Chapter 1031 Angry

Jessica tugged on her. "Tiana, you just can't learn you less, can you? Shut up."

Tiana's body was already injured. At this moment, she was fighting with Jessica and she was losing this fight.

"Jessica, you crazy woman. Why did you hit me? You were asleep just now. You didn't hear us. That man is Elizabeth's current boyfriend."

Jessica was about to spit blood from her mouth.

Matthew said coldly, "Someone, take this woman out."

Elizabeth did not want to explain. After all, she was not as despicable as what Tiana said. She just wanted to work hard for her and Matthew.

She was probably mistaken. That man isn't that kind.

"I won't be so stupid anymore."

After Tiana was taken out, the private room became quieter and Jake walked in.

"Miss Jessica, I'll send you home."

Jessica gave Elizabeth a look, telling her to be careful. After all, men are quite possessive.

A man like Mr. Hilton might be even more possessive. What Tiana said earlier might put her in trouble.

Of course, she hoped Elizabeth would tell Matthew about tonight's incident.

“That guy is too dangerous. I hope she won’t get in touch with him again.”

Elizabeth naturally saw Jessica’s worries. She smiled and waved at her to make her feel at ease.

“Darling, let’s go home.”

She yawned loudly, mixed with the faint scent of alcohol.

The expression on Matthew’s face was a little cold as he carried her out of the city.

“Get in first. I’ll smoke a cigarette.”

Matthew said indifferently and asked her to get into the car first.

When the car door closed, he lit a cigarette and stood beside the car smoking quietly.

Originally, it was a joyous thing to fetch his wife home. However, he had just seen Tiana and heard what a worker from outside of Night City said when he entered.

He knew that there was another man in the private room tonight. A very good-looking man.

And that man ran away before he arrived.

Elizabeth seemed to have called him darling twice in a row. She was so sweet so that he lost his temper

Hazel walked to his side. "Mr. Hilton, that man named Nate wants to take Lozzy away tonight. It's fortunate that you're here in time, otherwise..."

She bit her lips but didn't say anything else

"The few people around him are strong? Could not you defeat them?"

Hazel nodded. "There seems to be something unusual about them."

The three of them were all dressed strangely, and they liked to talk in old English, unlike modern people

"Got it, get in the car!"

After smoking a cigarette, Matthew got into the car. His expression darkened and the temperature in the car dropped.

Elizabeth slept in the seat. After he got into the car, she opened her eyes and looked at him.

However, he ignored her and sat upright. Then, he ordered coldly.

"Home"

After that, the car drove away from Night City. Matthew's thoughts were a little messy.

How did Nate and Lizzy know each other?

Thinking of this, there was a trace of worry in his eyes.

He's appearance was to control the business world. Most of the money in A City was now flowing into his account.

Previously, he even pretended to be controlled by him, not wanting to face him directly

However, he had given up on that thought and decided to face him.

He had touched his kid, and now he wanted to touch his woman.

Elizabeth saw him sitting there motionlessly, and his whole body felt like it was covered in ice.

She move to his side, wrapped her arms around his waist, and leaned her head against his body.

"Matthew, what's wrong? Are you unhappy?"

Matthew glanced at her indifferently when he heard her probe.

"Didn't I tell you to stay away from Nate? When will you listen to me?"

Chapter 1032 Like a Child

Elizabeth panicked upon hearing this.

She had been lying to him before, but tonight, she was completely busted.

However, she couldn't say that her grandfather didn't agree to them being together. He wanted her mother to make the decision, otherwise he won't let them get married.

Thinking of this, she fell silent and stared at him without blinking.

And he was waiting for her answer. Even if it was a very perfunctory explanation, or if she came up to coax him, he would believe her,

However, she fell silent and stopped talking.

The last bit of expectation that Matthew had left, his expression turned cold.

When he reached the Hilton Family, he got out of the car first.

Previously, he would open the door for her and help her out of the car. He would hug her shoulders and walk together. He would never let her walk behind by herself.

Elizabeth felt upset when she felt the difference.

She bit her lip and decided to just let it be for the time being!

If he wants to be angry, then he can stay angry. It's better than to know that grandpa is against them!

Previously, she had experienced the feeling of not being blessed by his family. She would feel that she was terrible and cheap.

A person like Matthew must have never been rejected before!

I don't want him to feel the humiliation anymore.

Jake sent Jessica to Star Villa. She thanked him and got out of the car.

It was almost twelve o'clock now, so it was very quiet in the villa area. Occasionally, one or two dogs could be heard.

She walked in slowly. When she reached the sixth building, she saw a shadow there.

She narrowed her eyes. Is there a thief at this hour?

Jessica was a little scared. She took off her high heel and held it in her hand, preparing to knock on the man's head.

"Who are you?"

She asked and was about to smack the man.

Leonard drank too much and rushed here. He pressed the doorbell and no one opened the door. He sat on the stairway and waited.

Unexpectedly, he fell asleep.

At this moment, he was awakened by her voice and grabbed her hand.

"Me."

He replied in a low voice.

Jessica let go of her heel and secretly breathed a sigh of relief. She thought it was a thief

After that, Leonard coughed a few times and tightened his grip on her wrist.

“Why did you come back so late? Where is Pearl?”

The way he asked was like a husband waiting for his wife to return home, like the father of her kid.

Jessica took a glance at the apartment next to him. She went to accompany him after work today and could not pick up Pearl She could only ask Ms. Elliott to take her home. Pearl stayed there tonight.

But she didn't say it out loud, “Mind your own business.”

After saying that, she wanted to withdraw her hand, but with a force, she fell onto her.

The scent of alcohol and the heat on his body were obvious.

“Mr. Johnson, do you have a fever?”

She raised her hand and touched his forehead. It was very hot.

Leonard felt a little cold and he hugged her tightly.

“I-I'm so cold...”

Jessica could no longer push him away at this time, so she helped him into the house.

After switching on the lights, the room lit up. Both of them were a little tired.

Leonard leaned against her shoulder and smelled the familiar orchid scent. He felt satisfied.

It was as if the emptiness during this period of time had been filled up. His arms hugged her tighter, making her pressed tightly into his arms.

Jessica felt like she was about to be pressed into his body, and she could barely breathe.

“Mr. Johnson, don’t sleep first. Take a hot bath.”

It was so cold outside, and he wore a shirt and drank so much alcohol. It was no wonder he was sick.

Leonard let out a long sigh. “Yeah, let’s take a bath together.”

Then, he led her to the elevator, as if he did not want to leave her for even a second.

Jessica also felt a sense of attachment. Just like Pearl when she was young, she always liked to stick to her.

Chapter 1033 Sick

At this moment, Jessica could no longer refuse him and gently caressed his head.

After entering the bedroom, she went to pour some water. Leonard leaned against the bed. The house was very clean and white was her favorite color.

The room was filled with her scent and the cold scent of orchids.

Previously, he still felt a splitting headache. Now that he smelled her scent, it seemed to have eased a lot.

After Jessica running water, she came out of the bathroom to help him.

“Take a bath. I’ll go down and see if there’s any medicine at home.”

In fact, there weren't any shortage of medicines in her home. However, most of them were for children.

"I need to ask Nicolas, can adults take medicines for children?"

Leonard wrapped his arms around her slender waist. The warmth of his palm made her feel uncomfortable.

"Take off your clothes and go m."

After saying that, she was about to leave. There was already a set of pajamas and a bathrobe for him. What would he like to wear?

Leonard took off his T-shirt and revealed his strong back and waist. His skin had a healthy bronze color. It was because he was used to be a soldier. He was often tramed and often needed to be exposed to the sun.

There were many scars on it. It was also a testimony of him carrying out his mission. When she first met him, she was shocked.

She had even touched those scars before. It's really heartbreaking.

Leonard suddenly called her, "Did Elizabeth lend you this house?"

Jessica nodded, "That's right, I could not afford a house for the time being, I can only borrow her place."

Leonard chuckled softly. His clothes had all been taken off and he walked into the hot water.

"Why don't you ask for a little more from my mom? One million could not do anything now."

Upon hearing this, Jessica felt a little sarcastic.

He thought she was greedy for money, but not confident enough.

Jessica bit her lips and lit the green mint flavored candle. She stepped out and closed the door.

She stood at the door blankly for a while.

The picture between the two of them just now was very familiar. It was almost a habit.

It was only when he said the one million that she regained her consciousness.

I have no future with this man. We live in two different worlds.

I shouldn't have any illusions about him. Even this habit, I have to give up.

After a while, Jessica glanced at the bag on the bed. She picked up her bag, took out her phone, and dialed the number of Nicolas.

After a while, the other side finally picked up.

Nicolas sounded like he was not awake. "Hello?"

"Nicolas, I'm sorry, I'm Jessica. It's just that Leonard has a fever. He must have a cold. Besides, he drank a lot of alcohol. Can he take medicine in this condition?"

The moment he heard it was Jessica, he was a little surprised. She would never give him a call.

However, Leonard's body has always been fine. Why is he sick?

He opened his eyes and was a little sober.

"Did he drink? Then he could not take any medicine. He can only lower his temperature physically and get him to drink more water. Then, be careful of his body temperature. If it exceeds 39 degrees, hurry to the hospital"

"Oh, I understand. Thank you, Nicolas, I'm sorry to interrupt your rest. Good night!"

Nicolas had lost his temper after listening to Jessica's apology. Compared to Matt, he felt that this Jessica was quite good.

At least she woke him up but also knew how to apologize.

"It's fine, it's fine."

Jessica went downstairs and poured herself a glass of water. She carried it upstairs.

The moment she entered the bathroom, Leonard opened the bathroom door and their gazes met.

Jessica held the glass in her hands, and the corners of his lips curved upward. It turned out that she knew he was thirsty!

He only tied a bath towel around his waist and strode towards her, taking the water from her hand.

He took a huge gulp and finished a glass of water in a second.

Jessica bit her lips, "Measure your temperature first. If it's too high, let's go to the hospital"

He's body stiffened slightly and his eyebrows twitched. It was as if no one had ever cared for him this much.

He put down the cup and carried her onto the bed. Besides, he was on top of her.

Chapter 1034 Unable To Be a Bad Person

"Mr. Johnson, what are you doing? Take a look at your temperature first. If it's too high, you'll have to go to the hospital. Otherwise, your brain will be burned."

Upon hearing her, he narrowed his eyes slightly and a faint smile flashed across his lips.

"Why? Are you concerned about me?"

Jessica was stunned when she heard this.

She bit her lips and sneered.

"I could not bear to see any stray cats and stray dogs starve by the roadside. You're still Pearl's savior. I could not just ignore you when you're sick."

After saying that, she added. "If you weren't at the entrance of my house, then I won't care."

After hearing those words, the smile on his face darkened.

The look in his eyes was dark and filled with a trace of anger.

“Alright, Jessica, you said it’

After saying that, he kissed her with his teeth and tongue.

Jessica was in so much pain that she pushed him.

“Mr. Johnson, are you crazy? Let go of me.”

He was licking her chest. He stopped and sneered.

“That’s right. I’m crazy.”

After saying that, he became even more rough. Even if he was sick, his willpower and physical strength were still good.

Jessica could not resist him. In the end, she was tortured by him.

Compared to any other time, he was more rough on her. However, Jessica was not willing to open her legs for him tonight, so she was unprepared and got hurt eventually.

By the time he finished, she sat up slowly.

It hurt so much that it felt like it hurt all over her body.

She was bitten by him on the neck. There were also scratches on her private parts. There were scratches on her legs and body.

He was so lough that she felt like she had been raped.

She narrowed her eyes and sat up. She picked up the clothes on the floor and put them on casually before walking out of the bedroom.

Every step she look was tormenting. It hurt too much.

Leonard was leaning against the head of the bed. He looked at her back and felt sorry for her suddenly.

The more he furrowed his eyebrows, the more he could not bear the way she looked just now. The sax just now was not enjoyable to him.

All he felt was that his head was hurting. His eyes were sore, and he slowly closed his eyes.

Jessica went to the bedroom next to her and took a bath. Only then did her body feel better.

She wanted to find some drug to apply it on the wound below, but there was none at home. She had never expected such a situation to happen.

In the end, she gave up and decided not to apply anyone.

She was about to go to bed, so she didn't want to care about his life anymore. If her fever turned into a fool, he deserved it.

How could hum treat her this way?Even if he died, she didn't want to care.

But after lying down, she couldn't fall asleep.

He treated Pearl very well. Not only did he save her life, but he also doted on her very much.

Sighing, she sat up again.

She could not let her be an ungrateful person, so she said to herself.

"Mr. Johnson, I owe you."

She got up and took the temperature gun. She entered the bedroom and secretly measured his body temperature.

"38.8 degrees."

When she saw the number, she was shocked. Initially, this temperature gun was not very accurate, and a mercury one would be more accurate.

However, this high temperature would indicate that the real temperature of the body would be higher.

Jessica sat down by the bed and gently patted his face.

"Mr. Johnson, wake up. We need to go to the hospital"

He seemed to have been disturbed. He seemed to have woken up, but he was in a daze.

He opened his eyes and looked at her. Then, he reached out and pressed her into his arms.

“Jess, it hurts...”

Jessica’s heart tightened slightly when she heard his deep and low voice.

“I guess he must be feeling terrible!”

Hence, she supported his head and pulled his hand away.

“Mr. Johnson, wake up. I’ll take you to the hospital.”

Even so, Leonard did not respond and continued talking

“Why... Why are you treating me like this? Are you going to... leaving me...?”

Chapter 1035 You’re Loving Her Too Much

Jessica couldn’t move him. He was too strong. He looked very thin, but his body was full of muscles.

He could not help him up. It’s hard to take him to the hospital.

Hence, she could only use the previous way she used to lower Pearl’s temperature. She found a fever reducing stick to place on his forehead.

Then, she wiped his body with warm water. He seemed to be in a daze the whole night.

He kept mocking himself. She was just a woman. Why was he so obsessed with her? Even in his dreams, it was all about her.

Jessica was busy the whole night, she kept wiping his body, physically lowering the temperature.

It wasn't until five o'clock did his temperature drop. She was already exhausted and fell asleep by his bedside.

At the Hilton Family, Matthew woke up early and left the guest room with his dark circles. He was dressed in black. Even his shirt was black today

It was obvious that he was in a terrible mood today. No one dared to talk to him.

Mr. Hilton walked toward the stairwell coldly like a

a ghost

Arthur and Antony also wake up. The two of them had the habit of running in the morning too. In the past, it was to strengthen their bodies and strengthen their resistance so that it would not be easy for them to get sick.

The three of them were triplets, and they were together every day. If they fell sick together, it would be disaster for their Mominy.

Hence, the two little ones, starting from a very young age, enhanced their bodies to prevent themselves from getting sick.

The two kids in their sportswear bumped into the CEO who was in a terrible mood

"Good morning!"

Matthew glanced at them indifferently and said coldly to the person on the phone.

The meeting is in half an hour. Don't be late. Otherwise, pack your sh!t."

The meeting was only at six-thirty. This was simply making things difficult for his employees.

Antony caught up with him. "You have to be careful. Someone might be approaching Mommy"

Because she was learning seafood, seafood was forbidden in their home. Because her sister would be allergic, she would die if she touched it.

Therefore, in their lives, seafood rarely appeared.

"Why do you want to tell him?" Arthur smiled.

Matthew answered indifferently after listening to the two sons

"I know who did she learn the dishes for?"

After that, he walked into the elevator and went down. He did not wait for the two of them

Antony raised his eyebrows. "They had a fight. They even slept in separate rooms last night. Judging from his dark circles, he probably didn't sleep well the whole night."

Arthur replied, "Isn't it normal to quarrel? No normal person could not stand his temper

The thought of my adorable Mommy having to live with such a crazy man made them feel upset.

Hence, they also hoped that Mommy could teach him a lesson and get rid of those tempers on his body.

At seven o'clock in the dining room.

Abby looked like she hadn't woken up yet. She gulped down her milk. She didn't want to go to school at all. She really wanted to have fun at home!

Arthur and Antony were having breakfast. They had already showered and changed into the school uniform

The two of them sat upright while Master Hilton was chatting with them.

When he saw Abby, he smiled and comforted her.

"Little darling, you have to go to school. You'll have a reward if you go to school! Great grandfather will take you to the mall tonight. You can buy anything you want."

The moment she heard this, her eyes lit up.

"Really? I want to buy a purse, a lipstick, a doll, and a princess dress."

Indeed, whether it was a grown woman or a small girl, they liked to shop non-stop.

Elizabeth entered the room and said coldly

"Going to school is something you have to do even without a reward."

After saying that, he glanced coldly at Abby, telling her that she was wrong. She could only lower her head and have breakfast.

"Grandpa, you're spoiling Abby too much."

Chapter 1036 Let Me Go

The thought of this little girl being served by so many people had become too large. She would order someone to do all sorts of things for her

If this continued, she felt that Abby would definitely become a willful little princess.

By then, she probably wouldn't be able to handle her

Master Hilton nodded. When it came to raising the children, he would listen to their parents and would not interfere too much.

No matter what, he would still spoil her and secretly buy gifts for her

After teaching her daughter a lesson, she glanced at Matthew's seat and glanced at her watch. It was already past seven o'clock. Why hadn't he gone downstairs yet?"

Arthur saw what his mother was thinking and said

"He's having a meeting at six thirty"

Elizabeth was stunned when she heard this

*6:30 am

Antony nodded. "That's right. I think his employees are going mad."

6:30am. Everyone hasn't woken up yet"

He only gives his employees half an hour to get to the company, and they are not allowed to be late

Even after thinking about it, she felt that he must be the devil in the company.

At this moment, Chelsea came in and she asked.

“Has the Young Master left?”

Master Hilton replied to her. “They said he left at six o’clock. The company must be very busy lately!”

Elizabeth was eating her breakfast quietly. She knew that that dude left early because of their argument last night. After that, he started a cold war and deliberately didn’t want to see her.

She took a deep breath. If he’s angry, then he can stay angry!

“I’ll stay away from him from now on.

h

After breakfast, the kids went to school, and Elizabeth went to the company. The house became quiet

After Chelsea and Hector had sent Elizabeth and the kids out in the courtyard, they suddenly felt a little empty.

Chelsea held his hand. “Why don’t we go for a stroll at the flower field?”

The flower field was built by Hector for Chelsea. He planted the flowers that she liked and had a florist to take care of them.

Master Hilton nodded, "Let's go!"

The two of them walked towards the flower field. At this moment, the sun was rising slowly. The sunlight was light but not warm enough.

It only illuminated the ground brighter, and the flower field became more dazzling under the sunlight.

The grandmother pointed to the chrysanthus nearby. "Tomorrow, let them take the flowers and dry them. We can make tea for the kids."

"Okay," Master Hilton answered

The two of them were obviously very happy. "Old man, I think we should meet Master Wade and talk about Lizzy and Matt's wedding "

Elizabeth had always said there was no need. After all, she had been married once, so she didn't want to go through those troubles again.

However, Chelsea had already invited a designer from Paris. It was a well known designer who designed wedding gowns for the royal family

"I need to prepare a gown for Lizzy."

Master Hilton heard this and said.

"We can go there today."

When Leonard woke up and saw the woman sleeping beside the bed, he frowned slightly.

It turned out that last night wasn't a dream. She was really taking care of him all the time.

A trace of warmth appeared on Leonard's face. He got off the bed and carried her up, preparing to let her sleep on the bed

Jessica woke up suddenly with a trace of fear in her eyes

"Let go of me."

She seemed to be terrified. Her gaze and her expression stunned Leonard.

"Is she that afraid of me?"

"I just want to carry you to the bed." He explained

As he spoke, the light in his eyes darkened.

The joy from before dissipated.

Sure enough, she took care of him not because she cared about him. She just didn't want him to die in this house.

At that thought, he's expression became even more gloomy.

He placed her under the blanket. Jessica felt his body temperature under the blanket and finally felt a trace of warmth.

Chapter 1037 Help Me Investigate Someone

Jessica wrapped herself tightly and did not look at him.

Leonard stood by the bed and gazed at her. After a while, his dry lips moved.

“Jessica, do you hate me that much?”

After he finished asking, his hands clenched into fists. His gaze seemed to darken.

By this time, Jessica was completely awake, she bit her lips.

“Mr. Johnson, you know that our relationship was just a transaction. I wanted to thank you for saving Pearl. We will be grateful to you for the rest of our lives. However, the transaction has long ended. Besides, I don’t want myself to keep selling my body to pay my debts.”

When she said this, she was in a bad mood.

Yes, selling body. For a woman, it was a shame

The reason why she was willing to do it before was entirely for the sake of her daughter.

Leonard narrowed his eyes. In the beginning, he didn’t think much about it. In other words, he wanted to sleep with her and had strong desires for her.

Now, it seemed that he had hurt herself esteem.

He let out a long sigh.

“Yeah, I know I won’t show up again. You can live a good life with Pearl now.”

After saying that, he turned around and walked out slowly.

Until the door slammed shut and isolated the two of them, only then did Jessica heave a heavy sigh of relief. Her body softened a little and she tightened her quilt.

In order to keep this warmth, she sat by the bed last night and fell asleep. That night, she only had one feeling, and that was cold.

At this moment, she needed this warmth to extend this feeling.

Elizabeth had just entered the office when Chelsea called.

"Grandma," she answered.

"Lizzy, which sanatorium is your grandfather in? We want to visit him."

It was obvious that Chelsea was very happy. She was also very excited about visiting her grandfather.

She knew that they treated her like a family, so she thought of visiting her grandfather.

However, Michael did not treat them as family, and he was very repulsed by them.

Even now, she did not dare to look at her grandfather. She was afraid that he would ask if she had broken up with Matthew and if they were still living together.

She did not dare to imagine whether he would get angry and fall sick because of her again.

"Grandma, my grandfather's not feeling too well. He hasn't been seen anyone recently. When he's recovered, I'll take you there."

All she could do was use this method to prevent them from seeing him.

Chelsea heard and understood what was happening.

“Okay, then we’ll go when he’s feeling better.”

After she hung up. Elizabeth was stunned.

“What’s to do next?” She really didn’t know.

She saw Nate through clearly last night. Her intention of getting close to her was not pure. All she wanted to do was take her away.

“I don’t know where he was taking me.”

Therefore, she could not trust him anymore. The shortest path was impossible.

She could only use her own way to investigate her mother’s whereabouts.

Thinking of this, she dialed Kar’s number and he quickly picked up.

“Mrs. Wade.”

“Can you help me investigate someone? My mother, named Sophin Wood, is 45 years old this year”

After hearing what he said, she looked troubled.

“I only have this information. I don’t know anything else.”

In the end, she let out a long sigh. “Alright, I’ll go look for information again. I’ll send you more information if I find

After hanging up the phone, Elizabeth thought of her father, Richard.

He should know more about her mother.

She raised her hand and looked at the time. It was 9 am and she had a meeting half an hour later.

She dialed Richard’s number, and the call was connected very quickly.

“Lizzy.”

“Are you free at ten o’clock? I want to talk to you.”

Richard responded after hearing this.

“I happened to live something to see you. I’ll see you at the Westside Cafe i ten.”

It sounded like he was in a bad mood. Elizabeth couldn’t figure out what he was going to talk to her about

Chapter 1038 A Cold War

Elizabeth finished the meeting and went back to her office.

She was a little surprised to find Hazel in her office.

“Hazel, why are you here?”

When she went out in the morning, she wanted to follow her, but she did not agree, so she just wanted to stay at the Hilton's house.

Hazel smiled, "Lizzy, Mr. Hilton said that the condition for me to stay in the Hilton Family is to protect you well, so I have to be by your side"

At the thought of Matthew, the sweet smile on Lizzy's lips gradually disappeared.

The guy didn't go back to the bedroom last night and slept in separate rooms with her.

The thought of this made her a little unhappy.

Elizabeth did not reply. She put the laptop and a pile of documents into the drawer and locked it.

Then, she grabbed her bag and walked away. Hazel followed after her.

Following Elizabeth to the cafe, Hazel was determined to protect her.

Hence, she sat at another table not far away from her. She ordered a cup of milk tea and took a sip from time to time.

Elizabeth ordered a few more snacks for her and she gave Elizabeth a big heart.

Elizabeth was amused by her. She thought that Abby would probably be as cute as Hazel when she grew up.

At this moment, Richard entered and strode towards her. After sitting down, the waiter came over.

"Sir, what would you like to drink?"

“Black Coffee,”

He took off his coat and said quietly

Elizabeth stirred the coffee in her cup. It was quite cold outside. It was a dark day today, and it was still raining a little

She held the warm coffee cup in one hand, feeling very warm.

The coffee shop had sufficient heater, but her hands were still cold, so she could only use this way to warm her hands.

After Richard sat down, he put his hands together on the table..

“Lizzy, what do you want to say to me?”

Elizabeth only raised her head at this moment. In front of this on, she did not have the kind of intimacy between a father and a daughter.

She was even a little afraid of him. Since young, he had been very strict with her. Besides, he never listened to her and only listened to celine and her daughter.

He would believe whatever they said. Then, he would be beaten up.

She had been beaten up by him too many times, so that sense of familial affection has faded.

“My mother didn’t die. You’ve been lying to me since young ”

If her grandfather hadn't told her, she won't have believed it. However, her grandfather had already said that as long as her mother agreed, he ve any objections.

won't have

Otherwise, he would allow her to be with Matthew

Richard furrowed his eyebrows upon hearing this and his gaze on her hit up.

Your mom is here to see you?"

He grabbed her hand excitedly. "Where is she? Take me to see her."

Elizabeth was surprised. He would be so excited when he mentioned his mother.

"No, I want to ask where Mom is. I want to see her."

Even though she had grown up, she did not know what her mother looked like. She felt a little sad

She had always thought that her mother was dead. Only now did she realize that she was still alive

Elizabeth withdrew her hand. Her expression was cold and she wasn't as excited as him.

Richard lowered her head, "I don't know"

Elizabeth believed him. After all, his expression just now couldn't lie. If he knew where his mother was, his expression wouldn't be like the one just now.

"Then, can you give me some information about mommy? I want to look for her."

Richard was silent for a while, "She's burned everything. I could not provide anything."

Originally, he had already taken out a notebook and was about to write it down. However, judging from his behavior, he probably did not want

To say it

Elizabeth did not make things difficult for him and kept the notebook.

"I'm done talking Now you talk!"

She picked up the coffee and took a sip. The coffee was very fragrant, and it filled her mouth.

Chapter 1039 You Are Not My Daughter

Sensing Richard's indifference, it was as if he didn't care about her going to see her mother and was unwilling to give her any information.

She was still quite disappointed, so she lowered her head and drank her coffee.

Finding him was a wrong decision, a waste of time.

"Lizzy, why do you have prejudices against Tia and Celine? You've grown up because of her care. And Tia is your sister, you should love her."

When he said this, his expression changed.

“Lazy, let me tell you the truth’ You’re not my daughter. It was your mother who left you to me. For the sake of a man, she didn’t even want her own daughter.”

Elizabeth, who was drinking her coffee, raised her head in shock.

“Aren’t you my father?”

At that moment, she really could not accept this fact. Though the years she lived in the Wade Family was though, although she did not have a good life, she had never treated herself like an outsider and had always thought that she was Richard’s daughter.

It turned out that this was the truth.

“That’s right. Your mother is very beautiful! Back then, almost every man in A City like her, and I’m no exception. So even if she was pregnant with you, I was very happy to marry her ”

After saying that, he sighed.

In the end, she still doesn’t like me.”

The cafe was not crowded, and the music was played low

Hence, it was impossible for Elizabeth to pretend that she did not hear him. Every word and every sentence he said were so clear.

She was not a kid of the Wade Family. She had been abandoned by her mother over the years, which was why she suffered so much in the Wade Family

The more she hated Richard and Celine before, the more she hated her own mother now.

Why did she want to give birth to her? And then abandon her?

She shook her head, unable to accept this fact.

Richard glanced at the time. "I have something else to do. I'll be leaving now. If you don't believe me, you can ask your grandfather. He's always treated you like his own granddaughter. I hope you won't disappoint him. Tia and Celine also hope that you'll be merciful on them in the future."

After saying that, he got up and left, but Elizabeth was lost in thought.

Suddenly, she became someone who owed the Wade Family a big debt.

Suddenly, she smiled bitterly and self-deprecatingly

Harel was enjoying her dessert happily. Suddenly, she heard h l's laughter and hurriedly got up and ran over

Laney was chatt

with her father. She didn't pay much attention, so she didn't know what they were talking about

Elizabeth closed her eyes and said to herself

"Tell me, the person I hate the most becomes my savior. Am I especially pathetic?"

She the

Now, it was as if her world had turned into darkness

It felt like a lot of cotton was stuck in her heat

She stood up and sunded at Harel

“Hazel, cau 1 be alone?”

Then, she got up, walked out of the cale in a hurry, and drove away

Trevor could only run after her and followed behind her car, attracting the attention of countless people

There were also people who took videos with their phones. She didn't have time to be bothered and covered her face with a mask.

She was very afraid of losing her, even though she had her location, Mr. Hilton said there was a location device in the necklace on her neck. No matter where she went, 1 can track liet whereabouts.

Hence, she connected the location to her phone. She just needed to look at it and she knew where Lizzy was.

However she was worried. Looking at her expression today, she fell that something was off

I need to follow her closely.

Elizabeth had no idea where to go. However, when she thought of Richard, she couldn't hold back anymore. She turned her head and drove to her grandpa's sanatorium

Chapter 1040 She Wants To Know the Truth

Two hours later, the car stopped on the parking lot of the sanatorium.

Hazel was panting and standing at the entrance of the sanatorium. She breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, she didn't get lost.

She couldn't help but take a glance at her feet. She moved her feet, and all the way here, her shoes ran off

Elizabeth got out of the car and walked toward the mansion. Hazel wanted to follow her when someone suddenly called her.

"Hazel"

A car stopped beside her. He, who was in the car window, was elegant and smiling at her.

Hazel bit her lips and curled her ankle. She called him indifferently

"Young Master."

Dominic came to visit Michael today. Unexpectedly, he saw Hazel the moment he entered the sanatorium. After this little girl left the Campbell family, she did not associate with him.

So he wanted to ask her how she was doing?

"Have you gone to find Lizzy?"

Elizabeth had not been in contact with him recently, and his condition was improving. Saint had not appeared for a long time.

He recalled the medicine that Matthew gave him before. "I guess the medicine is useful"

If it weren't for Elizabeth, she won't have appeared here.

Hazel was like a primary school student. She lowered her head and listened to him.

"Yes!"

He asked, she replied

Dominic smiled, "Remember to wear shoes."

Looking at her little feet, he reminded her and drove in Hazel stole a peek and he left. She breathed a sigh of relief.

The moment he saw him, he would still be very nervous, but he couldn't help but want to look at him.

She took a deep breath and warned herself

"Hazel, don't look at him secretly anymore and don't think about him."

After saying that, she walked straight to the mansion.

In the wooden pavilion in the courtyard, Elizabeth sat opposite Michael and Michael was making toa,

Elizabeth got up, "Grandpa, let me do it!"

Previously, when she was at the Wade Family, she would make tea with her grandpa

Michael didn't refuse and handed the things in his hand to her. He looked at her and his eyes were filled with affection.

"Lizzy, why do you have time to visit me today?"

It was obvious that Michael was very happy to see her.

Elizabeth washed the tea. then boiled the cup, and finally made the tea and poured it for him.

"Grandpa, Tia has already come out. I won't make things difficult for them anymore."

But if they want to die, she won't show any mercy

Sir picked up his cup and took a sip of tea. "Yeah, I know."

Elizabeth finally asked, "Grandpa, am I not my dad's daughter?*"

The old man, who was smiling, his expression changed. The cup in his hand fell to the ground.

"Who told you that?"

He wanted to bring this secret into the coffin, but who told her? Could it be Sophia?

Elizabeth sipped on her tea and looked elsewhere.

Dad said it'

Sir was even more surprised. How did he know?

At that moment, Michael felt that his son was not stupid. It seemed like he knew everything

“Lizy, don’t blame your dad for treating you badly all these years. He’s also feeling bitter.”

Originally, he liked Sophia so much, so he matched them because he hoped that they would be fine.

Sophia had saved Michael’s life, so he wanted to help Sophia and repay this favor

But after that, he let out a long sigh

Elizabeth listened to Michael and calmed down. Indeed, Richard did not lie to her.

She poured another cup of tea for him, her voice calm.

“Grandpa, does the Hilton Family have a grudge against my biological parents?”

Otherwise, grandfather would not allow her to be with Matthew. Tiana was fine, but she couldn’t.

Previously, she did not understand, but now, it seemed to understand that it was related to her parents.
