Triplets' Attack: Game Over Daddy Chapter 21

He Must Be Our Daddy Michael sat on a mahogany chair and took a sip of his coffee.

He was wearing a suit that brought out his domineering aura.

"I remember that Matthew is an outstanding young man," he said.

Tiana was delighted when she heard his words. Her cheeks flushed as she was shy.

Whenever Michael looked at her, he would feel sad as he was reminded of Elizabeth.

He heaved a long sigh. If only Lizzy is here.

However, Tiana felt worried seeing Michael's happy look. After all, her marriage with Matthew was merely for show.

Nevertheless, she believed that Matthew would definitely fall in love with her after she put in some effort to win his heart. The more she thought about it, the more blissful she felt.

Celine knew that Michael would like Matthew. Who in Mistwood will despise such an outstanding grandson-in-law? It's a good thing that Tia managed to win his heart. Now, she is a worthy granddaughter in Michael's eyes!

"Dad, Tia met Lizzy the other day. She is back in Mistwood," she said.

Upon hearing that, Michael widened his eyes in surprise. "Is that true, Tia? Where is she?" His bond with Elizabeth was pretty strong, as he was the one who raised her showered her with love.

up and There wasn't a day for him to stop worrying about her throughout these six years.

Tiana shook her head and replied, "Grandpa, I only met her in a restaurant. She was bringing her daughter with her. I heard from her daughter that she has triplets-two sons and a daughter. They are currently five years old. She's pretty impressive to have given birth to triplets." With that, she exchanged glances with Celine as she noticed Michael's darkened face.

He Must Be Our Daddy Compared to his previous delighted look when he heard that Elizabeth was back in/ Mistwood, his expression was now full of grief.

After all, Elizabeth was the eldest daughter of the Wade family. If others were to know that she had given birth to three illegitimate children, he was bound to be embarrassed.

Michael waved his hand. "You shall leave for the meantime." Hence, Tiana and Celine left the study obediently. Tiana burst into laughter the moment she stepped out of the room.

"Haha! What a clever plan it is, Mom! Look at his expression. I just can't get enough of that!" she remarked.

Celine merely smiled. She was pretty confident with her plan. "Tia, you have only one thing.

to do now-never let go of Matthew. I won't allow anything to go wrong in your marriage. As for that little b*tch, Elizabeth, we will know her whereabouts with Michael's help. I will deal with.

her when the time comes." Meanwhile, Cody went to fetch the kids in the afternoon. Abby approached her the moment she came out from school.

"Ms. Elliott, did Mr. Handsome come to our house to look after Lizzy?" she asked.

Cody smiled and replied, "There was a luxurious car parked at our residence's entrance. I supposed that was him!" Upon hearing that, Antony laughed and said, "Well, if his car was there, he should have visited Mommy." man.

He then smiled and caressed Abby's head. Well, at least it proves that he is a kind-hearted Arthur heard their conversation and asked, "What did you do behind. back?" my His expression suggested displeasure. These two little kids did something behind my back, huh?

He Must Be Our Daddy Upon noticing Arthur's angry look, Abby and Antony quickly held each of his hands.

"Arthur, listen to me!" they said in unison.

Antony smiled and waved his hand. "You shall tell him, Abby." Abby blinked her bright eyes and uttered solemnly, "Mommy and I met a handsome man that looks like both of you! I think he's probably our biological daddy. I asked him to take care of Mommy today as she's sick. Arthur, I'm so happy that I found our daddy! We finally have a daddy."

Triplets' Attack: Game Over Daddy Chapter 22

Swollen After listening to her, Arthur furrowed his brows and sank into his thoughts.

He then said, "Although we are looking for our daddy now, we can't simply acknowledge a random guy as our daddy. Understand?" As their eldest brother, he considered more things than them as he was relatively mature.

However, Abby pulled a long face and wailed, "I don't care, Arthur. I like him! I want Lizzy to marry him!" Antony felt his heart ache when he saw his sister tearing up. He said, "Arthur, I believe Abby's judgments. Besides, I've tested him before, and he has a good personality. Well, we shall wait till you approve him before marrying Mommy to him." In fact, the three of them knew that their mother would remarry someone someday..

She never told them anything about their father. The sensible triplets never asked her about.

their father too. However, Cody and Pearl's mother had once mentioned that Elizabeth had to marry someone to live a good life in the future.

Although they didn't know much about the relationships between the adults, they all wanted their mother to be happy.

Arthur nodded in agreement. He wouldn't disagree with his siblings' opinions. I shall meet that man first to see if he's worthy enough to be our father.

Although Cody didn't join their discussion about their new daddy, she could tell that the three kids had high hopes for him. I hope that Lizzy gets herself a boyfriend who cares about her this time.

When they reached home, the three of them went to Elizabeth's room and noticed that she was taking a nap.

They quickly pressed their fingers to their lips and tiptoed out of the room.

However, Elizabeth saw them. She smiled and rose from her bed.

Swollen "Come here," she called.

Although her voice was still slightly hoarse, she wasn't coughing anymore.

Abby took a sharp turn and threw herself into Elizabeth's arms. "Lizzy, I miss you so much!" The latter felt itchy as Abby rubbed her face against her body. She patted her daughter's butt and said, "Oh, come on. Are you obedient in school today? You didn't get into a fight again, did you?" Although Abby was just a little girl, one shall not underestimate her in a fight. She had once.

pinned a boy to the floor and gave him a beating, causing Elizabeth to apologize to his parents.

Elizabeth didn't have to worry about her two sons. However, she had to watch over her little daughter.

Abby pouted and replied, "Of course I will behave well under Arthur and Antony's surveillance!" The three of them were in different classes previously. However, Elizabeth had requested to arrange them in the same class for Abby's brothers to keep an eye on her.

end.

If not, the days of her being embarrassed by Abby's outrageous acts would not come to an Arthur caressed Abby's head lovingly and said, "Mommy, don't worry.

The boy Abby beat up last time was the naughtiest boy in the class who likes to hit other kids. What Abby did was merely self-defense.” Elizabeth smiled. Self-defense, huh? Arthur really knows a lot of words.

Antony poured a glass of water for her. “Mommy, drink some water. Did anybody take care of you today? I heard from Ms. Elliott that a man visited you today. Is he your boyfriend?” This little kid was trying to know his mother’s feelings toward the man.

Upon hearing him mention the man who visited her in the morning, Elizabeth couldn’t help but feel her blood boil. I need to pay him more than one hundred thousand just because he spent Swollen a morning here. This is ridiculous! No. I must not let them know that I even signed a promissory note with Matthew. They are sure to kick up a fuss if they know about that!

Suddenly, Abby pointed at her lips and asked, “Mommy, why are your lips swollen like a sausage?” Elizabeth touched her lips. She’s right. My lips don’t feel well today. They felt numb as if someone bit them just now.

Triplets’ Attack: Game Over Daddy Chapter 23

Rascal Both Arthur and Antony were staring at her lips with furrowed brows.

“Mommy, perhaps you should go see a doctor,” her sons said.

Cody walked into the bedroom with medicine. She overheard the children saying that Elizabeth’s lips were swollen. Cody could not help but burst into laughter.

Having been young before, Cody could tell at first glance as to what had happened to Elizabeth’s lips.

“There’s no need to go to the hospital. My lips will be fine after two days,” assured Elizabeth.

Seemingly in a daze, Elizabeth touched her lips as she felt a sense of numbness and tingling pain. An inappropriate image flashed through her mind. Initially, she had thought that it was a dream. Did it really happen?

She cursed inwardly as realization dawned upon her. Matthew Hilton, you, ‘scal!

Elizabeth did not tell any of them what had happened on that day, especially her sons.

After all, both the boys were fearless. If they knew what Matthew had done, they would demand an explanation from him. The boys were no match for a powerful man like Matthew.

Regardless of what had happened, she had checked with Dominic. It was possible that Matthew could lose tens of millions in a morning for missing his meetings..

Elizabeth could only take that incident as receiving a big favor from Matthew. They would have nothing to do with each other once she paid off her debt.

At the same time, Abby was anxious to know if Matthew had dropped by. She shook Elizabeth and asked, "Lizzy, was a handsome man here today?" Matthew was by far the most attractive man Abby had seen. Of course, her brothers were good looking too. Abby thought complimenting Matthew was just the same as praising her brothers since they looked alike.

Rascal Elizabeth thought that Cody had seen Matthew and told the children.

After all, Cody was really close with the children, and she would talk about every single thing with them.

"Yes. A handsome man came and took care of me. Are you happy now?" Elizabeth said reluctantly.

Upon hearing that, Abby jumped in joy. "That's great! We're going to have a daddy!" As soon as she spoke, Abby realized that she had said something wrong. She swiftly covered her mouth with her tiny hands, and her eyes kept looking around.

Her brothers had told her that she should not mention the word "Daddy" in front of Elizabeth. Abby was so thrilled that she had forgotten about it. Lizzy is not unhappy about it, is she?

Antony and Arthur frowned when they heard what Abby said. They were also worried that Elizabeth would be upset.

Elizabeth looked at how her three children reacted. She knew that they were thoughtful and considerate.

Then, Elizabeth raised her hand and ruffled her hair. "Don't worry. It's okay for you to talk about Daddy. Everyone has their daddy and mommy. Even though I can't tell you who your daddy is now, I can assure all of you that he loves you." The three children nodded after listening to her explanation.

They had the same feeling that their father loved them, and they hoped that they could finally meet him one day.

Three days later, Elizabeth had completely recovered from her sickness.

She sent her children to school in the morning before going home to check her emails on her phone and laptop. She wanted to see if there were any replies from the companies after she had sent her resume.

Rascal Her highest education level was high school. Thus, many vacancies available were in the service industry, and they offered relatively low salaries.

Cody had just returned from grocery shopping. She called out to Elizabeth as she entered the house, "Lizzy, someone is looking for you." Hearing that, Elizabeth stood up and walked toward the entrance of her house.

"Ms. Elizabeth, is that you?" Ruben stood at the entrance with an excited look on his face.

Elizabeth was surprised, too. She had been living alone in Mistwood for the past six years.

Besides, she had not met anyone from the Wade family all these years.

After all, Elizabeth was living her life as an ordinary person. Since the Wade family was considered one of the wealthy families in Mistwood, it was common that she had never met any of them.

She would not have met Tiana if she had not gone to the restaurant to return Matthew's jacket. And now, Ruben was here at her doorstep.

Cody smiled and asked, "Lizzy, he's looking for you, right?" Did he just call her Ms. Elizabeth? Which wealthy family is she from?

"Yes, Ms. Elliott. He's looking for me. You may go in now." Elizabeth/nodded.

Cody wanted to find out more, but she could only go inside the house since Elizabeth had instructed her.

"Ruben, why are you here?" Elizabeth asked while standing at the door, showing no intention.

to invite Ruben into the house.

Rubén calmed down after a while and said, "Ms. Elizabeth, Old Mr. Wade sent me to pick.

you up. We have guests over today at home, and he wants you to be there with him." Hearing Michael's name made Elizabeth tear a little. She missed her grandfather.

In the Wade family, Michael cared for her the most. However, Michael, who was conservative, could not accept her inexplicable pregnancy. Thus, she was ashamed to see him.

Rascal Ruben then added, "Ms. Elizabeth, Old Mr. Wade just wished to see you. He didn't mean anything else. Please come with me to meet him."

Triplets' Attack: Game Over Daddy Chapter 24

The Truth Elizabeth nodded slightly. "Okay. I'll go in and change. Wait for me here, Ruben." She did not want to invite Ruben in because Cody was around. Elizabeth did not want her children to know about her relationship with the Wade family.

Grandpa might get angrier if he sees the kids. So it's better not to let them meet one another for now.

When Elizabeth stepped inside her house, Cody asked, "Lizzy, is that your family member?" Cody was curious. She had always thought that Elizabeth had been living alone at such a young age with her three children since she gave birth because the latter did not have any family members to help her.

“No, he’s just my friend’s family member. He needs my help with something.” Elizabeth shook her head.

Cody nodded knowingly in response as she put away the groceries.

Elizabeth went into her room and chose a blue floral dress with a beige coat from her closet.

These were the few nice clothes that she owned.

Despite not being the season’s latest trend, it was a timeless piece.

Elizabeth reached into her drawer and took out a jewelry box. There were two pieces of jewelry inside, jade and a ring.

The ring was given to her by the man in her dreams. After all these years, she had never thought of selling it, even after selling all her other jewelry pieces.

Elizabeth still saw a glimmer of hope. She wished to find her children’s biological father, and she firmly believed that he was not an old man.

Then, Elizabeth placed the jade into a blue gift box. It was a vintage piece that was highly valuable. An old lady had gifted the jade to Elizabeth as a gift to express her gratitude for the latter’s help.

The Truth It would soon be Michael’s birthday. Since Elizabeth could not afford an expensive gift, she wanted to give him the jade as a birthday present.

Elizabeth took her bag, headed out the door, and got into the Wade family’s car.

On her way to the Wade residence, she fixed her eyes on the view outside the window.

Elizabeth could not be more familiar with the street in front of her eyes. She had often dreamed of it in the past six years of living alone. But in reality, she did not dare to set foot on it.

When they arrived at the Wade residence, Ruben called out, “Ms. Elizabeth, we’re home.” Elizabeth only came back to her senses when she heard Ruben’s voice. She glanced at the Wade family’s manor and got down from the car.

As she entered the house, Michael was sitting in the living room. It seemed like he had been waiting for her. Michael was clad in a dark blue suit, and he looked energetic.

Tiana and Celine were there too. Even her father, Richard, was present.

Celine rose to her feet as she saw Elizabeth walk in. She exclaimed, “Lizzy is home!” She was wearing a green embroidered dress, and she sashayed her way toward Elizabeth.

Elizabeth did not say a word when she saw Celine. Instead, she made her way to Michael.

and called out, “Grandpa!” When Michael saw Elizabeth, his eyes lit up with happiness. Nodding, he offered, “Take a seat, Lizzy. Just make yourself comfortable at your own home.” Elizabeth sat next to Michael and ignored the family of three.

Richard was shocked to see her. “Lizzy, where have you been all these years? Why didn’t you come home?” Michael took a sidelong glance at Elizabeth. He felt that she had become prettier, but she seemed to have lost a lot of weight. It must be hard for her to live alone outside.

Elizabeth replied to Richard, “Didn’t all of you want me out of the house?” The Truth “Who wanted you out of the house? If you hadn’t done something disgraceful and ran away, we wouldn’t have left you to fend for yourself!” Richard yelled with anger.

When the mother and daughter, Celine and Tiana, heard what Elizabeth said, they looked away and dared not meet her eyes.

Only they knew what had happened back then. The others did not know the truth and thought Elizabeth had run away from home.

Elizabeth shot Tiana and Celine her cold glare. There was a strong sense of hatred in her dimmed gaze. She would never forget the incident from six years ago.

Not only did the mother-daughter duo ruin her reputation, but they also wanted to take her life. They were ruthless.

“Did I run away myself?” Elizabeth sneered and continued, “Aunt Celine, Tia, was that really what happened?”

Triplets' Attack: Game Over Daddy Chapter 25

Love From Michael When Tiana heard what Elizabeth said, she looked at Celine. Both of them were in a panic, worrying that Elizabeth would tell everyone the truth about what had happened six years ago.

Tiana hurriedly changed the subject and asked, “Lizzy, didn’t you give birth to triplets? Two sons and a daughter. Why didn’t you bring them along? I’m their aunt!” With that, she smirked arrogantly. Michael and Richard were conservative and prideful men.

Tiana had purposely mentioned Elizabeth’s children, who were born out of wedlock; she did not want Elizabeth to talk about the incident.

Richard’s eyes widened in surprise after he heard what Tiana said. He questioned Elizabeth, “Did you really give birth to those b**stards?” Elizabeth was only a teenager when she was pregnant. She could not even tell who the babies’ father was, yet she had the nerve to give birth to them.

As Elizabeth heard the insulting word, her face darkened.

I think this house is not the right place for my kids. After all, they only take my precious kids.

as some lowly, illegitimate kids.

Elizabeth’s heart ached as the word echoed in her ears. Even if she had to work hard her whole life, she would never want anyone to look down on her children.

She probably seemed like a weak person on the outside, but she was actually a tough person. She was willing to give up on everything for her three children.

You words, Mr. Wade. Those are my precious children, but not bstards. If it's like what you said, didn't you and Celine give birth to a bstard too?" Elizabeth snapped.

Celine had seduced Richard back then. Then, she was pregnant with Tiana. After that, she forced Elizabeth's mother to leave. Since then, Elizabeth's perfect family had broken apart.

Technically, Tiana could be considered the real illegitimate child.

"Elizabeth Wade, what did you say?" Tiana shouted in fury.

Love From Michael How dare she call me a b*stard?

Richard was so enraged that his face contorted. If Michael were not there, Richard would have slapped Elizabeth.

Celine was furious, but she held herself back. After all, her affair with Richard had been deemed as a disgrace by Michael too. That was the reason why Michael did not like Tiana, and he also did not choose her as his heir.

Michael's face fell. "That's enough. Lizzy hasn't been back for years. What's the point of fighting? Go home, all three of you. Leave me alone with Lizzy for a while." Richard stood up and gave Elizabeth a cold glare. Please don't come home. Otherwise, you'll be the death of me.

Celine grabbed Tiana's hand, walked out of the main building, and headed back to their mansion.

– Elizabeth heaved a sigh of relief after they left. She wanted to control her emotions.

Howevei, Elizabeth's anger welled up when she saw them, as she was reminded of how they had treated her mother and her in the past.

Elizabeth would not go easy on Richard and his family. She would not miss any chance to stir up trouble with them.

“Grandpa, I shouldn’t have come home. I made you upset the moment I’m back,” said Elizabeth as she grabbed Michael’s hands.

She was still acting mischievously like how she used to.

Michael could not help but chuckle at the look of Elizabeth’s cheeky expression.

He tapped on her forehead and said, “You’re still the same girl I know. Aren’t you worried that you’ll upset me? I’m the only person who loves you in this house.” Elizabeth held Michael’s hand and leaned her head against his shoulder. “Grandpa, I know you love me the most, so you won’t get mad at me no matter how naughty I am.

Love From Michael After all, Michael would like her more if she went against Richard, Celine, and Tiara, as the former had always thought Richard was the one at fault. As such, there was nothing wrong with Elizabeth defending her mother.

It showed that Michael’s effort to bring Elizabeth up was not in vain.

Michael burst into laughter again after hearing Elizabeth’s reply. Ruben, who was watching their interaction at the side, was moved to tears.

Old Mi. Wade has not been so happy for many years. It’d be good if Ms. Elizabeth could come home!

With that thought in mind, Ruben said, “Ms. Elizabeth, why don’t you move back home? Old Mr. Wade will be over the moon!” Elizabeth was in a trance after she heard Ruben’s request.

Even though Elizabeth’s relationship with Michael remained the same, they could not act as if nothing had happened. After all, she was already a mother of three at that point.

Besides, Michael could not seem to accept the children yet.
