

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 236

In the empty sky, the familiar figure appeared in front of everyone again. He casually grabbed the Immortal Slayer Sword and it returned to his hand. He waved his hand lightly, and in an instant, hundreds of thousands of ferocious spirits in the sky were killed with a single strike.

Seeing this scene, everyone was overjoyed and incomparably excited.

“He’s fine, Master is fine...” Lin Qingzhu said with a sobbing tone. At that moment, she really thought that she was about to lose her master. She thought she had lost the master who had always been protecting her. Her helpless heart seemed to have drained all her strength, and she was paralyzed.

When she saw that her master was fine, she picked up the sword in her hand again. She stared at the figure that towered above the Nine Heavens, like an immortal from heaven, standing alone.

Everyone was incomparably shocked.

“Unbelievable! Perfected Ye’s strength is simply too terrifying.”

“Not only did he not lose against the seven kings, he even won?”

“In this battle, he killed four and the other three had escaped! He killed the Strange Clan until they fled. Perfected One is enough to become a god...”

After a short moment of shock, intense cheers suddenly rang out, echoing throughout Qin Chuan.

“Who dares to say that they are invincible? However, with the three-foot-long sword in his hand, he killed all enemies in the world. I wonder if the Heavenly Immortal dares to come to this world...”

This bragging echoed at the peak of Qin Chuan, making Ye Qiu feel a little smug. Am I that powerful now? Hehe, it feels good. Yes, it feels real good.

In the blink of an eye, Ye Qiu became a god in one battle, establishing the victory of this bloody battle.

Turning the situation around with his own strength was undoubtedly the greatest boost to morale. Everyone in Qin Chuan was instantly driven by this aura, and their blood boiled.

In the crowd, Liu Qingfeng shouted, "All disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect, listen up. Martial Uncle Ye has already won the first battle. The next battle will be our moment to prove ourselves. Use everything you've learned and cultivated. Let the world see the might of my Heaven Mending Sect.

"Under the Sect Master's decree, all disciples, listen up. Kill!"

With a loud shout, the flames of war in the hearts of all the Heaven Mending Sect disciples burned fiercely. They swarmed forward and charged forward without regard for their lives.

Liu Qingfeng was the first to charge out, and the other disciples followed closely behind.

This scene of blood boiling made even Lin Qingzhu and Zhao Wan'er's blood boil.

"Senior Sister, let's go too!"

Zhao Wan'er slowly walked to Lin Qingzhu's side and gently raised her hand. A ball of Red Lotus Karmic Flame appeared in her hand.

That is the karmic flames that burned everything in the world, and this was the nemesis of ferocious spirits. No matter how strong the other party was, they could only flee when they encountered these flames.

Lin Qingzhu looked up at her master and nodded. Violet Cloud Peak's reputation had always been maintained by her master. As the number one successor, she could not embarrass Violet Cloud Peak.

The fellow disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect were still fighting a bloody battle. How could they retreat?

"Go!" With a cold sentence, Lin Qingzhu slowly took out a Monarch's sword and charged forward. Her strength of the Hidden Life Five Realms erupted like a god of war. In the chaotic battle, she killed dozens of times.

Her elegance made everyone present look up to her. They couldn't help but sigh in their hearts. As expected of a master's disciple.

Ye Qiu remained silent for a full ten minutes as he watched the battle below. His gaze remained on his two disciples. He was very gratified to see them perform so valiantly.

Turning around and looking at the Soul Summoning Banner in front of him, Ye Qiu stretched out his hand and grabbed it.

On the other hand, after Chao Yi self-destructed, the black lotus under him also became ownerless. Ye Qiu took it without any restraints. This twelfth-grade black lotus was a Connate numinous treasure, the best of the best. Unfortunately, it was tainted with something ominous and was more or less a little disgusting. Fortunately, Ye Qiu had the powerful purification ability of the Chaos Green Lotus. It could still be used after a cleansing.

“Hmm... This thing is not bad. I’ll keep it for now. When I cleanse it later, I’ll send it to my wife.” Ye Qiu smiled and accepted the twelfth-grade black lotus. He was prepared to go back and find time to cleanse it.

After accepting the twelfth-grade black lotus, Ye Qiu looked at the Soul Summoning Banner in his hand and frowned. It had only been held for a while, but there was actually a feeling of his mind being corroded. It had to be said that this Dharma artifact was indeed very evil.

All these years, the Strange Clan had relied on this treasure to slaughter countless worlds. There were countless ferocious spirits inside. Chao Yi had only released a portion of them just now. Because there was not enough time, he could only release so much. Otherwise, if they were all released, they would probably be able to fill the entire Eastern Wasteland. It was extremely terrifying.

“Such an evil Dharma artifact shouldn’t exist.” Ye Qiu muttered to himself and slowly pushed out his hands. In an instant, a terrifying power erupted.

Like a violent storm, the three Dao Flowers in his body bloomed in an instant. A power to purify the heavens slowly surged out from the Dao Flowers. It instantly enveloped the Soul Summoning Banner and used its strongest strength to purify the vicious aura inside, completely turning it into a useless flag.

After refining for a full two hours, Ye Qiu’s power finally broke the restrictions of the Soul Summoning Banner. A terrifying power surged into the Soul Summoning Banner.

“No!”

Waves of bitter cries came from inside. Those roars and indignant voices were constantly hammering Ye Qiu’s heart. These ferocious spirits were all innocent people. They had all become tools of slaughter because of the crazy massacre of the Strange Clan.

They were trapped in this Soul Summoning Banner and refined into ferocious spirits, unable to enter the Dao of Reincarnation. They suffered in eternal purgatory and finally dissipated.

Ye Qiu couldn't bear to hear their shouts and indignant roars. However, he could not be soft-hearted. Otherwise, more innocent people would die once he let them out.

"Sigh... Don't blame me! You can only blame the Heavenly Dao for being unfair and the world for being unclean. All I can do is end your pain early..." Ye Qiu said lightly and prepared to unleash his full strength to completely destroy the Soul Summoning Banner and kill the ferocious spirits inside.

At this moment, a voice came from behind. "Martial Nephew, let me do it."

"Hmm?" Ye Qiu was stunned for a moment. He suddenly realized that Xuanyi had already arrived. He was puzzled for a moment before his eyes suddenly lit up.

He remembered now! If he remembered correctly, wasn't the Dao that Martial Uncle Xuanyi had been comprehending in the Jade Pure Cave Abode for the past hundred years the Dao of Reincarnation?

He had also heard from his master that his martial uncle could not bear to see his fellow disciples who had died because of him become wandering ghosts in the Infinite Abyss and enter the Jade Pure Cave Abode to comprehend the Dao of Reincarnation.

He only wanted to head to the Infinite Abyss one day and send the vengeful spirits of his fellow disciples trapped in the Infinite Abyss into the cycle of reincarnation.

He wondered if he had successfully comprehended it in the past hundred years.

Ye Qiu pondered for a moment and suddenly smiled faintly. He handed the Soul Summoning Banner to Xuanyi and said, "Martial Uncle, looks like you've successfully comprehended the Dao of Reincarnation."

Xuanyi smiled and did not say anything. He grabbed the Soul Summoning Banner with one hand, and a red light instantly erupted, as if a merciful power surged out.

Ye Qiu watched very carefully. The profundity of the Reincarnation Technique indeed existed between the fluctuations of the runes.

Xuanyi pushed out his palm, and the world suddenly lost its color. In the chaos, a Gate of Reincarnation opened. He was about to release the ferocious spirits from the Soul Summoning Banner, but these ferocious spirits were very vicious. Once they came out, Xuanyi might not be able to control them.

“Martial Nephew, I need your help!” Xuanyi held on bitterly and shouted at Ye Qiu.

He was unable to resolve the resentment of these ferocious spirits. He could only rely on Ye Qiu’s purification to cleanse the vicious aura of these ferocious spirits and successfully let them enter the cycle of reincarnation.

Seeing this, Ye Qiu didn’t hesitate and immediately used a powerful move.

In an instant, an ancient green lotus suddenly grew in the world, illuminating the entire sky. A powerful cleansing power instantly erupted. The ferocious spirits and giant beasts on the wasteland gradually calmed down under this holy light. They were no longer as irritable as before. They gradually calmed down and looked up at the sky, as if their souls had sublimated.

“What kind of method is this?”

Seeing this scene, even Tianmeng was shocked. She had never seen such shocking methods. He could actually purify all living beings within a hundred miles with his own strength, preventing them from being controlled by evil aura?

A holy light descended with a shocking method. Ye Qiu stood above the clouds and said, "Martial Uncle, we can begin."

This huge method consumed too much spiritual energy. Ye Qiu couldn't last long. Fortunately, he had many Connate Extreme Spirit Pills in his hands. One pill was enough to ferry these ferocious spirits.

"Haha, Martial Nephew, I'm going to earn a wave of merits today with your help." Xuanyi also laughed heroically. With a raise of his hand, he spread out the Soul Summoning Banner and released the restrictions. In less than a moment, tens of thousands of ferocious spirits surged out. They were very irritable at first, but under Ye Qiu's cleansing light, they gradually calmed down.

Xuanyi did not stand on ceremony and used the Reincarnation Technique to send them into the Dao of Reincarnation.

The cooperation between the two of them was very tacit. Such a shocking move shocked everyone below.

Ye Qiu didn't expect Xuanyi to have already grasped the Reincarnation Technique.

Of course, not to mention him, even Xuanyi himself did not expect it. He had comprehended the Dao of Reincarnation that he had not comprehended for a hundred years because of the profundity of the Great Dao contained in Ye Qiu's shocking strike. It was as if a certain meridian in his body that had been blocked for a long time had suddenly opened.

Everything in the world was often so magical. Unfortunately, he did not have an epiphany. He only felt something and suddenly understood it. Otherwise, Ye Qiu would have profited greatly. He didn't do anything and suddenly profited for nothing.

What a pity, what a pity.
