

Game Over 601

Chapter 601 Pretty Jane

Nicolay felt that not only was his face swollen, but his left hand behind his back was also worn out. There was only one feeling and. that was pain.

Matt, Iwon't. I won't do it again. Please let me go."

Only after listening to his pleading, Matthew let go of him.

"Nicolas, don't make jokes like this again, otherwise I'll kill you."

I will punch your him every time if you behave like this anymore.

Nicolas got up from the ground. He moved his hand and caressed his face.

"Mm, is my face injured? How am I supposed to see Jane later?"

He looked aggrieved. He went to the bathroom to see how good-looking his handsome face looked?

Following that, there was a howl like a pig.

"Ah..."

Nicolas looked at himself in the mirror. His left cheek was swollen. The area beneath his eyes was swollen, and it was a little bright.

No wonder he felt pain. It turned out that he was really hurt.

At that moment, his face was no different from a pig's head. He looked busted and he still needed to meet his beautiful junior

Ten minutes later, Nicolas was leaning against the couch with the ice pack brought by the hotel staff.

Matthew was talking on the phone. It was all work and he was very busy.

Nicolas looked at his busy expression, especially his sharp jawline, he finally realized that what she said was true.

“When it comes to work, men are the most handsome. At this moment, Matt is exceptionally handsome.”

After Matthew finished making the phone call, he sent a few more emails. He even tapped on the business handcuffs for a while before looking at him quietly.

“Are you alright?”

He was just fooling around with him just now, but he did not expect him to get hurt. Although he could not apologize, he still felt guilty.

Nicolas laughed. “I’m fine. But you have to care for your body.”

Seeing how busy he was, he probably didn’t have time to eat on time, much less have a good rest. Originally, there was a ticking time bomb in his mind. If he was so tired, things would only get worse and worse.

The one who was most afraid now was that he would get agitated.

The bullet kept moving. The moment he got agitated, it was really deadly.

“Okay!”

At this moment, Howard called.

Nicolas answered, "Howard."

"We're already here. You know the old private room."

"Yeah, we'll be here soon."

After hanging up the phone, Nicolas threw the ice pack onto the coffee table.

"Matt, they're here. Let's go eat."

I'm hungry. Matt must be hungry too.

After all, the food on the plane wasn't good, so they didn't eat much. It was almost seven o'clock now, so of course they were hungry.

Matthew put down the laptop in his hand and got up. He took the suit from the rack and put it on. It was still the cold and serious

The two of them went to the restaurant opposite and entered the private room next to Howard was a beautiful woman. Her hair was chestnut-colored and wavy. Her figure was tall and slender, and her curves were so exquisite that her features were perfect.

A perfect beauty!

Nicolas whispered to Matthew, "She's indeed a beautiful lady."

But his ghostly appearance couldn't attract the beauty's attention.

Howard saw the person entering, he stood up and said briefly.

“Senior, this is my senior brother, Nicolas, my teacher’s last disciple!”

Nicolas stretched out his hand. “Hello, Miss! You’re so pretty!”

Jane nodded at him indifferently.

Nicolas felt a little awkward, Howard introduced him.

“This is Mr. Hilton, Matthew.”

Matthew nodded at her indifferently.

“Is there a bullet in his head?”

She spoke straightforwardly. It was obvious that this beauty was a straightforward woman. She would not pretend, nor would she say anything nice.

Chapter 602 Grandpa’s Wish

Nicolas was stunned. He had never seen such a woman before.

“That’s so straightforward. That’s how straight women behave?”

Howard nodded. ‘That’s right. He’s the patient this time. I’ve been doing experiments with Nicolas, but I’ve never succeeded. You’re a brain surgeon, probably only you can do this surgery.’”

She raised her eyebrows and looked at Matthew.

“Matthew, don’t you have many enemies? If I save you this time, will the same happen again?”

Nicolas: ”

Howard: “.....

Both of them were stunned. How could they answer such a question?

Matthew was expression less. “There are quite a number of enemies, but I don’t want to die either. Please treat me, Doctor Jane. The expenses are easy to negotiate.”

This was the first time Nicolas had such a good temper. He probably really wanted to live!

“Senior, he’s my best friend, so I’m asking you to do the surgery for the sake of our teacher.”

“Their teacher is dead. Otherwise, we can invite him to do this surgery.”

Jane picked up my chopsticks and fiddled with the vegetables.

“Of course I’ll try my best. I’ll watch the film tomorrow. If it’s too dangerous, it’s impossible for me to take the risk.”

“Of course. If we could not do the surgery, we won’t make things difficult for you.”

During this meal, the two junior brothers were like waiters. She was served very well.

Hence, after eating, she seemed to be in a much better mood.

Before leaving, she told Matthew.

“Don’t worry, my hands are quite good. There’s no brain surgery that I could not do.”

She was a little drunk, so when she walked, she looked extra sexy.

Nicolas sighed. She doesn’t look like a doctor at all.

She loves drinking, but she is so beautiful at the same time! Just like a model.

Howard called for a driver and helped him into his car. Suddenly, he turned around and pointed at Nicolas.

“I heard that you’re very handsome, but we’ve seen you today, you are not as cute as the tumor said. He’s quite handsome.”

She pointed at Matthew and smiled before getting into the car.

Nicolas sighed “Malt, did you see it? As long as you’re here, I’ll be in the dark.”

She is really beautiful, but it’s a pity that he could not attract her

Matthew said to Howard, “Be careful on the road. We’ll see you at the hospital tomorrow!”

Howard waved his hand. “See you tomorrow!”

In Wade’s mansion, they had already agreed to their wedding. They would be holding it at Prosperous Hotel in A City two days later.

The hotel belonged exclusively to Dominic. It was reasonable to run the wedding there.

Elizabeth and Dominic went to the hospital. Master Wade was still waiting.

Celine originally didn't want Elizabeth to meet Master Wade, but she knew that they couldn't change the will. Even if they stopped her from meeting Master Wade, it would be useless. It would be better to let her take care of him.

Master Wade was eating, so he could only have some porridge. The servant was feeding him, but he did not have any appetite.

Elizabeth took the bowl from the servant and brought it to his mouth.

Master Wade shook his head, indicating that he did not want to eat.

Elizabeth watched her grandfather lose too much weight and felt sorry for him.

"Grandpa, I'm getting married to Dominic in two days. You can finally be at ease. So you need to eat more and recover as soon as possible before attending our wedding."

Actually, Master Wade was unable to get up at this moment. It was impossible for him to attend his wedding.

The wedding between him and Dominic was to fulfill his wish and to make him happy.

Thope that after the happy news, his body will gradually recover.

If things weren't going well, he could pass away peacefully.

After Master Wade heard these words, he opened his mouth and took a bite.

“Lizzy, didn’t they make things difficult for you today, right?”

If he wasn’t around, will those people at home bully her again?

Therefore, before he left, he had to see that she had a way out.

Chapter 603 You Are Not Suitable

Elizabeth shook her head “Grandpa, they didn’t bully me. They even helped me “That’s true. Theard that except for the dowry, they even asked for two pieces of land.

The Campbell Family agreed to it.

However, she had told Dominic that there was no need to for the lands. In fact, the two lands were requested by her father and a few uncles.

Master Wade laughed, “That’s good.”

Elizabeth fed Master Wade half a bowl of porridge. He had eaten much today. After taking his medicine, he went to sleep.

He can eat and sleep. It’s good for his body.

Elizabeth said to Dominic, “Dominic, I want to stay here tonight to accompany my grandfather.”

“Young Master, I’ll send you home.”

Elizabeth sent them to the elevator and Dominic suddenly spoke up.

“Rest early tonight. Don’t tire yourself out. You’re going to be a bride the day after tomorrow. Your dark circles don’t look good.”

If she turned ugly, she would definitely regret it.

After all, how important is the day of marriage to a woman!

“I know. Grandpa doesn’t have infusion at night. I doesn’t need to stay up late.”

Actually, there were still nurses and nurses here. If she was sleepy, she could sleep.

Previously, when her grandfather was sick, she stayed overnight at the hospital. At that time, she was still young, but she was very good at taking care of the patient.

After returning to the ward, she tucked Master Wade in.

The maid laid out a small bed for her. “Miss, we’re outside. Call us if you need anything.”

Elizabeth nodded. She couldn’t help but glance at her grandfather on the hospital bed, hoping that he would get better.

Sitting on the chair next to the bed, she held her grandfather’s hand and watched as he became more and more upset day by day.

She was afraid that he would leave.

Recalling the life she had in the Wade Family, it was fortunate that her grandfather had always been there to protect her. That was why she could grow up, even though she was still harmed by her stepmother and her daughter.

After leaving home, she grew up and became stronger.

Treally want to accompany Grandpa for a few more years.

As she thought about it, tears started rolling down her cheeks uncontrollably. The tears fell on Master Wade's hand and he woke up

When he saw Elizabeth crying, he called her.

"Lizzy, why are you crying?"

Actually, Master Wade knew that she was afraid that he would leave. She was the only person in the Campbell Family who hoped that he would live.

Elizabeth saw that Master Wade had woken up. Her big eyes narrowed slightly and she quickly wiped away her tears.

"Grandpa, I'm sorry. I woke you up."

He laughed. "It's fine. It just so happens that the two of us can have a good chat"

Elizabeth sniffled and nodded. However, her bright eyes were still filled with tears. She just didn't want her grandfather to leave.

I hope that he will stay and watch her three children grow up.

Master Wade let out a long sigh. "Lizzy, grandpa is old. It's a matter of time that I die. You'll be free if you die sooner. Don't be sad."

"No, Grandpa, you'll definitely live a long life."

She started crying again. She really could not accept that her only relative in this world would leave her.

Master Wade raised his hand to wipe her tears. "Lizzy, don't cry Grandpa likes to see you smile!"

Elizabeth couldn't hold it in, but she still forced herself, not wanting to make grandpa feel upset.

"Lizzy, it's good to marry Dominic. Even though he's not as good as Matthew, he's good-looking and capable. But he's not suitable for you, so you should give him to Tiana!"

Elizabeth was stunned upon hearing this.

"So Grandpa knows everything?"

Upon seeing Elizabeth's surprised expression, Master Wade smiled.

"Don't forget, I gave you those three sets of villas, so I know who you usually get along with. However, sweetie, listen to grandpa and keep a distance from Matthew, otherwise you'll suffer."

Chapter 604 Don't Think About Throwing Me Down

Elizabeth did not understand at all. Why could not she and Matthew be together? And Tiana could.

If these words were said by other people, she felt that it was because of their bias.

But this was what grandfather said. Grandfather had always only favored her, and he would never favor Tiana.

She pursed her lips. "Grandpa, since you know that the person I like is Matthew, why could not I be with him?"

If the Hilton Family and the Wade Family had any grudges, then Tiana is also a member of the Wade Family?

What secrets is this?

Her eyes sparkled. She wanted to fight for it. Since her grandfather, whom she cared about the most, knew about her and Matthew, she wanted to fight for it.

Master Campbell's eyes darkened slightly, as if he was recalling some bad things, his expression darkened.

He shook his head. "Just listen to grandpa. You don't have to worry about anything else. However, you're getting married the next day. I'm relieved."

Elizabeth wanted to ask further but Master Wade withdrew his hand.

"I'm tired. I'm going to sleep. You should sleep early too."

Elizabeth did not want to ask further. She got up and tucked him in before returning to her own bed.

The lights in the room were dim. She lay on the small bed and couldn't fall asleep.

Staring at the ceiling with her wide eyes, she really did not understand why she and Matthew could not be together.

Sigh!

She let out a long sigh. She didn't know when she finally fell asleep.

The next day, C Country.

By seven o'clock in the morning, Matthew had finished washing up. He stood by the French windows and looked at the rain outside.

It was raining gloomily today.

It was still a little cold. He lit a cigarette between his fingers and asked Jake to report the company's situation to him.

Jake held the tablet and reported to him one by one.

Matthew took a deep puff, then raised his left hand and glanced at the expensive watch.

"Yeah, go and wake up Nicolas It's time to go to the hospital."

Because he needed to have a checkup in the morning, he couldn't have breakfast.

After Jake finished reporting his work, he kept the tablet and bowed respectfully.

"Okay, boss. But I have something to ask you."

When he said this, there was a trace of worry in his eyes. He didn't know if his boss would agree.

"Speak."

One man threw a word coldly, as if he had guessed something? It was obvious that he wasn't too happy.

Jake stiffened. "Esme has been in Africa for almost twenty days. The company has been quite busy lately. Would you like to transfer him back?"

Esme was begging him. He had no choice but to give it a try.

But he was also taking risks. If it things went wrong, he might be transferred.

Matthew asked, "Did he ask you to tell him?"

Jake had been by Matthew's side for the longest time, so he knew that he couldn't lie to his boss, so he nodded.

"Yes, he's already learned his lessons. He won't do it again."

"Yeah, let him come back."

Jake breathed a sigh of relief. "Okay, boss."

After leaving the house, Matthew subconsciously glanced at the phone. There were no missed calls or messages from Elizabeth.

He tapped on WhatsApp and clicked on the conversation with Elizabeth.

"What are you doing?"

After that, he deleted it again and entered another sentence.

"Don't think you can dump me with one night. No way,"

After sending the message, he put the phone into the pocket of his suit, pretending that nothing had happened.

But just a second later, he took out his phone again and saw that she didn't reply.

Hence, he threw his phone onto the sofa and turned his head to look at the rain.

Soon, Nicolas entered the room, looking like he was not awake.

“Matt, let’s go to the hospital now.”

Matthew turned around, his expression darker.

Chapter 605 Block Elizabeth

Nicolas felt that it might have something to do with the weather. It was gloomy and it was raining. No one was in a good mood.

Moreover, this weather was the most suitable for sleeping. It was chilly.

If it weren’t for Jake calling him, he’d be able to sleep the whole day.

Matthew walked to the sofa coldly. He bent down to pick up his phone and glanced at it.

The woman still didn’t reply to his text, and his expression became even worse.

Nicolas had already heard the sound of the room being frozen. It was Matthew’s heavy footsteps. Every time, it was like the sound of freezing, causing him to shudder.

He raised his eyebrows. This fellow is a patient now, so he can only take care of him.

“Why are you so upset this early in the morning?”

I don’t think it’s because Lizzy is getting married.

Otherwise, he won’t be so calm. Either he got sick, or he went straight back, and why did he go to the hospital?

Nicolas comforted himself as he walked.

It's so far away. No one would be so noisy to tell him.

But he also felt that having a phone with him was still quite dangerous.

Hence, he decided to go to the hospital later. He decided to blacklist Elizabeth.

Otherwise, that girl might get married happily and post something on her social media.

"That's right. We have to blacklist her first."

Otherwise, Matt's body won't be able to take it.

Except for Elizabeth, no one else would tell him about this. They wouldn't post such a post.

"En, that's it," he muttered to himself.

Matthew saw him talking to himself and asked.

"Did you not sleep well last night?"

Nicolas snapped back to his senses and smiled.

"Heh, of course, I'm afraid of sleeping alone in that big room."

"You are a doctor. How can you be scared?"

Matthew wasn't in the mood to talk to him anymore. He woke up early and didn't seem to be awake yet.

Next to the hotel was the hospital, so the two of them walked over.

A few bodyguards followed behind, but they deliberately stayed further away.

Nicolas wanted to find something to talk about. Previously, he didn't feel so nervous being with Matt.

"Today, no, no. Why are you acting like they have something to hide?"

I'm so nervous.

He let out a long sigh, raised his hand, and touched his hair, asking.

"Matt, do you think I'm handsome today?"

His face was no longer swollen. There were no traces, and he was back to his usual handsome appearance.

Matthew glanced at him differently. Without saying a word, he strode forward.

Nicolas caught up to them when he felt that someone was looking down on him.

"The main thing is, I think Jane is very beautiful. Will she be tempted by my handsome appearance?"

Matthew treated her coldly again. He only gave her a look so that she could experience it herself.

"Okay, I won't say anything."

He knew that no woman would have feelings for him in front of him.

With a face that turned everyone around, and a cold demeanor, he would snatch everyone's attention."

Yesterday, he noticed that although Jane was arrogant, she really looked at Matt differently.

The two of them went to his senior brother's office and he applied a pile of checkups.

Nicolas accompanied Matthew to do the checkup. When they entered the examination room, he stretched out his hand.

"Matt, I'll wait for you at the door. I'll help you take your belongings. When you're checking, you could not wear anything. There's also your phone, cigarette, lighter, etc. You could not bring anything with you."

Matthew didn't think much of it. He took out these and placed them in his hand. He took off his coat and handed it to him.

After watching him enter the examination room, Nicolas quickly walked to a corner. He needed to find someone quiet to blacklist Elizabeth.

Chapter 606 Blocked?

Nicolas was hiding behind the safe exit. He was so nervous that he broke out in sweat.

He had never been so nervous curing a surgery before, but today, he was so nervous to block Lizzy.

Nicolas felt that his hand was trembling, but for the sake of his brother's life, he tried his best.

He successfully unlocked the phone's password. In fact, there was no password. Six zeros were not considered a password at all.

Then, she quickly entered contact and directly blocked Elizabeth.

After blacklisting, he leaned against the wall, feeling like he was about to pass out.

At this moment, the safety door was suddenly pulled open. He was so frightened that he jumped.

Jake stretched his head and asked, "Young Master, are you here?"

Jake caught sight of the man just now, so he came to look for him.

Nicolas took a deep breath and stood up.

"What is it?"

He calmed down and ask him calmly..

"I want to take one too. Is it okay here?"

Jake was addicted to smoking, but he did not dare to smoke at the hospital. He thought that the Young Master was smoking here!

Nicolas raised his eyebrows upon hearing this.

"It's not possible here. Go straight to the right and have a smoking room. Go and smoke there."

Jake grunted in acknowledgment and closed the heavy safety door. Then, he leaned against the wall again and relaxed.

After more than an hour, Matthew finished his checkup and walked out of the examination room with a cotton swab in one hand.

It seemed that she was very unhappy with the examinations and her expression became even worse.

Nicolas went up to greet him. "Are you done with the checkup?"

Actually, he originally could wait in the lounge or office for him. It was so comfortable and nice. He could even chink coffee and play with his phone.

But in order to blacklist Lizzy, he could only wait here.

Matthew tossed the cotton swab into the bin. Then, he reached out to give the cigarette and lighter to him.

Frowning slightly, he said coldly.

"Phone"

I'm not going to smoke now. I want to see if that girl has replied to the message.

Nicolas narrowed his eyes and quickly took out his phone and placed it in his hand.

Matthew held his phone and watched as he walked.

But he didn't see Elizabeth's message or notice that she was blocked because he had the habit of deleting after sending messages.

Nicolas followed behind and raised his hand to adjust his glasses.

Sure enough, he was waiting for Lizzy and her message. Fortunately, he had blocked her, otherwise, it would be troublesome.

After entering the elevator, he asked.

“How long do you need to get the report?”

Nicolas glanced at the time. “In an hour or two. Let’s go back to the hotel and have a good breakfast. I’ll have a meeting with the two of them.”

The rest was up to the doctor. All he could do was wait for the result.

Matthew didn’t say anything. When the elevator reached the first floor, he walked out of the elevator indifferently.

Nicolas Jake said, “Follow me. Your boss has drawn a lot of blood, you need to eat something good.”

Jake replied, “Don’t worry, Young Master. I’ll definitely get his boss to make up for this.”

A City, When Elizabeth woke up, the doctor had already checked the room.

Master Wade asked them to soften their voices, so she slept well and did not wake up at all.

When she saw that her grandfather had already taken his medication, she looked embarrassed.

“Grandpa, I’ve slept late. Have you eaten breakfast?”

Master Wade was now relying entirely on the medicinal water, so it was quite pitiful for him.

Old man laughed, “Yes, get up and eat. Don’t stay here tonight. There are servants here! You’re going to be a bride. You could not stay up late, otherwise you won’t be pretty with dark circles under your eyes.”

Elizabeth got up and went to the bathroom to wash up.

Holding her phone, she realized that Matthew had sent her a text.

When she said that, she smiled. She felt that he was unwilling to break up, and she wanted to talk to him about what grandpa said to her, to see if he knew the reason.

Hence, she made a video call

A message popped out from the video chat. The other party had blacklisted you. You could not chat on video

Chapter 607 They Are All The Same

Elizabeth's heart tightened, and her heart ached so much as if she was going to die.

"He blocked me? Didn't he say I could not get rid of him?"

Elizabeth leaned against the marble sink and lowered her head.

She took a deep breath and when she raised her head again, her expression returned to normal.

"Elizabeth, forget about him! If you continue to waver like this, you'll only hurt three people."

She turned on the tap and clamped her face with cold water to wake herself up.

The heat just now will never come back again.

Since she was going to marry Dominic, she could only cut off all ties with Matthew. Although it was painful, she had no choice.

Elizabeth walked out of the bathroom and had her breakfast. After chatting with Master Wade for a while, she was about to leave.

“Grandpa, I’m leaving. I don’t have time to come over tomonow, but Dominic and I will come over tomorrow night to visit you.”

Master Wade laughed, “There’s no need to come. Have a good time with Dominic. Remember what grandpa said and stay away Matthew.”

Elizabeth walked out of the ward dejectedly, feeling very unhappy.

Grandpa seemed to be saying his last words, but he was telling her to stay away from Matthew. Why?

She walked toward the elevator. When the elevator doors opened, Jessica walked out.

Jessica was wearing a black laundry dress today. She had a tall and slender figure and fair skin.

Elizabeth didn’t realize it for a moment until Jessica called her.

“Lizzy.”

Elizabeth looked at her and her eyes narrowed slightly.

“Jess, is it you?”

Wow, she had become so beautiful, like a different person.

Sure enough, Pearl’s illness has recovered. After leaving the hospital, she’s recovered too.

Jessica nodded slightly, "I went to your house. They said you're here, so I came. How is your grandfather?"

Elizabeth shook her head, "Grandpa isn't doing well."

Initially, Jessica wanted to visit Master Wade, but the old man did not recognize her, so she did not go in.

She held Elizabeth and left the hospital with her.

Jessica was driving. Her French curly hair was spread across her shoulder. She looked sexy and seductive.

She glanced at her from time to time, "Lizzy, what's happening to you? Are you really going to marry Dominic?"

Previously, this girl did not have a boyfriend. She was only busy making money.

Now, with two good-looking men in front of her, she would be happy to marry any of them..

But as her best friend and best friend, of course she hoped that she would marry because of love.

Elizabeth supported her chin with one hand. There was a trace of sadness on her sweet little face.

"I'm getting married. What's the point of saying all these?"

It seemed like she had never had the power to choose, not to mention now.

Grandpa was sick, and Dominic was blind. She couldn't ignore anyone, and she couldn't care less about her own happiness!

Jessica sighed, "I know you have to repay your gratitude, but if the one you love is Matthew, then you have to be braver. I don't want you to regret it. After all, marrying is a lifetime thing."

Elizabeth lowered her gaze. She felt like she was in a mess.

But now that Matthew had blocked her, he had already expressed his attitude.

She sneered, "Jessica, what about you? Are you going to choose between Leonard or Shawn?"

Next, she heard an emergency brake. If it weren't for the seatbelt, Elizabeth felt like her head was going to hit the windshield.

Next, Jessica continued to walk forward, she sighed..

"Heh, sweetie, my own business is in a mess. How am I supposed to persuade you? What a joke."

She seemed to have understood Elizabeth instantly. If she could choose, the situation today would not have be different.

Jessica shook her head, "Alright, I won't persuade you anymore. Let's have a good time today. How about that?"

Elizabeth agreed, "Okay, we'll only be girls today. We won't be women, and we won't be moms."

Chapter 608 She held Elizabeth and left the hospital with her.

Jessica was driving. Her French curly hair was spread across her shoulder. She looked sexy and seductive.

She glanced at her from time to time, "Lizzy, what's happening to you? Are you really going to marry Dominic?"

“Heh, sweetie, my own business is in a mess. How am I supposed to persuade you? What a joke.”

She seemed to have understood Elizabeth instantly. If she could choose, the situation today would not have be different.

Jessica shook her head, "Alight, I won't persuade you anymore. Let's have a good time today. How about that?"

Elizabeth agreed, "Okay, we'll only be girls today. We won't be women, and we won't be moms."

They bought everything they liked without looking at the price, or thinking about the kids at home. They only bought for themselves

When the two of them came out of the mall with a lot of bags in their hands, Elizabeth leaned against Jessica's shoulder.

"Jess, I'm hungry."

I shopped all morning. I was really hungry.

The two of them placed the things in the car and found a top-class restaurant to have a big meal.

"Jessica," she said as she ordered.

"Get me a bottle of Lafayette. I want the most expensive one."

Elizabeth took a glance at the price. 28,000 per bottle and her eyes narrowed slightly.

"Jess, are you sure that you're buying?"

It was too expensive. After ordering the dishes, she smiled and said.

“It’s fine. I have a card.”

A man gave her a black card. She had never used it before, but she was going to swipe it today.

After all, she had worked so hard so many nights. It took her a lot of energy

Elizabeth finished ordering and handed the menu to the waiter.

She pressed her chin with both hands and asked.

“Mi. Johnson is quite a generous man. He changed your mansion and a luxury car, and now a black card.”

Upon hearing this, she picked up the water and took a sip.

“He can only give me these too.”

The Johnson Family, a noble family, will never accept her. She had worked at a nightclub. In their eyes, she was an indecent woman.

She also divorced before and with a child.

“Who would want their son to marry such a woman?” Jessica understood.

Elizabeth felt a little sad when she heard these words. The reason why she and Jessica knew each other was that they worked in the same club Both of them were single-parents, and no one cared and no one helped them.

After that they helped each other and became friends.

“God is a bit unfair. She and Jessica are very good-looking. Have they done anything bad?”

But why is life so painful?

At this moment, the wine was served. The waiter asked them to try it first before opening the wine and drinking.

The food was served and Elizabeth ate quietly. The words she said just now seemed to have provoked Jessica.

She cursed herself silently in her heart, Elizabeth, shut your mouth!

I’ve lived like this. Why would I still have the nerve to say that to Jessica? She’s doing quite well now. As long as Pearl’s illness is better, she can be reborn.

Jessica poured a glass of wine and called her.

“Lizzy, have a drink. I wish both of us happiness!”

Elizabeth picked up the glass and clinked it with hers.

“I wish us happiness!”

After a meal, a bottle of wine was finished. To her, it was nothing at all.

Previously, she was a wine seller, so she was very good at drinking.

Elizabeth was fine too, but a little chunken.

Suddenly, she sprawled on the table and tears started rolling down her face.

“Jess, I’m actually really sad. I don’t want to marry Dominic. I don’t love him. I’ve always treated him like a friend. But he’s blind and has post-traumatic stress disorder. If we don’t cooperate with the treatment, his illness will only worsen. He won’t recover for the rest of his life. He’ll lose his ability to work. If it’s serious, he’ll commit suicide.”

“He saved me and the three children. How can I leave him when he needs someone to take care of him the most? I could not do it, so I can only leave Matthew.”

When Jessica heard this, she never thought it would be so serious.

She reached out and held Elizabeth’s hand. “Lizzy, I understand you. Everything will be fine. As long as Dominic’s illness is better, you can still divorce him. Dominic is a good person. If he isn’t sick, he won’t force you.”

After saying that, she secretly sighed, but Matthew might not be waiting for her.

A man like him, with such a good looks.

I’m sure there will be countless beauties coming after him. If Lizzy hurt him, naturally he’ll cut her clean and find someone who loves him more.

“Aren’t all men like this?”

Chapter 609 Being Each Other’s Bridesmaid

Jessica felt that it was too hard to be sweet, it made her heart ache.

Just when she was about to get up and hug Lizzy, her phone rang.

When she saw that the caller was Leonard, she returned to her seat and picked up the call.

“What is it?”

Leonard was at home with Pearl. In fact, there were servants at home, so he was fine even if he wasn't around.

“I'm taking care of my child at home. Where are you?”

Jessica couldn't help but laugh at his tone.

“I don't need you to take care of Pearl. I have a maid. Mr. Johnson, if there's nothing else, I'll hang up.”

Leonard glanced at the little girl in his arms. She was holding a story book about Snow White and was waiting for him to read it for her. It was time for her to sleep.

Leonard patted her head affectionately. “Wait for me. I'll read it for you after I'm done talking to mommy.”

A steel-like man would usually roll in mud, run in the mountains, and travel in the gun rain.

The gentleness of his words made even Jessica's heart skip a beat.

It was undeniable that Leonard treated Pearl very well.

Pearl nodded obediently, “Oh! Then, huny!”

The maid led her upstairs. Now, Leonard was relaxed. He was the only one in the living room.

I can talk dirty now! Amazing.

"I'm fine today. I want to do something with you. You know. Come back quickly."

Jessica had been drinking, but now she was agitated by his words, her face turned redder and redder, and there was a trace of desire.

"Mr. Johnson, don't talk nonsense in my house."

"I haven't said I want to fuk you. Why are you in a hurry? Huny, come back. I could not wait anymore."

Why is he always talking to me like this?

Jessica wanted to hang up the phone and scolded.

"I have something to do, I could not come back. If you've taken your medicine, go out and look for a hooker. Don't bother me."

After hanging up the phone, she was still worried and turned off her phone.

The thought of Leonard made her feel...

Yeah, her face was blushing uncontrollably.

That fellow, whenever he sees her, he's so horny that he has sex with her every time.

She wondered why he was so energetic?

She had lost a lot of weight. In the past, she wanted to lose weight every day. Now, she did not need to exercise and naturally lost weight.

Elizabeth was done crying. She took a piece of tissue and wiped her tears.

“Was it Leonard? Is he always bullying you?”

When she saw how beautiful and charming Jessica was now, she knew she has been with a man.

Elizabeth spoke straightforwardly. Especially when she was with Jessica, she held a piece of tissue and blew her nose.

“Does he want to sleep with you again? In broad daylight.”

Jessica’s face turned redder and redder.

“Don’t mention him. It’s so annoying. By the way, you’re getting married tomorrow. Am I the bridesmaid? I’m married. It’s not good.”

The gown had already been delivered to her house. She took a look and saw that it was DK couture. She liked it a lot, and it looked good on her.

“Of course it’s you. We said that we should be each other’s bridesmaid. Even if you’re married, you have to do it. So what if you’re divorced? I don’t care.”

Elizabeth did not care at all about these etiquette.

Jessica smiled, “Okay, I’ll be your bridesmaid tomorrow.”

“Where are you going later? Don’t have fun tonight. After all, you’re the bride tomorrow. If your eyes and face are swollen, look good.”

Elizabeth seemed to feel much better after crying.

Recently, she felt that she was crying all the time. It was so annoying.

“Let’s go to Night City! I want to order a few handsome guys to drink with us too. In the end, we could not waste one single day.”

Previously, they were the ones who served others. Today, they had to be customers and enjoy themselves.

She really wanted to get drunk. After getting drunk, she might forget about it.

Everyone said that drinking can alleviate sorrow?

Chapter 610 It Isn’t Him

Jessica did not have anything to say. After all, she should do a bachelor party.

“Okay, I’ll make a reservation now.”

Night City also had a daytime event, so Jessica had booked a seat.

When they were paying the bill, Jessica and Elizabeth saw that they had spent more than 282,000. Both of them felt bad.

Jessica took out her card. “Switch the card.”

Elizabeth heaved a sigh of relief. It’s fine if we’re not spending our money.

Ms. Wade, after being beaten up by society, has become so stingy.

Yeah, it’s all because of life.

After Jessica swiped the card, she secretly comforted herself.

“It’s not wasted, it’s not wasted. Think about how hard you worked every night. It’s worth it.”

The two of them took a cab to the club. When they entered the door, the colleagues at the door saw the two of them and came over to greet them.

“Jess, you’ve changed. You’re becoming prettier.”

“Lizzy is getting more and more sweet.”

The two of them were very familiar with the people here. They had a good personality, so they could play with anyone.

Elizabeth smiled and pointed at them.

“We’re in room 888. You all should come here to have fun after work. Jess is treating.”

Even though it’s her party, Jessica had Leonard’s black card. He was so bad that she wanted to spend his money so that he could treasure Jess.

Jessica thought the same. Why didn’t she spend the money she earned?

He gave it to her. If she didn’t spend it, he would only treat her like nothing, like a fool.

I don’t have any quota anyway.

After entering the private room, the two of them ordered a lot of liquors. They even ordered a few handsome men. They were strong and sexy.

Elizabeth leaned against the sofa and looked at the luxuriously spacious private room. She sighed.

“Jess, besides you, I don’t have a single friend.”

Over the past few years, she had been busy taking care of her children and earning money, so she did not have the time to make friends

Jessica poured a glass of wine. As soon as she entered this place, she became a server again.

She let out a long sigh. “I really could not forget my job. Look at me, I look like a wine girl again.”

Elizabeth smiled, “Let’s think up.”

At this moment, a group of men walked in.

“We have any type of man you want.” Rosie introduced them with a smile.

“Which one do you like? Choose any one. They’re the most handsome and good in bed in the club.”

Elizabeth looked at the men in front of her. She did not have the slightest bit of interest.

Previously, she had thought about being a guest and enjoying other people’s services. However, at this moment, she felt that none of them was as handsome as Matthew.

Jessica couldn’t accept it anymore. Even though she was used to seeing the erotica scenes before.

However, she was not used to being the customer.

Elizabeth waved her hand. “There’s no need. Let’s just chink by ourselves.”

Rosie smiled. "Okay, then you girls have fun."

The room fell silent again. A slow song was played. The two of them did not want to karaoke, just drink.

C Country. The results of Matthew's checkup were out.

He was currently having a video conference in the study of the hotel. Nicolas took a look at the door and then took a look at the

"I'll go to the hospital first. The report is out."

Jake glanced into the study. "My boss is in a meeting. Why don't we wait for him?"

Nicolas laughed. "There's no need. After he's done with work, you can take him out for a while. He's already in C Country. Take a stroll and think it as a trip. Leave the hospital stuff to our doctors."

After saying that, Nicolas walked out, holding his phone and talking on the phone.

"Brother, how's the result of the checkup? Can Jane do the surgery?"
