Chapter 871

Don't Forget Your Identity

Jessica laughed, "Of course, you're already married, of course you need to bring your husband with you."

Elizabeth's expression darkened a little when she heard this.

Actually, the one she wanted to bring was Matthew. However, she didn't say it out loud and wanted to give her a surprise then!

After hanging up the phone, Elizabeth put on the clothes that Gracie bought. The latest design of DK which was the brand of Tiffany.

DK was only working with S Group, so DK could only be seen in 5 Mall.

However, Tiffany hasn't been in A City recently, so she should have gone to Auntie Campbell place. They're sisters.

Elizabeth changed her clothes and walked out with her bag.

Gracie sat on the sofa and stood up. "Ms. Wade."

She called her, as if she was asking if she could leave,

Elizabeth nodded her head, "Let's go!"

Only when she exited the suite did she realize that there were bodyguards guarding the entrance and Jake was there too.

“Jake.”

Elizabeth called him and Jake nodded slightly.

Even though they did not wish for his boss to have any relationship with this woman, they did not dare to talk too much.

He just hoped this time, this woman will be sincere to his boss.

If she was like last time again, he would definitely not go easy on her and directly get rid of her

“Ms. Wade.”

He responded to her respectfully and walked in front of her.

“I heard that you have a girlfriend, and she’s pretty!”

Jake understood why after hearing this. The last time he introduced a girlfriend to his boss, she was probably going to question him.

“Not that pretty! But she’s a good person. She won’t cheat on me.”

Jake had stayed by Matthew for the longest time and was loyal to him. Hence, he dared to speak to her this way.

Elizabeth also understood what he meant and she smiled.

“Take your girlfriend out when you’re free. Let’s eat together.”

Elizabeth only wanted to get closer to his people. Since she chose to be with him, then she had to work hard to get into his circle.

That was what she thought.

“Okay, Ms. Wade.”

Half an hour later, they arrived at Hilton Group

When they entered Matthew’s office, he was nowhere to be seen. On the couch, Rosalie was reading a magazine.

Upon hearing the sound of the door opening, she raised her head and smiled.

“Matt..”

Before she could finish her sentence, she hurriedly stopped, her eyes filled with surprise.

“Ms. Wade?”

Why is she here?

Elizabeth walked over and smiled at her.

“Miss Rosalie, are you here to see Mr. Hilton too?”

Rosalie glanced at the documents on the table. “I have some work related matters to talk with him. What about you?”

She subconsciously looked at her. Did she have nothing in her hand?

"I don't think she's here to talk to Matthew about work. What's the purpose of this woman here?" She thought to herself

A hint of a smile appeared on Rosalie's cold face.

"Ms. Wade, you've been married to Mr. Campbell for a few months. Aren't you going to have a baby yet?"

Looking at Elizabeth's flat belly, she asked directly.

She was reminding her that you're Mrs. Campbell now. I didn't call you Mrs. Campbell out of respect, but to remind you to don't forget your identity.

Elizabeth smiled. "I haven't thought about it yet."

Rosalie raised the magazine and continued reading. "But you already have three children. It's normal that you don't want another one, but the Campbell family won't think so."

If she doesn't have a kid, is she still thinking about Matthew?

The thought of Matthew liking men now, and that man who resembled her very much made her very angry. She did not want to see Elizabeth.

After that, the two of them did not say a word and continued to do their own things.

Ten minutes later, the office door was pushed open and Matthew appeared.

He stood at the door and took a look. When he saw Elizabeth, there was a hint of a smile on his face.

Rosalie stood up. "Matthew!"

Chapter 872

Only Their Secret

He did not notice her at all, so when she stood up and called out to him, he even glanced at her indifferently.

"Okay!"

Suddenly, his expression turned cold. He walked to his desk and sat down. He continued with his work

The two women were being ignored. Rosalie felt a little awkward

Sure enough, after he became gay, he became even colder to women

The more she thought about it, the angrier she got. Now, she had to compete with a man. Moreover, she still couldn't find out where that man was. Even if she wanted to compete with him, she didn't have a chance.

She walked to the desk and placed the document in front of him.

"I'm here to talk to the finance department today. I'll wait for your signature"

Actually, she did not need to run this kind of matter herself. She could just call any employee in the company.

Matthew pulled over and glanced at it. After confirming the contents of the document, he signed it.

Then he placed the document in front of her.

Rosalie looked at him like this. He sat in front of his desk. The lighting was bright, and there was not a trace of emotion on his devilishly beautiful face.

Rosalie really liked him. She finished her studies early so that she could come back to look for him. She was afraid that he won't be able to wait for her to grow up and marry someone else.

But she still came home late, so he fell in love with someone else first

Now, she regretted it. If she knew better, she would have stayed by his side and not gone anywhere.

Rosalie was conflicted too. Previously, she wanted to become outstanding so that she could be worthy of him. However, in order to be outstanding, she lost him.

She pursed her lips and finally spoke.

"Matthew, I heard that you went to the psychiatric hospital. I know a very good psychologist Should I introduce him to you?"

Matthew was surprised. He personally went to see Adam. Not many people knew about this, so he looked up at her.

“Did your brother say that?”

If it wasn't Nicolas, then this little girl must have gotten someone to follow him.

He went to inquire about the situation of Dominic

Rosalie was anxious that she actually forgot that was secretly tracking him. She smiled and nodded.

“That's right! When I was in TCountry, I met a senior. He's a genius in the medical field, and he's quite good in psychology.”

Rosalie felt that the reason why he went to see a psychiatrist was probably to make her sexual orientation normal. She also hoped that he could return to normal, so she wanted to introduce the senior to him.

“There's no need. You can leave now,” Matthew said.

Rosalie did not want to leave. She turned her head to look at Elizabeth, who was still sitting on the sofa, playing with her phone. She was here, and Rosalie was worried.

“Matthew, do you really want to marry that young man’

She deliberately raised her voice to make Elizabeth hear it. Now that Matthew doesn't like women anymore, she should stop fantasizing about marrying him.

Elizabeth indeed turned her head to look at her when she heard this. A hint of a smile flashed across the corner of her lips.

It turned out that they really had a misunderstanding. However, there were rumors saying that Matthew liked men.

She felt that it was quite good. This way, no woman would approach him.

Matthew's expression changed drastically. Rosalie was scared. She quickly grabbed the documents and stuck out her tongue at him before running out.

After slamming the door shut, Elizabeth turned her head and smiled.

Matthew snorted coldly. "Are you so happy to let others misunderstand that I like men?"

After saying that, he pointed to his leg and asked her to sit down.

Elizabeth had been waiting for a long time. Hence, she smiled and walked to his side. She sat down on his long legs and wrapped her arms around his neck.

"Because this is a secret only the two of us know."

Chapter 873

Who Is That Person

Elizabeth smiled even more happily after saying that. Matthew saw how happy she looked and kissed her on the cheek.

The only thing that he was willing to do was hope that she would be so happy in the future!

"Lizy, since our relationship has been settled, you should leave the Campbell family. I said I will help treat Dominic's illness."

This girl is too considerate of others, especially that brat, Dominic

He knew that her survival with the kids was entirely thanks to that brat

Even Matthew had to thank him.

But he had the responsibility and duty to repay this debt.

Elizabeth's expression changed when she heard this

"But "

His different personality was only shown because of her, which was why she had to stay. If she didn't stay with him, what would happen?

When Matthew saw her hesitating, he pinched her cheek with his thumb.

"You don't believe me?"

Elizabeth shook her head. "I do, but..."

She thought for a while. If she said she was unwilling to leave, he would definitely misunderstand.

"Alright. I'll go back tonight to talk to Dominic. Besides, the Campbell family still doesn't know that we're divorced."

He was too smart. She only mentioned it before and he knew that she was divorced.

Matthew was in a good mood. His gaze deepened slightly and he kissed her.

Just when the two of them were kissing each other, Elizabeth's phone rang. After she hung up, it rang again.

She hurriedly pushed Matthew, and then Matthew stopped. His lips were still pressed against hers.

"My phone is ringing *

Matthew glanced at her, feeling a little unhappy.

The meeting that she had planned for today was just an excuse. He wanted her to stay in his office and accompany him for a day.

Elizabeth looked at his cold face and raised her little hand to caress it

"Don't frown. We'll continue after I pick up the phone."

Upon hearing this, Matthew's expression softened a little. He let go of the hands that were holding her slender waist and said coldly.

"I'll double the kiss later."

"Okay!"

Elizabeth got up. Her face was a little hot, and she straightened her clothes as she walked.

When a man kisses, he always could not control his hands. His hands sneaked into her clothes again just now and her underwear was all wrinkled.

She picked up the hand on the sofa and let her breathing stabilize before answering the call.

“Scott”

It was a call from Scott. He knew that she had come to the Hilton Group. If there was nothing important, he probably wouldn't call her

“Mrs. Wade, there's a man whose last name is Sovanna looking for you. He said he won't leave if he could not see you.”

Scott glanced at the man sitting in the lounge. He was wearing a white coat and a pair of gold rimmed glasses. His body exuded a clean and refreshing scent, giving him a sense of disinfected walking.

“Sovanna 7”

Elizabeth repeated to herself. After thinking about it carefully, she frowned and said.

“I don't know him?”

Scott was a little surprised. “He said he's an old friend of yours.”

Elizabeth sighed. “Did he say he won't leave if he could not see me?”

She thought she didn't need to go to the office today, but now it seemed that she had to go back. She needed to see who he was.

“That's right. He said he must see you today.”

Scott recalled the tone he spoke just now. He really had never seen such a domineering and unreasonable person.

“Yeah, after the meeting, I’ll go back. It’ll be in two hours as soon as possible.”

This is her time limit. Let’s see if he can wait.

After hanging up the phone, Elizabeth walked to Matthew’s side.

“Mr. Hilton, aren’t we having a meeting? Let’s have a meeting first?”

Matthew looked at her with a hint of playfulness and tapped the table gently with his long fingers.

“Where’s the double compensation you said just now?”

Chapter 874

Absolutely Bad

Elizabeth looked at the time and walked over boldly She took the initiative to sit on his lap and even kissed him

In the beginning, it was just a light taste, but in the end, the two of them couldn’t control it anymore. They exchanged their saliva, and the more they kissed, the more excited they became.

Elizabeth never knew that kissing could be so comfortable. She did not want to let go of him at all.

Only when she couldn’t breathe well and her voice was uncontrolled did Matthew let her go

The time has doubled, and the pleasure too.

If it weren’t for the fact that she had been exhausted this morning, he won’t have let her off now He wanted to visit her pussy in his office a few

But he didn't want her to take her medicine anymore.

After all, the emergency contraception was not good for the body, so he prepared to order some condoms.

Elizabeth leaned against his shoulder and panted non-stop. She felt like she was about to drown, but that feeling was extremely comfortable.

She liked it very much, and she more She hugged the man felt very at ease

His little brother But she as before. She knew he had recovered ril After a emed to have gained strength

She slowly got up from his fer and met his gaze

"Mr. Hilton, can. have a me up after some matters to attend to at the company, so I need to go back after the meeting. But can

She | playful kid Elizabeth looked | in front of Matthew She did not have any aggressiveness at all.

It was as if only when she was him, she was her real self

Matthew raised an eyebrow and asked, "Do you want to date me tonight?"

A date that he liked a lot

Elizabeth shook her head. "No, it's Jess who wants to cook us dinner. I'll bring the three kids with you."

The thought of going to the Jessica's house didn't interest him

Leonard proudly showcased his and Jessica's nightlife in the group that everyday

He didn't even think about what kind of life he was having at that time.

He had to jerk off by looking at the photos of her

"Don't go, go on a date with me."

He said indifferently, then took out a file.

Elizabeth shook her head, "No, Jess wants to thank me, understand? She will rock herself. This is very precious"

He probably couldn't understand. A man like me can have whatever he wants.

It's just a meal How precious is it?

Matthew opened the document. "Change S Mall to this. Look if you're happy with it"

Actually, it didn't matter if she was happy or not, this was the best, he just wanted to give her this way.

Elizabeth took it and looked at it. She did not quite understand but she could still see the outline of it.

Her eyebrows couldn't help but frown. This, isn't it too luxurious?"

Matthew wrapped his arms around her slender waist. "In the future, this place will become a landmark. S Mall will naturally be magnificent"

Elizabeth smiled. "Sure! Mr. Hilton is so generous anyway. If the mall goes well in the future. I'll give you bonus. I won't let you suffer any losses."

A man's face darkened upon hearing this. Is he trying to get that little bit of bonus from her?

You can make up for the bonus by doing something else, for example..."

He signaled her with his eyes, and Elizabeth actually understood immediately. Her face flushed and she patted him.

"You dog. We are talking about serious stuff!"

What interest? Money? H was not interested. H was just interested in her.

"Otherwise, what do you think I want to work with you for?"

She retreated from his body, grabbed her bag, and smiled.

"I won't have a meeting with you. You can make a decision without me. Anyway, I have compensated you according to what you say Miss Bonus will leave first.

Chapter 875

Childhood Sweethearts

Elizabeth finished speaking and ran away with a smile.

Matthew was caught off guard and said softly

"I'll go pick you up after work"

Previously, he did not really want to go to Jessica's house, but if this girl wanted to go, he could only accompany her.

Even though he really wanted to have a date with the two of them, it was not bad to have a family date.

Elizabeth turned her head and gave him a flying kiss before slamming the office door shut.

Standing at the door, she couldn't hide the smile on her lips. She was in a really good mood.

Esme wanted to look for Matthew, but he didn't dare to go in. When he saw Elizabeth coming out, he strode over.

"Ms. Wade." He looked at Elizabeth's stupid smile. She was still as cute as before!

But deep down in his heart, this woman was poison, he couldn't touch her

Hence, he kept his distance from Elizabeth. Only after Elizabeth heard this did she come back to her senses and look at him.

"Esme, are you looking for Mr. Hilton? Just go in!"

After saying that, she walked away and Esme looked in her direction for a while. He felt that Ms. Wade was very different today. She seemed to be prettier and her smile was so sweet.

Elizabeth returned to the company and went into the office to ask the secretary.

"Where are the man looking for me?"

When she walked past the lounge just now, she did not see anyone.

The secretary carried the box that the handsome man left behind and said, "Mrs. Wade, he said he has something to attend to. He left something for you."

Elizabeth looked at the box in front of her desk, her eyes full of doubts.

I really don't remember the man with the surname Sovanna. Besides, there aren't many people in my life who come in contact with her.

Ever since she was young, she was very obedient. She did not have much interaction with other guys.

Hence, she had only a few male friends.

Scott entered with a document. The document she and Matthew saw just now had already been sent to the company.

The moment she entered the door, she saw the secretary and her staring at the box on the table. He asked.

"What is this?"

Why does it look like a bomb? The two of them stared at each other with a strange look on their faces.

Secretary Revas laughed. "It's the box left by a handsome guy for Mrs. Wade just now. He probably wants to pursue Mrs Wade

Anyway, everyone in the secretarial office was howlitched by that man. Everyone went and peeped at him, then they were fantasizing that it would be great if they could get his number.

Elizabeth did not think much of it and opened the box.

"Nonsense. Impossible. I don't even know him."

“By the way, Mrs. Wade, he said that as long as you look at this present, you’ll know who he is.

When Scott thought of that man, he also felt that he was quite good looking. After all, that man should be a germaphobe.

“Mrs. Wade, he looks like a doctor. His hands are slender and clean.”

Scott felt that this reminder would reduce the scope. She could instantly recall the doctors she knew

Elizabeth shook her head. “I only know one doctor, Nicolas.”

Nicolas and the others knew each other. Moreover, she knew him through Matthew

He wanted to know what was inside, so he urged.

“Mrs. Wade, if you open it, you’ll know.”

His voice was very pleasing. It was magnetic and deep, like a violin.

Sigh, he really is a top-class man!

Elizabeth glanced at the box and continued to unbutton the butterfly knot on it.

When she opened the lid, she saw two photos and Elizabeth took them out

One was a photo of a baby that was just born, and the other was a photo of her when she was four or five years old.

When she looked at the two photos, she was a little confused. She knew that the person in the photo was her, but she had never seen these tw photos, especially the baby one.

“Is he your childhood sweetheart?”

Secretary Revas had already imagined a picture of a childhood sweetheart coming back after many years of searching for a girl.

Elizabeth shook her head, “I don’t have that.”

Secretary Revas looked disappointed, “Oh!”

Chapter 876

Unfamiliar Message

Scott looked at the two photos and couldn’t help but say.

“Mrs. Wade, you look really cute as a baby!”

Elizabeth took a serious look at the photo. In fact, she and Abby really look alike!

Especially the photo of the baby. It was exactly the same as the photo of Abby.

She placed the box in the drawer. She didn’t think much about this matter. If that person really wanted to look for her, he would be here in the future

She and Scott read the new draft together. Scott was very satisfied with the draft. The Hilton Group was indeed generous Elizabeth thought to herself, generous?

“I’ll make it up to him in the future. Matthew won’t suffer a single loss.”

At six o’clock, Matthew called on time.

Elizabeth was still busy. She grabbed her phone and answered without even looking at it.

“Hello?”

“Come down.”

He said coldly like a robot without feelings.

Elizabeth motioned to the others, “Get off work.”

Scott brought a few managers and left her office. Then, he smiled and said.

“Mr. Hilton, are you getting off work earlier?”

The company was quite far from her. It would take half an hour to drive without a traffic jam. It was peak hour now, so he left at least an hour earlier

Matthew glanced at the time. “I am the boss. I will get off work at any time.”

Elizabeth in the past would roll her eyes and think that this man was too arrogant.

However after understanding Matthew, he knew that this was his style. He had an arrogant demeanor.

“Mr. Hilton, please wait for me for a few more minutes. I’ll come down right now.”

After hanging up the phone, Elizabeth entered the bathroom of the lounge and took a look in the mirror. She even took out a lipstick to replenish her lips.

Looking at the woman in the mirror, her fair skin was as plump as a peach.

She smiled faintly, “Elizabeth, good luck!”

After losing him once, she must cherish him. This time, she must secure her happiness!

Elizabeth happily left the company and went downstairs. She looked at the black Bentley at the entrance and walked down the stairs. The driver had already opened the door for her.

When Elizabeth got into the car, the driver greeted her respectfully.

“Ms. Wade”

Elizabeth glanced at him and nodded slightly before getting into the car gracefully.

In the car, Matthew supported his head with one hand and looked at her deeply.

Elizabeth sat down and turned her head to smile at him.

“Mr. Hilton, thank you for picking me up.”

The courtesy of her made him frown slightly. Then, he reached out his other hand and grabbed her little face.

“Did you miss me?”

Elizabeth did not expect this to be the first question he asked. Her smile stiffened and she nodded at him.

I miss you a lot

Matthew's tensed expression finally relaxed and his gaze on her deepened.

Elizabeth could not stand his gaze. She reached out and pushed his face to the side.

"Don't look at me like this I'll feel shy."

No one could stop him from staring at him like this. He did not know how terrifying and aggressive his gaze was.

The thought in Matthew's heart now was, Elizabeth, don't disappoint me again. This time, don't back away.

At this moment, Elizabeth's phone vibrated. She took out her phone and looked at it. Someone actually sent her a text, and it was from an unknown number.

"Did you see the present I gave you? Do you remember me?"

Chapter 877

Not Used to It

Elizabeth looked at the text and fell into deep thoughts

Who exactly is he? Why does she have to think of him?

In Elizabeth's memory, there were no those two photos, not to mention some boy she knew during that time, it was impossible that they had a childhood sweetheart

Matthew saw her staring at his phone, so he asked.

"What is it?"

Elizabeth heard this and exited the message, then shook her head at him.

"It's fine. It's just an ad message.

At this moment. Jessica called and Elizabeth answered.

"Miss Jessica, is dinner ready? Are you waiting for me to arrive?"

Jessica cursed after hearing Elizabeth's words.

"I am not your nanny! But, Elizabeth, to be honest, you're in a good mood today? Why?"

It had been a long time since Jessica saw such a cute and sweet woman Lizzy.

Elizabeth peeked at the man sitting beside her. He looked out the window. His face was so perfect that it looked like a sculpture.

She couldn't help but gasp. I'm like this every day. Don't make a wild guess. We will arrive in half an hour. You should cook first! I'm hanging up now."

Elizabeth hurriedly hung up the phone, fearing that Matthew would hear what Jessica said.

If that was the case, she would be very embarrassed.

It was as if she was overjoyed to be together with him.

Nonetheless, she indeed cherished him.

Matthew sensed her gaze and looked at her sideways. The two of them looked at each other and Elizabeth heard her heart beating faster.

She didn't know why. She and Matthew have been pestering each other for so long, almost a year!

Even though she had done the most intimate thing, her heart would still beat faster when they looked at each other!

The feeling was strange, and she couldn't control herself.

Matthew saw her expression and stretched out his long arms to pull her into his arms.

"Are you and Jessica in a good relationship?"

He knew about Jessica, but since he had put on an amnesia act before, he could only continue acting.

After all, she betrayed him before and married Dominic. He was still holding a grudge.

With amnesia, then she would no longer have a burden in front of him.

Only then did Elizabeth recall, "Yes, Jessica and I are best friends. We're like sisters."

"Then, are you going to bring me to meet your best friend today?"

Bringing him to a friend means that she's going to make their relationship public

Elizabeth heard this and blinked her big eyes. It turned out that this was what he was thinking.

"Yeah, yeah! Since we're together, of course I'll take you to see my best friend and ask her to size you up."

Elizabeth said and secretly sighed.

Actually, I had brought you to see her a long time ago. Besides, she was very satisfied with you. She had always asked me to be with you and grasp your thighs and don't let go.

But now, she told me to cherish Dominic

Only a few months had passed. Everything seemed to have changed.

Elizabeth only recalled her three children when she saw Pearl when she reached the old mansion where Jessica lived.

"Ah, we forgot to bring Abby and my sons here."

After saying that, she took out her phone and was about to give her two sons a call, asking them to get a chauffeur to send them to Jessica's house.

Matthew stopped her. "There's no need to call Arthur and Antony are going out to have a meal with Master Campbell today. Abby has gone out with Grandma, so she could not come."

The three children seemed to be very busy. She used to circle around her every day. Now that the children were no longer around, she was not used to it

Previously, she always imagined that she could have some time alone without a kid and no trouble. Just like when she was a teenager, she would go out and have a drink and talk about love!

Matthew saw her disappointed face and hugged her

“Why? Did you miss them?”

Chapter 878

I Owe Her

This girl was pestered by the three children all the time that she did not have her own life nor her own space

Now that she had the freedom, she looked unhappy.

Elizabeth shook her head. “I just suddenly feel like they’re growing up. If they grow older, they’ll spend less time with

At once, she felt that she should take Abby back. The four of them would be together no matter where they were and accompany each other.

Matthew understood. “Just tonight. From now on, they’ll still belong to you” Jess.

Pearl was playing with dogs in the courtyard. When she saw them, she ran over

“Godmother, you’re here.”

This was also the hope of the two of them be the godmother of each other’s kids.

However the three of them had gotten used to calling her Aunt Jess, so they couldn't change it in a short time, so they kept calling her Aunt

Pearl always addressed her godmother whenever she saw her. Elizabeth reached out and touched her little face. She seemed lot of weight. Compared to her slender and small appearance in the past, she was now more adorable. It seemed to have gained a

"Pearl, how are you feeling lately?"

Pearl stared at her with her big eyes. "Yeah, it's fine. It doesn't hurt anymore. I just need to take bitter medicine and go to the hospital for a

Even though they had a transplant, they still had to observe her condition. They were afraid of organ rejection, so she had to take medication and have a series of checkup within the next two years.

Elizabeth smiled. "It's good that it doesn't hurt. If you hold on for a while longer, you'll feel better"

Pearl heard her mother say that too and she nodded.

"Yeah, I'm not afraid. Huh, why aren't Abby and the boys here? I miss them."

Elizabeth was also a little disappointed. "They're quite busy today. I'll definitely bring them to visit you next time Pearl nodded. There are two more days to their birthday. I have prepared a birthday present for them.”

Elizabeth smiled, “Yeah, then I’ll plan a birthday party for them and invite you. When the time comes, you can give them your gifts ”

The three of them were born on 19 September. Today was the 17, which meant that their birthday would be two days later.

She had also booked a hotel. At that time, she would invite her friends to attend their grand birthday party.

Only when Matthew heard this did he realize that not only did he fail to fulfill his duty as a father, he had been absent for six years, and he did not even remember their birthday.

Leonard sat on the recliner in the courtyard and looked at the three people at the door.

He crossed his legs and stared at Matthew as he watched the change in his mood.

As expected, he did not know which day his three children were born on. He couldn’t help but laugh.

“Matt, you’re here?”

He waved at him but didn’t get up. He was still lying on the bed, feeling very comfortable.

Matthew saw Elizabeth accompanying Pearl to play with the dog. Te strode towards Leonard.

“You’re quite free.”

He had retired from the military camp. It seemed like he was not sure what he was going to do. He was probably staying at Jessica’s place every day.

Leonard raised his eyebrows. "I don't know anything else except for being a soldier."

The thought of his family asking him to work in government made his head hurt, and he was not interested at all.

Matthew laid down on another recliner and looked at the sunshine. It had been a long time since he saw the sky. The sunshine was beautiful Elizabeth's smile was very sweet. It was a wonderful day!

The scene had been in his memory for a long time, especially during her absence.

Leonard noticed that the man was sitting beside him, but his attention was on that woman there. His gaze remained on her.

"Matt, what's the matter between you and her? Have you made up? Isn't it like your style? Is it because of the three kids so you feel guilty toward her?"

Matthew wouldn't show any mercy to anyone who betrayed him, except for Elizabeth.

Matthew's gaze remained on her. There was still a hint of a smile on his face.

"I owe her. Everything she does is right"

Chapter 879

I Want To Leave Him

Leonard didn't quite understand, but he understood the character of this fellow. As long as the same was his decision, whether he was 18 or 81, it was I guess this is love!

Elizabeth and Pearl played for a while. Then, she told Pearl to play by herself and she went in to look for her mother.

When she walked toward the two men, she felt their gazes and walked over with a smile.

“The two of you are enjoying your life.”

The two of them probably wouldn't have any trouble looking at Sunset like this.

They were born with money on their side.

Leonard smiled. “Lizzy. I heard you helped her a lot, so she cooked to thank you herself. What did you do for her?”

Elizabeth heard this and rolled her eyes. It seemed that Jessica did not tell him.

But after thinking about it, it was true. Jessica knew that there was a difference in her status with Leonard. Besides, she had a kid, and she herself was a once married woman.

A solid family like the Johnson would never accept her.

She started her own career. She was planning to leave him one day!

She understood Jessica very well. Sometimes she could tell what she was thinking just by looking at her.

Elizabeth shook her head, “Secret”

After saying that, she walked into the house. Leonard narrowed his eyes.

“Why do I always feel that something is not right? That woman must be hiding something very important from me.”

Matthew took out a cigarette and tossed it to him. “You and Jessica aren’t doing quite well. You’re sleeping together at night. Don’t you know what she’s up to?”

Leonard caressed his short hair. You don’t understand. I could not guess what that woman is thinking ”

Your Lizzy seems to be getting smarter. It’s not easy to lie to her.”

He remembered Elizabeth in the past was as simple as a piece of paper.

The corners of Matthew’s lips curved up slightly when he exhaled a cigarette.

“Now that she’s the CEO of S Group, can you lie to such a woman?”

Leonard’s eyes widened “CEO of S Group? Damn it. Is your wife amazing?”

“Tak, isk, she’s not your wife yet? She’s Mr. Campbell. If the Campbell family knew about her identity, they wouldn’t let Dominic get a divorce.”

Matthew didn’t say anything, but the smile on his face grow wider.

“I’m afraid I’ll disappoint him. They’re already divorced. Elizabeth will only be Mrs. Hilton in the future, forever. “Matthew said to himself

Leonard saw that he was not angry, so he was a little curious

“Are you really not angry that she married someone else?”

She was married. She must have had sex with Dominic Did he really not mind?

Leonard started to admire this man.

If it were him, he won't be this generous.

“I am not angry

Even though she was married, she did not give herself to Dominic. Thinking of this, he was quite happy

Elizabeth entered the kitchen and saw the beautiful woman in an apron busy at the dining table

She pursed her lips and hugged her from behind.

“Woman, don't you know how beautiful you are when you cook?”

Jessica had a good figure. She was tall, slender, and curvy.

“Lizzy, get out of the way. Be careful that the oil will fall on you.”

Elizabeth leaned her head on her shoulder and looked at the braised pork in the pot.

“Didn't you tell Mr. Johnson about your studio?”

Jessica lowered the heat a little, then covered the pot.

She turned around and raised her hand to pinch Elizabeth's little face.

“Please keep it a secret. I don’t want him to know I am leaving him.”

Chapter 880

Regret

Elizabeth had already guessed, “I knew, have you really made up your mind?”

Even though Elizabeth felt that she and Leonard weren’t suitable.

But it depends on Jessica If she liked him, then she hoped that she could make the right choice, not like her.

Jessica’s gaze darkened slightly, she fell silent for a while, then nodded solemnly.

Yeah, I’ll bring Pearl out next week. I’ll officially break up with him”

Even though they did not mention their relationship, it was from Pearl’s bone marrow that they had an agreement, so they had that kind of relationship.

To Jessica, she always felt like she was selling her body.

As long as it was completely over, she would be free, and the feeling of selling her body in her heart would disappear.

Elizabeth hugged her tightly and patted her gently, as if comforting her.

At that moment, Leonard walked into the kitchen with one hand supporting his waist.

“Jessica, my waist hurts.”

Ever since he took the bone marrow, he kept saying this to Jessica, as if he wanted her to feel sorry for him.

Jessica let go of Elizabeth and glanced at him.

“Where?”

Why didn't he say that his waist hurt last night? She saw that his waist was so good that she couldn't take it anymore.

Even though she thought so, she still walked over and stretched out her hand to massage him.

“Lie down outside. I'll massage it for you.”

After taking a bone marrow, some people would leave such a problem. Jessica was very grateful that he saved Pearl, so as long as he said he fel a pain in his waist.

She would definitely massage him. Her expression was worried and concerned.

Leonard's gaze deepened slightly and he smiled.

“Okay!”

The two of them left. Elizabeth looked at the scene and suddenly recalled what Matthew said before.

“Mr. Johnson's position and status require him must be healthy, so he could not give Pearl a bone marroM

Now that the him like this, the believed him

Probably because of this, he could only retire from the army.

Arthur and Antony followed Master Campbell and Madam Campbell to attend an old friend's birthday banquet. When the four of them entered the banquet hall, a lot of people welcomed them.

"Campbell, you're here. These two are the two geniuses."

All of them were sizing up Abby and Arthur.

Master Campbell smiled joyfully. That's right! It's them."

The Campbell Family is so lucky"

At this moment, Master Hilton and Madam Hilton also entered. Madam Hilton held onto Abby When Abby saw them, she ran over

"Brothers"

The two little ones called her. "Sister!"

Antony caressed her little face. "I think our sister has become prettier!"

The three children stood together and chatted. Master Hilton and Madam Hilton stood at the side and waited for her.

They heard the guests discussing Antony and Arthur

These two guys are so handsome and smart. The Campbell family will definitely grow stronger and stronger in the future.”

Upon hearing this, Master Hilton’s face darkened and he snorted coldly.

“These two boys aren’t his great-grandchildren. What’s there to be happy about? Even if they have a great-grandson in the future, he might not be as smart as these two boys”

Madam Hilton couldn’t help but laugh at his angry expression.

“Old man, do you regret it? Do you want such smart great grand kids?”

Master Hilton glared at her. “Who regrets it? Hmph!”

Then, she shook off her sleeves and walked forward. Madam Hilton couldn’t help but laugh and chased after her.

“Old man, Matt said that he’ll marry Lizzy. I believe what he says, so don’t stop them anymore.”

Master Hilton glanced around and said, “Don’t listen to him talking nonsense and does he want to steal someone else’s wife?”
