally teach that class. So, whether you are Outer Disciple, Inner Disciple, Core Disciple, or even Elders. If you want to learn this powerful Heaven Tier Sword Art, please come to the field."

*Cheers*

Everybody cheered, especially for those who were a sword user. After all, to learn the only Heaven Tier Sword Art in the sect and the sect master himself will personally teach them. It was a perfect chance for them to learn a Heaven Tier Martial Arts and impress the sect master with their skill. If they managed to impress the sect master, they might be able to become his disciple.

"Unfortunately..." The sect master said with a bit sad tone. The disciples suddenly quiet down. They looked at the sect master seriously.

"There is a requirement for this Heaven Tier Sword Art. The requirement for this Seven Stars Cut is you need to reach the level where you can send your Sword Intent flying. So, for this class, we will only accept those who managed to do that."

With that requirement, most of the disciples suddenly became quiet and disappointed. All of the outer disciples immediately disappointed, and most of Inner Disciple too. There were three classifications for Inner Disciple. Those who were a low rank Martial Grandmaster, usually can not do that. Most of the High Rank Martial Grandmaster can do that. They were the true Inner Disciple. And the last classification was for those who were the genius among genius. They had reached a Weapon Grandmaster realm, whether they were a Sword Grandmaster or Spear Grandmaster, all of them can make a Domain with their intent. All of them were the peak of Inner Disciple.

But, they regained their composure after they heard what the sect master said next.

"Of course, this is not permanent. After all, with this new system, we do not have enough people to understand the principle of this Seven Stars Cut. We also have the target in the Continent Grand Tournament. With that in mind, we will focus on teaching and cultivating those than can use Seven Stars Cut.

After the tournament, this class will remain, and those who have not reached the requirement can spend their point in exchange for this class. I'm sure you will be able to improve by leaps and bounds in this class."

*Cheers*

Two years were not long for Cultivator. They could understand with the rush for Continent Grand Tournament as it was a very crucial tournament for the sect.

"Long Live Sect Master"

"Long Live Heavenly Sword Sect"

"Long Live Sect Master!"

"Long Live Alexander Sirius"

"Kyaa!"

"Long Live Big Brother Alex!"

"Big Brother Alex"

"Big Brother Alex, please teach me."

"Big Brother Alex, I can warm your bed if you personally teach me."

Charya grabbed Alex and Evelyn and disappeared. There was nothing to do here anymore since they had received their reward. Seeing their master left, Song Yu and Putri left to meet her. Tenth Elder also grabbed Lena and brought her to Tenth Peak.

"Hehe, Big Brother Alex has become popular" Song Yu teased him again.

"Hihi, Big Brother Alex" Evelyn giggled.

"Gahaha, joke aside, you two have won the tournament. You two need to get the reward." Charya looked at Evelyn and Alex and said.

"Why don't Song Yu and Putri accompany you two exchange the reward?" Charya said again.

"I don't mind, though" Song Yu said while Putri nodded her head.

"I...Can I check my elder sister first?" Evelyn asked.

All of them looked at her. Charya pondered a bit and nodded. "Sure, Putri, you will go with her. Just present them my token."

Putri nodded, then to Evelyn, "Let's go."

"Un" Evelyn nodded and waved her hands to Alex and Song Yu, "Big Brother Alex, Big Sister Song Yu, see you later."

After that, Charya decided to go back, saying she was tired and leaving Song Yu and Alex here. They looked at each other and sighed as they accustomed to this personality of her. She always did everything at her own pace.

"So, what are you going to do? If you want to exchange the reward, I can go with you."

"I will go to Martial Arts Pavilion first." Alex decided to exchange his reward. He didn't reject Song Yu because he wanted to discuss business with Song Yu. After all, it was not wrong to make money in case he needs it. He also wanted to test Song Yu as the daughter from a merchant family.

According to Song Yu. In her continent, the alchemist guild didn't sell the raw materials. Only in this continent, the alchemist guild did that. It was because of Mount Hua Sect. He didn't know the detail about it, though. But, on other continents, you can sell pills through them, but you can't buy materials from them as they didn't have that service.

Merchant Family was the one who usually gave that service. Alchemist and Forging Master bought the necessary material from them.

If Alex had gotten used to making transactions with Song Yu, it would be beneficial for himself when he went there. At least, he would be familiar with the Blackwade family's style of transaction.

With that, they went to the Martial Arts Pavilion. Just like the previous time he went here, Song Yu decided to wait for him outside. She will not interfere with his decision in his Sword Art. After all, ability wise, his skill alone was enough to beat her.

Alex entered the Martial Arts Pavilion again. He didn't enter this place again after he got 'Bear Sovereign' from this place. He gave the jade token to the elder in front. He looked at the unfamiliar elder. It seems that the elder had changed.

When the elder saw the token, he was shocked. He immediately looked at the owner and found that the holder was an 8-Star Martial Master.

He was confused. He knew that this Jade Token was for the winner of the competition that ended today. To think that the winner was only an 8-Star Martial Master, he was bewildered. He was thinking, 'Is our sect's strength has regressed? To think that the winner only an 8-Star Martial Master'

He sighed, but the token was absolute. He said to Alex, "you can get a Martial inside. The time limit is two hours."

Alex nodded. He entered immediately to the Earth Tier section. Since today was the tournament day with the Sect Master hog all the attention of the disciples. He only saw a single disciple inside the Martial Arts Pavilion. He chose to ignore him.

Alex didn't need a Spear Art or a Sword Art. But Alex had something in his mind. He wanted Fire Art. He had thought about it, he had many Spear Arts, he also had many Sword Arts. But the only Fire Art he had was his 'Fire Phoenix Art' that Maxwell gave him. He usually used his Firebirds with only a flame manipulation.

He took advantage of his Pure Fire Element's prowess for that. If he encountered another Fire Element that equal or a bit lower than his level. Those firebirds will be obliterated by their fire art. He had consulted this to Maxwell back then. But because his main focus was his Spear and Sword. He neglected this side for a while.

Maxwell portrayed Fire Elements as the kingdom. Pure Fire element was the king of the kingdom, he said. But, just like the ranks for nobility. There were many types of flames that equal to Grand Duke to Baron. He took Sacrificial Flame in Firia as the example, it was a Prince while the Spirit Beast that rule the fire, like Sherry, was a Grand Duke.

Although the king, or the absolute flame, was the ruler. The Grand Duke, Duke, or even Marquis ranked flame might have the power of rebellion and usurp the throne. In other words, at certain conditions, the Pure Fire Element might lose to them. That's why Alex decided to get a Fire Art now that he had a nice line up for his Sword or his Spear Arts.

Alex saw several names for Earth Tier Flame Arts, such as, 'Sunlight Wing' or 'Ember of the Ocean' and so on. But suddenly, he noticed something odd. There was a single rack that contained only a single book that had been covered with dust. He looked at the title.

'Space Plate'

He was alarmed. He noticed the arrangement of the racks in here. After looking for a while, he knew that the books had been arranged by their element. He was shocked to see Space Element Art. He checked it first since this place only had three people in it. Him, one other disciple, and the elders that guarded the front. No one will see him.

'What is space? Space is our surroundings. They are called space. But, the real space is hidden between our reality. Normal people can only perceive the real world. But the one who holds a Space Element can see, go through, or even controlled the space within space, the world behind the reality. This art called Space Plate. We make a hard plate within that illusory world, the example is a space ring.

How a space element Array Master make a space ring? They make an illusory world by using the ring as the medium. Of course, the ring must be forged by a Spatial Stone. They used the array and drew it on the ring as the portal connecting this imaginary world to the real world. That is the actual process of making a space ring. A hundred thousand years ago, many Space Element Array Master used this opportunity to amass money. That's why, in our present world, we never have a difficulty to get a Space Ring.'
