

Game Over 1121

Chapter 1121 Don't Thank Me

Jeszka was seated. It was so high, and the wind was strong

She could see that the soldiers in the base camp were looking at them with their binoculars and started firing at them

Leonard hugged her tightly and whispered into her ear

"Don't be afraid, I won't let you go."

Jessica knew that even if the whole world abandoned her, Leonard wouldn't Tears welled up in her eyes.

He was so good, but when she returned to A City, she could only face reality. It was impossible for her to have anything to do with him.

She felt her heart tighten. It hurts.

She bit her lips and said in a hoarse voice.

*I know, I know everything "

Previously, she could control herself and not let herself fall in love with him. She was pretending she was thanking him for saving Pearl

But this time, she remembered every scene of him sacrificing his life to save her. He warmed her cold heart.

The rope rose slowly. In the end, Jessica was dragged into the cabin by the people on the plane. Leonard got into the cabin as well

A few people in a flamboyant suit greeted him respectfully

“Mr. Johnson, are we going back to A Country now?”

Leonard moved both of his hands. The hand that was wrapped around the rope was already bleeding

Jessica took a step towards him and pulled his hand.

“You’re injured

Leonard looked at her nervous expression and smiled faintly

I’m fine. It’s just a small wound.”

The blood marks clearly recorded how he rescued her just now.

Even if this hand was wasted. he probably wouldn’t let go of her and let her fall

She poked her fingers. Leonard did not scream in pain, but his eyebrows furrowed.

Jessica couldn’t help but feel sorry for him. He is like this. No matter what, no matter how much it hurt, he never said anything

Only then did she realize how evil she was. She did not treat him like a human being and treated him like a copper wall

Jessica ordered a first-aid kit from the people on the plane, then carefully applied the drug and bandaged him.

pter 1121 Don't Thank Me

After she finished everything, she looked up at him.

"Mr. Johnson, can you tell me if you feel pain in the future?"

He's human too. There's blood and flesh. It hurts too.

Leonard smiled faintly. Since he used to be a soldier, he was used to being strong, so he would not cry out of pain easily.

He pulled her into his arms and hugged her tightly.

"Okay!"

Jessica slept in his arms the whole night. The next morning, the plane landed at an training camp in the outskirts of A City

This is the secret base of Leonard. There is a small team of men he trains, but they are all elites among the elite.

www

This time in P City, not only did he mobilize his secret team, but he also mobilized his grandfather's men.

After getting off the plane, Jessica felt a bit cold, her arms wrapped around herself.

Leonard took off his coat and put it over her body. His coat was still warm.

She felt very warm. She raised her small face that was about the size of a palm and looked at him.

“Thank you!”

Leonard lowered his head and kissed her on the lips. He didn’t want to her thank him. All he wanted was her.

Every time he was with her, he remembered that he had long been addicted to her.

After not touching her for so long, he was hard when he was on the plane.

Looking at her smiling face, he couldn’t hold back anymore and directly kissed her.

Jessica closed her eyes and did not resist. In fact, she also wanted to do this to him. It was just that she was afraid and did not dare to face him.

If they had no future, she would suffer in the future.

After being kissed so deeply by him, she allowed him to vent. He was kissing her very hurriedly and harder and harder.

It was as if he was telling her with his own actions how much he missed her, that he was going crazy.

Jessica couldn’t take it anymore, she sobbed softly.

Chapter 1122 Back Alive

She stood in the cold breeze and kissed. It felt like there was a fire burning inside her.

Previously, Jessica still felt cold, but now, she felt so hot, and her face was burning

After kissing her for a long time, he reluctantly let go of her. When he saw how beautiful she looked, he couldn't help but kiss her on the forehead.

Wrapping her in his arms, he walked towards the parking lot

Jessica relaxed for a while before she finally recovered from the heat

Moreover, there were quite a number of people who got off the plane just now. They were very sensitive and no one bothered them. They walked to their respective cars

Now that she thought about it, she felt a little embarrassed.

She had never done this in front of an outsider before. She felt a little shy.

After getting into the car, Leonard drove toward the city. Along the way, he held Jessica in his arms.

Previously, Jessica was in a daze. She did not believe that she really returned to the country

Now that she was no longer in danger, she suddenly felt that everything was a dream.

Especially those that they experienced in P City. It was like a dream and now they woke up

The moment they entered the city, the car drove into a stream. Jessica looked at everything outside and felt that this kind of life was called life

The people of City were really very miserable.

The car suddenly stopped and the driver turned around.

“Mr. Johnson, our car was forced to stop. I’m sorry!”

The driver should know that the few cars that stopped them were from the Johnson Family, and they were also sent by Benjamin, so he did not dare to act rashly

Of course, Leonard knew that once he returned to A City, Michael would get someone to catch him.

Leonard had been prepared a long time ago, so he spoke softly.

Leonard lowered his head and looked at Jessica. His expression was relaxed.

“Jess, I could not send you home. I’ll visit you in a few days.”

After saying that, he kissed her on the cheek

“Wait for me at home.”

After that, he let go of her and pushed the car door open.

Jessica looked out the window. A few men in black suits came out of the four cars. All of them were wearing headsets and they saluted him respectfully before he got into one of them.

After the four cars left, they continued their journey.

Jessica was leaning against the seat. Both she and Leonard understood.

By the time they reached A City, the two of them would no longer be together. Hence, they had only kissed so tightly for so long at the campsite airport just now.

Even though they were reluctant to let each other go, they had no choice but to face this reality.

Jessica did not have a good family background. Moreover, she was married and had a kid.

She was indeed not a match for Leonard. Their family was right to look down on her.

At that thought, her gaze darkened.

I'm going to suffer for the rest of my life!

She had been living in the orphanage ever since she was a kid. She had grown up with difficulty, and then she was married to a scumbag. Pearl was also sick

Previously, she thought that she must have done a lot of bad things in her previous life, which was why she would suffer so much in this life.

Fortunately, Pearl's illness has recovered. This is the happiest thing of her life,

As long as Pearl was well, she felt that there was hope in everything. Their future was still bright.

She took a deep breath. Even though she had fallen in love with Leonard now, she knew that he was the man who loved her the most. For her sake, she could not care less about life and death.

But she also knew that her life was a joke. She didn't think about the future anymore.

Otherwise, she would only feel upset.

She spoke to herself, then raised her head again, looking at this familiar street.

The thing she should think about was, I came back, I came back alive.

"Darling. Mom's back. I won't leave you ever again. I won't let you become an orphan."

That was what she thought of in P City back then. If she was dead, Pearl would take her old path.

Chapter 1123 Punishment

Leonard was brought home. When they entered the house, they saw Benjamin waiting there Mrs. Johnson stood up and ran to his side.

"Leonard, where have you been all this while?"

No one in the family could contact him. His phone was switched off and they didn't know where to find him.

Previously, he was in the army too. As long as he performed a mission, he would lose contact.

At that time, Mrs. Johnson was always worried that something bad would happen to him. Now that he had finally retreated and returned, she felt that she didn't need to live those days of worry and fear anymore.

Unexpectedly, it was still the same.

Mrs. Johnson caressed his face. "You've lost weight. Where have you been?"

Suddenly, she saw the gauze wrapped around his hand and pulled his hand.

"Are you hurt?"

"Mom, I'm fine."

When she saw her son looking so serious, she was a little disappointed. When he was young, he was the most thoughtful and adorable.

However as he grew up slowly, he became more and more serious. Like an adult, he was no longer close to her when he was a kid.

"Grandpa is looking for me. I'll go see Grandpa first."

Mrs. Johnson nodded and returned to her original expression.

"Go ahead! Your grandfather's in a bad mood lately. Maybe it's because of your absence. Don't talk nonsense later and comfort him a little. Otherwise, you'll have to be punished."

Michael had been treating this kid very much since he was a kid. Previously, he had been focusing on raising him, wanting him to take over his responsibility

But this y

he chose to withdraw in the end, making Michael's heart cold.

Leonard walked up to Michael and stood upright.

"Grandpa!"

Benjamin glared at him. "You've used my men! Why don't you tell me? Why did you borrow them?"

Actually, his men must have reported it to him.

Leonard lowered his head. "I borrowed them to save someone in P City."

"Who did you save?"

Leonard could only say the truth. After all, he knew that if he lied to him, the consequences would be worse.

When he answered him, his voice was strong.

Benjamin laughed coldly. Your woman? A divorced woman with a kid. She used to work in a nightclub. Do you think that a woman like her will love you for you?"

Michael looked at him like he was looking at a retarded man. He felt that this man had grown up in the military camp and did not know much about the outside world.

Especially women. He thought that it was fine as long as she was pretty.

Character is the most important thing. Moreover, the granddaughter in law that our family must be from a prominent family."

Leonard replied, "I don't care if she loves me. I just want her"

If he could say such a thing out of his mouth, it proves that he has faith in that woman.

Michael was shocked. Usually, this man wouldn't open his mouth, but as long as he did, then he must be sure and he won't change his mind agam.

He had already made up his mind.

Michael was so angry that he smashed the glass.

Mrs. Johnson had just come out of the kitchen and was about to ask them to have breakfast when she was shocked by the old man throwing glasses.

She furrowed her eyebrows and looked at her son.

Why are you arguing?

If he offends Michael, he must be beaten up. She hurried over.

"Why did you make your grandpa angry?"

Mrs. Johnson sat next to Michael and helped him to calm down.

“Dad, Leonard just came back. He’s still young and immature. Just treat him like a kid. Don’t get angry.”

The old man glared at Leonard before him.

“I think you’re too free. Go out and run around the courtyard for too limes.”

Although the Johnson Family’s courtyard wasn’t big, it was about 500 meters in a circle. But 100 times were still exhausting.

Chapter 1124 His Blood

After saying that, Leonard went out for a run. Mr. Johnson felt sorry for him.

Dad, Leonard has just returned. He’s lost a lot of weight. Why don’t we let him run tomorrow and have breakfast first?”

Benjamin glanced at her indifferently. “You don’t even know what he’s doing outside. Treat a divorced woman like a treasure. If I don’t teach him a lesson, he’ll probably bring that woman back.”

A trace of surprise flashed across Mrs. Johnson’s eyes. Does Benjamin already know about this?

No. Didn’t she give Jessica one million and ask her to leave Leonard? Why are they still together? The old man even heard about it.

When Benjamin saw that she was lost in thought, he understood that she probably knew about it too, so he didn’t say much.

“Nieva, if you have the time, you can build a good relationship with the Chien family and confirm Leonard and Layla’s wedding.”

Mrs. Johnson’s name is Nieva Chen. Everyone in the family addresses her as Nieva.

Mrs. Johnson nodded. “Okay, Dad!”

Mrs. Johnson was still worried about her son, so she got up and went to the courtyard.

The weather in A City was not good today and it was already raining. Although it wasn’t heavy, the coldness of winter and rain made it a little colder.

When she saw her son in a thin outfit, she couldn’t help but call out to him.

“Leonard, put on some clothes before you run.

She had already asked the maid to bring over the hairpin. It was made of waterproof cloth.

Leonard said as he walked past her.

“Mom, go home! I’m fine.”

After saying that, he quickened his pace and ran faster

The rain got heavier and heavier. The maid held the umbrella for Mrs. Johnson, but her body would be soaked by the rain, so she could only persuade her.

“Madam, it’s raining too heavily. You should go back to the house first!”

By the

in theme Mrs. Johnson reached this age, she won’t have a good body like a young man like Leonard. She would definitely fall sick if she was

She watched her son run around. The rain had already soaked his clothes.

Mrs. Johnson knew that her son was stubborn, so she let out a long sigh.

Walking into the house, she thought about it

If he could be more obedient, then it was alright for him to retire. After all, the family business needed someone to inherit. In fact, she could see him every day, which was good

But this kid just came back just a while ago. He was then with a woman like Jessica. What was so good about that woman?

“I need to negotiate with the Chen family and ask them to get married

The president’s daughter is beautiful, and she’s also the head of the State Bureau. Having such a wife would only benefit Leonard in the future

“I don’t care what he’s up to. I’ll have to make this happen.”

By the time they entered the house, Mrs. Johnson was walking with her head lowered. She noticed that there were a few drops of blood on the floor and they were all the way to the couch.

“Who got hurt?”

www

The blood hadn’t completely dried yet, so it should have been dripping not too long ago. Besides, it was all along the way, so the injury shouldn’t be light.

“No one got hurt,” replied the maid.

Mrs. Johnson suddenly realized something?

Anxiously, she glanced at the old man sitting upright in the living room. He was drinking tea. His gaze was cold, and it was obvious that he was very unhappy.

Mrs. Johnson was worried about her son, so she walked up to him.

“Dad, Leonard is injured. Why don’t you tell him not to run and treat his wound first?”

Benjamin hadn’t listened to her before, so he asked her as if he had come back to his senses.

“Is he hurt?”

Mrs. Johnson pointed at the bloodstain on the ground.

“Dad, look, these blood must have been left by Leonard when he just left. No one else in the family was hurt.”

Benjamin said, “Bring me my

Chapter 1125 What Does That Woman Look Like

Soon, the maid brought the old von After putting it on, he got up and walked toward the bloodstain and walked out

Following that, he said bondly, “Quick, hurry and call Leonard in

The kid did not make a sound after getting hurt lte not uncommon for him to get hurt in a place like PCity.

The tears in Mrs. Johnson’s eyes welled up. “Quick, call the doctor.

After losing so much blood, he was still running. It was raining outside I was really heartbreaking.

A short while later, the servant came in to report.

“Madam, Leonard, he...”

“What’s wrong with him? Talk properly.”

This little girl was drenched, and she couldn’t speak properly.

Mrs. Johnson was really going to die of panic.

The maid added. "He fainted."

Mrs. Johnson stood up from the sofa in a daze. As she was too anxious to get up, the blood supply in her brain was short. Her eyes darkened and she fell to the ground.

After a while, she finally recovered.

"Quick, get someone to carry him in.

She walked to the door and said as she walked

"Doctor, ask the doctor to come here quickly"

The family doctor's house wasn't far from here. Every time she gave him a call, he would be able to arrive soon.

"Madam, I've called Dr. Zhang. He'll be here soon.

Benjamin was also a little worried. Although the boy had always been in a very good health, he had lost so much blood. No matter how strong his body was, he couldn't take it.

The servants carried him to his room on the second floor.

Mrs. Johnson and Benjamin went upstairs. When they entered the bedroom, the servant had already unbuttoned his flamboyant suit.

He was falling asleep on his lap. He lifted the black T-shirt inside and the terrifying wound made her heart skip a beat.

“Oh my god! Why are you hurt so badly?”

She saw a very long scar on Leonard’s back. The suture was ripped. Blood trickled out from the open hole below.

Mrs Johnson had never seen such a terrifying wound in her life.

Her tears couldn’t stop and she quickly rushed to the side of the bed.

“Leonard, Leonard...”

The wound should have been infected. If they did not treat it, she did not dare to think if it would be life-threatening

Benjamin furrowed his eyebrows and said coldly

“Stop the bleeding first and ask Zhang to hurry up.”

Even though Benjamin was used to seeing all sorts of injuries, he could tell at a glance that it was scratched by bullet. He sat on the sofa beside him and was not too calm anymore.

Even though he used to be in the army.

But this time, he went to P City. That place was chaotic. Being injured like this made him feel guilty and angry.

“Why did he run there?”

Thinking of this, he recalled the incident seven years ago. This bastard made a huge mistake, so he had to send him to the army as a punishment.

7 years had passed in a flash, but this brat did not seem to change at all

For the sake of a woman, he really did not care about anything at all. Moreover, she was still the same woman.

By the time the doctor arrived, Mrs. Johnson took a step back and watched from the side.

After the doctor looked at it, he felt that his condition was worrying. “Madam, I need to suture Mr. Johnson again. You guys can wait outside”

Mrs. Johnson did not want to leave. She wanted to see

The doctor continued, “It can be a bit bloody Why don’t you wait outside?”

Mrs. Johnson agreed to go out and said

“Zhang, remember to sew it nicely Don’t let anything happen to him ”

“It won’t be long before he gets engaged and will be married ”

If he was covered with scars then, he would frighten the bride on wedding night

As a mother, she had to think ahead

When they reached the bedroom door. Benjamin glanced at the servant and said softly

You all go down! When I call you, you'll come over again."

The servants had already left before he spoke up.

"Nieva, have you seen that woman before?"

He was quite curious about what that woman looked like. How could she make Benjamin fall into her hands twice i

Chapter 1126 Pregnant

Mr. Johnson nodded. "I've seen her before. Besides being pretty and seducing, there isn't anything special about her."

Mrs. Johnson's expression turned cold when she talked about Jessica gave her one million, but that girl took the money and didn't leave him. I'll go find her again"

Benjamin smirked coldly

"We can only use special means."

A trace of darkness appeared in Mrs. Johnson's eyes.

"Alright, Dad!"

Jessica returned to Star Villa. When she entered the house, she felt relieved that she had really returned.

Ms. Elliott was cleaning the house for her. When she saw her return, she ran towards her.

“Jess, it’s great that you’re back.”

Ms. Elliott pulled her into her arms and hugged her tightly. She could feel her excitement.

“Ms. Elliott, I’m back. I’m back alive.”

Only those who experienced death would know that it was so good to live!

Ms. Elliott hugged her for a while before she suddenly remembered.

“Recently, Lizzy has been anxious. She kept saying that she’s going to look for you. If Mr. Hilton hadn’t been trying to stop her, she might have gone straight to P City.”

Jessica knew that the girl was the person who cared about her the most in this world. However, she had Matthew. Fortunately, she had Matthew to stop her.

Otherwise, she would only be in danger if she went there.

“Ms. Elliott, I’ll go upstairs to take a shower first. Give Lizzy a call and ask her to send Pearl home. I’m missing Pearl.”

“Okay, I need to give her a call first so that she can rest assured.*

Jessica went upstairs and looked at the familiar room. She closed her eyes and relaxed for a while before going into the bathroom to take a shower.

Lying in the bathtub, she removed her exhaustion and closed her eyes as she rested.

The bathroom door was pushed open and Lizzy entered the bathroom.

Jessica leaned against the bathtub. Her face was flushed. It was caused by the steam, but it was exceptionally tempting

Elmbeth was wearing a white down jacket. One could tell that this was Mr. Hilton's work

Jesca looked at her and smiled, "When did you become so afraid of the cold?"

Elsbeth used to be poor, but she loved beauty. Even in winter, she needed to dress up beautifully

"When did you wear such a thick coat before?"

Elbeth got up from the bathtub and glanced at the clothes in a low profile. She pouted in anger.

It's not Mat

He said I could not catch a cold. He's so cold that he wants me to wear this. Otherwise, I couldn't go out."

She took off the coat and threw it onto the sofa outside.

The house was heated up. It was very warm, but she was too anxious to look for Jessica, so she did not have the time to remove it.

Jessica still smiled, he was happy for her

"Is Mr. Hilton very happy,?"

The thought of that man, who usually looked cold, but when it came to Lizzy, he really cared about her.

Elizabeth stood in front of the sink and looked at the mirror.

“Of course he’s happy, but he’s not happy at the same time!”

Because she had just been pregnant for more than a month, and he wanted to have sex every night, but he couldn’t, so he was in great pain.

Chapter 1127 Talking About Love

Jessica understood instantly when she heard this, she laughed even more happily.

Klizabeth came back to her senses and saw how happy she was smiling!

However, she became slightly serious, and her gaze on her became a little deeper.

“Isn’t it bad in P City?”

Because there were still some new scars on her body, they had just healed. Her body was fair without any scars before.

Now, on her hands and on her back, there were several scars that could be seen.

Only then did Jessica glance sideways, “Lizzy, let’s not go to that place anymore. It’s bad, I almost died there.”

The moment she had just gotten off the plane that day, she had gone through two vicious fights.

Especially in the second round. A bomb was tied up in her hand, and the moment she untied it, she increased the speed of time.

At that time, she really thought she was doomed. When Leonard showed up, she felt secure. She had never felt this sense of security before..

At that moment, there was no one else in her eyes except for him.

Only then did she realize the importance of this man in her heart.

Elizabeth saw that she was lost in her thoughts and she responded.

“Yeah, let’s not go. You don’t have to think about those things anymore. If you’re short of money in the future, just tell me, I have it. Mine is yours.”

Knowing that she was stubborn and unwilling to take other people’s money, even if they were best friends, she still kept her principles.

Jessica smiled, “Actually, I’m not short of money, I just want to earn more.”

At this moment, someone knocked on the bathroom door and Pearl’s voice was heard.

“Mommy! Mommy!”

Elizabeth knew that Pearl missed her mother so she walked to the door.

“Pearl misses you. You should come out soon.”

Elizabeth pushed open the bathroom door. The four children at the bathroom door. Pearl and Abby were in front, and Arthur and Antony were standing behind her.

The four children were disappointed when they saw Elizabeth.

Elizabeth couldn't help but laugh. "Are you so disappointed to see me?"

She reached out to caress the two beauties in front of her and smiled.

"No! It's just that Pearl misses mommy too much. We hope she's happy!"

mile

Parlashed timidly, "Godmother, is my mother alright?"

This little girl had been having nightmares all this while. This must be her mother and daughter's connection.

Klizabeth amended. "She's doing very well. She's in the shower. She'll be out soon."

Standing at the door of the bedroom, there was a tall and slender body. He looked deeply at Elizabeth and walked toward him with a sweet

"I didn't run just now I really didn't run "

Ever since finding out that she was pregnant, Matthew had become very cautious.

Matthew held her hand. His gaze was filled with affection.

"Is she alright?"

Elizabeth shook her head. Looking at her injury, what did she experience? She could not imagine.

Therefore, looking at her like she was fine now was actually not good for her.

Matthew pulled her into his arms and gently placed his hand on her belly

“That she is back safely is more important than anything else From today onwards, don’t worry about it anymore. Go to bed early tonight.

Don’t worry about her anymore. Your main task now is to take care of the baby”

Due to her poor health

she gave birth to the triplets back then and fell sick, having this kid was a little hard for her, so she needed to be extra cautious

Elizabeth nodded Suddenly, she raised her head and looked at him

“Matthew, what if I have triplets again?”

The thought of being a mother of six children made her feel terrified

She was still so young, if she had given birth to so many children, would anyone laugh at her?

Matthew smiled. “That means we’re very a power couple. They have to go through it six times to get it done, we’ll be done twice. Isn’t that

Chapter 1128 Return To Reality

Elbeth was amused by him. Suddenly, she realized that Mr. Hilton was a delicate tongue!

At this moment, Jessica came out of the bathroom and saw only the four children.

Pearl pounced on her, "Mama!"

Jessica picked her up. The girl was still very thin. Besides, her body was recovering and she needed medication, so it was hard to gain weight.

The more she thought about it, the more distressed she felt. She kissed her on the cheek a few times.

"Darling, I miss you! I miss you a lot too!"

Pearl rubbed her neck with her head. "I really miss you too."

She had never been separated from Jessica for such a long time. She was very scared, afraid that she would abandon her.

Pearl was a very sensitive kid. Because she had been sick since young, she saw some worlds that children couldn't see.

For example, her mother's hard work, the hardship of losing money, and the pain of sickness.

"Aunt Jess!"

day.

When Jessica saw the three children, she smiled and responded.

"Thank you for helping me take care of Pearl during this period of time. Everyone will be rewarded with a big chicken leg later."

“That’s great!”

Abby jumped up. She liked eating chicken legs. She was very happy to hear that she was rewarded.

The happiness of kids is simple.

“Aunt Jess, this is what we should do,” said Arthur and Antony.

Ever since they were young, the two kids loved Pearl and treated her like a sister. Hence, it was a joyous thing for them to play with her every

When they came out of the bedroom, they saw the two of them hugging each other.

Arthur and Antony glanced at Matthew and walked toward the staircase.

Abby ran toward the two of them and covered her mouth.

“You two are glued to each other again! Keep it down. Don’t scare the baby in your belly.”

A few of them laughed.

Jessica held her daughter. When she walked past them, she coughed lightly.

Remember to come downstairs for dinner. I’m starving. I won’t wait for you guys.”

After staying in PCity for more than ten days, she really couldn’t get used to the food there.

Klibeth raised her hand and patted Matthew.

Sigh, look, they've all inisunderstood."

Matthew held her and led her to the staircase.

"What misunderstanding? Aren't we glued together? Our daughter knows us best? She's indeed Matthew's daughter."

After lunch, Elizabeth and her family left.

Jessica was about to go to the studio to take a look. She didn't know how chaotic the place was during her absence.

Moreover, she had to buy a new phone, a new card, and a bunch of things!

She changed into her outfits and went downstairs. Pearl was playing in the living room. When she saw that she was going out, she followed.

"Mommy, where are you going?"

She tugged on her clothes, looking reluctant.

Jessica could tell that she was afraid that she would not come back if she left again. She bent down and caressed her little face.

"Be good at home. I will be at work. I'll be back in the afternoon. I won't leave you ever again."

Pearl nodded, "Oh!"

Jessica's gaze darkened when she saw how good her daughter was. Even though she was still a kid, she had gone through so much, which was why she was so sensitive.

Sometimes, she really hoped that she could be like Abby, talk more, be more happy, and be more willful.

Jessica went to the studio. When she entered the house, the two receptionists were a little excited when they saw her.

"Jessica, you're finally back."

The two of them turned toward her and she smiled.

"When I'm not around, the studio is alright?"

One of the girls named Penny shook her head, "No! You'd better go in and take a look!"

Jessica walked into the studio. When she entered her office, she saw Patrick's mistress sitting in front of her desk talking on the phone

That's right. There's a new order. You don't have to come back. Go ahead and take the next order."

Chapter 1129 The Child Is Not Mine

Jessica walked in and placed her purse on the desk. She folded her arms in front of her chest and glared at She opposite her.

"Get lost."

She let out a soft roar and the woman trembled in fright

She kept her phone and looked at Jessica. Then, she curled her lips coldly.

“Yo, you actually came back alive from P City.”

Surprisingly, she and Patrick thought that she would definitely die in P City, so they took over her studio.

Upon hearing this, Jessica felt that something was off.

“How did you guys know?”

Thinking of the fact that she had gone to P City herself, she suspected that she had been tricked there. Could it be the two of them?

Jessica’s eyes widened slightly, she grabbed her hair and pulled her head toward hers.

“Tell me, how did you guys know? You’re the ones who set me up.”

Page couldn’t react for a moment. She screamed in pain.

“Jessica, you crazy woman, let go, let go of me.”

Page struggled and patted her hand

Jessica tore her hair very hard, she didn’t want to let go.

“Ah...”

Page screamed. It hurt her to death, but she couldn’t get rid of Jessica.

Suddenly, Jessica was pushed to the ground. Then, Page threw herself into Patrick's arms and pointed at Jessica.

"Patrick, look at this shrew. She hit me the moment she entered Boohoo..."

She burst into tears.

Jessica hadn't seen this man for a long time. He didn't care about Pearl. When she saw him now, she was furious.

The two girls at the front desk helped Jessica up

"Miss Jessica, are you alright?"

Penny whispered, "That man said he's your ex-husband. If you sell his house, he'll take over your studio until the house is back."

Jessica finally understood that that scumbag was doing this for the small house for him.

She glared coldly at the two of them hugging each other. She clenched her fists.

1129 The Child Is Not Mine

"Patrick, I sold the house. Before the divorce, we said that it belongs to Pearl."

This scumbag. Could it be that this woman has brainwashed him and she wants to steal the house?"

He was the one who paid the house's down payment, but she was the one who paid off the loan.

Patrick snorted coldly, "You still have the nerve to mention Pearl. If it weren't for Page's reminder, I won't have thought of doing a testimony.

You bitch, Pearl isn't my kid at all. You're lying to me, so I have to take this house back."

He comforted Page gently, "Page, don't cry. My heart will ache if you cry."

Jessica was shocked, she stared at the motherfxckers in front of her.

You're lying. Pearl isn't yours? Impossible. Who else can she belong to if not yours?"

Jessica held her head. It hurt, and her mind was in a mess.

www.

She felt that this man was absolutely evil. He had hurt her heart, but he was still slandering her like this.

Page suddenly stopped crying and said coldly.

"Jessica, you don't even know who the kids is. It's obvious how slutty you have been. Now you're asking us, how do we know who your daughter is?"

Patrick's expression darkened. "That's why it's impossible for me to leave the house to Pearl. Either you return the house to me or give me money. It's very simple."

Jessica was completely confused. She did not believe them, she definitely did not believe what the two of them said.

Pearl is already so big, but he she it wasn't his kid. The audacity he had.

Jessica returned to her usual expression, she pointed at the office door and roared..

"You two, get out of here. Don't even think about the house and money. I won't give it to you."

Upon hearing this, Page's expression changed slightly and she shook Patrick.

"Patrick, if you don't have a house, then it's impossible for me to marry you. I'll go home first. When you have a house, you'll come to me."

Chapter 1130 Grandpa Is Angry

After Page finished her sentence, she hugged Patrick and kissed him reluctantly.

Im leaving.

When she turned her head to look at him, her expression was completely disgusting

Jessica couldn't help but want to laugh. This woman is really good at acting.

Patrick caught up with her. "The house belongs to me. Don't worry, I'll make sure she returns it. Pago, wait for me. I'll definitely marry you."

After the two of them left, the studio finally quietened down.

Jessica was in a bad state. She did not believe what Patrick and that woman said.

She sat on the sofa in anger and couldn't help but glance at her desk. The desk was very messy. She closed her eyes and realized that she had only been away for a few days.

The two of them already made a scene here. She had to recruit her employees and hold a meeting first.

Johnson Residence.

In the bedroom of Leonard, he was lying on the bed. The doctor had already treated her wound. Her wound was already inflamed, so he had a fever.

He didn't care, and no one noticed.

If it weren't for the rain, he might have suffered it in silence. In the end, it would be very dangerous.

Leonard was still unconscious. In P City, he didn't have much time to sleep, so he kept falling asleep after fainting.

Mrs. Johnson sat by the bed and looked at her son like this. Her heart ached.

Master Johnson also felt bad. He stood up and sighed.

"Sigh!"

The old man was furious when he thought that he was being like this for that woman, Jessica.

When Mrs. Johnson saw that he was leaving, she turned to look at him.

"Dad, don't worry. I'll take care of Leonard's wedding. You don't have to worry about it."

Michael was not young anymore. She wanted to make him feel less worried.

Moreover, he had a bad temper, and Leonard was stubborn too. When the two of them bumped into each other, a fight was easily triggered. In the end, her son was the one who suffered the loss.

Benjamin nodded. T'll go back to Fish Island."

Mrs. Johnson stood up. "Dad, the weather is not good today. Why don't we go back to Fish Island when the weather is better?"

Benjamin said indifferently, "It's too cold here, I could not stand it."

Actually, he liked training soldiers. Even if he didn't train for a day, he would feel bored. He had his own base there and the temperature on the island was better. It wasn't cold.

Life there was much more comfortable.

time.

Mrs. Johnson followed Benjamin downstairs and asked the servant to prepare his things.

Leonard's bedroom was guarded by a maid while the doctor was in the room next to it. If he was unwell, the maid would inform the doctor in

In the afternoon, Leonard finally woke up.

He opened his eyes and the servant ran out happily.

“Madam, Young Master is awake. He’s awake.”

Leonard furrowed his eyebrows. Why is this little girl so loud?

He raised his hand and pressed on his head. He was a little dizzy.

Mrs. Johnson walked in hurriedly. “Leonard, you’re finally awake.”

She held onto Leonard’s hand. Tears welled up in her eyes.

“Where is Grandpa? Is he still angry?”

The wound on his body was torn open again, so he fainted when he was running. This wound was too deep.

He thought he could handle it, but in the end, he still collapsed.

Mrs. Johnson sighed. “Your grandfather was angry that you liked a woman like Jessica. He went back to Fish Island. He said he only came back when you and Layla got married. Otherwise, he won’t be back.”

Leonard's expression darkened slightly. He wanted to say something but his body was too weak..

Suddenly, his head hurt. He raised his hand and pressed on it. A few images flashed in front of him. All of them were the smiling face of

Jessica, and she was wearing a white dress, looking very
