563 Supreme Wife's Anger

[Using Skill: Supreme Wife's Anger.]

As soon as the system resounded, they were completely speechless, not because of the fact that Lin Xingzhi would come, but the skill's name.

From Alex's body, a stream of light appeared as it slowly formed into a person. The person had long straight brown hair, gently running on her back. She wore a one-piece long green dress with leaves pattern on it.

Her beauty stunned every person in this place while her gentle expression melted their hearts.

"You..."

At this moment, a furious shiver shook through the body of Alex. He was originally in the process of summoning the Teleportation Array. Turning his head around, he blankly stared at the figure of the lady loved by Spiritual Energy and Nature.

The figure started to overlap with the warm and gentle silhouette within the deepest part of his heart. Ever since he had started meeting her, her presence was buried deep inside his heart. The brand originated from his previous life was something that couldn't be erased, no matter how much time had elapsed.

Alex stretched his hand as he wanted to grab this woman, but couldn't walk forward as his entire blood... if not existence was shaken by the sight of her.

He didn't know why, but tears started to form on the corner of his eyes, sending a wave of sadness.

"You..."

While in a somewhat vacant state, Alex muttered out a single word, his voice sounded hoarse with a slight shakiness to it. It appeared as if he didn't dare believe that the figure that always helped him actually appeared here, right in front of him.

Unfortunately, he couldn't utter her name as he had yet to learn her name.

"Ya... It's been a while since our last meeting. Have you been missing me? Alex." The gentle voice shook Alex's heart as his tears finally fell. The woman walked slowly to him before wiping his tears. "Look at you... You don't let out a single sound after enduring painful torture, but why are you letting out your tears now?"

The answer had no answer as this matter also confused him.

"I- I don't know. My heart is full of pain right now. The pain might not be comparable to the refining body technique. Still, it is somewhat unbearable to me," answered Alex honestly.

This might be the first time he met the real system. He recalled that the appearance of the system body was altered a little bit from her real appearance. Aside from her beauty, there was one thing that crept inside his heart, making the pain unbearable.

It looked like something inside him wanted to say something, show its emotion, and express its feeling.

"Fufu..." The woman chuckled. The Spiritual Energy suddenly spiked with that chuckle like her smile made them happy. "Look at you... If you are like yourself, you are going to ask, 'Is this the legendary manly tears?' and laugh."

"Let me take care of this." She smiled before turning around.

"So... Did you think that a measly Martial Saint can harm my beloved one?!"

As the gentle voice that contained a trace of fury reverberated across the entire world, shock filled the hearts of everyone present, especially after sensing the Spiritual Energy fluctuations that had flared up all of a sudden across this entire region.

The face of the various big shots twisted, having a hard time to believe the scene that was happening in front of them.

From the gentle voice alone, they were able to feel an indescribable pressure and might.

Despite feeling so much pressure, the elder of Fire God Clan still had its pride as a 7-Star Martial Saint. He gritted his teeth while pulling out his swords.

The sword contained a huge amount of energy before the elder sent it flying toward the woman. This attack couldn't be compared to the attack when he stopped Alex from using his Teleportation Array. The moment this attack reached the ground, it would reveal its might by creating a deep hole to the ground.

At this moment, an unforeseen change might have happened to this entire situation.

As countless people in the region looked over in shock at the beautiful figure, the figure slowly lifted up her hand. With a gentle wave, the powerful sword attack flying toward her suddenly froze up. In the next instant, cracks started to appear on it, and with a final loud bang, it transformed into glowing glitters in the sky.

With a single wave of her hand, the tyrannical attack of a 7-Star Martial Saint was instantly dispelled!"

As this spectacle happened, even experts on the same level as him, such as Song Yi, had their bodies furiously shaking in shock.

"Who are you?!"

The furious roar of the Fire God Clan's elder rang across the region as he glared towards the beautiful figure. Although the previous attack he had sent out wasn't his full power, it was impossible for anyone to break it as easily as she did. Exactly where did this mysterious lady come from?! Did she say that he was her beloved?! Could it be that she's the woman of Alexander Sirius?!

"Your excellency. This is a matter between my Fire God Clan and Spirit Nest. If he is your beloved, you can take him away, and we won't trouble you," said the elder with a shaken voice.

He wasn't an idiot. He felt extreme danger from the mysterious lady in front of him. If she was to become his enemy, it might be more dangerous than fighting Blackwade Clan.

"You have hurt my beloved! Even the entire Fire God Clan isn't enough to compensate for that!"

The anger became more apparent. With a wave of her hand, the Spiritual Energy started dancing around her, creating a tornado of Spiritual Energy.

As if Nature danced on her palm, the tornado enveloped the elder. It looked harmless, but as soon as it reached the elder, a shrill of pain echoed through the city.

"Argh!"

The Spiritual Energy went inside of him before coming out again in a bigger volume. The elder was to get slimmer in a few seconds as he suddenly spat out blood.

"Trash." She snorted before clenching her palm.

The energy ruptured the blood vessels and organs inside the elder body before killing him.

"!!!" The other 7-Star Martial Saint cowered as it quickly clasped his hands. "Your excellency. We don't need anything from him anymore. At the same time, we will offer the girl that provides the information to us, and I will also tell the main clan to not attack him again."

"That's what all my enemies said. Despite saying they didn't want to do anything again, they would surely attack us. And... since you would bully my man, I will bully you. What's the matter?"

The lady's cold voice resounded across the city as the original gentle voice had now turned into one extreme anger.

However, the sky suddenly turned dark. The lightning reverberated in everyone's ears as they were wondering why this would happen.

They thought this must be the lady's power, albeit they were not one hundred percent sure since the situation was like a Heavenly Tribulation.

"This... this is the world will? Why would the world send its tribulation?" Song Yi exclaimed in shock as he observed the lightning tribulation. He then glanced at the single figure that might bring this kind of tribulation at this place, wondering what kind of existence could bring a Heavenly Tribulation with a single wave of her hand.

He was sure that the lady wanted to use the Heavenly Tribulation to attack the Fire God Clan.

From one surprise to another, the lightning finally struck forth. The people wanted to see how the other 7-Star Martial Saint from Fire God Clan would be destroyed by the lightning, except it would seem the lightning itself currently flew toward the lady.

"Shut up. I know it already. This is not going to be long." She waved her hands before creating another tornado and struck at the lightning. "If you don't go away, you are just creating a reason for me to destroy this world."

It blew the lightning away easily before reaching the dark sky and blasting the dark clouds away. The light came back to their original place, looking like nothing happened earlier.

"!!!" Song Yi was stunned as he never saw someone could blow away a Heavenly Tribulation. Out of panic, he quickly flew toward Song Qiang and the others, protecting the Blackwade Clan.

"I am the fifth elder of the Fire God Clan, Bli Hinga. Your excellency, please appease your anger. We know we are in the wrong, but if you decided to kill us, it would only bring the main clan to attack your excellency." The other elder exclaimed.

"So?" The lady looked at him with a poker face, looking at him... no, at Fire God Clan like looking at an ant. It wasn't worth a single speck of dread. "Fire God Clan is not worthy to challenge me."

The single statement shocked everyone. If this happened before she killed a 7-Star Martial Saint with a gentle wave of her hand, they would snort, not believing a single word from her mouth. However, they could only feel dread at this moment.

The other influences, such as the Blue West Clan and Antheream Family, or even the Martial Tower and Supreme Element Sect, wanted to escape. Unfortunately, the lady waved her hand again, enveloping this city with Spiritual Energy.

"Where do you think you are going?" The Spiritual Energy blocked their escape route.

From the system and the N squad, she knew the Blue West Clan and Antheream Family were planning to help him for their own benefit. Although she didn't like it, she had no reason to kill them and disrupted the world balance. However, it was different for the Martial Tower and Supreme Element Sect.

Lin Xingzhi absolutely couldn't stand them. She pointed her finger toward them before plants suddenly grew from concrete. It rose to the sky within a second, turning into a tree. Then, it spread its branches and grasped every person from the two influences.

They were brutally pierced by many branches and died. Their Martial Monarchs had a better situation, but only after a minute, they were trapped and died.

"With the trash now gone, let see..." The lady glanced back toward Bli Hinga.

"Your exc-" Before he could finish his words, the Spiritual Energy already swallowed him and killed him.

Before finishing the other trash from Fire God Clan, her eyes took a glimpse of Shelka. "This is what I mean by my words earlier... After getting spared by my beloved, you still dare to show yourself and plot this whole thing. You must have used many tricks to come to this place, and now, it's time for you to die. Begone, Thot."

The Spiritual Energy locked on herself as she felt bloated. It was true that she needed to use some tricks like using poisons against Qeigess, the dragon prince, and other things. She thought everything was because of Alex, so she didn't mind.

Unfortunately, their meeting only for a breeze as one of them would be dying... and it was her that would depart from this world.

"Wait!" Alex's voice suddenly echoed, stopping Lin Xingzhi from killing Shelka.

"Sir Supreme." Shelka smiled as she thought he didn't want her to be killed.

"Are you going to spare this thot?"

"Ehm... Your words don't match with your mysterious presence earlier." Alex made a weird smile.

"It's tiring to act like that... but the anger is real." She shrugged. "So, are you going to spare her? Hmm, it's true that she has a Pure Wind Element. If she becomes your slave, she will provide good support."

"Sir Supreme. I know I am in the wrong, I can become your slave or whatever as long as I can be with you." Shelka struggled.

"No. As she said earlier, begone thot." Alex took out his sword and slashed it toward her.
