

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 221

And Xuanyi was the first generation, a bloodline that had already been acknowledged by the laws of heaven and earth. It would be too easy to attain the Dao.

Unfortunately, Xuanyi was no longer in the mood to seek the Dao. Otherwise, with Tianmeng paving the way, it was only a matter of time before he broke through to the Martial Monarch realm. It was not difficult at all.

“So Martial Uncle, what should I do?”

When Ye Qiu heard this, he was very shocked and couldn't help but envy Xuanyi. Dao comes from the sky when he's just sitting at home. He had not done anything, but he had already been acknowledged by the laws of heaven and earth. There was no need for him to prove anything.

Ye Qiu had already reached the peak of the King-Ranked realm. He knew better than anyone how difficult it was to break through to the Martial Monarch realm.

One had to pass the test of the laws of heaven and earth and comprehend the profundities of the laws to successfully attain the Dao. This test was incomparably difficult. If he was not careful, his soul would be in danger of scattering.

It would be a lie to say that Ye Qiu wasn't envious after hearing Xuanyi's words. I really want to offer my blood and see if there are any big shots who can help me attain the Dao. I will definitely thank your eight generations of ancestors. “Please reading on newnovel.org”

Back to the topic.

Hearing Ye Qiu's question, Xuanyi pondered for a moment and revealed a meaningful smile. He said, “Tianmeng and I are related by blood. The two Regenerative Bones originate from the same source. As the saying goes, we are bound together for good or ill. If I destroy this piece in my body, the piece in her body will also be affected.”

Hearing this, Ye Qiu fell silent. He really did not want this white-haired martial uncle to experience that kind of thing again. It was not easy for him to regrow another bone. If it exploded again, his current body would not be able to withstand it and he would definitely die.

Although the Regenerative Bone was strong, it was also supported by the majestic blood energy in his body. Xuanyi was already so old, and his blood energy was lacking. It was not enough to support him producing a third bone.

Therefore, this was a battle of life and death. He used his self-destruction to exchange for Tianmeng’s loss of the support of the Regenerative Bone, so that Ye Qiu would have a chance to kill her.

Xuanyi seemed to see Ye Qiu’s worry and felt relieved. He smiled and said, “Haha... Martial Nephew, don’t worry. I’ve lived for so many years and have lived enough. Back then, so many senior brothers died for me in exchange for my broken body. I’ve been hiding in this cave all day with regret. Now, I have nothing to worry about. I only hope that this broken body can do one more thing for the sect.”

Hearing his depressed words, Ye Qiu frowned and said, “How can Martial Uncle be so dispirited? Back then, all the martial uncles paid with their lives to save you.

“Hundreds of thousands of Heaven Mending Sect disciples died tragically in the wasteland and their corpses were thrown into the wilderness. If they were in the netherworld and saw Martial Uncle so dispirited, do you think they would be happy?”

Ye Qiu’s words were like a sharp thorn that ruthlessly pierced Xuanyi’s heart.

How could he not understand this principle? However, every time he closed his eyes, he would think of the tragic deaths of his fellow disciples and his heart would ache incomparably. It was not that he wanted to sink into oblivion, but he had already lost his direction and his goal.

There was no goal in life.

Xuanyi looked up at Ye Qiu and felt touched. He looked at this young and handsome martial nephew and seemed to recall that his senior brother had said this when he persuaded him.

“No one has ever had a smooth journey. All the setbacks on the path of cultivation are a test. If you give up on yourself, how can others save you?”

“The Martial Uncle in my heart has always been the Heaven Mending Twin Paragons who was high-spirited a hundred years ago and attracted the attention of the world. He dared to speak up for the world, dared to swing his sword for all living beings, and walked everywhere alone with his sword. He doesn’t love the mortal world, but immortals.

“Martial Uncle, have you forgotten your original dream?”

Xuanyi’s heart trembled and his hands trembled after hearing Ye Qiu’s words. “My original dream?”

Xuanyi was stunned. The power in his body subconsciously mobilized. An image vaguely appeared in a long-buried memory in the depths of his mind. A high-spirited youth was telling his senior brother, who doted on him the most, about the world in his heart. In the future, he would use the sword in his hand to conquer this world and be the youth who killed the dragon.

Ye Qiu’s few words seemed to have awakened Xuanyi and brought his soul back. Looking down at the high-spirited young man below, Xuanyi’s heart skipped a beat, as if he was reminded of his past self.

Dream of becoming an immortal? For a moment, the power in his body began to circulate violently. The powerful force accidentally broke the barrier.

Boom!

With a loud bang, a violent wind blew through the entire cave. In the cave, everyone instantly woke up from their cultivation state with shocked expressions. In a flash, everyone arrived.

“What... what’s going on?”

Everyone present looked at Xuanyi, who had closed his eyes and entered a meditative state, in shock. Everyone’s breathing became tense as they felt that terrifying pressure.

“This... Did Martial Uncle break through?”

Everyone was overjoyed when they heard this. Suddenly, an immortal bone in Xuanyi’s body that was emitting a faint golden light suddenly exerted strength.

Another sound rang.

Boom!

The ground shook and the mountains shook. Xuanyi's cultivation jumped from the peak of the Paragon realm to the King-Ranked realm.

Seeing this scene, everyone present was overjoyed.

They had cultivated with Xuanyi in the Jade Pure Cave Abode for many years, and no one was more familiar with Martial Uncle's talent than them. If he hadn't given up on himself, he would have long reached the King-Ranked realm with his talent. When they saw that he had finally found his lost self, everyone could not hide the joy in their hearts.

Even Ye Qiu smiled from the bottom of his heart.

"His blood energy has increased in the King-Ranked realm! Hmm... Looks like we have a chance."

Ye Qiu was secretly delighted when he felt Xuanyi's originally exhausted blood energy recover.

After reaching the King-Ranked realm, one could return to their youth and their blood energy would increase, so that they would have more time to break through to the Martial Monarch realm.

Once one reached the Martial Monarch realm, they could stay young forever. Their blood energy could continue to circulate without drying up. After the Martial Monarch realm was the Deva realm. One would ascend and transcend the Human Dao to enter the Immortal Dao. They would head to the wider world to enjoy longevity.

Now that Xuanyi had broken through to the King-Ranked realm, his originally exhausted blood energy had instantly returned. It was not a problem for him to live for another few hundred years.

Previously, because of Ye Qiu's nourishment, he had escaped the nightmare and could already break through to the King-ranked realm. However, he never had the determination or the thought of living.

Now that Ye Qiu had awakened him, he directly reached the King-ranked Realm. He was just short of untying the knot caused by Tianmeng. Then, he could completely end this karma and become a Martial Monarch.

But this karma was not easy to deal with. Fortunately, Xuanyi did not choose to give up on himself and exchange his life for hers. Otherwise, it would be disadvantageous for Ye Qiu to take action.

It was great now! He had already broken through to the King-Ranked realm and his blood energy had increased. Even if he had to use that move in the end, Ye Qiu still had some confidence.

As Xuanyi broke through, a violent wind swept past. In an instant, the entire Heaven Mending Sect was covered in dark clouds.

The might of a King-Ranked instantly pressed down. Everyone inside and outside Qin Chuan immediately looked up in the direction of the Jade Pure Cave Abode.

“This aura, did someone break through to the King-Ranked realm again?”

“Heavens, two people from the Heaven Mending Sect broke through to the King-Ranked realm in a day? This... is too unbelievable, right?”

Everyone present was stunned. There were pitifully few Paragon realm experts to begin with, and there was not a single King-Ranked expert in the Eastern Wasteland. Now, not only did the Heaven Mending Sect have them, but they also had two at the same time.

For a moment, everyone was stunned.

Although this aura was not as terrifying as Ye Qiu's just now, the might of a King was not something they could withstand. Under the terrifying suppression of this power, those with low cultivation levels actually knelt down uncontrollably.

In the Jade Pure Cave Abode, as this violent wind continued to sweep, the Regenerative Bone in Xuanyi's body suddenly erupted with astonishing power.

Ye Qiu immediately frowned. He could feel that this power didn't belong to Xuanyi, but came from his bones.

In just a moment, a powerful force broke through the barrier.

"Break!" Xuanyi suddenly shouted and his cultivation directly entered the mid-stage of the King-Ranked realm.

Gasp... what the hell? Did he cheat??Ye Qiu couldn't sit still anymore.?Damn it, he broke through just like he was drinking water. Was it that simple? I've already gone overboard with this cheat I have, but you actually used a bigger cheat in front of me?

After careful study, Xuanyi's breakthrough seemed to be related to Tianmeng. It had to be said that this karma was indeed terrifying.

Tianmeng used Xuanyi's blood to attain the Dao. Unknowingly, it accumulated the power of the laws of heaven and earth in his body and contained it in his bones. Once he woke up, he erupted with such astonishing power and instantly reached the mid-stage King-Ranked realm. Unfortunately, he did not have enough energy. Otherwise, he could have directly broken through to the late-stage King-Ranked realm.

One had to know that his bloodline had already been acknowledged by the world and he had successfully attained the Dao. Therefore, his cultivation breakthrough was almost unrestricted. As long as his strength reached a certain level, he could directly break through. It was even simpler than eating and drinking.

Perhaps Tianmeng herself did not expect that she would unknowingly help Xuanyi so much. That's not right. As a Martial Monarch expert, how could she not think of this? It was a little strange. He didn't know if she did it on purpose or not.

In any case, Xuanyi had profited.

Dao comes from the sky when he's just sitting at home. Where could he find such a good thing?

Just as everyone had yet to celebrate Xuanyi's breakthrough, suddenly, there was a loud bang outside Qin Chuan's barrier. A black aura swept over.

Everyone looked down and saw dense ferocious beasts flying over from the hundred-mile wasteland.

As the ferocious beasts ran, the ground began to tremble. It felt like a dark cloud was pressing down on the city.
