

Gacha 63

63 Fight!

"Bam!"

"It's terrible, Alicia was fighting the archmage, the sage, and Zircodina Princess on the arena"

Alex and the dean turned to the person who opened the door. They saw Firia full of sweat, she seems to rush at her full speed to here.

"What happened?"

"That...that bastard coveting Alicia's beauty. Alicia was disgusted by him and kick him. Then the hero companion challenges her in the arena. Now she was fighting three of them. Alex... Alicia... was..."

Before Firia finished, Alex looks at his teacher hurriedly. "Teacher"

The dean nodded, "I will stop their rank 8, you can do your own job"

The dean and Alex were rushed to the arena.

Some time ago, Alicia, Firia, and Viola were coming to the arena.

On the arena, they saw Joshua fighting unknown man. Alicia recognized him, he was the hero he meets a year ago in Zircodina.

Joshua bleeding all over, he looks he will collapse at the moment. They anxiously searching for his teacher. But they spotted that his teacher was stopped by an unknown old man and seems can't move.

Alicia can't stand this, even if Joshua fought with Alex, he still her classmate and also a person of Acacia. She rushed to the arena.

"Stop!"

The hero looks at the source of the voice and he was captivated. The one who stopped him was a woman. And her beauty was easily surpassed by Sandra and Ayaka. Even Zircodina Princess, Rieze de Andalla Zircodina. His lust takes over him.

"Hooo... Lady, I like you. Come with me as we conquer the demon, you will become me, the hero, wives."

Alicia looks at him with disgusted. "It seems even after a year, your disgusting personalities still there, o hero"

"One year ago?"

He seems recalled, "You...aren't you the one who visits the castle as an ambassador from this kingdom? I see, it seems I miss a beauty like you that day. Now I will invite you officially, and you will become my wives"

"You? You are not qualified, I already have my man and he was better in every aspect than you" Alicia spat on him. Her relationship with Alex was known by everyone, even though there is still no official announcement, they already treat them as one. But now Alicia confirmed her relationship with Alex in front of many people.

"He? Who is it dares to go against me the hero? I will meet him right now, He will surely give you to me"

"Are you even a hero? All can I see you are only a disgusting person" Alicia said.

This time, his companion, Sandra, Ayaka, and Rieze were angry. But even Alicia was shocked, how can they like this to some garbage.

"You whore, don't think just because you are a princess, we are afraid of you" This time Zircodina's princess, Rieze was the one who spoke.

"That's right" Sandra and Ayaka nodded.

"I will challenge you to duel" The proud princess of Zircodina challenge Alicia into the duel. According to the information, this princess was older than her by three years, she was at the same age as her eldest sister, Lea. But her power will always be overshadowed by Her sister, Lea. This is also one of the reasons she was so flared up. She now almost reached rank 4 while Lea already a rank 6 because of Alex's pill.

"You? The one who can't even win my eldest sister? You are not qualified to fight me alone. You should ask your companion to join" While Alicia saying that, she looked down upon the other two girls, Sandra and Ayaka.

"You" Sandra and Ayaka were provoked, they went to the stage as well. "Since you want to be ruined then so be it. Even we only rank 2, we can fight a rank 3 respectively. You will regret your own choice today"

"Sluts" Alicia look at them angrily, but then she turned to the hero, John "I'm wondering, what is the purpose of Zircodina's hero to come to our academy?"

"Haha" John laughed, He arrogantly said "We got information that you have a legendary job, what is the name...right, it was alchemist if I'm not wrong. I was going to reluctantly invite him since he was a man. But meeting you here, I want you to have you as my wives. I don't need that kind of trash, well maybe I can have him as my slave to make me some pill"

"You bastard" Alicia was really angry this time because the alchemist in his mouth was her lover, Alex.

"Stop. Do you think we are not here?" Rieze stops her.

"Oh, judging with your reaction, your relationship with him seems close. Then I don't need him, I will kill him and make you one of my wives"

"You!" Alicia was really angry this time, she wants to kill this garbage. "Fine, I will beat all of you first"

Firia, after seeing this kind of situation. If before, she will flare up and join Alicia to fight them. but after experiencing more than one month inside the dungeon, she starts mature up. She cooled down, even Joshua's teacher can't stop them. that means the unknown old man was stronger than him even possible that the old man was a rank 8.

The one who can stop him was her idol, the academy's dean, Alex's teacher. So she silently and rushing toward the dean office, she also didn't bring her staff like Alicia, so even she joined she might become a burden.

She rushed off toward the dean at her full speed. Find authorized novels in Webnovel, faster updates, better experience,

Alicia looks at the trio. The strongest was Zircodina Princess, Rieze. She almost reached rank 4, her battle efficiency might on par those in rank 4. The other two said they can battle rank 3 like her.

"Fireball!"

"Wind Slash"

"Sword Strike"

Alicia looks at the three incoming strikes, she wasn't that surprised seeing them can unleash chantless magic since they are an archmage and a sage respectively. While Zircodina Princess seems can only use her sword. Shee looks at the fireball and the wind strike.

"Ice Spear"

Two spear appear above her head and immediately flies toward that two magic, while she parried the sword strike from Zircodina princess with her staff. Since her staff was a rank 5 staff that Alex made. This staff can easily repel Rieze's strike.

"I'm not done yet"

"Fire Net!" Sandra cast her magic. Net-Like magic formed by fire appears in the middle of the stage.

"I will assist you, Rieze!" Ayaka called Rieze. After hearing her, Rieze immediately pulls back. Then Ayaka cast her magic "Wind Storm"

A tornado made by the wind started formed in the center of the stage, the wind gradually become bigger and bigger. After the wind touches Sandra's Fire net. The net seems to start warped the wind and assimilate with it. The Wind tornado becomes a fire tornado.

Alicia looks at this, a bit surprised. If it was two months ago, she might panic looking at this attack, after this two months experience, she can easily calm down. She cast her magic.

"Ice Field"

This is the intermediate magic that she learned in the dungeon. After reaching rank 3, with two spiritual liquids and Alex's pill, she can easily use intermediate magic. After she uses this magic, the temperature around the arena dropped.

The people in the arena feel the coldness, There some a thumb size ice crystal appears on the stage. Alicia's Ice Field seems to want to freeze the fire tornado. The fire in that tornado seems to get smaller and smaller and somehow it froze and broke. The huge frozen tornado shattered, leaving much small ice crystal to fall down like a droplet.

Alicia's appearance becomes aloof in that ice field, after the small ice fragment to fall down like a droplet, she look like a snow fairy wandering in the snowy land. Many people were mesmerized by this display.

The hero looking at Alicia was captivated. He will surely has her as one of his wives.

"Hmph" Alicia snorted.

"Don't be complacent!" Rieze immediately jumps off to get closer to Alicia. She seems to want to defeat her by close combat since she was a mage.

She swings her sword toward Alicia.

Alicia looking at this, she smiled. She parried it with her staff, she can handle a rank 3 melee combat. Even though she specializes in magic, she also polishing her melee combat.

When her sword blocked, Rieze was surprised. She looks at Alicia who suddenly raises her staff, wanting to hit her.

She also raise her sword wanting to block it but suddenly she was tripped by Alicia's leg.

"Ah" Rieze fell down.

"Hehe, even your opponent raise their weapon, they might not attack you with their weapon. Alex was really tricky" Alicia giggled.

If Alex heard about this, he immediately corrected her. He might also said, "it is not a trick. It also the basic of the basic in melee combat"

Rieze glared at Alicia "Fight me square and fair"

"Fight you square and fair? There are no enemies that will move like what you want, they would only care for winning. What uses square and fair if you lose your life because of it. I also already give you a handicap by fighting all three of you" Alicia snorted.

"You" Rieze was angry.

"Fire spear"

"Wind Spear"

There are three spears in each element.

"Ice wall"

A Big Ice wall appeared from the ground, blocking the magic spear's charge. But, Alicia miscalculated, because one of the spears manage to pierce her ice wall. She surprised but she still manages to dodge.

"Boom!"

Alicia manages to dodge it even though barely, she was blown away because of the shockwave made by the explosion, even though she didn't get any injuries, she still can't get her balance back in the air because she was blown away.

Meanwhile, Rieze already got back on her feet after that cover by Sandra and Ayaka. Rieze looks at them, She nodded.

Noticing her intention in her gaze, Ayaka and Sandra also nodded.

"Wind Spear"

"Flame Spear"

"Sword Wave"

The trio attack Alicia who was in the air together once again.

Alicia looking at this, she become a bit panic, When she reach the stage's floor, she rolled down. She get up hurriedly.

"Ice..." She looks at the attack that almost reaches her. She thought "I won't make it"

"Boom!"
