

Gacha 509

509 Book of Culture

"Young Lady!"

The shout could not enter her ears as she fell down on her knees. Her face turned pale and muttered. "Poison... I should know if he was directing me to Joyful Union Sect's young master, he should already consummate with a female... And I never thought the female was also in this group."

"Young Lady!"

"This is a rank 7 poison... Eating Poison Pill. It will melt all my organs if it is spread... How can she have rank 7 poison."

Before ordering them, she saw Alex taking the woman's and Andre's space rings. He was checking if they had an antidote or not.

Unfortunately, after a few seconds passed, Alex could only shake his head in disappointment. He did not find any Rank 7 except the remnant of poison, which he took out and burned.

"I see. It's a shame." Her body dropped to the ground. Although she was supporting it with her hands, it was a matter of time for her to die.

Putri also fell to her knees, shocked by this incident.

Alex looked down, weighing something in his mind. He activated his Spirit Eyes, looking at poison in her body. It would seem she was still holding the poison back, preventing it from spreading. With her current state, half an hour would be the longest she could hold.

He waved his hand, raising Song Jia to the air. "I can heal her, so leave her to me for a few minutes."

"We-" They wanted to hold him back, but Putri quickly stopped them. "My Master surely can! I am sure of it..."

Just like she said, there were two ways to heal her. First was to let Anya tend her injury while the other one was his new Pure Fire. This might sound cold, but Alex wanted to use the second method as he remembered Alicia's matter. From Anya's understanding, it would seem his fire was even stronger than her light element in curing something like this. Anya did not really care about it since it would be a blessing for him to have that power, even if it meant she could only support by increasing his strength or healing his physical or soul injuries, which could not be done by his fire.

They did not know if Alex could heal Alicia's poison back then, but it should be enough to cure this poison.

Alex also released his Spiritual Energy, revealing his Martial Emperor cultivation to scare them. Ultimately, Song Jia added, "It's fine. I trust him. Wait for me."

Seeing no one make a ruckus anymore, he then leaped toward a more closed area and sent a thought transmission to Putri. "Be careful, there might be another enemy."

Putri nodded inwardly, treating all of them as her enemies. Though she did not show in her face, she would not come closer to them.

Alex brought her inside the woods nearby, laying her body on the ground. She looked at Alex with her pale face and asked, "Are you sure you can cure it? This is a Rank 7 poison, originating from rainbow snakes. Even my clan would need to make a meeting for the antidote pill as it is a rare commodity in this continent. I-"

She stopped after looking at Alex's serious face. "I am in your care, I will certainly repay this debt to you."

"Well, I don't really need you to repay me since this is the first time I do this. You can say being my test subject is the payment, so don't think about it," Alex said, assuring her.

She sighed before making a small smile. She muttered, 'This person...'

"Though I need to touch the wound, which is supposed to be in your chest," Alex said with a poker face as he did not really care about touching her chest. He only warned her and did not let her have any objection. Besides, he already saw her naked, so touching like this to heal her should be easily tolerated.

"Do what you want..." She closed her eyes, distracting her thought from what would happen next. She even used a little bit of her Spiritual Energy to open her top, revealing the mountains underneath just to show her willingness to the treatment.

Alex nodded and released the Pure Fire inside his body. Since this was the property of his Pure Fire, there was no way he would use his Phoenix Fire like in the battle.

He placed his finger on the wound, right above her chest, feeling the softness of her breast. Without a single thought in his mind, he planted the Pure Fire and controlled it inside her body.

There were two attributes he was using in his Pure Fire. Firstly would be a fire that would not burn his friend unless he wanted it and the second was Anti poison and curse ability.

The Pure Fire slowly burned the poison bit by bit without letting Song Jia feel the heat. She only felt an ant walking inside her wound, making it a bit ticklish.

His Spirit Eyes showed him that the poison slowly vanished from her body. He indeed needed more Spiritual Energy than he thought, he repelled it nonetheless.

After around three minutes, he finished the treatment, restoring the color on her face. Although she still felt a bit weak, she did not need to use her Spiritual Energy again and opened her eyes.

"I feel... I know the one who sent them to me..." Song Jia said weakly.

"That Joyful Union Young Master... wait, no..." Alex suddenly realized.

"That's right. That bastard's target is to take me as his wife. There is no way that bastard will plot something like this..." She sighed. "It would seem the one who staged this incident is the Eldest Senior Brother from the Fire God Clan, Grimes.

"Andre would be his pawn that infiltrated the Joyful Union Sect. After a certain amount of time, he gained the trust of that bastard and staged this plan under the order of that Grimes.

"Considering how he wanted to take the Blackwade Clan under his name by marrying Elder Sister, he would likely use this plan to eliminate me. This way, with how uncertain the situation would be, the clan might take the initiative to marry her to him. After all, no one would be foolish enough to kill someone under the protection of two first-rate influences." she realized this the second she closed her eyes.

Alex found his name a bit funny. Grimes. If he took the horizontal stroke from his 'G,' he would get Crimes. This Fire God Clan really knew how to liven up someone's name, he joked. Not that he could say his inner thoughts to her.

"I apologize again for involving you in this accident. After you trouble yourself to make your influences hidden, with my group there, I am sure some kind of rumor will be created... unless I eliminate all of them. Unfortunately, I can't under the family rule as I don't have anything to prove they are wrong. And if I abuse my authority, it will bring more trouble."

Song Jia looked at his face and closed her eyes in reminiscence. "You know, the first time I knew you from Elder Sister, I really wanted to challenge you? After all, it was unprecedented to see someone reach your level in less than a year...

"Anyway, I thought I would have a good challenge by the time you reached my level. And after that time, I trained even harder. Before I knew it, Elder Sister had come back home, reaching the same cultivation as me in an instant. Not that I hate it though... After all, I am really proud of her.

"I really want to thank you for giving Elder Sister another hope that will make her come back earlier than planned... as well as giving me some kind of hope for a challenge. Though I might not be your opponent by seeing your domain alone... and now, the feeling to challenge you has disappeared...

"Ah... I should recover my Spiritual Energy instead of talking about this nonsense." She chuckled and stopped talking.

"..." Alex did not know what to say. He just used his Spiritual Energy to close her clothes and said, "You should be able to walk after a few minutes. This is a crucial recovery, so before you restore 10 percent of your energy, don't use any recovery pill. After that, you can ask Putri to carry you back while restoring your Spiritual Energy. You can trust her since she is my disciple."

"Yeah. I will do that." She smiled.

"Anyway, I found this weird book inside their ring earlier..."

Kama Sutra Technique (Male)

Kama Sutra Technique (Female)

"Hmm... I think you should burn that book..." She looked away.

The name of this book really baited him as he remembered this name from Earth. The problem was whether this book really had the same meaning as that book on Earth or not.

Out of curiosity, he opened the first few pages and closed it right away.

"..." Alex simply sighed as the meaning was the same. There were many sex positions in that book and it even provided a detailed explanation, making Alex speechless.

Surprisingly, the system suddenly showed enthusiasm as she said,

[Por- Ahem, Book of Culture has been acquired.]

"..." Alex did not say anything and burned both books without any hesitation.

[Host... You are not a man of culture...]

"Shut up. If you want, I can get it for you later from Joyful Union Sect," He said inwardly.

[I'm kidding. That book could not be compared to my knowledge.]

"Hoo..." Alex just furrowed his eyebrows. "Why don't you change your name from Gacha System to R-18 System?"

[Oh, the mission will become [Sex with a female #1], [Sex with a female #2], and the Gacha Part will give you a woman like a pet or a cauldron, Do you want that?]

"... I'm kidding."

After another five minutes, she finally could stand up and walk. Alex helped her up and carried her to her group before asking Putri to carry her. Seeing the earlier incident, it would be normal for her to not trust her group. She might request a reshuffle after coming back to Blackwade Clan.

On the other hand, Alex set off alone before using his Teleportation Array when no one could see.

He somehow managed to reach the city with his map and entered the city. Unfortunately, it would seem his luck upon entering this world again was very low, and he had yet to pass a single day in this world.

He came across a woman with tattered clothes, trying to hug him while shouting. "Help me."

Unfortunately, she missed him as Alex turned his body to the side out of reflex. She fell and a young man appeared out of the blue.

The man had purple hair that long enough to reach his shoulder. He wore lousy but shiny clothes, making him a bit different than the others. Unfortunately, he did not know why, but he could see a bit of makeup on his face.

"You bitch, how dare you run away from me." He shouted as he grabbed the woman's hair.

"Argh! I am sorry. I am sorry." The woman was a Martial King. Even then, she was scared of this guy, not because of his 2-Star Martial Emperor Cultivation, but something else.

Nonetheless, Alex was not a good guy that would help everyone needed as he was convinced that this guy was that man-woman in a movie. He started to recall that this type of man was very scary in his opinion.

Luckily, he dodged that woman, letting him escape from unnecessary problems, or so what he thought. When he started walking away...

"Wait! You bastard, how dare you dodge my toy and let her fall!" The man shouted.

'Huh?' Alex stupefied. He shouted inwardly, 'Isn't that the right thing to do? If I catch that woman, you will just get mad at me and try to fight with me while saying, 'Who are you to touch my woman or something along the line?'
