Chapter 1136 Your Daughter Is Cute

Sitting in the passenger seat, her assistant flipped through her phone and replied to her.

“Madam, Jessica’s daughter is Pearl. She’s six this year.”

Mrs. Johnson furrowed her eyebrows “Six years old?”

Under the green light, their car drove forward and Mrs. Johnson spoke.

“Turn the front and follow Jessica.”

“Okay, madam!” The driver replied.

Ten minutes later, the car stopped at the entrance of a breakfast store. Mrs. Johnson got out of the car, and her assistant followed her out of the car.

When we entered the breakfast restaurant which was quite famous, it was huge and it was almost filled with people.

After Mrs. Johnson entered the store, she had been searching for the mother and daughter.

Her assistant caught a glimpse of the little girl sitting by the window. She was really too pretty. Her skin was fair and her eyes were watery.

“Madam, Pearl is over there.”

At this moment, she sat alone in her seat. Her big eyes were blinking and looking around, looking very curious.

Mrs. Johnson walked toward her. Pearl saw that someone had arrived, so she hurriedly said.

Those seats are taken.”

The little voice was pleasant, sweet and crisp, but the voice was relatively soft, and it sounded a bit timid.

Mrs. Johnson sat beside her and she smiled faintly.

Pearl took a glance at the place where her mother took the food. She thought about it. Her mother said she couldn’t talk to strangers, so she stopped talking

She bit her lips and did not say anything. All she did was look at her with her big watery eyes from time to time.

Mrs. Johnson merely stared at her without forcing her to speak.

Brandon brought breakfast over and placed the milk and porridge in front of her.

“Pearl, hurry up and eat. We need to catch the school bus.”

She needed to go to the studio. Besides, she didn’t have a car, so Pearl usually goes to school on school buses.
