Chapter 105-1

Chapter 105-1

Alpha Jonas and I were deep in discussion regarding the alliance wo both wanted. Their pack was in the top twenty packs, and more intportantly they shared many of our moral beliefs.

‘Honey,’ Amie mindlinked me to get my attention. I looked at her and saw her look in the opposite direction. I looked the same way and smirked as I saw Ramses and his new mate come walking. Both were sporting a new mate mark. They had been gone for a couple of hours and looked happy as they walked up to us. Ramses d a relaxed, soft smile on his face I had never seen on him before. It made him look younger and I liked it. Kalya had a determined look on her face.

“Mom, dad. Alpha Finlay and Luna Amie, Ramses and I have decided what we want to do. I’m going to be moving to the Blue Mountain pack. I love our pack, but I need a change and Ramses has built a house that is waiting for us. I know we will be happy wherever we are so that is what we will do,” she told us. Her parents were smiling.

“That is nice, bug, but it’s custom to ask the Alpha of the pack you are moving to if that’s okay,” her father told her and chuckled.

“Oh shit. I’m sorry Alpha Finlay, Luna Amie. May I please join your pack?” Kalya asked and turned towards us. I liked her. Amie looked at me and we both laughed.

“We would be happy to have you,” I told her. “Ramses why don’t you go back with the Winter Peak pack and help your mate pack and get ready to leave. We will make sure the two of you get back home when it’s time. We can spare you for a week or two,” I added..

“Lappreciate it, Alpha. If it’s okay with you Alpha Jonas?” Ramses said.

“You are family, it’s just Jonas. And it sounds like a great idea. That way our family can say goodbye without feeling rushed.” The couple walked away to get some food.

“Thank you for letting him come back with us,” Luna Beatrice said.

“I still remember having to let Amie go for two weeks while she got her business in order before joining the pack. It was torture and we weren’t even mated,” I told her.

“I have been told he was a menace to the pack,” Amie added with a giggle. Luna Beatrice giggled as well. The two had fast become friends. Alpha Jonas and I exchanged an amused look.

“I’ll be right back,” I told Amie and kissed her cheek. “Don’t go anywhere,” I added, just to be sure.

“Okay,” she agreed. I walked over to the food as I had seen them bring out the chocolate puddings. It was one of Amie’s favourite desserts, and I would make sure she got one of them. Alpha Jonas joined me a moment later and was plating fresh cut fruits in a bowl. I added cut up banana and whipped cream to Amie’s bowl.

“It never changes,” Alpha Jonas said.

“What?” I asked. He smiled at me and looked down on the bowl in my hand.

“The need to make sure they are happy. Bea and I have been mated for twenty–eight years and I still have the instant need to make sure she has what I know she likes. I see a bowl of cut fruit and I will get a bowl of it for her with vanilla ice cream and caramel sauce. I don’t care what I’m doing, I will pause it and make sure she has a bowl of it. It’s the same with anything I know she likes. I know she likes teddy bears. I have built an extra room in our house for her collection as I buy her one when I find one I know she doesn’t have,” he explained. I chuckled.

“Yeah. I figured it wouldn’t go away. I have been the same since we met,” I confessed as I grabbed a cup of coffee for myself.

“Just wait until the first pup. I’m amazed I survived that period of our lives. It was a close call a couple of times. Pregnancy hormones and Alpha productiveness in overdrive is not a good combination,” he told me and laughed. He also grabbed a coffee and
