Chapter 1071 Mother In Law In the car, Elizabeth leaned against the seat and looked at the street view outside. Previously, she had been to this city and she liked it quite a lot. She even met a person who was as warm as her mother here. Unexpectedly, she was really her mother. Matthew looked at her sad expression and reached out to pull her into his arms. "Lizzy, it's all in the past. You have us now, don't you?" No matter how miserable she was in the past, even if her own mother didn't want her, so what? Now, she had three children who loved her, along with him and his family. Elizabeth fiddled with the diamond buttons on his shirt. There was a trace of tears in her eyes. "Am I not as smart as Nate? I'm not as good-looking as him." Otherwise, why didn't she want her? Why was she so nice to Nate? That's true. He has always been a top student ever since he was a kid. But she, on the other hand, isn't very smart. "He could not compete with you."

Matthew said coldly. That man, Nate, couldn't even compete with her. Elizabeth smiled. "I'm tired. I want to sleep for a while." "Yeah, go to sleep! We'll go home tomorrow. The kids miss you." Elizabeth closed her eyes but her tears still fell uncontrollably. Each of them hit Matthew's white shirt and rolled down like pearls. Matthew looked at the tears that had rolled down. He felt so sorry for her. Those tears seemed to have rolled into his heart. After a while, she fell asleep. When she reached the hotel, he carried her into the room. When Matthew saw how sad she looked, he kissed her on the forehead. At this moment, his phone rang. It was a video call. He clicked on it.

"Daddy..." The screen showed Abby's pretty and cute little face. She stared at him with her big eyes unblinking. Matthew's eyes were filled with tenderness when he saw his daughter. "Darling, Mommy is sleeping. I'll show her to you." Matthew aimed the camera at Elizabeth's face. When Abby saw Elizabeth, she smiled. "Is Mommy a pig? She doesn't wake up at this hour." A pair of handsome little faces appeared beside her little head. Antony asked. "Is she still awake?" He said that as long as he finds her, Mommy will be waking up." Previously, they heard Hazel talking on the phone saying that they found Mommy. They thought she had recovered! Matthew smiled faintly, "Alright, she didn't forget about us. She's still the same person she used to be." Arthur heaved a sigh of relief. Looking at the tear-stained look on her face, he seemed to see that she had something on her mind "Help us take good care of her," he said. Naturally, Matthew would take good care of his wife. However, it was still a bit distant to say this from his son's mouth. He had to think of a way to conquer this eldest son completely. In fact, of the three children, Arthur resembled him the most, the most arrogant, and the most difficult to deal with. At this moment, Jake came in. "Boss, Mrs. Campbell wants to see you." Matthew replied, "Let her wait." When Abby heard Mrs. Campbell, she asked. "Is this pretty grandmother? I miss her too! Can I video with her?" When Elizabeth got married, she went back, so she got acquainted with the three children. It was probably because of blood relations, and Abby was close to her.

Normally, they would chat on video. Abbie spoiled Abby very much and treated Antony and Antony very well. Matthew responded, "It's her, but daddy have important things to talk to her." "She's Black Rose." Antony asked. Matthew furrowed his eyebrows slightly. The kid was still investigating. Arthur and Antony probably knew everything he knew. "That's right, she's. I'll hang up now." Even though that woman had upset Lizzy, she was her birth mother and his mother-in-law, so of course he could be rude to her.

Chapter 1072 Daughter After Matthew ended the video with the three children, he lowered his gaze and looked at the woman on the bed. Then, he got up and strode out of the bedroom. In the living room, Abbie stood in front of the French windows and looked outside. Matthew walked over and stood beside her. He looked at her profile. There was a clear scar on the left side of her face. It destroyed all of her beauty, giving people a sense of regret. Matthew's eyes darkened. Previously, she was either wearing a mask or a veil, so he didn't know her face was like this. Judging from the wound, she had experienced things that ordinary people couldn't bear. "Matthew, Lizzy doesn't want to see me." She didn't see his daughter. She had already understood. Over the years, she hadn't seen her or asked about her, which probably hurt her heart. Matthew put his hand into his pocket and looked at the sky outside. The weather was good today. There were no clouds, and a few cotton-like clouds occasionally.

"Mrs. Campbell, you hurt her, especially when you looked at Nate lovingly in front of her." It was a mother's love that Elizabeth had never received before, but she gave it to others without reservation. Elizabeth was just a kid too. She was only twenty-five years old. Ever since she was a kid, she had never received a mother's love or a father's love. All she got was the disgust and bullying of those from the Wade Family. The only one who loved her was also leaving when she made a mistake. If it were his own granddaughter, Michael probably wouldn't be so decisive.

Abbie closed her eyes. "I left her in the Wade Family. She's the kid of the Wade Family." This was Abbie's promise to Michael back then. After she left, she hoped that they could raise her and she would be the eldest kid of the Wade Family. This was her sincerity. Otherwise, if the kid they raised returned to her side, the Wade Family would raise her in vain. And there's nothing good by her side. It'll only bring her danger. At this moment, Elizabeth's voice rang. "Is S Group a compensation to me?" She suddenly felt so sad. She couldn't give her love and could only give her some wealth. She had always been grateful, thinking about running the company well so that she won't be disappointed. After her daughter returned, she would return the company to her daughter. Now that she thought about it, she was indeed a loser. She wasn't from the Wade Family, so she couldn't get the Wade Family's affection. She was so poor that she couldn't even afford to raise her kids. So she threw her some bones out of pity. She gave her a company so that she could live a decent life. Hah... She's just a beggar! Matthew and Abbie both looked over. Matthew frowned slightly. "I'm outside. Call me if you need anything. You guys have a good chat." If he was here, Abbie probably wouldn't be able to say anything from her heart. He then left, hoping that the mother and daughter could have a good chat and resolve their misunderstandings. Elizabeth watched Matthew leave and walked towards Abbie. "Auntie Campbell? You asked me to call you Auntie Campbell. You've never thought of acknowledging me, have you?" Ab bie bit her lip and shook her head. "Lizzy, I..." Judging by Ab bie's trembling expression, she probably would be upset too. However, what's the point of being upset? If she took her with her when she left, no matter how hard it was, she would feel happy. But she didn't want her, she didn't want her. Even if they met, she did not acknowledge her. At this moment, a few men in black suddenly appeared in the room. They were all wearing masks. One of them controlled Elizabeth and pressed a cold dagger against her artery. "Black Rose, it turns out you have a daughter. If you want her to live, you can go with us." His voice was low and deep, and his tone was fierce.

Chapter 1073 Live Ab bie had a nervous look on her face. She furrowed her eyebrows and said softly. "I'm not Black Rose. You've got the wrong person. She's not my daughter." Elizabeth's expression darkened when she heard these words. At this moment, she still refused to acknowledge her. How much was she afraid that she would affect her? There was a trace of despair in her eyes. She looked at Ab bie, but Ab bie looked calm, as if she was facing a stranger. Elizabeth thought that she could not care less. Since she didn't want her, then she could leave her too. But at this moment, she could clearly feel that she still could not be as heartless as her. In her heart, she had always missed this mother. She wanted to see her and get her mother's love. She closed her eyes, disappointed and hopeless. Next, she was slapped hard and she lost consciousness. After some time, she was awakened by a pair of hands.

"Lizzy, wake up." Only then did she open her eyes suddenly and saw the darkness, the endless darkness. "Where is this place?" Could this place be hell? Otherwise, why would it be so dark? And so cold? Apart from the darkness, the only thing that could be heard was the sound of the wind. It was as if a person was crying in the darkness. It was a bit scary. "Lizzy, don't be afraid, Mommy is here." Ab bie held her in her arms and patted her gently. Elizabeth heard her voice and slowly got used to the darkness. She could see some of her contours clearly.

"D-Didn't you say I'm not your daughter?" She pushed her away and wanted to stand up. Only then did she feel that her leg was tied up by a chain. When she stood up, she almost fell. "Lizzy, I don't have a choice either. If they find out that you're my daughter, I don't dare to imagine what they'll do to you. Don't be mad at me, okay?" Elizabeth recalled the painting back then. When those people saw her back then, they were indeed quite excited. She was doing this entirely to protect her. But she was still caught here. What kind of place is this? "Alright, let's say that you said those words because of me. But, what's your identity? Why did those people are hunting you?" "Those people don't look like good people. All of them were vicious. Ab bie fell silent. After a while, she finally spoke up. "Lizzy, I have a special identity, and I could not withdraw from it. That's why I haven't gone to look for you all these years. It won't do you any good if you get involved with my affairs. I hope you can live your life peacefully." Ab bie's eyes were filled with tenderness when she said those words. This was the first time she talked to her daughter about this. It was also something she wanted to explain all these years. Today, she hopes she can understand her own hardship. She hopes she'll stay far away from her and never look for her again." Elizabeth also quietened down. Although she hated her very much before, she hated her being so heartless, she hated her not going to look for her, she hated her leaving her to someone else's house.

But at this moment, she seemed to understand a little. Pursing her lips, she wanted to think about it carefully. Her mind was in a mess and she was in a mess. Ab bie walked closer to her step by step. The chains on the ground made a noise and echoed in the room. She could tell from the echo that this place was huge, like a warehouse. "Lizzy, no matter what happens later, say you don't know me, got it? Even if they hit me and torture me, you don't have to care. Shut your eyes, hear me?" She was also chained. She raised her hand and grabbed onto her shoulder. "Think about Abby and the boys. They could not live without their mother. I'll agree to your marriage with Matthew. As long as you're alive, you'll be able to marry him." At this moment, the iron door was pulled open with a loud bang, and a dazzling light shone in. Ab bie held her hands and slowly moved upwards. It turned into a movement of pinching her neck.

Chapter 1074 Don't Mess With Him Elizabeth suddenly felt that her breathing became difficult. At that moment, someone ran over. After pulling the two of them away, the man slapped Ab bie on the face and she fell to the ground. Among the group of people who entered the back, the leader of the group was tall and wearing glasses. When he looked at them, there was a fiery glint in his eyes. "Black Rose, I didn't expect you to be so ruthless. In order to save that batch of goods, you rather sacrifice your own daughter?" Ab bie's face was swollen and the corner of her mouth was still bleeding. When she looked at him, there was a hint of hatred in her eyes and she smiled coldly. "Heh... My daughter, I don't have a daughter. You guys just brought a random person here and said that she was my daughter, so I'll kill her first. Let's see if she really is my daughter." After saying that, she wanted to get up again and throw herself toward Elizabeth. The hatred in her eyes was as if she won't give up until she was dead. Elizabeth watched this. When they hit Ab bie just now, she was frightened.

How could they treat women so ruthlessly? They saw her injured face and the darkness in her eyes. Elizabeth felt upset. Who exactly was she? What kind of life have you been living all these years? On the surface, she looked beautiful and elegant, but on the back, she had to be wary of her life every day. Could it be that her mother is a mob? This word popped up in her mind. In that instant, her emotions changed drastically, What exactly happened back then? What made an ordinary woman walk into such a life and then refuse to acknowledge her biological daughter? Ab bie was kicked away by the man in front of her and fell to the ground. Her face was bleeding, her nose and mouth were bleeding. But she still wanted to throw herself at her, wanting to kill her. Elizabeth tightened her grip on the chains. Her heart ached so much that it was unbearable. She really wanted to tell him to stop. She did not need to be protected. But she couldn't. If she said it out, all the beating she just now would go down the drain. Elizabeth stared at them without blinking and then she spoke. "Hold on, I think you're mistaken. I'm Matthew's wife. How much money do you want? He'll give it all. Let me go, okay?" At this moment, she wanted to attract their attention. 1/2 The others looked like they were looking forward to the show, but after hearing Elizabeth. The person beside the man was whispering to him. After whispering a few words, he looked at Elizabeth. "Matthew isn't even married? Where did he get a wife?" The others laughed. Everyone behind the man was holding their weapons. Elizabeth only saw it clearly at this moment. She was still afraid. After all, a woman like her had never been through this before. Usually, she would be frightened when they saw a large group of people fighting. Not to mention this, her calf was trembling. However, she still couldn't stand seeing Ab bie get hurt. She wanted to fight back. "If you don't believe me, you can give him a call." After she accepted the message, those people didn't care much about Ab bie anymore. At least she didn't need to get beaten up.

Elizabeth felt that Matthew would definitely think of a way to save them. "Matthew is useless to us. If you want to live, you can ask the ugly woman next to you to hand over that batch of goods. Otherwise, you and she won't be able to leave alive." Goods? What goods? Elizabeth looked at Ab bie. Ab bie closed her eyes and did not want to talk about that. "I don't know her. What does she have to do with me?" She looked very anxious. A man raised his hand and adjusted his glasses. "Since she's Matthew's woman, it's best if we don't touch her. That dude is a big shot. After saying that, he raised his voice, "Take off all of Black Rose's clothes and use the iron seal. I don't believe her mouth is so tight."

Chapter 1075 His Swagger After that, they went to Ab bie and started tugging at her clothes. Elizabeth exclaimed, "You... You're too violent." Pretending not to know her, she could endure watching her get beaten up, but she couldn't remain calm after they humiliated her like this. Ab bie shook her head and told her not to care. As long as she was alive, she would be happy! Previously, she used her kids and Matthew to seduce her. These were the most important things to her. As a mother, she did not fulfill any responsibilities, let alone did not take care of her. She did not deserve her to do anything for her. Hence, she hoped that even if she watched her die, she won't care. Elizabeth was so angry that she could no longer hold back. She was also so scared. But she still had to pretend to be calm and pretend that she did not know each other. "That's hard. It's really hard." "Can you guys be gentler with girls? If I was traumatized, you'll have to take responsibility."

" 'don't know what to do now? All they could say was to attract their attention so that they wouldn't hurt Ab bie. He with glasses sneered, "What? Traumatized? How do you want us to be responsible for you?" Elizabeth's face was dirty by Ab bie, so they couldn't see her true face. Her face was completely dirty, and she looked like a monkey. But that pair of bright eyes were like stars in the sky. She raised her chained hand and curled her fingers at him. "Come here, I'll tell you." He with glasses smirked coldly, "Why should I go there?" Does she want to seduce me?

But based on her looks, only Matthew would like her. He laughed loudly, and the other men around him laughed too. "Lass, Matthew was your husband a while ago, and now you're trying to seduce our brother. You're really smart." "What an idiot." Elizabeth sighed, "Sir, I think you're so handsome with so many men under your leadership! I like strong men like you." all. After saying that, she glanced at Ab bie on the ground. They no longer touched her. She bit her lips. "Sir, come here! I'm already like this. Why are you afraid of me? I just want to tell you, how I want you to take responsibility." The man was already very upset. He didn't know how his men heard that this girl was the daughter of Black Rose. She didn't look like her at Her personality was not even close to Black Rose. The daughter of Black Rose should be the same as her, not a slut. Now that this girl was so slutty, she even used Matthew to scare them just now. He was even frightened by her just now. Therefore, he wanted to kill this girl so that she won't be talking anymore. If Black Rose did not hand over that batch of goods today, then she would have to endure all the torture he knew. He got up from the chair and walked toward them. "Don't go over there." He sneered, "These two women are like this. Are you still afraid of them?" Although Black Rose was very powerful, she had often let the gangs suffer, but this time, she was finally and she wouldn't be able to escape even if she had wings. After that, they could only shut their mouths.

Looking at their boss, he walked toward the woman who was as dark as coal. "Boss, your taste is pretty heavy. You can do with a woman like her?" When he walked to Elizabeth's side, he pulled out a Swiss army knife and sneered. "Go to hell and look for your Matthew!" After saying that, he swung the knife into her body. Abbie was so frightened that her eyes opened slightly and she screamed. "Lizzy..."

Chapter 1076 This Is The Feeling Of Security At this moment, Abbie could no longer pretend. She wanted to get up to protect her, but it was too late. The man smiled wickedly. When the knife approached Elizabeth, Elizabeth dodged quickly. Then, the knife was taken by her and the man was caught by her. The knife was pressed against his neck. "Don't move. Otherwise, I'll stab him to death right away." As she spoke, the tip of the knife pierced a little, and blood trickled down his neck. The man who felt the pain gritted his teeth and roared. "Don't move." Previously, she didn't realize that this chick was a character. He was good at taking the knife at a very fast speed. The worst part was that she was ruthless enough. He could clearly feel her ruthlessness. If they didn't listen, she would immediately stab the knife into his throat. Even if she died, she would still have to drag him with her. It was not worthy of his life. Money would always come and go. It was just a batch of goods.

He saw this very clearly, so he would not neglect his own life. Elizabeth was right. It was obvious that this man was afraid of death. Very good. Very good. She glanced at his subordinates and ordered coldly. "Get them to throw the keys over." Abbie watched worriedly from the side. She did not expect her daughter, who usually looked weak, to be so bold when facing danger. It seemed like she was much more scary than her, the leader of the Green Gang.

The man saw that they were not moving, so he sneered. "Keys, throw them here." "Are they hoping that he'll die and inherit his position?" At this moment, his face was dark and he glared at his man coldly. One of them couldn't take it anymore, so he took out his keys and threw them at him. Abbie picked up the keys and quickly unlocked herself. Then, she unlocked Elizabeth as well. "Lizzy, give him to me." She wanted to change the positions and let Elizabeth leave first. She would settle the rest later. Elizabeth shook her head. "There's no need. I'll control him." Seeing how determined she was, Abbie did not insist. She glanced at the door and said. "Let's go together." Under everyone's watch, Elizabeth held onto the leader and walked out of the warehouse. The sky had already darkened. They couldn't tell what kind of place this was. Hence, they had to bring this man to a safe place before letting him go. Otherwise, it would be hard for them to escape. At this moment, the car lights shone from far and near, and a few cars drove in this direction at an extremely fast speed. Elizabeth and Abbie felt that something was off, so Abbie said, "Lizzy, run away." All these people came for her, so she would not be after them if she stayed. It would be best if Elizabeth left now. Elizabeth shook her head and said coldly, "I'm not you. I won't leave my family." 然 After saying that, she raised her hand and knocked the leader unconscious. Then, she dragged her and ran away.

Anyway, it's so dark. I'll get out of their sight first. Then, we'll talk about whether or not we "Lizzy..." I could escape. Just when they were running a few meters away, Matthew's voice rang. The two of them stopped in their tracks and she turned her head to look at him. Matthew jumped out of an off-road vehicle. He was tall and he walked steadily towards them. A strong aura of steel emanated from her, giving her a sense of security. Elizabeth smiled and she told Abbie beside her. "We'll be fine. He's here." The sight of him made Abbie's gaze darken. She loved Matthew deeply. If she were to leave this man, she would definitely not be able to do it. But, he...

Chapter 1077 Give Up? Matthew walked towards her and pulled her into his arms. Elizabeth hugged his neck. There was a hint of a smile on her little face and she called him. "Darling..." His tensed expression gradually relaxed and the strength on his hand increased slightly. "Don't worry, your husband is here." This kind of conversation made Nate, who was standing next to her, jealous. He snorted coldly. "If I hadn't missed this opportunity, Lizzy wouldn't have been yours." Nate had always been worried about what happened to Elizabeth when she was raped by Matthew. The two of them had an agreement before they came to rescue her. After they were rescued, the two of them would have a duel. A duel between men, a fight between men. He had no one to hug, so he could only hug Abbie. "Auntie, why didn't you bring someone out?"

However, they were too cunning this time. They got down from the top of the stairs and took the two of them away unknowingly. He even mocked Matthew for not being able to protect his woman. Even if he was to stand by the door, they would be able to get rid of the people inside. Abbie smiled faintly and caressed her son's head. "It's fine. Lizzy saved me. She's very brave." She had never thought that her weak daughter would protect someone so strongly. Only then did she realize that the suffering she suffered over the years had allowed her to learn how to grow.

She had raised three children, so she would also protect others. Nate looked ahead and saw the scene of the two of them hugging each other. It looked miserable and touching in a night like this. But in his eyes, the one he loved was taken away by someone else. That was all. He was unwilling to give in to this man, Matthew. He was unwilling to accept it for now. Abbie saw what her son was thinking and said. "I can see. Lizzy loves Matthew very much. Matthew can protect her well." Only then did Nate lower her gaze to look at Abbie. "Auntie, I heard from them that Matthew has a grudge against us, so don't marry Lizzy to him. I like her. It's good for her to marry me. Our family will be together forever." else. He had been in contact with the three kids too. Previously, he thought that if they were obedient, he could take them with him. However, the two sons were too smart, and it was hard to coax them. Even the little girl, who only cared about Matthew, did not want anything. Thus, the three little ones were not important, as long as Lizzy was with him. Abbie really didn't understand her adopted son. Why would he like Lizzy? He hadn't even seen her face before. It was probably because she had told him too many things about her, so he had a seed in his heart. At this moment, their men controlled those people. Jake and Jasmine brought some of them over. The leader also woke up and was kicked to his knees by Jasmine. Jasmine was Abbie's most capable subordinate. She was the one following her all the time. She didn't ask her to come today, but she didn't expect something like this to happen. "You're just looking for death." Jasmine scolded him coldly.

If he dared to fight the Green Gang, he would not have a good ending. The leader's glasses had long been dropped. He was a little ugly without glasses. He had been wearing glasses for so many years which caused his eyes to deform. He knelt on the ground, looking a little disheveled, but there was still a trace of ruthlessness and unwillingness on his face. He looked at Elizabeth coldly with murderous intent in his eyes. "Bitch, I didn't expect you to be really Matthew's woman?" Matthew had good taste indeed. This girl was quite good at dealing with danger. Abbie did not want to act harshly in front of her daughter. She did not want to see that part of her. "Take them away," she said to Jasmine. Jasmine nodded and led her subordinates to take them away. Elizabeth leaned into Matthew's arms. She looked up at the man with a wicked smile. "My mom won't let me marry you. What should I do?"

Chapter 1078 Humble Mr Hilton Matthew frowned slightly. Michael would not marry her to him, and now her biological mother did not agree to their marriage. A trace of darkness flashed across his eyes. He sighed. "Then I beg her to marry you to me." He seemed to be a little humble, but Elizabeth smiled. "Sure, you can try it." Nate couldn't stand it anymore and said coldly. "Are you still not leaving? Fxck off!" After saying that, he and Abbie walked to the car and Elizabeth raised her eyebrows. "Mr. Hilton, I think you have a difficult brother." After everything that happened today, Elizabeth already knew why Abbie did not acknowledge her. Seeing those people just now, she already knew that her mother was walking on a dark road because she loved her too much, so she could not acknowledge her and did not want to bring her into danger. Matthew held her and walked toward the car. He nodded. "It's indeed a headache."

After returning to the hotel, Elizabeth took a bath and went to bed. She was too late and too sleepy. When she woke up the next day, she realized that the other side of the bed was empty. She reached out and touched it. It was cold. Matthew actually woke up so early. Was he really made of steel? Elizabeth sat up and stretched lazily. She had a good night's sleep! With him by her side, she finally understood many things she couldn't understand. Therefore, she was very relaxed and happy at this moment! 1/3

She got out of bed and walked out of the bedroom. She went to the study and saw him working. Elizabeth walked to the desk and she pointed to the computer because he was in a video conference. If she spoke, it would affect him. Matthew said indifferently, "The meeting is ended." After closing the laptop, Elizabeth walked over and sat on his lap. "When did you wake up?" Matthew wrapped his arms around her waist and kissed her on the face. Elizabeth couldn't help but admire Mr. CEO's body. Last night, it was already past four o'clock when they slept. He had only slept for three hours but he can still be so energetic. Elizabeth buried her head in his neck. "Are you done with work? Should we go out for a walk?" It was the first time she and Matthew went out like this. Going to another city was equivalent to traveling. Hence, Elizabeth did not want to let go of this opportunity and wanted to spend some time with him. Matthew tapped her nose. "Alright, let's go out for a walk. We still need to buy some gifts. My mother-in-law asked us to have dinner at home tonight." Elizabeth was stunned by the fact that he had already called her mother-in-law. "Matthew, you have no self-esteem? I haven't even acknowledged her yet!" Why did he call his mother-in-law already? Is he going to betray me? Matthew fiddled with her hair. "Lizzy, are you sure you don't want to acknowledge her?" Didn't someone say that her mother didn't agree to their marriage last night and that she even had a difficult brother?

Could it be that he understood something wrong? Elizabeth was furious. "She doesn't even want me anymore. I'm very sad, of course I could not just acknowledge her so easily." The awkwardness and seriousness of her were exactly the same as Abby. Matthew smiled faintly and nodded. "Yeah, my wife is right. Your husband supports you unconditionally." Elizabeth wrapped her arms around his neck, "Darling, thank you!" After this time, Elizabeth could no longer leave him. With him, it seemed like she was no longer afraid. Even if she encountered something so dangerous last night, she was not afraid. Every time she thought of him, she felt that he would definitely come to her rescue. She was very sure. At this moment, Jake knocked on the door. "Boss, Miss Jasmine is here. She wants to see Elizabeth." Jasmine was Abbie's employee. She must be here because of Abbie. Elizabeth stood up, "That's my guest."

Chapter 1079 Running After Wife When Matthew saw how nervous and excited she looked, he tightened her grip, as if he was giving him some comfort. "Let's go!" Elizabeth glanced at him and nodded. Then, she walked out of the study. In the living room, Jasmine was standing there. When she saw her come out, she nodded slightly. "Miss." Elizabeth said softly, "Sit!" She made her a cup of coffee and placed it in front of her. Elizabeth picked up her cup and took a sip. Jasmine was wearing a black tightened shirt. She was short-haired and cool. It was obvious that she was the second-in-command in the Green Gang, and her temperament was also outstanding. Jasmine looked at Elizabeth in front of her. She and Madam look very much alike, almost the same. It was a pity that Madam's face had been ruined back then. Otherwise, her beauty would have moved anyone.

"Miss, Madam asked me to invite you and Mr. Hilton to the house. I hope you can stay there." Staying in a hotel made Abbie feel that it was inappropriate. Elizabeth smiled. "There's no need. We can just stay here. We'll be there tonight." She thought that Jasmine was probably looking for her because her mother wanted to see her. From the looks of it now, she wasn't. She was slightly disappointed. "I'll go out for a walk with Matthew later. I'll treat it as a trip." Jasmine picked up her coffee and took a sip.

Then, she spoke as if she had made up her mind. "Miss, in fact, Madam has never forgotten about you. Every year, you will receive birthday gifts from her. She was very serious about choosing gifts and would prepare for a long time. However, you might not know, it's all given under Michael's name." Elizabeth recalled the things her grandfather gave her. Sometimes it was clothes, sometimes it was jewelry. Anyway, it was something that girls liked. At that time, she still felt that her grandfather understood women quite well. It turned out that she was the one who gave them. Her heart warmed slightly. She glanced at the bracelet in her hand. There was a candy-like crystal on it. She received this when she was eighteen. She really liked it and kept wearing it. Over the past few years, she had wanted to sell it several times. However, when she thought that it was her grandfather who gave her a birthday gift, she couldn't bear to. "Was this a gift from her too?" When Jasmine saw the bracelet, she nodded repeatedly. "This is made by our madam herself. It's a birthday gift for your 18th birthday." Elizabeth looked at it. No wonder she liked it so much. It turned out that it was her mother who made it. After chatting with Jasmine for a while, Elizabeth's mood improved. Elizabeth sent her off when Jasmine left. When she reached the door, she stared at her deeply. "Miss, don't blame Madam. She could not do anything about it. She could not escape after stepping on this path, and her men need her. Therefore, Madam has no choice but to sacrifice herself and not be able to be with you. She's doing this to protect you." "Mr. Cox was kidnapped when he was young. He almost died, so madam did not dare to visit you ever again." Elizabeth nodded. "I understand. You should go back! See you tonight." After sending the jasmine off, Elizabeth went into the bedroom, changed her clothes, and put on some simple makeup before leaving with Matthew. They did not drive. There was a famous street, a tourist attraction, near their hotel. The two of them held hands as they walked on the streets. The warm sunlight shone down, making them feel extremely comfortable. There were a lot of pigeons on the streets. There were kids and couples feeding them. Elizabeth looked at him with a sweet smile, "Matthew, I feel that I'm very happy now! Thank you!" Because with him by her side, she felt very happy! Matthew looked at her deeply. At this moment, he wanted to kiss her so he took a step forward and was about to. Nate showed up and tugged at Lizzy. "I haven't agreed yet. You're not allowed to touch my sister."

Chapter 1080 A Brother Matthew frowned slightly when he saw Nate. When he was about to kiss his wife, he was really upset when he was interrupted. Elizabeth was a little surprised too. Her eyes widened. When she saw Matthew's annoyed expression, she couldn't help but laugh. The overbearing and unreasonable Mr. Hilton was unable to do whatever he wanted now. The two sons at home could piss him off, and now I have a brother. Elizabeth felt that this was probably Mr. Hilton's karma for bullying her before. Matthew looked at Nate with a cold expression. "She doesn't have any objections. Your opinion is nothing." After saying that, he was about to take his wife back. Nate stopped her and turned to look at Elizabeth. "Tell him I am your brother." "I gave you a present every year. If you help him, you'll have to return them. Everyone of them." Elizabeth,

” Previously, he looked cold and terrifying. Why did she feel like he was like a kid now? A little childish and a little cute! She recalled the words Jasmine said. The boy had been kidnapped before, and he was almost killed. Hence, he was too traumatized and had serious autism. The situation had only improved over the past few years, so he suffered everything for her. Elizabeth tiptoed and caressed his head affectionately. “Alright, brother.” Nate was stunned upon hearing this. There was a trace of warmth in his eyes. Then, he regained his composure and pretended not to care.

Matthew watched this and knew that she had added two more families. In the future, more people would love her. Elizabeth looked over, “Matthew, this is my brother. If you want to marry me, he has to agree.” Nate finally felt happy and raised her eyebrows to Matthew smugly. Matthew stretched out his hand, “Yeah, I know,” Elizabeth quickly held his hand and returned to his side. The two of them looked at each other and smiled. Nate was unhappy. She grabbed her hand and held it, separating her and Matthew. “Sister, I’ll take you around. W City is very fun.” Then, she pulled her and walked forward. Elizabeth turned to look at Matthew and gave him a few kisses, telling him not to be angry and not to argue with a kid. Matthew put his hands into his pockets and pointed at himself, asking her to compensate him tonight. The two of them seemed to be able to communicate with their eyes. Elizabeth nodded and agreed to his request. Along the way, Nate and Elizabeth looked like two children. Each of them was eating ice creams while walking. When they saw candies, they both wanted to eat. Where is Mr. Hilton? He’s paying behind. After entering the mall, Nate picked out a lot of clothes, accessories, and purses for Elizabeth. Elizabeth couldn’t even hold him back. “Bro, that’s enough! Now that S Group is in my hands, I have my own designers. If you buy so many, I could not wear them.” The kid looked like he had gone mad. After swiping the card, he turned around and said to Matthew. “Did you see that? If you dare bully her in the future, I won’t let you off. I’ll take her away immediately and take away your three children so that you’ll never see them.” Clenching his teeth, there was still a trace of reluctance in his eyes. If Auntie Campbell hadn’t told him that being her brother would only last long, he really didn’t want to admit that Elizabeth was her sister. Matthew wrapped his arms around Elizabeth’s shoulder and became serious. “She’s suffered too much for me. No matter what she did, I’ll forgive her. Besides, I won’t let go of her hands, and I won’t give you a chance to take her away.” After saying that, he lowered his head and kissed her lips. Elizabeth wanted to push him away, but after being kissed by him, she really wanted to kiss back, so she responded to him. Nate’s face darkened. He suddenly wanted to kick both of them to the ground.
