

Game Over 551

Chapter 551 Mr Hilton Is A Dad

He sneered, "I'm hanging up."

Nicolas lowered his head. He ruinally thought that he and ready hard gjetted

Leonard a by his side lately, only he couldn't handle Lizzy, so they finally felt sperice

We can finally overpower him and make him envy us

Unexpectedly, he already had kids, but he didn't even know who the child's mother was

Hence, he planned to tell Leonard the news and make him food upper.

"They're good buddies who share bliss and misfortune together

He did not knock on the door. Instead, he entered Leonard's ward and saw yours secours onto the bed. The two of them were gnawing on each other

Nicolas stopped walking and coughed lightly

"Leonard, didn't I tell you not to have sex within a month? Do you not want your body to recover anyn all."

"Why is this guy behaving the same way as Matt? Both of them don't care about the body at Jessica was shocked when she heard the voice of Nicolas and she pushed himri.

"Mr. Johnson, there's someone..."

This was the hospital room. But this fellow. She was obviously feeding him soup, so how could she food him to the bed?

Sometimes, Jessica felt that she was very weak. After being teased by him a few times, she didn't know where she was.

Just like now, it was simply too awkward.

Leonard was upset. His body was fine. If he didn't want this woman to feel guilty and take kare of him, he would have been discharged a long time ago.

I finally pressed her onto the bed today. However, I was disturbed by this guy, and I was a latle unhappy

He got out of bed and wrapped the brandy tightly with the quilt.

"Why are you looking for me?"

Nicolas saw how much he cared about her and even said it was just a joke. He did not believe it.

"Well, isn't this the first time we're in a relationship, so he's falling for it, right?"

He held onto Leonard and walked out.

"Let's go outside and smoke!"

Leonard didn't have any objections. Since she was feeling embarrassed now, it would be easier for her to soil herself out if they were to leave.

The two of them went to Nicolas's office. His office was on the top floor next to his lab.

The place he stayed the most was in the lab. Lately, he wished he could live in the lab.

The two of them entered his office. There was a huge balcony outside. The two of them walked to the balcony and looked at the city of A City smoking.

Leonard frowned slightly. "I'll stay in the future. I might take over the company."

Previously, he did not want to but stay in the army.

But now, with his body like this, the most important thing was that he wanted to stay.

Nicolas puffed out a cigarette in surprise.

"How did you get it? It was useless to persuade you before. For the sake of Jessica?"

Leonard supported the fence with both hands and watched the traffic downstairs.

"Probably, Pearl is very cute. It's too hard for Jessica to be alone. I don't want her to have to work so hard."

Nicolas let out a whistle. "Oh, really? But can your family agree to it?"

The Johnson family was a prominent family of soldiers. He had a strict upbringing since young. They hoped that he could become an outstanding soldier and protect the country.

"I don't want those anymore. I just want to stay here. I don't want to care about anything else."

In fact, he had thought about it for a long time. If he had to leave the army, he would really be reluctant.

However, if he went there, he might not come back for three to five years. How could Jessica wait for him?

Hence, even if he wanted to go back, he had to have enough fun. At least he hadn't had enough fun yet, and he still wanted to sleep with her a few more times.

"By the way, didn't you say you have something important to tell me?"

Leonard puffed on his cigarette and looked at him.

Nicolas smiled wickedly. "I just wanted to tell you that Matt might be a father."

"As a father, is Elizabeth pregnant?"

But with the current situation, Old Mr. Hilton would not agree.

Chapter 552 Worried

"It should be her, right? He wants me to test his DNA anyway."

"That's not right."

"No."

Nicolas thought about it seriously. "DNA testing. Could it be the three children of Elizabeth?"

If it was an infant, it will be too young to be tested. Besides, it's dangerous to do it. It's impossible for him to take the risk."

Moreover, did Matt not know if the child in Lizzy's belly was his?

Leonard said, "Then, do I need to test Pearl too? It might be my daughter!"

“Hahaha...”

Both of them laughed, thinking that Matt probably wanted a child too bad.

At Dragon Mountain Villa, the psychiatrist and Mrs. Campbell arrived together.

When she entered the house and saw Elizabeth massaging Dominic’s head, she walked over with a smile.

“Lizzy, you’re here early today! Or have you moved here?”

Elizabeth replied, “Just come earlier. I have three kids at home! They could not leave me.”

Mrs. Campbell was a little angry when she heard about the three children.

Even though they weren’t the descendants of the Campbell Family, but Dom had to take the burden.

The newspapers nowadays were all about this.

Immediately, Mrs. Campbell’s expression changed. She was no longer as enthusiastic as you.”

“Hazel, Hazel...”

“Madam.” Hazel ran out of her own room.

She ran quickly and stood beside her in an instant. She was slightly stunned.

“This girl isn’t just good-looking. Her legs are quite quick too. No wonder Dom only hires.

After saying that, she walked toward Hazel and said, "These are the Chinese medicine that I brought here. You have to let the young master drink them on time every day. I'll teach you how to warm them up."

Elizabeth should have done all these, but Mrs. Campbell did not dare to boss her around.

Mrs. Campbell led Hazel and went into the kitchen with a few servants carrying Chinese medicine. The medicine should be frozen in the refrigerator.

Elizabeth let go of Dominic's head, "Does it still hurt?"

Dominic was in a much better mood, but he was a little unhappy with the psychiatrist sitting opposite him.

I don't want to see him, but my mother and Elizabeth are here.

"It doesn't hurt anymore. Take a seat."

Dominic's voice was low. It wasn't as sunny as before, but it was still very warm.

Elizabeth personally poured some tea for the psychiatrist and said with a smile.

"Doctor, sorry for your trouble coming here."

Mrs. Campbell hired this psychiatrist. It was the best psychiatrist in A City. His name was Norman Bates.

Norman nodded slightly. "Ms. Wade. I've accepted the money. It's normal for me to treat Mr. Campbell."

Elizabeth smiled and started coaxing Dominic.

“Dominic, can you go for treatment with Dr. Bates? Your body is all normal, and your are also normal. But you’re blind. This might have something to do with your psychology.”

She explained with a gentle expression.

Dominic used to think that this smile was beautiful, he would be very happy that she could treat him like this.

Now, he felt that she just wanted to get rid of him, so he hoped that he was not blind, and she could be with Matthew in public.

At this moment, Elizabeth’s phone rang.

Elizabeth saw that the caller was Matthew and quickly answered it.

“Hello.”

Matthew was obviously very happy. He stood in front of the French windows and looked at the scenery outside.

“I’m going to your house for dinner tonight. I need you to cook a few more dishes.”

She did not go to school now just to take care of that brat Dominic.

Even though he understood her intention, he was still upset.

Hence, having her cook herself was a form of punishment.

“Me? My cooking isn’t good. Why don’t you let Arthur and Antony make it? The two of them are cook geniuses.

Chapter 553 Feelings For Him

If Arthur and Antony were to cook, it would definitely make people want to eat their tongues together, because the food was too good.

Previously, she had thought that why not open a restaurant and let her two sons be the chefs, the restaurant would definitely be famous in the world, and she would also had a lot of money.

But in the end, she still dismissed this idea.

After all, they were still two children. The main focus was on school, play and happiness.

Thus, she would rather work harder instead of holding the two children back.

Matthew sneered, “As long as you can convince them to cook for me, babe, see you tonight!”

After saying that, he hung up the phone. Elizabeth felt reluctant.

It seemed that he was sick, and it seemed that he wasn’t sick. She really didn’t know that after sleeping, he was extremely energetic, as if nothing had happened.

However when he saw him last night, he looked very tired and also lost weight. She held her phone in a daze. Dominic called her a few times but she didn’t hear it.

Seeing that Dominic was a little unhappy, the doctor chatted with him and interrupted his attention.

Elizabeth held her phone and typed.

“Matthew, you’ve lost weight lately. I’ll definitely make a big meal for you tonight. Eat more then. Also, don’t work too hard. Remember to rest. I’ll take care of you.”

After sending the message, she kept her phone and walked back to the couch.

Seeing that the psychiatrist had already started talking to Dominic, she obediently sat by the side and poured them some tea.

Mrs. Campbell had already finished her instructions. She walked over in her high heels and chatted with Hazel.

“Hazel, what time does my son usually sleep? Does he sleep well at night?”

As a mother, she cared about her son’s daily lives. She couldn’t stay by his side to take care of him, so she hoped that the maid would do her best.

Hazel rolled her eyes. She didn’t know that Young Master would stay upstairs by himself every night.

She was watching TV in the living room. When she was tired, she went back to her room to sleep. The two of them didn’t interrupt each other at night.

“I was asking you a question.”

This girl looks quite clever. She can clearly differentiate the medicine just now.

“Young Master is going to bed at 9 o’clock. He’s sleeping quite early.”

Mrs. Campbell felt a little uncomfortable when she heard this.

She thought about her handsome son. Does he usually sleep so early at 9?

At 9 o'clock, he was either socializing, or in the company, sometimes in the gym, or drinking with his friends.

Now that he didn't see anyone, living alone in this mountain, being sad.

At this thought, Mrs. Campbell couldn't help wiping her tears.

Thope he'll recover. As long as he's healthy, I won't oppose him anymore. I'll support him no matter what.

After saying that, she thought to herself, Oh God! I beg you to make my Dom healthy and safe for the rest of his life, and let his eyes recover! Even if you take ten years from me, I'm willing to do so.

Hazel tan to Dominic and patted his shoulder.

"Young Master, you have to take a lot of medicine from now on!"

The smile on her face was filled with happiness, like a doll.

Dominic did not turn back nor did he show the way he saw her. He continued to stare ahead.

"When did I not take medicine?"

The moment she heard this, she wanted to cover her mouth. Why did she say the truth?

Hence, she turned around and pointed upstairs.

"I'm going to take the clothes. It's raining outside again."

Mrs. Campbell was stunned for a moment. "It's been raining all day. Why do you take them. until now?"

Hence, they followed her upstairs, followed by a few servants. It was obvious that Mrs.

Campbell was very worried about Hazel,

That little girl did not know how to serve anyone.

After the few of them went upstairs, the living room became quiet.

Dominic suddenly asked, "Can I not be hypnotized?"

Dr. Bates just said that the best treatment was hypnosis, so that they could find out the cause of his insomnia.

Chapter 54 He Does Not Want To Die Here

Dr. Bates smiled faintly, "This is the best way."

Actually, he accepted Matthew's money to delete the memories of Dominic and Elizabeth.

Although he hadn't done it yet, after learning psychology, his main focus was hypnosis, but he felt that he could do it.

Elizabeth looked at Dominic. From his face, she saw a trace of worry.

Hypnosis could be good and bad. She had been studying psychology recently. Although hypnosis can cure his illness, not all cases succeed.

"Dr. Bates, why don't you stop hypnosis today and talk to him and see her current condition."

Dominic also felt that something was off. This was the first time the doctor visited. He was not the one who visited last time.

And he wanted to hypnotize him first. Why was he planning?

Hence, Dr. Bates couldn't force it. "That's fine. A doctor who worked for me came to treat your disease previously. I wasn't there during that time. Mrs. Campbell called me today and asked me to come here myself. I'll have a good chat with Mr. Campbell and see what's going on."

Elizabeth sent Dominic to the bedroom. It was inconvenient for her to stay inside. When she left, she comforted him.

"Dominic, I'm at the door. Call me if you need anything."

Dominic laid on the bed, his whole body relaxed.

"Okay!"

He responded in a low voice.

Elizabeth nodded at Dr. Bates and walked out of the bedroom and closed the door for them.

Leaning against the wall, she looked up, feeling a little tired.

After exhaling heavily, she prayed silently.

"God, just let Dominic get better! He's a good person. Don't let him go blind."

She believed that as long as his eyes were better, he would not have psychological illnesses.

He would be the same as before, sunny and warm.

At this moment, Mrs. Campbell walked toward her. "Has it already begun?"

A smile appeared on her face. She recalled what happened on the balcony just now. That Hazel girl was really cute.

She can do whatever she wants.

She's very obedient and a good servant. She should be doing her best to serve Dom.

"Okay."

Elizabeth replied, then glanced at the watch on her hand.

"Mrs. Campbell, they'll be chatting for about an hour. You should go and rest first. I'll get someone to tell you when it's over."

Mrs. Campbell looked at Elizabeth and a trace of warmth flashed across her eyes. This girl was actually quite pretty. She was born into a good family, but her life was a little hard.

She was pregnant at such a young age. If it weren't for the three kids, I won't have objected. so much.

"Okay, I'll rest in the guest room. Ask the servant to call me over there."

After saying that, she caressed Elizabeth's face. "Thank you for your hard work recently."

If she hadn't been here every day, Dom wouldn't have been so cooperative.

Mrs. Campbell was quite grateful to her at this moment. She would treat her well in the future.

“It’s no trouble, as long as he can get better.”

Meanwhile, in the bedroom, Dominic was holding a gun and the gun was pressed against Dr. Bates’s head.

“Who asked you to come?”

Dr. Bates was terrified because people in A Country were not allowed to use guns. Most people had never seen real guns before.

Now, there was a gun pressing against her temple. This feeling was cold.

He raised his hands, “Mr. Campbell, please spare me.”

It wasn’t just for an expensive income, he would not hypnosis him. He hadn’t even started yet! His life was already in the hands of others.

Dominic smirked coldly, “Who asked you to come here? If you don’t tell me the truth, I’ll get rid of you immediately. No one will find out even if you’re buried in a place like here.”

Dr. Bates was so astonished that cold sweat broke out. It turned out that he was not blind!

Now that he had found out about his secret, he probably wouldn’t show any mercy to him anymore. Moreover, Dragon Mount Mountain was a mysterious place, and many strange things happened when they built the mansion.

It was normal for one or two people to die here occasionally. He did not want to die here.

Chapter 555 Lies

“Mr. Campbell, I will confess, don’t fire.”

The one from Campbell Family is not to be messed with, but the one from Hilton Family is even harder to be dealt with.

“There was someone who gave me a sum of money and asked me to hypnotize you so that I can erase the memories of you knowing Ms. Wade.”

“Matthew?”

Dominic narrowed his eyes and said coldly.

“No, I don’t know. It’s a young man, but he’s wearing a mask. He doesn’t look like Matthew.”

No matter what, he did not dare to say the truth. Whoever he thought it was, it did not matter.

Matthew sent a man to look for him. It was reasonable.

Dominic’s expression changed. It was very dark, and the sharpness in his eyes was very strong. Matthew, even started to play tricks on him. He did not know what kind of person he was.

“Matthew, you should not play with me. Let’s wait and see.”

Dominic kept his gun. “If you dare to tell anyone about me, not only will you be in trouble, even your family won’t be able to escape from me.”

He threatened coldly. Dr. Bates was going crazy.

If he failed to complete the mission that Matthew had given him, he would be doomed. Now that Dominic was threatening him like this, he must bring his family and escape.

“Don’t worry, I’ll keep this secret until I die.”

Dominic kept his gun and pointed to the outside.

“Later, you’ll say that my mental illness is very serious and it’s hard to cure. The best way to obey me and fulfil my wish. Maybe I’ll recover one day.”

Dr. Bates nodded repeatedly and took out a handkerchief from her bag to wipe away her sweat.

“Okay, I’ll tell them what you said”

After saying that, he started tidying up the things he brought. After tidying up, he nodded at Dominic.

“Goodbye, Mr. Campbell!”

I won’t see him again. I won’t come again. Besides, I’ll leave A City and never return.

When Di. Bates walked out of the bedroom, Elizabeth quickly stood up, a little surprised.

“Doctor Yang, is it over?”

She turned around, her eyes filled with anticipation.

Bates nodded slightly. “Ms. Wade, I could not cure Mr. Campbell’s illness. It’s too serious. From now on, you should try your best to fulfil his wishes. Otherwise, I’m afraid he’ll only fall deeper and deeper. In the end, he might even loses herself. At that time, his eyes won’ be the only problem.”

He said it very seriously. In order to survive, he could only describe Dominic as a bat crazy

Her whole body trembled after hearing what he said. She looked like she was frightened when she saw the doctor leaving.

She could not imagine what happened inside just now.

Elizabeth grabbed onto him and said, "Dr. Bates, say it clearly. What do you mean it could not be cured? Is his eyes a matter of mind or body?"

She had never thought that Dominic's condition would be so serious.

Di. Bates glanced at the clothes that she was holding tightly. If he could leave, he would definitely leave quickly.

This place was like a dangerous hole. If he stayed here for more than a second, he would not be able to escape.

He raised his hand to get rid of Elizabeth's hand. "Ms. Wade, I'm only looking at the psychological side. Mr. Campbell is in a very bad state now. Don't provoke him. If him, he'll probably recover."

After saying that, he hurriedly walked away without looking back. Elizabeth watched him leave like he was avoiding a ghost and knew that Dominic's condition should be very bad.

She pursed her lips and calmed herself down.

She pushed open the bedroom door and walked in. Her face had a hint of a smile.

"Dominic, how are you feeling?"

Dominic was lying on the bed. When he heard her voice, he sat up.

Elizabeth hurried over to help him and asked him to put on his slippers.

“The doctor said your condition is quite good. Don’t worry, you’ll get better in the future.”

Dominic listened to these words and thought to himself, was that what he said?

Chapter 556 Decide To Be With Him

Dominic suddenly hugged her. “Lizzy, don’t leave me, okay?”

He seemed to be a little excited at this moment, Elizabeth was a little confused, she gently patted his back.

“No, I won’t leave you.”

As she spoke, Matthew appeared in front of her.

I really want to be with him. But now that Dominic is like this, what will he do if I leave him again?

Elizabeth felt sad for a moment, and her eyes were drained of light.

I could not provoke him. I could not refuse to get engaged to him and get married.

She took a deep breath. She couldn’t provoke her grandfather, and she couldn’t Dom. Why would God make things difficult for her like this?

At this moment, Mrs. Campbell walked in and she coughed awkwardly.

Elizabeth hurriedly took a step back. Her eyes still had no light.

Mrs. Campbell walked over to Dominic and held his hand, gently caressing it.

“Dom, what did the doctor say?”

Dominic saw Elizabeth’s sad expression and knew that the doctor must have said harsh words to her. He needed to set a fire to her.

“He said he won’t come again.”

“Huh?”

Mrs. Campbell looked surprised. “Why not?”

Dominic shook his head, “I don’t know.”

Elizabeth listened to the mother and son’s conversation. Actually, she knew why Dr. Bates say?”

Dominic’s illness. He couldn’t cure it.

Mrs. Campbell looked at Elizabeth. “Weren’t you always at the door? What did the doctor He just left without thinking. Isn’t this doctor the best psychologist in A City?

Elizabeth smiled, “The doctor said Dominic’s condition is very good, so don’t worry. You’ll recover slowly.”

She could not bear to tell Mrs. Campbell the truth. After all, She was just a friend of Dominic, it was already so harsh for her to hear the truth, what about his mother?

If it was Mis. Campbell, she loved her son so much, she would die of heartbreak.

Afraid that her body wouldn’t be able to endure it, she didn’t want to tell her the truth.

In the future, she will take good care of Dominic and make sure he gets better.

Mrs. Campbell nodded. "That's good!"

Elizabeth was in a bad mood the whole day. When Mrs. Campbell saw that she was really unhappy, she asked her.

"Lizzy, didn't you sleep well last night?"

At this moment, she was trimming flowers with Mrs. Campbell. However, her hand was stabbed by the flowers a few times, and she was still bleeding. She sucked in the blood and nodded.

"I had insomnia last night, so I wasn't in a good mood today."

Mrs. Campbell looked upstairs. Dom was in the study, and Hazel was reading him. There was no need for Lizzy.

"If that's the case, you should go back and rest first. Come back tomorrow."

She was here too. Even if Dom needed anything, she could accompany him.

Elizabeth was a little flattered. "Ah, is it okay?"

Mrs. Campbell looked at her cautious expression and her voice softened a lot.

"Lizzy, I don't know you before. Now that I've been with you for a long time, I know that you're too kind. Since Dom has decided on you, and you don't dislike him, I'll treat you like a family. You don't have to be so careful in the future. If you're tired, go back and rest."

Elizabeth smiled, "Thank you, Mrs. Campbell."

Mrs. Campbell's expression changed slightly. "In the future, call me mom."

Elizabeth was still not used to Mrs. Campbell's sudden enthusiasm.

"Auntie Campbell, I'll take my leave first."

She still couldn't call her mom, so she called her "Auntie Campbell."

Mrs. Campbell didn't care. As long as she was comfortable!

"Go ahead. The chauffeur is outside. He will send you home."

Elizabeth left in the car. The driver knew that this young lady was very likely to become the Young Mistress, so he treated her very respectfully.

Chapter 557 Yes, My Wife!

"Ms, Wade, may I know where you live?"

Elizabeth said, "Star Residence."

The chauffeur nodded slightly. "Okay."

After that, they drove out of the Dragon Mountain Villas and drove down the mountain.

When they entered the city, Elizabeth recalled that she had an appointment for dinner with Matthew. She wanted to cook a few dishes for him tonight.

I should ask my sons to make a few dishes too. This might be the last supper.

The thought of this made her feel a little depressed.

Elizabeth drove down the entrance of the neighborhood. Then, she went to a supermarket nearby and went to buy some ingredients, all of which were Matthew's favorites.

By the time we reached home, it was only around four o'clock. It was quite early.

Ms. Elliott was a little surprised to see her enter the house.

"Lizzy, you came back early today!"

She took the ingredients from Elizabeth. "You bought so many!"

Elizabeth smiled, "Matthew is coming for dinner tonight, so I bought extra."

Ms. Elliott nodded. "He hasn't been here for a few days. I'll definitely have everything under control tonight!"

She carried the ingredients into the kitchen. Elizabeth went back to her room and sent him a text with her phone.

"Don't forget to come earlier."

Matthew was in a meeting. When he saw the phone on the table vibrate. He glanced at it and grabbed it.

When he saw that it was a text from Elizabeth, a trace of warmth appeared on his face.

The people at the meeting table were shocked to see this.

Recently, the Hilton Group was like hell. Mr. Hilton was in a bad mood. They were working overtime every day, and all of their proposals were shut down.

All of them were so frightened that they wanted to resign. If it weren't for the high salary of the Hilton Group, they really wanted to leave, otherwise they would have a heart attack.

But at this moment, Mr. Hilton's expression could be described as warm.

Every single one of them felt that they could get off work earlier today, so they didn't need to work overtime anymore.

After Matthew put down his phone, he said softly.

"You can get off work on time tonight."

The people at the meeting table almost jumped up. They had guessed it right. Could it be that the person who just sent the message was Mi. Hilton's fiancée on the news?

When they meet this Young Mistress in the future, they need to kiss her a** so that they can get off work on time in the future.

Matthew got up and was about to leave. Everyone at the meeting table was stunned. Mr. Hilton is not having a meeting anymore? It's only 4.30 p.m.

Jake sat beside him. Seeing that no one dared to make a sound, he asked on their behalf.

"Mi. Hilton, do we need to redo this proposal?"

Matthew stopped in his tracks. "There's no need. It's pretty good. Let's go according to this plan."

After saying that, he opened the door of the meeting room and strode away.

The originally quiet space in the meeting room suddenly exploded.

“What’s happening? Why is Mr. Hilton suddenly in a good mood?”

Previously, they thought that Mr. Hilton was forced to get married, so he was gloomy

Now that the sky in the Hilton Group is bright, what is the reason?

Jake shook his head. “I could not guess what what is he thinking. You’d better focus on your work and not Mr. Hilton’s private life.”

Jake had spent the longest time with Matthew, and he was one of the people he trusted the most. Hence, his personality resembled Mr. Hilton’s, and he was cold and distant.

Matthew returned to his office and glanced at the message she sent him.

Looking at the words ‘come home earlier’, he suddenly felt like she was his wife asking him to go home earlier.

He could imagine the life when they got married, she would be at home while he would be at work. After work, his wife would prepare a sumptuous dinner for him.

The whole family ate together, then took a walk together.

In the evening, they shower together, get on the bed, and do something they like to do together.

A day like that was a blessing to him!

“Yes, my wife!”

Chapter 558 Last Supper

Elizabeth needed to change into a black dress. This dress wasn't too extravagant, but it was a little sexy. It was quite suitable to wear at home.

She even applied some perfume on the back of her ear. This was a handmade gift from Jessica.

Jessica was very talented in this aspect. She loved beauty, so she would make some cosmetics, perfume, and perfume herself.

The scent was unique. Jessica said that it was her unique scent, and her name was Lizzy.

The after-flavor was sweet, and she liked it.

She applied this ointment tonight to make Matthew remember this scent forever.

At five o'clock, she went downstairs to prepare the dinner and Ms. Elliott went to pick up the three children. The school bus will send them to the neighborhood, so Ms. Elliott just need to go to the center garden to pick them up.

After moving to Star Residence, everything was convenient.

The place they stayed was very comfortable, and children could go to school easily. Usually, they would be picked up by a private car at home.

However, some of the government officials took the school bus, so the three of them were able to hitchhike.

When the three children returned, she came out of the kitchen and Abby happily ran forward and hugged her thighs.

“Lizzy, you came back so early today. How amazing!”

Standing there, the two sons looked at him in his apron and asked.

“Are there guests today?”

Her mother rarely cooked. Besides, her cooking skills were really bad, much worse than Ms. Elliott.

Elizabeth couldn’t help but laugh. “Uncle Hilton wants to come, so I want to cook a few dishes for him. But why don’t you teach me cooking?”

Their cooking was comparable to the chef of a five-star hotel. If she had their help, she would definitely satisfy Matthew.

Abby patted her little hand and said, “Well, I’ll be able to eat my brother’s cooking again.”

The two little dumplings, who were initially reluctant, decided to cook after hearing their sister’s praise.

“Okay!”

“Okay!”

The two of them spoke in unison, and Elizabeth happily went over and hugged them.

“Son, you want me to be with Mr. Hilton. Mommy will grant your wish. After tonight, Mommy won’t have anything to do with him anymore.”

Abby didn't know how to cook. She sat alone in the living room and watched cartoons while playing Barbie.

In the kitchen, Ms. Elliott was helping the three of them. The two sons were guiding them. while Elizabeth was helping them to cook.

When Matthew arrived, it was Abby who opened the door. When she saw Matthew enter the door, she ran over to get him a pair of slippers.

"Daddy, your shoes..."

She whispered. When Matthew looked at her, she quickly raised her voice.

"Uncle Hilton, your shoes."

When Matthew saw that the little girl was changing her tone, a trace of sorrow flashed across his eyes.

It was obvious how longing this little girl was for her father's love. Perhaps she had heard many people say that she didn't have a father in school.

Matthew bent down and picked her up. "Darling, how are you doing at school today?"

This was the first time he asked her such a question. After thinking about it recently, he felt that these three children might be his.

The fatherly love they lacked was something he should give.

Abby's eyes opened bigger when she heard this.

"It's going to be children's day. We'll be rehearsing a program lately. When the time comes, we'll invite the parents to attend. Mommy will be there!"

Matthew nodded slightly. "Oh, can you invite me with you then?"

Abby's eyes widened when she heard this.

"Uncle Hilton, are you willing to go? Just say that you and Lizzy are our parents, okay?"

She was so excited. She probably hoping that Matthew would be there.

"Okay, I'll tell Lizzy."

He carried the little girl into the living room. When he put her down, his gaze remained on her hair.

Chapter 559 Seal Her Hair

The only way to get the hair was through Abby. The two boys were very vigilant.

And what would be the result? He still didn't know.

This matter was just his guess, so he didn't want Elizabeth to know.

He reached out and pulled a few strands of hair down. Abby cried out in pain.

"Mmm... It hurts!"

Matthew reached out and touched it. "Baby, I'm sorry. Your hair is hanging on my clothes."

Abby turned her head and saw a few strands of hair hanging on the buttons of his shirt. She raised her hand and touched it, then chuckled.

“Oh, this hair is really disobedient!”

Matthew was amused by the little girl. So cute.

He picked up the few strands of hair and placed them in a document bag prepared beforehand. Then, he placed them in his briefcase.

When Elizabeth came out, she saw Abby nestled in Matthew’s arms. The two of them were watching cartoons. It was Rainbow Baby.

He would still watch such a dream-like cartoon. This was something that little girls liked. Even his two sons did not like it.

Her footsteps weren’t light nor heavy, but he knew it was her and turned his gaze.

He saw the woman walking toward them, who was wearing a black strapless dress, revealing her snow white shoulders, her skin was very tender, and her smoothness made her want to touch

She looked good when dressed in black, it suited her very well. There was a trace of seduction.

Matthew couldn’t describe this feeling in words. Anyway, he felt a strong temptation.

Tonight, he felt that not only could he enjoy delicious food, but he could also enjoy her.

The smirk on the corner of his lips grew wider and wider. Elizabeth couldn’t stand his gaze like this.

“When did you come here? Are you hungry?”

She held a plate of fruits in her hand. “Eat some fruits first. The dishes will be ready soon.”

Elizabeth bent down and put down the fruit platter. The gaze of he coincidentally formed at corner on her chest.

The two soft white dough captured his eyes. His Adam's apple bobbed up and down, and his eyes were burning with passion.

Elizabeth sensed his gaze and quickly lowered her head to take a look. Her face flushed and she straightened up.

She tided her hair, trying to hide her embarrassment.

"Eat fruits, I'll go in and cook."

After saying that, she turned around and left. She needed to escape this place quickly. Although she had prepared everything for him tonight, it was still too early.

The feeling between the two of them changed miraculously. The air was filled with sexy vibes.

Elizabeth blushed involuntarily and her heartbeat quickened. She patted her chest as she walked.

Sigh, Elizabeth, calm down.

"Dinner is the main point now. Don't think too much about it."

I'm getting more and more wanton. How could his few gazes make me so horny? What if he does something else?

"Will I open my legs and ask him to hurry up and get inside me?"

This is so embarrassing. I have to hold back.

Matthew looked at her seductive back. The S curve was obvious. How did this girl maintain her body?

Being the mother of three children, her figure hasn't changed at all.

He swallowed gently. His mouth felt a little dry.

Abby heard him gulp, so she raised her eyes and looked at him.

"Uncle, are you hungry too?"

The scent from the kitchen was so fragrant that she couldn't help but swallow. She really wanted to eat"

A wicked smile flashed across Matthew's eyes. "That's right. I'm hungry and I can not wait to

He had already licked her dough countless times in his mind. Dressed like this, she was killing him. At night, he was going to rip off the dress himself

Chapter 560 We Want Different Food

Abby laughed. "So, you the same as me! I'm so hungry tool"

Matthew looked at Abby who was smiling like a doll and a wicked smile flashed across his

"Darling, we want different food!"

During dinner, Elizabeth kept bringing good for Matthew. Matthew's plate was full, but she seemed to be worried that he won't be full.

"Lizzy, do you think handsome uncle is a pig?" Abby said angrily.

He was so handsome. He must ate very little. Otherwise, he would have gained weight.

Everyone in kindergarten said so.

Therefore, she would eat less sometimes because she was afraid that she would turn ugly.

The people at the dining table couldn't help but laugh. Arthur and Antony ate elegantly but they still upheld their previous attitude toward Matthew and refused to accept him.

They were afraid he'll bully Mommy again.

Therefore, the two of them weren't enthusiastic about the guest today. In fact, they were a little cold.

Ms. Elliott said.

"Abby, how is that possible? Uncle Hilton is an adult. You have to eat more. You won't gain weight"

After saying that, she looked at Matthew and said, "Mr. Hilton, the dishes today are all made by Lizzy. You have to eat all of them."

The two young masters guided her the whole time. She had tasted it. It was delicious.

Matthew looked at Elizabeth, his gaze was waim.

"Yeah, it's delicious!"

The dinner was very nice. They were like a family having a good time together. Even thought there were two kids on the table, cold as two small icebergs.

However, it did not affect other people's mood. After all, there was a defrost machine like

Abby whose mouth could not stop talking.

The atmosphere at the dining table was great. Ms. Elliott was also adding fuel to the fire.

Elizabeth did not eat much and kept bringing food to Matthew.

This time, she didn't care about the two sons' gaze and didn't care what the others thought..

She just wanted to serve him properly one last time, and in the future, she probably wouldn't have the chance.

Matthew liked it. Their gazes met, and the air smelled like Lizzy. It was as if there were pink bubbles everywhere.

After dinner, Matthew did not leave. He waited for her in the living room for her to go back to his place together.

Elizabeth went upstairs to accompany the three children, examine their homework, take them to a bath, and tell them stories.

Matthew sat in the living room sipping tea and watching television.

The truth was that a man like him did not like watching dramas at all, so the television was broadcasting international news.

Ms. Elliott finished tidying up the kitchen. When she came out, she saw him sitting there alone and watching television.

Hence, she walked over and poured him some tea.

“Mr. Hilton, aren’t you busy lately? It’s been a while since you’ve been eating at home.”

He used to come here every day, but not recently. Besides, Lizzy didn’t seem to be in a good mood.

Matthew picked up the teacup and took a sip. His expression was indifferent and his voice was cold.

When he was facing other people, he always looked like an iceberg.

“Yes!”

Ms. Elliott sat by the side. Actually, she was a part of this family. Elizabeth and the others treated her so.

“Mr. Hilton, Lizzy has been through some difficulties recently. Mr. Campbell saved her back then. At that time, she was pregnant with three children. If Dominic hadn’t been helping her, she won’t have given birth to three children safely.”

After saying that, she sighed softly.

“Lizzy had a tough life. She got pregnant at a young age and was kicked out of her home. She was helpless all by herself. Mr. Campbell was the one who helped her, and the only one who helped her. So I can understand Lizzy’s thoughts. She has to repay this kindness. Even if you misunderstand her, she has to take care of Mr. Campbell until his eyes have recovered.”
