

Game Over 641

Chapter 641 She Wants To Inherit the Hilton Family's Inheritance

Tiana bit her fingers in fear.

This was her final battle. She originally thought that she would win this. She was going to marry Matthew and become the First Lady of A City.

What's happening now?

Elizabeth had just gotten married, and Matthew had become like this. It was still unknown whether or not he would wake up.

What should she do?

"Matt..."

Master Wade had always been a very strong man. The situations out of control today was countless.

He choked and closed his eyes to calm himself down.

He knew very well that at this moment, he could not fall.

Otherwise, the Hilton Family would really be doomed. No one supported them. Those who were looking at the Hilton Family would definitely take advantage of them.

Nicolas replied. "Old Mr. Hilton, don't be too upset. He's still sleeping. He should've woken up this morning. But he's not awake, so we told you and Grandma Hilton to talk to him every day. Maybe he'll wake up after hearing your voices."

This was also the most urgent point they were facing. The surgery was successful, and he also survived the most dangerous time.

But, he couldn't wake up, it wasn't what they expected.

At that moment, the three of them panicked. Hence, they suggested that the closest to him should visit him and talk to him more often. It would make him feel familiar, and maybe he would wake up.

Old Mr. Hilton nodded, "Yeah, we will I believe Matt will not leave us."

The Hilton Family needed him. He also knew how important his responsibility was.

Tiana listened to their conversation. She got up and sneaked out of the ward. She went to the staircase and took out her phone to call Celine.

Swiftly, the call was connected. "Tia, Old Mr. Hilton asked you to go. Are they going to talk about your wedding with Matthew?"

Celine knew that the Tiana had taken Old Mr. Hilton's heart.

After all, his body could recover, but it all depended on the Tiana finding her classmate's father to do

Thus, Old Mr. Hilton remembered her kindness, so he wanted her to be with Matthew.

Even though she knew Old Mr. Hillon was the one who bought Elizabeth back then. The three children of Elizabeth might be Matthew's, she had to keep this secret.

She can never let anyone know. I can never let Elizabeth have a chance to get involved with the Hilton Family.

Now that she married a blind man, her life would be over.

Elizabeth sobbed while Celine was feeling smug

“Mom, Matthew is in a vegetative state. He might not wake up.”

After saying that, she started crying. You’re even more miserable than Lizzy.

If she had been waiting for Matthew, then she would have to serve a vegetable. Although Elizabeth married a blind man, at least that man was still alive.

Celine’s eyes narrowed. “What’s going on? Why is he in a vegetative state?”

“I don’t know either. I heard there’s something in my head, so he did a surgery.”

Celine stood up abruptly and paced around the house, feeling anxious.

After thinking for a while, she replied.

“Tia, don’t be anxious. Maybe he’ll wake up! Isn’t Nicolas a miracle doctor? Don’t panic, just calm down and wait. Maybe he’ll wake up someday. When Matthew sees you taking care of him, he’ll have feelings for you!”

“Mom, am I worse than Elizabeth?”

The thought of this made Tiana very angry.

I thought I would win Elizabeth once, but I didn’t expect it to be like this.

“Silly girl, you’re much better than Elizabeth. If Matthew gets better, then you’ll enjoy happiness! If Matthew could not wake up, Old Mr.

Hilton will definitely marry you and Matthew. Then, you'll be able to get all the Hilton Family's assets

Chapter 642 Enmity

Tiana's eyes narrowed slightly. "Really?"

She recalled that the Wade Family had been in chaos lately because of the Wade Family's wealth.

But how could the Wade Family compete with the Hilton Family?

"Alright, Mom, I understand."

Now, she was about to pretend to be by Old Mr. Hilton's side and take good care of Matthew.

It was a good thing that he could wake up. After all, having such a handsome and wealthy husband was not a loss for her.

If he died, then she would inherit the Hilton Family's assets and become a noblewoman that everyone in A City would envy.

Even if I think about it, it feels wonderful!

"When the time comes, the man in the world will be hers."

Elizabeth and Dominic went to see the doctor. The doctor examined Dominic's eyes and heard that he could see a little.

He smiled and said, "Dominic's eyes' blindness couldn't find the cause, but his eyes are fine. Now that he's recovering, it means he'll definitely recover."

The doctor prescribed some medicine. Elizabeth held it in her hand and she was in a good mood.

Dominic could see. He might recover soon. She was happy that he could become a normal person.

“Thank you doctor.”

Elizabeth got up and helped Dominic out.

When the two of them were waiting for the elevator, Dominic gave her a cold glance.

She was obviously very happy, and the more upset he was, the darker his expression became.

At this moment, his phone rang. Dominic took out his phone and answered it.

Elizabeth was already very sure that Dominic’s near-term life was no longer affected.

But he couldn’t see it clearly from afar.

“Hello.”

“Young Master, where have you all gone?”

It was already past twelve o’clock. Hazel woke up hungry, but the villa was very quiet.

Previously, when she lived there alone, she felt very comfortable.

“We’re at the hospital. We’ll go home after dinner.”

“Okay!”

Hazel was a little disappointed. Before hanging up the phone, she whispered.

“Young Master, I want to hear you call me darling!”

The Young Master was very warm when he called her ‘Darling’, making her feel the warmth she had never experienced before.

She liked it so much that she had fallen in love with his scent and the sound of his deep breathing.

Dominic’s face darkened. “Shut up. Don’t say such things again.”

After saying that, he hung up the phone immediately. To him, Hazel was just his tool.

If he hadn’t drunk last night, he won’t have done such a ridiculous thing.

“Hazel?”

Elizabeth asked. When she thought of her being alone at home, she asked worriedly.

“She should know how to cook, right?”

Dominic said indifferently, “She won’t be starved.”

As he spoke, the elevator doors opened. He reached out to hold Elizabeth’s hand and pulled her into the elevator.

“Let’s go eat.”

By the time the elevator reached the first floor, Elizabeth bumped into Esme again. He was holding a lunch box and a few boxes.

Elizabeth called him before Grandma Hilton and the others had even finished.

“Grandma Wade, haven’t they left yet?”

Esme was stunned when he saw Elizabeth. When he thought that Mr. Hilton had become like this because of Ms. Wade, he looked at her coldly but ignored her

Walking past her shoulder, there was a trace of anger in her eyes.

Elizabeth turned her head to look at him, and Esme left just like that.

Dominic smiled faintly. “Lizzy, you’ve already married me. In the future, you’ll have to draw a line with Matthew and the people around him. After all, you think it’s fine, but they have hostility against you.”

Elizabeth only reacted when she heard the word hostility.

The reaction Esme just now was indeed hostile.

Dominic smiled happily when he saw the disappointment on Elizabeth’s face.

Chapter 643 A Strange Feeling

After the two of them had their lunch, they returned to Dragon Mountain Villa.

When the car stopped, Hazel ran out with a smile on her face.

“Young Master, Lizzy, you’re back.”

Dominic could sense that her gaze was on Dominic. After what happened last night, the girl looked at him differently.

With a cold expression, he walked into the house.

Hazel looked at his handsome back and couldn't help but say something to himself.

"Young Master is very good-looking when he's not wearing any clothes."

Elizabeth approached her, "Hazel, what are you talking about?"

Hazel quickly covered her mouth. The young master did not let anyone know about last night.

She shook her head. "No, I said young master can see? He entered the house by himself and didn't ask for help."

Elizabeth remembered sharing it with her. "He can see. But he can not always see. However, the hospital said the possibility of recovery is getting bigger and bigger."

Hazel pursed her lips and muttered to herself.

The Young Master could see, but he was just lying

The two of them walked into the house and Elizabeth asked her.

"Hazel, have you eaten lunch?"

"You must have eaten, right?"

But she won't know how to make breakfast either. Usually, the young master would make breakfast. At noon, he would make dinner too.

She was alone at home today and ate some snacks and fruits.

However, she felt that it was enough..

Even if she didn't eat, she won't die of hunger.

Elizabethly caressed her little face. "Now I see that you're energetic."

Hazel hugged Elizabeth and rubbed on her body. She liked Lizzy and the young master very much. It would be great if she could be together with them like this.

Dinner was made by Elizabeth. Although it was ordinary, it could be eaten at least.

At the dining table, Elizabeth and Dominic sat facing each other for dinner.

Elizabeth turned her head and looked at the old tree. "Sit down and eat with us, Hazel!"

Anyway, Elizabeth did not treat her as a servant. She treated her like a sister.

Hazel hurriedly glanced at Dominic and saw that he wasn't against it. He didn't say anything and she sat down next to Elizabeth.

"Thank you, Lizzy, thank you, Young Master."

She was hungry a long time ago. She ate some fruits in the afternoon and they were not enough at all.

After sitting down, she happily ate

Elizabeth gave her a chicken leg, and Hazel smiled at her, very happily.

Following that, she reached out and put a chicken leg into Dominic's bowl. "Young Master, you should eat too!"

She felt that the young master was tired last night too. She was so tired, he must be the same.

Dominic's gaze swept over her indifferently. There was a trace of displeasure on his face. Hazel was so frightened that she quickly lowered her head.

Elizabeth did not have a good appetite. After all, the conversation between Matthew and her yesterday. Now that she recalled it, she felt uncomfortable..

She took a deep breath and lowered her head to eat. She did not dare to think about it. At the thought of it, her heart ached and she could not breathe.

After dinner, Dominic went upstairs and went to the study.

Elizabeth and Hazel tidied and washed the dishes together. They even cleaned the dining room and the kitchen.

The two of them went back to the living room to watch TV. It was around 9 o'clock. Dominic was standing on the second floor.

"Lizzy, apply eye drops for me."

He was wearing a black nightgown. He looked like he had already showered.

Elizabeth and Hazel looked at him and Elizabeth quickly stood up.

"Oh, I'll be here right away."

Hazel turned her head and watched Wade go upstairs. Then, she went back to her room with the Young Master.

Hazel was actually a little disappointed and a little lonely.

Will the young master and Lizzy play the games they played last night?

I want to join too. It's so boring to sleep alone.

However, she did not dare to go up. She was afraid that the young master would scold her. The young master was usually too fierce to her.

In the bedroom, Dominic was leaning against the pillow. Elizabeth held the medicine and drip into his eyes.

Dominic suddenly wrapped his arms around her waist and pushed her into his arms.

Chapter 644 Sex after Marriage

Elizabeth's sweet gaze looked down and her eyebrows furrowed slightly.

She hurriedly applied eye ointment into his eyes, then broke free of his hands, walked to the side, as if she was very busy.

She put the drops into the first aid kit. Then, she took the ointment and poured some water over.

"Dominic, take the medicine."

Dominic's face darkened when he saw the pills. He didn't want to take the pills.

In addition to that, these drugs were also used to treat psychological illnesses.

Dominic had never eaten before. Every time, he tossed it into the bin.

Elizabeth smiled and said, "Take your medicine."

Dominic looked at him with anticipation, and his face was getting darker and darker. Did she really want him to get better?

Did she think that as long as he was better, she could just give up on him?

In that instant, Dominic's eyes were filled with rage. He gritted his teeth and said.

"I don't want to."

Elizabeth sighed. "Dominic, you need to take medicine when you're sick. Your eyes have improved a little. If you insist on taking medicine, you'll recover soon."

Dominic raised his hand and removed the medicine in her hand. The water also splashed on the ground.

Elizabeth bent down to pick up the cup, but he grabbed her hand and threw her onto the bed.

"I said I won't take medicine."

He roared coldly. The light in his eyes was dark and frightening.

Elizabeth wanted to sit up but Dominic pushed her with one hand.

"I said I won't take medicine." repeating this sentence, his gaze became more and more terrifying.

Elizabeth didn't move anymore and lay on the bed.

"Dominic, don't eat if you don't want to eat. Don't be too angry."

Dominic's hands were trembling. He was not feeling too well and coaxed her.

"Take a seat first. Take a deep breath. Let's not take your medicine. Let's not take your medicine."

Upon hearing her gentle voice, Dominic's eyes widened slightly. He straightened and looked down at her.

After that, he entered the closet. When he came out again, he wore a tie and a leather whip.

Wade had already poured some water and took the medicine, ready to coax him to take it.

After taking these pills, he won't be easily agitated, much less so angry.

Dominic strode over and pushed her onto the bed. The glass rolled down, making Elizabeth's face wet. The medicine was still in her hand. This time, she held it tightly.

But when she thought about it, her hands were tied together by Dominic and she struggled a few times.

"Dominic, what are you doing?"

Dominic stood by the bed and looked at her coldly. The hatred in his eyes was strong

He held the leather whip in his hands and said coldly.

"You don't want me to touch you, you just want him to touch you. Elizabeth, how can you treat me like this? I've known you for six years.

Have I been treating you badly these six years?"

His voice became more and more agitated. His grip on the leather whip tightened, and the veins on the back of his hand popped.

“When you met Matthew, you’ve changed. You’ve become someone I don’t know.”

At this point, he held a leather whip with one hand and waved it at Elizabeth.

Elizabeth whispered softly, “Mmm... Dominic...”

Dominic, however, hit her again and again as if he didn’t hear her.

Elizabeth furrowed her brows in pain and her face was completely deformed.

Because he was very strong, every time it hurt, Dominic kept hitting like this until his hand was sore, and his eyes only had a trace of light.

When he saw the woman on the bed, his eyes sparkled and he threw the whip away.

After that, she strode out and went downstairs to Hazel’s room.

Hazel was rolling on the bed, unable to fall asleep at all. At this moment, all she thought about was Dominic, when she heard the door being kicked open.

Surprised, she jumped up from the bed and ran toward him.

“Young Master!”

She took the initiative to jump onto him. Dominic hugged her and she took the initiative to kiss his lips.

Dominic narrowed his eyes slightly and his lips curved into a cold smile.

“Elizabeth, did you see that? Except for you, no woman doesn’t like me.”

Chapter 645 Admitting A Mistake

Elizabeth sat up slowly and bit her tie open with her mouth.

The mark on her wrist was already scarlet. She lowered her head and looked at her chest, there were more than ten whips, and she took a look at her clothes.

Although it wasn’t scratched, it was already purple.

After entering the bathroom, she put on some warm water and soaked. Maybe it’ll feel better.

Elizabeth spent the night in pain.

The next day, she got up and went downstairs. Dominic had already prepared breakfast. When he saw her, he looked like nothing had happened.

“Lizzy, breakfast is ready.”

Hazel smiled and called her.

“Lizzy.”

Hazel seemed to be in a good mood. Besides, she seemed to have become prettier.

Her gaze towards Dominic was filled with love. Dominic did not respond and pulled out a chair for Elizabeth.

“I made your favorite chicken and carrots porridge.”

He pushed the porridge in front of her and looked at him.

Dominic had a warm smile on his face. It was as if nothing had happened between them last night.

Elizabeth looked at him. The light in her eyes was a little dark.

The Dominic from last night was too strange to her. It was as if he had changed. It was terrifying

Well, the Dom now is the one she's familiar with.

"Try it. Does it suit your taste?"

Sitting opposite her, she took a sip of milk. Her mouth was filled with milk.

"Lizzy, the young master woke up very early to cook porridge for you. Taste it!"

Elizabeth lowered her head and ate her porridge silently.

The pain on her body seemed to have doubled. This was her post-marital life.

After breakfast, Sharon tidied up the dishes.

Dominic led Elizabeth out of the house, and the two of them were walking in the villa.

The Dragon Mountain Villa was covered in the mountain forest. They walked into the forest as soon as they walked out, and they could hear sounds of muerte everywhere

Elizabeth lowered her head and walked. The injury on her body was very painful.

Dominic suddenly stopped “Lazy, there’s a wish pond in front. I heard it’s very beautiful.”

Elizabeth used to hike making wishes. No matter where she went, as long as they said that this tree was very magical or the water here was very magical, or the gods here were very nice, she would make wishes.

Of course, all she wanted was to make a fortune, and also the health of her family

Elizabeth nodded her head, “Yeah”

When she was approaching. Dominic held her hand and she let go of it

She walked forward alone, and Dominic caught up quickly.

“Lizzy, I’m sorry last night. I couldn’t control my temper”

Dominic stood in front of her and looked down at him.

Dominic was wearing a white T-shirt and black pants today. He looked very young and handsome

Elizabeth’s eyes still had a trace of fear Thinking of him last night, she parsed her lipa

“Dominic, can you promise me to take your medicine on time)

Elizabeth had already experienced Dominic’s illness, post traumatic response disorder

She did not expect it to be so serious Previously, she thought that people like Dominic would mostly think wildly Unexpectedly, he still had violent tendency.

At this moment, it was impossible for her to be angry with him

After all, he was a patient, so she chose to compromise and marry him. just to make him feel better.

Dominic laughed. "As long as you're not angry and forgive me, I'll take my medicine on time every day."

Elizabeth breathed a sigh of relief when she saw that Dominic seemed to have returned to his usual self Yeah, I'll forgive you!"

Is the pain on my body a big deal? It'll go away in a few days.

The two of them walked toward the wishing pond. This place used to be a spring, but water here was not allowed to be drunk and it was bad for health Therefore, when they were developing this area, they built it into a wishing pond.

Elizabeth walked closer only to realize that there were many wishes on the tree next to the wish pond. There were quite a number of people here, so she felt that this place must be very lively, otherwise there won't be so many people here.

Dominic handed her a totem. There was a warm smile on his face

"Please make a wish!"

In the future. Elizabeth would read, "Let me become a wealthy woman!"

Today, she closed her eyes.

"I hope Matthew will be happy! I hope Dominic's eyes will recover and his illness can be cured. And grandpa, I hope he'll live a long life!

Chapter 646 The One Who Cares Most About Her

A work later, they moved back to the city and stayed in Dominic's villa.

She also brought the three children and Ms. Elliott came with them.

In the evening, Ms. Elliott cooked a table of dishes, and Hazel helped her wash the vegetables and then made the table.

Elizabeth was accompanying the three children. After Abby moved into the new house, she added a new Barbie. She was very happy and was playing with the doll.

The boys also received new ones. Both of them had Lego and sports cars.

The two of them planned and used the weekend to finish building them.

Elizabeth glanced at the snacks and fruits on the coffee table and called them.

"Abby, eat something!"

Only then did Abby sit down and pick up the small fork to eat the strawberry cake.

"This cake is delicious!"

Elizabeth bought this after she returned to the city. All three of them liked it.

Now that they have suffered this time, she must make it up to them.

Arthur and Antony ate fruits. They liked fruits with a sour taste, so they ate tangerines.

Elizabeth smiled. "In the future, we'll stay here. What do you think?"

“If Dom were to buy me toys, I’ll stay here.”

After saying that, she stole a peek upstairs. Fortunately, he did not hear it. Otherwise, she would feel embarrassed!

Elizabeth glanced at her daughter. This little girl must have inherited it from her.

However, she thought it was adorable!

“Abby, that’s not right!”

Abby nodded “Got it. Where you are, where we are.”

Elizabeth understood this was the feelings of the three children.

She looked at her two sons. “What about the two of you? Do you have any objections?”

If they don’t like this place, then they can go home and stay. It’s not far away anyway.

Antony smiled and said, “What my sister says is the decision of the three of us.”

Next, Arthur asked, “Mommy, do you really want to spend the rest of your life with Uncle Campbell?”

This was what the two brothers cared about the most. She liked Matthew. In the past, they thought that he was unreliable.

Only after hearing Mommy cry that day did they realize that nothing was more important than Mommy’s happiness.

Elizabeth's eyes dimmed when she heard this, and her expression turned lonely.

"Okay!"

In front of the children, she did not want to talk about this, not wanting to give them a bad feeling.

He hoped that his children would be full of fantasies about love and believe in love in the future!

Arthur asked her again, "Didn't Matthew look for you?"

The man did not seem to give up so easily. If he wanted it, he would use all means to stop Mommy from getting married.

But this time, nothing happened?

The two brothers felt that it was a little strange.

Elizabeth did not dare to think about what happened that day, nor did she dare to think about her future with Matthew.

She couldn't accept other women appearing beside him, so she didn't dare to think about it, nor did she want to think about it.

At this moment, Dominic came downstairs.

His gaze swept across the people in the living room, then he asked.

"Are you done eating?"

He had heard everything that Arthur said. These words were like a ticking bomb between him and Elizabeth.

The expression on his face darkened, and his voice was cold.

Abby said while eating dessert, "Not yet, Dom, do you want to have some cake? It's delicious."

Upon hearing Abby's cute little voice, Dominic felt a trace of warmth in his heart, as if the unhappiness he felt earlier had been soothed by this sweet voice.

Sitting beside Abby, he glanced coldly at Arthur and Antony

"I've given the two signed for boxing lessons. Our driver give you a ride after school in the future."

Chapter 647 The Little Boy Knows The Truth

Elizabeth's expression changed slightly when she heard this.

"Dominic, there's no need. They've accompanied me to practice Taekwondo before, there's no need to learn these."

The two of them were still so young. She did not like them learning martial arts.

Dominic's eyes turned cold. "Boys need to practice this way. They can protect their own woman in the future, and protect their sister and mom."

The boys looked at each other and said indifferently.

"Okay, let's go."

The two of them were quite interested in these. In the past, they were afraid that her mother't have the money.

I didn't want to make their Mommy work too hard, so I didn't say I wanted to learn.

Since Uncle Campbell asked them to learn now, they did not have any objections.

Elizabeth pursed her lips and didn't say anything else?

At this moment, Hazel came out of the kitchen with a smile on her face and her big eyes flickering

Young Master, it's time to eat. Ms. Elliott has cooked a lot of delicious food!"

"Abby, let's go and have a meal"

Zhong Zhen and Abby were more fun together because she was a child's personality. Being together with kids was naturally very harmonious

The few of them went to the dining room and the whole family ate together.

Hazel was munching on the chicken legs. Then, her gaze was fixed on Dominic

Recently, the young master hasn't been to her room at night. She wasn't used to it, and she wanted to ask him why he didn't go.

However, she did not dare to, so she could only stare at him secretly.

Dominic sensed her gaze, so he brought some vegetables for Elizabeth.

"Eat more.

Dominic smiled. It was that kind of doting smile.

Hazel looked at him like this and she instantly felt that the chicken legs in her hands were not good anymore.

She took another bite, feeling that it didn't tasty, so she put it down and didn't want to eat anymore.

After the meal, Elizabeth accompanied the three children for a stroll. After playing for a while, she brought Abby to take a shower after she got home.

Hazel followed Ms. Elliott to wash the dishes and clean the dining room.

When the two of them came out, they saw Dominic sitting on the sofa reading financial news.

Ms. Elliott smiled. Mr. Campbell's eyes have recovered, and Lizzy doesn't need to serve him anymore. It's finally a good thing

"Hazel, you don't have to follow me. I'll go wash the kids' clothes. You just need to rest."

The little girl looked so young last year. Does she not seem to know anything?

The day she arrived, she had been following her and helping her with her work. It was a very diligent girl.

Moreover, she loved to smile. She did not have any trouble, no worries, like a child.

"Okay." Hazel nodded.

Ms. Elliott went upstairs, and Hazel ran up to Dominic, then sat on his lap and hugged his neck.

“Young Master, why haven’t you been to my room these few nights? I want to play games.”

As she spoke, she had always sniffed the scent of his body. She really liked this scent.

Dominic’s eyes narrowed slightly. “Get down.”

Her voice was cold and warning.

Hazel shook her head, “No, I want to be like this with Young Master. I like this!”

She said coquettishly, not wanting to let go of him.

Dominic looked around. Fortunately, there was no one.

“Come down. I’ll go to your room tonight. We’ll talk later.”

He pulled Hazel to the sofa and pointed to the table.

“Eat fruits

Hazel was no longer interested in food. She felt that it was better to taste like the Young Master. She glanced at his beautiful red lips and wanted to have a taste of it!

She swallowed and smiled at Dominic.

“Young Mastor, I want to eat yours...”

Dominic’s eyes darkened as she pointed at his mouth. This girl could really arouse his desire.

Meanwhile, on the second floor, Arthur and Antony were squatting behind the white jadeite.

“They don’t look like a servant and master.”

Chapter 648 Take The Pills

After saying that, the two of them walked carefully to their own house.

The next morning, Elizabeth woke up. She went into the bathroom and looked at herself in the mirror. Her expression was a bit unpleasant.

Dommie was sick again last night.

He held the whip and slapped her. She used both her hands to shield her, so both her hands were full of whip marks.

She slowly pulled up her sleeves to take a look. The blue and purple climbed over her hands, and she did not dare to look at it again)

She hurried up and let go of her sleeves.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door. Elizabeth straightened herself. Indeed, the wound on her hand and body would not show.

Only then did she leave the bathroom and open the bedroom door.

There were three children standing at the door. Abby was wearing a white t-shirt and underneath was a black pants. The two of them were wearing black and white sportswear and a cap.

“Lizzy, we’re going to class. Can you take me out to have fun in the afternoon?”

Abby’s face was filled with joy. Her big eyes flickered as she looked at her.

It was Saturday today. There was a dance lesson for Abby. The boys were scheduled for programming lessons..

Elizabeth nodded, "Okay!"

She raised her hand to help Abby tidy up. The sleeves of her pajamas slid down, revealing the whip marks on her arms.

Arthur and Antony saw it, and they exchanged glances.

Antony held onto Abby's hand. "Sis, let's go down and have breakfast!"

After leaving with his sister, Antony asked Elizabeth to enter the house.

Elizabeth knew that he must have something to tell her. She entered the house and asked with a smile.

"What do you want to ask me?"

The three sisters had been together since they were young. They were very close, and they were always do things together.

Arthur saw that her expression was no different from usual. He reached out to pull her sleeve.

Elizabeth hurriedly took a step back, but she didn't realize that the wound on her hand had already revealed just now.

Arthur saw her behavior and knew that she did not want them to know.

“Mommy, we just want to tell you that no matter what happens, you can tell us that we will always stand by your side.”

Elizabeth came over and hugged him. “Thank you darling, I know.”

Antony left her bedroom. When she went downstairs, Ms. Elliott hurriedly came out of the kitchen.

“It’s too late. You guys eat in the car! I made sandwiches for you guys “Remember to have breakfast!” Hazel followed behind them.

Abby smiled at her. “Got it, Aunt. I know how to eat. Ms. Elliott said you made it too.”

Hazel was in a good mood. Because the young master went to her room again last night, she smiled happily.

“Haha, yeah, I did it too. It’s my first time, but I did it very well.”

The chauffeur sent Ms. Elliott and Abby to the dance school first before sending Arthur and Antony to programming classes.

Arthur said coldly, “Uncle, we need to go to the hospital. Send us to the hospital first.”

He was sure that his mother was injured, and she looked like she was hit by a whip. He needed to apply ointment.

Following the instructions of the two young masters, the chauffeur went to the hospital

The car was parked in the hospital’s parking lot. Antony told him.

“Uncle, wait for us here. Let’s go get some medicine for Mommy.”

The chauffeur was a little worried. I’ll go with you guys!”

He was the chauffeur of the Campbell Family. The two young masters were only five years old. They went to the hospital alone in such a noisy place, fearing that something bad would happen to them.

“There’s no need. You can just wait here. We won’t lose it.”

After saying that, Antony followed Arthur to the hospital

“Brother, what are we going to do?”

“Internal Medicine Department.”

He held the phone in his hand and hung up. Antony turned his head to look at it.

The moment Madam Hilton entered the hospital, she saw the two brothers and called out to them.

Chapter 649 It Turns Out That Way

Arthur and Antony turned their heads and saw Madam Hilton wearing a light blue suit not far away.

Followed by two servants, one of them ran over.

“Out Madam is calling for you!”

Arthur and Antony walked towards Madam Hilton and both of them called out to him.

“Mrs. Hilton!”

Madam Hilton felt a little uncomfortable when she heard this address. Previously, they had called her ‘Grandma’, but now, they had changed their address.

“These two boys, don’t look like they’re young. They know everything!”

“That’s true. Matt and Lizzy aren’t together, so it’s only natural to change the way they addresses her.”

“Are you here to see your great-grandpa at the hospital?”

Master Wade had been hospitalized all this while, and Madam Hilton knew about it too. She and Old Mr. Hilton visited him a few days ago.

“That’s right. What about you? Are you feeling unwell?”

The three children liked them very much when it came to Madam and Old Mr. Hilton, and they treated the three children very well.

Upon hearing this. Madam Hilton’s expression changed slightly and she sighed

At this point, she wiped away her tears. It had been so many days, but Matt hadn’t woken up yet. They were really worried, afraid that he won’t want to wake up just like that.

Realization dawned on Arthur and Antony why didn’t Matthew stop Mommy from getting married this time.

It turned out that he was sick, but their Mommy didn’t seem to know about it.

Arthur said, "Mrs. Hilton, let's go visit Uncle Hilton with you."

Madam Hilton nodded, "Okay, let's go together."

Looking at the two children in front of her, they really resembled Matt too much. They were practically engraved in the same mold. originally, they had a father and son fate, but now, they had missed it.

She let out a long sigh. The thought of Old Mr. Hilton made her angry. That fellow, for some reason, seemed to be bewitched by Tiana.

Recently, she had been asking that girl to take care of Matt. She was really worried.

When they reached Matthew's ward, they saw Tiana sitting on the sofa eating fruits while ordering the servants.

"That's right. Wipe his face, neck, and legs. Wipe it clean, otherwise it'll stink."

Chapter 650 Matthew and I Are Very Similar

After Tiana left with a few servants, the ward instantly quietened down.

The atmosphere seemed to have improved. Tiana usually liked perfumes that were very thick. It would make the entire ward smell of perfume

Madam Hilton walked to the bed and wiped Matthew's body.

The servant walked over. "Old Madam, let us!"

"There's no need. Matt doesn't like it when others come here. I'll do it."

Arthur and Antony watched the grandmother wipe Matthew's body. Then, she sat down on the chair by the bed and held Matthew's hand.

"Matt, Arthur and Antony are here to visit you. Wake up and see them."

The grandmother's voice was filled with sadness and sorrow. It sounded uncomfortable.

Antony whispered to Arthur.

"Brother, he looks very serious. Do you think we should tell Mommy?"

Arthur was thinking about this too. If she found out, she would definitely visit Matthew.

Maybe she still needs to take care of him.

By then, Uncle Campbell would definitely be angry. Would they quarrel?

But when she recalled what happened last night, she saw how intimate Uncle Campbell was with his servant.

"This is betraying Mommy."

Who caused the injury on Mommy's hand today? That servant?

They did not even think about Dominic because they knew each other for many years and they knew that Dominic was a good person.

I won't hurt Mommy.

"Let's talk about it."

I need to take this matter seriously.

The two of them walked to Madam Hilton and Antony helped her to the sofa to rest.

Arthur stood by the bed and looked at the man on the hospital bed. His hair was all shaved and wrapped in gauze.

His eyes were closed. His facial features were as sharp as a knife. Even if it turned out like this, it looked good.

Arthur bent down and whispered into Matthew's ear

Uncle Hilton, I know you can hear it. You must wake up. Elizabeth hasn't been doing well. She's waiting for you to come and save her

After saying that, he straightened his body and walked to the sofa.

The man on the hospital bed was still soundly asleep. There was no sign of waking up.

Arthur walked up to Madam Hilton. "Mrs. Hilton, from now on, I'll come here with my brother every day to teach Uncle Hilton a lesson. Is that okay?"

He already had an idea to tell him about Elizabeth's daily life. If he loved their Mommy, he would wake up.

Madam Hilton nodded repeatedly upon hearing this.

"Sure, sure!"

The two boys were really sensible. When they saw Matt like this, they also wanted to put in more effort.

Madam Hilton was delighted.

"Are you guys used to living in the Campbell family?"

If Lizy were to marry Matt, they would come to the Hilton Family and the house would be lively. Maybe Matt won't be like this, and she felt a little disappointed.

He genuinely liked the three children and felt a sense of familiarity.

Antony replied. "Not bad. We just moved there yesterday. It's Uncle Campbell's villa, not the Campbell Family."

Actually, the two little kids knew that even if they were not allowed to attend the wedding, it would be even more impossible for them to join the Campbell Family.

The Campbell Family did not acknowledge their identities. They did not mind.

Madam Hilton nodded. "No matter what happens next time, you can come to me. I'll help you."

Arthur glanced at the time. "Mrs Hilton, we have to go. We have classes later."

Madam Hilton sent them into the elevator. Arthur and Antony waved goodbye to her.

The moment the elevator doors closed, Antony sighed.

"Brother, how did he become like this."

The powerfulman from before turned out to be like this. Antony felt uncomfortable for some reason. Do you think we look quite alike?"

Especially when he was lying on the hospital bed today. There was no expression on his face and no disguise.
