

Gacha 355

355 Alex Vs Charya

In a big room, a man was hugging a woman with his strong arm.

The night was still long, but the woman could only a burning passion that might not even disappear after the long night. The man had golden hair, with a handsome face that could charm many girls. He did not wear any top, showing his perfect body.

The woman had long black hair, reaching to her back. Her charming face was red like a tomato as she was too embarrassed to even look into his eyes. She had a graceful body, but she knew she just started growing. And her body would become a seductive sooner or later.

The man raised her chin with his hand. Their faces were so close that they almost kissed each other. The woman tried to turn away, but the man did not let her.

He put her on the bed gently. She tried to fight back, but in her heart, she also wanted this. The man finally put his face close to her, trying to kiss her.

Her heart started beating very fast, she did not know if she was nervous or anticipated this, but she said while trying to get up from the bed. "Big brother Alex... no, we can't."

When she did that, she suddenly woke up in a familiar room. It was her room in Alex's house.

After realizing that she had come back, especially to Alex's house, she immediately looked around.

"Fuu..." She swept the sweat on her forehead after she felt relieved when she saw no one in the room.

"So, that is only just a dream..." She let out a sigh of relief, but when she thought about it again, her face became red like a tomato, "Why did I have a dream like that... Ugh... How can I face big brother Alex, later?"

Evelyn put her on her face, trying to hide her red face. She rolled around the bed, trying to forget that dream.

Meanwhile, Alex was visiting Charya.

"Elder Charya, I have a thousand Crystal Skin Pills..." Alex said without any expression.

Charya was sipping her wine when she heard that.

"Cough Cough! What?!"

"I said, I have a thousand Crystal Skin Pills, can the sect buy it?" Alex repeated his words.

"You mean the mid 4th rank Crystal Skin Pills?" Charya asked him again.

"Yes. All of them are Perfect Purity Pills."

Charya looked at him, dumbfounded. She remembered that she wanted to buy his Tempered Muscle Pill, but Alex decided to stop refining it, so she gave up. But it was just a few months ago, and Alex just said he wanted to sell a thousand Crystal Skin Pills, which had a whole different realm from the Tempered Muscle Pill.

She forgot Alex was a monster that should not have been judged by a human standard. Especially when he said all of them were Perfect Purity Pills.

She remembered Song Yu said Alex could easily make a Perfect Purity Pill, so all of his pills were like that. It would then cost them higher than they expected. But, on the other hand, the pills were precious.

"Wait... If you sell it, then you must have used it yourself. How high is your strength?" Charya asked.

Alex pondered a little bit before shaking his head. He did not know his current strength. "If I use everything, I should be able to release 4 dragon strength. But that was when I was in the tournament. I don't know how strong my strength is right now."

"Well, we will talk about that later since I also have something to inform you. But first, about this transaction... I am sure the sect can take it. How about the price?"

"20,000 Spirit Stones would be fine since it is the price that the Alchemist Guild gave me."

"Sure, I will pass it to the Sect Master." Charya nodded.

Alex gave her the space ring. Charya was surprised that Alex just gave it to her easily since she only promised him. It also showed that he trusted her.

Charya nodded her head. With these pills, their sect could get stronger overall. "How about we test your strength first?"

Alex did not have any objections since he was also curious about his current strength. He followed her to the previous room, where he tested his strength for the first time.

He remembered that Charya's strength was ten dragons. He was wondering how he compared to that. He saw the previous stone where he tested his strength.

"You can punch it anytime."

Alex nodded his head. But before he punched the stone, he looked at Charya, "Elder Charya, you have ten dragon strength, right?"

"Oh, you want to compare your strength with me? My strength was almost nine dragon strength back then, and I have twelve dragon strength right now since each star in Martial Lord Stage could also represent one dragon strength. And I am a 9-Star Martial Lord now."

Alex nodded his head. He took a deep breath before striking the stone with his raw strength alone.

"Boom!"

It had been a while since the last time he used his raw strength alone. He looked at the stone and saw '6213' on it. Charya twitched her eyebrows when she saw that. Even though she had expected this, she was still surprised by the number.

Alex was still a 2-Star Martial Lord. If he were a 9-Star Martial Lord like her, Alex would have 13 dragon strengths. They only had one dragon different, However, Charya knew Alex did not use his Spiritual Energy in the first strike. After all, her 12 dragon strength was with her Spiritual Energy.

"Use your Spiritual Energy."

Alex nodded. He released his Spiritual Energy before throwing another strike.

'9438'

Charya sighed. "Your strength alone is already at Song Yu's level. If you are growing even further, you will have at least 16 dragon strength the moment you reach 9-Star Martial Lord."

Charya also added 'At least' since she knew Alex might not follow the norm.

Alex was wondering if his Immovable Step would double his power since he already had 9 dragon strengths.

"What? Are you not satisfied with your strength?" Charya said as she saw Alex seemed to ponder something while looking at his fist. She thought he must be not satisfied with his strength.

"No." Alex shook his head. "Actually, I can throw a more powerful one, but this stone might break since it can only withstand ten dragon strength..."

"Well, how about we fight once again? You are going to participate in the Grand Tournament, so I think it is good for you to experience our power earlier." Charya suggested.

Alex pondered a little. In the sect, his fighting ability was also a bit restricted until he decided to use all of them together. He could only use his Sword, Spear, and both intents together. He had yet to reveal his Fire Element or Space Element. And there was only a glimmer of people that knew about his Array Master identity.

But he also thought it might be the perfect time to learn about the control of his domain. According to Mithra, he could fight normally if he reached a hundred-meter domain. But she never said he could not start practicing with it earlier.

He wanted to use this opportunity to learn about it. He just hoped that he could reach Sword King before the tournament started. It would increase his chance of defeating the 'scheme' that might happen in the tournament.

Alex agreed to her suggestion as he was also curious about her real power. After all, when he fought her back then, she limited her power to match his power.

"Each sect will have 8 participants for this tournament, totaling 64 people in each tournament. It will be the same whether you are in Grandmaster stage competition or Lord Stage competition. So, the sect decided to make a small competition between the elders since we have already picked the disciples to participate in the Grandmaster stage competition.

"Anyway, I need to tell you about the Grand Tournament first. Since you are going to train Evelyn till the Grand Tournament, the elders are sure she will become one of the biggest contenders in the Grand Tournament. She might reach 9-Star Martial Grandmaster before the Grand Tournament started, and with you teaching her, she should be able to fight 10-Star Martial Grandmaster."

"How about the other participants besides Evelyn?" Alex asked.

"Well, the other Martial Grandmasters that will participate in the Grandmaster stage competition are: Florinda, Yasmin, Anwar Daher, Hanibal, Amazu Agu, Kokonoe Shigure, and Elise."

Alex frowned, he remembered one more person that should have participated in the tournament, "How about that Vicky? He is strong, right?"

"He does not want to participate because there is no Intan," Charya said.

"Oh..." Alex only nodded his head, uninterested. "How about the token for Lord Stage competition?"

"The sect will hold a small competition for that. The top eight will get the token to participate in the Grand Tournament. The requirement is you need to be a Martial Lord."

"Of course, it should be." Alex nodded.

"Yeah, but because of that. We would not have many people since most Martial Lords wouldn't be participating. Even the lowest might have 7-Star Martial Lord cultivation. They will hold the tournament three months before the Grand Tournament. So, are you sure you are going to participate?" Charya asked, a bit worried. After all, she felt Alex had been advancing far too fast. She got a bit worried about his future.

Alex also knew she was worried about her expression. He nodded with a smile, "Don't worry about me. I am not rushing or something."

"Well, if you say that, then it is okay." Charya nodded.

"How about the tournament, what kind of tournament will we do, or how can I participate?"

"I will ask for a quota for you. But if my prediction is correct, the number of people that will participate won't be more than 30."

"I see. That will be assuring." Alex nodded his head.

"Anyway, we would not know about it until we got all the participants. I will inform you about it later." Charya said.

"I will leave it to you." Alex nodded.

"Then, since we have finished our business. Should we fight now?"

"Sure, but where?"

"Well, we certainly don't want to let others see our fight. So, we will move a bit farther away. I think the forest beside Heavenly Sword Sect should be good enough. We just need to get a bit deeper."

Alex thought a little bit before nodding his head. "I don't have any problem with it."

"Then, let's go."

Alex then left the house with Charya. They did not fly too far since they were going to fight in a forest beside Heavenly Sword Town. And the fight would not be too long. After all, they did not want others to see their fight so they could see their technique. They would be at a disadvantage if it were like that.

Alex was separated from Charya around fifty meters. Charya took out her sword and released her sword domain. The edge of her domain was an inch away from Alex. She said, "Don't need to hold back. Use all of your power."

Alex nodded as he took out his Spear and Sword. "I am sorry, but I can only fight with a bit of restriction. After all, I still can't release everything to the outside world like my Array. However, even though I can only fight you with my sword and spear, I am not planning to lose."

Charya knew about Alex's Array Master since she was one of the people that did not have their memories sealed by Maxwell. She nodded. "Then, show me all you got!"

Alex nodded as he released his domains. When he released his domains, Charya could feel the domains. In other words, the domain had reached her position. She looked at the extent of his domains and realized that his domains were both fifty meters.

She could not help but smirk as she once again realized how monstrous Alex's talent was.

"Start!"
