447 OP Little Girl

"Yeah, you should do that." The grand duke nodded.

"By the way, what happened to Father-in-law? You seem troubled." Alex asked, noticing his troubled expression earlier in front of the mansion.

"This..." The grand duke did not want to involve Alex about this, but he decided to tell the whole story after Alex urged him.

It seemed that after he left, many things happened in this world. The first one would be the conflict in the Holy Kingdom. The people there had a conflict whether choosing to follow their previous God or Alex as they had seen him becoming God with their own eyes. Their religion was shaken at that time, and ultimately, it became two religions.

Alex made a weird expression when he heard this. He never expected his action could make a religion.

The second would be the rebellion of Zircodina Kingdom. Because of the loss of its king as well as the deeds of their former king, the kingdom turned into chaos. They were trying to end the bloodline of Zircodina Kingdom's royal family as they were cursed by taking so many lives. After a year of battle, it seemed Rize, who was backed by the only rank 8 warrior AKA, her teacher, finally emerged victorious.

She started restoring the lands and stabilized the whole kingdom. And rule in a way better than her father or grandfather. The people slowly accepted her with their hearts.

As for his former friends, Maria replaced the pope from his position last year. Meanwhile, Sandra became an ordinary nun, away from the problems of the mundane world. It seemed that after experiencing so much, she also had traumatic experiences with males whether it was a scary experience or regret because of Alex.

The demihuman was building a statue for him in their council under the order of the Elven Queen. However, after watching his deeds, the other races also did not have a problem with that.

Last but not least, the demon did not have any movement for the past few years.

After listening to the whole story, Alex still could not find the problem. "So, what is the problem?"

"The problem is..."

*Bang!* Before he could explain it, the door was slammed open.

Alexa finally came back to the room and clung to Alex once again, begging for a present. Alex just hid his feelings for the time being and played with Alexa.

He did not know what to give Alexa. He had weapons, but it was too early for her. He had Martial Arts, but it was too strong for her. He wanted to give Mastery Card but did not know her preferred weapon. So, Alex was utterly clueless about what to give her. Until at one moment where he decided to activate his Spirit Eyes.

He could see the element that resided inside her body like what he did to Rose. He saw Wind Element inside her body and remembered something. It was a staff where they used a wind gem as the head.

He then broke the staff and grabbed the wind gem. It was an instant process as he used his Intent to separate it. The wind gem was not harmful to her body and was good to use at an early stage. The example was Putri. Putri used almost a month to fuse with the Wind Gem. It was because she had too much power in her body to be fused with the wind gem. However, Alexa was different. She would not need to wait for so long as her wind power was only a minuscule and was not awakened yet. This way, the gem would strengthen it as well as awaken it.

"Look, I have this for you." A green transparent gem suddenly appeared on Alex's hand.

"Wha-! How beautiful..." Alexa was fascinated by the gem. She tried to grab it. Although it was only a small gem on Alex's hand, she needed both of her hands to pick it up.

"Well, there is a trick for this little gem, but Uncle will show you later." He smiled.

Alexa was so happy with the gift from Alex. She showed it to everyone in the room.

"I will ask about it later," Alex said to the grand duke.

He nodded his head. "Since I will talk about it later, how about staying here for the night rather than in your mansion? They are still in perfect condition though."

"Well, I bought the mansion for a while, so with Firia ascended, I don't think I have any need for it," Alex said.

"Indeed. Well, it is more like a landmark where the Fire God lived when he was a human." He said. "We have guest rooms ready, so you can just choose one of them. I don't need to lead you, right?"

Alex smiled and shook his head.

"Uncle, what is the trick?" Alexa was curious about the trick as one would expect from a kid.

"Alright, how about you follow Uncle? I will teach you the trick." He said.

"Uhn!" Alexa nodded her head. Alex then took her to the guest room, where he would stay the night.

Everyone looked at Lea and Louis with a weird expression. Even though they were her parents, it seemed she was more attached to Alex.

"Alex is her idol, after all. Besides, he does not have much time and will only be here for a few days. Just let it be, I guess." Lea explained.

Louis suddenly felt relieved as he felt his daughter would be snatched by Alex.

(AN: And it will become a romance novel with her uncle... Lol, jk.)

Meanwhile, after arriving in a room. Alex put down Alexa on the bed.

"Sit on the bed and close your eyes." He said. "Don't open it before your uncle says it is okay."

She nodded repeatedly and closed her eyes.

Alex channeled his spiritual energy and had the energy from the wind gem moved toward her body.

"Uncle, what is this? I feel my body become warmer."

"Not yet, don't open it yet," Alex said. He looked at the power inside the wind gem almost completely moved to her body. The process did not take too long as it would only increase her wind element.

After one minute, the fusion finally finished, and the wind gem disappeared. He then said, "Alright, open your eyes."

She slowly opened her eyes and was confused. She did not see anything, even the wind gem. "Uncle?"

"How do you feel?"

She pondered for a moment before saying, "I don't know. I just feel a gust of wind around my body, and it feels warm."

"Is this the trick? Where is that shiny thing?" She asked.

Alex was wondering how to explain this to her. He remembered something. "Can you take your Status Card out?"

He remembered that every child had a status card. He wanted to check it first.

"Uhn... Mother has taught me how to do it." She nodded and closed her eyes again. Not long after that, a status card appeared on her hands. Alex was startled when he saw her status card.

Name: Alexa Van Rizertia

Job: Wind Empress ( A Person Love by the Wind)

Rank : 0

Level: 1

STR: 20

AGI: 67

VIT: 41

DEX: 34

INT: 999+

"..." Alex was speechless by her status.

[Host...]

Even the system did not know what to say. Alex made a troubled expression as he murmured, "Did I just make an OP little girl in this world?"

[This power can be a calamity or something else.]

"I know." Alex nodded with a serious expression. Just by looking at the INT, he could conclude that he did it too far.

"Uncle, is this my status? The first time I saw mine is not like this." Alexa said while looking at Alex.

He then kneeled in front of her while placing his hands on her shoulders. He said with a serious expression. "Alexa, can you promise uncle something?"

"Uhn."

"Can you promise me that you will use your power to protect your family, not to hurt other people? And keep this secret to your parents and grandparents okay as this will be our little secret, okay?"

"Uhn." She nodded innocently.

"If you break this promise, then uncle will be mad and spank you," Alex said.

"Uh...uhn..." She nodded again and again. "Uncle, can I see yours... I am curious."

"Mine?" Alex pondered for a moment before taking out his status card.

Name: Alexander Sirius

Job: Error

Rank: Error

Level: Error

STR: Error

AGI: Error

VIT: Error

DEX: Error

INT: Error

"Uncle, what does this mean?"

"It means Uncle is strong enough that even the status card can't measure your uncle's power. That's why if you break your promise, Uncle will come again and punish you." Alex warned her again.

"Uh... Alexa does not want Uncle to hate her, so Alexa will not break the promise."

"Good." Alex patted her head again.

"Then, can Uncle sleep together with Alexa? Uncle is going away again, right?"

"Yeah. In two or three days." Alex nodded.

"I always dream of meeting uncle, so can I..." Alexa glanced at him, afraid he would reject her.

"Sure." Alex smiled.

"Yay!"

Alex waited for her to fall asleep before going out of his room and met the grand duke. Surprisingly, Mia was there.

"What is this all about?" Alex asked.

"You remember the power that took the lives of thousands of people? The power that Zircodina's former king had."

"Yes." Alex nodded. "I have eliminated the source of that power."

"Actually, you had indeed destroyed the source of that power. However, there was one that managed to escape. It turned out that the old king received his power from someone."

"From someone?"

"Yes. He had been hiding this entire time. Unlike the old king, he used his power to absorb the monsters' power inside the dungeon. This way, he managed to escape from us and finally haunted us again." He said, ashamed.

"I see. I thought that I had destroyed all the things that were related to it. It had given my master and me a headache. Well, what about him? I should end this once for all." Alex said.

"He... he has captured the Zircodina Kingdom as well as its queen. He is also trying to grab the pope. And lastly, he would take Mia from us and marry all of them at the same time before ruling the world." He said. Mia bit her lips when she heard that.

"Is my name not enough to protect the kingdom?"

"Just like the religion thing, some believe you and some don't. He belongs to the latter, and he believes you won't show up as even Alicia and Firia have disappeared. That's why he became so brazen. He has come to this city and demanded her, not in an equal way, but as an act of submission." He said.

Alex was astonished to hear that.

"I don't want to involve you in this matter..."

"It's alright. That power alone is already pulling me inside. So, I think I will go toward him." Alex nodded.

"Well, I have a plan for sightseeing tomorrow with Alexa about the statues of me and the others in the academy as well as visiting my teacher's grave... maybe I will do it tonight. After that, Zircodina has something that piques my interest, so I will go there tomorrow. I will then go back the day after, I guess."

"She seems to be attached to you." The grand duke finally smiled.

"Haha... Well, I can only be here for one more day, so let her be." Alex said. He just hoped that this father-in-law did not find out about her power so soon.

"Indeed. Anyway, are you going to visit your teacher now?" He asked.

Alex nodded before glancing at Mia, "Everything is going to be alright."

"I... Thank you..." Mia could only utter her thanks.

"Well, if you are grateful to me, can you give these letters to the king? Unlike this family, it will be a huge mess if I appear there."

He gave two letters to Mia and left to his teacher's grave, leaving them speechless.
