

Gacha 564

564 Goodbye

Alex swung his sword at her, cutting both her hands simultaneously.

"Argh!" Shelka screamed out of pain as she looked at her two arms flying. "Sir... Sir Supreme..."

"I thought I would never see you again... But to think you come back to my life and plan all of this." Alex grabbed her head, throwing her to the back.

Although he wanted to kill her so badly, it would only give a quick death for Shelka. It was better for a specialist to send her off to release all the frustration in his heart.

"Jeanne, do whatever you want," Alex said coldly.

Jeanne only nodded her head before grabbing Shelka in the air and had a private time with her.

"Then, what are you going to do with these people?" Lin Xingzhi asked before glancing at Ryan Hinga and the other Martial Saints as well as Grimes and their Patriarch.

Her voice sent chills down their spines.

"I... I am the young lord of Fire God Clan. My Fire God Clan would haunt you down if you kill me." Knowing that his ending was near, he tried to scare her once more. It was true that her beauty managed to capture his heart, but the feat still managed to overcome his lust.

"Fire God Clan is trash." She snorted.

"Argh!" They screamed, dying the same way as those people from Martial Tower and Supreme Element Sect.

Tension filled their air as all people's bodies were contracting profusely. The death of many Martial Saints was enough to scare them out of their life. They would never think that a person so beautiful, actually had a power that could trample Martial Saints.

Many people thought about escaping, but with the wall of Spiritual Energy erected around the town, the moment they fled, the moment they would end up like those people.

After killing the people from the Fire God Clan, she headed toward the Blue West Clan and Antheam Family.

They were scared out of their life. Luckily they had sent Ruben and Lucia away to quell the clan unrest. Even if they died here, both of them would surely lead the influences better than them.

The death of the strongest Martial Artist from Martial Tower and Supreme Element Sect, as well as the Fire God Clan, made them feel relieved. This allowed their two influences to withstand their attack if anything happened. The only thing they needed to worry about was the Blackwade Clan, albeit it might not be possible.

With how things went on, she would erase the Blackwade Clan's memory even if they were allies. Her existences alone could threaten all existences on the Heavenly Continent, so it wouldn't be wise to leave any clue about her.

"Your... your excellency... We know we are in the wrong. Even if you kill us, please spare all of our clansmen. They are not related to this and innocent."

She sealed them in a blank state first until she disappeared. If Ruben didn't convince them to aid Alex and Blackwade Clan, they would already die.

Finishing the business with the two influences, she made her way toward the Blackwade Clan.

Song Yi and the others clasped their hands politely, fully knowing that this person could kill them instantly. He wondered if this person was actually a god because even the strongest in their clan, a peak Martial Saint wouldn't have a power like that.

When enlightenment appeared in his head, he was slightly stunned. Heavenly Tribulation wouldn't come so easily for a Martial Saint. With how she could easily blow the tribulation away, she was indeed Goddess.

He glanced at Alex, wondering why he would know such a person. Another thing that bothered him was how this goddess could enter this world.

Blackwade Clan had a few thousand years of history under their banner. Obviously, they also had many records about the ascension to God Stage as even a few members of their clan had ascended.

However, he had never heard about people who reached God Stage could come to this world again. It was like the world was stopping them from coming.

By sealing the memories of two Influences, Song Yi knew it was their time to have their memory sealed.

"I don't think I need to explain more, right? The Blackwade Clan... might be good on the Heavenly Continent. However, it was still nothing to be compared to the bigger one, right?"

"!!!" Song Yi and the third elder were shaken. This was also another rumor going around the elder seats. Unfortunately, only the patriarch and the grand elder could know such a truth. He heard the rumor that the successor could also have a certain degree of information. But with a single sentence from her mouth, his doubt suddenly disappeared. "Yes. Your excellency is correct."

"Judging from your expression, it would seem you don't know much either." Lin Xingzhi narrowed her eyes before sealing their memory, including Song Yu and the others.

Last but not least, Lin Xingzhi swept her eyes on the town, entrancing all the people in this city. Unfortunately, this would be the single memory that would soon be erased by her.

The Spiritual Energy that covered the entire city sparked and erased their memories. Not a single person was spared in this city. After all, she didn't have any intention of leaving a messenger to Blackwade Clan or any other influences like Maxwell.

As long as they had been dealt, it was Alex's problem from then on.

"Let's come to a quiet place." She clapped her hand and used the Spiritual Energy to send them away from this trial place.

In a forest far from the city, Lin Xingzhi descended while Alex followed her.

"This... might be our first meeting with my real appearance... This is only a soul though." She gently smiled.

Alex looked at that smile before noticing the sudden change of his surroundings. The trees started growing higher while the ground looked glowing. This was something he never knew.

Without waiting for his reply, Lin Xingzhi turned around and said, "Why are all of you not here? Come here."

Anna and the others appeared on her call. Anna didn't know whether to call her name or not, so she waited for her to talk.

Lin Xingzhi only smiled at Anna, making her confused if it was a 'yes' or a 'no'.

"It's been a while since our last meeting. Though I could still see all of your progress."

"Yes. We are aware of that. Are you sure you don't want to be alone?" Anna asked while glancing at Alex.

"It's fine. We are family anyway." She smiled before turning to Alex. "So, I give you three chances to ask. There are some off-limits questions, so you can change it later."

Alex pondered for a moment. He wanted to ask her name, but seeing from her action these few years, she wouldn't say her name. In that case, Alex should ask another thing to confirm their relationship.

"Are you related to my past life?"

He remembered the skill name. It was 'Supreme Wife's Anger.'

"Yes. I am related to him, and it could be said I am his wife." She nodded before noticing a trace of hesitation on Alex's face. She added, "However, you are not him, and he is not you. I only know that you have a shadow of him, but you would always be you. In other words, you can say I love him, but I also love you. If I tell you that, would you accept me?"

Alex was stunned for a few seconds before answering, "If I am not wrong, my past life died a few thousand years ago. To love him that long, I only have my admiration. It's just after listening to this question, I am wondering whether I can or not. I am grateful to you for your support this whole time, but I don't want to mix gratitude and love. So, I still can't answer that question."

"It's fine to take your time. Fufu... I can still have my sweet little time with you like your system anyway." She grinned. "Then, onto the second question."

"Where could I find you?"

Astonishment appeared on her face before she chuckled. "Haha... I couldn't say my exact location, but I think he has left the clue for you. I wouldn't say anything more about this and could only tell you to get stronger. After assembling all the clues, you would naturally know where I am. Besides... there is no point in knowing it now since you couldn't reach this place anyway."

"True enough. I need to reach God Stage first before I can search for you. At that time, I would answer that question." Alex nodded with determination.

"Haha... don't overthink it. Besides, do you think you can escape from me? I literally have your thoughts recorded. Ah, it's not because of me, but the system." She shrugged.

"..." Alex was speechless.

"Or do you want me to pretend I don't know the answer?"

"Let's see in the future..." Alex sighed in defeat.

"Alright. It's time for the last quest-" Before she finished her words, the sky turned dark again.

Rumble!

The world wanted to expel her once again but with a stronger tribulation.

"Haiz, it's time for me to go." She sighed in disappointment as her body slowly turned into light.

Knowing that the time was short, Alex didn't have the time to think about any other question because he knew what he wanted to know the most.

"What is your name?" Alex asked, watching her disappear. He was prepared to be disappointed as it might be one of the off-limit questions. Even so, Alex really wanted to know her name.

He thought he wouldn't get the answer, but there was a single message from her.

"Nature Goddess, Lin Xingzhi."

There was no point in hiding her existence anymore, so she decided to tell him her title and name. Alex was stunned for a second before etching those two in his mind.

He smiled, "Nature Goddess, Lin Xingzhi... I will find the real you."

Albeit, like usual, the system beat him down once again as it gave another message to him.

[I'm looking forward to it, Host. Ah, but don't call me with my name when you are talking to the system, alright? After all, wouldn't it be weird if you call the system Lin Xingzhi? Or call Lin Xingzhi with System? Anyway, just don't confuse the two names. Call me by my name when we are alone, but call me System when you use the Gacha System. Do you understand?]

Thud!
