

Game Over 911

Chapter 911 Anna's Plan

"What is the marriage certificate?" asked Abby in confusion.

Elizabeth was slightly startled. Get married tomorrow?

This speed is too fast!

Arthur looked at Elizabeth and asked her what was going on.

"They're getting married, and they will be legally recognized."

Abby shook her head. "Is there a wedding?"

She recalled that Mommy had already held a wedding. Could it be that she was going to get married twice?

"I want to get married twice too," said Abby as she stared at him.

The moment Abby finished speaking, everyone on the table was like a stone.

Elizabeth, especially, was feeling unwell. How could she explain herself so that she could get rid of this idea?

Sure enough, I did a bad demonstration and brought my daughter badly.

Matthew noticed Elizabeth's worry. He reached out and gently caressed her leg to comfort her.

“Darling, Mommy isn’t married twice. She’s married to me for real. Previously, it was fake.”

“Love or not is something that a kid could understand ”

He knew that she married Dominic just to repay her gratitude. She did not love Dominic, so that marriage did not count

Abby thought about it and said, “I see! Alright then, you guys get married! I don’t mind.”

Elizabeth was amused by her. Her serious look was really cute.

Arthur and Antony did not say a word. They lowered their heads and ate.

Elizabeth actually wanted to hear their opinions. Only they agreed, would she marry Matthew.

Moreover, the most important thing now was to make it clear that Matthew was their Daddy.

She could not open her mouth and could only look at Matthew.

In the Campbell Family, Anna had already gotten Abby’s hair and handed a stack of money to the chauffeur.

“I don’t want anyone else to know about this.”

The chauffeur took the stack of money and nodded.

“I definitely won’t say anything.”

Anna put the hair into a bag and walked out of the garden.

She was in a good mood and walked to the main building. As long as she asked the old woman to do a paternity test, then Elizabeth would be sentenced to death in this family!

The more she thought about it, the happier she became. As long as Elizabeth was kicked out of the Campbell Family, then she could live a peaceful life.

Matthew's grandmother was watching television alone in the living room of the main building.

Anna walked over. "Mom, what are you watching?"

Chelsea would binge watch dramas whenever she was free. Recently, she had fallen in love with a BL drama and watched updates every night.

She didn't even lift her head. The kids didn't come back today. The house is too cold. I'm watching the television. I've missed a lot of episodes."

it

Anna looked around and realized that Shelby should be doing skincare at this hour.

Laurence and Shelby's husband were still having fun outside, so they couldn't come back yet.

Where the old man went? It's the right time she told the old woman to do a paternity test.

She poured the old lady a cup of tea. "Mom, have some tea"

Everyone in the Campbell Family liked tea. She picked it up and took a sip. Her eyes were staring at the television screen and she was enjoying Anna took out the things in her bag. "Mom. I pulled Abby's hair today. Would you like to do a test?"

Madam Campbell was watching the TV happily!

Upon hearing Anna's words, she turned to look at her.

"Anna, aren't you too free? Do you find this interesting?"

Chelsea had always trusted her husband. Now, her daughter-in-law was starting to suspect that her father-in-law had illegitimate kids!

No one would be happy after hearing it.

Chapter 912 Sons And Daughter

Anna could clearly feel that Chelsea was upset. However, she recalled the scene of her having dinner with Celine today.

Celine felt that she could proceed according to her plan, as long as Elizabeth got caught in the fact that she had an affair with Master Campbell.

Elizabeth would definitely be kicked out of the Campbell Family. She would not have the nerve to stay in A City

At that time, it was truly peaceful

She clenched her teeth. All she wanted was to her goal. She did not want to think about anything else.

“Mom, don’t you think it’s weird? Dad treats the three kids too well. Besides, he takes special care of Elizabeth and always protects her.”

Madam Campbell didn’t want to hear anything. Elizabeth’s current status is very high now.

Thus, Chelsea and Shelby both wished that Dominic and her’s marriage could last a long time.

Anna’s eyes flickered, her eyes filled with cunningness.

She observed every expression of Madam Campbell, wanting to catch the thoughts and emotions behind her expression.

Chelsea listened to these words and fell silent. She was extremely unhappy.

Anna couldn’t wait any longer so she added.

“Mom, it’s just a test. The two of us know and no one else will know about this. If the three children aren’t father’s, then everything is clear.

Otherwise, I’ll always have doubts in my heart.”

The expression on Madam Campbell’s face changed, and she sighed.

“Yeah, send it to the hospital tomorrow.”

Even though she said so, Chelsea was still very anxious.

“What if they are really the old man’s kids?” She couldn’t accept it at all

What should Dom do then?

But if she didn’t do it, Anna might spread the rumors one day say and the Campbell family would be really embarrassed.

Anna smiled joyfully when she saw that the grandmother agreed. However, she quickly suppressed her emotions and did not want the grandmother to notice her excitement.

She had to be calm. This time, she would definitely throw Elizabeth into hell, and she would never be able to return.

“Mom, it’s settled. I’ll go with you at eight o’clock tomorrow morning.”

Madam Campbell nodded. “Yeah, go ahead and do your work. I’ll watch the television.”

Actually, Madam Campbell was not in the mood to watch TV.

After Anna left, she called out

“Someone.”

Soon, the servant arrived. “Do you need anything?”

“Do you know where the master is?”

At this moment, Master Campbell and his men returned. The servants carried and hugged toys and walked toward the living room.

Madam Campbell stood up and looked at the toys that were piled in the corner of the living room. Did Hector move the entire toy store back?

Hector sat down and poured himself a cup of tea. He drank it all as if he was thirsty.

“Do you think these toys are enough? They invited a lot of kids to celebrate their birthday the following day. They need to have fun.”

A trace of darkness flashed across Madam Campbell’s eyes. This old man really has a problem.

I’ve never seen him be so concerned about anyone before. Now, he is treating these three kids like a treasure.

“That’s not normal. It’s very unnatural”

Isn’t it exactly like what Anna said?

Madam Campbell walked to his side in a daze. She looked down at him drinking tea. It seemed like he was thirsty.

“You went out in the afternoon and didn’t even eat at home, just to buy these?”

After Master Hilton finished his tea, he leaned against the sofa and panted.

“That’s right! Shopping is exhausting. I’m so tired.”

Madam Campbell’s face darkened. “Why are you so nice to them? They’re not your great grandchildren.”

Could it be that they really are your sons and daughter?

Chapter 913 Lies Become Truth

Master Campbell snorted coldly when he heard her say that.

“Don’t you feel the joy of bringing them out?”

Madam Campbell was still a little puzzled “I’ve experienced it, but it’s not that good.”

When there’s a grudge in my heart, no matter how many words, no matter how many explanations, it’s just a cover.

Madam Campbell was successfully deceived by Anna. She had a prejudice about Master Campbell’s behavior and could no longer trust him.

Master Campbell did not care about what the old lady said. He stood up and walked to the pile of toys. He picked up one and smiled at the servant next to him.

“These should be enough. But I’ll ask Arthur and the others tomorrow. If it’s not enough, you can go and buy some more.”

“Yes, Master.”

Chelsea did not have the mood to watch the television anymore. She thought of the birthday party the day after.

The three children had nothing to do with the Campbell Family. There was no need for such a grand birthday party.

Previously, she thought Elizabeth was the CEO of S Group. Naturally, they needed to be more generous with such a rich granddaughter-in-law,

But now, when she thought of the three children, it might be Master Wade's bloodline.

She felt very upset, so she got up.

"I will go upstairs."

Master Campbell hadn't noticed Madam Campbell's change at all. He was still playing with the toys there.

At Star Villa. After dinner, the three children were playing in the courtyard. Elizabeth and Matthew sat on a chair and watched them play.

The scene was so beautiful!

Matthew turned to look at Elizabeth. There was a sweet smile on her face and she was munching on an apple.

Matthew suddenly wanted to have a taste of the delicious food.

Hence, he reached out and pulled her to sit on his lap. Then, he took a bite on her apple.

Elizabeth's eyes widened in shock. The two eating apples together was too intimate.

Matthew looked at her deeply. "It's not sweet enough."

Elizabeth was stunned for a moment and glanced at her apple.

Matthew smiled faintly, I’ll try again.

Hence, he held her little face and kissed her directly. He took the apple from her month and when he let go of her, Elizabeth’s face was completely red.

She glared at him “You steal food in my mouth too?”

Matthew smiled wickedly, “Yeah, this is quite sweet”

Elizabeth suddenly understood. He is too good at flirting!

She smiled and wasn’t angry. She hugged his neck and looked around the kids

When she saw the two sons covering her oves, she chuckled.

The two sons looked at each other but did not look at them.

Elizabeth hurriedly stood up at the sight of the three children.

“Matthew, I’ve already told you not to kiss me in front of the kids, and you’re not allowed to get close to me like this”

She was getting more and more embarrassed.

Matthew held her by the waist and refused to let go. “The kids will see how loving their parents are. It will be good for their relationship value in the future.”

Elizabeth was stunned. She had seen this sentence in a book and he was right.

“But when do you want to tell them that you’re their Daddy?”

Matthew raised his eyebrows. They already know.”

“Huh?”

Elizabeth’s eyes widened. Matthew tapped her nose

“The two sons already know about it. While our daughter already called me Daddy. It’s okay to tell her about it.”

Elizabeth was completely shocked. Did her sons know?

When did they find out?

Matthew laughed. They’re so smart. They’re now the most talented kids in A City.”

Elizabeth rolled her eyes, “Then what happened back then?”

Chapter 914 Apple Is Sweet

She knew that she had been set up by Celine and her daughter, but how could it be Matthew?

Even until now, she still couldn't understand this.

They wanted her to get into trouble, she would definitely choose the ugliest and oldest man.

Matthew was confused too. If it weren't for the paternity test, he would have thought that the person who owned the ring was her.

"That's not important."

As long as they can be together, everything in the past is no longer important.

"Then, are we really going to get married tomorrow?"

Elizabeth felt that it was too sudden. She had only been single for a few days, and now she was going to become a married woman again?

Matthew became serious. The kids are already so big. It's time to get this certificate."

Elizabeth suddenly stopped feeling conflicted. He was right.

She leaned against his shoulder. "Okay! Go get our marriage certificate tomorrow."

Elizabeth bathed Abby and told her a story before leaving her room.

Matthew happened to come out of their room. The two of them looked at each other and smiled.

Matthew strode over and held her hand.

“The kids are already asleep. It’s time for us to rest too.”

Elizabeth felt that the air was sweet at this moment. There were pink bubbles everywhere.

Hence, he led her into the bedroom and saw his suit, shirt, pajamas, and pants on the bed.

Matthew pointed to the things on the bed. “I’m staying here recently, so please help me tidy up.”

Elizabeth already knew that these must have been sent by Mrs. Jackson.

They could be hung directly in the closet, he deliberately did this to make her do it herself.

Elizabeth responded, “Yeah, I’ll tidy up. Go and take a shower!”

Matthew had the same intention, so he strode toward the bathroom.

Elizabeth entered the closet and hung up his clothes one by one. He looked at his black shirts and black suits. It seemed like he preferred black.

But in the future, she will change for him and ask him wear other colors.

Even his ties were practically in dark colors.

Elizabeth smiled. In the future, her kids will have a father. No one will call them bastards anymore.

After Elizabeth hung up her clothes, she walked out of the closet and found that Matthew had finished showering. He only had a bath towel tied around his waist and was drying his hair with a towel in his right hand.

His body was still covered in water, and he exuded an enchanting charm. His bare upper body had clear chest muscles and abs.

“Come here.”

He’s perfect handsome face had a wicked and aggressive smile. His voice was deep and magnetic.

Elizabeth walked over obediently and slid her long fingers down his chest.

“Why are you bathing so quickly?”

She was completely unable to resist such a figure.

Now that he belonged to her, she became bold. She wanted to touch him, and she wanted to flirt with him.

Anyway, she knew what would happen next.

She is not the only one who has feelings. He feels the same way too.

Matthew’s hand that was drying her hair paused slightly. His dark gaze was fixed on the finger that slipped down her waist.

Elizabeth wanted to withdraw her hand but was held back by him.

“Why aren’t you going down? Hmm?”

Waving the towel backward, the towel landed on the armrest of the sofa.

Elizabeth looked at his waist and her face turned warm, because she had already seen his...

It was so big, yet so strong.”

She was a little scared and she wanted to retreat.

However, he held her hand and slowly slid downward. The bath towel followed the gravity of her fingers.

Chapter 915 Sweet Days

Elizabeth screamed in shock. Then, she quickly withdrew her hand and took a few steps back.

After retreating, the scenery in front of her became clearer.

Especially his thing. Elizabeth couldn’t ignore even if she didn’t want to see it.

It was so big so hard.

“I, Abby said that she wants me to sleep with her tonight. I’ll go with her.”

Elizabeth said, then turned around and was about to leave.

But why would he let her go?

He wrapped his arms around her and pressed her back to his chest.

Elizabeth closed her eyes and her face was flushed.

“Didn’t you say you want to make it up to me tonight? Do you forget your promise?”

His voice was full of questioning.

Elizabeth felt that even if it was a questioning tone, why was it still very seductive?

Her heartbeat quickened, so she gritted her teeth, turned around, and offered her lips.

The moment she kissed him, he pressed his big hand on her waist and pressed her closer to him.

He even let out a soft sigh and kissed her.

“Lizzy, I love you!”

Elizabeth was immersed in his kiss, but when she suddenly heard this sentence, her heart tightened and she stopped beating

It turned out that when the words ‘I love you’ came out of his mouth, they sounded so touching

Her body trembled slightly and she wrapped her arms around his neck. Their kisses became more and more intense. Elizabeth did not even know when she was carried onto the bed by him.

Until his clothes were removed, until he invaded her.

At this moment, she knew that she and he would be together forever.

Their family finally gathered.

That night, Matthew seemed to be very excited, and Elizabeth had always been very cooperative. She was conquered by the word 'I love you'

At dawn, he covered her with a quilt and kissed her on the forehead.

"Darling, you still have five hours of sleep. We'll go to the City Hall at ten.

Elizabeth could no longer open her eyes. Her whole body was about to fall apart.

Could it be that this fellow hadn't done it for too long, so he took a longer time.

He was still switching positions, Elizabeth pursed her lips, feeling a bit worried.

If she's married, what should she do in the future? She could not get up every day and is late to work.

No, no, I have to give him a schedule.

Otherwise, she would definitely lose her stamina.

She thought so, but she no longer have the energy to speak and fell asleep.

Matthew hugged her and fell asleep in satisfaction.

At eight o'clock in the morning, Matthew's phone rang

He reached out to grab the phone and quickly shut it down. Then, he looked at She in his arms. Fortunately, he did not wake her up.

Matthew hung up the phone and sent a text.

“What is it?”

The tone of his voice was quite unpleasant. The person on the other side should have sensed it too.

“Mr. Hilton, I’ve investigated everything you asked me to investigate. Anna took Miss Abby’s hair and sent it to the DNA testing center. Besides, she even bribed the doctors there, telling them to write down their relationship as father and daughter regardless of the results.”

Matthew furrowed his eyebrows when he saw the message.

“Anna, what are you trying to do?”

“Continue investigating.”

At this moment, Elizabeth woke up. Actually, she was very sleepy. However, she opened her eyes when her phone rang just now.

“What time is it?”

Why did she feel like she had just fallen asleep? Did the alarm ring?

Matthew tossed his phone to the side and hugged her. “You can sleep a little longer. Go to sleep!”

His voice was soft. It was as warm as the rising sun. His eyes wrapped around his narrow waist.

“Let’s sleep together!”

Chapter 916 Let Her Sleep More

She slipped into his arms. Matthew narrowed his eyes and smiled.

“Okay!”

face.

At this moment, she could forget everything and just wanted to sleep with her.

After comforting Elizabeth to sleep, Matthew carefully got up and stuffed a pillow into her arms. Then, he reached out and caressed her little

He knows she’s exhausted, but he is very satisfied.

After entering the bathroom and washing up, he came out already in a refreshed and energetic state.

Looking at the phone that he threw to the ground, she bent down and picked it up.

Coincidentally, Matthew’s grandmother called. He walked toward the door and answered the call when he closed the door.

“Grandma.”

“Matt, didn’t we bring your grandfather to the hospital today? Are you free?”

“Yes, we’ll meet at the hospital.”

Matthew went downstairs and entered the dining room. The three children were having breakfast.

Abby held her head, looking like she hadn't woken up yet. When she saw the handsome man enter, she became energetic.

"Daddy, good morning!"

Arthur and Antony also looked at him and Antony happily called out to him.

"Good morning, Mr. Hilton!"

Arthur, on the other hand, lowered his head and ate his breakfast without a sound.

Matthew knew that dealing with the two boys wasn't just a simple matter.

He still had to work hard. His sons weren't ordinary kids!

After Matthew sat down, Ms. Elliott brought him breakfast and said with a smile.

"Mr. Hilton, good morning! Is Lizzy still sleeping?"

Ms. Elliott thought about the intention of waking her up. Matthew picked up his coffee and took a sip.

"Let her sleep more today. I'll come to pick her up in the afternoon."

Ms. Elliott nodded, there was a trace of doubt on her face.

Still, she did not dare to ask. Did Lizzy bring the kids back? Did she divorce Mr. Campbell?

Hearing this, Abby clapped her hands happily

“Really? That’s wonderful

Suddenly, she thought of their burthday “Daddy, tomorrow in our birthday! Will you give me a birthday present?”

Chapter 917 Cultivate Relationships

She smiled while speaking. It was that cunning smile on her face.

The more he looked at her, the more he felt that she resembled Elizabeth.

Suddenly he realized that the two sons resembled him while the daughter resembled her more.

Matthew spun the steering wheel and smiled.

“My gifts have been prepared a long time ago. It’s a huge gift.”

Abby was delighted to hear this!

“How big?”

Matthew nodded. “Very big.”

Along the way, Abby talked and laughed. She even sang a song that she had learnt from school

By the time they reached the entrance of the school, Matthew carried Abby with one hand and walked into the school with his long legs, and beside him were two small versions of him.

A lot of passerby's attention was attracted. Some even took out their phones to take a photo.

"Wow, which CEO he is?" I want to see their mother. She must be a beauty too."

Along the way, there were many people taking pictures, and there were also some who were discussing. It felt like they were walking on the red carpet.

They're taking pictures of us!" Abby glared at him.

Antony smiled and said, "Someone is too eye catching"

Abby hugged Matthew's face and kissed him. "Ts Daddy too handsome? But you're so handsome too!"

This little girl's sweet mouth made the three men happy.

When they entered the classroom, the teacher saw Matthew and her face turned red.

The teacher took Abby and told her to say goodbye to Matthew.

"Goodbye, Daddy!" Abby waved at him.

Matthew looked deeply into her eyes and said.

"Be good!"

Following that, he glanced sideways at his two sons. "You should be able to go to elementary school"

They were born in September, so they couldn't get to first grade, so they went to a kindergarten

"Abby, I think it's okay for her to go to kindergarten for another year."

would probably feel bored.

to go to kindergarten, they

A hint of a smile flashed across Antony's face when he heard that "Is that okay? But Mommy said that it's a rule that children below six years old are not allowed to go up to the first grade. Also, it's an online registration, so it's impossible to register *

Matthew said indifferently. "As long as you want, I can do it"

Only then did Abby and Arthur realize that he was right! He was so rich that he could do whatever he wanted.

Antony looked at Arthur. Of course, Arthur wanted to go to elementary school and did not want to stay in kindergarten anymore.

But he shook his head. "Mommy said that she wants us to protect our sister"

“If we are in elementary school Who’s going to protect Abby?”

Matthew raised his eyebrows. “Leave this to me. This school belongs to me. Do you think I cannot protect her well?”

“Of course you can.” Antony was delighted.

He was their daddy and he was opulent, of course he would protect his sister well

“Well, we have to listen to Mommy,” said Arthur calmly.

After saying that, he carried his bag and entered the classroom. Antony watched as his brother enter the classroom. He could only wave at Matthew.

“We will listen to Mommy We’ll go in first.”

It was obvious that Arthur really wanted to leave the kindergarten.

He caressed his little head with his big hand “I’ll tell your mommy that you’ll be able to go to elementary school tomorrow. But think about it.

Which class do you want to go?”

With their abilities, they could go straight to high school.

However, they were too young, so they still had to go to elementary school to get used to it and get along with kids of their age.

Antony made an OK gesture and entered the classroom.

Only then did Matthew turn around and walk out. His footsteps were very unsteady. He had to rush to the hospital and accompany his grandpa for a checkup.

Chapter 918 Your Grandpa Is Crazy

By the time he reached the hospital, Esme and the others were waiting at the entrance of the hospital. When they saw him enter, they hurried

“Mr. Hilton, they are in the office with Mr. Ferguson *

Matthew nodded slightly and strode towards the elevator.

After entering the elevator, Matthew asked.

“Didn’t he do a checkup?”

Each check up would take a few hours. Normally, he would do the check up first. He would be able to read the report when he came.

Esme replied, “Madam said there’s no need for a checkup. He only did it a month ago and everything’s fine. This time, she wants Old Master to see a psychiatrist. She’s asking Mr. Ferguson which psychiatrist is better.”

Matthew narrowed his eyes. Psychiatrist?

No wonder Granny wanted him to accompany her. It turned out that it was because of this

At this moment, the elevator reached the top floor. Matthew walked out of the elevator and walked toward the office of Nicolas

Nicolas walked out of his office and saw that tall and slender figure. He walked over with a smile.

“Matt, you’re finally here.”

As he spoke, his smile widened.

Your grandfather is in a very good mood today!”

Matthew glanced into his office. “Is there anything wrong with him? My grandmother said she wants him to see a psychologist.”

Matthew had also understood that people who were older might develop psychological disorders and so on.

Moreover, he had been doing a lot of research in this area lately.

Nicolas nodded. “There should be no problem. You’ll know when you go in.”

Matthew noticed that it was a little strange, so he pushed the door open and entered.

“Hector, have another drink.”

The grandmother was holding a thermal thermal pot and poured a cup of ginseng tea for Hector.

She seemed very attentive. Granny was usually not like this. Although the two of them respected each other normally, both of them were a Little difficult.

Master Hilton frowned. He probably drank too much and didn't want to drink anymore.

However, he did not want to disappoint Matthew's grandmother, so he could only take it and drink it Matthew walked in. "Grandpa, Grandma.

He sat opposite them with a smile in his eyes.

Matthew's grandmother saw that her grandson had finally arrived, so she took out a magic cube.

"Hector, play this first. They said they'll play this too much so that they won't get amnesia,"

After she was done, Matthew's grandmother sat beside Matthew.

She whispered. "Matt, I haven't told you that I need to find the best psychologist to treat your grandfather."

While Matthew's grandmother was speaking, she glanced at Master Hilton.

The old man also looked at him, his face darker.

it"

Matthew's grandmother pointed at him and said. "Do you know how to do it? It's hard to match the same color. You might not be able to do

Knowing that Master Hilton was a stubborn old man, he wanted to provoke him.

Master Hilton's face darkened upon hearing this.

You don't like me anymore. Although I'm old, I'm smart! Hmph. I'll show you how great I am today."

After saying that, he lowered his head and started to work on it. He secretly swore that he must let the old woman see that he was still as good as he was back then.

Only then did Matthew's grandmother relax and hold her grandson's hand.

"Matt, your grandfather is crazy. He even dragged me shopping yesterday and bought a lot of toys. He said it was for his grandchildren. Today, he got someone to decorate the children's room."

At this thought, Matthew's grandmother sighed.

"He's just thinking about grandchildren."

Matthew's expression was calm because he wasn't surprised at all. The present for grandpa yesterday was his great-grandchildren.

"Grandma, Grandpa's fine. He's not crazy."

Chelsea looked at Master Hilton who was sitting opposite her. He looked normal, but his words and actions were no different from being crazy.

Chapter 919 I Forgot To Tell You

Matthew looked at his grandpa serious demeanor and a smile appeared on his face.

“Grandma, didn’t grandpa tell you?”

Matthew’s grandmother looked at the handsome face of her grandson. The more she looked at him, the more beautiful she found him. He was really handsome!

Her gaze softened, and her expression was kind.

“What?”

“He said so many things.”

Even when he was sleeping at night, he kept telling her that his great-grandchildren would not like him. What should he do to make them like him?

He only fell asleep by the time it was almost dawn.

“I gave grandpa a paternity test yesterday. Abby and the boys are my children.”

After saying that, Matthew’s grandmother stiffened and stared at him motionlessly.

Matthew frowned slightly. “Grandma, are you alright?”

After a while, Matthew’s grandmother finally recovered.

“Really? What’s going on?”

Sure enough, she saw that the two boys resembled Matt, but she felt that it was impossible.

Unexpectedly, they were indeed Matt’s children.

“That’s great. That’s great.” Chelsea was overjoyed

Master Hillon raised his head and looked at her.

“What’s so good?”

Matthew’s grandmother scolded, “You old hag You didn’t tell me when you saw the certificate yesterday. I thought you were going crazy!”

Only after hearing this, Master Hilton recalled.

“Oh, I forgot all about this. I was delighted, I thought you found out”

Matthew’s grandmother glared at him. “Next time, you have to tell me something so wonderful Now that you know that the Hilton Family has descendants, are you finally happy!”

“Of course, I’m very happy!”

The atmosphere in the office improved drastically. The old couple chatted one after another while Matthew sat there and listened.

Actually, he also knew that grandfather and grandmother were old and wanted to have great grandchildren.

Matthew's grandmother suddenly asked, "Matt, what's going on? Didn't you and Lizzy know about it? Why did she not tell you back then?"

Thinking of Lazy taking care of her kids alone all these years, and the nasty things that people outside said.

The more she thought about it, the more distressed she felt. "Old man, you have to treat Lizzy well in the future. We owe her too much."

Master Hilton's gaze darkened slightly "Yeah!"

Even though he only said one word, Matthew's grandmother understood. He must know everything.

Matthew glanced at his watch. "I will go get married to Lizzy today. Don't you have any objections?"

"There's no objection. What a good thing!"

The smile on Matthew's grandmother's face was warm. She could already imagine the Hilton Family's future.

They would be surrounded by their grandchildren and granddaughter in law. The Hilton Family would finally be very lively.

"What nonsense are you talking about? You don't want to give her anything, but you're trying to tie her down? First, you propose to her, if she agrees, and get married. Remember to give her a grand wedding and let everyone know that she's Matthew's wife and the mother of your three children”

Master Hilton sighed as he spoke.

“I-I have to go and apologize to her too for the things I said to her in the past.”

Matthew’s grandmother laughed. “Now you know your are sorry? All of her suffering is for the sake of the Hilton Family”

Master Hilton nodded. “From now on, you could not say such nonsense. If you don’t know a person well, you could not criticize them.”

Matthew knew that this time, grandpa really accepted Elizabeth. Moreover, they would feel guilty toward her in the future and treat her well

Chapter 920 Proposal First

Nicolas pushed the door open and walked in “Master Hilton, you can go and do the checkup”

Master Hilton stood up. “Let’s go!”

“That’s not necessary. Grandpa’s not sick. You don’t need to see a psychiatrist ”

Only then did Master Hilton realize that this old woman had brought him to the hospital carly in the morning not to examine his body but to see a psychiatrist.

He frowned slightly “Do you really think I’m crazy?”

Chelsea couldn’t help but laugh. “Shouldn’t I? Why didn’t you tell me?”

The two of them looked at each other and laughed. Their eyes were filled with warmth

Matthew got up. "I'll ask Esme and his men to send you home. I need to go to the City Hall'

Master Hilton and Matthew's grandmother looked at him. He was definitely going there today.

Matthew's grandmother smiled and took off the jade ring in her hand.

"Did you not prepare a ring? Use this proposal first. It was passed from my great grandmother. After that, you'll give Lizzy this. Remember to buy a big diamond ring then."

Master Hilton said, "I have a rare diamond. You can turn it into a ring

Nicolas watched the whole family discuss proposal and knew that Matt had won.

In the future, there would be no more obstacles for this couple.

Matthew said indifferently, "I've proposed a long time ago, and the ring has already been prepared. You can give this to her yourself."

After saying that, he walked out, exuding a sense of joy.

Matthew's grandmother sighed, "Finally, you've seen Matt's happy face. I am happy too!"

Nicolas chased after Matthew. "Congratulations, Matt!"

Matthew looked at him. "Did Adam tell you about Dominic's illness?"

Nicolas Kai immediately understood what he meant. "Yes, we're researching on it. Is there really a drug that can produce a second personality?

If there really is, then the person who developed it is a medical genius. I'd like to see him."

Matthew's lips curved upward. "I don't know if he's a genius. If this drug really exists, then it's extremely dangerous to the world."

That person could now rule the whole world.

Nicolas also felt that he sighed.

"Matt, you have to be careful. That person probably came for you."

Matthew knew about it too. "Yeah, I'll leave first."

At this moment, the elevator arrived. Matthew walked into the elevator with a few bodyguards following behind him.

He first went to the company for a meeting, then went home.

After entering Elizabeth's bedroom and seeing that she was still asleep, he sat down by the bed and lowered his head to kiss her on the forehead. Then, he called her softly.

"Lizzy, it's time to wake up."

Elizabeth was very tired. When she heard his voice, she wrapped her arms around his neck.

"But I'm so tired. I still want to sleep."

Elizabeth felt that today was wasted. She did not want to do anything-

It's all his fault. He was so crazy. She's really not as strong as him.

Matthew looked at her closed eyes and couldn't help but kiss her on the lips.

"Let's go to the City Hall. Or do you want me to ask them to come home? You can sleep and do it on the bed."

Upon hearing this, Elizabeth sat up.

"There's no need. Go to the City Hall"

He really understood her very well. He smiled.

"I will listen to my wife."

Elizabeth went to wash up and thought as she brushed her teeth. Getting a marriage certificate on the bed, it would be so embarrassing.

Therefore, no matter how sleepy she was, no matter how tired she was, she could still get out of bed.

Looking at herself in the mirror, she seemed to become a little better.

There was a faint layer of blush on her little face. The blush of her cheeks was incomparable, and there was a trace of sexiness in her eyes.
