

Game Over 961

Chapter 961 And The Oscar Goes To

Celine was still heartbroken when she saw how upset she looked. However, if Matthew found out about this and Elizabeth stirred the fire, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Everyone in the business world was afraid of Matthew.

A City was the same. No one dared to offend him.

Previously, if Tiana could really marry him, it would be a good thing. They would be able to rule A City.

In this situation, Tiana was completely defeated.

Now that he knew what happened back then was related to them, he would definitely not let them off the hook

What should I do to solve this problem?

“Yes, find Master Hilton, he reached out to her back then, and he gave her the money. I can blame him for everything”

Just when she was lost in her thoughts, Tiana turned around and ran at full speed.

Celine was so furious. This girl hasn't grown up yet. She's like a kid. “If you continue like this, you'll definitely be defeated by Elizabeth.”

Not only your man would be taken away, you would also lose Wade family to her.

Saint went to the hospital and entered Nicolas's office.

Nicolas was talking on the phone. When he saw him, he raised his hand and asked him to sit down.

Actually, it was Kai who was on the phone with Nicolas. He had spent the night researching the drug. It was a new type of drug that could make people hallucinate.

Kai said that the man was a powerful hypnotist. As long as one took this drug, the hypnotist would create a different personality.

Take care of yourself," Nicolas responded.

"Got it, I'm hanging up."

Nicolas was relieved that he did not take the drug. Otherwise, his willpower would become weaker, and their hypnosis would increase.

He made a cup of coffee and placed it in front of Saint. "Mr. Campbell, why are you free today?"

Their relationship wasn't very good. In other words, they didn't know each other well enough to sit down and talk.

Saint saw that the man was quite energetic, he suddenly smiled and called him

"Mr. Ferguson..."

His voice was neither high nor low, but it carried a feeling that it was almost like a devil's voice.

Nicolas's ears echoed. He lowered his eyelide and replied.

"Okay!"

Following that Saint look out a crow necklace and shor

“Nicolas, are you very ale very sleepy, very sleepy? How you have a door in front of you When you push the door open, you a big off bed in the house You’re lying on the bed. Do you feel more and more sleepy? Close your eyes and fall asleep

Nicolas closed his eyes and collapsed on the sola

Saint saw that he fallen asleep. He raised his left hand and looked at his watch, then started counting in a low voire

“Five, four, three, two, oûe

Nicolas opened his eyes, he looked dumbit

“What is this place?”.

He had already thought of this line. When he spoke, he saw the satisfied smile on Saint’s face and fell that his acting skills were good

Saint was very satisfied. He took out his phone and was talking on the phone.

“Master, it has succeeded”

Nicolas could hear what he said, but he could not hear what the man was saying on the other side of the phone. He knew that he was reporting to that person

“Yeah, you can leave the rest to me. I was the one who led Pasgen out Master, don’t worry, I’m confident.”

Nicolas sat there, not knowing what question would he

He was still a little nervous, afraid that he would get busted

Had he known it was so troublesome, and they arrived so quickly, he should have asked Matt for experience, then he knew how to deal with him next

Saint, who had hung up the phone, looked at the man. He crossed his legs elegantly, looking very casual and relaxed

“What’s your name?”

Chapter 962 Showcase

Adam had told him about this beforehand. Besides, he was quite familiar with psychology-

Hence, faking it would not be a problem for him.

“Kayden Ferguson, who are you?”

After hearing him, Saint thought for a minute. He didn’t know him, so it meant that this person didn’t know about Nicolas’s condition and didn’t have any memories of Nicolas

This was also a disadvantage mentioned by the master. When a personality was induced, sometimes it was violent, sometimes it has a dark side.

However, the master preferred the violent ones because they were easy to control.

“I hope this time is the same. If Kayden is on the kind and warm side, then it’ll be troublesome to control him.”

Saint smiled and introduced himself.

"I'm Saint. I'm the same as you. We are both personalities who were induced by the master using medicine. Therefore, our lives are given by the master, do you understand?"

Kayden nodded. "Okay!"

The difference between Kayden and Nicolas was that Kayden talked less.

The difference between the two of them was obvious.

Saint stood up and handed him a notebook.

This is your mission, and there are also some introductions about you. Remember to obey Master's orders, otherwise you'll disappear immediately, never appear again in this world."

"Okay!"

Then, he picked up the notebook and looked at it. Seeing that he believed him, he stood up.

"Look slowly. I'm leaving."

After Saint left, Nicolas hurriedly switched on his computer and switched the footage to the surveillance camera. Then, he tapped on the door of his office.

After seeing that Saint had entered the elevator and left, he stood up and walked to the door and locked it.

He immediately gave Matthew a call Matthew was having dinner with Elizabeth.

Matthew peeled shrimps for her while he didn't eat much.

Elizabeth was having a good time. In the past, she was the one who had always waited on the three children. Now that the table had been turned, it felt really good!

She enjoyed the moment.

When she smiled at him from time to time, the corners of his lips would curl up and he became more attentive.

When Matthew heard the phone ring, he merely glanced at it indifferently. He didn't want any phone call to disrupt them at this moment.

Hence, he did not pick up the first time. When Nicolas called him twice, he felt that something important must have happened. Hence, he picked up the wet towel and wiped his hands before picking up the call.

"What is it?"

"Matt. I guess they must have a plot. Do you know who's the next one being drugged?"

Matthew's gaze was fixed on the woman opposite him. The way Elizabeth ale was exceptionally beautiful. Abby must inherit her beauty.

When you eat, you're as cute as a hamster.

Therefore, when he ate, he did not care about the food. Instead, he looked at her.

“Speak”

Matthew was not interested in who the next one was. He only wanted to help cure Dominic’s illness and also help this girl pay her debt, so he didn’t care what their motives were.

Nicolas looked at the document and saw that it was a photo of Leonard and an introduction to him. They must have done a thorough plan and investigated him thoroughly

He realized that this was not simple, they must have a bigger plan.

“Leonard.”

Matthew, who hadn’t been bothered about it, frowned when he heard this.

“Are they coming for the three of us?”

He suddenly had this feeling, as if they were aiming at them.

Nicolas responded, “That’s right, I’ve made up a personality, Kayden, Dr. Cold, what do you think?”

Chapter 963 Hope For Nate

When Matthew heard this, his eyebrows relaxed slightly. Compared to the tense look just now, he was much more relaxed now.

Nicolas rolled his eyes hearing this. He cursed in his heart. You are not the only one who has a wife!

Matthew suddenly said, “You don’t have a wife, you don’t understand my happiness!”

After that, he hung up the phone.

“Matthew, I have a girlfriend too.”

After yelling at him, he felt that Matthew know that he and Estelle could not get married for the time being, so he mocked him like this.

“Damn, I am so angry.”

After Matthew hung up the phone, he looked at Elizabeth. She’s already full. What’s on her mind with her eyes narrowed?

Elizabeth only snapped back to her senses when she heard his voice and looked at him.

“I’m full”

Just now, when she heard Matthew say that he was eating with his wife, it reminded her of what her grandfather said. She really did not understand why his grandfather did not agree to their marriage.

She supported her little face with both hands, looking cute.

“Matthew, do you know why grandpa Hilton chose me?”

If there was a grudge between the two families, it would be impossible for Master Hilton to choose her as his granddaughter-in-law.

She really could not understand.

Matthew smiled. “Of course it’s because of your beauty!”

Not only are you pretty, but you are also very kind.

Elizabeth smiled helplessly. "Mr. Hilton, am I the first person you lie to?"

Normally, he was so cold to anyone and would not show respect to others. He would not say such a thing to coax others.

Thus, she felt that she was probably the first one.

Matthew looked at her deeply. "I've allowed myself with hypocritical behaviors."

Elizabeth smiled even more. "Alright, Mr. Hilton, I'm very pleased. Thank you for your compliment. Even if I'm not pretty enough, please suffer in silence! After all, we're married, and we'll have to look at each other for the rest of our lives."

Matthew held her hand. My wife, I'm telling the truth."

To his eyes, probably no one was prettier than Wade,

By the time the two of them left the restaurant, it was already more than two hours later.

Matthew went back to the office, and Elizabeth went back to her office.

After settling some work matters, she sat in front of her desk in a daze, thinking about what happened between her and Matthew and how they could be together

The kids need a father, and she loves that man too

However, her grandfather did not tell her the reason, and his grandfather had lost his memory again
Matthew was not too sure, so she could only look for Nate

He knew where his mother was and even said that she was still alive. He wanted to bring her to see her.

Previously, she thought it was a lie and thought he had an ulterior motive.

Now that she thought about it, it was probably arranged by God. No matter what purpose he had, she wanted to try.

Hence, she took out the name card from her bag and dialed the number.

Elizabeth looked a little nervous and she took a few deep breaths.

Elizabeth, don't be nervous. Anyway, for you, as long as you meet your mother, grandfather won't object to your marriage anymore. Then you'll be able to give the children a complete family, and you can be with the person you love. Good luck!

Inwardly, she comforted herself.

At this moment, Nato's voice was heard from the other end of the line. His voice was filled with a wicked aura and a low smile.

"Hello?"

Elizabeth heard his seemingly indifferent low chuckle. For some reason, she felt a tingling sensation, like an electric shock.

"Mr. Cox, I am Elizabeth. We met yesterday. Do you still remember that you gave me a name card?"

Chapter 964 Meeting

Nate smiled softly. The brighther came from the bottom of his throat, it carried a hint of seduction.

"Of course, I've been waiting

Elizabeth and Dan felt less nervous. He was smart too. Was there nothing to be afraid of

Tony treated everyone she'd pure Mache bexa good person

After thinking about this, she lowered her guard and seemed much more relaxed

About my mother I want to talk to you, or can you tell me where she

All she wanted now was to see her mother. She would not interrupt her life. She just hoped that she could make the decision and let her marry Matthew. That was all Nate suddenly sneered. This laughter was completely different from the previous one. Elizabeth felt a bit cold through the coldness.

He did not answer her question. Instead, he asked

Elizabeth didn't react for a moment. She felt that she

She was going to look for her. She was about to see her. She was a little excited and a little nervous so she hummed. She did not really understand what he meant and then she thought about it carefully.

"Mr. Con, you should call me Ma. Wade"

The two of them weren't familiar with each other. She felt it was inappropriate for her to call her Larry. Elizabeth knew she would be disappointed, but she wasn't too disappointed.

“Ma Wade, since you have something to beg me, ahoakts you buy me dinner first, st make me happy? If I’m in a good mood, of courus i’ll

Ebaleti was donned for a moment. It turned act that this per had been ping to her below. If she waited in gat has much tom kan dr and tad ir neke kan begyn

Eingeli produced be a wide. The washed to pull at host and wait ban

She still knew some tricks in the business world. It was not despicable to use them on a man like Nate

Nate chuckled.

“I happen to be free tonight I’ll send you an address. We’ll see each other tonight. However, I want you to cook for me

Elizabeth gripped her desk tightly. How obnoxious he was. She could just take him to a nice place, but he wanted her to cook for him. It was really annoying

All she could do was suppress her displeasure and nod.

“Okay!”

After hanging up the phone, Elizabeth thought about it for a while. It might be dangerous to go there tonight, so she needed to discuss it with

She picked up her phone and was about to send a text to him, but she received the address sent by Nate.

When she saw it in the suburbs, she felt that it was a little dangerous, so she directly called Kai

“Mrs. Wade,” Kai answered quickly.

“I need something for self defense. Help me prepare, and don’t let anyone find out. You’ll accompany me to a place tonight.”

“Okay, Mrs. Wade, I’ll prepare for you.”

After hanging up the phone, Elizabeth glanced at the time. It was only four o’clock. It was still early before leaving and she started working again.

In the studio, Jessica had just accompanied a customer to finish shopping. When she returned to the studio, she went into the pantry and drank two glasses of water.

After walking a lot and talking a lot, she was exhausted.

The studio had just started business, so she, the boss, had to do all the work.

At this moment, the receptionist entered the pantry. “Jessica, there’s a guest waiting for you.”

Jessica looked at the time. It was 4.30 p.m. and she had to pick her daughter up from school at 5. So she decided to get rid of this client quirkh and not to waste her time picking up her daughter.

When she entered her office, there was a woman in a suit standing in front of the French windows. Her back was facing her and she was looking out the window.

Chapter 965 Taking The Check

Qunsia Johnson was sitting on the sofa playing games. When she heard the sound of heels, she didn’t even look up and was immersed in her game world.

The moment Jessica saw Qunsia, she knew what was going on.

The Johnson Family probably found out about her and Leonard.

Jessica walked over generously. "Mrs. Johnson, Miss. Johnson, do you have any requests today? I can accompany you shopping today. I can also choose clothes for you, and I can also make a reservation from Flora series."

Her voice was calm and steady. She was very confident, not afraid at all.

Mrs. Johnson turned around and studied Jessica from head to toe.

Then, she slowly walked toward her and glanced at her daughter.

"Qun, is this Jessica."

Ignoring Jessica completely, she only talked to her daughter.

Qunsia said impatiently. "It's her! It's not like you haven't seen the photos before."

Leonard and her were photographed by paparazzi many times, but they were deleted by Leonard. Therefore, they hadn't been reported in any entertainment news

Jessica thought that no one in their family knew her.

Now that she heard what Qunsia said, she guessed that the Johnson Family must have asked someone to investigate her beforehand.

Mrs. Johnson's expression changed, but she wasn't embarrassed.

She stood there like that, her aura overwhelming

“Ms. Frye, am I right? I am Leonard’s mother. I came to see you today because I hope you can leave my son.”

After saying that, she took out a check from her bag. There’s one million here. Take it and sign the agreement and leave him.”

Jessica took a glance at the agreement on the coffee table. She probably meant that she would leave Leonard for money and not bother him in the future

Without hesitation, she picked up the pen and signed it

“Mrs. Johnson, I agree ”

She held the agreement that belonged to her in her hand. “There’s no need to give me the money. After all, he saved my daughter’s life

Mrs Johnson saw how straightforward she was, and she was looking at Jessica differently

Originally, she thought that this woman had divorced with a daughter, so she must have needed her one million was probably not enough for her to leave.

Fortunately, she didn’t want anything

Mrs. Johnson recalled that her son was the most loved son in the family, and he was also the pride of their family. Now that he had left the army, his grandpa was furious.

Thinking of this, she threw the check onto the table.

“Keep it! Just take it as your compensation. After all, he’s slept with you for so long. One million is enough to buy your body.”

The words were indeed unpleasant, and the expression on Jessica's face changed.

Initially, she did not want to take it as she was grateful to him. However, after hearing what Mrs. Johnson said, she felt that she should take it

After being taken advantage of by that dude for so long, it would be a good idea to take some money. Besides, if Leonard knew about this, he would definitely think that she was a greedy woman.

He won't look for her anymore.

Jessica picked it up and looked at it.

"Mrs. Johnson, thank you. I'll take the check"

Without hesitation, she put it into her purse. Mrs. Johnson's eyes darkened. She thought she wasn't greedy just now, but it turned out that she was just pretending

Sure enough, this kind of woman is the best to be settled with money.

She glared at Jessica coldly, "Do you know what to do after receiving the money?"

After saying that, she called out, "Qun, let's go."

Only then did she put away his phone. She stood up and glanced at Jessica. Then, she rolled his eyes at her and strode out.

Jessica did not send them off. Knowing that they would leave by themselves, she did not want to cause more displeasure for herself

At this moment, Jessica's phone rang. She hung up the call

*Jess, I'll go pick Pearl up later. You can go home right away."

Chapter 966 Feeling Sad

Jessica's heart ached slightly when she saw this.

However, she had already taken over Mrs. Johnson's check just now. It was still a lot of money, one million.

Yeah. Even if she feels a little warm when hearing that Leonard is going to pick Pearl up. For the past six months, he has always been like

He made Pearl feel like she had a father, and she also enjoy someone helping her.

If she wanted to leave suddenly, she still felt a little upset, she might not get used to it

But short pain was better than long pain. Moreover, she kept telling herself not to fall in love with this man, not to fall in love with him, and she did it too.

She did not fall in love with him, nor was she moved by him.

Now was the time to retreat and leave. There was no hope for them.

"Jessica, are you listening?"

He on the other end waited for a while but did not get a reply. He asked again.

Only then did Jessica come back to her senses, "Oh, no need. I promised her and Abby to go out today, so Lizzy will pick her up together."

She had already borrowed from Lizzy the 6th courtyard of Star Villa. All the important things had been moved over. She would pick up Pearl and head there later.

"Okay. I'll go pick you up from work."

He was quite happy. If Pearl wasn't around today, it would be the two of them alone.

In fact, he liked the world of the three of them. Pearl was cute and beautiful! She was a princess every man wanted.

Jessica pursed her lips.

"I have to work overtime today."

"Well, I'll cook and wait for you."

Even though Leonard was the young master of the Johnson Family, he was a practical man. The military had trained him to do anything

The food he made was delicious, but he did not cook often.

“Jessica wanted to say no, but she really wanted to say, “Mr. Johnson, please let me go and let you go too.”

But in the end, she still didn’t say it out loud. This was too hurtful

“Okay!”

She only replied indifferently, then said that she was busy, then hung up the phone

After hanging up the phone, Jessica was a little upset. She was inexplicably upset. She did not know why.

After some time, she rolled her eyes and looked out the window.

Jessica, this was your normal life. Don’t feel sad anymore. You two are just passersby in each other’s life. If you pass by, there won’t be any intersection anymore.

She called Elizabeth and Elizabeth happened to get into her car. She took the bag he handed her and looked at the things inside.

Her phone rang. She took out her phone and saw that it was a call from Jessica. She answered the call with a smile on her face.

“Jess.”

Her voice was full of joy and delight.

Jessica heard her, she felt that Lizzy and her mood at this moment were in a clear contrast.

Sighing, she said, "Lizzy, I've separated from Leonard. If he asks if Pearl is going to your house today, don't get busted!"

"Separate? Does he not know?"

Elizabeth understood her the best. She probably left quietly.

"Yeah! I could not say heartless words, so I can only explain myself with actions. He should know soon."

Thinking of the agreement that Mrs. Johnson had given her and the one million, he would definitely believe what they said.

He would think that she was a greedy woman who could leave him for money.

He would definitely hate her deeply, so it was only right to part.

Elizabeth listened to Jessica's voice and knew that she was in a bad mood. After all, she had such an intimate relationship with that man.

Even if she didn't love him, she still had feelings.

"Jess. I have something to do in the afternoon, so I could not accompany you. Tomorrow, we'll go and have a good time."

Accompany her for a crazy day, then got drunk.

Jessica laughed, "Yeah! If you have something to do, you can do your thing. I'm fine, don't worry."

Chapter 967 Preparing For A Meeting

Elizabeth comforted her a few more times. She looked so unconcerned that Elizabeth felt much more relieved.

After she hung up the phone, she lowered her head and looked into her bag

She took them out one by one and Kai introduced them.

“There’s anesthesia in this ring. It can only be used under critical circumstances. This is a smoke bomb. There’s also anesthesia in it. It can knock out a large crowd.”

Elizabeth glanced at the gun. This was the first time she saw a real gun. Her hand touched it, and it was icy cold.

She thought that she won’t resist such a thing and she would definitely want it.

Now that she saw it, she resisted slightly, so she only took the two pieces.

“I’ll take these two!”

Elizabeth put on the ring and put the candy like smoke bomb into her bag.

“Don’t you want a gun?” Kai asked.

There were also a few grenades and so on. They were all prepared for her.

Elizabeth shook her head. “I don’t want to kill anyone. These two are enough.”

She just wanted to protect herself, not to kill someone.

“That’s why it’s inappropriate to carry a gun or a grenade.

Kai nodded slightly. “Sure.”

He was still wearing a black hat and a black mask. Only his eyes were revealed, showing a trace of gloominess.

He spun the steering wheel and drove out of the land. He drove to the address given by Nate.

The place was in a manor in the outskirts of the city. This was Elizabeth’s first time here. When the car stopped at the entrance, she looked around.

Except for this manor, there was no other building around.

Before she got out of the car, she texted Nate.

I’m here. I’m at the door”

After sending the message, she glanced at the door. It should be sending someone to open the door. She could only wait for a while.

Kai glanced sideways at her. “Ma Wade, I’ll go in with you.”

This kind of manor looked a little strange. It was quite dangerous for a girl to enter such a building

He had promised to protect her so he would definitely protect her well

At this moment, Matthew called and Elizabeth quickly answered.

“Hello”

A smile appeared on her face and she gestured to Kai to get him out of the car.

Kai got out of the car wisely Elizabeth was the only one left in the car. It was easy to talk on the phone.

“Where are you?”

Elizabeth looked outside and smiled.

“I’m outside. I have something to do. I need to go home later.”

Matthew didn’t think much of it. “Yeah, be careful. Call me if you need anything. Remember to go home earlier.”

Just then, Matthew had just picked up his sons and was about to go to the kindergarten to pick up their sister.

He needed to take responsibility as a father. He would come to pick them up from school whenever he had the time.

Elizabeth responded, “Got it, baby!”

Matthew’s Adam’s apple bobbed when he heard the address “baby”. He glanced at the rearview mirror and said coldly to his two sons.

“Cover your ears

Arthur and Antony looked ahead, their faces full of doubts.

Matthew smiled faintly. "I have something to tell your Mommy. Not safe for kiddos. Cover them up now."

Arthur and Antony unwillingly covered their ears. There was a trace of disappointment in their eyes. I don't like this father.

Elizabeth listened to Matthew and pursed her lips.

"What are you doing? Stop it. The two sons are very smart. They will learn from you."

They learn everything quickly! What if Matthew makes a move on her in front of them and they imitate him?

Matthew's lips curved upward. "Don't worry. They know how to behave. They won't learn anything bad from me."

After saying that, he smiled wickedly, "Call me baby again."

Elizabeth heard this and she became confused in the wind.

Previously, she was just sugarcoating so that he would not question her whereabouts or ask her to go home immediately.

Chapter 968 Very Familiar

Unexpectedly, she dug a hole for herself and said softly.

"Can you wait untill go home tonight?"

Matthew thought about it and glanced at the rearview mirror. The two sons were quite obedient. They were both covering their ears!

Yeah, it's the same for you to cry in bed at night. I like it more"

Elizabeth wailed, feeling that she would definitely suffer tonight

Then I'll hang up now

Elizabeth saw the door open and Nate walked out.

After she hung up the phone, she got out of the car and walked toward Nate

"Mr. Cox"

Nate was wearing a white shirt and a pair of glasses. Her black pants exuded a wicked aura under his gentleness.

I felt like a ghost writer.

He raised his hand to caress his glasses, and a trace of light flashed in his eyes.

"Welcome" Please come in."

He looked a little nervous and troubled, like a boy dating a girl that he liked for the first time, and he didn't even know where to put his hands.

Elizabeth smiled and he pointed at Kai

“He’s my chauffeur. Can we go in together?”

Only then did Nate glance at Kai and nod.

“Of course.”

After saying that, he walked in front and led the way for Elizabeth. After entering the main entrance, she could see a beautiful garden.

There were a lot of flowers in there. She had never seen them before.

Nate saw the surprise in her eyes. After all, girls liked flowers. These flowers were so beautiful, but not many people knew them.

He introduced, “These are all Chinese herbs that I have grown, so these flowers are not the same as other fresh flowers.”

Elizabeth’s eyes narrowed slightly Chinese medicine, no wonder.

“Are you a doctor of traditional Chinese medicine?”

Nate smiled. When he was chatting with Elizabeth, his eyes were always staring at her, and his eyes filled with

That’s right I prefer traditional Chinese medicina

Kai followed behind, neither far nor near, so he didn’t disturb them.

As long as Wade was safe, he would follow her quietly.

Elizabeth nodded, "That's amazing. I've always admired doctors since young"

Actually, she didn't admire doctors' She was afraid of them.

She was afraid of doctors since ever. When she saw someone wearing a white coat from a young age, she would cry in fright, because it was too painful to get her butt shot. She was traumatized

Nate replied, "I know about this."

When he was young, he heard Abbie say that she liked doctors and that was why he learned medicine.

Elizabeth's mouth twitched in anger. She felt that he was a hypocrite, but she was a hypocrite too! Although she didn't like doctors, she had to say that she admired them very much.

She couldn't help but sneak a smile. The things a girl can do for her mother!

In order to see her mother, she actually said such words against her heart.

Through the garden, one could see a beautiful glass house. It looked a bit familiar, as if she had seen it somewhere before.

Nate's gaze remained on her. Her gaze was filled with love and tenderness.

"Does it look familiar?"

Elizabeth looked at him in surprise. How did he know what she thought? Could this man read minds?

She took a step back in fright and gently patted her chest.

"That's impossible. It's impossible for him to know what I am thinking "

She whispered to herself and shook her head at him.

“This house is very beautiful. It’s my first time seeing it. You said it’s familiar. Did I come here before?”

Nate recalled that this was her painting when she was young. It was her favorite home in her mind. At that time, he hid this painting and treasured it until now.

Then, he even built the house that looked exactly the same as her painting

“Did she forget that? How can she do that?”

He held her hand. “Go in and take a look. You still need to cook dinner for me.”

Elizabeth was forced into the house. The interior of the house was very youthful, and there were pink and white curtains everywhere.

Through the dim curtains and the light, the room was filled with a layer of dizziness. It was as if had entered a fairy-like realm

Chapter 969 He Likes You

Elizabeth felt like she was getting into a dream because it was too familiar.

Nate looked at her expression and he smiled seductively.

“Do you know how to cook?”

Elizabeth glanced in the direction of the kitchen. “I know a bit, but just a little. If I cook for you once, will you let me see my mom?”

She was a little uncertain, she wanted to hear him say it out loud.

Nate rolled her eyes. "One isn't enough, but it won't exceed five."

After saying that, he laughed. It was that kind of cheerful laughter.

Elizabeth pursed her lips. "I can promise you, but can I trust you?"

Does he really know where her mother is? If he doesn't know but is getting close to her for a certain purpose, then she'll cook for nothing.

Elizabeth was no longer the same Elizabeth from before. She would think a lot, and she would also consider a lot

Nate nodded and caressed her head.

"You're not that stupid."

After saying that, he called out, "Someone, take out my guarantee letter."

At this moment, a woman in a suit walked out with a piece of paper in her hand.

She respectfully handed it to Nate, "Young Master!"

She raised her hands and brought it to Nate.

Nate took it and stretched it toward Elizabeth.

"This is my guarantee. If I could not do it then I'll compensate you 50 million."

Elizabeth took it. Looking at the copies of his identification card and his signature on it, she folded it.

“Then it’s a deal,”

She put the letter into her bag. The bag she took today was custom made with a password lock. She quickly locked it.

After completing this series of movements, she looked at Nate with a smile.

“Mr. Cox, are you picky? Do you have any allergy?”

Initially, she wanted to ask him what he liked to eat. But when she thought about it twice, her cooking was not good enough order.

All she could do was make Matthew’s favorite food. She couldn’t do anything else.

Nato smiled and lifted his glasses.

“I’m not picky. I will eat what I can have?”

Elizabeth heaved a sigh of relief upon hearing this. It seemed that this man was not here to make things difficult for her.

She handed the bag to Kai. Although it was obvious, Nate didn’t mind.

This was the first time she went out with a stranger. It was normal for her to bring a bodyguard with her. Having the guarantee letter, it was only right for her to keep her bag well.

He has to admit that this girl was very clever.

Elizabeth entered the kitchen and Nate followed her in.

She had just hung up the apron and was about to see what was in the refrigerator. Feeling his gaze, she turned around and walked to the door, opening her arms to stop him.

“Mr. Cox, I don’t like people interrupting me when I’m cooking. You can do whatever you want. I’ll get the servant to call you when I’m done.”

Nate wanted to accompany her in the kitchen, but seeing her stern little face, he knew that this was probably her habit, so he could only agree.

“Okay, I’ll be in the living room. Call me if you need anything.”

After saying that, he walked out and looked back.

She had grown up. She’s still so cute and prettier!

Thinking of this, his smile became very warm, like the warm winter sunlight, like a sunny boy.

Kai waited in the living room. When he saw the look in the young man’s eyes, he felt that something was off.

Hence, he took out his phone and texted Elizabeth.

“Mrs. Wade, the way he looks at you doesn’t seem right. He seems to like you. Be careful”

Kai and Elizabeth had been together for so long and they trusted each other.

With her bringing him here today and the necessary equipment, he knew it would be very dangerous for her to meet him this time.

Elizabeth had just cooked the rice when her phone on the table vibrated. She took a kitchen paper and wiped the water on her hand. Then, I picked up her phone and clicked on it.

Chapter 970 Like a Child

When she saw the message, she was stunned for a moment.

Nate liked her? She did not feel it, but That dude was quite enthusiastic.

He spoke to her as if they had known each other for a long time. H

Elizabeth might not be used to it, but in order to see her mother, she had to put up with him. It was just a few meals.

No more than five, so four is more than enough.

The corners of her lips curved slightly. She had already started imagining the scene of her meeting her mother, followed by the scene of her meeting Matthew and the three children with her.

The scene was simply too beautiful. She felt that she and Matthew were finally going to be together.

She wanted to work hard for her happiness.

Thinking of this, she started cooking seriously. At least she had to satisfy Nate with her cooking

Nate sat in the living room and was reading his emails while glancing at the kitchen from time to time.

He could feel that Kai was staring at him. He looked in his direction.

"I won't hurt him. You can rest at the front building or stroll around the manor."

Nate felt upset as he stayed here.

All he wanted was to spend time alone with Lizzy. When he entered, he wanted to stop him.

But in order to make Lizzy trust him, he was also afraid of frightening her, so he let this bodyguard in.

Kai narrowed her eyes at him and replied coldly.

"There's no need."

The way he looked at Mrs. Wade was obvious affectation and evil. If he left, it was sending Mrs. Wade, the sheep, into the mouth of a tiger.

Nate did not care. He got up and went upstairs.

After entering the study, he opened the dark room behind the bookshelf and entered.

The room slowly closed. From the outside, there was no sign of a room here.

Nate walked in and switched on the lights in the dark room. Inside was a small laboratory. There were various kinds of medicines in the glass cabinet by the wall.

He entered the password and opened one of the glass cabinets. He picked up a bottle of medicine and the corners of his smile.

For this day, I worked hard for a long time.

Our future will be very blissful

He held the bottle of medicine in his hand, then locked the door of the glass cabinet

Walking out of the study, a low rays of sunlight shone into the study and landed on him. His white shirt became more and more white, as if he had walked out of the snow

Elabeth was cooking in the kitchen downstans

In order to satisfy him, she made a few of Mallbow's favorite food braised boot, apricol s

lolus, steamed pork, and soup

She had been practicing these dishes for a long time. Al that time, she was cooking them almost every day at Matthew's house, so this best she could do

Two hours later, she was finally done.

She looked at the dishes on the dung table and she instantly felt a sense of accomplishment

Tomorrow, she was preparing a meal for her family. She wanted Grandpa and Grandina Hilton to try her cooking

When she was about to serve the dishes to the dining table, the maid in formal altue walked over.

"Ms. Wade, I'm the butler here. My name is Jessie I'll take care of the rest"

After saying that, she started serving the dishes and waking the table

It was obvious that the butler was very qualified with her job.

Elizabeth did not care about the rest anymore. She took off her apron and went to the living room.

Nate was watching cartoons. Moreover, he would laugh from time to time.

Elizabeth looked at this and he suddenly remembered her two sons. They would probably look like him when they grow up!

He was tall and handsome and into cartoons and he smiled when he saw something funny.

“Mr. Cox, the dinner is ready. You can go and eat.”

After saying that, she looked at Kai. He was very dedicated and always stood there. He did not disturb the people here, but he was always here, making her feel much more at ease
